

I. Family 1433

Chapter 1433: The injuries are severe and require healing through the Sun Moon Samsara Technique!

"Yangming True Master!"

The Yinming Ghost King clenched his fists tightly, his face gloomy as water after seeing the disappearance of the Golden-Winged Heavenly Peng.

Today, their Yiming Ghost Sect being provoked in such a manner was simply a great humiliation!

"Ghost Demon True Master, did you say that the Shocking Heaven Old Demon and the Five Poisons Cult's Heavenly Spider suddenly appeared?"

At this time, he looked towards the Ghost Demon True Master beside him and asked coldly.

Although the grievances are clear, it ends here.

But this great loss, how could their Yiming Ghost Sect possibly swallow it!

If the Supreme Elder did not break through to the Nascent Soul, it would be fine.

Once their Supreme Elder breaks through to the Nascent Soul, they will naturally settle this matter with the other party!

"Yes, Sect Master."

The Ghost Demon True Master at this moment seemed much older, with a somewhat stooped figure.

The compensation given to Lu Changsheng would mostly be accounted on him afterward.

At this moment, as if thinking of something, he spoke: "Sect Master, Nangong Mili might know the identity information of this person."

"At that time, Nangong Mili faced the Shocking Heaven Old Demon and mentioned 'do you know the identity of this person', although the identity information was not revealed, he might know something."

The Ghost Demon True Master said in a hoarse voice.

"Nangong Mili..."

The Yinming Ghost King's face slightly tightened.

He felt that Nangong Mili's involvement was somewhat strange when he heard the Ghost Demon True Master's words.

After pondering for a moment, he looked at the Ghost Princess beside him and inquired about Chu Qingyi's situation, wanting to know the other's background.

Previously, Chu Qingyi caused some commotion, but he didn't know what was going on.

"Reporting to the Sect Master..."

The enchanting woman immediately recounted the situation of Chu Qingyi and the divine skills Lu Changsheng used after appearing.

"Screech!"

The Golden-Winged Heavenly Peng spread its wings in the sky, stirring up fierce gang winds like a golden rainbow, directly charging into the Ninth Heavenly Gang Wind Layer.

Lu Changsheng placed Lu Quanzhen into the Tianyuan Lotus.

At this speed of flight, he must expend great magical power to protect Lu Quanzhen.

But after the recent battle, he was greatly depleted and could no longer afford to waste mana.

"Hum!"

Meanwhile, the Nine Treasures Ruyi Bone Divine Skill ceased functioning, the enhancement of essence energy ebbed like a tide, making Lu Changsheng feel weak and sore all over, his face exhausted.

"Lu Daoist, are you okay?"

Chu Qingyi noticed the terrifying spiritual pressure, as boundless as the sea around Lu Changsheng, dissipate, his aura somewhat chaotic, and immediately showed concern.

She had been worried that Lu Changsheng, using secret techniques to enhance his cultivation strength, might cause some damage or aftereffects.

After all, these kinds of secret techniques often have side effects, causing stress and damage to the body.

And Lu Changsheng's enhancement was terrifyingly extreme, lasting so long, it bound to have adverse effects.

"Cough, cough, cough..."

Lu Changsheng immediately coughed twice.

Then, his weak and unstable body leaned on Chu Qingyi's tall and graceful figure, shaking his head and gently saying, "I'm fine, just a bit weak, I'll be fine after a rest..."

Being held like this by Lu Changsheng, Chu Qingyi lightly bit her red lips and then supported him, softly saying, "Lu Daoist, we must leave the region boundary of the Yiming Ghost Sect as soon as possible."

"The Ghost Bat True Master must know that you will be in a weak period next, and might invite a Diviner to deduce your situation."

Although grievances are clear.

But she was very aware that such matters, the Yiming Ghost Sect would not easily let go.

"Divination?"

Lu Changsheng raised an eyebrow.

His "Fate-Defying Robe" had the effect of blocking divination deductions.

The Tianyuan Lotus could also obscure heavenly secrets.

Unless the Yiming Ghost Sect invites a Fourth Rank Divination Master and spends life span, it would be difficult to deduce his situation information.

"Don't worry, I have a secret treasure that can isolate divination deductions and confuse heavenly secrets."

Lu Changsheng embraced Chu Qingyi, resting his head on her fragrant shoulder, inhaling the scent of her hair, and said gently.

"..."

Feeling the hot breath by her ear and the hands clasped around her waist and hips, Chu Qingyi's delicate body trembled slightly, feeling somewhat weak, thinking to herself how could he be so restless in this condition...

But considering Lu Changsheng's current state of weakness, she didn't say anything.

"The Tianyuan Lotus has the effect of obscuring and concealing heavenly secrets deductions, but before Quanzhen fell into the hands of the Ghost Demon True Master, we must still be careful."

"These Demonic Path cultivators, cultivating the Blood Path Cultivation Technique, might have Quanzhen's blood, potentially allowing them to deduce clues."

Chu Qingyi knew that Lu Changsheng's "Tianyuan Lotus" was just one step short of advancing to the "Heavenly Yuan Dao Lotus", which would have the effect of obscuring heavenly secrets.

But aside from Lu Changsheng himself, Lu Quanzhen must also be cautious.

Hearing this, Lu Changsheng immediately realized that not only Lu Quanzhen but also Meng Xiaochan and Nangong Mili should be reminded to be careful.

A few days ago, he had been with Lu Quanzhen at the Immortal Spider Marketplace.

If the Yiming Ghost Sect invites a Divination Grandmaster, they might trace some clues.

"No wonder few dare to provoke these major forces; not only do you need to crush them in strength, but you must be alone, without any weak points, otherwise, it is too easy to leave hidden threats."

Lu Changsheng pondered in his mind, realizing that these top-level forces are very troublesome to deal with; making sure there are no hidden risks and being foolproof is extremely difficult.

Otherwise, once these forces get some clues, they might someday appear like a venomous snake, coming up to bite you.

"If you don't have other items to confuse heavenly secrets, let Quanzhen stay in the Cave Heaven as much as possible during this time."

"When I return, I will apply for a Heavenly Secrets Jade from the sect, which can block heavenly secrets deductions."

Chu Qingyi said softly.

Although there are few who are proficient in divination deductions, one cannot be too careful.

Therefore, the Immortal Sects have measures to prevent heavenly secrets deductions.

Otherwise, if the sect's true inheritors or elders go out, and their general situation is deduced by enemy forces, wouldn't everything be in vain, even leading to interception and assassination.
