Chapter 27 27: Disaster For Humans (Part 2)

As the fight goes on, the number of goblin riders was decreasing, they were dying. Well, not a real death since they will eventually resurrect.

"AAAHHH" Elder Gong shouted in pain when the wolf tore his right arm apart.

The Hobgoblin rider mercilessly swung its club at his head, Elder Gong who was already dying, can't evade the attack. He can only look at the coming club with his pleading eyes.

"Boom!!"

Elder Gong's head exploded, like a watermelon.

Fax and Elder Lee who were trying their best to defend against the relentless attack of hobgoblin riders saw the fate of Elder Gong, they shuddered in horror.

However, suddenly the three hobgoblin riders stopped attacking. Because the fighting around them just ended, all the goblin riders died.

But the humans were not happy about their victory, because more than half of their camp died in the battle.

The three hobgoblins turned around and leave, their mission was already completed. Although they were not afraid of dying here and killing more humans. The order was to kill only half of them, they killed more than half of the humans.

Fax and Elder Lee didn't try to stop the hobgoblins, on the contrary, they want the hobgoblins to leave faster.

When the hobgoblins were gone, their legs give in, the two sat down on the ground, they were exhausted. They have a lot of broken bones and cuts on their bodies, it's the first time that they got so embarrassed. After all, in Waydale City, they were a top powerhouse, so no one can do anything to them.

Argon looked at the four thousand soul coins in the system with excitement, almost two thousand people died in that battle, so it's only natural that he got so many soul coins.

"I can finally get a body... System! helps me construct a body!!"

[Ding: Requirements of 1,000 soul coins completed.

Please select your body.

Human: It might be the weakest race, but of all races, it is the one that has the most potential.

Dragon: A divine beast that has unmatched strength, huge resistance to skills, and a powerful divine might. A creature at the top of the food chain.

Demon: A creature of hell, a bloodthirsty creature, have a strength that can rival that of dragons.

Nine-Tailed Fox: A divine beast that manipulates illusions, the darling of Heavens And Earth, a beautiful creature that can capture everyone's heart with its looks...]

"What kind of body should I get?"

What do you guys think is the best one?
