Chapter 1370: Hong Lian Emerges, Heading to Jin Kingdom!_3

He immediately chuckled and said, “Yes, it’s that life-bound magic treasure of White Peak Immortal.”

“Ah!?”

Ling Zixiao was taken aback, looking at Lu Changsheng with some confusion.

Beside her, Lu Miaoge, Lu Miaoyun, and the other women also had expressions of surprise and doubt, looking at their husband in shock.

Even though they hadn’t traveled far, they had heard of the famous White Peak Immortal.

Once challenged Azure Phoenix Immortal, and later became the master of Azure Phoenix Immortal City, serving as the City Lord.

But most shocking was shortly after assuming the City Lord role, the White Peak Immortal was inexplicably assassinated, under unclear circumstances.

Yet now, the life-bound magic treasure of this White Peak Immortal appeared in their husband’s hand.

Could it be...

But this is too astonishing, isn’t it!?

Although when White Peak Immortal perished, their husband happened to be heading to Myriad Beasts Mountain Range, could it really be such a coincidence!?

Besides, this White Peak Immortal was an old Core Formation, able to master the Azure Phoenix Immortal City, his strength was undeniable.

At that time, their husband had just broken through Core Formation and didn't even have a magic treasure, even if he congealed an Immortal Golden Core, it wouldn't be possible to slay White Peak Immortal, right!?

“Speaking of this, it's quite a coincidence, Sister Miaoge, Huanhuan, Zixiao, do you remember the treasure map from those robber cultivators in Red Leaf Valley back then...”

Lu Changsheng smiled and began to speak, briefly telling the story of White Peak Immortal.

Since it was mentioned, he had no reason to hide it.

Besides, as he was going to the Jin Kingdom soon, his wife was always somewhat worried about his strength.

And just saying he didn't have it, this tale could also give his wife a clear comparison and understanding of his strength, so she wouldn't worry excessively.

“This...”

“I didn't expect White Peak Immortal was slain by husband...”

Ling Zixiao and the other women were all in a daze after hearing this, full of shock and some disbelief.

Even Ling Zixiao, who usually had the most trust in Lu Changsheng's strength, was shocked at this moment.

After all, she recognized White Peak Immortal's magic treasure after seeing this person's life story, knowing he was quite extraordinary.

Although coming from a loose cultivator background, his rise could be regarded as a legend of his time.

Only after encountering Azure Phoenix Immortal, he was forced to flee to Jiang Country, causing his fame to be unheard for nearly a hundred years.

But eventually returning and taking over Azure Phoenix Immortal City was sufficient to indicate his exceptional strength.

Yet such a person was slain by their husband, it was simply astonishing.

Beside her, Hong Lian remained calm, finding it natural.

Even though Lu Changsheng had just broken through Core Formation, without divine skills or a life-bound magic treasure then.

But not having a life-bound magic treasure doesn't mean he has no other magical treasures, right!?

Not to mention, the 'Cave Mystique Treasure Mirror' he casually gave her just now was obviously a top-level magic treasure.

In these circumstances, to say Lu Changsheng has no treasures, she would never believe it!

And the Heartburn Flame, which stirs others' inner fire and emotions, that heavenly spiritual fire, is considered invaluable.

But Lu Changsheng used it for the cultivation of Lu Family Disciples at home.

In situations like this, how does he seem like someone lacking means!?

She even thought that Lu Changsheng's trust in her was, in fact, a form of confidence!

Absolute confidence in himself!

“Husband, I heard Azure Phoenix Immortal City is still without a City Lord, can’t you take over?”

Lu Miaohuan’s eyes sparkled with interest as she spoke.

After all, the name of Azure Phoenix Immortal City was something she had heard of since childhood.

Now, unknowingly, her husband had surpassed the master of such an Immortal City.

If they could take over such an Immortal City for themselves, just thinking about it was exciting.

“Now Azure Phoenix Immortal City is controlled by the joint forces of Jiang Country and Yue Country, with deputy City Lords appointed by the two countries. How to take over, Huanhuan, you mustn’t speak of this recklessly elsewhere.”

Lu Miaoge saw her sister speaking like this and immediately spoke softly.

Although she mostly spent her time cultivating, she also kept an eye on the situation information of the cultivation world.

Knowing that White Peak Immortal’s incident caused quite a stir, only overshadowed by the Tianyuan Secret Realm event.

If word got out, it might bring a lot of trouble.

“I know, I was just saying casually.”

Lu Miaohuan pouted.

“Haha, White Peak Immortal previously sought refuge with Yue Country’s immortal sect and was pushed onto the stage, completely different from the Azure Phoenix Immortal of the past... so this Azure Phoenix Immortal City has actually always been held by Jiang Country and Yue Country.”

Lu Changsheng chuckled, understanding his wife’s nature, so he spoke casually.

After briefing Hong Lian, Lu Changsheng informed Mount Sumeru to slightly pay attention to Hong Lian’s situation.

If there were any issues, he would tell Lu Miaoge, if he wasn’t around, just follow Lu Miaoge’s arrangements.

Then he gave the Thousand Faces Puppet Fox to Ling Zixiao.

For one, having the Thousand Faces Puppet Fox around, Ling Zixiao or Lu Miaoge would have something to carry for self-defense when going out, avoiding accidents.

Another reason was that he might occasionally need to appear after just coming out of the Tianyuan Secret Realm.

In such cases, the Thousand Faces Puppet Fox could be used for illusionary disguise.

Perhaps a Nascent Soul Immortal might see through the illusion,

But ordinary cultivators and family forces he interacted with daily wouldn’t be able to see through the illusionary disguise of the Thousand Faces Puppet Fox.

Besides, with his current strength, having or not having the Thousand Faces Puppet Fox actually doesn’t make much difference, better to leave it at home for more significant effects.

After ensuring the family’s affairs were arranged properly, Lu Changsheng spent a few more days with his wife, then left Bi Lake Mountain silently.

Originally, he planned to wait until Bai Ling had her child.

But it had been a year and a half with no signs of giving birth, so Lu Changsheng couldn't wait any longer.
