Chapter 33 33: Add 2000 Goblin/Hobgoblin Riders

Argon looked at the 1300 soul coins.

"If I buy two of these masks, that will leave me with seven hundred soul coins. I think that is enough for me to buy a lot of monsters for the dungeon."

Seven hundred soul coins would at least get him two thousand goblin riders, up to the peak stage building base realm. In addition, he can also upgrade Ghorm to the Opening Qi Realm.

In the next moment, Argon bought two Mask Of Deception, one for him and one for Cambion. The appearance of the mask is nothing special, it was just that it's made out of skin. Which gives off a creepy appearance.

"Cambion, use this and change your appearance to that of a human." He then gives the mask to Cambion.

Argon then used the mask, after putting it, he just thought of an appearance. In the next moment, Argon's appearance started changing.

Shortly after, his appearance changed from an intimidating and menacing humanoid dragon to a human young master.

As for Cambion, he changed his appearance to that of a middle-aged bodyguard.

"Cambion come with me... But first, before going out, I need to upgrade Ghorm and use all my soul coins to buy a goblin riders monsters."

"Yes, My Lord."

Without wasting any more time, with Cambion he teleported directly to Ghorm.

Ghorm felt the presence of two people abruptly appearing in front of him, he was confused at first, because he saw two humans. However, he immediately knelt down, upon realizing the presence of Argon on the young human.

"Welcome, My lord."

"En, I'm surprised that you recognize me."

"The presence and the connection of the monsters of the dungeons and Your Lord can't be hidden by some illusion, My Lord." Ghorm said respectfully.

"That's good then... In that case, no one can impersonate me and fool the monsters of the dungeons."

"Aside from that, I'm here to upgrade your cultivation to Opening Qi Realm... Also, add 2000 goblin riders... Now that humans have left the dungeon, I'm sure they will be back with more numbers and stronger cultivators, so we need to prepare."

"Thank you, My Lord."

Argon then upgrade Ghorm's cultivation, in addition, also bought two thousand goblin riders.

After all that, Argon and Cambion disappeared from the wormhole Argon made. As a dungeon master, he can make a wormhole to teleport outside. Well, not on his power but through the system.

Ghorm immediately gives orders to the two thousand goblin riders, to let them scatter in the forest.
