

I Play Yu-Gi 1041

Chapter 1041: There Is Only One Answer

Seeing the other party searching a bunch of cards, Judai couldn't help but feel a headache.

Yubel was right, this guy was really difficult to deal with.

"My turn, draw!" Judai said, "Activate the Spell Card 'Card of Burial Magic'! Banish 3 Spell Cards from my Graveyard, and draw two cards." (Animation card)

Two cards popped out of the graveyard.

"I banish 'O – Oversoul', 'Card of Compensation', and 'Instant Neo Space' from the graveyard, and draw two cards!"

Glancing at the newly drawn cards, Judai's eyes moved and he quickly made up his mind.

"Okay, let's use him to attack!" Judai waved his hand and said, "Activate Spell Card – Polymerization! Fuse the 'Elemental HERO Avian' and 'Elemental HERO Liquid Soldier' in my hand!

The fusion condition is 1 'Elemental HERO' monster + 1 WATER monster! Fusion Summon!

The ice warrior breaks through the abyss of extreme cold –

——Elemental HERO Absolute Zero!!!"

The water flows merged, the cold air burst and the hero in white armor fell heroically, and the undulating cloak was like snow-white waves.

[Elemental HERO Absolute Zero, ATK 2500]

"The effect of 'Elemental HERO Liquid Soldier'! If this card is used as Fusion Material for a 'HERO' monster, and sent to the GY or banished: I can draw 2 cards, then discard 1 card."

Drawing the card again, Judai took a look, picked out a card from his hand, and discarded it.

"Judai, there must be something fishy in the opponent's back row." Yubel reminded, "The opponent only left a magician with an attack power of 500 on the field. The set card in the back row must have a defensive method."

"Ah, I know." Judai thought without hesitation, "But now I have no choice but to go up!"

"Just a reminder." Yubel shrugged and smiled, "You are always brave and forward, which is your advantage."

"Battle!" Judai waved his hand, "First, 'Elemental HERO Neos', attack 'Spellbook Magician of Prophecy'!"

Neos shouted, flew out, and a hand chop from a high position hit the top of the bookkeeper's head with force!

As expected, La Mort also responded: "Open the set card: Quick-Play Spell 'Spellbook of Fate'! If I control a Spellcaster monster, remove the three 'Spellbooks' in the graveyard from the game, and remove one card on the field from the game!"

I remove the three cards in the graveyard, 'Spellbook of Knowledge', 'Spellbook of Secrets', and 'Spellbook of Judgment' from the game!

Then remove your 'Elemental HERO Neos'... from the game!"

The strongest spear of the spellbook deck, the golden beam hit the body of Neos who was sprinting! Neos hummed, and a complicated golden magic circle quickly unfolded around him, and then his whole body gradually became virtual with the magic circle until it disappeared.

"Elemental HERO Neos... It seems that is your favorite monster, right? I guess there must be only one." La Mort smiled, "But unfortunately, he has disappeared from this duel now."

Neos: Finally off work...

"Then 'Elemental HERO Absolute Zero', attack 'Spellbook Magician of Prophecy'!"

Judai continued to give orders, and this time it was Absolute Zero who launched the charge! The ice wave swept towards the solitary bookkeeper as if the cold ocean was about to swallow up the lonely boat!

"Open the set card." La Mort snapped his fingers crisply, "Quick-Play Spell 'Magical Dimension'. It can only be activated when there is a Spellcaster monster on my field.

Target 1 monster I control; Tribute that target, then Special Summon 1 Spellcaster monster from my hand, then I can destroy 1 monster on the field."

La Mort showed the magician sister who was retrieved at the end of the last turn.

"Tribute 'Spellbook Magician of Prophecy' and Special Summon 'High Priestess of Prophecy' from my hand!"

The bookkeeper disappeared from the field, and a mage with long fiery red hair, a thin waist, long legs, and white skin appeared on the field instead.

"The subsequent effect of Magical Dimension," said La Mort, "destroy 'Elemental HERO Absolute Zero'!"

A golden coffin bound by chains fell heavily, and a beam of golden light shot from the chest of the coffin, hitting the sprinting Absolute Zero head-on. The latter exploded immediately, and the shock wave made Judai protect his face.

"But at this moment, the effect of Absolute Zero was also activated!" Judai said, "When he left the field, all monsters on the opponent's field were destroyed!"

Although the Ice Hero left the field, the cold wave did not dissipate. The mighty wave of ice pushed forward towards the field of La Mort. The poor magic lady was frozen into a delicate and beautiful ice sculpture before she could even stand firmly. After a moment, it shattered on the spot.

The attacks of the two heroes were indeed in vain.

".....Then the Battle Phase ends."

The field became completely empty again, and Judai had no choice but to end the Battle Phase, saying: "Activate the Spell Card 'Convert Contact'.

This card can only be activated when there are no monsters on my field. Send 2 'Neo-Spacian' monsters, 1 from my hand and 1 from my Deck, to the GY, then draw 2 cards.

I send 'Neo-Spacian Air Hummingbird' from my hand and 'Neo-Spacian Dark Panther' from my deck to my GY, and draw two cards."

"Then activate 'Pot of Greed' and draw two cards from your deck."

Continuing to speed up the card draw, he immediately played one of the cards he drew: "Summon 'Elemental HERO Neos Alius'."

[Elemental HERO Neos Alius, ATK 1900]

"Then set two cards on the field, and the turn ends."

After the declaration, Judai looked at Yubel helplessly: "Sorry, I didn't cause damage this turn."

"Don't worry, you've done enough." Yubel looked at the other side coldly and said, "I told you, this guy is unusually strong."

"As my defeated opponent, you should think so." La Mort said easily.

"What did you say?" Yubel's face quickly turned cold.

But even so, she couldn't deny that the other party was telling the truth.

Now she could not be this guy's opponent, and the actual battle just now has proved this.

La Mort did not respond to Yubel's words, and turned his eyes to Judai.

"But speaking of which, the time should be almost right... You should have noticed it recently, right?"

Judai was stunned and pointed at himself: "Me?"

"Yes." La Mort nodded, "According to our expectations, the awakening day should be some time away. But your growth process seems to have been accelerated, and the previous battle with the 'The Light of Destruction' from outer space has greatly activated the dormant power in your body.

Therefore, the awakening day will be brought forward, and now it is almost that time..."

"What are you talking about?" Judai looked confused.

But then he noticed that Yubel beside him also had a solemn expression, biting her lips and saying nothing.

"Yubel?" Judai wondered, "What is he talking about?"

"I'm talking about the secret about your life that Yubel has been hiding from you." La Mort chuckled elegantly, "Have you ever thought about some questions?

Why are you gifted since childhood and can shine in the first KC Cup in elementary school?

Why do you have a high affinity with spirits, and can see and always attract so many monster spirits around you?

Why are there always accidents around you, and all kinds of strong people always appear around you like being attracted by a magnet?"

Judai was stunned, but instinctively felt that he seemed to hear something incredible next.

"There is only one answer." La Mort shouted, "That's because you, Yuki Judai, are destined to lead twelve dimensions and become the king of kings!

And I will be loyal to you!"

Chapter 1042: Magical Demon Knight

Judai was stunned by what he said and stood there for a while.

"What do you say I am...?"

"The Supreme King, the strongest ruler who commands the twelve dimensions and reigns over countless worlds." La Mort said.

"Ha...haha, that's really funny." Judai touched his head.

La Mort smiled: "This is not a joke. If you don't believe it, why don't you ask Yubel?"

Judai was stunned, turned his head to Yubel, and found that the latter had a gloomy face, but did not refute it.

Is what he said... true?

Judai lowered his head and was gloomy for a long time without saying a word.

Until Yubel even began to worry and felt that she needed to explain something: "Judai..."

"Haha...hahahahaha!!!"

Judai suddenly laughed heartily, and even Yubel was startled.

"Sorry, sorry," he seemed to be laughing to tears, "Hey, I've said since I was a kid that I feel different from other kids.

But every time I say that, my mom always likes to make fun of me. Ha! I didn't expect it to be true! I am really worthy of it..."

Yubel: "..."

Seeing his reaction, Yubel was also slightly relieved.

Not bad.

Sure enough, it was still the Yuki Judai she was familiar with.

"It's great that you think so." La Mort said, "Now the territories of the twelve dimensions are all torn apart, and the king's former subordinates are constantly fighting.

Now is the time when you are most needed..."

"Ah? Go back to be king?" Judai shook his head like a rattle, "That won't work, I still have a year of courses to complete in the academy.

Do you know how much effort I put in to get in? I will definitely not drop out of school halfway, and I will never drop out of school in this life.

Besides, Yuei Vu-sensei will definitely not agree..."

"It seems that you misunderstood." La Mort said, "This is not a request, but something that must happen. You don't belong to this world and should not stay here.

If you refuse, then even if I have to use force, I must take you back."

As if he felt that there was no point in talking any more, La Mort continued the duel: "My turn, draw!"

In the last round, he searched a large number of Spellbooks, and now La Mort naturally has everything in his hand.

"Activate the Spell Card 'Spellbook of Eternity'! Target a banished 'Spellbook' Spell Card other than 'Spellbook of Eternity' and add it to my hand.

I add the Quick-Play Spell 'Spellbook of Judgment' that was removed from the game last turn to my hand!"

Judai frowned: "That card again..."

"Activate the Quick-Play Spell 'Spellbook of Judgment'!"

The magic that gathered the ultimate secrets of the spellbook was activated, and the dazzling and brilliant light once again sprinkled on the earth, and the white beam of light pierced the sky.

"Spellbook of Judgment's effect! During the End Phase of the turn this card was activated, add 'Spellbook' Spells from my Deck to my hand, except 'Spellbook of Judgment', up to the number of Spell Cards activated after this card's resolution."

Lamer paused and smiled like a gentleman.

"Well, let's get started." He drew a card, "First, Spell Card 'Spellbook of Secrets', add 1 'Spellbook' from the deck to the hand.

I add the Continuous Spell 'Spellbook Star Hall' to the hand."

After the card was retrieved, the deck was automatically shuffled.

"Second, activate the Continuous Spell 'Spellbook Star Hall'. As long as this card exists on the field, each time a 'Spellbook' Spell Card is activated, place 1 Spell Counter on this card.

All Spellcaster-Type monsters I control gain 100 ATK for each Spell Counter on this card."

"Third, activate the Equip Spell 'Spellbook of Life'." La Mort said, "Banish the 'Justice of Prophecy' in the graveyard, and revive the 'High Priestess of Prophecy' Position and equip it with this card!

After being resurrected by this effect, the equipped monster's Level is increased by the Level of the monster that was banished for this card's activation."

[High Priestess of Prophecy, LV 7 → Lv 10]

"The effect of 'High Priestess of Prophecy'! Once per turn, banish a 'Spellbook' Spell Card from the hand or graveyard, and destroy a card on the field."

La Mort's Graveyard Zone has ejected another card.

"I remove the first 'Spellbook of Life' in the graveyard from the game, and destroy 'Elemental HERO Neos Alius!'"

The magician sister took her eyes off the Spellbook in her hand, slowly raised her white-gloved jade hand, and locked the magic attack in the direction of Neos Alius!

But Judai immediately opened the backcourt: "Quick-Play Spell 'Gemini Spark!' Use 'Elemental HERO Neos Alius' as a sacrifice to destroy a card on the field.

I destroy 'High Priestess of Prophecy!'"

High Priestess of Prophecy's magic light stream hit the transparent energy barrier and bounced off. Neos Alius disappeared under the white lightning, turned into an energy state surrounded by electric current, and blasted towards the High Priestess of Prophecy like a cannonball.

"Then activate the Quick-Play Spell 'Spellbook of Wisdom' from my hand!" A green card quickly appeared in front of La Mort, "Target 1 Spellcaster monster on the field, then choose one of the two effects to activate:

During this turn, that face-up monster won't be affected by other Spell effects; or won't be affected by Trap effects."

He raised his hand and pointed at the High Priestess of Prophecy.

"Of course, I want to choose not to be affected by other Spell effects!"

The spellbook took effect, and the spell barrier protected the magician in front of the magician in the form of an interlocking magic circle. Neos Alius's self-sacrificing attack was completely consumed by the magic circle, and turned into scattered lightning and disappeared.

"What a pity." La Mort smiled, "And because of the activation of 'Gemini Spark' and 'Spellbook of Wisdom', five Spell Cards have been activated this turn."

"But, in this case, High Priestess of Prophecy is only immune to Spell effects!" Judai waved his hand, "Open the set card: Trap Card – Karma Cut!

Discard 1 card, then target 1 face-up monster the opponent controls; banish that target!"

He discarded a card from his hand into the Graveyard.

"Remove 'High Priestess of Prophecy' from the game!"

The powerful trap locked the red-haired magic lady. She looked around in horror, trying various spells to break through the restraints, but all in vain.

The dimension was distorted, the space changed, and the High Priestess of Prophecy was soon sucked into the space vortex powerlessly and disappeared into the other dimension.

"..."

After a brief pause, La Mort continued to speak.

"You managed to get rid of my High Priestess of Prophecy, you are worthy of being the Supreme King." He said, "But, your resources will be exhausted now, right?"

Judai: "..."

Indeed, now his front and back fields were empty, and there was not a single card left in his hand. It could be said that he was completely out of ammunition and food.

Or rather, this duel was a one-sided resource-crushing from the very beginning. The amount of resources that the opponent's deck could call on each turn was so huge that it was despairing.

"The sixth Spell Card." La Mort said, "'Foolish Burial', send a monster from my deck to the graveyard. I send 'Prophecy Destroyer' to the graveyard.

Then the effect of 'Prophecy Destroyer' itself. Banish three 'Spellbooks' in my graveyard, and this card can be special summoned from the graveyard!"

La Mort picked up the three cards that popped out of the graveyard in one breath: "I remove 'Spellbook of Judgment', 'Spellbook of Wisdom', and 'Spellbook of Eternity' from the game! Show up here——

——'Prophecy Destroyer'!!!"

Chapter 1043: Infinite Spellbook

Although he was called a magician, the monster that appeared at this time was more like a demon. He is shirtless, with devil horns on his head, and his wide wings are full of steel barbs, as if he is in the midst of swirling smoke.

[Prophecy Destroyer, ATK 2500]

"Next is the seventh Spell Card 'Spellbook of Knowledge'. I send a 'Spellbook' card from my hand to the Graveyard, and draw two cards from my deck."

After drawing two cards, La Mort continued: "Next is the eighth Spell Card 'Spellbook of the Master'. When there is a Spellcaster-Type monster on my field, gain the effect of a 'Spellbook' Spell Card in the Graveyard.

I still want to gain the effect of 'Spellbook of Secrets', add 1 'Spellbook' Spell Card from the deck to my hand.

I add the Quick-Play Spell 'Spellbook of Fate' from my deck to my hand again."

"That card again." Judai frowned, "This guy's deck search is endless..."

"No, that's not entirely true." Yubel said calmly, "The superb deck operation ability ensures that he can get any Spellbook he needs almost every round. This is the terrifying part of that deck, but it may be a weakness to some extent."

"Huh?" Judai was puzzled.

"No matter how strong the search ability is, the number of cards in the deck itself has an upper limit." Yubel said, "The first 'Spellbook of Fate' banished our 'Aqua Neos', and the second banished Neos.

Now the one in his hand is the last."

"Yes... yes!" Judai slapped his forehead, "His deck is almost used up!"

"Yeah." Yubel said, "The same is true for other Spellbooks. There are only three copies of the same Spellbook at most. At this search speed, he should be almost out of ammunition by now."

Although La Mort couldn't hear what they were talking about at this distance, he seemed to have guessed it roughly.

"I guess you're saying that I'm running out of cards, right?"

Judai: "Ah, I've been caught."

Yubel didn't mean to hide it, and just said coldly: "Is it wrong? Your deck is almost empty. Although it seems that you have the upper hand, as long as we survive the last wave of attacks, you and your magicians will be just a spent force."

"Is that really the case?" La Mort smiled.

Yubel's eyelids twitched.

La Mort said calmly: "I will sacrifice the 'Prophecy Destroyer' on the field! Tribute Summon!

The ghost warrior who has dabbled in the forbidden power of creation, engulf everything with the rampaging darkness——

——Reaper of Prophecy!!!"

The black magic storm rolled up, and the huge ghost warrior with wings was swallowed up by the storm and disappeared. The dark magic in the air seemed to have turned into a pitch-black dragon!

[Reaper of Prophecy, ATK 2000]

Looking at the mage in a black robe holding a sickle and exuding an ominous aura, Judai stared with wide eyes and compared him with the black-robed mage behind him who was playing cards with a duel disk, and was immediately shocked.

"Wow! Summoned yourself to duel?" He looked at Yubel in surprise, "This person is the same as you!"

"Stupid, pay attention." Yubel said coldly, "The opponent is going to be serious!"

"Not serious at all." La Mort smiled, "I'm just trying my best to develop the dormant potential of the Supreme King.

The effect of my own clone, 'Reaper of Prophecy', is activated. When this card is successfully summoned, it gains different effects according to the number of 'Spellbook' Spell Cards with different names in my Graveyard.

When there are three or more types of Spellbooks in the graveyard, my attack power increases by 600."

[Reaper of Prophecy, ATK 2000 → ATK 2600]

"When there are four or more types, add 1 'Spellbook' Spell Card from the deck to my hand."

La Mort pulled out one of the few Spellbooks he had left from the deck: "I add 'Spellbook of Power' to my hand."

But it's not over yet. The black-robed wizard on the field was still releasing energy, and the dark storm was spinning around him.

"If there are more than five types of spellbooks in the graveyard, Special Summon 1 Level 5 or higher DARK Spellcaster-Type monster from my Deck."

A card popped out of the deck and was drawn into his hand.

"Show yourself, level 8 —

— Wheel of Prophecy!!!"

The storm rolled up, and a wizard, who was as strong as a lion, fell heavily to the ground, with messy golden hair and a flying cloak behind him. Although he was a wizard, his image seemed closer to a wild beast warrior.

[Wheel of Prophecy, ATK 2700]

Yubel's face changed slightly: "Oh no, this guy's effect is..."

"Wheel of Prophecy's effect – When this card is Special Summoned by the effect of a Spellcaster-Type monster: I can target any number of my banished "Spellbook" Spell Cards; shuffle them into the Deck!!!"

"Huh!?" Judai was petrified instantly.

All returned to the deck! ?

Doesn't this mean...

The he saw a bunch of cards popping out of the banished zone, floated up one by one. For a moment, all kinds of Spellbooks were everywhere in the sky, and the scene was quite spectacular.

"So far, my banished Spellbooks are 'Spellbook of Secrets', 'Spellbook of Power', 'Spellbook of Eternity', 'Spellbook Organization', 'Spellbook of Life', 'Spellbook of Fate', 'Spellbook of the Master', 'Spellbook of Judgement', 'Spellbook of Wisdom'...

...all of them are returned to the deck!!!"

A large number of Spell Cards flew back to La Mort's deck one by one, and the cards were automatically shuffled.

In the blink of an eye, his empty magazine was refilled.

"Tsk." Yubel frowned, "It's really weird..."

"But it looks like you don't have a chance to think about the next turn." La Mort raised his hand, "Then activate the ninth Spell Card, 'Spellbook of Power', which increases the attack power of a Spellcaster-Type monster on the field by 1000 points this turn.

I let my clone, 'Reaper of Prophecy' gain 1000 ATK!"

[Reaper of Prophecy, ATK 2600 → ATK 3600]

"And, there is the effect of 'Spellbook Star Hall'!" La Mort continued, "A total of five 'Spellbook' Spell Cards are activated this turn, so there are five Spell Counters on this card!

All Spellcaster-Type monsters I control gain 100 ATK for each Spell Counter on this card!"

[Reaper of Prophecy, ATK 3600 → ATK 4100]

[Wheel of Prophecy, ATK 2700 → ATK 3200]

The attack power was 3200 and 4100 respectively, and there was nothing on Judai's side!

"Battle!" La Mort waved his hand and shouted, "Go! Reaper of Prophecy, attack directly!!!"

Chapter 1044: Begone, Loser!

"Reaper of Prophecy, attack directly!!!"

La Mort's clone raised the sickle in his hand, and the momentum of the sickle's blade swinging down was as if splitting the sky and the earth! The dark cracks spread in the space, and fell towards Judai with a sharp sound like breaking glass!

Attack power 4100, it was undoubtedly over if he took this blow!

"Judai, avoid this one!" Yubel said sternly.

"I know!" A card popped out from the graveyard area of Judai's Duel Disk, "The card I discarded to pay the price of 'Karma Cut' is 'Necro Gardna'!

During the opponent's turn, I can banish this card from my Graveyard; negate the next attack this turn from a monster you control!"

The loyal guardian appeared in front of Judai like an illusory shield. The blade that seemed to tear the sky and the earth hit the barrier from a distance. Although Judai felt as if the ground under his feet was shaking, he still took it.

Even if the damage didn't penetrate, when the blade fell, Judai felt that the whole world in his eyes seemed to tremble. The dark magic that chilled him to the bone surrounded him, making him feel like he was falling into an ice cave.

In a trance, he felt that there seemed to be an illusion in front of him. The overwhelming dark magic occupied his entire vision, and a bloody world emerged in the darkness——

—— Countless bones were scattered all over the ground, and countless broken Duel Disks were densely inserted on the battlefield like the swords of defeated generals.

He stood on the ground in his heavy black armor, and the wind mixed with the smell of blood blew, and his cloak rose and fell alone behind him.

It was exactly the scene he saw in his nightmare.

He felt cold hands and feet, and even his breathing was stagnant.

Until Yubel's voice sounded in his ears: "What are you daydreaming about? It's coming!"

Judai suddenly came to his senses and realized that another group of violent magic was coming towards him. He only had time to raise his arm reflexively, and the whole person was blown away.

Although La Mort's attack was blocked, there was still "Wheel of Prophecy" on the opponent's field who had not attacked. Although not as good as La Mort, his attack power was also 3200 points, which was still quite painful.

[Judai, LP 4000 → LP 800]

This was not a three-dimensional image. The intense pain penetrated his body, and the strange magic swept through his limbs.

This moment was not only painful but also a more primitive impulse, even overwhelming the pain and burning sensation.

Judai felt like his body was about to be torn apart, and a beast sleeping in his body was waking up.

"Judai!"

Yubel looked at the magician on the opposite side angrily.

"What did you do?"

"Nothing, just the duty of a subordinate." La Mort smiled and drew two more cards from his hand, "Set two cards, I end my turn.

At this moment, the effect of 'Spellbook of Judgment' is also activated! A total of nine Spell Cards are activated this turn, so I can add up to nine 'Spellbooks' from the deck to my hand."

The Spellbooks that were just recycled popped out one after another.

"I put 'Spellbook of Secrets', 'Spellbook of the Master', 'Spellbook of Eternity', 'Spellbook of Fate', 'Spellbook of Wisdom', and 'Spellbook of Life', a total of six cards, into my hand."

Although he could retrieve nine cards, he only chose six this time. After all, the upper limit of the number of cards in his hand was limited, and the cards exceeding six had to be discarded at the End Phase.

"After that, special summon a level 6 or lower Spellcaster monster from the deck." La Mort said, "Come on, 'Emperor of Prophecy!'"

[Emperor of Prophecy, ATK 2300]

"Also due to the effect of 'Spellbook Star Hall', Emperor of Prophecy's ATK increases by 500."

[Emperor of Prophecy, ATK 2300 → ATK 2800]

In this way, La Mort's turn finally ended.

But Judai looked very wrong.

He half-knelt on the ground, supporting the ground with one hand, sweat pouring down his forehead.

"Judai!" Yubel frowned, and immediately showed a look of astonishment after seeing his appearance, "You..."

"No...it's okay."

Judai stood up shakily.

He hadn't noticed it yet, but his eyes turned into a burning golden color for a brief moment, empty and cold.

"My...turn."

He took a deep breath and tried to calm his extremely disordered breathing.

The hand card was zero, and the field was empty. If he couldn't draw anything useful this time, it would be over.

Judai shook his head, trying to get rid of the phantoms that kept appearing in his mind, forcing himself to focus on the duel.

"...Draw!"

He felt that double images began to appear in front of his eyes, and it took extra effort to see what he had drawn.

Then he smiled happily.

Sure enough, his deck would never betray him at any time.

"Activate the Spell Card 'Card of Reversal!'" Judai showed this card directly, "This card can only be activated when I have no cards on the field and no other card in my hand. Draw 1 card for each face-up card on the opponent's field!" (Animation card)

He took a deep breath again.

"You have three monsters and one Continuous Spell on your field, so I draw four cards!"

Judai then showed another new card: "Spell Card 'Legacy of a HERO!' When there are 2 or more Level 4 or higher "HERO" monsters in my Graveyard, draw three cards from the deck!" (manga card)

He replenished his hand in one breath, but after drawing the card this time, he was clearly stunned.

On the far right of his hand, he caught a glimpse of an extremely strange card.

It seemed that a thick darkness enveloped the card, making him unable to see what was written on the card.

But even so, he felt as if there was a voice in his ear constantly telling him that he couldn't use this no matter what.

If he used this card, there might be no turning back.

"....."

Judai tried to shake off his distracting thoughts and continued the duel: "I summon 'Elemental HERO Blazeman!'"

[Elemental HERO Blazeman, ATK 1200]

"Blazeman's effect – If this card is Normal or Special Summoned: I can add 1 'Polymerization' from my Deck to my hand," Judai said.

Then his eyes fell on the two set cards in the opponent's backfield.

There was no doubt that at least one of them was "Spellbook of Fate", which could remove any card on the field from the game.

That card must be resolved first.

"Activate the Spell Card 'R – Righteous Justice!'" Judai showed a Spell Card, "Destroy Spells/Traps on the field equal to the number of 'Elemental HERO' cards I control.

I have 'Elemental HERO Blazeman' on the field, so I can choose a Spell or Trap card to destroy."

Judai paused, squinted his eyes, and looked at the two set cards.

"The hit probability is one in two," Yubel said softly.

However, "R – Righteous Justice" was a non-target effect, and you didn't need to choose which card to destroy when you activate it. If La Mort chained with "Spellbook of Fate" to remove Blazeman from the game, then Judai could choose to destroy his other remaining set card.

However, it seemed that La Mort did not intend to chain to this effect. He preferred to bet on his luck and bet that Judai would not pick the right card.

"I want to destroy... the one on the right!"

The beam of justice penetrated, and the face-down card flipped over, revealing the "Spellbook of Fate".

Looking at this powerful weapon shattered under the light of justice, La Mort was not angry but smiled.

"As expected of you, my king. I knew you would definitely hit the right one."

Judai tried to suppress his heavy breathing: "Next is... the Quick-Play Spell 'Burial from a Different Dimension', which returns up to 3 banished monsters to the graveyard.

I return the 'Elemental HERO Neos' back to my GY!"

"It's this monster again." La Mort smiled, "My king, you really like that monster..."

Neos: Being dragged back from another dimension by the boss to work overtime...

"Spell Card 'Miracle Contact'!" Judai raised his voice, "I return 'Elemental HERO Neos', 'Neo-Spacian Air Hummingbird', and 'Neo-Spacian Aqua Dolphin' in the graveyard to the deck!"

Neos, Hummingbird, and Dolphin brothers flew out one after another, turning into three beams of light that rushed straight into the sky! The two Neo-Spacians attached to Neos one after another, and the light blue storm suppressed the whole scene!

"Ride the wind, the power of the storm —

—— Elemental HERO Storm Neos!!!"

Another fusion of three elements, and also the last move of Judai to complete the final kill!

That was a hero wearing a blue heavy armor, as if he was hanging in the air in the storm, with sharp claws on his fists and snow-white wings spread out behind him, looking like a god!

[Elemental HERO Storm Neos, ATK 3000]

Storm Neos had the same ability as "Heavy Storm" – it could destroy all Spells and Traps on the field!

As long as this ability was used to clear the remaining set card, and then launch a general attack in one breath...

"Open the set card."

La Mort smiled and opened the last card in his backfield.

"Trap Card 'Graverobber'! Get a card from the opponent's graveyard, and I can use it at any time during this turn." La Mort said, "The card I want to get is...Karma Cut!"

Judai: "!"

"Then use the effect of 'Karma Cut' immediately... Of course, you should know what the effect of this card is, right?"

La Mort said easily, pulling out a card and throwing it into the graveyard.

"Discard a card, and remove the 'Elemental HERO Storm Neos' on your field... from the game."

The space was distorted, and the boundless gravity seemed to reach out from the cracks, grabbing Neos and dragging him to the other side of the dimension.

Judai stayed where he was.

"What a pity, I finally had a chance to turn the tables, but I failed like this..."

Judai gritted his teeth and looked at his cards again.

It's not over yet. Now he had Blazeman on the field, and the WIND-attributed "Elemental HERO Avian" in his hand. As long as he fused them into Great Tornado and reduced the attack power of all monsters on the opponent's field by half, he would at least have a chance to fight...

Just thinking about this, his eyes unconsciously fell on the card next to Avian.

The card was shrouded in darkness and exuded an ominous aura.

His intuition told him that it was actually very simple to win. Just draw this card and put it in the Duel Disk.

Accepting this power, he would easily break through any situation... and he would never lose again.

He would always win.

In an instant, Judai felt that the impulse seemed to overwhelm everything, even the voice in his ear that said "Never use this card" disappeared. His brain was completely blank – he didn't even notice that he couldn't even hear Yubel's voice for a while.

He saw his hand mechanically draw the card and insert it into the Duel Disk.

An almost indescribable terrifying force erupted instantly as if to drown him. Dark miasma erupted from the Duel Disk, and the dark electric current sizzled and jumped as if to burn the machinery.

The whole arena suddenly changed! The dark city rose from the ground, and the black outline was like a rugged black rock! The two warring parties were on both sides of a suspended bridge, one on the left and one on the right, and there was a hellfire rolling directly below.

Judai seemed to have become someone else in an instant.

He slowly raised his head, and a pair of terrifying golden eyes flashed with a diamond-like luster.

La Mort curled his lips and showed a satisfied smile.

"Activate the Field Spell 'Supreme King's Castle'." Judai's tone became as cold as a machine, "As long as this card exists in the field, Fusion Monsters that must be Special Summoned with 'Dark Fusion' can be Fusion Summoned by ordinary fusion effects.

Therefore, I activate the Spell Card 'Polymerization' from my hand, and perform a dark fusion on the 'Elemental HERO Avian' and 'Elemental HERO Burstinatrix' in my hand!

The winged warrior who returned from the depths of hell, the demon who controls the hellfire——
——Evil HERO Inferno Wing!"

The two Elemental HEROes both turned into beams and flew to the bottom of the bridge, disappearing in the flames. Immediately afterward, the hellfire flew into the sky like a twisted fire dragon, slammed in front of Judai, and turned into his loyal servant.

[Evil HERO Inferno Wing, ATK 2100]

"Battle!" Judai's tone was cold and even, "Evil HERO Inferno Wing, attack 'Emperor of Prophecy'."

[Emperor of Prophecy, ATK 2800]

La Mort smiled and reminded: "Emperor of Prophecy's attack power is 2800, my king."

"At this moment, activate the effect of the Field Spell 'Supreme King's Castle'." Judai said, "Once per turn, during damage calculation, if my Fiend monster battles an opponent's monster: I can send 1 'Evil HERO' monster from my Deck or Extra Deck to the GY; my monster gains ATK equal to the Level of the monster sent to the GY x 200, until the end of this turn. "

He slowly revealed a card and sent it to the Graveyard.

"I send the Level 7 'Evil HERO Malicious Edge' to the Graveyard, and the ATK of Inferno Wing increases by 1400 points. "

[Evil HERO Inferno Wing, ATK 2100 → ATK 3500]

La Mort: "Tsk, 3500 ATK in one go..."

Infernal flame easily crushed the magic power of Emperor of Prophecy, and the impact of the Evil HERO blasted through his body like a cannonball, and the magic king was blown to pieces on the spot.

[La Mort, LP 3000 → LP 2300]

Even though he saw his servants being smashed to pieces, he still smiled happily: "Hehe, worthy of being the Supreme King, it's really extraordinary..."

"The effect of 'Evil HERO Inferno Wing'." Judai said, "If this card destroys a monster by battle and sends it to the GY: Inflict damage to the opponent equal to the original ATK or DEF, whichever is higher. "

The original attack power of the Emperor of Prophecy happened to be 2300.

The golden eyes of Judai were cold and empty.

"Begone, loser!"

Boom!!!

[La Mort, LP 2300 → LP 0]

Chapter 1045: Are You Also The Four Heavenly Kings?

Ten minutes ago, Judai was found by the students of the academy on the rooftop of the swimming pool, weak and unconscious.

He was soon transferred to the academy's infirmary and received a thorough examination.

It was said that it was Marufuji Sho, a younger brother who was taking swimming lessons with him, who first noticed Judai's disappearance, and then went to look for him with another younger brother Kenzan.

However, it was Asuka who found Judai first.

After class, she changed her clothes and lingered outside the door of the venue several times. First, she "dropped" the Duel Disk and then "forgot" her watch. After a long delay, she didn't see him come out. Finally, she became suspicious, so on the way to the locker to get her watch, she "dropped in" to inquire.

She met Marufuji Sho who was looking for Judai everywhere, and after learning about the situation, she joined the search.

So Judai was found unconscious on the rooftop.

But Asuka was a girl with limited strength, and Marufuji Sho was even worse than Asuka in terms of physical fitness. Finally, thanks to the muscular Kenzan, Judai was carried to the infirmary without stopping.

When Yuei Vu arrived at the infirmary, the basic examination was already over.

"He didn't suffer any physical injuries, but he might have suffered mental injuries." Chika looked at Judai who was unconscious on the bed with some concern, "I was a little worried at the end of last semester. Could that duel have had some impact on him?"

Everyone saw how thrilling the battle with The Light of Destruction was. Except for the person involved, no one knew how much of a burden that duel would put on the duelist.

"Don't worry." Yuei Vu's tone was quite cheerful, "This kid is as strong as a bull, he'll be fine."

Although he didn't think Judai would have any problems, he still had to find out what happened.

Yuei Vu also happened to know who to ask.

After the relatives, friends, and students who came to visit had all left the ward, Yuei Vu looked at a certain empty place in the room.

"Care to explain what happened?"

"..."

Only a moment later, Yubel appeared from the corner.

"This is none of your business." She said, "This is different from every previous incident. This time it's our own problem."

Hearing this, Yuei Vu understood about Judai's situation.

"The Supreme King is about to awaken, right?"

Yubel showed a look of astonishment.

"How could you..."

"I've said it before, I know more than you think." Yuei Vu said, "From the moment I agreed to accept Judai as a student, your problems are my problems.

So you'd better explain it in detail. What's going on? Why is the Supreme King suddenly awakening?"

The plot holes in the original GX animation increased after each season. The animation only explained that Judai was the reincarnation of the Supreme King, and the power of the Supreme King had been sleeping in his body, but there were only a few minutes of shots and a few lines about his previous life.

There was nothing about the background of the Supreme King's previous life, his origins, and the kingdom he ruled. Even the only prominent characters were Yubel and Judai.

However, according to the original animation, the sleeping Supreme King awakened after Judai was overwhelmed by the heavy responsibility, pain and guilt of losing his companions, and could not bear the pressure.

Yuei Vu thought that if there was no such opportunity, this power would have continued to sleep.

Yubel thought silently for a moment, hesitated for a while, and finally decided to tell him the truth.

"The Supreme King is an innate part of the Judai." Yubel said, "No need for any opportunity, he will wake up sooner or later as time goes by.

It's just that it shouldn't have been so fast. I think it should be the impact of the power of the 'The Light of Destruction' at that time. Being the nemesis of the darkness, The Light of Destruction has triggered the extreme dark power in his body. The interaction between the two has accelerated this process."

After a pause, she added: "Of course, there is some external interference. A person... no, a duel monster spirit invaded this academy.

We just encountered him."

"Spirit?" Yuei Vu frowned.

"Yes, a spirit that does not belong to this world." Yubel said, "He comes from the dimension dominated by magic in the twelve dimensions. In that world, Spellcaster monsters occupy a major position, and he is the best among them.

His name is... well, you may not know it. His name is 'La Mort', but people called him 'the Magical Nethermaster'..."

"Reaper of Prophecy!?" Yuei Vu raised his eyebrows.

Yubel was surprised: "Have you heard of it?"

Yuei Vu frowned.

More than heard of it!

The Spellbook deck was definitely a highlight in the history of Yu-Gi-Oh. Any card player who has experienced that era would never forget that deck.

If you asked a card player with ten years of experience to name a version in the history of Yu-Gi-Oh that was the most unbalanced and the entire environment was swept by a single deck, that person would most likely answer "Dragon Ruler Spellbook".

In those days, there were only two meta decks in the entire Yu-Gi-Oh environment, the first of which was "Dragon Ruler" and the second was "Spellbook".

Let's not talk about Dragon Ruler. This deck has been so overpowered for many years that it was meaningless to mention it because the existence of this deck almost made all other cards in the entire Yu-Gi-Oh card pool become waste paper.

The sudden appearance of "Dragon Ruler" almost turned all the world champion decks up to that time into toys for children.

In the end, the whole family was locked up in the dark room, and the era of Dragon Ruler finally ended.

The entire series had to be banned to stop it, which showed the abnormality of this deck.

As the only deck in the entire environment that could compete with Dragon Ruler and beat all other decks by eight miles, the power of the Spellbook was obvious to all.

What's more worth mentioning was that in the end, the entire Dragon Ruler series became banned cards, while only "Spellbook of Judgment" in the Spellbook series was locked up in the dark room.

This meant that Spellbook could fight against a monster-level deck, whose whole series were all banned cards, with only one powerful card. It was a miracle that it could fight back and forth in the same era.

Of course, no matter how strong the deck was, it would be much easier if you knew in advance what the opponent was going to use.

"We were the four strongest people under the Supreme King." Yubel said, "We are his left and right arms."

The four strongest... Why does it sound like the Four Heavenly Kings? Yuei Vu thought.

"So that guy has been solved?" Yuei Vu asked.

"Probably not." Yubel shook her head, "The power of the Supreme King has not yet fully awakened, and Judai has unconsciously suppressed that power.

I guess that guy may still be somewhere on this island."

"Really? That's great."

Yuei Vu instantly became motivated.

"The strongest in the twelve dimensions? Interesting."

Do you mean his deck is interesting? Yubel complained in her heart.

Chapter 1046: I Want Them All

Not long after falling unconscious, Judai woke up.

In fact, Yuei Vu was not worried about Judai's condition. Not only because he knew that his own jellyfish head was the child of the world and had the protagonist's aura, but also because he had confidence in Judai himself.

As long as he was not trapped by his teammates in life-threatening card games one after another like in the animation, Yuei Vu believed that Judai could suppress the Supreme King and eventually master that power.

It's just that there may be some twists and turns in the process.

So in order to reduce the variables during the period, he must first eliminate the potential threats that may cause trouble for his lovely students.

For example, La Mort the Magical Nethermaster, who may still be lurking somewhere in the academy.

Judai was as carefree as ever, or at least it seemed so. After waking up, he seemed to have forgotten everything that happened before, holding his stomach and yelling that he wanted to eat.

It happened that when he woke up, the cute junior schoolmate Saotome Rei was sitting by the bed. This junior sister was not only good-looking but also thoughtful. She even prepared a lunch box for her senior.

Judai's eyes lit up when he saw it, and he sat up straight, opened the lunch box, and was about to eat.

Asuka, who also came to visit the patient, was not happy at this moment.

"Wait a minute."

Asuka snatched the lunch box from Judai's hand.

Rei pouted: "Senior sister, what are you doing? We must compete fairly!"

"No, that's not what I mean!" Asuka blushed slightly, "I mean, this lunch box tastes too strong, Judai is recovering now, it's not good for his health."

As she said that, she also took out a lunch box.

"As for bento, I have also tried to make it. It should be beneficial to physical recovery after considering the nutritional balance."

Judai opened the bento box and drooled again: "Hey Asuka, you can make bento! It looks delicious!"

At this time, Asuka's brother Fubuki, who had a low sense of presence, came out: "Wow, I'm so jealous! Even I, as a brother, have never eaten the bento made by a cute sister.

Damn, her first time is given to you, Judai!"

"Big brother!" Asuka's face was hot.

Her brother Fubuki was unconscious throughout the incident of the Seven Stars Attack since he was kidnapped. It was not until the incident ended and the behind-the-scenes BOSS was defeated that Fubuki finally woke up.

When Fubuki first woke up, Asuka was so happy, but not long after, she couldn't help but think that it was actually good for her brother to just lie in bed.

Because Fubuki was handsome, played cards well (the setting said so), and had excellent grades. He was an excellent brother who is proud of everything...

...The only problem was that he had a trolling mouth.

"Hmm? I'm telling the truth." Fubuki blinked, "Even I haven't eaten the lunch box of my cute sister."

"That's because when I learned it, brother, you disappeared. There's nothing I can do." Asuka's voice gradually became smaller.

Seeing that Asuka's momentum was weak, Rei seized the opportunity to attack. She reached out and snatched her lunch box back: "Senior, you worry too much!"

Chika-sensei said that Judai-sama is in good health and there is no problem at all. The damage is all mental.

So at this time, nutritional matching is not important. The important thing is to eat something delicious to keep a happy mood!"

Asuka opened her mouth and wanted to refute, but after thinking carefully, she felt that what Rei said seemed to make some sense.

"Okay, stop arguing." Judai took both lunch boxes with a smile, "Why do I have to choose one? I can eat both! I'm almost starving."

Judai: I want them all. JPG.

To be honest, Judai didn't understand the arguments between Rei and Asuka.

Rei is good and Asuka is nice. They are all good friends, isn't it good to get along well?

Why can they get along well with me, but they always don't like each other?

I can't figure it out.

But he was not the type who was good at thinking, and he never bothered to think about things that he couldn't figure out.

Always eat first!

At this time, a silver-haired world champion passed by the door.

Aster paused briefly at the door, looked around, and confirmed that Judai was not only fine but also had a good appetite. He was relieved and turned around and left.

But before he walked far, he ran into Manjoume at the end of the corridor, who might have been passing by.

Aster gave him a look, nodded to say hello, and stepped aside to let him pass first.

Manjoume raised his eyebrows: "Wow, I heard that the previous world champion in the professional circle is always busy, but it doesn't seem to be the case now.

He actually has time to wander around the health room. I think he is quite idle."

Aster frowned.

Is this guy trying to make trouble?

Before entering school, Aster had always been secretly paying attention to the things around Judai, and he was also very clear about Judai's experience in the first year of school.

He knew that Manjoume Jun was the strongest opponent Judai met in his first year, and he was a bit of a nemesis.

Most duelists admired the strong. At that time, Aster had a good impression of Manjoume, who was good at playing cards and had an affinity with spirits, but now he was a little disappointed.

At this moment, a short and ugly yellow spirit wearing bright red shorts appeared and whispered in Manjoume's ear: "But big brother, aren't you also wandering around here?"

Manjoume's face suddenly changed, and he shouted: "Shut up!"

A black spirit also floated out and disturbed him: "Big brother is not wandering around! Big brother heard that something happened to Yuki Judai, so he rushed here in a hurry!"

"You shut up too!" Manjoume's face was darkened.

A certain green spirit: "Ah~ Big brother is angry again, so scary"

Manjoume's forehead was full of crosses: "You three useless guys, if you don't go back, I will throw you all into the sea to feed the sharks!"

The three spirits were immediately shocked, hugged each other, and screamed "Oh my God", then retracted into the deck and disappeared.

"Manjoume Jun, right? I thought the champion of the GX Tournament was a big shot, but I didn't expect him to be this... capable." Aster shook his head, "It seems that I expected too much."

"That's hard to say." Manjoume, who finally drove away the three annoying guys, breathed a sigh of relief, "How can you know if you don't try it yourself?"

"Oh?" Aster looked at him carefully, "Are you serious?"

"Of course." Manjoume smiled, "Aster Phoenix, the World Champion of Pro League. I have wanted to fight you for a long time. I thought there would be a battle in the GX Tournament sooner or later, but I didn't expect you to back down halfway."

"Huh, that kind of competition? Bullying some mediocre newbies can't give me any sense of accomplishment."

Aster chuckled, paused, and then turned around.

"But if you insist, it's okay to accompany you to try it."

The two looked at each other, tit for tat, and the air became increasingly tense.

Thunder and fire collided, and a war was about to break out.

At this moment, a crisp "pop" sound echoed in the corridor.

All the lights went out at the same time.

Chapter 1047: An Unforgettable Duel

A large-scale power outage suddenly swept across the Duel Academy without any warning. The entire academy fell into complete darkness, and the entire teaching building was pitch dark.

The staff immediately began to repair the power, but after checking, no one could tell what the reason for the power outage was.

Only some duelists who might be slightly sensitive to supernatural powers seemed to have an illusion of something strange and a strange sense of disharmony before the lights went out.

At the same time, in the dense forest outside the academy, a student in an Obelisk Blue uniform was standing alone in the forest, looking up at the campus engulfed by darkness, smiling silently.

"It's almost time to start." He said softly.

"It's a pity." A voice sounded from behind him, "Whatever you are looking forward to, I'm afraid it won't be possible."

The student showed a fleeting look of astonishment, turned his head, and saw Yuei Vu who appeared not far behind him.

He quickly came to his senses and showed a surprised expression: "Principal Yuei Vu! How come you are in such a place?"

"Forget about the disguise." Yuei Vu said, "You and I both know that you are not a student of this academy. You are not even a being of this dimension."

"...."

After a moment of silence, the student raised his head again, with a relaxed and elegant smile on his face.

"Yes, it has come to this point, and it is not necessary to hide."

As he spoke, he swept his arm, and his image suddenly changed. The blue student uniform disappeared, replaced by a fluttering black robe and a black sickle behind him.

It's La Mort.

"How did you find me?" he asked.

"I have some experience in supernatural powers." Yuei Vu said, "and I have my own helpers in this regard."

La Mort noticed two of his colleagues, the Silent Magician and the Dark Magician Girl, who were also magicians, floating behind him.

Although the three of them belonged to different magic factions, they were all magicians. Generally speaking, they should belong to the same category among all duel monsters, but their research directions are different.

La Mort's eyes stayed on the Dark Magician Girl for a short time, and then quickly moved over to the Silent Magician who transformed into a busty girl.

"So that's it... did you use her power to lock me? After all, she is the famous Silent Magician and her magic is indeed unique."

The Dark Magician Girl blinked twice and was stunned for a moment.

Wait a minute, why do you assume that it is the credit of Silent Sister?

Why can't it be me? Our black magic is obviously very powerful too!

"So what do you want to do, the king of this world?" La Mort asked, "If you asked Yubel, you should know that the soul sleeping in that child's body was originally a part of him.

Preventing his awakening is equivalent to denying himself, and no one can interfere with this process."

"I agree with this." Yuei Vu nodded, "No one can interfere, including you. I have always had sufficient confidence in my students. Maybe the power of the Supreme King will awaken, but he can handle it himself.

You are right about this. This is his innate destiny. No one, not even me, can intervene in this process.

But at least I can do is to help him eliminate external obstacles."

La Mort said: "I am just fulfilling my responsibilities as a loyal subordinate."

"Interesting, then I am just fulfilling my responsibilities as a teacher." Yuei Vu smiled, "It's a pity that our responsibilities conflict with each other."

"That's really helpless." La Mort shrugged, "To be honest, I still have a good impression of you as the king of this world. But we have different positions, so there is nothing I can do."

"Interesting, I'm also quite interested in you and your deck from another dimension." Yuei Vu smiled, "If the situation and position are changed, maybe we will be very speculative."

"Huh?"

The surging magic power turned into a duel disk in La Mort's hand, and the deck was automatically shuffled in the slot.

Yuei Vu stared at the deck that was automatically shuffling.

That's it!

The legendary Spellbook, the top meta deck with epoch-making significance back then!

It was said that when local duelists face powerful decks and opponents, the so-called "duelist soul" would be ready to move. Yuei Vu felt that he should be in this ready state now.

Needless to say, Yuei Vu also directly unfolded the duel disk.

"Duel!" x2

[Yuei Vu, LP 4000]

[La Mort, LP 4000]

"It seems that I have the first move, so I won't be polite." Yuei Vu said, "My turn, draw!"

He glanced at the cards in his hand, then looked up at La Mort, with a slight smile on his face.

"If the opponent is you, it's better to use this deck."

"Oh? The Duel King actually chose a deck to fight me?" La Mort smiled, "I'm really flattered.

It's really exciting to see what will come out."

"You will know soon."

Yuei Vu drew a card and directly put it into the expansion area of the duel disk.

"The Field Spell 'Kozmotown' is activated!"

The sky spun, and the dark forest around it instantly turned into a vast starry sky. A sci-fi interstellar city unfolded in the starry sky, with prosperous lights and countless space shuttles shuttling between steel buildings.

"Kozmo?" La Mort smiled, "I see, is this the deck used by 'The Light of Destruction' at that time? Seizing the enemy's deck as trophies is really a bad hobby."

Yuei Vu didn't care.

Laugh, laugh again.

Wait until your Spellbook is in my pocket, and see if you can still laugh.

"The effect of 'Kozmotown'- Once per turn: I can reveal any number of 'Kozmo' monsters in my hand and shuffle them into the Deck, then draw cards equal to the number of cards I shuffled into the Deck."

Yuei Vu showed a card in his hand.

"I return 'Kozmo Strawman' to the deck, then draw a card."

After drawing the card, he immediately took another card.

"Summon 'Kozmo Tincan' in defense position."

[Kozmo Tincan, DEF 0]

"Set two cards, I end my turn." Yuei Vu said, "At the End Phase, Tincan's effect is activated. Pay 500 LP; reveal 3 'Kozmo' cards with different names from my Deck.

Then the opponent randomly selects one of them, adds that one to my hand, and sends the rest to the graveyard."

Yuei Vu picked out three cards, and each of them was briefly shown to the opponent in the form of a three-dimensional projection, and then quickly turned over in a shuffled order.

La Mort raised his hand.

"Let's take the middle one."

"Then I'll add 'Kozmo Sliprider' to the hand, and send the remaining two to the graveyard." Yuei Vu said, "End of turn.

It's your turn, let me see what a duel between the strong men from your dimension will look like."

"Okay."

Yuei Vu smiled, "Don't worry, this duel will be unforgettable for you."

Chapter 1048: An Honest Duel King

"Is it really okay to end it like this? You get the first move, don't you need to summon some powerful monsters to suppress the opponent first?" La Mort looked at Yuei Vu with a flickering eye.

"Or do you think I'm an opponent that can be dealt with at this level?"

"Well, who knows?" Yuei Vu smiled, "If you want to know, why don't you try it yourself?"

"Really? Then I have no choice but to obey."

La Mort closed his eyes briefly, and when he opened them again, the temperature of his eyes seemed to drop sharply.

"My turn, draw." La Mort waved his hand, "Normal Summon 'Spellbook Magician of Prophecy'!"

[Spellbook Magician of Prophecy, DEF 400]

"Spellbook Magician of Prophecy's effect – If this card is Normal Summoned or flipped face-up: Add 1 'Spellbook' Spell from my Deck to my hand." La Mort drew a card that popped out of the deck, "I want to add this card..."

He paused, and raised the card into the air like a devout believer.

"Quick-Play Spell 'Spellbook of Judgment'!!!"

Just by retrieving it in the hand, the surging magic power overflowed from the card, and the transparent hurricane rushed through the interstellar city.

"Master, that magic is super powerful!" The black magic girl reminded, "It may be the top-level forbidden technique!"

"Forbidden technique? Haha, it should be called God's Magic." La Mort said, "That is the power of God's judgment. I have now entered the realm of God after obtaining this power!"

The magic of God who judges the world...

The Quick-Play Spell 'Spellbook of Judgment' is activated!!!"

The sky and the earth changed suddenly, and the entire interstellar city seemed to be shaking. The terrifying and indescribable huge magic power swept through the city, as if to bury everything in the venue in the magic of light.

"This magic power..." the Dark Magician Girl pressed her wide hat, her face pale, "I have never seen such a powerful spell."

Yuei Vu looked at the "Spellbook of Judgment" flying up in the air with amazing momentum, and the hurricane of magic around it, and couldn't help muttering to himself.

"Good guy, it's a Thousands-Of-Years banned card after all, it's really exaggerated..."

After a brief pause, he turned to narrate calmly.

"But no matter how powerful the effect is, 'Spellbook of Judgment' is just a Spell Card after all, it's just a Spell Card, it's not enough to be called 'God's Magic'."

La Mort's face sank: "What did you say?"

It's like the most devout believer hearing someone deny the God he believes in.

"If you don't agree, let me prove it with facts."

Yuei Vu waved his hand.

"Open the set card! Continuous Trap——
——Imperial Order!!!"

The face-up card flipped over, and the red trap was shimmering with deadly golden light, and the open forbidden area covered the entire field!

La Mort: "!?"

Oh no, this card is...

Yuei Vu said coldly, "As long as this card is face-up on the field, all Spell Cards on both sides of the field...

...will be negated!"

La Mort was dumbfounded.

He looked at his "God's Magic" in disbelief. The Spellbook with gorgeous special effects in the air lost all its luster under the restraint of the trap, as if it wailed helplessly, and then turned into golden powder all over the sky, and passed away beautifully.

For a long time, the magician did not move again.

It seemed that the negation of "The Judgement of the Spellbook" really hit him hard.

Yuei Vu knew the characteristics of the Spellbook deck clearly. The advantage of this deck was obvious. It has an almost abnormal search and operation ability. It could get all the resources you need in one turn, which was almost the same as playing cards with a whole deck.

But 99% of this deck was composed of Spell Cards.

This made "Imperial Order" the natural enemy of its deck.

As long as "Imperial Order" was on the field, any Spell Card would be negated, so La Mort couldn't even play a simple card.

At this time, his proud Spellbook series may not even be as good as the "you summon one, I summon one" type of Normie deck used by passers-by duelists.

But La Mort quickly came to his senses.

"I see, Yubel leaked the information, so you knew the characteristics of my deck?" La Mort took a deep breath and tried to calm his breath.

He tried his best to hide his anger and showed a gentlemanly and calm smile.

"But if you think you can block my deck with just this extent, you are underestimating me, Mr. Yuei Vu."

Although he still looked calm, he seemed to be a little irritated.

"I show the 'Spellbook of Secrets', 'Spellbook of Eternity', and 'Spellbook of Life' in my hand, and special summon from my hand..."

Come on! High Priestess of Prophecy!"

The three spellbooks are arranged in a staggered manner, forming a circle, with a rapidly unfolding magic circle in the middle. The red-haired magic lady flew out of the magic circle and onto the field.

[High Priestess of Prophecy, ATK 2500]

"If you think I'm completely helpless without Spell Cards, you underestimate me." La Mort said coldly, "High Priestess of Prophecy's effect is activated!

Once per turn, banish 1 'Spellbook' Spell from my hand or GY, and destroy a card on the field!

I remove the 'Spellbook of Judgment' in the graveyard from the game, and get rid of 'Imperial Order'!"

He gritted his teeth when he said the last sentence, and it sounded like he really hated this 'Imperial Order'.

A golden magic impact flew out and hit the trap known as the 'natural enemy of Spells' in Yuei Vu's backcourt, instantly blasting it into powder.

"Wow, you are quite good." Yuei Vu nodded slightly, "You actually solved the 'Imperial Order' without using Spell Cards?"

"Humph, of course. I am the highest-ranking magician in the twelve dimensions led by Lord Supreme King. It is too naive to want to block my actions at this level."

He said so, but the sweat on his forehead revealed that he was not as steady as he appeared just now.

"That's true." Yuei Vu nodded, but turned to say, "But what if there is another one?"

La Mort's expression froze.

Wait, no way?

He looked at the remaining black set card in Yuei Vu's back row with horror, as if he was staring into the abyss.

Don't be Imperial Order, don't be Imperial Order, please...

"Hahaha, look at how nervous you are. Don't worry, I'm just joking with you, this card is not the 'Imperial Order'." Yuei Vu chuckled.

La Mort breathed a sigh of relief, but at the same time he started to be stubborn: "Haha, that's a pity. Even if you, Mr. Yuei Vu, have a second 'Imperial Order', as the top general under Lord Supreme King, I naturally have a way to deal with it..."

Before he could finish bragging, Yuei Vu waved his hand: "Open the set card! Continuous Trap—— ——Anti-Spell Fragrance!

As long as this card exists on the field, both players must Set Spell Cards before activating them, and cannot activate them until their next turn!"

La Mort spat out a mouthful of blood on the spot.

Yuei Vu shrugged innocently.

See, I didn't lie to you, the second one is really not "Imperial Order"...

Chapter 1049: Doomsday of Judgement

Anti-Spell Fragrance, like "Imperial Order", was a classic anti-meta card, and was also a simple and crude Spell Card nemesis.

It might seem that this card was not as disgusting as "Imperial Order", but to be honest, if Spell Cards has to be Set for a whole turn before they could be activated, the opportunity would be gone by then.

"Then enter the Battle Phase," La Mort was helpless, "Use "High Priestess of Prophecy" to attack 'Kozmo Tincan'."

But even such a simple attack did not seem to work.

"Then activate the effect of 'Kozmo Tincan'." Yuei Vu said, "Remove this card from the game and Special Summon 1 Level 2 or higher 'Kozmo' monster from my hand. This effect can also be activated during the opponent's turn.

Appear here...

...Kozmo Forerunner!!!"

The roar of the engine resounded through the interstellar city, and the huge warship roared and slowly rose from the back of the steel city, like a steel bird of prey, staring down at its prey ruthlessly.

[Kozmo Forerunner, attack power 2800]

High Priestess of Prophecy raised her staff aggressively, originally planning to bully the little tin robot who looked like a sandbag, but unexpectedly, the guy disappeared in the blink of an eye, replaced by a round spaceship that was obviously not easy to mess with.

"By the way," Yuei Vu said, "Kozmo Forerunner cannot be targeted by the opponent's card effects."

"Another troublesome thing," La Mort frowned, but seemed helpless, "Set three cards, I end my turn."

"Then it's my turn, draw," Yuei Vu said, "At my Standby Phase, the effect of 'Kozmo Forerunner' is activated, and 1000 LP are restored."

[Yuei Vu, LP 3500 → LP 4500]

Yuei Vu then pointed to the huge jade city.

"The effect of 'Kozmotown' is activated. Once per turn, I can target 1 of my banished 'Kozmo' monsters; return it to the hand, and lose LP equal to its original Level x 100."

Yuei Vu showed the card that had just disappeared from the field during the last turn.

"I retrieve 'Kozmo Tincan' to my hand and take 100 damage."

[Yuei Vu, LP 4500 → LP 4400]

"Then Normal Summon 'Kozmo Tincan' again!"

[Kozmo Tincan, ATK 0]

"Then activate the effect of 'Kozmo Tincan' again!" Yuei Vu waved his hand, "Remove 'Kozmo Tincan' from the game again, and Special Summon 1 Level 2 or higher 'Kozmo' monster in my hand!"

La Mort's face changed slightly: "Can this lower-level monster be retrieved through the Field Spell every turn, and used as a springboard for a higher-level monster an unlimited number of times?"

"Show up, Level 5!" Yuei Vu waved his hand, "Strike Fighter that shuttles through the stars..."

Kozmo Sliprider!!!"

A beam of tail flame cut through the sky, and the red fighter plane dived down and landed in front of Yuei Vu and kept hovering.

[Kozmo Sliprider, ATK 2300]

"The effect of Sliprider." Yuei Vu said, "If this card is Normal or Special Summoned: I can target 1 Spell/Trap Card on the field; destroy it."

Destroy the set card in the middle of your field!"

Last turn, La Mort showed the three Spellbooks in his hand, which were "Spellbook of Secrets", "Spellbook of Eternity" and "Spellbook of Life".

Because "Anti-Spell Fragrance" could not be activated directly, all three cards should be Set on the field and wait for the next La Mort's turn to come before they could be activated.

But La Mort raised his hand and flipped the card locked by Sliprider.

"Open the set card: Trap Card – Waboku! I take no battle damage this turn, and my monsters cannot be destroyed by battle this turn!"

The trap took effect, a transparent shield covered La Mort, and the laser missiles of the Sliprider were all deflected.

"Oh? Is there a life-saving trap?"

Waboku was known as an absolute defense. Once it took effect, most offensive means would be invalid. Obviously, there was no way to continue attacking this turn.

But Yuei Vu didn't care.

"Set a card on the field." Yuei Vu said, "Then I activate the Spell Card 'Card of Demise'. I can draw cards until I have 5 cards in my hand. During my 5th Standby Phase after activation, send all cards in my hand to the Graveyard."

After drawing the card, he picked one of them.

"Set a card, I end my turn."

La Mort breathed a sigh of relief.

It was only a few rounds of fighting, but he felt exhausted, as if he had fought for three hundred rounds without a break.

The Duel King was a terrible man.

Although the situation was still overwhelmingly unfavorable, at least he had a chance to fight back now.

"Since they have been Set for a turn, my Spell Cards can be activated." La Mort said, "I activate 'Spellbook of Secrets'!"

Add a 'Spellbook' from the deck to the hand."

A card popped out of the deck and was drawn into his hand.

"I add the 'Spellbook of the Master' to the hand."

A cold light flashed in La Mort's eyes.

"Then the effect of 'High Priestess of Prophecy' is activated again! Once per turn, banish 1 'Spellbook' Spell from my hand or GY, and destroy a card on the field!"

I remove the 'Spellbook of Secrets' in the graveyard from the game, and destroy the Continuous Trap 'Anti-Spell Fragrance'!"

High Priestess of Prophecy used the same trick again, and the magic beam hit the continuous trap, which immediately shattered into powder, and the magic seal area fell apart.

The magic restriction was lifted.

La Mort felt as if a big stone was lifted from his heart.

It was as if there was a steel knife hanging over his head until just now, and now it was finally lifted.

He had never been so grateful that he still had "High Priestess of Prophecy" as he was now. It could be said that this sister saved his life. If it weren't for this long-legged girl, he would have died on the spot when he encountered the "Imperial Order".

He was restrained from the beginning of this duel. Not to mention tactics, he couldn't even play the cards he thought of. He relied on the power of the Spellbook to travel through the twelve dimensions. How could he have suffered such humiliation?

Now that the magic ban has finally been lifted, he could finally show his skills to his fullest.

"Open another set card, the Spell Card 'Spellbook of Eternity'!" La Mort said, "Choose a 'Spellbook' card that has been banished to add to my hand.

The card I want to add to my hand, of course, is..."

Magic power surged, and the storm rose again! The green card, accompanied by dazzling white light, shot down from the center of the storm and came straight into La Mort's hands!

"Spellbook of Judgment!"

Holding this ultimate Spellbook containing forbidden power again, La Mort felt as if he had the future in his hands again!

At this point, the duel finally returned to the right track and returned to his familiar rhythm! His Spellbook would launch a violent storm-like attack, and any enemy would be completely destroyed under the bombardment of endless magic!

La Mort raised the card that returned to his hand.

"Activate again! God's magic that judges the world...

...'Spellbook of Judgment'!!!"

The wind howled, and the magic power seemed to have transformed into the roar of a giant dragon. Only the most ultimate magic could bring about the strange phenomenon of heaven and earth like the wrath of God!

"Sure enough, you have to rely on the power of this card anyway. But it's understandable." Yuei Vu smiled indifferently.

Spellbook of Judgment, this card itself was the core of the entire deck. Just this card alone has brought the Spellbook system to the height of the top meta.

But on the other hand, if there was no such card, the Spellbook was at best a second-tier deck, and its combat power would drop directly by a whole level.

That being said, it was not so easy to target it normally. After all, the super powerful operation foundation of the Spellbook deck was there. No matter what you did: throwing this card to the graveyard, bouncing it back to the deck or even removing it from the game, they had a dozen ways to recycle it.

So Yuei Vu specially prepared this gift for him.

"Open the set card: Counter Trap——

——Cursed Seal of the Forbidden Spell!

Discard a Spell Card from my hand, negate the activation of a Spell Card and destroy it.

The opponent cannot activate Spell Cards with that name for the rest of this Duel!"

La Mort (whose eyes had lost their light): "! !? ?"

Chapter 1050: Endless Fleet

La Mort stood there for a long time, watching the Spell Card "Spellbook of Judgment" that was worshipped as "God's Magic" by him being blocked by the magic circle, and even directly marked as "banned". He was very upset.

It was not simply negation, but it was banned.

Even if he could think of a way to recover the Spellbook of Judgment, he could no longer use it in this duel.

He felt like he was covered with an invisible curse. He and his deck were cursed, had to move forward with difficulty in this duel, and he couldn't even play the cards he wanted.

After a while, he came back to his senses, and his eyes were gradually filled with violence and anger.

It seemed that he finally didn't want to continue to maintain his gentleman's manner. The duel king's unethical tactics had almost made his mind explode.

However, if you think that everything will be fine after sealing the God's Magic, then you are underestimating me, the Magical Nethermaster!

Now that the Anti-Spell Fragrance was destroyed, at least the restriction on the Spell Card had been lifted, and he had room to operate.

"Activate the Spell Card 'Spellbook of Knowledge' from my hand!" La Mort said, "Send to the GY either 1 Spellcaster monster I control, or 1 other 'Spellbook' card from my hand or face-up field other than 'Spellbook of Knowledge', and draw two cards.

I send 'Spellbook Magician of Prophecy' to the graveyard and draw two cards."

The short bookkeeper disappeared from the field, turned into a golden light and sank into the deck, and La Mort drew a card.

He swept his eyes across the game field with a cold look, and said in a deep voice: "I must admit that this duel is indeed beyond my expectations. I have traveled through countless dimensions, and you may indeed be one of the most terrifying opponents I have ever encountered.

If it were in the past, I might have really lost to you."

Then he changed the subject: "But now I am completely different! I have gained a new power and touched the threshold of the realm of God with magic!

Now I will let you see it with your own eyes!"

La Mort played the card he drew: "I summon 'Temperance of Prophecy'!"

[Temperance of Prophecy, ATK 1000]

"Temperance of Prophecy's effect – During my Main Phase, if I have activated a 'Spellbook' Spell Card previously this turn: I can Tribute this card; Special Summon 1 Level 5 or higher LIGHT or DARK Spellcaster-Type monster from my Deck."

As soon as he finished speaking, the Magical Summoner finished reciting the spell and turned into powder and dissipated under the light of the magic circle.

The beam of magic power penetrated the sky and earth. It was the same shining light as the "Spellbook of Judgment"! The magic power spread, even including La Mort as a duelist, and his appearance began to change!

With an amazing burst of magic power, a figure with a sacred light rose into the air like an archangel. The wings flapped gently, and the white feathers flew around in the wind.

In just a moment, La Mort's image had changed and turned into an angel-like sacred being.

[World of Prophecy, ATK 2900]

"Oh?" Yuei Vu looked up in the storm of magic, "Is it your Phase 2?"

World of Prophecy, aka "Tout le Monde the Magical Angel", was the ultimate form that La Mort transformed into after undergoing the blessing of Spellbook of Judgment and stimulating the magic of light to the extreme.

And it's not just the appearance that changed. Yuei Vu could also vaguely feel that this guy's Duelist Rank seemed to have risen sharply with this transformation.

"No wonder it's called 'God's Magic'." Yuei Vu murmured, "That Spellbook is really so mysterious."

"The effect of 'World of Prophecy'." Tout le Monde said, "When this card is Special Summoned by the effect of a Spellcaster-Type monster or a 'Spellbook' Spell Card: I can target 2 'Spellbook' Spell Cards in my Graveyard; add those targets to my hand."

I added 'Spellbook of Knowledge' and 'Spellbook of Eternity' from the Graveyard to my hand."

The two cards popped out of the graveyard and were drawn into Tout le Monde's hand.

"And, when I add cards to my hand by this effect, by revealing 4 'Spellbook' Spell Cards with different names in my hand, destroy all other cards on the field!!!"

Tout le Monde showed four cards in his hand, namely "Spellbook of Knowledge", "Spellbook of Eternity", "Spellbook of Fate" and "Spellbook of Wisdom".

The magical angel spread his wings and gently flapped them into the air. A sacred and violent white light burst out, sweeping across the entire venue with the force of sweeping thousands of troops!

Everything was destroyed in the storm, even the High Priestess of Prophecy who had made many achievements just now was not spared, and died under the indiscriminate AOE spell of her own comrade with a miserable groan.

The huge interstellar city also collapsed in the storm, the iron tower broke in half, and smashed into pieces on the ground with a rumble.

However, when the strong and dazzling light dissipated, Yuei Vu was still covered by two monsters, a silver-white interstellar fighter, and a female warrior holding a red lightsaber.

"Kozmo Sliprider's effect – If this card is destroyed by battle or card effect and sent to the Graveyard: I can banish this card from my Graveyard, Special Summon 1 Level 4 or lower 'Kozmo' monster from the deck. I Special Summon 'Kozmo Wickedwitch'."

[Kozmo Wickedwitch, DEF 300]

"Kozmo Forerunner's effect – If this card is destroyed by battle or card effect and sent to the Graveyard: I can banish this card from my Graveyard, Special Summon 1 Level 6 or lower 'Kozmo' monster from the deck. I Special Summon 'Kozmo DOG Fighter'."

[Kozmo DOG Fighter, DEF 2400]

"And, there is the effect of 'Kozmotown' that you just destroyed." Yuei Vu said, "When 'Kozmotown' in the Field Zone is destroyed by a card effect, add 1 'Kozmo' card from my Deck to my hand."

Yuei Vu drew a card that popped out of the deck.

"I add 'Kozmo Dark Planet' to my hand!"

Tout le Monde: "!"

Kozmo Dark Planet! ?

Of course he had an impression of this card. It is the ultimate weapon called "Death Star", the trump card of The Light of Destruction sweeping across the galaxy.

More importantly, that thing was also the natural enemy of his "Spellbook" deck!

Kozmo Dark Planet, by banishing a "Kozmo" monster in the graveyard, could negate the activation and destroy any Spell Card.

And as long as there was a "Kozmo" monster in the graveyard as the activation cost, this effect could be activated any number of times in one turn.

Another complete magic blockade!

I must think of a way.

"It's endless." Tout le Monde was a little impatient.

He now felt as if he was facing an entire vast interstellar fleet that had come from across the Milky Way. The spaceships and battleships were like locusts, and no matter how hard he tried to fight them off, he could never defeat them all!
