

I CREATED A DUNGEON IN A CULTIVATION WORLD

Chapter 9 9: The Hunt Began (Part 1)

Argon saw what happened in the dungeon, from Zam killing the wolf on his own to his breakthrough.

'Isn't this like getting XP from killing monsters?' Argon thought, looking at Zam who was still consolidating his realm.

"System, can you explain to me what happened?"

[Killing monsters in the dungeon will give you cultivation, just like that guy who killed the wolf, after killing the wolf, he received a week's worth of cultivation, in addition, the stronger the monsters the more cultivation you get. Of course, for preventing anyone from abusing the dungeon, you won't get cultivation for killing a lower realm than you.]

"Ohh, that makes sense." In the future when he will have more floors, it would be ridiculous to see when people won't ascend to the next floor, and just keep on farming the lower floor, for easy cultivation.

Also killing the same cultivation monster alone is harder than killing a human cultivator. Much less the monsters of the dungeon, the product of the system were top-tier in the same league, a genius might do it but ordinary cultivators can't.

Abruptly, Argon felt people entering the dungeon. His gaze traveled through the entrance, he can see everything in the dungeon. After all, he is the master of the dungeon, he naturally has this kind of ability.

He saw people emerging out of thin air, ten people in total, they all looked confused.

"The portal is gone." Said by the one, who is likely their leader.

Argon used the identification skill, he got this after he build the dungeon, which can give him a person's detail and cultivation.

[Name: Arnoux

Bloodline: Fiery God Monkey

Cultivation: Second-Layer Body Tempering]

[Name: Eryx

Bloodline: Fiery God Monkey

Cultivation: First-Layer Body Tempering]

[Name: Nox

Bloodline: Fiery God Monkey

Cultivation: First-Layer Body Tempering]....

"Interesting, system do you know what is the Fiery God Monkey bloodline?"

He asked, however, the system didn't respond.

All of them have the blood of a Fiery God Monkey, he was a little surprised. Since all of them have the same blood, then they were descendants of some being.

Since a little village have a bloodline of some unknown being, then what about those in the city? A bloodline like the Devine Dragon-like existence? He just hopes that his thinking too much.

Argon eventually stopped thinking about it, and ask the system for something else.

"By the way system, how are they gonna leave the dungeon?"

It can't be that they need to clear the dungeon before they can leave right? Cause If that's the case, then these guys are already dead people.

The strongest among them was merely a second-layer Body Tempering, whereas he has a seventh-layer wolf guarding the dungeon. Just a casual slap of that wolf will erase this group of people.

[The host is thinking too much, after killing a monster, there is a chance that it will drop a returner stone. After using it you can teleport six people of your choice. Of course, you can't use it if you are in combat.]

"So, it's free? Then, that's good." He was happy that he doesn't need to buy the item anymore, because if he needed to buy that kind of item, then these guys are as good as dead. After all, he doesn't have soul coins anymore.
