

I CREATED A DUNGEON IN A CULTIVATION WORLD

Chapter 20 20: 2890 Invaders

At first, they want to keep it for themselves, but after knowing the danger of it, the three forces decided to let the public know. In addition, they won't be able to hide the tower for long. Might as well, use these people to pave their way.

So they need many people as they can, they're planning to go deeper into the forest.

As they continued on their journey, some towns that got news of their mobilization also dispatch some subordinates, to see what the forces of Waydale city trying to do.

After half a day of traveling, they finally arrived at Endless Forest.

"STOP EVERYONE!!!"

Everyone stopped immediately, because the one who shouted just now was Fax one of the three commanders of the City Lord.

Fax and two old men walked into the front, everyone become quiet, these two old men were the respected elders of the Song clan and Blue Wind Sect, two elders have the same cultivation, a first-stage building base realm.

"You all might be wondering why we are here and didn't stop you from following us!!" Fax said, looking around.

Everyone nodded, everyone knows how domineering the three forces were. If these three forces wanted to do something, they wouldn't let anyone follow them.

"I will get straight to the point, our three forces found a place that can help anyone rise their cultivation by killing the monster inside."

"What?! Is this true?"

"There's no way right?! If such a thing really exists, why would these three forces publicly it, and not swallow it alone?"

"Yeah, there must be a conspiracy."

Everyone we're suspicious, there was no way these top three forces would share such treasure with everyone.

"Ahem!!"

Like a bell in their head, everyone stopped talking. After all, most of the cultivators that were not part of the three forces, only have the cultivation of the body tempering realm, even the strongest among them was only a seven-stage body tempering realm. And that guy comes from the second force of Waydale city.

"I know you all have some suspicions... If you think this is some sort of conspiracy you can go back now, we won't stop you." The elder of the blue wind sect swept his gaze at the crowd.

Everyone didn't leave, even if they know that there was something off, they still gamble. Something that can help raise their cultivation was such a huge temptation.

In addition, they won't believe that the three will do something to them. That's like making enemies of all forces in Waydale city and nearby towns.

"Alright since no one left let's proceed."

Argon who was leisurely sitting on a small throne in the goblin tribe, jump on his seat, upon seeing the transparent screen floating in front of him.
