

I. Family 1407

Chapter 1407: Farewell, Failed Escape!_2

Seeing Lu Changsheng's genuine affection for his daughter, with no ulterior motives, her opinion of Lu Changsheng changed somewhat.

She thought that if this dog of a man wasn't so full of sweet talk and inclined towards lust, he might not be so bad...

"Mmm~"

The young girl saw that her parents' relationship had eased considerably, her smile was as beautiful as a flower.

Then, full of apologies, she said to Lu Changsheng, "Daddy, I already know about Quanzhen brother's situation. If you find him, please apologize on my behalf. Yaoyao didn't intend to hurt him back then."

"It's alright, no conflicts, no acquaintances. In the future, Daddy will introduce you both to each other."

Lu Changsheng said with a smile.

"Mmm mmm."

Nangong Yaoyao nodded vigorously.

Then she looked at her mother, batting her eyes, appearing pitifully, "Mom, if you have the time, please help look for Quanzhen brother too. He's wanted by the Ghost Demon True Master and it's very dangerous."

Nangong Mili knew her daughter was giving her an out, creating a chance to ease relations with Lu Changsheng.

In the past, she absolutely wouldn't care.

In fact, she thought if not killing Lu Changsheng's son, that would already be pretty good, yet asking for help?

But now, seeing her daughter's hopeful gaze, her beautiful phoenix eyes were full of gentle ripples, she nodded and agreed, "Alright."

"Thank you, mom."

Nangong Yaoyao immediately said happily.

"What's this about thanking your mom?"

Nangong Mili's voice was gentle, her face full of doting affection, without the slightest trace of her old witch-like demeanor.

However, when she looked at Lu Changsheng, she immediately had a cold and noble expression, with an indifferent voice, "I'll take Yaoyao back, and then send someone to investigate the information regarding Lu Quanzhen."

"If there's any news, they'll rush over immediately. You can continue on to the Ancient Secluded Immortal City."

Even if she had a somewhat changed view of Lu Changsheng, she didn't show him a good face.

"Alright, in that case, troubles you, Mili."

Lu Changsheng didn't mind the attitude at all.

Food should be eaten bite by bite.

If it weren't for his daughter's words, even if this woman had melted a bit, she wouldn't be willing to help him find his son.

But at this moment, he also had a clear understanding of his daughter's weight in Nangong Mili's heart.

He understood why Nangong Mili got so nervous, as if it were a reflex, when she heard he wanted to see his daughter.

His daughter was indeed a reverse scale in her heart!

"Mmm mmm, Daddy, take care, Yaoyao will miss you!"

Nangong Yaoyao heard this, and didn't say much more to Lu Changsheng.

Her trip to the Immortal Spider Marketplace had already delayed her quite a while.

"Alright, when Daddy and Mommy have time, we'll come visit you."

Lu Changsheng said seriously.

As soon as he finished speaking, Nangong Mili swiftly shot off with her Magical Treasure, breaking through the sky and disappearing.

"Whew!"

Lu Changsheng took a deep breath, exhaling long and full, feeling an unexplained melancholy in his heart.

But thinking that he managed to come back in time to say goodbye to his daughter, he felt somewhat relieved.

Otherwise, who knew how many years it would have been until they could see each other again.

At this moment, he thought of his children far away in Yu Country's Jinyang Sect.

Now with the 'Tianyuan Lotus,' he could transplant the 'Abyssal Ghoulish Blossom' into the Tianyuan Lotus upon returning home, and with Lu Miaoge and Lu Miaohuan, head to Yue Country to see his children.

And having the Golden-Winged Heavenly Peng made travel to and from Yue Country very convenient.

Without thinking much more, Lu Changsheng entered the marketplace, knowing Meng Xiaochan had sent him a message about the daughter's farewell, he didn't say much.

He just instructed her to relay Lu Quanzhen's information to Nangong Mili later, and if there was any news, to directly inform Nangong Mili, then he rode on the Golden-Winged Heavenly Peng to leave, heading towards the Ancient Secluded Immortal City.

On the Purple Flying Band.

"Yaoyao, mom doesn't have much to give you, take this Misty Sky Bead..."

Nangong Mili said to her daughter, momentarily not knowing what other gift to give.

After all, her daughter didn't lack anything.

Lu Changsheng had mentioned his daughter lacked offensive capabilities.

In reality, she already prepared many trump cards for her daughter.

Except that previously, when Nangong Yaoyao went to the Myriad Beasts Mountain Range with Lu Changsheng, it was not appropriate to use these trump cards just for demon beast training.

Moreover, her daughter had apprenticed to a Nascent Soul True Lord and would not lack anything in the future.

So she thought it through and decided to give the Misty Sky Bead that Lu Changsheng had given her, to her daughter.

Upon experiencing it, she knew this Misty Sky Bead was very good for disguises.

Ordinary Nascent Soul Immortals wouldn't easily see through the disguise!

With this Misty Sky Bead, if her daughter was to train outside after entering the Immortal Lotus Sect, it would be much more convenient.

"Misty Sky Bead?"

Nangong Yaoyao examined the egg-sized, gray bead shrouded in mist in front of her.

"Yes."

Nangong Mili erased the markings from it, introducing the effects of the Misty Sky Bead to her daughter.

Toward the end of her explanation, she added, "This Misty Sky Bead is something your father gave to your mother, and now it's fitting to give it to you."

"Something Daddy gave to Mommy?"

The young girl blinked her eyes, arching her brows, "Could this be Daddy's token of love for Mommy?"

"Token of love..."

Nangong Mili was taken aback, feeling that there was indeed some truth to it.

But recalling how that dog of a man changed his attitude completely because she was carrying their daughter, she huffed coldly and said, "It's merely an ordinary Exotic Treasure."

"Since it's Daddy's token of love to Mommy, how could I dare to take it?"

Nangong Yaoyao grinned playfully, waving her hands in refusal.

Yet, Nangong Mili still placed the Misty Sky Bead in her hand and gave her some valuable Heaven and Earth Spiritual Materials from her Storage Ring for use in the Immortal Lotus Sect, in case she ran out of Spirit Stones.

A child traveling a thousand miles inspires a mother's worry, wishing only for Ping'an and all they could wish for.

Even though Nangong Mili was heartless and cruel in many cultivators' eyes, facing her daughter Nangong Yaoyao, she was just a mother wanting to give the best to her daughter.
