

I Play Yu-Gi 201

Chapter 201: Favorite Hero

Blue-Eyes Twin Burst Dragon

Yuei Vu did not expect the president to be so ruthless. The Battle City competition ended just a few days later, and his wife's new vest was printed.

But now there was nothing on Yuei Vu's field, and his LP had been dropped to 100, while the president had a powerful monster Blue-Eyes Twin Burst Dragon on his field. Such an absolutely unfavorable situation meant only one thing.

He could legally use cheat.

My turn! Yuei Vu put his fingers on the deck, and an invisible and mysterious force surged up at this moment.

Duel Skill Draw of Fate, activated!

Set two cards on the field! There were two more cards at Yuei Vu's feet, and he said immediately, Then I activate the Spell Card Card of Demise! I can draw cards until I have 5 cards in my hand!

With five cards, the reversal strategy immediately came into his hands.

I summon Elemental HERO Prisma!

Accompanied by a burst of light effects, a hero with a body as crystal clear as a diamond appeared on the field. His body was solid, with sharp edges and corners, refracting bright and shining brilliance.

[Elemental HERO Prisma, ATK 1700]

Kaiba frowned.

Another unseen Elemental HERO.

Of course, he couldn't have seen it, because Yuei Vu didn't have this card in his hand during the Battle City. This was a rare card that he got after spending an unknown number of crystals in the system card pool.

It was also because of this that Yuei Vu has recently felt more and more that the HERO deck was really not something that ordinary players can play.

He didn't know how many crystals he had taken from the players and thrown into the card pool, but the number must be astronomical for ordinary players. However, until now, there are still many powerful Elemental HERO cards that have not been released.

And this was just Elemental HERO. After the HERO decks of the later generations were perfected, plus the combination of Destiny HERO, Vision HERO, Masked HERO and other HERO series, even Yuei Vu couldn't imagine how many crystals would be needed to get the complete set of heroes.

Even if the card pool containing all hero series was opened to players, ordinary players may not be able to afford it.

In this way, it seemed that ordinary people are not worthy of being a hero. If you wanted to be a hero, you must first be a billionaire.

The effect of Prisma is activated! Yuei Vu shouted, Once per turn: I can reveal 1 Fusion Monster from your Extra Deck, then send 1 of the Fusion Materials whose name is specifically listed on that card from my Deck to the Graveyard.

Until the End Phase, Prisma gets the same name as the monster sent to the graveyard!

Yuei Vu took out a Fusion Monster card and showed it to Kaiba.

I want to reveal Elemental HERO Flame Wingman, and then send the fusion material Elemental HERO Avian from the deck to the graveyard. Prisma will get the same name within this turn. Reflect Change!

Kaiba frowned: Is it a fusion material substitute?

Exactly! Yuei Vu pressed the button on the Duel Disk, Open the set card: Spell Card- Polymerization! I fuse Prisma, whose name is treated as Avian, with the Burstinatrix in the hand!

Fusion Summon! Elemental HERO Flame Wingman!

The Prisma and Burstinatrix, both turned into beams of light and merged into the vortex. With the burst of strong light, they transformed into the Winged Hero who controlled the flames and hovered in mid-air with a clear shout.

[Elemental HERO Flame Wingman, ATK 2100]

Hmph, did it appear? Kaiba crossed his arms and sneered, But the attack power is still no match for my Blue-Eyes Twin Burst Dragon!

I know! Activate an Equip Spell from the hand Favorite Hero, and equip it to Flame Wingman! As Yuei Vu spoke, a green Spell Card appeared in front of him again.

This card was no stranger to Kaiba. He narrowed his eyes: At the start of the Battle Phase, you can activate a Field Spell Card from the deck, and then the equipped monster gains ATK equal to its original DEF, right ?

That's right. Yuei Vu said, The Flame Wingman's DEF is 1200, so the Flame Wingman's attack power will reach 3300 points.

Flame Wingman can inflict damage equal to the attack power of the destroyed monster. If the Flame Wingman destroys the Blue-Eyes Twin Burst Dragon, then I will suffer a total of 3300 points of damage, and I will lose.

When Kaiba said this, instead of panicking, he hummed a few times, and couldn't help laughing.

Yes, very good! But I'm one step ahead of yours! He laughed loudly, Let me tell you, the special ability of the Blue-Eyes Twin Burst Dragon is that this card cannot be destroyed by battles!

In other words, the effect of the Flame Wingman is useless on it!

President Kaiba smiled smugly. His arrogance came from his freshly printed card, which Yuei Vu had never seen before.

Well, it should be said that he felt that Yuei Vu had never seen it.

Of course, Yuei Vu knew that the Blue-Eyes Twin Burst Dragon could not be destroyed by the battle, and he did not forget this.

Open the set card: Equip Spell Rainbow Veil! Yuei Vudao, Equip to the Flame Wingman! When the equipped monster fights the opponents monster, the effect of the opponents monster will be negated only during the battle phase!

President Kaibas face changed slightly this time: What?

Battle! Then at this moment, the effect of Favorite Hero is activated! Yuei Vu raised his hand and said, I activate a Field Spell Card directly from the deck!

Come on! Field Spell Skyscrapers!

The duel arena instantly dimmed, and the black technology projection device sponsored by Kaiba Company cast a dark night in the venue area. The moon hung high above the building, and a modern city rose from the ground, paving the way for heroes.

Then because of the presence of Skyscrapers in the area, the effect of Favorite Hero is activated! The attack power of the Flame Wingman will be increased by the value of the defense power!

[Elemental HERO Flame Wingman, ATK 2100 ATK 3300]

Kaiba narrowed his eyes and gritted his teeth.

If this attack was passed, Blue-Eyes Blue-Eyes Twin Burst Dragon would be knocked down. According to the effect of Flame Wingman, he would suffer a total of 3300 points of damage and lose.

Lets go, Flame Wingman! Of course, Yuei Vu shot directly without hesitation, Attack the Blue-Eyes Twin Burst Dragon !

A hero with a home-field blessing was invincible. The two-headed white dragon roared, ejecting two beams of incandescent shock from its mouth. But the Flame Wingman who swooped down from the skyscraper deftly avoided the impact of the white light, and the projectile turned into a flame that pierced through the white dragons body.

The two-headed white dragon wailed unwillingly, its body was wrapped and shattered by the flames, and disappeared from the field with trails of black smoke.

[Kaiba, LP 3100 LP 2800]

Then there is the effect of the Flame Wingman When this card destroys an opponents monster by battle, inflict damage to the opponent equal to the ATK of the destroyed monster! Yuei Vu pointed forward, Its the last blow, President! Eat 3000 points of effect damage!

The Flame Wingman who pierced through the body of the white dragon lightly landed in front of Kaiba, raised his arm, the red mouth on the arm opened, and there was a lava-like flame in it.

Boom! ! !

The flames were released, and the virtual impact pulled Kaibas windbreaker straight, and the billowing flames engulfed his figure.

Yuei Vu held his breath and looked across.

Did I make it?

Well, when this sentence popped up in his mind, he must have failed.

Sure enough, the flame dissipated, and President Kaiba still stood there calmly, seemingly unscathed.

Kaiba, LP 2800

But Yuei Vu soon noticed the reason, That was the red trap card standing in front of President Kaiba.

Counter Trap Damage Polarizer. Kaiba said lightly, Activate only when an effect that inflicts damage is activated. Negate its activation and effect, and each player draws 1 card.

Sure enough, the president wouldnt let him succeed so easily.

Without saying a word, Yuei Vu drew a card, looked down, and saw that it was a Pot of Greed.

Its just that the rule that normal Spell Cards can be used in the Battle Phase has been revised, thus he couldnt use the Pot of Greed to draw cards immediately.

But the battle was not over yet.

Hmph, my defense is impeccable. Kaiba snorted, This level of offense cant even be counted as tickling.

Yuei Vu smiled: Dont talk too much, President. My attack is not over yet.

Kaibas face changed slightly: What?

The moment Blue-Eyes Twin Burst Dragon is defeated, another subsequent effect of the Favorite Hero is also activated! Yuei Vu pulled out the equipment Spell Card from the Duel Disk and threw it to the graveyard.

When the equipped monster attacks and destroys the opponents monster, send the Favorite Hero to the Graveyard, and the equipped monster can attack again during this turn!

Although it was not the first time Yuei Vu has used Favorite Hero, it was the first time that the follow-up effects of these multiple attacks have been shown in front of the president.

Obviously, this exceeded the presidents calculations, and the latters face changed suddenly: You can attack again!?

[Elemental HERO Flame Wingman, ATK 3300 ATK 2100]

Thats right, lets continue fighting! Yuei Vu pointed at Kaiba, As you said, Im not polite here, President! Elemental HERO, Flame Wingman, directly attack Kaiba!

Chapter 202: It's A Coincidence

Flame Wingman, directly attack Kaiba!

It could be seen that Kaiba really exhausted of defense methods this time. His field was empty, thus not even printing cards on the spot could save him now.

In the environment of this era, handtraps and gravetraps were extremely scarce, thus he had no means to take this attack at all.

The Flame Wingmans second attack hit Kaiba without any delay. The impact of the flames exploded, and Kaiba staggered back two steps, and let out a sullen snort.

Kaiba, LP 2800 LP 700

In this way, my Battle Phase is over. Yuei Vu said, Then I activate the Spell Card Pot of Greed from my hand, and draw two more cards from the deck.

After drawing two cards, Yuei Vu looked down and couldnt help feeling a little bit pain in the ass.

This card Even if I got it a little earlier, the duel might be over by now.

But it didnt matter. Its better to come later than never, Yuei Vu could still ambush the opponent here.

Set three cards, and I end my turn.

Yuei Vu announced the end of the turn, and at the same time, there were two more cards at his feet.

His LP was only 100, while Kaibas was only 700 Its really like a candle in the wind, no matter which side got touched a little bit, he would go far away.

This meant that this duel may finally come to an end, and the next round may decide the winner.

Kaiba looked at his 700 LP, and then at the Flame Wingman on Yuei Vus field. He couldnt help but feel his blood rushing, the excitement that a duelists brain power was fully activated as the battle reached its climax.

Thats it! This is the feeling I want!

This is the thrill of fighting with duelists who are truly equal and fighting each other with all their strength. It is the pleasure that I have been pursuing all along, which can make me go further.

No matter how advanced the technology of their Kaiba technology and how realistic the AI was, it will not be able to bring him the same experience after all.

This was the fight he wanted!

Look, Yuei Vu! Kaiba raised the Duel Disk in his hand, The strength of the strongest duelist on the surface will be shown in front of you now!

Yuei Vu was taken aback by the abruptness of the president.

Even the Dark Magician Girl spirit floated out in fright, and stood in front of the master with the small staff horizontally.

Seeing the ferocious roar on the presidents face, she thought for a moment that the person was going to play a physical duel and summoned his fist to directly attack her master

My turn, draw! Kaiba yelled, Look, this card will be the key to guide the direction of this duel!

Pulling out a card from the deck, his pupils shrank, and he immediately burst out laughing.

From that reaction, Yuei Vu can probably guess that the card has already been printed

Activate Spell Card Dragons Mirror! Kaiba roared loudly, Fusion Summon 1 Dragon Fusion Monster from my Extra Deck, by banishing Fusion Materials listed on it from my field or GY!

Well, here Yuei Vu couldn't help but want to say that he really deserves to be the president.

He has always had a good way of divine drawing.

Remove the three Blue-Eyes White Dragons in the graveyard from the game and fuse them!

The strongest dragon that has descended beyond time and space

Fusion Summon! Neo Blue-Eyes Ultimate Dragon!

The vortex in the graveyard opened up, and the white dragon flapped its wings and flew into the sky. Three white dragons surrounded and merged into the beam of light, rushing high into the air. The huge three-headed dragon descended from the sky, crashing down with a mighty momentum, and the dust waves seemed to overwhelm mountains and seas.

[Neo Blue-Eyes Ultimate Dragon, ATK 4500]

Hahahaha, you will be smashed under this ultimate destructive power! Kaiba folded his arms and laughed, The attack of the Neo Blue-Eyes Ultimate Dragon brings this duel to an end!

Hyper Ultimate Burst! ! !

The three-headed dragon opened its mouth at the same time, spewing out endless shocks. The beam of destruction pushed flat against the ground, sweeping across the streets between the skyscrapers, the powerful impact shattered the walls on both sides,

The entire city seemed to be crumbling under the force of destruction.

Activate the effect of Skyscraper! Yuei Vu said, When an Elemental Hero monster I control battles an opponent's monster whose ATK is higher, the Elemental HERO monster gains 1000 ATK during damage calculation only! (anime effect)

The anime version of Skyscraper could increase the attack power whenever the Elemental HERO fought a monster with higher attack power than himself, while the real-life version could only increase the attack power when the Elemental HERO actively attacked.

Yuei Vu still used the Skyscraper with the real-life card effect in the Battle City before because he only had this at that time. After the end of Battle City, Yuei Vu frantically drew cards, and finally shipped such a card with animation effects, so he naturally replaced it with this more usable version.

But that's clearly not enough.

[Elemental HERO Flame Wingman, ATK 2100 ATK 3100]

This amount of ATK gain is not enough in front of the invincible Ultimate Dragon! Kaiba yelled loudly, You have the last 100 LP left, so it's more than enough to kill you!

Crush before the invincible power of the true ultimate dragon! ! !

Of course, Yuei Vu knew this kind of thing clearly. He raised his hand, and the trap at his feet opened immediately.

Open the set card A Hero Emerges! It can only be activated when the opponent declares an attack. The opponent chooses 1 random card from my hand, then if it is a monster that can be Special Summoned, Special Summon it. Otherwise, send it to the GY!

Kaiba narrowed his eyes: You only have one card in hand.

That's right, of course, it's a monster card! Yuei Vu showed the last card in his hand, I summon Elemental HERO Bladedge in defense position!

The Bladedge shouted loudly and came to the field with exhaust flames from behind him.

[Elemental HERO Bladedge, DEF 1800]

What can you do with this kind of trash monster!?! Kaiba yelled, Ultimate Dragon, continue to attack the Flame Wingman, smash it for me!!!

At the moment when the number of monsters on Yuei Vu's field changed, there was a Battle Replay occurred on Kaiba's side. At this moment, he had the opportunity to give up the attack, but he didn't.

A real man would attack without hesitation, and the word retreat was not in the president's dictionary!

Hyper Ultimate Burst!

The three heads of the white dragon opened their mouths at the same time, and a strong white light billowed in the dragon's mouth, brewing the power to destroy the world.

Kaiba, since you said you want to end our unfinished duel, then let's start now! Yuei Vu waved his arms and opened another trap.

Activate Trap Card Covering Fire! He shouted loudly, The attack power of my attacked monster increases by the attack power of another monster I control!

At this moment, the Flame Wingman gained the attack power value of the Bladedge, and his attack power increases by 2600 points!

The two heroes on the field exerted their strength at the same time, and their bodies were surrounded by dark green halos. The engine man gave a low shout, and the power was passed to his companions through the power of the Trap Card. The flames of the Flame Wingman's body rose sharply, and his combat power soared rapidly.

[Elemental HERO Flame Wingman, ATK 3100 ATK 5700]

A Flame Wingman with an attack power of 5700!

In this way, my hero's attack power will overcome yours! Yuei Vu said, Flame Wingman, counterattack the Neo Blue-Eyes Ultimate Dragon!

The Flame Wingman flew up into the sky, flapped his wings, and flew to the position above the Ultimate Dragon, raised his arm, and the dragon's mouth on the arm opening, brewing hot and rolling flames.

Yuei Vu watched his hero and the huge white dragon confront each other from afar, narrowing his eyes.

That should really be the end of it.

However

Hey hey heyhahahahahahaha!!!

At this moment, President Kaiba raised his head to the sky and laughed again.

Yuei Vu suddenly had a very bad premonition

Yuei Vu! Kaiba stared at him with burning eyes, and the latter subconsciously wanted to jump back.

Whatwhat?

You are indeed a strong duelist! Kaiba shouted, but I have already seen through your tactics! Covering Fire is your set card in our unfinished match last time, isn't it?

From the moment you used the Trap Card to summon the trash fish monster, I guessed that you would use this card to win the game.

But now my tactics have gone one step further from that time!

Speaking of which, even Bladedge has turned into a trash fish monster, the president's requirements were really getting higher and higher

Kaiba quickly drew a card from his hand and revealed it: Then this is the card that will bring the duel to an end! Quick-Play Spell Battle Fusion!!!

Yuei Vu was taken aback: Nani!?

A green Spell Card appeared on Kaiba's field: Battle Fusion is a card that can only be activated when two monsters fight. My monster gains ATK equal to the ATK of the opposing monster, until the end of the Damage Step! (anime Effect)

The real-life version of Battle Fusion could only be activated at the moment of attack declaration. But the description of this card in the animation was it can be activated when two monsters fight, which meant that it could be used at any point during the battle between the monsters of both sides.

[Neo Blue-Eyes Ultimate Dragon, ATK 4500 ATK 10200]

The Neo Blue-Eyes Ultimate Dragon with over 10,000 attack power!!!

At this moment, seeing the ultimate dragon on the field bathed in white light, and the destructive rays churning out of its mouth dazzling like never before, President Kaiba suddenly felt an indescribable sense of pride, and couldn't help but burst out laughing and stand up.

Tough! Invincible! strongest!!!

Smash! Jade Broken! Bravo!!!

You have done a good job to be destroyed by such a power. President Kaiba was in a good mood, But that's it! I have already surpassed me of yesterday, and now I would not lose to anyone

Uh, wait a minute, President. Yuei Vu interrupted, The battle is not over yet.

Kaiba narrowed his eyes.

Then he glanced out of the corner of his eye and suddenly realized There was also an unopened set card on Yuei Vu's field.

Could it be that

To be honest, I really didn't expect this to happen. It's a bit of a coincidence Yuei Vu was a little ashamed, and then he got serious and raised his voice.

But I promise that I will go all out, so accept the move, President! I will also open the last set card here

Quick-Play Spell, Battle Fusion!

WHAT!?!? President Kaiba was astonished as if struck by lightning.

In this final turn, the final confrontation between the two sides, he actually got Battle Fusion too!?

The same card as mine? ??

Kaiba looked at Yuei Vu in shock with suspicious life on his face.

Impossible! Is this really fate!?

The effect of Battle Fusion When a face-up monster I control attacks or is attacked, it gains ATK equal to the ATK of the opposing monster, until the end of the Damage Step!

[Elemental HERO Flame Wingman, ATK 5700 ATK 15900]

Kaiba was stunned, and stood there in a daze, watching the flaming hero lift up, spin, and sprint in mid-air. The flames wrapped in his body tore apart the light beam spewed out by the white dragon, and then pierced through it like a cannonball. The ultimate white dragon with an attack power of over 10,000.

The scorching white light exploded from the shattered body of the white dragon, and the flames fell like an erupting volcano, blasting toward the top of the Kaiba

Kaiba, LP700 LP0

Chapter 203: I Can Practice With You

Kaiba, LP0

The president lost.

After losing to Yugi in the Battle of Duel City, President Kaiba once again tasted the taste of defeat.

This might also mean that his days of dominating the world of duel monsters were over.

Being defeated by Yugi one after another, the president could still be said to be below one person, above myriad people, which sounded pretty awesome.

However, two Duel Kings appeared in the battle City. Didn't this mean that Seto Kaiba has become below two people, above myriad people?

Although it seemed that there was only one more person, it felt different in an instant. This feeling may be a bit similar to Jonouchi pointing at someones nose and saying You are the eleventh duelist who made me serious. In short, it has become LOW

But of course, the president was not someone who couldnt afford to lose. He wouldnt blame bad luck.

If you lose, you lose. There is no excuse.

But in this way, the duel that President Kaiba has been thinking about was finally over, and he can finally seal the deck with peace of mind, get rid of the card addiction and concentrate on building at least temporarily.

However, when Yuei Vu finished playing the game and left Kaiba Corp, seeing the Favorability + continuously appearing above the head of the president, Yuei Vu couldnt help but fell into deep thought.

There is always an illusion that I am sinking deeper and deeper into some kind of deep pit

After dismissing the boss who was addicted to cards, it was already midnight when Yuei Vu returned to the store.

Not only he gained a lot of Favorability from President Kaiba (he didnt know if its a good thing or a bad thing for the time being), but also gained a lot of experience and spar rewards.

Its a pity that the system didnt give away a Blue-Eyes White Dragon after winning the game. Otherwise, when the presidents card addiction relapsed, Yuei Vu would play with the president with the whole set of Blue-Eyes White Dragon, and it would be more exciting

Harvesting a large number of crystals from the players plus system rewards brought the number of crystals in Yuei Vus hand back to five figures, so now its time to draw cards.

After playing the card game with Mr. Phoenix, Yuei Vu drew cards for several days and smashed more than half of the crystals received from the players these days into the system card pool.

As expected, there was a new series of Destiny HERO in his system card pool.

Its just that the Destiny HERO series has always been relatively weak in the real card environment, so there were not many cards in the series that can come in handy. The cards that Yuei Vu has opened these days, such as Captain Tenacious, Blade Master, Dread Servant, etc., were all useless.

It wasnt until today that he finally issued a few cards that could be used.

[Destiny HERO Malicious, Level 6, ATK 800. Effect: You can banish this card from your GY; Special Summon 1 Destiny HERO Malicious from your Deck.]

[Destiny HERO Celestial, Level 4, ATK 1600. Effect: When this card attacks, it can destroy a face-up Spell Card on the field and deal 500 points of damage to the opponent. When your hand is 0, you can remove this card and another Destiny HERO from the Graveyard from the game, and you can draw two cards, but this effect cannot be used on the turn you send it to the Graveyard.]

Finally, when the crystals in Yuei Vu's inventory were close to running out again, accompanied by a flash of colorful light, the system card pool finally had a conscience, and spit out a legend of the Destiny HERO series for him. A hero who looked moldy inside and out.

[Destiny HERO Disk Commander, Level 1, ATK 300. Effect: When this card is Special Summoned from the Graveyard, draw 2 cards.]

This thing was once regarded as a Thousands of Years Banned card that could never be released like the Pot of Greed. It wasn't until the effect text was revised in 2018 that the restriction the effect of Disk Commander can only be used once per Duel, and it cannot be Special Summoned from the GY the turn this card was sent to the GY was added, and this heroic brother finally saw the light of day again.

Because the Elemental HERO deck that Yuei Vu was currently using was also a part of the HERO series, the two series could still be used together.

These Destiny HEROes have strengthened Yuei Vu's current deck operation and endurance to a certain extent, and it also brought the HERO deck in his hand one step closer to the complete form of the later generation.

After strengthening the deck, then the first thing to do was to find someone to practice and test the strength of the new deck.

But it's still at home in the middle of the night, so the only one who could be used to practice was naturally

A few minutes later, in the alley behind the dream card shop.

The Dark Magician Girl wore a Duel Disk on her slender arm, and the field in front of her was empty. On the opposite, Yuei Vu had Elemental HERO Gaia, Elemental HERO Thunder Giant, Elemental HERO Nova Master

In short, a few tall, powerful and well-equipped heroes were blocking the weak and helpless magician girl against the corner. If this was a hentai anime, the next scene would be quite discordant

The Dark Magician Girl swallowed, took two steps back, and covered her face: MasterMaster, please be gentle

Yuei Vu:

Girl, don't say things that are so easily misunderstood.

Obviously, we are just playing cards, don't make people passing by outside think we are doing something that needs to be censored

The Dark Magician Girl closed her eyes. However, after waiting for a long time, the expected shock did not come.

The girl opened her eyes suspiciously.

What's the situation? Haven't started yet?

Then she only saw that the images of the tall and burly heroes in front of Yuei Vu had disappeared one after another, and the stereoscopic projection system of the Duel Disk had been turned off.

The girl blinked dumbly.

Ah? its over?

MasterMaster?

The duel is over. Its just a test anyway. Yuei Vu shrugged.

oh oh.

The Dark Magician Girl nodded her head.

Master is so considerate!

Sure enough, Master is the best!

[Favorability +10]

Yuei Vu put away the Duel Disk and brought the happy spirit girl back to the store. As soon as he entered, he saw Chika standing by the door with a strange expression.

Yuei Vu.

Yuei Vu: ?

Why are you so serious all of a sudden?

This silly girl isnt going to have a showdown, is she?

Chika raised her head seriously: Teach me how to duel.

Huh? Yuei Vu didnt react at first.

Teach me how to duel. Chika said with a serious face, I will definitely study very hard. I will take notes carefully, practice very diligently, and I will definitely memorize anything that needs to be memorized. I will do whatever you let me do

Wait, wait a minute, Yuei Vu interrupted, Before that, why did you suddenly decide to learn to duel? Do you want to participate in some competition?

Chikas little head shook like a rattle.

Because because I just saw in the window, that Miss Magician is accompanying you in a duel. She said softly, If if I learn it, I can practice with you

Yuei Vu:

Chapter 204: Yuei's Dueling Classroom

Yuei Vu:

Chika said that she wanted to learn how to play cards from him, but did you think she really wanted to learn how to play cards?

What she really wanted might be to warm the bed!

In fact, how could Yuei Vu fail to see the girls carelessness? Even if Chika was born with facial paralysis and poor emotional expression ability, the Favorability would not lie.

Until now, Chika still occasionally has a few lines of words like Favorability +5 popping up on her head. After getting used to it, Yuei Vu was almost numb to it

But she was still a high school student, not yet an adult at the moment.

If Yuei Vu obeyed so casually, then later would he just go to bed with any girl?

This is a matter of principle!

But if its just teaching how to play cards, its not impossible to consider it.

At this moment, the materialized body of the Dark Magician Girl appeared in front of the two of them: MasterMaster! I want to learn too!

What? Yuei Vu said unexpectedly, You also want to learn how to cook Ah bah, learn how to duel?

The spirit girl nodded vigorously.

Yuei Vu felt strange.

What do you want to learn to play cards for? Wouldnt it be great if you could beat someone up for me?

Yes, yes. She stuck out her tongue a little embarrassedly, Because because my skills are too bad, I cant make Master happy every time. So I also want to become better

Thats it. Yuei Vu thought for a while and felt that what she said made sense.

Even if it was just as his training partner, a higher level was naturally beneficial.

its a bit rude to say this, but now the Dark Magician Girls understanding of duels basically stayed in the realm of you attack me, I attack you. Playing cards with her gave Yuei Vu the illusion that he was torturing a simple AI bot

Okay, okay, but its already very late today. Yuei Vu said helplessly, Well I will teach you if I have time tomorrow.

Okay! Dark Magician Girl said, after thinking for a while, she turned to Chika again, After that, please give me more advice!

Chika glanced at Miss Magicians body, judging that it was at least D-cup, and then looking down at her own size, and suddenly turned her head away unconsciously and let out an awkward hmm.

Nothing else, shes just a little dizzy

Since the matter was agreed upon, it was naturally inconvenient to procrastinate. At noon the next day, Yuei Vu specially took time to give lectures to the two students.

Chika was really well prepared. Yuei Vus side hasnt started the lecture yet, she has already sat upright, with a notebook and a water-based pen in front of her, like a good student who must listen carefully in the front row of every class in a college classroom.

Although he felt that no one in this worldview would understand the rules of dueling monsters, Yuei Vu still briefly explained the basic rules from the beginning.

Including the starting five cards, basic settings such as Monster Zone, Spell Trap Zone, graveyard, and the difference of card types, etc

Chika listened carefully and took notes the whole time. And Miss Magician seemed to be listening to the masters lecture without blinking her eyes, but her attention was not where it should be at all.

In the girls heart: I suddenly found that the masters voice is also very nice, I didnt pay attention before

Well, some students just have this kind of ability to listen to the teachers lecture with their ears up, and at the same time, they were distracted

After briefly talking about the rules, Yuei Vu continued: And then you should all know that the most important thing in a duel is the card. After all, the card is the duelists most powerful weapon, and it is not an exaggeration to say that it is the soul

The Dark Magician Girl, who had been distracted for a long time, didnt miss this sentence, and she immediately became proud.

Master said that the card is the duelists soul + I am Masters card = I am the soul of Master?

The girl immediately raised her head and chest, and was a little proud.

So, let me take a look at your deck first.

Of course, even if he didnt look at her deck, he could probably imagine what kind of state it was.

The result was indeed as he expected.

As for Dark Magician Girl, Yuei Vu also knew the construction of her deck clearly, because she used so many times against him. What she used was basically the Normies (mainly Spellcaster). In laymans terms, it was card piles deck

Howhow is it, master? The Dark Magician Girl asked nervously, Is my deck not good enough?

Well, if he really wanted to tell the truth, then Yuei Vu might say there is no hope, just dig a hole and bury it

Well, of course, he couldnt say that.

Yuei Vu decided to find a way to make her realize the problem.

Yuei Vu pondered for a moment, shuffled her deck, and then handed over the deck.

Suppose you are dueling me now, he said, draw five cards.

oh oh.

Although she didnt know his intentions, Dark Magician Girl would always obey her masters words unconditionally. She obediently drew five cards, flipped them over, and showed them to her master.

Two low-star Normies, two high-star monsters, and a Spell Card of unknown meaning, a very common starting hand.

Look, if you have a hand like this, in the first turn, you can only summon one monster. Yuei Vu said, The five cards in the starting hand dont have any linkage or synergy, so the operable space is zero.

After all, Duel Monster is not a game to be won with only one card. Each of the forty cards in a deck has their own value and significance

But But there is a synergy in my deck! the Dark Magician Girl said, Its just that I didnt get it

This is the problem. Yuei Vu said, In actual combat, the opponent will not listen to your excuses. If you fail to draw the combination you want, you lose, thats all. So what I want to teach you today is the basic of basics. You must try to reduce the possibility of this situation in actual combat

I I understand, Master! The Dark Magician Girl suddenly realized.

Yuei Vu nodded slightly.

Well, as expected of my spirit partner, her comprehension is still good.

Dark Magician Girl: That is to say, the first step in training to become a true duelist is to be able to draw the cards you want, right?

Yuei Vu:

Soso thats the case. Chika also looked serious, Indeed, if you cant get the card you want, no matter how powerful your combo is, its useless

As he talked, he began to take notes in a small notebook.

Yuei Vu: No, that I want to say

Thats it! The duelists and their respective cards are closely connected! said the Dark Magician Girl, As long as there is a bond between each other, our cards will definitely respond to the duelists!

In fact, there was still the second half of the sentence she didnt say

just like me and Master! (proud face)

She said and blinked at Yuei Vu: Right, master?

Yuei Vu: Uhuh yes.

In fact, what the Dark Magician Girl said seemed to be true.

Chapter 205: Target: The Ultimate D

So, I hear that youve seen Mr. Pegasus?

At nine oclock in the evening. Mr. Phoenix was on the phone with Yuei Vu while leading his son on the way home from the company.

Little Aster bounced all the way, as if the higher he jumped, the better he could hear what was being said on the phone.

Ah, its true. Yuei Vu said, Mr. Pegasus hopes that I can help in the development of the Elemental HERO series, and he also said that he will design a new deck for me.

Oh? Then congratulations. Mr. Pegasus usually doesn't design cards himself easily now. Mr. Phoenix said, But often only the cards designed by him are the best.

This was true. It was well known that Pegasus created the three Egyptian Gods, the symbol of the pinnacle of this field.

And before Pegasus, all the designers who had worked on the production of the Three Egyptian Gods were either dead or crazy, and only Pegasus, who possessed the power of the Millennium Eye, was able to complete this work.

The ATK/DEF and text description of the duel monster card were actually not something that the creator could write at will. The effect and strength of each card generally depended on the strength of the supernatural power contained in that card.

As many people already knew by now, Duel Monsters was not originally a card game, but an ancient ritual handed down from ancient Egypt.

In that era, monster spirits were all sealed in stone slabs, and the duelists were all directly competing for the strength of the spirits at that time, and there was no such thing as attack power, defense power or effect description.

In the card games developed to this era, the attack power and effect text of each card were all embodied by the power contained in the card under the constraints of the rules of the card game called Duel Monster.

The simplest example is the Three Phantom Gods. Of course, it was impossible for the Egyptian God to allow the designer to scribble effect text on the surface of his card. If he wrote a wrong word, or some effect description made Egyptian God dissatisfied, he may be immediately punished by God.

In other words, the effect of the Three Egyptian God cards was probably printed by the three of them themselves. A more detailed explanation was the text embodied by the power of God under the rules of the Duel Monster game, so it has a powerful effect of destroying the balance of the game in the current environment.

Occasionally, there were powerful spirits like Blue-Eyes White Dragon, Red-Eyes Black Dragon, and Dark Magician. The cards they conjured up seem to have average attack power or even be a Normal monster. That's just because the power of the spirits has not been fully developed.

Regardless of Blue-Eyes, Red-Eyes, or Dark Magician, the power of spirits was not just sealed in the card. They had a large basket of support cards, and there were follow-up vests such as the Red-Eyes Dragoon or Blue-Eyes Chaos MAX Dragon. These were also the hidden power of the spirits.

Having said that, Yuei Vu asked, how is your Destiny HERO developing?

Mr. Phoenix smiled mysteriously: Well, I have made considerable progress since I dueled with you last time. To tell you the truth, a card that has been under development recently has finally been completed.

This is a work I am quite proud of, and it should be the highest achievement I can achieve as a designer in my life. This card is the final posture of the Destiny HERO in my fantasy, and it means the same to me as the Three Egyptian Gods to Mr. Pegasus Yuei Vu's expression changed a little when he heard this.

Hey, if you put it this way, that card could be

At this point in the conversation, the voice of Mr. Phoenix on the other end of the phone suddenly changed: Who are you? What are you doing? Aster, come behind me

That's all for the sound.

Yuei Vu raised his volume and yelled into the phone for a long time, but he didn't get any reply. All he got back was the disturbing busy tone.

Yuei Vu put down the phone and frowned.

From what Mr. Phoenix said on the phone just now, it seemed that the card called Ultimate D Destiny HERO Plasma has been completed at this time.

In the anime timeline, a third-rate duelist named DD killed Mr. Phoenix and took the card of Plasma from his hand. Then DD was possessed by the huge evil power sealed in the Plasma card, and sold his soul to the devil in exchange for extremely powerful power.

Obviously, the murderer obtained enough force to instantly become a high-star duelist through the Plasma card. After that, he turned from a third-rate duelist who was so poor to a world champion, and continued to win the championship for the next ten years, becoming a legend in the professional dueling league circle.

But Yuei Vu remembered that in Yu-Gi-Oh! GX's flashback, it should have been a burglary, and the location should be at Mr. Phoenix's home.

Could it be that the butterfly effect caused slight changes in the timeline?

But now he didn't have time to think about it. After Yuei Vu hung up the phone, he immediately dialed Nightcrawler World.

President Kawasaki Gai answered the phone quickly: Hello? Yuei Vu? What's the matter?

It sounds like he should be in the headquarter because the background sound behind him was too noisy. Yuei Vu heard a rough voice singing at the top of his throat and vaguely heard a big man shouting angrily, Who just took off my pants

Listening to the sound, one could imagine a group of brothers and sisters singing and dancing.

Yuei Vu went straight to the point: I need to track down a phone number, a person whom I just called half a minute ago, and I need to know the location as soon as possible.

Ah? Oh okay, just wait for a while.

Although Nightcrawler World was a card club that seemed to be developing towards the macho club, it was actually a Shadow Duelist organization that is involved in many industries and fields, and there was no shortage of first-class hackers.

Even Shadow Duelists have to keep up with the times.

Modern technology was so advanced, the Shadow Duelists were pleasantly surprised to find that there were still many things that can be solved by means other than playing cards

With Yuei Vus current prestige and status in the organization, using these resources only needed one sentence. President Kawasaki Gai didnt even ask the reason, and directly arranged for his request.

Dad Dad. Little Aster shrank behind his father with some fear, and hugged the latters leg.

Appearing in front of them was a poorly dressed uncle with stubble on his chin. He wore a pair of cracked glasses on the bridge of his nose. Behind the lenses were beast-like dangerous eyes, with scarlet light flickering faintly in the pupils.

Mr. Phoenix asked in a deep voice, Who are you? What do you want to do?

The uncle smiled strangely twice, and slowly raised his arm and the Duel Disk on it.

Lets have a duel. The uncle said coldly, take that ultimate card as a bet!

Chapter 206: The Light of Destruction

Ughhhhh!!!

Mr. Phoenix, LP0

Even though the field was covered with Destiny HEROes and formed a front like a copper wall, Mr. Phoenix was still defeated by the opponents extremely tyrannical power.

The Destiny HEROes on his field were all wiped out, and all his tricks were solved. As the LP returned to zero, he felt as if something inside his body had also been taken away.

Its like the soul is being gradually erased by unseen forces.

A card surrounded by white light floated out of Phoenixs clothes and flew into the hands of the uncle opposite.

Destiny HEROPlasma, the hero who brings the end to all things, is also the carrier of the evil consciousness Light of Destruction from the depths of the universe.

The world of Yu-Gi-Oh involved various elements in various fields, and aliens were no exception.

The ace monster of Yuki Judai, Elemental HERO Neos, was affectionately called Elemental HERO Ultraman by netizens. It was said that it was born in the distant M78 Nebula after accepting the mysterious cosmic fluctuations.

Light of Destruction was Neoss old enemy, an evil cosmic consciousness that was trying to invade the Earth and destroy everything.

But now, this evil consciousness was boarding in the card of Plasma, looking for a suitable host with a dark and evil heart.

The uncle who appeared in front of Phoenix and his son at this time was a person with evil intentions. He appeared here because he was bewitched by the Light of Destruction.

The uncle took the card of Plasma, and the scarlet light in his eyes suddenly became more eye-catching.

Are you calling me? He asked in a hoarse and trembling voice.

Yes, that's right. The majestic voice of the broken light sounded in his mind, I have been looking for a long time, someone with darkness in his heart who can inspire my strength to the maximum.

Come on, don't hesitate, give me your body and soul! That way you can get everything you've ever dreamed of! Talent for dueling, money, wealth, women anything!

I

The uncle gritted his teeth, raised the card in his hand, and closed his eyes, as if shouting hoarsely with his soul.

Mr. Phoenix tried his last strength to get up: Stopstop

But it was too late.

The card of Destiny HERO Plasma released an incredibly powerful force to envelop the uncle, as if squeezing his soul away and forcibly occupying his body.

Then the uncle raised his head and started laughing, even his voice was distorted.

Destroy, destroy! Destroy everything!

Mr. Phoenix watched the demon he unintentionally created broke out of the cage, feeling resentful but powerless at the same time.

He had already lost the duel. The power of the shattered light was eroding his body, erasing his soul, and soon his consciousness should be wiped out too.

At this point, there was nothing he could do.

Until he turned his head with difficulty and saw the helpless son beside him with tears on his face

Then he rekindled his obsession with survival.

By the way, he still can't die No, he doesn't dare to die.

If he died so simply, what would happen to Aster?

He couldn't imagine what the future of life would be like for Aster, who watched his father die in front of his eyes.

If it was for his son, even if he forced himself to give up everything, he must stand up no matter what!

That uncle should be said to be Light of Destruction now, was a little surprised when he saw Mr. Phoenix getting up tremblingly: Huh? Does he still have the strength to resist?

Mr. Phoenix's muscles were screaming, his brain was like an overclocked computer on the verge of crashing at any time, and his legs were not in control. But even so, he still stood up like a tenacious bamboo.

I can't fall down yet. He panted heavily, I still have unfinished business and unfulfilled responsibilities. Until then I can't die yet.

Stupid. Light of Destruction sneered, manipulating the puppet body he had just seized and raising his right hand, Your spirit and soul are good. Since this is the case, I will give you this special opportunity to make your soul become nourishments for the card that you designed yourself!

While speaking, the white light of destruction lit up in his palm, piercing so much that people couldn't open their eyes, as if he wanted to wipe everything into nothingness.

Mr. Phoenix raised his arms in front of him, and clenched his teeth: Aster

If it only took half a second longer, perhaps his soul would really be sucked away, just like in the original timeline of the anime, forever imprisoned in the card of Plasma without seeing the light of day again.

But that didn't happen.

A girl's crisp and sweet drink pierced the night: Dark Burning Attack!!!

The dazed Light of Destruction was taken aback, and hastily retreated and turned to defend, but it was still a step too late. The entity's magical energy light bullets bombarded the body he was controlling, and with a bang, he was blown far away.

Mr. Phoenix! Aster!

Yuei Vu jumped down from a high place, and the magician girl floated beside him holding a small staff like a guardian.

Brother Yuei Vu! Little Aster wiped away his tears in surprise as if he saw a savior.

Yuei Yuei Vu

It seemed that after seeing Yuei Vu's appearance, he felt that his son was temporarily safe. Mr. Phoenix's tense nerves relaxed a little, and he fell down immediately.

Yuei Vu squatted down beside him: Are you okay?

It's okay, I'm just a little tired. Mr. Phoenix smiled weakly, Although I know this is a willful and unreasonable request, if something happens to me, please take care of Aster

Little Aster was overwhelmed with fright: Dad

Ah~ah. Light of Destruction who was just blown away by the Dark Magician Girl manipulated the body and stood up again, Oh, isn't this the recently famous Duel King? I'm really surprised, do you have such a powerful monster spirit?

He smiled strangely and opened the Duel Disk in his hand again.

The strange white light was released from him, surrounding several people.

It feels a bit like a Shadow Game.

It's just in time. The soul of the Duel King should have extraordinary nourishment. Light of Destruction sneered, Then let me be here and solve all of you.

Yuei Vu didn't say a word, but also stood up and opened the Duel Disk, which was regarded as accepting the duel with action.

Master, be careful. Dark Magician Girl whispered, This man is very strong! I can feel it.

Ah, I know. Yuei Vu nodded.

In the animation, a down-and-out third-rate duelist just got a Plasma card and went straight to the sky, winning the world championship for ten consecutive years.

Judging from his performance, he has gone from Rank 2 to Rank 8 in one go with the boost of Plasmas card.

If simply used the force contained in the card spirit like Yuei Vu, it was impossible to raise so many Ranks with one card.

But Light of Destruction did not lend its force to the duelist. What he did was to kill the duelists soul as the host directly, and replace it with himself.

In other words, it was demonic possession.

So now the body opposite Yuei Vu was probably just an empty shell, and the consciousness of the original owner has long been wiped out. What he was facing now was Light of Destruction, the deity that has taken away that body.

Since Light of Destruction has the ability to win the world championship for ten consecutive years in the anime, even if it was conservatively estimated, its Rank should be at least eight stars, and it was an opponent that cannot be underestimated.

Duel! x2

Yuei Vu, LP 4000

Light of Destruction, LP 4000

Chapter 207: Destiny End

Duel! x2

Its up to me to go first, draw! While drawing a card, Yuei Vu wondered if his rate of going first seemed to have increased recently

First, I use the Spell Card Pot of Greed. According to the effect of this card, I can draw two cards from the deck. Then activate the effect of the The Tricky in my hand. Yuei Vu took out a card.

I discard a card, and special summon The Tricky from my hand!

With a hand card sent to the graveyard, the magician with question marks all over his body appeared on the field with his arms folded, and the cloak behind him was automatic without wind.

[The Tricky, attack power 2000]

Then set a card and I end my turn.

Yuei Vu ended his first turn. At the same time, Mr. Phoenix on the side reminded with difficulty: Be be careful, Yuei Vu. He has a very scary card I made in his hand

I know. Yuei Vu smiled lightly at him, I will be careful.

Destiny HERO Plasma, although it was ridiculed by the audience as fake invincible hero according to the animation performance, the effect of this card was still quite powerful. It had the ability to negate the effects of all monsters on the opponents field.

This ability was quite terrifying. Especially in the environment where the meta decks of later generations pay more and more attention to powerful monster effects, and gradually weaken or even ignore the attack power of monsters, this kind of continuous effect became more important.

But Plasma was similar to the three Egyptian Gods. In the animation, there was only one card and it was not easy to retrieve, and the summoning condition also required three sacrifices (except that Plasma was a special summon). It should not be that easy to come on stage.

Light of Destruction hummed and laughed a few times: Then its my turn, draw! Activate the Spell Card from the hand Foolish Burial, and send the EARTH monster Giant Flea from the deck to the graveyard.

As he spoke, he took out a Normal monster card, showed it to Yuei Vu, and then sent it to the graveyard.

Yuei Vu frowned.

It was especially emphasized that it was an EARTH monster

Then there is the effect of The Rock Spirit in my hand this card can be Special Summoned from the hand by removing 1 EARTH monster in my graveyard from the game!

I removed Giant Flea from the game, and special summoned The Rock Spirit!

The card of the Giant Flea popped up from the Duel Disks graveyard area, and a warrior dressed in armor and holding a battle ax, with skin as pale as a rock, appeared on the field of Light of Destruction.

[The Rock Spirit, ATK 1700]

Then I use the The Rock Spirit as a sacrifice for Tribute Summon! Light of Destruction revealed the card in his hand, Appear! Amphibian Beast!

A swirling wave of water engulfed The Rock Spirit and dragged it to the bottom of the water. A green murloc covered in scales emerged from the turbulent waves.

[Amphibian Beast, ATK 2400]

Little Aster gritted his teeth: He summoned such a powerful monster instantly, and its ATK surpassed the ATK of Brother Yuei Vus monster

I attack The Tricky with Amphibian Beast!

The green murloc jumped up lightly and landed in front of the magician. His claws fell sharply, and The Tricky was completely powerless to resist. The question mark on his chest was cut into three by the sharp claws, and his figure was also shattered.

Yuei Vu ate this painless injury expressionlessly.

Yuei Vu, LP 4000 LP 3600

Set a card, I end my turn. Light of Destruction smiled ferociously, The Duel King seems to be nothing more than that. Soon I will bury you, just like that guy over there.

He said provocatively and gestured to Mr. Phoenix.

My turn. Yuei Vu still ignored it and drew a card.

I summon Elemental HERO Liquid Soldier.

The water rolled up on the ground, and a hero in a blue-green tight uniform appeared on the field, surrounded by dynamic water.

[Elemental HERO Liquid Soldier, ATK 1400]

The effect of Liquid Soldier When this card is Normal Summoned: I can target 1 Level 4 or lower HERO monster in my GY, except Elemental HERO Liquid Soldier; Special Summon it. While Yuei Vu was speaking, the card discarded by The Trickys effect in the last turn bounced back to his hand.

Special Summon Elemental HERO Blazeman!

This time, the flames spread from the ground, and the hero in the fiery red tights and yellow goggles appeared beside Liquid Soldier bathed in the flames.

[Elemental HERO Blazeman, ATK 1200]

When Blazeman is summoned, I can add 1 Polymerization from my Deck to my hand. Yuei Vu pulled out the deck, picked out the Polymerization, turned it over, and showed it to the opponent.

Light of Destruction snorted: Such a long series of operations, yet your purpose is still Fusion Summoning?

Activate Spell Card Polymerization! A green Spell Card appeared in front of Yuei Vu with a golden light effect, I fuse the Elemental HERO Liquid Soldier and Elemental HERO Blazeman on the field!

The fusion condition is 1 Elemental HERO monster + 1 FIRE monster!

Fusion Summon! Elemental HERO Nova Master!

The two heroes, one water and one fire, jumped into the fusion vortex, and the energy that erupted was like a volcanic eruption. The hero in the red-gold armor landed boldly on the field, his flying cloak like a banner.

[Elemental HERO Nova Master, ATK 2600]

Battle! Yuei Vu said, Elemental HERO Nova Master, attack Amphibian Beast!

The Nova Master raised his palm from the air, his fingers to his gauntlets wrapped in scorching energy. The scorching rays shot through the air, and the scorching high temperature made the half-fish and beast groan in a low voice, and it was shattered under the impact of the flames.

Light of Destruction, LP 4000 LP 3800

Hey, this level of attack cant kill me, Duel King. The Light of Destruction taunted while waving his arms, Activate Trap Card Soul Rope!

When a monster on my field is destroyed and sent to the Graveyard, pay 1000 LP and Special Summon a Level 4 monster from my Deck! (anime effect)

Light of Destruction, LP 3800 LP 2800

He opened the deck to find the card and put another Normal monster on the Duel Disk.

This time it was a warrior with no head, wearing white armor that grabbed the golden rope released from the trap card and came to the field. He held a long sword in his hand, which was particularly eerie and strange.

[Headless Knight, ATK 1450]

Yuei Vu glanced at the knight, and then glanced at the cards in Light of Destructions hand.

Sacrifice 1,000 LP in exchange for a Normal monster Did he intend to use it as a sacrifice?

So, that guy should have drawn the invincible Plasma?

The effect of Elemental HERO Nova Master, Yuei Vu drew a card from the deck, If this card destroys an opponents monster by battle: Draw 1 card. I end my turn.

Is it over? Very good. The Light of Destruction sneered, Because this duel is about to end soon as well as your life!

My turn, draw!

I activate the Pot of Greed and draw two more cards from the deck.

Then I summon the Marauding Captain!

A blond-haired captain in armor appeared on the field, holding two swords and shaking his cloak smartly.

Then there is the effect of Marauding Captain! When this card is Normal Summoned, I can Special Summon 1 Level 4 or lower monster from my hand! Special Summon the Moon Envoy!

This time, a Normie wearing blue armor appeared. He was said to be a warrior who served the goddess of the moon. The weapon in his hand was a spear shaped like a crescent moon.

[Moon Envoy, ATK 1100]

From this, it could be seen that the Duelist Rank of the Light of Destruction is extraordinary, and the force contained in it may also exceed the upper limit of ordinary humans.

He obviously used the deck of DD. There were so many Normies in the deck, but he could still play such a combo without any sign of a dead draw. This ability alone was enough for him to crush most duelists of this era.

And in this way, there were three monsters on the field of Light of Destruction.

Everyone knew what he was going to do next.

Its an honor for you to be defeated in front of this ultimate power! The Light of Destruction roared, raised his arm, and showed a card in his hand, I use Marauding Captain, Headless Knight and Moon Envoy as sacrifices, call for the ultimate power!

The hero of despair who ends the fate of all things, Destiny HEROPlasma!

Chapter 208: The Ultimate D

The moment that card was placed on the Duel Disk, the world seemed to change color.

The dark night seemed to be covered with a blood-colored curtain, and the bright colors seemed to drip down at any time.

Only those who have personally experienced it here could feel that this was definitely not the effect that stereoscopic images could project: bloody sky, chaotic air currents, evil light interspersed with the blood-red storm, laughing wildly as it raged as if the devil had broken free from the shackles of hell.

And the monster bred from that oppressive atmosphere was the Destiny HERO known as Ultimate D, Plasma.

It was a dark red hero, and the tight uniform wrapped around his body like a demons curse. He has huge wings like a hang glider, and a dragon-head-shaped weapon is mounted on his right wrist. Just appearing on the stage gives people a dull and muddy sense of oppression.

[Destiny HERO Plasma, ATK 1900]

Has it finally appeared? Yuei Vu said lightly.

Surrender under the power of the end of destiny! The Light of Destruction shouted, The effect of Plasma is activated! Once per turn, I can select 1 monster on the opponents side of the field and equip it to this card! Come over here, Elemental HERO Nova Master!

The blood-red hero spread his wings, and countless tentacles shot out from the dripping wings, capturing the Nova Masters body like a vine whip.

The Nova Master tried his best to release the flames, searing the tentacles wrapped around his body with powerful energy and high temperature. But no matter how hard he tried, he couldnt shake it at all.

The hero of the flame was dragged powerlessly into the huge wings, turned into the nourishment of Plasma, and became a part of his body.

Then Plasmas attack power will increase by half of the equipped monsters attack power, and it will gain the equipped monsters effect!

[Destiny HERO Plasma, ATK 1900 ATK 3200]

Sure enough, the effect of Plasma was also different from the real-life version that Yuei Vu remembered.

The real-life Plasma could also absorb the opponents monsters, but it could only absorb the attack power and not the effect. However, as long as it is face-up on the field, all effects of monsters on the opponents field are negated.

In fact, from the perspective of modern card players, there was no doubt that the real-life effect of Plasma was stronger than that in the animation. This was also a rare animation card whose effect did not decrease after the defictionalization.

If it really came out according to the animation effect, this card might not be on the table at all.

In this way, it shouldnt be too difficult to get rid of the Plasma in front of him.

Of course, that was a question to be considered in the next turn.

The Light of Destruction roared with a ferocious expression: Plasma, attack the player directly! Tear him into pieces for me! Bloody Fears!

Plasma opened his wings that seemed to cover the sky and the sun, and the power of chaos turned into countless liquid droplets and emerged on his wings, like a rain of blood sweeping toward Yuei Vu!

Yuei Vu turned over the cover card: Activate Trap Card Damage Diet! In this turn, all damage I received is halved!

Countless blood arrows pierced his body. He could feel the tyrannical energy of the light of destruction contained in it, and the heart-pounding pain spread densely to his whole body.

Yuei Vu gritted his teeth and took half a step back, finally withstanding the violent shock.

Yuei Vu, LP 3600 LP 2000

Hmph, such a meaningless struggling, what you're doing is just prolonging your own pain. Light of Destruction snorted arrogantly, Set a card, I end my turn!

My turn! Yuei Vu glanced at the drawn card, Activate the Pot of Greed, and draw two cards from the deck.

Sure enough, it was beneficial to recharge the bond with the deck. Yuei Vu, whose Rank was as high as seven stars, did not have the problem of dead draw.

Two cards were drawn, and a combo appeared in his hand immediately.

I summon the Magicians Rod in attack position!

An illusory light blue magician image appeared on the field,

The whole body was like a phantom, only the green staff in his hand was solid.

[Magicians Rod, ATK 1600]

The effect of Magicians Rod When this card is Normal Summoned: I can add 1 Spell/Trap from my Deck to my hand, that mentions Dark Magician. I add the Quick-Play Spell Illusion Magic to the hand card.

Yuei Vu pulled out the deck, found Illusion Magic and showed it to the opponent, then shuffled the deck and inserted the deck back into the duel board.

Its useless. Light of Destruction hugged his arms and snorted, Facing the power of Plasma, everything is futile.

Yuei Vu ignored it completely: Activate Quick-Play Spell Illusion Magic! Tribute 1 Spellcaster monster; add up to 2 copies of Dark Magician from my Deck and/or GY to my hand.

I tribute the Magicians Rod, and added two Dark Magician cards from the deck to my hand!

The Light of Destruction snorted, Hey, wouldn't your field be empty in this way? Are you going to stay like this to meet the attack of Plasma in the next turn?

Spell Card Dark Magic Veil is activated! The card appeared in front of Yuei Vu, Pay 1000 LP; Special Summon 1 DARK Spellcaster-Type monster from your hand or Graveyard.

Come out, Dark Magician!

Yuei Vu, LP 2000 LP 1000

The magic circle emerged out of thin air, and every line that formed the magic circle seemed to be burning blazingly under the wrapping of pitch-black flames. The red-robed and white-haired mage flew out with a green wand in his hand, flipping the wand lightly in his hand, and came to the field with a clear shout.

[Dark Magician, ATK 2500]

The Light of Destruction let out a huh: Did you actually call out a high-level monster? But even Dark Magician

Activate the Spell Card from the hand Thousand Knives! A Spell Card appeared in front of Yuei Vu, When I control a Dark Magician, a monster on the field will be destroyed!

The face of the Light of Destruction changed slightly: Its actually direct destruction!?

Countless images of flying knives emerged, surrounding Plasma in the middle like a rain of flowers. With a wave of the Dark Magicians staff, the magic power was activated, and the flying knives shot through the air.

Its not that easy! Light of Destruction waved his hand back, Activate Quick-Play Spell My Body as a Shield! When the opponent activates a card that has the effect that destroys 1 or more monsters on the field, pay 1500 Life Points to negate the activation of the card and destroy it!

Light of Destruction, LP 2800 LP 1300

A transparent golden shield floated around Plasmas body, and the flying knives hit that shield but returned in vain. The Spell Card Thousand Knives beside Yuei Vu also cracked with a burst of golden light and disappeared.

Yuei Vu looked at the card on the opponents field that gradually became transparent, and couldnt help but pouted slightly.

Damn, he dodged it.

It was worthy of being the big BOSS in the mid-term of GX. Even now, the Light of Destruction doesnt have a single extra card in his hand, and each card can be used just right.

This once again proved that a true duelist would never dead draw, and this iron rule was even applicable to existences outside the earth

Set two cards, I end my turn. Yuei Vu said.

Heh heh heh, is there nothing you can do? But of course, its not your fault. Light of Destruction sneered, Then its my turn, draw!

After drawing the card this time, the corner of the uncles mouth twitched, and he couldnt hold back his excitement and burst out laughing.

Youre thinking, if Plasma is just a monster of this level, it can be easily dealt with, right?

Yuei Vu:

After all, you are a Duel King. If I think that this level of strength can defeat you, then it is my fault. Then let me get serious!

The Light of Destruction laughed cheerfully, and showed the last card in his hand: Spell Card, D Force is activated!

A green Spell Card emerged on the field, and at that moment a majestic force erupted from the bloody Destiny HERO. A mass of destructive white light rushed into the sky, like a silver dragon rushing into the clouds, sending out a roar that shocked the world.

The Light of Destruction laughed out loud, and then unexpectedly

He inserted this Spell Card face-up back to the top of his deck!

At the same time, the whole aura of the Plasma on his field changed instantly, as if some kind of inner restriction was untied, and a majestic and frightening energy burst out!

Look! This is the real power of Plasma that has been sealed, and this D Force is the key to breaking this confinement! Light of Destruction laughed, After activation, this card will be placed face-up at the top of my Deck.

While D Force is face-up at the top of my Deck, I cannot draw during my Draw Phase, but the true power of Plasma will be unleashed!

As long as this card is there, Plasma is unaffected by the effect of your Spell or Trap Cards, and the effects of all face-up Effect Monsters you control are negated!

Chapter 209: Are You Capable?

With the blessing of D Force, Plasma is invincible!

Light of Destruction sneered maliciously and glanced at the Dark Magician on Yuei Vus field.

I use the ability of Plasma to absorb the Dark Magician Although I really want to say that, because only one monster can be equipped on Plasma at a time, so it can't be done

He raised his voice and shouted: But it doesn't matter, this will be your end anyway! Plasma, attack the Dark Magician! Bloody Fears!

Plasma flew into the air, spreading his wings. The blood-colored liquid turned into torrential rain and poured down, densely covering Yuei Vus field.

The Dark Magician turned the wand to release the magic circle barrier to resist, but it didn't work at all. Blood-red dense raindrops hit the magic circle and exploded violently centered on the Dark Magician, turning into a cloud of blood mist to envelop him.

A bloody storm erupted from the materialized image, and Little Aster was blinded from being blown away from far away.

He cried out worriedly: B brother Yuei Vu!

The Light of Destruction sneered: Hmph, it's really effortless.

However, when the storm dissipated and the situation on the field resumed, everyone immediately saw that the Dark Magician on Yuei Vus field was still safe and sound as if the attack just now was just an illusion.

Yuei Vu, LP 300

What? Light of Destruction was astonished, Why wasn't Dark Magician destroyed?

Because I just activated the Trap Card, Black Illusion. Yuei Vu said lightly, During this turn, all DARK Spellcaster-Type monsters with 2000 or more ATK on my field will not be destroyed by battle, nor be affected by any opponents card effects.

So thats it. Light of Destruction snorted, It doesnt matter, even if you save the Dark Magician, its useless. Plasma is invincible, and through the attack just now, your LP is like a candle in the wind. Anyway, the next turn is over!

Yuei Brother Yuei Vu Little Aster bit his lip as if he was about to cry.

Mr. Phoenix also fell into self-blame: Its all my fault for making this card. I created such a terrifying demon with my own hands

Dont blame yourself, Mr. Phoenix. Yuei Vu said calmly without turning his head, This is not your fault. Although the card of Plasma was designed by you, the evil power residing in it was not created by you.

Even if you didnt design this card, this force will find other carriers and poison someone else.

Mr. Phoenix:

But dont worry, it doesnt matter anymore. Yuei Vu smiled, Because right now, I will destroy him within this turn.

Light of Destruction laughed out loud.

Because you are the Duel King, I still had some expectations for you Now it seems that I was worrying too much. Light of Destruction sneered, Sure enough, does the duelist who represents the top level of this planet can only fight by his tongue?

Lets face it! There is an invincible Plasma on my field, all your monster effects are negated, and Spell Traps are useless to Plasma! And your LP is only 300, how do you make a comeback in this situation?

To put it simply

How the hell can you OTK me with 300 LP left?

If you can make a comeback with 300 LP today, I, the Light of Destruction, will immediately eat this Plasma!

Judging from this, as an alien, the Light of Destruction may not have been on Earth for a long time. He neither knew the dangerous environment on this little planet, nor the taboos of playing cards here.

What did having 300 LP left mean?

It meant that Yuei Vu could legally use cheat now!

Draw of fate, activated!

Its my turn, draw! Yuei Vu didnt even look at the card he drew, Open the set card Magician Navigation! Special Summon 1 Dark Magician from my hand, then Special Summon 1 Level 7 or lower DARK Spellcaster monster from my Deck!

Come, Dark Magician, Magicians Robe!

The trap flipped and the magic circle opened. The second red-robed magician and phantom images in magic robes appeared in the arena, standing side by side with the first Dark Magician.

[Dark Magician, ATK 2500]

[Magicians Robe, DEF 2000]

Is it the second Dark Magician added into your hand by Illusion Magic the last turn? Light of Destruction shouted, But its useless! The magician cant defeat my Plasma

Who said Im going to beat you with a magician? Yuei Vu smiled.

What what? The Light of Destruction frowned.

Look at it, the existence that stands above your so-called invincible hero, the apex of the duel monster. Yuei Vu held up a card in his hand. At the same moment, the blood-colored sky seemed to be torn apart, and after that, there were pitch-black clouds rolling with thunder.

I take the two Dark Magicians and the Magicians Robe as sacrifices! Through the underworld and reality, descend in the chaos of heaven and thunder!

The god of the underworld Osiris the Sky Dragon! ! !

The images of the three monsters disappeared from the field one after another, and the shining thunder thundered down from the sky!

Red wings floated in the sky, followed by shining golden light and blue thunder. The tossing body of the dragon loomed from the black clouds, slowly landed, opened its mouth, and let out a thunderous roar, as if to say

Who dares to pretend to be aggressive in front of my master?

Watch me blow your dogs head off!

This is Egyptian God

Light of Destruction swallowed. Even the invincible Plasma seemed a little timid and subconsciously stepped back.

But after stepping back, he realized that something was wrong

Wait a minute, my attack power is higher than it!

Why should I be afraid of it?

So Plasma held his head high and stared at the huge Osiris in the sky not to be outdone, as if he would explode its dragon head if he disagreed with him.

However

Activate Spell Card Card of Demise. Yuei Vu calmly revealed the card that was added to the hand through the skill, I can draw cards until I have 5 cards in my hand. During my 5th Standby Phase after activation, I must send all cards in my hand to the Graveyard.

He drew five cards in his hand, paused, and chuckled: Then the attack power of Osiris the Sky Dragon is determined by the number of cards in the players hand. So now the attack power of Osiris is

[Osiris the Sky Dragon, ATK 5000]

Attack Attack power of five thousand!? The Light of Destructions face was distorted, but then he suddenly remembered something, Yes yes! The effect of Plasma! While D Force is face-up at the top of my Deck, the effects of all monsters on the opponents field are negated!

Immediately afterward, he had a ferocious expression on his face and laughed out loud.

You just said that the attack power of this phantom god is determined by the number of cards in your hand. Then if the effect is invalidated, even if it is a god, the attack power is only 0!

Hahahaha, in the end, Plasma was even better! Plasma, negate its effect for me!

However, Plasma stood where he was, and didnt move.

[Osiris the Sky Dragon, ATK 5000]

Light of Destruction: Plasma?

Whats going on? Why didnt you obey my command? Are you scared shitless?

Plasma also felt a pain in the ass at this time.

Because in fact, even before his master ordered, he has already exerted all his strength, and it stood to reason that all the effects of any monsters on the field should be nullified.

However, the red dragon seemed to be fine, even with its tail dangling in the sky, looking at him with a hint of sarcasm, as if saying

Whats the matter with you, little brother? Are you capable?

This was not a BISS, because the Sky Dragon in Yuei Vus hand was strengthened in the Battle City.

Therefore, the effect of the sky dragon could not be negated by Plasma.

Osiris is not a monster, but a god. Yuei Vu took the opportunity to gain the fashion value, The ability of a god cannot be negated.

Oh crap! Light of Destructions face suddenly changed when he realized that something was wrong.

He could clearly feel the terrifying power contained in this divine dragon. He was very sure that if he was hit by this guy, he would undoubtedly be wiped out!

Its over! Yuei Vu raised his hand and shouted, Osiris the Sky Dragon, attack Destiny HERO Plasma! Superconducting Wave Thunder Cannon!

The Sky Dragon opened its lower mouth, and electric currents and boundless golden light converged towards its opened mouth, and the momentum seemed to destroy the world!

The invincible Plasma screamed, and his body was instantly shattered under the boundless divine light.

The white Light of Destruction was forcibly blasted out of the hosts body, twisted and screamed, and then disappeared under the divine power of the gods attack.

[Light of Destruction, LP 0]

Chapter 210: Buy Some Oranges

When Mr. Phoenix was taken to the hospital, he was unconscious.

He was put on a stretcher and sent to the emergency room. The doctors arranged for him a complete set of the most expensive medical methods using the most advanced technology currently available in the hospital, and carefully examined him inside and out

In the end, the doctor in charge pushed the door out with a serious face, pulled Yuei Vu aside, and said to him solemnly: Congratulations, your uncle was in good health, the biggest problem in his whole body might be hemorrhoids well, Mr. Phoenix was wounded in the duel with the Light of Destruction after all. Strictly speaking, all his trauma should be mental, not physical, and it was normal that modern scientific methods could not detect problems.

The doctor continued: As for the reason for the coma, I guess it may be due to work pressure and fatigue. Alas, modern people are under a lot of pressure, and such things are actually quite common.

Only one came in from our hospital last week, and I heard it was a programmer. It seems that a manager asked him to develop software that changes color according to the customers mood Poor boy, he woke up after sleeping all day, and when he woke up, he saw the manager come to greet him with a fruit basket, and fainted again on the spot

Yuei Vu:

For some reason, he seemed to understand that guys feelings

Yuei Vu walked into the ward holding Little Asters hand and soon saw Mr. Phoenix on the bed with pale lips and a bloodless face.

Seeing them coming in, the card designer struggled to squeeze out a weak smile.

Im already dying, right? he said weakly.

Ah? Yuei Vu was taken aback, No, the doctor just said

Mr. Phoenix waved his hand: Needless to say, I know clearly in my heart, please listen to me first.

He let out a long sigh: Sure enough, I have also gone astray. Plasma I couldnt resist the temptation of the power of that card. I really lost my composure. I made up my mind to be my sons hero, but in the end, I lost to the temptation of power. As a father, I am really a bad example

He shook his head and said sternly to Yuei Vu: The card of Plasmait is not something that ordinary people can control. Even if the evil power in it is eliminated, it isit has a power beyond imagination.

But I think if its youyou who have mastered the true power of HERO, you can definitely control it.

So the card of Plasma Ill leave it to you. Mr. Phoenix closed his eyes, breathing more and more quickly, After thinking about it, it seemsit seems that only you are suitable for it. The master of this ultimate hero.

To be honest, if he could choose, Yuei Vu would actually prefer Plasma with a real card effect. It could unconditionally nullify all the effects of monsters on the opponents field, much more practical than the anime version.

But its not bad to have this anime version of Plasma.

Because, as Mr. Phoenix said, although the Light of Destruction residing in this card has been wiped out by Osiris divine power, this card itself was quite powerful.

Thats right, the card of Plasma was also hosted by a duel monster spirit, and it also has the effect of increasing the duelists force.

Only in this way, the number of spirit cards that Yuei Vu needs to bring in the deck would increase again. Three Egyptian Gods, one Dark Magician Girl, and now one Plasma

If it continued to increase like this, Yuei Vu felt that he will have to expand the capacity to the entire 60 card slots.

Although it was reasonable to say that the more the spirit cards were jammed in, the less likely a dead draw would happen, but if the deck was full of things that belonged to the unclear meaning category, it would still be a bit painful.

Moreover, Yuei Vu pondered that no matter how much he believed in Heart of the Cards, it might still be a bit too much to draw a card that didnt exist in the deck at all

Mr. Phoenix glanced at Little Aster standing beside the bed in a daze,

He patted his sons silvery head weakly with the hand that seemed to have had his bones removed, and smiled helplessly.

I wanted to be my sons hero, but I failed. And it looks likeahemlooks like there will never be another chance

Yuei Vu: Thats why I said, the doctor said youre actually fine

However, Mr. Phoenix didnt listen at all, waved his hand, and interrupted him: But you are different, Yuei Vu, you are already Asters hero. Soso please be sure to accept my last capricious request

The more he talked, the more he became weak and weak, and his energy was like a gossamer.

Take care of Asterplease

After speaking, he tilted his head, closed his eyes tightly, and remained silent.

Little Aster was stunned, and rushed forward: Dad! Dad! Dad, wake up, Dad

Yuei Vu:

No, I think your dad just fell asleep

After staying in the hospital for a long time, Yuei Vu finally made arrangements for the father and son.

Mr. Phoenix was indeed fine, but he just suffered some mental shocks, and he basically recovered after a night of sleep.

Otherwise, Yuei Vu might not really be the guardian of Little Aster.

Its one thing to say training tool people should be started from childhood, but raising a child was another matter. Yuei Vu has never even had a girlfriend until now. If he gain a son all of a sudden, this was really mind-blowing

But just from the point of view of favorability, it may be almost the same.

When Yuei Vu was about to leave the hospital, Little Aster pitifully tugged at the hem of his clothes, his big eyes twinkling and refusing to let him go.

So Yuei Vu had to start fooling around: Ahem, dont move around here. Brother, Ill go down and buy some oranges, and Ill be back soon

After leaving the hospital, it happened that the location was not far away, Yuei Vu decided to stop by and go to the Nightcrawlers World.

After the Battle City contest ended, he arranged for the association to mobilize resources and pay attention to an organization called Doma. But so far, little has been achieved.

According to the next plot of the Yu-Gi-Oh! DM, it should soon enter the time of the Waking the Dragons arc. A super organization named Doma that has existed in the world for thousands of years has gradually surfaced and challenged Yugi, Kaiba, and others with its teeth and claws, opening a new chapter in the animation story.

Although this part of the story was an anime-only arc, it was also quite classic, and has left many famous scenes for future generations.

And in this part of the plot, there is one of the few defeats of the so-called undefeated Pharaoh Yami Yugi. One of the top three Swordsmen of Doma, a duelist named Rafael, forced Yami Yugi to face the darkness in his heart and defeated Yami Yugi head-on in a duel.

Defeating the so-called invincible Pharaoh in a duel, this record alone was enough to boast for a lifetime on anyone.

These days, Yuei Vu has stepped up to accumulate crystal and draw cards in order to be ready. After all, the opponent was a behemoth that has been entrenched in the world for thousands of years, and even Yugi fell once in front of them.
