Chapter 1218: Chapter 422: Lu Wangshu's First Battle (Happy New Year)_4

"If any Daoist friends possess the materials for Foundation Establishment Elixirs, our Blue Lake Mountain Lu Family also welcomes you to come and refine Foundation Establishment Elixirs."

"Our Blue Lake Mountain Lu Family has always adhered to a policy of cooperation and shared prosperity. Our family's commercial association is in the preliminary stages of formation. If any Daoist friends have ideas, you are welcome to come to Red Leaf Valley Market or Blue Lake Mountain to discuss potential collaborations."

"As a collaborator, should our Blue Lake Mountain have Foundation Establishment Elixirs in the future, we will prioritize supplying them to our internal partners..."

Lu Miaoge spoke out loud.

In her speech, she continued to express her family's stance, unwilling to make enemies with other family forces.

She hoped to cooperate with all forces in harmony and prosperity, to work together and shoulder to shoulder in cultivating a magnificent future.

The recent ambush by Robber Cultivators had made Lu Miaoge and Li Xingruo realize that the forces targeting them were not simple.

Otherwise, it would be impossible for there to be six Foundation Establishment Cultivators!

Faced with this situation, their Blue Lake Mountain Lu Family naturally could not rely solely on strength to subdue everyone.

They still needed to attract more cooperative partners.

It's not about making these forces pledge allegiance to Blue Lake Mountain.

But the attitude was clear: as long as one is willing to form a good relationship, benefits would follow.

If one were to act against us in the shadows, our Blue Lake Mountain is not to be trifled with either.

“What, a genuine Foundation Establishment Elixir!”

“Hiss, Blue Lake Mountain just auctioned a subpar Foundation Establishment Elixir, and now they’re releasing another one next year!”

“Prioritizing internal partners for supply...”

“The Lu Ancestor is generous! Blue Lake Mountain is magnanimous!”

Many Cultivators, upon hearing this, were immediately excited and spoke out loud.

And some Loose Cultivators, deep in thought, pondered whether if they were to join Blue Lake Mountain, there might be a chance to obtain a Foundation Establishment Elixir.

“Foundation Establishment Elixir...”

All parties, upon hearing this, not only felt tempted but also discerned additional implications in the words spoken.

It might be that Blue Lake Mountain is not currently in dire need of Foundation Establishment Elixirs.

Lu Miaoge was representing Blue Lake Mountain, actively extending goodwill to the outside world.

“Hmm?”

Just at this moment, Lu Miaoge felt a premonition, and a Yin-Yang Sensing Talisman appeared in her hand.

“This is, Flower Fruit Mountain has been attacked?”

Lu Miaoge, seeing the signal from Flower Fruit Mountain, slightly furrowed her brows.

She immediately realized that some forces were taking advantage of the current situation to make a move against Flower Fruit Mountain.

“Lady Lu...”

At this time, several Foundation Establishment Ancestors stepped forward, wanting to inquire with Lu Miaoge about cooperation with the commercial association.

“I have some matters to attend to. In a few days, my Blue Lake Mountain will hold a Foundation Establishment ceremony for my daughter Wangshu.”

“If Daoist friends wish to discuss cooperation with the commercial association, you may come to Blue Lake Mountain at that time for a detailed conversation.”

Lu Miaoge spoke apologetically.

She was not very clear about the details of commercial association cooperation and needed Lu Xinyang and others to determine the specifics.

Moreover, seeing the distress call from Flower Fruit Mountain, she had to rush over to see the situation.

“Very well, I will surely attend at that time,” said an eager elder.

“Lady Lu is blessed with a daughter like Wangshu, truly a matter for celebration!”

“With Miss Wangshu’s stunning talent, her future is boundless, and a Golden Core is to be expected.”

The Foundation Establishment Ancestors present, regardless of their private thoughts, all stepped forward to offer congratulations and spoke kind words.

As for the recent Robber Cultivator incident, it also gradually faded from focus with the news announced by Lu Miaoge.

“Miaoge, if you were to go alone, there could be danger on the way. I will accompany you.”

Lu Yuanzhong, hearing that Lu Miaoge was heading to Flower Fruit Mountain, immediately spoke up.

“Danger...”

Lu Miaoge, upon hearing his words, paused for a moment in her heart.

She had Third Rank Talismans and Second Rank Puppets in her possession, along with the Golden Armor Bean Mother, fearing no common Foundation Establishment adversaries.

But Lu Yuanzhong’s words still made her more cautious.

“Uncle, please watch over father here. I will go ask Xi Yue to come with me.”

After some thought, Lu Miaoge spoke out.

She then found Xiao Xiyue and explained her intentions.

“Alright.”

Xiao Xiyue, hearing this, glanced at her daughter and nodded slightly.

Soon after, the two women disguised themselves and quietly left the Red Leaf Valley Market, heading toward Flower Fruit Mountain.

Chapter 1219: Chapter 423: The Terrifying Thunder Fire Mysterious Lotus!

Flower Fruit Mountain.

“Boom Boom Boom——”

At this moment, three Foundation Establishment Cultivators are continuously bombarding the Great Formation around Flower Fruit Mountain, causing the Array Formation Spiritual Light to flicker wildly, alternately bright and dim, generating loud explosive sounds.

“Damn it!”

Lu Qingxuan’s expression is tense as he fully oversees the Great Formation of Flower Fruit Mountain, watching the three Cultivators outside who are attacking the Formation.

Through their Prohibition-Breaking Talismans and Forbidden-Breaking Artifacts, he realized that the three had been plotting for a long time and were not merely ordinary Robber Cultivators, but rather targeting a specific power of his family.

Because ordinary Robber Cultivators wouldn’t spend so many Prohibition-Breaking Talismans, nor prepare Forbidden-Breaking Artifacts.

“Red Leaf Valley Market is currently holding an auction, and this attack clearly came prepared.”

“Even if I send a message home, I estimate it won’t be soon enough for my father and aunt to come to our aid.”

“Moreover, while I am under attack here, White Tiger Mountain might be under attack too, and currently, only Qing Song is stationed there, which could be even more dangerous.”

Lu Qingxuan is continuously pondering in his heart, feeling that he cannot just sit and wait for death, and must take the initiative to strike.

“One middle-stage Foundation Establishment, two initial-stage Foundation Establishments.”

“Relying on Talismans, Thunder Fire Mysterious Lotus, can I repel the three of them....”

Lu Qingxuan continues to calculate in his heart.

Although he is only at the Second Level of Foundation Establishment.

But with a Flawless Dao Foundation and possessing the Pseudo-Divine Ability—Thunder Fire Mysterious Lotus, he is confident in battling against a middle-stage Foundation Establishment cultivator, even potentially killing the opponent.

However, facing three Foundation Establishment Cultivators, he isn’t very confident.

Although he can escape using the Substitute Talisman given by his father if defeated.

But if he were defeated, the Second Rank Great Formation of Flower Fruit Mountain, without the administration of a Foundation Establishment Cultivator, would not last long.

“Boom Boom Boom——”

The Great Formation of Flower Fruit Mountain rumbles under the bombardment.

Whenever a ‘Prohibition-Breaking Talisman’ is used, the formation creates a loud noise, the spiritual light dims, causing rolling layers of misty fog.

The three Foundation Establishment Cultivators not only came well-prepared, among them, a thinly built, masked elder at the mid-stage of Foundation Establishment also understands formations, constantly seeking weak points in the Great Formation while bombarding.

“No, we can’t keep dragging this out!”

“If support from my family doesn’t arrive in time, continuing to drag this on will only become more and more dangerous.”

Lu Qingxuan’s whole body’s Qi is linked with the Great Formation, his internal Qi, Blood and Mana surging violently.

Realizing that if he doesn't get support and once the formation breaks, he will also be too weak to fight back.

"Sister Ya, Qing Yu, you manage the formation, switch from defense to offense, I'm going out to try and deal with them!"

Lu Qingxuan, with a solemn expression and the thunderfire flames rising in the depths of his pupils, speaks gravely, ready to leave the formation to fight.

With a Second Rank Talisman and the Pseudo-Divine Ability Thunder Fire Mysterious Lotus, even if he can't defeat the three, he can make them pay a heavy price.

Then, even if the three don't retreat, they won't have the strength to break the formation."

"Qingxuan, as long as father and aunt arrive, the crisis will be resolved by itself. If you go out now, more harm will come than good."

Lu Xiaoya, hearing this, hurriedly said.

"Sister Ya, these three clearly came prepared; our family is currently holding an auction at Red Leaf Valley Market, and they might be tied up there, unable to come in time."

"Moreover, White Tiger Mountain might also be under attack at this time, so dragging this out will only become more and more dangerous."

Lu Qingxuan immediately shook his head, sharing his speculations.

"This..."

Lu Xiaoya, hearing this, clenched her teeth tightly, knowing indeed as Lu Qingxuan had said, but still exclaimed: "Qingxuan, there are three of them outside, if you..."

Lu Qingxuan did not wait for Lu Xiaoya to finish speaking, speaking confidently and firmly: "Don't worry, if I go all out, I'm confident I can take down one or two of them!"

"And with the Life-saving Talismans from father, I won't have any danger."

Even though he didn't really have this confidence deep down.

But at this moment, he must display a strong sense of confidence.

"Brother Qingxuan, I'll be with you, assisting you in the battle."

Lu Qingyu, hearing this, slightly clenched his teeth and said.

He is only at Eighth Level Energy Refinement.

But he has three Second Rank Talismans in hand.

And Flower Fruit Mountain also has one Second Rank Puppet.

“No, you stay here to guard, in case there are other forces’ spies at home.”

Lu Qingxuan shook his head in refusal.

Apart from their siblings, Flower Fruit Mountain also had recruited Guest Elders, and laborers of spirit plants.

Among these people, they couldn’t be sure if there were cultivators harboring malice, secretly planted by other forces.’

Thus, a constant alertness was necessary.

Of course, in his opinion, this brother, only at Eighth Level Energy Refinement, facing Foundation Establishment Cultivators, even assisting in the battle would be quite dangerous.

Having said that, Lu Qingxuan handed the Array Plate to Lu Xiaoya, his Life-bound Spiritual Artifact—the Thunderfire Scepter appearing in hand.

“Swoosh!”

He, holding the purple-red Thunderfire Scepter, with his Magical Robe billowing, surged out of the Great Formation of Flower Fruit Mountain.

“Hmm?”

“There’s a way to heaven yet you don’t go; There’s no door to hell yet you intrude!”

“Since you want to throw your life away, we will fulfill your wish!”

The three, seeing Lu Qingxuan charging out of the Formation, instantly had looks of doubt, surprise, and delight in their eyes.

They did not expect Lu Qingxuan to take the initiative to come out of the formation.

If Lu Qingxuan hadn’t come out, they would still need to spend a lot of time and effort to break the formation.

However, seeing a junior at Foundation Establishment daring to face the three of them, a few notes of irritation also surged in their hearts.

Thinking that he was completely disregarding their presence.

“Thunder Fire Nine Arts—Thunder Fire Dragon!”

Lu Qingxuan did not speak, his expression resolute, with his purple-red scepter emitting thunder arcs continuously flashing, the surging Mana caused the treasure bead on the top of the scepter to emit rolling, intense flames.

“Roar!”

Accompanied by the spread of thunder and fire, a terrifying Thunder Fire Dragon formed at the top of the scepter appeared, roaring towards the sky, charging at the three of them.

Chapter 1220: Chapter 423: The Terrifying Thunder Fire Mysterious Lotus!_2

“Hmph, do you really think everyone from Bi Lake Mountain is like Lu Ping’an?”

“If it wasn’t for Lu Qingsong holding a Talisman Treasure and having a Second Order Spiritual Beast, how could Lu Ping’an be so arrogant back then!”

The three of them immediately redirected their offensive towards Lu Qingxuan, their might surging and their killing intent piercing.

“Boom boom boom——”

The collision of mana from both sides swiftly suppressed Lu Qingxuan’s Thunder Fire Flood Dragon under the trio’s assault.

“Buzz——”

Just then, the spiritual light surged within the great formation at Flower Fruit Mountain.

The formation’s azure light flowed, with faint purple glows wriggling like little snakes, forming a ring of light, pressing down towards the three attackers.

“Heavenly Thunder, Earth Fire!”

Lu Qingxuan coldly shouted, frantically channeling mana into his Thunderfire Scepter, creating infinite fierce flames around him while bolts of thunder streaked towards the trio.

“This kid is only at the early stage of Foundation Establishment, how can he possess such fighting power!”

“His cultivation technique is not simple, definitely not an ordinary one!”

“Where did Lu Changsheng get such a cultivation technique inheritance! Wasn’t he only supposed to have Talisman Path inheritance!?”

After a brief exchange of blows, the three were astonished by Lu Qingxuan’s combat strength.

It is known that all three of them come from the Jinlong Ridge Jin Family, practicing Exquisite Level cultivation methods.

Their strength far surpasses that of small family forces or average Loose Cultivators at Foundation Establishment.

Yet now, the trio found themselves unable to instantly suppress Lu Qingxuan.

Even the masked elder thought that if he battled Lu Qingxuan singly, he wasn’t completely confident of killing him.

“Bi Lake Mountain indeed still has many secrets, this child must not be spared!”

“As long as we kill this child, even if we can’t break open Monkey Hill and destroy the Spirit Fruit ley lines, it will still be a heavy blow to Bi Lake Mountain!”

The three exchanged a glance, their expressions grave, all unreservedly unleashing their killing moves.

“Buzz buzz buzz——”

A Golden Bowl magic artifact erupted in dazzling golden light, enveloping Lu Qingxuan and making his whole body suddenly heavy.

At the same time, a fierce flash of golden light appeared.

In the midst of the golden light, it seemed as if a dragon claw was fiercely attacking Lu Qingxuan.

“Not good!”

Lu Qingxuan immediately sensed a dangerous aura from the golden dragon claw and shook his Thunderfire Scepter in hand.

“Buzz buzz buzz——”

Thunder light surged, forming a wall of thunder in front of the dragon claw.

“Crack!”

But in an instant, cracks appeared in the wall of thunder.

“This spiritual artifact is specifically designed against body-protecting magic barriers!”

Lu Qingxuan immediately realized the extraordinary nature of this dragon claw spiritual artifact and quickly took out a Second Order Supreme Talisman—the Golden Light Indestructible Talisman—from his Storage Bag.

In an instant, an oval, impenetrable light of golden light emerged, protecting him within, as if flowing with an undying luster.

“Clang!”

The golden dragon claw struck the golden light, resulting in a sound of metal clashing.

“A Second-tier Top Grade Talisman, Lu Changsheng really is quite wealthy!”

The trio, seeing the golden protective light flowing around Lu Qingxuan, immediately recognized it as a Second Order Top-Level Talisman.

Otherwise, their high-quality spiritual artifact, designed to specifically break through defensive magic barriers, cannot be blocked by ordinary techniques.

“Kill!”

The three did not think too much; they all performed hand gestures for Incantation and continued their onslaught toward Lu Qingxuan with formidable and domineering vigor.

“Qing Xuan!”

In Flower Fruit Mountain, Lu Xiaoya and others saw the situation, saw Lu Qingxuan at a disadvantage, and shouted with some concern, signaling him to quickly return to the protective formation.

“It won’t work, even the Golden Light Indestructible Talisman can only withstand a few hits.”

“Since that’s the case, let’s fight with all we’ve got!”

Lu Qingxuan slightly gritted his teeth, gripping a Second-Order Top-Grade Talisman in his sleeve.

He then tossed the Thunderfire Scepter in his hand, performed Gesture Incantation with both hands, and the scepter danced wildly, filled with rolling thunder and flames.

“Thunder Fire Seals the Heavens!”

Endless thunder and fire rolled and spread, like a hurricane sweeping through, tumultuous and violent, completely shrouding Lu Qingxuan.

Second Order Top-Grade Talisman—Unfounded Thunder Fire Talisman!

Lu Qingxuan took advantage of the brief gap to activate an Attack Talisman, creating rolling heavenly thunder and earth fire, targeting the weakest Foundation Establishment Cultivator among the three.

He knew that he had to break through them one by one now.

As long as he killed one of them, he could alleviate his own dire situation.

“Not good, this kid still has a Second-Order Top-Grade Talisman!”

“Just how many talismans did Lu Changsheng give them!”

“Be careful, do not be negligent!”

The three, seeing the sudden onslaught of heavenly thunder and earth fire, were all startled and promptly shifted from offense to defense, summoning their magic artifacts to form a majestic body-protecting spiritual light.

“Boom boom boom——”

The incessant thunder and fire bombarded the three’s protective spiritual light, making the heavens and earth aglow with blinding light and lightning.

Lu Qingxuan looked at this scene with a trace of fierceness in his eyes, then suddenly extended both hands, his Qi Ocean Core mana boiling and surging.

“Rumble!”

Thunderous roars exploded in the void.

On his left hand, a terrifying and violent purple thunder arced and surged.

On his right hand, a scorching and overbearing red flame rose and spread.

“Thunder Fire... Mysterious Lotus!”

Lu Qingxuan’s body surged with mana, slowly gathering the thunder and flame in his hands, displaying a Divine Skill he had never used in actual combat before.

“Buzz buzz buzz——”

The moment thunder and flames touched, a terrifying energy burst forth, making the void seem to twist.

Lu Qingxuan’s mana crazily surged, his face veins bulging, as he pushed this Divine Skill to its limit.

At this juncture, it’s either they die or he dies.

After all, he has the ‘Substitute Talisman’; in a life-or-death crisis, he could escape with his life.

With that being the case, what is there to fear!

“Today, I will make a name for myself!”

A surge of pride erupted in Lu Qingxuan’s heart, determined, his hands continuously forming gestures, causing the two wildly violent energies to slowly merge.

This was the first time he had pushed this Divine Skill to the extreme, his hands splitting and bleeding from the energy leaking from the Thunder Fire Mysterious Lotus.
