

I Play Yu-Gi 211

Chapter 211: To Be... Or Not To Be

Thanks to Yuei Vu, a billboard with a self-promotional effect, more and more duelists were looking for various ways to join the Nightcrawler World these days.

Although there were still many players among them, there were also many local Shadow Duelists.

Because of Yuei Vus special care, the club has recently let many players join. However, due to the number of people, the threshold for membership in Nightcrawler World was naturally getting higher and higher.

President Gai now looked down on ordinary Shadow Duelists, even presidents of some small clubs. A few years ago, President Gai felt that their dueling level and supernatural power were passable, but looking at this group of people now, President Gai felt like nothing more than that.

After all, there is a Duel King in our organization!

Although I havent become awesome, someone around me has become awesome, thus my vision is different.

Its the same reason that some people could give advice to the master, even though they were just the bronze Rank by themselves, but they watched a lot of high-score live broadcasts.

However, even if the threshold was raised, it still could not stop the enthusiasm of duelists from all sides. These days, there were more and more newcomers in the Nightcrawler World, and the scale was getting bigger and bigger, which was no longer the same as when Yuei Vu first joined.

Now the organization was holding a welcome ceremony for newcomers.

A group of strong men was drinking and punching emotionally, and a few people were holding a newcomer who had just joined the club and looked like he had only a pair of underwear left, grabbed his hands and feet and lifted him above everyones heads, playing some games of unknown meaning.

At this time, the vampire Tilla, who also just joined the organization not long ago, tried hard to integrate into the group. She leaned over to several players who were blushing: Well, can I join?

Several players turned around in unison.

The player who just joined the club yesterday, Native Noragami, looked skeptical: Miss, do you really understand the rules? Those who lose will have to take off their clothes.

Of course. Tilla was turbulent, and smiled evilly, But I would be at a disadvantage if the condition is just to take clothes off. So if you lose, let me suck a mouthful of blood, how about it?

As she spoke, she stretched out her bright red tongue and licked her lower lip, and said with a smile: Its okay. I just take one bite, and it wont be affected if much.

Several players stared at each other in astonishment, gasping for air involuntarily.

Fuck, is there such a good thing?

If she wins, she has to take her clothes off. If she loses, she can suck me up. Isnt this all beneficial anyway??

With a sullen face, Fae slammed the full wine glass on the table and pushed the mirror frame on the bridge of his nose with his middle finger.

Gentlemen, he said in a deep voice, Ill take over this match first, do you have any objections?

Native Noragami took a step forward, with a solemn face like a soldier who is about to step on the battlefield: No, brother Fae. Only this match cannot be left to you anyway.

Hmph, so thats the case. As expected of Brother Noragami, your battle aura is really extraordinary. But Fae pushed the frame again, and a piercing gaze shot out from behind the reflective mirror, .. you have no clothes to take off!

Duelists with no cards in their decks are not eligible to continue fighting, and those with no clothes to take off cannot stay here to continue fighting!

Native Noragami was furious: Damn it

There was a flash of white light on the glasses of Fae, with an all according to the plan expression. He took a step forward, and said to Tilla solemnly, Before the duel start, I have one more question.

Oh? Whats the problem?

That is, if I losecan I designate the place to be sucked?

Tilla:

When Yuei Vu opened the door and came in and saw this fiery scene, he was no longer surprised by it.

He turned around and quickly found the vampire who was drinking with a group of players.

At this time, a certain player was booing: Brother Fae is mighty! Brother Fae is awesome!

Brother Faes dragon is already hungry and thirsty!

At this time, Tilla had already thrown off her top to reveal her hot and tight inner lining.

While drinking with pride, she wiped her mouth: Youre not bad, kid!

Hahahaha! Lets not talk about my bravery! Fae stepped on the table and waved the bottle boldly, You are good not at all! If it continues this way, I wont be able to let you experience my super move A ha ha ha!!!

Tilla wiped her mouth to reveal her fangs, and snorted, Boy, youre so arrogant! Ill suck you up right away

Tilla. Yuei Vu interrupted while standing aside expressionlessly.

The female vampires pupils shrank, and she jumped up like a spring, threw away the wine bottle at the speed of light, put on her clothes, and jumped in front of him, with her head bowed and her face full of obedience.

A group of players also retreated quickly, and Fae quietly climbed down from the table, smiling all over his face: Hey Hey, Brother Yuei Vu, youre here

Yuei Vu ignored a group of sharp-eyed screwballs, and said to Tilla, I have something to do with you.

Oh.

The female vampire obediently followed behind him.

Yuei Vu took her to his office of course, with his current capacity, he already had his own office and then closed the door behind his back.

Tilla watched Yuei Vu close the door and lock himself and her alone in such a small airtight room. Her eyebrows jumped and her heart skipped a beat.

Could it be that Lord Yuei Vu wants she wants to make me do push-ups!?

After all, the last time Yuei Vu asked me to run fifty laps?

At this moment, Tilla once again recalled the fear of being dominated by Yuei Vu's physical fitness test

Fortunately, Yuei Vu didn't mention that issue this time, but said: I heard that Ghouls is now in a mess, isn't it?

Yes, yes. Tilla nodded again and again, Because you, Lord Yuei Vu, are so brave and powerful, you defeated the leader of Ghouls, Marik Ishtar, and smashed his dirty conspiracy with absolute power, you are really handsome, more than anyone else before Shorten it to 10 words or less! Yuei Vu said coldly.

Ohoh. Tilla nodded obediently Yeah, it's messy right now.

Yuei Vu asked: Then do you still have contact with Ghouls?

No! Absolutely not! Tilla patted her chest and vowed, If I still have the slightest contact with anyone in Ghouls, then III will be bitten by dogs on the street, pinched by doors when going out, choked to death by sucking blood!

Oh. Yuei Vu stood up from his chair and was about to go out, Then you are useless.

What!?! Tilla's face changed suddenly, Waitwait a minute! I remembered! I seemseems like there is still a way to contact them

Yuei Vu raised his eyebrows: Is there any connection?

Tilla: To be or not to be?

Yuei Vu gave her a blank look and said angrily: I have talked with President Kawasawa Gai. We have been waiting for the opportunity, and it is almost time now. We are going to launch an all-out attack on the remaining Ghouls, and wipe out all the remnants in one fell swoop.

Ohoh! That's it! Tilla nodded hurriedly, That's right! I have contact information!

However, she knew that Lord Yuei Vu never liked to do things that were not beneficial, so why did he suddenly want to go into the muddy water of Ghouls?

But she was very clever, and she immediately understood when she rolled her eyes: So! Master Yuei Vu, you want the rare cards from all over the world in Ghouls warehouse

Yuei Vu narrowed his eyes and glanced at her.

It mean! Master Yuei Vu is a hero of justice. He will fight against Ghouls at any cost without asking for rewards and eliminate public hazards for the world. I admire this heroic heart!

Yuei Vu nodded slightly.

Good children can be taught.

This female vampire is not bad. She may have some uses in the future.

Chapter 212: They Have More Cards!

In the narrow alleys, the buildings were connected to each other. Unseen bacteria grew in damp and dark corners.

Electronic screens and neon billboards were lined up on the opposite street, and pedestrians came and went on the road. But no one noticed this dark corner, let alone knowing that there was a secret entrance hidden in it.

An open space was opened up underground. Someone has built a basement here, and the walls were covered with flickering torches. Standing in front of each pillar on which the torch hung was a muscular man in black. They covered most of their faces with hoods, exuding a majestic aura that no one should come near.

This was the remaining of the organization that once ran amok in the other world, the remnants of Ghouls or at least one of them.

Ghouls fell apart, and the leader Marik ran away after being whitewashed. Any guy with a name left in the organization came out in a vain attempt to establish himself as a king, and want to sit on the vacant throne.

Gathered here was one of the slightly stronger branches of the remnant party.

The leader of this distribution was called Klamath, a Shadow Duelist who used Machine deck, and he could barely be regarded as a high-level powerhouse in Ghouls.

At this time, a mook was kneeling below: My lord, are we really going to use Domino as a base to develop?

Klamath looked coldly: What? Are you scared?

Nono, my lord. It's just the mook hesitated, Domino has recently produced two Duel Kings, and among them, Yuei Vu seems to be from our world.

Affected by him, the Nightcrawler World is constantly expanding, and the Kaiba Corp is not friendly to us

That's why we choose to develop here. Klamath snorted, Only the strong who are truly unafraid of challenges are qualified to lead Ghouls. Let those cowards who are hiding see who is the leader that Ghouls needs most now!

After a pause, Klamath said casually: Besides, the most dangerous place is the safest place. Surely no one thought that we would develop under the noses of all of them

Klamath waved his hand and shouted loudly: Nightcrawler World? Duel King? Kaiba Seto? We have no fear at all! No matter who comes, I, Klamath, will defeat him head-on!

The mook flattered: Lord Klamath is awesome!

Klamath was very satisfied, picked up the cup at hand, and took a sip of tea leisurely

At this time, a person rushed in from outside the door in a hurry: My lord! That Duel King Yuei Vu brought people from the Nightcrawler World to the door!

Klamath sprayed the face of the kneeling mook with a sip of tea.

It felt a bit like the reaction of the demons when they heard that Monkey King Sun Wukong had come to call.

Klamaths expression changed several times, and finally, he snorted and stood up majestically.

Okay! he said, Since he has come to the door, let me go and meet him in person!

After finishing speaking, he led a group of Ghouls members in the current stronghold out and came to the door.

Sure enough, Yuei Vu had already blocked the door with a group of big men from the Nightcrawler World and screwballs in strange clothes who had even weirder behavior. The lineups of the two sides confronted each other, staring at each other, the air seemed to be filled with invisible gunpowder smoke, and it seemed that a fight would start if there was a disagreement.

Then the members of Ghouls quickly noticed Tilla who followed Yuei Vu obediently.

The faces of the Ghouls members who knew her changed suddenly, and they cursed one after another.

Traitor! So it was you who lured the devil here!

All the Ghouls big men began to scold the wall and two-faced, but there was nothing else they could do.

Then the eyes of all the big men fell on the leader they jointly elected, Klamath.

You see, the two sides just met at this moment, and Lord Klamath has already come out on his own initiative.

That domineering aura is unmatched by ordinary people at first sight.

As long as Lord Klamath is around, even if the opponent is the Duel King

Plop.

Klamath knelt down on the ground at the speed of light, and the speed of his movements even left afterimages in the air, which was simply incredible.

People couldnt help but wonder how many times he has practiced in private to be able to kneel so quickly and so standard, so proficient that it made people feel distressed.

Respected Duel King and everyone in the world of Nightcrawler! Klamath said in a trembling voice, I am deeply aware of my mistakes, and I have deeply reflected on them!

Joining Ghouls was the biggest mistake I've ever made, and I'm already deeply reflecting on it! So I did my best to recruit all the remnants of Ghouls I could find, and I am ready to surrender to you and put them all at your disposal when the time is right!

The mooks looked at each other in blank dismay.

This

It can only be said that the boss is awesome and smart. Not only is the kneeling speed unmatched by anyone, but even surrender lines have been thought out long ago!

It is impossible to believe that he played on the spot. Its like the manuscript was written eight hundred years ago, and he knelt in front of the mirror every morning and night to review and recite it.

However, although the mooks reacted a little slower, there were still relatively clever ones among them.

Immediately, someone followed the boss and knelt down: I, I I also reflect on myself!

If there was the first one, there would be the second one. A group of Ghouls members quickly knelt down one after another.

Me too!

Please forgive me!

What are you kneeling down for? Hurry up!

A group of Ghouls knelt down neatly, and the scene was quite spectacular.

Yuei Vu was stunned for a moment.

He really did not expect this development. He originally thought that there were so many burly men in Ghouls, at least one or two tough ones had to be solved by playing cards, right?

It turned out that there were so many men, but none of them dared to come up to play cards. Before he even opened his mouth, they surrendered at the speed of light.

Was this the old meme in Yu-gi-oh as long as I click surrender fast enough, the opponent can't beat me?

But it saved a lot of trouble. Yuei Vu didn't bother to go through the procedures and went straight to the point: Very good. Then there should be a lot of cards in stock in your warehouse?

Klamath understood immediately.

He had heard before that this Duel King had weird interests, and seemed to like to pull out decks and Duel Disks back then.

At this moment, he seemed to see the hope of survival.

Yes! Of course! Klamath said, Not only are there cards, we also have a lot of Duel Disks here!

He paused for a moment when he said this, and suddenly thought of something.

That's right! We don't have a lot of rare card stocks here, but Karbak has a lot! He said quickly, I know there is another stronghold of the remnants of Ghouls, who have many cards and Duel Disks! I can show you the way!

Oh? Yuei Vu became interested, Tell me more.

Chapter 213: A New Storm Is Coming

Beep~beep~

Klamath held the phone, and after waiting for a long call tone, someone finally answered the call.

Klamath? A deep and powerful voice came from the opposite side, What can you do with me?

Hmph, Kalbak. Klamath said coldly, Did you ruin my business the night before yesterday?

Ha! Do you still have to make a special call to talk about this kind of thing now? You really don't have the quality a leader should have, Klamath. The leader known as Kalbak laughed, If you just want to trouble me for such a trivial thing, it means that I have misread you. It is better for us not to contact you again in the future.

Not really. Klamath said in a slow tone, I just started to think that maybe we don't have to be hostile.

Oh? Kalbak was interested, What proposal do you have?

I mean, maybe we can cooperate. Klamath said, We all have the most powerful force in the remnants of Ghouls. If we work together, it should be easy to sweep away all the other remnants and unify the organization. What do you think?

So that's the case, it's indeed an interesting proposal. Kalbak said, But if we want to cooperate, there are many problems.

Of course. So I'm going to arrange an interview, and I promise to come up with a proposal that is satisfactory to both parties. Klamath said, Just today, right now. You can bring your people to me for a meeting right away.

Then how can I guarantee that this is not a trap?

That's fine. Klamath shrugged, Then I'll arrange a special plane to take people to your place now, and you decide the location. That's okay, right?

Okay. Kalbak felt that the other party seemed to have shown sincerity, That's it, I will wait here for you.

Two hours later, when Lakhmas appeared in front of Kalbak along with Yuei Vu and a bunch of Nightcrawler hunks, Kalbak's expression was like this: (;)

you are such a bastard, you are tricking me! Kalbak frowned on the spot.

Klamath: I am so helpless when this happens! I am also a victim!

Helpless?! You just want to drag me into the mud with you, right?

Yes, that's right, I drag you into the mud. So what? Don't think that I don't know that you were the one whom my wife cheated with!

@#%* (censored because of the vulgarity)

As a result, Yuei Vu seized a warehouse full of cards that Ghouls robbed and several Duel Disks in the cargo compartment.

Speaking of which, Yuei Vu felt that this group of people might have misunderstood him.

I? What do I need so many Duel Disks for?

The reason why the Duel Disk was pulled out at the beginning was that Marik was a thief, and when he sent someone to play cards with him later, he would stuff a deck of worthless fake cards. In order to take revenge, Yuei Vu pulled out the Duel Disk to make him sick, but he didn't expect to be regarded as a Duel Disk Hunter now.

But Ghouls had a lot of good things here. Although they were counterfeit card dealers, they have a wide range of businesses, and they robbed cards all over the world, so they had quite a lot of rare cards.

And it's not even over.

Because the opponent was the Duel King, Kalbak chose to surrender without any resistance at all. After all, if you lost in a Shadow Game, you would directly ascend to heaven. Not everyone has such a stubborn bet against a strong opponent while knowing that the odds of winning were slim.

However, although he was willing to surrender, it still felt like a shame. So he gritted his teeth and made a decision, thinking that at least he couldn't be the only loser, and the hurdle in his heart was really hard to get over without pulling two or three enemies into the mud.

So Kalbak also ran to Yuei Vu: Well, I also have contact with a branch, and they have a lot of good cards! If you are interested, I can also arrange a meeting right away!

Oh? There is such a good thing?

Yuei Vu smiled and nodded: Of course.

Of course, the more things like this, the better.

Yuei Vu now even felt that it was too slow to call one by one. So he said to the two: Why don't you build a chat group, gather all the Ghouls' leaders you recognize into the group, make an appointment to meet offline at a time, and catch them all at once? It's both time-saving and labor-saving.

After such a toss, Ghouls, who had only three or two big cats and kittens left, finally basically declared GG.

After this wave, Yuei Vu's storage has been enriched again. Gaining several warehouses of cards, Yuei Vu picked and sorted them by rarity. In the store, they could be exchanged for a large number of crystals from players.

Mr. Pegasus seems to be stepping up the development of the Masked HERO series, and the first batch of finished products should be sent to Yuei Vu for him to have a look in these two days.

At that time, Yuei Vu's system card pool should be further expanded, and the brand new series of Masked HERO would be opened. He had to prepare for that time and stock up a wave of crystals in advance.

This made him have the illusion that he was working hard to save money and waiting for the new card box to be released.

Yuei Vu has been busy at Nightcrawler World for several days, flying all over the world to exterminate the remnants of Ghouls. The organization that once became the largest pirated card manufacturer in history was finally completely destroyed.

Stop complaining, at least you can go to the Industrial Illusions to rub Pegasus' thigh. My fucking landing point is in Africa

Damn! I want to see Yuei Vu-san, but it's an ocean away

Me too! I just fell into the pit after watching Yuei Vu's video and photos, but when I logged in and saw him on the other side of the earth, my mentality collapsed

Looking at the speeches of these little fresh meats in the forum, Yuei Vu couldn't help showing a gratified smile and nodded slightly.

Yes, yes, they are all good seedlings with potential.

Don't panic here for the time being, you can't eat hot tofu in a hurry.

Now these new leeks haven't grown well yet, and there was nothing in their pockets, he was not in a hurry to harvest them.

Wait for these new players to move bricks for a while, and their wallets would be a little bigger. At that time, Yuei Vu would go around the earth and send them the warmth of NPCs one by one.

It's just very comfortable.

However, there was not much time left for him to collect equipment and accumulate strength.

That evening, after Yuei Vu had just finished collecting the crystals for the day and sent away the enthusiastic players, the other Duel King with a starfish head and a 99% recognition rate, the protagonist of the world, Yugi Muto, came in from the store with his school bag.

Yo, isn't this Yugi? Yuei Vu smiled, Do you have time today to drop by and take a look?

Hmm. Yugi didn't seem to be in the mood for chatting, so he just smiled reluctantly and said, Actually I need your help with something.

Yuei Vu roughly guessed his purpose without him needing to speak.

Is it that time?

Yeah. Yugi nodded slightly, We've already made up our minds. No matter how fearful we are about the future, people will never be able to take a step forward.

He raised his head: We have decided to go to the place where the slate is, and retrieve the memory of another me. For this I hope I can borrow the God Card in your hand.

Yuei Vu was silent.

If it was a blessing, it was not a curse. If it was a curse, it could not be avoided. What should come would always come.

A new arc was about to begin.

Chapter 214: The Oncoming Storm

Domino City, Art Museum.

Before the Battle City started, the stone slab unearthed from Egypt engraved with pictures of ancient priests was dragged to this art gallery for display.

The slab was engraved with a war that surpassed three thousand years of time. The priest Seto fought against the nameless Pharaoh, and the two sides happened to control a magician in a robe and a white dragon of light.

Although the priest on the stone slab was the previous reincarnation of Kaiba, because of the unrecognizable hairstyle and the somewhat abstract picture carved on the stone slab, the priest was not so much like Kaiba. They were somewhat similar in temperament, that's all.

In fact, Yuei Vu has always felt that Ishizus sisters eyesight was really good for being able to recognize the reincarnation of a Kaiba from such an abstract painting at a glance

In order to retrieve the memory of the nameless pharaoh who was wandering in the world and couldn't find his home, Yugi, his little friends and a passer-by who had the Yu prefix came to this stone slab of the art museum together.

According to the explanation of the Tomb Keepers, as long as the Pharaoh showed three God cards to the stone slab, the door of memory three thousand years ago would be opened. The nameless pharaoh would retrieve his life and memory, and find his own destination.

Of course, Yami Yugi, who has established a bond in modern times and has a heavy dependence on AIBO, did not want to be separated from everyone.

But now, it's not just about him.

The Pharaoh's partner three thousand years ago, the most loyal servant, the subordinates who dedicated their lives and souls to him, and the Tomb Keepers, including Marik's Ishtar family, who have been self-enclosed underground for more than three thousand years, protecting the secret of the Pharaoh's memory from generation to generation by means of human flesh engraving

Even if it was to live up to the countless people who have given everything for him, as a Pharaoh, Yami Yugi could not escape his fate here.

Everyone came under the huge stone slab. Yugi took a deep breath and the exchange of personalities handed over the control of the body to the Yami Yugi in the body.

At this moment, Yuei Vu hesitated for a moment.

Unlike others, he certainly knew that it was impossible for Yami Yugi to succeed here. Here, when Yami Yugi took out the card of the Three Egyptian Gods and faced the memory tablet, he would be remotely interfered by some extremely powerful mysterious force.

Not only would the door of memory not be opened, but the stone slab would also be sealed due to the interference of that force.

After that, the organization named Doma, as well as the leader of the organization, the BOSS named Dartz, would surface one after another. Yami Yugi would be forced to take on the organization, and the slab would not be opened to him again until Dartz was wiped out.

But after thinking about it, Yuei Vu still handed over the two God cards to Yugi.

Even if he told Yami Yugi the truth, Yuei Vu couldn't explain how he knew, and even if Yami Yugi believed it, it wouldn't help the case.

This was similar to when you know that there was a pit in the Spell Trap Zone of the opponent when playing cards, but you still had to step on it. If you didn't step on this pit, it would stay there forever, and you would never be able to take the next step forward.

As expected, the power of the Three Egyptian Gods was disturbed, and the entire memory slab was frozen.

Yami Yugi's first attempt to unlock the memory was unsuccessful.

No one could find the reason and they had to temporarily give up this attempt.

But to be honest, such an ending actually made Yugi and his friends feel somewhat relieved deep in their hearts. In any case, everyone and Yami Yugi were already friends who have experienced life and death together, and it was inevitable that they would be reluctant to part suddenly.

However, at the moment when the Yami Yugi's attempt failed, riots began to break out in the streets outside.

A large number of dueling monsters suddenly materialized in the sky and on the streets. Dragons flying in the sky, lizards crawling on the ground, and all kinds of monsters suddenly filling the streets, it was like a Halloween party.

It stood to reason that Kaiba Corp was responsible for all the dueling monster data in Domino City, the Duel Disks were all sold by Kaiba Corp, and the stereoscopic image system was provided by them. Therefore, now that there is such a large-scale accident in the city, everyone of course found the headquarters of Kaiba Corp immediately.

It took only a short while before the incident happened, and a group of fast-running reporters blocked the entrance of Kaiba Corp.

The reporters held up the microphones and asked questions about the out-of-control system as if they would force their way in if they didn't get an answer. However, Kaiba Corp was not to be outdone, and immediately dispatched the company's veteran general to step up.

Uncle Isono was ordered to stand in the face of danger, and stood at the door with a poker face, saying that you couldn't enter anyway, so do whatever you like.

Uncle Isono was someone who didn't even blink his eyelids when he watched the Egyptian Gods fighting and destroying the world. It was just a small case to deal with a bunch of fast-running reporters.

Of course, such a city-wide riot had a huge impact on Kaiba Corp. The whole country and even the whole world paid attention to this incident, and many authorities asked Kaiba Corp to give an explanation for the riot.

Although the Kaiba Group has not made an official statement, Yuei Vu knew that the president wasn't responsible for this.

In fact, during the incident, Kaiba Corp immediately shut down all stereoscopic projection systems, and carried out large-scale maintenance on the company's servers. However, even so, the images of monsters continued to appear, and did not disappear until a long time later.

This was enough to show that these monster images have nothing to do with the Kaiba Corp's system, and that some other force caused this accident.

As for the reason Yuei Vu knew it too.

It's probably Doma's leader, the guy named Dartz who made trouble.

That guy wanted to revive the God of Orichalcos, which disrupted the balance between the human world and the spirit world, causing both worlds to fall into unprecedented chaos, which led to the appearance of monsters that should have lived in the spirit world situation in reality.

Speaking of which, in the animation, it seemed that the spirit of the Dark Magician Girl in Yugi's hand specially called Yugi, and the Yami Yugi to the spirit world, and by the way gave them both a new cheat the legendary dragon Timaeus.

Timaeus was said to be one of the three legendary dragons who guarded the spirit world in ancient times, but he exhausted his power and was sealed in the spirit world. Because the sealing time was so long that even his name was forgotten by everyone, he was called the nameless dragon.

At this moment, Yuei Vu suddenly thought of

Speaking of Dark Magician Girl, I also have one at home?

Thinking of this, he took out the card of Dark Magician Girl from his pocket.

The spirit girl floated out: Master, do you have any order?

By the way, is there something wrong with your spirit world? Yuei Vu asked.

Ah? Dark Magician Girl was taken aback for a moment, looking a little cute, This I don't know this very well

Don't you even know that? Are you a spirit?

Because I haven't been back for a long time. She was a little embarrassed, Because I have always stayed with the master

I see. Yuei Vu thought for a while, Then do you know the legend of the Nameless Dragon?

I know. The Dark Magician Girl nodded again and again, It is very famous in the spirit world, the legend of the three nameless dragons that have been sealed for countless years.

Then can you take me there to have a look?

Ah? The Dark Magician Girl looked dazed, I can I?

Yuei Vu:

I dont know if it is an illusion, but I feel that the Dark Magician Girl in Yugis house seemed to be only a little smarter than my own

My own Dark Magician Girl, how should I put it

Quite white, quite big, but so naive.

Its pretty cute though. And at the critical moment, she was quite reliable. Without her, Yuei Vu might not be able to stand here.

As far as I know, generally speaking, masters, you should not be able to come to our world. I dont know of any way to take Master there.

Is that so?

Then how did Yugi go to the spirit world in the animation?

Yuei Vu thought about it carefully. He remembered that in the animation, it seemed that Yugi slept until midnight, and consciousness entered the maze of the heart in the Millennium Puzzle. He found a door in the maze, opened it and entered the world of spirit.

Oh, he had a magical tool, didnt he? So excuse me.

Yuei Vu seemed to understand. People can go to the world of the spirit because they have Millennium Items in their hands, so they could not be restrained by common sense.

To put it simply, its Yuei Vus fault for having neither Millennium Item nor background. Its really not to blame the spirit

Chapter 215: A True Hero Never Back Down

Seeing that the plot of Waking the Dragons arc was about to start, the new equipment that Yuei Vu has been thinking about this afternoon has finally been delivered.

The courier package was delivered by a mysterious guy in a suit and black super. Yuei Vu vaguely remembered that it seemed to be one of the two bodyguards that Pegasus brought to the store last time but he was not very sure.

After all, in his opinion, these black suits dressed like spies all looked similar, as if they were carved out of a mold. It feels like the cartoonist was too lazy to waste too much ink on the extra characters when he was rushing to draft, so he simply got lazy and drew the same face for everyone

Without saying a word after entering the door, the man in black mysteriously took out a boxy package from his arms.

Yuei Vu noticed that when he put the package on the counter, he seemed to deliberately block the direction of the window with his body as if he wanted to avoid unnecessary sights.

He took out a special ballpoint pen with the logo of the Industrial Illusions from his pocket, and then took out a form for Yuei Vu to sign. After signing, the agent took the form, bowed, left the package, turned around, and went out.

Throughout the whole process, he didnt say a word and didnt even move his mouth, like an emotionless robot, mysterious and weird.

When Yuei Vu unpacked the package, the first thing he saw was the series of cards Pegasus promised him last time that he would specially make for him. However, there were only two in the package so far, and it seemed that he was just asking him to inspect the goods first.

The first one was the semi-finished product that Pegasus showed him last time, but it seemed to have been completed now. Masked HERO Inferno, Level 4, ATK 1800, DEF 1000, no effect.

The other was the most critical card in the Masked HERO series and the core of the entire series.

Quick-Play Spell Mask Change, which could transform the HERO monster on the field into a Masked HERO with the same attributes.

It was about equal to Henshin (Transform) of Kamen Rider in the next-door studio.

But in addition to the card, he also found a videotape in the package.

By now, Yuei Vu has probably already guessed what will be in the videotape. But of course, its something to look at.

Yuei Vu stuffed the video tape into the projector, and without any surprise, he saw President Pegasus with a cool hairstyle sitting behind his desk at the first sight on the screen.

Yuei Vu Boy~

The opening was like a lightning strike. As soon as the loose English with lingering sound came up, the old staff of the Industrial Illusions, Mr. Shin, began to cry, and it felt like returning home when he heard this voice.

Pegasus had a serious face: Regarding the panic caused by dueling monsters around the world, I conducted special research and investigation, and found some very scary facts.

But I cant explain it here. In any case, I must talk to you face-to-face about this matter.

However, I cant get out of here. Someone is watching me, so I had no choice but to hide the videotape together with the card I promised to give you last time but actually, I dont know if you can see this at all.

I also managed to send a warning to Yugi Boy and Kaiba Boy, but honestly doing so is gambling. I dont know if any of you will get notifications, but even one is fine, please come and find me over here!

Yuei Vu Boy, my branch in Domino has already made arrangements. You go to the branch of the Industrial Illusions with the card I gave you, and someone will arrange an itinerary for you. Ill wait for you here at headquarters.

Please hurry up, I dont know how much time I have left!

The recording ends here. The next picture turned into a big wave washing the sand, accompanied by a noisy electric sound.

Sure enough, Pegasus has also been controlled by Doma.

Yuei Vu thought that it might be too late even if he went to the USA to find Pegasus now. At the moment he saw the videotape, Uncle Pegasus might have gotten cold.

But no matter what, Yuei Vu decided to go to the branch of the Industrial Illusions in Domino to take a look at the situation according to what Uncle Pegasus said.

As for whether to go to the USA, it would be discussed later.

It seemed that Industrial Illusions and the underground forces under his control have been poisoned by Doma, and now he was in danger. To be honest, Yuei Vu was not at ease with his arrangements.

Anyway, it was estimated that President Kaiba would also go to the USA in the past two days. Yuei Vu was absolutely confident that Kaiba would bring him along.

When the time came to fly over with President Kaiba on his BEWD Force One, Yuei Vu felt a little more secure.

But to be on the safe side, Yuei Vu decided to draw a card before going out.

Yuei Vu first came to try to enter the water with three thousand crystals. He slapped on the button with full force draw a card!

Well, sure enough, its a sinking.

Sixty percent of them were cards that have been issued before, and the remaining 40 percent were unknown meaning cards. But it didnt matter, anyway, Yuei Vu has made full preparations for this moment, and his wallet was still bulging.

This wave of water depth testing was just to paralyze the system to make it mistakenly think that his wallet was running out, so that it would be slack and careless, and would spit out good things carelessly in the next round.

Then here came another three thousand crystalsdraw!

Well, its a sinking again. Six thousand crystals went down without an echo, and there was no useful card. Who else could do this kind of thing?

Could ordinary people draw cards to such a degree?

But it still didnt matter. I heard that everything about a true duelist was inevitable, even drawn cards could be created by yourself!

YaDaZe (successful)!

Elemental HERO Shadow Mist, Level 4, ATK 1000, DEF 1500. Effect: If this card is Special Summoned: You can add 1 Change Quick-Play Spell Card from your Deck to your hand. If this card is sent to the GY: You can add 1 HERO monster from your Deck to your hand, except Elemental HERO Shadow Mist. You can only use 1 Elemental HERO Shadow Mist effect per turn, and only once that turn.

It had the ability to search Mask Change and any HERO monsters, a proper divine card of the HERO series!

Yuei Vu glanced at the remaining crystals that were still above five digits, and then at the draw button in the card pool, and chose to continue almost without thinking.

After all

The crystal is meaningless if it is not used at a critical time!

A true HERO never back down in battle!

Draw!

In the end, after the huge amount of crystals were all spent, Yuei Vu got a Mask Change, a Shadow Mist, a bunch of Masked HERO Normies (comic cards) with unknown meanings, and a few Masked HERO Fusion monsters.

From the perspective of harvest, it was actually okay. But compared to the nearly astronomical number of crystals he smashed into the card pool, it looked a little scary for ordinary players.

Sure enough, this once again proved that the HERO series were really beyond the reach of ordinary people. If you wanted to be a HERO player, you must first be a millionaire

Chapter 216: Doma Takes Action

Tens of thousands of crystals have been spent, and the new deck construction has also been adjusted. Yuei Vu set off directly without much delay and came to the branch of the Industrial Illusions located in Domino.

Although the Duel Monsters card game was designed by Pegasus, the city known as Duel City was Domino. This city plays a vital role in the game development of duel monsters, and it was not an exaggeration to say that it was a transportation hub in the duel world.

Naturally, it was impossible for the Industrial Illusions not to have a branch in such a place. Its just that the Domino branch of the Industrial Illusions usually has a low presence because there was a local force, Kaiba Corp.

When Yuei Vu came to the Industrial Illusions, it was completely dark.

The building of the Industrial Illusions was pitch black, and the towering building stood like a black stone monument between the sky and the earth. There was no light behind the thick glass curtain wall, and there was no sound.

But the gate was not locked. Yuei Vu walked to the bottom of the building and opened the door with a slight push. At the same time, a row of lights lit up on the ceiling of the hall, reflecting a dull luster on the mirror-like marble floor tiles.

It felt as if they were deliberately welcoming him.

Pegasus said that he had already arranged the itinerary, so it stood to reason that someone in this branch should be waiting to welcome him.

But let alone the reception, the entire building of the Industrial Illusions didnt have the breath of even half a living person. Standing in this poorly lit hall, Yuei Vu felt that there was a constant wind blowing from an unknown corner, brushing gently from the back of his neck, as if someone was whispering.

After all, it was strange that there was no one in such a large office building, and the atmosphere was not right.

It cant be that the chairman feels that disaster is imminent and announces that all employees will take a week off, right?

Before taking two steps forward, Yuei Vu stopped in the hall.

The Dark Magician Girl floated out vigilantly and stood in front of Yuei Vu, with her small staff lying in front of her: Master, be careful.

A figure stepped out from a dark corner.

It was a man who looked middle-aged, and he looked very wretched. He looked like a strange uncle with a wretched little lolita in the station. His sharp eyes seemed to be tempered from hundreds of times of peeping under skirts.

Based on his experience, Yuei Vu speculated that this person belonged to the kind of senior gentleman who would automatically form a shielding force field when thrown into the crowd and make people say never have anything to do with this person when they met each other.

As expected of the Duel King, you are as sharp as the rumors say. The wretched man walked over slowly, with a strange smile on his face, Did you realize something was wrong so soon?

I guess, you must not be the person arranged by Pegasus, right? Yuei Vu said.

The man let out a chattering laugh that was enough to startle any woman of any age group within a radius of 300 meters.

Yes, of course not.

The man sneered, and the pendant on his chest suddenly released a dazzling dark green aura. At the same time, a green light appeared on his forehead, and the formed lines formed a circular magic circle, hanging clearly on his forehead like a brand mark.

Seal of Orichalcos!

My name is Bourbon, an honorable warrior sent by the great god Orichalcos to serve Doma. The man who called himself Bourbon sneered, The Industrial Illusions is finished. Pegasus has fallen into the hands of our great Doma, and his influence is also being eliminated from his territory, and it will not be long before it will be completely wiped out.

He raised his arm and opened the dark green duel disk specially made by Doma.

Come and duel with me. Bourbon said indifferently, Duel King Yuei Vu! There is no place for you in Domas future blueprint. By the command of the great god of Orichalcos, I take your soul away as well as the God Cards youre holding!

Master, be careful. The Dark Magician Girl said, There is some kind of extremely powerful dark power hidden in himbut it feels vague, and Im not sure what it is.

Yuei Vu nodded: I know.

Now that he has become the Duel King, a battle with Doma would be inevitable sooner or later, and Yuei Vu was already mentally prepared for this.

And the moment he took out the Duel Disk, a brand new mission was also unlocked at same time.

[Plot mission is triggered: Doma Takes Action!]

[Description: Doma, a terrorist organization that has been dormant in the shadows of the world for thousands of years, finally started to take action. Find out Domas true purpose and defeat as many of Domas duelists as possible!]

[Reward: Unknown.]

What was written on the panel was Reward: Unknown, but Yuei Vu manually filtered it into Domats version of Duel Disk and a deck of cards.

Anyway, its a death-or-alive card game, the losers soul would be directly consumed, so its useless to keep the deck.

Yuei Vu also inserted the deck into the Duel Disk.

Duel! x2

Bourbon, LP4000

Yuei Vu, LP4000

Ill go first, draw! Bourbon took the initiative, Activate the Spell Card Reinforcement of the Army! Add 1 Level 4 or lower Warrior monster from my Deck to my hand.

I added the Marauding Captain to my hand!

Bourbon acted skillfully, found the card from the deck, turned it over, and showed it to Yuei Vu.

Then summon the Marauding Captain in attack position!

[Marauding Captain, ATK 1200]

Marauding Captains effect is activated! Bourbon showed the second card from his hand, When this card is Normal Summoned, I can Special Summon 1 Level 4 or lower monster from my hand.

What I want to summon is the second Marauding Captain!

With a burst of light and shadow effects, another blond captain in blue armor and a flying cloak appeared on the field. One of the two captains carried the long sword on his shoulder, and the other half squatted on the ground, protecting Bourbon behind him from left to right.

Is the attack blocked? Yuei Vu understood.

Thats right. Bourbon sneered, When there is a Marauding Captain on the field, the opponent player cannot choose Warrior monsters other than this card as the attack target.

And now there are two Marauding Captains, which means

I cant choose anyone as the attack target, right? Yuei Vu said lightly.

Now he knew what tactics Bourbon was using Warrior deck, one of the preferred decks for novice players in Yuei Vus store.

It seemed that because many players have chosen this deck, the double Marauding Captain combo had a high rate of appearance in the preliminary round of Duel City.

After the competition, many local duelists of DM seemed to think of analyzing and studying players. Although these weirdos behave weirdly and like to talk nonsense, and some people like to wear strange clothes and headgear with unknown meanings, their deck construction was still quite good.

So after that, many NPCs copied the novice decks of the players Yuei Vu thought that the Bourbon that appeared in front of him at this time might be one of them.

But the opponent has the power of Orichalcos, and his duelists Rank was unknown. A high-star NPC may display extraordinary combat effectiveness even with a pile of Normies, let alone copying the players deck construction.

Fighting with believers who possessed the power of Orichalcos, if you were not careful, you might lose your soul. Naturally, Yuei Vu would not underestimate the enemy in the slightest.

I end my turn. Bourbon snorted and laughed, Come, Duel King! Show me how can you break this line of defense!

Chapter 217: Please Discard It All

My turn, draw!

Yuei Vu glanced at the cards in his hand, and then glanced at the two Marauding Captains forming a cross formation on the opponents field.

Indeed, if the two captains were on the field, their taunting effect would form a protective effect. The two captains would cover each other, and there was no way to fight one of them.

Although it was a bit troublesome, there were many ways to get rid of it.

Activate the Spell Card Pot of Greed, and draw two cards from the deck.

Then I summon the Keeper of Dragon Magic in attack position!

Yuei Vu slapped the monster card on the duel disk, and the card projected the image of a knight wrapped in cyan armor. The handsome knight stands on the field with a spear in his hand, his cloak fluttering behind him. The dragon-shaped helmet covered most of his face, revealing his fluttering gray hair.

[Keeper of Dragon Magic, ATK 1800]

Keeper of Dragon Magics effect is activated! When this card is successfully summoned, discard a card and add a Fusion Normal Spell Card from the deck to the hand. I add the Spell Card Polymerization to the hand!

Yuei Vu found out the Polymerization, quickly showed it to the opponent, and immediately added the card to his hand.

Then the second effect of Keeper of Dragon Magic is activated! Yuei Vu continued, By showing 1 Fusion Monster in my Extra Deck; Special Summon 1 of the Fusion Materials whose name is specifically listed on that monster from my GY in face-down Defense Position!

Yuei Vu took out a fusion monster card from the card box behind him, turned it over, and showed it to the opponent.

What I revealed was Elemental HERO Thunder Giant. While speaking, the card that had just been discarded to the graveyard bounced back from his duel disk, So I Special Summon the Elemental HERO Clayman in the graveyard!

With a wave of the spear in the hand of the Keeper of Dragon Magic, a dark vortex opened beside him. The solid clay hero was called back to the field from the graveyard, but after his appearance, he quickly switched to the defensive state.

Then activate the Spell Card from the hand Polymerization! I fuse Elemental HERO Sparkman in the hand and the Elemental HERO Clayman on the field!

Fusion Summon! Elemental HERO Thunder Giant!

The Sparkman in the hand appeared on the field, followed by the Clayman on the field flipped over. The two heroes flew up, and the two beams of light merged into the vortex in mid-air, and turned into beams of light that exploded and fell to the ground. A giant hero with a tall body and electric current entangled in the tumbling thunder descended.

[Elemental HERO Thunder Giant, ATK 2400]

Sure enough, a powerful hero was summoned by Fusion Summon right away, exactly as the information said. But Bourbon chuckled lightly, No matter how powerful your monster is, it cant break through my defense line!

Due to the mutual blocking effects of the two Marauding Captain, you cannot attack any monster on my field!

You only blocked my attack. Yuei Vu quickly threw a card in his hand into the graveyard, Activate Thunder Giants effect!

Once per turn, by discarding a card, Thunder Giant can choose a monster on the opponents field that has lower attack power than itself and destroy it!

There is such an effect!?! Bourbon was astonished.

The target is the Marauding Captain! Yuei Vu issued an order, Vapor Spark!

An invisible engine spewed out from the armored giants feet, and it landed in front of one of the captains. The captain valiantly tried to swing his sword at the hero in vain.

The golden heros palms blasted out an electric current at the same time. The golden lightning pierced through the captains body, quickly blasting him into pieces.

In this way, the attack blockade will disappear. Yuei Vu said, Elemental HERO Thunder Giant, attack the remaining Marauding Captain! Voltic Thunder!

The thunder giant roared dully, raised his palm, and the lightning shot out like a piercing javelin. The captain seemed to be pierced by a peal of thunder and exploded with a miserable grunt, and the flames and gunpowder smoke rolled towards Bourbon as the controller.

Bourbon, LP 4000 LP 2800

Its not over yet! Yuei Vu raised his arms high, There is still a monster on my field that hasnt attacked yet! Keeper of Dragon Magic, attack the player directly!

Keeper of Dragon Magic took the order and rushed to Bourbon in a sprint. Frightened, Bourbon raised his arms to block in front of him. The moment the knights spear pierced his body, the follower of Orichalcos uttered a scream like a pig being killed.

Bourbon, LP 2800 LP 1000

Set two cards, and I end my turn.

There were two extra cards at Yuei Vus feet, and he temporarily put down the Duel Disk and hugged his arms.

Okay, its your turn. He shrugged, Of course, if you want to give up now, its fine.

Areare you kidding me! Bourbon gritted his teeth, I was a little careless just now, now now is the time to get serious!

As he said this, he looked down at his deck and gritted his teeth.

That being said, however, during this round of fighting, he was no longer as confident as he was at the beginning.

Now he regretted bragging so rashly in front of his superior Rafael, one of the Three Swordsmen of Doma, and then came to challenge Yuei Vu confidently.

He couldnt help it: After obtaining the power of Orichalcos, Bourbon felt full of strength all over his body, as if he had stepped into a new world.

In addition, after that, he defeated several internationally renowned duelists in a row and hunted the souls of several strong men in the other world. After that, Bourbon had the illusion that I am invincible, and he took it for granted that he had reached the pinnacle of duelists.

However, now it seemed that the strength of a Duel King was not at the same level as those strong men he has defeated so far.

Faced with such courage and pressure, Bourbon felt that if he was distracted for a moment, he might be killed by the opponent in an instant.

But since he has already boasted in front of Lord Rafael, he naturally had no way out now.

And hes not done yet!

In his deck, there was also a card that contained peerless divine power and could immediately reverse various situations as long as it was played!

Bourbon gritted his teeth, and the moment his finger touched the card deck, the hexagram mark on his forehead and the pendant on his chest burst out with boundless aura at the same time.

It seemed that at this moment, his force as a duelist was raised out of thin air.

My turn, draw!

When Bourbon caught a glimpse of the drawn card, his eyes lit up suddenly, as if a dying person saw a life-saving straw. His bloodshot eyes were filled with madness, and at the same time, he let out an evil laugh.

Come, come, come! He raised the card in his hand and laughed, With the power of this card, I will be invincible! Duel King! Beware of this power, it will seal your soul and put a stop to your life! I activate Wait a minute! Yuei Vu interrupted him with a big wave of his hand, The moment you enter the Standby Phase, I want to activate this card! Trap Card Mind Crush!

Seeing the trap turned over from Yuei Vus field, which he had never heard of before, Bourbon suddenly had an extremely bad premonition in his heart.

Mind Crush? What the hell is that thing?

The effect of Mind Crush! Declare 1 card name; if that card is in the opponents hand, they must discard all copies of it.

If the opponent does not have the card I declared, then I must discard a random card from my hand.

Yuei Vu raised his hand and pointed straight at Bourbons hand.

The name of the card I want to declare is The Seal of Orichalcos! Yuei Vu said lightly, If you have this card in your hand, please discard it all for me!

Bourbon: !!??

WTF!?

Why would you bring this kind of card?

Also, did you turn on the X-ray vision?

Shouldnt it be the first time that this Duel King is in contact with our Doma organization? How does he know about The Seal of Orichalcos??

Chapter 218: The Seal of Orichalcos

The name of the card I declared is The Seal of Orichalcos. If you have this card in your hand, please discard it all for me!

Bourbon looked at the card in his hand, his expression became grim for a while.

He gritted his teeth and quickly discarded the card in his hand to the graveyard.

The Seal of Orichalcos, Domas exclusive Field Spell. Not only did it have a powerful effect like a fake card in a duel, but it also contained extremely terrifying dark power.

As long as this Field Spell was activated, both parties in the duel could not escape from it until the winner was decided. And in The Seal of Orichalcos, the soul of the defeated person would be sucked away.

The nature of Orichalcos was different from ordinary Shadow Games. This card was more similar to a medium, which briefly lent some extremely high-level dark power to the duelist who used it through the power of the enchantment card.

Therefore, Yuei Vu speculated that when The Seal of Orichalcos was activated in the duel, the user should also gain extremely powerful force at that moment, and his Rank may also soar in one breath.

But The Seal of Orichalcos also had a hidden passive effect that all players of Yu-Gi-Oh knew about Throughout the entire animation, anyone who has used The Seal of Orichalcos has lost.

This had nothing to do with attributes such as dark power, duelist rank, etc. It felt like one of the rules of the world, like Kaiba cannot beat Yugi or Sakuretsu Armor never successfully destroyed a monster.

Even Yami Yugi didn't believe in this rumor for a while and insisted on trying to determine which one was better, his protagonist's halo or Orichalcos debuff, but he found that the debuff was more powerful.

So Yami Yugi used The Seal of Orichalcos, and then he also lost

In the dark shadow of the building, in the aisle on the second floor, three people were standing side by side on the edge of the railing, condescendingly watching the duel.

These three people were Rafael, Valon, and Alister, known as the Three Swordsmen of Doma, and they had the highest status in the entire organization, only under the leader Dartz.

This Duel King is quite powerful. Valon stood by the railing, tilting his head and dragging his cheeks, and said, Create such a suppressive situation in one turn, quickly cut down a lot of opponents LP, and break through the opponents defensive line in the first turn

Not only that, he has even prepared the strategy against the The Seal of Orichalcos. Alister, a handsome young man with red hair in a windbreaker, said, It seems that he has already known the existence of The Seal of Orichalcos.

The blond-haired duelist Rafael, who was as strong as an elephant, also folded his arms and narrowed his eyes at this time: Duel King Yui Vu it seems that he is an opponent worthy of attention.

Are you all right, Rafael? Valon turned his head and asked casually, It looks like your underling will be instantly killed within one round. Isn't this already cornered?

It doesn't matter. Rafael said with a blank expression, Bourbon is not a duelist who will be defeated at this level. After obtaining the power of Orichalcos, he is indeed one of the strongest duelists now.

It proceeded exactly as he said. Although Yui Vu's Mind Crush was a bit annoying, Bourbon also had a contingency plan.

Activate the Spell Card from the hand A Feather of the Phoenix!

A Spell Card appeared in front of Bourbon, with burning flames and crimson feathers on the card.

By discarding a card in my hand, I can return a card in the graveyard to the top of the deck.

Bourbon snorted, and a card was returned from the Duel Disks GY area, Of course, the card I choose is The Seal of Orichalcos!

Inserting that card back into the top of the deck, Bourbon immediately started laughing.

Although I don't know how you found out about the existence of Orichalcos, since you are so afraid of this power, let me open your eyes! Bourbon laughed and took out another card in his hand, You must think that even if the The Seal of Orichalcos is recovered, it will take the next turn to be drawn into my hand, right?

It's a grave mistake! I'm going to use this card next Card of Sanctity! Each player draws until they have 6 cards in their hand!

Yui Vu frowned slightly.

Sure enough, still can't avoid that card?

After drawing all six cards in his hand, the The Seal of Orichalcos that was placed back at the top of the deck naturally returned to Bourbons hand.

This time its coming for real! The power bestowed by the great God of Orichalcos! Bourbons expression was as pious as a pilgrimage believer, Activate Field Spell The Seal of Orichalcos!

The moment that card was placed in the Field Spell zone, the majestic energy visible to the naked eye bloomed centered on Bourbon, and the momentum was like the ki explosion of the Son family.

The green energy swept across like a wave, and a circular magic circle spread out from the bottom of Bourbons feet, quickly enveloping both sides in the war, drawing the trajectory of a hexagram on the ground.

Bourbons eyes turned scarlet, and the magic circle above his head became more dazzling.

Yuei Vu could feel that his aura had also suddenly increased by more than one level, and it felt as if he had suddenly become a senior duelist.

No wonder so many people couldnt resist the temptation of Orichalcos. This unreasonable soaring strength was just like those evil and heretical exercises in martial arts novels, which could make people instantly become mighty.

Yuei Vu spent so much effort and carried so many spirit cards in his pocket to finally get to Rank 7. But any passer-by who activated The Seal of Orichalcos could directly soar to the same Rank or even higher.

Of course, no matter how awesome this enchantment was, Yuei Vu himself still didnt desire it.

After all, whoever used this thing would lose

Hahahaha! With this power, I am omnipotent now! From this moment on, this will be a duel with the souls of both of us on the line! Bourbon began to swell again, I summon Marauding Captain!

The third captain in armor appeared on the field wielding a sword, his waist straight and heroic.

However, the captain was immediately captured by Orichalcos evil power after he appeared on the stage. He let out a miserable snort, his eyes turned scarlet as if obsessed, and Orichalcos six-pointed star imprint appeared on his forehead.

The effect of The Seal of Orichalcos! Bourbon said, The attack power of all monsters on my field increases by 500 points!

[Marauding Captain, ATK 1200 ATK 1700]

500 points of attack boost were actually relatively high. To use the most typical example, if you added 500 points of attack power to the Dark Magician, his strength could directly become equivalent to a Blue-Eyes White Dragon

Marauding Captains effect is activated! When this card is Normal Summoned, I can Special Summon 1 Level 4 or lower monster from my hand!

Bourbon showed another card.

Come on, Command Knight!

A female knight wearing a large cloak landed on his field, with a golden scabbard hanging around her waist, looking heroic. But soon after she appeared on the stage, she was also controlled by Orichalcos power, and her expression became ferocious and evil.

[Command Knight, ATK 1200 ATK 1700]

Next is Command Knights effect! Bourbon shouted, All Warrior monsters I control gain 400 ATK!

[Marauding Captain, ATK 1700 ATK 2100]

[Command Knight, ATK 1700 ATK 2100]

Its not over yet! Bourbon drew another card from his hand, Activate Spell Card Monster Reborn! Resurrect the Marauding Captain in the graveyard!

The ancient Egyptian talisman of life appeared, and a chaotic vortex opened up on the ground. The captain who had just left the field in the last round immediately appeared from the vortex and returned to the field panting.

[Marauding Captain, ATK 1200 ATK 1700 ATK 2100]

Then there is this card, Bourbon snorted, Continuous Spell Card The A. Forces! All Warrior-Type monsters I control gain 200 ATK for each Warrior or Spellcaster-Type monster I control!

I have three warriors on the field, so the attack power is increased by another 600 points!

[Marauding Captain, ATK 2100 ATK 2700] x2

[Command Knight, ATK 2100 ATK 2700]

Marauding Captain No.1, attack the Elemental HERO Thunder Giant!

The first captain rushed forward, raised the blade high, and slashed at the head, splitting the golden giant with a single blow, and a loud boom sounded.

Yuei Vu, LP 4000 LP 3850

However, after the explosion, the thunder giant was still there.

What? Bourbon was startled, Why?

You have activated my Trap Card Half Unbreak. Yuei Vu pointed to the opened trap at his feet.

A layer of transparent spherical protective cover protected the Thunder Giant in the middle, and it was completely impossible to shake that layer of defense.

During this turn, monsters protected by Half Unbreak will not be destroyed by battle, and the battle damage will also be halved.

The second shot! Bourbon shouted, Marauding Captain No.2, attack the Keeper of Dragon Magic!

The second captain rushed forward, slashing with his sword. The knight tried to raise his spear to try to defend himself, but he was completely powerless due to the difference in attack power, and both the spear and the man were split in half.

Yuei Vu, LP 3850 LP 2950

Continue to fight! Bourbon shouted, Command Knight, attack the Thunder Giant again!

The female knight bound by Orichalcos power shot forward, the blade unsheathed, and slashed across the layer of protective cover that wrapped the Thunder Giant.

Although the damage was not much, it was better than nothing.

Yuei Vu, LP 2950 LP 2700

Yuei Vu raised his arm and took a half step back under the impact, but then he straightened up indifferently as if he didn't care about the reduction in his LP.

Hahahaha, the situation is reversed! The reversal of the scene made Bourbon further expand, And it's not over yet, let you see Orichalcos further strength!

Activate Quick-Play Spell Shield Wall! This card can summon four Shield tokens in the defense position onto my field! (anime card)

The Spell Card emerged, and monsters in the shape of four walls appeared in the monster field area, blocking the two captains and Command Knights on Bourbon's field.

[Shield Token, DEF 1000] x4

In this way, there were a total of seven monsters on the Bourbon field!

This is Orichalcos ultimate ability! As long as The Seal of Orichalcos is on the field, the players Monster Zone and Spell Trap Zone are interchangeable, and monsters can also be summoned in the Spell Trap Zone!

And! When there are monsters in my Monster Zone, the opponent cannot attack the monsters placed in my Spell Trap Zone!

This was the main reason why The Seal of Orichalcos was called a fake card by players.

Compared with the ability to increase the attack power of all monsters by 500, the latter effect was more perverted.

If there was such an effect, it meant that any deck could place cards with strong interference ability and need protection in the Spell Trap Zone, and then set up a meat shield in the Monster Zone as a guard.

Take HERO decks as an example. With The Seal of Orichalcos, you could arrange an Elemental HERO Absolute Zero as a meat shield at the forward position, and then a Masked HERO Dark Law at the rear position.

As long as Dark Law was on the field, all the cards sent to the graveyard by the opponent player would be banished, and when the opponent added cards to their hand, it could banish 1 random card from the opponent's hand.

Then, if the opponent wanted to destroy this annoying Dark Law, they have to deal with the Absolute Zero who stood in front of the Dark Law first.

Then the problem came again. No matter how Absolute Zero left the field, all the monsters on the opponent's field would be destroyed.

This was just a simple analogy, but it was enough to see how OP the effect of The Seal of Orichalcos was.

And now Bourbons three warrior monsters were in the rear position. In order to defeat these three monsters, Yuei Vu must first break through the defense lines of the four Shield Tokens.

And then theres this card! Bourbon pulled out another Spell Card, Quick-Play Spell Poison of the Old Man! I can choose to inflict 800 points of damage to the opponent, or restore 1200 LP. I choose

Here Bourbon hesitated a little, checking the situation on the field.

I have 1000 LP left, and the opponent has 2700

I choose to restore 1200LP.

Bourbon, LP 1000 LP 2200

Although he didnt admit it, the pressure Yuei Vu put on him was still considerable. Compared with hurting Yuei Vu, restoring his LP first would make him feel more secure.

I end my turn. Bourbon sneered arrogantly, Just enjoy your last turn, Duel King.

Valon, one of the Domas Three Swordsmen who watched the battle from a high place, couldnt help but give praise: Hey, your underling is doing well.

This is the power of Orichalcos. Alister said blankly, It can give any ordinary duelist the forbidden power to counterattack the strong. Only such power can lead this dirty world to the right direction.

Its really well done. Rafael folded his arms and said in a calm tone, As for Bourbon, he has surpassed his own limitbut this is the end.

After a pause, he said lightly, Bourbon lost.

Chapter 219: Rider Kick!

There were four Shield Tokens with a defense power of 1000 in the Monster Zone, and there are two Marauding Captain in the Spell Trap Zone that formed an attack blockade with their own taunting effects. Bourbons field at this time was simply an impregnable defense.

In contrast, there was nothing on Yuei Vus side.

In this situation, Bourbon simply didnt know how the opponent could turn the table!

But why is that guy so calm in this situation?

The one who loses will have their souls devoured!

My turn, draw. Yuei Vu added the drawn card to his hand, and showed another Spell Card in his hand without thinking, Activate Spell Card, E Emergency Call! Add 1 Elemental HERO monster from my deck to my hand.

He pulled out the deck and found the hero he wanted to call at a glance.

The card I added to my hand is Elemental HERO Shadow Mist.

Bourbons heart tightened: A hero Ive never seen before

Then I summon Elemental HERO Solid Soldier.

The hero wrapped in solid iron armor appeared on the field with a loud cry, his arms protected by solid armor in front of him.

[Elemental HERO Solid Soldier, ATK 1300]

The effect of Solid Soldier! When this card is Normal Summoned: I can Special Summon 1 Level 4 or lower HERO monster from my hand! Yuei Vu showed the new hero he had just retrieved in his hand, Come on! Elemental HERO Shadow Mist!

A dark mist emerged, and the heroine with a good figure and wrapped in a tight uniform leaped to the field area, and a superhero landing POSE squatted and landed beside the Solid Soldier.

[Elemental HERO Shadow Mist, ATK 1000]

Then there is the effect of the Shadow Mist. Yuei Vu opened the deck again, If this card is Special Summoned: I can add 1 Change Quick-Play Spell Card from my Deck to my hand.

I choose the Quick-Play Spell Mask Change.

Bourbon gritted his teeth and narrowed his eyes.

Mask Change? What is that?

Another card Ive unheard of.

But he tried his best to suppress the uneasiness in his heart.

It didnt matter what he was going to do. The front line on my field is an absolute iron wall, even the Duel King is not so easy to break through.

Then I activate the effect of Elemental HERO Thunder Giant! Yuei Vu sent a card in his hand to the graveyard, Once per turn, by discarding a card, Thunder Giant can destroy a monster whose original attack power is lower than his own.

Bourbon snorted: Do you want to destroy the Shield Token? But there are four of them, even if you destroy one

No, the effect of Thunder Giant is to destroy monsters whose original attack power is lower than his own. Yuei Vu said lightly, Your Marauding Captain has an attack power of 2700, but his original attack power is still only 1200 points.

Bourbons face changed slightly: What? There is such a thing?

Thunder Giant, destroy the Marauding Captain! Yuei Vu said, Vapor Spark!

The thunder hero raised his right palm high, and golden lightning fell from the sky. The flashing lightning crossed the front line of defense and hit the Marauding Captain at the rear, and the captain shattered with a miserable grunt.

The effect of The A. Forces is that for every Warrior or Spellcaster monster on your field, Warrior-Type monsters you control gain 200 ATK. Yuei Vu said, Now there is one less warrior, so the attack power of the remaining Marauding Captain and Command Knight has dropped by 200!

[Marauding Captain, ATK 2700 ATK 2500]

[Command Knight, ATK 2700 ATK 2500]

Battle! Yuei Vu waved his hand, I use Thunder Giant to attack the first Shield Token in the Monster Zone!

The thunder hero let out a low cry and blasted out a lightning sphere, which blew the wall apart the instant it hit.

Bourbon snorted: Its not painful or itchy.

Yuei Vu ignored him: Solid Soldier, attack the second Shield Token!

The steel-armored hero flew out, splitting a shield wall in half with a knife in his hand.

I still have two Shield Tokens left. Bourbon sneered, The attack power of the Shadow Mist is only 1000, so it cannot destroy the Shield Token whose defense power is also 1000.

Activate Quick-Play Spell Mask Change! Yuei Vu waved his arm, Send 1 HERO monster I control to the Graveyard, then Special Summon 1 Masked HERO monster from my Extra Deck with the same Attribute!

What? Bourbon looked confused, Make monsters transform during battle!?

I let the Elemental HERO Shadow Mist transform! Yuei Vu pointed to the beautiful hero lady in front of him, Come on, Masked HERO Anki!

Under the spell effect, the Shadow Mist transformed quickly, as if wearing a layer of dark exoskeleton armor, her head was covered by a ghostly helmet, and a striking belt appeared around her waist.

[Masked HERO Anki, ATK 2800]

The battle is still going on! I use Masked HERO Anki to attack the third Shield Token!

Yuei Vu paused for a moment, thinking about the name of the move.

Then he waved his hand: Rider Kick!

Anki really seemed to understand the meaning of his masters order, as he obeyed it correctly. He jumped into the air, performed the signature pose condescendingly, and kicked down, destroying a shield wall.

Bourbon gritted his teeth: There is one Shield Token left

The effect of the Anki! Yuei Vu said, When this card destroys an opponents monster by battle and sends it to the GY: I can add 1 Change Quick-Play Spell Card from my Deck to my hand.

I added the second Mask Change to my hand.

Bourbon gritted his teeth: There are still

Then I activate the Quick-Play Spell Mask Change again! Another Spell Card appeared in front of Yuei Vu, This time, the hero Im going to transform is Elemental HERO Solid Soldier!

Transform! Masked HERO Dian!

The Solid Soldier was wrapped in a burst of light, and with the gorgeous special effects, he is also dressed in a light exoskeleton armor, turning into a warrior in white armor holding a tapered long sword, with shining diamonds inlaid on his chest, wearing azure cloak.

[Masked HERO Dian, ATK 2800]

At this moment, the effect of Elemental HERO Solid Soldier is activated! A card popped out from the grave area of the Duel Disk in Yuei Vu's hand, If this card is sent from the Monster Zone to the GY by a Spell effect: I can target 1 HERO monster in my GY, except Elemental HERO Solid Soldier; Special Summon it in Defense Position!

What I want to resurrect is Elemental HERO Sparkman!

The black vortex opened, accompanied by a crackling electric current, then Sparkman jumped out handsomely, with high morale and fighting spirit.

Sparkman: Finally! Today I came out at the climax of the battle, and I don't need to be cannon fodder this time!

Sparkman, attack the last Shield Token! Yuei Vu ordered.

The Sparkman suddenly raised his head and chest, and became motivated.

Not only did he not become cannon fodder today, but he could even have the chance to abuse another cannon fodder!

Sparkman held his breath and concentrated on it, and brewed it for a long time, as if he had made up his mind to create the most handsome and gorgeous lightning in history.

The blue electric light pierced through the space, and also shattered the last token that served as a wall in Bourbon's monster zone.

Bourbon gritted his teeth, and at the same time began to feel fear: This guy actually broke through my front line in one go

The attack is not over yet! Yuei Vu continued to order, Masked HERO Dian, attack! The target is the remaining Marauding Captain!

Baozuan flew straight out, the cloak behind him was straightened by the airflow, making a whirring sound.

With a stab of a sword, the last Marauding Captain was also shattered under the hero's sword.

Bourbon, LP 2200 LP 1900

[Command Knight, ATK 2500 ATK 2300]

Bourbon gritted his teeth: Damn, you're better than I expected. But in this way, your attack will also be over

It's not over! Yuei Vu said, The effect of Masked HERO Dian is activated! When this card destroys an opponent's monster by battle and sends it to the GY: I can Special Summon 1 Level 4 or lower HERO monster from my Deck!

I special summon Elemental HERO Heat!

The golden light entangled in flames flew out of Yuei Vu's deck, turning into a hero surrounded by flames, and landed in the last monster area on Yuei Vu's field.

[Elemental HERO Heat, ATK 1600]

Elemental HERO Heats effect! This card gains 200 ATK for each Elemental HERO monster on my side. Yuei Vu said, I have three Elemental HEROes on the field Thunder Giant, Sparkman, and Heat so Heats attack power increased by 600.

[Elemental HERO Heat, ATK 1600 ATK 2200]

Attack power 2200 Bourbon took a deep breath and patted his chest with lingering fear, It's so dangerous, it's only 100 points away from being the same as my Command Knight.

Haha, but I was really shocked. My impregnable front line was actually dismantled in one go. As expected of being the Duel King, the strength is affirmed. But in the next turn

You seem to have misunderstood something. Yuei Vu said lightly, There is no next turn for you.

Bourbon's face changed suddenly: What!?

Waitwait a minute!

What he meant was after such a violent continuous attack, does he have a follow-up attack!?

Yuei Vu calmly flipped over a card in his hand.

Quick-Play Spell Form Change! Yuei Vu said, Return 1 HERO Fusion Monster I control to the Extra Deck, then Special Summon from my Extra Deck, 1 Masked HERO monster with the same Level as that monster's original Level, but with a different name.

Bourbon's face suddenly turned ugly: Can you still switch forms during battle!?

I'll return Masked HERO Dian to the Extra Deck, change form! Yuei Vu shouted, Come on, the second Masked HERO Anki!

Dian gave a clear cry and threw the long sword in his hand far away. The parts of his full body armor popped out one by one, transformed into brand new armor parts in mid-air, assembled one by one, and quickly assembled into a brand new pair of exoskeleton equipment.

Transform! Masked HERO Anki!

[Masked HERO Anki, ATK 2800]

Impossible, impossible Bourbon gritted his teeth, I already have the power of Orichalcos, I am already invincible. This can't be, it can't be

The battle continues! Yuei Vu ignored him, Masked HERO Anki, attack the Command Knight! UhRider kick!

Anki flew up, and with a standard and gorgeous flying kick, he immediately released the poor Command Knight from Orichalcos's restraint and blasted her to pieces.

Bourbon, LP 1900 LP 1400

The last blow! Yuei Vu waved his hand, Elemental HERO Heat! Directly attack the player!

Heat let out a low cry, and the flaming light bullets flew out, and the blazing flames enveloped Bourbon completely. The latter let out a long and shrill scream.

[Bourbon, LP 1400 LP 0]

Chapter 220: Boss, I Think He Is Right

With the scorching final blow of Elemental HERO Heat, Yuei Vus first battle against Doma came to an end.

The Doma mook named Bourbon let out a miserable scream in the burning flames, and the LP representing his life was also reduced to 0.

As the loser appeared, The Seal of Orichalcos began to respond. The sacred green magic circle slowly rotated, began to shrink rapidly, and gathered at the bottom of Bourbons feet.

The Orichalcos emblem on his head became more and more dazzling. He began to let out a miserable hum, and his figure became blurred in the beam of light soaring into the sky. Greenlight rushed into the deep black clouds, as if invisible hands grabbed his soul and violently pulled him out of his body.

After that, like a puppet whose string has been cut, he knelt down without a trace, and fell to the ground with a plop.

Then The Seal of Orichalcos card fell out of the Duel Disk and landed on the ground. Bourbons face appeared above the hexagram on the card, representing his sealed soul.

After the duel was over, Yuei Vu glanced sideways at the overlooking point in the shadows on the second floor, which was empty at the moment.

Alister, Rafael, and Valon were riding a sci-fi-style motorcycle in the streets under the night sky. In the blink of an eye, the branch of the Industrial Illusions was far behind.

Masked HERO Valon said lightly, Its a series Ive never heard of.

Pegasus specially designed a new series for this Duel King. Rafael said, It seems that even with our Domas intelligence network, there are some flaws.

Are you okay with your subordinates? Valon asked, tilting his head, Your powerful subordinate named Gurimo also lost in the duel with Yugi Muto, and now Bourbon also lost to this Yuei Vu They should all be your strongest subordinates, right?

Rafael said indifferently: It doesnt matter. They are indeed compatible with Orichalcos power, but they are not irreplaceable. After testing out the two Duel Kings, their mission is considered complete.

Hmph, there is nothing to worry about. Alister said disdainfully, It doesnt matter even if that Yuei Vu has a new card. No matter how powerful the card is, it cant surpass the power of Orichalcos.

His implication was: Wasnt it just printing a few new cards?

Was there anyone who could not print their own cards?

In terms of printing cards, Doma was second to no one. The cards they made themselves were more and more like fake cards.

For example, the Trap Card called Soldier Revolt used by Alister in the duel with President Kaiba in the animation. It could send all the cards in the opponents hand to the graveyard, and then remove all the cards controlled by the opponent on the field. (Although the activation conditions were a bit harsh)

For a card designer whose brain has never been kicked by a donkey, he probably wouldnt be able to come up with such an effect

The reason Doma was better than Ghouls and Noah was that the cards they use were all real cards.

The cards that Noah wrote in the virtual world were just pure data, just like his set of Deck Master rules, they could only bully people in the computer world.

But Domas cards were different. Each of the cards they make has the unique spirituality of duel monster cards, and they all contained mysterious powers beyond the scope of contemporary science. (President Kaiba, the believer of science, disagreed)

The reason why the cards printed by Doma were so powerful was that they did hold that level of power.

Under the rules of the duel monster card game, the strength of the dark power would be directly reflected in the corresponding card effect.

For example, Holactie the Creator God of Light, the supreme being in the Yu-Gi-Oh worldview, who appeared in the finale of the DM, was the ultimate god. Correspondingly, the effect of the card embodied by her supreme divine power was The player that Special Summons this card wins the Duel.

The stronger the power, the stronger the effect of the embodied card. From this point of view, the pile of OP cards printed by the Doma organization itself was precisely proof of their strong power.

But it was also because of this that Yuei Vu seemed worthy of fear in their eyes.

First, he used the unheard-of Elemental HERO series, and now an unknown force called Masked HERO

Yuei Vu, who called these powerful heroes to a duel one after another, also became an unpredictable opponent in the eyes of Domas Three Swordsmen at this time.

The Three Swordsmen never talked with each other all the way. Valon twisted the handlebar and took the lead in stepping on the gas pedal, and the three motorcycles pierced through the long night and disappeared at the other end of the street.

At this time, Yuei Vu was squatting down to check the wretched guy lying on the ground with his soul pulled out, his tongue sticking out with a broken expression on his face.

He noticed that the small pendant on Bourbons neck seemed to have broken after the duel.

That seemed to be Orichalcoss amulet. Although The Seal of Orichalcos could give any ordinary person the strength to rival the top powerhouse, it was still accompanied by risks.

People who didn't have amulets and extraordinary powers also had the risk of being backlashed if they rashly used The Seal of Orichalcos.

And the The Seal of Orichalcos that Bourbon used had already sealed his own soul inside.

Domas Three Swordsmen ran away before the duel was over, presumably because he felt that this Bourbon was insignificant, so they didn't even bother to recover the card that sealed his soul.

Yuei Vu guessed that a big organization like Doma probably didn't lack such cannon fodder.

It's just that the performance of the animation plot made Yuei Vu have some illusions about Domas organization.

In fact, the Doma organization has existed for thousands of years, and it could even influence the politics of major powers and remotely control the military. It was quite powerful after all, but the tip of the iceberg shown in the animation was easy to give people the illusion.

After all, in the animation, except for the miscellaneous fish Gurimo who ran to the front of Yugi and gave away the head in seconds, only Rafael, Valon and Alister were active in the entire Orichalcos chapter from beginning to end.

Among them, Valon was not so much interested in Domas great ideals as he wanted to pick up girls. He fought Jonouchi all the time, with the sole purpose of chasing Kujaku Mai.

Although Valon didn't catch up with Sister Mai in the end, when he clashed with Jonouchi, they deepened and cherished each other in the friction, and finally formed a revolutionary friendship. These two love rivals even had a tendency to kick Sister Mai away and have fun by themselves.

The second swordsman Alister also didn't seem to be particularly interested in Domas ideals. He was more focused on the president of Kaiba, and wanted to fight with the president for revenge. In the end, he and Kaiba had a decisive battle on the plane that was about to crash. Alister was able to delay the time and die together with Kaiba, but he was also whitewashed by the presidents Talk no Jutsu and let go of the opportunity to reduce the number of the enemy.

The third swordsman Rafael must be the most loyal one among the Three Swordsmen, and even once completed the feat of taking Yami Yugis first blood.

However, in the end, he was also whitewashed by Yami Yugis Talk no Jutsu, and in the end, he even wanted to go back and vindicate his boss Dartz.

To sum up, judging from the characters that appeared in the animation, it seemed that in Doma, there were only miscellaneous fish, cannon fodder, those who wanted to pick up girls, those who were not firm, and those who turned against their master.

Originally, Rafael was the only one who worked diligently and followed the boss, but in the end, he was whitewashed and even wanted to go to preach with the boss. It was like Gin was awakened by a certain elementary school student, and then turned to go back to the boss and say: Boss, I think he is right, let's get rid of the Black Organization.
