

I Play Yu-Gi 1121

Chapter 1121: Ojama And Thunder

Manjoume Jun actually had a lot of similarities with Kaiba Seto. Not only in terms of personality and role, their decks were also somewhat similar in some aspects.

Just like Kaiba had the Transformers-like XYZ deck, dragon-themed decks, deck-destroying Virus deck, and his current favorite Blue-Eyes deck, Manjoume Jun also had a lot of decks.

First of all, before he met Kaiba, he had a Chthonian deck that was suspected to be mainly based on the Warriors. Later, he obtained the Transformers deck ABC and VWXYZ, which were richer than the president of Kaiba back then. Later, with the financial resources of the Kaiba Corp, he even obtained the super rare "Armed Dragon" series...

After all, Manjoume Jun himself was the heir of the Manjoume Group. His own family valued his duel talent and was willing to invest heavily to try to cultivate him into a new generation of Duel King.

And the Kaiba Corp, needless to say, had most of the deck stocks in the world in their warehouse. In this situation, Manjoume never lacked rare cards.

But people who were familiar with Manjoume knew that even if there were so many rare cards, they were actually just entertainment.

Transformers and the like were just for fun. If he really wanted to turn the tables, he had to rely on the invincible Ojama Brothers.

Although Manjoume called his three spirits "trash" and seems to be extremely disdainful of them, if you really believed him, you would be fooled.

If Manjoume showed his Ojama Brothers in a certain turn of a duel, it often meant only one thing –
– Game over.

Manjoume shouted, "I activate the Spell Card 'Desperado Manager' from my hand!" (Animation card)

Golden particles formed the shape of Spell Cards on Manjoume's field and appeared beside him.

"Desperado Manager allows me to draw 2 cards, but then I must return 3 cards from my hand to the top of my Deck!"

Manjoume drew two cards and then took out the three Ojama brothers without thinking.

"You three, just get out of here!"

The three brothers, who were excited about being the trump card for a comeback, were immediately poured with cold water.

"What... Eh!?" The three brothers were dumbfounded.

"Why is this? We have to go back before even having the chance to appear..." Ojama Black was indignant.

"That's right, trash is trash, get out of here!"

Manjome stuffed three cards back into the deck in one breath, and then said: "Next is the Spell Card 'Enchanting Fitting Room'! Pay 800 LP; excavate the top 4 cards of my Deck and Special Summon all excavated Level 3 or lower Normal Monsters, then shuffle the rest back into my Deck!"

[Manjome, LP 4000 → LP 3200]

Manjome turned over four cards in one breath, and the top three were of course the "Ojama Three Brothers" he had just put back into the deck.

"Show up! My trash!"

Green, yellow, and black lights shot out from the deck and landed on the field, turning into a short and ugly monster wearing big pants.

"Ojama Black!"

"Ojama Green!"

"Ojama Yellow!"

The three underpants monsters each occupied a position, forming an iron triangle, and posed in a formal manner.

"Brother Team – Ojama Ranger!" The three said in unison.

[Ojama Black, DEF 1000]

[Ojama Yellow, DEF 1000]

[Ojama Green, DEF 1000]

"Okay, shut up, you scum!" Manjoume said impatiently, "The trash must have trash's looks!"

However, the three brothers didn't care at all, and the three little heads gathered together and muttered.

"Hey, Aniki said no, but his body was still very honest and summoned us all out."

"That's right, Aniki actually loves us in his heart, but he is embarrassed to say it out loud..."

Manjoume was too lazy to pay attention to the three of them, and just continued: "Then activate the Spell Card 'Ojama Delta Thunder'!" (Animation card)

After the Spell Card was played, the three brothers were immediately in high spirits, butts pressed against butts, and still cheered each other up: "Brothers, let's form our must-kill formation!"

Vampire Vamp: "?"

What the hell?

These three are low-level trash at first glance. If they were thrown into the twelve dimensions, they would only be slaves in the lowest dimension.

What kind of threat can such stuff pose?

"Ojama Delta Thunder can only be activated if I have Ojama Yellow, Ojama Green, and Ojama Black on my field at the same time!

The opponent takes 500 damage for each card in their hand and on their side of the field!"

"What?" Vampire Vamp's face changed slightly.

She had 0 cards in her hand, and there were Vampire Vamp, Vampire Kingdom, Vampire Domain, Light End Dragon, and a set card on the field.

A total of five cards, which meant 2500 damage.

"Go!"

The three Ojama Brothers formed a formation, and amazing energy burst out from the three buttocks that were in contact, like a bolt of lightning hitting the Vamp's body.

[Vampire Vamp, LP 3500 → LP 1000]

The Vamp snorted and was blown back several steps. She looked a little embarrassed, wiped her mouth and said: "You stinky boy who doesn't know how to be gentle with women, wait and see how I will punish you later..."

"You have no next turn!"

Manjoume drew a card from the deck.

"Ojama Delta Thunder's follow-up effect! Send 1 'Ojama Delta Hurricane' from my hand or deck to the graveyard, and all cards on the opponent's field are destroyed!"

"What!?" The face of Vampire Vamp suddenly changed.

Not only does it deal a lot of damage, but it can also clear the field directly?!

How can these three inconspicuous lower-level ugly monsters have such strong power?!

The three brothers of Ojama formed a triangle formation and spun rapidly like a gyroscope! The three-color hurricane rolled up, accompanied by leaping lightning, and swept across the Vamp's field.

The huge empire collapsed, and the castle was torn into pieces by the hurricane. The red moon in the sky also dimmed, the blood mist was dispelled, and everything was destroyed by the brothers' killing blow.

The whole field was bombarded, and the three brothers clapped their hands excitedly.

"Brothers of one mind can break metal!"

However, when the lightning dissipated, the hurricane stopped, and the situation on the field of the Vamp was seen again, her field was not empty.

Vampire Vamp, her own clone, still stood on the field.

[Vampire Vamp, ATK 2000]

"It's really dangerous." The Vamp chuckled, "I didn't expect this kind of trash to hide such a powerful strength. I almost got into trouble..."

...Hehe, fortunately, I have a second plan."

She pointed at the Vampire Vamp on the field.

"Vampire Vamp's effect – If this card is sent to the GY, while equipped with a card by its own effect: Special Summon this card."

"It's like having two lives when equipped." Manjoume frowned, "What a persistent one."

"And the set card you just destroyed is the Trap Card 'Boo-Boo Game'." Vampire Vamp smiled, "If this Set card is destroyed by the opponent's card effect and sent to the GY: I can target up to 2 Normal Traps in my GY, except 'Boo-Boo Game'; Set them to my field."

Two traps popped out of her Graveyard.

"I put two Trap Cards 'Vampire Takeover' and 'Simultaneous Loss' on the field again!"

The golden particles gathered together to form the shape of two cards and were set at her feet.

"Are those two cards again?" Manjoume frowned.

Of course, he remembered the effects of these two cards. Vampire Takeover could activate the Field Spell "Vampire Kingdom" from the deck and special summon a vampire monster from the graveyard.

And "Simultaneous Loss" would force both players to throw a card from the top of the deck to the graveyard. This effect would trigger the effect of the Field Spell "Vampire Kingdom", allowing the Vamp to destroy any card on the field during the opponent's turn.

The ability to achieve the effect of exploding any card during the opponent's turn was a very powerful interference ability.

Manjoume thought briefly.

But the trap card cannot be used during the turn of the cover, at least until the next turn...

"And, the card that is Set on the field through the effect of 'Boo-Boo Game' can be activated this turn!"

Manjoume: "..."

Chapter 1122: The Clown Is Actually Me

"The cards that are Set by the effect of 'Boo-Boo Game' can be activated this turn!" The Vamp sneered, "So, I will activate the trap now.

Trap Card – Vampire Takeover! When there is no card in my Field Zone and all face-up monsters I control are Zombie monsters, activate 1 'Vampire Kingdom' directly from my Deck!"

Blood mist rolled up, the castle rose from the ground, and the strange red moon hung high in the sky, overlooking everything like a cold eye.

"Then, special summon 'Vampire Grace' from the graveyard in defense position!"

[Vampire Grace, DEF 1200]

The three Ojama brothers were stunned for a moment.

"What? How could this happen?"

"We brothers destroyed the field with great difficulty, and it was suddenly..."

"Hahahaha, do you understand? My duel will be one step ahead of you!" Vampire Vamp was in a good mood, "Little brother, in this situation, do you still dare to say I have no next turn?"

Manjoume curled his lips.

"Of course, my words have not changed – you have no next turn."

"What?" The Vamp's face changed slightly.

In this situation, can you still OTK me?

By what? The three 0 ATK trash on the field?

But then she heard Manjoume say coldly: "You three are already useless. Activate the Spell Card 'Ojamassimilation' from my hand!

First, reveal 1 LIGHT Machine Fusion Monster from my Extra Deck!

I will show 'ABC-Dragon Buster'!"

The Vamp frowned.

Dragon Buster? What kind of machine is this time?

"After that, banish any number of 'Ojama' monsters from my hand, field, and graveyard."

Manjoume glanced at the three brothers on the field, and smiled lightly, "Disappear, trash."

"Eh!? Why does Anike treat us like this?" Ojama Black looked desperate.

"Demolish the bridge after crossing the river!" Ojama Green accused.

"Ungrateful!" Ojama Yellow echoed.

Of course, their resistance was futile. Before they could finish their words, the three of them were sucked away by the vortex and disappeared directly into a different dimension.

"Then I can Special Summon Fusion Materials with different names whose names are specifically listed on the card I revealed, from my hand, Deck, and/or GY, equal to the number of monsters banished to activate this effect!"

Manjomu took out three cards in one breath.

"Come on! A-Assault Core! B-Buster Drake! C-Crush Wyvern!"

[A-Assault Core, ATK 1900]

[B-Buster Drake, ATK 1500]

[C-Crush Wyvern, ATK 1200]

"Then I banish the three monsters A, B, and C from the field! Transform and combine!"

The three mechas took off from the ground one after another, automatically transformed and separated, embedded and assembled into each other, and quickly combined. In the blink of an eye, they have been combined into a majestic heavy mecha.

Energy was filled, ammunition was charged, the barrel was locked, and the huge armor was ready to go!

"ABC-Dragon Buster, summon!!!"

[ABC-Dragon Buster, ATK 3000]

"Is this the trump card you place your hope on to counterattack?" Vampire Vamp shouted, "But no matter what it is, it's useless! Have you forgotten? In this field, your resistance is weak!

Open the set card: Trap Card – Simultaneous Loss! Each player sends the top card of their Deck to the Graveyard!"

She showed a gorgeous and ferocious laugh, and her fangs flashed coldly under the red moon.

"Okay, quickly throw the top card of the deck!" She said, "But at this moment, the effect of the Field Spell 'Vampire Kingdom' will also be triggered! I can destroy any card on the field!

Haha, although it is a short appearance, it's better to disappear here, ABC-Dragon Buster!"

"That's not necessarily true." Manjoume smiled.

"What?"

"ABC-Dragon Buster's effect is activated!" Manjoume said, "Discard 1 card, then target 1 card on the field; banish it!

And this effect can also be activated during the opponent's turn!"

"What?" Vampire Vamp's face suddenly changed, as if she instantly realized what this meant.

"Your goal is..."

"That's right," Manjoume chuckled, "I chain this effect to your 'Simultaneous Loss'! ABC-Dragon Buster, destroy the Field Spell 'Vampire Kingdom'!"

The Dragon Buster's cannon locked onto the target, and the green and purple steel dragon heads roared together, and light golden lightning leaped out of their mouths.

The electric current was released, breaking through the air and hitting the huge black castle behind. The huge castle that had just stood up for a few seconds collapsed again, the city walls broke apart, and the light of the red moon gradually dimmed until it completely disappeared.

The entire Vampire Kingdom collapsed with a bang, scattered into brick and tile fragments on the ground, and then turned into nothingness and disappeared.

"Next is the effect of the trap card 'Simultaneous Loss'. We each throw a card from the top of the deck." Manjoume smiled, "However, because 'Vampire Kingdom' has been destroyed, you can't use its effect to destroy my monster."

Only then did the Vamp look really panicked.

All her arrangements, all her means, every layer of insurance was removed, and all the defenses were broken.

It felt like an enemy was at the gate. Her defense line had completely collapsed, and the invincible Dragon Buster had been aimed at her face. The thick black cannon barrel had almost been stuffed into her mouth, leaving her with no way to avoid it.

Vampire Vamp's LP was only 1000, and her clone on the field had an attack power of 2000.

It was very unfortunate that the attack power of ABC-Dragon Buster was 3000.

The next attack would be the last one.

Vampire Vamp finally couldn't keep calm. She frowned and looked around: "Hey! I know you're watching. You've seen enough, so it's time to come out, right?"

Hearing her words, everyone began to look around.

However, apart from their own people, the vampire warriors who broke into the hall during the duel and were quickly killed by the players, and Vampire Fraulein who collapsed on the ground and barely got up now, there seemed to be no one else in the hall.

Who is she talking to?

No one responded.

Vampire Vamp was really panicked this time.

"This is not funny!" She stamped her feet and said angrily, "You promised me! I will replace Fraulein as the queen of vampires, and my kingdom will become the leader of the twelve dimensions!

You can't...can't..."

Still no one responded.

Everyone looked at each other.

"Who is she talking to?"

"Is this a hidden plot? Does it mean there is a BOSS behind the scenes?"

"It sounds like someone has sold her out?"

Manjoume frowned: "What are you talking about? It's meaningless... Let's fight!"

He swung his arm down, and his black windbreaker rippled behind him, like a king drawing a sword to command thousands of troops.

"ABC-Dragon Buster, attack the 'Vampire Vamp!'"

The mechanical dragon head was raised, and the heavy steel cannon fell. The surging energy was charged into the black cannon barrel, and the spiral golden beam erupted from the steel barrel!

The weak body of the Vampire Vamp was blasted in half. She let out a sharp and shrill scream, and her body was blasted out of the air, crashing through the wall of the hall, falling down the city wall, and decomposing into countless golden particles in mid-air, dissipating out of thin air.

[Vampire Vamp, LP 1000 → LP 0]

She disappeared.

But even so, she was actually right.

The person she asked for help was indeed watching the duel the whole time.

The shadow just stood in the dark, watching the game of cards with a cold and emotionless gaze, watching the vampire who thought she was his ally being blown away and shattered.

But he just watched from beginning to end without any action.

It was as if he was brewing some bigger plan.

Chapter 1123: Mantis Stalking Cicada

"Okay, it looks like we can talk now."

Yuei Vu stood in front of Vampire Fraulein, who knelt on the ground with a pale face, her flat chest heaving violently due to panting.

She lowered her head, her silver hair drooping, and looked like a submissive and helpless girl. For a moment, Yuei Vu actually felt himself like an unforgivable villain.

The screwballs behind him obviously also felt this sense of déjà vu. A group of people chattered and discussed, thinking that this plot and this development were a bit similar to some not-so-serious animations in Japan – the kingdom was captured, and the noble princess sacrificed herself for the safety of the people...

The screwballs were this kind of creature. Not only did they read a lot of messy things, but they also liked to fantasize.

"I know you may not believe it now... but we really have no ill will towards your country." Yuei Vu said helplessly, "We are really just passing by."

Vampire Fraulein raised her head, with a ruby-like light in her eyes.

"You...want to go to Supreme King's Castle?"

"Yes." Yuei Vu nodded, "We just want to borrow your portal."

Fraulein was silent for a moment, then said: "I can't allow unauthorized people to pass through that door. That is my duty – and our kingdom's duty."

"You have done your best to fulfill your duties." Yuei Vu said, "So now tell me, where is the door?"

Fraulein did not answer. Her beautiful eyes dimmed a little, and she looked absentmindedly at the dark sky outside the castle.

"In fact, I'm a little tired of all this." She said softly, "Endless battles, people who keep dying... I just want it all to stop."

"So that's why you want Supreme King to come back, right?" Yuei Vu asked.

"Yes." Fraulein lowered her head gently, "Because this is... the only way to stop the war. Only that lord can make everyone willingly surrender, all dimensions will obey orders, and all worlds will restore peace.

I just... just don't want to continue fighting..."

Yuei Vu looked at Fraulein whose head was gradually lowering, and couldn't help but smile.

"Little Miss, you seem to have misunderstood something."

"Eh?" Fraulein raised her head.

"We never said that we went to Supreme King's Castle to overthrow that person." Yuei Vu smiled, "We just went to reason with him."

We all hope that the Supreme King can stay in his position. I just hope that he can become better than he is now... and probably stronger than he is now.

But no matter what, your wish will come true. The twelve dimensions will maintain unity under the absolute power of the Supreme King. There will be no more wars, and no one will need to die in the fight for land."

Fraulein was full of suspicion, and her pale face clearly said—

— I don't read much, don't lie to me, is it really that simple?

Do you want to reason with the Supreme King? Do you think he looks like a reasonable person?

But just when Vampire Fraulein was extremely suspicious of this, a figure – or to be more precise, a shadow that was not a person at all – appeared beside Yuei Vu.

"Yubel?" Fraulein showed a surprised expression, "Are you with them?"

"The situation is a little complicated." Yubel crossed her arms, "I have always had a good impression of you among my past colleagues, Little Miss.

You should know that you can trust me in this regard.

Do you really think that I will betray the lord?"

Vampire Fraulein: "..."

Indeed. Although she did not fully understand the story of the Supreme King and Yubel, she also knew that there was an extraordinary past between them.

Yubel's loyalty and the Supreme King's respect for her have been witnessed by everyone for a long time.

In the entire twelve dimensions, if there was anyone who was least likely to betray the Supreme King, that person must be Yubel.

Vampire Fraulein was silent for a moment and seemed to be entangled.

After a moment, she asked again: "You...really not rebelling against the Supreme King's reign?"

"Of course." Yubel smiled, "You know I will always be loyal to that person, but the situation is a little special now.

You know, the Supreme King now is not exactly the same as he was in the past. I am just trying to make the person on the throne better with the help of these people."

"..."

Seeing that Vampire Fraulein seemed to be still undecided, Yuei Vu continued: "I just want to remind you one thing. Although your loyalty to the king is admirable, you don't actually have many choices.

You lost to me, remember?

One victory, one price. You haven't paid your price yet, right?"

Vampire Fraulein sighed softly.

She gently raised her small hand as white as a scallion and pointed to a certain direction behind the city wall.

"Go out from here and follow the main road." She said, "Go all the way to the center of the city, and the door you are looking for is there."

After a pause, she added: "But you should know that even if you go through there, you will not go directly to Supreme King's Castle.

Our dimension is not the last line of defense. To reach Supreme King's Castle, you still have to go through another dimension, which is the closest and last line of defense to Supreme King's Castle."

"Dark World." Yubel nodded, "Thank you for reminding me, but I didn't forget it."

"Dark World?" Yuei Vu raised his eyebrows.

"That's right." Yubel said, "Dark World is the dimension closest to Supreme King's Castle, where all the fallen creatures of Dark World rule.

It is a world shrouded in darkness all year round, and demons enslave and rule the humans living in that plane, a dimension where despair is rampant and there is no dawn forever."

"But that dimension also has the last door to Supreme King's Castle."

Vampire Fraulein stood up shakily, took a deep breath, and showed a serious expression.

"I'm going with you." She said.

Yubel was a little surprised: "What about your kingdom...?"

"I let you through this door, so I must confirm with my own eyes whether what you said is true."

Fraulein paused and looked out the window again, looking at the kingdom where she had devoted everything but was betrayed.

"Besides, I'm tired." She said softly, "If it's true as you said, there will be no more wars from now on, then it's almost time for me to leave this position.

It's time to entrust everything to others."

Then she smiled softly and looked at Yuei Vu half-jokingly.

"And you said, I still owe you a price." She smiled and said, "If I don't stay with you, I can't pay it, right?"

"Okay." Yuei Vu shrugged, "But you have to be prepared, it won't be as easy as a picnic."

.....

Yuei Vu and his group left the castle and walked towards the portal to the next dimension in the city center. A black shadow stood in the shadow not far away, squinting his eyes and staring in that direction.

He walked slowly forward, ready to catch up.

But a lazy voice sounded behind him: "You are really haunting."

The black shadow paused and looked at the man who appeared behind him without anyone noticing and was leaning against the wall, and frowned.

"That should be my words... Duel King."

Chapter 1124: Why Are You Here?

After successfully passing through the Vampire dimension, Yuei Vu continued his journey. He never expected that he would get some unexpected gains.

Vampire Fraulein, if Yuei Vu remembered correctly, seemed to have never been seen in the main world.

You should know that Yuei Vu had privileges in the two major card printing manufacturers, Kaiba Group and Industrial Illusions. Yuei Vu could basically take the cards in their warehouses at will.

Even if it was a rare card like "Blue-Eyes White Dragon" that was not for sale, Yuei Vu couldn't get it but at least he had seen it. It was impossible to say that there was a card he had never heard of.

But he has never seen the card of Vampire Fraulein.

As one of the strongest in the twelve dimensions, the power of the Little Miss was not weak. More importantly, she also had mental power, which was the type of ability that all the spirits of Yuei Vu currently lacked.

Yubel did have similar abilities, but after all, she was the spirit partner of his apprentice. After Judai was rescued, he would definitely give her back to him.

The addition of the Little Miss was also a good supplement to Yuei Vu's camp.

After passing through the dimension gate, the group soon arrived at the next dimension.

As Yubel described, this was a world full of darkness. The sky was gloomy as if covered by a huge curtain, and everything was desolate.

In the first town they passed by, there was hardly any intact building. There were broken walls and ruins everywhere. Not only were they dilapidated and unrepaired, but they were also obviously weathered by the war, like old people in their twilight years.

This was the Dark World.

In the animation, the place where Yuki Judai turned evil and awakened as the Supreme King was also the dimension closest to the Supreme King's Castle.

Not long after arriving here, their greeters soon appeared.

It was an army of the Dark World. The dark demons led all kinds of hideous and twisted monsters, with yellow dust flying behind them, and rushed towards the invaders in a mighty manner.

"It's the outer border defense team." Yubel said, "These demons reacted very quickly. We just arrived not long ago and they already found us?"

"It seems to react faster than the vampires." Yuei Vu also said.

But a certain vampire present was unhappy when he said this.

"In fact, I also noticed it on the first day you arrived." The lady pouted and her voice became smaller and smaller, "But... but I can't beat you, what can I do..."

She secretly glanced at Yuei Vu.

If she was not sure before, now she already knew that her old enemy, La Mort the Magical Nethermaster, who had fought with her for so many years, had indeed died in the Earth dimension, and was defeated by this man.

When she saw La Mort's card in Yuei Vu's hand, she was even a little bit unbelievable.

But in comparison, she suddenly found that she was still lucky. She just became someone else's card. At least she was still alive. On the other hand, La Mort has not only become a card, but his spirit also disappeared...

That's right, the "Reaper of Prophecy" card in Yuei Vu's hand was just a card now. Although it could still be used, the spirit that resided in it was dead.

This reminded Fraulein of the words that Vampire Vamp said when she betrayed her.

Vampire Vamp laughed at her for being a frog in the well, saying that she, La Mort, and even the Supreme King were nothing more than that.

Now recalling that tone and expression, it really didn't seem to be fake. Fraulein also believes that if Vampire Vamp was not really confident in her new backer, she would definitely not have the courage to betray her queen, let alone "replacing the Supreme King to unify the twelve dimensions".

But until Vampire Vamp died in the hands of these alien warriors, her so-called backer did not show up in the end.

This made Fraulein couldn't help but start to doubt again whether her words were true or false.

However, after the duel with Yuei Vu, she felt from the bottom of her heart that this man was stronger than ever before, and might indeed be stronger than several generals including herself and La Mort.

In her impression, only the Supreme King could compete with him.

But when Fraulein asked Yuei Vu if there was a duelist stronger than him, Yuei Vu answered without hesitation: "Yes, of course there is."

Miss Fraulein was very surprised at the time: "Stronger than you?"

"Of course, I'm just a nobody." Yuei Vu said as a matter of course, "Have you seen Dragon Ruler? Have you seen Thunder Dragon? Have you seen Zodiac?"

Miss Fraulein shook her head in confusion, like a primary school student who didn't know anything when asked in class.

For a moment, she felt like a frog in a well, who had never heard of anything and didn't understand anything...

"Okay," Yuei Vu twisted his neck, stretched his muscles, and walked up in the direction of the dark army's charge, "Let's make a quick decision in this dimension and pass it quickly."

The players responded enthusiastically, and they opened the Duel Disks and prepared to charge.

However, before they could make a move, the charge horn was interrupted by a heavy roar.

That was the direction they came from.

Everyone turned their heads and saw...

...saw a flying steel beast.

The engine roared heavily, and several turbines sprayed invisible tail flames downwards. It had a streamlined shell, and headlights-like eyes, and the design was like an alien warship in a science fiction movie.

The "KC" mark was prominently engraved on its shell.

"Huh?" Yuei Vu raised his eyebrows, "President?"

The aircraft hatch opened with a bang, and President Kaiba Seto fell directly in a free fall that everyone was very familiar with. He landed in a handsome and gorgeous but knee-injuring superhero style and landed steadily in front of everyone.

A white light curtain burst out behind him, and the noble and majestic white dragon shook its head! It roared, and the shining white light tore through the darkness and pierced the dark sky of the dark world!

"Blue-Eyes White Dragon, attack!" Kaiba shouted at the top of his voice, "Burst Stream of Destruction!!!"

The monsters summoned in this dimension could be materialized, and the monster cards that host spirits could exert powerful forces that are not available in the real world.

In ancient Egypt, the Blue-Eyes White Dragon was a spirit that could rival three Egyptian Gods. How could those miscellaneous soldiers in the Dark World have ever seen such a powerful being? With just one strike, the terrifying white light of destruction swept the entire team clean, evaporating the armor and flesh, and leaving no bones or ash.

President Kaiba looked up to the sky and laughed in three parts.

"Hahahahaha!!!" The president raised one arm high, "Tough! Invincible! Unbeatable! Tremble in the face of absolute power!"

What's even more interesting was that the spirit of the blue-eyed girl was still floating beside him, clapping for him with her little hands, as if it was not her but the president himself who just wiped out the small fries with a beam of light.

Yuei Vu had a dark face: "President, why are you here?"

Chapter 1125: The Supreme King Arrived

Brron, Mad King of Dark World was an upper demon, the supreme ruler of the Dark World, and the most vicious and evil demon of the Dark World.

He was the last of the four generals under the Supreme King. He was cruel and vicious and treated life as grass, but his strength was also extremely strong. Like La Mort, he had a Phase 2 called "Clorless, Chaos King of Dark World".

At this moment, this ruler has personally stepped onto the top of the mountain, commanding the entire team behind him, facing the conquerors from the alien world in front of him.

He raised the dark and hideous Duel Disk in his hand and shouted loudly: "Invaders! Use your blood to decorate my city wall!"

In response to him, there was a high-pitched dragon roar that shook the sky. The white dragon wrapped in sacred light spread its wings and flew up, and the incandescent light swept across the army!

The pressure of the dragon made the miscellaneous soldiers of the Dark World almost unable to raise their heads. Everyone dared to roar as if to be brave, but did not even dare to look up and look directly at the direction where the white dragon was.

Kaiba Seto stood on the white dragon's smooth silver head, his white windbreaker fluttering behind him like a cape, sneering contemptuously: "You are the ruler of this dimension?"

Ha, you look like a nobody. People like you will be killed by my 'Blue-Eyes' in an instant."

Brron was furious, waved his hand to signal his underlings to retreat, and directly unfolded the Duel Disk: "Don't be so sure, foreigner. I'll let you experience the desperate horror of the Dark World!"

"..."

A few minutes later.

"Hahahahaha!!! Strong! Invincible! Toughest! Crush! Shatter! Destroy!!!"

Kaiba Seto raised his arms high.

"Neo Blue-Eyes Ultimate Dragon, attack! Three consecutive shots! Weaklings like you should turn into dust and disappear!"

The three heads of the Ultimate Dragon opened their mouths at the same time, and endless white light gushed out! The destructive energy beam smashed the "Clorless, Chaos King of Dark World" summoned on the field, penetrated it with great force, and in one breath, the attack also blasted the original body into scum.

"Uh ah ah ah!"

[Clorless, Chaos King of Dark World, LP 0]

All the soldiers were dumbfounded.

Damn! The boss was blasted into mosaics!

The small fries were already scared when they saw a god-level spirit like the Ultimate Dragon, and now that the boss was blasted into scum, the remaining people had no intention of resisting.

Breaking through the Dark World dimension was much smoother than expected, and basically there was no big obstacle.

Because President Kaiba suddenly intervened and snatched the game that could be played, Yuei Vu didn't even have anything to do

The next dimensional gate was somewhere in the Dark World. It was only a matter of time to break through the Dark World, pass through the next gate, and enter the Supreme King's Castle.

However, it seemed that there was no need for that.

Just when the battle situation had completely tilted in favor of Yuei Vu and his team, and the outcome seemed to have been basically decided, some indescribable, powerful pressure suddenly enveloped the entire venue.

It was as if someone had dragged the entire battlefield into an unknown area by himself.

Yuei Vu was familiar with that feeling.

Aster and Manjoume also reacted quickly – after all, they had also fought directly with that terrifying opponent.

The dark shadow walked out slowly and stood in front of the Dark World Army. As he stepped down, the invisible darkness quickly expanded, sweeping away the pressure brought by the white dragon.

Supreme King.

The target of their trip.

"You want to find me." He said coldly, "I'm here."

"It really saves us a lot of effort." Yuei Vu smiled, "This also saves us from running to Supreme King's Castle to find you. It's also troublesome to kill all the small fries under your command.

It seems that you have recovered well. Have you recovered from your last injury?"

Supreme King's face sank.

"You won't be so lucky this time." He said dryly.

"No!" Kaiba waved his hand and stepped forward, "Your opponent this time is me!"

Finally meeting a capable opponent, this time I can't let the hateful Yuei↑ Vu↓ snatch this game!

"No."

A boy's voice sounded from behind them.

Seeing the boy walking out of the team, there was a hint of surprise in the golden pupils of the Supreme King.

"You?"

"It's me."

The boy standing in front of him had the same facial features and the same appearance as him.

Yuki Judai.

While his friends in the Duel Academy were fighting in the other dimension for him, he woke up.

He was very weak, and there was still an unfillable gap in his spirit, but he still woke up tenaciously.

Hearing that his teacher and friends had gone to the other dimension for him, he took the initiative to contact President Kaiba, hoping to find a way to come and help.

It just so happened that President Kaiba collected the energy and data generated during the duel between Yuei Vu and Yusei, and was also tinkering with the technology of the dimensional shuttle, so he simply brought it to him.

Yuei Vu glanced at Judai, whose condition was visibly not very good.

"Are you sure you want to do this?" Yuei Vu asked.

Judai's condition was indeed not reassuring. For the first time in his life, he lost the power of the Supreme King, and the soul that should have been a part of him was separated into another independent individual.

No one knew what impact this would have on him.

But Judai was very persistent: "I have to do this. I know this is a bit willful, Yuei Vu-sensei, but this duel – and only this duel, is truly my battle."

He turned his head to look at the Supreme King, his eyes determined.

"Wait," Aster interrupted him, "You may not know, this guy is very strong, you are not an opponent you can handle in your current state!"

"Aster is right." Manjoume also frowned, "The patient should stay in bed obediently, let us do it..."

"Thank you," Judai smiled, "but I'm afraid that won't work."

After a pause, he showed a rare serious expression.

"I must win this duel. If there is only one duel in my life that I must win, it must be now.

I can't let others fight this duel for me. Not even you, sensei."

"...I understand." Yuei Vu patted his shoulder.

Indeed, this may be the threshold that Judai needs to cross by himself.

Only by defeating the Supreme King head-on could he completely eliminate the dark personality, absorb that power and transform it into his own.

This was also a crucial opportunity for his growth.

"Then be careful."

Judai put on the Duel Disk and walked forward.

"Okay, the dark version of me, my other self!" He took a deep breath, "Let's fight!"

"Exactly what I want." Supreme King also opened the Duel Disk and said coldly, "Your existence itself is a mistake. And now, this mistake will be corrected!"

"Duel!" x2

[Judai, LP 4000]

[Supreme King, LP 4000]

Chapter 1126: Face The Darkness

"I'll take the initiative, draw!"

Judai took the initiative without hesitation and quickly scanned the six cards in his hand.

Very good, here I will use the tactics taught by Yuei Vu-sensei to deploy the formation!

"Activate the Spell Card 'Neos Fusion!'" Judai waved his hand and inserted the Spell Card into the Duel Disk, and the card emerged beside him. "Special Summon 1 Fusion Monster from my Extra Deck that lists exactly 2 monsters as material, including 'Elemental HERO Neos', by sending those monsters from my hand, Deck, or field, ignoring its Summoning conditions!"

He pulled out two cards that popped out of the deck and showed them directly: "I send 'Elemental HERO Neos' and 'Ra's Disciple' to the graveyard from the deck!"

The fusion condition is 'Elemental HERO Neos' + 1 Level 4 or lower Effect Monster! Fusion Summon!

The hero of the universe, the power of courage——

——Elemental HERO Brave Neos!"

Neos and an apostle wearing armor shaped like the sun god flew out of the deck, both flew off the ground and merged into the Milky Way outside the sky. The energy storm swept through the dark and boundless universe. A beam of light descended from the center of the storm, carrying the new form of the cosmic hero to the ground, stirring up a thousand-foot dust curtain.

[Elemental HERO Brave Neos, ATK 2500]

"Brave Neos gains 100 ATK for each 'Neo-Spacian' and 'HERO' monster in the graveyard. I have Neos in my graveyard, so Brave Neos's ATK increases by 100 points."

[Elemental HERO Brave Neos, ATK 2500 → ATK 2600]

"Then set a card, and my turn is over."

Judai looked at the extra set cards around him, quickly checked and reflected on his first turn arrangement, and then nodded slightly.

Very good, a pretty good start. A superior monster was summoned, and the graveyard also had "Neos Fusion" as a defense method that could replace destruction, and the set cards also had powerful interference methods against the enemy.

In the first turn, there should be no flaws.

Seeing that Judai chose "Ra's Disciple" as the fusion material, everyone guessed that Judai's set card must be "Give and Take".

After all, Judai had already demonstrated this extremely nether tactic in front of everyone before – using "Neos Fusion" to throw "Ra's Disciple" as a fusion material to the graveyard, and then using "Give and Take" to force the apostle to the opponent's field, making it impossible for the opponent to summon and deploy smoothly.

"Draw." The Supreme King calmly drew a card.

Sure enough, at this moment, Judai raised his hand and turned over the set card.

"At the Standby Phase, open the set card: Trap Card – Give and Take!" Judai clenched his fist and said, "Special Summon a monster in my Graveyard to the opponent's field in Defense Position!"

After that, increase the Level of 1 monster I control by the Level of the Special Summoned monster, until the End Phase!"

Judai drew a card from the graveyard.

"I will Special Summon the 'Ra's Disciple' from my Graveyard to your field in Defense Position, and raise the level of 'Elemental HERO Brave Neos' by the level of 'Ra's Disciple!'"

Golden light flew to the Supreme King's field, and transformed into an apostle dressed in golden clothes half-knelt on the Supreme King's field.

[Ra's Disciple, DEF 600]

[Elemental HERO Brave Neos, LV 7 → LV 11]

"When 'Ra's Disciple' is on the field, you cannot Special Summon any monster!" Judai smiled, "And, the 'Ra's Disciple' cannot be Tributed in any other situation except as a sacrifice for the Three Egyptian Gods!"

In other words, your Special Summon has been blocked!"

"Very good!" Jesse on the side praised, "Blocking Special Summoning while summoning the powerful Néó yourself, a very strong tactic! It made me suffer a lot at that time!"

But the Supreme King had no expression on his face.

"I know everything about you, and this kind of cleverness is useless in front of me."

The Supreme King said coldly and showed a card.

"Activate the Equip Spell 'Axe of Fools.'" The Supreme King said solemnly, "Equip it to 'Ra's Disciple'. The equipped monster gains 1000 ATK, also its effects are negated."

The heavy axe appeared in the hands of the apostle, increasing its attack power while also invalidating its negative effects.

[Ra's Disciple, ATK 1100 → ATK 2100]

"The effect of the apostle has been negated, so now the summoning restrictions have disappeared." The Supreme King said, "Next is the Field Spell 'Supreme King's Castle'."

The terrain was transformed, and the jagged dark castle broke out from between the dark rocks and was briefly illuminated by the thunder that cut through the sky.

"As long as this card exists in the field, Fusion Monsters that must be Special Summoned with 'Dark Fusion' can be Fusion Summoned by other fusion effects."

The Supreme King played another card: "So I activate the Spell Card 'Fusion Birth!'" (manga card)

The Supreme King drew five cards from the top of the deck in one breath and flipped them over to show them: "Fusion Birth's effect! Send the top 5 cards of my Deck to the Graveyard. Then, I can Fusion Summon 1 Fusion Monster from my Extra Deck if its Fusion Material Monsters were among the cards I sent.

Among the five cards I sent, there are 'Elemental HERO Clayman' and 'Elemental HERO Electric Man', so I use these two cards as materials and perform a fusion summon with the blessing of Supreme King's Castle!"

The two basic Elemental HEROes of EARTH and LIGHT attributes flew out, turned into golden light, and merged into the dark and chaotic vortex above Supreme King's Castle.

"Dark Fusion! Roar——

——Evil HERO Lightning Golem!"

The dark lightning fell from the sky and hit the ground fiercely. The hideous steel giant landed with lightning, and the huge boots blew up a thousand-foot dust curtain when they stepped on it.

[Evil HERO Lightning Golem, ATK 2400]

"This is Evil HERO..." Judai frowned.

Sure enough, it looked very similar to his own "Thunder Giant", but it was more evil and hideous as if the hero has fallen into darkness.

"Evil HERO Lightning Golem's effect is activated!" Supreme King said, "Once per turn, I can destroy any monster on the field.

Destroy 'Elemental HERO Brave Neos!'"

The Lightning Golem opened his five fingers, and the dark thunder shot out like a javelin, hitting Neos's chest head-on!

The black lightning instantly penetrated Neos's internal organs, as if to tear his body apart, and the latter groaned in pain.

"Then I will banish the 'Neos Fusion' from the graveyard!" Judai showed a Spell Card, "If a Neos Fusion Monster would be destroyed by battle or card effect, I can banish this card from my GY instead!"

"Then fight directly." Supreme King waved his hand, "Use 'Evil HERO Lightning Golem' to attack 'Elemental HERO Brave Neos'."

Judai's eyes changed slightly: "Use the Evil HERO with lower attack power to attack?!"

"At this moment, the effect of the Field Spell 'Supreme King's Castle' is activated." Supreme King said in a deep voice, "Once per turn, during damage calculation, if my Fiend monster battles an opponent's monster: I can send 1 'Evil HERO' monster from my Deck or Extra Deck to the GY; my monster gains ATK equal to the Level of the monster sent to the GY x 200, until the end of this turn.

I send the level 5 'Evil HERO Sinister Necrom' to the graveyard from the deck, and the attack power of the Lightning Golem increases by 1000 points."

[Evil HERO Lightning Golem, ATK 2400 → ATK 3400]

The electric current finally tore through the silver-white body of Neos, his armor was blown apart, and finally, his whole body disappeared in a ball of exploding fire.

【Judai, LP 4000 →LP 3200】

"Set a card, I end my turn."

Chapter 1127: HERO VS Evil

Pain, accompanied by heavy attacks, pierced through Judai's body like lightning.

That was the power of the Supreme King, which was even more prominent in this dimension where all duel damage was physical. A mere 800 points of damage was accompanied by an almost suffocating cold impact.

But now Judai felt that it was not entirely a bad thing.

At least it made his brain clearer.

"My turn, draw!" Judai said, "Activate 'Pot of Greed' and draw two cards. Then activate the Spell Card 'Takes Over Five' from my hand! Send the top 5 cards of my Deck to the Graveyard!"

After flipping out five cards in a row and sending them to the graveyard, Judai immediately played another card: "Spell Card 'O – Oversoul'! Special Summon 1 'Elemental HERO' Normal Monster in my graveyard.

Come on! Elemental HERO Neos!"

A rainbow-colored beam of light rushed out of the vortex in the graveyard, and the white Elemental HERO from the universe seemed to hear the call from the distant horizon and came again.

[Elemental HERO Neos, ATK2500]

"Neos... that monster is now the symbol of your duel." Supreme King said solemnly, "Then you and that monster will be crushed together in this duel."

"It's you who will disappear!" Judai responded, "I will then Normal Summon 'Neo-Spacian Dark Panther'!"

The black panther jumped out and landed in front of Judai, and winked at him: "Leave it to me!"

[Neo-Spacian Dark Panther, ATK 1000]

"The effect of Dark Panther is activated," Judai said, "Once per turn, he can transform into a face-up monster on the opponent's field. During this turn, Dark Panther can be used as a card with the same name as that monster and gain the same monster effect!"

He pointed to the Supreme King's field.

"I want to gain the effect of 'Evil HERO Lightning Golem'!"

As soon as the voice fell, the entire body of Dark Panther seemed to dissolve and turned into a black quagmire. It quickly transformed, gradually rising from the quagmire, and transformed into the form of a steel giant, surrounded by dark lightning.

"Dark Panther, use Lightning Golem's effect!" Judai continued, "Once per turn, destroy a monster on the opponent's field.

Go, destroy the 'Evil HERO Lightning Golem'!"

The fake Lightning Golem raised his right hand, spread his five fingers, and the dark lightning struck the original body. The Lightning Golem roared in anger, but even so, he could not resist his own thunder and was blown to pieces.

"Battle!" Judai said, "Neo-Spacian Dark Panther, attack 'Ra's Disciple'!"

[Ra's Disciple, DEF 600]

Axe of Fools strengthened the attack power of the apostle, but the monster summoned by "Give and Take" was in Defense Position, and the defense power was not strengthened. The Dark Panther easily tore the apostle and his armor into pieces.

"Neos, attack directly!"

Judai continued to give orders, and Neos flew out, did a gorgeous somersault, and slashed his hand knife straight at the face of the Supreme King.

"It's useless. Open the set card: Trap Card – Defense Draw!" The Supreme King said, "Make the battle damage become 0, and then draw a card."

Neos's attack was blocked, but Judai was not very surprised.

"It's not that easy to pass, isn't it?" he said. "Set a card, I end my turn."

"Then it's my turn, draw."

Looking at the card he drew, Supreme King played it without thinking: "Spell Card 'Dark Calling! Fusion Summon 1 Fusion Monster from my Extra Deck that must be Special Summoned with 'Dark Fusion', by banishing the Fusion Materials mentioned on it from my hand and/or GY.

I banish 'Evil HERO Malicious Edge' discarded last turn and 'Evil HERO Lightning Golem' from the graveyard.

The fusion condition is 'Evil HERO Malicious Edge' + 1 Level 6 or higher Fiend monster! Dark Fusion! Show up –

– Evil HERO Malicious Fiend!!!"

Two dark torrents shot into the vortex of chaos, a chaotic energy burst out, and the black hero in tight clothes rushed out of the energy storm. He had a steel blade on his head like a killer hairstyle, and the ten fingers of both hands were equipped with claw-like blades, flashing cold light.

[Evil HERO Malicious Fiend, ATK 3500]

"Then activate the effect of 'Evil HERO Sinister Necrom' from the graveyard. Remove this card from the game and Special Summon any 'Evil HERO' monster from the deck.

I remove the Sinister Necrom from the game and Special Summon 'Evil HERO Malicious Edge' from the deck!"

A black shadow flew out of the Supreme King's deck and transformed into the image of the Evil HERO in a black tights and claws, with a cold smile on the corner of his mouth under the cross-section helmet.

[Evil HERO Malicious Edge, ATK 2600]

"Then, 'Evil HERO Infernal Gainer' is Normal Summoned!"

[Evil HERO Infernal Gainer, ATK 1600]

Judai held his breath and concentrated: "Three Evil HEROes at once..."

"Battle!" Supreme King said, "'Evil HERO Malicious Fiend', attack 'Elemental HERO Neos'!

At this moment, the effect of the Field Spell 'Supreme King's Castle' is activated. From the Extra Deck, send the Level 8 'Evil HERO Dark Gaia' to the graveyard. Until the end of the turn, the attack power of the Malicious Fiend increases by 1600!"

[Evil HERO Malicious Fiend, ATK 3500 → ATK 5100]

The Malicious Fiend's figure was like a ghost, and his claws left a transparent trace in the air, cutting toward Judai's head!

"Then I discard 'Kuriboh' from my hand!" Judai shouted, "The battle damage of one battle will be reduced to 0!"

"Kuri Kuri!"

Kuriboh jumped out with a "super fierce" expression, and blocked the fatal blow with his small body, but the Neo Space hero was still shattered under the impact of that blow.

But the Supreme King was not surprised at all, as if this was within his expectations, and continued: "Then 'Evil HERO Malicious Edge', continue to attack, attack 'Neo-Spacian Dark Panther'."

The Malicious Edge received the order, and the corner of his mouth continued to rise. He jumped up with amazing jumping power, and his arms swept in the air in a fan shape, and the blade flashing with silver light swept from high above, shooting the dark leopard into a sieve.

[Judai, LP 3200 → LP 1600]

This time the impact was even more intense, the dark cyclone was like countless long whips lashing at Judai, causing him to stagger back, his legs and feet barely able to maintain balance.

"Judai!" Asuka was the first to shout out in worry.

"It's okay." Judai took a deep breath and stood up again.

"The next attack won't be okay." Supreme King said in a deep voice, "Evil HERO Infernal Gainer's effect is activated. During the Battle Phase, banish this card from the field, then target 1 Fiend monster I control; that target can make a second attack during each Battle Phase as long as it is face-up on the field." (Animation effect)

Infernal Gainer's figure was erratic, and it turned into an illusory image and disappeared from the field as the dimension twisted.

"The monster I chose is, 'Evil HERO Malicious Fiend'."

[Evil HERO Malicious Fiend, ATK 5100]

"Oh no," said Aster in a deep voice, "Judai has no monsters to defend against it!"

"Fall into eternal sleep, my shadow!" Supreme King shouted, "Malicious Fiend, attack directly!"

Without any barrier blocking him, the Malicious Fiend with an attack power of more than 5000 flashed forward again, and the sharp blade cut straight into Judai's face with a sharp sound of breaking through the air!

Judai took a step forward under the dark pressure that almost froze his movements, and waved his hand: "Open the set card: Trap Card – A Hero Emerges! When an opponent's monster declares an attack: The opponent has to choose 1 random card from my hand."

If that card is a monster that can be Special Summoned, Special Summon it. If not, it must be sent to the graveyard!"

Supreme King: "You only have one card in your hand."

"That's right, so you can only choose this one." Judai raised his voice and slapped the only remaining card in his hand directly, "Therefore, according to the effect of 'A Hero Emerges', I will directly special summon this card——

——Come on, Yubel!!!"

Chapter 1128: Ultimate Fusion Card!

The monster card emerged, and a golden light rippled on the card. The demon flew out of the vortex in front of the card, slowly spread her wings, and opened the ferocious third eye on her forehead.

[Yubel, ATK 0]

"Yubel." The Supreme King's face quickly turned cold.

She should have been the most trusted subordinate around him, the right-hand man who should stand by his side even to the end of the world.

But this was the second time this had happened – Yubel stood on the opposite side of him as an enemy.

"Traitors will be purged, and their souls will be exiled to wander in the endless darkness." The Supreme King said coldly, "Even you are no exception."

"I know."

Yubel on the field turned her head to look at Yuki Judai behind her, and then looked at the person in front of her who had almost the same appearance but completely different temperament.

Then she turned back, her expression was calm and solemn.

"But as I said before, your time has passed." Yubel said, "You are a phantom that should have been lying in the coffin long ago, and you should not exist at all.

The current king is standing in front of you."

The Supreme King narrowed his golden eyes slightly, and after a long silence, he slowly said: "You will regret this."

"Maybe, but not now." Yubel smiled seductively, "Now, you should focus on the duel first. Now it's still the Battle Phase.

Stop talking nonsense, if you want to do it, hurry up."

She licked her lips, looking excited.

"I can't wait here."

"...The battle replay occurs. Malicious Fiend, cancel the attack." The Supreme King said coldly.

Although he seemed a little timid in terms of momentum, anyone with a brain would know that he should not get too excited at this time.

Yubel's attack power was only 0, she looked weak and easy to push down, but those who knew her knew that it was more than meet the eye. She was the kind of masochist who didn't feel pain no matter how hard you hit her. The harder you hit, the more suffer you would be in the end.

"My turn is over."

"Then it's my turn!" Judai drew a card and said, "At this moment, the effect of 'Take Over Five' in the graveyard is activated! Banish this card and a card with the same name from the deck, and draw a card!"

After drawing a card, Judai immediately showed it: "Activate 'Card of Spell Containment'. I can draw two more cards. However, during the turn when I activate this card, I cannot activate any Spell Card other than this card." (Animation card)

Judai waved his hand.

"Battle!" he exchanged a glance with Yubel on the field, "I leave it to you, Yubel! Go ahead, attack 'Evil HERO Malicious Fiend!'"

Yubel's eyes flashed red, and her mental power locked onto the Malicious Fiend. The fiend's eyes also turned red, he raised his head and roared, raised his claws and was about to blast it down.

The effect of Supreme King's Castle was only effective for one turn, and now the Malicious Fiend's attack power has dropped back to 3500. But even so, this attack would still cause a high damage of 3500, and one attack was enough to blast the health of the Supreme King to the danger zone!

The sharp blade of the Malicious Fiend mercilessly grabbed Yubel's body. Yubel snorted and was knocked back half a step. The dark impact visible to the naked eye was completely absorbed, and turned into two vines covered with thorns and shot out at the Supreme King!

"Yubel's effect," Judai said with a fist clenched, "I take no Battle Damage from battles involving this card, and the opponent takes damage equal to the same amount!"

But the Supreme King did not change his expression, just calmly drew a card and discarded it into the graveyard.

"Then activate the effect of the 'Clear Kuriboh' in my hand." The Supreme King said in a deep voice, "During either player's turn, when the opponent activates a monster effect that would inflict damage: I can discard this card; negate the activation."

The small Kuriboh jumped out to the Supreme King's field and released a translucent energy barrier. Yubel's vines stabbed at the barrier, only to be bounced back in vain.

"Tsk, so tenacious." Yubel curled her lips.

"Then my battle phase is over." Judai said, "Normal Summon 'Elemental HERO Shadow Mist'."

The black mist exploded on the field, condensing into a black-clad Shadow Mist, who landed on the field as light as if she had no weight.

[Elemental HERO Shadow Mist, ATK 1000]

"Set a card, I end my turn." Judai said, "Then at the End Phase, Yubel's effect is activated!"

Yubel explained herself: "My effect is that at the end of the turn, if I don't sacrifice a monster on the field, I have to destroy myself."

"That's right," Judai said, "So I sacrificed 'Elemental HERO Shadow Mist' to maintain Yubel's existence and prevent her from being destroyed."

The body of Shadow Mist turned into countless golden powders and dissipated, becoming nutrients absorbed by Yubel.

"Then at this moment, the effect of Shadow Mist is also activated!" Judai said, "If this card is sent to the GY: I can add 1 'HERO' monster from my Deck to my hand."

I add 'Elemental HERO Prisma' to my hand."

The Prisma card popped out automatically and was drawn by Judai to his hand.

"My turn."

The Supreme King drew a card.

Judai stared at the Supreme King without blinking, as if he wanted to read his opponent's next move through that expressionless face.

After the Supreme King drew the card, he paused for a moment and raised his eyelids. The moment the light of the golden pupils looked straight at him, Judai even had an urge to avoid it involuntarily.

"You seem to think you can beat me." The Supreme King spoke turbidly, "But you will soon understand how ridiculous this idea is after seeing the unprecedented absolute power!"

Unprecedented absolute power? Could it be...?

Yubel's heterochromatic eyes suddenly shrank, and she thought of an extremely terrifying possibility.

"Could it be that you have already..."

"That's right." Supreme King said coldly, "Although it took me a lot of extra effort, I have recovered this power, the ultimate fusion card that commands twelve dimensions and is at the top of everything!"

As punishment for betraying, let you relive that fear, Yubel."

He raised his right hand high, holding a green Spell Card in his hand. An indescribable terrifying force was released, like an invisible heavy hammer hitting the space barrier of the entire dimension back and forth.

The golden light of the powerful energy obscured the true appearance of the card, making it impossible to see its card picture and text clearly, only golden lightning crackled in the space.

Everyone had to raise their arms to protect their heads. The fear from the deepest part of their hearts prevented everyone from looking up and looking directly at the vortex of lightning in the air.

"What kind of power is this!?" Misawa exclaimed.

Even President Kaiba frowned: "Can it rival the aura of God?"

"Judai, be careful!" Yubel shouted, "That is..."

She couldn't finish her last words, her voice turned into an unwilling roar, and was eventually drowned in the roaring storm.

The Supreme King's deep and powerful voice sounded like thunder.

"Quick-Play Spell——

——Super Polymerization!!!"

Chapter 1129: The Number One Bonder of Yu-Gi-Oh

"Quick-Play Spell – Super Polymerization!!!"

It's just one card, but the moment it was activated, it seemed as if the whole world would fall apart! Space itself seemed to be wailing, the dark clouds in the sky became transparent, and then some strange images emerged, which looked vaguely like a city hanging upside down in the sky.

Those were images from other dimensions.

The activation of Super Polymerization actually shook the barriers between different dimensions!

"Yubel!" Judai shouted.

He saw Yubel being swept into the storm of fusion, as if being pulled by an irresistible force and thrown into the center of the vortex of surging current. Judai shouted loudly and reached out to try to hold her, but he couldn't do it at all.

Super Polymerization was the ultimate fusion card, which could be negated or countered, and it was a card that could truly "fuse everything".

Its fusion materials were not only monsters on the duel field, but also include the duelists themselves. To go a little further, Yubel in the original game tried to use its power to merge the twelve dimensions into one.

Aster gritted his teeth and said, "He didn't have this card last time we fought!"

"Does this mean that this guy called Supreme King has become even stronger than the last time we fought?" Manjoume said.

Asuka continued to worry: "Judai..."

"Fuse the 'Evil HERO Malicious Edge' on my field and 'Yubel' on your field! Fusion Summon!"

Supreme King raised his arm and shouted in a deep voice: "The ultimate demon, dragging everything in the world into the abyss of destruction! Come out——

——Evil HERO Malicious Bane!!!"

The fusion of Malicious Edge and Yubel caused the majestic energy burst out from the chaotic vortex. The silver-white sharp blade split the dark curtain, and the huge dark hero fell heavily on the floor, and the dark miasma burst out like a wave.

[Evil HERO Malicious Bane, ATK 3000]

"It appears. That guy's strongest monster." Manjoume frowned.

"Yeah," Aster also looked solemn.

After all, the last time the two of them were defeated by this thing, they were deeply impressed by the horror of this demon.

"It's bad," Kenzan said, "If Yubel is absorbed, Judai will have no monster to resist the attack."

"And, the card discarded as the activation cost of Super Polymerization is the Spell Card 'Card of Compensation'," Supreme King said, "When this card is sent from my hand to the Graveyard, I draw two cards."

"Battle!" Supreme King shouted coldly, "Evil HERO Malicious Bane, attack directly! Shadow, just disappear!"

The majestic darkness erupted, and the dark energy was like a tidal wave, sweeping in the face with the claws of the Malicious Bane!

Well, "Super Polymerization" was indeed beyond Judai's expectations, but Judai was not unprepared for this round of attack.

"Trap Card 'Card Defense!'" Judai waved his hand to open the backfield, "By discarding 1 card when an opponent's monster declares an attack, negate the attack, then draw 1 card!" (Animation card)

A card was pushed into the graveyard, and a shield formed by several cards intertwined in a cross shape blocked Judai. The fierce attack of Malicious Bane hit the cross shield, and the dark miasma was dispersed like a stream hitting a rock.

Judai drew another card.

"It's useless to struggle." The Supreme King waved his hand, "Then 'Evil HERO Malicious Fiend', attack directly!"

Malicious Fiend also has an attack power of 3500. No matter which of the two Evil HEROes touches Judai, it would directly declare his defeat!

But the card that Judai had just retreated into the graveyard was immediately ejected.

"Banish 'Necro Gardna' from the graveyard, and negate the opponent's monster's attack!"

The shadow of Necro Gardna emerged, wrapping Judai in it with its ghostly body. The sharp claws of the Malicious Fiend slashed fiercely on the body of the Necro Gardna, splashing transparent sparks, but not penetrating.

"Beautiful!" Misawa said, "While using the trap card to defend the first attack, the card discarded as the cost also prepared a second line of defense."

Marufuji Sho also nodded and said, "Aniki is the strongest!"

"Useless struggle, you are just delaying the inevitable."

The Supreme King waved his hand to set another card, and announced coldly: "I end my turn."

Judai looked at the hideous dark hero on the Supreme King's field, the demon summoned by Yubel's fusion, and couldn't help but grit his teeth.

"Yubel..."

"Give up." Supreme King said, "So far, you haven't even touched the surface of my LP value."

"Shut up." Judai said, "The battle has just begun."

"In fact, the ending has been determined even before it starts." Supreme King said coldly, "You may never have thought about it, but why are you so talented in dueling?"

Why can you always draw the most critical card at the most needed moment?

Why can you easily catch the most critical card in a duel when you never think about it? The key point to open the situation? "

"Of course it's because of my strength as a duelist." Judai frowned, "Because of the teachings of Yuei Vu-sensei all the time."

"Ridiculous." Supreme King said coldly, "That's because you have been borrowing my power, the power of the Supreme King all the time!"

And now without me, without that power, you are just an empty shell, a superfluous existence. In the final analysis, you are just my container, and the container should do its job well."

"Shut up." Judai was a little upset.

"I'm just stating the facts, and you know this deep down in your heart." Supreme King said, "You are just my shadow, and you are nothing without me."

"If that's the case..."

Yuei Vu on the side suddenly spoke up and interrupted him with a smile.

"According to what you said, Judai without you is just an empty shell and can be easily defeated, so why are you wasting time saying these meaningless nonsense?"

Why don't you just use your so-called 'power of the Supreme King' to get rid of him in one go?"

Supreme King: "..."

"Because you are not as confident as you say, right?" Yuei Vu smiled, "You are afraid of him. You are afraid that you will lose to this so-called 'shadow', because in fact you are the shadow, aren't you?"

You are a shadow who should have died long ago. Your time has long passed.

You are afraid that you will lose and be reabsorbed by Judai – just as you are destined to be."

"Ridiculous." Supreme King's voice was cold.

Yusei on the side couldn't help but speak up: "Although I'm just a bystander and don't know much about your past, I know one thing, that is, no one is redundant."

Even if it's true as you said, from the beginning, senior Judai was just a container, but after meeting Yuei Vu-sensei, friends, and companions, and establishing countless bonds, he is now different from the past.

These most precious bonds are the real secret of the duelist's strength, allowing us to keep moving forward no matter where we are or what kind of enemies we face!"

Yuei Vu nodded slightly.

Well, it's not bad, worthy of being the number one "bonder" of Yu-Gi-Oh, Brother Crabhead, who can't stop talking about bonds, and can get excited by just giving a speech. No wonder all the BOSSes of 5DS were whitewashed after listening to his Talk no Jutsu.

But why is Brother Crabhead looking at me?

He noticed that Yusei said this and seemed to look at him meaningfully.

Could it be that my future self and Brother Crabhead also have some special bonds that must be mentioned?

Chapter 1130: Yuki Judai

Maybe it was because Yusei, as the protagonist, had enhanced Talk no Jutsu, or maybe it was because the protagonists of Yu-Gi-Oh were more susceptible to this kind of talk. In any case, these words seemed to have a great effect on Judai.

Yuki Judai, who was just shaken by the words of the Supreme King, was instantly shaken off his confusion and became firm again.

Yes, Yusei was right.

Even if he was really just a container of the Supreme King at the beginning, it didn't matter. Now he already has precious memories of Yuki Judai, the most important teachers and family, and many irreplaceable partners who risked their lives to come to this strange world to fight for him.

Thinking of this, Judai looked behind him and saw his friends who lived and grew up together and happily dueled together. Suddenly, he felt as if he was full of strength again.

Not only that, but he also had many trustworthy spirits to accompany him. Those new cosmic heroes from outer space, the most perfect heroes he created himself, the new cosmic heroes in his mind, have been with him until now.

It didn't matter what his background or past was. Now he was Yuki Judai, that's all he needed to know.

"Hmph." The Supreme King said coldly, "In this case, I will destroy you and this obsession together."

"It is you who will disappear!" Judai took a deep breath, "My turn, draw!"

Looking at the card drawn, he couldn't help but smile slightly.

Sure enough, it doesn't matter whether you have the power of a Supreme King or not. As long as you believe, the deck will definitely respond to you. This is the case for true duelists.

"Activate the Spell Card 'Convert Contact'! Send 2 'Neo-Spacian' monsters, 1 from my hand and 1 from my deck to the graveyard, and then draw two cards from the deck!"

Judai took out a card that was automatically ejected from the deck and displayed it with the remaining cards in his hand.

"I send the 'Neo-Spacian Glow Moss' in my hand and the 'Neo-Spacian Aqua Dolphin' in my deck to the graveyard, and draw two cards!"

Then he immediately slapped another card he drew: "I activate the trap card 'NEXT' from my hand! This trap can be activated directly from the hand when there are no cards on my field!

Special Summon any number of monsters with different names from the hand and/or GY, that are all 'Neo-Spacian' monsters or 'Elemental HERO Neos'.

I special summoned five monsters from the graveyard: 'Elemental HERO Neos', 'Neo-Spacian Dark Panther', 'Neo-Spacian Glow Moss', 'Neo-Spacian Aqua Dolphin', and 'Neo-Spacian Air Hummingbird'!!!"

The five-colored beams of light shot up into the sky, breaking through the dark clouds and leading directly to the Milky Way in the distant sky! Heroes from the Neo Space fell one after another, with Neos occupying the middle, and the remaining four Neo-Spacians occupying the remaining zones respectively, filling up the entire field of Judai in an instant.

[Elemental HERO Neos, DEF 2000]

[Neo-Spacian Dark Panther, DEF 500]

[Neo-Spacian Aqua Dolphin, DEF 800]

[Neo-Spacian Air Hummingbird, DEF 600]

[Neo-Spacian Glow Moss, DEF 900]

"Then I activate the Spell Card 'Space Gift!'" Judai said, "Draw 1 card for each different 'Neo-Spacian' name on the monsters I control!

Now I have four types of Neo-Spacians on the field, so I draw four cards from the deck!"

After drawing four cards in one breath, he slapped another card from his hand: "Then comes the second 'Space Gift!' According to the same effect, I draw four more cards! "

Supreme King: "You replenished your hand in one go."

"All monsters special summoned by the effect of 'NEXT' are in defense position and their monster effects are negated," said Judai, "but they can be used as fusion materials!

I return the 'Elemental HERO Neos', 'Neo-Spacian Aqua Dolphin', and 'Neo-Spacian Air Hummingbird' on the field to the deck! Contact Fusion!"

Neos, Brother Dolphin, and Hummingbird successively lifted their defensive postures, stood up straight, and turned into white, blue, and red beams of light that rushed into the sky.

Neos: Hummingbird-san, Dolphin-san, lend me your strength!

Triple Contact Fusion!

"Rainstorm, roll up the wind!" Judai raised his fist, "Appear——

——Elemental HERO Storm Neos!!!"

The black tornado rushed into the sky, and the storm was torn apart by the white claws! Neos put on a blue armor, with snow-white wings behind him, commanding a funnel-like gale!

[Elemental HERO Storm Neos, ATK 3000]

"Storm Neos' effect is activated!" Judai said, "Once per turn, destroy all Spells and Traps on the field!"

Ultimate Typhoon!!!"

Storm Neos spread his arms, flapped his wings, and a transparent storm swept across the field. The rubble on the ground was sucked up and crushed into pieces by the huge wind pressure in mid-air.

The dark castle collapsed, the bridge broke, and the hideous and rugged buildings collapsed into the eternal hellfire at the bottom, and were burned to ashes in an instant.

"Very good!" Marufuji Sho said, "With the Supreme King's Castle destroyed, the Supreme King can no longer use that field to strengthen the evil hero!"

"But the card you just destroyed is the Trap Card 'Boo-Boo Game'." Supreme King had a blank expression, "If this Set card is destroyed by the opponent's card effect and sent to the GY: I can target up to 2 Normal Traps in my GY, except 'Boo-Boo Game'; Set them to my field." (Animation card)

He took a card that was withdrawn from the Graveyard.

"I set the Trap Card 'Dimensional Wall' from the Graveyard to the field."

The wandering golden particles combined into the shape of a card and were covered at the feet in front of the Supreme King.

"And, the card Set by this effect can be activated during this turn." He paused, and his golden pupils looked at Judai coldly, "Of course, you must be aware of this effect, right?"

After all, it was a card that Judai himself had used before.

"Damn it, the opportunity was created with great difficulty, and now I can't attack again," Marufuji Sho said.

"Double defense line, it's really a very Judai-style tactic." Misawa crossed his arms, "Dimensional Wall can bounce battle damage back to the opponent.

With this trap, Judai can't launch an attack."

"..."

Judai lowered his head and pondered for a moment without speaking.

As if he was in a difficult decision.

After a moment, he raised his head, and his firm eyes seemed to have made some kind of determination.

He slowly drew another card: "I activate the Spell Card 'Spider Web', and I can add a card that the opponent sent to the graveyard last turn to my hand." (Animation card)

"The card sent to the graveyard last turn..." Supreme King's face quickly sank, "You guy, can it be..."

"That's right, the card I want to add to my hand is..."

Judai raised his arm and pointed directly at the duel disk in the Supreme King's hand.

"Quick-Play Spell——

——Super Polymerization!"
