

I Play Yu-Gi 281

Chapter 281: The Immortal Monster

Lightforce Sword, which could randomly remove a card in the opponents hand from the game, and seal it until the opponents 4th Standby Phase, was also a classic card.

This card was commonly used in Yami Yugi in animation. Originally, Yuei Vu got this card not long after his rebirth, but it was completely useless at that time. He didnt expect it to be useful after so long.

It stood to reason that in a normal duel, after activating Lightforce Sword, the player needed to randomly pick a card from the opposing players hand facing away from him.

However, in the original animation, when Yami Yugi fought against Kaiba, the president laughed and posed, holding up the Obelisk the Tormentor in his hand, saying that he was going to summon the god.

So Yugi made a decisive decision, directly opened Lightforce Sword, and said that I want to seal the card you are holding up to show off. So the presidents Obelisk was nailed to the floor for three turns

His performance gave Yuei Vu a revelation. At that time, he was startled OMG, it can still be used like this!

Could it be possible to wait for the opponent to raise the key card to show off to activate?

As we all knew, in the animation, whenever an important character played cards, before summoning the trump card or launching the key card, it was necessary to pose and shout lines. So here Yuei Vu imitated Yugis operations, waiting for the moment when Dartz was posing, and used Lightforce Sword to directly nail The Seal of Orichalcos to the wall behind.

Dartz didnt feel so good about this.

Now it wouldnt be strange for him to give up playing cards, rush up and play with Yuei Vu by his fists

Well, of course, as a high-end villain, he couldnt do such an indecent thing. Dartz just snorted, but didnt say much, just had a gloomy face: Ill set two more cards and end my turn.

There are two extra set cards at Dartzs feet.

Then at the end of the turn, I continue to discard the extra cards in my hand until the number of cards in my hand becomes six.

My turn, draw!

Yuei Vu drew the card, and his eyes first fell on the lingering Orichalcos Gigas on Dartzs field.

Although under Yuei Vus continuous interference, Dartzs tactics lacked the two key cards The Seal of Orichalcos and Orichalcos Kyutora, this unkillable Gigas was also a bit annoying.

At first, the attack power of this thing was only 400, which was not worth mentioning at all. However, its attack power has soared to 2400 points at this moment, and the threat was getting bigger and bigger.

If he couldnt solve this thing, there was no point in summoning more monsters.

But now Yuei Vu had a countermeasure.

Activate Quick-Play Spell Dedication through Light and Darkness!

The card in Yuei Vu's hand was inserted into the Duel Disk, and the spell card appeared in front of him. The picture drawn on the card was a more powerful mage who mastered the power of chaos and was upgraded from the Dark Magician.

Take the Dark Magician on the field as a sacrifice!

Yuei Vu pulled out the deck, picked out the cards, and at the same time, a mass of dark magic power absorbed his Dark Magician into it.

Appear! The top magician who masters the power of chaos and is proficient in the most advanced magic! Dark Magician of Chaos!

The pitch-black magic power erupted like flames, and a slender magician in strong attire came to the field, his staff whirling like a windmill in his hand, and his black hair fluttering behind him.

[Dark Magician of Chaos, ATK 2800]

Dartz seems to understand his intention: Dark Magician of Chaos is the highest level of existence even among all magicians. He can completely wipe out the target he attacks from existence, even destroying the soul.

Exactly. Yuei Vu explained, The effect of the Dark Magician of Chaos. The monsters destroyed by him through battles are not sent to the graveyard, but are directly removed from the game.

Orichalcos Gigas can only be resurrected from the graveyard infinitely. What if it is directly banished? Even it can't come back to the field again. It is indeed a beautiful response. But! Things won't be that easy.

Open the set card! Trap Card Destruction Ring!

A ring with a lit fuse was projected, which was put on the thick finger of the ugly giant on the Dartz field.

Destruction Ring's effect: Destroy 1 face-up monster on my side of the field to inflict 1000 points of damage to both players' Life Points. Dartz sneered, pointing to the monster in front of him.

I destroyed the Orichalcos Gigas on my own field!

Dark Magician Girl who floated beside Yuei Vu and acted as a guardian was surprised: He destroys his own monster?

Orichalcos Gigas will continue to be resurrected. Yuei Vu narrowed his eyes, But if he is resurrected again, his attack power will reach 2900.

Dark Magician Girl was surprised: Ah! That's it! If that's the case, master the Dark Magician of Chaos will not be able to defeat it!

The prerequisite for the Dark Magician of Chaos to banish the opponent's monster was that it must be destroyed in battle first. If the opponent's attack power exceeded his own, the ultimate magician was obviously helpless.

But Yuei Vu has already thought of it: Activate a Quick-Play Spell from the hand My Body as a Shield! This card can only be activated when a Spell/Trap Card or monster effect that would destroy a monster(s) on the field is activated! Pay 1500 LP, negate the activation, and destroy that card!

The ring on Orichalcos Gigas hand instantly shattered, turning into a bolt of lightning and hitting Yuei Vus body.

With Dartzs level of strength, the materialization of the three-dimensional images in this duel between the two sides was already equivalent to a very high level of Shadow Game. The impact of 1,500 health points still hurt a little bit. This blow made Yuei Vufei take a few steps back, kneeling on the ground, with black smoke all over his body.

Yuei Vu, LP 2100 LP 600

MasterMaster! Dark Magician Girl was at a loss for what to do with worry.

Its okay. Yuei Vu smiled, stood up, and looked at Dartz coldly, But because of the effect of My Body as a Shield, Gigas attack power remains the same!

Battle! Dark Magician of Chaos, attack Orichalcos Gigas!

The staff in the magicians hand was spinning. The torrent of magic power blasted out with a roar that pierced through the air, and it contained an impact that could wipe out the soul and blast toward the giant spirit on Dartzs field.

The dark magic power was like an endless river. It seemed to dye the whole world into a pitch-black color. Orichalcos Gigas was engulfed by the deep chaos, its result was inevitable!

Heh, as expected of the current Duel King, the tactics are indeed meticulous enough. Dartz smiled lightly, followed by a cold look, and said in a deep voice, But! Its still a step short to say that its perfect.

Open the set card! Trap Card Destruct Potion!

With a wave of Dartzs arm, the cover in front of him was opened. The majestic darkness was released from the face of the trap card, turning into a huge claw and pinching Orichalcos Gigas on Dartzs own field, pinching it into pieces before the magician of chaos attacked!

When the majestic and tyrannical chaotic magic power hit, he was powerlessly thrown into the air.

What!? Yuei Vu was surprised.

Destruct Potion can destroy a monster on my field. Dartz explained with a sneer, Then I gain Life Points equal to its ATK.

Dartz, LP 1800 LP 4200

Dark Magician Girl couldnt help being frustrated: Ah? Whats the matter? The life value recovered to 4200 in one go Isnt it all in vain so far?

Its not just that. Dartz smiled, As I said, Orichalcos Gigas will be resurrected no matter how many times it falls. Come back to the field and become stronger! Orichalcos Gigas!

The vortex of the underworld opened up, and the giant spirit dragging a heavy chain in its hand returned to the field with a low roar.

[Orichalcos Gigas, ATK 2400 ATK 2900]

Yuei Vu frowned.

Sure enough, this guy was indeed a boss who has the courage to challenge Yami Yugi and Kaiba at the same time. It was quite difficult to deal with him.

In order to maximize the regeneration ability of Orichalcos Gigas, Dartz would naturally prepare a lot of cards specially used for self-destruction in the deck.

Let Gigas self-destruct not only refreshed the number of resurrections to increase its attack power but also be used to avoid the opponents attacks and effects through self-destruction.

It really made sense. No matter if Gigas was destroyed by battle or effect, it would regenerate infinitely, of course, Dartz himself could think of its only weakness. Whether it was removed from the game or bounced back into the deck, this monster could be solved.

So Dartzs response here was somewhat similar to Yuei Vus usual Mask Change. When Dartzs own Gigas becomes the target of the opponents effect, he could launch a trap to blow up his own monster first, and make the opponents effect lose the target, and then let Gigas revive by its own effect.

In this way, not only it dodged the opponents effect, but it also refreshed the number of resurrections to further increase the attack power, making it more difficult to deal with.

When Gigas is resurrected again, the effect of Card of Safe Return is activated, and I will draw three more cards. Of course, this is the same for you.

Dartz drew three cards and added them to his hand.

Yuei Vu didnt say a word but also drew three cards.

However, because of the resurrection of Gigas, a battle replay will occur. Dartz said lightly, How about it, do you want to continue attacking?

[Dark Magician of Chaos, ATK 2800]

[Orichalcos Gigas, ATK 2900]

There was obviously no point in continuing to attack, as it was already impossible to defeat Gigas with the magicians attack power. Yuei Vu ignored him and drew three cards from his hand.

Set three cards, and I end my turn.

Is there nothing you can do? Dartz looked at the extra set cards on the field and chuckled, It seems that you can only go so far after all.

At the moment the turn ends, the effect of Dark Magician of Chaos is activated. At the end of the turn, I can add a Spell Card from the graveyard back to my hand.

Yuei Vu explained blankly, then a card popped up in the GY area. He turned it over and showed it to Dartz.

I take the Continuous Spell Card Prohibition back to my hand.

Dartzs facial muscles twitched undetectably

Chapter 282: I Hear That You Want To Activate The Barrier?

Seeing Yuei Vu take that troublesome Prohibition back into his hand, Dartz couldnt help but twitch slightly.

Damn, this thing again?

Calm down, I am the BOSS, I cant be angry

My turn, the last turn!

Its Dartzs turn to play cards again. The behind-the-scenes boss was also full of confidence as if he was sure that he could win this turn.

Yuei Vu had only 600 LP left, while Dartzs HP was fully recovered in one breath. It was impossible to say that Yuei Vu did not feel pressure at all.

As previously mentioned, when facing a duelist with a high Rank and/or having a high level of dark power, the opponent would feel extra pressure.

Just like when more and more people face Yuei Vu, they would feel a kind of aura from the Duel King, which was precise because his duelist's Rank was steadily rising, and his own aura brought the suppressive power onto the opponent was getting stronger and stronger, so it would give people psychological pressure during the match.

Dartzs Rank as a duelist must have started at 10 stars at least, maybe even higher. In the animation, Yugi and Kaiba were somewhat suppressed in the first round against Dartz, which was enough to show how terrifying this guy was as a duelist. At least he was not weaker than Yugi or Kaiba at the current stage.

But thinking of this, Yuei Vu turned around and thought about Dartzs performance so far in this battle, and suddenly felt that something was wrong.

However, he didnt have time to think about it now, as Dartzs words quickly dragged his senses back to the duel.

Its still because of the side effect of Orichalcos Gigas, I cant draw cards normally when it exists on the field. Dartz said casually, and drew a card in his hand, But its not necessary anymore, the components I want to use have already been collected in my hands.

Activate Spell Card Terraforming!

The Spell card appeared in front of Dartz, and the artwork was an Earth-like planet in the boundless universe, and the central area was undergoing terraforming under a spreading blue wave.

This card allows me to choose a Field Spell Card from the deck and add it to my hand. Dartz said, with the corners of his mouth slightly raised, But which card do I want to take, shouldnt I need to say more?

Sure enough, Dartzs goal was to launch The Seal of Orichalcos.

Prohibition could only ban cards that have not yet been activated. If The Seal of Orichalcos had already appeared on the field, even Prohibition couldnt stop it.

This Field Spell Card was the key to the operation of Dartz's entire deck. In his tactics, there were other two Field Spell Cards with more powerful effects: Orichalcos Deuteros and Orichalcos Tritos. However, they could be activated only when the first barrier was deployed.

Moreover, the first layer of the barrier itself was also a mass-produced card in Doma. All high-level believers had at least one copy in their hands, so there was no reason Dartz would not put the full three copies into his deck.

And needless to say, Dartz would definitely bring Terraforming into the deck. This Spell Card could retrieve any Field Spell from the deck, a must-have divine card for any deck that relied on Field Spell Cards.

Now in Dartz's deck, a copy of The Seal of Orichalcos was thrown to the GY by Yuei Vu's Mind Crush, and another piece was nailed to the wall by Lightforce Sword. Only one last copy lay in his thick deck.

What he wanted to retrieve now was naturally that card.

Dartz pulled out the deck: According to the effect of Terraforming, I added the last The Seal of Orichalcos to my hand.

Finally! This time it's really coming!

Although Dartz pretended to be calm and in control on the surface, in fact, his heart jumped a lot.

He never expected that this game would be so suffocating. The duel was almost finished, but he hasn't even had any chance to play the first barrier yet!

Because The Seal of Orichalcos was the key to the deck, it had absolute resistance that could not be stopped once it was activated, so he hardly considered the possibility that the barrier was not on the field.

However, what he didn't expect was that after the whole duel, he didn't even have a chance to activate the barrier but that's all!

Can you have the guts to try to stop me again?

Yuei Vu couldn't telepathically hear Dartz's strange request, but of course, he was not ambiguous here.

Yes I can!

Open the set card! Yuei Vu waved his arm again, and immediately flipped a set card beside him, Counter Trap Cursed Seal of the Forbidden Spell!

When a Spell Card is activated: Discard 1 Spell Card; negate the activation and destroy it!

Moreover, the opponent cannot activate Spell Cards with that name for the rest of this Duel!

Dartz's eyelids twitched for a moment, and he froze when he was preparing to find a Field Spell in his deck.

A mass of dark and chaotic power enveloped the Terraforming just launched by Dartz, eroded and shattered the magic power of the spell card, and finally, the card surface turned into golden dust and dissipated.

Dartz:

Glancing at another copy of Terraforming in his hand, the last king of Atlantis, the representative of the god Orichalcos, the person in power behind the super organization Doma, couldn't help but fell into deep contemplation.

Shall I consider giving up playing cards and changing into beating people with fists?

This was indeed a very tempting idea, but in the end, Dartz suppressed it.

It's not because he was a principled and upright villain like Marik. In the original animation, he could even do the scandal of catching hostages halfway through a game of cards. If beating people could solve the problem, he wouldn't play cards honestly.

However, although Yuei Vu himself was not very strong, he had a lot of powerful duel monster spirits by his side, including the three Egyptian Gods normally, Egyptian Gods would not listen to their mortal masters, but Dartz knew that if he really wanted to use power play, Egyptian Gods would definitely not stand idly by.

In any case, playing cards was the best solution to the problem.

So even though he was very angry and aggrieved by being tricked, he temporarily suppressed his impulse and continued to fight honestly.

Hmph. Dartz snorted displeasently, but he still did not lose his kingly demeanor, The last struggle? But even so, it can't change anything.

I said this turn is the last turn!

Although in the end he failed to lay out the barrier and play the expected tactics, and because of this, none of the ace monsters could jump out, he still had countermeasures.

Anyway, what Yuei Vu left was only 600LP, which was like a candle in the wind!

I summon Orichalcos Malevolence in attack position!

A demon covered with hot lava appeared on the Dartz field, its wings were shining with fiery golden lights, and its body was covered with red-hot rocks.

[Orichalcos Malevolence, ATK 1500]

Then this card can give you the final blow! Dartz waved his arm, and the card was inserted into the duel plate, Activate Spell Card Thunder Crash! Destroy all monsters I control, and inflict 300 damage to the opponent for each monster destroyed!

Golden lightning fell from the sky, like a sharp arrow piercing through Orichalcos Malevolence and Gigas at the same time, turning the two monsters into a ball of black smoke.

There are two destroyed monsters, Dartz sneered, so the total damage is 600 points!

Yuei Vu, LP 600

The lightning which pierced through the two monsters continued unabated, and rushed straight at Yuei Vu, like an arrow piercing the world!

If you eat this damage Master!

When the Dark Magician girl exclaimed, she instinctively stood in front of Yuei Vu, as if she wanted to take the blow for him with her petite body.

Yuei Vu simply waved his arm: Trap Card Damage Diet! After this card is activated, all damage I received this turn will be halved!

The lightning blasted down and exploded violently on Yuei Vu's side.

The materialized Dark Magician Girl shared part of the shock for the master, and both master and servant were blown away.

The girl sitting on the ground with her legs bent outwards touched her head, straightened her big hat, and turned her head quickly: Master, are you alright?

It's okay. Yuei Vu took a breath, There is still life left, it's a small problem.

Yuei Vu, LP 600 LP 300

That being said, the impact of this level was really no joke.

It was already a bit strenuous to withstand the pressure of Dartz, and the LP was reduced to only 300. If there was no spirit helping him share it, Yuei Vu felt that even with his current physical strength, he might not be able to bear it.

It's a good thing you can take this blow. Dartz smiled lightly, But you haven't forgotten the effect of Orichalcos Gigas, have you?

Yuei Vu frowned tightly.

Gigas will return from hell no matter how many times, and he will be even stronger! Dartz shouted, Gigas, who was destroyed by the effect of Thunder Crash, will be resurrected from the graveyard!

The giant spirit with red eyes returned to the field again, its muscles seemed to swell again, and black mist lingered all over its body.

[Orichalcos Gigas, ATK 2900 ATK 3400]

By the effect of Card of Safe Return, I will draw three more cards. Dartz said lightly, Of course, the same is true for your side.

Yuei Vu also drew three cards silently.

But of course, it doesn't matter anymore. Dartz continued, Honestly speaking, it's beyond my expectation that you can reach this point. Knowing so I'm a little bit interested but Duel King Yuei Vu, your path stops here. Compared to those secrets about you, I still prefer to completely remove you from this world right now.

Battle! Orichalcos Gigas, attack Dark Magician of Chaos! Let's draw the finale to this duel!

[Orichalcos Gigas, ATK 3400]

[Dark Magician of Chaos, ATK 2800]

Yuei Vu, LP 300

With red eyes, the giant spirit waved an iron chain, and launched a desperate sprint toward the magician!

Oops Oh crap, if you get hit now, your LP will be The Dark Magician Girl jumped up in a panic and tried to stand in front of her master, Master!

Open the set card! Another trap opened in front of Yuei Vu, Quick-Play Spell- Command Silencer! Cancel the opponents attack declaration and draw a card from the deck! (Animation card)

Thats right, its an animation card from President Kaiba!

With Yuei Vus current status in Kaiba Corp, as long as it was not the only exclusive card designated by the president like Blue-Eyes White Dragon, he would have no problem getting the cards he wanted.

The command was eliminated, and the attack of the giant spirit was abruptly terminated. The huge iron chain was blown back by the invisible sound waves released by the silencer, and the giant spirit returned to Dartzs field in disgrace.

Dartz frowned tightly, and it seemed that he had no next move for the time being.

Yuei Vu smiled: You said to end me in this turn, but it doesnt look so smooth.

Its really annoying to deal with. Dartz said indifferently, I end my turn. At the End Phase, discard the extra cards in my hand until the number of cards in my hand becomes six.

Chapter 283: Last Turn?

I end my turn.

Dartz finished the operation, lowered his arms, and looked at Yuei Vu indifferently.

No matter what, this will be the last turn. He said, You should give up, right? Or do you still think you have a chance to come back under this situation?

Dark Magician Girl was flustered at the moment, but she couldnt help being even more nervous when Dartz said that, she quickly turned her head: MasterMaster!

The opponent had a full 4200 LP, while her master only had the last 300 points left!

Moreover, there was a monster with an attack power of 3400 on the opponents field that would continue to revive no matter how many times it was defeated, and would only become stronger with each revival.

Wasnt this hopeless?

Based on her understanding of duels, she couldnt figure out what to do in this situation, so she had to pin all her hopes on her handsome master.

The master is so hot, there should be a way right?

Was this hopeless?

To be honest, Yuei Vu didnt think so at all.

He now had a full nine cards in his hand, and in the Draw Phase, it would increase to a full ten cards!

With ten cards in hand, was there any situation hopeless?

As for the LP value? Only the last point mattered.

Compared with this, Yuei Vu had other things that are more concerned about.

Dartz. Yuei Vu looked at the guy in front of him, felt the unfathomable courage and pressure from the other party, and pondered for a moment.

The one in front of me is not you, right? he asked.

Dartz was silent for a moment, then smiled lightly.

Thats right. He didnt hide it, and admitted directly and generously, Its not me who appeared here to fight you or you can say it is.

This is my remote-controlled avatar through an ancient technique, using a loyal believer of mine as a medium. I have borrowed someone elses body to stand here, and I can probably display half of my normal strength.

With one hand on his hip, he said: I told you, I dont like unexpected things. You are an unknown to me, Duel King Yuei Vu. Im not sure how much information you have and what tactics you will use.

Although I dont think you can win against me, I certainly wont rush to fight you to the death when there is a serious lack of information. So even if you beat me here, what you kill is just a clone. What will be devoured will only be the soul of the body I use, for me it is just a loss of part of my strength.

Well, although it made him feel very uncomfortable, Yuei Vu had to admit that this was the arrangement that a conspirator should have.

Indeed, for Dartz, Yuei Vu was an uncertain factor, and there were too many variables for fighting Yuei Vu directly. That would be too reckless and not like the style of a person in power.

Dont be too frustrated. Even with half my strength, youre already pretty good at reaching this point. At present, there is no duelist in this world who can win against me.

Yuei Vu, even if your path stops here, you are already one of the duelists who left a deep impression on me over the tens of thousands of years. When everything in the world is absorbed by the great god of Orichalcos, I will arrange a special place for you

You seem to have made a mistake. Yuei Vu interrupted him.

Dartzs words stopped.

The duel is not over yet.

Oh? Dartz smiled, So? Are you going to make a comeback?

Exactly.

Dartz frowned.

My turn, draw! Yuei Vu drew a card and added it to his hand, and then immediately revealed a card in his hand. Activate Spell Card Polymerization. I fuse Elemental HERO Liquid Soldier with Destiny HERO Disk Commander in my hand!

The fusion condition is 1 Elemental HERO monster + 1 DARK monster!

Fusion Summon! Elemental HERO Escuridao!

The liquid Elemental HERO and the destiny hero covered with various discs turned into beams of light and converged into the whirling vortex. A jet-black and deep-black waterfall descended from the sky. It fell vertically on the ground, and a female hero in black armor emerged from it.

[Elemental HERO Escuridao, ATK 2500]

The effect of Liquid Soldier! Yuei Vu said, If this card is used as Fusion Material for a HERO monster, and sent to the GY or banished: I can draw 2 cards, then discard 1 card!

Dartz crossed his arms: The effect of this guy is that the attack power will increase by the number of Elemental HEROes in the graveyard x 100 points. But even this is not enough

Quick attack magic De-Fusion! Yuei Vu didnt give him a chance to finish speaking at all. A magic card appeared in front of him, Target 1 Fusion Monster on the field; return that target to the Extra Deck, then, if all the Fusion Materials that were used for its Fusion Summon are in my GY, I can Special Summon all of them!

He pointed to the dark hero in front of him.

Release the fusion of Elemental HERO Escuridao! Come back to the field, Elemental HERO Liquid Soldier, Destiny HERO Disk Commander!

Escuridaos body turned into a cloud of black mist and split into two individuals again. Liquid Soldier and Disk Commander landed on the field in front of Yuei Vu in a half-squat.

[Elemental HERO Liquid Soldier, ATK 1400]

[Destiny HERO Disk Commander, ATK 300]

Dartz frowned: Although I dont know what you are going to do, at this moment, my Card of Safe Return is activated again. I draw three cards from the deck.

Then its the same on my side. Yuei Vu raised his hand, I draw three cards from the deck! At the same time, the effect of Destiny HERO Disk Commander is also activated! He If this card is Special Summoned from the GY, I draw two more cards. So I draw a total of five cards.

Dartz suddenly realized something.

He thought of it in an instant. The most powerful card he had always been afraid of, the most powerful card in Yuei Vus hand, the super card that could instantly turn the tide of the battle no matter what the situation was.

At this moment, the conditions for its arrival have been fulfilled!

This guy wants to call the god to descend at this very moment, this final turn!

I offer Elemental HERO Liquid Soldier, Dark Magician of Chaos, and Destiny HERO Disk Commander as sacrifices!

Yuei Vu pulled out the card in his hand and slapped it hard on the Duel Disk.

In an instant, the entire Duel Disk released a galloping electric current. A mighty force spread from it, turning into a shining thunder soaring into the sky.

Piercing through the underworld and reality, appearing in the chaos of sky thunder! Come, God Osiris the Sky Dragon! ! !

A red light glowed under the high dome of the temple, and a pair of red wings appeared, followed by the body of the dragon. It was entrenched in this sealed space, slowly lowered its height from the air, and landed in front of Yuei Vu, its eyes were filled with death-like chills, and suppressed Dartz's aura in an instant.

[Osiris the Sky Dragon, ATK 11000]

Even though the god was on her side, the Dark Magician girl was so frightened that she sat on the ground: That's so amazing

The sky dragon roared loudly, and the dragons chant reflected back and forth like thunder in the confined space, lingering endlessly.

It seemed to be a little proud because the girl praised it for being good.

Then it saw the Dark Magician girl looking at Yuei Vu with bright eyes: The master is too powerful! In such a situation, you can summon a god in one breath, with more than 10,000 attack power

Osiris:

Dartz looked up at the huge god: This is Osiris

Battle! One thing you said is right, Dartz, this is the last turn! Yuei Vu swung his arm down, Osiris, attack Gigas! Super Conductive Wave Thunder Cannon!

Galloping lightning, galloping torrent. The golden light filled the entire space in an instant, and the moment the swirling beam blasted from the mouth of the dragon in the sky, even Yuei Vu felt that he couldn't open his eyes for a moment.

Dartz's figure was submerged, and the whole temple was trembling.

Dartz, LP 4200 LP 0

At the same moment, Yuei Vu heard something crack, like glass shattering.

Chapter 284: What Does The Kuriboh Say?

God's attack caused a great shock. The released energy couldn't find an exit in the sealed stone room, so it could only wreak havoc, destroying everything it passed by indiscriminately even space itself.

Dartz, LP 4200 LP 0

The behind-the-scenes boss was very witty, and he released the control and ran away the moment before his LP returned to zero.

In this way, it seemed that Dartz had not been idle for ten thousand years, maybe he had gone to a certain port to study, and he was really fast when he ran

Fortunately, he slipped fast enough, otherwise, if Osiris sent another Super Conductive Wave Thunder Cannon, even he would not be able to bear it.

After escaping, Dartz was lost in thought about the duel.

Now he only felt that Yuei Vu seemed more and more unpredictable.

At first, Yuei Vu was just a man with a mysterious origin to him. After all, Doma has always been in control of the situation in every corner of the earth. They knew everyone and everything, and nothing was beyond their control.

But Yuei Vu was a mystery to them. This person seemed to have just popped out of nowhere, with neither background nor past, and he used a HERO deck that even Dartz had never heard of. Whether the man himself or the deck he used, hasn't appeared in any record.

Then there was a large group of crazy duelists who were suspected to be related to him. These duelists appeared all over the world, their behavior seemed to be weird and irregular, but it felt like there was a special chain of command between them.

If only that's the case, Yuei Vu was just another threat to Dartz. It deserved to be taken seriously, and may need to be ruled out in advance depending on the situation, but nothing more.

However, after this duel, Yuei Vu's threat in Dartz's eyes instantly rose several levels.

Because he was surprised to find that this guy seemed to know him very well!

Whether it was his tactics, his own deck, or the history of Atlantis, the origin of Orichalcos, Yuei Vu seemed to know all of these!

Bear in mind that Dartz hardly ever mentioned these things to anyone. Especially the deck he is using now the ink on the cards that have just been printed was not dry yet! He has never played against anyone with this deck, how could anyone know his tactics?

However, the feeling Yuei Vu gave him in the duel just now

It was as if he was fully aware of his deck construction and thinking, and prepared a lot of counters.

Is it a coincidence?

Or

Is this guy just an autistic guy who takes revenge on society?

Could it be that this guy was actually the Duel King of the underworld, specially came here to mess with the mentality of people

Anyway, it was true that Yuei Vu caused him great trouble in the duel just now. This made Dartz, who had absolute confidence in his own strength, slightly shaken.

In any case, this Duel King must not be left alone.

Next, even if using unscrupulous methods such as taking hostages, playing dirty tricks, etc., he must first clear the Duel King out of the game.

Anyway, Dartz wasn't a gentleman in the first place, and he didn't need to talk about morals when dealing with those who didn't agree with him.

Besides playing cards, there were many ways to solve the problem. Darzi was the best at tricking outside the table.

Just thinking about it, Dartz reckoned that the attack of Osiris over there should be almost over, so he closed his eyes and tried to explore the situation in the stone room with his consciousness again.

Then he froze.

He found that Yuei Vu, and the big dragon god beside him had disappeared.

He couldn't find where Yuei Vu went.

Not to mention Dartz, even Yuei Vu himself didn't know where he was now.

He didn't know how long he had been unconscious. He only felt dimly conscious, as if he heard something calling himself. There was also something soft rubbing against his face.

Big, round, soft, and comfortable.

Yuei Vu opened his eyes in a daze. He saw the culprit at the first sight.

A fluffy and cute Kuriboh.

Kuri Kuri! Kuriboh said and flew to his face again.

Yuei Vu nodded. Although he didn't understand what it meant, he thought Kuriboh was right.

But why can I touch the Kuriboh?

Although he has always had the card of Kuriboh, after keeping it in his pocket for so long, Yuei Vu knew very well that there was no spirit in this card.

By the way, where is this place?

Yuei Vu sat up and found himself sitting on a piece of grass.

Beside him towered what was perhaps the tallest and strongest tree he had ever seen in his life. Its shadow hung over the ground like a dark cloud.

Surrounded by boundless grasslands and undulating mountains, the silhouettes of distant peaks were like raging waves.

The sky was a weirdly overcast gray, and there was a knife-like crack in the sky above it? It looked like the dark cloud was cut in half by someone.

The last picture in front of him before he fell into a coma quickly returned to Yuei Vu's mind.

He remembered the duel with Dartz had reached an end. He ordered Osiris, whose attack power was more than 10,000, to strike Dartz or Dartz's substitute for the final blow.

Originally, that blow should be enough to directly establish the victory, and he should have won the duel.

Could it be that that fellow Dartz played some tricks to trick me in the end?

It doesnt feel like

Kuri!

The Kuriboh suddenly yelled again and flew away from Yuei Vu.

Yuei Vu looked in that direction and finally saw other people besides himself.

It was a little loli with silver hair, with a petite figure. Her height was just over Yuei Vus waist. She had clear blue eyes, a small nose, and thin lips which were tightly closed.

She was wearing a somewhat retro outfit. A red hat was tilted on her tiny head.

The Kuriboh flew straight over and was hugged by the girls white and soft little hands. It lay obediently in her arms.

The girl blinked her big blue eyes innocently and looked at Yuei Vu curiously.

Yuei Vu felt a little embarrassed for a moment. He raised his hand: Uhhow are you?

The girl didnt speak but still looked at him like this.

Only by the words Favorability +1, +1, on her head that Yuei Vu be able to judge that the other party did not regard him as a dirty old man

Yuei Vu thought for a while, and asked the question that he cared most about first: Can you tell me, where is this place?

The girl tilted her head and thought for a while, but still didnt speak. However, her white and tender hands lightly stroked Kuribohs head, which gave Yuei Vu the feeling of stroking a cat.

Kuriboh: Kuri Kuri!

Yuei Vu boldly guessed that perhaps Kuriboh had already answered his question just now. However, he was neither Yami Yugi nor AIBO, and he has never taken Kuriboh language class, so he has no clue what did the Kuriboh say

So he changed the question: Then can you tell me who you are?

The silver-haired loli still didnt speak. But Kuriboh spoke again: Kuri Kuri!

Yuei Vu:

He now felt like he has lost his way in a foreign country, and when he wanted to find a passerby to ask, he was blocked by the language barrier.

Whenever this happened, you would deeply realize the importance of mastering a foreign language

Fortunately, there was still someone around Yuei Vu to help.

Dark Magician Girl appeared out of nowhere, and fell asideit seemed to be a real entity.

She said, Master! I seem to know!

She looked like an elementary school student who raised her little hand excitedly when she heard the teacher ask a certain question in class and she happened to know the answer.

Ah? Do you know where this is?

Well I seem to know! Dark Magician Girl nodded, This seems to be the Duel Monsters Spirit World, the world where we Duel Monster Spirits live!

Chapter 285: Disappeared After Playing Cards

The war on Paradius Company has finally come to an end.

The duelists of Doma who stayed at the headquarters were eventually sealed as cannon fodder without accident. Some elites from the Industrial Illusions were also dragged away, but there were not many of them.

Although the players here picked up a lot of heads, the ones they sent by themselves were beyond the reach of ordinary people. If it weren't for the fact that they have resurrection and could not be sealed by The Seal of Orichalcos, then the death on their side would be much more than those on the other side

Within The Seal of Orichalcos, Valon had a friendship-breaking fist with Jonouchi, hurting each other, and finally, he was satisfied and went away contentedly.

As previously mentioned, Domas Three Swordsmen were all people with backstories, and Valon was no exception.

But it was also interesting to say how this man was picked by Dartz at a glance and appointed as one of the Doma Swordsmen since he was a child. The reason was simply that he was very good at fighting.

That's right, it didn't refer to playing cards, but the kind of playing that hit people with bricks in a physical sense.

Valon was an orphan since childhood. When he was very young, because the church he lived in was burned down by bullies, the young Valon ran angrily to seek revenge from those bullies.

The gangsters didn't realize the seriousness of the problem at all at the time. Of course, they didn't pay attention to the young Valon, and couldn't help laughing at the little kid.

You are seven years old, what can you do to us?

then

so they were all killed by Valon

After that, Valon, who beat up a few scumbags to death, was directly thrown into prison.

At that time, the eyes of all the prisoners in the cell lit up when they saw such a little kid coming in. They all crouched behind the iron bars of the prison and watched Valon, who was in shackles, being escorted in by the prison guards, with wretched smiles on their faces. It felt like watching a poor and helpless little sheep being thrown into a wolf pack.

Then Valon he beat the whole prison.

Then Dartz appeared.

Dartz took a fancy to Valon at a glance, and said, young man, you are so good at fighting since you were a child, and you must be good at playing cards.

So he held a card game version of the battle royale in the prison, and everyone could get a Duel Disk and a deck.

The soul of the person who lost the duel would be sealed, and only the one who won to the end could regain his freedom.

In the end, Valon lived up to his expectations, sealed everyone's souls and gained freedom, and took this opportunity to join Doma and become one of the Three Swordsmen under Dartz's command.

He thought that his whole life was the result of his own hard work and that he just met Dartz, the right guide, at the right time, but this was not the case.

In fact, from the very beginning, when his childhood church was burned down and he killed several bullies driven by the darkness in his heart, his life had already stepped into the track arranged by Dartz.

Because of that fire, it was Dartz who arranged for people to set it off from the very beginning.

Dartz burned down that church, erased Valon's only home, and even implicated all the innocent people in the church. All this was just to stimulate the darkness in Valon's heart and make him go through a confusing life in the first half of his life, then finally fell into Dartz's palm.

Exactly like Dartz started the war in Alister's hometown.

The country where Alister lived broke out without warning, and the chief culprit was Dartz. He killed the whole family of Alister and single-handedly planned the young Alister to see his younger brother die in front of his own eyes. He did not hesitate to drag the whole country into the flames of war and leave corpses everywhere, all just for Alister would eventually become his subordinate.

The same went for Rafael. This guy experienced a shipwreck when he was a child, and after losing everything, he threw himself into the darkness and followed Dartz's guidance. Little did he know that the shipwreck was originally planned by Dartz, the master behind the scenes who overshadowed the sky with his hands, summoned a storm and tsunami with spells, and let the tides swallow the ship that Rafael's family was on, making sure that Rafael was the only one who survived.

This was Dartz. A person in power who could do anything for the sake of his purpose, a man who had neither principles nor bottom line.

If he ever had humanity, he would have been buried with Atlantis 10,000 years ago.

After all, Doma's Three Swordsmen were all just used by him. Dartz single-handedly created their childhood tragedies, inspired the darkness in their hearts, shaped them into what he wanted, and cultivated them into his pawns.

But from a nature point of view, these three people were not really bad guys. At least until the end, everyone showed their inner bright side.

It was especially true for Rafael.

Here, Yami Yugi and Rafael had their final duel on the rooftop. The Duel King used a combination of Talk no Jutsu and flashbacks to whitewash Rafael. Finally, Rafael activated the spell card Soul Charge to revive any number of monsters in the graveyard, at the cost of receiving 500 points of damage for each summoned monster. (animation effect)

Rafael voluntarily lost all his remaining life points, resurrected all the monsters that he lost, along with his original goodness from the graveyard, and gave up the duel, even at the expense of his own soul.

However, at this moment, he succeeded in eradicating the darkness in his heart with his will, and surpassed The Seal of Orichalcos. In the end, his soul was not sucked away.

So far, Domas Three Swordsmen and the elite forces in Paradius Corporation have been completely wiped out.

President Kaiba watched the game with full concentration and even felt unsatisfied after watching the game. He couldn't help but slightly nod at Yugi, thinking to himself that this is indeed the man I recognize.

Then he turned around and suddenly realized

Um? Where is the other man whom I recognize?

Didn't he just follow behind?

At this moment, a figure appeared in the center of the rooftop. The blue-haired man in a white robe landed lightly in front of the three of them, with his hands behind his back.

Rafael was startled: Master Dartz!

Yuyu and Kaiba showed surprised expressions.

This guy is Dartz?

It really disappoints me, Rafael. He smiled slightly. But of course, this is also expected.

Master Dartz. Rafael stepped forward to say something, but Yugi stopped him with his hand.

The nameless Pharaoh, and Seto. Strictly speaking, this is the first time we have met. Dartz smiled, I am your enemy, the manipulator behind the Three Swordsmen of Doma.

In addition, there should be another Duel King here, but I have given him a special treat.

Kaiba's eyelids twitched. It was only then that Yugi realized that there was a missing person behind: Yuei Vu?

To be honest, there are indeed many surprises about that Duel King. Although I don't want to admit it, he does make me feel threatened.

Kaiba said with a sullen face, Where did you get him?

A place far away from here, Seto. Dartz chuckled, paused, and said, You just need to know that this threat has been ruled out by me. Yuei Vu is no longer my problem.

Dartz! Yami Yugi clenched his fists, How much sacrifice do you have to make to be satisfied?

Kaiba didn't speak for a moment, but his face was also terribly gloomy.

Dartz still held his hands behind his back and was very satisfied with the performance of the two of them.

Has Yuei Vu been solved by him?

In fact Dartz didnt know either.

However, this did not prevent him from boasting at first.

Anyway, you didnt need to pay taxes for bragging, and its also true that Yuei Vu played cards with him and suddenly disappeared after playing cards

With his hands behind his back, Dartz pretended to be in control and all according to his plan, while wondering where Yuei Vu had gone from the bottom of his heart. ..

Yuei Vu was always an uncertain variable to him, and now he didnt even know where he was going or what he was doing, which made Dartz feel a little uneasy.

But the plan that has been prepared for thousands of years has advanced to the current stage, and he had no way out, so he simply decided to speed up the progress.

You may think that you have found Domas heart, but in fact what you destroyed is just an empty shell. Dartz remained calm, My address has been sent to you, Seto. With your determination and fighting spirit, come to me.

Kaiba took out his mobile phone and took a look, and found that an address had indeed been marked on the mobile phone map.

He couldnt help but frown: What do you mean?

Dartz smiled but didnt reply, his figure dissipated like a gust of wind, and at the same time, his voice was fading away.

Come to me, Nameless Pharaoh, Seto. Im waiting for you.

Chapter 286: A Big Shot?

Duel Monsters Spirit World? Yuei Vu was stunned, Is it your world?

Hmm. The Dark Magician Girl said, It feels right!

But didnt you say that I cant come to the spirit world? Yuei Vu asked.

Yes, yes! The Dark Magician Girl nodded.

So why am I in here now?

have no idea!

Yuei Vu:

Well, I knew it was useless to ask her.

Looking at her big, white boobs, one should be able to imagine that she must know nothing. After all, God is fair. Every time the old man opens a window, he must close a door.

The spirit monster girl has such big breasts, are you envious?

Dont be envious, she tributed her brain to summon it.

But this was also good. Because she was very naive, Dark Magician Girl has always been very easy-going and obedient, obedient to her master, never thinking about anything or asking too much

But in this way, Yuei Vu also knew why the Kuriboh was also a spirit -this one was not the Kuriboh in his deck, but a wild one that lived in the Duel Monsters Spirit World.

Then he looked at the silver-haired little loli in front of him: Then are you a spirit too?

Theoretically speaking, since it was in the world of spirits, all residents here must be Duel Monsters Spirits. However, Yuei Vu really didn't have a deep impression of this little white-haired loli. He vaguely felt that he might have seen her before, but he couldn't remember which card she was

The girl nodded again.

He didn't know whether she was mute or unwilling to speak, but it looked like the only way she conveyed information seemed to be nodding and shaking her head.

A three-no loli no mouth, no heart, and no expression.

Kuri Kuri!

Kuriboh expressed his unique opinion again, then flew out of the loli girl's arms, and rubbed Yuei Vu's face affectionately.

Yuei Vu: ?

This felt kind of weird. It was obviously the first time he saw this Kuriboh, but it behaved so kindly that Yuei Vu even suspected that it might not be the reincarnation of the cat he raised in the previous life.

Could it be that the lethality of Charm 95 has surpassed species, and it is even effective against Kuribohs?

Then this was too strong. If this was the case, Yuei Vu feels that his handsomeness should be included in the category of superpowers

The Dark Magician Girl pouted on the side, a little unhappy.

Even I have never rubbed against my master like this!

Everyone is a spirit, obviously, I came first!

The silver-haired girl stepped forward, tugged at the corner of Yuei Vu's clothes, and pointed to the side.

Yuei Vu looked at her and seemed to understand a little bit.

Do you want me to follow you?

He couldn't understand the situation for the time being, but this girl didn't seem to have any bad intentions, and those who like Kuribohs must not be bad people, thus Yuei Vu decided to follow up first.

Besides, a white-haired loli who was not even 1.5 meters tall, how could she have evil intentions?

What did he have that could make her desire? His body?

Kuriboh seemed to have found a nice seat for itself. It lay comfortably on top of Yuei Vu's head, yelling Kuri Kuri, and simply stayed there.

The Dark Magician Girl followed Yuei Vu with a small staff in both hands and from time to time squinted at the fluffy little guy on the master's head.

so envious!

The silver-haired girl remained silent the whole time and just led the way silently.

They walked forward to the left for a while and then turned to the left. Gradually the prairie disappeared on both sides, and a lifeless valley appeared ahead.

The top of the valley revealed the only sliver of sky. But the sky was covered with thick gray clouds and looked lonely and forlorn. The scenery in the long valley was the same, which was boring and sad.

Halfway through the walk, Yuei Vu suddenly realized something was wrong.

Master, Dark Magician Girl hurriedly jumped forward from the end of the line, raised her staff to block in front of Yuei Vu, someone is coming!

Yeah, I noticed.

Yuei Vu frowned.

All kinds of shadows began to appear around, and one after the other, malicious eyes gathered over.

Black shadows gradually emerged from every corner, surrounding several people from all directions.

Looking carefully, Yuei Vu actually recognized many of them.

For example, Giant Red Seasnake, High Tide Gyojin, Blue-Winged Crown, Uraby, Horn Imp, etc., were all low-level Normies.

The leader was also a monster that Yuei Vu has fought against before Amphibian Beast. It was level 6 but had an attack power of 2400, which should be considered a relatively powerful monster among Normies.

But at this moment, the group of Normies seemed to be staring at him, each of them showed their fangs and looked fierce. Maybe in the eyes of this group of monsters, several people seemed to have become delicious dinner dishes.

The Dark Magician Girl carefully shielded her master behind her, while secretly assessing whether she could handle them all. Although she was stronger than most of the monsters in front of her in terms of attack power, but facing so many at the same time, and more importantly, she must protect the safety of her master. To be honest, the girl had no confidence.

However, today it seemed that she had no chance to perform.

The silver-haired little girl walked up to the group of beasts with a blank face and stopped in front of the lineup of monsters. Her petite body was in stark contrast to the tall and burly beasts.

However, those monsters with fangs and sharp claws were really scared. The girl took two steps forward, and the monsters at the front subconsciously took two steps back, and looked at each other.

Finally, it was unanimously decided that the most powerful among them, Amphibian Beast, would come forward first.

To be reasonable, although this monster was not considered a big shot among monsters, his attack power was as high as 2400, equivalent to the legendary Red-Eyes Black Dragon.

The Amphibian Beast came forward and roared at the silver-haired girl. The sound waves made the girl's silver hair fluttering in the wind, and the surrounding rocks seemed to be buzzing and mourning.

The girl's hair was flying, but her face was still expressionless, she just looked up at the roaring beast with her little head up, without even blinking her eyes.

Amphibian Beast roared and glared at her viciously. At first, he was still in the posture of swallowing her alive if he disagreed with her, but for some reason, his body became more and more cowardly, and finally, his neck retracted unconsciously, and his whole body seemed to soften.

Finally, it let out a loud growl like a stern word. After the roar, it turned away without saying a word, without even looking back.

His group of minions followed behind. Watching the elder brother run away, they were stunned for a while, then suddenly came to their senses, turned around, and ran away one by one, all of a sudden, without even a ghost left.

The silver-haired girl continued to lead the way, without moving her eyelids from the beginning to the end, as calmly as if nothing happened.

Yuei Vu couldn't help but look at her with admiration.

This loli is she a big shot in this world?

Chapter 287: Great Shogun Shien

After dispatching a group of monsters, Yuei Vu continued to follow behind the silver-haired girl, all the way through the valley without encountering any obstacles.

In fact, Duel Monsters Spirit World was not like a fairy tale kingdom, and not all spirits were naturally friendly to humans.

Like the spirit of Jinzo that appeared in the Yu-Gi-Oh GX animation, it wanted to capture the souls of students as sacrifices for his own resurrection certainly still through the way of playing cards.

So he lost to Yuki Judai in playing cards, not only failed to resurrect successfully, but also suffered an invincible Solemn Judgment during the duel, and was directly wiped out by a lightning bolt from the sky

So although there were many naturally friendly and kind spirits like Kuriboh and Dark Magician Girl, there were also many spirits who covet human souls and regard people as rations and nutrients.

Along the way, although Yuei Vu seemed to occasionally notice one or two unkind glances from the side from time to time, they were only fleeting.

It was as if the silver-haired girl exuded some kind of sacred and inviolable aura. After seeing her, all the monsters and spirits with malicious intentions weighed their own weight and finally chose to retreat silently.

This girl must have a lot of background!

Yuei Vu turned his head to the Dark Magician Girl: Can you roughly perceive her strength?

Dark Magician Girl shook her head: I can't. But I know she should be very powerful her magic power should be stronger than mine.

She bit her lip when she said that, as if a little unwilling.

Magic power? Yuei Vu was taken aback, So she is also a magician?

It should be. Dark Magician Girl nodded.

The journey was smooth, and Yuei Vu quickly guessed where the girl was going to take him.

Not long after walking, Yuei Vu raised his head, and at a glance, he saw the big evil golden eye faintly revealed behind the lead-like cloud in the sky not far away.

Yuei Vu instantly recognized what it was it was the evil god that appeared in Domino City for a moment but was immediately repelled by the legendary dragon Timaeus controlled by Yugi.

That was the eye of the God of Orichalcos.

Yuei Vu seemed to have guessed something suddenly. He asked the girl in front, Do you want me to go over there and help kill that thing?

The silver-haired girl hesitated for a moment, then nodded slightly.

Ah, I see! The Dark Magician Girl suddenly thought of something, Master, the reason why you came to this world is also because of the influence of that thing!

She pointed to the eye in the sky: That evil thing simultaneously shook the foundation of our world and Masters world, and affected the barriers between the worlds, so you can come to this world.

Yuei Vu turned his head and asked the silver-haired girl: Is that so?

Although he didn't even know the other party's name, Yuei Vu instinctively felt that this loli might be more reliable than his magician girl

The girl tilted her head and thought for a while, then nodded with some hesitation.

That's true, but not entirely true.

A hoarse and forceful male voice sounded in front of them.

The combat boots landed on the ground, and standing in front of them was a general in heavy armor with a long knife hanging from his waist. His armor was an ominous dark red, his eyes were as red as blood, and there was a dark aura lingering all over his body.

The general stood in the way of several people, looked directly at Yuei Vu, and said indifferently: But why you came here instead of other people, maybe this is fate.

This person's courage was completely different from the monster spirits he encountered along the way, obviously not at the same level.

The silver-haired girl who had maintained a paralyzed face the whole time also changed slightly. She took a step forward and stopped in front of Yuei Vu, confronting the general in red armor with a tattoo.

The general looked down at her and sneered disdainfully.

This one really looked quite different from the art styles of those Normies he met before.

The girl bit her lip, but she still didn't give in.

But Yuei Vu took the initiative to come forward: It's okay.

Yuei Vu really didn't remember the loli, but he recognized the general's image at a glance.

Yuei Vu narrowed his eyes: You are Shien, right?

The general showed surprise: You know me?

Great Shogun Shien, a famous old card in Yu-Gi-Oh. It belonged to the Six Samurai series.

Yuei Vu had never seen this card or the Six Samurai series in the outside world, but he never expected to see the man himself in the Duel Monsters Spirit World.

And this was also the first spirit that Yuei Vu has finally met since he came to this world and was willing to speak.

You're right, but not entirely.

Shien did not answer directly. He was silent for a moment, and said: Since you came here from the temple of the evil god, you must have known about the war ten thousand years ago, right?

Yuei Vu knew that The Temple of the Evil God probably refers to Domas headquarters. He nodded: I know.

Thousands of years ago, the human named Dartz colluded with the evil god to destroy the world. But his father led a group of brave men who resisted him and opened the gate of the Duel Monsters Spirit World, releasing three legendary dragons and many other dueling monster spirits to fight to the death with the evil god.

In the end, although the evil god was defeated, the Duel Monsters Spirit World also paid a heavy price. Three legendary dragons fell into a deep sleep, and the vitality of the spirit world was also seriously injured.

But the evil god hasn't been defeated yet, it's just dormant in the dark, waiting for the time to come back, stronger than ever.

He pointed to the evil eye in the sky.

Look! That's the eye of the evil god! Now it has eroded into this world, devouring the world with its evil power all the time. How long will it take? No one knows, but sooner or later, it should also appear in the world where you humans live.

Yuei Vu asked: So, did you call me to this world to help you solve that big eye?

He remembered that in the animation, two Yugis went to the world of spirits in this way. At that time, it was the Dark Magician Girl spirit in their hands who asked them for help.

As he spoke, Yuei Vu turned his gaze to the silver-haired girl. After all, the first spirit he saw after waking up was her, so Yuei Vu visually judged that the NPC who gave him this mission was most likely to be her.

Kuriboh: Kuri Kuri!

Oh right? Technically the first spirit he saw was the Kuriboh.

But Kuriboh didnt look like an NPC who could give a mission

The silver-haired girl shook her head, expressing that it was none of her business.

No one called you, human warrior. You come to this world because you are guided by fate. Shien said.

Yuei Vu: ?

As I said, 10,000 years ago, Dartz's father opened the door to the Duel Monsters Spirit World and established a connection between the two worlds. A war broke out between the two sides, the monster spirits and the god of Orichalcos.

And today, 10,000 years later, the god of Orichalcos has revived, and the three legendary dragons have also awakened. The great war of 10,000 years ago is about to be continued, and the door that was once closed will also be unsealed

Yuei Vu thought of the large number of dueling monsters that were sealed everywhere in the entire temple from the ceiling to the wall to the floor when he fought with Dartz and suddenly thought of something.

You mean, that door is in the room where Dartz and I dueled?

During your duel, there must have been extremely powerful energy, and that force hit the barrier between the two worlds that were already on the verge of unblocking, so you were sucked into the spirit world.

But now, if you want to go back to your world, the only way is to defeat the evil gods who invaded this world.

The extremely powerful energy generated during the duel, Yuei Vu immediately thought of the Superconducting Wave Thunder Cannon blasted out by the Osiris he controlled at the last moment.

So the one who was responsible was the sky dragon?

Maybe it's a coincidence, or maybe it's the inevitability of fate. Shien said, The human duelist who appeared here just when the spirit world needed it most, maybe you can really help us defeat the evil god and save the two worlds.

It seems that the God of Orichalcos was smeared by Timaeus last time, and his condition was not very good after that. He was hiding in the spirit world to absorb nutrients and recharge his batteries.

Yuei Vu thought if he closed the door and released the sky dragon right now maybe he could skip the card-playing process and solve the evil god before he woke up?

Seems like its not impossible

Then the problem came.

What was this general doing here?

Shien said indifferently: I havent seen human warriors for many years, and I dont know how strong the strong among human beings are today.

Before you pass here, You must first prove that you have this qualification.

If you lose, your soul will become my nourishment. And if you win, I am willing to be your servant.

As he spoke, a mass of black air swirled around, and a red Duel Disk appeared on the arm of the great general.

Prove yourself to me through the samurais sacred ritual, warrior of mankind!

Yuei Vu:

A duel speaks louder than a thousand words indeed

He guessed blindly that the General might be exhausted from not being able to find a comparable player for too long, and he couldnt supress his card addict if he saw someone wearing a Duel Disk on the road

After all, this was the world of Yu-Gi-Oh.

Not to mention the dueling monster spirits, even if Sadako got out of the TV in the middle of the night, grabbed a Duel Disk, and insisted on pestering you to play cards, it might not be so strange

Chapter 288: Attacking Samurai

Duel! x2

Yuei Vu, LP 4000

Shien, LP 4000

Ill go first, draw! Yuei Vu took the initiative here, Summon Elemental HERO Clayman in defense position!

The monster card was projected horizontally on the ground, and the clay hero with a solid body emerges from the card, arms crossed in a defensive posture.

[Elemental HERO Clayman, DEF 2000]

Set a card, I end my turn.

Yuei Vu finished the operation and looked at the heavily armored Shogun in front of him.

Since the opponent was the Great Shogun Shien, the deck he used must be

My turn, draw!

The Shogun drew a cardYuei Vu was still wondering how the Duel Disk was put on his thick armor.

He glanced at the card he had drawn, and inserted it into the Duel Disk without thinking:
Continuous Spell Card Six Samurai United!

Sure enough, it was completely unsurprising that it was a deck from the Six Samurai series.

Most of the prototypes of the monsters in the Six Samurai series come from the characters of the Sengoku period, and some monsters were a combination of the characteristics of many famous warriors in history. The Spell and Trap cards of this series were all related to historical allusions, the art of war, or legendary artifacts. It used to be a very distinctive and popular deck.

Shiens operation continued, and he revealed a monster card in his hand: Then I summon The Six Samurai Nisashi in attack position!

The Six Samurai Nisashi was a samurai wearing green armor and holding two swords. Its prototype was said to be the famous Miyamoto Musashi, known as the Sword Master.

[The Six Samurai Nisashi, attack power 1400]

At this moment, Six Samurai Uniteds effect is activated! Shien said, Every time a Six Samurai monster is summoned, I can place a Bushido Counter on this card!

Then I special summon from my hand Grandmaster of the Six Samurai!

The white-haired old man in black appeared on the field. He was one-eyed, with a big beard and a black sword in both hands, revealing an inviolable murderous look in his only one eye.

[Grandmaster of the Six Samurai, ATK 2100]

Dark Magician Girl covered her mouth: A Level 5 monster that can be summoned directly Grandmaster of the Six Samurai can be special summoned from the hand when there is a Six Samurai monster on my field. Shien said lightly, Then at this moment, the Bushido Counters on the Six Samurai United increased to two.

Then the follow-up effect of Six Samurai United was activated. Send this card to the graveyard, and I draw cards with the same number as the counters from the deck.

Shien sent the Spell Card to the GY: Because there are two counters on it, I draw two cards from the deck.

Adding two cards to the hand, followed by a wave of the Great Shoguns arm, the heavy armor made a rustling sound of metal friction, and that posture looked like drawing a sword out of its sheath on the battlefield and commanding thousands of troops to launch fierce battles.

Battle! Grandmaster of the Six Samurai, attack Clayman!

The one-eyed old man flew out, leaving an arc of light with the pitch-black knife, and slashed the clay heros body with great determination. The latter snorted softly and exploded with a bang.

Next is The Six Samurai Nisashi. Shien continued to order, Attack directly!

The samurai of the two-sword style flashed forward with agile steps, the two swords interlaced, leaving two green sword lights in the air, and went straight toward Yuei Vus face.

Of course, Yuei Vu also has countermeasures: Trap Card Counter Gate! When an opponents monster declares a direct attack: Negate the attack, and then I can draw a card from the deck!

A rectangular blue barrier appeared in front of Yuei Vu, blocking the warriors sword light. Yuei Vu took advantage of the situation to draw a card from the deck and take a look at it. It was a Pot of Greed.

Hmph, so you can block an attack of this level? But the determination of a warrior should be more than this. Shien waved his arm, and the armor rustled again, The effect of The Six Samurai Nisashi!

While I control a face-up Six Samurai monster with a different name, this card can attack twice during each Battle Phase!

Dark Magician Girl: A samurai who can attack continuously!

Nisashi, let them see your two-sword style! Shien raised his voice, Attack directly!

The green warriors of the Six Samurai flew forward again. This time, there was no barrier to block the attack anymore, and the sword light staggered and fell from Yuei Vus body. At the same time, it took away a lot of life.

Yuei Vu, LP 4000 LP 2600

Yuei Vu gritted his teeth.

It was not an illusion. The moment the blade cut across his body, he really felt the sensation of the cold blade cutting through flesh. The pain spread violently with the passing of the life value, just like a Shadow Game.

The battle in this world is not a joke. If you hold a half-hearted mentality, you may die.

Shiens tone was calm as if he was describing a trivial matter that couldnt be more ordinary.

Set a card, I end my turn.

It seemed that because this was the spirit world, the damage of the duel also had a real impact.

But Yuei Vu didnt shrink back because of this. After all, he has played life-betting cards more than once or twice.

My turn, draw! Of course, Yuei Vu played the card drawn by the trap effect without hesitation, Spell Card Pot of Greed! Draw two more cards from the deck.

Glancing at the cards in his hand, Yuei Vu quickly decided on his attack strategy.

Summon Elemental HERO Blazeman!

The hero in the fire-colored tights came to the field with a shout. With his arms open, the golden eyepiece reflected the burning flames.

[Elemental HERO Blazeman, ATK 1200]

The effect of Blazeman If this card is Normal or Special Summoned: I can add 1 Polymerization from my Deck to my hand. Yuei Vu took out the Spell Card from the deck, and then immediately inserted it into the Duel Disk, Activate Spell Card Polymerization!

I fuse Elemental HERO Blazeman with Elemental HERO Liquid Soldier on my hand!

The fusion condition is 1 Elemental HERO monster + 1 FIRE monster!

Fusion Summon! Elemental HERO Nova Master!

The two heroes turned into flames and streams of water, met in mid-air, and finally turned into pillars of fire that soared to the sky and crashed to the ground. The hero in the red gold armor fell on the field with flames all over his body, and the cloak fluttered behind him in the hot and twisted air.

[Elemental HERO Nova Master, ATK 2600]

Next is the effect of Elemental HERO Liquid Soldier! Yuei Vu raised his hand, If this card is used as Fusion Material for a HERO monster, and sent to the GY or banished: I can draw 2 cards, then discard 1 card.

Shien looked at the handsome hero with a fluttering cloak on Yuei Vu's field with some fascination and chuckled lightly.

A hero he muttered to himself, but the so-called hero does not only mean glory and wealth. How many people can understand the weight that the word hero needs to bear?

From my hand, activate the effect of Magicians Souls! Yuei Vu flipped out a card in his hand, can send 1 Level 6 or higher Spellcaster monster from your Deck to the GY, then Send this card to the GY to Special Summon 1 Dark Magician or 1 Dark Magician Girl from my GY.

I send Dark Magician from the deck to the GY, discard Magicians Souls, and the Dark Magician in the GY is resurrected!

The black vortex opened up, the green staff flew out, and the slender red-robed mage flew out amidst the magic power lingering like water. The staff twirled in mid-air and flew back to his hand lightly.

[Dark Magician, ATK 2500]

Dark Magician, the highest-level magician in an instant, two powerful monsters are summoned, forming a suppression. The Shogun narrowed his red eyes, and curled his mouth, Hmph, its interesting.

Chapter 289: I Summon Myself

Battle! Yuei Vu directly entered the Battle Phase, Elemental HERO Nova Master, attack The Six Samurai Nisashi!

Nova Masters palms blasted out flames, and the high-temperature energy enveloped the whole body of the two-sword warrior. The latter waved his blades in the air weakly, grunted, and was burned to ashes under the flames.

Shien, LP 4000 LP 2800

Because this was the spirit world, the attacks of monsters on Yuei Vu's side were also real. After the high-temperature flames burned the monster acting as a shield, the aftermath swept away Shien's body unabated.

However, the Great Shogun stood upright, facing the sweeping flames without blinking his eyes, and only calmly withstood the impact.

Huh, it doesn't hurt or itch. He said.

The effect of Nova Master If this card destroys an opponent's monster by battle, I can draw a card. Yuei Vu said, Then the battle continues! Dark Magician, attack Grandmaster of the Six Samurai!

The Dark Magician swung his staff through the air, and a torrent of magic power shot out through the air, galloping straight toward the one-eyed old man.

The old man's face was resolute and fearless, he only squinted one eye and raised his black long knife to prepare for the battle, his eyes seemed to regard death as returning home.

But his Shogun didn't intend to let him die. Shien snorted: It is indeed a powerful attack, but the strategy is still too tender!

Activate Trap Card! Six Style Dual Wield!

The red trap was flipped over, and what was drawn on the card was Nisashi who had just exited the stage, dancing skillfully with two knives in his hands.

Six Style Dual Wield can only be activated when there is only one Six Samurai in the attack position on my field. Target 2 cards the opponent controls; return those targets to the hand!

Dark Magician Girl exclaimed: R return the card back to the hand?

Kuriboh also made an angry gesture: Kuri Kuri!

The phantom of the Six Samurai Nisashi emerged from the trap card, with two knives interlaced in his hands, and the light of the knives easily separated the impact of magic power. With a flash of his figure, the sword light slashed continuously, and the hero of the flame and the senior magician were dazzled by the exquisite sword technique for a moment, and both were hit by the two-sword style.

Since Nova Master was a Fusion monster, he went straight back to the Extra Deck. The Dark Magician bounced back to Yuei Vu's hand.

In this way, your field will be empty, kid. Shien sneered, In this state, can you take over the attack of the Six Samurai in the next round?

Yuei Vu didn't reply, but silently drew two more cards from his hand.

Set two cards, I end my turn.

Hey, there's nothing we can do. Human fighters today are only at this level after all. Shien mocked in a flat tone.

The Dark Magician girl was a little angry and subconsciously clenched her small staff tightly.

Don't you dare to insult my master!

My turn, draw! First, I will also use Pot of Greed, and draw two more cards.

Seeing the card drawn this time, the Shogun obviously paused, and the corner of his mouth curled into a smile.

Yuei Vu naturally did not miss this detail.

Did you get any key cards?

Shien added the drawn cards to her hand.

I will activate the Continuous Spell Shien's Dojo!

The card was inserted into the Duel Disk, and the earth began to rumble and tremble. Houses rose from the ground. Several simple Sengoku-era buildings surrounded the site, forming an open dojo.

Shiens Dojo is also a Spell Card that can gain 1 Bushido Counter every time a Six Samurai monster is Normal or Special Summoned.

As he said that, Shien immediately revealed his next warrior.

Come out, my faithful samurai! Summon The Six Samurai Irou!

This time it is a samurai in black armor with long black flowing hair, wearing strips of black goggles. A black knife was carried on his shoulders.

The Six Samurai Irou, a samurai who was proficient in swordsmanship, whose prototype was the world-famous swordsman Sasaki Kojiro, whose secret technique was Turning Swallow Cut which was also made into a trap card of the Six Samurai series.

[The Six Samurai Irou, ATK 1700]

At this moment, a Bushido Counter is placed on Shiens Dojo.

Shien paused at this point and looked meaningfully at a card in his hand.

Finally the moment is coming. He closed his eyes lightly, and said lightly, Then once again, lets fight side by side with you.

When his eyes opened again, the scarlet eyes were already filled with a tyrannical frenzy, like an invisible aura spreading around the Shogun.

Yuei Vu vaguely realized something was wrong. Out of caution, he immediately activated the set card: Trap Card Magician Navigation! Special Summon 1 Dark Magician from my hand, then Special Summon 1 Level 7 or lower DARK Spellcaster monster from my Deck!

I special summon two Dark Magician, one from my hand and one from my deck!

The pitch-black magic circle opened. Two shadows in red robes flew out one after another. One left and one right, they Crossed staff, blocked in front of Yuei Vu.

[Dark Magician, ATK 2500] x2

Shien didnt take it seriously, and slowly drew out a card from his hand, turning his back to Yuei Vu.

When there are two or more Six Samurai monsters on my field, this card can be special summoned from the hand. He held up the card high, Its coming! Im here to special summon myself

Great Shogun Shien!

Yuei Vu:

Although it was somewhat expected, seeing this scene with my own eyes, I still felt that it was a bit contrary.

Its okay for me to summon myself

Shogun: Dont stop me, Im going to play cards in person!

As the card was slapped on the Duel Disk, an energy storm visible to the naked eye also erupted. The Shogun in red armor landed on the field mighty and heavy, holding a long knife in his hand. The moment he landed, a domineering king seemed to rule the audience, even the two top magicians on Yuei Vus side seemed to be suppressed up.

[Great Shogun Shien, ATK 2500]

Finally, the Shogun himself went into battle. It looked like a clone of the main body.

Most of the monsters of the Six Samurai series were based on famous warriors and historical figures, and Shien, who was the commander-in-chief, was no exception.

The prototype of the Great Shogun Shien was Oda Nobunaga, known as one of the three Great Unifiers of the Sengoku period and was famous with the epithet Sixth Demon King.

Yuei Vu already felt it the first time he saw this monster appear.

This spirit is very powerful!

But his attack power is only 2500! The Dark Magician girl tried to cheer up her master, Its only on par with my teacher

The girl unintentionally stuck a big death flag on the head of her teacher.

Shien sneered and inserted the next card into the Duel Disk.

Continuous Spell Card The A. Forces! The Spell Card appeared beside Shien, All Warrior-Type monsters I control gain 200 ATK for each Warrior or Spellcaster-Type monster I control.

There are three Warrior monsters on my field, so the attack power of each one is increased by 600 points.

[Great Shogun Shien, ATK 2500 ATK 3100]

[The Six Samurai Irou, ATK 1700 ATK 2300]

[Grandmaster of the Six Samurai, ATK 2100 ATK 2700]

Ah! Dark Magician girl said, The attack power exceeds

A mere magician cant stop a samurai at all. Shien waved his hand, Battle! Grandmaster of the Six Samurai, attack the first Dark Magician!

The one-eyed old man flew up, and the blade cut through the air, cutting the red-robed mage into two with one blow, and exploded with a bang.

Yuei Vu, LP 2600 LP 2400

Its really a short and boring duel. Shien shook his head, a little disappointed, After such a long time, is the first human warrior I meet so weak?

Next is my own avatar, Great Shogun Shien. Attack the second Dark Magician!

The Shogun made a gesture of drawing his sword, stabbed forward, and rushed forward with a jet-black trail behind him. The unsheathed sword swept toward the Dark Magician domineeringly with unparalleled momentum.

If this attack was successful, there would be nothing left on Yuei Vus field. And there was still one monster left on Shiens side that hasnt attacked The Six Samurai Irou. If this combo worked, Shien would achieve victory!

However, it was obviously impossible for Yuei Vu to end this easily: Activate Trap Card Impenetrable Attack! During the Battle Phase, I can choose to activate 1 of these effects: Making 1 monster on the field unable to be destroyed by battle or by card effects during this Battle Phase, or I take no battle damage during this Battle Phase.

Yuei Vu pointed to the Dark Magician on the field.

I choose to protect the Dark Magician from being destroyed.

A transparent energy shield appeared in front of the magician, and Shien's saber slammed heavily on the transparent shield, the burst of energy splashed like sparks, but failed to penetrate the shield.

Have you made it through? Yes, in this way it won't be too boring. Shien said lightly, But even if Dark Magician can't be destroyed, you still have to take the damage.

Yuei Vu, LP 2400 LP 1800

Irou's attack power is lower than that of the Dark Magician, so my Battle Phase is over. Shien said, Set two cards, I end my turn.

Chapter 290: Being Seduced By Good Wine

After finishing this round of operations, Shien looked at Yuei Vu coldly.

As long as the Great Shogun Shien exists on the field, can only activate 1 Spell/Trap Card each turn. He said in a deep voice, Could it be that you already know this effect, so you activated Magician Navigation before I summoned myself?

The interference effect of Great Shogun Shien would only take effect after he himself was summoned to the field. If Yuei Vu hadn't activated Magician Navigation before he appeared on the stage this turn, then he would no longer be able to use Impenetrable Attack to protect his Dark Magician from being destroyed.

Yuei Vu smiled mysteriously: Who knows?

Shien didn't pursue it, just snorted and said, Interesting.

Although he survived this turn, the situation on Yuei Vu's side remained unchanged. As long as Great Shogun Shien existed, each turn he still only had one chance to use Spell or Trap Card. This interference ability was quite troublesome in the early stage.

But Yuei Vu already had countermeasures.

My turn, draw! Yuei Vu didn't hesitate to use up the chance to use magic this time, Quick-Play Spell Forbidden Chalice! Until the end of this turn, negate the effect of a monster on the field, and it gains 400 ATK!

The golden holy grail appeared in front of the Shogun on the field. He didn't know what was in the cup, but the Shogun just glanced at it and sniffed it, and immediately fell into it, unable to extricate himself, grabbed the cup, and drank the unknown liquid.

and so the man wilted away.

[Great Shogun Shien, ATK 3100 ATK 3500]

Seeing that his avatar was lost to temptation, Shien himself, who was holding the cards, seemed to feel that his old face was a bit uneasy, so he snorted to cover up his embarrassment.

In this way, the effect of Great Shogun Shien will be invalidated, and the restriction on using Spell Cards will be lifted. Yuei Vu said.

But as a price, the attack power of Great Shogun Shien has also been further strengthened. Shien raised his voice, With an attack power of 3500, there are only a handful of monsters that can defeat me!

After all, it was an attack power that even the legendary Blue-Eyes White Dragon couldn't compare. Shien felt that he was invincible now. Looking at the entire world of dueling monsters, there were only a few who could rival him now!

Yuei Vu ignored it: I summon Elemental HERO Sparkman in attack position!

The hero in golden armor and blue tights came to the field, surrounded by countless electric snakes.

[Elemental HERO Sparkman, ATK 1600]

Shien said indifferently: What can this kind of monster do?

I first set a card on the field, and then activate a Spell Card from the hand Card of Sanctity. Yuei Vu showed this replenishment card that he hadn't seen for a long time, Each player draws until they have 6 cards in their hand.

Shien drew cards and said, Are you pinning your hope of counterattack on the next card draw?

Battle! Yuei Vu waved his hand, Dark Magician, attack The Six Samurai Irou! Dark Magic Attack!

The Dark Magician dexterously turned the staff a few times, leaving magic trails in the air. The pitch-black torrent pierced through the air and hit the body of Irou. Although the latter tried his best to resist with the special skill Turning Swallow Cut, he lost to such a high-end spell and exited tragically.

Shien, LP 2800 LP 2600

Yuei Vu pointed to the Continuous Spell Card The A. Forces on the opponents field, Because the number of warriors has decreased, the attack power of all monsters on your field will decrease.

[Great Shogun Shien, ATK 3500 ATK 3300]

Grandmaster of the Six Samurai, ATK 2700 ATK 2500

Shien disdained: Even so, that's not something your monsters can defeat.

Quick-Play Spell Dedication through Light and Darkness! This special transformation magic for Dark Magicians appeared in front of Yuei Vu, Tribute 1 Dark Magician on my field, Special Summon the ultimate magician who controls the power of chaos from the deck!

Come, Dark Magician of Chaos!

The dark magic power absorbed the Dark Magician. A magic circle with a burning brazier opened on the ground. A body in a pitch-black costume leaps out of it, holding a staff. Magic power rippled all over his body, burning like a pitch-black flame against his body.

[Dark Magician of Chaos, ATK 2800]

Dark Magician of Chaos! Yuei Vu aimed at the one-eyed master of the Six Samurai, Attack Grandmaster of the Six Samurai! Spell of Destruction!

The magicians staff began to condense majestic power. It transformed into a chaotic sphere, dragging the turbulent black lightning out of the air. The one-eyed old man was not afraid of death, and he bravely raised his long knife and rushed towards the torrent of magic power, and was soon smashed into pieces by being sucked into it.

Shien, LP 2600 LP 2300

Monsters destroyed by the Dark Magician of Chaos will be banished.

Then due to the effect of The A. Forces Yuei Vu continued, After losing all your subordinates, the attack power of Great Shogun Shien has further declined!

[Great Shogun Shien, ATK 3300 ATK 3100]

Along with the wind, the smoke screen of the magic explosion gently brushed over the Shoguns face. He raised his beard lightly and said calmly: As a Shogun, sometimes even if there is only one person left, he must fight to the end.

Its clearly just playing cards, but it looked like the Shogun thought of some past events when he witnessed this situation. However, Yuei Vu didnt intend to listen to his memories.

Quick-Play Spell Mask Change! The Spell Card appeared in front of Yuei Vu, Send 1 HERO monster I control to the Graveyard, then Special Summon 1 Masked HERO monster from my Extra Deck with the same Attribute.

I send the Elemental HERO Sparkman to the GY and transform him!

Masked HERO Koga!

Electricity overflowed from Sparkmans whole body, and golden light covered him. With the dazzling special effects, it transformed into a close-fitting armor and a sharp golden blade. Sparkman has transformed into a powerful Masked HERO of Light in the blink of an eye.

[Masked HERO Koga, ATK 2500]

Masked HERO, Shien narrowed his eyes, Is this your trump card?

Yuei Vu: Koga will gain 500 ATK for each monster the opponent controls.

[Masked HERO Koga, ATK 2500 ATK 3000]

Shien said: But its still a little short of defeating me.

The effect of Masked HERO Koga! Yuei Vu raised his hand, Once per turn, during either players turn: I can banish 1 HERO monster from my Graveyard, then target 1 face-up monster on the field; that target loses ATK equal to the ATK of the monster banished to activate this effect, until the end of this turn!

The GY area of the Duel Disk lit up with a golden light, and a monster card popped out from it.

Banish Elemental HERO Sparkman from the game, Yuei Vu said, Until the end of the round, the attack power of Great Shogun Shien will drop by 1600 points!

Sparkman who had already left the scene emerged as a phantom, dragged the electric current all over his body, and sprinted to the top of the Shogun in the opposite monster zone. The electric current violently crackled and exploded on the Shoguns armor, the Shogun let out a low hum, and his strength was weakened accordingly.

[Great Shogun Shien, ATK 3100 ATK 1500]

Shien was not angry either. Seeing that his avatars strength was weakened, he actually showed a slight smile of approval: Hm, you have talents.

Masked HERO Koga, attack the Great Shogun Shien!

Koga rushed out, his figure turned into a phantom and instantly appeared beside Shien. The golden knife slashed past, and the Shogun wanted to raise the knife to defend himself, but under the influence of the current, it was too weakened and powerless and was only cut into two sections by one knife.

Shien, LP 2300 LP 800

Yuei Vu ended the battle: This is the end of my turn. Then at the End Phase, the effect of the Dark Magician of Chaos is activated, and I can recover a Spell Card in the graveyard to my hand.

A golden light flashed in Yuei Vudes GY area, and the Spell Card popped up. He took the card back into his hand and showed it to the other party.

What I want to take back is the Forbidden Chalice.

Shien pouted: Hmph, its that troublesome spell card again.

While talking, the Shogun seemed to think of his avatar being seduced by good wine and not doing his job properly and felt a little embarrassed for a while
