Chapter 1401: White Lotus True Monarch, Stunning Beauty!

Five Poisons Cult.

Amidst the swirling clouds and mist, on a mountain peak vibrant with colors, stood a temple resembling an emerald poison scorpion lying in wait.

The great hall was strange and magnificent, filled with an aura of grandeur and antiquity, square in shape and covered with multicolored vines.

Among the vines and trees, many snakes, insects, centipedes, and spiders crawled, making rustling, unsettling sounds that enveloped the entire hall in a mysterious and unpredictable atmosphere.

“Tap, tap, tap—”

At this moment, figures with solemn expressions and respectful demeanors ascended the jade steps, arriving before the temple.

“Mother.”

Today, Nangong Yaoyao’s attire was entirely different from usual.

A simple purple dress embroidered with snakes, scorpions, spiders, and butterflies.

Her jade neck, snow-white hands, slender waist, and ankles were all adorned with exquisitely designed multicolored silver jewelry.

Her long, black, glossy hair was braided into intricate plaits, and she wore an ancient, heavy silver crown, lending her an air of enigmatic mystery.

This was the attire of the Five Poisons Cult, only worn on significant occasions.

Nangong Mili, and other cultivators of the Five Poisons Cult were dressed similarly.

However, compared to her daughter Nangong Yaoyao, Nangong Mili's dress and silver accessories were even more elaborate, luxurious, and heavy.

"Don't be nervous."

Nangong Mili smiled at her daughter, indicating she needn't worry.

Yet despite her words, she herself was a bit anxious.

After all, what was about to happen might affect her daughter's future.

"Come in."

A moment later, a crisp, youthful voice filled with authority resonated from within the hall.

"Yes!"

These people immediately bowed, then whispered a few words to the young men and women beside them, entering the hall with full respect and solemnity.

The hall was vast and profound, with walls depicting lifelike Gu insects, snakes, scorpions, and poison beasts, permeated with an indescribable scent of Gu poison, causing their own Gu insects to become particularly active at this moment.

"Greetings to the Sect Hierarch, greetings to the White Lotus True Monarch!"

"Greetings to the Sect Hierarch, greetings to the White Lotus True Monarch!"

"Greetings to the Sect Hierarch, greetings to the White Lotus True Monarch!"

Upon entering the deep recesses of the hall, they immediately saw above, seated, a girl of seven or eight, with a jade-like face, delicate and exquisite, and a figure like a goddess, seemingly bathed in holy light.

However, they dared not look too closely, and upon entering, they swiftly bowed, fearing to show disrespect.

“True Monarch.”

At this point, the Five Poisons Cult Leader looked at the White Lotus True Monarch beside her, speaking with a touch of reverence.

Though both were Nascent Soul True Lords.

Even among Nascent Soul there are ranks and distinctions.

For a Nascent Soul Cultivator like White Lotus True Monarch, even as merely an elder of the Immortal Lotus Sect, her status, position, and strength were not something the leader of a cult like her could compare to.

“No need for excessive formalities, raise your heads.”

The White Lotus True Monarch’s voice was like a gentle breeze, or like distant white clouds, soft and graceful, calming and refreshing, giving all the cultivators present a sense of relief, making their minds and bodies feel light and naturally serene.

“Is this the means of the Immortal Lotus Sect!?”

The cultivators of the Five Poisons Cult present naturally understood many strange and unorthodox methods.

Through these captivating and alluring words, they realized the terror of the White Lotus True Monarch.

A mere gesture could capture one's mental spirit!

“Is this the Sect Hierarch and the White Lotus True Monarch?”

Nangong Yaoyao slowly raised her head, only then seeing clearly the appearance of her own Sect Hierarch and this envoy of the Immortal Lotus Sect.

Though she was a disciple of the Five Poisons Cult, and her mother was the Heavenly Spider Envoy of the Five Poisons Cult, it was her first time seeing the Five Poisons Cult Leader.

However, she already knew what the Cult Leader looked like, so she wasn't too surprised.

But when she looked at the White Lotus True Monarch, her expression froze, somewhat bewildered.

The White Lotus True Monarch was exceedingly beautiful, an illusion of beauty like a celestial being!

Her white lotus long dress outlined endless graceful curves, and her skin was as snow-white as ice, emanating an indescribable dignified holiness.

Her face, jade-like body, every inch of skin, even every strand of hair was exuding a flawless white sheen, as if bathed in a veil of holy light.

At the moment she saw her, Nangong Yaoyao felt a holy aura coming straight towards her.

Her physical body, and her soul, at this moment, seemed filled with impurity, wanting to kneel before her to purify her soul.

Not only her, but other cultivators of the Five Poisons Cult, even Nangong Mili felt a slight daze and a surge of inexplicable agitation upon seeing the White Lotus True Monarch.

However, being Core Formation True Man, they soon regained clarity, and a wave of shock surged within their hearts.

It was too strange!

The White Lotus True Monarch was truly too strange!

Just sitting still, a single glance could influence their mental spirit!

At this moment, they gained some understanding of the terror that was the Immortal Lotus Sect!

The White Lotus True Monarch had a faintly discernible holy smile at the corner of her lips, scrutinizing the people before her.

When her gaze fell upon Nangong Yaoyao, her crystalline, holy eyes flickered with ripples, her expression filled with wonder, “Eyebrows like painted moths, eyes shining with stars, fragrant skin and jade-like complexion, carved from jade, immensely charming, utterly magnificent, radiant as spring blossoms, this... how can one person possess so many beautiful features!”

“Wait, national beauty and heavenly fragrance, this is the aspect of national beauty and heavenly fragrance, merging various beautiful features!”

The White Lotus True Monarch looked at Nangong Yaoyao before her, examining her brows, eyes, and facial features, her slender jade-like body, her beautiful eyes filled with a look of joyful surprise.

This was not merely praising Nangong Yaoyao’s beauty, but the Observation Skill of the Immortal Lotus Sect!

The Cultivation Technique of the Immortal Lotus Sect placed great emphasis on appearance!

Even categorizing human appearance into ranks.

Such as flower-like looks, fresh as a lotus emerging from water, a face like a peach blossom, divine and bone-charming elegance, and icy skin and jade-like complexion, among others.

Possessing any one of these beautiful features, with Charming Technique cultivation, would lead to achieving twice the result with half the effort and becoming a disciple of the Immortal Lotus Sect.
