Chapter 1402: White Lotus True Monarch, a National Beauty and Heavenly Fragrance! _2

If one possesses various beautiful features, especially the higher tier features, it greatly aligns with the Immortal Lotus Sect's traditions!

Among these features, the exceptional beauty is paramount, a crown among the blossoms, reigning supreme!

Such a rare find, even for the Immortal Lotus Sect, is something hard to come by!

"Too beautiful, truly too beautiful."

"Not only does she possess exceptional beauty, but she also has a Spiritual Body!"

"Her entire being is flawless, pure and immaculate, her body fragrant, this is... the Flawless Heavenly Fragrance Body!"

She kept observing Nangong Yaoyao before her, her beautiful eyes full of admiration, and delight.

Unexpectedly, on this journey, she encountered a candidate with exceptional beauty.

If she were accepted as a disciple and taken back to the sect for proper cultivation, she would become a Nascent Soul seed for her branch.

With such talent, this girl might even compete for the position of Holy Maiden in the future after breaking through Nascent Soul!

The only regret she felt was that Nangong Yaoyao had already broken through Foundation Establishment.

If she hadn't started cultivating, or just begun, she would be impeccable!

"Hmm!?"

Beside her, the Five Poisons Cult Leader, dressed in a purple and red skirt and barefooted, followed White Lotus True Monarch's gaze to look at Nangong Yaoyao, her expression somewhat astonished.

She was somewhat aware of Nangong Yaoyao's situation.

Three days ago, Nangong Mili reported the matter of the Wind Centipede emissary to her.

She stated that her daughter had the 'Flawless Heavenly Fragrance Body', hence she encountered the Wind Centipede emissary's attack.

Initially, she intended to speak favorably of Nangong Yaoyao, but didn't expect the White Lotus True Monarch to immediately take a liking to her.

But even the 'Flawless Heavenly Fragrance Body' wouldn't cause this True Monarch to display such an expression, right!?

"What is your name?"

Surrounded by a halo of holy light, White Lotus True Monarch approached Nangong Yaoyao, speaking softly.

"Replying to True Monarch, my name is Nangong Yaoyao."

Facing this White Lotus True Monarch, for some reason, Nangong Yaoyao felt a sense similar to when she first saw her father's true appearance.

Like being in a refreshing spring breeze, a feeling of closeness and no sense of oppressive might.

She understood that this was the charm technique cultivated to the state of being one with oneself!

"Nangong Yaoyao."

White Lotus True Monarch smiled and said: "You should join my Immortal Lotus Sect, are you willing to be my disciple?"

"What!?"

"This!?"

With these words, everyone present was astonished, looking at Nangong Yaoyao with incredulity.

No one expected that in such a short moment, the White Lotus True Monarch would want to accept Nangong Yaoyao as a disciple.

It's well-known in the cultivation world, the master-disciple relationship is no trivial matter, symbolizing inheritance!

Although many demonic path cultivators take disciples with ulterior motives.

But the White Lotus True Monarch here is a Nascent Soul True Lord!

The cultivator of this caliber, whose words carry great weight, would unlikely do such a thing under the guise of accepting a disciple.

At this moment, several Core Formation True Men looked enviously at Nangong Mili.

Nangong Yaoyao being noticed by White Lotus True Monarch and accepted as a disciple would likely elevate Nangong Mili's status as the Heavenly Spider emissary in the Five Poisons Cult.

Other Qi Refinement and Foundation Establishment disciples also looked at Nangong Yaoyao with envy and jealousy.

Because everyone knows that coming here today is like a fish jumping the dragon gate—a chance!

If noticed by White Lotus True Monarch and admitted into the Immortal Lotus Sect, becoming a bridge between the two sects, it equates to gaining the Core Formation opportunity, and in high probability, reaching Core Formation in the future!

But Nangong Yaoyao was not only noticed by White Lotus True Monarch but also proactively accepted as a disciple by her!

What kind of fortuity is this!

This is an unparalleled opportunity!

Even Nangong Mili at this moment was in a daze, wondering if she heard correctly.

After all, she was only confident her daughter could be selected for the Immortal Lotus Sect, not expecting White Lotus True Monarch to directly take a liking and speak of accepting her as a disciple.

"Being favored by True Monarch, it is Yaoyao's great fortune, I wonder what virtue and ability does Yaoyao possess to be noticed by True Monarch?"

Nangong Yaoyao lightly pressed her tender lips, her expression joyful, excited yet a little fearful and speechless.

"Little girl's disposition is quite admirable, facing my acceptance, she doesn't immediately agree."

White Lotus True Monarch saw that Nangong Yaoyao wasn't as outwardly joyous and fearful as she appeared, but was actually questioning the purpose behind her acceptance.

However, she didn't mind this and even nodded approvingly.

After all, for White Lotus True Monarch, accepting disciples is about talent and appearance, and also testing the heart and nature!

But as Nangong Yaoyao possessed a Spiritual Body and had exceptional beauty, once taken back to the sect, all other Nascent Soul True Lords might compete with her.

So she bypassed the test of nature and directly spoke of acceptance.

"Do you know anything about the Immortal Lotus Sect?"

White Lotus True Monarch, with a face of unmatched grace, her body radiating a dignified and concrete holy light, very sacred.

"The mortal world is like a prison, all living beings suffer, reincarnation never ceases, troubles never end, pity for the people, the lotus descends from heaven, escaping the sea of suffering, eternal peace, Lotus Holy Mother, true ethereal homeland!"

Nangong Yaoyao immediately bowed, a face full of respect, sincerely said.

"Hehe."

White Lotus True Monarch wore a faint holy smile, chuckled lightly, her voice seemingly close yet like coming from afar.

Although the doctrine is so, she knew that her Immortal Lotus Sect's image in the hearts of the Five Poisons Cult and other demonic sects.

"My Immortal Lotus Sect accepts disciples differently from other sects, valuing not only spiritual root talent but also appearance and features!"

White Lotus True Monarch's voice was delicate, serene, and comfortable, slowly said:
"Features rank in levels, and among various beautiful features, the exceptional beauty is paramount."

"You have the exceptional beauty!"

She looked at Nangong Yaoyao and said.

"Exceptional beauty!?"

The cultivators present, while knowing of the Immortal Lotus Sect, had little knowledge of it.

Hearing this now, they realized it had something to do with appearance and looks.
