

I Play Yu-Gi 291

Chapter 291: Six Strike - Triple Impact

With only 800 LP left, the situation on the field was also at a disadvantage. But the veteran Shogun didn't panic at all. On the contrary, he felt a little excited?

He couldn't remember clearly, when was the last time he fought against someone like this with all his strength.

Too many years and too many things happened, and he has almost forgotten this kind of excitement.

The purple-red pupils seemed to be on fire, and the aura of the whole person changed, with black and invisible flames swaying around his body.

Very good. He said in a deep voice, Being able to defeat me and my warriors in the ceremony, you have proved your strength, human warrior.

But that's all! The word defeat is not in my dictionary. Although it is exciting, this duel will still be my victory!

The Shogun raised the Duel Disk and drew the card as if he was standing at the forefront of thousands of troops, ready to take the lead and draw his sword out of its sheath.

My turn, draw!

Shien pulled out the card vigorously, and the invisible power burst out at that moment as if leaving a black wave in the air.

First of all, I want to use this Spell Card again! The card appeared in front of Shien, Continuous Spell Card Six Samurai United! Whenever a Six Samurai monster is summoned, place a Bushido Counter on this card.

Then open the set card: Trap Card Return of the Six Samurai! Target 1 Six Samurai monster in my GY; Special Summon that target!

A wave of darkness was released from the Duel Disks GY area, and a card was ejected from it and flew into Shien's hand in a whirl.

Resurrect from the underworld, The Six Samurai Irou!

The darkness erupted like a wave, and the warrior in black returned to the field half-kneeling, on one knee, with a long knife in his hand.

[The Six Samurai Irou, ATK 1700 ATK 1900] (enhanced by the effect of The A. Forces)

At this moment, open the set card! A set card was also flipped at Yuei Vu's feet, Trap Card Dark Renewal!

The trap was opened, and a strange black mist rose from the ground, and the red coffin slowly rose from the black mist.

This trap can only be activated when the opponent Normal or Special Summons 1 or more monsters, Yuei Vu said, Use one of the monsters summoned by the opponent and 1 Spellcaster monster on my field as sacrifices, send both monsters to the GY to Special Summon 1 DARK Spellcaster monster from my Deck or GY!

I will sacrifice the The Six Samurai Irou you summoned and the Dark Magician of Chaos on my field, and resurrect the Dark Magician from the graveyard in the defense position!

As soon as the warrior in black returned to the field, he was captured by invisible magic power. It seemed to be tightly held by invisible hands. The Dark Magician of Chaos and the warrior turned into beams of light respectively and flew into the coffin on the ground.

Bloody mist erupted, and a beam of black light burst out from the coffin. The mage in the red robe fell back to the ground with a vertical leap.

[Dark Magician, DEF 2100]

The Dark Magician Girl blinked her eyes aside, with a big question mark on her little head.

Why does Master want to sacrifice the more powerful Dark Magician of Chaos? To call back the teachers appearance before his transformation?

Hm, then Ill normal summon Chamberlain of the Six Samurai in attack position!

What appeared on the stage was a scarred warrior wearing mechanical prosthetics instead of two severed arms. But the robotic arm was still clutching a sharp long knife.

[Chamberlain of the Six Samurai, ATK 200 ATK 400] (enhanced by the effect of The A. Forces)

Next, when there is a Six Samurai monster on the field, the Grandmaster of the Six Samurai can be Special Summoned from the hand!

The second Grandmaster was placed on the Duel Disk, and the one-eyed old man who had just left the stage returned to the stage again with a horizontal sword in his chest.

Grandmaster of the Six Samurai, ATK 2100 ATK 2500

Its not over, and because there are two Six Samurai on the field, I will special summon myself from the hand again

Great Shogun Shien!

A scarlet storm rolled up between the venues, and the Shogun in red armor returned to the venue, with a chilling air, as if returning from the underworld.

Yuei Vu:

Why dont you play your cards according to the routine? In the anime, doesnt everyone carry only one soul card by default?

You . you actually stuffed a second copy of yourself in the deck?

Great Shogun Shien, ATK 2500 ATK 3100

[Chamberlain of the Six Samurai, ATK 400 ATK 800]

[Grandmaster of the Six Samurai, ATK 2500 ATK 2700]

Tootoo strong. The Dark Magician Girl on the side exclaimed.

At the same time, she was feeling a little depressed.

When will my dueling skills be as good as his?

I feel stupid every time I fight with my master. I was instantly killed without even having a chance to play a few cards.

I always feel that the master has not started, yet I cant bear his full length. I have always felt guilty

Restored this luxurious lineup, Shien glanced at the shining Masked HERO on Yuei Vus field and snorted.

By banishing the monsters in the GY, he can reduce the opponents attack power. He is indeed a very powerful and troublesome hero. If I attack rashly, I can be defeated

Not bad. Yuei Vu said lightly, Because of the increase in the number of your monsters, Kogas attack power has also increased.

[Masked HERO Koga, ATK 2500 ATK 4000]

The Dark Magician Girl clenched her small fists: If the attack power is 4000, its not so easy to defeat!

After all, Kogas attack power is about equal to twice mine now!

It is indeed a very powerful hero. Shien said, but a duel is a strategic competition between the two sides. The competition is not only about the strength of the subordinates but also the strategy of the commander. As long as the commander who is the backbone falls, no matter how strong your fighters are, they provide no threat.

As he said that, he waved his arm and activated the Continuous Spell Card on his field.

I send the Continuous Spell Card Shiens Dojo to the graveyard to activate its effect! From my deck, Special Summon 1 Six Samurai or Shien Effect Monster, whose Level is less than or equal to the number of Bushido Counters placed on this card!

The effect of Shiens Dojo will place 1 Bushido Counter every time Six Samurai monsters are summoned, Yuei Vu said, then there are a total of three Bushido Counters placed on this card now.

Thats right, so I can special summon a Six Samurai monster whose level is 3 or lower from the deck.

Shien sent the Spell Card to the GY, and the surrounding buildings immediately sank to the ground with rumbling noises. The dojo gave out a low roar, and the surging energy interweaved in the center of the open space, calling for new warriors to come.

Come on, my most loyal warrior! Shien pulled out the warrior he wanted to call, The Six Samurai Yariza!

The one who was summoned from the dojo was a warrior in blue and black armor holding a long spear. The black rope at the end of the gun handle was connected to the armor around his waist.

[The Six Samurai Yariza, ATK 1000]

The Six Samurai Yariza, whose prototype was Maeda Toshiie, a famous military Shogun in the Sengoku period, a retainer of the Oda family, known as Yari no Mataza.

At this moment, there are three Six Samurai monsters on my field. Shien said, holding up a card in his hand, Let me show you the real power of the Six Samurai!

Activate the Spell Card from the hand: Six Strike Triple Impact!

This card can only be activated by selecting one of the three effects when there are 3 or more face-up Six Samurai monsters on my field: Destroy all face-up monsters on the opponents field; Destroy all face-up Spell/Trap Cards on the opponents field; or Destroy all set Spell/Trap Cards on the opponents field.

Shien narrowed his eyes, and his sharp eyes fell straight on the Masked HERO Koga whose attack power was now as high as 4500.

First of all, of course, we have to get rid of that troublesome hero, he waved his arm, The effect I chose is to destroy all the monsters on the opponents field!

As the card was inserted, the Spell Card emerged, and the three warriors of the Six Samurai formed a special formation, and launched a devastating charge toward Yuei Vu's field from different angles!

If this blow was successful, Yuei Vu's field would be directly cleared, and it was equal to his whole body being exposed naked in front of the four warriors!

Of course, Yuei Vu would not let this happen, he waved his arm: Activate the Trap Card from the GY Magician Navigation!

Shien was startled: Activate trap card in the GY?

A black vortex opened up on the ground, and trap cards swirled out from the GY. They burned all their strength in mid-air and opened up a huge magic circle barrier.

Magician Navigation can only be activated from GY when there is a Dark Magician on my field! Yuei Vu said, I can banish this card from your GY, then target 1 face-up Spell/Trap the opponent controls; negate its effects until the end of this turn!

I will negate the effect of your Six Strike Triple Impact!

The three soldiers of the Six Samurai rushed forward aggressively, only to see the Dark Magician sweep his staff, and the huge magic circle immediately blocked their way. Their saber light only splashed the slightest sparks on the magic circle, completely unable to shake its defense.

Helpless, the three warriors had no choice but to return in vain and bowed themselves in front of the Shogun apologetically to plead guilty.

I see That's why you sacrificed the more powerful Dark Magician of Chaos to resurrect the Dark Magician. Even this move was blocked You are really good, I haven't seen such an excellent fighter like you for a long time, Shien nodded approvingly, But it's not over yet! Enter the Battle Phase!

Im going to attack with The Six Samurai Yariza!

The samurai in blue armor received the Shogun's order without hesitation, and rushed out like a wild horse!

Eh? Attack with the monster with the lowest attack power? The Dark Magician Girl was surprised.

Yuei Vu frowned: This guy's special ability

Before the words fell, the blue warrior had already performed a strange movement technique, and disappeared out of thin air like a ghost!

That's right, The Six Samurai Yariza is a warrior with special abilities! When there are other Six Samurai on his side, he can directly attack the opposing player!

Shien said, sneered, and waved his finger to the Continuous Spell Card that was taking effect beside him.

Then there is the effect of The A. Forces, you have not forgotten it, have you?

All Warrior-Type monsters you control gain 200 ATK for each Warrior or Spellcaster-Type monster you control. Yuei Vu frowned.

That's right. I have four Warriors on the field, so the attack power of Yariza increased by 800!

[The Six Samurai Yariza, ATK 1000 ATK 1800]

Yuei Vu, LP 1800

Oops Oh crap! The Dark Magician Girl yelled, If this comes to pass, the masters LP will

Yuei Vu didn't panic: The effect of Masked HERO Koga is activated! Banish Elemental HERO Liquid Soldier in the GY, and the attack power of The Six Samurai Yariza will drop by Liquid Soldiers ATK, which is 1400 points!

Masked HERO Koga let out a low cry, and swung his knife to slice. The phantom of Liquid Soldier emerged in mid-air, turning into a stream of water and impacting Yariza, who was launching a sneak attack behind him.

[The Six Samurai Yariza, ATK 1800 ATK 400]

The left side of Yariza swayed, and the thrown flying spear missed its aim, and only passed Yuei Vu's shoulder.

Yuei Vu, LP 1800 LP 1400

That's right, you can only do this, because this is the only way for you to survive Yariza's attack! Shien raised his voice and shouted, But in this way, the effect of this troublesome Masked HERO cannot be used anymore!

Next is myself, Great Shogun Shien! Attack Masked HERO Koga!

[Great Shogun Shien, ATK 3300]

[Masked HERO Koga, ATK 4500]

Using Shien, who has a lower attack power, does he really have a backup? Yuei Vu frowned.

Hmph, this is the level of arrangement that a commander should have. There will always be a backup! Shien shouted, Open the set card! Trap Card a trick!

Discard a monster card from your hand, until the end of the turn, the attack power of a monster on the field will be reduced by the discarded monster's attack power!

Shien showed a card in his hand and quickly threw it into the graveyard.

I discarded The Six Samurai Yaichi from my hand until the end of the round, and Koga's attack power decreased by Yaichi's attack power that is 1300 points!

[Masked HERO Koga, ATK 4500 ATK 3200]

Ah! The Dark Magician Girl exclaimed, The attack power has been overtaken

Great Shogun Shien drew his blade out of its sheath, and the pitch-black blade sliced through the heros golden armor. The latter let out a miserable grunt, and exploded with a bang.

Yuei Vu, LP 1400 LP 1300

Next is Grandmaster of the Six Samurai! Shien shouted, Attack the Dark Magician!

The Grandmaster of the Six Samurai who appeared second also avenged the previous one. The Dark Magician who took a defensive posture was no match for this grandmaster at all. The magic circle he used to defend himself was easily shattered, and he was also shattered under the blade.

The last is Chamberlain of the Six Samurai! Shien shouted, Attack directly!

[Chamberlain of the Six Samurai, ATK 1000]

The light of the knife flashed across Yuei Vus body. Yuei Vu swayed from the cold touch like a real blade piercing through his body and took half a step back.

Yuei Vu, LP 1300 LP 300

In this way, all my attacks will be over. Unfortunately, there is no way to completely reduce your LP to 0, but

Shien drew the last two cards from his hand.

First, Ill set this card, and then activate the Spell Card Card Destruction! Both players discard all the cards in their hands, and then draw the same number.

After a pause, Shien snorted.

Of course, I dont have any cards in my hand, so I wont be affected. But the troublesome Forbidden Chalice you got back in your hand last turn? Please discard it for me.

Yuei Vu glanced at the cards in his hand, did not speak, and drew the same number after discarding them all.

This is the end of my turn. Shien put down his hands, Come on, this is my strongest lineup, my full power! If you can defeat it, come and try!

Chapter 292: I Still Have To Use That Move

Yuei Vu took a deep breath.

There was nothing on his own side of the field, but there were four monsters on the opponents field, including Great Shogun Shien who had a powerful interference ability. In addition, he had only 300 LP left, like a candle in the wind perfectly enough.

My turn, It was Yuei Vus turn again, Draw!

Glancing at the drawn card, Yuei Vu used it without thinking too much: Activate a Spell Card from the hand, E- Emergency Call! Add 1 Elemental HERO monster from the deck to the hand.

Hey, did you just use up your only chance so casually? Shien crossed his arms, Or did you forget that when Great Shogun Shien is on my field, you can only activate 1 Spell/Trap Card each turn?

One time is enough.

At this time, Yuei Vu had opened the deck and picked out the hero he was looking for, flipped it over and showed it to Shien.

The card I want to add to my hand is the second Elemental HERO Liquid Soldier. He shuffled the deck and inserted it back into the Duel Disk, then directly called the hero out, Summon Elemental HERO Liquid Soldier in attack position!

A burst of water gushed out, and the hero in the blue tights reappeared on the field, surrounded by liquid.

[Elemental HERO Liquid Soldier, ATK 1400]

The effect of Liquid Soldier When this card is Normal Summoned: I can target 1 Level 4 or lower HERO monster in my GY, except Elemental HERO Liquid Soldier; Special Summon it, A card in the GY area of Yuei Vu popped up, Summon Elemental HERO Blazeman!

This time it was flames rising from the ground. The scorching hero flew out and landed beside his companion in a half-squat.

[Elemental HERO Blazeman, ATK 1200]

The effect of Blazeman! Yuei Vu opened the deck again, If this card is Normal or Special Summoned: I can add 1 Polymerization from my Deck to my hand.

Seeing Yuei Vu showing the Polymerization card, Shien couldn't help but sneer: As I said, as long as my avatar exists on the field, you only have one chance to use Spell or Trap Card.

Even if you want to use fusion to summon a stronger hero, it's useless

Who said that I want to fusion summon? Yuei Vu smiled.

What? Shien frowned.

Next is the effect of Destiny HERO Malicious that was discarded by your Card Destruction last turn.

The GY area of the Duel Disk flashed with golden light, and a card popped out automatically. Yuei Vu picked up the card, turned it over, and showed it to Shien.

I can banish this card from my GY; Special Summon 1 Destiny HERO Malicious from my Deck.

A beam of golden light flew out of his deck, and a demon-shaped Destiny Hero appeared on the field with a manic growl.

[Destiny HERO Malicious, ATK 800]

Yuei Vu said that fusion is just a feint, our real purpose is this!

I take the Elemental HERO Liquid Soldier, Elemental HERO Blazeman, and Destiny HERO Malicious on the field as sacrifices!

Shien's face changed suddenly: Three monsters as sacrifices!?

Phoenix-san, lend me your strength!

The power of destruction brings about the end of the fate of all things, become the ultimate hero of destiny!

The crimson blood mist filled the air, and the silhouette of the evil hero appeared in the bloody storm. He had a devil-like close-fitting uniform, and huge wings, and one of his arms was a dragon whose mouth is dripping blood.

[Destiny HERO Plasma, ATK 1900]

Shien showed a look of surprise: This monster? Is this the power of the so-called Ultimate D Hero

But the general calmed down quickly, and hurriedly planted a flag to suppress the shock: But his attack power is only 1900

The special effect of Plasma! Yuei Vu said lightly, When Plasma exists on the field, the effects of all monsters on the opponents field will be negated!

What?

Shien frowned and found that the field on his side had been shrouded in blood-colored mist for some time. His samurai warriors, including his own avatar, seemed to be in terrible pain in the bloody mist.

It seemed that this bloody hero has suppressed the power of all the soldiers with just one persons strength. The warriors all felt the pressure as if they were put in invisible shackles and couldnt use their power.

And then another effect of Plasma! Yuei Vu said, Once per turn, I can select 1 monster on the opponents side of the field and equip it to this card, then Plasmas attack power will increase by half of the equipped monsters attack power, and it will gain the equipped monsters effect!

He raised his hand and pointed at general Shien on the opposite field.

Absorb the Great Shogun Shien!

The bloody hero spread his wings like a bloodthirsty bat monster. Several tentacles flew through the air, entangling general Shien.

The general roared angrily, struggled with all his strength, and slashed at the tentacle with his knife, but he was completely unable to shake the tough tentacle, and could only watch himself be dragged powerlessly in front of the Plasma.

The blood-red heros wings closed suddenly like a bloody mouth swallowing the general. The general resisted with all his strength, and there were continuous undulations in the shape of blades inside the closed wings, but they quickly disappeared.

[Destiny HERO Plasma, ATK 1900 ATK 3150]

The corner of Shiens mouth twitched.

Watching his avatar being swallowed alive This scene was still a bit exciting, just thinking about it made people feel chills down their spine.

Battle! Yuei Vu raised his hand, Destiny HERO Plasma, attack Chamberlain of the Six Samurai! Bloody Fears!

The bloody hero flew up, and the blood mist in the sky seemed to condense accordingly. The crimson blood turned into countless sharp needles, forming an impenetrable piece that spread toward Shien's side.

[Chamberlain of the Six Samurai, ATK 1000 ATK 800] (Decline due to the reduction of the number of Warrior monsters)

This blow would seal the victory!

A hero whose destiny's end this power is indeed strong enough

Shien murmured, his eyes froze, and he raised his arms.

But it's not over yet! Open the set card! He swiped his arm, pointing to the trap turned upside down by his feet, and the heavy armor made a violent metal collision sound.

Trap Card: Six Strike Thunder Blast!

Yuei Vu was a little surprised.

Is this card?

Six Strike Thunder Blast, the stunt of Legendary Six Samurai Kageki, whose prototype was Tachibana Dosetsu, a famous general in the Sengoku period. It was said that he once used his favorite blade Chidori (A Thousand Birds) to cut through lightning, so his blade was later named Raikiri (Lightning Cutter).

And the unique skill recorded on this trap got its name from here.

Six Strike Thunder Blast, by removing a 1 Bushido Counter from my side of the field, can either destroy a monster or bounce a card from the opponent's field back to the hand.

I'm going to remove a Bushido Counter from Six Samurai United!

At this point in the battle, Shien seemed to be agitated, so he drew his sword out of its sheath and pointed at the attacking Plasma from the air.

Destroy the Destiny HERO Plasma! Shien shouted, End your own destiny, Plasma!

The trap effect was activated, and the phantom of Legendary Six Samurai Kageki emerged from the screen. He was holding a long blade, which was covered with electric current, countless electric snakes are jumping, and let out a sharp sound like a thousand birds chirping.

The blade was unsheathed, and in an instant, it was like releasing a thunderbolt that pierced through the air, cutting straight through the burly body of the Plasma!

Boom! ! !

The violent explosion caused shocks in space. A smoke screen mixed with thunder filled the air and engulfed Yuei Vu's entire field.

Hmph, it's over.

The lightning-like slash ended, and the trap card disappeared from the field. Shien crossed his arms and smiled lightly.

It looks like that is your last trump card, right? But unfortunately, its nothing more than that. Shien said, As a fighter, you have played well enough. But unfortunately, in terms of strength, you are still When he said this, he swallowed the second half of the words suddenly, showing a look of astonishment.

The smoke dissipated, and the burly body of Plasma indeed dissipated under the slash just now. However, he was replaced by Masked HERO Anki!

[Masked HERO Anki, ATK 2800]

What what? Shien was stunned.

Quick-Play Spell Mask Change. Yuei Vu calmly revealed the card he used at that moment, Send 1 HERO monster I control to the Graveyard, then Special Summon 1 Masked HERO monster from my Extra Deck with the same Attribute.

The moment Plasma was hit by Six Strike Thunder Blast, I transformed him into a Masked HERO to evade that lightning attack.

Shien said in a daze: How could

This time its really the final blow Sure enough, I still have to use this move for the curtain call.

Yuei Vu waved his hand and gave the final order.

Masked HERO Anki, attack Chamberlain of the Six Samurai!

Rider Kick! !

The Anki took off from the ground, flipped in the air, and kicked through the air with a flying kick, and the chest of Chamberlain of the Six Samurai was blown up as if he was hit by the momentum of thunder.

How could that crippled warrior withstand such powerful leg strength? Immediately, he let out a miserable grunt and smoothed his way out of the distance, followed by an explosion, and the burst of wind and airwaves blasted Shien behind his back.

Shien grunted twice, dragging his heavy armor, and knelt down on the ground.

Shien, LP 800 LP 0

he lost.

Chapter 293: You Are The One Who Plays Dice

While Yuei Vu was playing cards with general Shien in the spirit world, everyone continued to move forward.

After the decisive battle of the Paradius Building, the whole building collapsed directly under the feet of everyone. It was only at this time that everyone discovered that the appearance of this modern building was just a disguise created by magic, and its true form was an ancient building in the shape of a temple. Standing in the middle of the urban area for so many years, no one noticed anything wrong at all.

Unfortunately, when the building collapsed, Kaiba, Rafael, Yugi and his friends happened to be on the roof of the building.

At that moment, Kaiba's loyal subordinate, Uncle Isono, came to rescue him in time with a helicopter and asked the president to get on the helicopter and run away.

However, Rafael accidentally fell from the crack of the roof and hung there while grabbing the edge of the roof with one hand.

Yugi's other friends hurriedly boarded the helicopter and prepared to run away. Only Yugi persisted in trying to rescue the white-washed swordsman and lay on the edge of the roof trying to grab Rafael's hand, but Yugi's arms were a little too short.

Seeing that the roof was falling apart inch by inch, the whole building was about to collapse, but Yugi still lay on the edge of the roof and stretched out his hands, not wanting to give up.

It's already bad if he didn't leave, but the worse thing was that the president wouldn't leave if Yugi didn't leave. The president just stood behind with folded arms in a chic pose, watching, letting the hurricane blown by the helicopter shake his bangs and hem of clothes.

It's like if my lover does not leave, I will die here with him.

However, Kaiba was the president, and if the president didn't leave, the wage earners behind him would suffer.

The pilot's hands holding the aircraft joystick were sweating, but he didn't dare to take off until the president came up. A bunch of black suits in the cabin were jumping anxiously, but no one dared to go up and remind the president that there were a lot of duelists with Yu-prefix and seafood hairstyle in the world, and he should not die with this Yugi Muto.

In the end, the invincible Uncle Isono came forward. This uncle referee with the Mount Tai collapsed in front of him without changing his face. Mind seemed a little hypocritical in the face of this situation. He stepped onto the roof where a few bricks were missing every step and walked to the president, pushing sunglasses.

President, I think we should go first. I'm afraid it will be bad if we continue to wait.

In the end, Yugi finally failed to save Rafael. The swordsman felt that he was hopeless, so he asked Yugi to defeat Dartz and crush Doma's conspiracy, then let go of his hand, fell directly from upstairs, and disappeared.

Although very unwilling, Yugi could only give up on him.

Seeing that Yugi gave up, President Kaiba flung his windbreaker smartly, and the two turned their heads and boarded the helicopter together, and evacuated in time before the building collapsed.

It seemed that as long as Yugi didn't go away, the president really planned to be together in death with him here.

Rafael Yugi looked at the collapsing ruins below, with a gloomy expression, as if he was frustrated that he couldn't save the dueling master who had finally been cleared.

Kaiba didn't say a word, and his face was also very ugly. But of course what he was thinking about was not Rafael, whom he had just met, but Yuei Vu.

Is Yuei Vu defeated? It cant be

Jonouchi, who caught up later, also found it unbelievable when he heard the news.

Thats Yuei Vu! The strongest duelist who is crowned as the Duel King alongside Yugi

Yugi said in a deep voice: I can only say that maybe Dartzs methods are beyond our imagination

Hmph, its just a braggarts self-praise! Kaiba interrupted coldly, I wouldnt believe it if I hadnt seen it with my own eyes!

Everyone was stunned for a moment, and even the gloomy and depressed atmosphere in the cabin seemed to be dispelled by his passionate words.

Yugi closed his eyes and smiled softly.

Thats true. Its just Dartzs one-sided opinion. Its really too hasty to make such a hasty conclusion.

Yeah, Yuei Vu is not such an easily defeated duelist! Jonouchi also said. Maybe he has already gone to Domas headquarters in some special way, and maybe he is waiting for us there!

He glanced at Kaiba: Hey? Kaiba, you still say a good word or two once in a while!

Kaiba snorted and ignored him.

It was certain that the first blood of Yugi was taken by Rafael, and Kaiba must have no hope.

But you told the president that just now, Yuei Vu was also killed by others first?

And right under the nose of Seto Kaiba?

The good news was that they now have the address of Domas true headquarters, where Dartz himself was located.

So the president directly gave Isano an order go at full speed! The target: Dartzs lair!

For the sake of his job, Uncle Isano, of course, immediately agreed without blinking. But in fact, Uncle Isono was also very painful.

As the saying went, gods fight and mortals suffer. Now, this was a team of selected brave men who were about to challenge the evil god who wanted to destroy the world, but Uncle Isino is just a mere bodyguard who made a living by being the referee.

Without saying a word, the boss grabbed him to go to the evil god together. Uncle Isano felt bitter but had no place to say

But there was a little hiccup along the way. Their helicopter was stopped midway by an aircraft carrier and its affiliated troops.

At first, they thought it was the enemy. But after a few people landed on the aircraft carrier, the captain acted as enthusiastic as seeing a savior.

After asking, they found out that Doma had already controlled the armies all over the world.

Now the top leaders of all countries in the world have known about Doma's plot, but because of Dartz's secret actions, even if the world was destroyed, no country could send a single soldier to fight Doma.

At this time, the power of the Shadow Game in this world was clearly shown. As long as there was enough dark power, it was easy to do things that sounded impossible.

Dartz obviously had that kind of power.

The captain expressed his admiration and condolences to several warriors. At the same time, he clearly stated that although it was shameful to admit, the fate of the world was now in the hands of a few people.

Please, you must win this duel. Otherwise, all of us will be gone

Jonouchi patted his chest and said: Please don't worry, when it came to playing cards, we had absolute confidence.

By the way, although it's off-topic, I personally have a small request. The captain said and took out a photo.

Yugi took the photo and found that it was a blond boy with a childish look on his face.

This is my son, and he is also a duel monster fan. Mr. Captain smiled sheepishly, If possible, I hope to help him get your autograph.

Yugi naturally and generously agreed to this request.

Jonouchi leaned forward: Then what about me?

Mr. Captain was a little embarrassed: You are

The confidence in the city was hit: It's me! The Battle City's top eight

Oh oh! I remembered! Mr. Captain slapped his forehead, You are the one who plays dice

Jonouchi: *&@%#

It turns out that as the top eight of Battle City, the impression I left on the global audience is that I played dice!?

Kaiba crossed his arms: Hmph, at least it's not bad for a horse bone to make an impression

Jonouchi gave him a blank look.

What they want is the signature of Yugi, not you Kaiba. Do you have any right to disdain me?

However, as soon as he thought of this, he found that the captain took out another card that was obviously treasured and handed it to Kaiba: President Seto

Jonouchi suddenly felt the world was upside down.

This captain is trying to silently insult me, right?

Why don't you ask for my signature? I am also a star player, wasn't I?

Kaiba gave a disdainful hum on the surface, but wanted to turn its nostrils up to the sky.

Take a good look, thats the difference between me and a horse bone like you!

He took the card and took a look, and found that it was a trial version of the Elemental HERO Avian that had not yet been released on the market.

The president suddenly had an ominous premonition

I dont think the Duel King named Yuei Vu is here. I heard that he works for you, right? The captain smiled, To be honest, my little boy is actually Yuei Vus number one fan. He is clamoring at home to be a hero every day. If possible, I hope Mr. Yuei Vu can sign it

The smile on President Kaibas face disappeared quickly, and the smile on Jonouchis face appeared simultaneously.

Chapter 294: Team Fight

A huge, dim temple, with faint flickering candles.

Dartz stood alone in the center of the temple, with a huge six-pointed star array under his feet, chanting something in his mouth, as if some kind of ritual was going on.

He could sense that the Three Swordsmen under him were gone.

His most elite subordinates have disappeared, and the organizations of Domas branches around the world have also been hit to varying degrees these daysbut today, it didnt matter.

After ten thousand years of planning, his layout has already been completed. Long before Doma surfaced, his plan was in its final stages. Even if all the chess pieces were lost, it would have no effect.

After all, his ultimate goal was a thorough cleansing, a worldwide cleansing of all existing human beings without distinction.

Anyway, the final goal was the destruction of all, so the chess pieces in his hands were now useless.

After tens of thousands of years of accumulation, the souls needed for the recovery of the evil god have already been collected. Now that God was on the brink of resurrection, all it needed was one final nudge.

For example, Yugi and Kaiba are driving towards this side under the cover of the aircraft carrier fleet. The souls of the two of them are the last excellent nourishment.

As for Jonouchis soul its not bad.

At least he shouldnt be disliked by Lord Evil God

Now, he was going to add fire to the recovery of the evil god and harvest a wave of souls on a large scale for the last time.

Today would be the moment of resurrection that has spanned thousands of years!

..

Black clouds covered the sky.

The same scene was happening in various regions throughout the planet. Thick clouds rolled in, covering the entire planet like a dark curtain.

There was a roar in the street, and the sound of something exploding. A car was lifted high into the air under the impact of the explosion and smashed to pieces on the ground with a bang. The tires shot through the glass on the side of the street as a high-speed Frisbee, and metal debris flew in all directions.

Shouts of panic swept across the entire block in an instant, and the peaceful life was broken by a sudden abnormality in an instant. Zombie-like soldiers took to the streets in rotting armor, holding swords one by one, with the mark of Orichalcos reflected on their foreheads, flooding the streets like a tide.

The imprint of the six-pointed star began to appear everywhere, and the gaps were torn one after another in the space. More types of monsters emerged from various spaces, some bared their teeth and claws, and some breathed flames, destroying buildings and streets indiscriminately.

like the end of the world.

Stereoscopic images?

Its also the first word that came to mind.

But soon, the bombed-out streets, the impact from the air, and the scorching storm all reminded people that all this was real, happening in the reality they live in.

People began to flee in panic, trying to avoid the invasion of demons. Anyone who moved slower would be captured by those monsters and knocked to the ground. Their souls were sucked out until the body became empty shells.

Among the chaotic crowd, a girl fell to the ground.

Fleeing separately at the imminent disaster, the girls companions fled the scene without looking back. Countless people ran past her, but no one had the spare time to stop for a stranger.

Finally, an Orichalcos Soldier came up. The zombie-like warrior came in front of her, and the shadow covered her like a mountain. The red eyes vividly reflected the mark of Orichalcos.

This was an extremely common scene in movies, a shot that has been used by countless directors. According to the routine, now should be the time for a righteous hero to descend from the sky and kill powerful enemies in seconds to save the world, but this was not the case in reality.

The girl felt that her legs were numb, and her brain was trying its best to order her to get up. But her body didnt listen. Did she know that she was going to die? The hideous face of the monster in front of her was like a god of death urging her to die, and the blade in his hand dimly turned into a sickle for harvesting souls

Then she saw

Light?

The scorching flames blasted down from the sky, engulfing the body of the Orichalcos Soldier in an instant. The monster screamed sharply, staggered back, and waved the blade in its hand twice unwillingly, Its body exploded under the high-temperature flames in an instant, and it was blown into ashes and smoke.

The girl sat on the ground and raised her head blankly.

She saw that on the top of a crumbling building under the gray sky, a warrior with a green body stood with his feet together on the edge of the roof, with a single white wing covering his upper body. The red dragon head in his hand was breathing flames

Elemental HERO Flame Wingman!

The girl was stunned. She didn't turn her head around for a while.

The duelist who commanded the hero soon appeared. The girl turned her head to the side and saw a duelist standing domineeringly on the street where everyone had fled, facing the countless monsters in front of him alone, and the only thing he could rely on was the Duel Disk on his hand.

She saw the man waving his hands and yelling: Flame Wingman, attack! Flame Shoot!

The hero in mid-air received the order and swooped down from the sky, wrapped in flames, swooping towards the monsters like a fired shell!

Boom! ! !

Like a volcanic eruption, the road cracked open, and the impact of the flames smashed Orichalcoss monsters to pieces, and their bodies were blown into pieces one after another.

The girl looked at the duelist's back, blinked her clear eyes, and couldn't help being dazed for a moment.

So so handsome!

The heroes of justice appear for real!

But at the same time, she couldn't help but worry about that man.

Because the number of enemies was too much.

In the sky and on the ground, there were flying and crawling ones, and there were still ones popping out from unknown corners. It was as if all of a sudden, these things were everywhere.

But it didn't matter.

Because players never went alone!

Roar!!!

With a roar, the icy dragon appeared at the end of the street, opened its mouth, and spit out a long string of frost rays, instantly freezing a large area of Orichalcoss monsters into ice sculptures!

That was Frostosaurus!

Then there were Curse of Dragon, Super War-Lion, and a bunch of messy duel monsters all came out. Even the legendary warrior Battle Ox rushed into the crowd of monsters with an ax in anger to grab their heads.

Along with these monsters came a festive crowd of duelists hopping and running through the battle-ridden streets.

Yes, it was the players who joined Yuei Vus camp.

Thanks to the large number of envelopes provided by the Industrial Illusions, which could temporarily lend the user dark energy, players could temporarily materialize duel monsters.

For ordinary people in this world, this may be a disaster, but not for the players.

In the eyes of the players, those flying in the sky, jumping on the ground, and strangely shaped

All were mobile EXP packs!

Moreover, it was still during the camp battle, and killing monsters was also counted as a contribution.

As long as you earned enough contribution points, you could exchange them for those rare exclusive headgear in the store!

Thinking of this, the screwball players were full of strength!

Several players pushed and shoved while chopping monsters.

Hey, that's just what I saw first!

Aren't you going to fight over there? There are a lot of them over there!

Whose dragon just burned my prey? Stand up consciously!

@#%!&# (censored words)

The boot-licking quartet next to Yuei Vu was also particularly brave among the players at the moment.

It seemed that those monsters of Orichalcos had very limited intelligence. They rushed toward Native Noragami, a Premium nether player, without fear of death.

Only halfway through the rush, half of the monsters had already fallen into a huge pit, and a small group hit a barrier of light and were smashed to death by their own force.

Among these monsters, there was one that is slightly stronger and looked like a minor boss. After sacrificing almost all the brothers who charged together, he finally rushed to Native Noragami. With a roar, he raised his knife and was about to chop off Native Noragami's funny rabbit head, but a holy old man with a halo on his head suddenly appeared in front of him, saying nope, and the guy was directly blasted to ashes by divine power.

On Snow Waves side, the five zones on the Duel Disk were filled with powerful elemental heroes. Flame Wingman, Thunder Giant, Bladedge, Granmerge, Gaia,.. the heroes went rampage among the monsters and were unstoppable.

While farming monsters happily, Miss Yuehua suddenly whispered: Hey, there is an NPC girl next to you who has been staring at you.

Huh? Is there such a thing?

Snow Wave froze for a moment, then turned around in bewilderment. Sure enough, he found that a silly girl was sitting on the side of the road, and Favorability + 1, + 1, + 1, continued to appear on her forehead.

Snow Wave: ?

Whats the situation?

Chapter 295: Stop Here

After ten thousand years, the power of Orichalcos has activated on a large scale again. Countless monsters have taken to the streets, spreading fear and collecting souls to feed the evil god.

However, at the same time, countless duelists also stood up. Duelists from various regions summoned their ace monsters one after another and fought against Orichalcos monsters in the streets and alleys.

After this battle, these warriors who stood up in times of crisis and bravely faced monsters everywhere were destined to be remembered.

Its just that some warriors may not be mentally normal. For example, some people like to wear weird clothes, some people just like not to wear clothes at all, and some people swear while beating their mouths, saying something that everyone couldnt understand

Because these guys souls couldnt be collected even if they died, with their interference, the efficiency of collecting souls on Dartzs side was greatly reduced.

Although he found this group of bouncing guys annoying, Dartz didnt have time to pay attention to it for a while. Because there were bigger problems that he had to face now.

Muto Yuki and Kaiba Seto would arrive at his location in a few minutes. To face those two people at the same time, no matter how arrogant Dartz was, he still had to prepare a little bit.

In addition, there was the problem of Yuei Vu.

After playing a game, the person disappeared out of thin air. Dartz spent a long time trying and using several secret methods but failed to find out where he was.

This was very abnormal. There should be nothing in this world beyond his sight. No matter where anyone hid on the earth, they couldnt hide from his eyes.

But now he couldnt find where Yuei Vu went. This gave Dartz a bad premonition, especially after the last duel, he felt that the guy was a trickster who hid a knife in his smile. Maybe he would come out of nowhere to give him a backstab at the most important moment

Wait, not on Earth?

Dartz seemed to suddenly think of something

Duel Monsters Spirit World.

Shien, whose LP had been reduced to zero during the duel, half-kneeled on the ground, the black smoke on his body was faintly dissipating. He closed his eyes lightly, but his appearance seemed very calm and calm.

I lost. My skills are inferior to yours, so there is nothing to say. Shien said calmly, According to the agreement, as the loser, I am your servant now.

I will become your sword, willing to cut down any obstacles for you.

After a pause, he gave Yuei Vu a meaningful look.

The road of a hero is very difficult. Only those who can carry everything can bear this title. If you have this awareness, then follow your own path firmly.

After finishing speaking, his body was wrapped in pitch-black flames, gradually becoming illusory until gradually disappearing.

Only one card was left on the ground.

Yuei Vu leaned over and picked up the card, and it turned out to be a Great Shogun Shien.

It's not a loss to get a new spirit card in this wave. From the duel just now and the aura released by the opponent, it was not difficult to see that this general was not weak as a spirit, and maybe comparable to the Destiny HERO Plasma in Yuei Vu's hands.

When this card was added to the deck, Yuei Vu could feel that his force had increased a bit.

Although his Duelist Rank was still 7 stars in the panel, but now that he has been strengthened many times, he could clearly feel that he was at the peak of Rank 7 at this time, and just a bit short from Rank 8.

Another powerful spirit should be enough to break through this bottleneck.

In addition, it was boldly speculated that if he acquired Great Shogun Shien, its related series Six Samurai may also be unlocked.

If it's just a pure Six Samurai deck, the strength may not be as high as the deck in his hand. But it didn't matter, even if he didn't need it, he could throw it in the store.

And the Six Samurai was not the same as the pile of miscellaneous cards in his hand before. As a popular old-fashioned series, no matter how ridiculous the price was set, he did not have to worry about losing sales.

Yuei Vu was already planning to go back and sell new card boxes at this moment. The title should be Structure Deck: Sengoku Warriors Are Coming! or something like that. Adding the word Limited after it, and it would definitely be able to fool a lot of screwball players.

The silver-haired girl nodded slowly, with a serious expression on her small face. It seemed to be expressing her sincere admiration.

Kuriboh: Kuri Kuri!

The little guy flew to Yuei Vu's face again, rubbed it on his face, and then simply lay on his shoulder.

You see, even Kuriboh agrees.

The Dark Magician Girl stared straight at the Kuriboh on Yuei Vu's shoulder.

Dark Magician Girl: So jealous.JPG

The duel between Yuei Vu and Shien was noticed by many spirits hiding around.

Those spirits who were still thinking about it and coveted Yuei Vus soul, now hurriedly withdraw in silence.

Its not just the high-profile evil gods like the God of Orichalcos that needed souls. Ordinary dueling monster spirits could also obtain nutrients from souls, just like the Jinzo who appeared in GX.

Its just that the appetite of ordinary spirits was far less exaggerated than that of evil gods.

The more powerful the duelist, the higher the value of his soul to the spirits.

Finally, the group came under the huge eye.

The evil god seemed to be still sleeping, but Yuei Vu could feel the energy in the space being continuously absorbed into that closed eye.

So just knock it down while its sleeping?

The Dark Magician Girl has already raised her small staff at this time. Holding her breath, she just waited for the masters order to fly up to perform her lifelong skills.

But at this moment, general Shien who just joined Yuei Vus deck has emerged. He folded his arms and said lightly: You cant do it.

Even in a deep sleep state, that guys strength is extraordinary. Ordinary attacks cant hurt it at all. It would be better to say that if it is provoked, it will only cause the opposite effect.

Ah? The Dark Magician Girl was a little disappointed that she didnt have a chance to show it, Then what should I do?

Hearing this, Yuei Vu already understood.

Normal attacks dont work? Then call on God!

So Yuei Vu didnt do any foreplay, he f-cking directly played the trump card!

Come down, Judge of Hell, God of the Underworld! Yuei Vu took out the God Card and slapped it directly on the Duel Disk, Osiris the Sky Dragon!

In an instant, dark clouds enveloped the sky of the entire spirit world, and the rolling thunder, like the angry roar of a dragon, came from the depths of the black clouds far away, tearing the sky!

Chapter 296: An Army

Osiris, the god of the underworld, descended!

After endless years, the ultimate monster that was the apex of duel monsters in the spirit world has finally come to this land again!

The space trembled. The red dragon twisted its body and slowly descended from the sky. Countless spirits hid in their corners, looking up at the gods and trembling.

Osiriss!? General Shien lost his composure, looking at his new master in astonishment.

This guy is actually a duelist who can control the gods!?

Who is he?

He didn't know that the god in Yuei Vu's hand was not just this one.

It's just that Ra didn't care about him at all now. Although Obelisk could be summoned with skills in a duel, he usually didn't obey orders like with President.

As for the actual card versions of Ra and Obelisk

Let's forget it.

Sure enough, among the three, only the sky dragon that he acquired first was the most obedient and reliable.

Osiris, smash that ugly monster in the sky! Yuei Vu said.

Osiris let out a high-pitched dragon cry as if expressing his willingness. It opened its huge mouth, and it seemed as if the entire sky began to respond as it charged. Countless blue thunderbolts churned among the clouds, and the majestic energy brewed in Shenlong's mouth into golden lightning, ready to come out at any time.

Superconducting Wave Thunder Cannon!

If this blow hit, even if it couldn't kill the evil god directly, it should at least be enough to cause heavy damage.

However, at this moment, the eye on the horizon suddenly opened!

A majestic force erupted, forming a layer of transparent shield, barely resisting the beam bombardment. The golden impact spread along with the thunder toward the surroundings, and even the thick clouds seemed to be blown away under the power of the gods.

The god of Orichalcos has awakened!

The moment that eye opened, majestic divine power turned into invisible coercion and instantly blasted down, like an invisible Mount Tai.

Yuei Vu could clearly feel that this evil god was much stronger than when he woke up in Domino City last time.

It seems that the resurrection ritual of Dartz has entered the final stage, and now the god of Orichalcos was infinitely close to the perfect body. At this moment, it was probably not an opponent that the legendary dragons could deal with.

In the final chapter of the Walking the Dragons arc, the god of Orichalcos summoned by Dartz could fight equally with the three Egyptian Gods controlled by Yami Yugi. Although he lost in the end, it was enough to show the power of this evil god.

Of course, it should be noted that there were three Egyptian Gods, while the god of Orichalcos was alone. Under the righteous gang-up, he still couldn't escape the fate of every villain.

But at this moment, Yuei Vu only has a sky dragon and it seemed to be a young dragon. To be honest, he had no idea whether the sky dragon could defeat this evil god.

He looked up at his sky dragon tentatively and asked how sure it felt to defeat that evil god. Sky Dragon wagged its tail and let out an aggressive roar as if feeling full of confidence. However, for some reason, Yuei Vu felt that was quite unreliable

But Yuei Vu thought, if their little brother was deflated, then two other Egyptian Gods who were arrogant and did not listen to him should not sit idly by Maybe?

There was a roar from outside the sky, it seemed that the evil god was demonstrating.

Cracks appeared in the space ahead, and it seemed that the evil god used his divine power to forcibly tear open the space. The imprint of The Seal of Orichalcos appeared in the sky, and the green beam of light blasted down from the sky.

Countless black shadows emerged from the beam of light. A large group of Orichalcos warriors, birds, and beasts flew towards Yuei Vu and the others desperately like a raging tide.

It has assembled an army for itself in a short moment!

Following that, the evil god himself seemed to finally show his face without hesitation. The huge black body drilled out of the sky in a translucent posture, twisting disgustingly. It looked like a giant python wandering in the sky.

The sky dragon, not to be outdone, roared and pounced on it. Maybe because he felt that as a dragon, he couldn't be cowardly when facing a snake.

That evil god wasn't afraid to face the Egyptian God at all. He just rushed up and started fighting. One dragon and one snake immediately entered the mode of fighting with gods in mid-air. Every collision and every impact between the two sides was like a world falling apart.

The soldiers on the ground were not idle either. The troops summoned by the evil god swarmed up, the hunger and thirst in the eyes of each one were like they wanted to devour everything

Hmph, do you want to fight? Come on! No matter how large your number is, I shall not go down!

General Shien was the first to draw out his long knife. He rushed forward to meet the mighty army with a shout. The solitary figure from the back was in stark contrast to the vast and endless team.

The two spirits, Dark Magician Girl and Plasma, were also summoned by Yuei Vu one after another, trying their best to fight against the endless wave of soldiers.

Although their individual strength was much stronger than that of their opponents, the enemy number was too large to stand up to, like a swarm of locusts that could never be cleared.

The Dark Magician Girl blasted down with a magic explosion, sweeping across a large area, but more and more fearless monsters ran over the corpses of their companions, not even leaving the opponent a chance to breathe.

There was no end to this. Sooner or later, even the spirits would be exhausted, and it was only a matter of time before the defense line was breached.

Against such a large number of enemies, they needed more manpower, at least an army of spirits.

The Dark Magician Girl was waving her staff and trying her best to deal with the enemies in front of her, However, a small group of monsters circled behind her and launched a charge. The girl hurriedly wanted to return to the defense, but it seemed that she was a step too late after all boom! ! !

The pitch-black magic power rushed like a torrent, and several magic circles exploded at the same time, blowing away the monsters that were trying to attack.

Eh?

Dark Magician Girl blinked and looked in that direction with some doubt. Suddenly, she saw a mage in a black robe floating in the air, holding a long staff, and the hem of his clothes was dancing with the wind

Dark Magician!

The Dark Magician Girl was pleasantly surprised: MasterMaster!

Its not an illusion that Yuei Vu summoned through the Duel Disk, but the real spirit from the spirit world, the Dark Magicians spirit!

Not only that, there was a scream not far away, and a female magician who looked exactly like a Dark Magician Girl and held a staff flew out, and the staff waving continuously blasted magic light bullets, blowing a large area of Orichalcos monsters.

Magicians Valkyria!

More and more duel monster spirits rushed out from all directions, spontaneously forming a mighty army, and at the same time charged towards Orichalcos monsters.

Yuei Vu glanced at it, and there seemed to be Marauding Captain, Gearfried the Iron Knight, and Command Knight. The brave captain who charged into the battle swung his sword and shouted something while leading the charge.

Yuei Vu couldnt hear clearly, but he seemed to be shouting slogans like Wakanda Forever

On the other side, there was also an army of ninjas led by the legendary Ninja Grandmaster Hanzo and Ninja Grandmaster Sasuke, who bravely rushed into the group of monsters and started a fierce battle.

He even saw a small Time Magician grabbing the time roulette and mingling among the crowd to charge forward

Master, be careful!

The Dark Magician Girl accidentally missed a few miscellaneous soldiers. They rushed towards Yuei Vu aggressively without looking back.

The girl wanted to block it, but there were too many enemies around her, and it was too late when she broke free.

However, at this moment, a holy white magic circle suddenly condensed in front of Yuei Vu!

A powerful and dazzling light beam shot out from the magic circle, and the holy light flooded the bodies of several miscellaneous soldiers like a wave, smashing them all into pieces involuntarily!

The Dark Magician Girl was a little taken aback: Eehh?

Obviously, this power also came from a mage.

One that was much stronger than her!

Yuei Vu turned his head in surprise and saw at a glance that it was the little white-haired loli who had been silent all the way who had just shot to protect him.

At this moment, the temperament of the silver-haired loli seemed to have changed. Her eyes were deep and cold, and she seemed to be chanting some spell silently, and her whole body costume suddenly changed with a burst of holy white light.

Soon, the girl changed into a white robe, white gloves, a magic hat inlaid with dark blue gemstones, and a short and dainty staff in her hand.

It looked like she had switched from casual clothes to combat mode.

There was a sense of a magical girl transforming

Yuei Vu couldn't remember who this loli was before. Now that he saw this familiar outfit, and then thought of the girl's silent nature, he couldn't help but suddenly

Damn it! Isn't this the Silent Magician!?

If the Dark Magician was the strongest mage in the hands of Yami Yugi, then the Silent Magician was the strongest mage in the hands of Yugi Muto!

Not only that, in the finale of the Yu-Gi-Oh DM, the final battle between and Yugi, the latter summoned this Silent Magician, and defeated the Yami Yugi's combination of Dark Magician and Dark Magician Girl head-on, then completed the final blow to Yami Yugi, which directly established the victory.

Because of this, although this taciturn magician lady rarely appeared in animations, she has quite a gorgeous record.

And not only that

This silent magical girl looked like she was ready to get serious. She closed her eyes, clenched her staff tightly, and seemed to be silently reciting a series of spells again. A white magic circle was opened under her feet, and her petite figure was instantly surrounded by holy white light.

Then Yuei Vu was surprised to see that the little loli's head began to grow rapidly, and her flat body began to develop at an alarming speed. The majestic magic power was swirling under her control like a storm, and her aura skyrocketed like a hang-up.

In just a few seconds, this little lolita has transformed into a curvaceous lady with long silver hair flying in the air!

The true Silent Magician has appeared!

Chapter 297: Can Be Busty, Can Be Loli

Silent Magician!

This was the final posture of the Silent Magician. Although her faction was different from the Dark Magician series, there was no doubt that she was also a top-level mage among duel monsters, and even exceeded Dark Magicians in some fields.

In addition, as one of the most popular mages among Yu-Gi-Oh players, of course, she not only has the advantages of being famous, powerful, and being the protagonists trump card.

To quickly gain a large number of fans among players, the indispensable and important factor was, of course being a beautiful female!

Look at the proud figure of this Silent Magician, her small waist, her long legs, and her cold beauty-like face, who could stand it?

And the Silent Magician was different from others, she also belonged to the LV series.

To put it simply, when she was on the field, her level would increase by one level every turn, and her attack power would increase by 500 accordingly.

In the animated version, the Silent Magician who debuted was LV0, and her appearance was the little loli whom Yuei Vu met. Then as the level increased, her appearance would change accordingly. When she grew to LV4, she would transform into a long-haired lady with a D cup

What player could resist a magical girl who transformed at will between loli and busty?

Ahem, of course, this was the focus of screwball players.

Yuei Vu said that serious people like us usually didnt think about whats big or whats small

From the quality of the mage alone, this silent young lady was obviously not a weakling. The Silent Magician, whose power was unsealed and fully fired, seems to be stronger than the Dark Magician master and apprentice. Every spell she cast was an AOE explosion, which blew up all the monsters, and the broken limbs and wreckage were all over the place.

The Dark Magician Girl glanced at it, and couldnt help subconsciously admiring: Thatsso amazing!

The investment of a large number of dueling monster spirits made the two camps finally evenly matched. The sky dragon and the evil god were still fighting fiercely in the sky. It seemed that it was impossible to tell the winner for a while.

And it was at this moment that the true lord of the enemy finally showed his face.

The black shadow came out from the crack in the sky, ignoring the battlefield full of light effects and flames of war. He walked straight from the chaotic field and stopped in front of Yuei Vu.

Dartz!

You actually came to this kind of place, you really exceeded my expectations from time to time.

Dartz said lightly, and raised his hand, a mass of pitch-black matter had condensed into a Duel Disk in his hand.

Indeed, if you succeed here, the resurrection of the God of Orichalcos will indeed be disturbed, and the plan will be greatly hindered

His voice became cold, and he stared at Yuei Vu coldly.

But your efforts are over. Right now, right here, I will personally ensure that you are no longer a threat.

Yuei Vu shrugged: As a guy who was beaten to run away by me last time, your words are really not convincing.

Dartz was not angry, but just smiled: Whether this time can be as smooth as last time, you can come and try.

That's what I meant. Yuei Vu opened the Duel Disk.

There was nothing to say. This time, it should be a real BOSS battle.

But what made Yuei Vu concerned was that this time Dartz gave him a completely different feeling from the last time. Not only stronger but also more sinister. Looking at him gave people the illusion of staring into the abyss.

According to the usual practice, Yuei Vu had to adjust the deck before starting the game.

Last time, he specially created a deck that countered Dartz so much that he couldn't take play The Seal of Orichalcos from beginning to end. Yuei Vu now reckoned that this BOSS deck should have been adjusted accordingly.

Facing an old bastard of Dartz's level, the same trick would definitely not work the second time.

If Yuei Vu could use the same method again, for Dartz, it was equivalent to failing the open-book exam. If this boss was that low, how could he think about destroying the human world?

While adjusting, Yuei Vu asked, Are you really Dartz? Or are you an evil god? Or both?

Huh? Have you noticed it already? Dartz chuckled with his hands behind his back, but he didn't deny it, Yes, now I am not only the last monarch of Atlantis but also the great god of Orichalcos.

Yuei Vu frowned: You sacrificed your own soul too?

That's right, your interference forced me to speed up the progress. He said slowly, I offered my soul as a sacrifice to the great god of Orichalcos, and accelerated the process of resurrection.

What is in front of you now is not only the human being named Dartz, but also the evil god who is about to judge everything.

After a pause, he smiled and said, The same is true for the I that the unknown Pharaoh and Seto will face.

Yuei Vu understood.

So it seemed that just like in the animation, Yuei Vu and others have found Domas headquarters at this moment. They were ready to start the final confrontation with Dartz.

However, Dartz now seems to have integrated with the God of Orichalcos in advance. Now he was appearing on both sides of the real world and the spirit world, ready to duel with them and Yuei Vu here at the same time.

It could be seen from this that Dartz, who has assimilated with the evil god, was now very arrogant, with a kind of all of you go together is no match for me spirit.

After adjusting the deck, when Yuei Vu was about to insert it into the Duel Disk, he suddenly felt someone grab his sleeve.

Turning his head to look, he found that the Silent Magician in the busty form appeared beside him without anyone noticing, and gently tugged at his sleeve.

Yuei Vu: ?

As usual, she didnt say a word, but silently handed out a card and handed it to Yuei Vu.

Yuei Vu reached out to take it, and turned it over to see that the card was her real body.

Yuei Vu froze for a moment: Is this for me?

Miss Magician nodded.

Will you lend me your strength and fight side by side with me?

She continued to nod.

Yuei Vu smiled slightly: Understood. Then I will accept your wish. Dont worry, I will not let the world of you spirits be destroyed.

As he spoke, he added the Silent Magicians card to the deck, shuffled the cards, and reinserted them into the Duel Disk.

At the same moment, he could clearly feel a powerful force pouring into his body. The mysterious energy traveled along the internal organs as if breaking through some kind of bottleneck in an instant, which made him feel suddenly enlightened as if his vision had been lifted out of thin air, and he seemed to have some kind of enlightenment.

As if sensing something, Yuei Vu opened his status panel to check again!

As expected, his Duelist Rank has finally broken through Rank 8!

Kuri Kuri!

Another voice sounded, This time it was the cute Kuriboh who had been staying beside the Silent Magician before.

The Kuriboh rubbed against Yuei Vus face affectionately, indicating Yuei Vus deck.

Yuei Vu understood something and pulled out the top card of the deck to see, it was a Kuriboh.

So thats it, do you want to help me too?

Kuri Kuri! Kuriboh nodded desperately although it seemed that its entire fluffy body was the head.

Understood. Yuei Vu thought for a while and added the Kuriboh to the deck.

Originally, he brought a Kuriboh in his deck, but as a life-saving handtrap, two cards were not too much.

Are you ready? Dartz smiled lightly.

Ah, Ive been waiting for a long time. Yuei Vu put the deck back into the Duel Disk, Come on.

Duel! x2

Chapter 298: The Unscrupulous God

Duel! x2

Yuei Vu, LP 4000

Dartz, LP 4000

Its me who goes first, draw!

This time it was Yuei Vu who became the first striker.

Dartzs original deck strategy was completely centered around The Seal of Orichalcos, but after being countered by Yuei Vu last time, there was no doubt that he has made corresponding adjustments.

Dartz must have been a big boss with Rank 10 or above, but now that he was integrated with the God of Orichalcos, his Rank should only be higher.

Its just that he was separated in two places at the same time, fighting Yuei Vu on this side and Yugi and others in the real world, so his strength may be somewhat compromised.

However, for such a big BOSS, a deck with two or three sets of systems would definitely not cause a dead draw. Yuei Vu was almost 100% sure that his current deck has either added a countermeasure to ensure that The Seal of Orichalcos could be activated, or inserted a system that did not rely so much on it.

Whether it was former or the latter, it was definitely not the best option to choose to counter The Seal of Orichalcos as the main tactic. It would be better to say that if Yuei Vu stuffed a bunch of target cards with unknown meanings into the same deck as last time, it would only affect his own combo.

I summon Elemental HERO Shadow Mist in defense position.

The cool black-clothed heroine was still the first to appear on the stage, taking a defensive posture and squatting in front of Yuei Vu.

[Elemental HERO Shadow Mist, DEF 1500]

Set a card, I end my turn.

Its my turn, draw! Dartz smiled lightly and glanced at Yuei Vus back row Is it still a card to counter The Seal of Orichalcos? But it doesnt matter, if you are so afraid of this barrier, I will give you this opportunity.

He pulled out the card in his hand and raised it high above his head: Activate Field Spell The Seal of Orichalcos!

A dazzling green beam of light descended from the sky, centered on Dartz, and impacted the ground mightily.

A terrifying impact visible to the naked eye spread, overbearingly knocking out all the surrounding monster spirits. The huge barrier rotated and opened, only including Yuei Vu and Dartz who were fighting.

It gave a suffocating sense of oppression as if the soul was held by the hand of God.

Yuei Vu, who was in it, could feel most clearly that the strength of this barrier was completely different from that used by anyone, including the Three Swordsmen of Doma.

As for Dartz standing in front of him, his eyes were already glowing red, and a green six-pointed star imprint appeared on his forehead. Behind him, there seemed to be an invisible storm rising into the sky, turning into a bottomless cloud. the abyss!

Looking at him, it was as if he was directly facing the god of Orichalcos himself!

The barrier was successfully activated, and the huge energy was fixed on the ground and gradually stabilized. Dartz let out a long breath of foul air and looked at Yuei Vu with a smile on his face.

The trap hasnt been activated have you given up the countermeasure against Orichalcos? Dartz chuckled, Very wise decision. The same trick wont work for me a second time.

If you still use the same tactics as last time, you will disappoint me instead.

He slowly drew the next card in his hand.

Sure enough, Dartz also prepared completely different tactics independent of The Seal of Orichalcos.

But even so, Yuei Vu never expected the other partys subsequent series of operations.

Activate Quick-Play Spell Shield Wall! Dartz inserted the Spell Card into the slot, Special Summon 4 Shield Tokens in the defense position onto my field.

Four walls emerged one after another, lay across the empty space in front of Dartz.

Dartz showed a mysterious and weird smile and slowly opened the next card in his hand.

Activate Spell Card Sky Union! I use three Shield Tokens on the field as sacrifices!

A monster card was slammed on his Duel Disk.

Arrival! The soul of Alister, the ultimate monster bred from the darkness in its heart

Air Fortress Ziggurat! ! !

What? Yuei Vu was really surprised.

This thing?

Dartz even took the card of his deceased subordinate!?

A gigantic steel behemoth floated in midair. It was like a dark cloud covering the entire site. The battleship overlooked the entire station from a high position, and countless long guns and heavy artillery were aimed at the field below as if it was about to drop a carpet bombing at the slightest disagreement.

Countless spirits couldnt help showing shock in front of this modern super-heavy weapon and hurriedly avoided it.

Accepting the effect of The Seal of Orichalcos, its attack power will increase. Dartz said, And Air Fortress Ziggurat is unaffected by the opponents Spell and Trap Cards

But since you are the one who defeated Alister, I dont think there is any need to explain this point, right?

[Air Fortress Ziggurat, ATK 2500 ATK 3000]

Its not over yet, I still have to activate this card from my hand

Dartz took out another card and inserted it into the S/T slot of the Duel Disk.

Equip Spell: Celestial Sword Eatos! Equip it to Air Fortress Ziggurat, and the equipped monsters attack power will increase by 300! (animation effect)

The image of the holy sword emerged, and the blade swirled and soared into the air. It was assembled on the top of the super-large fortress.

Although it seemed ridiculous to equip such a steel giant with a holy sword, according to the rules of the game, this action was legal.

[Air Fortress Ziggurat, ATK 3000 ATK 3300]

And not only that! Under the guidance of the holy sword, a new monster will soon come to my field! Dartz showed a card, Become my servant and serve the great god of Orichalcos! Rafaels spirit Guardian Eatos!

Snow-white and holy feathers fell from the sky. An angel wearing a falcon headdress is slowly descending from the sky under the guidance of the power of the holy sword.

However, just as she came to the field, she was immediately eroded by Orichalcos evil power, and the power of the evil god poured into the angels body, making her involuntarily surrender.

The imprint of the six-pointed star appeared on her forehead, and the angels eyes were also dyed scarlet. The corners of her mouth curled up and showed an evil smile.

[Guardian Eatos, ATK 2500 ATK 3000]

Yuei Vu:

Dartz As far as a god-level BOSS is concerned, he is really unscrupulous.

But its also reasonable. Originally, the power of the Three Swordsmen of Doma was bestowed by him. With Domas heaven-defying card-making technology, it was certainly not difficult to copy the cards used by the Three Swordsmen.

If there is no monster in my graveyard, and there is Celestial Sword Eatos on my field, Guardian Eatos can be directly special summoned from my hand.

Yuei Vu frowned.

In an instant, the ace monsters of Alister and Rafael were summoned, which really made him feel a little troublesome.

In this way, it seemed that among the Three Swordsmen, only Valons deck that Dartz was not used.

Yuei Vu guessed that was because the characteristic of Valons Armor deck was that the duelist needed to put on the armor by himself to beat people. As the BOSS in charge of the overall situation, Dartz may feel that it was a bit unfashionable to wear armor to beat people in person, so he ignored Valon in distaste

But in this way, although the field was done beautifully, there was only the last card left in Dartz's hand. He has run out of cards to Activate a Spell Card from the hand Card of Sanctity, Dartz inserted the last card in the hand into the Duel Disk, Both players can draw cards from the deck until they have 6 cards in their hand.

Yuei Vu:

Well, it seemed that he hasn't played cards with high-level duelists for too long, and he undervalued the opponent a bit.

Im really thinking too nice!

How can a BOSS who is at least Rank 10 run out of cards to play?

Chapter 299: Dartz's Assault

According to the effect of Card of Sanctity, both of us draw until we have six cards in our hand.

After refilling his hand, Dartz looked down and smiled slightly, as if he had drawn what he wanted.

First of all Continuous Spell Card of Safe Return! When a monster is resurrected from any graveyard, I draw three cards from the deck.

As he spoke, he drew another card from his hand.

Then I summon Orichalcos Gigas.

Here it was again, the monster who couldn't be killed.

The giant spirit who had been entangled with Yuei Vu for a long time last time appeared again, with the same burly and ugly body, dragging a heavy chain on his hands. It's just that this time, with the enhancement of Orichalcos power, the green six-pointed star imprint was clearly reflected on his forehead.

[Orichalcos Gigas, ATK 400 ATK 900]

Then I pay 500 LP. Dartz turned over a card in his hand, Special Summon Orichalcos Kyutora in attack position.

Dartz, LP 4000 LP 3500

A hedgehog-like sphere emerged, and opened its strangely huge eyes. It was soon affected by the barrier, and the mark of Orichalcos appeared in the eyes.

[Orichalcos Kyutora, ATK 500 ATK 1000]

Yuei Vu frowned.

Sure enough, Dartz seemed to be playing for real this time.

In just one round, Dartz's front row and back row were almost fully paved, and the lineup could be described as luxurious. It seemed that the representative of Orichalcos really doesn't intend to spend too much time talking nonsense with him, and when he came up, he went straight to full fire and wanted to kill him.

Battle! Dartz waved his hand lightly, Guardian Eatos, attack Elemental HERO Shadow Mist!

The fallen angel controlled by the power of the evil god flapped her wings and flew up, charging toward the black lady hero. Although Shadow Mist resisted with all her strength, she was still weakly knocked down to the ground due to the huge disparity in combat strength, and disappeared in pieces.

The effect of Shadow Mist, Yuei Vu said, If this card is sent to the GY: I can add 1 HERO monster from my Deck to my hand.

I add Elemental HERO Liquid Soldier to my hand.

At the same moment, open the set card! Trap Card Hero Signal!

The card was flipped open, and the golden light beam shot into the sky from the erected card like a searchlight, turning into a symbol calling for heroes and hanging high in the air.

When a monster I control is destroyed by battle and sent to the GY: Special Summon 1 Level 4 or lower Elemental HERO monster from my hand or Deck.

I will special summon Elemental HERO Blazeman from my deck!

Responding to the call of the searchlight, a beam of flame burst out on the ground, and the hero in the red-hot tights let out a cry. He squatted and landed on the ground.

[Elemental HERO Blazeman, DEF 1800]

The effect of Blazeman is activated! Yuei Vu continued to operate, If this card is Normal or Special Summoned: I can add 1 Polymerization from my Deck to my hand.

He found the spell card, showed it to Dartz, and added it to his hand.

It doesn't matter. Dartz was expressionless, The battle continues. I use the Air Fortress Ziggurat to attack the Elemental HERO Blazeman!

All the barrels of the huge mechanical fortress fell at the same time, all locked on the lonely hero on Yuei Vu's field.

The heavy artillery blasted out, and countless barrels lit up at the same time. The missile dragged a long tail flame and blasted towards the flaming hero. The hero straightened his back and tensed his muscles, and was immediately engulfed by endless firepower, torn to pieces under the bombardment of weapons.

But at least he performed his duties well and used his body to bear all the impact. Yuei Vu was not injured in any way.

You are withstanding my attacks well enough, but it's not over yet. Dartz continued to order, Orichalcos Gigas, attack directly!

The giant spirit let out a low growl and rushed out dragging the heavy shackles. The chain rubbed against the ground and spattered sparks. When the giant swung it, the chain made a light-piercing sound.

The iron chain slapped Yuei Vu severely. Although its attack power was not too high now, it still made Yuei Vu sway and take two steps back slightly. The part of his body that was hit was burning with pain.

Yuei Vu, LP 4000LP 3100

And then Orichalcos Kyutora. Dartz said coldly. Direct attack.

The eye he summoned in the backcourt closed slightly and then opened it suddenly after only a moment. A beam of green light flew out from that eyeball and penetrated Yuei Vu's chest from the front. Yuei Vu shook his body and couldn't help but half-kneel on the ground.

Yuei Vu, LP 3100 LP 2100

Master!

Dark Magician Girl was in a hurry when she saw this scene, but she was outside killing enemies when The Seal of Orichalcos was activated, and now she was isolated from the barrier and couldn't help her master.

Unless Yuei Vu summoned her in the duel, it was impossible for her to break through the barrier and rush in with her own strength.

But the Silent Magician was escorting Yuei Vu at that time, and was included when the barrier was activated.

The white mage stepped forward with concern, reaching out his hand to help Yuei Vu up, but he waved his hand and refused. He smiled and stood up.

For your own sake, it might be easier to just admit defeat here. Dartz kept smiling.

Thanks, but I have to refuse. Yuei Vu didn't care.

You may think that your monsters in the GY still have special abilities that can be used? Dartz said lightly, Whether it is Blazeman or Shadow Mist girl who entered the GY this round, they all have special abilities that can be triggered when they return to the field.

And the Elemental HERO Liquid Soldier you added to your hand just now has the power to call your companions from the graveyard

Yuei Vu:

From this point of view, Dartz seemed to have done enough research and already has a general understanding of the cards used by Yuei Vu.

He kind of wanted to say: I was just a pawn who had just touched Rank 8, how could a last BOSS like you miss me so much?

So in the Main Phase 2, I want to activate the special ability of Guardian Eatos, Dartz raised his hand, By destroying a Celestial Sword Eatos on my field, Guardian Eatos can remove from play all monster cards whose ATK is not 0 from the opponents Graveyard, then have this card gain ATK equal to the combined ATK of the monsters removed until the end of the turn! (animation effect)

The holy sword flew into Eatos hands. She held up the sword and whispered some kind of incantation.

Yuei Vu felt his arm move uncontrollably, and the Duel Disk was lifted up automatically as if attracted by magnetic force. Shadow Mist and Blazeman both flew out of the GY area, turned into two phantoms, and involuntarily flew into the sword, turning into the power of Eatos.

[Guardian Eatos, ATK 3000 ATK 5200]

Of course, the Battle Phase of this turn is over, and I can no longer attack. But in this way, the two heroes in your graveyard will no longer exist.

Dartz drew another card from his hand unhurriedly: Set another card on the field, and I end my turn. At this moment, Eatos attack power returns to its original state.

[Guardian Eatos, ATK 5200 ATK 3000]

At the same time, due to the destruction of the Equip Spell Celestial Sword Eatos, the attack power of Air Fortress Ziggurat is also dropped by 300.

[Air Fortress Ziggurat, ATK 3300 ATK 3000]

Air Fortress Ziggurat should have the effect of summoning Robot Tokens at the end of the turn. But this card didn't have a real-life version, and the detailed effect text was not given in the animation. Now it seemed that this effect was optional.

Dartz didn't choose to activate the ability to summon the token, and Yuei Vu speculated that might be because he wanted to reserve the slot of the field.

Even with the The Seal of Orichalcos, which allowed Monster Zones and Spell & Trap Zones to be used in common, Dartz still had only ten slots on his field. More than half of it has already been taken up, so maybe he wanted to reserve space for subsequent operations.

Of course, Yuei Vu has no intention of being led by the other party.

From this turn, it was time to counterattack!

Chapter 300: The Giant Spirit Who Was Beaten To Death

My turn, draw!

The two heroes in the GY area were removed from the game, which did prevent Yu Yu from further retrieval from the deck through the effects of Shadow Mist and Blazeman.

But it didn't matter, with the card he just drew, the number of cards in his hand has reached nine, and the components for counterattack have already been collected in his hand!

Activate the Spell Card from the hand Polymerization! Yuei Vu directly played the spell card he retrieved last turn, I fuse Elemental HERO Liquid Soldier with Elemental HERO Avian!

The fusion condition is 1 Elemental HERO monster + 1 WIND monster!

Fusion Summon! Elemental HERO Great Tornado!

The liquid hero turned into a bunch of water arrows, and the wind hero turned into a green light beam. The two intertwined and rushed into the vortex in midair, like a whirling tornado falling from the sky!

A gust of wind blew up inside Orichalcos barrier, and the hero who controlled the storm fell slowly with his arms folded, his cloak fluttering in the wind.

[Elemental HERO Great Tornado, ATK 2800]

The effect of Liquid Soldier If this card is used as Fusion Material for a HERO monster, and sent to the GY or banished: I can draw 2 cards, then discard 1 card.

Yuei Vu drew two cards, then picked out one and discarded it, then waved his finger at the hero who made his grand debut on the field.

And then there is the effect of the Great Tornado! If this card is Fusion Summoned: Halve the ATK and DEF of all face-up monsters the opponent currently controls!

Dartz snorted: Its really a convenient ability.

Air Fortress Ziggurat is unaffected by the opponents Spell and Trap Cards, but the effect of monsters is the blind spot of its resistance. Yuei Vu said, Storm Annihilation!

The manic wind swirled and rushed out, and the hurricane suppressed the entire field of Dartz. No monster was spared from the storm summoned by the hero of tornado.

[Guardian Eatos, ATK 3000 ATK 1500]

[Air Fortress Ziggurat, ATK 3000 ATK 1500]

[Orichalcos Gigas, ATK 900 ATK 450]

Dartz only placed these three monsters in the front row.

This also meant that Yuei Vu has no way to attack the monsters in the back row before defeating those monsters.

That being the case, it would be good to break through from the front.

Its not over yet! Spell Card Fusion Recovery! Yuei Vus operation continued, Target 1 Polymerization and 1 monster in my GY that was used as material for a Fusion Summon; add them to the hand.

I add Fusion and Elemental HERO Avian back to my hand.

Two cards popped up from the grave area. Yuei Vu added them to his hand, immediately drew three cards from his hand, and revealed them at the same time.

I activate Polymerization again!

The ones to be fused this time are Elemental HERO Avian and Elemental HERO Burstinatrix!

Come on, watch over the heroes who stand on the top of the skyscrapers and master the power of wind and fire!

Fusion Summon! Elemental HERO Flame Wingman!

The classic combination of Avian and Burstinatrix, the two old partners who have been around for many years have already been familiar with the road. They both flew into the air and merged into one in mid-air. The flames erupted in the center of the fused vortex, and a meteor-like figure wrapped in the flames fell vertically, landed on the ground.

[Elemental HERO Flame Wingman, ATK 2100]

Seeing the two powerful Elemental HEROes appearing quickly on Yuei Vu's field, Dartz also narrowed his eyes slightly and smiled: From the very beginning, there are high-level heroes appearing one after another. Your motivation is also very good.

Yuei Vu ignored it: Battle! Great Tornado, attack Guardian Eatos!

There was a flash of light in the eyes of the tornado hero. The hurricane that had just stopped in space immediately rolled up again. Under his guidance, the gust of wind blasted forward, involuntarily sweeping the weakened guardian angel into the air.

Eatos let out a low, miserable hum in mid-air. Her figure was quickly shattered under the domineering storm.

But at the same time, she also got rid of the shackles of Orichalcos barrier. It's not a bad thing for the monster itself.

After the gale broke through Guardian Eatos, the turbulent storm swept toward Dartz without abating. However, Dartz just stood there calmly, without even blinking his eyelids.

The moment the storm arrived in front of Dartz's body, the eye summoned in his back row suddenly widened. The storm seemed to have hit an invisible barrier. It was stopped less than half a meter away from Dartz, unable to move forward.

All the air currents and shocks were absorbed by the eye named Orichalcos Kyutora. It failed to cause any damage to Dartz himself.

Dartz explained lightly: As long as Orichalcos Kyutora exists on the field, all the battle damage caused by my monsters to me will become 0. It will absorb all the damage for me.

After a pause, he smiled slightly: But I think you should already know this.

Yuei Vu did not deny it. But he didn't stop there: The battle continues! Flame Wingman, attack Air Fortress Ziggurat!

At this time, the attack power of the sky fortress was also halved under the suppression of the Great Tornado, and it was no longer comparable to Flame Wingman.

The flaming hero soared into the sky like a burning bullet, turned into an afterimage, and flew away, leaving a scorching trail in the air. All the weapons in the sky fortress were activated, locked on the trajectory of the Flame Wingman's impact, but obviously, its current firepower is not enough to stop the hero's offensive.

Orichalcos Kyutora was indeed a very powerful defensive monster. As long as this guy was on the field, no matter how much Yuei Vu attacked, Dartz would not be damaged. This way he could prepare to call a more powerful ace monster with peace of mind.

But Orichalcos Kyutora could only absorb battle damage.

Elemental HERO Flame Wingman had the powerful ability to inflict damage equal to the original attack power of the destroyed monster to the opponent. This belonged to effect damage rather than battle damage, so Kyutora had no way to defend against it.

And it should be noted that the damage that Flame Wingman inflicted on the opponent was equal to the original attack power of the destroyed monster. That was to say, if this attack passed and the Air Fortress Ziggurat was sunk, Dartz must take 2500 points of damage.

Using the ability of this hero named Flame Winged Man to break through my absolute defense So that's the case, I really have seriously considered it. Dartz was still calm and slowly raised his hand.

But, it's not that easy! Open the set card: Trap Card Call of the Earthbound!

The trap flipped over, and a strange and transparent ghost flew out of the card and passed in front of the Flame Wingman. The hero seemed to be confused for a moment, stopped the momentum of the attack, and looked around in a daze.

Call of the Earthbound's effect is that when the opponent attacks, I can choose the target of the attack. And the attack target I want to choose is, of course

Dartz raised his finger and pointed to the monster who was in charge of being beaten in front of him.

Orichalcos Gigas!

The giant spirit let out a low growl but didn't know what to say. Yueli Vu blindly guessed that this person might be expressing his resentment because he couldn't be dead, the master always let him be beaten to death

The transparent ghost flicked past the hero, wagging its tail, and flew straight in the direction of the giant spirit in the front row.

Maybe Flame Wingman inherited the characteristics of the fusion material Avian who was not firm in his stand and was tempted every day, so he turned his head and chased after the ghost. His body pierced Orichalcos Gigas like a burning cannonball, tearing the giant spirit to pieces.

Of course, Gigas was immediately resurrected under his own ability, and his aura was also raised a bit.

[Orichalcos Gigas, ATK 900 ATK 1400]

The effect of Gigas was that its attack power would increase by the number of resurrections x 500 points. Although its attack power was reduced to 450 by Great Tornado before, this debuff was naturally reset after being resurrected from the graveyard.

Because of the effect of Orichalcos Kyutora, all my battle damage will still be absorbed.

Dartz pointed to the eye in front of him that was absorbing the high-temperature flame and then gestured to the Continuous Spell Card beside him.

Then there is the effect of Card of Safe Return. I draw three cards from the deck.

Yueli Vu said: The effect of Elemental HERO Flame Wingman will inflict damage equal to the original attack power of the destroyed monster!

However, because the destroyed monster was Orichalcos Gigas, its original attack power was only 400 points, so the damage was naturally only 400 points.

The Flame Wingman flew down in front of Dartz and opened his arm with the dragon head. Dartz swallowed the impact of the flames calmly as if he didn't care about the baptism and damage of the flames.

Dartz, LP 3500 LP 3100

This level of flames cant defeat me, Duel King Yuei Vu. He said with a smile.

Yuei Vu ignored it: Set a card, I end my turn.
