

I. Family 1388

Chapter 1388: Nangong Yaoyao: Dad is a bit awesome!_3

Afterward, Lu Changsheng explained the earlier situation to Meng Xiaochan.

"What! The Wind Centipede Envoy came to attack Yaoyao!"

Upon hearing this, Meng Xiaochan exclaimed in shock.

Days ago, Lu Changsheng told her he had broken through to Core Formation, which already surprised her immensely.

Now, Lu Changsheng was saying that the Wind Centipede Envoy came looking for trouble and was suppressed by him!

This, this, this...

Meng Xiaochan was utterly confounded, her expression dazed, feeling like she was hearing things.

After all, she knew better than Nangong Yaoyao about the power of this Wind Centipede Envoy.

He had long since achieved Core Formation Middle Stage, and in earlier years, single-handedly destroyed a Nascent Soul Family, his strength was exceptionally formidable.

Yet now, he was easily suppressed by her lover.

Doesn't this mean... her Master isn't a match for Lu Lang either?

Nangong Yaoyao, watching Meng Xiaochan's surprise, was a bit baffled.

Then, with great excitement, she gestured animatedly while recounting the situation:
"That's right, Sister Xiaochan, you didn't see it, at that time, Father..."

Initially, Meng Xiaochan was worried about whether this incident would cause trouble for Lu Changsheng, but upon hearing her Master would return in a month or two, she felt relieved.

However, she still suggested that Lu Changsheng and Nangong Yaoyao could go out for a while until her Master returned.

After all, it was fine if no one from the sect paid attention.

If the sect suddenly had reasons to seek out the Wind Centipede Envoy and realized something was wrong, it might cause trouble for Lu Changsheng.

"Brilliant!"

Lu Changsheng immediately praised Meng Xiaochan's astute suggestion.

He had been thinking about how to use Nangong Mili's return as an excuse to take his daughter out for some bonding.

Now the perfect reason presented itself.

"Yaoyao, what do you think?"

Lu Changsheng looked at his daughter, seeking her opinion.

"Yaoyao listens to Father."

The girl blinked her eyes innocently and said obediently.

"Alright."

Lu Changsheng smiled and then said to Meng Xiaochan: "Xiaochan, I'll take Yaoyao out for a while and come back later. If you need anything, you can crush this Talisman, and I'll sense it."

Speaking, he reached into his Storage Ring to take out a Sensing Talisman.

In the next moment, as if remembering something, he also took out a blank Jade Slip, left a Divine Sense message inside, and handed it to Meng Xiaochan: "If your Master returns and inquires, you can give this to her."

"Okay~"

Meng Xiaochan nodded, sensing something must have happened between her lover and Master in Jiang Country.

At this moment, discussing Master seemed perfectly natural for Lu Changsheng.

"Come here, Yaoyao, this is the gift Father prepared for our meeting?"

Lu Changsheng recalled the present he had prepared for his daughter, taking out a jar from the Spiritual Pet Bag.

"Oh, the previous gifts Father gave Yaoyao were already much loved by Yaoyao."

The purple-skirted girl smiled, her eyes like crystal stars gazing admiringly at Lu Changsheng, filled with affection and joy.

"Those gifts were nothing; this one is specially prepared for you by Father."

Lu Changsheng said with a laugh.

"Yaoyao thanks Father!"

Nangong Yaoyao instantly delighted like a child given candy, her eyes brimming with anticipation.

Regardless, this daughter truly excelled at offering emotional support.

"Huh, is this a Gu Insect?"

Nangong Yaoyao opened the jar to find a thumb-sized, withered-looking pink silk worm.

"Indeed, this Gu is called 'Heavenly Fragrance Gu.'

Lu Changsheng smiled and said.

"Heavenly Fragrance Gu!"

Nangong Yaoyao's lips parted in surprise.

She knew her Spiritual Body was the Flawless Heavenly Fragrance Body.

Her father suddenly giving her a Heavenly Fragrance Gu couldn't possibly have nothing to do with her Spiritual Body, she truly couldn't believe it.

Moreover, she sensed a divine resonance from this Gu Insect.

"I heard from your mother that you possess the Flawless Heavenly Fragrance Body, and this Gu Insect, when initially cultivated, has effects somewhat similar to the Flawless Heavenly Fragrance Body, which can make one's body emit fragrance..."

"When the Gu Insect reaches Second Transformation, the fragrance effect further enhances, making enemies reluctant to harm, reducing their hostility and killing intent by threefold."

"Upon reaching Third Transformation, even facing enemies will make them softer-hearted and merciful. If it ascends to Fourth Transformation, it may enhance fortune and chance, being favored by the heavens..."

Lu Changsheng calmly yet warmly described the Heavenly Fragrance Gu's effects.

Upon hearing the details, Nangong Yaoyao was utterly amazed.

Even though she was merely a Foundation Establishment Cultivator, she clearly understood the potency of this Gu Insect.

Early effects might be quite ordinary.

But after the Fourth Transformation, elevating fortune and opportunity was simply astonishing!

When it came to aspects of heavenly fortune, it meant this Gu Insect was at least a Top Level Earth Spirit Gu, possibly even a Heavenly Spirit Gu!

Furthermore, the most crucial point was that this Gu Insect was the perfect match for her!

The seemingly ordinary early effects, coupled with her abilities, would result in an effect of one plus one equaling three, even fourfold!

"Father, is this really for me?"

Her starlit eyes sparkled, gleaming with joy.

"Of course, do you like it?"

Lu Changsheng chuckled and asked.

"Yes, yes, Yaoyao loves it, thank you Father!"

Nangong Yaoyao nodded excitedly, giving Lu Changsheng a sweet kiss on the cheek to express her gratitude.

Nearby, Meng Xiaochan observed the deep father-daughter bond, feeling a little sour in her heart.

Lu Lang came to visit her and Yaoyao, preparing such a precious gift for Yaoyao.

While she had received nothing.

"Yaoyao, you've been tired today, go rest first. Tomorrow Father will take you out to play, and help you refine this Heavenly Fragrance Gu."

Lu Changsheng, with his sharp senses, noticed Meng Xiaochan's emotions and gently instructed Nangong Yaoyao.

Then he held Meng Xiaochan's slender, jade-like hand, expressing that he had also prepared a gift for her.

"This Elixir is called Evilex Banisher Elixir, capable of dispelling various Gu Poison, Sealing, Curses, Prohibition Divine Skills, and other effects, perhaps it can break your Lockheart Gu."

Lu Changsheng stated directly.

This Elixir Medicine was won by him in a sweepstake years ago and had been collecting dust.

Upon remembering Meng Xiaochan's situation, he decided to give her the Elixir Medicine to see if it could dissolve the Lockheart Gu.

On one hand, Lu Ancestor no longer cared to use such methods to captivate a woman's heart.

On the other hand, for Nangong Mili and his daughter Nangong Yaoyao.

After all, the Lockheart Gu issue had been a thorn in Nangong Mili's heart.

Dissolving Meng Xiaochan's Lockheart Gu could pull this thorn out.

His daughter, upon uncovering that Sister Xiaochan had been caring for her under the effects of a Lockheart Gu, would find it difficult to explain.

Moreover, if he and Meng Xiaochan eventually had children, and the child discovered that their mother was still under the effects of a Lockheart Gu... just the thought was headache-inducing.

"I don't want it, Lu Lang, is it that you don't want Xiaochan anymore?"

However, upon hearing the Elixir Medicine's effects, Meng Xiaochan immediately appeared sorrowful, her beautiful eyes turning red.

"Huh?"

Lu Changsheng was taken aback, never expecting her to react this way.

"I'm just giving you the choice."

He shook his head and said.

"No, Xiaochan feels this way is best."

Meng Xiaochan implored, clinging tightly to him, shaking her head.

At this moment, Lu Changsheng distinctly realized the domineering nature of the Lockheart Gu.

He didn't force her, planning to wait for Nangong Mili to return before giving it together.

After all, that was his original intent.

However, seeing Meng Xiaochan had been taking good care of his daughter for years, and noticing her somewhat lonely demeanor, he decided to offer the Elixir Medicine prematurely.
