

I Play Yu-Gi 1051

Chapter 1051: Duel King Is A Man Of His Words

Tout le Monde suppressed his irritation and waved his hand, saying, "Battle! Use 'World of Prophecy' to attack 'Kozmo Wickedwitch'!"

The magical angel slowly raised his palm, and the condensed magic power turned into a dazzling stream of light!

But Yuei Vu waved his hand: "At this moment, the effect of 'Kozmo Wickedwitch' is activated. Once per turn, pay 1000 LP, and this card cannot be destroyed by battle or card effects.

This effect can also be activated during the opponent's turn."

[Yuei Vu, LP 4400 → LP 3400]

The mighty stream of light from the spell impact hit the Wickedwitch on Yuei Vu's field, but at this moment a dark red energy barrier appeared on the female warrior's body, firmly blocking the magic impact.

"Tsk, what a stubborn guy." Tout le Monde snorted.

In fact, he still had the strongest weapon in the spellbook, "Spellbook of Fate", in his hand, which could directly remove a card on the field from the game without targeting.

But to activate this effect, the price was to remove three "Spellbooks" in the graveyard.

Generally speaking, this price was completely affordable. If the deck was running at full speed, there would be a lot of spellbooks in the graveyard, and the resources were completely sufficient.

But in this duel so far, all his operations had been restricted, and his tactical ideas could not be carried out at all. Therefore, the graveyard was still empty, and there was no spellbook to use.

"Set three cards, I end my turn." Tout le Monde said sullenly.

Tout le Monde the Magical Angel was already his strongest form. Unlike the previous duel, he was still able to hold back and be at ease. This time he really used all his strength.

But this time, it was the opponent's duel king who made him feel at ease.

In the past, he always calmly played with his enemies, using his desperate strength to make them despair, and then cruelly wiped them out.

But now he felt like he was the one being played.

"Then it's my turn." Yuei Vu said, "Activate the Spell Card 'Card of Demise'. Draw cards until I have 5 cards in my hand. During my 5th Standby Phase after activation, send all cards in my hand to the Graveyard."

Then he took out another card.

"Activate the Spell Card 'Terraforming'. Add 1 Field Spell Card from my deck to my hand."

A card popped out of the deck.

"I add the second 'Kozmotown' to the hand." Yuei Vu showed it and immediately inserted it into the duel disk, "Then the Field Spell 'Kozmotown' is activated!"

Terrain transformed, the steel city under the starry sky descended again, covering the entire venue.

Tout le Monde frowned: "It's this troublesome field again."

"The effect of Kozmotown – Once per turn, I can target 1 of my banished 'Kozmo' monsters; return it to the hand, and lose LP equal to its original Level x 100.

I return 'Kozmo Sliprider' to my hand, and lose 500 HP."

[Yuei Vu, LP 3400 → LP 2900]

"Then the second effect of 'Kozmotown' is activated." Yuei Vu said, "I return three 'Kozmo' monsters in my hand to the deck, then draw three cards!"

After drawing the card again, he immediately pointed to the witch on the field.

"The effect of Kozmo Wickedwitch – Banish this card; Special Summon 1 Level 5 or higher 'Kozmo' monster from my hand!

Appear here...

Kozmo Dark Destroyer!!!"

The hum of the interstellar engine seemed to roar happily, and the huge warship appeared above the steel city, like a cloud of steel.

[Kozmo Dark Destroyer, ATK 3000]

"Dark Destroyer's effect – If this card is Normal or Special Summoned, destroy a monster on the field."

Tout le Monde: "Is the target my clone?"

"No." Yuei Vu smiled, "I said, this duel will make you unforgettable for the rest of your life, not just to win you. I am a man of my words."

He pointed to his own field.

"The monster I want to destroy with the effect of 'Dark Destroyer' is 'Kozmo DOG Fighter'!"

The huge warship swept down the laser, like a blade cutting through butter to cut the fighter on its side. The latter immediately exploded into a fireball with a bang, and metal fragments flew everywhere.

Tout le Monde was surprised: "Destroy your own monster!?"

"At this moment, the effect of 'Kozmo DOG Fighter' is activated." Yuei Vu said, "If this card is destroyed by battle or card effect and sent to the Graveyard: I can banish this card from my Graveyard, Special Summon 1 Level 5 or lower 'Kozmo' monster from the deck!

Show up again, Kozmo Sliprider!"

The red assault fighter flew out from the other side of the galaxy again, spewing bright tail flames and came to the field.

"The effect of Sliprider!" Yuei Vu said, "- If this card is Normal or Special Summoned, destroy a Spell or Trap card on the field."

Tout le Monde understood: "Is the target my set card in the backfield? Compared with the monsters visible to the naked eye in the frontfield, you think that the unknown card is more threatening."

"No." Yuei Vu pointed to the field under his feet, "I want to destroy my own Field Spell 'Kozmotown'!"

Tout le Monde was shocked again: "This time it is to destroy your own field?"

In his astonished eyes, the huge alien city has collapsed again, accompanied by the rumbling steel screams. shattered and shattered.

"At this moment, the effect of 'Kozmotown' is activated." Yuei Vu said, "When this card in the Field Zone is destroyed by a card effect, add 1 'Kozmo' card from the deck to the hand."

Tout le Monde understood.

Was the purpose from the beginning an accurate retrieval?

"I'll take this guy from the deck," Yuei Vu showed a card, "Add the second 'Kozmo Dark Planet' to my hand."

Tout le Monde: "!"

"Then I banish the 'Kozmo Dark Planet' that I retrieved last turn from my hand!

Show up here, the ultimate weapon of the galaxy...

Kozmo Dark Planet!!!"

A huge shadow covered the sky, and the terrifying steel sphere pressed down darkly. Complex and dense stripes were spread across the surface of the Death Star, as if green blood was flowing along the steel veins.

The ultimate Kozmo weapon, the ultimate weapon of the entire galactic fleet gifted by the Light of Destruction, the Death Star!

[Kozmo Dark Planet, ATK 4000]

The ultimate nightmare of the Spellbook deck!

Yuei Vu then slowly showed another card in his hand.

"What I'm going to activate next is... Spell Card 'Last Day of Witch'!"

Tout le Monde: "!!!!!"

What the hell!

Magic Blockade is fine, but why do you bring this thing!?

Last Day of Witch, a Spell Card that had an extremely simple and crude effect, with just one line of words:

"Destroy all Spellcaster monsters on the field."

The invincible magical angel Tout le Monde was just a Spellcaster monster after all.

Tout le Monde gritted his teeth.

To be honest, if it was just a "Last Day of Witch", it would not be able to do anything to his powerful Prophecy monsters. For example, the "Spellbook of Wisdom" that was Set on his backfield could give Spellcaster monsters the resistance of "unaffected by any Spell effect".

But even if it was activated, it would be negated by "Kozmo Dark Planet".

As long as that thing was still on the field, he could hardly move.

But even so, he still did not give up.

If there is anything that his experience of struggling in the twelve dimensions for so many years and becoming one of the four strongest generals under the Supreme King has taught him, it is that duels have infinite possibilities.

It was in an extremely desperate situation that he realized the true power of the "Spellbook of Judgment" and achieved his current state after realizing his own transformation.

The more desperate the situation, the more firm will is needed!

After all, you never know what will happen until the last moment of the duel.

What's more, he did have a countermeasure!

"Do you think you've won? I've already lost?" Tout le Monde shouted, "Don't underestimate me! Open the set card: Quick-Play Spell 'Spellbook of Wisdom'!"

I choose 'World of Prophecy' on the field. This turn it is not affected by Spell effects! Last Day of Witch cannot destroy it!"

"Then I use the effect of 'Kozmo Dark Planet'." Yuei Vu said, "Remove 'Kozmo Dark Lady', which was sent to the graveyard by the effect of Tincan, from the game, and the activation of 'Spellbook of Wisdom' is negated."

"As expected." Tout le Monde narrowed his eyes, "Then at this moment, open the set card! Trap Card – Chain Hole!"

"Hmm?" Yuei Vu raised his eyebrows.

"When the opponent activates a monster effect in response to a card or effect activation: Negate that opponent's effect!" Tout le Monde shouted, "And, in this case, the opponent must banish 1 card from their hand or Deck with the same original name as that negated card, otherwise I can banish 1 random card from their hand!"

"..."

Yuei Vu silently pulled out a card from the deck.

"I banish the third 'Kozmo Dark Planet' from the deck."

"In this way, the negation effect of 'Dark Planet' is negated, and the effect of the Spellbook of Wisdom takes effect." Tout le Monde said, "My clone is protected by the 'Spellbook of Wisdom' and is not affected by the effects of Spell Cards this turn!"

So the destruction by the effect of 'Last Day of Witch' is invalid!"

Yuei Vu glanced at him and nodded slightly.

It really had to be said that this guy was quite strong. He could persist to this extent under such suppression.

No wonder Yubel lost to him. It seemed that the loss was not unfair.

However...

Yuei Vu smiled.

"I told you that this will be a duel you will remember for the rest of your life." Yuei Vu said, "The surprise for you is not over yet."

Seeing the smile on his face, Tout le Monde suddenly had an extremely ominous premonition.

"What are you going to do?"

Yuei Vu snapped his fingers.

"Open the set card: Trap Card——

——Eradicator Epidemic Virus!"

Tout le Monde: "!!!"

What kind of weird card is this?

From the name of the card, it was obviously a card in the style of President Kaiba. Back in the Battle City, the president was very obsessed with the "deck destruction virus" tactic, and later developed a series of "Virus" cards.

This was one of them.

"Tribute 1 DARK monster with 2500 or more ATK, and declare 1 type of card (Spell or Trap).

I sacrifice 'Kozmo Dark Destroyer' with 3000 ATK on the field, and declare 'Spell Card' to activate.

After this effect takes effect, look at your opponent's hand, all Spell Cards in the opponent's hand and on the opponent's field are destroyed!

Moreover, within three turns after activation, all cards drawn by the opponent must also be confirmed, and all Spell Cards are destroyed!"

Tout le Monde was stunned.

What the hell?

All Spell Cards in hand and on the field are destroyed within three turns?

Before he could come to his senses, he watched the remaining Spellbooks in his hand explode with a "pop pop pop" sound, and the last remaining set card on the field also quickly flipped automatically, and after being confirmed to be a Spell Card, it exploded with a "pop" sound.

Tout le Monde was stunned, as if it was not his Spellbook that was infected by the dark virus, but his own soul.

Maybe he could find a way to survive this turn, but even if he survived, what would happen?

In the foreseeable three rounds, all the Spell Cards he drew would explode on the spot, which basically means 90% of his entire deck.

From the moment this trap took effect and the virus broke out, he had no future.

The attack power of World of Prophecy was 2900. Yuei Vu still had Dark Planet and Sliprider on the field, and their total attack power was a little bit short to complete the kill.

But it's not a big problem.

"Battle!" Yuei Vu said, "Kozmo Sliprider, attack 'World of Prophecy'."

The assault fighter fearlessly launched a charge, and the scorching laser shot through the air. But with its attack power, this level of power was of course easily resisted by the Magical Angel, who counterattacked with a magic storm.

The Sliprider exploded into a ball of gorgeous fireworks in midair.

[Yuei Vu, LP 2900 → LP 2400]

"The effect of Sliprider." Yuei Vu took the blast head-on, expressionless, "If this card is destroyed by battle or card effect and sent to the Graveyard: I can banish this card from my Graveyard, Special Summon 1 Level 4 or lower 'Kozmo' monster from the deck.

I Special Summon 'Kozmo Tincan'."

[Kozmo Tincan, ATK 0]

"Tincan's effect – Remove 'Kozmo Tincan' from the game again, and Special Summon 1 Level 2 or higher 'Kozmo' monster in my hand." Yuei Vu said, "I'm going to summon this one..."

Kozmo Dark Destroyer, Unit No. 2!"

[Kozmo Dark Destroyer, ATK 3000]

"The effect of Dark Destroyer – If this card is Normal or Special Summoned, destroy a monster on the field." Yuei Vu pointed to the only monster on the opponent's field, "This time, the one to be destroyed is you, Tout le Monde."

There was no more Spell to support, no countermeasures. The resistance of Spellbook of Wisdom was unable to withstand the laser and artillery fire of the Scimitar, and the magical angel was blown to ashes without any resistance.

The rest was no surprise.

"Kozmo Dark Planet." Yuei Vu said, "Direct attack."

The particle cannon was charged, countless missiles were in place, the Death Star locked the target, and all the weapons in the entire planetary fortress were fully charged.

The bombardment was devastating, and the light curtain and missiles swept in together. The flames swept through Tout le Monde's body, and the violent explosion threw him high into the sky. In this instant, he could hardly even feel his own weight.

【Tout le Monde, LP 4000→ LP 0】

Chapter 1052: Your Spellbook Is Mine!

【Tout le Monde, LP 4000 → LP 0】

The Death Star's main cannon hit the magical angel's body head-on, and his sacred aura faded completely. He was blasted high into the air in the light stream, like a light feather.

When he landed, he had turned back into the original form, La Mort the Magical Nethermaster. The sickle that was originally on his back was nowhere to be found, and he rolled on the ground in a mess.

La Mort lay limply on the ground. At first, he felt a sharp stinging sensation, but soon he could not even feel the pain.

He stared at the sky blankly and did not come back to his senses for a long time.

It felt like a game of cards, but it also felt like he had not played...

He had been a master in his life, and his defeated generals were all over the twelve dimensions, and he had met many strong men, including the Supreme King whom he swore allegiance to – he had fought against the Supreme King in the past, and was convinced by the Supreme King's strength...

...But that didn't mean he couldn't play a single card!

This duel could be summed up in a word: frustrated.

It was a kind of frustration of having no place to use all the strength. It was more like being a sandbag than fighting in a duel.

Imperial Order, Anti-Spell Fragrance, Cursed Seal of the Forbidden Spell, and the ultimate weapon "Death Star" which could be called the natural enemy of Spells, and finally, even more excessive, there was the "Eradicator Epidemic Virus" that simply blew up all the Spell Cards within three turns...

He finally discovered that this duel king had no intention of playing cards with him from the beginning!

Thousands of words finally came together in one sentence –

– This is not a duel at all!

But no matter what, the fact was that he lost, completely. This was the most powerless card game he had ever played in his life. It felt like Yuei Vu had set up layers of blockades for him.

Before the duel began, he was already in the center of the encirclement. He gritted his teeth and broke through the first web, and found that there was a second one behind it. He tried his best to break through the second one, and there was a third one behind it. He burst through the third one, and there was a fourth one behind it...

La Mort had no doubt that even if he tried hard to break through the fourth and fifth layers, this shameless Duel King would definitely arrange more blockades for him in the back.

He was like a moth that had strayed into the center of a spider web, struggling and flapping desperately, but all he did was make the web tighter and tighter, and there was no hope at all.

La Mort sighed.

He had been active all his life, fighting out of countless dangerous dimensions under the command of the Supreme King, but he never expected that he would eventually fail in such a seemingly peaceful world.

Seeing the Duel King walking slowly towards him not far away, the exhausted La Mort was too lazy to struggle, just hoping to have a quick death...

However, he didn't expect that the Duel King didn't follow the custom of the dimension he came from and ruthlessly killed him.

Rather than taking his life, the king seemed more interested in...

...his deck?

Feeling the deck in his hand being taken away in a flash, La Mort, who had already laid down and prepared to die, turned pale.

My Spellbook...

All of them were printed one by one after another after my hard study day and night...

When he thought about the forbidden magic "Spellbook of Judgment" that he had paid a huge price to acquire, and now it became a card in someone else's hand in the blink of an eye, his heart was bleeding...

He was clearly a man who was ready to die, but suddenly he had the idea of "taking him down with me" and wanted to fight with this shameless duel king.

But he was half dead now, and he had no capital to fight even if he wanted to.

So he had to suppress his anger and close his eyes, waiting for the other party to give him the final blow.

Anyway, he had lost the gambling card and there was no hope for him. It was just a difference of living a few more seconds or less. The deck was awesome, so he had to endure it, and he was going to die anyway.

However, after waiting patiently for a while, he found that the guy still had no intention of taking action, but was...

...studying his Duel Disk!?

Finally, La Mort couldn't stand it anymore. He opened his eyes and suppressed his anger and asked, "What are you doing?"

"I can't take apart this Duel Disk." Yuei Vu said curiously, "This thing is of good quality, but how do I take it apart? I can't even find a buckle..."

La Mort: "..."

What's even more amazing was that the Dark Magician Girl appeared at this moment: "Master, this is a Duel Disk made by magic. It can't be opened by ordinary means. Let me help you!"

As she said this, she waved the small staff and chanted a spell.

La Mort: "....."

However, maybe she was not good at learning or she made a mistake. She chanted the spell for a long time but there was no response. The girl scratched her golden head blankly: "Strange, it should be like this..."

She thought for a while, and looked at Yuei Vu hesitantly: "Master, this spell doesn't seem to be effective. How about... I try a few other ones?"

Yuei Vu held his chin and nodded: "Well, if you have an idea, then try it. Anyway, there is no harm..."

La Mort, who was already waiting to die, shuddered all over when he heard this.

Don't!

He quickly untied the fixation and took off the Duel Disk in his hand.

You are cruel! I give you the Duel Disk, isn't it enough?

This master and servant sang in unison, and he was really scared in his heart...

Death was not scary for him. In their world, it was normal to die in a duel because of inferior skills. Many warriors even regard it as an honor.

But this little girl was not very smart at first glance. God knew what she would try next. If he was left with missing arms and legs – or even the most important middle leg, it would be a pain in the ass, and he would not be able to rest in peace even after his death.

After taking the Spellbook deck, Yuei Vu was in a good mood.

Many of the decks he collected now have little to do with him, and many of them were not practical or had a bad compatibility with him.

But the Spellbook was different. The Spellbook itself was once top meta, and the first-class combat power has withstood the test of the real-life combat environment. Moreover, the Spellbook series was also a Spellcaster system and had a good compatibility with both the Magician Girl and the Dark Magician systems.

Among the new decks that Yuei Vu has obtained in a long time, this should be considered the best trophy.

La Mort, who was already in a bad mood, seemed to be getting angrier and angrier. He finally couldn't help but roll his eyes at him and said coldly: "Do you think it's over after defeating me?"

Your battle with The Light of Destruction impacted the dimensional barrier, and all dimensions sensed the energy of this dimension.

Now that the existence of Lord Supreme King has been noticed by everyone, you don't really think I'm the only one who found this place, do you?"

Yuei Vu paused and narrowed his eyes: "What do you mean? Who else is here?"

La Mort seemed very satisfied with his reaction and smiled mysteriously.

"I only have one thing to tell you." He said leisurely, "Among the four generals under Lord Supreme King... I'm not the strongest one."

Chapter 1053: Awaken!

While Yuei Vu and La Mort were dueling...

Because the security mechanism of the academy was quite powerful, the power outage lasted only two minutes.

In just two minutes, the academy's health room was in chaos.

Because Judai was missing.

This made the fans at the scene very anxious, and at the same time they were very puzzled – in just two minutes, there were so many enthusiastic fans crowded at the door of the room, could Judai still run away?

Well, of course he could run, but it was impossible to say that no one noticed it.

The fans and younger brothers quickly dispersed, some called Judai, some called him senior, and some called him big brother, and the size of the team continued to expand with the joining of passing students.

Aster and Manjoume were about to fight each other, but when a group of students passed by and told them that Judai was missing, they were both shocked. They put aside their personal grudges and joined the search for Judai.

At this moment, Aster felt that he heard a voice similar to whispering as if someone was saying something in his mind.

Aster was stunned for a moment, but soon came to his senses and took out his "Destiny HERO Plasma".

"Plasma... do you want to tell me something?"

Aster frowned and listened carefully for a moment, only to feel the voice of the spirit echoing in his ears.

It was like telepathy.

"Is that so... over there?"

Following the guidance of Plasma, he quickly looked at the dense forest outside the teaching building.

Although he was wondering how Judai could move so far in just two minutes, he didn't ask any more questions out of trust in his spirit and immediately set off in that direction.

It wasn't just Aster who noticed something was wrong. Manjoume had also received a tip from his spirits.

"Brother! Brother Manjoume!" Ojama Yellow jumped and danced beside his ears.

"Stop making noise!" Manjoume said irritably, "I'm busy now!"

"Brother, but there's something strange over there in the forest... There's a very strange aura over there, there might be a very extraordinary guy..."

"I'm so annoyed, I don't have time to deal with that kind of thing!"

Ojama Black also popped up: "But the timing of that strangeness is very coincidental, maybe... maybe it has something to do with Judai..."

"I said I don't have time... huh? You said it has something to do with that guy?"

Manjoume changed his mind at that moment.

.....

Judai blinked in confusion.

He didn't really understand what was going on. At that time, the lights in the room went out all at once, and then his brain was dizzy, and the world was spinning around him, until a gust of biting cold wind made him shiver, and then he came to his senses.

Then Judai found that he had actually come to the woods behind the academy, facing the abandoned dormitory of the academy.

"Huh? How did I get here?" Judai looked confused.

Oh no, this place is the restricted area of the academy? It seems that trespassing in the restricted area will result in direct expulsion?!

Well...

...Okay, that's not the point. Anyway, with Yuei Vu-sensei's protection, I don't think I will be expelled...

But wasn't I still in the health room just now? How did I come here all of a sudden?

For some reason, he pushed open the dusty and dilapidated door and walked into this forbidden area again.

Judai noticed that a black bat fluttered its wings and landed on the pillar outside the gate, with scarlet and strange eyes staring at him coldly.

For a moment, he actually felt as if he saw the bat grinning at him.

Judai shook his head and shook off the idea.

That was too ridiculous, how could a bat laugh?

Walking into the shabby dormitory, the floorboards would make a low, mournful sound with every step, creaking endlessly. The teeth-grinding sound echoed in the dark space, sounding like crying.

Judai walked into the gate and turned a corner, and a scene that would scare 90% of people suddenly came into view—

— At the end of the dark and narrow corridor, a pale girl stood.

She had a beautiful face, and even a rough man like Judai instinctively felt that her face looked as cute as a porcelain doll, so delicate that it was almost impossible to find any flaws.

But her skin was too pale, like a clean piece of white paper. Unlike the girl's flawless skin color, it was a paleness that only dead people should have, but on the face of this beautiful girl, it highlighted a kind of morbid beauty.

If it were an ordinary person, he would probably be paralyzed by fear at this time. This was the ghost dormitory where students have disappeared. In addition to the dark and eerie environment, the cold wind blowing from time to time, and the weird sobbing sound of the dilapidated buildings in the wind, even the most determined atheists could not remain indifferent to such a beautiful girl who looked like a corpse in such an environment.

In this situation, those who could still act calmly were either extremely thick-skinned like Judai, or they may just be the ultimate pervert whose motto was "as long as they are good-looking, even ghosts don't matter".

Maybe it's just a simple rough outline, or maybe it's the card player's idea of "even if it's a ghost, as long as they are willing to play cards, it's okay", Judai not only walked forward boldly, but even took the initiative to talk: "Are you a student?"

He took a few steps closer to see clearly that the girl's eyes were a very rare red, as red as fresh blood, very beautiful, but her eyes were empty.

There was a pitiful tear mark under her right eye as if she had just cried.

Judai was even more surprised to find that the half of her slender arm sticking out of her left sleeve had unnatural cracks all over her pale skin, like a withered and shriveled wood.

He was surprised and said, "Your body..."

The girl had no expression on her face and didn't speak, like a cold machine.

Judai looked directly into her beautiful and empty red eyes, and the moment their eyes met, he felt as if he had hit a magnet and was firmly sucked in.

Judai began to find something wrong.

He began to wonder why he walked into this dormitory so naturally and directly.

And it seemed that since he entered here, he seemed to no longer hear the voices of Yubel and his other spirits.

The intense pain hit his heart like a heavy hammer, making him feel suffocated. He felt that he was becoming violent and impulsive. Looking at the petite and pitiful girl in front of him, he actually had an impulse to push her into the corner and force her to play cards.

I must duel immediately!

He tried to force himself to look away and stop looking directly into the girl's strange eyes but found that he couldn't do it no matter what.

Until a sleeping beast broke through the cage and regained its freedom.

He closed his eyes briefly.

When he opened them again, the pupils under his eyelids had turned into a dangerous golden color.

Like a golden flame that never goes out.

Chapter 1054: You Two Can Come Together

"Why are you following me?" Aster walked in the dense forest, looking at Manjoume who was gradually catching up with him.

"Who followed you?" Manjoume explained, "I was going here anyway, and I just happened to be on the way!"

This was really the truth. He was led here by the three Ojama brothers in front of him.

But since Aster was heading in the same direction as him, at least it proved that these three unreliable guys did not lead him the wrong way this time.

"It's up to you." Aster was anxious and had no time to talk nonsense with him, "Don't hold me back."

"That's what I want to say," Manjoume muttered.

While talking, the two had passed through the jungle and came to the dilapidated and abandoned old dormitory.

"Hey, isn't this an abandoned dormitory? I remember it's the restricted area of the academy," Manjoume muttered.

The three Ojama brothers huddled together, huddled behind Manjoume and trembled: "That's it, Manjoume! We have a strong feeling that Judai must be in that room!"

"In this?" Manjoume frowned.

Aster didn't even think about it, and pushed the door open to go in.

He didn't care whether he dropped out or not, and he thought that with his status, the academy would not really expel him for such a reason.

Seeing him take the lead, Manjoume followed without hesitation. He wanted to compete with Aster in every aspect, and naturally he couldn't fall behind at this time.

When the door was opened, a choking musty smell suddenly hit him, and it felt like opening a lid that had been sealed for many years. The light in the forest was dim, and this broken dormitory was sealed tightly. All the windows were nailed shut with wooden boards for some reason, and the darkness was rampant.

But soon they didn't need to go deeper.

Because the person they were looking for was already in front of them.

"Judai!"

Although the light was dim, Aster was still sure that he couldn't mistake Yuki Judai, who was standing deep in the hall, with most of his body covered by shadows.

Aster frowned and stepped forward: "What are you doing in a place like this?"

But after a few steps, he instinctively stopped.

It was hard for him to describe what it felt like, but it felt like an invisible aura erupted behind Judai, forming a huge image as tall as a mountain.

The pressure was like a tidal wave, making people breathless. Aster felt like he had stepped into a realm that must not be violated. The king who dominated everything was looking down at him from a high place, and he only needed a thought to sentence him to death.

Aster, who has been fighting in the professional circle for many years, has seen many strong people, but no one has ever had such a terrifying sense of oppression!

Even Yuei Vu, the Duel King he admired the most and recognized as one of the best in the world, could not be compared with the man in front of him in terms of suppressive spiritual force.

No, it was not just the spirit of a duelist, there was also murderous intent in it!

If he had not been through many battles and stepped out of the pile of dead bodies countless times, he would never have been able to cultivate such a terrifying murderous intent.

"Judai, what are you doing?"

Manjoume tried to step forward but was blocked by Aster who was raising an arm.

"No." Aster said in a deep voice, "This guy is not Judai."

Manjoume: "?"

"Although they look exactly the same, I am sure that this is not Judai." Aster frowned, "This is someone else."

Manjoume was skeptical.

The figure in the dark raised his eyelids.

The moment they saw those eyes, both of them were frozen in place as if possessed.

What a terrifying pair of eyes!

They were as pure as gold, as if they belonged to the king who ruled the world.

"Who are you?" Aster asked, "Are you a Duel Monster Spirit? Or something else?"

"My name is 'Supreme King'." The other party spoke indifferently.

"Supreme King?" Aster asked, "Where did you take Judai? Why did you become like him? Or did you occupy his body?"

Supreme King had no expression on his face.

"From your perspective, you can say that. But in fact, he is the one who has occupied my body so far, and I just took back what belongs to me."

"What did you say!?"

"That's it."

Supreme King seemed to think that such details were insignificant and had no intention of explaining.

He raised his right hand, and an astonishing invisible energy suddenly erupted with him as the center. Suddenly, the old dormitory was filled with howling winds. All the doors and windows screamed sharply. The horrifying tremor swept through the two young men, making it almost impossible for them to stand.

"What's going on?" Manjoume gritted his teeth, "Isn't this guy Judai? What happened now?"

The three Ojama brothers had already huddled together.

"It's over, big brother! This guy is super hard to mess with!" Ojama Black yelled.

"This is the 'Shadow Game', big brother. It's over. We're all going to die here!" Ojama Green burst into tears.

"Shut up, all of you!"

Manjoume was already upset, and their quarrels made him even more upset.

"Shadow Game?" Aster caught the word.

Unlike President Kaiba, who always talked about "science" and never mentioned the Shadow Game to his apprentice, Yuei Vu still took the time to popularize the knowledge of the Shadow Game to Judai and Aster.

Although he only had a partial understanding, at least Aster knew that this was the most dangerous form of duel.

Its main feature was that duel damage would be converted into actual damage to the duelists, and the outcome would be linked to certain bets.

If it was a Shadow Game of a high enough level, the bet could even be the soul and life of the duelists in some cases.

So now this person called "Supreme King" has opened the Shadow Game to them?

"What do you want to do?" Aster asked.

"You all seem to be warriors, so you should naturally understand the rules of warriors."

Supreme King swept his arm and showed the black Duel Disk on his arm.

"One victory, one bet." He said coldly, "You want that guy back? That's easy, just beat me."

Both of them quickly realized that the other party was referring to Judai.

"That means if I beat you, Judai will return, right?"

"That's right."

The Supreme King nodded, and his sharp eyes slowly swept over the two of them.

The moment they were stared at by the pair of golden eyes, both of them could not help but avoid the gaze, as if they would be pierced by the gaze if they were not careful.

"It's too troublesome to come one by one." The Supreme King said calmly, "You two can come together."

Aster x Manjoume: "!"

The two looked at each other, and saw the same astonishment in their eyes.

Chapter 1055: Fall Into Darkness

Aster and Manjoume looked at each other for a moment. Although they were both reluctant, they finally accepted it silently.

Although they didn't get along well with each other and didn't want to cooperate with each other, at least they believed that both of them hoped to save Judai.

More importantly, this duel could not allow any mistakes.

Both of their intuitions told them that this opponent was definitely stronger than they could imagine.

There was no chance of winning alone!

"Duel!" x3

[Aster x Manjoume, LP 8000]

[Supreme King, LP 8000]

Two-on-one, the duel used the rules of a tag team battle. Aster and Manjoume were considered as the same team, sharing the field and graveyard resources, and the life points were also shared at 8000 points.

The Supreme King had 8000 life points alone.

"I'll go first, draw." Supreme King said in a cold tone, taking the initiative without any hesitation.

"Normal Summon 'Keeper of Dragon Magic'."

[Keeper of Dragon Magic, DEF 1300]

"Keeper of Dragon Magic's effect is activated." Supreme King said, "If this card is Normal or Special Summoned, discard a card and add a 'Fusion' Normal Spell from the deck to my hand."

A card from hand was discarded to the graveyard, and another card was ejected from the deck.

"I added the Spell Card 'Dark Fusion' from the deck to hand."

Aster frowned.

Dark Fusion?

"Activate the Continuous Spell 'Card of Safe Return' from hand." Supreme King continued, "When a monster is Special Summoned from the graveyard to the field, I draw three cards from the deck.

Then I activate the second effect of 'Keeper of Dragon Magic'. By revealing 1 Fusion Monster in my Extra Deck; Special Summon 1 of the Fusion Materials mentioned on that monster from my GY in face-down Defense Position."

Supreme King showed a Fusion Monster.

"The monster I want to show is 'Evil HERO Infernal Sniper'."

Supreme King said, and took out a card that popped out of the graveyard.

"According to this effect, I resurrected 'Elemental HERO Burstinatrix' that was just discarded."

Burstinatrix returned to the field surrounded by flames, and soon turned into a face-down card and placed horizontally on the field. Aster didn't know if it was his illusion, he felt that Burstinatrix looked more gloomy today than usual.

It was as if the hero fell into darkness.

In addition, the fusion hero that the opponent just showed also made Aster very concerned.

"Evil HERO?" He frowned.

Aster was very sure that there was no such hero before.

Aster's father was a card designer of the International Fantasy Club, and his main focus was the "HERO" series. In addition, Yu Yu, who he was familiar with, was recognized by the world as the originator of the "Hero" series. Aster believed that he should have seen all kinds of heroes.

But Evil HERO?

He really hadn't heard of them.

"The moment Burstinatrix is resurrected, the effect of 'Card of Safe Return' is activated." The Supreme King said, "I draw three cards from the deck."

Then he coldly played another card: "Spell Card 'Monster Gate'! Tribute 'Keeper of Dragon Magic', and start excavating cards from the top of my Deck until a monster that can be Normal Summoned/Set is found.

Special summon that monster, and send all other excavated cards to the GY."

The Supreme King confirmed two cards in succession, and the second one was a monster card.

"Special Summon 'Elemental HERO Clayman'."

[Elemental HERO Clayman, DEF 2000]

Then he played the card he had just picked up at the beginning of this turn: "Spell Card 'Dark Fusion'! Send monsters from my hand or field as Fusion Material to Fusion Summon 1 Fiend Fusion Monster.

I perform a Dark Fusion on the 'Elemental HERO Burstinatrix' and 'Elemental HERO Clayman' on the field.

Scarlet demon, snipe your enemies with scorching hellfire...

Evil HERO Infernal Sniper!"

Aster clearly remembered that the fusion of Clayman and Burstinatrix was supposed to be "Rampart Blaster", an Elemental HERO who could attack directly while in defense position.

But at this time, the fusion of the two Elemental HEROes gave birth to something more evil, a demon in red armor. She half-crouched on the ground, the heavy armor was like a solid iron wall, and the white blade on her wrist was like a demon's claw.

[Evil HERO Infernal Sniper, DEF 2500]

"Set three cards, I end my turn."

The dark waves composed of countless particles formed three cards, covering the back row of the Supreme King.

Aster frowned.

He started with three covers in the backcourt. Could it be that this guy's duel style also inherited the experience of Judai?

But even so, he couldn't back down.

Because he had a reason to win!

"It's my turn, draw!" Aster volunteered to go first, "Activate the Spell Card 'Graceful Charity'! Draw 3 cards, then discard 2 cards."

After drawing three cards, Aster picked out two and discarded them, and immediately showed another one in one breath.

"Spell Card 'Card of Adversity'! If I control no monsters and the opponent controls a Special Summoned monster: Draw 2 cards."

"Spell Card 'Destiny Draw'! Discard 1 'Destiny HERO' card and draw two cards. I discard 'Destiny HERO Malicious' to the Graveyard and draw two cards!"

Immediately afterwards, the Malicious that had just been sent to the Graveyard popped out again.

"The effect of 'Destiny HERO Malicious' in the graveyard! Banish this card from my GY and special summon a card with the same name from the deck. Come on, Malicious!"

[Destiny HERO Malicious, DEF 800]

"Then activate the Spell Card 'Polymerization' from my hand!" Aster shouted, "Fuse the 'Destiny HERO Malicious' on the field and the 'Destiny HERO Fear Monger' in my hand!"

The fusion condition is 2 'Destiny HERO' monsters!

The trajectories of fate intersect, giving birth to the noble power of justice! Fusion Summon...

Destiny HERO Dystopia!!!"

The two Destiny HEROes merged, and a warrior in a light exoskeleton armor flew out, with the letter "D" clearly printed on his helmet mask.

[Destiny HERO Dystopia, ATK 2800]

"Dystopia's effect is activated!" Aster clenched his fist, "If this card is Special Summoned: I can target 1 Level 4 or lower 'Destiny HERO' monster in my GY; inflict damage to the opponent equal to that target's ATK!"

I choose 'Destiny HERO Fear Monger', inflict damage to you equal to Fear Monger's attack points, which is 1000 points!

Eat the move! Palm of Oppression!"

The Dystopia jumped into the air and blasted out with a palm. The dark cyclone swept over the Supreme King, who stood upright in the torrent like a stubborn bamboo.

[Supreme King, LP 8000 → LP 7000]

Aster frowned.

"This level of damage is not enough... but it's far from over!"

He showed another card.

"Spell Card 'D-Soul Burst'!" Aster said, "Target 1 'Destiny HERO' monster I control; its ATK becomes half its current ATK, and each player takes damage equal to that lost ATK." (Animation card)

"I cut the attack power of 'Destiny HERO Dystopia' by half, and both of us will take damage equal to half of his attack power at the same time, which is 1400 points of damage!"

[Destiny HERO Dystopia, ATK 2800 → ATK 1400]

The Spell took effect as if an energy bomb exploded! The heat wave of the explosion spread to both sides at the same time with Dystopia as the center, and the sudden and powerful impact threw Aster and Manjoume out fiercely.

The pain was beyond imagination, and it felt like the burning pain of a real bomb detonating. Although there was no visible damage to the body, the whole body was in severe pain as if it was burned by fire, which made people almost faint.

[Aster x Manjoume, LP 8000 → LP 6600]

[Supreme King, LP 7000 → LP 5600]

"What's going on?" Manjoume, who was suddenly overturned, was shocked and had not yet caught up with the rhythm. "This real pain, what is it?"

"This is the Shadow Game." Aster half-knelt and stood up, panting heavily, "It's more violent than what Yuei Vu-sensei described."

On the contrary, the Supreme King stood there straight and calmly took the impact damage, as if this level of pain was not painful at all.

He even wanted to express ridicule.

"Is it only this level?" He looked at the two people who were in a mess under the shock wave with indifference.

Chapter 1056: The Abyss of Despair

"Is that all?" Supreme King asked coldly.

Aster and Manjoume were both competitive people, and this taunt immediately made them angry. They immediately jumped up, even temporarily ignoring the pain of the Shadow Game.

"It looks like you are underestimated, professional boy!" Manjoume looked at Aster, expressing dissatisfaction with his teammates, "Can you leave it like that?"

"Shut up and watch me!" Aster was a little impatient, "After the effect of 'D-Soul Burst' is resolved, the effect of 'Destiny HERO Dystopia' is also activated!"

If this card's current ATK is different from its original ATK, I can target 1 card on the field; destroy it, and then this card's ATK becomes equal to this card's original ATK!"

Aster clenched his fists again: "I will return the attack power of 'Destiny HERO Dystopia' that was halved by 'D-Soul Burst' to its original value, and destroy the 'Evil HERO Infernal Sniper' on your field!"

[Destiny HERO Dystopia, ATK 1400 → ATK 2800]

The Destiny HERO jumped in the air, waving his palm in the air, and the dark light stream mixed with lightning broke through the air and blasted towards the scarlet sniper in the Supreme King's field!

"It's useless." Supreme King said calmly, "Open the set card: Counter Trap – Divine Wrath! Discard a card, negate the activation of a monster effect, and destroy that monster."

A card was discarded by the Supreme King into the graveyard, and white thunder fell! The thunder hit Dystopia who was jumping into the air, and the hero of destiny groaned and died in the thunder from the sky.

"Tsk, so even the traps of Judai are inherited," Aster said in a deep voice, "But after the effect of 'D-Soul Burst' is resolved, the effect of the 'Vision HERO' monsters discarded to the graveyard is also triggered!"

If I take battle or effect damage while 'Vision HERO' monsters exist in my graveyard, I can place them from my GY in my Spell & Trap Zone as face-up Continuous Traps!

Come to the field, 'Vision HERO Multiply Guy', 'Vision HERO Increase!'!"

Two phantoms appeared in Aster's back row, with blurred outlines and unclear true appearance.

"Normal Summon 'Vision HERO Gravito!'!"

This time, the hero who appeared was a defensive hero. The heavily armored Vision HERO was half-crouched on the ground, most of his body was covered by the alloy shield, and a "V" was printed on the shield.

[Vision HERO Gravito, DEF 2000]

"The effect of Gravito!" Aster continued, "Tribute this card, then target 2 'Vision HERO' Monster Cards in my Spell & Trap Zone; Special Summon them.

Show up! Vision HERO Multiply Guy, Vision HERO Increase!"

[Vision HERO Multiply Guy, ATK 800]

[Vision HERO Increase, ATK 900]

Manjoume silently watched Aster's operation from the side, without saying anything, but secretly admired him in his heart.

The ace monster was pitted, but he was able to organize a counterattack immediately!

As expected of the world champion, he is really strong!

But the nemesis of Yuki Judai is still me!

This is a matter of principle, I cannot give in!

"Increase's effect!" Aster continued, "If this card is Special Summoned from the Spell & Trap Zone: I can Special Summon 1 Level 4 or lower 'Vision HERO' monster from my Deck.

Come on, Vyon!"

[Vision HERO Vyon, ATK 1000]

"Vyon's effect – If this card is Normal or Special Summoned: I can send 1 'HERO' monster from my Deck to the GY! I send 'Destiny HERO Celestial' from the Deck to the Graveyard." Aster said, "Then there's another effect!"

Banish the 'Vision HERO Gravito' from the Graveyard, and add the Spell Card 'Fusion Substitute' from the Deck to the hand!"

Aster pulled out the card that popped out from the deck, and then immediately raised it.

"Spell Card 'Fusion Substitute'! Fuse the 'Vision HERO Increase', 'Vision HERO Vyon', and 'Vision HERO Multiply Guy' on the field!

The fusion condition is 3 'HERO' monsters!

Releasing the ultimate form...

Vision HERO Trinity!!!"

The scorching beam of light shattered the earth, and the moment the hero's feet in the flaming red skeleton armor landed, countless flying rubbles were stirred up, and the red-hot temperature made the space seem to be distorted.

[Vision HERO Trinity, ATK 2500]

"Trinity's effect!" Aster said, "In the turn this card is Fusion Summoned, this card's ATK becomes double its original ATK!"

[Vision HERO Trinity, ATK 2500 → ATK 5000]

"Five thousand attack power!?" Manjoume was surprised.

Not only can he continue to deploy after the ace monster is killed, but he can even further summon such a powerful monster!

"I won't give up, Judai!" Aster showed another card, "Activate the Spell Card 'H – Heated Heart'! Target 1 face-up monster I control; until the end of this turn, it gains 500 ATK, and if it attacks a Defense Position monster, inflict piercing battle damage to the opponent!"

[Vision HERO Trinity, ATK 5000 → ATK 5500]

"Beautiful!" Manjoume said in his heart.

With an attack of 5500 and the piercing ability, it can break the Infernal Sniper and deal 3000 high damage in one hit!

In this way, Aster will take more than 4000 LP from the Supreme King in just this turn. If it is a one-on-one fight, it is already a victory.

Of course, the premise was that this attack could pass smoothly...

"Battle Phase!"

Aster pointed directly at the only Evil HERO on the Supreme King's field, and his straight arm was like a sword drawn from the sheath.

"Go, Trinity! Crush the Evil HERO!"

Supreme King said expressionlessly: "Then open the set card: Trap Card – Interdimensional Matter Transporter! Target 1 face-up monster I control; banish that target until the End Phase."

A complex mechanical device appeared on the field with dimensional fluctuations, and the energy field released enveloped the Evil HERO.

"I will remove the 'Evil HERO Infernal Sniper' from the game."

"What!?" Aster's eyelids jumped.

He actually removed his own monster from the game...

Damn it!

The target of the attack disappeared, and Trinity's armor that was charging power suddenly stopped, and the energy condensed in his palm gradually dissipated.

Vision HERO Trinity could not attack players directly.

But he still had a way!

"Quick-Play Spell 'De-Fusion!'" Aster shouted, "Cancel the fusion of 'Vision HERO Trinity' on the field!

Come back! Increase, Vyon, Multiply Guy!"

[Vision HERO Increase, ATK 900]

[Vision HERO Vyon, ATK 1000]

[Vision HERO Multiply Guy, ATK 800]

At this time, the Supreme King's field was empty, and the Vision HEROes could attack freely!

Although the attack power of each Vision HERO was not high, the total output of three consecutive shots was 2700, which was not much lower than the penetration attack with Trinity just now.

In this way, Aster could still cause more than 4000 damage to the Supreme King in this turn!

"Because there are monsters resurrected in the graveyard," Supreme King remained calm, "The effect of 'Card of Safe Return' is activated, I draw three cards."

"Go, Vision HEROes!" Aster shouted, "Increase! Vyon! Multiply Guy! Attack directly!"

The three Vision HEROes flew up together, each turning into a shadow across the field and rushing towards Supreme King!

"Wake up, Judai!" Aster shouted.

The approaching posture of the three Vision HEROes was clearly reflected in the golden pupils of the Supreme King, and his face was still covered with frost.

"Being able to attack to this point, I admit that you are a warrior." He said, his tone suddenly sank, "But this level is still not enough.

Feel the absolute gap in power and fall into the abyss of despair!

Open the set card: Trap Card – Drowning Mirror Force!"

The set card flipped, and countless dark particles formed a desperate trap, releasing a dark blue dangerous light!

"What?!" Aster was stunned. "This card is..."

"This card can only be activated when an opponent's monster declares a direct attack."

Supreme King raised his right hand and swept his palm over the three Vision HEROes flying towards him one by one.

"Shuffle all the opponent's Attack Position monsters into the Deck!"

Chapter 1059: Manjoume's Counterattack

Evil HERO Dark Gaia was summoned!

The Evil HERO who appeared this time was obviously completely different from the previous ones. The Evil HEROes just now were obviously enhanced versions of specific Elemental HEROes, but this one was obviously not.

In addition, it could be clearly seen from the suppressive power of his appearance that this guy was definitely a BOSS-level monster in the hands of the Supreme King!

Aster gritted his teeth but did not panic.

After all, he now has the top hero "Destiny HERO Dusktopia" on the field, whose power in defense was absolute.

No matter how high the attack power was, it was impossible to defeat it.

"Battle!" The Supreme King ordered in a deep voice, "Come on, Dark Gaia. Attack the 'Destiny HERO Dusktopia'."

Dark Catastrophe! "

Gaia raised his hand and made a "rise" movement, cool and calm, as if giving an order to the entire earth.

Then the earth...began to boil!

The ultra-high temperature magma melted through the ground, and the fire dragon twisted its body and broke out! Pillars of fire instantly enveloped the golden Destiny HERO, burning his armor with the intention of melting him into molten iron.

"Destiny HERO Dusktopia's effect is activated!" Of course, Aster would not just watch his hero get beaten, "Once per turn, target a monster on the field. Until the end of the turn, that monster cannot be destroyed by battle or card effects, and neither player takes any battle damage from attacks involving that monster!"

"Very good." Manjoume secretly praised Aster's performance again, "This way it is almost an absolute defense. This turn will definitely..."

"It's useless." Supreme King said coldly, "At this moment, I banish the trap card 'Breakthrough Skill' in the graveyard."

During this turn, the effect of 1 face-up Effect Monster the opponent controls is negated. "

Aster x Manjoume: "!"

When was this card...

Aster was instantly startled.

By the way, it's the cost that was thrown from the hand when "Divine Wrath" was activated...

This guy called Supreme King actually has so many preparations!?

"Due to the effect of 'Breakthrough Skill', the effect of Dusktopia is negated." The Supreme King's face was obscured in the shadows, but the golden eyes were still burning, "Destroyed in Gaia's hellfire!"

The pillar of fire engulfed Dusktopia, and the hero of destiny, who was unable to activate his abilities, was defenseless. An unimaginable scalding storm exploded on the field of Aster and Manjoume, and they were blown away with a groan.

[Aster x Manjoume, LP 6600 → LP 4600]

The two of them breathed heavily and struggled to get up amid the black smoke. Looking at the tall and straight figure in front of them again, they felt that the Supreme King's figure seemed to be lifted up without limit, like a dark mountain lying in front of them, which was completely insurmountable.

Almost instinctively, a thought came to their minds at the same time——

——So strong!

Ridiculously strong.

This was the first time since entering the professional world that Aster had the thought from the bottom of his heart:

This was not an opponent I could handle.

Ordinary people have no chance against him. In this world, perhaps only Muto Yugi, Kaiba Seto, and Principal Yuei Vu can hope to win...

No, what am I thinking about?

Aster shook his head, scolding himself in his heart while getting rid of such cowardly thoughts.

Now, how can I still have the idea of relying on Yuei Vu-sensei?

I have to win no matter what. If I can't win, Judai will...

"I end my turn." Supreme King said.

"It's finally over."

Before Aster could adjust, Manjoume on the side had already put his knees together, took a deep breath and stood up.

This duel was a bit miserable for everyone. It was clear that he hadn't even had a chance to play his cards, yet he had already suffered several rounds of bombings and lost nearly half of his LP.

But it didn't seem to faze him.

"Then it's my turn!" The man with black eyes swung his windbreaker and shouted, "The guy called Supreme King! I know you are not Yuki Judai, but you should remember it well!

The one who defeated you was me, Manjoume Thunder! "

Aster was stunned for a moment.

Doesn't this guy waver even a little bit when faced with such pressure?

Of course, that was impossible.

Manjoume also felt fear, as if it were an instinct coming from deep within his heart. As long as he looked directly into those golden eyes, he almost didn't dare to move.

But he kept forcing himself to think about a question.

What would my teacher do if he were here?

This didn't seem to be that difficult, since certain aspects of his teacher's behavior were really predictable.

He could even picture Seto Kaiba standing in front of the Supreme King, letting out a three-part laugh.

"King? Are you worthy? Don't make me laugh! A duelist like you will be destroyed by the infinite power of my Blue-Eyes! Hahahaha..."

Thinking of this, he felt courageous.

I, Manjoume, am the man who will one day replace my teacher on the throne of Duel King!

And before that, I'm going to step on the hateful Yu↑ki↓ Ju↑dai↓!

How could I not even be able to defeat Judai's shadow?

"My turn, draw!"

Aster stood up, looked at Manjoume silently, and said nothing.

All he could do now was give all his trust to Manjoume.

Aster really tried his best, but at least in his own opinion, his attempt was undoubtedly a failure. In the end, not only did he lose half of his LP, but all the resources on the field and in the graveyard were consumed by the opponent. Even the "Vision HERO" who could keep returning from the graveyard was blown back into the deck.

So he could leave nothing to Manjoume, who almost had to rely on his own ability to fight against the Supreme King.

But he still had hopes for Manjoume.

In any case, Manjoume was the only disciple of Seto Kaiba – Yuei Vu had already revealed this secret to him.

And after all, that guy was the champion of the GX Competition. With his own strength, he defeated the legendary duelist Marik Ishtar, which was enough to prove that he was by no means a weakling.

Manjoume took a deep breath.

Kaiba-sensei has handed me his latest and greatest power, and now I'll let you have a special look at it!

"Activate the Continuous Spell 'Union Hangar' from my hand!" Manjoume waved his hand, "When this card is activated: I can add 1 LIGHT Machine Union monster from my Deck to my hand."

Aster raised an eyebrow.

Union Hangar?

A card I had never heard of. Is this a new Union support card given to him by President Kaiba?

"I added 'A-Assault Core' from the deck to my hand." Manjoume said, "Then I activate the Spell Card 'Graceful Charity', draw 3 cards, then discard 2 cards.

Then I Normal Summon 'B-Buster Drake' from my hand! "

The green mechanical dragon jumped out onto the field, carrying two black metal cannon barrels on its back.

[B-Buster Drake, ATK 1500]

"At this moment, the second effect of the Continuous Spell 'Union Hangar' is activated!"

Manjoume said, "Once per turn, if a LIGHT Machine Union monster is Normal or Special Summoned to my field: I can target 1 of those monsters; equip 1 appropriate LIGHT Machine Union monster, with a different name, from my Deck to that monster!"

Manjoume pulled out a card that popped up in the deck, glanced at it, and inserted it directly into the S/T slot of the Duel Disk.

"I equip 'C-Crusher Wyvern' from the deck to the 'B-Buster Drake' on the field!"

It was a purple mechanical pterosaur, which quickly folded and transformed after appearing on the scene. It was used as an equipment accessory and combined with the Buster Drake on the field.

Aster thought: "After A, there is B, then C...and it is the same type of machine combination as the previous XYZ. Is it an extension of the same series?"

"Now the preparations are complete." Manjoume yelled, "Banish the 'A-Assault Core' that is discarded to the graveyard, the 'B-Buster Drake' and the 'C-Crush Wyvern' on the field.

Transform and merge! Let's be born——

——ABC-Dragon Buster!!! "

Chapter 1060: A-to-Z, The Ultimate Combination!

ABC-Dragon Buster was summoned!

A three-in-one mechanical beast, a green flying dragon with pterosaur-shaped steel wings, a golden chariot with metal tracks, and long black heavy artillery on its shoulders, almost armed to the teeth.

[ABC-Dragon Buster, ATK 3000]

"Dragon Buster's effect is activated!" Manjoume shouted, "Once per turn, discard 1 card, then target 1 card on the field; banish it. And this effect can also be activated during the opponent's turn!"

Aide was shocked when he heard this.

A banishing ability that could be activated during the opponent's turn?

What a powerful monster! It was not at the same level as the combination mecha that Manjoume used before!

Manjoume discarded a card into the graveyard: “Go, Dragon Buster! Destroy ‘Evil HERO Dark Gaia’!”

The Dragon Buster’s barrel fell, and the golden energy bombardment hit Gaia’s body head-on! The Evil HERO groaned, and his body twisted and rotated under the power of the light cannon, and soon disappeared from the field.

“Very good.” Aster nodded, “This way, his trump card is eliminated!”

After all, he defeated Mr. Marik to become the GX champion, and his strength is indeed extraordinary!

Manjoume’s evolution was not just this level.

“Yu↑ki↓ Ju↑dai↓!” he said, “This was originally a trump card to be used against you, but I will show it here today!”

Manjoume showed another card he had drawn: “Activate the Continuous Spell ‘Different Dimension Hangar’!” (Animation card)

A black vortex appeared above his head, like a warehouse leading to the dimensional space. Manjoume drew two cards from the deck, raised his arm, and both cards disappeared into the dimensional crack above his head.

“When ‘Different Dimension Hangar’ is activated, remove from play 3 Level 4 or lower Union Monsters from my Deck.

I remove ‘Y-Dragon Head’, ‘Z-Metal Tank’, and ‘W-Wing Catapult’ from play!”

“This hangar is...” Aster thought, “Are you still preparing?”

“Spell Card ‘Iron Call’! If I control a Machine monster: Target 1 Level 4 or lower Machine monster in my GY; Special Summon that target!”

The monster summoned by this effect has its effect negated, and it will destroy itself at the end of the turn.”

A card popped out of his Graveyard.

“I Special Summon the ‘X-Head Cannon’ that was thrown to the Graveyard by ‘Graceful Charity’!”

[X-Head Cannon, ATK 1800]

“The effect of ‘Card of Safe Return’.” Supreme King said, “I draw three cards.”

“At this moment, the effect of the Continuous Spell ‘Different Dimension Hangar’ is activated!” Manjoume said, “When a monster written in the card text of a Union Monster removed by its effect is Normal or Special Summoned to my side of the field, I can Special Summon that Union Monster!”

He raised his hand and pointed to the Dimensional Hole in the air.

“Show up! Y-Dragon Head, Z-Metal Tank!”

[Y-Dragon Head, ATK 1500]

[Z-Metal Tank, ATK 1500]

X, Y, and Z, the classic combined mechas from the DM period to the present, were gathered together again at this time.

Of course, Manjoume could combine them immediately, but if he did so, the total output and the number of attacks would be reduced. So he simply waved his hand: “Battle!

First, ‘ABC-Dragon Buster’, attack directly!”

The giant mecha began to gather energy and blasted out golden artillery from a distance! The beam tore through the space, across the entire island, and screamed towards the Supreme King!

Aster held his breath.

There were no monsters on the Supreme King’s field, and the backfield was also empty. Manjoume had a total of four monsters on the field. As long as the attack was successful, they would win this duel directly!

BOOM!!!

Supreme King actually just stood there and took the hit without any movement. The blast swept through him, and the energy impact made him slide back several meters, but he still stood still stubbornly.

[Supreme King, LP 5600 → LP 2600]

No response? No means of defense in hand?

Aster and Manjoume felt their heartbeats speed up at the same time.

Just two more shots and we’ll win!

“Go ahead, X-Head Cannon!” Manjoume said, “Attack directly!”

The gun barrels on both shoulders of the X-Head Cannon were locked at the same time, and the light cannon exploded on the Supreme King’s body!

[Supreme King, LP 2600 → LP 800]

Both of them held their breath.

“Then the final blow!” Manjoume shouted, “Go ahead! Y-Dragon Head, attack directly! Wake up, Judai!”

Y-Dragon Head opened its mouth, and blue high-voltage lightning spurted out of the mouth!

Aster's eyes widened.

Success!

The Supreme King opened his eyes, and his golden pupils shot out sharp blades.

“At this moment, activate the effect of the ‘Juragedo’ in my hand.” He said coldly, “During the Battle Step, I can Special Summon this card from my hand and gain 1000 LP.”

A burst of black mist spread, and a purple-black demon jumped out onto the Supreme King's field.

Juragedo, a hand trap from ancient times, was almost the same generation as the Kuriboh as they both appeared since “Yu-Gi-Oh! DM”.

[Juragedo, ATK 1700]

[Supreme King, LP 800 → LP 1800]

Y-Dragon Head's attack stopped abruptly.

“Damn, it's this type of trap.” Manjoume frowned, “Then a Battle Replay occurs, and the attack is stopped. I'll enter the Main Phase 2.”

Falling short by just one step, it's a bit frustrating.

But Manjoume still had firm confidence.

Because he still had the last trump card that he hasn't revealed!

“The ‘X-Head Cannon’, ‘Y-Dragon Head’, and ‘Z-Metal Tank’ on the field are combined!” Manjoume shouted, “The three allied monsters transform and combine! Show up...

XYZ-Dragon Cannon!”

X, Y, and Z were removed from the game one by one, and transformed and combined to form a classic cannon tank, which landed on the field with leaping lightning all over its body.

[XYZ-Dragon Cannon, ATK 2800]

But the next part was the highlight!

“I remove ‘XYZ-Dragon Cannon’ and ‘ABC-Dragon Buster’ from the game, and transform and merge them again!”

Aster was a little surprised.

“Use two triple combined mechas to combine again!?”

This was the black technology weapon that President Kaiba secretly worked out in the company, and it has never been shown in public so far.

The two mechas were seen to bounce off and assemble again. The steel parts were aligned and locked under the guidance of infrared rays, and assembled and disassembled. Every collision between the steel structures was accompanied by electric snakes and sparks.

“The ultimate combination, the final armament, use your absolute firepower to suppress everything!” Manjoume shouted, “Appear here...

A-to-Z-Dragon Buster Cannon!!!”
