Chapter 1375: Earth Spirit Root, Golden-Winged Heavenly Peng!_2

Otherwise, upon seeing the appearance of the Six-Winged Golden Silkworm this time, they wouldn't easily give up and would think of continuing to pursue victory.

...

Two months later.

Lu Changsheng descended from the Ninth Heavenly Gang Wind Layer with Nangong Mili.

In sight was a vast desert.

Ahead was the border of Jiang Country and Jin Kingdom.

One could see that there was almost no Spiritual Mechanism ahead, and the Earth's veins were in chaos.

Looking further into the distance, there was a layer of hazy dust storms sweeping through, affecting the flying speed and Divine Sense of cultivators.

Lu Changsheng found a place to settle down, planning to restore his mana state before crossing the border.

Although it was almost impossible for him to encounter danger given his combat situation, it was still good to be cautious.

“Whoosh—”

Just as he released the Spiritual Eye Spring and sat cross-legged in meditation, a sudden surge of spiritual root turbulence welled up in his heart.

Immediately.

His entire body was enveloped by an indescribable and profound feeling.

Spiritual Root!

His Spiritual Root had advanced!

Finally, it had advanced from a First-Grade Spiritual Root to an Earth Spirit Root!

“This child should be a Second-Grade Spiritual Root...”

Lu Changsheng felt joyful, quietly savoring this mystical tremor.

The child he was expecting would most likely have a Spiritual Root.

But the majority of Spiritual Roots were of Middle Grade.

For this reason, his Spiritual Root had always been at the brink of First-Grade, unable to breakthrough to Earth Spirit Root.

Now, with the birth of this child, his Spiritual Root had finally achieved a qualitative change through sheer numbers.

“It shouldn’t be the child in Ling’er’s womb; it must be the one in Rong’er’s...”

There weren’t many pregnant concubines at home, and Lu Changsheng could deduce which concubine had given birth based on the general pregnancy timeline.

This Rong’er was one of the five maids he took when he advanced to a Third Rank Talisman Master, possessing a Fifth-Grade Spiritual Root.

Unexpectedly, her first birth gave him a Superior Grade Spiritual Root.

However, after advancing to Earth Spirit Root, Lu Changsheng didn't show much excitement.

After all, given his current cultivation level, the Spiritual Root offered limited improvement.

Besides slightly aiding in breaking through bottlenecks, its main effect was genetic enhancement.

Lu Changsheng didn't continue pondering, holding two Superior Grade Spirit Stones, and began to recover through the nearby Spiritual Eye Spring.

He also casually checked if there were any unexpected surprises with the Earth Spirit Root.

However, since his original Spiritual Root was already on the brink, the upgrading to Earth Spirit Root significantly improved the efficiency of absorbing and refining Spiritual Energy, but it wasn't a qualitative leap.

At this moment, Nangong Mili, standing next to him, suddenly transformed into a radiant beam and shot into the distance.

"Hmm, this woman!?"

Lu Changsheng opened his eyes and sighed helplessly.

Then, like a shooting star across the sky, he burst out, tearing through the air with a roar, stirring up layers of turbulence.

Moments later, an overhead Yin Yang Daoist Chart enveloped in Yin Yang Qi Grasp descended to suppress Nangong Mili.

"I already told you I'm just going to see Yaoyao; why do you have to react like this?"

Lu Changsheng said somewhat helplessly.

Ever since she found out he was heading to Jin Kingdom to visit their daughter, this woman had been on high alert.

She's probably trying to beat him back to keep their daughter hidden from him.

Lu Changsheng was rather troubled by this situation.

Although he could continue to suppress her, she was still the mother of his child after all.

He couldn't just suppress her and then go see his daughter, could he?

Doing so would make him look like a pure villain in his daughter's eyes.

With Nangong Mili guiding her, his image in this daughter's heart was likely already not too good, considered as abandoning wife and child. Doing this would make it worse to witness.

"Hmph."

Nangong Mili just kept a cold face, not believing Lu Changsheng at all.

"Mili, do you want it again, and you're intentionally provoking me like this?"

Lu Changsheng raised an eyebrow and said so.

"Lu Changsheng, you bastard, shameless!"

The originally cold-faced Nangong Mili couldn't hold it any longer, her beautiful phoenix eyes widened, and she cursed furiously.

This dog of a man forced her all the time and even slandered it as her desire!

“We’re an old couple now, what’s there to be shy about?”

Lu Changsheng chuckled lightly, wrapping his arms around her breathtakingly graceful body.

One had to say, Nangong Mili was a natural beauty.

No matter how long he experienced it, she still gave him an unmatched, wondrous feeling.

...

Several days later.

After imparting all the Yin Yang Energies, Nangong Mili had stabilized significantly, and the two of them rode a Spirit Boat into the border.

Previously, Lu Changsheng had asked Nangong Mili about the general situation and caution points of crossing the border.

He knew the border had minor natural disasters, robber cultivators, heretic cultivators, and wanted criminals, with no other dangers.

However, for Demonic Path cultivators, there was an additional layer of danger from patrolling Heavenly Sword Sect cultivators.

Demonic Path or Heretic Cultivators trying to cross the border into Jiang Country had to be extremely cautious.

Otherwise, if noticed by patrolling cultivators from Heavenly Sword Sect, their lives would be in danger.

Speaking of this, Nangong Mili was still angrily scolding, not knowing which dog-like fool dared to kill White Peak Immortal in the past.

That led to the Heavenly Sword Sect dispatching several Nascent Soul Immortals to patrol the border, and if it weren't for her good luck and having the Misty Sky Bead, she would have nearly perished.

Lu Changsheng certainly wasn't going to show off that he was the one who did it, and only discretely showed his concern for her.

Bi Lake Mountain, Xuanfu Peak.

Lu Yun regularly came to the peak to refine the Dragon Blood Tree.

After nearly two years of thorough refinement, he had established a deep bond with the Dragon Blood Tree.

Only one step away, he could refine it into his life-bound spiritual root.

For this reason, he dedicated all his time to this endeavor every day, whenever possible, refining the Dragon Blood Tree.
