

I. Family 1398

Chapter 1398: Nangong Mili: This dog-like man only has his daughter in his eyes!

“Regarding this aspect, I’m not clear on the specifics.”

“I only know that he killed the son of Ghost Demon True Master early on, thus being hunted by Ghost Demon True Master.”

Meng Xiaochan softly spoke.

She knew about this matter because Nangong Yaoyao wanted the Six-Winged Golden Silkworm, so she paid attention to the news in this regard.

“Then, about a year ago, a message suddenly spread that under the pursuit of Ghost Demon True Master’s disciple ‘Teng Li’ and a group of Foundation Establishment cultivators, not only did he successfully escape, but he also killed the Ninth Level Foundation Establishment Teng Li, causing quite a stir.”

“Ghost Demon True Master was furious and offered a Core Formation Spiritual Object and a ‘Blood Ghost Condensing Evil Pill’ as a reward for him.”

Meng Xiaochan continued speaking.

Lu Changsheng was surprised to hear this.

Unexpectedly, his son had caused such a commotion in Jin Kingdom.

He was even hunted by a Nascent Soul Immortal for many years, and had been pursued by more than ten Foundation Establishment cultivators at most!

At this moment, he roughly understood the situation with his son's lifespan.

It's likely that these years have been spent fighting desperately with others or on the run.

With such a life, how can one not have a shortened lifespan?

However, his son's battle achievements also astonished him greatly.

Being chased by a Ninth Level Foundation Establishment and over ten Foundation Establishment cultivators, not only did he escape, he even killed one.

Although he was not sure of these people's strength.

But this 'Teng Li', being a disciple of a Nascent Soul Immortal, certainly has extraordinary strength, not the kind of trash Foundation Establishment.

“Lu Lang, this person is....”

Meng Xiaochan looked at Lu Changsheng with worried eyes and asked softly.

“He is my son.”

Lu Changsheng exhaled deeply and said solemnly.

“Indeed.”

Meng Xiaochan was somewhat relieved that she hadn't pursued persistently back then. She lightly bit her lips, feeling a bit uneasy, saying: “Earlier, I didn't know he was connected with Lu Lang, so half a year ago, when he appeared here in the Immortal Spider Marketplace, I also made a move against him...”

“It's okay, Xiaochan, do you know where he is now?”

Lu Changsheng did not blame the other party.

If Meng Xiaochan had known Lu Quanzhen was his son, she definitely wouldn't have made a move, and might even have protected him.

So, in this kind of matter, he couldn't blame the other party either.

Now he just wanted to know where Lu Quanzhen was, and what was his situation.

The other party's cultivation level was breaking through crazily, yet his lifespan was constantly decreasing, indicating there was a problem with his current situation.

Possibly he obtained some kind of fortune, but he might also have encountered danger!

"I'm not sure about this either, I'll send someone to investigate now."

Meng Xiaochan immediately said.

"Alright, Xiaochan, thank you, if there's any news, inform me immediately."

Lu Changsheng nodded.

Seeing Meng Xiaochan walking out, he still felt a bit uneasy, took out a Blood Tracking Talisman, and smeared his blood and Qu Zhenzhen's blood on it.

But this Blood Tracking Talisman could only sense the location of Nangong Yaoyao, and could not sense other bloodlines, indicating that Lu Quanzhen was either thousands of miles away or in some Cave Heaven Secret Realm.

Meanwhile, in another hall.

Nangong Yaoyao, with an innocent and cheerful look, looped her arm around her mother's, concerned about her trip to Jiang Country.

However, when she mentioned her father, Nangong Mili's face immediately turned frosty, saying: "Don't associate with this person too much!"

"Why, I think dad is quite good..."

Nangong Yaoyao became increasingly curious about her parents' relationship, trying to say something nice for her old father.

And she took out the Heavenly Fragrance Gu given by Lu Changsheng, saying: "Mom, look, this is also a gift from dad..."

"Whatever you want, just tell mom..."

Nangong Mili saw her daughter had only known Lu Changsheng for two months, yet she was already speaking on behalf of this scoundrel man, a few sour and jealous feelings arose in her heart.

However, when she saw the pink, fragrant silkworm in her daughter's hand, her phoenix eyes instantly focused, noticing something amiss.

“This is...”

She held the ‘Heavenly Fragrance Gu’ in her hand, carefully examining it.

At the same time, the Gu insects inside her body awoke, transmitting a mysterious stirring aura.

“Heavenly Spirit Gu!?”

Nangong Mili's stunningly beautiful face was now filled with a surprised expression.

Although she was a Nascent Soul Immortal, she still didn't possess a Heavenly Spirit Gu.

On one hand, Heavenly Spirit Gu is precious and rare, extremely difficult to obtain.

On another hand, it is far too difficult to acquire a Heavenly Spirit Gu that suits oneself.

If the Gu insects aren't suitable for oneself, even if it's a Heavenly Spirit Gu, it would be a waste of time and effort to cultivate.

She noticed this pink Gu insect exudes a fragrant aroma, making one feel refreshed and conscious, instantly realizing this Gu insect has a few matches with her daughter.

“This is from that scoundrel... your father gave it to you?”

She looked at Nangong Yaoyao with a suspicious expression.

It's known that Heavenly Spirit Gu is incredibly rare.

This scoundrel man not only obtained a Heavenly Spirit Gu, but it also matched her daughter's constitution, clearly showing he spent significant effort, indicating he really does care deeply for this daughter in his heart.

But the next moment, she recalled the time they were together, knowing he constantly abused her, offering no gifts, yet he was so focused on their daughter...

“Hmph, this scoundrel man's eyes are indeed only for his own children!”

Nangong Mili recalled how Lu Changsheng abused her with myriad ways back in the day, yet his attitude changed dramatically upon knowing she was pregnant, expressing tender affection, a wave of sourness and melancholy in her heart.

“Yes, dad said this Gu insect is called ‘Heavenly Fragrance Gu’, and its effect is similar to my Flawless Heavenly Fragrance Body...”

Nangong Yaoyao introduced the effect of this Heavenly Fragrance Gu to her mother with a bright, cute smile.

On one hand, she was saying nice things for her old father.

On the other hand, she was also recognizing the situation of this Gu insect through her mother.

“Heavenly Fragrance Gu... during the Fourth Transformation, it requires divine fragrance, and others’ faith incense to nurture... could this be destiny...”

Nangong Mili heard these words, murmuring to herself in her heart.
