

I Play Yu-Gi 101

Chapter 101: Speak Of The Devil

"Continuous Spell Force of Four!" Yuei Vu waved his arm, and the green card face in front of him had been turned over.

Marik was instinctively alert: "Is it another card I haven't seen?"

"Force of Four's effect if any player has more than four cards in their hands, they must discard the cards in their hands until there are four remaining cards," Yuei Vu said with a smile.

Marik's face was full of astonishment, and his mouth opened in an O shape for a while, unable to speak. (although it couldn't be seen from the puppet's face)

"You still have such a card!?"

Yuei Vu just smiled and didn't speak.

Unexpectedly! I also printed a card to counter you!

"You have 18 cards in your hand, Marik!" Yuei Vu pointed to Marik's hand cards, "Okay, according to the effect of the Force of Four, discard 14 cards for me."

Marik gritted his teeth. He looked down at the huge pile of cards in his hand, and in the end, he was extremely reluctant to pick out fourteen cards and send them to the GY.

The majestic Sky Dragon's attack power plummeted several times, and even the dragon's body seemed to be wilted, and it felt as if it had just entered the post-nut clarity

[Osiris the Sky Dragon, ATK 18000 ATK 4000]

Marik gritted his teeth: "But even so, Osiris' attack power is still higher! God is not something that a monster of your level can defeat"

Yuei Vu smiled: "That might not be the case."

He didn't know how many times he said this sentence, but Yuei Vu felt that his fashionability was about to explode.

"You seemed to think that the card I set on the field in my previous turn was a life-saving trap, right?"

Marik was startled, and his eyes quickly shifted to the set card at Yuei Vu's feet.

Isn't it a trap?

"Of course, it's not a trap. The reason why this card is set here is just that I had seven cards in my hand at the end of the last round. If I don't play one of them on the field, I have to discard one."

As Yuei Vu said that, he gently raised his arm.

"I'll let you see what the card you're so cautious against. It is also the card that will bring this duel to an end. Activate Equip Spell Favorite Hero!"

"Equip Spell!?"

The card in front of Yuei Vu was turned over, and it was a Spell Card. The background of the card was a brightly lit skyscraper, and at the top of the building stood a Flame Wingman with arms folded and his back turned to the moonlight.

"Favorite Hero is a Spell Card that can only be equipped to a Level 5 or higher HERO' monster. I equip it to The Shining. After equipping this card to a monster, at the start of the Battle Phase, I can activate 1 Field Spell directly from my hand or Deck."

While talking, Yuei Vu had already pulled out the deck and picked out the Field Spell.

This was a pure E-HERO deck, so it's needless to say which Field Spell would be activated.

The Field Zone area of the Duel Disk popped up, Yuei Vu placed the card on it, and the device immediately stored the card inside the Duel Disk.

"Field Spell Skyscraper, activate!"

The ground rumbled, and the background seemed to be quietly falling. The reinforced concrete building rose from the ground, like a cast iron jungle covering the entire site.

Marik gritted his teeth: "It's actually Field Spell"

"Another effect of Favorite Hero," Yuei Vu continued, "If I control a card in my Field Zone, the equipped monster gains ATK equal to its original DEF, also the opponent cannot target it with card effects!"

The Shining's defense power is 2100, so the current The Shining's attack power is"

[Elemental HERO The Shining, ATK 3000 ATK 5100]

Marik was shocked and turned pale: "AttackAttack power 5100!?"

Under the powerful suppressing ability of the Sky Dragon, he actually summoned a monster with an ATK of 5100?

This kind of thing is it really possible?

Marik looked at the boy with more and more surprise.

Every time he felt that he had figured out the depths of this young man, the other party always seemed to be able to surpass his imagination, and even the Egyptian Gods that he thought were invincible in the world could not defeat him.

Can this guy even defeat a god?

[Elemental HERO The Shining, ATK 5100]

[Osiris the Sky Dragon, ATK 4000]

Marik, LP 1100

"This is the finale." Yuei Vu played the last card, "I use the Spell Card Quick Attack' to let the Fusion monsters summoned this turn to be able to attack.

The Shining, attack Osiris the Sky Dragon, and destroy the god! "

The Shining jumped up, turned into an afterimage, and flew out, dragging a long strip of light behind him, leaving a scorching trail on the retina.

Osiris seemed to be angry that he, as a god, was being challenged by inferior monsters. It roared like a demonstration, opened its mouth, and once again spewed out a Super Conductive Wave Thunder Cannon.

But this time, The Shining turned around easily and flexibly avoided the impact. The golden beam bombarded the ground, leaving a trail of scorching black smoke.

At this time, The Shining had already rushed to the top of the sky dragon, suspended high in the air, opened his arms, and seemed to explode with boundless golden light all over his body. The dazzling light made it impossible to look directly

Boom! ! !

It created an earth-shattering explosion as if the sky was screaming.

The beam of light shot straight from the ground to the sky. The dazzling light was followed by a smoke screen that enveloped the entire venue.

By the time the smoke screen dissipated, the huge Egyptian God had disappeared from the field, and only the glorious hero was left with arms folded and slowly descended from mid-air.

Marik, LP 1100 LP 0

.I won.

Marik Ishtar and Osiris the Sky Dragon were defeated!

The puppet that was remotely controlled by Marik fell to his knees on the ground, his head bowed, and the messy cards fell out of the duel tray and scattered on the ground.

At the end of the battle, the Egyptian God's coercion also disappeared, the Dark Magician Girl let out a long sigh of relief, and her task of escorting her master was finally completed.

Then she clenched her little fist and turned to her master, her big green eyes full of little stars.

"Master, you are really amazing!" She exclaimed, "You can even defeat a terrifying opponent like the Egyptian God!"

Yuei Vu coughed as he walked towards Marik's doll: "I can't say it's particularly powerful, it's too arrogant. It's just moderately powerful, moderately powerful"

When Yuei Vu walked in front of him, the doll suddenly raised his head, but the golden eye on his forehead had dimmed a lot.

"I underestimated you, once again," Marik said with the help of the puppet's mouth.

He was playing through a puppet, so even if he lost, it would not affect his main body.

"In that case, the Osiris the Sky Dragon will be protected by you temporarily." Marik said, humming a little, "Of course, if you have the ability to control it

Regarding you, I changed my plan. You proved to me that you have the ability to participate in my script. I will not trouble you anymore until the promotion. After all, I still have a lot of things to do next.

I really look forward to seeing you in the quarterfinals although I think that's for sure. At that time, we will still have a chance to settle the score. "

After speaking, the golden eye disappeared, and the doll also fell to the ground with a thud.

Marik left.

Well, there's nothing incomprehensible. After all, he showed off too much before, so when he was beaten, he naturally had to say some harsh words to restore his dignity as a villain, right?

But this sky dragon To be honest, Yuei Vu really didn't want it much.

After all, he was neither a pharaoh nor a priest, nor a Millenium Item holder, so it stood to reason that even if he took the God card, he couldn't use it.

Everyone knows the saying "treasuring a jade is a crime itself". If you held a powerful thing like the God card in your hand but were unable to use it, then its only effect was to invite unnecessary trouble.

In contrast, Yuei Vu was more interested in the animated Revival Jam and Card of Safe Return, but he didn't know whether the cards in the doll's deck except the sky dragon were real or fake.

If the system could generously send him an Egyptian God, it should be able to be used

"Ding!"

"All the quests in The Challenge From Ghouls' series have been completed!

Hidden Achievement: The Sky Dragon Slayer Defeat the doll controlled by Marik Ishtar and the "Osiris the Sky Dragon" in a duel.

Hidden Reward: [Slifer the Sky Dragon]. Please check it in the system card library."

Yuei Vu: ""

"!?"

Damn, did you really send me a God?

Is this "speak of the devil"?

Chapter 102: Duelist's Rank

Slifer the Sky Dragon!

He never thought that this system, which was stingy all day long and usually made him smash tens of thousands of crystals for a bunch of Normies, finally did a personnel job today, actually spat out the God card to him!

Yuei Vu hurriedly opened the system's card library with anticipation, and when he found the Sky Dragon with a gorgeous and shining card face, he felt that even his breath was heavy.

Damn, with the Sky Dragon, I was going to soar into the sky! This was no doubt the strongest brother in my entire collection!

But at the same time, Yuei Vu was also puzzled.

Since God cards could be obtained from system quest rewards, other players should theoretically be able to obtain them too.

After all, the quests he can accept from the quest module should be the same as other players.

Then why has he never heard of any player getting the god card in his previous life?

Yuei Vu thought about it for a while and felt that he could only attribute the reason to the fact that the players in this period were probably too weak, as they really didn't have any cards to use.

In the early days of Yu-Gi-Oh!, even the invincible Yami Yugi failed to defeat the powerful god card head-on when facing Osiris the Sky Dragon. He had to resort to making Marik unable to draw cards and lose due to the deck-out rule.

Therefore, it was almost impossible for players, who had to rely on the extremely limited combination of cards in this period, to complete the goal of "defeat the Slifer the Sky Dragon in a duel". So the hidden condition may not be triggered by the player until the end of version 1.0.

Originally, Yuei Vu was worried that taking the God Card and using it directly might lead to the wrath of the gods, but since it was a quest reward, it shouldn't matter.

All the cards obtained in this game from the quest rewards are preset in the system card pool, which meant that there was actually a Sky Dragon hidden in the card pool, but no one has been able to unlock it.

Of course, there was no way that the cards in the system card pool would have usage restrictions after the player unlocks them.

Yuei Vu clicked on the card details.

Well, now let us worship the mighty power possessed by God.

[Slifer the Sky Dragon, Level 10, DIVINE, Divine-Beast. ATK ? /DEF ?

Effect: Requires 3 Tributes to Normal Summon (cannot be Normal Set). This card's Normal Summon cannot be negated. When Normal Summoned, cards and effects cannot be activated. Once per turn, during the End Phase, if this card was Special Summoned: Send it to the GY. Gains 1000 ATK/DEF for each card in your hand. If a monster(s) is Normal or Special Summoned to your opponent's field in Attack Position: That monster(s) loses 2000 ATK, then if its ATK has been reduced to 0 as a result, destroy it.]

Yuei Vu: ""

Damn!

I just felt something was wrong here!

This god card was the real-life version (which was greatly nefted), wasn't it? That's why its name was Slifer, not Osiris!

He was just wondering how could the system be so generous, directly rewarding a God card that can be used directly regardless of divine punishment. Turned out it was too good to be true

But after calming down and thinking about it, Yuei Vu realized that he really thought too much before.

Since it was a reward for completing the quest, this Sky Dragon must be a preset card in the system card pool. Of course, it would be the real-life version.

But in this way, Yuei Vu has two God cards in his hand. One from Marik, with an unreasonably strong anime effect, but unfortunately it wasn't usable. One from the reward, with nefted effect but unlimited use.

Actually, it's not a loss.

The real-life card couldn't be said to be completely useless, and the suppression force was still there. Moreover, it's a God card, so there should be some divine power blessing?

Anyway, even though he didn't have the power of a pharaoh and could only use a part of the power of the Sky Dragon, it's much better than other duelists who couldn't use the god card at all.

Apart from the quest rewards, of course, Yuei Vu was not polite. Once again, as his "competition insider", he pulled out the entire doll's deck and took it back for inspection.

However, the irritating thing was that in the whole deck, except for the Sky Dragon, all the other cards were fake cards

Damn you, Marik, are you really going to carry out the fake and inferior cottage to the end?

But after thinking about it, Yuei Vu has already snatched so many cards from Ghouls. Marik wasn't stupid enough to bring real cards to let him grab them.

"Ding!

New Module: The Duelist Rank module has been unlocked!

Introduction: Only duelists who can control the dueling monsters most skillfully in the World Link Online can have a rank, and the duelist rank can directly reflect the force level. In the Duelist Rank module of the character panel, you can view your own rank and more detailed descriptions. "

Yuei Vu raised his eyebrows.

Duelist's rank?

Isn't it the same thing as getting experience points and leveling up to get crystals?

Opening the panel, Yuei Vu really found a new module that he had never seen before.

This was strange. In his previous life, he had played so many versions of World Link Online, and he had never heard of such a module.

Just like a normal online game, some simple text and arrow explanations appeared in the interface after unlocking the new module for the first time.

Yuei Vu glanced at it, and the general idea seemed to be that duelists could also be divided into 1 to 12 according to their rank. The higher the rank, the stronger the duelist.

However, the "force" here was described very generally, and there was no clear definition.

What was the strength of a duelist? Was it the deck's tier?

The transparent Dark Magician Girl floated beside him with concern: "Master, what's wrong with you? Are you injured?"

After the duel ended, Yuei Vu had been standing still, so she was inevitably concerned.

"Oh nothing, I'm thinking about something." Yuei Vu replied casually, "By the way, have you heard about the force of duelists?"

"Ah?" The Dark Magician Girl was stunned for a moment, "Master, did you mean the duelist's power?"

Yuei Vu: "?"

What the hell was that?

"It's a common saying among us spirits, you may not have heard of it, Master." The Dark Magician Girl shook her head, "You may not have noticed, Master, but all duelists have supernatural powers beyond reality.

This power is the key to connecting us spirits and duelists, and if powerful enough can even affect reality or souls, or give us spirits the ability to materialize in your world. "

Yuei Vu suddenly remembered that he seemed to have heard such a statement before.

Regarding the concept of "power", he remembered that it seemed to be mentioned by the final boss of Yu-Gi-Oh GX manga. It was a demon who was sealed by Egyptian priests thousands of years ago. He mentioned that Jaden Yuki and Chazz Princeton in the comics were duelists with extraordinary "power".

At the end of the manga, the surviving fragments of the great priest Ma'at 3,000 years ago lent their "power" as a duelist to Jaden.

Next, Jaden performed on the spot what was the real protagonist's cheat. He declared the seven cards at the top of the deck in a row, and the seven cards drawn in a row happened to be the cards he declared and it was just the right amount of seven cards that could be used to clear the field and OTK the opponent.

In this connection, Yami Yugi after retrieving his real name at the ending of Yu-Gi-Oh! DM has awakened the power of the pharaoh, and also has the ability to "can draw any card you want".

So this may be the same concept as the "force" mentioned in the GX comics.

So from Yuei Vu's point of view, this may refer to the card luck that players often talk about.

It's no wonder that everyone in the Yu-Gi-Oh! animations of all eras liked to chase some supernatural dark power, and after obtaining the dark power, although they obviously used the same deck as before, playing cards became awesome.

Were those characters pursuing the dark side of the force? No, what everyone was after was actually heaven-defying luck

Yuei Vu has roughly guessed it. Then this duelist rank module should be similar to the "power" that the Dark Magician Girl said.

He suddenly thought of something: "Wait, you just said that a duelist's power' can be materialized as a spirit Then did you use my power when you materialized?"

Yuei Vu felt that something was wrong.

In the GX animation, Jaden Yuki obtained a very powerful "power" after Fusion with his spirit partner Yubel, and then he could materialize the spirit in reality at will.

Yuei Vu knew that he must not have that ability.

"Well no, I used my own force' when I materialized."

The Dark Magician Girl said that she was a little proud, she straightened the magic hat on her little golden head and raised her chest. The scene was a bit spectacular.

"Don't look at me like this, in fact, I'm still quite a powerful spirit among dueling monsters!"

Of course, Yuei Vu didn't hesitate to praise: "It's amazing!"

"Master, you are also very powerful!" The Dark Magician Girl stuck out her tongue, "For a duelist like you, power' must be at the top!"

Yuei Vu glanced at his character panel.

Character: Yuei Vu.

Duelist Rank was 3 stars.

At this time, Yuei Vu fell into a long silence

Chapter 103: Getting People's Bodies But Not Getting Their Hearts

In the Rank module, there was also a brief explanation of the duelist's strength corresponding to different ranks.

Generally speaking, the rank of passerby duelists was about 1 to 3 stars. 4 stars may be the rank of winning a county or city quarterfinals when you were lucky.

Of course, the premise here was that everyone was using the Normie card piles in the DM era.

Rank 5 to 6 may already be the best among duelists, and have the potential to win championships in international competitions. The cannon fodder duo in Yu-Gi-Oh DM, the Dinosaur Ryuzaki, and the Insector Haga, maybe at this level.

Rank 7 to 8 were basically human limits. A rank 7 duelist was basically one of the top duelists in the world. As for Rank 8, most of them have a Yu- prefix and/or strange and colorful hairstyles

Jonouchi, who got the title of "Legendary Duelist" at the end of DM, was about Rank 8. In the middle of Yu-Gi-Oh! GX, Yuki Judai before awakening the power of Supreme King may be at this rank too.

Going up, it's already the inhuman realm. Rank 9 to 12 have not been described at all in the system introduction, but it was conceivable that it must be a cheater among cheaters.

Yuei Vu personally speculated that Yami Yugi may now be Rank 10 according to the evaluation standard of the system, and it should be higher when he finally recovered his lost name and fully awakened his strength.

Yuei Vu wouldn't be surprised if Atem was Rank 12.

Of course, this division would greatly affect the performance of duelists, but the victory or defeat of the card game was definitely not only related to card luck. Deck strength also played a big role.

This was also the main reason why Yuei Vu has been able to thrive in this environment so far. He has spent more than 100,000 crystals in the system card pool, not to mention spending money to buy a bunch of local cards.

Although in his own opinion, the deck was still unsatisfactory, its strength was many levels higher than the common decks of this era.

However, in his previous life, he had never heard of such a system, and no player had ever unlocked it. Maybe this is a new feature exclusive to NPC?

but then, Rank 3 seemed to be a bit shabby.

In other words, if he didn't rely on the tactical awareness brought by playing real-life cards and the future cards obtained from the system card pool, he should only be regarded as mediocre.

In the words of President Kaiba, he was a horse bone

Eh, wait a moment.

The Dark Magician Girl just said that as a spirit, she also had a "force" similar to that of a duelist.

Then, could the "power" possessed by the spirit be shared with her possessor?

Yuei Vu thought about it for a while and directly chose to replace his "Elemental HERO" deck in the Duel Disk with his "Dark Magician" deck, which contained the Dark Magician Girls card.

Then when he opened the panel again, a miracle happened his rank became four!

Holy crap, so monster spirits could still be used like this? To increase card luck?

This was a real treasure!

Thinking of this, Yuei Vu couldn't help turning his head to look at the Dark Magician Girl floating beside him.

She was a little frightened: "Master?"

"It's nothing." Yuei Vu smiled gently, "I just suddenly think you're awesome."

The Dark Magician Girl blushed a little: "Thank you thank you, Master."

The girl lowered her head and fingers while playing with the small staff in her hand. However, judging from the curve, even if she lowered her head, she probably wouldn't be able to see her toes.

Yuei Vu was in a good mood.

He felt as if he had finally found the correct way to use the spirit!

No wonder everyone in the original work desperately pursued those cards that were very high-profile and mysterious, but actually had no effect in actual combat.

In the beginning, Yuei Vu thought it was ridiculous. Johan Andersen, the user of the Crystal Beast Deck in Yu-Gi-Oh! GX had a total of seven monsters in the entire deck before obtaining the Rainbow Dragon, and each of them was unique.

In other words, he had a total of seven monsters in the 40-card deck, and the remaining 33 cards are all spell and trap cards that support the Crystal Beast, and there were not even a few cards that accelerate the draw. However, he has never had a brick hand, and there would never be an embarrassment that the six cards in the starting hand contained no monster to summon.

Why?

Of course, it's because that guy had seven monster spirits!

Yuei Vu thought for a while, and quickly took out the Slifer the Sky Dragon that was rewarded by the system just now, and added it to the deck in his hand.

Then he opened the panel and took a look. Sure enough, the duelist rank went straight to five stars!

From the rank of an NPC that did not deserve to leave a name in the Yu-Gi-Oh animation, it has been upgraded to the rank of an important supporting role!

However, Slifer the Sky Dragon was already the strongest card at the peak of the duel monsters. Not to mention practicality and combat effectiveness, from the perspective of "force", there should be very few beings more powerful than gods in the entire world, right?

Looking at it this way, why did it only raise his rank to 5?

Perhaps because it was a nefted version of the real sky dragon, it actually only possesses a fragment of divine power?

Thinking of this, Yuei Vu took out the real Osiris the Sky Dragon that he snatched from Marik.

If this true God card was added to the deck, shouldn't his rank be able to soar into the sky?

From the original work, it seemed that as long as you didn't try to summon gods in a duel, you wouldn't be punished. Then if he used the God card as a mascot to improve the luck, was this okay?

Swap a card slot for a better start, no matter how you think, it's too beneficial!

Yuei Vu held his breath, added the second Sky Dragon to the deck, shuffled the cards, and reinserted them into the Duel Disk.

Then when he opened the panel again

Well, his rank was still 5, not moving at all.

It couldn't be said to be completely unexpected, but the disappointment was definitely inevitable.

After all, he was neither a pharaoh nor a priest. Although the Osiris the Sky Dragon card was in his hand now, he has not been recognized by the gods.

To put it simply, it meant getting people's bodies but not getting their hearts

Yuei Vu reluctantly removed this Osiris the Sky Dragon from the deck again. It seemed that he would have to throw it in storage for a while.

It would be great if he could think of a way to make the Sky Dragon willingly follow him. In that case, he would be able to draw freely without pressure.

However, if there was a chance later, Yuei Vu thought that Osiris the Sky Dragon might be best left to Yugi. Not to mention the problem that he couldn't control it, or that the plot couldn't advance if Yugi didn't have all three God cards, he couldn't bear the trouble that this card may bring in the future.

He remembered that the Orichalcos arc followed immediately after the Battle City arc ended. The opening of this arc was that the BOSS Dartz sent someone to snatch Yugi's God cards.

Then if Yuei Vu took the God card, wouldn't Dartz come to him?

Yuei Vu believed that his current power still wasn't enough to stop the god of Orichalcos, so keeping this God card just brought more trouble.

Just as he was thinking about it, a voice came from not far away.

"Hey, why is it gone? I seem to have seen the Sky Dragon here just now?"

"I seem to have seen it"

"Oh shit, isn't that Yuei Vu!?"

Yuei Vu turned his head and saw a large wave of screwballs jumping toward him. The scene was like a kindergarten after school

Chapter 104: He Is Really The Main Character

A few minutes later, a large group of screwball players appeared next to Yuei Vu.

At first, some nearby players were attracted by the image of Slifer the Sky Dragon appearing. The scene of God's appearance was too large, and it was black clouds and thunder, so it was normal to be noticed.

According to the habits of players, the first reaction to seeing something strange was to take a screenshot immediately and throw it into the forum to show off. Then more people saw the images of gods hovering high in the sky, and they rushed over from all over the city one after another.

In fact, at first, everyone thought that they would find the Muto Yugi here. In the anime, Yugi defeated the doll and took this God phantom card from Marik.

However, they never expected that when they arrived, what they saw was a bald puppet that was paralyzed and a certain familiar handsome face.

The players were immediately shocked.

What? Did Yuei Vu even steal the record of the true protagonist Yugi?

In this way, didn't the Sky Dragon already go to Yuei Vu's pocket?

The news spread and a large group of players expressed their shock.

Even the Egyptian God has been taken?

Then I'm afraid he wasn't the game designer's own son, but the game designer was his own son.

Seeing the players around him chatting like a vegetable market, some people jumping and rolling in place from time to time while talking, Yuei Vu couldn't help feeling in his heart

This is too shabby!

Look at the guy over there holding the tree trunk. Those who didn't know anything think he's trying to fuck the tree!

But then Yuei Vu also thought that when he was a player before, he seemed to be quite a screwball. No, it should be said that he was one of the most screwball among the players.

Sure enough, it's still a bystander. When he was a player, he didn't feel it, but now he looked at the performance of this group of people, and it felt like a group of crazy people singing and dancing.

Of course, most of the players who had nothing to do but run around were players who have been eliminated from the game at this time.

Before everyone was busy playing the game. Only eliminated players had time to wander around the city, watching those high-level players and important NPCs duel.

In a short time, there was such a large group around Yuei Vu.

Of course, that many resources shouldn't be wasted. Yuei Vu opened the store and sold another wave of cards.

Battle City was regarded as a game activity. Players still get a lot of rewards for completing the activity quests, and everyone has harvested so many crystals.

Yuei Vu naturally did not miss this chance and received a large amount of crystal from these enthusiastic players.

In the blink of an eye, Yuei Vu's savings, which had been spent cleanly, had now broken through ten thousand.

Of course, he also looked at the situation and collected a wave of cards from the players that they had won in Battle City. Although most of these cards were useless because they were won from passers-by NPCs, there were still some eye-catching things occasionally.

For example, the Solemn Judgment that Miss Yuehua brought to him before.

DM was really such a magical era. Although the current duelists have a single strategy and poor game awareness, it was not surprising that any passer-by held a future banned card in his hand.

Speaking of which, Miss Yuehua, who was still in the Hunk Club eh, Nightcrawler World has finally escaped from the center of the nest of screwballs and brothers, and followed the instructions in the forum to find Yuei Vu again.

Miss Yuehua was angry all the way.

She had made up his mind to keep an eye on Yuei Vu and stick to his back no matter what happened and be a follower, yet she let him run away inadvertently in the club!

well, it's not really a lack of attention.

At that time, there were too many brothers in the Nightcrawler World stronghold, and everyone was drinking and showing off their muscles. She was a girl in that kind of place, and she felt like a helpless little sheep strayed into the wolf pack

Miss Yuehua reminded herself: I was a veteran streamer, I have seen it all.

What's a bunch of muscular guys wearing strange clothes in a game? It's not that I haven't seen ones without wearing clothes. (crossed out)

However, it was the head of the screwball who called "Yuei Cannot Escape Fae" began to play rock-paper-scissor with other brothers and NPCs while drinking. Those who lost not only had to drink but also strip

So her live broadcast room was banned.

Miss Yuehua was so mad that she wanted to smash the keyboard in place.

Damn! A bunch of neurotics want to show off their muscles, how could it be my fault?

So Miss Yuehua was busy contacting the platform and calling again. After a long time, she finally finished the formalities and unsealed the live broadcast room.

The first thing she did after the unblocking was to continue looking for Yuei Vu's whereabouts, but unfortunately, she saw on the forum that Yuei Vu had just fought with the puppet holding Slifer the Sky Dragon and won.

This loss was too much!

If she could follow Yuei Vu all the time, she should have been able to live broadcast the entire duel!

Miss Yuehua became angrier the more she thought about it, she was so annoyed that she wanted to beat her chest and feet But when she looked down, she felt that she was originally flat.

So after all, she still couldn't do it.

Now she was not the only follower around Yuei Vu. Many screwball players who have been eliminated and have nothing to do are simply following behind Yuei Vu.

This made Miss Yuehua even angrier.

Obviously, I came first!

The forum is also very lively at the moment.

"Yuei Vu defeated Marik's clone account and got the Sky Dragon!"

"Did Marik's Delivery Service get the wrong address? Shouldn't the Sky Dragon be given to Yugi?"

"So then, there will be no God card in Yugi's hand? This plot change is a bit big."

"Look, I already said that this Yuei Vu must be the protagonist of the world, and he is really the main character of the story plot! Don't say it, I'm hugging his thick and strong golden legs, I'm going to lick it "

"Your bootlicking skills are too poor, let him go and let me come! Look at my beautiful tongue!"

""

Yuei Vu stopped in time when he saw this, and quickly closed the forum to save his eyes.

He was afraid that if he continued to watch it, his mind would be corrupted

By the way, he remembered that President Kaiba seemed to be paying attention to the infestation of the God Card throughout the whole process. But the Sky Dragon has been showing up for a long time, and there was still no movement from the president. Was there something wrong?

At present, Yuei Vu has defeated Pandora, Rishid, and Marik in the Battle City, and has obtained a total of three puzzle cards. He needed three more cards to meet the promotion conditions.

The Battle City Tournament has been going on for a while now, and the remaining duelists should have more than one puzzle card in their hands. After one or two more games, Yuei Vu should also meet the promotion conditions.

While walking, he suddenly saw two passers-by walking quickly towards a building on the side while talking: "I heard that duelists are dueling in the aquarium, so I come to have a look!"

"Aren't duels everywhere now?"

"But I heard that it was a duel between the runner-up of the Duel Kingdom and the third runner-up in the national championship!"

"Is Nani fighting against each other in the preliminary stage? Let's go and see!"

The passersby's voice was not loud, but Yuei Vu and the players behind him also heard it.

Duelist Kingdom runner-up and national 3rd place, Aquarium

So it looked like God of Gamblers Jonouchi was fighting Mako Tsunami?

Chapter 105: What Kind Of Duel Is This?

At this moment, the "God of Gamblers" Jonouchi was in the aquarium and has a fierce confrontation with the duelist Mako Tsunami who uses the sea deck.

Anyway, Yuei Vu also came to the aquarium with the onlookers to watch the duel of the God of Gamblers.

Jonouchi was the one who played first. He handsomely set a card and ended his turn. It seemed to be a brick hand accident.

In the DM animation, such a situation only occurred to Jonouchi, and whenever it happened, he would always be ridiculed by President Kaiba.

The president who always got three BEWD plus a Polymerization every day must mean this: What a horse bone! Not even able to use 502! No wonder you have no talent!

However, the player Mako opposite him seemed to be an evenly matched opponent. When he came up, he took a Normie monster "Flying Fish" with a "terrifying" attack power of 800 points. A salted fish stab directly caused a huge amount of damage (800 points) to Jonouchi Mako was also a national third runner-up duelist, but he still brought this kind of Normie in the deck. It seemed to be the same as "The Furious Sea King" in the player's initial water attribute deck.

The duel continued. In the next turn, Mako summoned the level 6 Normal monster "Amphibian Beast". Although it was a 6-star monster, its attack power was as high as 2400 points, which was equivalent to a Red-Eyes Black Dragon (Red-eyes: @! %&)

Jonouchi was not a coward at all. Facing the attack of the Amphibian Beast, he directly activated the trap Fairy Box, letting his monster hide in a box full of holes and move at high speed to avoid the attack Gophers.

However, at this time, Mako made a brilliant move. He activated the Field Spell "Umi", and the entire field, including the Fairy Box of Jonouchi, was instantly submerged by seawater.

Then Mako said that the monsters in Jonouchi would be submerged in water and unable to breathe if they were hiding in the monster box, so they would come to the surface as a last resort. Then he used the Amphibian Beast to chop Jonouchi's monster into pieces

The expressions of the onlookers here are probably like this: w(???)w

"Is there something wrong with this person?"

"How can he activate a Field Spell card in the middle of the battle step?"

"Yes, he can. You read the rules of the Battle City by yourself but the thing that really amazed me is his monsters can't breathe in the water'."

"OMG, can't breathe Then if I play Macro Cosmos', will all the monsters suffocate in place?"

"Nobefore that, it should explode in a vacuum due to the imbalance of air pressure inside and outside the body"

However, this wonderful card (BISS) fight was just the beginning.

Mako Tsunami summoned the monster "The Legendary Fisherman", and Jonouchi looked bewildered and said that he didn't see where the monster was. Mako laughed and said that "my monster is hidden in the sea, of course, you can't see it"

Jonouchi readily accepted this BISS, but then soon declared that he had seen through the disguise of the "The Legendary Fisherman".

He said that because the battlefield between the two sides was in an aquarium, the water projected by the virtual image of the duel mixed with the water that was already in the aquarium pool.

Mako took advantage of this "smartly" by hiding his monster in the aquarium's pool. Because "The Legendary Fisherman" was riding a shark, and there was a show shark in the aquarium's pool, so he disguised the monster he summoned there

At this time, the expressions of the players here have become like this: (;)

It's all what's the matter!?

Is this really Yu-gi-oh?

Disguise your monster as a shark

No, that was still not the main problem. There was a real shark swimming around, yet they could stand in the middle and play cards calmly

This "wonderful" duel ended with a victory with Jonouchi.

Players who haven't watched Yu-Gi-Oh DM said that it was an eye-opener, and it was still unheard of for such a sleazy operation after playing cards for so many years.

The animation veterans have said, "Sit down, those are basic operations.

You guys are so young and simple. You haven't seen Yugi fought against Tsunami Mako.

The young Mako actually wanted to rely on his "monster hides in the sea" BISS to beat Yugi, but the irritable brother Yugi directly summoned a monster to attack the moon in the sky, causing the tide to go out, so all Mako's monsters are beached"

Compared to that, the two people in front of them were just small fries. Weren't they embarrassed to say that they could use BISS?

But in this way, Jonouchi has won two puzzle cards from Mako, and now he has collected six puzzle cards.

According to the rules, the duelist who collects six cards would be eligible for promotion, and he has the right to refuse the challenge of any other duelist.

According to common sense, Jonouchi who has collected six cards should definitely not play another game and directly advance, so as to avoid any more trouble.

However, Jonouchi was Jonouchi because he did not play cards according to the routine

"You!"

Jonouchi found his target in the crowd of onlookers.

The eyes of the onlookers turned to Yuei Vu.

"The one in the shop last time, you are?"

Jonouchi racked his brains to think about his name.

"Yuei Vu."

"Ah yes yes yes, this is it!" Jonouchi held up the duel plate with a confident smile, "The last time I lost to you carelessly, I underestimated the enemy.

Fight with me again! It won't be so easy this time. "

A group of players began to get excited.

"Two duels on a row? Is there no physical limit for NPCs?"

"After all, God of Gambler is the man who takes over the attack of the sun god head-on. Of course, his endurance lasts for a long time."

"Wow, is Jonouchi going to fight Yuei Vu? Isn't this the hidden plot of the game?"

Yuei Vu glanced at Jonouchi who was filled with fighting spirit.

Dueling with him was no problem, but

"By the way, don't you already have six puzzle cards?" Yuei Vu asked, "You can advance directly without a duel, right?"

Jonouchi's voice was profound: "But I lost to you. I made an agreement with Yugi that I would become a real duelist and then fight with him. If I run away from you here in order to advance, I will not be able to become a real duelist!"

Yuei Vu: ""

Seeing how serious he was, he still seemed reasonable.

"Okay." Yuei Vu shrugged and walked out, "I have three puzzle cards in my hand, and need there more. Since that's the case, let's"

"Okay!" Jonouchi waved his hand boldly, "Then let's bet three puzzle cards!"

Yuei Vu rolled his eyes: "I bet two."

Nonsense, did you think I look like a fool? Why did I want to bet all three cards?

In case of having a brick hand accident, wouldn't I be eliminated directly?

Chapter 106: God of Gamblers

"Duel!" x2

Yuei Vu, LP 4000

Jonouchi, LP 4000

Jonouchi vs Yuei Vu, the second round of the duel between the two began!

This time Yuei Vu bet on the two puzzle cards in his hand. If he won, he would have five puzzle cards and only need one more to advance.

And if Jonouchi won

there was no benefit.

Strictly speaking, if he won, he could choose any rare card from Yuei Vu's deck. But if he lost, it meant that he, who could have been promoted, has to go on to find the next target. The risk and the reward were unequal.

The Duel Disk is determined in random order, and Jonouchi is the first to draw five cards: "I attack first, draw cards!"

He glanced at the cards in his hand, looked at Yuei Vu on the opposite side vigilantly, and thought about it.

He knew that the opponent in front of him was very strong, probably stronger than most of the people he had played against. Although the last time may have been careless to underestimate the enemy, after all, a loss was still a loss.

He had to be a little more cautious this time.

"I activate the spell card Graceful Charity. Draw three cards from the deck, and then discard two." Jonouchi began with a banned card, "Then I summon Alligator's Sword' in defense position. I end my turn ."

[Alligator's Sword, DEF 1200]

Recalling that in the animation, God of Gamblers dared to summon Swordsman of Landstar in the attack position, even though it was just a Normie with an attack power of 500. This time he came up to be defensive, which showed how cautious he became.

At this moment, Anzu Mazaki, who was acting as a cheerleader, shouted, "Come on, Jonouchi!"

The short old man with a friendly face next to her had a hairstyle that seemed to have the potential of a duel king. From that iconic hairstyle, it was undoubted that he was related to Yugi.

That man was Mutou Sugoroku, the grandfather of Yugi, the reincarnation of an ancient Egyptian priest.

"My turn, draw!", Now it's Yuei Vu's turn to play a card," I special summon The Tricky at the cost of discarding a card in my hand! "

A three-dimensional card appeared, and a magician in a cloak flew out of the card. Behind him was a large black cloak, with a big question mark on his chest and face.

[The Tricky, ATK 2000]

Jonouchi was shocked: "It's a monster with an attack power of 2000!?"

"Although The Tricky is a Level 5 monster, his special ability is that he can be special summoned by discarding a card." Yuei Vu said indifferently, "The card I just discarded is Peten the Dark Clown."

As Yuei Vu spoke, the card that had just been thrown into the graveyard had already popped up again.

"When Peten the Dark Clown is sent to the graveyard, by banishing it, I can special summon 1 Peten the Dark Clown from the deck."

Yuei Vu pulled out the deck to find another Peten the Dark Clown and placed it in the monster zone horizontally. Wearing a red wide-brimmed hat and a funny costume, Peten the Dark Clown appeared on the field half-squatting.

[Peten the Dark Clown, DEF 1200]

Yuei Vu waved his arm: "Then I tribute Peten the Dark Clown'Come on! Dark Magician Girl!"

The hilarious clown disappeared in the blue light, and the beautiful magician girl appeared gorgeously. The lively elf flew lightly into the air, leaving a trail of starlight at the meridian of the staff.

As usual, the players next to him cheered again, and it felt like the fans at the concert were enthusiastically greeting their idols.

Dark Magician Girl was also used to their reactions. Although her little head still didn't understand why the group of screwballs were so excited when they saw her, she still smiled brightly and waved at them.

"The goddess waved to me!"

"Get out of the way, she's clearly waving at me!"

"If you don't stand in front of me doesn't she just wave at me?"

Jonouchi had an incredible look on his face at this time: "You can summon two high-level monsters in the first turn

"Battle!" Yuei Vu said, "The Tricky, attack the Alligator's Sword!"

The lower-level Alligator's Sword was not the opponent of The Tricky at all. The monsters on both sides only clashed once, and the body of the Alligator's Sword has been blown into pieces.

"Dark Magician Girl, attack directly!"

The girl took the order and flew high into the air.

With the empty field, Jonouchi could only watch the girl fly into the air and pointed her staff at him. He couldn't help but raised his arm to block in front of him.

boom!

The magic light bomb exploded on Jonouchi's face and took away a large amount of LP in one go.

Jonouchi, LP 4000 LP 2000

Yuei Vu said: "I end my turn."

The Dark Magician Girl gently fell back to the field, and blinked her big green eyes at the master, as if to say: Master, am I good? Praise me! Praise me!

"Really, what are you doing in Jonouchi?" Anzu, who couldn't understand a duel, looked worried, "Isn't this the first turn? Why most of his LP is cut off?"

Grandpa Sugoroku held his chin: "No, the enemy is too strong. To be able to put up such a lineup in the first turn"

"Damn, it's really strong." Jonouchi gritted his teeth, "But I can't admit defeat! My turn, draw!"

He glanced at the cards he had drawn, and then at the hand.

Great, that way I can fight back!

"I special summon from my hand The Fiend Megacyber!"

A tall and burly mechanical giant dressed in golden metal armor appeared on the ground.

[The Fiend Megacyber, ATK 2200]

"Even though The Fiend Megacyber is a Level 6 monster, its special ability is that it can be Special Summoned from the hand if my opponent controls at least 2 more monsters than I do!"

Yuei Vu understood: "A monster with the ability to quickly counterattack."

"It's not over yet!" Jonouchi shouted, "Next is my trump card! I normal summon

Time Wizard! "

A group of players exploded in an instant.

"Come, come, come!"

"Time Wizard! God of Gamblers soul card!"

A cute magician in the shape of a small alarm clock appeared out of nowhere, holding a clock-style roulette in his hand.

[Time Wizard, ATK 500]

"The Time Wizard's effect is activated!" said Jonouchi, "Time Roulette!"

The turntable in the little magician's hand began to operate, and the needles spun out of control.

"The wheel of time is a complete destruction effect with equal probability to both the enemy and us!" Jonouchi explained, "If the pointer stops in the area of the skeleton, then the monsters on my field will be destroyed. But if it stays in an area other than the skeleton, it destroys all monsters on your opponent's field.

The probability of staying in both areas is equal, also 1/2! "

It's purely gambling, fully dependent on luck.

However, as we all know, Jonouchi was known as the God of Gamblers. Throughout the entire Yu-Gi-Oh! DM, there are very few bet losses.

And Yuei Vu um

he didn't want to talk about Lucky E.

So, of course, the results were nothing to look forward to.

"Yeah!" Jonouchi couldn't help but be overjoyed when he saw the stopped pointer, "It stopped in the area outside the skeleton, and the time magic was activated! From now on, the time on the field will go forward a thousand years. Destroy all monsters on your field!"

"That's not necessarily true." Yuei Vu chuckled.

"What!?"

"Jonouchi," Yuei Vuyou said, "Did you forget what happened in the Duelist Kingdom when you used Time Roulette on Yugi?"

Jonouchi fell into memory: "At that time, there was a Dark Magician' on Yugi's field, and the effect of the time magic accelerated time by a thousand years. As a result the Dark Magician did not die after a thousand years, but instead evolved into a Dark Sage!"

Jonouchi suddenly realized something and turned his attention to the Dark Magician Girl on the other side's field.

"M Masaka (it can't be)!?"

Dark Magician Girl was the disciple of the Dark Magician, which was what he heard from Yugi. Could it be that after a thousand years, the Dark Magician Girl also grew up?

For example, becoming the Dark Magician MILF?

Boom! boom!

With two crisp sounds, the images of The Tricky and the Dark Magician Girl broke apart and disappeared under the effect of the time magic.

Jonouchi: "?"

what's going on?

What about Dark Magician MILF?

"Cough, ahem." Yuei Vu coughed twice, "Okay, now all the monsters on my field are wiped out due to the effect of the Time Roulette, continue your turn."

"Ohoh." Jonouchi was still stunned, and while continuing the duel, he wondered if there was something wrong.

Even the players faintly noticed the problem.

Yuei Vu just now was trying to use BISS, wasn't he?

Chapter 107: The Gap In Luck

The players looked at each other in dismay at this time, not knowing what just happened.

"Did Did Yuei Vu just try to use BISS and fail?"

"Is there a time when a bigshot with the Yu- prefix will fail?"

"Maybe it has something to do with the hairstyle? You see that Yuki Judai's hairstyle is so normal. He doesn't use BISS, but only divine draws and prints cards"

""

Yuei Vu coughed, pretending that nothing happened.

The Dark Magician Girl who had just been destroyed and sent to the graveyard flew out with a look of apology: "Yes I'm sorry master, it's because I'm too useless and not skilled enough to resist time magic. If my teacher was here"

If the Dark Magician was affected by the effect of the Time Wizard, he would directly evolve into a Dark Sage.

Yuei Vu helplessly: "It's okay, don't worry about it, it's not your fault."

Yuei Vu felt that this might have nothing to do with the strength of the Dark Magician. No matter what, Dark Magician was just a Normal monster. The reason why he could resist the magic of the Time Wizard, 80% depended on the BISS ability of his master Yugi Muto, which was uncountable

It seemed that if you were not the real protagonist, you couldn't master BISS

"Then I continue my turn," Jonouchi's operation continued, "The next thing I want to activate is this card Normal Spell card Question!

When this card is activated, you need to guess the name of the monster at the bottom of my Graveyard! If your guess is correct, the monster is removed from the game. If your guess is wrong, that monster can be Special Summoned! "

This was also one of the iconic cards commonly used by Jonouchi, and it was indeed a card with the characteristics of Jonouchi.

However, Yuei Vu quickly remembered that before summoning the "Alligator's Sword" in the last turn, Jonouchi first activated the spell card "Graceful Charity", drawing three cards and discarding two.

In other words, the bottom monster card in the graveyard should have been thrown by "Graceful Charity" at that time.

If this was the case, it should be impossible to guess.

Any monster in the entire deck may be the one at the bottom. If you were not familiar with animation, you didn't even know what monsters were in his deck.

However

"Jinzo." Yuei Vu blurted out without hesitation.

Jonouchi: "."

The monster card at the bottom of Jonouchi's graveyard was ejected from the Duel Disk. It was really the Jinzo

The NPCs around exclaimed for a while, and Anzu was also surprised: "How could he know that at the bottom of Jonouchi's graveyard is Jinzo?"

At this time, a group of players burst out laughing.

"I'm laughing to death. Whenever Jonouchi needs to activate Question, the target is always this card."

"God of Gamblers was tricked."

"The law of the world, the android of Jonouchi must sink to the bottom." (Jinzo's OCG name is Android Psycho Shocker)

In fact, Yuei Vu just said it casually, but he didn't expect to be hit. After all, every time Jonouchi used this card, it was always Jinzo

Jonouchi waved his hand: "But even so, I still have an absolute advantage on the field. The Fiend Megacyber, attack directly!"

The golden-hued mechanical giant strode forward across the empty field and slammed a huge fist towards Yuei Vu's face.

"I discard Kuriboh to activate its effect!" Yuei Vu threw the card into the graveyard, "Reduce the damage of a battle to 0!"

A fluffy Kuriboh appeared, with his eyes closed and his head held in his hands, a posture that seemed to hold his head and squat.

Even the sky dragon's attack could be blocked. Kuriboh said that this mere 2200 attack power was not enough to look at, and it couldn't shake his defense line at all.

"It's actually a Kuriboh." Jonouchi gritted his teeth, "Then Time Wizard, attack directly!"

Yuei Vu: ""

Attacking with the Time Wizard was okay.

Wouldn't someone really be greedy for these 500 points of damage? No way?

So he just watched the little old man with the short alarm clock swaying over, took a small step in front of Yuei Vu, and jumped up hard with a "hey", his arms and legs waving the wheel in his hand with all his strength. Pan smashed Yuei Vu's forehead hard and dealt a massive 500 damage.

Yuei Vu, LP 4000 LP 3500

After knocking like this, the Time Wizard turned around and ran back. To be honest, looking at his back, Yuei Vu was really worried that when the old man jumped up and knocked him on the head, he would flash his waist

"Set a card, I end my turn."

"My turn, draw." Yuei Vu glanced at the card he drew, and activated it without hesitation, "I activate Pot of Greed and draw two cards from the deck."

Then Yuei Vu also drew the same card as Jonouchi: "Then I also activate the spell card Graceful Charity! Draw three cards from the deck, and discard two of them."

The next thing I'm going to activate is the effect of this monster Magicians Souls! "

Yuei Vu showed a card in his hand, which was an effect monster card, and the afterimages of the blue Dark Magician and the Dark Magician Girl were drawn on the card.

"Magicians Souls?" Jonouchi said that his knowledge blind spot was involved again, "It's a card that I haven't heard of before!"

"The effect of this card can be activated by sending a level 6 or higher Spellcaster-type monster in the deck to the Graveyard. Then I can send this card to the GY, to Special Summon 1 Dark Magician' or 1 Dark Magician Girl' from my GY!"

Yuei Vu pulled out the deck and picked out a card: "Through the effect of the Magicians Souls, I will send Dark Magician' to the graveyard from the deck, and then I will send the Magicians Souls from the hand to the graveyard and resurrect the Dark Magician in the graveyard!"

Yuei Vu sent the Magicians Souls to the graveyard, and the Dark Magician in the graveyard immediately popped out.

The blood-red mist filled the air, and a pitch-black vortex opened on the ground, like the entrance to the underworld. The red phantom towered out in the rising vortex. The mage in red robes folded his arms and held a green staff, and the transparent magic power around his body swirled like a storm.

[Dark Magician, ATK 2500]

Jonouchi's footsteps subconsciously took a half step back and gritted his teeth: "Uhto call out the Dark Magician, the ace monster of Yugi so easily"

"Battle!" Yuei Vu directly announced, "Dark Magician, attack Time Wizard!"

"Damn it!" Grandpa Sugoroku, who was watching the battle, began to worry about Jonouchi. "The Time Wizard is still in attack position and his attack power is only 500. If he is attacked by the Dark Magician"

"Jonouchi will lose directly!" Anzu also immediately began to worry, "Jonouchi!"

"Hey, I expected it!" Jonouchi shouted, "Open the set card, Quick-Play spell Skull Dice!" (anime effect)

A miniature demon appeared holding a big blood-red dice, hey hey, he laughed a few times, and let go of his hands to let the huge dice fall.

"When an opponent's monster declares an attack, roll a six-sided die. The monster's ATK is divided by the number rolled until the end of the turn!" (anime effect)

Yes, it's down according to multiples.

The real-life Skull Dice could only reduce the attack power of the opponent's monster equal to the result x 100. As expected, it could only be said that the animation cards were divine cards.

And according to the huge lucky gap between Jonouchi and YUEI VU, of course, it went without saying

The dice stopped rolling.

"Hahaha! The number rolled is 6!" Jonouchi was so excited that he almost jumped on the spot, "So the attack power of the Dark Magician has dropped to one-sixth of the original!"

Yuei Vu: ""

The players on the sidelines felt appalled.

"Wow, he is indeed God of Gamblers. It's too awesome. Just flick it and it's a 6."

"And the effect of the animation card is too OP. In addition to throwing a 1, this die will reduce the attack power of the opponent by at least half"

"By the way, is Yuei Vu's face a little too dark? Why is it a 6?"

"Yuei Vu's luck. It should be that when playing Ludo, all people have reached the finish line, and he has not yet taken one piece off"

[Dark Magician, ATK 2500 ATK 416]

Under the influence of Skull Dice, the poor Dark Magician shrunk rapidly in size, and the size instantly became more and more comparable to the small Time Wizard.

The attack power was even a little lower than the Time Wizard with 500 attack power.

Perhaps only Yuei Vu was the calmest about this result.

After all as expected, within reason.

But it didn't matter!

"Time Wizard, fight back!" Jonouchi shouted, "Destroy the Dark Magician!"

The Time Wizard hilariously raised his Time Roulette, raised it above his head, and was about to swipe it towards the Dark Magician.

If he succeeded now, it will be the pinnacle of his life!

However, when the time roulette and the Dark Magician's reduced version of the wand slammed in the air, a large amount of blue current burst out in the middle. The two sides were shocked and bounced off each other as if they were repelled by some unknown force.

"What?" Jonouchi was surprised, "Why hasn't the Dark Magician been destroyed?"

Yuei Vu smiled, and a card popped up in the graveyard.

"When I activated Graceful Charity', I discard this monster to the Graveyard," he said, "Activate the effect of Electromagnetic Turtle'. When this card is in the Graveyard, you can add the same electrode to both monsters to forcibly end the Battle Phase at any point." (anime effect)

A group of players started making noises again.

"Divine card! A true divine card!"

"A gravetrap of the first generation! Why does Yuei Vu have everything?"

"The first handtrap Kuriboh, the first gravetrap Electromagnetic Turtle Did he steal the Duel King's deck?"

Although it was said to be the first gravetrap used by Yugi in the DM animation, the Electromagnetic Turtle has been dragging on for nearly 20 years without a real-life card, and it was not officially released until 2014.

Jonouchi was annoyed: "Damn, it's just missed a little bit."

"Then I set three cards, and I end my turn." There were three more set cards on Yuei Vu's field. "Then at the End Phase, the effect of the Skull Dice disappears, and the Dark Magician's attack power returns to its original state."

[Dark Magician, ATK 416 ATK 2500]

Chapter 108: The Power That Spreads All Over The World

"My turn, draw!"

Jonouchi added the card to his hand, and did not rush to attack immediately, but examined the situation on both sides of the field.

There were a Dark Magician and three set cards on Yuei Vu's field, and his field had The Fiend Megacyber and the Time Wizard.

If there was a Dark Magician on the field, the ability of the Time Wizard was equivalent to being blocked (Jonouchi thought so). After all, the last time he used time magic on the Dark Magician of Yugi, not only it did not disappear but also evolved.

And compared to the Dark Magician, what made him more concerned were the three set cards in the Spell Trap Zone. Even a simple-minded like Jonouchi know that there was no way all three were bluffs.

So it was still necessary to solve the set card first.

"I activate a Spell card from my hand Giant Trunade!"

As soon as this card came out, it caused another exclamation.

"It's Giant Trunade!"

"Forbidden card! This is really a forbidden card!"

"It's true that everyone in the DM has banned cards. Why does it feel like any character who has a face and a name will be able to draw a forbidden card?"

Giant Trunade (Normal Spell), the effect was to return all spell and trap cards on the field to the player's hand.

The light green whirlwind rolled up from the card and quickly rushed forward from this half of the field Jonouchi. There was a hideous grimace hidden in the raging storm, and the powerful air pressure blew the cards in the audience as if they were about to be swept up in the air at any time.

Giant Trunade was also one of the iconic divine cards of Jonouchi. It has repeatedly made extraordinary achievements in DM animation and helped Jonouchi to win many victories.

Although encountering a Giant Trunade here was something Yuei Vu didn't expect, he also had countermeasures.

"Flip the set card" Yuei Vu immediately chained another card, "Counter Trap Solemn Judgment!"

Players were once again unable to maintain their composure.

"Fuck, it's a forbidden card!"

"It's not a forbidden card but it's a divine card."

"Damn, the effects of the cards in the DM are simpler and cruder than the other, but they are all good cards"

The trap card took effect, and the projection summoned a solemn and holy white-robed old man with a golden halo on his head.

He stretched out his hand towards the sweeping wind as if he was saying "it can't be done". The Giant Trunade actually seemed to really understand his order, and immediately vanished in place.

"Solemn Judgment can only be activated by paying half of my LP." Yuei Vu explained, "It can negate the summoning of monsters, activate spell traps, and destroy any of them!"

Yuei Vu, LP 3500 LP 1750

A passerby NPC began to point out: "The Giant Trunade's effect is just to return the spell trap to the hand, and it can still be activated in the next turn, right? It actually lost more than 1,700 LP for this kind of card. As expected, this duelist is a good dish."

"That's right." Another passerby backed his view, "He doesn't know how to play at all. How can this type of duelist enter the Battle City? Is it because he is an employee of Kaiba Corp?"

As a result, there happened to be a player next to the passerby NPC. The players couldn't sit still when they heard this.

"I'm dying of laughter. Is this the legendary Wood Division?"

"Only pay 1750 LP to negate a Giant Trunade, what kind of a good deal is that? We usually deduct the standard of 4000 LP for a god's declaration."

"The power of the god of stupid comments spread all over the world, and he has even set foot in other worlds. He is so awesome."

The talking NPC was stunned by a group of screwballs. Of course, he couldn't bear it: "What are you guys? Tell you that I am a top 32 contestant in the township competition. Can you understand this game better than me?"

"Oh, this NPC is quite funny. Come, let's start a game on the spot."

"The brother in front, let me go first. I'll wake him up when I pee"

""

Yuei Vu didn't realize that the screwball player was inexplicably fighting with the passerby NPC, as the duel was still going on here.

"Damn, my Giant Trunade was"

But in this way, Jonouchi was convinced that Yuei Vu must have some hidden tricks in the remaining two set cards so that he must protect them even at the expense of such a large amount of LP.

There might be some pitfalls to turning defeat into victory.

But now there was no card in his hand that could blow out the Spell Trap Zone, nor there was a card that could defeat the Dark Magician. That being the case, now he could only

"I activate a spell card Roll of Fate! After this card is activated, roll a six-sided die. I can draw cards equal to the result, but then I must remove an equal number of cards from the top of my Deck!"

Yuei Vu almost spat a mouthful of blood farther than the last time Kaiba used his "Card of Demise".

Even the screwball players who were busy quarreling did not have time to bully those NPCs.

WTF was that thing!?

That was to say, if you drew this card, you could get at least one card. No matter how unlucky you were, you lost zero card advantage. If you were lucky six cards in one go?

Did anyone dare to write this kind of effect?

Of course, the gambling luck of the strongest underdog was inevitable, and even the result of the dice was created by oneself.

For a God of Gamblers like our Jonouchi, it was needless to say

"Fuck it's another 6!"

"6666! He is really the God of Gamblers!"

"Speaking of which, with his luck in gambling, why didn't Jonouchi directly make a fortune? Doesn't he need money to cure his sister's eyes?"

"It seems that his single father was a gambler when he was a child, so he hated gambling the most in his life."

"It's quite ironic. The gods of gamblers hate gambling the most."

"You either die a hero, or you live long enough to see yourself become the villain.JPG"

At this moment, Yuei Vu watched Jonouchi draw six cards from the deck at one go, only to feel that he was already numb to the card drawing engine of the animation

"I draw six cards, and then banish the top six cards from the deck!" Jonouchi turned out the top card of the deck and banished them, while muttering, "I seem to be really lucky today. Isn't your luck too bad?"

Yuei Vu: ""

Bro, you didn't need to tell the truth

After completing, Jonouchi checked the extra card in his hand and swept the key card at a glance.

Good! Then there are combinations that can break the situation!

"I have to summon this guy first Blue Flame Swordsman, in defensive position!"

[Blue Flame Swordsman, DEF 1600]

"Blue Flame Swordsman's effect is activated! I can have this card lose any amount of ATK in multiples of 100 to have another face-up monster on the field gain an equal amount of ATK!

I deducted all the 1800 attack power of the Blue Flame Swordsman and added it to The Fiend Megacyber! "

[Blue Flame Swordsman, ATK 1800 ATK 0] (defense position)

[The Fiend Megacyber, ATK 2200 ATK 4000]

The faces of the passers-by suddenly changed: "Attack power of 4000! It is a thousand points higher than the Blue-Eyes White Dragon!"

Jonouchi shouted: "I attack the Dark Magician with The Fiend Megacyber!"

The strengthened electronic giant seemed to have a lot of confidence, and he sprinted toward the Dark Magician.

If this attack passed, Yuei Vu's field would be empty, with 250 LP left. And Jonouchi still had a monster who hasn't attacked yet

It's too funny to be killed by Time Wizard with just 500 attack power, right?

Of course, Yuei Vu wouldn't let that happen: "Open the set card! Trap Card Wall of Disruption! The attack power of all monsters on the opponent's field is reduced by 800 points of the number of monsters!"

Jonouchi was shocked: "I have three monsters on the field"

"That's right, The Fiend Megacyber's attack power has dropped by 2400 points!"

[The Fiend Megacyber, ATK 4000 ATK 1600]

"In this way, the attack power of Dark Magician will surpass again." Yuei Vu said, "Dark Magician, fight back!"

"Not gonna happen!" Jonouchi's eyes instantly became bright, "I knew you must have traps, but I also have countermeasures on my side!

Open set card! Trap Card Dramatic Rescue! Activated when your monster falls for a trap. Return the targeted Monster Card to its owner's hand and Special Summon another monster from your hand in its place! (manga effect)

Yuei Vu: ""

Don't lie to me, isn't a card that only supports the "Amazoness" archetype?

Moreover, this card belongs to Mai Kujaku, doesn't it? Or is it that the two of you have already reached this point?

Then I have nothing to say. This is not the power of friendship, this is the power of love.

"I return The Fiend Megacyber to my hand and Special Summon Gearfried the Iron Knight!"

After completing the mission, the magic giant turned into a golden light and returned to the hand of Jonouchi, followed by an iron-clad warrior in exchange. With red eyes, pitch-black armor, and silver-white texture with full metallic texture, he looked heroic.

[Gearfried the Iron Knight, ATK 1800]

"Iron Knight's attack power is 1800. Of course, it's not enough to defeat the Dark Magician, but he is a monster with hidden special abilities." Jonouchi laughed and drew another card from his hand, "This is what liberates his hidden power!"

Activate spell card Release Restraint! This card can shatter the armor that binds the Iron Knight and unleash his true power! Show your true form, Iron Knight!

Special summon Gearfried the Swordmaster! "

Chapter 109: The Archmage Appears!

Gearfried the Swordmaster was summoned!

The handsome black armor exploded from the iron knight, and what appeared inside was a shirtless man with wheat-colored skin and staggered muscles.

Fragments of armor bounced in all directions from mid-air, and the shirtless man squatted to the ground, his long loose hair flying freely. He stood up slowly, and his eyes shot out a dangerous light like a beast, like a hungry wolf who finally got out of the cage and chose someone to devour.

[Gearfried the Swordmaster, Attack Power 2600]

This time, the NPC onlookers were excited: "Swordmaster! The legendary Swordmaster!"

"Oh my god, you can actually see a monster of this level here!"

"Worship him!"

Yuei Vu looked at the monster that suddenly appeared in front of him: "So it is because you knew that I had set up a trap in the Spell Trap Zone, you deliberately stepped on the pit with The Fiend Megacyber, used the trap that Dramatic Rescue to escape the trap, and then activated it again" "Release Restraint", summon the ace to fight back in one breath?"

Although Release Restraint was a Normal Spell card and shouldn't be activated in the battle phase Yuei Vu has accepted this setting and had nothing to complain about. Anyway, the current Battle City rules were like this, so it couldn't be considered nonsense.

In this way, Jonouchi seemed to be a lot stronger than the last time they fought.

In fact, from the perspective of animation performance, it was indeed reasonable. Yuei Vu felt that if you want to give each character in the DM a stat chart, the stats of Jonouchi should be Luck A, Growth A.

On the first day of participating in the Duelist Kingdom competition, Jonouchi was still a super rookie who could not duel even elementary school students. As a result, during the competition, he learned while playing, and he became the runner-up with his super-high growth and monster-level luck.

Before the Battle City began, Jonouchi even lost to a Ghoul's rare hunter, the nameless fish who used the Exodia the Forbidden One. Although he suffered from the loss of intelligence and did not know that the other party was using Exodia, Marik also said that this trash fish was the weakest one in their entire Ghoul's.

However, the Battle City only lasted for one day, and Jonouchi was fighting and learning at the same time, and finally made it to the semi-finals, not to mention even almost defeated Marik who held the sun god

With such a terrifying growth ability, only President Kaiba dared to arrogantly call him a mere horse bone.

"Of course, I've grown a lot since I lost to you last time!" Jonouchi said with a smile, "I won't lose again this time! Activate the Equip Spell Lightning Blade! Equip to Gearfried the Swordmaster' to increase its attack power by 800 points! "

[Gearfried the Swordmaster, ATK 2600 ATK 3400]

Another passerby exclaimed: "Attack power 3400! It surpasses the legendary Blue-Eyes White Dragon again!"

(Blue-Eyes White Dragon: "")

"This is a complete reversal!" Jonouchi waved his hand, "Swordmaster's hidden special ability activates! Each time an Equip Card is equipped to this card: Target 1 monster the opponent controls; destroy that target!

Destroy the Dark Magician! "

Lightning fell from the sky, and a shining sword flew down with the blue electric light. The shirtless Swordmaster stretched out his hand to pick up the sword, like he was grabbing thunder with his bare hands.

Gearfried the Swordmaster shouted, and the blade slashed through the air. The light wrapped around the lightning blade turned into thunderous thunder and flew towards the Dark Magician in a dense and turbulent manner. Dark Magician was waiting, the green staff was sealed in front of his chest, and his figure was gradually engulfed by electric light boom! ! !

"Yeah!" Jonouchi snapped his fingers, and made the standard Jonouchi-style smile, "Dark Magician is gone!"

"Not so fast."

"Nani?"

The thunder disappeared, the strong light dissipated, and when the scene on the field returned to everyone's field of vision, Jonouchi was shocked to find that the Dark Magician was still standing on Yusei's field, unscathed.

No, if you looked closely, the Dark Magician at this time has light black magic power on his body, burning quietly like a candle.

"At that moment, I activated the trap card Black Illusion." Yuei Vu pointed to the last folded card that he opened in the Spell Trap Zone, "During this turn, my Dark Magician is not affected by the opponent's effect, nor will it be destroyed by battle."

"Damn, it's almost there." Jonouchi shouted, "Then I attack with the Swordmaster whose attack power has been strengthened!"

The Swordmaster flew up with a shout, and a sword slashed towards the Dark Magician's head. With the mention of the Dark Magician's wand, a transparent semicircular magic shield appeared in front of him.

The blade of the lightning smashed into the shield, and the current surged. The magic power and the electric light burst out alternately, shaking the space, and causing the Dark Magician to take a half step back involuntarily, but he did not leave the venue.

"With the effect of the Black Illusion, Dark Magician will not be destroyed by battle in this turn." Yuei Vu said.

"I know, but the damage will still be calculated!"

A small part of the current penetrated the magic shield and splashed onto Yuei Vu.

Yuei Vu, LP 1750 LP 850

"Very good, it's almost the last point!" Jonouchi was full of energy, "I switch 'Time Wizard' into defensive position, and set a card. I end my turn!"

Just a little more to the victory!

The situation was definitely in his favor right now. Not only he had Gearfried the Swordmaster with an ATK of 3400 present, but in the Spell Trap Zone there was also a set "Kunai with Chain" in case Yuei Vu could summon stronger monsters in the next turn.

Kunai with Chain was a Normal Trap Card that could be used to turn an attacking monster into Defense Position when the opponent declared an attack, or as an Equip Card to increase your monster's ATK by 500.

And now there was only Dark Magician in the Yuei Vu's field, no card in the Spell Trap Zone, the hand was zero, and the LP was like the candle in the wind. In short, it was not optimistic.

In this situation, could he still print a card in the next turn and directly turn the table?

However, the players held different opinions: "It's over, the opponent goes into blood lock first. It seems that the God of Gamblers is going to go far this time?"

"Empty hand, blood lock Yuei Vu is really the protagonist, as he can lock blood first in a duel with the God of Gamblers"

Yuei Vu of course knew that if using Black Illusion, Dark Magician was absolutely invincible in this turn, but he still took battle damage from it.

But this was also in his calculations!

At the moment, the activation condition of the skill "Draw of Fate" was met.

Let you see what was the draw of a true duelist.

"My turn, draw! Activate Card of Sanctity!"

The players immediately worshipped.

"666666."

"Draw the Card of Sanctity while having an empty hand, are you Yugi Muto?"

"What is the real protagonist? This is the real protagonist."

Yuei Vu began to add cards from the deck frantically: "With the effect of the Card of Sanctity, each player draws until they have 6 cards in their hand.

Then I activate a spell card Monster Reborn! Dark Magician Girl, revive from my graveyard! "

The dark vortex opened, and the magic girl flew out riding her small staff, still waving to everyone brilliantly and energetically, as if she was not discouraged by leaving the stage early.

[Dark Magician Girl, ATK 2000]

"The combination of the Dark Magician and the Dark Magician Girl?" said Jonouchi, "but even the combination of the strongest magician, master and apprentice, can't defeat the current Gearfried!"

"That's right." Yuei Vu smiled, "But you are the best friend of Yugi, you should know that the hidden power of the Dark Magician is more than that."

"What?"

"Dark Magician is the top magician. has more than one form and various abilities." Yuei Vu said and took out one of the cards in his hand, "Now what I want to summon is one of them. I sacrificed the Dark Magician and Dark Magician Girl on the field, and called out a stronger form of the Dark Magician Come on! Sorcerer of Dark Magic! "

A huge pitch-black magic circle appeared in mid-air, and the blue electric light crashed down. The Dark Magician and the Dark Magician Girl both jumped up and turned into two beams of light that flew into the pitch-black magic circle.

The powerful and unparalleled magic wave erupted from the center of the circle like a volcanic eruption, and a figure with endless divine power was bred from it.

The magician who came to the ground was dressed in a large robe and a large dark cloak. When the cloak fell to the ground, the cloak was automatic without wind. The majestic magic power lingered all over the body. Compared with the previous Dark Magician, it was completely different and powerful oppression.

[Sorcerer of Dark Magic, ATK 3200]

Chapter 110: Please Take A Rare Card

"Jonouchi, this is my last move!" Yuei Vu played a card again, "Equip Spell Mage Power activated!"

A green spell card appeared on the field, and the card picture was three green-robed mages with open arms, which looked like they were chanting and praying.

"I equip it to Sorcerer of Dark Magic', and for each spell or trap card on the field, the equipped monster's attack power increases by 500! Counting Mage Power itself, I have a total of three spell and trap cards on the field.

Therefore, the attack power of Sorcerer of Dark Magic will increase by 1500 points! "

[Sorcerer of Dark Magic, ATK 3200 ATK 4700]

"Attack power4700!?" Jonouchi was shocked, "Gearfried's current attack power is 3400. If he is attacked, my LP will only be left.. uh um how much?"

Jonouchi-kun was caught in a math problem.

Sure enough, you still had to study hard, otherwise, you were struggling even to play a card

"Don't worry about it!" Yuei Vu helped him solve this problem very "intimately", "I banish Galaxy Cyclone' in the graveyard to activate its effect!"

An abyss-like black vortex opened on the ground, and green spell cards swirled and flew out, creating a transparent whirlwind on the field.

"Galaxy Cyclone?" Jonouchi tried to recall, "Have I seen this card before?"

"The effect of my Graceful Charity discarded two cards, one of which was the Electromagnetic Turtle', and the other was this." Yuei Vu recalled it for him.

"Ah!" Jonouchi was shocked, "Did you have"

Could it be that he has calculated from the very beginning that this situation will appear?

In other words, the duel has actually been going on up to this point all within his calculations?

Yuei Vu: "Uh"

All within the calculation?

This was not a game of chess, and he didn't know what cards and tactics will be drawn in the next turn. If this could still be included in the calculation, wouldn't it be a cheat?

The reason why he discarded the Galaxy Cyclone in the previous round was simply that this card was a gravetrap like the Electromagnetic Turtle, and its effects could also be activated in the graveyard

"Galaxy Cyclone can be removed from the Graveyard to destroy a face-up Spell and Trap Card on the field! Of course, what I want to destroy is Lightning Blade!"

The transparent whirlwind obeyed Yuei Vu's command and flew towards the opposite half in a directional direction. The card of the Lightning Blade was rolled up high in the air and was torn into pieces under the strong wind pressure.

The sword in Gearfried the Swordmaster's hand also disappeared with the disappearance of the card, leaving the last spark of electric sparks.

[Gearfried the Swordmaster, ATK 3400 ATK 2600]

[Sorcerer of Dark Magic, ATK 4700]

"The last blow!" Yuei Vu waved his hand, "Sorcerer of Dark Magic, attack the Gearfried the Swordmaster!"

The mage in black robe flew out, and the surging magic power gathered from all around, like a stirring cloud converging to the tip of the staff. The thick ink-colored energy turned into a real magic ball of light, like a judgment that was about to bring the curtain down on this fierce battle.

"It's not over yet!" Jonouchi shouted, "My progress isn't just that! Activate set card: Trap Card Kunai with Chain! Use the effect of this card to turn the attacking Sorcerer of Dark Magic to the defensive position!"

"Muda (useless)!"

Yuei Vu's voice fell, and the trap cards on the field Jonouchi had turned into countless light spots, shattered and dissipated.

"What? My trap how?"

"The moment you activate the trap, the special ability of Sorcerer of Dark Magic is activated." Yuei Vu said, "As long as Sorcerer of Dark Magic is face-up on the field, it can negate the activation of any trap card and destroy it!"

Jonouchi: "It's actually similar to my Jinzo!?"

"Sorcerer of Dark Magic, continue to attack!"

The magic storm swept over, and the jet-black projectile hit the Swordmaster's body. Gearfried tried his best to resist, but even the body of a Swordmaster who had been tempered could not defend against such a powerful magic storm.

His body was torn apart in an instant, and the surging and vast magic power roared and swept Jonouchi. The dark image turned into a storm, completely engulfing the entire half of the court.

Jonouchi, LP 2000 LP 0

Jonouchi, who was subjected to the virtual shock, bent his knees slightly and swayed, and finally stood up and did not fall down. It's just that he lowered his head, and half of his face was hidden in the shadows without seeing his expression.

Anzu on the side was a little worried and wanted to step forward: "Jonouchi"

"Don't worry." Grandpa Sugoroku waved his hand and said with a smile, "That kid is not so easily discouraged."

Sure enough, he soon saw Jonouchi raise his head and smiled lightly but helplessly.

"Yeah, I still can't beat you." He sighed, "Yugi is right, you are really strong."

"You've also made great progress." This was not a business mutual admiration, but Yuei Vu's heartfelt.

He guessed that Jonouchi before the duel Jonouchi may still be rated Rank 5 or 6 according to the system, but the current Jonouchi may have reached Rank 7.

Fortunately, Yuei Vu has earned a lot of crystals recently, opened a lot of card packs, and his duelist Rank has also improved. Otherwise, if he was still in the state before Battle City and encounter the current Jonouchi, he may not be able to win.

Of course, there was another key factor that may also be because the dice are rolled a lot this time. Yuei Vu felt that the last duel with Kaiba didn't hurt like this. He might really have a bad relationship with the Jonouchi, as his Luck attributes were suppressed

"Here, take my puzzle cards." Jonouchi was also willing to admit defeat, so he took out the two agreed puzzle cards without much nonsense.

Yuei Vu accepted: "Well. Then look forward to seeing you in the next final."

"Okay! Your words will definitely be able to advance, and I have to do my best." Jonouchi suddenly started to feel pain when he said this, "Haizz~ I was able to advance, and now I have to find the remaining two puzzle cards"

Anzu stared at the side: "It's not that you are hot-headed, you have to run to challenge others when things are already stable"

"By the way, a rare card," Jonouchi remembered something.

Although he would feel reluctant no matter which card was taken away, he still took out the card deck and handed it to Yuei Vu.

"Just pick one, it's the rule."

Yuei Vu took over the decks Jonouchi, browsed through them, and thought about it needless to say?

Of course, it's "Roll of Fate"!

Although Yuei Vu has enough deck-thinning cards in his hand now, Roll of Fate was a bit of a waste in the hand of someone with Luck 20 but it didn't matter! Even if he didn't plan to use it himself, he could sell it to players!

The Pot of Greed only lets you draw two at a time. If you have good luck, this card could even let you draw six at a time! (albeit at a cost)

So in the term of price three times as much as the Pot of Greed? Shouldn't this be a problem?

It even felt a little less.

Of course, players at this stage can't afford to buy this card even if they sell their organs. Yuei Vu didn't plan to sell it to players for the time being. The biggest role of these most powerful cards was actually still on the shelves to make players have a dream.

After all, players now had low levels and limited production capacity. If he was greedy for this momentary interest and sell all the top cards in his hand to them at a low price, then in the later period, how could Yuei Vu continue to cut the chives?

However, Jonouchi was still a little confused: "Do you really want to choose this card?"

Yuei Vu could probably guess the inner Jonouchi's psychology from his expression.

Jonouchi was now 80% thinking that Yuei Vu was the kind of super caring man. In order to take care of his feelings, he deliberately chose a useless card

But that was not true!

Jonouchi felt that Yuei Vu suffered a big loss like this. He was really sorry that com accepted the "kindness" of the other party like this.

"Think again!" Jonouchi was very enthusiastic, "I still have a lot of good cards!

In the previous duel, my Jinzo' was removed from the game, so it was not put into the deck. This is a super rare card that I received from the genius Roba. It is Level 6 but has 2400 attack power and a super powerful effect of countering trap cards!

And then there's this one, which I received from Insector Haga Insect Queen', which is also a super rare card! According to him, it seems to be the top monster of Insect-Type! "

Yuei Vu: ""

No, how could this scene be the same as a seller trying to advertise his products?

Brother, you were going to give me a rare card when you lost a game, not the sales performance at the end of the month!
