

I Play Yu-Gi 1181

Chapter 1181: Environmental Protection Company

Why does Yusei, who came back from the future, have that mark on his face that should have been gone?

Yuei Vu stared at the crab head in front of him, whose face was clean and blank, and couldn't help but fall into deep thought.

Could it be that Brother Crabhead was unlucky and was arrested and sent to prison for labor reform?

Then why didn't I save him?

Or did I find a way to return to the original timeline and not be with Brother Crabhead at that time?

It seemed that this should be the most reliable explanation. But combined with the many doubts he found after coming to the 5DS era, all those details made him care. Yuei Vu always felt that things were not that simple.

"Okay, I'm in."

Yusei was worthy of being called the most reliable protagonist of all generations of Yu-Gi-Oh. He successfully hacked into the system again.

When he raised his head, he met Yuei Vu's strange gaze. He was stunned for a moment, touched his face, and asked tentatively: "Is there something on my face? Senior Yuei Vu?"

"..... No." Yuei Vu hesitated for two seconds before saying, "Nothing."

But what he didn't say was that it was strange because there was nothing.

Yuei Vu shook his head and temporarily put aside this perhaps insignificant detail.

"Let's see what clues there are."

Yusei nodded: "I have logged in the login registration information of all duelists in Domino as you said. "

Thanks to the archives established by President Kaiba, Kaiba Corp was basically the center of the entire Domino City, especially in the field of duel monsters.

Therefore, all the information of duelists was registered in the database of Kaiba Corp.

Kaiba Corp would register the deck of each citizen according to household registration, especially some rare cards, and the identity of the holder could be easily traced through the card information. In addition, each duelist would still be rated according to the level of one to eight, and after so many years, this evaluation system was relatively more objective.

Unlike a certain president who could force a two-star bad review on Jonouchi based on his own preferences.

"Let's start with the cards and Duel Disks. "Yuei Vu said.

When it debuted in DM, Jinzo was a super rare card. It was originally in the hands of a duelist named Roba, and later lost to Jonouchi in the Battle City according to the gambling card rules, and then became one of Jonouchi's signature cards.

Later, it also appeared in "Yu-Gi-Oh! GX". One time, the monster spirit of Jinzo tried to devour the soul of the student as a sacrifice to revive itself, and another time, the leader of the "Psychic Art", a competitor of Cyber Art, came to Marufuji Ryo to challenge him. The iconic trump card of his Psychic Art Dojo was Jinzo.

Now in the era of 5DS, Yusei Vu guessed that this series should still be rare. If the owner could be found, the identity of the duelist should also be confirmed.

In addition, the Duel Disks of Neo Domino was still produced by the Kaiba Corp. Each Duel Disk they produced had a unique serial number, and the buyer could be found by checking the sales information.

Yusei did as he was told and soon got the results.

"There are not many duelists with 'Jinzo'."

Yusei stepped aside and let Yusei Vu see the screen.

There were indeed only a few of them. But after comparing the photos of each duelist, it seemed that the person they met tonight was not among them.

"Maybe he is not using his own deck." Yusei Vu said.

This was indeed a considerable possibility.

Many people would change the deck they use after being possessed by some dark power. Not all bad guys were willing to use the original owner's deck to duel. They preferred to use the deck they were more familiar with and stronger for Shadow Games.

At the end of the screen, Yusei Vu frowned: "Is that all?"

"That's all." Yusei nodded, "These are all the duelists with 'Jinzo'."

Yusei Vu felt a little strange.

Because he didn't see Jonouchi on this list.

Yusei Vu believed that it was impossible for Jonouchi to hand over the "Jinzo" that was his former trump card.

So why was he not on the list?

Yusei Vu asked Yusei to write down all the information of these people for the time being. If there were no other useful clues, they would visit them one by one to see whose deck the anonymous person they met tonight had defeated.

It turned out that the Duel Disk they pulled from that person was indeed useful. After entering the serial number, the system quickly gave the sales information of the Duel Disk with that serial number.

"This is a Duel Disk purchased in bulk, Mr. Yusei Vu." Yusei said.

"Bulk purchase? "

This kind of thing was indeed not uncommon. In the 5DS era, Duel Monster was not only becoming more and more popular, but also due to the emergence of perpetual motion machines and Synchro Summon, this game itself was playing an increasingly important role in various industries and fields.

Therefore, more and more companies would purchase Duel Disks in large quantities. This thing was like a smartphone, and was gradually becoming an indispensable part of people's work and life.

"Can I find out which company bought it?" Yuei Vu asked.

"It should be no problem."

Yusei tapped on the keyboard again, and more information soon popped up on the screen.

"An environmental protection company." Yusei frowned, "Century Environmental Protection Technology Co., Ltd.... I have never heard of this name. Senior Yuei Vu, do you have any impression? "

Yuei Vu shook his head.

He couldn't remember all the small fries in the anime.

But what does this have to do with the environmental protection company?

Could it be that the extreme environmentalists in this world have already achieved their environmental protection goals through Shadow Games?

Then they killed Godwin... Could it be because this director was not environmentally friendly enough?

A man who was the boss in the early stage of 5DS, who was supposed to have the power of the red dragon and the god of the underworld in the original history, was assassinated before he could achieve his goal, and the reason was actually because of... environmental pollution?

Then it was too funny.

Yusei called up the information related to this environmental protection company. When he scrolled down along the monitor, Yuei Vu's eyes suddenly lit up and he caught a glimpse of some of the content.

"Wait," he interrupted, "the photo just now, turn it back. "

Yusei turned it back as he was told.

It was a photo of a man with flowing red hair and a kind and gentle smile on his face. He looked like an approachable character.

But that smile seemed a little unnatural, and people felt a chill down their spine for no reason.

It felt like looking into the eyes of a poisonous snake.

"Who is this person?" Yuei Vu asked.

"The registration information shows that his name is Roger." Yusei said, "The president of this environmental technology company."

"Roger? That must be a pseudonym." Yuei Vu shook his head. "That's not his real identity. And now I can be sure that this so-called 'Century Environmental Protection' is not a real environmental protection company. It's just a shell they use to cover up their true identity."

"Senior Yuei Vu, do you know him?" Yusei asked.

"I can't say I know him, but I do know who he is. "

Yuei Vu paused.

"This man's real name is Divine, a Psychic Duelist.

The company he leads is actually a terrorist organization called —
— the Arcadia Movement."

Chapter 1182: Brother Crabhead's Shop?

Arcadia Movement was an organization composed of "Psychic Duelists".

The so-called Psychic Duelist referred to a duelist who was born with a mental power that was beyond ordinary people and could materialize monsters. Such duelists often held too much power, and because the powerful mental power could not be freely activated or deactivated, they were easy to cause huge damage and often be regarded as monsters by people around them.

Sometimes even the closest friends and family members could not accept this ability, so the duelists holding this power were often very lonely.

Arcadia Movement was born under such a background.

All of its members were Psychic Duelists. Everyone had the same experience and tragic fate, so they could understand and take care of each other.

For most members, it was similar to home.

The most prominent one was the heroine of 5DS and the number one candidate for the future wife of Brother Crabhead, Aki Izayoi.

But the leader of the Arcadia Movement, Divine, was not just satisfied with being able to live in secret.

Divine knew that playing cards was the only true power. He felt that if he controlled so many Psychic Duelists and held such a powerful force in his hand, he should not be limited to this small territory.

He had a huge ambition, that was, training all the Psychic Duelists in his hands to become soldiers and creating an unstoppable army!

His imagination was beautiful, and this brother's understanding of the role of playing cards in the Yu-Gi-Oh World was completely right. But the problem was that his knowledge was still too short.

He only felt that the materialization of Duel Monster was the most powerful weapon.

Psychic Duel would only cause real damage to the enemy unilaterally, while in Shadow Game, the two sides occasionally read the same risk. On the surface, Psychic Duel seemed to be better, but it was not.

Because Psychic Duel could only "cause damage", it did not have a variety of forces such as Shadow Game. For example, creating unbreakable domains, extracting souls from living beings, and forcing losers to accept any conditions. Some were even more outrageous, they could modify the laws of reality and rewrite the world.

In the face of this level of extraordinary power, the Psychic Duel that Divine respected was nothing.

In the original animation, Divine was shocked when he encountered a Dark Signer and experienced the Shadow Game. It could be seen that he had never seen this kind of thing.

But the problem now was that the killer who killed Rex Godwin was obviously a Shadow Duelist, yet as far as the current clues pointed, he was likely to be Divine's underling.

Is it that the Arcadia Movement has colluded with the Shadow Duelists?

The long night finally ended, and the light of dawn appeared in the sky. When Yusei left the headquarters of the Kaiba Corp, he quickly got some unexpected new situations.

One is that the wanted order of the Public Security Bureau was revoked.

It seemed that the security officers lost their interest in hunting "a scum from Satellite", and actually gave up the arrest.

Second, the body of Rex Godwin was missing.

Yuei Vu was very sure that Godwin had no longer breathed when they entered that room.

However, according to the police's description last night at the scene of the crime, it was said that there were people who guarded the door all night, and there were also police in the room. The police in the room just talked to each other and said a few words, and then turned back and found that the corpse of the director had mysteriously vanished.

It was indeed a paranormal activity.

The good news was that Yusei has regained his freedom now.

The bad news was that he was homeless in this city.

However, it was not particularly serious for an expert card player like him. He could just go to the underground colosseum to play cards and get a little money.

Their next step was to go to the Arcadia Movement to investigate.

But before that, they had to make some preparations.

That was, according to the information in the forum, players were going to go online!

As a result, the world of 5DS has finally ushered in a group of screwballs with strange behaviors.

The thing that happened next was completely within Yuei Vu's expectations. It didn't take long for the new version to be online, and the existence of Yusei immediately attracted the attention of players.

"Look at that side! Is that one Brother Crabhead?" There was a screwball pointer on the street.

"Brother Crabhead?"

"Yusei! The protagonist of 5DS!"

"Nani? The protagonist of the world? No wonder the art style is different from others ..."

"Just look at the hairstyle is enough, right?"

Yusei quickly noticed: "They ... are they talking about me?"

"Must be so," Yuei Vu smiled, "Rest assured, they are on our side. Maybe they can help us in tonight's action."

"Can they?"

Yusei was a little hesitant.

Their action tonight was still a bit dangerous. Yusei didn't know these people, thus he couldn't think of any reason why they would help.

"Rest assured, no problem." Yuei Vu smiled, "Just say what I say."

Sure enough, the screwballs surrounded their idol, one by one, and some of them made some strange poses next to him.

"WTF? A shop!" There was a screwball exclaimed.

"The hell? Brother Crabhead also has a shop!"

"So the guide in 5DS has been replaced by Brother Crabhead? Yuei Vu-san won't have screen time?"

"55555 I still want Yuei Vu-san ..."

"Wait, do you feel that the interface is similar to Yuei Vu-san's shop..."

"Nonsense! This is essentially the consortium K selling cards, which are equivalent to different branches of the same company. How can they not be similar?"

So logical! Even Yuei Vu couldn't help but curse in his heart.

That's right, after testing, he found that although he was now in a ghost-like state, all the functions of the system were still normal. As an NPC, he still had all the functions, and his leeks-cutting was not affected.

As long as the player approached nearby, he could still open a personal store to do transactions, and he could also release the quest and give the reward.

It's just that the players couldn't see him, and the only NPC that could be seen in front of them was Brother Crabhead, so naturally they thought that it was Brother Crabhead who was trading with them.

The man himself was actually perplexed.

Seeing that the duelists in front of him were in a state of excitement and talking about something called "shop" was, Brother Crabhead's mind was blank.

Shop? What shop?

Why can't I see it?

Chapter 1183: Spirit Partner Duel King

When the new version was launched, the tool people who called themselves Yuei Vu's fans had no interest in bootlicking the protagonist of the animation.

Everyone has reached an agreement-

—— Our primary goal is Yuei Vu-san!

Even in the future, Yuei Vu of this era should still exist. The goal of these self-called fans was to find Yuei Vu-san of this era before other players, and once again held his golden and thick thighs.

No matter what happens, it cannot shake our primary goal!

Until they were surprised to find out in the sake of the forum that the 5DS animation protagonist, Yusei Fudo, seemed to have a store ...

At that time, these tool people were shocked.

Nani?

Is there really no Yuei Vu-san in this new version?

After working hard for so long, do we all have to start from scratch?

Although reluctant, a group of tool people were immediately followed the coordinates in the forum, and soon discovered where Yusei was.

A large group of players have arranged in long lines in front of him at this time, and they look forward to waiting for trading. Brother Crab basically acted as the duty of the front desk receptionist of the Yuei Vu private store—

——The players picked goods in the store and delivered the crystal, and Brother Crab was responsible for handing them off the goods they purchased instead of Yuei Vu.

At this moment, Yusei finally knew what was going on.

Although he did not understand how it worked, he at least knew that senior Yuei Vu seemed to be operating a certain card shop, and all these people were his customers.

Until Miss Yuehua lined up in front of Yusei. She didn't check the store like others, but asked, "Can I ask you something?"

Yusei stunned: "What's the matter?"

"It's about a person." Miss Yuehua was a little nervous, "Have you ever heard about... Yuei Vu?"

Yuei Vu raised his eyebrows on the side.

Not bad, there are people still remember my goodness here. I didn't let you carry my Duel Disks in vain.

If she asked about Yuei Vu, of course, Yusei couldn't say that he didn't know. After all, the deity was floating next to him like a ghost.

But after all, Yusei was cautious, but he did not answer directly. Instead, he first took the eyes to Yuei Vu and asked his consent.

After seeing Yuei Vu nodded, Yusei said: "Um... If you are talking about the first -generation Duel King who is called 'the strongest in history', I know."

The player in the back suddenly stagnant.

Did you hear it? The strongest in history!

Even Brother Crab says so!

Yuei Vu-san is awesome!

Even Yuei Vu couldn't help hearing.

Brother Crab, isn't this very good?

If you can talk like that, you should say more.

Ms. Yuehua was also excited for a while: "So, can I ask where the Yuei Vu is now?"

When she asked this question, everyone in the back immediately raised her ears.

After all, this is also one of the most concerning issues in the forum: Where did Yuei Vu-san go?

Today, basically all players have reached a consensus. Everyone believed that Yuei Vu was the only protagonist of World Link Online. Unlike the animated protagonist, Yuei Vu should be the protagonist who ran through the generation of generations.

After so many years, in the 5DS era, Yuei Vu-san should only play a more important role.

After getting permission from Yuei Vu, Yusei did not conceal the truth, "Senior Yuei Vu... he is actually here ..."

"?"

The players immediately made a noise, and they looked around while looking around.

Right here?

Where? Why can't we see him?

"Senior Yuei Vu has met an unexpected situation." Yusei explained, "He is now in a special state, and cannot be seen by someone else other than me.

But he is actually here ... "

Speaking of this, the experienced audience has understood: "Do you mean the spirit partner?"

"Spirit partner?" Yusei never heard the word, "What does that mean?"

"That means he is like a ghost, wherever you go, he may follow. When playing cards, he may directly give you the instruction, or even play instead of you!"

Yusei thought for a while, and felt that this description was quite like their current state, so he nodded: "Well, that should be the case."

To confirm the credibility of Yusei's remarks, Yuei Vu also summoned his Dark Magician Girl by the way.

The Dark Magician Girl, wearing a loose mage robe as always, exposed the white and tender slender arms and the flawless thighs. She danced with a small staff and waved enthusiastically to these screwballs: "Hi everyone! I haven't seen you for a long time!"

The players in the audience immediately exploded.

Cannot be wrong!

This white! This size! It was definitely the Dark Magician Girl of Yuei Vu-san!

WTF!

Except WTF, we can't think of anything to say!

Yuei Vu-san became the spirit partner of Yusei!

It's almost the big news of the century!

Among the main characters of Yu-Gi-Oh, Yusei Fudo was the most mature, calm, and stable in the event of an incident, and he could be said to be a perfect template.

As we all know, as the most reliable one among the protagonists, his only lack was that he didn't have a spirit partner.

Now, not only he had the spirit partner, but also such a heavyweight spirit partner!

The first generation Duel King! The incarnation of Holactie the Creator God of Light!

Who else can have a spirit partner with such a quality?

The fast-responding screwball rushed up immediately and said emotionally at the empty beside Yusei.

"Yuei Vu-san! Remember me? I'm Snow Wave!"

"I'm Yuei Cannot Escape Fae! Everyone calls me Fae, remember me?" Brother Fae pushed his glasses as if it was his true body.

"Me, me ..."

Seeing that a group of people greeted the air enthusiastically, Yusei helplessly looked at Yuei Vu who floated in the opposite direction: "Senior Yuei Vu ..."

"Don't mind them." Yuei Vu shrugged.

Even when they could see him, Yuei Vu chose to ignore them directly. At this moment, they couldn't even see him, he didn't even have to bother.

Seeing that it seemed to be too early, Yuei Vu said: "Okay, it's almost time to act."

"You mean ... Century Environmental Protection Company?"

"Arcadia Movement." Yuei Vu glanced at the tool person who came to the door in front of him, "Bring them with us."

Yusei was a little hesitant: "But that may be very dangerous ..."

He thought that although these weird people were very enthusiastic, he and they were not very familiar with each other, thus he wasn't shameless enough to ask them to participate in such a dangerous action.

"It doesn't matter, they like dangerous actions the most." Yuei Vu smiled, "Rest assured, you just say that they will join us in my words."

Chapter 1184: Utopia

Arcadia Movement, Headquarters.

As speculated by Yuei Vu, this so-called "Century Technology and Environmental Protection Company" was actually a shell company, which was essentially the headquarters of the Arcadia Movement.

It was a high-rise building located in the city center, and the whole was a rectangular structure. Looking from the outside, it was like a large iron block. All windows were covered by layers of glass, making it almost impossible for people outside to see what is inside.

The only entrance of the bottom of the building was installed with a gate that required ID verification. Only those holding the company's internal ID card could freely enter and exit through swiping cards.

From the outside, it seemed to be a loose place to be detained, but in fact, even if this hall was described as "being guarded by an army", it was not exaggerated. Everyone in the hall was actually Psychic Duelists.

As long as they took out the Duel Disk, all of them could instantly summon a physical monster to form an army, and no one could stop it in this city.

However, although most people didn't know that this was actually the headquarters of the Arcadia Movement, it was not a big secret within the upper levels.

In fact, many people knew what this building was doing, and what kind of dangerous beings were gathered here. For example, the director of the Public Security Bureau, Rex Godwin, knew this very clear, but both sides usually did not touch each other's business.

Therefore, there was usually no one who intended to provoke this organization.

Of course, there was an exception to everything.

Boom!!!

All the Psychic Duelists in the entire hall were taken aback.

With a heavy impact sound, the glass door of the hall was fragmented sharply. The metal gate was rooted up, with a crackling electric spark, dragging a long bunch of green wires, and flew out of the long distance under the powerful inertia.

It was a bus.

A bus was full of throttle and rushed directly into the hall.

The Psychic Duelists in the hall were shocked.

There are still such unsightly guys who dare to run to us?!

Everyone immediately alert and entered the combat state as soon as possible. With the "click" sound, numerous Duel Disks were opened, and the powerful and invisible spiritual field permeated in the hall, as if an invisible mountain.

So many Psychic Duelists released mental power, and the pressure made the air in the entire hall heavily like lead. Ordinary people may feel difficult to breathe just when they enter this field.

"Terrorist attack?" Someone said.

"Oh, no matter who it is, they dare to attack our territory." A duelist was full of confidence. "It seems that it is necessary to let them know it... they don't know what they are facing!"

But what they didn't know was that this sentence was actually applicable to them.

They didn't know what they were facing.

The bus door was also violently opened from the inside.

A large number of weird guys jumped out one after another. Their outfit was bizarre, and there were various animal hoods on their heads.

And even though this was a bit weird, from the behavior of these people, those wearing animal hoods ...

... seemed to even be leaders?

What is the situation of this strange team?!

Such a large group of people jumped out of the car, opened the Duel Disk one by one, and the face was hanging ... as if it was a smile that was hungry and thirsty.

It feels like being held in the temple for abstinence for a whole year, and immediately when it was released, he encountered several charming little man's LSP.

That look even saw those duelists who were extremely confident.

"Oh, isn't that nonsense? Everyone is with a Duel Disk, say less nonsense!"

The screwballs have opened the decisive bucket.

"If you are a man, let's duel!"

"..."

At the same time, upstairs of the building.

The owner of the entire building and the behind-the-scenes BOSS of Arcadia Movement, Divine, who was wearing a large military green coat, was walking quickly in a narrow corridor.

Of course, as the boss, he quickly heard the turmoil under the building.

"What happened?" Divine asked.

The secretary next to him hugged the tablet and checked the hall condition, saying, "There is a group of madmen hit our lobby with a bus ... I don't know what they want to do.

Do you want to go and see? "

"Huh, don't have to. Although I don't know who they are, they actually dare to break into our site, so let them see the horror of Psychic Duel.

They even regret their birth in this world. "

The guy arrogantly believed in the so-called "Psychic Duel", and he didn't think anyone here could break in.

He didn't take the invaders serious at all. He thought that even if he wanted to know their origin and purpose, he could just wait for his men to put them down and come to the interrogation.

There were many ways to make people speak. If necessary, he could even turning people into living puppets.

"Just go and see it for me." Divine sent away the secretary , "I still have more important things to deal with."

"Yes, sir."

The secretary received the command and turned away.

Divine came to a door in front of the corridor and entered the password to open the door.

In the room, there was a rose-haired girl, with snow-like skin, perfect face, big breasts, and black silk long legs.

She was the perfect form of men's dreams.

However, such a girl has been titled "Black Rose Witch" for many years. She was feared and isolated. Only in this building that was filled with her own kin that she could find the feeling of home.

"How do you feel today, Aki?" Divine said with a smile.

"I'm fine." Aki Izayoi nodded. "Although I failed to reach the best state, I can definitely achieve a better value ..."

"Haha, don't force yourself, Aki." Divine laughed, "After all, you are our final trump card."

... ..

At this moment, another floor of the building, elsewhere.

There was an abnormal noise in the ventilation pipes on the wall.

A powerful force kicked the metal fences closed with the ventilation pipe from the outside, and the fence fell to the ground.

Yusei climbed out of the ventilation and fell on the solid floor in the room.

"Do we have to come in from this kind of place? Senior Yuei Vu?" He said helplessly.

Chapter 1185: Unexpected Discovery

"Do we have to come in from such a place, Senior Yuei Vu?" Yusei said helplessly.

It wasn't that he intentionally complained, it was really a ventilation ...

... Just say that, the air-vent passageway that usually appeared in spy movies and superhero movies, the kind that was bright and large and had walls as smooth and clean as a mirror, did not exist.

To slip into this route, first of all, you must have a lot of physical strength to consume, and secondly, you have to be not afraid of dirty.

Fortunately, Yusei possessed both qualities.

"Believe in me, this is definitely necessary." Yuei Vu explained. "The duelists in the Arcadia Movement are not ordinary people. They all have extraordinary mental power, and they are particularly sensitive to the power of the duel monster spirits.

Whether we fly in directly or use magic to hide our whereabouts, as long as we use the power of the monster spirits, we may be detected. "

That's why he deliberately made this trick "closing the door and releasing screwballs", and directly let a large group of sand sculpts arrogantly hit directly from the main entrance to attract firepower. In this way, most of the people in this building would focus on the screwballs, and no one would notice their small actions here.

"Psychic Duel... Is there such ability?"

Yusei thought about it, and at the same time gently pushed the door of the room, and checked the outside and inspected that no one would go out later.

"That's right." Yuei Vu said, with a meaningful smile, "And the best among them is also the strongest combat power of this organization ... she may be particularly tricky for you."

"She?" Yusei stunned.

In his imagination, a being who could easily summon a powerful monster, call the storm and thunder, and raze buildings to the ground, should be a muscular rough man who looked fierce, and even had tattoos all over his body.

But now from the words of Yuei Vu, the strongest Psychic Duelist...

... seemed to be a girl?

"Yeah, it's a pretty good girl. And she has a fateful bond with you." Yuei Vu smiled and pointed at Yusei's arm.

Originally, the story about Signers should have been told to Yusei by an old man in the prison.

However, since Yusei lost his ticket to prison because of Yuei Vu's interference, Yuei Vu naturally had the duty to complete this part of the setting.

"Yes, I remember it." Yusei nodded and looked at the red mark on his arm.

He had no such mark before. It was in the middle of the duel with Jack last night, when they summoned their ace monsters, "Stardust Dragon" and "Red Dragon Archfiend", on their respective fields, the collision of some energy caused a strange response. He felt a burning pain on his arm and found that there was an extra mark on the forearm.

"You say this is the mark of the person selected by the Crimson Dragon." Yusei said carefully, "We inherited the power of the Crimson Dragon, and everyone had a symbolic dragon birthmark.

You say we are destined to fight against the 'Dark Singer' team..."

"It's basically that." Yuei Vu nodded, "Do you remember how many Singers are there?"

"Five..."

Speaking of which, Yusei suddenly reacted and realized what.

"Mr. Yuei Vu, you mean, that girl ..."

"That's right." Yuei Vu nodded, "Like you, she was selected by the Crimson Dragon and possessed the Dragon Birthmark."

Yusei looked at the mark on his arm thoughtfully, thinking about it.

"Selected by fate... a companion connected by this common mark ..."

His expression was very serious, and his blue eyes were clear and dignified.

Yuei Vu knew that Brother Crabhead's "Bonder" attribute was triggered again.

No one could pay more attention to the "bonds" than Yusei. For his companions, he always gave his sincerity without reservation even if he just acknowledged them, and he could go to the fire without hesitation to save them.

Now he heard that the other party and himself were also selected by Crimson Dragon. There were so many people in this huge world, yet five people's fate happened to be connected by the common mark.

Even if he did not meet them, Yusei had secretly regarded the other four as companions in his heart.

"If I can see that girl at this trip..." he thought.

Don't misunderstand, Brother Crabhead has no dirty thoughts. After all, a proper Yu-Gi-Oh male lead had no concept such as romance.

If other men hooked up with a beautiful girl and said that they just wanted to make a friend, then you could be 90 % sure that he was lying.

But if Brother Crabhead hooked up with a beautiful girl and said that he just wanted to make a friend, it was clear that he really just wanted to make a friend.

They were not very clear about the structure of this building. The current situation was basically a blind box.

But their ideas were simple. Either they caught Divine himself, played cards directly, and asked him, or they found the server room of the Arcadia Movement.

In addition, they already knew what they were looking for was related to the Shadow Game. And Yuei Vu could also act as a walking dark energy detector. If there was any sign of dark power, he could smell it as soon as possible.

For example, now, he noticed some strangeness.

"The room over there."

He reminded Yusei when they walked through a room in the corridor.

Yusei paused and doubtfully looked at the wall on the corridor side.

"Is this one?"

"Well, go in." Yuei Vu nodded, "A little strange reaction, but not strong. I'm not sure if it is dark energy ... but in short, let's go in and see."

Yusei nodded.

Of course, this door was also locked, using an electronic lock. It was too troublesome to crack, so Yuei Vu still directly summoned the Dark Magician Girl and blasted a hole in this door.

The attention of the Arcadia Movement was mainly concentrated on the commotion on the ground floor of the building. No one should notice the movement here.

After coming in, they found that this room looked like a debris room. There were many rows of shelves with strange things on them.

Many of them seemed to be some antique, or made from old materials. Walking between these rows of shelves, it felt like walking into an ancient museum.

"Senior Yuei Vu, do these ...?" Yusei asked.

Yuei Vu shook his head: Don't ask me, I don't know anything.

Until they came to the end of the room.

Something that had the shape of a table leaned on the wall. A huge curtain covered it, hiding its original appearance.

But even if it was covered by the curtain, Yuei Vu was quickly convinced that what he felt was this thing.

"Unveil it, Yusei." Yuei Vu stared at this curtain intently, "There is something below."

Yusei nodded and dragged the huge curtain.

Yuei Vu's pupils shrank slightly, revealing a hint of surprise.

He had seen this thing.

More precisely, he had seen its replica.

This was a mural, a mural that was very old, whose creator was long unknown, but was extremely well made.

The content of the mural was ...

... The battle of Gods and Demons.

Chapter 1186: Beat Her!

The curtain was pulled open, and a mural appeared before their eyes.

Yuei Vu had seen this painting before. Although the lines of the mural were simple and rough due to the craftsmanship of the era of creation, it did not affect the magnificent content.

On one side of the sky, the body of the "Osiris the Sky Dragon" was twisting and turning. And on the land not far away, the blue giant "Oberisk's Giant God Soldier" stood tall. And the Winged Dragon of Ra was hanging above their heads like the shining sun, occupying the position of leader of the Egyptian Gods.

In the territory just opposite them, it was obvious that the paintings were "Uria, Lord of Searing Flames", "Hamon, Lord of Striking Thunder", and "Raviel, Lord of Phantasms".

Beyond the more distant continent, on the turbulent endless sea surface, three huge and majestic statues floated in the air. Odin, the father of the gods, holding a scepter, Thor, the god of thunder, holding a hammer, and Loki, the god of fraud, wearing a tall hat and a cold smile on his face.

The Norse gods who were called "Aesir".

Then there were the "Nazca Lines" composed of burning lines, and the evil gods "Earthbound Immortal" rising from the murals.

"Are these... legendary monsters?" Yusei asked.

"Not monsters." Yuei Vu said softly, "These are gods."

After a pause, he added: "Well, there may be demons, but you know what I mean."

Yusei's eyes slowly swept across the huge stone wall, and he felt as if he was involuntarily attracted by a magical force and immersed in it, as if there was magnetism in the stone wall.

Through these simple and rough lines, he actually felt as if he was deeply trapped in this mural, crossing endless years and seeing the battle between gods and demons as if on the other side of time and space.

The gods returned, the demons danced, the sky and the earth wailed, and the sea was surging.

Until a burning pain pulled him back from the illusion.

He looked down at his arm and saw that the mark of the Crimson Dragon lit up again, which was particularly eye-catching in the dark room.

"Dragon Birthmark... has it reacted to this mural?"

The stinging sensation intensified, and the intense pain seemed to be accompanied by countless needles while burning. At the same time, along with the burning pain, there was even a huge empty sense of sadness.

Yusei quickly realized that it was someone else's emotion...probably someone else who also had the Dragon Birthmark.

The hearts of those who had the Dragon Birthmark were connected, and sometimes even emotions could be empathized.

Yusei reacted quickly.

It was not the painting that made his Dragon Birthmark react, but someone.

"Senior Yuei Vu," Yusei said hurriedly, "We may have been discovered, someone is coming here..."

Boom!

Obviously, his reminder was a little late.

The door of the room and the entire wall were suddenly blasted open by a strong external force. The rumble and the dust looked like a dozen explosives attached to the outside of the wall were detonated.

The air wave knocked Yusei to the ground unexpectedly, and the broken bricks and stones were scattered all over the ground.

On the other side of the door, a noble and beautiful dragon appeared. It was a red dragon, with wings that seemed to be made of countless petals, and a long black neck, just like sticking out from a rose bush.

It was one of the five dragons that symbolize the Signers.

And its owner, the girl who controlled the Black Rose Dragon, has also appeared in front of them.

The strong force swept along the corridor, and the invisible impact of telekinesis shattered and collapsed the surrounding walls. The girl just stood in front of the two of them, with her slightly fleshy white legs wrapped in black silk, and her yellow-orange pupils full of vigilance, like a little rabbit whose territory was invaded and frightened.

Izayoi Aki, a Psychic duelist and one of the Signers.

"Who are you?"

Aki spoke coldly as if she was going to order the Black Rose Dragon to eat Yusei alive if he didn't agree with her.

"What is your purpose in coming here?"

Yuei Vu sighed lightly.

Well, it seemed that the covert operation had come to an end.

Speaking of which, Brother Crabhead's Dragon Birthmark was indeed very convenient in many cases. It could act as a humanoid GPS and could also be used to impress girls. When playing cards, it could assist in performing divine draw and could also activate cheats and print cards. It had countless functions in one, a must-have companion for duelists.

However, his artifact Dragon Birthmark, which had always been successful, has had the opposite effect today. He was supposed to sneak in secretly but was actually scanned out by Sister Aki's humanoid GPS of the same model...

Yuei Vu secretly glanced at Yusei, wanting to see if he had any reaction similar to "I have seen this sister before" when he saw Izayoi.

But it's a pity that Brother Crabhead also inherited the duel brain of the protagonist of Yu-Gi-Oh, which was relatively dull in this regard, and he seemed to have no feeling at all.

But he also noticed the mark on the back of the other party's hand, which was flashing the same eye-catching red light as his own.

"You too..."

Aki soon noticed the mark on his hand and frowned: "You actually have a taboo mark too."

Yusei frowned: "Why do you say it's a taboo mark?"

Aki didn't answer, but her pretty face was suddenly covered with a layer of frost. Seeing the mark, she seemed to have no intention of even asking about the origin of the invader. With a wave of her hand, she directly ordered the Black Rose Dragon to attack with a purple-black impact.

It was a blow from a top Psychic Duelist, and the wave of mental power was overwhelming. Yusei, who was locked by the mental power, was almost suffocated. In the face of the mighty attack of the Black Rose Dragon, he could only instinctively raise his arms to protect himself.

A black and white storm rolled up in the confined space!

It was a hero with a symmetrical body, wearing a black and white mask. He floated in the air in a carefree manner, raised his palm lightly, spread his five fingers, and an invisible energy barrier seemed to be stretched out in front of him.

Contrast HERO Chaos.

Black Rose Dragon's breath hit the barrier, but it couldn't shake it even a little bit. The Contrast HERO just swept his arm lightly, and the overwhelming force completely deviated from the trajectory. With a bang, the outer wall of the room was directly blown away. The rich purple-black impact blasted through the wall and was released into the endless night.

Looking at the Contrast HERO Chaos who was also materialized on the opposite side, Izayoi's face was covered with frost: "Sure enough, you are the same as me..."

Yusei wanted to say that it was a misunderstanding. This monster was not actually summoned by me... But imagine if he was Izayoi, he wouldn't believe it himself.

After all, from Izayoi's perspective, there were only two of them in the room. He said that this monster was summoned by an invisible ghost. Who would believe it?

"It seems that she is not going to let us leave easily." Yuei Vu shrugged, "Yusei, beat her!"

Yusei hadn't reacted yet: "Huh?"

"I mean playing cards." Yuei Vu rolled his eyes.

Where else do you want to beat her?

Chapter 1187: Psychic Power

No matter what era it was, as long as it was still in the context of Yu-Gi-Oh, playing cards would always be the best solution to all problems.

Sure enough, Izayoi Aki accepted the challenge – after all, no one could resist the temptation of playing cards.

"Duel!" x2

[Yusei, LP 4000]

[Aki, LP 4000]

Sister Aki took the initiative without hesitation: "I go first, draw!"

She added the drawn card directly to her hand and took out two cards in one breath.

"I set a card on the field." She said, "Then activate the Spell Card 'Card Destruction'. Both players discard as many cards as possible from their hands, then each player draws the same number of cards they discarded."

Yuei Vu: She actually starts with Card Destruction...

Yusei silently sent five cards to the graveyard and drew five new cards.

"Summon 'Phoenixian Seed'."

A small flower seed appeared on Izayoi's field, and there was a strange single eye in the middle of the seed.

"The effect of Phoenixian Seed," Aki continued, "Send this face-up card on the field to the graveyard, and I can special summon a 'Phoenixian Cluster Amaryllis' from my hand."

The flower seed on the field grew rapidly, and grew into a blooming flower at a speed visible to the naked eye, with a large piece of soil attached to its roots.

[Phoenixian Cluster Amaryllis, ATK 2200]

Phoenixian Cluster Amaryllis, a high-quality advanced monster of the Plant Type, was still a banned card in the real card environment.

"Then set another card on the field, and my turn is over," Aki said.

Yusei stared at the red mark on Izayoi's hand until the girl seemed to feel a little uncomfortable and subconsciously hid her glowing arm from the opponent's sight.

"You said it's the taboo mark," Yusei asked, "Do you really think so?"

"Of course." Aki said firmly, "This kind of thing can only bring destruction and pain. This is a mark that should not exist."

"It's not like that." Yusei shook his head, "A very great predecessor told me that this is the proof of the chosen one. We who hold the Mark of the Dragon are connected by some kind of unseen bond.

We should be able to understand each other and help each other."

At this time, a certain "very great predecessor" mentioned by Yusei nodded slightly behind him.

"Mutual understanding? I don't need to understand." Aki said coldly, "Haven't you heard? I am the Black Rose Witch. I am destined to hurt others and bring pain.

And I enjoy this process, I take pleasure in it.

Do you dare to say that you understand me like this?"

Yusei was silent for a moment and didn't answer again.

"My turn."

He drew a card, glanced at it, and then played the card he drew directly: "Spell Card 'Solar Recharge'. Discard 1 'Lightsworn' monster; draw 2 cards.

I discard 'Ryko, Lightsworn Hunter' from my hand and draw two cards."

Then he flipped out two more cards from the deck.

"After that, send two cards from the top of the deck to the graveyard."

From the two new cards, Brother Crabhead saw his soul card "Junk Synchron" that he must have every time he counterattacked. His mind moved slightly, and he quickly finalized the tactics in his mind.

Very good, use Junk Synchron here immediately and launch a strong attack with Synchro Summon!

Junk Warrior: I don't know why, but I have a feeling that my boss is going to tell me to work overtime...

In the early stage of the original animation, because there were no available resources in the graveyard in the first turn, Yusei could only Normal Summon a monster, set traps for defense, and then use Synchro Summon to counterattack after accumulating a certain amount of resources.

But now with the Lightsworn system that Yusei gave him, he could now pile up a lot of graveyard resources at the beginning, and the deck could start working immediately.

As if seeing through Yusei's intention to continue to make the Junk Warrior work overtime, Yu Yu interrupted him: "Wait, Yusei."

Yusei paused: "Senior Yusei?"

"The attack power of 'Phoenixian Cluster Amaryllis' is only 2200. It is indeed easy to defeat it with Junk Warrior." Yusei said, "But this monster is not that simple."

"You mean... a monster with special abilities?"

"That's right. Phoenixian Cluster Amaryllis is a monster that will continue to revive no matter how many times it is defeated. It is meaningless to defeat it by battle."

"A monster with regenerative ability... I understand."

Yusei nodded and immediately adjusted his tactics based on the information.

"Summon 'Junk Synchron'!"

[Junk Synchron, ATK 1300]

Obviously, even if Junk Warrior may be able to escape the fate of working overtime, Junk Synchron was not so lucky.

"Effect of Junk Synchron! When this card is Normal Summoned: I can target 1 Level 2 or lower monster in my GY; Special Summon that target in Defense Position, but negate its effects." Yusei said, "Special Summon the Level 2 'Ryko, Lightsworn Hunter' in the Graveyard!"

[Ryko, Lightsworn Hunter, DEF 200]

"At this moment, the effect of 'Doppelwarrior' in my hand is activated!" Yusei continued, "When a monster in my Graveyard is Special Summoned, this card can be Special Summoned from my hand.

Come on, Doppelwarrior!"

[Doppelwarrior, ATK 800]

"Level 3 Tuner 'Junk Synchron', Level 2 'Ryko, Lightsworn Hunter', Level 2 'Doppelwarrior', tuning!"

[3+2+2=7]

Gathering roars turn into an echoing arrow which tears through the sky! Become the path that lights the way!"

Yusei raised his arm and raised his voice.

"Synchro Summon! Show yourself—— ——Junk Archer!"

The one who appeared was a high-tech metal warrior, holding a huge composite bow, with a cyclops eyepiece on his helmet that seemed to be used for sniping, and his body covered with orange-red armor. The alloy arrow on the bowstring flashed cold light.

"Junk Archer's effect activated!" Yusei shouted, "Once per turn, I can banish a monster on the opponent's field until the end of the turn!

I banish 'Phoenixian Cluster Amaryllis!'"

Aki raised her eyebrows slightly.

He didn't attack me, but directly removed the "Phoenixian Cluster Amaryllis" from the game?!

Did this man predict my arrangement?

The Junk Archer drew his bow and arrow, and a light blue glow lingered on the alloy arrow. The bowstring vibrated, and the sharp arrow broke through the air, flying into the air with the power to penetrate the dimension.

"It's not that easy." Izayoi Akira said coldly, "Then at this moment, activate the trap card 'Destruct Potion'!

: Select 1 monster I control, destroy it, and I gain Life Points equal to its ATK!"

Yusei: "You are willing to destroy your own monster?"

The trap was activated, and the huge flower was blown into pieces with a loud bang. The waste archer's fierce arrow hit nothing, pierced through the space barrier, and disappeared.

[Izayoi Aki, LP 4000 → LP 6200]

"And at this moment, the effect of Phoenixian Cluster Amaryllis is also triggered." Izayoi said, "When this card is destroyed and sent to the graveyard, it will cause 800 damage to the opponent.

And at the end of my turn, it can be resurrected from the graveyard in Defense Position."

Aki raised her small hand wrapped in fingerless gloves.

"Go, Phoenixian Cluster Amaryllis!"

The vortex in the graveyard opened up, and the red thorns stabbed out like whips, hitting Yusei's thigh fiercely. .

[Yusei, LP 4000 → LP 3200]

Yusei's knees slightly bent under the powerful impact, and he could not help but grit his teeth to cover the part that was hit.

"Is this... psychic power?"

Chapter 1188: Black Rose

"Is this... psychic power?"

Yusei, who had personally experienced the power of the Shadow Game, was mentally prepared for this kind of supernatural card game, and Izayoi's psychic power did not catch him off guard.

If he must say his opinion, this power was actually not as damaging as the Shadow Game.

After all, no matter how strong the mental power was, psychic power was just physical damage. Aki could make the monsters she summoned materialize and cause damage, while the Shadow Game was more focused on the spirit levels in addition to the physical body.

In comparison, pure physical damage was not that unbearable.

Aki took the initiative to destroy the Phoenixian Cluster Amaryllis to avoid the effect of the Junk Archer, but this made her defenseless, and she had to face the next shot of the Archer directly.

Yusei was naturally not polite: "Junk Archer, attack directly!"

Junk Archer drew his bow and arrow, this time directly locking onto the girl with a cold poker face on the opposite side, the arrow flashing with a cold light.

Aki calmly pressed a button on her Duel Disk.

"Open the set card: Continuous Trap – Cursed Ivy!" She said, "Select and Special Summon 1 'Ivy' monster from my Graveyard in face-up Defense Position and equip it with this card." (Animation card)

A card popped out from her graveyard area and was pinched out by two slender white fingers exposed from her gloves.

"I special summoned 'Wall of Ivy!'"

A new monster came to her field, and its appearance was a tangled ivy clinging to a white stone wall. The top of the stone wall was covered with lush green vegetation.

[Wall of Ivy, DEF 1200]

"Then the Junk Archer continues to attack." Yusei said, "Attack the Wall of Ivy!"

The arrows continued to shoot, like blue meteors piercing the stone wall clinging to the ivy, which broke and exploded on the spot.

"Then at this moment, the effect of Wall of Ivy is activated." Izayoi Aki said, "When the Wall of Ivy becomes the target of attack, Special Summon an 'Ivy Token' in Defense Position on the opponent's field." (Animation effect)

The small vegetation popped out onto Yusei's field and occupied an empty monster space.

"When an Ivy Token is destroyed, its controller must take 300 points of damage." Izayoi Aki said coldly, "Also, when the equipped monster of the Continuous Trap 'Cursed Ivy' is destroyed, this card must also be destroyed."

With a crisp sound, the trap card in her backfield also exploded into countless golden fragments.

"At this moment, the second effect of 'Cursed Ivy' is also activated. When this card is sent to the graveyard, Special Summon two 'Ivy Tokens' in Defense Position on the opponent's field."

Two more Tokens popped out and occupied Brother Crabhead's two fields.

In this way, three Tokens were stuffed into Yusei's monster zone at once.

"And, it's the same as the Tokens summoned by the effect of 'Wall of Ivy'." Izayoi continued, "With each 'Ivy Token' is destroyed, you will receive 300 damage."

Yusei frowned: "On the basis of strengthening defense, use the Tokens to continuously reduce LP?"

This was indeed the tactical routine that Izayoi liked to use in the early stage. Although the effect damage was only 300 points at a time, in an environment of 4000 LP, it could really kill people.

"Set two cards, I end my turn," Yusei said.

"Then it's my turn again."

Izayoi added the drawn card to her hand, and then quickly played another card.

"Spell Card 'Card of Adversity'! If I control no monsters and the opponent controls a Special Summoned monster: Draw 2 cards."

"Then I summon 'Witch of the Black Rose' in attack position!"

Although it was called a witch, the one who appeared was a little loli with purple hair, small arms and legs, wearing a black lolita dress, and looked quite cute.

"Witch of the Black Rose... a card with the same nickname as Izayoi." Yusei is a little concerned.

Generally speaking, this kind of monster was probably the soul card.

"If this card is Normal Summoned, and I control no other cards, its effect is activated." Izayoi Aki said, "Draw 1 card and show it."

If the card drawn is not a monster, then that card must be sent to the graveyard and Witch of the Black Rose will be destroyed."

This effect sounded like it had a high risk, but you could see that her name was "Witch of the Black Rose". Just by looking at the name, you should know that she is Izayoi's soul card, and it was impossible to misdraw it.

In fact, in the original work, every time Izayoi Aki activated this effect, there was never a drawn card that was not a monster. Its accuracy was comparable to that of Aster using the effect of Diamond Dude to draw Spell Cards.

Sure enough, Izayoi drew accurately and it happened to be a monster card when it was revealed.

"The card I drew is 'Rose Fairy'." She said, "If Rose Fairy is added from my Deck to my hand by a card effect: I can Special Summon this card."

Come out, Rose Fairy!"

[Rose Fairy, ATK 800]

"The effect of Witch of the Black Rose not only draws a monster card, but also a monster that can be special summoned by triggering the effect." Yuei Vu muttered on the side.

With such a great skill in divine drawing, Izayoi, do you still say you are not the heroine?

"She is indeed a true duelist." Brother Crabhead expressed his approval with a serious face.

It is well known that "being able to draw the card you want = a true duelist".

"Level 4, Tuner monster 'Witch of the Black Rose'! Level 3, 'Rose Fairy'! Tuning!"

The Witch of the Black Rose waved her wand, and the trajectory of the wand waving turned into starlight. The shining stars lined up in a straight line, summoning the Rose Dragon, the witch's symbol!

[4+3=7]

"Chilling flames engulf the entire world. Pitch-dark flower, set into bloom! Synchro Summon!"

Izayoi Aki raised her hands.

"Appear——

——Black Rose Dragon!!!"

The rose-like dragon's entire body seemed to be wrapped in countless petals. It was noble and beautiful, but it also brought a destructive storm. The turbulent airflow was like countless thorns covered with spikes, lashing and smashing everything it touched.

[Black Rose Dragon, ATK 2400]

The moment the dragon appeared, Yusei felt the pain intensified.

It was like countless sharp needles pricking the nerves, and the burning sensation was like a branding iron being pressed on the arm. The light of the mark flickered.

That was Izayoi's trump card, her Signer Dragon.

But it was not just that.

At the same time, this dragon was still a symbol of destruction and death in the eyes of the world today. Wherever it appeared, there were ruins and broken walls.

It was the symbol of the witch.

Chapter 1189: Dangerous Situation

"Black Rose Dragon." Yusei stroked the red mark on the back of his hand and said softly, "I seem to be able to feel the sorrow and pain of Izayoi from this dragon."

"Really?" Yusei joked, "The good news is that you may soon feel the same way. Because if you are not careful, you may be crushed to pieces by it."

"Black Rose Dragon's effect is activated!" Izayoi shouted, "When this card is Special Summoned, I can destroy all cards on the field!"

Black Rose Gale!" (anime effect)

The Black Rose Dragon spread its wings, and a terrifying storm rolled up in the confined space. The walls collapsed, the fluorescent lights on the ceiling broke, and sparks jumped out of the broken wires, and cracks were blown out of the floor of the room.

"Hey, hey, if this goes on, the house might be demolished before you finish playing your cards." Yuei Vu complained.

The power of the Black Rose Dragon was activated, and the Junk Archer was the first to be blown into pieces. Countless steel fragments flew out in all directions like scattered raindrops.

Then the whirlwind affected the Ivy Tokens on Yusei's side of the field, and the three tokens were shattered one after another.

Even the Black Rose Dragon itself was no exception. Its effect was "destroy all cards on the field", not "destroy all other cards on the field", so of course it counted itself.

"At this moment, the effect of the Ivy Tokens." Izayoi said, "Each destroyed one will inflict 300 damage.

Because three were destroyed in total, it's 900 points!"

The fragments of the Tokens rolled up countless debris, and rushed towards Yusei along with the whirlwind, like a spear breaking through the air.

"Open the set card: Trap Card – Nature's Reflection!" Yusei raised his hand, "During this turn, any effect activated by the opponent that would inflict damage becomes an effect that inflicts damage to their Life Points!"

The whirlwind was blocked, and a ray shot out from the trap card and hit Izayoi Akira's chest head-on.

[Aki, LP 6200 → LP 5300]

"Tsk." Izayoi Aki sighed and continued, "Then I activate the Equip Spell 'Premature Burial'. Pay 800 LP, Special Summon a monster in my graveyard in attack position, and equip this card to that monster.

Revive, Black Rose Dragon!"

[Aki, LP 5300 → LP 4500]

Rose-red petals fluttered, and the huge dragon seemed to stick its body out from the flowers, and the storm rolled up again!

[Black Rose Dragon, ATK 2400]

Izayoi Aki's voice was cold: "Battle! Black Rose Dragon, attack directly! Black Rose Flare!"

Black Rose Dragon opened its mouth again, and the purple-black vortex accumulated again! Accompanied by the howling wind, the surging energy bombarded out, as if the undercurrent that swallowed everything would completely submerge Yusei.

Yusei felt that his whole body was under great pressure, and his limbs were whipped by countless thorns. He was knocked back two steps and could hardly stand on his heels.

[Yusei, LP 3200 → LP 800]

Yusei half-crouched on the ground, breathing heavily.

Izayoi looked at his miserable appearance with wounds all over his body, and his mouth slightly pulled, revealing a sickly smile.

"See? This is the evidence." She said, "This is the cursed power, I am a cursed witch! Anyone who approaches me is doomed to be destroyed!

After experiencing this power and this pain personally, can you still say that this is not a taboo mark?"

She raised her arm and showed the flashing red mark on her arm.

Looking at the girl's actions, Yuei Vu couldn't help but smack his lips.

Tsk tsk, girl, your actions now are very dangerous.

Do you know the old saying, "It's fun to abuse your husband, but it's a funeral to chase your husband"?

Don't tell me, this was really true for Sister Aki. When they first met, Sister Aki relied on psychic power to play BDSM with Brother Crabhead and use tentacles in the duel, and beat him all over.

As a result, after Sister Aki fell head-over-hell with Brother Crabhead, she used all her skills to seduce him, and ran to Yusei's house every few days to ask him for "tutoring". It's a pity that Brother Crabhead was thinking about playing cards with his friends and competing in the world competition, so he had almost no reaction to Sister Aki's performance.

"It's so dangerous. If I hadn't used 'Nature's Reflection' just now to rebound the effect damage, I would have lost now," Yusei took a deep breath.

As expected of someone who is chosen by Mark of the Dragon like me, she really has something that others don't have.

"Set a card, I end my turn," Izayoi said, "At the end of the turn, the 'Phoenixian Cluster Amaryllis' in the Graveyard is Special Summoned in Defense Position due to its own effect!" (Animation effect)

[Phoenixian Cluster Amaryllis, DEF 0]

"It looks a bit troublesome." Yuei Vu raised his eyebrows.

"Yeah." Yusei nodded, "Phoenixian Cluster Amaryllis will deal 800 damage to the opponent when it is destroyed. And my LP value is only 800."

"So as long as that thing is destroyed, it seems that we lose."

Although he said so, Yuei Vu's tone was relaxed and there was no nervousness at all.

"You are nothing special."

Izayoi looked at the mark on Yusei's hand that glowed like his own, shook his head and said, "You and that taboo mark will become the next thing destroyed by my power."

"But you are not really happy about it, right?" Yusei suddenly said.

Aki was stunned for a moment: "What did you say?"

"This mark, what you call the 'taboo mark'," Yusei pointed to his dragon mark that was also glowing, "but because of this mark, I can feel your emotions.

There is only anger, loneliness, and great sadness. You said you enjoy hurting others, but I don't feel any happy emotions."

Aki: "..."

"Aki, you actually hate your own power, and hope to be recognized and get partners, right?" Yusei began to use his Talk no Jutsu, "You don't actually want to hurt anyone."

"Shut up, I don't need companions." Aki said loudly, "This is my home, I only need this place, and that is enough!"

Yuei Vu: Little girl, you are in danger. Using such a tsundere tone to say such tsundere lines, you may fall in love with him if you are not careful...

"Besides, what else can you do with your life value as low as a candle in the wind?" Aki continued, "With only 800 life points, you lose as long as you try to destroy the 'Phoenixian Cluster Amaryllis'.

You have no future!"

Yuei Vu: "..."

It's over, little girl. Do you know that your situation is even more dangerous now?

Chapter 1190: One Punch To Win

"This turn, the set card destroyed by your 'Black Rose Dragon' is the Trap Card 'Cross Counter Trap!'" Yusei said, "According to this effect, I can activate up to 1 Trap Card from my hand.

Therefore, I activate the Trap Card 'Shock Draw' from my hand during the End Phase! Draw one card for every 1000 points of damage I took this turn!" (Comic Card)

Yusei drew two cards in one breath: "Because I received 2400 points of damage this turn, I drew two cards!"

"Useless struggle." Sister Aki frowned and said, "No matter what you do, this will be your last turn, and you will soon be destroyed and become another sacrifice of the witch!"

"I don't think so." Yusei shook his head firmly, "You are not that kind of person. Izayoi Aki, you are called a witch and accused of being a murderer, but isn't that true?

You won't kill me, just like you haven't killed anyone else. I believe that's just people's prejudice against you."

Yuei Vu who was eating popcorn on the side: The conquering progress of this gal game is 70%.

Aki's pupils shrank slightly, and she opened her mouth, but couldn't say anything.

"My turn!" Yusei shouted, "Activate the Spell Card 'Pot of Avarice' from the hand! Shuffle five monster cards in my graveyard back to the deck, and then draw two cards.

I return the 'Junk Synchron', 'Junk Archer', 'Doppelwarrior', 'Ryko, Lightsworn Hunter', and 'Raiden, Hand of the Lightsworn' in the graveyard to the deck. "

Pulling out the card that popped out of the graveyard, Yusei briefly showed it, returned to the deck and shuffled it, and then drew a card from the deck.

"Then I activate the Spell Card 'Tuning'. Add 1 'Synchron' Tuner from my Deck to my hand, then send the top card of my Deck to the graveyard. "

Yusei drew a card that popped out of the deck.

"I add the 'Junk Synchron' that I shuffled back into the deck to my hand."

The soul card came back into his hand, and he played it without thinking: "I Normal Summon 'Junk Synchron!'"

[Junk Synchron, ATK 1300]

"Junk Synchron's effect!" Yusei said, "When this card is Normal Summoned: I can target 1 Level 2 or lower monster in my GY; Special Summon that target in Defense Position, but negate its effects.

I Special Summon 'Junk Converter!'"

[Junk Converter, DEF 200]

"At this moment, the effect of 'Doppelwarrior' in my hand is activated! When a monster in my Graveyard is Special Summoned, this card can be Special Summoned from my hand!"

[Doppelwarrior, ATK 800]

"Level 3 Tuner 'Junk Synchron', Level 2 'Junk Converter', Level 2 'Doppelwarrior', tuning!"

【3+2+2=7】

Gathering roars turn into an echoing arrow which tears through the sky! Become the path that lights the way!

Synchro Summon! Show yourself, Junk Archer!"

The string of starlight seemed to break through the underworld, and the iron warrior holding a bow and arrow spun out of the dark vortex again!

【Junk Archer, ATK 2300】

Aki frowned slightly: "Do you want to use this thing to circumvent the effect of Phoenixian Cluster Amaryllis again?"

After all, as long as that flower was present, Yusei could not launch an attack. The premise of any attack must be to clear away this troublesome flower first.

The effect of Junk Archer was an excellent option.

"The effect of Junk Converter!" Yusei said, "If this card is sent to the GY as Synchro Material: I can target 1 Tuner in my GY; Special Summon it in Defense Position.

Come back, Junk Synchron!"

Junk Synchron who has been working overtime countless times: I'm used to it, I'm used to it,...

[Junk Synchron, DEF 500]

"And the effect of 'Doppelwarrior'!" Yusei said, "If this card is sent to the GY as Synchro Material, I can Special Summon two 'Doppel Tokens' on the field!"

[Doppel Token, ATK 400] x2

"Then activate the effect of 'Junk Archer'!" Yusei said, "Once per turn, banish a monster on the opponent's field until the end of the turn.

I banish the 'Phoenixian Cluster Amaryllis' on your field!"

Junk Archer drew his bow, and the arrow that broke through the dimension flew out again!

"It's not that easy." Aki shouted, "Open the set card: Trap Card – Shift! When my monster becomes the target of the opponent's attack or effect, I can change the target into another appropriate target on my field.

I changed the effect target of 'Junk Archer' to 'Black Rose Dragon'!"

The arrow of the dimension flew into the air, but there was a space fluctuation on the field of Izayoi, and the Black Rose Dragon and the Phoenixian Cluster Amaryllis actually exchanged positions.

The Black Rose Dragon was hit by the arrow instead, and roared and turned into a phantom and dissipated from the field.

In this way, Aki still had the troublesome flower left on the field.

"In this way, if you attack, you will still be hit by the backlash effect of Phoenixian Cluster Amaryllis and suffer 800 points of damage." Izayoi Aki said, "Your LP value is only 800, and it will be your defeat."

At this point, she smiled sadly.

"See? This is me, the cursed Black Rose Witch. Anyone who tries to get close to me will be hurt.

How can I get a companion like this? How can anyone be willing to accept me?"

"I am willing." Brother Crabhead said firmly.

Aki frowned: "What did you say?"

"I said I am willing to accept you and treat you as a companion." Yusei said, showing the red mark on the back of his hand again, "We are all connected by this mark, carrying the same fate and having a common path.

Through this mark, we can share each other's happiness, feel the same sadness, support each other, and understand each other. If we can't even be companions like this, what else can we be?"

Yuei Vu, who was feeling that he became more and more like a third wheel: You two can also be a couple and get married on the spot.

But he seemed not satisfied with being a third wheel in silence, and coughed to remind Yusei: "Although I don't want to disturb your interest, Yusei, you should remember that we are in the enemy's headquarters.

The time for duel is almost over."

"I know, Senior Yuei Vu." Yusei nodded.

"Hmph, it's just nice words," Aki was obviously a little shaken, but she still pretended to be strong, "But even if you say it so nicely, you still don't dare to attack."

Yuei Vu glanced at a card in Yusei's hand: "Although Phoenixian Cluster Amaryllis will cause rebound damage once it is knocked down, that is after the battle damage is settled.

So if you use this card..."

"I understand." Yusei nodded, and then waved his arm, "Activate the Spell Card 'Falling Current'! Target 1 face-up monster I control and declare a Level between 1 and 3; it becomes that Level!

The monster I chose is 'Junk Archer'! Change 'Junk Archer' to Level 2!"

[Junk Archer, LV 7 → LV 2]

Izayoi was puzzled: "Lower the level of Junk Archer?"

"Level 3 Tuner 'Junk Synchron', two Level 1 'Doppel Tokens', tuning!"

[3+1+1=5]

Yusei raised his arms high.

"Gathering stars call forth a new power! Become the path that lights the way! Synchro Summon—
—Level 5, Junk Warrior!"

Dark armor, red eyepiece, scarf dancing with high-speed movement, the warrior's back sprayed with tail flames, splitting the most standard fork in mid-air!

Although he was late today, Yusei's trump card, the model of an overworked worker, Junk Warrior, finally appeared!

[Junk Warrior, ATK 2300]

"When Junk Warrior is Synchro Summoned, its attack power will increase by the total attack power of all Level 2 and below monsters on the field!"

Izayoi Aki understood: "I see, that's why you deliberately lowered Junk Archer's level."

"Yes, Junk Archer is now Level 2," Yusei said, "So, Junk Archer's attack power is added to Junk Warrior's attack power!"

[Junk Warrior, ATK 2300 → ATK 4600]

"Four thousand six hundred attack power?" Izayoi Aki said coldly, "But no matter how high your attack power is, it's meaningless. As long as Phoenixian Cluster Amaryllis is still there, you still can't attack.

Yes, no one dares to approach me, and those who try to approach me will only be destroyed"

"Battle!" Yusei shouted, "Junk Warrior, attack 'Phoenixian Cluster Amaryllis'!"

"What!?"

Izayoi widened her beautiful orange-yellow eyes.

Isn't this man afraid of the effect of Phoenixian Cluster Amaryllis?

If he loses the duel, he might die!

But why...

At this time, Izayoi noticed a new card that quietly appeared next to Yusei.

Quick-Play Spell "Scrap Fist".

A Spell Card with the same name as the attack move of the Junk Warrior, and the card also showed the Junk Warrior's extremely gorgeous fatal punch.

"What is that card?"

Yusei said, "When Junk Warrior battles an opponent's monster this turn, it can inflict piercing battle damage to the opponent.

And, the battle damage caused by Junk Warrior in this turn is doubled!"

Izayoi Akira: "!"

[Phoenixian Cluster Amaryllis, DEF 0]

[Junk Warrior, ATK 4600]

If the piercing battle damage was doubled battle damage, wouldn't it be... 9200 points of damage!?

"Moreover, the opponent cannot activate cards or effects until the end of the Damage Step."

Izayoi's pupils shrank.

Even the effect cannot be activated?

Penetrate defense, double the damage, plus a comprehensive blockade of Spell, Traps, and monster effects...

A truly fatal punch.

This was also the full strength of the Junk Warrior, the trump card of Yusei, and the ultimate move that determined the outcome.

Izayoi stared blankly at the Junk Warrior taking off and sprinting under the spray of golden tail flames, and the heavy fist wrapped in golden light swept towards her with overwhelming force...

[Izayoi Aki, LP 4500 → LP 0]
