

I Have a Shop of Infinite Resources

Chapter 9

Selling Houses And Building Supplies

Half an hour later, the family sat around the coffee table and gathered all the money they had.

It wasn't easy for Tang Susu to take out her own money, but the original host had received a lot of red packets and pocket money over the years. People bought her everything she wanted, so she didn't need to spend her own money. Up to this point, she had saved up about 50000 yuan.

It was all cash, that piled up to a small hill.

Tang Mingqi was studying computer science at a top university. He was in his fourth year and had just interned for half a year. After deducting his expenses, he still had 10000 yuan left on his phone.

Tang Mingchu did not have a single cent and wished he could hide in a hole.

Mr. Tang surprised everyone with the fact that he had saved more than 30000 yuan by hiding his money. He looked embarrassed but a little proud at the same time.

At this time, Mrs. Tang came out of her room with a box. Everyone's eyes lit up. They knew that it was the "money box" she had locked in her closet.

"There's over 1.5 million in the passbook, over 200000 in the bank card, and two property ownership certificates. One is this house, and the other is the wedding house for the boss in Nancheng garden. There's more than 20000 in cash, and some gold and silver jewelry."

Then, everyone looked at Tang Susu. "How much do you need?"

She was the only one who knew what was going to happen. They couldn't predict what would happen in the future.

"All of it!"

Their hearts sank.

"It might not be enough."

"I can't even imagine how serious it is." Mrs. Tang patted her face and tried to stay calm, "Is it too late to sell the house now?"

Very soon, they urgently called Tang Mingzhou, who was still at work.

"Big brother!" Tang SuSu's eyes lit up as she looked at the gentle-natured man.

But before that, she first noticed his slightly limping foot.

She then remembered that five years ago, when Ying Chengya's parents were driving home, they had met her brother and gave him a ride.

In the end, there was a car accident on the road. In order to protect Ying Chengya who was next to him, her brother had lost a leg in the prime of his 20s.

After listening to the whole story, he touched the girl's soft long hair. "You're very brave, but you can't be so reckless next time, understand?"

Under his gentle and powerful gaze, Tang Susu couldn't help but nod. She reacted and was about to say that she could do it.

Tang Mingzhou turned serious. "This is a serious matter. We don't have much time left. I'll be responsible for selling two houses by today."

Working at a large securities company, he was very capable and was promoted to a manager position only two years after graduation. He still had a large sum of money in his bank account.

In addition to his salary of 800000 yuan, he had earned two million yuan by speculating in the stock market. Including the money from the others, he had almost five million yuan.

Although they were in a hurry to sell the two houses, one was in a good location, and the other was new, so they were worth five million yuan in total.

Ten million was not a lot, but it was not a small amount either.

Tang Mingqi rented a newly developed villa in the suburbs. The place was sparse, and it was quiet. They could live there for a while and store supplies.

Everyone had come to an agreement to keep the secret of the system, so they had to do a good job on the surface to prevent others from discovering anything unusual.

Tang Mingchu was responsible for ordering a large amount of food from nearby restaurants, such as congee, noodles, bento, hamburgers, pizza, milk tea, juice, and all kinds of specialty snacks. He was like a ruthless ordering machine, spending without flinching.

Every time the food was packed, he would quickly send it to the car and put it into the system backpack for Tang Susu. He made sure that when he took it out again, the delicious food would still be hot.

Tang Susu didn't stay idle either. She confirmed with the system again. "Are you sure that the more people we warn, the more points we will get?"
