

I CREATED A DUNGEON IN A CULTIVATION WORLD

Chapter 16 16: Disaster Strike (Part 3)

"AAAHHHH"

Seeing his brothers dying one by one in front of him, Arnoux became crazy, he attacked his opponent without caring about defense.

However, since the wolf was stronger than him, he started to get injured.

"Captain!! Calm down!! If something happens to you we will all gonna die here!!!" Seeing that Arnoux went crazy, Zam scream at a top of his lungs, while parrying his opponent's attack.

His scream paid off, because, Arnoux's crazy face calm down.

Seeing that they were in a dire situation, he needs to think of a solution, because if this situation goes on, sooner or later they will all gonna die here.

Arnoux gritted his teeth so much that it started bleeding, he was going to make the hardest decision in his whole life.

"EVERYONE!!! RETREAT!!!"

"Captain... You..."

Zam, Nox, Eryx, and the two new body tempering, looked at Arnoux in shock.

"Captain... We-we can't leave them." Zam's eyes were red.

Everyone here was like brothers, so leaving them is like leaving your family to die, they can't do it.

"We don't have a choice!! If we stay here any longer were all going to die!! If we die, what about our families waiting in the village." Arnoux's tears started falling down, this was also a hard decision for him. However, if they all die here, an even more cruel disaster will befall the village, so he can't die here.

"Everyone!! You don't need to feel sorry, we understand! You all retreat now!! Just... Just tell my family I LOVE THEM SO MUCH!!!"

"ME TOO!! YOU FKING WOLF EVEN IF I DIE TODAY I WILL TAKE A PIECE OF MEAT OFF YOU BASTARD!!!"

Everyone started fleeing, and while they were fleeing they can hear the two's last battle cry, it was like a knife stabbing their hearts.

"Okay, stop chasing!" Argon ordered through telepathy message.

Yes, he can do telepathy messages, as long as it's a monster made by the system he can forward message anywhere.

The wolves stop chasing, and finished the two that were left.

Argon saw the drama, but he doesn't care at all.

After some time, he can feel that they left the dungeon using the returner stone.

"Since they left the dungeon, the mission should be considered complete, right."

And shortly after, a mechanical voice sounded in his head.

[Mission complete: You successfully defended your dungeon.

Reward: 100 soul coins]

"Now, I can finally buy the last defense of the first floor, the goblins."

Argon can only put two tribes or dens on the first floor, if he really forced to place a third one, then the place would become overcrowded, and they will start killing each other.

If they start killing each other and a lot of people enter his dungeon, while most of the monsters were still in the respawn time because of them killing each other, who's gonna defend his dungeon? He can only cry at that time. After all this low-level monster, was working on their instincts, he can't order them not to kill each other.
