Chapter 22 22: Fusion

The goblins tried different things to tame the wolves, some used force, and others used food.

As for Ghorm, not surprising he's fighting the giant great wolf. The fight was not that fierce, because Argon ordered them not to hurt each other. They still need to fight the humans, so, it's not the time to get hurt.

A few minutes later, everyone calm down. The goblins successfully tame the wolves.

[Ding: The system detected that the two monsters become companions. Do you want to fuse the two habitats?]

"Ohh" Argon was surprised, didn't know the system has this kind of feature.

"Yes"

Everyone got teleported outside, and shortly after, the two habitats got disintegrated into particles.

After that, a new place emerges at the place where the goblin tribe was located. The new place was similar to the home of the wolves, a cave system, but more spacious.

Argon explained to them that from now on, they were going to live together.

"Now, I will let Ghorm be in command."

Argon then disappeared from everyone's sight, he doesn't need to command the goblins, he let Ghorm be in command, as for him, he was just going to watch the upcoming show.

Ghorm ordered them to make a group and scattered in the forests.

"If you see any humans, you attack immediately."

"Yes, Lord Ghorm."

All the goblins saluted, as for him and the giant wolf, they entered the cave and waited in the boss room.

-----

At the teleportation point of the first floor, you can see a new encampment being built around it. If someone gonna enter the dungeon, they will find themselves inside the encampment.

Inside the big tent, Arnoux explained to the man in front of him everything he knows about this place. About you can't rise your cultivation if you kill a monster that has lower cultivation than you, and also about the returner stone.

"Ok, you can go now." Fax said.

"Elder Lee, Elder Gong, what do you think?"

Elder Lee an elder of the Song clan, and Elder Gong an elder of the Blue Wind Sect.

"It's hard to believe that this kind of place exists. Even in the whole world, I don't think you can find a place like this." Elder Lee said.

"Well, we can't say that. Remember neither the three of us traveled outside the Orland Kingdom. So, we don't know what's out there." Elder Gong said.

Hearing it, Elder Lee can only 'scuffs' at Elder Gong.

"Ok then... Can I trouble the two elders, to explain everything to everyone?" Fax still needs to give these two elders a face, so he asked them politely.

"No problem, commander Fax."

After the two elders explained everything, everyone started moving. All the people of the three forces decided to explore the forest in groups. While some lone cultivators explore the forest alone.

Arnoux and his group were not planning to go deeper into the forest. They knew how dangerous the forest was, in addition, his son was with him, so he needs to be careful.

His son was already a half-step body tempering, and he will gonna make his son breakthrough the body tempering.
