

I. Family 1368

Chapter 1368: Hong Lian Emerges, Heading to Jin Kingdom!

Time flies quickly; in the blink of an eye, three months have passed.

In these days, apart from refining the 'Tianyuan Lotus', Lu Changsheng spent all other time accompanying his wives and children.

Through his efforts over these three months, Xia Zhizue finally conceived their sixth child, and Zhao Qingqing conceived their second.

The two ladies had been given special care for long, but they were unable to conceive until now; indeed, perseverance pays off.

Aside from the two, another concubine named Lin Qingyu also conceived.

Not long ago, she consumed the Foundation Establishment Elixir and, with Lu Changsheng's help, successfully broke through Foundation Establishment.

Therefore, Lu Changsheng celebrated her well, and the pregnancy was quite smooth, conceiving in just days.

However, this woman has a Fourth Grade Spiritual Root. Now, breaking through Foundation Establishment, not conceiving more is indeed a pity.

"Master."

On this day, Lu Changsheng was inspecting the Lu Family school with his wives.

Suddenly, the voice of Mount Sumeru resonated in his mind, indicating the Peachwood Spirit Womb showed activity.

Upon hearing this, Lu Changsheng was immediately pleased, knowing Hong Lian was about to be born.

He waved his hand to indicate the day's inspection was over.

No matter what happens, education is the grand plan of the family, the future of the family, and cannot be ignored or allowed to fail.

"Father, rest assured."

"Husband is right."

"We adhere to father's teachings."

The wives and Lu Family disciples around him all responded.

After a few words of advice, Lu Changsheng went to the Mount Sumeru Cave Heaven.

The originally shimmering Peachwood Spirit Womb, absorbing nature's spiritual energy, now emitted divine light, dazzling and splendid, with an aromatic fragrance that spread, making one's pores relax and mind at ease.

"Such a phenomenon upon the birth of a Spiritual Womb is truly astounding."

With emotion, Lu Changsheng anticipated, watching the Peachwood Spirit Womb before him.

In Changsheng Hall, Lu Miaoge, who was in closed-door cultivation, also felt slight disturbances and stepped out of the hall.

Her hair was elegantly swept up, dressed in a simple yet refined plain white dress, her tall and graceful figure exuding elegance.

Seeing the remarkable phenomenon like celestial glow in the Peachwood Spirit Womb from afar, she exclaimed with some surprise, “Changsheng, is Senior Hong Lian about to complete the physical form?”

“Hmm, judging by the looks of it, it won’t be long before she is born.”

Lu Changsheng smiled slightly, holding his wife’s fair and smooth slender hand, sitting at the nearby jade table, brewing tea with the spiritual spring, chatting while waiting for Hong Lian to be born.

Regarding Hong Lian’s matter, he had long informed Lu Miaoge, Lu Miaoyun, Ling Zixiao, and others, so they were all aware.

Thinking that now with Hong Lian about to be born, he could go out with peace of mind, Lu Changsheng called Ling Zixiao, Lu Miaoyun, Qu Zhenzhen, and others to come, to acquaint themselves with Hong Lian.

...

The birth of Hong Lian was slower than Lu Changsheng anticipated.

After waiting for more than half a month, the brilliant Peachwood stump suddenly shattered explosively.

“Woo—wooo—woo—”

Countless wood chips danced like a radiant floral rain, swirling everywhere.

Subsequently, a goddess with a flawless pure white body, whiter and more delicate than white jade, walked out from the dreamlike floral rain.

Her figure is gracefully elegant, with crystal-clear hair cascading down to her waist, covering her mutton fat jade-like snow back.

Her neck is slender, her shoulders seem sculpted, her arms like tender orchids, her waist as refined as if bound with silk, her legs like jade.

Her face is extraordinarily beautiful, defying description even with phrases like enchanting allure.

The entire person possesses a beauty blessed by nature, along with a grace that has been refined through the years, noble and elegant.

“Young Master...”

Hong Lian looked at Lu Changsheng, her beautiful eyes glowing with a pink sheen filled with joy and excitement.

Reforming her physical body was her only obsession since awakening.

Now, she finally succeeded in recreating her physical form!

Moreover, by reforming her physical body through the Spiritual Embryo of Heaven and Earth, she would not only return to her peak within hundreds of years, but might even venture further; at this moment, she was extremely jubilant.

“Not bad!”

Lu Changsheng observed Hong Lian before him with admiration in his eyes.

Previously through Hong Lian’s soul state, he could see her appearance was delicate and exquisite, truly peerless.

Now through the Peachwood Spirit Womb reforming her physical body, her charm not only did not diminish the slightest but even further manifested into true perfection, flawless, with divine elegance and beauty fit for a masterpiece, like a person walking out of a painting.

“Congratulations to Senior Hong Lian for reforming her physical body.”

At this moment, Lu Miaoge and Ling Zixiao looked at Hong Lian before them and congratulated her.

Even though they knew this Senior Hong Lian before them would surely become part of the family.

But the figure before them is still a Nascent Soul True Lord.

Even though she may not be at her peak now, having reformed her body, she is still a Nascent Soul Immortal, thus they hold sincere respect.

“Congratulations to Senior Hong Lian on reforming her physical body.”

Lu Miaoyun, Lu Miaohuan, Qu Zhenzhen, Bai Ling, Bing'er, among others, also expressed their congratulations.

“You all are truly too courteous, just call me... Hong Lian.”

Knowing that all the ladies present were Lu Changsheng's wives and that she herself would most likely become sisters with them in the future, Hong Lian naturally would not act superior and said with a smile.

“Hong Lian, aren't you cold?”

At this time, Lu Changsheng asked Hong Lian as she spoke with the ladies.

“Ah!?”

Hong Lian was momentarily bewildered upon hearing this, not understanding what he meant.

However, in the next moment, she suddenly realized, having just reformed her physical body, unlike her previous soul state, she was now not properly clothed.

Reflecting on exposing her jade body before Lu Changsheng and so many people, even though she once was a Nascent Soul True Lord, she felt inexpressibly shy at this moment.

Most especially seeing Lu Changsheng's unabashed and appreciative gaze towards her, she felt overwhelmingly embarrassed, wishing she could find a place to hide.
