

I Play Yu-Gi 251

Chapter 251: Soul Energy MAX!

Obelisk was angry.

As if sensing the huge yet disgusting Orichalcos power emanating from Alister, Obelisk was unabashedly conveying to Yuei Vu the urge to beat that guy up.

Well, combined with what happened before, this seemed to be a matter of course.

Obelisk was staying well in the hands of the Pharaoh, but suddenly a group of unreasonable guys rushed up and snatched it away without even playing cards.

Not only did they rob his main body, but those guys who called themselves Doma also dared to use the evil power called Orichalcos to control him recklessly.

A green magic circle was installed on the head of the giant god, and even a continuous stream of strange things poured into his body involuntarily, forcing his body to become disobedient, and even for a time he had to throw his fist at the Pharaoh whom he was supposed to be loyal to.

This God of Destruction originally had a violent temper. After such a toss, one could imagine how angry he must be.

In fact, being liberated by Yuei Vu from the shackles of Orichalcos, this Egyptian God must also be grateful in his heart.

It was precise because of this that at this moment, the Egyptian God decided to make an exception and allow the passer-by with Yu prefix, who temporarily held him, to gain the power to control the god.

Yuei Vu could feel the power pouring into his body continuously, even his blood seemed to be boiling. An impulse seemed to rush to his forehead along with the blood, making him feel omnipotent (referring to playing cards)

At the same moment, a brand new button that has never been seen before was added under the option of Draw of Fate in the skill bar.

[Duel Skill: Gods Anger]

[Skill description: This skill can only be unlocked by obtaining the approval of Obelisk the Tormentor. It can only be activated if your LP is below 1000. During your Draw Phase, instead of conducting your normal draw, add 1 Obelisk the Tormentor (original) from outside the deck to the hand.]

Yuei Vus eyes lit up.

Duel Skill!

Yes, in addition to the Destiny Draw common to all players, there were other skills in this game.

Its just that things like skills have always been extremely rare. Having played so many versions of World Link Online in his previous life, Yuei Vu has only heard of so few well-known players who have acquired additional skills.

In fact, although skills were not explicitly stated in the animation, they have always been part of Yu-Gi-Oh's works.

For example, in the DM finale, Yami Yugi has recovered his memory and true name. After his strength was fully unlocked, he has the ability to draw any card he wanted, which was equivalent to a very advanced skill.

The protagonist of Yu-Gi-Oh! 5Ds, Yusei Fudo, could also use a Duel Skill under certain circumstances. From the performance, that skill's effect must be When the complete mark of the Crimson Dragon appears on your back, add 1 Majestic Dragon to your hand instead of conducting your normal draw during your Draw Phase.

It became more obvious from Yu-Gi-Oh! ZEXAL. The protagonist Yuma Tsukumo and his spirit partner Astral, halfway through the anime, could even merge into one being called ZEXAL, and then directly activated the skill Shining Draw to create cards that did not exist in the world.

From the perspective of playing cards in reality, this should of course be regarded as cheating, but in the world view of animation, things like skills were actually part of the system and are recognized as legal.

Not everyone had the strength to exert power beyond common sense in a duel, and only those with sufficient strength could breed corresponding skills. It was also because of this that skills were so rare.

Yuei Vu checked his situation on the field, then checked the GY area, closed his eyes and thought about it for a while, and soon formed a straight path leading to victory in his mind.

Alister sneered: What? Do you want to give up? Even if you want to give up now, it's too late. There is no way to defeat the Air Fortress Ziggurat! Even if you die, your soul is Orichalcos forever!

Yuei Vu opened his eyes again, and his eyes were full of confidence.

The Winning Formula is complete!

Duel Skill: Gods Anger, activated!

The moment Yuei Vu drew out the next card, he could feel the force in his whole body swell to the extreme. The holy and dazzling blue light seemed to be released from the card he drew out at that moment, covering the audience with invisible coercion.

Alister's face changed suddenly, with a look of surprise and uncertainty: What what? What is that? Is it an illusion?

On the side, Kaiba, who was the former owner of Obelisk, also sensed something and his eyelids twitched: This kind of agitation, could it be!?

I activate the effect of Destiny HERO Malicious in the graveyard! Yuei Vu shouted, banish this card from my GY; Special Summon 1 monster with the same name from my Deck!

Special Summon Destiny HERO Malicious No.2!

The GY area of the duel disk was lit with golden light, then a card popped out, and was put into the card box behind Yuei Vu. Another golden light flew out of his deck and transformed into a second devil-like hero with the word D printed on his chest.

[Destiny HERO Malicious, DEF 800]

In this way, there were three heroes on Yuei Vu's field: Blazeman, Shadow Mist and Malicious.

Alister, who was vaguely aware of something, swallowed: Is it discarded through the first Card Destruction? In this way, there will be three monsters. Could it be Exactly!

Yuei Vu held up the card he had just drawn in his hand. The card surface of the card was dark blue and eye-catching, completely different from any other card.

Use Elemental HERO Blazeman, Elemental HERO Shadow Mist, and Elemental HERO Malicious as sacrifices!

The scorching wind blew the earth wildly, suppressing all things with absolute divine power! Come down

God of Destruction, Obelisk the Tormentor!

A dense black cloud appeared above the building, and thunderbolts churned within it. The scorching wind started blowing from nowhere, sweeping across the entire building, as if a terrifying existence beyond the laws of reality was slowly approaching from an unknown space.

A beam of light blasted down from the pitch-black clouds, almost falling to the ground near the edge of the building. The scarlet eyes lit up, and the blue giant descended from outside the building, standing upright. His eyes were full of anger and stared at the air fortress flying in mid-air.

That body shape, that sense of sight, felt like Ultraman descending in front of a small monster.

[Obelisk the Tormentor, ATK 4000]

Yuei Vu: In the animation, the protagonist group played cards with the Three Swordsmen of Doma, and printed a Legendary Dragon on the spot, which was not in the deck at all. Then I played a pure HERO deck, and now I printed a Tormentor HERO Obelisk, no one should have any objections to this, right? Okay, I accept your silence as consent.

This one was not a nefted real-life version, but a real god of destruction with complete Egyptian God power.

In fact, Yuei Vu only put a real Obelisk the Tormentor in the deck to increase his Rank. The original Obelisk the Tormentor he snatched from Doma has been stored in the card box.

But it didn't matter. After all, they were Egyptian Gods, and even the mere Legendary Dragons could jump into their decks when duelists want them, so of course, this was a small case for Egyptian Gods.

This wave was comparable to the floor printing card technique of President Kaiba.

Alister was a little stunned. The pressure of facing an Egyptian God and bearing the wrath of the god made him feel suffocated, and even just standing up felt that his body was a hundred times heavier.

He swallowed a mouthful of saliva: Uh, Obeliskis he actually called out in this situation?

Kaiba couldn't help but also smiled, with an expression of as expected of a man who was once above me.

Then when the Elemental HERO Shadow Mist was sent to the GY, another effect of her was also activated. Yuei Vu said, I can add 1 HERO monster from my Deck to my hand, except Elemental HERO Shadow Mist.

Yuei Vu opened the deck and found the hero he wanted.

I added Elemental HERO Bubbleman to my hand.

Alister watched Yuei Vu shuffling cards leisurely on the opposite side, and couldn't help gritting his teeth: But even gods are useless here. As long as there are Robot Tokens present, even gods can only attack those tokens.

And then I still have this card Open the set card! Trap Card Waboku!

Three nun-like envoys appeared around Alister, with their eyes slightly closed, holding amulets and singing in a low voice. The transparent shield protected Alister and the entire field he was in.

Protected by this layer of shield, Alister suddenly felt the pressure relieved, took a long breath, and said with a sneer: Waboku's effect During this turn, my monsters will not be destroyed by battle, and I take no battle damage!

Not even Obelisk can break through this line of defense

Is that true? Yuei Vu asked back.

What? Alister frowned, beginning to realize that something was wrong.

However, Waboku was recognized as one of the trap cards with the strongest defensive performance, and had the ability to make players almost invincible within one turn. After this card was activated, at least for this round he must be safe.

In this situation, how can he still OTK me?

That's the truth, but for some reason, Alister just couldn't suppress the anxiety in his heart.

He had the illusion that someone whispered you are already dead.

I activate the effect of the second Destiny HERO Malicious who was sent to the GY as a Tribute! Yuei Vu waved his hand, and a golden light flashed in the GY again.

I banish the second Destiny HERO Malicious from the game, and special summon a card with the same name from the deck! Yuei Vu said, Come on, Destiny HERO Malicious No.3!

He put away the second Malicious that popped up from the cemetery, a golden light flew out of the deck, and the third Malicious squatted and landed on the field in front of Yuei Vu.

[Destiny HERO Malicious, DEF 800]

Alister was still stubborn: Even if you summon more miscellaneous fish monsters

I set a card from my hand onto the field.

Yuei Vu set the Polymerization that was added to his hand through the effect of Blazeman last turn.

In this way, there is only one card left in my hand. Yuei Vu turned over the card that had just been added to the hand through the effect of the Shadow Mist, Elemental HERO Bubblemans effect. If this is the only card in my hand, I can Special Summon it from the hand.

The hero in the blue armor let out a shout and came to the field with a handsome aiming pose.

[Elemental Hero Bubbleman, ATK 800]

Alister gritted his teeth: I already said, no matter how many miscellaneous fish monsters there are. But Kaibas expression suddenly changed: Yuei Vu, do you want to Waboku is indeed a powerful defensive trap, but it is not completely invincible. Yuei Vu said slowly.

Alister frowned: What?

It can only defend against attacks. But at this moment, I want to activate the God of Destructions effect!

Yuei Vu raised his hand and said.

I use Elemental HERO Bubbleman and Destiny HERO Malicious as sacrifices, and Obelisks special ability is activated!

Alisters face changed suddenly: Thats right! Gods ultimate ability is

At this moment, Obelisk stretched out his hands from outside the building, reached into the duel field, and grabbed Bubbleman and Malicious respectively. The two heroes turned into pure energy, continuously pouring into the blue giants body.

By using two monsters on the field as a sacrifice, Yuei Vu said, Destroy all monsters on the opponents field! Deal 4000 points of damage to the opposing player!

Alister was already stunned. He looked at the furious god and felt that the storm that had already transformed from a three-dimensional image into a solid object was raging in space, as if it was about to swallow up the world, and he couldnt help but be stunned in a daze.

Could it be that Domas path, no, the path I chose is really wrong

He raised his head subconsciously, looking at the huge magic sky fortress floating outside the window, the monster born from the pain in his heart.

Suddenly, he seemed to see his brother who passed away many years ago through the monster.

Miruko

Alister!

Mokuba, who was outside the barrier, couldnt help but make a sound.

Alister turned his head and looked at Mokuba.

His vision suddenly blurred. For a moment, he seemed to see the image of his younger brother Miruko overlapping with Mokuba.

theyre too much alike.

In fact, maybe, in fact, he was also very similar to Seto Kaiba, but he has always refused to admit it. Maybe they really are the same kind of people.

Its just that Kaiba chose to stand up when facing an unfair fate, choked fates throat with his own hands, and climbed to where he was today step by step by any means.

Because no matter what the past looked like, Kaiba was always able to look ahead.

And him?

He has never been able to get out of the shadow of losing his family all his life. Perhaps, as Yuei Vu said, he was just looking for an outlet to vent his anger.

From this point of view, he may indeed have lost

Obelisk, finish him! Yuei Vu gave the final order, Soul Energy MAX!

The blue giant swung his fist, and the burst of divine power stirred the space, as if to say that all the holy spirits were burned into corpses, and at the same time, it contained a super high damage of 4000 points according to the game rules.

The blue shock wave engulfed everything in the field, and the Robot Token was crushed to pieces powerlessly in it. The sacred protective shield was blasted into pieces, and the prayers of the three nuns were finally defeated by the wrath of the God of Destruction and dissipated there.

The divine fist pierced through the outer shell of Air Fortress Ziggurat, and the blue beam pierced it from front to back. The huge fortress screamed, and the flames that erupted gradually engulfed it, and exploded into dazzling fireworks in mid-air.

Alister closed his eyes calmly, feeling the power of the God of Destruction rushing towards him.

He felt that his life had never been so peaceful since the loss of his brother.

Thats it.

Father, mother, Miruko

Im coming home.

Alister, LP 1800 LP 0

Chapter 252: Pretending Not To See It

Alister, LP 0

His LP returned to zero, and Air Fortress Ziggurat, which was his final trump card, was also blasted to pieces under the fist power of the heroes of the earth.

One of Domas Three Swordsmen was defeated.

When the outcome of a duel was decided, The Seal of Orichalcos immediately responded. The huge magic circle shrunk, and the magic circle reached the bottom of Alisters feet. An invisible force grabbed his soul, and the green amulet hanging on his chest also cracked into crystal powder and drifted away with the wind.

But Alister had no regrets. Perhaps it was because the darkness in his heart was crushed by the giant gods blow, his heart was unprecedentedly peaceful.

As he was dying, he turned his head to look at Mokuba who was beside him.

Compared with his elder brother, Mokuba was actually a very simple child. When he learned that the other party was also a victim of the Kaiba Corp and had a tragic past similar to their brothers, Mokuba sympathized with Alister from the bottom of his heart.

Alister smiled at him, took out the broken toy from his arms, and threw it to Mokuba.

The latter caught it subconsciously, and couldn't help being stunned: But this this is not the most important thing to you

Miruko would want it to stay in your hands.

After speaking, Alister raised his head and looked at Kaiba.

Seto Kaiba, don't repeat the mistakes I made. He said lightly, Protect your brother, don't let this happen again.

Kaiba snorted: I don't need you to tell me.

At the end of the duel, the image of Obelisk disappeared, and everything returned to normal.

Orichalcos magic circle turned into a green beam of light and soared into the sky, taking away the soul of the Doma swordsman.

Yuei Vu watched the only last interaction between the two rivals and was silent.

In fact, although Waking the Dragons arc was an anime-only plot, from the perspective of Kaiba's character development, he personally felt that the duel between Alister and the president could be said to be a stroke of genius.

Alister was indeed very similar to the president. A haughty heart, a tragic past, and the pain of losing everything.

Although ironic, if there was anyone in the world who can truly understand Alister's pain, that person may be Seto Kaiba as the enemy.

But in the animation, Kaiba behaved like a cold-blooded villain in the face of Alister's mourning and accusations, and even mocked the opponent's experience, as if he didn't care at all.

So the president really didn't care?

That was of course impossible. It's just because Kaiba knew that Alister has become an obstacle to his progress, a hurdle he has to cross.

It was not the first time for Kaiba to trample on other people's pain in order to realize this childish goal for his own dream to build a paradise so that all children in the world could play happily. It was after the sacrifices of countless people by unscrupulous means that he was able to come to where he is today. And he had to go further before that dream could come true.

You can't create a new future without smashing the past, was one of Kaiba's most classic lines. He knew that ideals could not really be as beautiful as those written in fairy tales. If he wanted to move forward, he had to bear all the hatred on his back. This was his long-awaited realization.

So for Kaiba, it was a relief to some extent that Yuei Vu defeated Alister in his place.

This meant that he didn't have to defeat this enemy with his own hands and bear all the hatred alone.

But of course, if you wanted the president to admit this personally, it was absolutely impossible in this lifetime.

Kaiba looked sideways at Yuei Vu who was picking up the Obelisk the Tormentor from the Duel Disk, with a complicated expression on his face.

At the very last moment, when the Obelisk the Tormentor was drawn, Yuei Vu managed to gather three sacrifices in one turn to summon the god and even two more for using Soul Energy MAX

Kaiba asked himself, even if Obelisk was in his hands, he didnt seem to have done that either.

At this moment, Kaiba felt that his right hand could no longer hold back.

Yuei Vu , I really want to fight against the current you again!

Yuei Vu, who was stared at by the president, felt a chill behind him and had a bad premonition

At this time, Yuei Vu wisely chose to ignore it, pretending not to see it.

After the card was played, the feeling of being full of power just now disappeared in an instant. Opening his own panel, he saw that his Duelist Rank remained unchanged at 7 stars.

Yuei Vu thought for a while and tried to put this original Obelisk the Tormentor into the deck, and then opened the panel, only to see that nothing changed.

He roughly guessed the meaning of this Egyptian god. What the other party meant might be hum, its just an exception for you to use me once, dont get carried away, human beings!

Well, as expected of a god, each one was more arrogant than the other.

But it didnt matter.

As we all know, from zero to one is hard, from one to ten is easy. As long as there was this precedent, he didnt worry about this guy not following in the future.

Moreover, Yuei Vu opened the skill panel and found that the skill called Gods Anger was still there.

In other words, this skill might still be usable in the next duel.

Look, this guy says no, but he has already been betrayed by the skill panel

But speaking of the movement of this card game, it was really a big deal. The moment The Seal of Orichalcos was activated, the apartment was blown to pieces, and the room was in chaos as if the strong men of the Nightcrawlers World just spent the night here.

Not to mention that the windows from the living room to the bedroom were all shattered, and just now there was an oversized Air Fortress floating outside the building, as well as the giant HERO with a blue body.

If no one around here noticed something is wrong, the whole city must be inhabited by blind people.

But this was not a problem that Yuei Vu has to worry about. The almighty Kaiba Corp must be able to find a way to deal with it.

Anyway, the president was responsible for this matter, so he shouldnt worry about this part.

But why is the president staring at me?

Yuei Vu realized something was wrong when he just played cards. In the middle of playing cards, he got high and said whatever came to mind, a little bit carried away.

Then when he looked back, he found that the favorability of the presidents head was continuously rising

He felt bad then.

Its over, its over, the presidents favorability, Im afraid it wasnt because he planned to raid my room at night

He wont force me to play cards, will he?

The more I think about it, the more possible it becomes.

With a thought in his mind, Yuei Vu tactfully raised his wrist and glanced at his watch, and said ah as if he suddenly remembered something.

By the way, I have to pick up a few people. Yuei Vu retreated to the door, Then President, if there is nothing else, I will er take my leave first.

Chapter 253: Please Use Us To The Fullest!

Dark Magician Girl is number one in the world!

The one who spoke so arrogantly was the well-known Premium player, a member of Nightcrawler World, Native Noragami.

Brother Noragami, we have a good personal relationship, Yuei Cannot Escape Fae pushed his glasses, You can see that there are many similarities between us when drinking, dueling and fencing on weekdays, but this is the only thing I disagree with.

At the seide seat, Miss Yuehua felt that she had touched a blind spot of knowledge: I understand the first two, but what does fencing mean?

Snow Wave, who was traveling with them, looked out the window to see the scenery: Its better not to know.

Although he didnt intend to explain, it doesnt matter, our Miss Yuehua still had the omnipotent audience.

We all know that audience was a gathering place for cutting-edge talents in all fields in the world. If you had any question, ask audience to inquire about it.

No, the audience became active in an instant. Ordinary people explained vividly, such as true love knows no gender, only men can bring happiness to each other, etc., patiently explained to miss streamer.

The innocent streamer were suddenly enlightened by the explanations of those masters, and it felt like opening the door to a new world to her

Thats right, these four players were appointed by Yuei Vu and arranged by Nightcrawler World to fly to USA to support them.

After all, the battle in Domino City was just a starting point, or rather it was a sign that Yuei Vu officially declared war on Doma. The next battle with Doma would only intensify. At this time, it was always good to have a few tool people who couldn't die.

The reason why Yuei Vu didn't bring them with him when he came here was because the president left too quickly. Moreover, the president's Blue Eyes White Dragon jet could carry a limited number of people.

At the moment, Yuei Cannot Escape Fae was arguing fiercely with Native Noragami, on the issue of who is the real heroine who links the world.

The fact that Yuei Vu was the protagonist of the world has basically been confirmed, but the question of who was the heroine has been debated on the forum for a long time.

For example, now, Brother Fae firmly believed that the maid in the card shop must be the heroine.

Otherwise, why did Yuei Vu want to stay in that small shop so much?

It couldn't be that he stayed in one place to deceive us players, right?

But Native Noragami disagreed. He felt that the Dark Magician Girl who stuck to Yuei Vu's side everyday, who ate, slept, and even went to bathe together with him, was definitely the heroine!

The two started arguing not long after takeoff, and they haven't been able to come to a conclusion yet. The two sides disagreed with each other, so they decided to ask the opinions of a third party.

The first target was Miss Yuehua. The girl was asked by the two of them, and felt a little confused. So she thought for a while, and said with some hesitation: Then you can just ask the man himself this kind of question, wouldn't it be fine?

The two looked at each other, shaking their heads like rattles.

Asking Yuei Vu himself this kind of question directly? What if Yuei Vu decided to give them a special 150% treatment in the store in the future?

Especially Fae, for some reason he always felt that it was ten times more difficult for him to gain favorability with Yuei Vu than normal people. Now he regarded every point of favorability as a treasure, so how did he dare to take risks?

Actually, let me tell you, Snow Wave interjected, Where is the heroine in Yu-Gi-Oh? Anyone who really knows how to play cards knows that Yu-Gi-Oh players like not to have targets.

Yuei Cannot Escape Fae:

Native Noragami:

It seems that's the truth.

The two looked at each other again, couldn't help but smiled at each other, and suddenly felt how stupid and ridiculous their argument just now was.

Yes, we actually forgot such an important thing.

Ah, there is no other way, Native Noragami stretched his arms, Im a little thirsty after flying for so long, how about it, brother Fae? Come to a game after a long time, shall we?

Oh? Interesting. Fae pushed his glasses, found a bottle full of wine out of nowhere, and began to loosen his belt at the same time, I accept this challenge!

Miss Yuehua:

Maybe its because shes been among the hunks of the Nightcrawler for a long time, and now shes not surprised by the strange custom of these screwballs serving wine, drinking and taking off their clothes

By the way, what did Yuei Vu-san ask us to do? Snow Wave said, At this juncture, Im afraid its the main storyline?

The two players who were opening the bottle caps and loosening their trouser belts both paused, and their attention was attracted.

This was also the part they care about the most.

The decisive battle between players and Doma has just ended. No matter how you think about it, the next chapter should be the main plot of the Waking the Dragons arc.

In this way, wouldnt they become the players appointed by Yuei Vu to be the first to join the main storyline?

Fae pushed the glasses frame again: I have a bold idea about this trip.

Noragami: About your bold idea, brother Fae, I have an immature suggestion.

Snow Wave: As for your immature little suggestion, our country has a complete set of criminal laws.

The three big men looked at each other, and then, as if they had met a secret signal, they raised their heads together and laughed loudly.

The friendship between men was so simple and pure.

Miss Yuehua gave them a blank look, and leaned against the window with her chin resting in her imagination.

Sigh~ After the Battle of Duel City, Yuei Vu-san seems to have not come to me for a long time.

So boring, so empty, life seems to have lost its meaning

The most important thing was that after that, her popularity in the live broadcast room was dropping every day!

Battle City, the decisive battle between Yuei Vu and Yugi, was also the peak of the popularity of Miss Yuehuas live broadcast room. After that, however, her popularity went downhill every day.

Many viewers heard that she had mingled with Yuei Vu and came here because of her reputation, but found that there was no Yuei Vu in her daily game content.

Although her popularity must be many times higher than before Battle City, as people said, humans will never know how to be satisfied.

Miss Yuehua found out that Yuei Vu must be there to save her falling traffic.

These days, she missed the days when she followed Yuei Vu in Battle City almost every night. She didnt have to do anything or think about it, and her popularity rose automatically .

I really want to continue to praise Yuei Vu-san Nonsense! Its just holding Duel Disks.

This trip to USA is the best opportunity!

The plane landed with four noisy, singing and dancing players.

When they saw Yuei Vu at the airport, the four of them ran over excitedly, waving their hands and shouting like elementary school students who saw their parents after school.

The enlightenments of the four tool people was very high.

Yuei Vu-san, please use us to the fullest!

Very good, everyone is here. Yuei Vu looked at the four well-behaved tool people and was very satisfied. Lets go to the hotel first. President Kaiba is waiting there. Then we will go to the headquarters of the Industrial Illusions, as the president has something to discuss with Pegasus.

Chapter 254: Industrial Illusions

Not long after, Yuei Vu brought a few tool people, followed Kaiba Seto and Mokuba, and came to the HQ building of the Industrial Illusions.

This was also the purpose of Kaibas trip to the USA: personally came to Pegasus personally to ask for an explanation. Its just that according to Yuei Vus speculation, at this point in time, Pegasus was already dead. Even if they went to the headquarters, President Kaiba probably wouldnt see him.

However, President Kaiba has never been the type of person who could listen to what others say, and he would not give up easily until he came to confirm with his own eyes.

As for the four screwballs behind Yuei Vu, President Kaiba snorted and chose to ignore them.

It could be the benefit to have a high degree of favorability with the president. Yuei Vu felt that as long as he did not lose in playing cards, he should be forgiven by the president for whatever he did

When they came to the headquarters of the Industrial Illusions, the group met Muto Yugi and his friends here by coincidence.

Obviously, Yugi also received the video tape sent by Pegasus and flew to the USA overnight on a special plane specially arranged by Pegasus last night.

Although it seemed that Pegasus was directly killed by Doma without any resistance, but as the father of Dueling Monsters and the boss of the first arc of Yu-Gi-Oh DM, he would naturally not go down easily.

When Pegasus realized that he was trapped, he had already started thinking about saving himself. Arranging his adopted son Tenma Gekko to go to Domino City, secretly mobilizing the underground forces belonging to the Industrial Illusions, and arranging secret channels to contact Yugi, Yuei Vu, and Kaiba, were all the means by which he planned to resist.

Although the Pegasus may have died down, the Industrial Illusions counterattack plan was gradually taking shape.

When the two sides met, both Yugi and Jonouchi waved and greeted enthusiastically.

Especially Jonouchi, he seemed very happy when he saw Yuei Vu, but it was different when he saw Kaiba. He greeted Yuei Vu, and then gave Kaiba a displeased look: Tch, why is this guy here

Kaiba folded his arms and retorted: Huh, even a horse bone can appear in such a place, it really is because of the light of Yugi.

As he spoke, he glanced at the person next to him.

In addition to Jonouchi, Yugi was also surrounded by Mazaki Anzu, Honda Hiroto, and Otogi Ryuji. Somehow, even the classic cannon fodder duo, Insector Haga and Dinosaur Ryuzaki, got involved with them.

It felt like all the pendants that come with Yugi.

In such a comparison, Yuei Vu felt that it was not too much to bring four irrelevant people with him.

What was more surprising was that Kujaku Mai, who was supposed to be blackened by Doma, was now with them

Or to be more accurate, it should probably be said that she was with Jonouchi.

It seemed that Snow Wave made the right choice to eliminate her from the Battle City quarter-finals. Maybe Jonouchi this dense piece of wood has finally opened up, and Sister Mai was allowed to stay.

Seeing this situation, the gossip soul of Miss Yuehua, who was aware of the animation plot, suddenly burned, and she couldn't help but go up to secretly inquire with Jonouchi.

Jonouchi didn't hide it, and admitted generously at the time: Ah, that's right, Mai is also our partner now, and she said that she will stay temporarily until she finds her next target.

Miss Yuehua blushed: So it's still a partner

Yes, yes. Jonouchi was very proud.

Sister Mai looked away calmly, feeling as if she was used to it

Ah, speaking of it, there was an annoying bastard who kept pestering Mai two days ago. Jonouchi suddenly remembered something, and he was a little angry when he talked about it.

Ah? Miss Yuehua blinked.

It's a bastard on a bike. In short, I can tell he is not a good person at first glance! Jonouchi turned to Mai, You shouldn't associate with such a guy in the future, that guy gives people a bad impression!

Mai rolled her eyes: It doesn't matter who I associate with, does it have anything to do with you?

Uh Jonouchi was speechless for a moment.

Its fine for the others, they just think its just a couple bickering every day. However, when Yuei Vu and several players heard it, they immediately paid attention.

The bastard on the bike Did he mean Valon, one of the Three Swordsmen of Doma?

This Valon was also a fun character.

Each of the Three Swordsmen of Doma was burdened with a heavy past. Especially Rafael and Alister, both of them have bitterness and hatred on their faces, and they both have some reasons for sadness. They want to contribute to Domas plan, reset everything and create a better world.

But Valon was amazing. Its a little hard to say, but his reason to join Doma was that he wanted to pick up girls

Since Kaiba and Yuei Vu will appear here, Yugi side still remembered the main business, is it because of Doma?

Ah, Kaiba Corp must be in trouble recently, right? Anzu remembered something, Because of the out-of-control duel monster video

Not only that, but someone is maliciously buying our stock. Mokuba gritted his teeth, If this continues, Kaiba Corp will soon fall into the hands of others.

So powerful!? Jonouchi couldnt help being surprised.

Although Jonouchi hated Kaiba, Kaiba Corp was a high-end and awesome corp in his eyes. Such a giant company, could it be acquired by someone else?

Is it also Domas work? Otogi Ryuji, frowned, This organization called Doma is really extraordinary. Indeed.

The voice came from the other side of the hall. Everyone followed the sound and turned their heads, and found that a handsome man in a suit had appeared in the hall at some time, with light blue hair, one eye covered by bangs, and his eyes were sharp and sharp.

Kaiba frowned: Tenma Gekko? Why are you here?

No, Im not. The man who looked exactly like Tenma Gekko said lightly, My name is Tenma Yako, Gekkos twin brother.

I am also the adopted son of Mr. Pegasus, and I have been waiting for you here for a long time.

TenmaYako? Yugi repeated the name.

Hmph, it doesnt matter what your name is, Kaiba still had a calm expression, Where is Pegasus? Let him come out to see me. I only talk to people who can make decisions.

Im afraid that Mr. Pegasus cant come forward now, President Kaiba, or it should be said that he cant do it. Tenma Yako said, Because Mr. Pegasus has already fallen under Domas first round of attacks.

Hearing this, everyone couldnt help but tremble.

Although everyone had expected this result to some extent, now it was confirmed.

After all, that was Pegasus, the father of dueling monsters. As the founder who brought the card game back to modern times, he also has a lot of power.

However, Mr. Pegasus does have something to tell you. Yako turned around, Come with me. In Mr. Pegasus private collection room, there are some things that need to be shown to you.

Chapter 256: Tenma Yako

I have a little idea about the upcoming battle with Doma. Yuei Vu made a request, If possible, can I join the plan of the Industrial Illusions?

Tenma Yako stared at Yuei Vu for a moment, neither sad nor happy in his eyes, as if trying to see through his thoughts.

Then he gently closed his eyes and let out a long breath.

Duel King Yuei Vu, Mr. Pegasus has seen your duel especially the one where you competed for the title of Duel King with Yugi Muto on the top of the duel tower. Yako said slowly, Mr Pegasus has watched the game many times.

Yuei Vu didnt speak.

Perhaps its because he once had a duel with Yugi Muto, and he has a good understanding of the strength and style of the game. According to Mr. Pegasus evaluation, he always likes to tell us that Yugi is the most powerful duel he has ever encountered.

Yugi has a deep bond with his own cards, has an incredible ability to control the situation of the duel, and can always win from impossible desperate situations time and time again. He is an incredible duelist.

Yugi: It is indeed so! The other me is really strong!

Yami Yugi: Thats because of the presence of AIBO. Without you, I would never be able to persevere alone.

(Mutual Favorability UP)

But Yuei Vu-san, Pegasus said that you are different from other duelists he has seen. Yako said, He said that your duel is calculated. Just like a good chess player always think before making a move, you think of many steps ahead. Your calculations and combinations always make people feel impeccable.

And not only that. He can see something different from others from your choice of cards and some tactical combinations.

Several players ears pricked up when they heard this.

Pegasus actually said that?

As expected of us Yuei Vu-san!

Even Yuei Vu himself was a little surprised.

Wow, were you so talkative?

This reputation was really easy to come by. The millions of viewers in Miss Yuehuas live broadcast room heard it, and at this moment, some elder brothers couldnt help but ran to the forum to post first-hand news.

First of all, the opening was already a heavy bomb: Big news! Pegasus, the father of dueling monsters, admits that Yuei Vu is the strongest duelist in the world! The news is reliable!

These days, such straightforward and undisguised title parties were rare.

I heard that my brother Gekko, who is called The Perfect Duelist, seems to have lost to you. Yako continued, According to the news he sent back, he was convinced that it is a complete and utter defeat.

So even if there are people in the Industrial Illusions who are dissatisfied with you, the Duel King, they probably have nothing to say.

Yuei Vu:

Slow down, bro. You did all the show-offs for me, so what should I do?

Actually, according to my brother Gekkos instructions, if you are interested in participating, then I can consider giving you a part of the command in the next battle

Yuei Vu asked strangely: Has Gekko actually said that?

Ah, yes. Yako said lightly, But, the facts are like this. You have already obtained the approval of my brother, the guy called The Perfect Duelist. You have also obtained the approval of the president and our adoptive father, Mr. Pegasus but very unfortunately, none of them are here now. Staying in this place, leading the headquarters of the Industrial Illusions, is me, Tenma Gekko.

Yuei Vu vaguely realized something: So?

So then this is a personal request from me.

Yako walked to a corner of the room while he was talking, and he took out a dueling disc from somewhere and put it on his hand.

Lets fight. He said lightly, If you can defeat me, then I am not only willing to let you participate in our battle according to my brothers order, but also willing to hand over the supreme command of the Industrial Illusions to you, and the entire Industrial Illusions will listen to your arrangements.

After a pause, he added: Of course, you can also regard this as my challenge to the Duel King.

Before Yuei Vu, the person involved, could speak, Kaiba sneered: Hmph, youre overthinking yourself. If thats the case, you should confirm the gap between yourself and the real strong with your own eyes.

Honda: Are you going to duel here?

Jonouchi: Oh! It seems to be a very interesting situation!

It fully reflected the mentality of the people in this world as long as they saw a card game, whether they played it in person or watched it in the front row, they would be inexplicably excited.

Yuei Vu: Why all of you were so anxious and excited? I havent agreed yet but of course, it looked like he didnt have a choice anyway.

Okay. Yuei Vu turned his head, Then I accept this duel.

The indoor space of the collection room was narrow, so it was naturally not suitable for a duel. So everyone immediately followed Tenma Yako to the dedicated duel arena in the building.

The two sides came to the left and right halves to stand still, and each opened the Duel Disk.

Duel! x2

Tenma Yako, LP 4000

Yuei Vu, LP 4000

Ill go first, draw! Tenma Yako said, I first use the Pot of Greed to draw two cards. Then set a monster and three S/T cards. I end my turn.

My turn. Yuei Vu drew a card, and then revealed one of the cards in his hand, I activate Graceful Charity, draw three cards from the deck, and discard two cards.

Then I summon the Elemental HERO Sparkman!

Sparkman, who hadnt made his debut for a long time, leaped onto the field, let out an electric current with a loud shout, and quickly posed in a handsome pose. In this way, even if he was going down the stage as cannon fodder, it would not be a loss.

[Elemental HERO Sparkman, ATK 1600]

Then I activate the effect of the Magicians Souls in the hand, Yuei Vu then revealed the second card in his hand, At the cost of sending a level 6 or higher Magician monster from the deck to the graveyard, and then send this card to the graveyard, I can revive 1 Dark Magician or Dark Magician Girl in my graveyard!

I sent the Dark Magician from the deck and the Magicians Souls from the hand to the graveyard, and specially summoned the Dark Magician!

The two cards were sent to the tomb area of the dueling disk, and a black magic circle soon opened up on the ground. The green staff flew out, and the red-robed and white-haired magician followed the guidance of the staff and flew out. The green staff circled in mid-air and flew back to his hand.

[Dark Magician, ATK 2500]

Sure enough, hes as good as ever. Said Jonouchi beside him, Summon such a high-level monster for the first turn

Dark Magician! Yuei Vu said, Destroy the opponents defensive monster!

Because the monster was in the face-down position, its defense power was unknown. There were quite a lot of monsters below level 4 whose defense power exceeded Sparkmans attack power, so here he played it safe and chose to use the Dark Magician to attack first.

Dark Magician jumped up, the staff fell, and the wave of magic turned into a ball, hitting the covered monster card like a cannonball.

The card was flipped, and the three-dimensional image transformed into an ugly mouse with fangs. It gave a shrill cry and was soon shattered into pieces by the Dark Magicians spell, disappearing from the field.

[Giant Rat, DEF 1450]

The effect of Giant Rat. Tenma Yako said lightly, and pulled out the deck, When this card is destroyed by battle and sent to the GY: I can Special Summon 1 EARTH monster with 1500 or less ATK from my Deck in Attack Position.

Yuei Vu frowned slightly.

A last word monster? Is it preparation for the next turn?

Then according to the routine, the opponent should now special summon the second Giant Rat from the deck

The monster Im going to summon next is this guy

As he spoke, his eyes moved down, and he quickly found what he wanted from the unfolded deck.

He inserted it into the Duel Disk.

Leo Wizard!

Yuei Vu: ???

Chapter 257: Ancient Divine Card?

From the deck, I special summon Leo Wizard!

The card of Tenma Yako was photographed on the Duel Disk. A dark magic circle appeared on the ground. A wizard in a black robe with a khaki face and cynical eyes slowly floated out of the circle, with a long tail sticking out from under the robe.

[Leo Wizard, ATK 1350]

Others reacted normally, but a few players exploded instantly.

Fuck, its Leo Wizard! Divine card!

Hiss~ Its so terrifying, this person actually has such a magic card in his hand!

Then Jonouchi expressed doubts: Ah? Isnt this just a Level 5 normal monster? Whats so special about it?

You dont understand this. Native Noragami said that he would not be sleepy when he mentioned this, The Leo Wizard is an ancient ancestor of the world of dueling monsters!

Generally speaking, the three Egyptian Gods are the top of the duel monsters, but there is an absolutely ultimate god that ranks above the Egyptian Gods. We generally dare not talk about that real divine beasts name. It is this Leo Wizard!

Jonouchi was stunned for a moment: Really?

Of course. Fae also followed, But this is a taboo in the world of dueling monsters. You understand what you understand, and you dont understand what you dont understand. So its better not to say it. Dont ask me, this is not something you should involve in Noragami and Fae looked at each other at this point and laughed as if they had met a secret sign.

Jonouchi: ???

He began to wonder whether his IQ was wrong or these two peoples IQ was wrong, why couldnt he understand anything?

Here, Tenma Yako actually played the ancient divine card Leo Wizard, Yuei Vu said that he really did not expect this. But was this thing useful?

At this moment, the set card on my field has also been activated.

Tenma Yako pressed the button on the Duel Disk, pointed towards his feet, and the dark green magic card was revealed.

Quick-Play Spell Inferno Reckless Summon! Yako waved his arm, It can only be activated when exactly 1 monster with 1500 or less ATK is Special Summoned to my field while the opponent controls a face-up monster.

Special Summon as many monsters as possible with the same name as the Summoned monster, from my hand, Deck, and Graveyard, in Attack Position!

Yako pointed to his field: From the deck, I will special summon the other two Leo Wizards!

Two beams of golden light flew out of his deck and appeared on the field in front of him in the form of two other legendary beasts Leo Wizard.

[Leo Wizard, ATK 1350] x2

Several players couldnt hold back at this time, and they were all frantically taking screenshots.

Boom, boom, there are three legendary beasts!

Tenma Yako is invincible. At this moment, he has obtained the divine power equivalent to that of the Creator God

Jonouchi continued to doubt his own IQ

It turned out to be Inferno Reckless Summon. Yuei Vu really did not expect this trick. However Inferno Reckless Summon, a powerful card that can instantly gather three monsters on the field.

Yuei Vu smiled, I dont know what you plan to do, but you havent forgotten the side effects of this card, have you?

Ah, I know. Yako said lightly, When I use this effect to special summon, the opponent can also choose a face-up monster on his field, and special summon as many cards with the same name as possible from the hand, deck or graveyard.

Heh, if I hadnt been well-informed and read countless cards, maybe I would have been fooled by you like this.

Then what I want to choose is the Dark Magician on the field. Yuei Vu said, According to the effect of Inferno Reckless Summon, I will special summon the second Dark Magician from the deck!

The black magic circle opened, and the second mage in red robe flew out holding a green wand.

He whirled in mid-air, and when he landed, his staff swept across the air, and the invisible magic power exploded in front of him like a wave of air.

And my Battle Phase is not over yet. Yuei Vu raised his hand and said, Because the new Dark Magician was Special Summoned in the middle of the battle, so he can still attack!

Go, Dark Magician! Attack the Leo Wizard!

Dark Magician who had just appeared on the stage jumped up, pointed his staff forward, and the churning magic power turned into a real impact, roaring and blasting downward.

Tenma Yako narrowed his eyes slightly, and slowly raised his arms: Within my calculation I activate Continuous Trap Ultimate Offering!

The second set card on Yakos field was turned over, and the projected image stood up on the field.

Yuei Vu was secretly taken aback.

Its actually Blood Offerings?

This card was also a well-known divine card among the cards produced in the early days. It has been listed as a banned card since 2014 because of its simple and rough performance and its high versatility in multiple decks.

Ultimate Offerings effect can be activated during my Main Phase or the opponents Battle Phase. Tenma Yako explained, I can pay 500 LP, immediately after this effect resolves, Normal Summon/Set 1 monster.

Tenma Yako, LP 4000 LP 3500

Tenma Yako slowly pulled out a card in his hand and held it up high.

I pay 500 LP points to activate Ultimate Offerings effect! Take the three Leo Wizards on the field as sacrifices

Using three monsters as sacrifices! ?

Yuei Vus heart shuddered.

Could it be Wicked Gods! ?

It was explained in the Yu-Gi-Oh! R manga that Pegasus, who made the card of the Three Egyptian Gods, was afraid of the power he created, so he designed the Three Wicked Gods corresponding to the Three Egyptian Gods as a balance.

The Wicked Gods had the same power as the Egyptian God, has the same level and powerful effect, and each card has the terrifying ability to instantly dominate a duel.

And the master who controlled these three Wicked Gods in the manga was Tenma Yako, who was in front of Yuei Vu right now!

But fortunately, it was a false alarm, and it seemed that it was not a Wicked God.

What Tenma Yako called here was his trump card other than the Wicked Gods.

I sacrificed three monsters and performed a normal summon

Beast King Barbaros!

The majestic momentum, the powerful half-human, half-beast monsters make their grand debut!

He has blond hair like a lion, a big golden beard, and a shirtless upper body with jagged muscles, while his lower body looks like some kind of dark beast.

He held a spiral spear and a shield, and when he landed, he brought a golden electric light that spread to the whole field. The electric current quickly spread to Yuei Vus field and swept Sparkman and the two Dark Magicians away respectively.

The three monsters groaned miserably and shattered under the raging and violent current, and the burst of smoke engulfed Yuei Vus side.

In an instant, Yuei Vus field was empty.

[Beast King Barbaros, ATK 3000]

Whats going on!?! Honda, who was watching, looked surprised, Why did all the monsters on Yuei Vus side just disappear?

The special effect of Beast King Barbaros. Tenma Yako explained calmly, This monster can be summoned with three Tributes. When successfully summoned by this method, all cards on the opponents field will be destroyed.

All the cards are destroyed!?! Honda expressed surprise, Isnt this effect too overpowered?

No, if you need three sacrifices to summon, this condition is already the same as summoning Egyptian Gods, its not that easy. Yugi frowned and said, Its better to say that Tenma Yako, who can gather three sacrifices in the opponents turn and successfully summoned Beast King Barbaros in this way, is really very strong.

Thats right. Jonouchi also said, This guy seems to be able to manipulate his ace monster as he likes. He is very skilled in the linkage and effects of various cards. I can feel that this guy is not an ordinary duelist.

In fact, this was also a matter of course.

As the boss of the manga Yu-Gi-Oh! R, the owner of Three Wicked Gods, Tenma Yako certainly could not be an idler.

From the beginning, Yuei Vu didnt think that he could win casually with a half-hearted mentality.

Then I set a card and end my turn.

Chapter 258: Beast King Barbaros

My turn, draw!

Its the turn of Tenma Yako again. He looked over the empty field in front of Yuei Vu, and his eyes fell on the only set card at Yuei Vus feet.

Are you planning to rely on this set card to survive this round of attack? Yako said, But this level of strategy is useless to me!

First of all, I activate another Pot of Greed, which allows me to draw two more cards from the deck.

Yako drew two cards and then revealed one of them from his hand.

Spell Card Graceful Charity! Draw three cards from the deck, and discard two cards. Then I summon The Rock Spirit! This monster must first be Special Summoned by banishing 1 EARTH monster from my GY!

The graveyard area of Yako was lit up with golden light, and the Giant Rat that was beaten down in the last turn bounced back.

I Special Summon The Rock Spirit by removing Giant Rat from the game.

A burly warrior wearing ancient armor, a helmet, and holding a wooden club came to the field, his eyes were scarlet like blood.

[The Rock Spirit, ATK 1700]

Then I will sacrifice the The Rock Spirit to Tribute Summon a Level 6 monster! This is the most powerful demon in my deck

Gaap the Divine Soldier!

The majestic body of The Rock Spirit disappeared under the white whirlwind, replaced by an insect-like demon in the darkness. It had sharp claws, vicious eyes, and a gloomy expression on its face as if it wanted to choose someone to eat.

[Gaap the Divine Soldier, ATK 2200]

Hey, isn't this bad? Honda asked, The opponent has monsters with an attack power of 3000 and 2200, and Yuei Vu has nothing here!

Jonouchi: Don't worry, it's Yuei Vu after all! He must have some considerations

Battle! Tenma Yako shouted, Gaap the Divine Soldier, attack the opponent directly!

The demon seemed to be unable to hold back before it got the order, its pitch-black body flew towards Yuei Vu, its sharp claws cut through the air, and grabbed his face with a suffocating cold wind.

Of course, Yuei Vu also has countermeasures: Open the set card: Counter Trap Negate Attack! When an opponent's monster declares an attack: Target the attacking monster; negate the attack, then end the Battle Phase!

As I said, a strategy of this level doesn't work! Yako waved and shouted, Counter Trap Dark Bribe! Negate the activation and effect of an opponent's Spell or Trap Card, and destroy it, and then the opponent can draw a card.

The whirlwind of Negate Attack on Yuei Vu's side had just rolled up, and was smashed to pieces by the light beam shot from the card on the night field. The cards whose attacks were weakened were also blasted into pieces.

In this way, the obstacle will disappear, and the attack will continue! Tenma Yako said, Gaap the Divine Soldier, continue to attack directly!

The devil's sharp claws swung down, leaving silvery white trails in the space, like three sharp knife lights passing in front of Yuei Vu. Yuei Vu took a half step back under the impact of the virtual image.

Yuei Vu, LP 4000 LP 1800

Because of the side effect of Dark Bribe, I draw a card. Yuei Vu added a card to his hand.

The Negate Attack is also invalidated! Honda exclaimed, Hey, isnt this really bad?

Obviously, compared with the stranger Tenma Yako, Yugi and his friends here were more inclined to cheer for Yuei Vu.

This time even Jonouchi worried a bit: Yuei Vu

There is one thing I forgot to say. In the middle of the battle, Yako said suddenly.

Yuei Vu: ?

Mr. Pegasus also said Compared to Muto Yugi, you are a duelist whose style is more similar to mine. Yako said slowly. Same as you, I am the type of duelist who pays attention to details.

I consider all possible scenarios and devise strategies ahead of time to deal with them. The key to my victory in a duel is that I can always be one step ahead of the opponent.

Yuei Vu didnt speak.

So it looks like, in comparison, my consideration is more comprehensive. Yako closed his eyes lightly, and when he opened them again, his calm eyes were filled with the fanaticism of a warrior.

Continue to fight! Beast King Barbaros, direct attack! Yako ordered, Lets put an end to this duel!

The huge beast king rushed over, his body was like a burly hill laid across in front of Yuei Vu. The red spiral spear stabbed at him through the air.

Boom! ! !

With a strong impact, a shot with a full attack power of 3000 points pierced Yuei Vus body, and when it landed on the ground, it exploded smoke and dust waves like an explosion.

Although it was only a three-dimensional image, the impact and power still made the audience close their eyes reflexively, raising their arms to protect their bodies.

Yuei Vu! Mokuba was the first to shout out with concern.

Tenma Yakos calm expression finally couldnt help but break a little. It was hard to restrain the joy in his eyes.

Did Isucceed?

The Duel King who was highly praised by his adoptive father Pegasus, the duelist who defeated his brother The Perfect Duelist I won against him!

Among the audience, the calmest ones were the four players.

Sit down, sit down, dont be surprised.

Have you never heard of there is no harm if there is smoke?

Yuei Vu, LP 1800

What? After seeing Yuei Vus still-standing figure, Yako couldnt hide the disappointment and surprise in his eyes, Why? You should have no more cards on the field

Indeed, but I still have preparations in the graveyard. Yuei Vu smiled, and revealed a card that just popped up from the GY area, Necro Gardnas effect During the opponents turn, I can banish this card from my Graveyard; negate the next attack this turn from a monster you control.

The invincible guardian of the dead, a classic grave trap from Yu-Gi-Oh! GX. The number of times this card saved Yuki Judai was almost equal to the number of times Kuriboh saved Yugi.

Tenma Yako narrowed his eyes: Is that so? Has this hidden line of defense been laid out from the very beginning?

He closed his eyes gently: Am I being arrogant? It seems that this time you are still one step further than me. I set two cards and end my turn.

Although the move he thought was foolproof was resolved, Tenma Yako was not discouraged.

As one of Pegasus most proud disciples, Yako, who was determined to surpass his perfect brother, has done unimaginable hard work in duels.

Not only was he good at predicting and planning, but his ability to adapt to changes has amazed a large number of powerful members of Industrial Illusions.

Tenma Yako was always one step ahead in a duel, and could immediately come up with a backup plan in case of an accident.

Anyone who thought they have broken through his defense line would eventually be suppressed even more forcefully without any room for resistance.

Tenma Yako glanced at the two set cards at his feet, then raised his head and looked directly at Yuei Vu.

Mr. Yuei Vu, you may find it sudden He said, But this duel I have a reason to win.

Chapter 259: Justice Gang Up

About Tenma Yakos inner thoughts, Yuei Vu could guess a little bit.

Actually, this was nothing new. There were two twin brothers who have the same appearance and received exactly the same education, but the younger brother could only live in the elder brothers shadow forever.

It must be said that Tenma Yako was no worse than his elder brother whether as a leader or as a duelist, but only his elder brother Gekko won the title of Perfect Duelist.

The obsession with wanting to be the one recognized by his adoptive father and surpass his elder brother made him lose his sense of normalcy.

It was precise because of this that he was bewitched by the power of the Wicked Gods, had evil thoughts that he did not have in his normal state, and became the villain in the manga.

Although there were other factors, the root cause of his face-heel turn was ultimate because of the inner demon in Yakos heart.

But now, defeating Yuei Vu became Tenma Yakos way to prove himself. He wanted to prove to everyone that he has surpassed his brother by defeating Yuei Vu and that he was the strongest duelist under Pegasus!

However, this has nothing to do with Yuei Vu.

My turn, draw.

After the last round of attack, Yuei Vu immediately entered the state of counterattack.

Activate Spell Card from the hand E-Emergency Call. Add 1 Elemental HERO monster from the deck to the hand.

Yuei Vu opened the deck and found the hero he was calling, turned it over, and showed it to the opponent.

I added the Elemental HERO Shadow Mist to my hand. Yuei Vu shuffled the deck, then immediately played this card, Then I normal summon Elemental HERO Shadow Mist!

The heroine in tight black armor appeared on the stage in a heroic manner, and the black skirt was windless and automatic.

[Elemental HERO Shadow Mist, ATK 1000]

Then I activate Quick-Play Spell Mask Change! A spell card appeared in front of Yuei Vu, Send 1 HERO monster I control to the Graveyard, then Special Summon 1 Masked HERO monster from my Extra Deck with the same Attribute!

I sent the DARK-attributed Elemental HERO Shadow Mist to the GY!

Transform! Masked HERO Anki!

The black mist envelops the Shadow Mist, the red belt and black armor were quickly put on, and the Masked HERO reappeared.

[Masked HERO Anki, ATK 2800]

Masked HERO? A series Ive never seen before!

A mask was a mans romance, and Jonouchi, who originally had the spirit of a warrior, was immediately attracted by this heroic warrior in exoskeleton armor.

So handsome! Jonouchi thought to himself.

It is indeed Yuei Vus monster. Be it Elemental HEROes or Masked HEROes, they are getting more and more handsome, right?

The effect of Elemental HERO Shadow Mist! Yuei Vu said, If this card is sent to the GY: I can add 1 HERO monster from my Deck to my hand.

He flipped over the card he found from the deck, revealing the retrieved hero card.

The card I chose to add to my hand is Elemental HERO Liquid Soldier.

Has it appeared? The trump card symbolizes Mr. Yuei Vus status as the Duel King, the Masked HERO. Tenma Yako said, But its attack power is still not enough to defeat my Beast King Barbaros.

I know. But I still want to enter the Battle Phase! Yuei Vu waved his hand, Masked HERO Anki, attack Gaap the Divine Soldier!

Anki bent his knees, jumped up, twirled around in the air, and kicked the devils chest head-on with a flying kick like a dive.

Gaap the Divine Soldier immediately flew out of the ground with a groan after taking the kick, and exploded in mid-air.

Yako, LP 3500 LP 2900

So you choose to reduce the number of monsters on my field first

No. Yuei Vu smiled, My attack is not over yet.

He waved his arm: The effect of Masked HERO Anki is activated! Once per turn, when this card destroys an opponents monster by battle and sends it to the GY: I can add 1 Change Quick-Play Spell Card from my Deck to my hand.

The card Im going to add to my hand is Form Change.

Tenma Yako realized something: Form Change Could it be?

Thats right, my Battle Phase isnt over yet. From my hand, I activate Quick-Play Spell Form Change!

A card appeared in front of Yuei Vu. It was the special form-switching magic for the Masked HERO.

Return 1 HERO Fusion Monster I control to the Extra Deck, then Special Summon from my Extra Deck, 1 Masked HERO monster with the same Level as that monsters original Level, but with a different name.

Yuei Vu took Ankis card from the Duel Disk and quickly slapped the replacement hero card on it.

I returned the level 8 Masked HERO Anki to the deck. Transform!

Come on, level 8 Masked HERO Koga!

The dark hero disappeared from the field. The sacred light was released, and the armor was dismantled and re-dressed. After a burst of gorgeous transformation effects, a brand new Masked HERO has appeared with a shining golden glow!

[Masked HERO Koga, ATK 2500]

Masked HERO A hero who can transform and switch forms during the battle. Yugi said, What a strong deck! After our last duel on the tower, Yuei Vu has become stronger again. .

Yami Yugi who was in the spirit state also said: Yes. But we have become stronger after that, and I will never lose in the next confrontation.

The effect of Masked HERO Koga! Yuei Vu was still continuing, This card gains 500 ATK for each monster the opponent controls!

[Masked HERO Koga, ATK 2500 ATK 3000]

Tenma Yako frowned: The attack power is the same

Masked HERO Koga, attack Beast King Barbaros! Yuei Vu said, thinking for a while, EmmmRoyal Straight Slash!

Anyway, no one has seen Masked HERO before, so he could make up the name of the move as he wanted.

Koga charged in a straight line, his figure turned into an afterimage and flickered continuously. In the blink of an eye, he had already appeared in front of the huge beast king.

Barbaros! Both sides had the same attack power, therefore Yako couldn't lose his momentum, Fight back!

Barbaros raised his spear and slammed at the afterimage of Koga. However, Koga nimbly dodged to avoid it, stepped on the shield held by Barbaros, and jumped to the side.

At this moment, the effect of Masked HERO Koga is activated! I can banish 1 HERO monster from my Graveyard, then target 1 face-up monster on the field; that target loses ATK equal to the ATK of the monster banished to activate this effect, until the end of this turn!

What? Yako was startled.

Such a powerful effect?

A golden light flashed in the GY area of Yuei Vu, and the card that had just entered the cemetery had already popped out.

I removed Masked HERO Anki from the game, and until the end of the round, the attack power of Beast King Barbaros will decrease by the Anki's attack power, which is 2800 points!

[Beast King Barbaros, ATK 3000 ATK 200]

Yako gritted his teeth: Now Barbaros attack power is only 200

A common sense in the Super Sentai series heroes of justice never fought by themselves. They would gather under the power of friendship and gang up on the monster.

Masked HERO Koga charged from the side, and the phantom of the Anki appeared in midair and swooped down with a flying kick.

The two Masked HEROes, one light and one dark, flanked each other at the same time from different angles. How could the poor Beast King endure such treatment? His body was kicked several times by Anki, and then cut open by Koga's sharp blade at the same time. With a mournful cry, he exploded and disappeared from the field in the form of smoke.

Yako: Uh

[Tenma Yako, LP 2900 LP 100]

Because Beast King Barbaros was eliminated, Koga's attack power returned to its original state.

[Masked HERO Koga, ATK 3000 ATK 2500]

Finally, I set two cards, and I end my turn.

Chapter 260: Bladestorm

Well done! Jonouchi was even more excited than Yuei Vu, That Yako guy had the last 100 LP left, and the field was empty. The situation is turned back in one breath!

Yuei Vu looked at Yako's LP with only 100 left, and he was a little guilty at first, but his face turned dark when he heard Jonouchi's cheer on the side.

Did you do it on purpose?

I thought I didnt do anything wrong to you, did I? Why do you plant the flag for me like this?

However, Yuei Vu speculated that there should be no Wicked Gods card in Tenma Yakos deck now. Either Pegasus hasnt made it yet, or it hasnt been handed over to him.

If the other party has something like Wicked Gods in his hand, there would be more or less a clue of that powerful and strange dark force. It was impossible for Yuei Vu and Yugi, who possessed the Egyptian Gods, to not notice it at all.

So the current Tenma Yako should be an ordinary genius duelist under Pegasus. Maybe he also held a certain amount of dark power, but it should have nothing to do with the Wicked Gods in the original work at least for the time being.

However, the moment Yuei Vu announced the end of the turn, Tenma Yako interrupted him: At this moment, Mr. Yuei Vu, I still have something to do before your turn ends.

Yuei Vu: ?

The moment you destroy Beast King Barbaros, the conditions for calling out my true trump card will be met.

Everyone in the audience was shocked.

Is a powerful monster like Beast King Barbaros still not his trump card? Ootogi, who was like a passer-by among Yugis legion of friends, finally had a chance to say a line.

Kujaku Mai couldnt help but said: Is it a foreshadowing even the defeat of the Beast King?

The moment you entered the End Phase, Mr. Yuei Vu, my set card was also activated. Im going to use this card

Tenma Yako pressed the button and waved his arm.

Trap Card Necro Fusion! The trap in front of Tenma Yako was flipped over, Fusion Summon 1 Fusion Monster from my Extra Deck, by banishing Fusion Materials mentioned on it from my GY face-down, but it cannot attack this turn!

Fusion from the graveyard!? Even the game was surprised, The ability is similar to the miracle fusion that Yuei Vu used in Battle City

Thats right, after the battle in Battle City, I have been chasing you, Mr. Yuei Vu. Tenma Yako admitted frankly, You are A Duel King who is recognized by Mr. Pegasus, and your style is similar to mine.

So I have studied every duel and every skill of yours many times, and I have indeed learned a lot from you.

Yuei Vu:

Is this guy my fanboy?

But now, I want to surpass you here! Yako shouted, I will banish Beast King Barbaros and Machine Lord Ur from the GY, and perform fusion summoning!

Just watch, Mr. Yuei Vu. This is my ultimate trump card, the most powerful monster close to God

Beast King Barbaros, and Machine Lord Ur who was discarded to the graveyard in the last turn a red mechanical monster appeared from the graveyard area, turned into two beams of light interlaced in the mid-air, formed a vortex from which a waterfall-like beam of light blasted down from the ground.

Fusion Summon! Tenma Yako raised his arms high, Beast Machine King Barbaros Ur! (manga version)

What descended from the beam of light was a monster even bigger than the beast king, as burly as a pitch-black mountain. The main body of his body still looked like Barbaros, but the whole body has become dark, his body was as sturdy as a rock, and he was wearing red armor similar to Machine Lord Ur.

[Beast Machine King Barbaros Ur, ATK 3800]

The attack power was 3800, close to Obelisk the Tormentor.

In this era, it was indeed a powerful monster that was almost invincible.

But there is more to it than that.

The Beast Machine King was my last trump card, a weapon that I haven't used against anyone so far. But if the opponent is you, Mr. Yuei Vu, this is a perfect first match.

Tenma Yako pointed to this huge monster.

Machine Lord Ur has the special effect of attacking all monsters on the opponents field, and the fused Beast Machine King not only inherits this ability, but also has been further strengthened!

Beast Machine King Barbaros Ur can select a number of attack targets up to this card's Level. Since Beast Machine King Barbaros Ur is Level 8, up to eight attack targets can be selected. (manga effect)

This effect description was also very cartoony, and it was not very standardized to put it in the actual card text.

But Yuei Vu could understand what it probably meant. It should be equal to Beast Machine King Barbaros Ur can attack up to eight monsters in one Battle Phase.

In other words, no wall can block the attack of the Beast Machine King. Tenma Yako said, No matter how many monsters there are, all of them will be killed by the Beast Machine King.

I see, it is indeed a powerful effect. Yuei Vu nodded.

Then it's my turn, draw!

Tenma Yako drew a card, and immediately activated the card around his feet.

Open the set card. A red trap at his feet flipped open, Trap Card Reckless Greed. This trap allows me to draw two more cards from the deck but at the cost of skipping the next two Draw Phases.

Gaining two cards at once was a powerful effect, but the cost was also huge.

Skipping the Draw Phase for two turns was basically equivalent to cutting off all back lanes. It was a do-or-die move.

This would be his last counterattack. Yako closed his eyes and deduced every card and every step that would be involved in the whole process until he was sure that nothing would go wrong.

Then Tenma Yako opened his eyes again as if he had seen the bright road leading to victory.

He glanced at the two set cards in Yuei Vu's back row.

Compared with Masked HERO Koga who was protecting Yuei Vu on the daylight, those two unknown cards were more worthy of vigilance.

From Yako's point of view, for a duelist of Yuei Vu's level, there must be powerful traps that could resist attacks or directly counterattack.

So now the first thing to do was to restrict those two cards.

Ill normal summon this monster Sealmaster Meisei!

A seal master holding two sealing talismans and wearing a black top hat appeared on the field of Yako, with a red robe, dark red eyes, and a gloomy sneer.

[Sealmaster Meisei, ATK 1100]

Because of the increase in the number of monsters on the field, Yuei Vu said, Masked HERO Koga's attack power has increased.

[Masked HERO Koga, ATK 3000 ATK 3500]

Tenma Yako chuckled: Although it seems that the attack power of the Beast Machine King is higher, but Masked HERO Koga has a powerful effect that can banish HERO monsters in the graveyard and reduce the opponent's attack power.

If I remember correctly, you still have Elemental HERO Sparkman in your graveyard, with an attack power of 1600.

So that's how it is! Jonouchi suddenly said, If Yako launches an attack rashly here, the attack power of the Beast Machine King will be reduced by 1600, and he will lose directly! Damn, what a pity, what a cautious guy.

Then let me add this card! Activate Equip Spell United We Stand! Yako played a spell card from his hand, Equip it to the Beast Machine King Barbaros Ur!

The equipped monster gains 800 ATK/DEF for each face-up monster I control!

There are two monsters on my field, so Barbaros Ur's attack power increases by 1600!

[Beast Machine King Barbaros Ur, ATK 3800 ATK 5400]

5400 ATK This is not good. Kujaku Mai said with his arms around him, In this way, even if Masked HERO Koga uses his effect, the Beast Machine King's attack power is still higher.

It's not over yet! Tenma Yako showed another card in his hand, Next is the Continuous Spell Talisman of Trap Sealing!

The spell card emerged, and the burning talisman immediately appeared next to the conjurer on the field, circling rapidly around his body following the conjurers movements and silent incantations.

This card can only be activated while there is a Sealmaster Meisei on my field! Yako waved his hand, As long as the Talisman of Trap Sealing is on the field, Trap Cards cannot be activated and the effects of face-up Trap Cards on the field are negated!

The spell has been activated during the speech. The burning spell rune flew out of the sealmasters hand, first surrounding Tenma Yakos Ultimate Offering on his own field, sealing its effect.

Immediately afterward, the special rune also floated over Yuei Vu back row releasing an invisible sealing barrier to cover the set card on the right side of him.

Sure enough, one of them is a trap. Tenma Yako smiled.

Yuei Vu:

Damn it, wouldnt you just be beaten helplessly? Honda said.

Kujaku Mai also said: This kind of ability to arrange and control the rhythm of a duel is really terrifying.

Masked HERO Koga is indeed a hero with quite terrifying power. But in this way, the Beast Machine King should be able to defeat him without a doubt. Yako waved and shouted, Battle! Beast Machine King Barbaros Ur, attack Masked HERO Koga!

The gigantic beast warrior let out a violent roar, stabbed forward, and rushed towards the hero of light like Mount Tai as if he was about to be crushed into powder in one blow.

Tenma Yako was indeed cautious enough. The trap covered on the right side of Yuei Vu was the Divided Wall, which could reduce the attack power of all the opponents monsters by the number of monsters on the opponents field x 800 points.

If it could be activated, the attack power of Beast Machine King Barbaros Ur would drop by 1600. Coupled with the effect of Koga, this round of counterattack would become a suicide.

Of course, because of the presence of the Talisman of Trap Sealing, this trap could be considered useless.

but~ it doesnt matter!

Tenma Yako may indeed have thought a lot, but on his side, Yuei Vu still has a backhand!

Flip the set card! Yuei Vu waved his hand and looked at the unsealed cover card on his left, Quick-Play Spell Burial from a Different Dimension!

Yako was taken aback: Its actually a Quick-Play Spell Card!?

Up to 3 banished monsters will be returned to the GY! Yuei Vu revealed the card that was just returned to the card box last round, I will return the Masked HERO Anki that was banished last turn to the graveyard!

Bring the Anki back Tenma Yako realized something, and his face changed suddenly, Oops not good!

The battle continues, you can no longer stop the attack of Beast Machine King Barbaros Ur! Yuei Vu sent the Anki back to the graveyard, and shouted, The effect of Masked HERO Koga is activated!

Once per turn, during either players turn: I can banish 1 HERO monster from my Graveyard, then target 1 face-up monster on the field; that target loses ATK equal to the ATK of the monster banished to activate this effect, until the end of this turn!

The Anki who had just been stuffed back into the graveyard half a second ago was spat out by the Duel Disk again. The black Masked HERO turned into an illusory shadow and jumped into midair with a high jump.

I banish Masked Hero Anki from the GY again! Yuei Vu pointed to the field of Tenma Yako, The attack power of Beast God Machine King Barbaros Ur will be reduced by the attack power of Anki, which is 2800 points!

[Beast Machine King Barbaros Ur, ATK 5400 ATK 2600]

[Masked HERO Koga, ATK 3500]

Tenma Yako, LP 100

Tenma Yako was stunned: How could this be? Its not a trap, but Quick-Play Spell? My calculations should have been a winning blow

Counterattack! Yuei Vu shouted, Masked HERO Koga, Bladestorm!

What? You said that the attack name was different from the last time?

Wasnt it common sense that Masked HERO has many sets of kills?

Anyway, it was his own exclusive hero, so why couldnt Yuei Vu call the name of the move as he wanted?

For example, Jonouchi Fire

Tenma Yako stood still, watching two Masked HEROes staggeringly sprinting from mid-air. One light and one dark pierced through the huge body of Beast Machine King respectively, and the impact swept across his field, engulfing his silhouette for a short time.

[Tenma Yako, LP 100 LP 0]
