

I! GOD LEVEL ELEMENTALIST

Chapter 20

After the brother and sister had dinner, Chu Chu went to play with her mobile phone excitedly.

Qin Feng was meditating and practicing.

Chu Chu was not surprised by this.

In the past few days, a lot of strange things have happened to Qin Feng. Now that he can practice, it is expected, so Chu Chu doesn't find it too strange.

In the room, Qin Feng sat on the bed, immersed himself in it, and began to meditate.

Although he had his eyes closed, he could feel cyan, blue, and white stars floating everywhere.

The cyan star point is the wind element force, the blue star point is the thunder element force, and the white star point is the ice element force.

Ordinary people cannot sense their existence at all.

If you can't sense it, you can't practice.

Only those with a sensitivity level of 1 or above can sense it and practice.

This is the threshold for becoming an elemental master, which is both simple and insurmountable.

Qin Feng's mind was immersed, and the surrounding wind energy, thunder energy, and ice energy surged in at the same time, pouring into his body crazily and flowing to the Shenting acupoint, accelerating the construction of the divine seal.

Fellow practitioners of the three systems, the power of the elements of the three systems can be absorbed at the same time, without delaying the progress of cultivation at all.....

At the same time, something was happening at Lin Xuyang's house in the center of Yunyang City.

The Lin family is one of the three wealthy families in Yunyang City.

At this moment, in a luxuriously decorated study room.

Doors and windows were closed tightly.

Behind the desk sat a man with a majestic temperament.

He is Lin Jianhao, the head of the Lin family.

At this moment, he looked at the two people standing in front of him seriously.

One is Lin Xuyang, who is in his twenties.

The other one is the white-faced middle-aged man Qin Feng has seen before. He is also the steward of the Lin family. His name is Bai Su. He is one of Lin Jianhao's confidants.

"Bai Su, when you got your phone back, Zhou Changtong had already sent a text message?", Lin Jianhao asked quietly

"Yes, my lord! I got my phone back at 6:13 p.m. That text message was sent at 6:04." Bai Su answered truthfully.

Lin Jianhao's expression turned gloomy:"So, the little girl should have seen the text message? Bai Su nodded:"

When I got the phone, the text message status showed read.""

As soon as these words came out, Lin Xuyang's expression turned ugly.

Lin Jianhao's eyes also flashed with a sinister light.

"Besides the little girl, did anyone else see it?"

"should not. The little girl was the only one in the room. She didn't seem to care. Her subordinates originally wanted to give her 10,000 coins as a thank you fee, but she refused. She seemed to be a very kind child."

"snort!", Lin Jianhao sneered, "What is kindness? Kindness is something that goes against human nature. It is only based on the premise that the interests are not harmed or the temptation is not big enough."

"This matter was exposed. In two days, the little girl will definitely know the truth....."

Speaking of this, Lin Jianhao looked at Lin Xuyang angrily

"Useless things! Your brother is devoted to cultivation and has no time to manage family affairs. I want you to learn to manage the family business and let you take charge of it on your own. This is the first task I gave you, and you made a mistake!"

"Dad, I...."

Lin Xuyang was ashamed.

The mistake he made this time was indeed too low-level. He actually lost the phone number specially used to contact Zhou Changtong.

"Dad, the phone has been recovered now. That little girl is just a refugee, she doesn't understand anything... Maybe she didn't pay attention to who was sending the text message."

"Just...even if she knew something two days later, as a refugee, who would believe what she said?! Lin

Xuyang tried his best to explain

"waste! Lin Jianhao was furious, "You are still making excuses for yourself, and you can't handle even this little thing!" You are also my son, why are you so much worse than Tianyang!"

Lin Xuyang lowered his head silently.

There was anger hidden in his eyes.

Every time, as long as he didn't do something well, his father would compare himself with his eldest brother, saying that he was not as good as him.

Why? I am also your son, and you look down on me so much.!

It's not that I don't have the talent to become an elemental master, or that my future potential is not as good as that of my elder brother.

You've always been so partial!

But I also tried hard! I also tried my best!

I even took the dangerous genetic medicine, and you also He didn't look at me. The more

Lin Xuyang thought about it, the angrier he became. The long-term depression made him mentally distorted.

As if he could see that Lin Xuyang was a little dissatisfied, Lin Jianhao shook his head slightly, with a feeling in his heart that he hated iron for not being able to become steel.

He let out a long breath. , said earnestly: "Have you ever thought about it, our Lin family has developed too fast in the past few years, and many opponents have secretly targeted us, especially the city lord... He has regarded our Lin family as the biggest opponent."

"In order to give your brother a chance to become a city lord in the future, and to give you a chance to become an elemental, we took the risk to carry out this plan."

"If any news leaks out, even if the opponents have no evidence, they will not hesitate... Even if they find out the truth, it will be bad."

These words made Lin Xuyang slightly moved.

He also realized the seriousness of the matter.

Lin Jianhao sighed again: "Although it is unlikely that the little girl will leak, there is no need for such a risk....."

"Dad, I get it. I'll make arrangements now and I'll take care of it!"

Lin Xuyang's eyes became sinister.

Lin Jianhao squinted and nodded slightly.

Lin Xuyang excused himself and left in a hurry.

He guessed what Lin Xuyang was going to do, but he didn't interfere. There are some things that should be let go and let his son do.

After Lin Xuyang left, Finally, Lin Jianhao lit a cigarette.

He took a few puffs slowly

"Bai Su!"

"grown ups!"

"Follow the second young master secretly and protect him!"

"Subordinates obey!"
