

I. Family 1381

Chapter 1381 - Nangong Yaoyao: A Man Actually Cultivates Charm Techniques! _2

"So Senior Lu met Sister Xiaochan in Jiang Country, is Senior Lu also a cultivator from Jiang Country?"

Nangong Yaoyao's beautiful eyes were clear, giving a lively and cute impression, making people instinctively relax and feel close when facing her.

"You could say that."

Lu Changsheng nodded with a smile, noticing the girl before him had a charming demeanor in her words and actions.

"What do you mean by 'you could say that'?"

The girl's lips, delicate like flower petals, pouted slightly, her voice carrying a hint of playfulness.

"I used to be, but for us cultivators, the world is our home, so it's hard to say which country we belong to."

Lu Changsheng saw the little girl was probing him and smiled calmly and naturally.

"Senior Lu, as someone who calls the world their home, you've surely been to many places. Where besides Jiang Country and Jin Kingdom have you been?"

Nangong Yaoyao seemed like a curious young girl fascinated by everything, her starry eyes shimmering with admiration and affection, making one dizzy and somewhat dazed.

Even though Lu Changsheng knew this little girl had a seductive demeanor in her actions, her gaze still brought him a sense of great satisfaction.

"I've been to Jiang Country, Yue Country, Liang Country, and Yuan Country..."

Lu Changsheng began to speak nonsense with a serious demeanor.

Anyway, he hadn't been to those places, and by the looks of it, Nangong Yaoyao certainly hadn't been either.

With his knowledge and experience, fooling a little girl wasn't much of a problem.

The three chatted and laughed, most of the time Nangong Yaoyao was asking questions, Lu Changsheng was talking, and Meng Xiaochan added a few words.

During the whole process, Nangong Yaoyao seemed full of curiosity but was actually probing for information about Lu Changsheng.

Had Lu Changsheng not been at Core Formation level, with a clear soul and some experience, he would have surely been led by his daughter.

"If it were peers of her age, wouldn't my daughter lead them around like dogs?"

Lu Changsheng pondered secretly, momentarily unsure how to assess this daughter.

Smart, quirky, adept at disguising, knowing how to utilize her advantages.

But thinking how this daughter faced everyone with such charming smiles, Lu Changsheng suddenly felt somewhat displeased.

"Senior Lu, Sister Xiaochan, there's something at the marketplace, I'll head over first, let's chat later."

An hour later, Nangong Yaoyao stood up and spoke.

She already noticed that Lu Changsheng was elusive, with Sister Xiaochan covering for him, making it difficult to ask detailed questions.

Better to pause here, investigate the general situation, gossip later about Meng Xiaochan and Lu Changsheng, and remind Meng Xiaochan about him.

"Pleasant meeting, I have no gift, here's a little token from Lu."

Lu Changsheng took out three talismans from his storage ring and gave them to Nangong Yaoyao.

On this trip, he prepared a gift 'Heavenly Fragrance Gu' for his daughter.

Only on this first meeting couldn't he give such a precious gift.

Otherwise, anyone could see there was an issue.

"These are... Third Rank Talismans!"

Nangong Yaoyao looked at the talismans before her, somewhat surprised.

Though she had a mother who was at Core Formation, not lacking elixir medicines or talismans, adorned with top-level spiritual artifacts.

Yet Third Rank Talismans were still very precious to her.

"Lu happens to be a talisman master, usually making some talismans, so little friend can keep them."

Lu Changsheng said with a gentle, handsome smile.

"Yaoyao thanks Senior Lu."

Nangong Yaoyao had a hesitant look, then smiled warmly, taking them without refusal, before leaving.

...

"Phew!"

Seeing Nangong Yaoyao leave, Lu Changsheng suddenly let out a long breath.

To be honest, just now facing this daughter, his mental spirit was somewhat tense.

He pondered asking her views on her father, future plans, opinions on justice and evil paths, but feared making her wary, ultimately saying nothing.

"Lu Lang, Yaoyao likely came worrying about my situation..."

Meng Xiaochan also let out a breath, speaking to Lu Changsheng.

She too worried they might reveal themselves while chatting, then recognize each other.

Not that she feared recognition.

On one hand, uncertain of Nangong Yaoyao's attitude toward Lu Changsheng.

On the other, fearing her master would return, know they recognized each other, then harbor killing intent against Lu Changsheng.

"Pretty good."

Lu Changsheng chuckled softly.

Previously, he feared his daughter might be bullied in the Five Poison Cult.

Now it seems, few could actually bully her.

With Nangong Mili around, ordinary high rank cultivators wouldn't bully her.

"Xiaochan, tell me about Yaoyao."

Lu Changsheng gently pinched Meng Xiaochan's delicate hand, then took spiritual spring water from his storage ring, brewed a pot of spiritual tea, and spoke.

He just wanted to ask about Nangong Yaoyao earlier, but she arrived, leading him to limited understanding of his daughter now.

"Yaoyao has been very obedient and smart since childhood, learns everything quickly..."

Meng Xiaochan nodded lightly, telling Lu Changsheng about Nangong Yaoyao's character, temperament, likes, and childhood anecdotes.

Meanwhile.

Marketplace management center.

"Lu Wuming, Ninth Level Foundation Establishment..."

Nangong Yaoyao looked at a name on the marketplace register, reflecting.

Soon after, she used the jade scroll to check the identity jade token and traced the movements within the marketplace.

Seeing Lu Changsheng enter the marketplace and visit an intelligence shop, her starry eyes flickered slightly.

Mere moments later, Nangong Yaoyao arrived at the intelligence shop, asking about the information Lu Changsheng had purchased there.

"Purchased my information?"