

Starting as a Son-in-law to Establish an immortal Family

Chapter 121 - 85: Do you have any strange habits?_3

Chapter 121: Chapter 85: Do you have any strange habits?_3

“Hmph, whose side are you on to actually help outsiders bully me...”

Lu Miaohuan’s rosy lips pursed slightly as she spoke in annoyance.

“Second Miss, it’s best to forgive and forget. Continuing this fuss isn’t good for you, so let’s just let it be.”

Lu Changsheng spoke in a gentle voice.

“Enough already, you’re about the same age as me, yet you talk like you’re my father, all long-winded.”

Lu Miaohuan bit her lip and said impatiently.

Then, she put down the gown in her hands, not caring for it any longer, and strode out of the shop with long, determined steps.

“Truly has the temper of a young lady.”

Lu Changsheng watched Lu Miaohuan’s retreating graceful figure, shaking his head and feeling as if he’d asked for the annoyance himself.

But in that situation, he couldn’t just watch Lu Miaohuan get hit by the fireball.

After all, he was protected by four magic artifacts and was unafraid of such ordinary spells.

And it was unknown whether Lu Miaohuan had any protective magic artifacts on her.

Though it was highly likely she had them, what if she didn’t?

Lu Changsheng gave the Shopkeeper a slight bow and then left the shop too.

Stepping out of the shop, he saw Lu Miaohuan standing on the side, waiting for him with an aloof and noble air.

“Lu Changsheng, what are you doing here?”

Lu Miaohuan asked as soon as Lu Changsheng appeared.

“I just happened to be passing by, and when I heard you were arguing with someone, I took a longer look.”

Lu Changsheng replied off-handedly.

Hearing this, Lu Miaohuan, remembering her recent disdainful demeanor being witnessed by Lu Changsheng, felt somewhat embarrassed.

She then placed her hands behind her back and gently swayed her body, whispering in a low voice, “Thanks for just now.”

She was aware that if the situation had really escalated, it would have been difficult to settle things without either side giving in.

And she felt somewhat touched by Lu Changsheng appearing to shield her from the Fireball Technique.

Although she did have a protective artifact, the sudden appearance of Lu Changsheng, standing tall in front of her, stirred some emotions within her.

“Hm?”

Lu Changsheng raised an eyebrow upon hearing this.

He hadn’t expected the Second Miss to actually thank someone, to thank him.

He moved a bit closer and teased, “What was that, Second Miss? Your voice was so soft, I didn’t hear clearly.”

“Hmph, if you didn’t hear it, forget it.”

Lu Miaohuan huffed and quickly walked away.

She wasn’t someone who easily thanked others.

But considering how she’d never shown Lu Changsheng a friendly face before, and how he’d still stood in front of her in a dangerous moment, and even apologized to Zheng Yongshan on her behalf, she felt that saying thanks wasn’t too much.

Seeing this, Lu Changsheng knew that the Second Miss thanking him must have taken some courage.

He couldn't help but smile, catching up with her and saying, "I heard it, I heard it, I just thought I might have heard wrong. I wanted to confirm it, but if you're going to say thanks, shouldn't you show a little more gratitude?"

"What do you want?"

Lu Miaohuan asked, her face cool and dignified.

"It's nothing much, just improve your attitude a bit and call me 'brother' as a sign of thanks."

Lu Changsheng said jokingly.

Lu Miaohuan was stunned by his words.

She bit her lip slightly, her clear eyes showing surprise.

A delicate blush spread over her exquisite, cold features, like that of a bashful young girl. She shot Lu Changsheng a glance and uttered three words: "In your dreams!"

Then, those long legs wrapped in black silk stockings, stepped in slender high heels, quickened their pace, her figure swaying enticingly.

Lu Changsheng was amused by Lu Miaohuan's half-annoyed, half-charming reproach and couldn't help but smile.

He found teasing this seemingly aloof and noble Second Miss quite amusing.

"Hm?"

At that moment, Lu Changsheng noticed that after walking briskly for a stretch, Lu Miaohuan's pace had slowed down again.

She even walked slower and slower, at a pace well below that of a normal person.

Seeing this, Lu Changsheng's lips couldn't help but curl up slightly, revealing a trace of a smile, and he too slowed down his pace.

He watched Lu Miaohuan move at such a slow pace, admiring the graceful and lithe figure of her from behind.

It had to be said, the second miss's figure, especially those long legs clad in black silk and high heels, was truly stunning.

Only Feng Jiuniang of the White Jade Tower could compare.

But such things, everyone has their own flavor.

Lu Changsheng already had so many wives, maids, and concubines, especially the maids purchased from the White Jade Tower not long ago, who all had looks and figures that were top-notch, but in his eyes, compared to this second miss, they certainly lacked that certain flavor.

When it comes to physical appearance, after a certain point, it's all about status, temperament, and other aspects.

Lu Miaohuan walked slowly for a while, and upon seeing that Lu Changsheng didn't catch up to coax her, she immediately felt some displeasure.

She had walked away without paying him any attention, yet he didn't know to come and apologize.

After walking slowly some more, Lu Miaohuan couldn't stand it any longer and decided to outright ignore Lu Changsheng, promptly walking away at a normal pace.

Seeing that Lu Miaohuan had resumed her normal speed, Lu Changsheng immediately quickened his steps and in an instant came up beside her, giving her quite a scare.

"All I wanted was for you to say thanks with a better attitude, but if you don't want to, that's fine, why get angry? It's not polite at all."

Hearing Lu Changsheng's complaint, Lu Miaohuan felt so irritated that she didn't know where to vent her anger, thinking it was too annoying, and again she thought about ignoring him and walking away.

But she also felt that it might not be very nice, indeed it wasn't very polite.

Lu Miaohuan felt that even though she really disliked Lu Changsheng, according to her usual temperament, she wouldn't be concerned about what's not so nice or polite, yet she subconsciously didn't think about why she was behaving this way.

She was also somewhat afraid to consider why she was acting so out of character.

"Lu Changsheng, why on earth did you decide to move out and live by yourself?"

Lu Miaohuan asked as if it was no big deal.

"Every time you see me, Second Miss, you look disgusted and displeased, so I thought it over and decided to move out and live by myself."

Lu Changsheng then said.

“Do you even know how to speak?”

Lu Miaohuan huffed, her tone anything but pleasant.

She remembered that at the initial meeting for the arranged marriage, Lu Changsheng was actually very eloquent, making conversations very comfortable. Yet now, he was so irritating.

“Isn’t that what you asked me? Why I moved out? I’m just telling the truth,” Lu Changsheng said with a shrug, looking helpless.

“Well then, to express my gratitude for today, from now on, I won’t be disgusted by you.”

Lu Miaohuan snorted softly, speaking with a face of cold and noble beauty.

“No worries, feel free to be disgusted if you like, don’t make yourself sick over it.”

“And having seen it so many times, I’ve gotten used to it, I actually think you look pretty cute when you’re disgusted.”

Lu Changsheng said casually.

He felt that when chatting with a miss of such a temper, one has to do the opposite; playing along with her was absolutely out of the question.

Anyway, he didn’t have too many pursuits regarding this second miss. If he did fancy anything, it was her body, so he was very unconcerned.

“Are you sick in the head?”

Lu Miaohuan, infuriated, kicked Lu Changsheng right away.

She felt that she was being very patient in speaking to Lu Changsheng, yet every sentence he spoke was irksome.

Lu Changsheng dodged lightly, and as he looked down, he saw Lu Miaohuan’s delicate feet adorned with a pair of elegant crystal shoes, the exposed skin wrapped in a layer of black sheer stockings.

The little feet in the high heels seemed to merge together, the curves flowing smoothly without showing a trace of abruptness, utterly captivating.

As her small foot kicked out, the shapely calf peeked out from underneath the skirt hem through the thin-as-wing stockings, showing the skin’s pale delicate texture.

Simply 'leg-play' year series material, irresistible to fantasize about cradling those jade feet and lovely legs in one's hands and thoroughly enjoying them.

"What are you looking at?"

Seeing Lu Changsheng looking down at something, Lu Miaohuan also lowered her head to look.

She even lifted the beautiful and icy, silver-shining stiletto heel back and forth, checking for something, but found nothing out of the ordinary.

The next moment, as if realizing what Lu Changsheng was looking at, she felt a hint of secret satisfaction and pride, and her mood improved a lot.

Then, glancing at Lu Changsheng with a bit of scrutiny, she spoke coldly, "Do you have some kind of strange fetish or something?"

PS: Sigh, it was supposed to be just a short segment, but as I wrote, I couldn't stop, and now I don't know how to end it. I'll try to write less of this kind of plot in the future. Let's see if I can crank out another chapter today; if not, there will definitely be two updates tomorrow!

.

Chapter 122 - 86: Stunning beauty like wolves and tigers, breaking down one's will!_1

Chapter 122: Chapter 86: Stunning beauty like wolves and tigers, breaking down one's will!_1

"What strange habits could I possibly have?"

Lu Changsheng's eyes were clear, and he spoke with a forthright demeanor. Search the website to access chapters of novels early and in the highest quality.

Watching the candid expression on Lu Changsheng's face, Lu Miaohuan eyed him suspiciously for a moment before shifting her gaze away without saying much.

After all, if you look, you look.

Dressing up like this was meant to be seen by others.

Although she usually confronted such gazes with a ‘What are you looking at? Keep staring and I’ll gouge out your eyes’ attitude or would directly scold them, at this moment, she didn’t feel the slightest disdain or disgust towards Lu Changsheng’s gaze; instead, she felt a stealthy joy.

She felt attractive, truly believing that she was the most beautiful.

And so, the two walked side by side for a while.

“Alright, I’m home now, see you later, Second Miss.”

When they reached an intersection, Lu Changsheng waved goodbye to Lu Miaohuan.

He didn’t have much to chat about with this Second Miss, and since he was home, it was natural to head back and take a bath.

Seeing that Lu Changsheng only walked a short distance before leaving, without any intention to escort her or even asking if she wanted to visit and have a cup of tea, Lu Miaohuan pursed her lips in displeasure and huffed, saying, “Goodbye.”

Then, like a proud and aloof peacock, she left with the ‘clack clack clack’ of her high heels.

Night fell.

The White Jade Tower sent the four maids purchased by Lu Changsheng.

Since Lu Changsheng couldn’t be bothered to wait, all four maids were readily available stock.

But Xiao Yueru, who possessed a Spiritual Root, would only arrive within a month after notification from White Jade Tower.

Gao He, the neighbor, saw that Lu Changsheng had bought more maids and was somewhat speechless.

He didn’t frequently visit Lu Changsheng’s home but invited Lu Changsheng to his place for tea instead because he felt it wasn’t right to constantly visit when Lu Changsheng’s house was full of female family members.

Seeing Lu Changsheng buying more maids, Gao He couldn’t help but think that he should be more cautious.

After all, he had a daughter at home.

Though his daughter was still young, Lu Changsheng's appearance and temperament were attractive to both young and old, which caused him worry at this moment.

Of course, Lu Changsheng was not aware of Gao He's thoughts.

With the addition of four new maids, he noticed another problem.

That was, the yard was becoming too crowded.

If this trend continued and a few more people were added, the dwelling would be too small, and they'd have to live crammed together.

"Sigh, that's about enough, I need to take it easy," Lu Changsheng said, shaking his head.

The Lu Family and Lu Miaoyun wouldn't say anything about his buying maids.

But having acquired ten children in just over half a year since coming to Nine Dragons Market was indeed a bit fast.

Moreover, maintaining such a group of maids in Nine Dragons Market was no small expense.

Since these maids were carrying his children, he naturally couldn't treat them unfairly.

Their daily consumption of Spirit Rice and Spirit Food, and also the long-term residence permits they needed in Nine Dragons Marketplace, added up to no small sum once the numbers grew.

Ordinary people couldn't afford to sustain such costs.

Without much thought, Lu Changsheng let the new maids assist him with his bath.

The next afternoon, Lu Miaoge came to the Spiritual Talisman Shop.

It was to thank Lu Changsheng for the matters concerning Lu Miaohuan.

The Nine Dragons Marketplace was neither too big nor too small, and both the Lu and Zheng Families had some influence within it, so it was normal for such news to reach both houses.

To this, Lu Changsheng naturally said it was a small matter, nothing significant.

In the blink of an eye, half a month passed.

Aside from the addition of refining the Black Dragon Magical Bead to Lu Changsheng's daily routine, there were no other changes.

After half a month of refinement, he had almost cultivated a fifth of the Black Dragon Magical Bead.

Of the four maids he had bought earlier, one had successfully conceived after receiving his favor.

One day, a young servant came to the Spiritual Talisman Shop; he was sent by the Second Elder to inform him.

He mentioned that in ten days they would be returning to Qingzhu Mountain and asked if Lu Changsheng would like to join them.

"Please tell the Second Elder that I will accompany him back at that time," Lu Changsheng replied immediately upon hearing the message.

He hadn't been back in about four months.

Now that the Second Elder was returning, he would naturally take the opportunity to visit his home.

Six days later, it was time for the Spiritual Talisman Shop to receive new stock and inspect the merchandise.

Lu Changsheng also informed Gao He in advance.

With Gao He's help, the two completed the inspection of all the goods in two days.

"Brother Gao, I've troubled you this time," Lu Changsheng said, taking out twenty Spirit Stones.

This was the wage they had agreed upon.

"Where does that come from, Brother Lu? I should be thanking you," Gao He replied, not standing on ceremony and cheerfully accepting the Spirit Stones.

As a Middle-Grade Talisman Master, a daily wage of ten Spirit Stones was quite a decent extra income for him.

After taking the Spirit Stones, Gao He hesitated before saying, "Brother Lu, there's something I'm not sure whether I should say."

"Oh? Just speak your mind, Brother Gao. Is there really anything that should or shouldn't be said?" Lu Changsheng raised an eyebrow and casually replied.

“As a resident Talisman Master in the Spiritual Talisman Shop, I often drink and chat with Talisman Masters and Shopkeepers from other talisman shops, so I have a rough idea of the situation in the Marketplace’s talisman shops and the quality rate of their goods,”

“Given the reputation of your Lu Family’s shop, the defects in these goods seem a bit unusual,”

“Especially for you, Brother Lu, who cancels contracts with different shops every few months. If this continues, I fear that you would have worked with every Talisman Master in the Marketplace,” Gao He started to say.

.

Chapter 123 - 86: Stunning beauty like wolves and tigers, breaking down one’s will!_2

Chapter 123: Chapter 86: Stunning beauty like wolves and tigers, breaking down one’s will!_2

Upon hearing these words, Lu Changsheng immediately understood what Gao He meant.

It was a sign that there were some issues with the supplies for the shop.

Having been in the shop for so long, how could he not understand the ins and outs?

The entire procurement, purchasing, and partnership of the Spiritual Talisman Shop were left to the Shopkeeper Zhang Shan alone.

To claim there was not a hint of embezzlement or personal gain, he couldn’t believe it at all.

He had casually established a supplier title himself for collaboration; it obviously wouldn’t be difficult for Zhang Shan to do the same.

However, Zhang Shan had been working in the Spiritual Talisman Shop for over ten years, and his performance was decent for the most part of this past year, capable of doing things well.

Hence, taking a little extra for oneself wasn’t entirely indefensible.

As long as it wasn't excessive, Lu Changsheng was willing to turn a blind eye.

After all, the clearest water has no fish.

"Thank you for the reminder, Brother Gao. I also understand the principles behind it,"

Lu Changsheng said with a smile.

"It seems I've said too much, but then again, there isn't really any serious problem," said Gao Shan, realizing that his concern was unnecessary.

Having interacted with Lu Changsheng for so long and having a good relationship, he worried that Lu Changsheng, being so young, might be kept in the dark, so he spoke out as a reminder.

"Brother Gao, willing to discuss this with me shows that you regard me, Lu Changsheng, as a friend,"

Lu Changsheng waved his hand, knowing Gao He meant well.

He also knew what kind of person Gao He was, or else he wouldn't have asked him for help.

Soon after, the two left the shop with a laugh and went to the Jade Meal Pavilion for a meal.

Upon seeing the two, the owner of the Jade Meal Pavilion, Yu Maocheng, gave them a 20% discount and even offered a plate of appetizers for free.

Three days later.

"Second Elder, Sister Miaoge,"

Lu Changsheng was bathing in the backyard.

Upon hearing from the maid, Bai He, that the Second Elder and the young lady had come to visit, he promptly went to the living room.

"Hehe, I originally intended to notify you to come directly to the great residence to stay, as we will be departing for Qingzhu Mountain early tomorrow morning.

However, I thought you've been living by yourself for such a long time without us visiting, so we decided to come and see you. I hope we haven't disturbed you?"

In the hall, the Second Elder, clad in a green robe with a tall figure, held tea in his hand and said with a chuckle.

Sister Miaoge, Lu Miaoge, sat elegantly in white to the side.

“How could that be? Second Elder, your visit is most welcome,”

Lu Changsheng replied politely.

Then, Lu Changsheng chatted with the Second Elder for a while and took the Second Elder and Lu Miaoge on a brief tour of the yard.

During the process, the Second Elder noticed so many “birds and swallows” in Lu Changsheng’s yard and couldn’t help but shake his head, thinking that Lu Changsheng’s reputation for loving the company of women was indeed well-deserved.

How long has it been since he came to the Nine Dragons Market?

In just over half a year, he had taken in so many maids and concubines with outstanding looks and figures. search the website to access chapters of novels early and in the highest quality.

When he saw several maids and concubines with bulging bellies, he frowned slightly and took a closer look.

Eventually, he realized that almost all the women in the yard were pregnant.

The Second Elder couldn’t help but count them.

One, two, three... eleven!

After tallying the number of pregnant women, the Second Elder was instantly bewildered.

He had not expected Lu Changsheng to be so prolific with his concubines and maids, not only having so many but also getting them all pregnant.

Was the vitality of the young so exuberant?

Instead of cultivation, drawing Spirit Talismans, or working, were they occupied doing other things?

The Second Elder looked at Lu Changsheng and inquired, “Changsheng, are these all your newly taken maids and concubines? Carrying your children?”

Even though he knew his question was redundant, as these women were obviously Lu Changsheng's maids and concubines, carrying Lu Changsheng's children, he couldn't help but confirm once more.

Mainly because it was quite outrageous.

For Cultivators, indulgence in the pleasures of men and women could harm one's vital essence and affect the speed of cultivation.

Even for cultivator couples practicing dual cultivation, they were extremely temperate, engaging only occasionally and never indulging excessively night after night.

However, in Lu Changsheng's case, to have fathered eleven children in just over half a year was clearly overindulgence.

Sister Miaoge, Lu Miaoge, pursed her lips and remained silent.

But in her eyes, a faint sense of disappointment was visible.

In her view, if Lu Changsheng were willing to focus on cultivation and the Talisman Path, there would be hope for success in Foundation Establishment after becoming a Second Grade Talisman Master.

She had also discussed these matters with Lu Changsheng before.

But seeing Lu Changsheng bring Guan Xin to Nine Dragons Market, and now with so many maids and concubines, she couldn't help but feel disappointed.

She knew that Lu Changsheng hadn't taken her words to heart.

"Yes, Second Elder, these are all my newly taken maids and concubines, carrying my children,"

Lu Changsheng replied, feeling somewhat embarrassed.

He himself knew that in this world, as a cultivator, creating eleven children in just over half a year was relatively excessive.

Although he hadn't felt this in his daily life, nor did he find it embarrassing, being questioned by the Second Elder brought up some embarrassment after all.

After all, the latter was an elder to him.

Especially with Lu Miaoge also present.

“Ah,”

the Second Elder sighed upon hearing this, shaking his head.

At that moment, he gained a deeper understanding of Lu Changsheng’s reputation at Qingzhu Mountain for marrying and indulging in the pleasure of many wives and concubines.

He coughed lightly and then said to Lu Changsheng, “Changsheng, the allure of beauty can be like wolves and tigers, eroding one’s resolve. It is natural to occasionally enjoy and relax, but do not indulge too much in this, and instead, focus your time and energy on cultivation and the Talisman Path.”

The Second Elder spoke earnestly.

Such matters, while outrageous, were a bit excessive.

.

Chapter 124 - 86: Stunning beauty like wolves and tigers, breaking down one’s will!_3

Chapter 124: Chapter 86: Stunning beauty like wolves and tigers, breaking down one’s will!_3

But to say it was excessive, that wasn’t quite the case.

After all, it was his private life, and it wasn’t right for him to interfere too much.

Thinking of this, he decided that after returning home, he would speak to the Fourth Elder, asking him to offer some persuasion.

Otherwise, from his perspective, Lu Changsheng’s utter lack of restraint in his behavior would truly lead to his ruin.

If that happened, it would be a great loss to the Lu Family as well.

“No venture, no gain!”

Lu Changsheng really wanted to say this, but he still responded seriously and respectfully, "What Second Elder said is correct; Changsheng will heed the advice."

The other party was an elder after all, and since the matter was mentioned, he behaved and listened obediently.

As for what to do in the end, it was still up to him.

However, Lu Changsheng himself also planned to be a bit more frugal for a while, to save some money.

He had previously wanted to buy vestment robes and beautifying spirit pills for his wives and children.

But with his habit of spending as soon as he got money, the expenditures increased, and he couldn't save anything.

This time returning home, he didn't have enough money to buy any decently valuable gifts.

"Hmm."

Seeing this, the Second Elder didn't continue to say much.

Too much talk of such matters could only lead to annoyance.

Then, Lu Changsheng left a message for Xiao Qing and went with the Second Elder and Lu Miaoge to the Eastern District to the Lu Family's large courtyard where they would stay.

They were preparing to return to Qingzhu Mountain early the next morning.

They arrived at the Eastern District's large courtyard, and the living quarters arranged for them were still the same from the last time.

"Knock knock knock!"

Lu Changsheng was meditating in his room when he heard a knocking at the door.

He got up and opened the door.

"Miaocheng?"

Outside stood Lu Miaocheng.

"Changsheng, this is the spirit stone I borrowed from you."

As soon as Lu Miaocheng saw Lu Changsheng, he directly took out twenty spirit stones and spoke.

Lu Changsheng was somewhat surprised.

He hadn't expected Lu Miaocheng to come and repay the debt voluntarily.

To tell the truth, he had written off those twenty spirit stones as a loss.

The other party's behavior was truly unexpected.

"Miaocheng, you are too polite, it was unnecessary to make a special trip."

Lu Changsheng smiled and accepted the spirit stones.

He could see that Lu Miaocheng now looked much better, spirit-wise.

Probably because he hadn't been going to read books and savor tea for a while.

Otherwise, it wouldn't have been possible to save up any spirit stones.

"What trouble? I've owed them to you for so long."

Lu Miaocheng clapped Lu Changsheng's shoulder and enthusiastically said, "Changsheng, next month Spring Abundance Building is getting a new batch of tea, I'll treat you, let's go together."

Lu Changsheng's mouth twitched slightly.

He thought Miaocheng had given it up, but it seemed he was mistaken.

He waved his hand, declaring earnestly, "Miaocheng, I never go to such places."

"Changsheng, let me tell you, this new tea, many of them are unopened..."

Lu Miaocheng continued speaking.

"No, no, I'd better not go."

Lu Changsheng asserted firmly.

With so many wives and maids at home, what need was there to go to these places?

It was simply a waste of money and vitality!

With that money, couldn't he buy a couple of maids, buy some gifts for his wife and children, wouldn't that be delightful?

"Okay then."

Seeing this, Lu Miao Cheng found it dull and didn't persuade further.

Lu Changsheng watched Lu Miao Cheng's retreating figure, musing whether Miao Cheng enjoyed himself to the fullest, then cultivated for health for a while before going back to his merry ways—a repeating cycle?

Otherwise, why had he looked so drained before, and now perfectly normal despite not abstaining?

Early the next morning, the Second Elder led Lu Changsheng and several other Lu Family members out of the Nine Dragons Market through the eastern gate.

He then took out a palm-sized yellowish-brown flying boat.

Activated by mana, the flying boat immediately flew from his palm, transforming into a vessel about ten feet long, with formation patterns drawn both inside and out.

"Get on."

The Second Elder commanded.

Lu Changsheng stepped onto the flying boat and found a seat to sit down.

The flying boat had a total of seven seats, and beneath the seats, sockets embedded with spirit stones could be seen.

He knew this type of flying boat could be propelled by inserting spirit stones, replacing the need for cultivators to use mana to drive it.

Otherwise, solely relying on a cultivator's mana to propel it, it would be impossible to achieve long-distance flying; the consumption would be too great.

"Let's go!"

After several people were seated, the Second Elder also boarded the flying boat, formed a spell with his hands, and caused a thin layer of water screen barrier to rise around the edge of the flying boat. Soaring into the air, it transformed into a streak of light shooting forward.

“At this speed, it’s even faster than the Iron Feather Eagle by a bit. If we squeeze in a bit, we can fit about ten people,” Lu Changsheng thought to himself as he watched the flying boat’s speed.

He found the device quite good.

If he had one of his own, it would be much more convenient to travel to and from the Nine Dragons Market with his wives and concubines in the future.

However, the price of such a flying boat would be at least a thousand spirit stones.

And a flying boat is relatively more conspicuous; without a bit of strength, it is easy to attract unwanted attention on the way.

One and a half days later.

The flying boat landed in front of Qingzhu Mountain.

As everyone disembarked, Lu Changsheng cupped his hands in farewell and headed straight for his home.

“Husband~”

“The husband is back!”

“Daddy! Daddy! Daddy!”

Just as Lu Changsheng walked into the courtyard, his wives and concubines and several children inside saw him and called out joyfully, crowding around him and hugging him.

This scene brought a smile to Lu Changsheng’s face, filled with warmth, as he picked up the two children who ran over.

However, facing so many children, he could only put them down immediately, taking turns hugging each child.

He also embraced his several wives.

Although he had many maidservants in the Nine Dragons Market, he missed the warm feeling of being with his wives and children here.

He had been with his wives and children here for so many years, and they had developed a lot of affection for each other.

Before long, Lu Miaoyun and Qu Zhenzhen among other women also came with their children, their eyes filled with tender love as they approached Lu Changsheng.

Lu Changsheng noticed that the little ones in their arms seemed to have grown a bit, very adorable.

He then looked at the children of Shui'er and Jiu'er.

Both children had hair like their mothers.

One red, one blue.

But their pupils were black.

Seeing his two somewhat unconventional children, Lu Changsheng also found them quite cute.

Then, Lu Changsheng spent time playing with the children and chatting with his wives, listening to some of their stories and sharing his own.

Meanwhile.

Within Qingzhu Valley, at another estate.

“Second brother, are you telling me that since Changsheng moved out to live on his own in the Nine Dragons Market, he has been indulging in the pleasures of women day in and day out, not only taking in a bunch of concubines but also getting each and every one of them pregnant? With more than a dozen children?” the Fourth Elder asked in surprise after hearing the Second Elder’s words, finding it hard to believe.

She was different from the Second Elder.

Having interacted with Lu Changsheng for so long, she knew he liked having children, but she didn’t imagine him to be addicted to the pleasures of the flesh.

Usually, he was very diligent and serious in his cultivation and talisman making.

But now, hearing the Second Elder’s words, she didn’t know what to say.

Because, in her view, this behavior was indeed a bit over the top.

Originally, when the Lu family took a son-in-law by marriage, they only asked for fifty children in twenty years.

Yet, in just over half a year, Lu Changsheng had impregnated eleven.

If he continued at this rate, would he still cultivate or practice talisman making?

“Do I look like someone who likes to joke around?” the Second Elder saw the Fourth Elder’s disbelief and immediately said, “Miaoge was there at the time, she also saw everything, you can ask Miaoge if you don’t believe me.”

“I wouldn’t say much about this matter, but as an elder who is usually close, you can talk to Lu Changsheng at some point, and also let Miaoyun keep an eye on him”

“Otherwise, if this continues, I’m really afraid he will squander his talent on women.”

The Second Elder sighed,

What he minded was not Lu Changsheng taking concubines.

After all, it was quite normal for a man to be fond of women.

However, in his view, Lu Changsheng’s behavior was indeed a bit excessive,

Women can be as ferocious as wolves and tigers, they can undermine a man’s will!

And Lu Changsheng, being so young with an unstable will, was very likely to lose control of himself in this regard.

If this kept up, a remarkable talent in the Talisman Path could very well fall from grace.

“Alright, I’ll go check it out tomorrow, ask Changsheng what’s going on, what the deal is,” the Fourth Elder said with a serious expression, nodding her head.

She had a favorable impression of her grandson-in-law Lu Changsheng.

She still did not believe that Lu Changsheng would completely drown in the pleasures of flesh and neglect his cultivation and talisman making.

She planned to go see for herself the next day and find out what was happening, and to also check Lu Changsheng’s skills in talisman making, then she would know the truth.

Search the website to access chapters of novels early and in the highest quality.

.

Chapter 125 - 87: I'm Not Pretending Anymore, Actually I Am a Spiritual Body!_1

Chapter 125: Chapter 87: I'm Not Pretending Anymore, Actually I Am a Spiritual Body!_1

Lu Changsheng naturally didn't know that the Second Elder had gone and spoken to the Fourth Elder about his activities at the Nine Dragons Marketplace.

He was still playing in the courtyard with a group of little ones.

The courtyard had been turned into something resembling a kindergarten playground by him.

At this time, Lu Miaoyun stated that it was getting late, and she needed to go to White Deer Mountain Villa to pick up the children.

In the previous few months, Lu Ping'an, Lu Wuyou, Lu Wuyu, and Lu Xile had been sent to study at White Deer Mountain Villa on Qingzhu Mountain.

Therefore, Lu Miaoyun and others usually took turns picking them up and dropping them off.

Upon hearing it was time to pick up the kids, Lu Changsheng immediately expressed his desire to go along.

He, as a father, had not yet had the chance to pick his children up from school.

Soon after, Lu Changsheng and Lu Miaoyun left home, heading towards White Deer Mountain Villa.

On the way, Lu Changsheng also shared with Lu Miaoyun about his life in the Nine Dragons Marketplace.

He bought quite a few maids, and fathered quite a few children.

One reason was that he felt there was nothing about this that needed to be hidden.

The family would find out sooner or later.

Additionally, he had a feeling that this matter would probably spread from the Second Elder to the Fourth Elder's ears.

Eventually reaching the ears of Lu Miaoyun and the other women in the family.

Since that was the case, it would be better for him to mention it to Lu Miaoyun, his main wife, earlier.

Moreover, since the Second Elder had a Flying Boat and it could accommodate a few more people, he planned to take Lu Miaoyun and a few others with him on his return trip to the Nine Dragons Marketplace.

Otherwise, coming back only once every six months meant that they would be apart for quite a long time.

By the time they went to the Nine Dragons Marketplace, Lu Miaoyun and the others would see for themselves, so it was better to give them a heads-up to prepare them mentally.

When Lu Miaoyun heard that Lu Changsheng had found so many maids, she fell silent for a moment.

However, she didn't say anything and just playfully requested that Lu Changsheng spend more time with them in the coming days.

"Having a wife like this, what more could a husband ask for."

Lu Changsheng mused to himself.

While he could indeed take many maids and concubines if he wished, and Lu Miaoyun wouldn't have much to say about it, he still hoped his wives could understand and accept the arrangement, making the inner palace more peaceful.

If not, the constant rivalry and jealousy in the palace would drive anyone crazy.

And this was something he greatly appreciated about Lu Miaoyun.

"Husband, next year's Spiritual Root testing ceremony is coming up, and Ping'an and the others will have to participate."

Lu Miaoyun, holding onto Lu Changsheng's arm, spoke out.

Upon hearing this, Lu Changsheng's heart missed a beat.

Every year on February 2nd, Qingzhu Mountain held the Spiritual Root testing ceremony.

It was to test the Spiritual Roots of all children aged five or six.

Lu Ping'an, Lu Wuyou, Lu Wuyu, and Lu Xile were also approaching the age and would be eligible to participate next year.

But Lu Changsheng was very clear in his heart that none of his four children had a Spiritual Root.

"Yes, who knows if any of them have a Spiritual Root."

Lu Changsheng sighed lightly as he said this.

At this moment, his heart could not help but feel a sense of sadness.

He had a lot of affection for the children like Lu Ping'an.

"Husband, maybe Ping'an and the others all have Spiritual Roots."

Lu Miaoyun, holding Lu Changsheng's hand, said softly.

She knew that such a thing could be cruel for parents.

If there were no Spiritual Roots, their futures would be divided between the worlds of immortals and mortals.

She couldn't help but think of her own son, Lu Yun.

If he also had no Spiritual Root... he would have to be sent into the secular world as well.

"I'm fine. With such matters, let nature take its course."

"If they have Spiritual Roots, they can learn Talisman Making with me in the future. If not, they can still lead a good life in the secular world."

Lu Changsheng pinched his wife's hand and said with a laugh.

He had long considered such matters and had prepared himself mentally.

It was just that now, with Lu Miaoyun suddenly bringing it up, the reminder that the day was fast approaching made him feel a touch of sorrow.

As they walked and talked, the couple arrived at White Deer Mountain Villa.

The villa wasn't very large, about the same size as the estate where Lu Changsheng lived.

Inside, there were many other men, women, and children coming to pick up kids, all from the Lu Family.

“Changsheng, Miaoyun, you’re here to pick up the kids?”

“Brother Changsheng, Sister Miaoyun.”

“Changsheng, Little Sister Miaoyun.”

Some recognized Lu Changsheng and Lu Miaoyun, and greeted them.

Lu Changsheng didn’t know many of them. Search the website to access chapters of novels early and in the highest quality.

Some he had seen but didn’t know their names.

Lu Miaoyun, on the other hand, knew most of them and greeted them warmly.

Before long, the sound of a bell ringing came from the villa, and many children came out.

They were all quite young, mostly five or six years old, with a few around seven or eight.

Because children without a Spiritual Root would be sent away from Qingzhu Mountain by the age of eight or nine at the latest.

After all, being born on Qingzhu Mountain and having seen the cultivation world but being unable to cultivate oneself was a cruel reality to face if one remained there.

“Daddy x4, Mother Yun x4!”

Just then, two boys and two girls saw Lu Changsheng and Lu Miaoyun and called out.

They then hurried over with their short little legs.

As Lu Changsheng saw his own children, he immediately greeted them with a smile and scooped up Lu Wuyou and Lu Xile into his arms.

“Did you miss Daddy?”

Lu Changsheng asked as he pulled out sugar-glazed haws he had prepared from his Storage Bag and passed them to the girls.

“We did!”

The two little girls replied crisply.

Then, Lu Changsheng turned to Lu Ping'an and Lu Wuyu, who were standing aside somewhat bewildered, and handed each a sugar-glazed haw.

He also pulled out one more and offered it to Lu Miaoyun.

Since he had many children in his family, Lu Changsheng would directly buy these Spirit Fruit sugar-glazed haws wholesale.

Lu Miaoyun, having received one as well, couldn't help but flash a sweet smile, her eyes curving like crescent moons.

She took a bite from the sugar-glazed haw and then extended it for Lu Changsheng to take a bite.

.