Chapter 7

An Investigation Mission!

Thankfully, Mr. Tang was somewhat skilled and reacted faster than she did. However, instead of retreating, he rushed forward and tried to close the door.

“It can’t be closed. It knows how to open the door, and it’s very strong!” Tang Susu clenched the bone cleaver in her hand tightly. When she realized that her palm was sweaty, she quickly wiped it on her clothes.

Mr. Tang immediately grabbed the door handle and felt the force pulling the door. He was so anxious that his forehead was covered in sweat. What the hell was that thing?

“Zombie!”

Before he could finish his sentence, another one suddenly jumped out of the bathroom!

Now that everyone could clearly see what this thing looked like, they almost vomited.

Its face was ashen like a corpse, and its black eyes were so missing that only a vertical line was left. With a groan, a mass of bloody minced meat fell from its blood-covered mouth.

“Blargh!” Mrs. Tang vomited in disgust at the scene.

It turned its head stiffly and looked at the people at the door. Then, it looked at Mr. Tang and Susu in the room.

Then, it pounced impatiently at Susu, who seemed to be the easiest to deal with!

“AAAHHH!!!”

The entire family screamed in fear, but it was too late to run.

They could only watch as Susu was pushed down!

In the nick of time, Tang Susu’s fake action tricked the zombie. When its gray fingers were about to grab her, she turned around ingeniously!

Then, she flashed to the side of the zombie and raised the knife in her hand without hesitation.

Splatter!

Black blood splattered everywhere.

Fast, accurate, and ruthless; she didn’t even blink as she chopped off the zombie’s head.

The whole family was stunned for two seconds.

In order to prove herself, Tang Susu used almost all her strength. She loosened her grip, and her body went limp.

“Ah!” Tang Mingqi quickly ran over to catch her and picked her up. “Are you alright?”

Tang Susu’s face turned pale as she nodded slightly. This body was really too weak. Otherwise, she would have performed better.

Fortunately, Mr. Tang held the door at the critical moment and didn’t let the cat run out.

Tang Mingchu suppressed his disgust and fear, found a wooden stick, and placed it on the door frame to save Mr. Tang’s hands.

“Awesome!” He gave Tang Susu a thumbs-up. He didn’t even dare to look at it. It was so disgusting!

The whole family was shocked. Today’s Susu seemed to be possessed by a goddess of war, and her destructive power was otherworldly.

Tang Susu was embarrassed by the compliment. “Zombies are no longer human. It’s just like killing monsters in a game. It’s easy to overcome fear.”

Tang Mingchu, who was an avid gamer, looked at the mess on the ground, and his stomach churned again.

“That kid ...” Mrs. Tang said, remembering why they were here.

The family already had a bad feeling. They walked to the bathroom vigilantly and pushed the half-opened door hard.

An even thicker smell of blood hit them in the face, choking them so much that their breathing stopped.

A seven or eight-year-old girl had fallen into a pool of blood. Half of her face was gone, and her body was hollow. Her organs had been dug out.

Before they could react, the siren of the ambulance wailed downstairs.

Tang Susu’s eyes narrowed. “Hurry up and retreat, or we’ll have a hard time explaining.”

If they had killed that thing themselves, they might have stayed to cooperate with the investigation, but this matter concerned Susu, so no one dared to act rashly.

As soon as the family walked out, a report sounded in Tang Susu’s head.

Ding ding!

[Congratulations to the host for completing the exploration mission in the Novice quest. You will be rewarded 2 points for discovering two zombies and five points for killing one. Please continue to work hard!"]

Tang Susu was about to check the screen when she noticed that her third brother was looking at Room 905 next door.

Mr. Tang also thought of something. He quickly knocked on the door. "Chengya, Chengya, are you there? ... Chengya's at home alone so let's not frighten her."

Mrs. Tang followed suit, but no one responded. "Maybe she's not home. We don't have time. Let's go!"
