

I CREATED A DUNGEON IN A CULTIVATION WORLD

Chapter 5 5: Cultivation Book

Argon continued, as he goes further into the cave the wolves he saw were also getting stronger, he saw some fifth layer wolves, and they were one meter tall. Those first layer and second layer wolves he saw earlier were the same sizes as ordinary wolves in his past life. These fifth layer wolves were half of his height.

And this is only the stage five wolf, Argon was looking forward to the remaining sixth layer and seventh layer body-tempering wolves.

After some time Argon arrives at the end of the cave, it's an open space.

He found three big wolves in the distance bowing at him, it was the last three wolves. The two sixth layer wolves were 1.4 meters in height, and the remaining seventh layer wolf it's 1.6 tall almost as tall as him, It's pretty striking to see.

"System where is the exit hidden?"

He tried finding the exit to the other side, but he can't find it. Shortly after he was not left disappointed when an emotionless mechanical voice sounded in his mind.

[After killing the leader of the dungeon, a teleportation array will emerge, transporting anyone to the other side.]

"Ok, it's good that I can now ask you about things." Because it's really hard for him to explore things like a blind man.

After some time, he teleported out of the dungeon, yes, he can teleport anywhere inside the dungeon. Furthermore, he tried to communicate with the stage seven wolf. However, still the same it can't understand.

As soon as he got out of the dungeon, a warning sign pop up in front of him.

[Warning: There are humans in the vicinity of the dungeon, do you want to open the dungeon now?]

"Ohh... Well, not now I still need to buy a drop item."

Argon then opens the item section of the shop, and as per usual he takes away all the expensive stuff and leaves the forty soul coin infinite drop item.

In the shop, there were weapons, martial skills, cultivation scroll, and a lot more. Argon filters everything out, except the cultivation books.

By reading cultivation novels a bunch of times. Having good cultivation exercises will help you reach a higher realm.

After some time, he decided on a cultivation scroll called King Kong's Body Cultivation Book, which can help achieve the Opening Qi realm. This cultivation scroll was at the bottom and the only one that has forty soul coin price.

"I'm done here, I should go out and see who's outside." Argon then teleported outside the dungeon.

An hour before

Three figures traversed the forest silently, it was eerily quiet. They'd been running at full speed for ten minutes now, and what creeps them out was they didn't encounter any beasts.

After some time, the trio finally found something.
