

I. Family 1396

Chapter 1396: Xiao Chan, help me find someone! His name is Lu Quanzhen.

"Hmm, why is it so lively outside?"

At Bi Yun Peak, in a courtyard, Yu Fei, with a swollen belly, heard the commotion outside and was somewhat curiously surprised.

A moment later, she knew it was because Lu Ancestor's son, Lu Xingchen, was happily marrying a woman.

"Sister Yu Fei, there is a joyous event in the family today. Would you like to take a look?"

At this time, Lu Miaoyun and 'Lu Changsheng' came over, looking at Yu Fei who was holding her belly.

"Thank you, Sister Lu. My body isn't feeling well, I won't join in the excitement."

Yu Fei gently caressed her nine-month pregnant belly, shaking her head.

Even though she was much older than Lu Miaoyun.

But since she married Lu Changsheng as a concubine, she naturally called Lu Miaoyun "sister."

"Fei'er, take a good rest. I will come to accompany you later."

At this moment, 'Lu Changsheng' nodded with a smile, softly saying, then he left with Lu Miaoyun to Bi Yun Villa.

At this time, Bi Yun Villa was lit up and festive.

"Xingchen, congratulations!"

"Congratulations, congratulations."

"Brother, happy wedding!"

Lu Xingchen was exceptionally talented, easy-going, and he was also a doctor and an alchemist, so he had very good relationships with others.

Of course, Lu Xingchen was the first among the Lu Family disciples to establish his family early after breaking through Foundation Establishment, so the Lu Family paid much attention to this marriage.

"Greetings, Father, Auntie!"

"Greetings to the Mountain Master, greetings to the Lady!"

"Greetings to Lu Ancestor, Lu Madam."

Seeing 'Lu Changsheng' and Lu Miaoyun arriving, all the Lu Family disciples and guests immediately saluted respectfully.

"No need for formalities."

Though Lu Miaoyun looked youthful like a girl of sixteen or seventeen, she was graceful and composed with an air of dignity.

With their arrival, the wedding ceremony began in an orderly fashion.

Although it was not a grand affair with many guests invited, owing to the Lu Family's reputation, surrounding family forces would come uninvited at the news.

Not only to foster good relations with Bi Lake Mountain.

Even meeting Lu Xingchen, the Lu Family's alchemist, was worthwhile.

"First bow to Heaven and Earth!"

"Second bow to the parents!"

"Husband and wife bow to each other!"

"Send to the bridal chamber!"

"The atmosphere at Bi Lake Mountain is really extraordinary. Now with the elder Lu Changsheng in his prime, and Lu Ping'an, such a body-refining talent and Nascent Soul Seed present, there might indeed be hope for becoming a Core Formation Noble Family in the future."

After Wang Yanjing and Lu Xingchen bowed to Heaven and Earth and were sent to the bridal chamber, she felt a little emotional.

Then thinking about her family's current situation, she sighed deeply.

"Sister Jing."

After a long time, Lu Xingchen, having finished offering the wine, came to the bridal chamber and saw Wang Yanjing, draped in a Phoenix Crown and Rosy Clouds Robe, sitting upright and called out happily.

In their early years, they called each other Daoist friends.

But as they became more familiar, Lu Xingchen discovered that Wang Yanjing knew a lot and was aware of many things, so during their interactions, he often consulted her and gradually began to call her Sister Jing.

"We are now husband and wife!"

Wang Yanjing spoke up upon hearing this.

"Oh, oh, it's time to drink the nuptial wine!"

Upon hearing this, Lu Xingchen immediately realized, called the maid to lift the head cover with the Jade Balance Beam, and then drank the nuptial wine with her.

Wang Yanjing looked at the gentle and refined young man in front of her, slightly dazed, not expecting that she would choose to marry some day.

She had met many men in her early years who were even more outstanding than Lu Xingchen.

Yet at that time, she was solely focused on cultivation, with no thoughts of romance.

This serious injury, her cultivation realm fell, living a simple life she never had early on, completely changed her mindset and thoughts.

"This must be the right person at the right time."

With a smile in her eyes, Wang Yanjing thought this way.

"Sister Jing."

After drinking the nuptial wine, looking at Wang Yanjing, Lu Xingchen laughed, showing his teeth.

He also didn't expect that after saving her back then, they would become husband and wife.

"Call me 'wife'!"

Seeing his silly demeanor, Wang Yanjing said with a hint of annoyance.

"Oh, oh."

Lu Xingchen hurriedly smiled and called out, "Wife."

"Husband."

Wang Yanjing smiled gently, softly called him, her brows showing a bit of shy beauty, captivating beyond belief.

....

As Lu Changsheng and Nangong Yaoyao returned to the Immortal Spider Marketplace, a purple silhouette shot towards them, embracing Nangong Yaoyao, full of longing and worry, and said: "Yaoyao, are you alright?"

"Nangong Mili, what do you mean by this?"

Lu Changsheng, seeing this scene, was instantly displeased.

He had brought his daughter back at the first instance, yet she seemed so tense and defensive, as if Lu Ancestor would harm his own daughter.

"Hmph!"

Nangong Mili instinctively wanted to greet Lu Changsheng warmly.

But thinking of her daughter beside her, she swallowed her words and snorted coldly.

"Mother, I'm alright. Daddy took me to the Myriad Beasts Mountain Range and even caught two spiritual pets for me."

Nangong Yaoyao quickly realized that there seemed to be an issue between her parents, pretended not to know, and cheerfully said with an adorable laugh.

"Myriad Beasts Mountain Range!?"

Nangong Mili was surprised to hear this.

It should be noted that from Immortal Spider Marketplace to Myriad Beasts Mountain Range, even with her utmost speed, it would take more than half a month.

Yet Lu Changsheng and daughter Nangong Yaoyao took only about a month for their outing.

In this time, the two even had time to play and catch spiritual pets?

At this moment, Nangong Mili could determine that Lu Changsheng must have some kind of flying magical treasure or mount, with extremely fast speed.

Thinking about him having such a mount treasure, but not using it when traveling with her, Nangong Mili felt quite annoyed.

"Could it be that this vile man deliberately tormented me along the way!?"

Recalling the journey, Nangong Mili felt humiliated and aggrieved, shooting a fierce look with her beautiful, clear, phoenix eyes at Lu Changsheng.
