

I Play Yu-Gi 221

Chapter 221: What A Short Friendship!

Just as Yuei Vu was leaving the building of the Industrial Illusions branch, the cell phone in his pocket rang.

When he picked it up, he saw the name on the phone was Muto Yugi.

After the Battle City ended, several of the contestants exchanged mobile phone numbers with each other. Yuei Vu actually has the number of Yugi and Kaiba, but they don't contact each other often on weekdays.

He can probably guess why the call came from Yugi at this time.

Sure enough, just like the unfolding of the animation plot, the God card in Yugi's hand has been taken away by Doma by now.

The voice of the original Duel King sounded tired, as if he had just been through a tough battle.

The opponent is an organization that calls itself Doma, using a weird card called The Seal of Orichalcos. Yugi warned him over the phone, We don't know much for the time being, but it seems that it's a pretty powerful force.

That card can create a barrier similar to a very high-level Shadow Game in a duel, and even the Millennium Puzzle can't play a role in that barrier. Moreover, those who are defeated in the barrier seem to have their souls taken away.

And what's even more astonishing is that that barrier seems to be able to suppress even gods. Our Obelisk the Tormentor was taken away by them. I saw with my own eyes that even ordinary people can control the power of gods with the help of The Seal of Orichalcos. It looks as if even the gods are bound by that barrier.

Has Obelisk been taken away? Yuei Vu asked, Are you all right?

Yeah. Yugi said, We didn't lose in Orichalcos' duel. Those people took advantage of our unpreparedness, came to our store to launch an attack, and forcibly took away the God Card from my grandfather.

Well, it really is the grandpa of Yugi again.

Yuei Vu found out, from the whole DM, the grandfather of Yugi feels like a ruthless mission-release NPC. Whenever a plot came to an end, there would always be some kind of crisis from Grandpa to promote the development of the new plot.

To sum up, Grandpa has been robbed of the card by the president of Kaiba, captured by Pegasus, brought down by the Bakura who is possessed by the great evil god Zorc, and robbed of the card by Doma

It can be seen from this that Grandpa's retired life was indeed a troubled one, and the frequency of accidents was so high that only Mokuba, the younger brother of the president of Kaiba, could compare.

The grandfather of Yugi and the younger brother of President Kaiba, commonly known as the professional hostage duo. Without the two of them, the plot of the entire DM would be a lot less out of thin air.

In short, their goal seems to be the God Card. Yu Yu said, You should also be a little more careful. They may be looking for you next.

Well, I will be careful, thank you for reminding me. Yuei Vu said, You should also be careful too, Yugi.

I will. Then I will contact you later.

Yugi hung up the phone and heaved a sigh of relief.

Obelisk was forcibly taken away, and grandpa was still in the hospital (although he was not injured), it was impossible to say that Yugi is not depressed at all.

Yami Yugi in the spirit state came out: In this situation, remember to call and warn Yuei Vu, AIBO, you are really a kind guy

Yeah. Yugi nodded, Because Yuei Vu is also a partner who has fought together. And from what he said, it seems that he has already fought against Doma.

The God Card

Its still in Yuei Vus hands, and Doma lost. Yugi said, As expected of Yuei Vu, this time we lost to him. The other two God cards should be safer in his hands

Yami Yugi pursed his lips: Our Obelisk was forcibly taken away, and I didnt lose in a duel

The HQ of Nightcrawler World, at the same time.

This time is a friendly match with the organization Knights of the Rose. President Kawasaki Gai put on a serious face, This is about the glory of our Nightcrawler World, as well as our dignity as men!

A group of strong men listened beside him, all eager to try, like hungry wolves ready to hunt.

Knights of the Rose!

It was quite famous among Shadow Duelist organizations because it was an organization composed entirely of high-value girls, but the overall combat power of the organization was not weak, and the leader was a world-renowned duelist.

In the past, the Knights of the Rose had always disdained playing cards with the Nightcrawler World, but this year was an exception.

The leader of Knights of the Rose took the initiative to contact President Gai, saying that she wanted to hold a duel competition mainly based on friendship, and there was only one condition.

That was, they wanted to meet the legendary Duel King of the Nightcrawler World.

The emotions of a group of men in Nightcrawler World were mobilized to the extreme.

We can play cards with the beauties of the Knights of the Rose!

And because they were all Shadow Duelists, even a friendly match must be a Shadow Game.

So as long as they won, wouldn't it be just playing and singing, sitting on your back and kneeling, thinking about what to do?

The burly men in the room burst into cheers and shout instantly, and the sound seemed to knock the roof down.

However, President Gai quickly said that there was a quota limit for friendly matches.

The opponents request was three-on-three, three consecutive rounds in the form of relay battles, and whichever team has LP left in the end would win. In other words, there could be no more than three participants.

First of all, one slot must belong to Yuei Vu. Even if he was not present, everyone had no objection. Then the president himself has to occupy another slot, so there was only one slot left

So President Gai decided to interview the final contestants here!

Whoever could convince him would get the final spot in the competition!

Just as the members looked at each other vigilantly, Manager Nanmoku stepped forward from the crowd with the arrogance of a king.

Everyone was startled was the manager Nanmoku actually planning to take the lead?

President. Seeing the management officer stepping forward, he closed his eyes lightly with a confident look, We are so familiar, so we won't talk nonsense.

I'll show my cards straight away. In fact, my Meimei is a duelist from the Knights of the Rose. If I get the chance to participate, I will talk to her sweetly, and I might be able to ask her about the contestants and their situation

Oh. President Gai stared blankly, Then how can you guarantee that you won't disclose our information to your Meimei?

Eh? The management officer was stunned for a moment, then smiled casually, President, don't you understand after we've known each other for so long? Do you think I look like that kind of person?

Before the president could say anything, there was a commotion below.

Isn't that nonsense?

It's well known that in order to pick up girls, your principles have been removed from the game a long time ago.

President, you don't need to think about him, just give him a T!

Manager Nanmoku:

President Gai directly slapped the table: Next!

It probably meant that this person has been eliminated.

The next one to come up was Fae. This guy first came up and pushed his glasses tactically, and stared at the president sincerely (in his own opinion) through the thick lenses: President, look into my eyes.

The president: You should stay away from me a little bit, I panicked

I have a hunch, President! Fae said seriously, I think through this competition, I have a chance to get out of the singles!

The group of players in the back suddenly exploded.

Fuck, Brother Fae, you betrayed the revolution!?

Such a guy like you want to get out of the singles?

Give up, Brother Fae, even if the world is destroyed, you have no hope!

Fae suddenly became angry: What? Do you have any opinions?

Of course, I have an opinion, so what! A player began to roll up his sleeves, looking like a social person ready to fight, Do you dare to play cards?

Why not? Who is afraid of you? Chicken!

I bet my life directly!

Seeing that the momentum was wrong, President Gai directly slapped the table.

Hey, brothers, its not good to get angry over such a small matter. President Gai waved, After all, its just a friendly match. Everyone here is brothers, and brothers have to help each other by mutual aid. How can you hurt your friendship because of such a trivial matter?

Everyone looked at each other in blank dismay.

What the president said seems to make sense?

Someone closed their eyes and chuckled a little self-deprecatingly.

Really, what are we doing?

Thats right, for such a thing

Its really ugly.

The so-called brothers should be humble to each other. Its not good to be ugly like this.

President Gai nodded slightly.

Its ok, sure enough, everyone is still sensible.

In the next second, the style changed suddenly.

Fae pushed his glasses and said, Since this is the case, it seems that our brothers will come to an end today!

Native Noragami threw away his shirt: Very good, so I can do it without any worries!

What a short friendship!

President Gai: No, Wait a minute, I didnt mean that

The president felt very tired.

While the house was making noise, a guy wearing a black robe that covered half of his face came to the entrance of Nightcrawler World.

The gatekeeper stood in his way: Wait a minute, brother, you cant go in here.

Oh, is it?

The man raised his head, revealing the face under the wide hood and the six-pointed star magic circle shining with a strange green light on his forehead.

He sneered: I dont think so.

Chapter 222: Cannot Play Cards With Clothes On?

The shock came suddenly, without any warning.

A burst of green light blasted open the door of Nightcrawler Worlds HQ from the outside like a heavy hammer, and the door flew into the hall with a mournful cry. The sound was like thunder, echoing over and over again in the confined space, the buzzing noise was deafening.

Wearing a black robe, the Orichalcos follower took off his hood, revealing his bald forehead and the shining Orichalcos mark on his forehead.

He was holding a Duel Disk in his hand, and walked in the door with a fierce face as if he was a fierce god and then he froze in place.

He originally thought that he had come to the legendary Nightcrawlers World, a top-level Shadow Duelist organization with a Duel King in it. As a result, he arrogantly blew open the door and prepared to kick out of the gymnasium. What did he see?

He saw a group of disheveled and strangely-behaved brothers, who were fighting fiercely for unknown reasons at the moment. One of the buddies stepped on his companion and pulled the only pair of underwear left on his body, another buddy was pulling his companions mouth, and that companion was also pulling his ear at the same time

The Orichalcos follower who came to trouble them was suddenly stunned, and even forgot the harsh words he had prepared.

He even had the urge to step back and take a look at the house number (if there was one), to make sure that he had come to some brother wrestling club by the wrong way, maybe the card-playing association was actually next door

But such an arrogant appearance certainly attracted everyones attention.

Huh? President Gai raised his eyebrows, Who are you?

At this time, the Orichalcos follower finally recalled the purpose of his trip. However, he just forgot the words for too long and missed the best time to show off by the opening remark, so he had to snort heavily and said: Me? My name is Gaspar, and I was given power by the great god of Orichalcos to serve Lord Rafael, the greatest among the Three Swordsmen of Doma!

He smiled evilly: Today, right here, I will completely destroy your headquarters

Everyone suddenly became tense.

What? Did you come to trouble us?

President Kawasaki Gai frowned. The management officer on the side also approached: President, he claims to be Doma. Is it what Yuei Vu has warned us

It should be. President Gai narrowed his small eyes, but now they are almost invisible, Unexpectedly, I spent so much effort to find no clues, but now he came to the door on his own.

At this time, the players in the stronghold were the most excited.

Damn! Its Doma! New plotline!

This is not in the animation, should the plot start from us?

Fae laughed, picked up the glasses that were thrown aside when he fell, put them back on the bridge of his nose, and pushed the frame: Interesting! Then let me come to test how brave he is!

As he spoke, he laughed strangely and looked at Gaspar with strange eyes, wondering what he was thinking.

Mr. Kuroda flicked his shirt to reveal his strong muscles: No, you are a newcomer, so go to the side first. He is mine!

The players even chattered around Gaspar in the middle.

His Duel Disk is different from ours, I think it should be very valuable!

I heard that Doma has printed a lot of awesome cards! It should be very valuable to pick up his deck, right?

You can sell it to Yuei Vu, maybe it will increase your favorability!

Gaspar is a little dazed now even a little impatient.

Wait wait a minute, dont come here!

We are all duelists, and everything is settled by playing cards!

So you can you put on your clothes first?

Its so hot that peoples eyes hurt

Manager Nanmoku approached the president and said in a deep voice: President, the dark energy in this person is very strong, and it is different from any traditional Shadow Duelist we know. It seems that there is something extremely terrifying hiding behind his back.

I know.

The president and management officer have been in the inner world for a long time, so they are naturally well-informed, and they can see that something is wrong with the newcomer at a glance.

President Kawasaki Gai said, pondered for a moment, then suddenly got up and walked forward.

I'll be your opponent, he said.

The members immediately exploded.

What? It's just a small fry, President, you don't need to do it yourself!

Leave it to me! I beat him in one turn!

Since the other party is attacking, it is also my responsibility as the president to fight! President Gai said coldly, There is no need to say more. If you want to come, I will be your opponent!

Okay. Gaspar's forehead was shining with green light, and at the same time he lifted the Duel Disk with a sneer, but the location here is too small to use it. Let's go outside and find a good place. I want to see your full strength.

After a while, the two of them had already arrived outside followed by a group of muscular men.

President, come on! Fae was shouting the loudest.

By the way, the president is wearing clothes, can he beat his opponent?

Hmm makes sense. Do any of you want to remind the president?

Hearing the muttering beside them, Gaspar couldn't help but fell into silence.

MDZZ, God damn it! Why do you have to take off your clothes to play cards? Moreover, why these guys took it for granted, as if they couldn't play cards with clothes on

What kind of club is this?

He shook his head.

No, no, I have to focus on the duel first, and must not be distracted by these screwballs

What he was carrying was different from these screwballs!

Duel! x2

Kawasaki Gai, LP 4000

Gaspar, LP 4000

It's me who goes first, draw!

Gaspar drew the card, and at the same time, the pendant on his chest seemed to be flickering green.

I summon the Gene-Warped Warwolf in attack position!

Usually, monster cards surfaced on his field, and a big, fluffy four-armed werewolf appeared on his field. The scarlet eyes seemed to be brewing with a desire for blood and burst out from the depths of his throat. A muffled growl.

[Gene-Warped Warwolf, ATK 2000]

The onlookers of Nightcrawler were in an uproar.

A Level 4 monster that has 2000 attack power!?

What kind of monster is this? Isn't it too strong?

Hahahaha, this is the power of our Doma! No matter how powerful the card is, we can easily get it!
Gaspar laughed, I'll set another card, and I end my turn!

The card was inserted into the Duel Disk, and a covered card appeared in front of him immediately.

Tch, there are two tricks. President Gai pouted.

A level 4 monster with 2000 attack power It was true that such a powerful card could help duelists quickly gain the oppressive power of the first mover.

Once the initiative of the duel was seized by such a powerful monster, the opponent would easily fall into your pace and be suppressed until defeated.

But President Gai was not a duelist who would fall so easily!

My turn! President Gai raised the volume, Draw!

He drew the card, flipped over the cards in his hand, glanced at them out of the corner of his eyes, and his eyes lit up.

Coming!

Obtained from Yuei Vu, one of his trump cards!

I summon Chainsaw Insect!

A golden light suddenly appeared, and what emerged from that light was a giant insect with a black carapace. Its outer shell was like pitch-black steel armor, and in front of it was a pair of jagged double-edged blades, like a pair of unstoppable chainsaws.

[Chainsaw Insect, ATK 2400]

Chapter 223: The Duty Of The President

Chainsaw Insect, summon!

Gaspar couldn't help but exclaimed in astonishment: This a Level 4 monster with 2400 attack power!?

And it was a monster he had never heard of!

The members beside them began to cheer.

It has appeared! The strongest Archfiend of the president!

Hurry up and kill that kind of enemy with your strongest Archfiend!

Gaspar: ???

Hey, dont lie to me, such a big Insect here, which of your eyes can see its a Fiend?

Its not over yet, President Kawasaki Gai snorted, and handsomely showed another card in his hand, Activate the Equip Spell Card from the hand Axe of Despair!

Equip it to the Chainsaw Insect, and the attack power of the equipped monster will increase by 1000 points!

[Chainsaw Insect, ATK 2400 ATK 3400]

As soon as it comes up, the attack power is 3400! The president is awesome!

More than Blue-Eyes White Dragon

Boy, there is a price for underestimating people casually! President Kawasaki Gai laughed dryly twice, Chainsaw Insect attack! Crush that ugly werewolf for me!

The strengthened giant worm rushed up with a strange cry, and quickly scuffled with the Gene-Warped Warwolf.

Facts have proved that the werewolf whose body was indestructible after genetic modification was not the opponent of the bug. The strengthened body of the white wolf was completely vulnerable to the pair of chainsaw-like mouthparts, and the sharp saw easily splited its body.

Gaspar obviously felt that it was a bit embarrassing to be deflated in the first turn compared to the boast he had blown before, so he didnt intend to take the damage forcefully, and immediately pressed the button on the Duel Disk to activate the set card.

Open the set card! He waved his hand, Trap Card Defense Draw! It can reduce the damage of a battle to 0, and then I draw a card.

A transparent barrier emerged, blocking the aggressive rush of the giant worm for Gaspar. The latter draws a card at the same time.

Heh, did you manage to stall it? President Gai said, When the Chainsaw Insect battles, the opponent can draw a card. Count it as I give you a handicap. You can draw a card.

Without saying a word, Gaspar drew another card.

I end my turn.

Then its my turn.

Gaspar drew the card, narrowed his eyes and looked at the big bug on President Gais field.

I didnt expect you to have such a powerful monster in your hands Its because I underestimated the enemy a little bit. Gaspar said, Then from now on, let me deal with it with 120% of seriousness.

Im going to summon this monster first come on! Fusilier Dragon, the Dual-Mode Beast!

The roar of the metal blunt weapon hitting the floor sounded like a heavy tank. Two pitch-black cannon barrels protrude from the edge of the track, and a golden metal dragon head is in the middle.

[Fusilier Dragon, the Dual-Mode Beast, Level 7, ATK 2800]

President Gai was shocked: Dont you need two Tributes to summon a level 7 monster!?

Fusilier Dragon, the Dual-Mode Beast can be Normal Summoned without Tributing, but its ATK and DEF become halved.

[Fusilier Dragon, the Dual-Mode Beast, ATK 2800 ATK 1400]

President Gai frowned: If the attack power is only half

Its not over yet! Gaspar laughed, Then I will activate the Spell Card from my hand Monster Reborn! Revive the monsters sleeping in the graveyard Come back to my field, Gene-Warped Warwolf!

The black vortex leading to the underworld briefly opened under the influence of magic, and the white werewolf returned to his field.

In this way, the preparations are complete. Gaspar sneered, pulled out a card in his hand, turned the back to President Gai, and sneered in a deep voice, Today, I want to open your eyes and let you see what I can do with Domas strength. Arrived, super rare card!

He held the card up high.

I sacrificed the Fusilier Dragon, the Dual-Mode Beast and Gene-Warped Warwolf, and specially summoned this monster in my hand

Legendary Maju Garzett!

Arriving with a thunderous bang, what landed on the field was a huge demon whose body was covered by an exoskeleton.

The two sacrificed monsters on the field looked like they were literally eaten to give birth to the demon. He has the wings of a fallen angel, his face was ferocious, but he was handsome in a different way.

Maju was a series of cards in Yu-Gi-Oh. All the monsters in this series were based on the Mazinger Series manga created by mangaka Go Nagai.

Among them, Legendary Maju Garzetta's corresponding prototype in the manga was True Mazinger Z.

Legendary Maju Garzett must be Special Summoned by Tributing all monsters I control! Gaspar shouted, Then his attack power becomes the sum of the original attack power of the sacrificed monsters.

Thats it! President Gai suddenly realized, The original attack power of the Fusilier Dragon, the Dual-Mode Beast is 2800. If it is used as a sacrifice

Thats right, Gaspar sneered, so the attack power of the Maju Garzett is

[Legendary Maju Garzett, ATK 0 ATK 4800]

Kawasawa Gai gritted his teeth: The attack power is 4800

And then theres this guy Gilasaurus, Special Summon!

With a domineering roar, a yellow dinosaur appeared on Gaspar's field, opened its bloody mouth and roared loudly.

[Gilasaurus, ATK 1400]

This monster can be Special Summoned directly from the hand, but when summoned in this way, the opponent can choose a monster from the graveyard to resurrect.

Gaspar grinned.

Of course, there are no monsters in your graveyard that can be resurrected.

Battle! Gaspar waved his hand, Legendary Maju Garzett! Smash that unsightly bug for me!

The strength reversed, and the Chainsaw Insect, which had absolutely dominated the field just now, lost its position in an instant. Legendary Maju Garzett, like a literal bug grinder, broke its carapace and crushed its body. The giant worm screamed weakly, fell to the ground sideways, and dissipated in smoke.

Although The Seal of Orichalcos has not yet been activated, what the two sides were fighting was a Shadow Game. The pendant on Gaspar's chest burst into green light at this moment, which seemed to amplify the impact of the game.

The mighty power of the monster shattered the body of the Chainsaw Insect and continued to bombard President Gai. At that moment, the president felt as if he had bumped into a speeding truck head-on, and his body took two steps back uncontrollably.

Kawasawa Gai, LP 4000 LP 2600

At this moment, the side effect of Chainsaw Insect was activated, and Gaspar drew another card.

Continue to attack! Gaspar yelled, Gilasaurus, attack directly!

With a roar, the dinosaur rushed forward, and slammed into President Gai with a posture of iron head skill. President Gai's short body was knocked into the air by the whole body, he threw up a mouthful of blood, and fell to the ground like a broken kite.

Kawasawa Gai, LP 2600 LP 1200

The subordinates were shocked immediately.

President!

President, are you alright!?

President Kawasawa Gai waved his hand to signal them not to approach, wiped blood on his mouth, and tried to stand up unsteadily. But before he could stand upright, his knees softened, and he half-kneeled back to the ground.

After trying twice in a row, he failed to stand up, and instead vomited another mouthful of blood.

President Gai shook his head and smiled wryly: Hey, I'm old, I'm old. Just this level cough cough

There was still the second half of the sentence that the president didn't say.

I knew I should not visit the girls a few days ago. Otherwise, at least my body is not so weak, and the damage of only 1400LP is so decadent

Gaspar crossed his arms and sneered: Do you want to continue, old man? How about surrendering now?

Gai's face was full of blood, and he laughed dryly twice. He kicked his knees, as if forcing himself, controlled his old arms and legs and stood up again.

Of course we must continue. He wiped the blood, hummed and smiled, I can't lose face in front of so many lovely juniors.

It's better not to try too hard, old man, Gaspar said, Your body may not be able to last until the end of the duel. It's still too late, and I can allow you to exchange with other people.

That can't be done. President Gai smiled, trying to gain a firm foothold, The duty of the president is to protect the safety of everyone. As long as I don't fall, you can't lay a finger on anyone here.

It is enough, President.

The sound came from above.

Everyone raised their heads together and looked in the air where the voice came from, and they couldn't help showing surprise.

Yuei Vu!

Chapter 224: Masked HERO Koga

Yuei Vu!

Everyone in the audience showed joy, and even Gaspar showed a gloomy smile.

The BOSS is finally willing to show his face. He said to himself.

Yuei Vu's appearance at this moment was quite prestigious, he was suspended in the air without any support at this time well, actually there was a spirit supporting his weight by holding her master's shoulder.

The blond-haired magician girl stepped on a transparent magic circle and floated in the air with her master, who was overlooking the audience from a height as if he was in control of the whole situation. Coupled with the almost full-scale charm, it was quite august.

However, although floating in such a high position was impressive, it was obviously impossible to play cards. So Yuei Vu turned his head and whispered to the magician girl, Let me go.

Yes, master!

So she immediately let go of her hand very obediently.

and her master immediately began to free fall under the standard acceleration of gravity

At this moment, Yuei Vu was possessed by various heroes such as Spiderman, Ironman, Batman, etc. He rolled on the spot to cushion the impact and rolled several times before landing unharmed.

Fortunately, his Endurance value was high enough, and the height of his fall was not too high.

Otherwise, people might write on his monument:

Duel King Yuei Vu, lived for two months (counting from the day the account was created). Cause of death: Being thrown to death by his own duel monster spirit.

Thats too funny

Ah! MasterMaster, Im sorry The magician girl covered her mouth with her little hand, Because you said to let you go

Yuei Vu:

I mean to take me down, not to let me free fall directly!

You dont think Im President Kaiba, do you? Im not the one who has no problem doing a superhero three-point landing directly from the helicopter, and the knees are suspected to be made of Vibranium.

However, his series of landing poses was quite smooth, from landing and rolling to getting up in one go, so the crowd seemed to be completely unaware of the accident.

Damn its so handsome! a player shouted.

A handsome person is even more handsome in action!

The magician girl floated down and fiddled with the little staff anxiously: MasterMaster

Its okay. Yuei Vu smiled and waved his hand.

What else can I do? Forgive her of course!

Even if I really want to punish her, I will have to wait until were at home at night. Its not appropriate to do that stuff in front of such a large audience

Yuei Vu got up and walked to President Gai, and stood in front of Gaspar.

Your target is me. He said lightly, I will take over this duel, is it okay?

President Gai was shocked: Waitwait a minute, but my LP is only 1200, and there is nothing on the field. And the opponents field

I know. Yuei Vu smiled, Dont worry, President, I can handle it.

Gaspar was overjoyed, but tried his best to remain calm: Oh? Are you serious?

Of course. Yuei Vu said, Im afraid you dont have the guts to accept it.

Gaspar laughed.

Okay. He sneered, At first I didnt want to take such a big advantage, but since you are so confident, then come on. Let me see how powerful the so-called Duel King is.

He said so, but in fact, he was overjoyed in his heart at this time.

Fuck, there is such a good thing!?

Yugi Muto and Yuei Vu, the two Duel Kings who hold the God cards, were the top targets that Doma was aiming at. To be able to win any of them and take away the God Card was a great feat that was enough to make a sky-rocketed promotion in the organization.

And now, Yuei Vu actually expressed his willingness to take over the duel under such a huge disadvantage!

Yuei Vu stood in front of the president and opened the duel disk.

Dont worry, President. Leave the rest to me.

The president hesitated for a moment, then nodded: Okay. Then Ill leave it to you.

The duel will start again!

Yuei Vu, LP 1200

Gaspar, LP 4000

Although the Battle Phase is over, my turn is not over yet. Gaspar took out another card in his hand, I set a card and end my turn.

At this time, the president had already been helped to rest by others, gritted his teeth and looked at Yuei Vu who took over the mess.

Im counting on you!

My turn, draw!

There were not many LPs left, which meant that the fault tolerance rate was also reduced. There was really no room for buffering on the scene now, so Yuei Vu must speed up his attack here.

Activate the Spell card from the hand Polymerization! Yuei Vu directly pulled out the three cards in his hand, I fuse Elemental HERO Clayman and Elemental HERO Sparkman in my hand!

Fusion Summon! Elemental HERO Thunder Giant!

The hero who manipulated the electric current and the clay construction turned into a beam of light and flew into the air, converging into a waterfall-like beam of light and crashing to the ground. A giant hero in heavy armor appeared from it, his footsteps fell heavily on the ground, and his whole body was pulsating with electricity.

[Elemental HERO Thunder Giant, ATK 2400]

So thats it! Someone among the crowd realized, The effect of Elemental HERO Thunder Giant is that by discarding a card in your hand, you can destroy monsters with original attack power than it.

Although Legendary Maju Garzets attack power was 4800, thats because he has the special ability of the attack power becomes the sum of the original attack power of the sacrificial monsters!

In other words, its original attack power is still 0!

There is still this move As expected of Yuei Vu!

Its a good idea, but its within my expectations! Gaspar snorted, Open the set card: Trap Card Void Trap Hole! When the opponent Special Summons a monster(s) with 2000 or more ATK: Negate the effects of 1 of those monsters with 2000 or more ATK, and destroy it!

The eye-catching red trap flipped over, and at the same time opened a fiery red vortex at the Thunder Giants feet. Lava and flames were churning in the vortex as if the devil was groaning in the depths of hell, longing for a living soul.

Gaspar's pupils shrank, and he laughed loudly: Just leave the stage for me, Thunder Giant!

Yuei Vu didnt change his face and quickly inserted the card in his hand into the Duel Disk.

Quick-Play Spell Mask Change! A spell card appeared in front of Yuei Vu, Send 1 HERO monster I control to the Graveyard, then Special Summon 1 Masked HERO monster from my Extra Deck with the same Attribute!

He pointed at the hero in front of him.

Use Mask Change to transform the Thunder Giant!

The light released by the magic card enveloped Thunder Giant, and the hero began to transform with a burst of gorgeous light effects.

As we all know, when transforming and posing with special effects, the hero was invincible, so the Void Trap Hole was of course ineffective. (actually, because the trap lost the target)

The thunder giants armor disappear, and his body quickly deformed under the light. Emerging from the light again was a hero wearing close-fitting armor and shining golden light all over. He was slender and had fang-like spikes on the backs of his hands.

Masked HERO Koga, transform!

[Masked HERO Koga, ATK 2500]

This time the onlookers were also dumbfounded.

Masked HERO? What is that?

Yuei Vus new deck?

In contrast, the players present climaxed instantly.

Masked HERO!

Worthy of being the protagonist of the world, the designers own son!

Are you also a passing Kamen Rider?

Yuei Vu-san will have no friends if this continues

Gaspar frowned: Masked HERO a brand new power. But even so, his attack power

Kogas effect, Yuei Vu interrupted, This card gains 500 ATK for each monster the opponent controls. Now you have two monsters Legendary Maju Garzett and Gilasaurus on the field, so Kogas attack power increased by 1000 points!

[Masked HERO Koga, ATK 2500 ATK 3500]

Gaspar snorted: Even so, the attack power of Legendary Maju Garzett is still higher!

However, Yuei Vu didnt seem to hear: Battle! Masked HERO Koga, attack Legendary Maju Garzett!

What!? Gaspar was astonished. Are you crazy? The attack power of Legendary Maju Garzett is 4800. If the battle occurs, you will suffer 1300 damage. Do you want to commit suicide?

Yuei Vu, LP 1200

However, the attack order has been issued, and the battle was inevitable. Koga flew to the top of Legendary Maju Garzett's head, and the sharp blade drew a golden trajectory and cut toward the top of the opponent's head.

Legendary Maju Garzett, counterattack! Gaspar yelled.

At this moment, the special effect of Koga is activated! Yuei Vu raised his hand and said, Once per turn, during either player's turn: I can banish 1 HERO monster from my Graveyard, then target 1 face-up monster on the field; that target loses ATK equal to the ATK of the monster banished to activate this effect, until the end of this turn!

What!?! Gaspar said in surprise.

I banish the Elemental HERO Thunder Giant from the GY, and the attack power of Legendary Maju Garzett is decreased by its attack power value, which is 2400 points!

The card popped out from Yuei Vu's graveyard area, and the phantom of the thunder giant appeared behind Legendary Maju Garzett, and suddenly bound his arms.

[Legendary Maju Garzett, ATK 4800 ATK 2400]

Koga's arm blade fell off, and the golden blade cut the huge Demon God in the middle. The boundless golden light was released from the crack, and the light expanded, blowing the demon god into pieces.

Gaspar, LP 4000 LP 2900

[Masked HERO Koga, ATK 3500 ATK 3000]

This wave was Kamen Rider Vs Mazinger Z.

It looked like the winner was Kamen Rider.

Chapter 225: The Bound God

I end my turn. Yuei Vu said lightly after finishing the attack, Due to the reduction of the number of monsters on the opponent's field, the attack power of Masked HERO Koga has dropped to 3000.

Everyone next to them was so excited that they were about to boil.

The monster with an attack power of 4800 can be easily eliminated!

Don't even look at who that is! That's the Duel King! The first Duel King in the history of our organization!

President Gai, who was vomiting blood just now, stood up unsteadily and shouted, Good fight! Good fight! cough cough

The old man yelled twice and spat out blood, and a group of men behind hurried forward to catch him.

Gaspar took a deep breath.

Calm down, nothing to be nervous about.

It's just being pulled back by a little bit, it's harmless.

Sure enough, the Duel King put too much pressure on him. The upper hand was still on his side. Its just outrageous that a monster will start to panic after being dealt with.

Gaspar snorted and smiled.

Orichalcos power is far more than that!

My turn, draw! Gaspar showed the drawn card, Spell Card Pot of Greed! I will draw two more cards.

Seeing the two cards he had just drawn, Gaspar's pupils shrank, he couldn't help but raise his head and laugh.

Yuei Vu frowned.

Did he get that card?

Sure enough, in the next moment, Gaspar held up a card he just drew in his hand.

Great God of Orichalcos! Give your faithful believers supreme power!

The slot on the side of the Duel Disk popped open, and the green magic card was placed on it and pushed into the Duel Disk. In an instant, the electric current on his Duel Disk overflowed, and the majestic energy visible to the naked eye exploded, spinning and spreading from the bottom of his feet.

Field Spell Card The Seal of Orichalcos, activate!

The energy exploded, and the pendant on Gaspar's chest shone like never before. The huge beam of light rushed into the sky as if borrowing part of its power from the hands of a great being in the sky.

The green beam of light erupted with Gaspar as the center, and the magic circle of the six-pointed star spread out under his feet, rapidly expanding to include both sides in the war.

At the same time, Gaspar's own force also soared suddenly. His dark energy soared to a rather terrifying level in one breath, and his aura rose like a giant, and everyone present could clearly feel the qualitative change.

This what is this? Manager Nanmoku asked in surprise, It can be so exaggerated to instantly elevate a person's level of strength does this kind of dark power still exist in the world?

President Gai also had a complicated look on his face, and muttered, So, he hasn't been serious until just now?

Ha ha ha ha!

Power poured into Gaspar's body continuously through the barrier, and the surging energy seemed to be rushing through his blood vessels, flowing among the internal organs.

Now he felt omnipotent!

It's too late to regret now, Gaspar said with a smug smile, After The Seal of Orichalcos is activated, no one can escape before the winner is decided. Only when the loser's soul becomes a sacrifice to the great god of Orichalcos, can the winner walk out safe and sound.

He drew another card from his hand and inserted it into the slot on the dueling board.

I activate Quick-Play Spell Bronze Knights! Discard any number of cards in my hand, and special summon the same number of Bronze Knight tokens. (Anime card)

I discard two cards in my hand and special summon two Bronze Knight Tokens!

With two cards from his hand discarded to the graveyard, two knights in white armor with bronze swords appeared on his field. The mark of Orichalcos also appeared on the helmets of the two knights, and they gained corresponding power.

[Bronze Knight Token, ATK 500 ATK 1000] x2

Hmph, and then there is this card, Gaspar sneered, confidently said, You can all open your eyes and see it. Doma, the Orichalcos herald who walks in the world, has obtained the ultimate power. Even God had to bow to us and obey our orders!

I tribute two Bronze Knight Tokens and the Gilasaurus on the field!

The white whirlwind rolled up and enveloped the three monsters on Gaspar's field. The sky was covered with overcast clouds as if sensing that some kind of great existence was about to come.

Come on, God! Gaspar slammed down the card in his hand, Obelisk the Tormentor!

The earth screamed, and the ground seemed to be torn apart by an irresistible force of terror. The blue giant's body rose slowly from the crack, its scarlet eyes reflected the tiny field, and its towering body was like a blue majestic mountain.

[Obelisk the Tormentor, ATK 4000]

Yuei Vu frowned.

The Obelisk that was snatched from Yugi was actually in this guy's hands?

This was really unexpected. He originally thought that Gaspar was nothing more than a small fry, but since Doma chose to entrust Obelisk to him to do things, then this guy's status and strength in the organization should not be low.

In fact, from his performance so far, Gaspar was already a very high-level expert in today's DM environment.

At this time, everyone in the Nightwalker World was even more surprised.

Egyptian Gods, the peak of dueling monsters, was the legend among duelists. Even if they were watching from outside the barrier, they could still feel the might of the god.

Obelisk Manager Nanmoku murmured, But the God Cards shouldn't be available to everyone, right? Those who use the God Card rashly will attract divine punishment

No. Gaspar laughed triumphantly, Look, this is the great power of Orichalcos!

The power of the barrier poured into the giant soldier's body and seemed to begin to erode the consciousness of the God of Destruction. Obelisk roared angrily, his eyes turned red, and he beat his forehead with a huge fist, but it was completely useless.

Orichalcos's six-pointed star imprint stubbornly floated above the god's head, which meant that this Egyptian god had also fallen into the control of the power of this barrier.

[Obelisk the Tormentor, ATK 4000 ATK 4500]

The sacrificed monsters disappeared, and Gaspar now had only Obelisk the Tormentor on the field, so Kogas attack power was only increased by 500.

[Masked HERO Koga, ATK 3000]

Yuei Vu, LP 1200

Oops, if this attack goes through, Yuei Vu Manager Nanmoku gritted his teeth, Monster effects and traps are useless against Gods

President Gai didnt speak, but his eyes were red, and he wanted to stand up tremblingly.

All because of him.

If it werent for how useless he was, Yuei Vu wouldnt have only 1200LP when he came up.

If Yuei Vu lost because of this blow, it would be all his responsibility.

This is the end, Duel King. Gaspars eyes flashed green, full of madness, Being crushed under the blow of the god, hand over your soul and the other two God cards!

Obelisk! Give him the final blow God Hand Crusher!

The manipulated Obelisk reluctantly raised his fist, roared angrily, and slammed his huge fist toward Yuei Vu. The boundless blue divine light surged towards Yuei Vu, like raging waves

Boom! ! !

Chapter 226: Satisfied With One Shot

Boom! ! !

The huge fist fell like a landslide. Enhanced by Orichalcos power, the divine fist shattered the ground, and the blue impact exploded like water waves, and even the ground seemed to sink a bit.

A billowing smoke billowed up in the streets, and the thick smoke flowed irregularly and filled the air. Obelisks punch seemed to smash the space itself. If it werent for the constraints of the game rules of Duel Monsters, no one would be able to imagine the power of a gods blow.

Such a blow was enough to turn any living creature into ashes.

YuYuei Vu! Manager Nanmoku was the first to call out.

All the men of the Nightcrawler World also held their breath, staring at the flying smoke screen without blinking.

Even the vampire Tilla bit her lip, worried about her new masterit was clear that she had lost to Yuei Vu in the Shadow Game, and if Yuei Vu died, she would have no creditors. From then on, she could regain her freedom. Logically she shouldnt worry.

But of course, there was a common law of all multiverses: smoke does not hurt.

As the smoke dissipated, Yuei Vu was still standing there peacefully as a matter of course, but his breath was a little messy.

His Masked HERO still stood on the field, but his appearance was a little bit embarrassed, and he no longer had the unrestrained appearance he did before.

Yuei Vu, LP 450

What!?! Gaspar was shocked, Why do you still have LP left? Why havent your monsters been destroyed yet? You should have become a victim of God Hand Crusher

Because I activated this card. Yuei Vu pointed to his side, Trap Card Half Unbreak. In this turn, 1 monster on the field cannot be destroyed by battle, and also any battle damage I take from attacks involving that monster is halved.

At first glance, the defensive performance of this trap did not seem to be strong, but here, if you replaced it with another piece of attack interceptor, such as Negate Attack, Mirror Force, or Magic Cylinder, Yuei Vu was already a corpse at the moment.

Since traps were ineffective against gods, none of the above traps could stop Obelisks attack.

However, the effect of Half Unbreak, a monster on the field cannot be destroyed by battle, affected the monsters of ones own side, and the damage caused by the battle is halved affected the battle damage.

And unlike the above-mentioned traps, this card did not say that it must be activated when the opponent declared an attack, so it was not afraid of being blown away by the opponent with the typhoon in advance. And the effect of Halving Combat Damage also helped to lock the blood to activate skills, which was not very easy to use.

And sometimes you could trick the other party into making some weird flags.

Hmph, I end my turn. Gaspar said disdainfully, Even if you survive this round of attack, your HP is already like a candle in the wind! In the next round, you will become crushed dead under the gods fist no matter what!

Look, wasnt this tactic a success?

By locking the blood to the limit to lure the opponent to say forbidden sentences that must never be said to win the duel, Yuei Vu felt that he should be a hundred steps ahead.

450 LP, and there was a god on the opposite field, the button of Draw of Fate was naturally lit up at this moment.

Then of course Yuei Vu wasnt hesitant here, and directly launched the duel skill: My turn, draw!

Activate Spell Card Card of Demise! I can draw cards until I have 5 cards in my hand. During your 5th Standby Phase after activation, send all cards in your hand to the Graveyard.

Then there is this Spell Card Graceful Charity! I draw three cards, then discard any two cards in the hand to the graveyard.

After a wave of refilling, Yuei Vu couldnt help smiling when he saw the cards he had drawn in his hand.

Seeing his expression, Gaspar couldnt help feeling a little nervous.

Could it be that under such an absolutely unfavorable situation, he can still turn the tables?

I have a god enhanced with the power of Orichalcos on the field! Can he turn this situation over?

That's what he wanted to say, but after all, the opponent was the Duel King, a duelist who surpassed others' imagination more than once.

At this time, the continuous looting in the Ghouls warehouse these days. Ah, no, after the stolen goods were seized, the results achieved were reflected.

Yuei Vu said that not only did he have to play banned cards, but he also wanted to play the animated version of the epic-level enhanced version of banned cards!

Activate Continuous Spell Card Card of Safe Return!

A Spell card appeared in front of him. It was the card that Marik, the courier leader, brought Sky Dragon all the way to him to play cards.

It's just that Marik used a fake card at that time, but now after searching for it in Ghouls warehouses, Yuei Vu finally got the genuine one.

While Card of Safe Return is on the field, whenever a monster in any GY is revived to the field, I draw three cards.

The NPCs were fine, but the players exploded.

What the hell is WDNM?

Isn't Card of Safe Return's effect to draw a card every time a monster is revived in the graveyard? And even that, it is a Thousands of Years Banned Card.

Is it too OP to draw three cards?

The players' reactions were expected, and Yuei Vu only smiled slightly.

Brothers, don't rush.

Fast, fast, fast to buy the bag if you could afford it.

Yuei Vu showed the next card in his hand: Activate Spell Card: O Oversoul! Resurrect 1 Elemental HERO Normal Monster in my GY.

I will resurrect the Elemental HERO Sparkman!

Sparkman, who entered the GY as a fusion material, returned to the field with a loud shout, and even showed off his muscles in a pose, releasing a dazzling electric light.

Although compared with the Egyptian god on the opposite field, he was just a trash fish, it didn't matter.

After all, the so-called true hero was the kind that never backs down in critical moments, because if heroes run and hide, who will stand and fight?

Because there is a monster that was resurrected from the GY, I draw three cards from the deck. Yuei Vu drew three cards, and continued to operate, Activate Spell Card Monster Reborn! Revive 1 monster in any GY!

Hmph, useless struggle. Gaspar sneered, Even if you can resurrect dead monsters, there is no monster in the GY that can defeat Obelisk.

Yuei Vu said calmly: The monster I want to resurrect is the Destiny HERO Disk Commander!

What!?

The audience was amazed again, this time it was mainly the players.

When did Yuei Vu even acquire the Destiny HERO series?

Is this the achievement of unlocking all heroes of Yu-Gi-Oh?

The only officially designated HERO specialization duelist?

Moreover, Disk Commander was also a fucking Thousands of Years Banned Card!

The effect of Disk Commander was weakened by Consortium K because it was too OP, but of course, the one in Yuei Vu's hand was the anime version that has not been nefted.

Destiny HERO Disk Commanders effect If this card is Special Summoned from the GY: I can draw 2 cards. Then by the effect of Card of Safe Return, I draw three more cards.

Gaspar was still stubborn: Hmph, no matter how many cards you draw

He suddenly shut up.

It may be because seeing Yuei Vu's hand with as many as ten cards at this time made him feel a little bad, or it may be because he felt that his forehead has been filled with all kinds of flags, and if he continued to be stubborn, he would die horribly

The tenth card was added to the hand, Yuei Vu looked at Gaspar and smiled.

Orichalcoss barrier is indeed very powerful, and it can indeed give people the power to control God for a short time But you don't think it's without cost, do you?

Gaspar frowned: What do you want to say?

I want to say that the price of angering the gods is very high, and you should be prepared. Yuei Vu said, slowly pulling out a card in his hand, I use Masked HERO Koga, Elemental HERO Sparkman, Destiny HERO Disk Commander three heroes as sacrifices!

Run through the underworld and reality, and appear in the chaos of sky thunder!

God of the Underworld! Osiris the Sky Dragon!

The white whirlwind rolled up the bodies of the three heroes, and their bodies disintegrated into golden light, which merged into the soaring beam of light.

Thunder thundered down from the black clouds, and the fiery beam of light crashed down with a powerful impact.

Flaming fiery red wings spread out from there, and the red dragon writhed its body, opening its huge mouth and letting out a dull roar like thunder.

[Osiris the Sky Dragon, ATK 9000]

Gaspar turned pale with fright.

O Osiris the Sky Dragon attack power 9000!?

[Obelisk the Tormentor, ATK 4500]

The Sky Dragon was slowly descending at this moment, hovering in front of the God of Destruction, and it seemed to be a little mocking while making a dragon chant.

Yo, buddy, whats the matter with you? Why are you so disheveled?

The giant god yelled angrily. Although Yuei Vu couldnt understand, he guessed blindly that he might be saying: You big-headed ghost, was this the time for laughing? Quickly come here to help me!

So of course he didnt waste time: Osiris! Free Obelisk from the curse of Orichalcos! Superconducting Wave Thunder Cannon!!!

The sky dragon opened its huge mouth. The white light beam impact hit the giant blue gods body mightily with lightning.

The solid body of Obelisk was shattered by the beam of light from this colleague, and Osiris divine power gradually penetrated into his huge body with the impact of the spread.

Obelisks body was gradually filled, and Orichalcos erosion was also dispelled under the divine power of the sky dragon. The giant god closed his eyes, took the shot in a vain manner, and left the field with a satisfied expression on his face.

He was satisfied, but someone else was not.

Ah ah ah ah ah!!!

Gaspar, LP 2900 LP 0

Chapter 227: Battle of Spirits

Gaspar was defeated!

Gaspar, LP 0

With the LP of one of the parties in the battle reaching zero, the duel also ushered in the finale. The huge six-pointed star circle began to shrink, and the green light began to shrink towards the soles of Gaspars feet as if locking the soul of the loser and tightening the shackles.

In fact, all of this was also part of Darts plan.

He didnt really care much about the defeat of his subordinates. In the animation, Dartz even confessed that even the final defeat of his most confidant subordinate Dormas Three Swordsmen was completely within his expectations.

In fact, as long as there was a loser inside The Seal of Orichalcos, whether they were the enemy or his own people, it didnt have much impact on Dartzs plan in terms of the result. Anyway, he just wanted to collect enough souls as sacrifices through duels, and offer them to revive the legendary God of Orichalcos.

In the animation, Domas Three Swordsmen were defeated one after another, and even Dartz himself was defeated by the Yami Yugi in the end. But in the end, he simply used his own soul as a sacrifice, and successfully revived the god of Orichalcos.

Of course, this was only about the soul.

If the God card that was snatched from Yugi was snatched back by Yuei Vu, it would still be a loss.

But it didn't matter, Doma's moral limit was even lower than Ghouls.

Gaspar, who was defeated in battle, turned around and shouted Demacia! Eh, sorry, Long live Doma! Then, before his soul was taken away, he used all his strength to throw a card, and expectedly, what he threw was the Obelisk the Tormentor in his hand!

Only now did everyone realize that there were three people standing pretentingly in a dark and unremarkable alley not far away. The Obelisk the Tormentor card in Gaspar's hand flew out through Orichalcos barrier, and shot straight at the three people watching the battle like a throwing knife.

It's Doma's Three Swordsmen again!

At this time, everyone in the Nightwalker World couldn't hold back their anger.

Did those bastards actually play like this? If they lose, they will renege on the deal?

Where is your honor as duelists!?

However, Yuei Vu was already prepared for this underhanded trick.

After all, in the anime, after losing the duel with Yugi, the underling of Rafael also tried his best to throw the God Card to the Three Swordsmen before dying. Of course, Yuei Vu had long been wary of their coming.

He shouted the moment Obelisk flew out of Gaspar's hand: Dark Magician Girl!

The young girl who had already been instructed by her master to be ready to go materialized instantly, stepped on the transparent magic circle with her little round boots, and flew towards the God card that flew halfway.

The girl chanted the spell lightly, the magic power surged, and the small staff in her hand pointed forward, the magic power stretched forward like an arm, and flew towards the card.

However, just as the magic power released by the Dark Magician Girl was about to capture the card, an afterimage suddenly appeared sideways. The silver sword light cut through the air, and the black magic power was smashed to pieces with one strike!

What suddenly stopped in front of the Dark Magician Girl was an angel girl wearing a falcon-style headdress and holy snow-white wings. She held a silver-white long sword, and spread her wide wings behind her, showering crystal-clear starlight like raindrops, awe-inspiring and inviolable in front of the Dark Magician Girl.

That was the ace monster of Rafael, one of Doma's Three Swordsmen, Guardian Eatos!

The moment Yuei Vu sent the spirit to intercept the God Card, Rafael also sent his ace spirit to stop it!

Seeing that the Obelisk the Tormentor card was about to slip away from her eyes, the Dark Magician Girl had no intention of fighting this spirit at all, and neglected the angel girl to continue to pursue it.

But Guardian Eatos, who also received the master's order, also did not retreat half a step, twisting the magician girl's magic power into pieces with a flick of the long sword.

She flapped her wings and chased after her without hesitation. The silver sword light pierced the air and pierced towards the Dark Magician Girl with icy cold air!

And at this moment, a crimson palm reached out fiercely, involuntarily strangling Eatos wrist. Eatos looked sideways, and suddenly saw a blood-colored hero hanging under the moonlight, with demonic wings spread out, one hand strangling her wrist, the other in the shape of a dragons head, spreading and growling silently at her.

Destiny HERO Plasma!

The moment Plasma stepped forward to interfere, the Dark Magician Girl had finished chanting her spell. With a finger of her staff, the impact of magic power blasted toward Eatos.

Eatos hurriedly raised her sword to block it, but unexpectedly, the magic power only flickered in front of her.

The Dark Magician Girl stuck out her tongue mischievously and saw that the wave of magic power actually bypassed Eatos, and directly captured the God card in midair. The magician girl shook her little hand, her magic power shrank like a fishing line, and the God Card flew back into her hand.

However, Guardian Eatos was worthy of being a high-level spirit. In the animation, she even has the achievement of winning the first blood of the Duel King. As a spirit, she was also quite powerful.

Although the situation was at a disadvantage, she had no fear of facing the magician girl and the hero of destiny at the same time, and the attack of the sword was still impenetrable.

Although the Dark Magician Girl took back the card of Obelisk, she couldnt return it to her master for a while.

Guardian Grarl!

Rafael played another Guardian card on the Duel Disk of course, it was also a spirit.

Rafael could be regarded as a good man among Yu-Gi-Oh villains. The bond between him and his own monsters was even comparable to the protagonists of later generations.

For Rafael, who lost all his family members in the shipwreck, the monsters in his Guardian Deck were equivalent to family members. He was so stubborn that he would not let his monsters enter the graveyard under any circumstances in a duel as ridiculous as this may sound, it was precisely the source of his strength.

It was because of the extraordinary bond with the spirits that he was able to become the worlds top powerhouse, and even Yami Yugi, who was the Duel King, was once defeated by him.

Rafaels second guardian appeared. Grarl was a guardian who looks a bit like a lizard, with khaki skin, and the weapon was a heavy ax called Gravity Axe Grarl.

At this time, under the command of the master, this guardian also flew forward, aiming at the card in the magician girls hand!

However, just as Graal was about to rush forward and strike down with the axe, both Dark Magician Girl and Plasma stopped their hands tacitly, gave up parrying or counterattacking, and retreated left and right.

At the same second, a wave of golden thunder pierced through the night sky and bombarded it. It just happened to push past the trajectory where the magician girl and the dark hero retreated.

Superconducting Wave Thunder Cannon!

The sky dragon floated above Yuei Vu's head, opened its huge mouth, and let out a roar as if expressing anger and dissatisfaction of being ignored.

I haven't left the stage yet, you are here blatantly grabbing my buddy's body, are you treating me as blind?

Eatos! Rafael called out the name of the angel girl with concern.

(Grarl: Boss, I know I'm not a girl, but can you at least pretend to care about me?)

The Dark Magician Girl flew back to Yuei Vu, and handed over the God card: Master!

Yuei Vu took the last God card, and touched her little golden head with a smile: Thank you for your hard work.

The Dark Magician Girl smiled happily: It's nothing!

Dear Diary, today is a sunny Wednesday. I help Master today and am praised by him. He even pats me on the head. I am super happy!

The sky dragon, which has disappeared and turned into a spirit body, let out a roar, which sounded a little dissatisfied. It might mean my shot just now is also very important.

Chapter 228: Reinforcement of President Kaiba

The Taking Obelisk back operation was a success!

In this way, all the original Egyptian God cards temporarily came to Yuei Vu's hands.

The two guardian spirits of Rafael disappeared under the bombardment of Osiris's Superconducting Wave Thunder Cannon, and the trauma they suffered seemed to be serious. Obelisk was also taken away, and this operation was undoubtedly a loss.

However, this is not the end.

The roar of the engine resounded in mid-air, and steel birds appeared one after another under the dark night. The propeller set off a raging torrent on the ground, blowing people out of breath.

The searchlights shot down like Swords of Revealing Light, and the KC logo was clearly printed on the black steel shell of the helicopter. That was the signboard of Kaiba Corp.

At some point, the surrounding area was completely blocked by people in black suits from the Kaiba Corp. Black cars lay across the surrounding intersections like roadblocks, and helicopters roared and hovered in mid-air with loud noises.

The searchlights staggered and concentrated at the feet of the Three Swordsmen, clearly marking their positions.

Hey, this is not good. Valon, one of the Three Swordsmen, smiled helplessly, This is not quite what we expected.

Rafael just took back the two injured spirits, frowning and looking around at the black suit and helicopter.

Even the Kaiba Corp has been dispatched, and the battle is really big. He said lightly, I thought the Kaiba Corp and the Shadow Duelists Association were on the wrong track.

It must be because of the Duel King named Yuei Vu. Valon glanced at Yuei Vu who was not far away, I heard that Kaiba seems to like that kid Hey, to be honest, I am too. Hes a lot of fun and Id love to play against him if I get the chance.

Next time. While speaking, Rafael had already stepped on his own motorcycle behind him, Thats it for today, Im leaving.

Only Alister among the Three Swordsmen was unmoved, just stood there with his head up, gnashing his teeth and staring at the helicopter of the Kaiba Corp in the air, as if he wanted to fly up to tear the group of iron bumps himself.

Alister. Rafael said lightly, I know you have a grudge against Kaiba, but its not today, not now. You will get your chance, retreat today first.

Alister frowned: But with our strength, theres no need to be afraid at all

Not today. Rafael interrupted him.

Ok.

Alister glared viciously at Kaibas helicopter, turned around, and returned to his own motorcycle.

The Three Swordsmen started their engines at the same time, and the black motorcycle flew like an arrow, rushing straight towards the defense line set up by Kaiba Corp!

It seemed that these three were not only good at playing cards, but they may also be good at riding motorcycles. The three motorcycles flew in front of the line of defense opened by the cars, unexpectedly raised their heads, and flew directly over the top of a row of cars like Liu Bei flying over the Tan Stream, and then sprinted in three directions.

Dont let them go! Uncle Isono, who was sent to serve as the vanguard general again, held the walkie-talkie and commanded in the channel, Follow me!

So all the black suits from Kaiba Corp acted immediately. A large wave of cars followed in a hurry, and followed the motorcycles of the Three Swordsmen, staging a wave of speed and passion of the Yu-gi-oh version of Fast & Furious. The helicopter also divided into three groups to pursue from the air, and locked the position of the Three Swordsmen from the bustling streets.

This pursuit all the way is really gorgeous, and Kaiba Corp also showed everyone the influence of what was called a real top force.

Aside from planes and cars, even the local police station joined in to assist in the hunt for the Three Swordsmen of Doma it was said that it was because of news that these three were terrorists.

So the police station also silently ignored the scenes of the Kaiba Corps black suits overtaking, running red lights, going the wrong way, rushing onto the sidewalk, and even crashing and overturning the car. All the police force came out and chased the three motorcycles all over the city.

The scene was like the usual car chase scene in European and American blockbusters.

Of course, although Yuei Vu didnt participate in it, he could guess with his feet that they would definitely not be able to catch up with anyone this time.

After all, whether Kaiba Corps black suit or Domino Citys police, they didnt know how to play cards

But by the way, President Kaiba was also awesome, and he actually created such a big scene like the mysterious organization in the movie. And it happened to be at this juncture when the suspected duel monster stereoscopic image system accident and the companys pressure were huge

A helicopter descended. The cabin door opened in mid-air, and President Kaiba jumped out of the cabin with a fluttering windbreaker, and once again demonstrated to everyone his superhuman physique.

Yuei Vu thought about it, just relying on the physical fitness of the president, very few people would be able to get the upper hand if he directly took action

Nightcrawler World was overjoyed now.

Just as Rafael said, in the past, because Kaiba himself had always sneered at Shadow Games and so on, he had always been very disgusted with the organization of the Shadow Duelists.

They never expected that President Kaiba would bring someone to help this time when their Nightcrawler World was attacked and it was such a grand occasion, it was hard to get used to.

President Gai motioned to his subordinates to help him up, and went forward to say hello with a smile: President Kaiba! Long time no see

However, Kaiba didnt notice him at all and walked past him as if he didnt see him, and walked straight to Yuei Vu.

President Gai was left alone, but he smiled and didnt care at all.

Why did Seto Kaiba suddenly change his sexuality and brought someone to help them? President Gai still had a little bit of understanding in his heart.

But it didnt matter, giving Yuei Vu a face was almost equivalent to giving face to the Nightcrawler World as a whole.

Who dares to look down on our Duel King? Im sorry, but this dear brother (sister) may have to be invited to Nightcrawler World to have an in-depth exchange with us.

Actually, according to President Gais intention, he already felt that the position of president should be handed over to Yuei Vu. Although Yuei Vu was young and had not been in the club for a long time, if he was given the position of president, no one in the organization would object to it.

But when he proposed this idea to Yuei Vu, he was flatly rejected by the other party. The reason was that Yuei Vu said that he was still too immature to take on great responsibilities, and he still needed to continue to learn, be proactive, and strive to become what the organization needed

Well, to put it bluntly, he was just lazy.

Being the president was actually just a better name, there was no real benefit, and you had to deal with all kinds of messy things in the organization all day long. You had to go out to drink and socialize, and sometimes you had to duel with other organization executives

Quite tiring actually.

Anyway, Yuei Vu was now basically able to use the resources of the entire association at will. He was really not interested in the position of president.

But other people didn't think so when they hear it.

Everyone just felt that Yuei Vu's image in their minds had been raised again! Not only was he handsome, capable in duels, and friendly, but he also seemed to have no interest in fame and power!

Such a good person couldn't be found with a lantern during the daytime these days!

Unintentionally, Yuei Vu's reputation in the organization has increased a bit

At this time, President Kaiba walked up to Yuei Vu, just in time to see the Obelisk the Tormentor he snatched back from Doma, and couldn't help but grinned as if to express his approval.

However, for some reason, now whenever the president expressed his approval, Yuei Vu felt a little fear in his heart

Chapter 229: It's All About Duel

Unsurprisingly, even if the black suits from Kaiba Corp came out in full force, and even with the assistance of Domino City police, the whole city was in a frenzy at night, Doma's Three Swordsmen still ran away in the end.

This was also inevitable. Think about it carefully, if only a few bullets and a few planes could solve the problem, then why did they still play cards?

Don't look at such a large number of black suits rushing out, it seems very cool and ostentatious, but as far as the eye can see, there is not a single one wearing a dueling disk, and it will be hell if they are caught.

Doma's Three Swordsmen ran away, and Yuei Vu, as a representative of Nightcrawler World, came to Kaiba Corp to communicate with the president on this matter.

President Kawasawa Gai was seriously injured in the previous duel, and a group of brothers rushed to carry him to the hospital.

The doctor in charge of the examination was a kind old gentleman. He gave President Gai a super-comprehensive physical examination from head to toe and then said with a smile: Don't worry, your president is healthy. It's just that the spirit is not good and the body is a little weak, maybe he needs to sleep to make up for it

Yuei Vu followed Kaiba to the company. President Kaiba didn't talk nonsense, was straight to the point, and asked about Doma's information directly.

In fact, Yuei Vu tried to warn the president to be careful of this organization called Doma before.

It's just that the president lost interest at the time when Yuei Vu described that is a Shadow Duelist organization with a history of more than 10,000 years.

President Kaiba waved his hand impatiently on the spot, saying that Yuei Vu should discuss with Yugi for these supernatural things and didn't waste his time here.

Yu-Gi-Oh was such an interesting world where duelists could draw power from various beings and avatars. For example, there are those who believed in Egyptian gods, demons, angels, and Norse gods

Among them, President Kaiba was particularly exclusive he was superstitious about science.

At this moment, the organization called Doma seemed to have finally attracted the attention of President Kaiba, so he finally listened to Yuei Vu.

However, before Yuei Vu had time to say anything, troubles began to appear on Kaibas side.

Mokuba hurriedly ran into the presidents office and said in a panic that something was wrong, and Kaiba Corp was going to change its surname!

Kaiba was startled,

After asking, he found out that there were people secretly buying a large number of shares of Kaiba Group these days and the president himself didnt even know about it!

Although he had already seen this plot in the animation, Yuei Vu still couldnt help but want to say: What the hell, they almost bought your company, why could you not know? President, were you sure you really quit your card addiction?

Kaiba immediately held an emergency meeting, demanding that the elite senior management of Kaiba Group must be present immediately.

When Yuei Vu heard the word elite, he felt that he had nothing to do with him, and was about to leave the stage voluntarily, but unexpectedly, President Kaiba gave him a cold look and said that he would also need to participate.

Yuei Vu:

President, Im just your card friend, not a member of the board of directors. Why are you dragging me to this kind of meeting

So he was pulled together in a daze to hold an important meeting about the life and death of Kaiba Corp.

After the report at the meeting, he probably understood it.

Of course, the Kaiba Corp has never been short of money. It was a world-renowned company when it was in the arms industry, and later switched to the gaming business. Seto Kaiba, a business genius, has unbelievably turned the whole world into a large dueling arena. Now the whole planet had a tendency towards playing cards to solve everything.

Under such a premise, it was almost impossible for such a large company to be short of money.

However, the current situation was that an unknown person was frantically buying shares in Kaiba, and a large number of shares disappeared. On the whole, it seemed that Kaiba Corp was getting richer and richer, but the president of Kaiba Vorp was almost out of money now

However, listening to these experts analysis and a group of directors discussions with sad faces, Yuei Vu just felt like he was listening to heavenly scriptures

What? You are such a big company, how can you lose your shares? How?

Why does it sound like Xiao Ming lost a 100 RMB bill on the way to school

And Yuei Vu vaguely remembered that when Seto Kaiba snatched this company from Gozaburo, he had 49% of the shares, and his brother Mokuba had 2%.

The two brothers added up to more than 50%, shouldn't the company have the final say between the two of them?

I dont understand, I dont understand at all.

Although he knew that Dartz was behind the scenes, Yuei Vu still didn't understand how he did it.

But it may also be that he had too little talent and knowledge, or that poverty limited his imagination. Dartz's influence was as vast as the sky, and he could even mind control and remotely control the political leaders of big countries. It was not impossible to do some things that could not be explained by common sense.

After all, according to the explanation in the animation, even high-level executives from all over the world were completely under the control of Dartz. That guy was preparing to destroy the world with great fanfare, and the armies of various countries dare not even throw away a paper airplane. They had to wait for Yugi, Kaiba, and the others to play cards to save the world

Yuei Vu guessed blindly that Dartz might take advantage of the fact that most politicians did not even know how to play cards, and went to countries all over the world to bet on the heads of state at all levels one by one. If you played more cards, you would naturally conquer the world

The meeting went on for a long time and failed to discuss the reason, but Kaiba received another private email right after.

When he clicked on the email, Pegasus appeared, leaning against the chair in an unrecognizable posture, with his legs alternately resting on the desk.

The video content was also very simple and crude. Pegasus admitted on the spot: that's right, all the troubles you encountered were done by me, and it was all my fault!

However, he quickly changed his mind and said that he would be waiting for Kaiba on the Duelist Kingdom island. Kaiba must immediately go to Pegasus's castle to fight him.

If Kaiba won, Pegasus would return all the shares immediately and unconditionally.

Kaiba was so angry that he almost cursed and slapped the table.

MD, do you want to play cards with me? Just send an email, isn't it over? What are you doing so much trouble?

After watching the video, Kaiba's face was gloomy for a while, and he turned his head and said, Mokuba, prepare for me, let's go get my deck.

Mokuba hesitated to speak.

Yuei Vu also reminded: President, I don't think things are that simple. Although I don't deal much with Pegasus, I feel something is wrong. Pegasus in the video looks a little weird

No mistake, it's him. Kaiba said coldly, No one else has such a bad accent.

Yuei Vu:

What he said makes sense and I can't refute it, what should I do?

Yuei Vu coughed: Then there is no rush to go now, we can inquire about the situation first. It does not rule out the possibility that Pegasus himself was kidnapped, and it is only based on the one-sided statement in the video. Its also hard to believe that he was the one who bought the stock

It doesnt need to be so troublesome. Kaiba said coldly, You will know when you go there and have a look.

Yuei Vu: President, are you just looking for an excuse to duel?

Kaiba paused and glared at him sideways.

Yuei Vu probably understood the meaning of this look.

So Yuei Vu wisely stopped talking.

Forget it, let the president go as he wants. Anyway, according to the plot, there is no problem

Chapter 230: Are You Drawing Aggro To Me?

President Kaiba was full of fighting spirit when he received the invitation from Pegasus, and led Mokuba to the company basement on the spot. In his words, this was called unlocking the sealed deck.

After following the president down for a look, Yuei Vu found out that the way the president sealed his deck was really interesting. This place looked like Kaiba Corps underground vault. To get in, you had to go through numerous layers of security doors, passed fingerprint, iris, facial recognition, and various authentication processes, and finally entered a room with many rows of thick safes.

President Kaiba picked up the card hanging on his chest and swiped it, and a number dial appeared in front of the safe. He then entered a series of complicated passwords, and the thick and solid metal door opened with a rumbling sound.

Kaiba solemnly took out a metal suitcase from the safe, entered another string of complicated passwords, and the box bounced open with a click. There was a deck of cards lying quietly in the huge box.

Yuei Vu suddenly wanted to ask: President, you have such a big treasury, wouldnt all the safes next to it be full of cards

We dont know and dare not ask.

In fact, there were still many doubts about Pegasus behavior in the email video. Yuei Vu, who has watched the animation, of course, knew that Pegasus was not himself at all, but one of Domas Three Swordsmen, Alister, in disguise.

Its just that Alister, who looked quite serious and handsome, was actually proficient in ventriloquism. Pegasus poor loose English was mixed with the Japanese accent on the construction site, so its hard for Alister to imitate it so vividly

However, in fact, after the Duelist Kingdom ended, Pegasus promised that he would never do anything to Kaiba Corp again. Pegasus promises were generally more effective, so this incident was indeed quite strange.

But how could someone shrewd like President Kaiba not think of that? Yuei Vu felt that the president has already figured it out. However, even so, the president was still determined to go, and insisted on going to Pegasus in person today to discuss an explanation with his own deck.

Yuei Vu had a good reason to speculate that what the president actually thought was that I don't care anyway, I just want to find someone to play cards

From here on, however, things seem to have deviated from the original track.

The invincible Uncle Isono reappeared in the office before the president left. This poor guy was outside leading a black suit to hunt down the Three Swordsmen of Doma a few hours ago, and now he was back in the company building to run errands, looking like a ruthless office machine.

President, someone wants to see you!

Kaiba said impatiently: Let him come back another day, I'm not free right now.

But he claims to be the son of Pegasus!

I said I'm nowum wait, what did you say he was?

Ten minutes later, a man dressed in black, with light blue hair, and elegant like a gentleman appeared in front of several people.

President Kaiba, and Duel King Yuei Vu. The man bowed politely and said calmly, It's an honor to finally meet you. My name is Tenma Gekko. As I introduced myself before, I'm a son of Mr. Pegasus or adopted son, to be more precise.

Yuei Vu raised his eyebrows.

Mr. Pegasus adopted son?

This was a bit unexpected.

Son of Pegasus? Kaiba asked coldly, Then you can answer my question instead of him first. Pegasus said that he is buying a large number of shares in Kaiba Corp, since you have the courage to stand in front of me, then you should have an answer ready, right?

Tenma Gekko lightly closed his eyes.

I have nothing to say about this

What? Kaiba narrowed his eyes, his face full of unkind expressions of why do you want to be played by me.

You should have noticed it too, President Kaiba, Tenma Gekko said calmly, The acquisition of Kaiba's stock has nothing to do with our Industrial Illusions.

In fact, it would be better to say that the interests of Kaiba Corp and our Industrial Illusions are the same in this incident. Our Industrial Illusions have basically fallen into the control of the enemy, and President Pegasus is currently restricted in his actions.

Our entire company no, even the forces in the world under the leadership of President Pegasus have been severely damaged. If we can't unite to take measures, I'm afraid Kaiba Corp will follow in our footsteps soon.

Hmph! Kaiba dismissed it, Don't compare me with Pegasus, I won't be defeated by the tricks!

Yuei Vu reminded: President, your company is almost lost

Kaiba glared at him viciously from the side.

Yuei Vu cleverly shut his mouth and did not speak.

But it didnt matter. Anyway, the presidents favorability was high enougheven a little too high. Occasionally, it was good to say a few words that should not be said in front of the president to reduce the favorability a little bit.

Between men, if the favorability degree was sixty or seventy, they were almost iron buddies. If its over ninety, its easy to have problems, such as fencing

But why did President Kaiba have another Favorite degree +1 on his head?

Do people these days like to feel UP if they dont agree with each other?

Kaiba snorted and asked, Then since youre here, I assume you already know the identity of the enemy?

Thats right. Tenma Gekko said in a deep voice, Its an organization called Dorma.

Kaiba frowned and glanced at Yuei Vu.

Its that name again!

The Doma you mentioned, is he really that powerful?

We only discovered it recently, but this organization should have existed in the world for a long time before that, so long that no one can trace its past. Gekko said, But recently they started to act. I dont know why, but many Shadow Duelist organizations in the inner world have been breached.

They will give their believers a powerful power called Orichalcos, and many people cant stand the temptation of power and choose to join that organization.

Gekko paused at this point, and turned to Yuei Vu: The Nightwalker World is their next goal.

Yuei Vu frowned: Is it because of me?

A part of it, you are also the object of their focus. Gekko said, But it is also because of you that the Nightcrawler World is gradually entering the ranks of the first-line organizations. More and more duelists from the inner world are coming to seek refuge, which naturally attracted Domas attention.

Thats one of the reasons Im here to give a warning. Just recently Doma may be here soon.

Yuei Vu frowned.

Was Doma going to fight in Domino City

Hmph, boring. Kaiba said coldly, Is it that set of supernatural things again? Do you expect us to believe you with just this one-sided statement?

Gekko said calmly: Then President, how can you trust me?

Kaiba said that what he was waiting for was your words. Without further ado, he raised the dueling disk: Come to the duel! If you can win the card in my hand, I will consider your opinion!

Yuei Vu: President, you

Duel? Its okay. Gekko said, Its just that, I originally had this intention. Its just

He turned to Yuei Vu.

If possible, would you be my opponent, Yuei Vu?

Yuei Vu was taken aback, looked at Gekko, and then turned to look at the president next to him who looked fierce and seemed very angry.

Fuck, brother, I suspect that you are intentionally trying to draw aggro to me
