

I Have a Shop of Infinite Resources

Chapter 12

Hacker Invasion, High Alert

Mrs. Tang bought a lot of rice, flour, oil, and drinking water these days. Although Tang Susu had prepared a lot, she still bought as much as she wanted.

Her brothers brought back hundreds of barrels of gasoline which powered the car and generators.

Of course, they had also prepared generators. Two small ones were enough for home use, and one large one was enough for a middle school.

However, such a complex machine needed diesel to run, and they had to buy it tomorrow.

In addition, they also rented a few cars, motorcycles, off-road vehicles, SUVs, even larger MPVs, and even an RV! If they knew how to fly, they would have gotten a helicopter.

The ten million yuan was gone, and her brothers seemed to have borrowed money.

Tang Susu didn't have the time to ask for details. They protected her out of habit and forced her to stay at home, forbidding her from leaving.

With one day left, and only the finishing touches to be done, everyone did not feel the slightest bit relaxed.

Because as they prepared more and more resources, the apocalypse was approaching with an unstoppable momentum!

On the seventh day, Tang Susu woke up naturally. When she turned on the TV, she saw that it was broadcasting the "mauled by a beast" incident.

On the chaotic street, a few pixelated unknown beings roared and pounced at the humans. A group of people screamed and ran around, and soon there was a stampede.

The news focused on the stampede, but the existence of the so-called beast was blurred out through pixels. "The police will be here soon and take control of the situation. Citizens, there is no need to panic or believe in rumors!”

There were many discussions on the internet, but in the blink of an eye, the related topics quickly disappeared. The terrifying truth was only spread among a small number of people.

Tang Susu lowered her eyes and seemed to have made up her mind.

She went to Tang Mingqi’s room and turned on his computer.

Since the verbal notice seemed like a joke, then she would simply make it bigger!

Half an hour later, she flooded the entire internet with a virus and restored the blocked messages.

“Suspected to be infected by an unknown virus and turned into a living dead in the blink of an eye? Horror movie [Image] [Image]

[Zombies are attacking. They devour human flesh and blood. They are extremely contagious. Is this the end of humanity?] [Image]

“Abnormal crust movement, large-scale earthquakes, tsunamis, floods, and other disasters occurred all over the world. The Pacific Ocean rose by more than 2000 meters.

“A strange species has appeared in the infectious disease hospital. It bites and is bloodthirsty. There are no countermeasures, so we can only imprison them by force.”

Almost at the same time, all the people in the country who were using computers felt their vision go black!

Before they could cry out, a huge bright red exclamation mark appeared in the middle of the screen. It flashed three times.

A line of red words was accompanied by a scalp-numbing alarm.

[Attention, an unpredictable disaster is coming. Please be prepared!!!]

[Attention, an unpredictable disaster is coming. Please be prepared!!!]

[Attention, an unpredictable disaster is coming. Please be prepared!!!]

It was broadcasted three times in a row, and the alarm continued to sound, frightening everyone.

“Everyone, don’t panic. It’s a virus. It’s a prank by a hacker!”

Before he finished speaking, someone cried out, “Quick, look at the news!”

“Oh my god, what’s going on? It’s not just our company, but all the computers in the country have been hacked?”

An ominous premonition began to spread in their hearts.

“Why should I do that? Could it be the trick of the enemy?”

“This hacker probably doesn’t want to live anymore. If he’s caught, he might be shot to death!”

“That’s uncertain. If she can hack into all the computers in the country, she might be on a covert mission sanctioned by the authorities.”

Before they could make any headway, they, who had been paying attention to the latest news, soon found that several shocking headlines had made it to the hot search.

With a bang, everyone in the company exploded like boiling water!

“If this is a joke, then it must really be a bad joke!”

“If it’s not a joke then...”

A young and handsome man quickly walked out of the office. He frowned and waited for a while before the call finally connected.

“Mingzhou, whatever you told me about the day before yesterday... is it true?”
