

I Play Yu-Gi 161

Chapter 161: The Winged Dragon of Ra

My turn! Yuei Vu glanced at the cards in his hand, and after a little thought, he quickly unfolded them.

First, send the Dark Magician from the deck to the graveyard, and activate the effect of the Magicians Souls in the hand!

Yuei Vu picked out a Dark Magician from the deck and threw it to the graveyard. At the same time, the image of the monster card Magicians Souls appeared on the field.

Magicians Souls effect can be activated by sending a level 6 or higher Spellcaster monster from the deck to the Graveyard, Yuei Vu said, Then I can send this card to the GY to Special Summon 1 Dark Magician or 1 Dark Magician Girl from your GY!

Resurrect from the graveyard, Dark Magician!

The magic circle appeared on the ground, and a blood-red magic storm was released outward. The green staff flew out first, and the slender magician flew out of the vortex as if following the guidance of the staff.

[Dark Magician, ATK 2500]

Dark Magician was summoned in the first turn! A God of Gambler-style face art came from Jonouchi below the stage, Very good! Keep this momentum and kill Marik in one go!

But Yuei Vus operation was not over yet: Activate Spell Card Foolish Burial! Send a monster from the deck to the graveyard. The one I want to send to the graveyard is Elemental HERO Necroshade!

Picking out a monster from the deck again and sending it to the Graveyard, Yuei Vu immediately drew another card from his hand: Once, when Necroshade exists in the Graveyard, I can Normal Summon 1 Level 5 or higher Elemental HERO monster without Tributing.

So at this moment, I activate the effect of Necroshade and Normal Summon Elemental HERO Bladedge from my hand!

Behind Yuei Vu, the phantom of the hero with a red body appeared, and it was the undead dark man who had just been sent to the tomb.

A golden vortex rolled up on the ground, and the light and shadow effect built the body of a metal hero in front of him. The whole golden iron hero came to the station with a clear drink, and the whole body reflected the luster of metal.

[Elemental HERO Bladedge, ATK 2600]

Even an untrained duelist like Honda was stunned: In the first turn, summon two monsters with 2500 and 2600 ATK respectively!?! This is too strong, right?

The player duo: Yuei Vu is awesome! (broken voice)

Even Dark Magician Girl who acts as a guardian beside Yuei Vu opened her eyes wide: Master so good its amazing!

Battle! Yuei Vu specified the target, First, I use Elemental HERO, Bladedge to attack Vampiric Leech!

The engine on the back of the Bladedge started, spurting golden flames, and his figure turned into an afterimage and rushed to Mariks field. He raised the knife in his hand, the sharp blade dragged the golden light and cut through the body of the blood-sucking maggot. The disgusting bug screamed and burst open.

The effect of Elemental HERO Bladedge! Yuei Vu shouted, If this card attacks a Defense Position monster, inflict piercing battle damage!

Marik, LP 4000 2600

Mariks whole body was shaken back by the impact of the metal: Uh ah ah ah ah~ah~

Sure enough, being a masochist has an advantage in playing Shadow Games. Mariks screaming in the middle suddenly turned into a comfortable moan, and he added a kimoji, which sounded so lewd.

But of course, the punishment of the Shadow Game was the same for both parties, Mariks side also disappeared from the right calf up.

Continue to fight! Yuei Vus battle phase is not over yet, Dark Magician, attack Marik directly!

Very good! Yugi watching this time couldnt help but say, If this attack passes, Mariks LP will be reduced to 100, and he can be defeated with just one more hit!

So was it really that simple?

Obviously not.

No matter how bad his dueling skills were, Marik was a BOSS, of course, he wouldnt go down so easily. He waved his hand: Open the set card, Quick-Play Spell Dark Wall of Wind! This turn, the player does not receive direct attacks from the opponents monsters! (anime card)

The pitch-black energy rose from the ground, one after another, protecting Marik in the middle like a sword formation. The magic power released by the Dark Magician slammed into the formation, and only slightly shook the defense.

Yuei Vu ended the attack: Then I end my turn.

Sure enough, you have a little bit of skill. Then I have to be a little more serious.

The six-year-old couldnt help licking his Millennium Rod again.

My turn, draw! Marik glanced at the cards he had drawn, and immediately began to laugh, It seems that your luck is really not very good~ The end of this battle is still coming. It was faster than expected.

Yuei Vu held his breath.

Are you coming? The Winged Dragon of Ra?

Then the card Marik just drew 80% chance it was Monster Reborn!

Im going to activate the Spell Card from my hand first Beckon to the Dark!

Yuei Vu was no stranger to this card. He also has a copy of it, from the novice gift bag of Pandora. It was also used in the duel between Pandora and Yugi in the original work.

As a boss, it was not surprising that Marik would have the card of his subordinate. The style of this card was indeed quite nether, which was more in line with his character

Beckon to the Dark can directly bury a monster on the field into the depths of darkness. Marik smiled, his eyes turning badly from the hero and the magician on Yuei Vus field.

Then Im going to choose its you! Marik laughed, Dark Magician, go directly to the graveyard to sleep!

Although Bladedge had higher attack power, he was just a simple beatstick. Marik knew that Dark Magician had more support cards in comparison, therefore although he was a Normal monster, he might be more threatening.

Between the dark clouds stretched out a dark and withered hand, grabbing the body of the magician. The latter groaned and was violently dragged into the black cloud without a trace.

The venue is now paved, Marik said with a gloomy face, Let me show you the God.

Its coming.

Marik took a card from his hand: Activate a Spell Card from the hand Tribute Burial!

Yuei Vus eyelids jumped.

Not Monster Reborn!?

What appeared in front of Marik was another nether Spell Card If you havent seen this card, you only needed to look at the cemetery featured on its artwork, and you probably knew how nether it was.

Tribute Burial is a card that can be used as a substitute for advance summon by removing monsters from both graveyards. (animation effect)

Yuei Vu was taken aback.

Using monsters from both graveyards as sacrifices, and its still considered a normal summon

Could it be that the card Marik threw into the graveyard the last turn wasnt The Winged Dragon of Ra?

Hahaha, this turn will show you the honor of the Supreme God! Marik waved, I will remove Elemental HERO Necroshade and Dark Magician in your graveyard. Byser Shock in my graveyard from the game!

Illuminate the earth with divine radiance, and burn all things with your endless flames!

The Winged Dragon of Ra!

Chapter 162: God Is Undefeatable

Black clouds rolled and thunder roared. The golden light was like a thousand swords piercing the black cloud, like an invisible hand tearing the cloud to pieces.

The golden sphere slowly descended from behind the clouds. It was a sphere made of metal, and the whole body was shining golden, dazzling like the sun, making it impossible to look directly at it.

Then Marik crossed his arms and began to mutter an ancient chant (cheat code).

The sphere slowly landed in the half behind Marik and gradually began to deform. First, the huge wings, then the head buried in the middle, and then the iron-gold body.

The Winged Dragon of Ra, descended!

The golden divine bird roared downwards, setting off a fiery frenzy, and even everyone in the audience could not help but instinctively tremble just by looking at the divine bird!

Hahaha! Ras effect When this card is Tribute Summoned, The ATK and DEF of this card become the sum of the respective ATK and DEF values of the Tributes! Marik waved and laughed.

Yuei Vu narrowed his eyes.

The monsters used as Tributes were Dark Magician, Necroshade, and Byser Shock. Their attack power was 2500, 1600, and 800 respectively, so the attack power of The Winged Dragon of Ra was

[The Winged Dragon of Ra, ATK 4900]

The Winged Dragon with an attack power of 4900!? Jonouchi was shocked.

Even the poker-faced president Kaiba couldn't help but be moved: The Winged Dragon of Ra with 4900 attack power! It was even higher than Obelisk, the god of destruction.

God is undefeatable! Marik shouted, Go, The Winged Dragon of Ra! Burn me the Bladedge! God Blaze Cannon!

The golden giant bird opened its mouth and spit out a golden beam like the sun itself!

The scorching torrent instantly shattered the Bladedge, and the golden hero was powerless in front of god's might. After the terrifying impact shattered the monster, the castration continued unabated, and the aftermath exploded at the place where Yuei Vu was.

The golden beam of light rushed into the air, and the majestic impact knocked Yuei Vu to the ground involuntarily. The scorching flames pierced through his body, causing his blood vessels to boil as if they would burn every cell in his body to ashes.

Yuei Vu, LP 3500LP 1200

The pain made Yuei Vu almost feel paralyzed as if half of his body was scorched. He saw that most of his body seemed to disappear mainly his legs and chest and abdomen.

Now he seemed to have lost a large chunk of his body. Although it had no effect on his actions, if he stood up, he may still look a little supernatural.

Dark Magician Girl was frightened: MaMaster

Its okay. Yuei Vu shook his body, took a deep breath, and stood up reluctantly.

The flames of the god were no joke, this pain surpassed any Shadow Game that Yuei Vu has been exposed to so far.

And this was still under the circumstance that Elemental HERO Bladedge acted as a barrier to lessen the damage, and the power of the spirit partner protected him. If he directly took this attack, to be honest, Yuei Vu didnt know if he would still be able to stand here.

So it seemed that Jonouchi was a true macho man.

Hahahaha, very good, its interesting to see that you are able to continue to stand. Marik laughed, If you fell down so easily, I would be very boring!

He waved his hand: Set a card, and then I end my turn!

You have taken God as your opponent, now struggle with all your might, and die in vain in the end, hahaha!

My turn. Yuei Vu ignored him.

It was really unexpected for Yuei Vu to see The Winged Dragon of Ra come out in the third turn, and it was still summoned with one sacrifice.

Because Mariks decks in the anime all revolved around using Monster Reborn to bring Ra back from GY, so his sudden Tribute Summon made Yuei Vu a little hard to guard against.

The resistance of the animated Egyptian God was still very powerful, and now the attack power of the winged dragon was nearly 5000, it was still very difficult to solve it.

The only good news was that the normal summoned Winged Dragon did not have the quick attack ability. That was to say, Marik could neither pay LP to destroy all monsters on the Yuei Vus field, nor convert his LP into the attack power of The Winged Dragon of Ra.

Yuei Vu had 1200 LP left, and the situation on the field is also quite unfavorable. Yuei Vu chose not to go through the program and go straight to the Duel Skill.

Draw of fate, activate!

Activate Pot of Greed! Yuei Vu put the pot directly here, Draw two more cards from the deck.

Marik clasped his arms confidently: Hmph, it doesnt matter what you draw.

Yuei Vu still ignored it: I summon Card Blocker in defense position.

[Card Blocker, DEF 400]

Set three cards, I end my turn!

Although I dont know what youre thinking, its useless! Marik said, My turn, draw!

He glanced at the cards in his hand and hummed: Then I will also use the Pot of Greed to draw two cards from the deck.

He drew two more cards, and then laughed: It seems that even if I want to play with you for a while, your role will end here!

Activate the Equip Spell Card Big Bang Shot from my hand! The equipped monsters ATK increases by 400, and if the ATK exceeds the DEF when it attacks a defense monster, it will inflict piercing damage!

Not good! Yugi's face in the audience became solemn, If The Winged Dragon of Ra will receive the Spell Card effect in just one turn. Marik wants to give The Winged Dragon of Ra the piercing ability

A monster with an attack power of 5000 and be able to penetrate the defense!? Jonouchi's face also suddenly changed color.

It's not a monster, it's a god! Marik on the stage corrected arrogantly, When Big Bang Shot leaves the field, the equipped monster will be removed from the game Hehe, of course, God won't be affected by this kind of thing.

He raised his hand and pointed at The Winged Dragon of Ra: I equip Big Bang Shot to The Winged Dragon of Ra!

[The Winged Dragon of Ra, ATK 4900 ATK 5300]

This is the end of it! Marik shouted, The Winged Dragon of Ra, attack Card Blocker! God Blaze Cannon!

The Winged Dragon opened its mouth again, and a churning golden flame was brewing in its mouth!

The piercing damage was something Yugi didn't expect. He thought Marik would summon another monster to defeat the Card Blocker first, and then use The Winged Dragon to give him the final blow.

but it didn't matter!

Yugi waved his hand: The effect of Card Blocker is activated! When this card becomes the target of an attack, send up to three cards from the top of the deck to the Graveyard. For each card sent, this card's DEF will increase by 500 until the End Phase.

I send two cards to the graveyard to increase the defense power of Card Blocker by 1000!

[Card Blocker, DEF 400 DEF 1400]

Ha! What's the point of having 1000 more defense points? Marik laughed, The Winged Dragon, continue to blast him for me!

The Winged Dragon continued to charge, and the God Blaze Cannon blasted out like the breath of the sun, the momentum seemed to tear the darkness and annihilate everything

At this moment, my Trap Card is activated! Yugi continued to wave his hand.

Marik hurriedly interrupted: All traps are ineffective against God!

I know, but the target of this Trap Card is not the God, but the battle damage!

Yugi thought silently at this moment

Ryo-san, lend me your power!

Activate the Trap Card! Yugi waved, Power Wall!

That's right, it's Power Wall! The most favorite trap of Yu-Gi-Oh! GX's important character Kaiser Ryo!

It can only be activated when would take battle damage from an opponents attacking monster. The battle damage will be reduced to 0, but for every 500 points of damage, I will have to send a card from the top of the deck to the graveyard!

What!?! Marik was shocked, Do you actually use such a self-destructive method to resist the attack of God?

The piercing damage I received is 3900 points. Yuei Vu accurately drew eight cards from the top of the deck, So I sent eight cards to the graveyard!

The cards flying out of the deck formed a shield, and the divine power turned into a transparent shield to block Yuei Vu. The flames of divine power slammed on the shield and spread violently in front of Yuei Vu, but all the power was divided and resisted by the eight cards.

Marik chuckled softly: Yes, yes, thats right. Keep struggling, resist with all your might, and then fall into the abyss of despair!

Yuei Vu smiled: Its you who will fall into the abyss of despair

What!?! Marik was shocked.

Its really slow, I thought you should have noticed it sooner. Yuei Vu said lightly, The moment I used the Power Wall to throw eight cards in the graveyard, in my graveyard there are already sixteen cards.

Marik frowned: What about sixteen

Marik was stunned to remember a fact he had ignored.

He remembered that in the quarterfinals, Yuei Vu defeated his sister Ishizu to advance, and took a rare card from Ishizu.

At that time, he didnt care about the card that Yuei Vu took away at all, because he thought the Winged Dragon was invincible and there was no way to vanquish it.

But now he thought about it, the possibility that he ignored might directly lead to his defeat

At this moment, the activation condition of this trap has already been fulfilled! Yuei Vu pointed to the set card in front of him, Marik! This is the power of your sister No, it should be said to be the real Mariks sister, who will sacrifice everything to defeat your evil consciousness!

Open the set card! Trap Card Exchange of the Spirit!

Chapter 163: Exchange of the Spirit

Activate Trap Card Exchange of the Spirit! Yuei Vu swung his arm down, This card can only be activated when there are more than 15 cards in my graveyard!

I pay 1000 LP, then the decks of both players in the duel, and the cards in the graveyard all exchanged!

Yami Mariks expression was the same as eating sh*t: W What!?!?

Jonouchi was shocked: Does he still have such a trick in his sleeves?

Beautiful! Yugi couldn't help but say, There are only four cards in Marik's graveyard! If they are all exchanged

Soon Marik's deck will have no cards to draw! Jonouchi was excited and couldn't help but clap his hands, Beautiful!

Ishizu also showed a relieved face: Yuei Vu

Hmph, you did a good job. Kaiba folded his arms and hummed, But don't forget that The Winged Dragon of Ra is still on the field. If you can't survive the next four turns, it's still meaningless.

However, the words in President Kaiba's heart were not finished.

Even if I say so but you must have a complete countermeasure, right, Yuei Vu?

Don't let me down!

Yuei Vu, LP 1200 LP 200

After paying another 1000LP, most of Yuei Vu's body disappeared except for his head and hands. Although it felt a little strange, at this time, he didn't care about it. He knew that his body would recover after winning this Shadow Game.

Okay Marik, Yuei Vu raised his hand, Just throw all the cards in your deck to the graveyard for me!

Damn it's not over yet! Marik was still struggling, I still have this card Activate Spell Card Graceful Charity!

Yuei Vu: !

He actually takes out a Graceful Charity at such a juncture?

Marik had a Graceful Charity in his hand, but he hasn't used it. That may be because he had full confidence that the piercing damage after equipping The Winged Dragon of Ra with Big Bang Shot could directly kill Yuei Vu. There was no need to draw more cards.

It seemed that Marik was saved by the president's rule that Spell Cards can be activated at any stage of his turn. At this time, Marik may not have realized that if he hadn't urgently taken out Graceful Charity and thrown two more cards into the graveyard, he would have gone far Marik drew three cards from his deck, then discarded two from his hand to the graveyard.

It's followed by the resolve of Exchange of the Spirit. All cards from both players GY were ejected, and at the same time, both players pulled all cards from their decks and sent them to the graveyard.

In Marik's graveyard, there were originally four cards: Dark Wall of Wind, Vampiric Leech, Tribute Burial, and Beckon to the Dark. Then he threw two more cards with Graceful Charity, so now his graveyard had a total of six cards.

In other words, after swapping the deck and the graveyard, Marik's deck now had only six cards left in total.

If it wasn't for him suddenly taking out such a Graceful Charity, Yuei Vu would have basically won. The last four cards left in Marik's deck were all cards that he has used, and the resources of the entire deck have really been squeezed out.

Then unless Marik changed the cards on the spot and reprinted the four cards, Yuei Vu had already won.

However, now that there were two more unknown cards, Yuei Vu speculated that Marik should take this opportunity to throw down a very important card. Then under the effect of Exchange of the Spirit, the two cards that were just thrown would be shuffled back into his deck.

Those two cards might have some key effects hidden in them.

I end my turn! Marik waved his hand, At this moment, The Winged Dragon of Ras attack power is restored.

[The Winged Dragon of Ra, ATK 5300 ATK 4900]

Then he resumed his smirk.

Hey, its really hard to come up with this tactic for you.

But I summoned The Winged Dragon in my second turn, which is beyond your expectation, right? Hehehehe

This leaves me with six cards, in other words, six turns. That is more than enough to end your life!

Is that really the case? Yuei Vu asked back.

What? Mariks face changed slightly.

Could it be this guy Is there a way to conquer God at this stage?

My turn, draw! Yuei Vu played out a Spell Card, Ill set two cards first, and then activate Card of Sanctity!!!

What!? Marik was shocked.

Thats right! Yugi under the stage also responded quickly, Card of Sanctity is a Spell Card that forces both players to until they have 6 cards in their hand! Originally, let the opponent draw cards can be considered side effects, but now

So thats the case! He turns this side effect to his advantage. Forcing Marik to draw the remaining cards, so that he would have no cards to draw? Jonouchi now looked at Yuei Vu with admiration, This tactic so terrible!

Yuei Vu quickly filled his hand with six cards, then pointed to Marik: Alright Marik! You have two cards in your hand, so you must draw four cards!

Uh

The six-year-old gritted his teeth and pulled out four cards with a sigh.

In this way, Mariks deck only had the last two remaining cards.

I see. Kaiba explained lightly with his arms crossed, If Marik hadnt used Graceful Charity at the last minute and discarded two more cards to the graveyard

Jonouchi suddenly said: Now he has drawn the last four cards, and he has no more cards to draw!

That's right. Yugi nodded, Then at this moment, as long as Yuei Vu announces the end of the turn, Marik, who has no cards in the deck, has already lost due to the deck out rule. Exchange of the Spirit plus Card of Sanctity a terrifying combo.

Is it scary?

Yuei Vu didn't think so at all.

In fact, with all banned cards available, if he could build the Sudden Death deck, there was no chance for Marik to play cards at all

One of the reasons why Yuei Vu didn't set up a pure-Sudden Death deck was because he had a lot of deck-thinning cards in his hand, but it hasn't reached the point where those cards could fill an entire deck, so it's hard to guarantee the success rate of OTK.

The second and more important reason was that he only had one copy of Exchange of the Spirit.

Because there was no way to search for this Trap Card, it could only be drawn to the hand by accelerating the card draw, so it was difficult to guarantee the success rate if there was only one card.

If he built a pure-Sudden Death deck, but this trap sank to the bottom and could not be touched, or it was negated by the opponent for various reasons, then he could directly surrender.

So in fact, from Yuei Vu's point of view, it was not safe to build a pure-Sudden Death deck under the premise that he only had one Exchange of the Spirit.

At this time, after listening to the explanation of the two big shots, Jonouchi couldn't help stamping his feet: Damn, Marik is really a bad luck guy! If it wasn't for the Graceful Charity, he would be a dead man now.

So dangerous, so dangerous. Marik also understood, and thus he smiled, I was almost killed by you, but it seems that the goddess of fate is still on my side, hehe. Now I have two cards in my deck, which means I still have two turns left.

Two turns are all The Winged Dragon of Ra needs to defeat you

That's not necessarily true. Yuei Vu smiled again.

Marik frowned: What?

Yuei Vu raised his head and pointed to the golden bird in the sky: In this turn, I will let The Winged Dragon of Ra leave the field!

Chapter 164: Battle of Gods

You said to let The Winged Dragon of Ra leave the field this turn? Marik looked disbelieving.

If you don't believe it, then you should look at it now. Yuei Vu pointed to his feet, Activate Trap Card Magician Navigation! Special Summon 1 Dark Magician from my hand, then Special Summon 1 Level 7 or lower DARK Spellcaster monster from my Deck.

Bring it on! Dark Magician, Magicians Robe!

The trap flipped, and the pitch-black magic circle opened. The magician in the red robe held a staff and flew out as if being pulled by the green staff. Next was the robe of the magicians phantom.

The first Dark Magician has been banished because of the effect of Tribute Burial, but fortunately, Pandora has generously gifted the second one to Yuei Vu, so now he still had one Dark Magician to use.

[Dark Magician, ATK 2500]

[Magicians Robe, ATK 700]

Huh, summon a Dark Magician in this situation? Marik hummed, But so what? In front of The Winged Dragon, that monster is nothing

Its not over yet! Yuei Vu continued to operate, Activate Spell Card, O Oversoul! Special Summon 1 Elemental HERO Normal Monster in my GY!

Come on, Elemental HERO Sparkman!

[Elemental HERO Sparkman, ATK 1600]

Although it hasnt appeared for a long time, this one has once been Yuei Vus ace monster for a while. The electric hero held his breath and held his head high as if trying not to embarrass his master.

Ha, even if theres a new trash monster wait, Marik frowned, Dont you want to

It was at this moment that Yuei Vu suddenly felt a brand-new power surge in the card box hanging on his waist that he had never experienced before. As if something was shouting at him from the depths of his heart, a boundless divine power surged up.

In a trance, the duel field in front of him, together with the images of Marik and The Winged Dragon of Ra, disappeared from his eyes.

Yuei Vu saw the blurry image, the gleaming thunder, the rolling black clouds, and the red body churning from it. A huge mouth roared at him like a supreme king!

Yuei Vu instantly understood.

Thats Osiris!

It was Osiris the Sky Dragon who had always upheld the dignity of being an Egyptian god and arrogantly refused to follow him. Now it seemed to be hinting at him with his spirit be willing to lend him strength?

Yuei Vu seemed to suddenly understand something.

It may be that Yuei Vu has won the approval of the gods for his outstanding performance when facing the Millennium Rod and The Winged Dragon of Ra, or it may be that Osiris felt that his holder (although it did not admit it) was hammered by the big brother The Winged Dragon, that was hurting his pride.

In short, this arrogant dragon seemed to be willing to put his head down and lend his power to Yuei Vu.

So at this time, Yuei Vu looked at the weakened version of the Sky Dragon in his hand in surprise. The description of the card face effect was actually modified line by line with a burst of golden light effects!

Awesome! Is this the power of God? Even the card effect can be rewritten?

As expected of the Yu-Gi-Oh world, is this the traditional art of the protagonists of all generations in the legend?

[Osiris the Sky Dragon, Level 10, DIVINE, Divine-Beast. ATK ? /DEF ?

Effect: Requires 3 Tributes to Normal Summon (cannot be Normal Set). This cards Normal Summon cannot be negated. When Normal Summoned, cards and effects cannot be activated.

As long as this card is face-up on the field, this card cannot be targeted by effects of any monster whose original Level is equal to or lower than 10, is unaffected by Trap Card effects, and cannot be destroyed by card effects other than Divine-Beast monsters.

Gains 1000 ATK/DEF for each card in your hand.

If a monster(s) is Normal or Special Summoned to your opponents field in Attack Position: That monster(s) loses 2000 ATK, then if its ATK has been reduced to 0 as a result, destroy it.

During the End Phase, if this card was Special Summoned: Send it to the GY.]

Compared with the previous one, it actually gained an extra line of As long as this card is face-up on the field, this card cannot be targeted by effects of any monster whose original Level is equal to or lower than 10, is unaffected by Trap Card effects, and cannot be destroyed by card effects other than Divine-Beast monsters, meaning that it now had an extra layer of resistance.

Although there was still a gap between it and the complete form of Osiris, this was already quite powerful!

At least in the game environment of DM, not being affected by Trap Cards meant that all the traps that triggered by attack declaration were ineffective against this Osiris of Yuei Vu such traps were especially numerous in this environment.

The resistance cannot be destroyed by card effects may seem average in a few years, but in future environments, its still an important resistance that allowed monsters to stay longer in the field.

This upgrade directly transformed the Sky Dragon from a piece of waste paper to a monster worthy of its godly status!

Yuei Vu raised his head, looked at the divine bird in the sky, and said lightly to the card in his opponent: Then lend me a little of your power.

Marik: ?

I tribute the Dark Magician, the Magicians Robe, the Elemental HERO Sparkman

Mariks face changed suddenly: Three monsters as sacrifices? Do you really want!?

Wait! Yugi under the stage hurriedly said, If ordinary people use the god card, the consequences will be President Kaiba didnt say a word, but he also opened his eyes wide and looked at the duel stage without blinking.

As long as the player is a true duelist, he can definitely control the god! Supernatural power? Divine punishments? Go to hell!

Come down in the chaos of thunder, the god who penetrates the underworld and reality Yuei Vu took the card in his hand, God of the underworld! Osiris the Sky Dragon!

The thunder fell, and the red beam of light fell from the sky as if torn the entire Shadow Game space in half!

A pair of huge red wings appeared between the dark clouds, followed by a tumbling red body. The sacred and majestic dragon appeared among the thunderclouds, stuck out its head from the other end behind the black cloud, looked at the winged dragon in front of him without fear, and let out a hissing roar!

God of the underworld, Osiris the Sky Dragon, descended!

This is the god of the underworld, Osiris the Sky Dragon. Kaiba looked up at the churning dragon and muttered.

Looking at the Sky Dragon falling in front of Yuei Vu with a beautiful.JPG appearance, Yugi couldn't help frowning, and secretly said in his heart: Isn't that only those who are related to the Millennium Items can control gods? Yuei does he, like Kaiba, have a hidden connection with the God card?

Although Ishizu saw this possibility through the power of the Millennium Necklace, she was still shocked when she saw it with her own eyes: He really can drive the god

Marik began to doubt his life: It can't be! This can't be! Why can an ordinary guy like you

Osiris the Sky Dragon roared at him. Not to be outdone, The Winged Dragon of Ra also shouted, as if to say: Don't be shy, no matter how gorgeous you appear on the stage, I'm still a big brother, you still have to be obedient.

Osiris raised his head and roared again but this time his momentum seemed to be weaker, and he felt a little cowardly.

To say why

[Osiris the Sky Dragon, ATK 3000]

The six-year-old quickly recovered from the shock of God's unexpected arrival, snorted twice, and waved his hand: Although I don't know what means you used to make Osiris listen to you, even in this situation, it doesn't change anything!

Osiris attack power is determined by the number of cards in the player's hand, and now you only have three cards in your hand. Such an attack power cannot defeat Ra

That's not necessarily true. Yuei Vu chuckled.

What? Marik felt that this conversation seemed familiar.

Do you think I will call Osiris without any preparations? Yuei Vu pointed to his feet, I still have two cards here.

Marik was stunned: That was set just before Card of Sanctity

That's right, let me tell you what these two are! Open the set card! Yuei Vu waved his hand, Spell Card Pot of Avarice! Target 5 monsters in my GY; shuffle all 5 into the Deck, then draw 2 cards!

A purple and ugly big pot appeared, and five monster cards popped out of Yuei Vus graveyard one after another. He added them to the deck, shuffled, and then drew two more cards.

At this moment, Osiris attack power has increased!

[Osiris the Sky Dragon, ATK 3000 ATK 5000]

Marik gritted his teeth: There is still such a card

Open the set card! Yuei Vu didnt finish, Spell Card Fifth Hope! Target 5 Elemental HERO cards in my Graveyard; shuffle them into the Deck, then draw 2 cards!

What!!? Marik roared involuntarily for the Nth time.

So it is! Yugi suddenly realized, Use Exchange of the Spirit to throw the entire deck into the graveyard, thus ensuring a large number of monster resources in the GY!

Pot of Avarice and Fifth Hope can not only recycle these resources back into the deck but also speed up card draws and convert them into Osiris attack power

Okay he looks amazing Even the little sister Shizuka, who didnt understand at all, began to look at Yuei Vu with twinkling eyes, Sure enough, this big brother is so powerful

Kujaku Mai beside Jounouchi couldnt help but sigh: This tactic did he calculate so far? What a terrifying duelist.

Players duo: Yuei Vu is awesome! (continue to break the sound)

[Osiris the Sky Dragon, ATK 5000 ATK 7000]

[The Winged Dragon of Ra, ATK 4900]

The six-year-old continued to doubt life: Impossible! Impossible!

Osiris, whose attack power was skyrocketing, walked up, his whole body seemed to be lifted out of thin air, and he roared at The Winged Dragon of Ra from above as if he was saying

What did you say before, bro? Its a bit windy here, I cant hear it

Battle! Yuei Vu swung his arm down and ordered loudly, Osiris the Sky Dragon, attack! Defeat The Winged Dragon!

Superconducting Wave Thunder Cannon! ! !

Chapter 165: Negate It For Me!

[Osiris the Sky Dragon, ATK 7000]

Osiris attack! Yuei Vu waved and shouted, Defeat The Winged Dragon! Superconducting Wave Thunder Cannon!!!

Even before the new master ordered, Osiris couldnt wait to open his mouth, brewing its concentrated essence of thunder, ready to slap his big brother at any time.

Perhaps the temptation to defeat The Winged Dragon in a duel was too great, making it a little overwhelmed

At this time, The Winged Dragon also roared at the top of his voice, and his blood-red eyes stared at Osiris aggressively, as if to express a meaning Sky Pit Dragon, you kid is plotting against me!

The Sky Dragon roared, and the golden light beam swirled and bombarded the air as if the golden lightning that cut through the sky hit The Winged Dragons body.

A huge impact penetrated the golden body. With the difference in attack power, even the supreme gods could not resist the rules of the game.

The Sky Dragons impact like a world-annihilating explosion tore apart the body of The Winged Dragon, and the latters body was ignited with flames, and it fell down with a mournful cry, like a falling sun.

Marik, LP 2600 LP 500

Uhhhhh!!!

The aftermath of the thunder cannon overturned Marik, making him roll twice on the ground. His face was covered in black smoke, but somehow he looked quite happy.

Of course, with the loss of LP, a large part of his body was swallowed up by the darkness and disappeared.

Set two cards, I end my turn. Two more set cards appeared at Yuei Vus feet.

[Osiris the Sky Dragon, ATK 7000 ATK 5000]

Marik gritted his teeth as he stood up in embarrassment: You want to set traps even at the cost of reducing Osiris attack power Do you think that only this kind of attack power is enough?

Thinking about it, it did make sense. Osiris had a powerful suppressing power that could deduct 2000 ATK from the monsters summoned by the opponent. On the surface, it had 5000 ATK, but in fact, the opponent must summon a monster with an ATK of 7000 or more to defeat it.

So it wasnt necessary to maintain such a high attack power.

Yeah, its great! Jonouchi was excited, Just keep suppressing that bastard like this!

Yugi also folded his arms and nodded: Very good. Now the situation has reversed in one breath, Mariks deck has only two cards left, and The Winged Dragon has also been defeated. On the contrary, Yuei Vu has Osiris on his field, that is absolutely advantageous!

Of course, even so, Yuei Vu was not at all careless.

This was a Shadow Game, no matter how sure you were, you must do your best to minimize the chance of the opponent turning over.

Sure enough, although the six-year-olds dueling skills were a little bit bad, his Rank was definitely not low. For example, at the moment when the Sudden Death launched, he quickly played a Graceful Charity, otherwise Marik has lost now

My turn draw!

Marik took a deep breath, stood up staggeringly, and continued to draw a card.

Yuei Vu has already pressed the button on the Duel Disk at this moment: Open the set card! Continuous Trap Call of the Haunted!

Revive the sleeping Dark Magician in my graveyard!

The trap opened, and a pitch-black vortex opened on the ground. The magician in the red robe jumped out, and returned to the field with a light somersault.

[Dark Magician, ATK 2500]

Marik didn't care, glanced at his hand cards, and smiled: Did you call the Dark Magician back? But even so, it doesn't matter.

Thanks to your Card of Sanctity last turn, I have all the cards I need here, hehehe

Yuei Vus face was expressionless and unmoved.

You'll regret not beating me last turn!

Obviously, in an extremely unfavorable situation, Marik started laughing again and drew another card from his hand exaggeratedly.

This turn, I'll let you see the reason why The Winged Dragon is the supreme god above the other two gods, and his terrifying OTK ability!

Activate Spell Card Monster Reborn!

Sure enough!

The reason why The Winged Dragon was called the corpse bird was because in the animation it had a powerful effect that could only be used by repeatedly jumping from the graveyard to the field!

Behind Marik, a huge ankh appeared, and then the whole symbol burned in golden flames.

Huge wings appeared in the sky, and the phantom of The Winged Dragon who had just entered the graveyard had the momentum to reappear

Marik crossed his arms and couldn't wait to start muttering a chant in a low voice.

After reciting a series of incantations, he raised his arms and laughed loudly: Behold my great beast! Rise from the ashes as an immortal phoenix!

The Winged Dragon of Ra! ! !

The hurricane of flames rolled up in the field, and the neigh of firebirds sounded in the sky. A storm of flames swept through, and huge images rose into the sky, and then there was no then.

After a series of gorgeous light effects, the image of the firebird disappeared, leaving only the six-year-old standing there with his arms raised and giggling, like a teenage boy with a secondary illness

Marik:

The Winged Dragon, do you want to do this? I have said a cheat code, but you didn't come out, which made it difficult for me!

How do you want me to explain it to the people below? Is Pahunder and Mahunder not at home today?

Why!?! Marik looked shocked: Why didnt The Winged Dragon appear?

Because at this moment, I activated the Trap Card from the graveyard. Yuei Vu said lightly, a black vortex beside his feet, and a Trap Card flew out of the graveyard in a whirl.

Magician Navigations second effect! Yuei Vu said, When there is a Dark Magician on my field, I can banish this card from your GY, then target 1 face-up Spell/Trap the opponent controls; negate its effects until the end of this turn.

Negate the effect of Monster Reborn for me!

Damn, there is actually such a trick. Marik snorted and smiled indifferently, I really have to praise you for being able to do this, but the resurrection of God cannot be stopped!

Activate Spell Card Magical Stone Excavation! Discard two cards and choose a Spell Card from my graveyard to add to my hand.

Marik continued to make face art: Guess which card I want to choose? Hahahaha! Of course, its Monster Reborn! Be prepared to be punished by God!

Yuei Vu was expressionless: I banish the Trap Card Magician Navigation, to activate its effect. Negate the effect of Magical Stone Excavation!

Another whirlpool opened, and the Trap Card flew out. It was the second Magician Navigation!

Mariks face changed suddenly: What what!!?

Chapter 166: Just Following Master's Order

There was actually a second negation!?

However, through the Exchange of the Spirit, Yuei Vu threw most of the deck in one go, so its not surprising that there was a second Magician Navigation in his GY.

ImpossibleImpossible! The six-year-old was really panicked this time, gritting his teeth, Does it mean that I will really lose to this guy? To this kind of guy?

Osiris the Sky Dragon roared at him as if to say

Isnt this nonsense? Be able to win or not, dont you already have the answer in your heart?

Honda, Shizuka, and other onlookers in the audience were already in awe of Yuei Vu at this time, and even professionals like Yugi and President Kaiba couldnt help but admire him.

This persons duel seems to be carefully designed, Yugi said. Use Exchange of the Spirit to make the opponent have no cards to draw and even prepare in case this tactic doesnt work. He thought it all out in advance.

Even the OTK combo Monster Reborn + The Winged Dragon of Ra was blocked from the beginning, and Marik had been completely suppressed by him. With the last card left in Mariks deck, I honestly dont think he has any chance of a comeback.

Jonouchi looked at Yuei Vu with a complicated expression: So he is so strong

Marik gritted his teeth.

Damn, what a joke! Am I really going to be ruined by this guy in the Shadow Game?

It was obvious that he wanted revenge, but he never imagined that he would be killed by a miscellaneous soldier without even having a chance to fight the Pharaoh. It shouldn't end up like this!

Wait a minute, there's one last trick.

He still had hope.

Marik gritted his teeth and set one of the remaining two cards in his hand: I set a card, and then activate the Spell Card Goblins Secret Remedy! Increase my Life Points by 600 points!

Marik, LP 500 LP 1100

Yuei Vu narrowed his eyes.

If he recovered 600 LP, Marik's LP would exceed 1000 again, and the conditions for the activation of the God Phoenix's effect would be met.

So sure enough, Marik still had another way to resurrect The Winged Dragon of Ra.

But looking at his reaction, it didn't seem like he was very sure.

My turn, draw! Yuei Vu pointed to the top of his head, At this moment, the attack power of Osiris has increased again!

[Osiris the Sky Dragon, ATK 5000 ATK 6000]

Osiris roared majestically toward the sky, and it seemed that as the master's hand increased, he felt that he could do better.

Battle! Osiris, attack directly! Yuei Vu ordered, Superconductive Wave Thunder Cannon!

The Sky Dragon slowly opened the mouth below, the golden light in the mouth shone, and the majestic impact was about to burst out countless bolts of lightning!

It's not over yet! I still have this This is my true reversal move, awakening the phantom god sleeping in the graveyard, and bringing this farce to a real end!

Marik raised his hand and shouted: Activate Quick-Play Spell Dark Spell Regeneration! (animation card)

Yuei Vu narrowed his eyes and found that it was another card he had never seen before.

Dark Spell Regeneration can only be activated when an opponent's monster declares an attack. I can select 1 Spell Card in your Graveyard and activate it! Marik said solemnly, You also have one in your graveyard, right? That card?

Yuei Vu didn't say a word.

It could be seen from Marik's panicked reaction that he was not sure whether there was that card in Yuei Vu's graveyard, but he had no other choice. So it was his last struggle.

After all, playing cards in the animation was different from that in reality, and players could not confirm each other's graveyard.

But he was lucky, as he made the right bet.

I'm going to use Monster Reborn from your graveyard!

In an instant, a golden light was released from the graveyard of Yuei Vus duel, and a beam of light soaring into the sky appeared on Mariks field.

It formed the ankh of Monster Reborn!

Hahahaha! So you do have Monster Reborn in your graveyard! Marik laughed, Success! I want to use the Monster Reborn from your graveyard!

The Winged Dragon of Ra that was sleeping in the graveyard, resurrect in the form of a phoenix, and burn everything in the world!

The beam of light soared into the sky, and the body of the undead flamingo was condensed in the swirling column of fire, and the winged dragon that was bathed in flames reigned again!

[The Winged Dragon of Ra, ATK 0]

Block me from Osiris attack! Marik ordered.

The Sky Dragon spit out the golden light of divine power, and the whirling impact dragged the thunder and lightning, and slammed the flame shield around the phoenix.

The Winged Dragon of Ras whole body rose in flames, and the invisible impact erupted, and the beams ejected by Osiris flew out in all directions. The flames around the phoenix still remained, as if the shock enough to penetrate the sky failed to affect it in the slightest.

Hahaha, this kind of attack is useless to the God Phoenix!

The sky was clear, the rain stopped, and the six-year-old felt that he could do it again.

During the turn that the God Phoenix was resurrected from the graveyard, it will not be destroyed by battle, and the damage it will cause to me is also 0!

Its not over yet! Yuei Vu interrupted his laughter, Because you specially summoned a monster on the field, Osiriss special ability has also been triggered! Summoning Thunder Bullet!

[The Winged Dragon of Ra, ATK 0]

This Sky Dragons Summoning Thunder Bullet was weaker than the animation effect. Its effect was to deduct 2000 ATK of monsters that the opponent summoned in Attack Position. If the ATK was lower than 2000, it would be destroyed directly. .

Compared to the animation effect, it didnt work on monsters summoned in Defense Position, but it was reasonable enough for now.

However

When the lightning bullets surrounded by thunder flew through the air, the phoenix just wrapped its own body with its wings, as if covering itself with a layer of flame armor.

The bullets slammed on the body of the Phoenix, but the effect was still only to make the flame sway for a moment, without causing any substantial damage.

Hahaha, do you think the effect of Osiris can work on Ra? Marik laughed, During this turn, the God Phoenix is invincible! It will not be destroyed by battle, nor will it be affected by any spell, trap or monster effect!

He smiled: Then now I'm going to read the third line of The Winged Dragons card, using the God Phoenix's final ability!

Marik crossed his arms, closed his eyes, and began to silently recite the ancient script.

God Phoenix's final ability is activated! Marik, who had finished the spell, felt comfortable and laughed, Pay 1000 LP to destroy the monsters on the field! Disappear for me, Sky Dragon!!!

As previously mentioned, in the anime, The Winged Dragon's third ability was to pay 1000LP to destroy all the monsters on the field, but only when Marik fought Yugi, the latter used Monster Reborn to resurrect the Sky Dragon. As a result, the third ability of The Winged Dragon destroyed only one Sky Dragon, and all the other monsters on Yugi's field were safe and sound.

Therefore, it could either be speculated that the field-clearing ability of the Winged Dragon would be less effective when there was a god on the opponent's field; or the Sky Dragon has a taunting effect other than the text description on the card, which could block the sword for teammates.

But no matter what, the result was that the Sky Dragon turned into ashes under the power of the God Phoenix.

But it didn't matter. If the Sky Dragon was solved here, now Yugi's LP was like a candle in the wind, and Marik would have a chance to come back in the final turn!

Be gone, Osiris! Marik shouted.

Marik, LP 1100 LP 100

The burning Winged Dragon roared at the same time as if to say Younger brother, you seemed particularly arrogant the last turn. Do you want to rebel?

Immediately afterward, a flame storm swept over, and the Sky Dragon was burned to ashes without giving it a chance to explain.

After the burning, the winged dragon let out a long breath and spurted flames from his mouth, as if conveying a meaning

Cool!

Hey, Osiris the Sky Dragon has been eliminated. Marik smiled, The next turn

There is no next turn. Yugi said lightly.

Marik's pupils shrank: What?

God Phoenix was absolutely invincible and would remain on his field until the end of the turn. All damage done by the Phoenix to the player was 0, and it was unaffected by card effects. Under such circumstances, could this guy still OTK him this turn?

It was actually mentioned before that at the end of the Noah arc, Yugi got several Spell Trap Cards of unknown rarity and unknown meaning and now was the time for one of them to come into play!

Let you see what is luck sacking!

Open the set card! Yugi waved, Trap Card Graverobber!

Ah! Jonouchi was shocked, The same card as me!

Graverobber allow me to use a Spell Card in the opponents graveyard! (anime effect) Yuei Vu smiled, Then Marik, since you used mine, lets communicate with respect.

Marik: Uh

The image of a short graverobber was projected, and a card had been stolen from Mariks graveyard when he turned over. The short man ran back to Yuei Vu and flipped the card. It was also the Monster Reborn that Marik failed to launch in the last round.

I will also use Monster Reborn here to bring God back to life! The card popped up in Yuei Vus graveyard, and he patted the card that had just been sent to the graveyard back on the Duel Disk.

Return from the underworld, God! Osiris the Sky Dragon!

The thunder fell, a giant red shadow appeared, and the majestic dragon again landed on the field behind Yuei Vu!

[Osiris the Sky Dragon, ATK 6000]

Its actually a Graverobber!? Marik snorted, but so what? I said before, The Winged Dragon of Ra in the God Phoenix mode is invincible! Even if you attack with Osiris again, its useless!

And after this turn, Osiris will also return to the graveyard

Well, I know. Yuei Vu said, Thats why I said there is no next turn! Activate a Spell Card from the hand Mystic Box!

[Osiris the Sky Dragon, ATK 6000 ATK 5000]

? Marik showed a puzzled expression.

Mystic Box is activated by targeting one monster each on the opponents field! Yuei Vu said, Destroy the opponents monster, and exchange the control of the selected monster for the opponent!

Hahaha, I said that the God Phoenix is invincible! Spell Cards effects cant affect it

I know! But the effect of the God Phoenix is unaffected by card effects, not negate the activation of card effects. Yuei Vu interrupted, So even if The Winged Dragon cannot be destroyed, Mystic Boxes effect will continue to resolve!

Marik suddenly woke up: Could it be!?

Thats right! Yuei Vu pointed to his side, I hand over the control of the Dark Magician on my field to you, Marik!

Marik: !!??

The Dark Magician jumped, and in a blink, he appeared on Mariks side, folded his arms, and snorted.

Just following Masters order.

Mariks inner words ah ah ah, dont come here! ! !

[Dark Magician, ATK 2500]

[Osiris the Sky Dragon, ATK 5000]

Marik, LP 100

This is the real final battle! Yuei Vu shouted loudly, Osiris the Sky Dragon, attack Dark Magician! Superconducting Wave Thunder Cannon! Blast Mariks dark personality to pieces! !!

The boundless golden shock was released, drowning Dark Magicians body and Marik like a tsunami.

Yami Marik gave his final face before being engulfed, his facial muscles were twisted in an unbelievable range, and he let out a long scream of Ahhhh.

The golden impact blasted through the dark space, flew outside the Shadow Game area, and submerged into the sky, causing rolling thunder in the sky, and it took a long while to restore calm.

Marik, LP0

Chapter 167: The World Is Big

Yuei Vu won.

Mariks LP was completely reset to zero, and the word WINNER appeared on Yuei Vus Duel Disk. The dense darkness that pervaded all around also gradually dissipated, revealing the blue sky again.

The Shadow Game had been fought for too long, and Yuei Vu, who was surrounded by darkness, almost forgot that it was still daylight.

At this time, the referee, Mr. Isono, who was calm in the face of the coercion of the two Egyptian gods and the supernatural event of the players bodys disappearance, said indifferently, The winner, Player Yuei Vu! Player Marik is eliminated!

His tone was calm, and his expression was even more unwavering as if it was normal for a players body to disappear during the duel, and there was nothing to be surprised about.

As for the gods, it was even common. The referee said that he worked as a bodyguard under President Kaiba. What kind of wind and waves has he never seen before? Isnt it just a dragon and a bird, just a little bigger, whats so strange

Sure enough, the Shadow Game was over, and the vanished parts of Yuei Vus body had all recovered.

Yuei Vu clenched his fists and jumped on tiptoe, feeling that his hands and feet were not abnormal. The most important thing was that the p*nis didnt seem to be abnormal, which was really relieving.

If a game of cards took the p*nis to another dimension, it would be called a disaster

On the opposite side, Marik, who lost in the Shadow Game and should have been swallowed by the darkness, actually recovered his body too.

Yuei Vu couldnt help raising his eyebrows.

Was it possible to cheat at this? For example, secretly adding an Immortal Object status to protect yourself in the Shadow Game?

No, it shouldnt be possible. The main attribute of the Shadow Game was its fairness. The rules are equal to the active opener and passive recipient of the game.

If you lost, you must accept sanctions of your own rules. This was the basic rule of the Shadow Game, and it was also the basis for the Yu-gi-oh world.

Marik!

Sister Ishizu hurried to the stage and helped her younger brother, who was lying on the ground like a dead fish.

Marik groaned twice, his eyelids moved, and a vague voice came out of his throat: Sister Sister Yuei Vu suddenly understood.

Marik has two personalities in his body, that were two completely different beings with separate souls. The one who just fought Yuei Vu and lost in the Shadow Game, and was eliminated was a dark and evil personality.

But now the inner personality has been completely wiped out, so the only thing left was the outer personality in front of him.

What? You said that the two Mariks share the same body and look alike, how did Yuei Vu tell them apart?

This was a nonsense question. Because the Marik in front of him obviously didnt have a true duelists hairstyle!

Look at this face again, how did Yami Marik put on such a normal expression?

However, although it was not Marik who participated in the Shadow Game, and his soul was not affected, the two personalities share the same body after all, and the physical trauma and stamina consumption of the Shadow Game was genuine.

Thats why Mariks whole body wilted a lot at this moment, and he was lying on his sisters lap as if he had just entered the post-nut clarity.

What was destroyed in this duel was not only his dark personality but also the inner darkness that was subtly influenced by his dark personality.

In other words, according to the routine, it was almost time for the whitewashing.

I committed an irreparable crime. Marik closed his eyes gently, During the time of my inner personality awakening, the memories I lost, the death of my father .. I remember it all.

Ishizu bit her lip and caressed her brothers forehead with some distress, but did not speak.

I always thought that the death of my father should be caused by the nameless pharaoh. So I hate him and the fate of our Tomb Keepers, and determined to take revenge with my own hands and end the fate of our family.

Thats why I created Ghouls, stole the god cards that were supposed to be guarded by our Tomb Keepers, and wanted to avenge the pharaoh but only recently did I realize that I was wrong.

The awakening of my dark personality also brought memories that were dormant in the depths of my subconscious. It turned out that Pharaoh had nothing to do with his fathers death. It turned out that it was me who killed my father and committed this heinous crime.

Marik raised his head with some difficulty.

youve always known that, right sister?

Ishizu turned her head away and looked away without saying a word.

She did know, and so did Mariks most trusted subordinate, Rishid, whom he regarded as his brother.

Thats when Mariks inner dark personality first took his body. Marik has no memory of what happened when he was being manipulated, but Ishizu and Rishid were both presented. They saw with their own eyes that Yami Marik killed their father by brutal means, which opened the prelude to a series of grievances.

After that, Ishizu and Rishid tacitly chose to hide the incident from Marik and did not tell the truth about his fathers death. Only now, with the awakening of the dark personality, has this memory resurfaced.

At this time, the audience below the stage had also gathered around.

Marik struggled to get up from his sisters arms and stood up panting.

He turned to Yugi: Yugi No, venerable Pharaoh, first of all, I must apologize to you. I made an unforgivable mistake and caused great distress to you and your friends.

Marik doesnt know anything. Sister Ishizu stepped forward. If you really want to say who is guilty, it should be I who knew the truth but never had the courage to speak to him.

Marik was surprised: Sister!

In addition, I also broke the most important rules of the Tomb Keeper family. Ishizu said firmly, I arbitrarily handed over the god card Obelisk the Tormentor to others. Using the power of Millennium Necklace in a duel also violates the taboo

Seeing that Marik was washed white at the speed of light, the loyal Tomb Keeper sisters rushed to take the blame, and Yami Yugi a.k.a the nameless pharaoh couldnt help frowning.

Ghouls did a lot of wrongdoing. Even if he didnt know the truth, Marik did a lot of bad things after all. Because of the principle, this matter couldnt be forgiven so casually

The other me, I feel that Marik and his siblings are so pitiful. Yugis voice sounded and began to intercede for the siblings, Think carefully, they didnt actually do anything critical to us. The Ghouls who attacked us have all gotten what they deserve. Why dont you forgive them?

Okay, since you said so. Yami Yugi nodded without hesitation and turned to the siblings, Its okay, I forgive you.

After all, the world was big, but AIBO was the biggest.

Yami Yugi said that as long as AIBO was happy, everything was fine.

Chapter 168: Wait Until The Next Life

I also have to apologize to you. Marik didnt forget Yuei Vu at this moment, Because of my wrong revenge, it also caused a lot of trouble for you and the people around you, and got you involved

A lot of trouble?

In fact, to be honest, Yuei Vu didnt really have such an idea.

Strictly speaking, Marik and his Ghouls didn't bother him at all at first, but he took the initiative to provoke them by finding Pandora to take his deck.

Moreover, after the Challenges From Ghouls quest series, he received a lot of benefits. Dark Magician package and Osiris the Sky Dragon was all rewards harvested in this long series of quests.

Not to mention that he has taken so many decks and so many Duel Disks along the way

If he had to say it, in fact, Yuei Vu felt that Ghouls was a kind organization. The guys inside were all super nice, the delivery was fast, and the service was in place.

There was a saying that couldn't be more appropriate to describe Ghouls

The first express delivery company in the world, with honest service delivered to home.

As a result, at this moment, the leader of Ghouls suddenly regained his memory and was about to whitewash. Seeing that this organization might soon disappear into nothingness, he felt quite regretful, and there was a sense of loss that an old friend he had known for a long time was preparing to say goodbye. .

And we must also express our gratitude. Sister Ishizu also owed her lower body lightly and said sincerely, I used the power of Millennium Necklace in the previous duel, and I am very sorry for the offense.

You rescued my brother and wiped out his evil personality in the Shadow Games. We Tomb Keepers will remember this favor.

Although Ishizu looked a little tanned, she was still quite beautiful, and didn't lack curves in places that should have curves

Marik also seemed determined to repent: We'll all remember.

This was the time to show grace.

Yuei Vu waved his hand generously and said, You don't need to take small things too seriously. But if you really feel bad about it I already have too many Duel Disks.

If it is a card, it is enough to have a little meaning, and it does not necessarily have to be UR. The key is to see the practicality.

Isn't there a saying like that? No need to have many cards, the important thing is to have useful cards.

Marik:

Many years later, when recalling the time he was the boss, Marik occasionally recalled the fear of being dominated by a duel disk hunter

After everything was explained, Marik apologized, and turned his head to leave, but heard Yuei Vu cough heavily behind him, as if to imply something.

So he consciously picked The Winged Dragon from the deck and handed it over to Yuei Vu: You won it.

Then he stopped for a while, thought for a while, and put this The Winged Dragon back into the deck then handed the entire deck to Yuei Vu.

Yuei Vu nodded slightly.

Well, good children can be taught.

Yuei Vu originally thought that this kid was going to take the opportunity to fool around

Because he defeated The Winged Dragon head-on in a duel, it was natural for Yuei Vu to receive a hidden reward The Winged Dragon of Ra just like when he fought against Marik's remote control puppet.

Of course, it's the real card version

In the duel with Marik just now, Osiris gave the Sky Dragon in Yuei Vu's hand a big boost, and the divine power contained in its card also increased, directly increasing Yuei Vu's Duelist Rank from 5 stars to 6 stars.

At this moment, Yuei Vu shuffled the brand new God card, The Winged Dragon of Ra (the real card version), into the deck. Then he checked the Duelist Rank on the menu again, and was pleasantly surprised to find out

It's still six stars.

He could roughly guess the reason.

If the real-life version of the other two Egyptian Gods was an epic weakening, then the real-life version of The Winged Dragon of Ra was simply a funny joke, and it was more suitable to be a comedian than a god.

[The Winged Dragon of Ra, Level 10, DIVINE, Divine-Beast. ATK ? /DEF ?

Effect: This card cannot be Special Summoned. Requires 3 Tributes to Normal Summon (cannot be Normal Set). This card's Normal Summon cannot be negated. When Normal Summoned, other cards and effects cannot be activated. When this card is Normal Summoned: You can pay LP so that you only have 100 left; this card gains ATK/DEF equal to the amount of LP paid. You can pay 1000 LP, then target 1 monster on the field; destroy that target.]

Yeah, you read that right. This thing not only had no resistance and couldn't resist any card effects, but it also didn't even have the most basic effect of Ra. When this card is Tribute Summoned, the ATK and DEF of this card become the sum of the respective ATK and DEF values of the Tributes.

That was to say, if you collected three sacrifices to summon The Winged Dragon, you could choose to actively pay LP until you only had 100 left. What you got was a high-attack Normie beatstick. After this, you didn't even have enough LP to activate the destroying monster effect.

Or you could only choose not to pay LP, and the three sacrifices summon a ruthless monster bombing tool with 0 attack power

What a waste!

However, The Winged Dragon of Ra's card must have a lot of increase in the duelist's force. Although he couldn't see the specific data, Yuei Vu could vaguely sense that his level might have jumped from barely over Rank 6 to near Rank 7.

Like various RPG games, the higher the level, the harder it would be to level up.

Starting from Rank 7, it was a big threshold. A duelist at this rank, even if using a deck filled with Normies, must be a named character.

Yuei Vu could feel that although the panel showed that he was not yet at Rank 7, he should not be far behind.

According to previous guesses, the current Duel King may have reached the terrifying Rank 10 at this rank, having one more or less god card couldn't affect much.

With this kind of awareness, Yuei originally thought that if he could not win against Yugi in the competition schedule, he was already mentally prepared to lose.

However, now that the Sky Dragon has been strengthened, and has taken The Winged Dragon of Ra, his Rank has soared. Coupled with the composition of the deck which was ahead of the times

Maybe I still have a little chance?

Yuei Vu was staring at his character panel and pondering, and when he raised his head, he suddenly realized that President Kaiba had appeared in front of him unknowingly.

At this time, President Kaiba was holding his arms, with a proud look on his face: Hmph, I didn't expect that in terms of the progress of collecting god cards, you would be the one who is leading the way?

It doesn't matter. I'll let you temporarily keep two god cards for the time being. Soon I will beat Yugi, go to the final stage of this contest, and then defeat you on the top of this Alcatraz Island to win the title of Duel King and become the master of three Egyptian Gods!

Now, you must keep your eyes wide open and watch my performance!

After Kaiba finished speaking, he flicked his windbreaker domineeringly and turned his head away.

Yuei Vu:

Yes, I almost forgot.

Before the finals, it seemed that Kaiba still had to fight with Yugi?

However, somehow Yuei Vu automatically filtered out the president and started to regard Yugi as the opponent in the finals.

But that wasn't a problem.

Although saying this must be cruel for the confident president, but if he wanted to win Yugi, he might have to wait until his next life oh wait a minute, he seemed to have already waited until the next life.

Then it's hopeless.

Chapter 169: I Will Use This Card To Defeat You

Im going, Kaiba!

Come on! Yu Gi !

Duel! x2

Finally came the fateful showdown that everyone loved. At this time, both Yugi and the Kaiba of the warring parties have already boarded the duel stage. They continued the destiny match which has begun thousands of years ago.

Yami Marik, who has been thinking about doing bad things all day, has been eliminated, and the atmosphere of the Duel City Finals will be much more relaxed. There was no Shadow Game, no gamble, and no companion who was trapped in the darkness and must be rescued (Bakura who was on the hospital bed have been forgotten).

Now that there was no such pressure, all they needed to do at this time was to do their best and fight for themselves.

The crowd in the front row was already in place, and the melon seeds and peanuts were ready. The audience in the players live broadcast room was also in high spirits, they were brushing some world famous paintings, green knot work and other things of unknown meaning.

This time it was President Kaiba who went first. The president, whose win rate was predicted to be less than 1% by players, actually got the first turn. In players eyes, he was a walking dead.

However, the president unconsciously even delivered the second line: As long as we duel, the wind of battle will be noisier. Yu Gi ! I want to bury you in this duel!

The president shouted in a full and affectionate voice, especially the pronunciation of the phrase Yugi.

However, Yami Yugi said that he was not interested in anyone other than AIBO, and waved mercilessly: Draw the card, Kaiba!

So the duel started quickly.

The development on the Kaiba side was similar to the original animation. First, he used the XYZ cannon formation. He combined three monsters X-Head Cannon, Y-Dragon Head and Z-Metal Tank, and summoned the combined monster XYZ-Dragon Cannon (ATK 2800), quickly suppressing the situation.

Then Kaiba struck while the iron was hot and said, Because it is a combined monster, it can be used as three tributes, so the XYZ-Dragon Cannon, which was regarded as three monsters, was used as the sacrifice

I directly summon Obelisk the Tormentor!

Obelisks God Hand Crusher exploded the guarding monsters on Yugis field. President Kaiba raised his arms and started laughing three times, proudly saying: Yugi, did you see it? This is the god I control Obelisk, the God of Destruction! Obelisk is unbeatable! You have no chance of winning without an Egyptian God!

Yugi: To be honest, Im a little disappointed, Kaiba.

What did you say? President Kaiba suddenly frowned.

As we all know, men were most afraid of being told that they were incompetent by their loved ones.

No monster is unbeatable. If you don't realize this, it means that you are nothing but a duelist who only relies on powerful monsters. Yugi closed his eyes and said coldly, In the previous duel, even the absolutely invincible The Winged Dragon of Ra has been beaten by Yūei Vu.

If that doesn't give you any inspiration, Kaiba, it means that as a duelist, you are far worse than him!

Kaiba gritted his teeth angrily: Yugi !

As we all know, in addition to being afraid of being told that they were incompetent by their loved ones, men were more afraid of being told that there is someone who is better than you by their loved ones.

I'll show you this turn. My turn, draw! Yugi raised the tone, I summon Gamma The Magnet Warrior. Then I activate the Spell Card Ties of the Brethren! Pay 1000 Life Points and select 1 face-up Level 4 monster I control. Special Summon 2 Level 4 monsters from my hand or Deck with the same Type as the selected monster! (animation effect)

Come on, Beta The Magnet Warrior, Alpha The Magnet Warrior!

Then he looked at Kaiba: This is the Spell Card I want to use to defeat the god Brave Attack!

What? Kaiba was shocked.

Brave Attack's effect Add together the ATK of all Attack Position monsters I control, and attack one of the opponent's monsters. At the end of the Battle Phase, destroy all Attack Position monsters I control! said Yugi.

[Gamma The Magnet Warrior, ATK 1500]

[Alpha The Magnet Warrior, ATK 1700]

[Beta The Magnet Warrior, ATK 1400]

Total attack power 4600!? The president's face suddenly changed color, The attack power actually exceeds that of Obelisk?

Come on, magnet warriors! Yugi shouted, Break the god for me!

The three magnet warriors were linked together by the Spell Card effect, and they flew forward one by one, and hit Obelisk with an iron head skill.

Although each of them was instantly shattered when they hit, each of them did their best to leave a tiny crack in the god. The three of them made concerted efforts, and the crack became bigger and bigger. The God of Destruction let out a low growl, and his body disappeared with a burst of blue light.

(Obelisk: I'm so cracked)

The president's ace card was easily eliminated, and the situation that was absolutely beneficial to Kaiba became uncertain again. Such a huge change must not have a small impact on President Kaiba. You could see that he has a low head and a sullen face at this moment as if he suspected that his life was being ridiculed and autistic

Ha ha ha ha ha ha ha!

Kaiba suddenly laughed, and even the audience outside was startled.

Very good, Yugi! That's how you are worthy to be defeated! Kaiba laughed, not only did he not autistic, but his gaze toward Yugi became even more scorching.

I knew you were not a duelist that couldn't deal with a single god. If you only have this kind of skill, it would be too boring!

Here, Yugi successfully solved Kaiba's God Card, but at the same time, due to the side effect of Brave Attack, all the monsters on his field were also destroyed.

In other words, now his field was empty, and it was also Kaiba's best offensive opportunity.

Kaiba didn't waste time here. He performed a unique duel skill which was called 502. First, he played a Card of Demise to refill his hand, and then directly fused three Blue-Eyes White Dragons on the hand.

The next thing to do was to sing a summon chant with his soul: Let's let you see the strongest and most extreme dragon in history, transcend the boundaries of time and space. Come! Neo Blue-Eyes Ultimate Dragon!!!

[Neo Blue-Eyes Ultimate Dragon, ATK 4500]

Yugi looked at the three-headed white dragon that crashed down in front of him and showed his teeth and claws.

A monster that surpassed the Blue-Eyes Ultimate Dragon!?

That's right! This is the final evolution form of the Ultimate Dragon! Hahahaha!!! Kaiba laughed, And let me tell you Neo Blue-Eyes Ultimate Dragon's effect. Once per Duel, if I have Blue-Eyes Ultimate Dragon in my Extra Deck, this card can attack 3 times!

Yugi was even more shocked: The attack power is 4500, and it can attack three times in one turn!?

The audience in the live broadcast room was boiling: Wow, President is cheating, right? Why do you play the Neo Blue-Eyes Ultimate Dragon to fight the Duel King now?

Could it be that the president made some calculations and felt that he couldn't beat Yami Yugi without jumping off the building, so he made a special trip to print a new card

Kaiba continued: Then open the set card on the field: Spell Card Quick Attack! Let the fusion monster attack this turn!

Perfect! Invincible! The strongest! President Kaiba fell into the intoxication of the Ultimate White Bride, Attack and kill Yugi for me!

Yugi waved his hand: Activate the Trap Card Mirror Force!

The Trap Card was flipped, and the barrage suddenly exploded.

6666! The holy power of Hanoi!

Yami Yugi, your innocence has been corrupted! You've already set Hanoi's holy power, yet pretending to be a coward as real as a master actor

Neo Ultimate Dragon's jet of white light blasted through the air, slamming into the translucent barrier. The white shock rushed away and counterattacked back, instantly blasting the Kaiba's Neo Ultimate Dragon, and with a cry of grief, the dragon exited the stage miserably.

Blue-Eyes! Kaiba shouted angrily as he looked at his wife who had just appeared and died before she even had time to exhale a breath.

But it doesn't matter!

Activate Spell Card Dragons Mirror! Kaiba played the last card in his hand, This card can Fusion Summon 1 Dragon Fusion Monster from my Extra Deck, by banishing Fusion Materials listed on it from my field or GY!

I banish three Blue-Eyes White Dragons in my graveyard! Come, my ultimate servant

Blue-Eyes Ultimate Dragon! ! !

Sure enough, no matter how fancy or beautiful the new vest was, in the end, it still had to rely on the power of the classics.

Blue Eyes Ultimate Dragon (Classic Edition), Fusion Summon!

[Blue-Eyes Ultimate Dragon, ATK 4500]

When Neo Blue-Eyes Ultimate Dragon is in my Graveyard, any effect of Spells, Traps, and monsters will be ineffective against the Blue-Eyes Ultimate Dragon on my field! Kaiba shouted, And the Ultimate Dragon cannot be the target of any effect from the opponent!

The attack power was 4500, and it had almost absolutely invincible complete resistance.

The truly invincible blue-eyed ultimate dragon!

It should be noted that Card of Demise only let players draw a total of five cards at most, but among five cards on the president's hand, three of which were Blue-Eyes White Dragon, one was Polymerization, and the last one was Dragons Mirror. So coincidentally, it was almost like the deck never shuffled.

It could only be said that this wave was the achievement of 502 the superglue.

This time it's game over for real! President Kaiba laughed, Ultimate Dragons attack cannot be stopped, and any card effects are invalid for her!

Be gone, Yugi! From now on I will inherit the title of Duel King and take a new step!

This wave looked really stable, and the ultimate dragon, which had absolute resistance, was already a monster that was comparable to the Egyptian gods.

However

Yugi said nothing and put a card in his hand into the graveyard: I discard Kuriboh!

Here again, the invincible Kuriboh.

Discarding the Kuriboh from the hand could turn the battle damage to 0, and it was effective against monsters who were unaffected by card effects. Kuriboh said that even if the gods come, it could still block the damage for you.

Damn President Kaiba gritted his teeth, looking at the fluffy Kuriboh, he felt as if he had seen the enemy of his life.

Did you survive this turn with this trash fish monster again, Yugi?

Although very smart, President Kaiba was really the type who never had a long memory. Many times he has been defeated by Kuribohs, but the next time the president still insisted on saying it was a trash fish monster. At this moment, he has committed the taboo again

Its the last turn of Yugi.

My turn, draw! Kaiba! I will use this card to completely smash the darkness in your heart! Activate Spell Card Polymerization!

I fuse Dark Magician and Buster Blader in the hand!

Fusion Summon! Dark Paladin!

[Dark Paladin, ATK 2900]

Dark Paladins attack power will increase by 500 for each Dragon monster in both graveyards!

Its useless! Kaiba shouted, Even so, it cant compare to the attack power of my Blue-Eyes Ultimate Dragon!

Its not over yet! Activate Spell Card Soul Release! Banish up to five cards from both graveyards!

I will remove the Neo Blue-Eyes Ultimate Dragon in your graveyard from the game so that the invincible resistance of Blue-Eyes Ultimate Dragon will disappear!

And then I play this card! Quick-Play Spell De-Fusion!

The presidents face changed suddenly: Damn Yugi! Could it be Could it be that you had already guessed that I was going to summon the Blue-Eyes Ultimate Dragon!?

The presidents face was full of astonishment, like the trump card at the bottom of the box was seen through.

Using De-Fusion, release the fusion of Blue-Eyes Ultimate Dragon! Yugi waved, Then if all the Fusion Materials that were used for its Fusion Summon are in your GY, you can Special Summon all of them to your field! (Animation effect)

However, all the Blue-Eyes White Dragons in your graveyard have been banished by the effect of Dragons Mirror, so Blue-Eyes Ultimate Dragon disappears, but Blue-Eyes White Dragon will not return to your field, Kaiba!

The presidents expression gradually distorted: Damn Yugi

Then I will also use the Spell Card Quick Attack! Fight, the last blow! Yugi issued the final order, Dark Paladin, attack Kaiba directly! Super Magical Shadowless Slash!

Kaiba: Ahhhhh!!!

Kaiba, LP 0

Chapter 170: Enter The Final

The result couldnt be said to be unexpected. The audience knew that Kaiba must not be able to beat the Yugi. This kind of thing was as obvious as the president wants to summon the Blue-Eyes White Dragon.

But in the end, the way Yugi won still re-enacted the classic scene in the anime, which was unexpected to Yuei Vu. Even if the process was very different, in the end, the Yugi still printed a Dark Paladin to defeat Kaiba seconds.

The only theory was that the world timeline has fixed points.

Dark Paladin, the fusion of the Dark Magician and the Buster Blader. This monster was no stranger to today's Yu-Gi-Oh players, but the monster's first appearance in history was in the Battle City semi-finals between Yugi and Kaiba.

This card has never appeared in Yu-Gi-Oh! animations before this. So it may be okay to say that Yugi printed this card on-site.

In fact, something like this hasn't happened before. In one of the original chapters of Yu-Gi-Oh Animation, Yugi suddenly wanted to use his Black Luster Soldier to fuse with Kaiba's Blue-Eyes Ultimate Dragon, and summoned Dragon Master Knight with an attack power of 5,000 to OTK the opponent.

Later, Kaiba expressed curiosity and asked the Yugi: Did you already know the existence of Dragon Master Knight? Why didn't we have any information in the database of Kaiba Corp?

Then Yugi said righteously: Kaiba, did you believe in your card? If you firmly believed that this card existed, it certainly existed.

The implication of this

Nonsense, didn't you see that it was printed on the spot?

How could you make a comeback if I didn't print cards?

Besides, as the pharaoh could that be called printing cards?

So for similar things, it's good that everyone understood in their hearts, there was no need to say too clearly

The semi-finals were over, and finally the final began.

After the players on both sides adjusted, they stepped onto the stage of the final battle.

Yuei Vu and Yami Yugi faced each other, exchanged decks, and had the final conversation while shuffling the cards.

I don't know what you think, Yami Yugi suddenly said in the middle of the shuffle, and smiled slightly, but I think it's really good that you are the opponent in the final battle.

Me too. Yuei Vu also smiled.

This was not a greeting, this was what Yuei Vu thought from his heart.

Among all the players in the quarter-finals, from the very beginning, he regarded the Yugi as the final BOSS that truly guards the cup.

Yuei Vu has overcome all obstacles, collected two god cards and rose to nearly Rank 7, and finally played the Yugi in the final. He felt that he was lucky enough.

To be honest, it didn't matter what the final result was, Yuei Vu just needs to do his best now. He has already gained enough benefits in this Battle City, but to be honest, he really didn't have much confidence in playing against the Duel King in the final.

If he was able to win, that's the best. Else, he has already made a profit.

It's just that President Kaiba, who was the organizer of the competition, was suffering.

President Kaiba spent so much power and invested so much money to hold this competition, and in the end, not only he lost the God card and didn't get the Duel King title, but the final match also had nothing to do with him!

Then the two on stage were still the only two men recognized by President Kaiba. However, these two have now left the president aside and went to the stage to play cards by themselves.

Now the president's mood was very complicated, the president didn't want to talk, the president just wanted to be quiet.

After the shuffling was complete, both players went back to their places. The referee Isono swung his arm down and shouted: The final battle of the Battle City, Player Yuei Vu VS Player Yugi Muto, start!

Duel! x2

Yuei Vu, LP 4000

Yugi, LP4000

Yugi, come on! Jonouchi and his friends cheered for the Yugi.

YueiYugi, come on

Sister Shizuka said in a low voice, and at the same time secretly wanted to cheer on Yuei Vu, but in that case, her brother would definitely be very angry.

I go first, draw! The first move was Yugi's.

He has no self-confidence in going first, but Yuei Vu said that he was quite confident in going second. He has played many duels, but only got the first turn a few times in total, and he didn't know if it had anything to do with Lucky 20.

Activate Spell Card Graceful Charity! Yugi first played a Thousands of Years Banned card, Draw three cards from the deck and then discard two cards.

Then the effect of the Watapon in the hand! If this card is added to the hand from the deck by a card effect, it can be Special Summoned directly from the hand!

Yugi drew two cards, one of which was placed directly on the Duel Disk. A very cute and Q-shaped white cotton ball appeared on the field with the light effect, blinking big cute blue eyes.

Then use the Watapon as a Tribute, the Yugi took the Watapon from the Duel Disk and replaced it with another card in his hand, Come on, the demon with the highest attack power Summoned Skull!

Watapon disappeared, and what appeared immediately was a demon in a white skeleton that descended with golden lightning. He folded his arms and emerged from the chaotic vortex, overflowing with electricity, like a kings landing.

[Summoned Skull, ATK 2500]

Although it only needed one Tribute to summon, the attack power was equivalent to that of the Dark Magician with 2500 points. It was also a very powerful and practical monster in the early stage of DM.

Set three cards, I end my turn. Yugi smiled, Okay, its your turn to play.

Very good, the first turn is a powerful monster with 2500 ATK! Jonouchi clenched his fist, This way, it will not be so easy to defeat!

My turn, draw!

Yuei Vu turned out a card in his hand and showed the opponent the Magicians Souls in his hand.

I activate the effect of Magicians Souls by sending 1 Level 6 or higher Spellcaster monster from your Deck to the GY!

This was not the first time this card has appeared, and everyone presented was familiar to it.

Yugi slightly frowned.

Are you coming? Dark Magician?

But he didnt expect Yuei Vus operation to be different this time: I send Dark Magician Girl from the deck to the graveyard to activate the effect of Magicians Souls!

Yugi was a little surprised.

Not Dark Magician?

Then I send the Magicians Souls from the hand to the graveyard, and then special summon from the graveyard Yuei Vu put the cards in his hand into the graveyard, and the magician girls card popped up, Come on! Dark Magician Girl!

With a burst of gorgeous light effects, the magician girl flew out of the vortex of the graveyard with youthful vigor. Her round-toed little boots lightly stepped on the transparent magic circle in mid-air, and the little staff swept away, leaving visible lines in the air.

[Dark Magician Girl, ATK 2000]

Although its not a Shadow Game, thus there was no danger, but the girl was still full of energy today.

Because she knew that the opposite Muto Yugi was also a user of Dark Magician teacher and apprentice duo!

The girl took a deep breath and raised her proud chest.

I mustnt embarrass my master!

You didnt choose a Dark Magician, but Dark Magician Girl? Yugi said, If it is a Dark Magician, the attack power can be comparable to Summoned Skull

I know, Yuei Vu smiled slightly, but if its Dark Magician, I wouldnt be able to use this move.
Activate Spell Card Dark Burning Attack!

Activate only when there is a Dark Magician Girl on my side of the field, destroy all face-up monsters on the opponents side of the field!

Yuei Vu pointed at the demon ahead: Go, Dark Magician Girl! Smash the demon with your magic!

Come, come, its time for me to play!

The girl who felt that she was being valued held her breath, flew up, and let out a coquettish cry, bursting magic power waves from the staff.

The magical impact hit the demons body head-on, shattering his skeletal armor and piercing him back and forth from his chest. The demon roared in a low voice, and his body shattered into pieces under the raging magic power.

Summoned Skull Yugi raised his arm to block the impact of the overflowing magic power, and smiled, Its quite capable.

The Dark Magician Girl was a little proud.

Did the master hear? The other side also praised me for being capable!

Battle! Yuei Vu said, Dark Magician Girl, attack directly!

The Dark Magician Girl jumped high, her feet floating in the air on the transparent magic circle, she flicked the small magic wand, and the magic power tossed, ready to hit Yugi.

Dont worry, Yuei Vu. Dark Yugi smiled, The duel has just begun. Open the set card! Trap Card Mirror Force!

The trap flipped, the light and shadow effect formed a hemispherical shield around Yugi, and the divine light protected his entire field in the middle.

Yuei Vus pupils narrowed.

Damn! You just come up, yet directly used Hanois holy power? Where is the process?

Mirror Force is a card that destroys all the opponents attack monsters when the opponent declares an attack! the Yugi shouted, Return the attack of Dark Magician Girl!

The magical impact slammed on the indestructible barrier, and the light of the spherical barrier soared. The reflected magic power turned back towards the Dark Magician Girl like an overwhelming force, so frightened that the girls face turned pale, she held her head in place and squatted in defense.

Its not that easy! Yuei Vu quickly played out the next card, Quick-Play Spell My Body as a Shield! When your opponent activates a Spell/Trap Card or monster effect that would destroy a monster(s) on the field: Pay 1500 LP; negate the activation and destroy that card!

Yuei Vu, LP 4000 LP 2500

With the reduction of LP, the sacred shield in front of Yugi suddenly shattered like broken glass, and countless fragments were scattered everywhere.

In fact, it was equivalent to the owner blocking the sword for his monster.

Yugi was surprised: Mirror Force was

The battle continues! Yuei Vu ordered again, Dark Magician Girl, continue to attack!

Dark Magician Girl who had just hugged her head in fright raised her head.

Ah? The master called me? I haven't died yet?

The magical girl who reacted hurriedly jumped up, waved her small staff backhand, and another wave of magic power blasted out. This time there was no block, and it hit Yugi's body straight.

The actual touch of Kaiba's black-tech images made Yugi slip half a step and grit his teeth lightly.

Yugi, LP 4000 LP 2000

Set a card, I end my turn. Yuei Vu smiled, You're right, Yugi. The duel has just begun.
