Chapter 25 25: Raid In The Human Encampment

Human encampment.

Fax looked at Arnoux in front of him with cold eyes.

"Little guy, do you know how many people died because of your wrong information? Even people of our three forces receive some casualties." Fax said with a cold voice.

Arnoux clinched his teeth and answered.

"Commander Fax, what I reported is all true. When we first arrive at the dungeon we only encountered wolves, and didn't encounter any green creatures." Arnoux said clenching his fist.

He also felt aggrieved, but didn't show it on his face, he was still cleared in the head to not provoke this man more. After all, he was only a second-stage body tempering, and the man in front of him was a building base master.

When he encountered the goblin riders, he was also surprised, he immediately instructed everyone to retreat, he didn't even attempt to fight it, the wolves alone made his group helpless, much less add another creature riding it.

Seeing that Arnoux doesn't seem to be lying based on his expression, Fax didn't pursue the matter anymore. Most of the people that died were from other forces and rogue cultivators, as for his soldiers, a soldier dying in battle was a normal occurrence, so he doesn't really care too much. He only interrogates Arnoux because of the two elders.

"You are only a second-stage body tempering, so it's only natural that you don't know much... Ok, you can go now."

Fax said, without even looking at Arnoux. His eyes were fixed on the unfamiliar stone in his hand.

Arnoux immediately gets out of the tent, he doesn't want to stay there any more longer.

Shortly after, two figures entered the tent, it was the two elders.

"Commander Fax, the returner stone is really a wonder. Such a small thing, it can teleport six people outside."

They didn't even know where this place was located in the world, even if it was not far from the tower, it still was the most impressive thing to them.

Any item that has anything to do with teleportation or space, was like a holy treasure in the Orland kingdom, and even in the neighboring kingdom.

"Yeah, it would be good if we can decipher this returner stone and recreate it, it will be a massive help for the Oland Kingdom." Fax said.

"En, but I don't think it's possible, even the best 4-star weapon refiner in the kingdom might not be able to decipher it." Elder San said, while stroking his long beard.

"You're right."

It's not that they're looking down on the 4-star weapon refiner, don't say looking down, in their whole life they didn't even see a 4-star weapon refiner in a flesh. It's just that, items that use space was not something can easily build.

In addition, every 4-star in every occupation was a respected figure in the kingdom.

"Do the two elders want to personally go on exploring the forest, you know we need to see where is the nest of these monsters. So when the reinforcement comes tomorrow, we can go directly to their nest."

When the two elders heard it, they sneered in their minds.

'This bastard just wants us to do all the work.' The two elders thought, but they can only nod.

After all, this was a joint operation of the three forces, so the two elders can't complain, in addition, Fax's cultivation was higher than theirs.

However, suddenly a soldier barged in panting.

"Commander Fax!! We are under attack!!"
