

I! GOD LEVEL ELEMENTALIST

Chapter 2

"Ding! Does the host use the system?"

Qin Feng suppressed his excitement and looked at Chen Ming.

It's not convenient for outsiders to be present now.

"Qin Feng, this box contains Zuo Li's pension, as well as her personal property and belongings during her lifetime. According to her will, it was left to you brothers and sisters."

Chen Ming walked into the house and placed the black wooden box in his arms on the old dining table.

"Cherish it! This was also Zuo Li's last thought.", Chen Ming patted the wooden box gently with emotion on his face.

Qin Feng was also touched.

Zuo Li's husband and child died in the beast wave a long time ago, and she has always transferred her longing and love for her child to Their brother and sister.

Now, she has also passed away.

In these troubled times, the lives of the weak are precarious, and no one knows how long they can live.

"Remember to report to the Guards in three days. remember! Don't be late! Otherwise, a major demerit will be recorded. Three serious offenses, expulsion as a refugee, and expulsion from the base. You two must not make such a stupid mistake."

Chen Ming gave a few more instructions before leaving.

He also wanted to take care of the brother and sister. After all, one was seventeen and the other was only thirteen, both of whom were too young.

It's a pity that in these troubled times, mercy is a luxury

"Brother, Aunt Zuo Li, she....."

Chu Chu looked at the wooden box, her eyes red again.

"There is no resurrection after death. Little girl, we have to look forward..."

Qin Feng gently stroked Chu Chu's little head, feeling a little distressed.

"Brother, I'm so worried that one day we will be separated like this. If, one day, my brother is gone, I don't want to live anymore....."

Chu Chu's tears were rolling in her eyes

"Silly girl, what are you talking about? Isn't my brother a good person? Stop thinking nonsense, brother will definitely protect you"

"Um!", the little girl rubbed her eyes obediently

"Little girl, please handle Aunt Zuo Li's relics. Brother, I need to go out for a while."

"Okay!", Chu Chu nodded obediently.

After leaving home, Qin Feng went downstairs and quickly found an uninhabited alley.

"System, let's get started!"

"Ding! Automatically scan the host's training qualifications...data is being generated...."

"Generate 10%...20%...40%....Data generation successful....."

A light screen appeared in Qin Feng's mind, and his own attribute panel appeared on it.

Host: Qin

Feng. Wind sensitivity: 0.7 (only when it reaches 1 or above can you have the talent for cultivation)

Thunder sensitivity: 0.7 (only when it reaches 1 or above can you have the talent for cultivation) )

Ice sensitivity: 0.5 (only when it reaches 1 or above will you have the talent to practice)

"Ding! The test result shows that the host does not have the talent to become an elementalist."

"nonsense!"

Qin Feng couldn't help complaining.

If he has talent, he is no longer a refugee.

In this world, when children are 10 years old, they can go to government departments to test their talent for free.

As long as they are found to be talented, they will be focused on training by the government, and they will rise to the top in one step.

"Ding! Novice rewards are distributed, and the reward is: a wind qualification enhancer (magic product)!"

"Ding! May I ask the host if it is used?"

"use!"

Qin Feng was a little nervous.

If after strengthening, the sensitivity has not reached 1, he will be useless.

"Ding! Qualifications are being strengthened....."

A warm energy poured into Qin Feng's limbs and bones, quietly transforming his body, sometimes itching, sometimes warm, and feeling strangely comfortable.

He couldn't help but close his eyes and immerse himself in the transformation.

This feeling lasted for several minutes

"Ding! Congratulations to the host, the wind qualification has been successfully strengthened!"

Qin Feng couldn't wait to open his attribute panel.

Host: Qin Feng

Wind talent: Peerless

Thunder talent: Not strengthened (no talent yet)

Ice talent: Not strengthened (no talent yet)

"Oh My God! The talent of wind element has been strengthened, and it is still peerless. This strengthening agent is too awesome!"

Qin Feng was full of surprises.

As far as he knew, people with cultivation talents are only one in a thousand.

But cultivation talents are also divided into: ordinary, good, excellent, genius, peerless and other levels.

Most elemental masters have ordinary talents..

A good talent can only appear once in 100,000 people. An excellent talent can appear once in 10 million people.

Genius level is even rarer. There is only one person in the entire Yunyang base city, and that is the city lord of Yunyang City.

Peerless level, There are only a handful of them in the world, and all of them are giants.

"Ding! It is detected that the host already possesses cultivation talent, and is rewarded with the cultivation technique"Elemental Meditation"» ....."

The next second, a large amount of information poured into Qin Feng's mind, allowing him to quickly master the method of cultivation.

"Ding! Reward the host's talent skill—God-level Devouring! Character template re-planning....."

Qin Feng felt something in his heart and pulled out his attribute panel.

Practitioner: Qin

Feng Wind realm (peerless): Not yet practiced

Talent skill: God-level swallowing (this skill can forcibly swallow beast cores and demon cores)

"Can beast cores and demon cores be swallowed?"

Qin Feng was shocked.

The so-called beast core is the heart core of a vicious beast, which is the energy source of the beast.

The monster beast is the heart core of the beast.

These two things must not be eaten directly. This is the consensus of mankind.

"Ding! Reward the host with a wind beast core (level 4)!"

Qin Feng thought, and there was a green beast core in his hand.

"Can this thing really be swallowed?"

Qin Feng still couldn't believe it.

The beast's core was extremely hard. Some people had tried to calcine it at a high temperature of 10,000 degrees, but they couldn't melt it.

After hesitating, he still swallowed the beast's core.

The swallowing skill started automatically.

The beast's core turned out to be very fast. Dissolved and turned into a powerful heat flow, flowing to Qin Feng's limbs and bones, quickly strengthening his body.

After a few minutes, Qin Feng's eyes glowed with green light.

He could see further and hear further, his The six senses have been greatly strengthened, and the strength has also increased a lot.

"Ding! Devouring wind beast core (level 4) successfully, body wind quality +84%..."

"No way?! Is it so stylish? Have I entered the realm of physical strength so quickly?"

Qin Feng couldn't believe it.

But the changes in his body made him realize that all this was true.

He quickly pulled out his attribute panel.

Practitioner: Qin Feng, wind system realm: late stage of strong body realm (wind quality) 84%)

Talent skill: God-level Devouring

"It's so fast to reach the late stage of physical strengthening."

Qin Feng was full of surprises.

If you want to become an elemental master, you must first pass through the strong body realm.

The so-called strong body realm means that those with cultivation talents use the power of elements to temper themselves. For example, the physical body is tempered with the power of fire to reach the level of fire. If you achieve 100% qualitative improvement and make further breakthroughs, you will become a Star Fire Master.

It takes more than twenty years, or even thirty or forty years for most people to break through to the late stage of the strong body state. Qin Feng broke through to the late stage of the strong body state in less than a few minutes.

According to this progress, it won't take long for him to break through to the Nine-Star Wind Elemental Master.

The Nine-Star Elemental Master is the top existence on the earth and the real controller on the earth. It is a great existence that people can only hope to reach..Since the earth mutated, human beings have been united together and no longer divided into countries. The nine-star elemental master is the true leader of mankind, with a higher status than the head of state before the earth mutated.

After all, before the mutated earth, there were two hundred There are more than 200 heads of state in many countries.

Today, there are only seven nine-star elemental masters on the earth.

They have the power of life and death, and are more domineering than the ancient emperors.

After all, the ancient emperors were afraid of arousing public anger and did not dare to go too far. Being rebelled by others, these nine-star elemental masters don't have to worry at all.

Here, the strength is supreme, and no one under the nine stars can shake them.

Thinking of this, Qin Feng's ambitions completely burned.....
