Chapter 311: The Power Of Egyptian Gods

Three Egyptian Gods! Dartz was surprised, But when did Osiris

It was at the very beginning of the duel when I used the effect of Elemental HERO Liquid Soldier. When Liquid Soldier enters the graveyard as a Fusion Material for a HERO monster, I can draw two cards and then discard one card from my hand.

The card I discarded at that time was Osiris the Sky Dragon.

Unexpectedly At that time, have you already considered the current situation!? Dartz was stunned.

But he calmed down quickly.

But so what? Now, even the Egyptian god is no match for the Divine Serpent Geh. Besides, even if the three Egyptian gods are banished

Thats not necessarily true.

Dartz: !?

Dartz, this is my last move! Yuei Vu waved his hand and shouted, Open the set card! Trap Card Return from the Different Dimension!

By paying half my Life Points; Special Summon as many of my banished monsters as possible. During the End Phase, banish all monsters that were Special Summoned by this effect!

Dartz: !!??

Of course, Egyptian Gods were not affected by trap card effects. However, according to Konamis adjustment to the effect processing of Return from the Different Dimension, even monsters that are unaffected by trap card effects could also be special summoned, and after being summoned back, they would not be banished again due to the side effects of the trap card.

At the end of Yu-Gi-Oh! The Movie: Pyramid of Light, Yami Yugi also used this trap to call back the three Egyptian Gods who were banished in one go and established the victory.

So this wave was still a classic re-enactment.

Yuei Vu, LP 700 LP 350

Go back to the field and release the light again! Yuei Vu flashed three cards in one breath, Osiris the Sky Dragon! Obelisk the Tormentor! The Winged Dragon of Ra! Come back!

The dark clouds, the chaotic sky thunder, and the red dragon descended from between the flashing thunder and the black clouds. It curled up its huge body and let out a high-pitched dragon cry!

The scorching wind, the roaring earth, and the blue giant rose from the earth. His scarlet eyes were full of anger, and turned into blue light waves that enveloped his huge fists, like a volcano that was about to move was about to erupt at any moment!

The light that tore through the darkness shone like the sun, and the golden divine bird stretched out its wings made of pure gold, slowly descending from the sky, and the sacred golden light was burning like an eternal flame!

Three Egyptian gods have descended!

The dominance of the evil god was dispelled at the moment the Egyptian god descended, and the atmosphere of despair also dissipated. The duel monster spirits regained their morale, and the dawn of victory that had almost disappeared seemed to shine on their camp once again.

Surprisingly, at such a time, you can summon three gods in one breath

Facing three powerful Egyptian gods at the same time, even Dartz felt tremendous pressure. He gritted his teeth and said in a deep voice with some annoyance: But its too late even for the Egyptian God to appear. The Divine Serpent Geh will not be destroyed by the card effect, even with the special ability of the Egyptian God

Thats not necessarily true.

What?

The power of the Three Egyptian Gods is more than that!

The sky dragon raised its head and roared highly into midair. The winged dragon was also not to be outdone. It let out an unstoppable and majestic roar, with an awe-inspiring momentum.

These two guys were full of majesty and momentum, so people accidentally ignore their vanity under that kind of deterrence. The attack power of Sky Dragon was only 2000 points at this moment.

The Winged Dragon was even worse The Sun God who was pulled back directly from another dimension now only has 0 attack power. Even if Yuei Vu gave it his remaining HP, its attack power was only 349, only barely enough to defeat Kuriboh

But it didnt matter, Yuei Vu already had planned long ago. He waved and shouted:

Osiris the Sky Dragon!

The sky dragon responded with a loud cry.

The Winged Dragon of Ra!

The noble divine bird also let out a majestic roar. It seemed that it had decided to make an exception this time and listen to his command.

Then the two of them heard Yuei Vu say: I will take these two gods as sacrifices!

Osiris: ???

Ra: ???

The ultimate hidden ability of Obelisk! Yuei Vu shouted, Using Osiris and Ra as sacrifices, only in this turn, Obelisks attack power will increase to infinity!

Hyper God Energy was the ultimate ability of the animated version of Obelisk. Its just that this ability is a bit weird. The original description was that it could only be used when Obelisk is angry.

However, whether to be angry or not was obviously up to God himself. You also couldnt point at Obelisks nose and say something like You look like a mess to intentionally make him angry. Because even if its effective then he might punch you into a mess before you could activate his ultimate ability

But it could also be seen in the animation, if two other Egyptian gods were used as sacrifices, this effect could be triggered without the precondition of anger. This version was called Infinity God Impact

To be honest, the sky dragon with an attack power of 2000 and the sun god with an attack power fluctuating between 0 and 349, apart from being handsome, was basically two salted fish. It was useless to keep them.

So here Yuei Vu sacrificed them directly without thinking.

Despite a little reluctance, the Sky Dragon and the Winged Dragon obeyed. They landed one on the left and one on the right respectively on the two huge arms of the Giant God Soldier. Because the sky dragons body is too long, its tail is wrapped around the giant soldiers body like a whip. If screwball players were here, they may think of weird things like bondage fetish,

Obelisk couldnt help roaring when he received the power from his companion. He carried the sky dragon in his left fist, and his entire arm turned fiery red. The fist on the right was equipped with a winged dragon, and the right half of the body is ignited with golden flames.

[Obelisk the Tormentor, ATK 4000 ATK]

Infinite attack power!

No It cant be! Dartzs expression was distorted, Egyptian God with infinite attack power!?

Even the Divine Serpent Geh behind him was frightened, the snake letter in its huge mouth became wavy, and there was an urge to sneak back to the black hole behind him when he saw that the situation was not going well.

The Earth is too dangerous, I want to go home now

Although the numerical values were also infinite, representing the absolute upper limit of the attack power that could be reached in this game, from the perspective of divine power, At this time, the three gods stably suppressed the Divine Serpent Geh.

Of course, according to the rules of the game, the results of the decisive battle between the two sides who also have unlimited attack power would still be a mutual kill.

But the moment the Divine Serpent Geh left the field, it would be Dartzs defeat.

Three Egyptian Gods! Yuei Vu gave the final order, Crush the evil god!!!

The giant god blasted out his fist.

The Sky Dragon and the Winged Dragon on his arms opened their mouths at the same time, and the super electric wave and the mighty flames blasted out at the same time under Obelisks fist.

The power of the god poured out unreservedly, sweeping mountains and seas, coming towards the Divine Serpent Geh. The poor serpent tried his best to open his mouth and spit out shock waves to resist, but he was completely vulnerable to the power of the Egyptian god, and his huge head was instantly engulfed by the three-color light, and was wiped out in the intense light and heat. Even the wreckage was pushed back into the depths of the black hole and dissipated.

Divine Serpent Geh fell!

Dartz was defeated!

Chapter 312: An Inflatable Balloon

Dartz was defeated!

As the winner was decided, Orichalcos Tritos began to shrink rapidly. The beam of light soaring into the sky quickly concentrated to one place, locking the loser of this betting soul duel.

As mentioned before, the soul of the loser in a duel inside The Seal of Orichalcos would be used as a sacrifice to the god of Orichalcos.

However, Dartz had already dedicated his soul to his god, so the side effects of the barrier became his help, helping him to lock the soul that was almost wiped out under the power of the three Egyptian Gods.

Dartz, who has long been assimilated with the evil god, was now basically equivalent to a part of the evil god. Originally according to his plan, even if he was defeated in this duel, he would just be sucked back into the evil gods body along with Orichalcos triple barrier.

However, what he never expected was that Yuei Vu would summon three Egyptian Gods at the same time in this duel. The divine power of the Three Egyptian Gods was so overbearing, even with the protection of Orichalcos triple barrier, it still shattered more than half of his clones soul.

If it wasnt for the fact that he was still in the triple barrier, he might have been wiped out in ashes.

At this time, the barrier was shrinking, and with the help of the barrier, Dartz managed to maintain the remaining soul fragments without dissipating. He paused for a moment before being sucked away by the barrier and stared at Yuei Vu coldly as if he wanted to say a few cruel words according to the boss's practice.

Dont think its over! He said in a deep voice, Orichalcos is eternal, and this is far from over. The darkness of the human heart is infinite, as long as there is darkness, no matter how many times, our God will Dartz didnt finish his harsh words, but swallowed the second half of the sentence abruptly.

Because he noticed that the three Egyptian Gods summoned during the duel didnt seem to disappear yet. The six eyes of the three gods stared at him in unison, as if they were looking at an alive and kicking grasshopper.

Osiris: Brothers, this guy doesnt seem to be dead yet, what should we do?

Ra: Nonsense, of course, well (fuck) kill him!

Obelisk: Get out of the way, I want to punch first!

Well, of course, all of the above were Yuei Vus imagination. Because just like he couldnt understand Kuribo's words, he also couldnt understand what these three Egyptian Gods were saying

But no matter where these three went, the momentum was still in place. Dartz quickly closed his mouth and flew away without saying a word.

Yuei Vu had to admit that Dartz was very witty. If he finished the last half of the sentence and ate a hit from any Egyptian God, the soul fragments that he could barely maintain might be wiped out. After the duel was over, the attack of the Orichalcos Army also stopped.

All the cracks in space were closed, and the monsters no longer respawned. Without the endless backup, the Orichalcos Army immediately lost its advantage in front of the spirits and was killed completely in two or three minutes.

This was a complete victory for the entire spirit world.

Master!

Dark Magician Girl flew up immediately and hugged Yuei Vu without thinking.

Master, I was so nervous just now! That snake has infinite attack power! I'm afraid of you, afraid of you.

But she soon realized that it was inappropriate, and quickly let go of her master: Ah, I'm sorry, master, I was too complacent.

Yuei Vu coughed lightly.

It didn't matter, as a generous master, he wouldn't mind these details.

And when she hugged him just now, it felt a little big and soft.

Yuei Vu touched her little golden head: Okay, okay, I'm fine. Have you worked hard? You also performed very well just now.

Dark Magician Girl's face was a little red: Actually, I didn't do anything, and I couldn't help you. But Master is really powerful! That's an evil god with unlimited attack power.

The Silent Magician girl still didn't speak, but she looked at Yuei Vu with amazement and admiration.

There were countless moments in this duel where she felt that it might be over. Especially when the Divine Serpent Geh with unlimited attack power appeared on the stage. She really thought that this was the end, that the entire spirit world would be destroyed by that thing.

But thanks to this duelist, that didn't happen.

That kind of evil god who seemed to her to be undefeatable was defeated by him.

If there are miracles in the world, probably that's what it looks like, right?

I'm sorry, Master, I couldn't help you when you were dueling just now.

Dark Magician Girl stared down at her boots with some remorse but considering that her view might be blocked, so technically she should just be staring in that direction.

Right, I have to thank sister Silent Magician!

Yuei Vu nodded in agreement.

Indeed, the Silent Magician helped him a lot this time. Although she didn't get the chance to appear in this battle of gods, she did share a lot of pressure for Yuei Vu in this duel, and her for directly raised Yuei Vu's Rank to 8. This point may also be very critical.

Yuei Vu turned around and was about to express his gratitude, but he was stunned.

Um? Where is the busty magician girl?

Immediately after he lowered his head, he realized that the Silent Magician had turned back into the little girl who was less than 1.5 meters tall. Her big eyes were looking at him.

Yuei Vu:

Does the lack of magic power cancel the transformation?

I feel like this Miss Mage is like an inflatable balloon. You can only use it once after blowing it up, and it will change back to its original shape after you use it up.

Does it mean I have to charge her mana before I come out to fight?

Cough cough* It goes too far.*

After destroying the evil god, the three Egyptian Gods also disappeared. Peace has returned to the spirit world, and the gloomy gray sky before has also turned back to a clear blue color.

But he knew it wasn't over.

Although Dartz failed to revive the God of Orichalcos in this duel, he still had a chance in the real world.

The duel of his other half was not over yet.

The Silent Magician stretched out her small hand and tugged at the corner of Yuei Vu's clothes, and gestured to the side.

Yuei Vu looked in the direction she indicated, and saw a floating image at a glance, which felt like a TV screen suspended in mid-air.

The content on the screen was the final battle between Yugi, Kaiba, and Jonouchi with Dartz in the Temple of Doma.

Although Dartz has slipped away, he also left a space crack in the spirit world. It could be that the Silent Magician cast some sort of spell through the rift, allowing them to see what was happening on the other side.

At this moment, the soul fragment left by the clone defeated by Yuei Vu was flying into the body of that Dartz.

Dartz, who absorbed this part of the soul fragments, became quite ugly as if he was seriously injured.

Yugi keenly noticed his reaction, and frowned but said nothing.

Hmph. Dartz glanced at him, and said calmly, It's okay to tell you. The Duel King named Yuei Vu that guy has caused me some trouble.

Yuei Vu? Jonouchi was surprised, Didn't you say that you have already dealt with him?

Then it seems that I underestimated him. The other me was just defeated by him in the world of dueling monsters. Otherwise, there is no need to continue this duel now. Dartz shook his head, If I win on that side I have no reason to continue to fight you here.

Hearing this, everyone in the hall couldn't help breaking out in a cold sweat.

It turned out that not long ago, they had walked on the edge of world destruction?

Only Kaiba reacted the most calmly to this matter, not only was not frightened, on the contrary, he burst into a series of heroic laughs like hahahahaha.

From the first time you showed up and claimed to have defeated Yuei Vu, I already knew it, Dartz! Kaiba laughed, You don't have that strength at all! If you want to beat him, then you have to live another ten thousand years!

President Kaiba was able to be sure that the first blood of a passerby with the Yu prefix was not taken, thus he was in a good mood now.

But Yuei Vu is so strong. Jonouchi wiped off his sweat, The three of us are against Dartz, and we are still helpless for the time being. Yuei Vu defeats him alone.

Yugi narrowed his eyes and looked at Dartz: Why did you tell us this?

Dartz glanced over the three of them and smiled lightly.

Because you three are the key. He said calmly, After I defeat you, then absorb the souls of Seto and the nameless Pharaoh as sacrifices. With such powerful souls as supplements, our God will be unstoppable.

Never think of that! Shouted Jonouchi, Our soul won't become yours.

Honda, an outside audience outside the barrier, reminded in a low voice: Well Jonouchi, he didn't seem to say that he wanted your soul.

Jonouchi's facial muscles twitched: Shut up!

Chapter 313: Duel King Says: Let There Be Effect!

Because Orichalcos Tritos has been activated at this moment, no one could interfere with this duel, so Yuei Vu temporarily acted as an outside spectator in the spirit world, watching the bigshot players play cards in the front row.

Although compared with the animation, Dartz sacrificed his soul to the evil god in advance to continue his life, and his strength has increased significantly compared to the original work, but at this time his clone has just suffered a serious injury from Yuei Vu, so his strength should be greatly affected.

Reasonably, Yuei Vu thought that the end of this duel should be concluded.

But the disadvantage of Yugi and others in the game was that they were in the light while the enemy was in the dark. Dartz knew each of their decks and routines very well, but they knew nothing about the cards printed by Dartz, and they had to explore slowly while playing.

The infinite resurrection of Orichalcos Gigas, the LP recovery of Orichalcos Deuterus plus the blockade of direct attacks, and then the mirror knight with the ability to forcibly destroy any monster by battle, not to mention that big and stupid Orichalcos Shunoros,

Every time Dartz took a new card, the three of them would suffer a big disadvantage. In the game, Yugi, Kaiba, and Jonouchi took turns stepping on the pits, and they were toyed with by the inexplicable effects of Orichalcos bunch of cards

And Dartz was also very sinister, he only mentioned half of the effect of the same card every time, and he had to wait for three people to step on all the first effect, then he talked about second effect and third effect of each card, which was very wretched.

Watching the three of them play cards, Yugi couldn't help but rejoice that he fortunately has watched the anime. Thinking about it carefully, if he hadn't known the other party's routines and effects in advance, Dartz's pile of cards would still be a bit dangerous. This guy was simply a thousand-year-old autistic

(Dartz: I'm autistic? Why don't you say it again out of conscience?)

Not knowing the opponent's effect at all, the situation of the three of them was like a player who has abandoned the game for many years and came back with outdated information. With a whimper, they lost 8000 LP.

At this time, normal people would fall into deep doubts: Who am I? Where am I? ? What am I going to do? ? ?

It could be foreseen that playing cards with the opponent in this state was still very disadvantageous. So it didn't take long for their number to be reduced. Jonouchi was the first to fall under the attack of Orichalcos Shunoros whose attack power was more than 20,000.

Originally the second one to collapse was probably supposed to be Yami Yugi. But at the moment when Dartz gave Yugi the last blow, Kaiba opened the set card in time that was Attack Guidance Armor, which forcibly changed Dartz's attack target into his monster.

So Kaiba blocked the bullet for Yugi and fell.

At this moment, President Kaiba finally got the attention of Yami Yugi, who has only AIBO in his head.

Kaiba!!!

Yugi hurried forward to catch the president who was gradually losing consciousness and fell down.

The president was already dying, and his soul was on the verge of disappearing. But he still exhausted the last of his strength and said, Don't get me wrong, I just repay your favor

After finishing speaking, the president tilted his head and became cold.

By the way, the favor that the president was referring to here was the card effect Yugi activated a few rounds ago that made him draw a card

Well, that's right, it's the favor of drawing a card.

Yami Yugi became angry, and instantly entered the brink of going berserk.

Although he was not interested in anyone other than AIBO, he has always been indifferent to President Kaibas fanatical attitude of playing cards with him all day long but even so, he couldnt allow Kaiba to collapse in front of him!

Not to mention, Kaiba even jumped for him to block the bullet.

This made the king extremely angry!

Even when his best friend Jonouchi was defeated, he was not so angry!

(Jonouchi: I)

Have you prepared to feel my wrath, Dartz? Yugi yelled, My turn, draw!

The Pharaoh was on the verge of a rampage. Without going through the program, the firepower was fully outburst, and the legendary Millennium Card Printing Machine was directly activated

What do I want to activate is this card!

He just slapped the drawn card without even looking at it an improbable move for anyone but him!

Dartz looked at it and was dumbfounded.

What the hell? What did you just play? A blank card?

What do you think we are playing here? Mahjong with White Dragon?

I activate the Legend of Heart! I am calling for the true power of the three legendary dragons here!

Dartz: Dont lie to me, theres nothing written on that card

Yugi: Shut up! Legend of Heart can special summon the true form of the legendary dragons the three Legendary Knights from my hand, deck, or graveyard!

As we all knew, the characteristic of the blank card was that nothing is written, and the effect could be made up casually.

To sum it up, Duel King says: Let there be effect!

However, Yami Yugi showed that he was a Duel King and Pharaoh, so he should be upright and never sloppy. Even if he used BISS, he still had to pay attention to the common sense of printing cards The more powerful the card, the higher the price.

Therefore, as the activation price of Legend of Heart, Yugi decided to pay a super huge amount of life points (1000), and also sacrifice a powerful monster (the legendary cannon fodder swordsman)!

Yugi: Pay 1000 LP, and then sacrifice Obnoxious Celtic Guardian on the field! Remove the three Legendary Dragons in the graveyard from the game, then Special Summon three Legendary Knights!

Dartz: Wait! You shouldnt have these three monsters in your deck

Yugi (ignoring Dartz): Come on, Legendary Knight Timaeus! Legendary Knight Hermos!
Legendary Knight Critias!

Dartz:

So under the concerted efforts of the Three Legendary Knights, Dartz's Orichalcos Shunoros was chopped into scrap iron at the speed of light

But it didn't matter!

Dartz, whose trump card was defeated, laughed at this time: Stupid pharaoh, you have stepped into my trap! When Shunoros is destroyed, the Divine Serpent Geh with infinite power will descend!!!

As his voice sounded, the huge snake god came from the black hole again.

The Divine Serpent Geh, who had just been beaten by the Three Egyptian Gods and had a bruised nose and swollen face, poked his head out of the black hole again. It seemed that he decided to give Dartz another chance to see if the earth was really that dangerous

The moment Yugi saw this thing, he was also shocked: The attack power is infinite!?

Dartz laughed loudly: The power of the Divine Serpent Geh is unlimited, you have already lost! You will become the sacrifice of the evil god, and this world will be swallowed by darkness!

Although Yugi was shocked for a moment, he quickly regained his composure.

Isn't it an infinite attack power? What's there to be afraid of?

Watch me hammer it back!

Yugi waved his hand: Legendary Knight Timaeus! Legendary Knight Hermos! Legendary Knight Critias! Attack the Divine Serpent Geh!

Dartz was shocked: Take the initiative to attack the Divine Serpent Geh with infinite attack power!?

At this moment, activate the effect of Legendary Knight Critias, which can absorb the effect of the trap card in the GY! I absorb the trap left by Kaiba in the tomb, Attack Guidance Barrier!
(Animation card)

It can transfer the attack target of the opponent's monster to other monsters on my field! I changed the attack target of the Divine Serpent Geh to Legendary Knight Hermos!

Dartz: Wait a minute, Attack Guidance Barrier can only transfer the attack target when my monster attacks. Now you are attacking me

Yugi (continued to ignore): Attack Guidance Barrier can transfer the attack power of attacking monsters to other monsters! I absorb the attack power of Divine Serpent Geh and transfer it to Legendary Knight Hermos! So Legendary Knight Hermos attack power also becomes infinite!

Dartz: Wait, the effect of Attack Guidance Barrier is to change the attack target to a Defense Position monster you control, make it gain 600 DEF until the End Phase, then after that battle, end the Battle Phase

Yugi (maybe didn't hear it): Then there is the effect of Legendary Knight Hermos! By removing the three monsters in the deck from the game, its attack power will be tripled! That is to say, his attack power can become three times the attack power of the Divine Serpent Geh that is, three times the infinity!

Moreover, the effect of Legendary Knight Hermos can be activated more than once in a turn, so the attack power can be tripled infinitely!

Dartz (no longer wanted to speak):

Yugi: Its not over yet! Legendary Knight Timaeus ability! Let the three legendary knights on the field merge! The power formed by our bonds will now transform into a new future!

Appear, Timaeus the Knight of Destiny! Smash Dartzs monsters, destroy the darkness, and use our bonds to bring light!

The three knights merged into a shining golden armored knight, and they flew forward with a sword in their hands with a loud shout. Under the brilliance of the combined knights sword, the Divine Serpent Geh with infinite attack power howled miserably, and finally disappeared from the field

Chapter 314: The God of Orichalcos

The game between Yugi and Dartz, after a set of ultra-luxury combo, finally ended with the defeat of Dartz.

Generally, a boss would be fucked up with by either divine draw, BISS, or card printing. Experienced such a luxury package of all three, Dartz could go out with a smile.

The moment Dartz fell under Yami Yugis hands, the crowd duel monsters in the spirit world were cheering excitedly.

The evil god was finally broken!

Master, its great! The Dark Demon Director was also excited by Yuei Vu. In this way, he is completely finished!

But Yuei Vu was not so optimistic.

Would Dartz really be finished so easily?

He knew that in the original animation, even after Dartz and his Divine Serpent Geh were defeated, he was still able to resurrect the god of Orichalcos by offering his own soul.

Then the God of Orichalcos and a large number of duel monster spirits fought for a while. Later, he and the three Egyptian Gods had a fierce battle above the clouds. After being broken by the three Egyptian Gods together, he was still lingering.

According to Dartz himself, the essence of the gods of Orichalcos was actually a contradiction between the dark side of the earth and humans. As long as the darkness of the human heart does not disappear, it will never be eliminated.

Although the two consecutive duels have caused huge trauma to Dartz and his god, if you wanted to kill them directly, it may still not be practical.

However, at this time, the Divine Serpent Geh was broken, and Dartzs figure disappeared in front of Yugi.

At the same time, the golden knight Timaeus the Knight of Destiny split back into Three Legendary Knights, who also took the opportunity to liberate the soul of Yugi Muto, Kaiba, Jonouchi, and countless others.

Now that AIBO has returned, the Pharaoh who had had a tough BOSS fight felt that his fatigue was wiped out.

There was nothing to be scared of.

AIBO returned to his side, now he was omnipotent!

Sure enough, Dartz was not so easy to go down.

Not long after the duel, various visions began to appear around the world. The storm was rising for a while, the tsunami swept, the volcano around the world erupted, and the dark clouds shrouded the sky

It gave a sense of Ultramans finale.

In the sky, an island emerged out of thin air.

Yugi, Kaiba, and Jonouchi obeyed the guidance of Legendary Dragon cards in their hands, passed through the portal of the Temple of Doma, and came straight to the floating island.

The towns were ruined, and the streets had been silent for thousands of years, but their old glory could still be seen from the wreckage of the building.

Soon the three realized that this was the capital city of Atlantis, a city that was ruled by Dartz 10,000 years ago.

A huge shadow quickly covered the area where the three were standing from the rear. The three turned back and saw what cast such a huge black shadow. Their heartbeat seemed to stop for a moment.

Because that thing was too big.

The body was like a python wrapped around this floating island layer by layer. It raised his huge skull, overlooking the downward, and the turbid eyes seemed like the darkest darkness in the world.

In terms of body type alone, the three Egyptian Gods may not be compared with it.

And on the head of that thing was Dartz, whose body became purple and exuded a strong magic power like a devil. At this time, half of his body has been integrated into the python body.

Dartz! Yugi was shocked, Impossible, you should have been defeated!

Hm, the nameless Pharaoh. Yes, I was defeated in the duel with you.

Dartz sneered maybe because of the fusion with the evil god, his tone became hoarse and weird.

But as I said, the God of Orichalcos is immortal. He said, No matter how many times it is knocked down, it is useless, as Gods power is infinite.

If you want to ask why, thats because this God is the collection of all restrained souls!

What!?! Jonouchi was shocked, What does this mean?

Dartz hummed and smiled, saying: This means all people who have just been absorbed by God of Orichalcos, all restrained souls, their inner darkness will be increased without restrictions in the restraint space. That is why the power of the God of Orichalcos is infinite.

Anyway, it is impossible for humans to overcome the obstacles of the mind by themselves. This is the defect of the human species in nature.

No matter how you deny the darkness of your heart, as long as there is a little fragment left, sooner or later the darkness will make a comeback, and then continue to become stronger.

Impossible! Jonouchi said, In this way, what we do now, all the efforts of all battles, isnt it meaningless?

Dartz laughed: Thats right! From the beginning, your efforts have no sense, because the darkness of the heart cannot be eradicated at all!

You are lying, Kaiba said coldly.

Oh? Dartz asked in an interested tone, Seto, what reason do you have to deny this?

The reason is that even if you can actually wake up the so-called God in this way from the beginning, you still duel with us, isnt it? Haima sneered, Because you are not as confident as you say, arent you?

You feel that it is a more secure way to defeat us through the duel. That means even with this ugly evil god on your side, you actually dont have enough confidence to confront us.

Dartz:

Indeed, he could use his soul as a sacrifice from the beginning and resurrect the evil god, but he did not do so, and still chose to duel with Yugi.

Because he was actually not as confident as he said. Only by excluding the uncertain factors like Yugi, Yuei Vu, and Kaiba, then he could be 100% sure his plan would succeed.

Now he had no choice but to decide to bet on the power of the evil god.

Yugi unexpectedly looked at him: Kaiba

Dont be deceived by him, Yugi! Kaiba shouted, Think about the enemies you came to defeat all the way, their inner darkness, their sorrow! We stepped on all of this to this moment today. Do you want to abandon it right before the finish line!?

Yugi:!

Kaiba turned to the huge god in the sky without fear: Dartz! The inner darkness you said, it indeed exists among humans. I cannot deny it even if I want, because, along the way, I have already seen too much.

Even Jonouchi who always had a bad relationship with the president, couldnt help but be moved: Kaiba

But! Kaiba waved, We just surpassed everything you said, and we came to this day! Now in my heart, there is only the light existing in the future. That is enough for me!

So that's it. Dartz, who was already demonized, snorted and closed his eyes lightly, Seto, this is your light, your consciousness is really dazzling enough. That's it that light, let me crush it!

He opened his eyes again, and his eyes were full of a devilish aura.

The huge evil god moved. It opened its mouth and shook the sky at the moment. It twisted its body while moving along the island, thus the entire island seemed to be crushed.

Its coming, everyone! Yugi took the lead in opening the fight and pulled out a few cards from the deck.

Summon the Dark Magician! Summoned Skull! Kuriboh!

The duel system was started, and the monster quickly materialized under the dark power of the Yugi.

As the pioneer, the first one who appeared was the most loyal servant of Pharaoh the Dark Magician, who was known as the strongest magician. Following him was Summoned Skull, the first Archfiend, and and a Kuriboh?

Although its meaning was a bit unknown here, it could be seen from the position of the Kuriboh in the Pharaohs deck. It even took a role in this level of divine battle

Jonouchi also opened his Duel Disk: Summon The Flame Swordsman! Jinzo! Red-Eyes Black Dragon!

The swordsman waved the burning sword and went out. The cyborg created by special alloy hugged his arms, and the king of dragons with a dark body raised his head.

Even at this critical juncture, President Kaiba, intentionally or unintentionally ignored the details of Summoning monsters to fight is unscientific, and also opened the Duel Disk.

And he was more handsome than the other two, as he threw out the trump card directly when he came up: Come, surpass the endless time and space, the most powerful dragon! Blue-Eyes Ultimate Dragon!

Anyway, everyone was ready to change the game mode from card to Pokemon directly. And sacrifices weren't required to summon Pokemon.

The three-headed dragon came with the momentum of a god! It raised its heads, and the three heads made a shocking roar at the same time!

Okay, very good! Dartz laughed. Since you are so obsessed, let me crush your ace monster, along with your last hope!

Chapter 315: Let Me Down First Aaaahhhhhh!

The second round of the battle between the three chosen ones and Dartz officially kicked off on the floating island in the sky.

Its just that this time it was not a regular duel, this time it was a direct fight.

Yugi himself had the Millenium Puzzle, coupled with the power of the legendary dragons so that the three of them could summon the monster whose card hosted no spirit.

Needless to say, the White Bride of Kaiba was the main force although Kaiba usually did not admit that supernatural things existed, now he couldnt deny that the white dragon card he held indeed had a spirit.

The strongest monster held by the three, coupled with the Legend of Heart printed by Yugi, liberated the strength of the three knights, a number of monsters rushed towards the evil gods in the air, Becoming the last line of defense between the evil god and this world.

But the cruel fact was that the gap between the strength of the two sides was too disparate, and there was no way to make up for the disparity.

Black Luster Soldier, who controlled the power of light and darkness, was bombarded out from a distance under the collision of the evil gods body, flying like a shell and falling into the town of the floating islands, smashing a large area.

Jonouchis Red-Eyes Black Dragon soared, then went down like a dive bomber, spitting out the Dark Flame Shot toward the back of the evil god.

The dark flame exploded on the sturdy skin of the evil god, but it seemed to have no effect besides leaving a little scorching black mark. Instead, the evil god twisted and took the black dragon down with a swing.

Blue-Eyes Ultimate Dragon exhausted all the power to release Ultimate Burst Stream of Destruction. Although it seemed to shake the body of the evil god, there was nothing more. When the python turned around, the mouth was a dark and boundless shock, and Blue-Eyes Ultimate Dragon was blown up into fragments. Its cry seemed to be full of apology that it could not protect its Master

Blue-Eyes Ultimate Dragon!

Kaiba shouted, gritted his teeth, and waved, Critias!

At this time, the three legendary dragons have long turned into humanoid forms. Critias wanted to attack with a sword, but before he rushed in front of it, the eyes scarlet of the evil god shot out a beam, which penetrated through the legendary knights chest. He let out a hum and then turning into virtual shadows, dissipated.

Legendary Knight Timaeus and Legendary Knight Hermos shouted in unison, flying forward to save their companion, but then they were also bombarded by the evil god, couldnt maintain their own form, and split into pieces.

Timaeus!

Hermos!

All powerful monsters were defeated, and even the legendary three knights could not rival the evil god at all.

As the monsters who fought and experienced countless battles with the three fell one after another, the only hope also seemed to be destroyed.

As if that wasn't enough, Dartz even summoned countless monsters of Orichalcos on this floating island.

Those zombie-like soldiers were like controlled puppets, but they came in large numbers, and swept through all corners of the entire street in the whole town.

They came toward the three from all directions, as if they wanted to drag them into the eternal dark abyss.

Hahahaha! Dartz laughed, I said, your resistance is meaningless! The God of Orichalcos is invincible! As long as humans are still human, there is a defect that can never be overcome, so its power will be endless!

No matter how much they didn't want to admit it, in the face of such an impactful fact, the three were silent for a while.

Even Kaiba, after witnessing his White Bride and Critias falling one after another, couldn't make a voiced rebuttal.

Damn! Jonouchi clenched his fist, Is it really helpless? With our strength, with the current human beings, can we really not overcome this thing?

Not only them, but more places and more people have witnessed this shocking scene.

The huge floating island, the ultra-ancient ruined cities, and the world-destroying evil god surrounding it, which was like what happened in countless fantasy works about the end of the world as we knew it.

The entire planet seemed to be pushed to a critical moment. Tsunamis, volcano eruptions, and earthquakes broke out all over the world. The earth trembled, the ground was mourning, and lava was sprayed high like a pillar.

The frequency of The Seal of Orichalcos appearance around the world was increasing, and more and more monsters have drilled out of control. The desperate cloudy clouds spread rapidly at a speed visible to the naked eye.

At the sea not far away, the captain who escorted Yugi and others went to the decisive battle on the deck of the mothership, looking at the tumbling python in the sky in the distance in the distance, and could not help talking to himself.

Is the world really going to end

He controlled the aircraft carrier fleet and had a large number of powerful hot weapons, but in all his life he never felt as helpless as it was now.

In his mind, he couldn't help but come up with a thought.

If what I have in my hand is not cannons and aircraft, but a team of well-trained duelists

Disappear, the chosen warriors! Dartz was still howling. After you, it will be the existing human civilization and even the whole world! Darkness will devour everything, and then the world will be destroyed, then be recreated

Aaaahhhhhh!

Dartz was having his monologue there, but his speech was cut mid-sentence, as an attack came from the sky and gave him a mighty impact.

The golden beam dragging the boundless thunder hit the evil gods body fiercely, which was obviously more effective than all the previous attacks. The python made a painful sorrow, dragging the black smoke under the impact, and was shocked to the side.

The eyes of the three on the island came together.

Yugis pupil shrank: Thats !?

On the dark sky, there were rippling colorful aurora, as if the color curtain was hanging on the sky.

A red dragon rolling in the clouds slowly came with the blue thunder around it. A huge second mouth was opened, roaring towards the evil god who was flying out of the air.

Osiris the Sky Dragon!

Its not over yet!

The clouds were torn, and the golden and sacred light dropped from the air, as if it brought warmth to the whole world that has fallen into the ice age. The red golden sphere slowly deformed and disintegrated opened the metal-like wings, raised the noble head, and the sound waves spreading the sharp sounds were twisted into fragments!

The Winged Dragon of Ra!

In the end, of course, the blue giant slowly fell from another position and had a solid body, surrounded by a destructive blue light, and the red eyes contained irresistible anger.

Obelisk the Tormentor!

Three Egyptian Gods! Yugi screamed in surprise.

No, its not just them, Jonouchi said.

Following the three gods, endless light spots flew out of the rippling aurora. The denseness was like a star in the sky, and they came towards the position of Yugi and others.

Master!

In the front, it was Dark Magician Girl -the one in Yugis hand, the reincarnation of the trainee priestess Mana 3000 years ago.

Behind her was the army of spirits that came from the spirit world!

Dark Magician Girl! Yugi found her.

So its the spirits of the duel monster come to help! Jonouchi was excited, Great, this is really a timely army!

Master, our world has been rescued by your friend! The Dark Magician Girl drifted down and landed in front of the three people. He defeated the evil god in our world. Now we follow him and come back to protect your world!

Our friend? Yugi was stunned.

Yuei Vu? Kaiba frowned, Where is he?

Its there! The Dark Magician Girl pointed at the sky.

Kaiba narrowed his eyes, relying on his extraordinary vision that was suspected to break through human limits and scientific difficulty explaining, and found out that the top of the sky dragon standing a duelist, who was looking down at the battlefield like a general.

Thats Yuei Vu?

The three felt a little hard to believe for a while.

The one who ordered the Three Egyptian Gods and led thousands of spirits to that penetrated the barriers of spatial space to come to the real world, appeared like the savior at the darkest hour was he really Yuei Vu?

Okay, that was just their imagination.

The real situation was Roar!!!

The sky dragon let out a domineering groan that shocked the heavens and the earth, it almost deafened Yuei Vu who was standing on the head

At this time, Yuei Vu was not as august as a general as they imagined.

In fact, he was holding the head of the Sky Dragon now, so as not to be blown down by the wind

Hey hey hey! Yuei Vu shouted at the top of his lung, hoping that his voice could be heard through the winds. You gods are battling, why bring a mortal like me? Let me down first aaaahhhhhh!

Chapter 316: Clash of The Gods

Yuei Vu finally returned to the ground before the two sides officially slammed into each other.

But of course, it was not Osiris who sent him down. That was his Dark Magician Girl who brought him away from the battlefield.

At this point, Yuei Vu couldnt help feeling deeply. Sure enough, his own spirit was still the best, and she was loyal and obedient, so she would do whatever he told her, unlike those proud gods who did not listen to his command at all.

At that moment, these three were excited to fight together, chasing behind the buttocks of the God of Orichalcos.

In particular, he criticized the Traitor Dragon, who only cared about bombarding the evil god with its thunder, as if it didnt remember there was a person on its head. Yuei Vu almost fell from its head several times

Dark Magician Girl was holding the masters shoulder, looking at his pale face, and couldnt help worrying: Master, are you okay?

Yeah Im okay. Yuei Vu took a deep breath.

Its a bit dizzy, and a little nauseous

When he landed on the floating island, a fierce battle broke out on the entire island. The monsters from the elves and the Army of Orichalcos fought fiercely, but from the perspective of the scene, the elves seemed to temporarily control the situation.

Under the instructions of Yuei Vu, the Dark Magician Girl took him to Yugi and others.

Yuei Vu! Yugi quickly greeted, You are really okay!

Jonouchi made a hugging posture: Its amazing, you actually brought so many spirits! If you didnt show up, I really thought we would be finished

President Kaiba was relatively indifferent and did not welcome him, but the corner of his mouth moved and he hummed: Hum, I know that you are not so easy to go down.

After tossing for a long time, Yuei Vus legs and feet finally felt the ground. He was still shaking a bit, and his stomach felt like it was still tumbling

But he didnt forget about what needed to do. Yuei Vu stepped forward and handed three cards to Yugi: You take this.

Yugi took a glance and was shocked to find those cards were three god cards.

Are you ?

Only you can exert the real power of these three cards, Yuei Vu said, Go, they need you now.

Yugi looked down at the three god cards in his hand, feeling the inspiration from the power, and his heart was slightly moved. It seemed to feel a subtle sense of familiarity.

He felt like these three cards should naturally belong to him.

Yugi gently closed his eyes which seemed to be brewing the momentum for a while. Then the Millennium Puzzle hanging on his chest suddenly lit up with golden light.

The radiance made people unable to open their eyes for a while. When they returned to their sense, the Yugi present was switched to the harmless Yugi Muto. As for the Pharaoh, he temporarily left the host with the gesture of the soul body and flew into the air in the air and flew towards the fierce battle of the gods.

In fact, the Three Egyptian Gods may really need him now.

Not only because if there was no Pharaoh commanded them, the divine power that the Three Egyptian Gods could play in reality would have some discounts, but also because these three gods were not as harmonious as many people think

It seemed that they were in a 3 vs 1 situation, but it may not be the case.

Each of the Three Egyptian gods had a supreme position among the duel monsters, and their individual strength was strong. However, the team co-operation seemed to be too bad.

At this moment, the eyes of countless people were focused on this war.

The gods and the evil god clashed, one side represented the continuation of the entire civilization, while the other side represented the end of the world.

There were no movie special effects that could render such gorgeous exaggerated effects, and that war has beyond the limits that humans could imagine. Many countries and troops, the eyes of large-scale institutions around the world were all focused on this war. Everyone was waiting nervously for the result.

If the three Egyptian Gods lost, it also meant the end of everything.

This was also the ultimate trial of the existing owners of the planet.

The few people standing on Atlantiss floating island were watching this battle of this century from the front seats.

Yuei Vu stood on the island and looked up at the sky that was filled with thunder and sunlight, unable to calm down for a long time.

From now on, he may not forget this scene in his life-

The evil god tied the earth with its huge body, and made a powerful slam to the sun god, who was knocked back by the impact. And the sky dragon

The sky dragon was watching

Many special factors were superimposed, therefore the Three Egyptian Gods and the God of Orichalcos have been fighting for a long time without winning.

Until the soul of Yami Yugi turned into a bunch of golden light to break through the clouds and came to the middle of the Three Egyptian Gods.

Osiris! Obelisk! Ra! Yami Yugi shouted, Across the span of 3000 years, in the name of Pharaoh, once again, I command you to break the darkness!

The three noisy gods become silent, and even the tendency of a civil war between them suddenly came down.

It looked like three workers were doing personal stuff at work time, and the boss suddenly pushed the door and entered.

The three Egyptian Gods were instructed by unified command, and the power increased by the blessing of Pharaoh, and the evil god could not stand up.

At this moment, the evil god was increasingly confident, and from the bottom of his heart he felt that the legendary three Egyptian Gods are nothing more than this, I can still win.

As a result, he did not expect that after the launch of Pharaoh, the three gods would become united instantly.

Thunderforce Attack, God Hand Crusher, God Blaze Cannon, a bunch of gorgeous and domineering moves drowned the evil god, making him almost forget who he was.

God of Orichalcos:???

It turns out that these there idiots have always been so strong?

Just now I have actually been toyed with?

Under the command of Yami Yugi, the three Egyptian Gods attacked at the same time, and the impact of the red, gold, and blue were integrated into one, and the colorful attack hit the God of Orichalcos directly.

The evil god let out a sorrowful cry and instantly fell from the sky like a broken cloth, and it exploded into gorgeous fireworks in the air.

Chapter 317: Pharaoh's Responsibility

It seems that this time it was finally ending.

The evil god was broken by the three Egyptian Gods, and even the dark atmosphere that covered the heavens and the earth seemed to be purified. Everyone clearly saw the evil god explode in midair as if the most gorgeous and big fireworks in history exploded.

At this moment, countless people around the world were relieved at the same time.

In this world, human civilization has survived.

The evil god fell, and its entity was bombarded by the three Egyptian Gods into ash. Numerous souls that were sealed in its body were released, and the hundreds of millions of souls turned into a sea of light in the sky. The scene was quite spectacular for a while.

Dartz has planned for this resurrection for thousands of years. In such a long time, he has destroyed countless kingdoms and civilizations and has been collecting souls for the evil god.

These souls come from various regions in various times, human beings from prehistoric civilizations, kings of the feudal era, nobles of the medieval century, and geniuses that have left precious wealth for humans in modern history

The soul of the ones who were still alive and belonged to this era all found their own flesh and returned to this world. The soul of the ones whose life span ended and who did not belong to this era has quickly dissipated and returned to where they should go.

From the dots of the sky, several people have seen people who had connections with themselves. For example, at a glance, Jonouchi found Valon, who had fled with him before, and Kaiba also found Alister, who had personal grievances with him. Yugi also saw Rafael who played with him twice.

Now that the evil god has fallen, they have regained freedom.

Whats even more interesting was that Yuei Vu still saw a few familiar figures among the sea of souls in the sky.

For example, when a short and bloated gentleman drifted in front of him, Yuei Vu only felt a little familiar for the first time and took a closer look

Damn, how can the more I look, the more this guy looks like Beethoven?

From this point of view, the records and reality of history were slightly different. Some people were great musicians on their faces, but they were actually duelists in the back.

Yuei Vu continued to guess boldly that his hearing problem may have nothing to do with illness. Maybe his loss of hearing was exactly the ante of a certain Shadow Game

At this moment, he remembered that there seemed to be such a scene in the animation.

At that time, Dartz was talking about the darkness of his heart with Yugi and others, showing them the great people sealed in his temples, who came from various times and places to demonstrate that no one could really overcome the darkness of their hearts.

Several characters he mentioned at that time, from the portraits and pictures, were similar to Beethoven and Einstein, and there was a that looked a little like Qin Shi Huang

So maybe at that time, Qin Shi Huang relied on playing cards to conquer the six kingdoms. In the end, he lay down other kings one by one and naturally unified ancient China into one.

So the legendary brave Jing Ke may be a duel monster spirit who knows?

Most of the records of this part of the later generations might be wrong. Maybe the so-called The Dagger At The End of The Scroll assassination was simply a duel played by Crown Prince Dan of Yan and Qin Shi Huang.

At that time, Crown Prince Dan summoned Jing Ke who was able to attack the player directly, intending to give the Qin Emperors last blow. Facing a certain death on the next turn, Qin Shi Huang performed a divine draw, and activate the Spell Card Pillar of The Main Hall which could allow the player to run in circles behind a pillar and negate any direct attack on the player

Okay, of course, those were all his imagination.

But even if suffering such huge damage, the God of Orichalcos was still not dead.

The floating island was about to collapse, and the ancient cities were falling apart. However, at the last moment, Dartz reappeared with the darkness of the grievances.

He laughed madly, screaming: The essence of Orichalcos was the dark side of the planet and the earths resentment of humans.

As long as humans and the earth existed at the same time, the evil god would never be defeated!

Then Yami Yugi stood up.

He said at this moment, he finally found the meaning of his existence. He understood why fate arranged for him to wake up again after three thousand years.

He wanted to use his soul as a container to bear the darkness of the entire planet!

This was his responsibility as the Pharaoh!

A Pharaoh is someone who bears the burden of every human in his sight. I've been carrying the weight of the world on my shoulders since 3000 years ago! (Mr. Gilgamesh gave praise)

So in the end, Orichalcos power and the darkness were called planet resentment, all of which were sealed by the container of Pharaoh's heart.

The evil cause of ten thousand years has been cut off. From now on, Orichalcos no longer existed.

A century war finally ended. The Doma camp was defeated with the fall of the leader and its wake-up evil gods.

At the end of the camp battle, the main quest of defeating Doma and all the camp quests received by players were announced: completed.

At this moment, almost all players have received the announcement of the system about the end of the camp war.

Depending on the completion of the progress of each person's main quest and the number of completed side quests, the rewards sent to everyone were also different.

But after all, it was a super large main storyline. As long as the player participated, the rewards were generally quite generous.

Especially for the players who entered the pit late and missed the main plotline of Battle City, the reward of the system made them addicted.

After the event was officially ended, the camp system also automatically disclosed the list of camp contributions.

This list was counting the contribution of all members of the victory camp. It included not only players but also includes all NPCs participating in the war.

Although the NPCs could neither see this list nor use the contribution points to exchange rewards, this was more convenient for players to identify which NPCs in their own camps were theirs, so that they could formulate future boot-licking plans to gain the most benefits in the future.

At this time, all the players who joined the camp could not wait to open the list after receiving the prompts.

Someone was excited immediately: Wow! I'm on the top of the list!

Such awesome? Where?

Turn to page 369, and look onto the top, do you see my ID?

You

Why do I have NPCs?

Because this was the first time the camp battle system was open, all players enjoyed these fresh experiences.

It's over, we can't compete with NPCs for the first few top positions, right?

Many people flipped directly to the top of the list, and they could not help but inhale a cold breath.

They saw a magical name that they were familiar with in the first place -to say its magical because when seeing it, most people would feel that sounds so handsome in their first reaction!

[#1, Yuei Vu]

[The contribution of camp battle: 1216413 points!]

Chapter 318: Special Product

Yuei Vu, more than 1.2 million contribution points!

A lot of players were dumbfounded.

Of course, everyone expected that Yuei Vus contribution would be very high, and he may be far ahead on the list. However, when the players bowed their heads, watching themselves may only be hundreds of points, tens of points, or even a single number of points of contribution, the first reaction was ..FUCK!

There was no way, after all, screwballs were not cultural, so it stopped here.

The protagonist of the world!

Is it different from the animation plot? Isnt Dartz killed by Yugi? I thought the top of the list would be him

Yugi is the second place, and his score is also very high.

Indeed, Yugi followed behind Yuei Vu.

The contribution point of Yugi was more than 110,000 points. It was very huge, but still a little worse than the first place.

How much contribution here was the direct response to how much damage they dealt to the enemy in the camp battle. All Doma members would provide contribution points, but according to the different levels of the enemy, the gap between the contribution value was huge.

Most of the players killed the bottom-level cannon fodders in Doma. Only a few elite players have killed some Shadow Duelists at the middle and high levels. Of course, the number of contributions obtained could not be compared with several main NPCs.

The most eye-catching players were the four following Yuei Vu. Snow Wave, Miss Yuehua, Native Noragami, all of whom had more than 2,000 points which made other players fear.

Following behind Yugi, naturally, were the other two main characters of this arc, Jonouchi and Kaiba.

However, although the contribution value of these two was much more than the players, compared to the first two of the list, they were not in the same league.

The other NPCs couldnt see this list, but Yuei Vu could. He could also guess the reason for their scores.

Yuei Vu himself naturally had the gold medal. He had won two duels against Domas behind-the-scenes BOSS, and the second time he won under the state that Dartz has fused with the evil god.

In this regard, even the three original protagonists can't compare with him. After all, the game has only played one game with Dartz, and it was still 3 vs 1. Of course, the contribution value was not comparable to Yuei Vu.

In addition, he also killed Alister, who originally went after President Kaiba. As a Doma swordsman who was under only Dartz, the contribution value of this guy was not low.

Not to mention the last moment of the world destruction, Yuei Vu brought the three Egyptian Gods and thousands of spirits to the battlefield and directly laid the final victory

So even Jonouchi and Kaiba were completely unable to compare his contribution.

Although Yugi seemed to be doing less than Yuei Vu, he also defeated Dartz in a duel, and then he ordered the three Egyptian Gods to complete the destruction of the God of Orichalcos.

More importantly, he used the container in his heart to completely seal the root of Orichalcos and the darkness of the planet. The score of this merit was difficult to measure.

Yuei Vu estimated if it wasn't for the defeat in Rafael's hand in the early game, Yugi's final score may have been higher than his.

So everyone's final score and ranking order were completely reasonable in the eyes of Yuei Vu. However, it was not the case in the eyes of the players.

What they thought now was

1.. 1.2 million! So handsome and awesome!

According to the animation, it should be Yugi who defeats Dartz and then seal the god of Orichalcos. What did Yuei Vu do to contribute more than Yugi?

Maybe Yuei Vu has committed adultery with Dartz's wife?

Dartz's wife was dead ten thousand years ago, wasn't she?

Maybe he seduces Dartz, then dumps him? I think Dartz looks quite pretty

The one above, your brain must have a problem!

Seeing the increasingly crooked comments in the forum, Yuei Vu couldn't help but sigh.

What is this group of screwballs thinking all the time

However, NPC couldn't get any benefit, except for letting everyone see who was the real thigh.

After all, NPC could not enter the system store, and could not exchange contribution points for rewards. So no matter how high the ranking is?

at least the players thought so.

Think from this point of view, they were slightly balanced in their hearts.

Ha! What is the use of your contribution value so high? You can't spend it anyway.

However, what they didn't know was that there was an NPC who was visiting the system store like them

Yes, of course, Yuei Vu, who had the same system as the player, could visit the store.

The contribution value of more than 1.2 million was a huge amount that other players dare not imagine at all. Now Yuei Vu basically could buy anything he wanted in this store.

But in fact, there were not many things that could make him give a look.

In the past, Yuei Vu also participated in various camp battles, so he knew there were not many good things that can be cured in the mall in the end.

Among them, the most wanted were rare cards. But all the cards here were real-life versions. Moreover, most of them belonged to the unknown meaning category.

Directly exchanging for crystals or EXP should be a good choice for ordinary players. But for Yuei Vu, who cut countless leeks, this kind of thing was not valuable. With so much contribution value, if he exchanged for something he could get plenty at any time, he always felt that was a bit of a loss (Players: Fuck, is that something humans can say?)

As for those messy rare headsets he directly skipped them.

In his previous life, Yuei Vu was very enthusiastic about these weird fashions. He thought that he was a big shot with a unicorn set at that time. But now forget it.

When he was still a player, he didn't feel it. Now his point of view has changed. He only thought of these players as screwballs. To associate his original screwball behavior, he couldn't help but want to cover his face in shame

However, Yuei Vu, who had not been looking forward to the contribution of the mall at all, turned around at the entrance and found that there was a unique area that other people did not have in his mall.

Congratulations! The contribution value of the camp has exceeded one million, and the special product is unlocked!

Special product? What is that?

Yuei Vu was stunned.

Is there such a thing?

He had never heard of who has contributed more than one million in the camp battle, so he knew nothing about the setting of special products.

So should it be unlocked by the contribution value to meet the specific requirements?

Yuei Vu opened it, his eyes turned big.

At a glance, he saw what the special product hidden in this event was.

The Eye of Timaeus!

The Claw of Hermos!

The Fang of Critias!

Chapter 319: You Understand What?

Three Legendary Dragons!

This really surprised Yuei Vu.

In his previous life, three Legendary Dragons were similar to the three Egyptian Gods. They have always been regarded as plot cards by players, and there was no way to achieve them. He has never heard of any player who got a legendary dragon.

But now it seemed that they just didn't find the right method. The condition to unlock this hidden reward was the camp contribution value in the Waking the Dragons arc exceeded one million.

Okay, no wonder no players have done it. Such a harsh condition was simply not what humans could do.

As for Yuei Vu?

From the perspective of the player, he was not a human now

However, even with this contribution value, he could only choose one of these three cards.

But it didn't matter. As long as he got one, other cards from the same series could be opened from the card pool.

Yuei Vu looked at the details a little and found that the three cards rewarded here were all real-life versions. The effect was clearly written, and the card surface also indicated that it was a Normal Spell Card, unlike the three dragons in the animation.

Honestly, this was relieved.

If the system really gave him the animation card, he didn't feel that he could control it. After all, he was a Duel King, but unlike Yugi, he didn't have the BISS ability at the let there be effect level. The animation card was a waste of paper in his hands.

However, the real-life version was different. Even the players without seafood hairstyles could easily use it.

In addition, most of the real-life version of the Fusion monster of the Legendary Dragon series was stronger than the animation version. This wave was not a loss.

As for which one to choose, of course, he had no hesitation.

Yuei Vu chose the most closely to his Dark Magician series without thinking.

[The Eye of Timaeus, Normal Spell Card.

Effect: This card is also always treated as Legendary Dragon Timaeus.

Target 1 Dark Magician monster you control; Fusion Summon 1 Fusion Monster from your Extra Deck that mentions that monster on the field as material, using it as the Fusion Material. You can only activate 1 The Eye of Timaeus per turn.]

With this card, then open a few Fusion monsters of the Legendary Dragon series from the card pool, and his Dark Magic deck would be enhanced!

Of course, he had to pay a big price of 1 million contribution points.

But that was definitely worth it.

At the end of the final battle, Atlantis floating island crashed, and the Temple of Doma also sank into the sea during the collapse, and was completely erased from the earth.

At this point, Doma's ambitions, the plan Dartz brewed for more than 10,000 years, finally ended.

After this battle, everyone was exhausted physically and mentally, so they had to take a break.

Yugi and his friends feel that it was rare to go to the USA. Now the soul of the companion have been liberated, it was easy to stay here for a few more days to play.

No one took the initiative to mention this, but everyone knew that if they went back, it should really come to the moment when Yami Yugi separated from them.

Yami Yugi was now with AIBO. One day passed was one day closer to the farewell, so naturally, he must cherish these moments

As for Yuei Vu, he also felt that before they made the return trip, he had to go to the Industrial Illusions at least once to say goodbye.

After listening to his reason, Kaiba snorted with disdain.

Still, Mokuba ran up and added: Then my brother and I will wait for you at the hotel. When you finish, we'll be back.

Yuei Vu thanked him.

Although he expected that the president should not leave himself, it felt like the president has become his royal driver, which was a bit weird

In the whole Industrial Illusions now, no one was dissatisfied with Yuei Vu.

Even if there were still people who felt that Tenma Yako respected the Duel King too much, the protest sound completely disappeared.

Relying on his own power to summon an army of duelists, making the tactical layout that completely suppressed Doma, wiping out Doma strongholds all over the world at light speed, defeating many enemy cadres, and even the leader of Doma and the evil god he controlled has fallen under his hands

At this moment, the members of Industrial Illusions had the same thought in their hearts

Duel King Yuei Vu is a god!

Therefore, when Yuei Vu just returned to their headquarters at this time, he immediately received a warm welcome from everyone.

It could be seen that the reputation of Yuei Vu in the Industrial Illusions has also reached a quite horrible value. Maybe even if Pegasus claimed to let him come to his successor, there would be no objection in the organization.

A group of Card Professors said to have a celebration banquet after all, they had just finished the oversized campaign involving the entire Industrial Illusions and even the world's survival, so it should be celebrated.

Yuei Vu naturally played the protagonist at this banquet.

It was also good to have a meal with the new companions of the Phantom Society and make the relationship closer, therefore President Kaiba may have to wait longer

Yako was still unpretentious, but now his eyes looked at Yuei Vu as fascinating as a crazy fanboy.

He was looking for a chance to ask Yuei Vu, That Mr. Yuei Vu, I want to know one thing You have already known the existence of Doma a long time ago and figured out the location of each of their strongholds in advance.

But thats how do you do it?

Yuei Vu:

This question doesnt seem easy to answer

So he thought about it for a while, then coughed: I have my own intelligence network.

This was not a lie, he had his own intelligence network.

His eyeliners were spread all over the world, and they could share information from him at any time, and sometimes even consciously entered the enemy.

And more importantly they almost didnt need any remuneration.

On the contrary, Yuei Vu himself could still get a lot of benefits from them

Yako estimated that this may involve some secret that should not be disclosed, so he nodded and didnt ask more: It is worthy of Mr. Yuei Vu, you are always three steps ahead of others, not only in dueling but also in planning!

Yuei Vu:

Then Yako sighed, saying, I thought I was excellent enough, and I was able to take the lead of the Industrial Illusions myself. I couldnt figure out why Mr. Pegasus had never let me fully handle the affairs of the Industrial Illusions.

After experiencing this incident now, I seem to finally understand it. Compare to Mr. Yuei Vu, I still have a long way to go

Yuei Vu was a little unable to hear these praises without blushing, and he couldnt help but cough: Dont be so humble, you are actually good enough

Yako shook his head stubbornly: No, I am clearly far away. However, if possible, I hope to get the guidance of Mr. Yuei Vu.

Do you think that as a duelist, what I lack? Where is our difference? How can I continue to become stronger?

This was a bit difficult for Yuei Vu to answer.

What should a duelist do if he wanted to become stronger?

Yuei Vusi remembered how the protagonists of all generations have become stronger.

It seemed that it was nothing more than divine draw, BISS, printing cards

But these didnt seem to have any reference significance.

He couldnt tell Yako you need to learn to be a cheater, could he?

Uh with stronger cards, of course, you can become stronger

Yuei Vuben thought he was just perfunctory, but he didnt expect Yako to listen to him carefully, thinking it for a while, and suddenly his eyes lighted up.

Strongest card? It turns out to be this I understand, Mr. Yuei Vu!

Speaking of him, he had a standard ninety-degree bow.

Thank you very much!

Yuei Vu: ????

You understand what?

Could it be that from a word, this boy has comprehended the mysteries of printing cards?

If this is the case, then can you teach me? I want to learn too.

But now the other party has said so, Yuei Vu didnt want to correct him: Cough, no need to thank me, you just realize it by yourself

Having said that, he took up the cup in front of him and drank, while continuing to think about what Yako has comprehended

The guidance of the Duel King this is not an opportunity for ordinary people to have. At this time, a very highly recognizable sound sounded from behind the two.

Hearing this sound, everyone turned around, and then quickly stood up.

President Pegasus!

Chapter 320: Are You A KONAMI Card Seller?

President Pegasus!

The one who just spoke was Pegasus, who went offline the whole Waking the Dragons arc. It was not until the end of the incident that the president of the Industrial Illusions was finally regained freedom.

It seemed that even being sealed for so long, it did not affect his mood or playful nature. His unique tone and bulk English were still the same.

Mr. Pegasus. Yuei Vu also got up and greeted him.

Yuei Vu Boy ~ Pegasus smiled and asked him to sit down, and at the same time nodded and motioned for everyone to sit back in their respective positions.

Strictly speaking, this was the second time Yuei Vu met with Pegasus.

However, it was clear that they have met for the second time, but have not played cards yet.

According to the experience of Yuei Vu so far, this should be relatively rare. Whether in this world, no matter the hero or the villain, the rich or the poor, as long as they were duelists, most of the first meeting was to play cards.

Originally, Mr. Pegasus had intended to grab him to discuss it, but President Kaiba suddenly broke into the door and drove away to Pegasus.

Yuei Vu thought that this time 80 % chance he should not be able to run

I have heard of what happened. Pegasus said, They told me the important role of You played in this battle, Yuei Vu Boy. You is a unbelievable ~ Its too amazing. Whether the courage, or tactics, is impeccable

Yuei Vu worked hard to adapt to this Pegasus-style Japanese, while being humble and continuing to think about when Pegasus would mention a friendly match

After a while, Pegasus paused, caressed a little long hair that covered half of his face, and smiled: I also hear Gekko and Yako talk about you Especially for Yako, he admired You very much.

If I didnt remember wrong, before this incident, Yako also regarded you as his biggest opponent and now it seems that you have become his life mentor and idol

Tenma Yako looked unnaturally elsewhere and seemed to be a little embarrassed by the adoptive father in person, but he did not say a word.

Pegasus continued: During this time, I was not here, so I wonder what happened between you two to make his attitude change so much To be honest, I am more and more curious about you, Yuei Vu Boy

Yuei Vu took a drink and realized it in his heart.

Its coming, Im going to play cards

If you havent forgotten, there is another agreement between us About the agreement that was interrupted by Kaiba last time and failed to complete. If possible

Pegasus paused, then took out a Duel Disk.

Come and fight with me, Yuei Vu Boy. There is no ante, not that it matters anyway. Let us use the duel to communicate with each other. How about that?

Yuei Vu put down the cup bottom of the drink in his hand.

You see, it really comes.

If there are serious problems, play cards to solve them. If there are not, play cards for fun. In short, you can duel at any time, any place.

In this arc, Yuei Vu received a very generous reward. During the camp battle, a large number of players also offered a large number of crystals. In the past two days, he happened to open a new deck and want to find a stronger opponent to test it.

The duels he played last were all life-betting, so he had no chance to try the new deck. Now its rare to encounter a strong opponent, and it was still a friendly duel that has nothing to do with the victory or defeat. Naturally, he would take this opportunity.

Then I can advertise by the way.

Think about it, will anyone come to buy your card without advertising?

So here is time for the tool man Miss Yuehua.

This duel is broadcast live!

Hearing Yuei Vu call her, Miss Yuehua blushed, feeling proud.

I cant wait to share this joy with the little friends around me

Yuei Vu-san remembers my name!

So the camera tool sorry, the streamer lady quickly ran over.

Battle of the Century! Duel King Yuei Vu VS Father of Modern Duel Monster!

Adding a slightly eye-catching title, the popularity really soared again.

Miss Yuehua was so excited.

Sure enough, Yuei Vu-san is the best, I will always follow Yuei Vu-san

At this time, everyone has come to the dedicated dueling arena in the Industrial Illusions building. Yuei and Pegasus stood in front of each other. The surrounding audiences were members of the Industrial Illusions and a group of players who joined during the camp battle.

Players in the live broadcast room were also very excited.

Yuei Vu VS Pegasus! I watched this game!

Pegasus is better than Kaiba, isnt he? I remember that Kaiba couldnt beat him.

Thats the Duelist Kingdom, now it is not necessarily true but he must be a legendary big shot anyway.

Speaking of Yuei Vu, did he run to the Industrial Illusions to secretly play cards with Pegasus? Does Kaiba know? Should anyone notify the president?

Duel! X2

[Pegasus, LP 4000]

Yuei Vu, LP 4000]

Its me who goes first, draw! Pegasus glanced at the card, mysteriously smiled, and pulled out a card in his hand. The opponent is yours, Yuei Vu Boy, so Ill go all out at the beginning.

From the top of the deck, I banish five cards as a price, and activate a Continuous Spell Toon Kingdom! (anime version)

Under the action of three-dimensional projection, the arena seemed to start to tremble. A thick green book spin out in a burst of purple smoke, falling in front of Pegasus, and opened itself.

From the pages of the book, a cartoon of the painting style is built on the top of the castle, and the burning flames were established on both sides.

As soon as this card came out, it immediately caused cheers from the Industrial Illusions members.

It appeared! The latest card of the Presidents Toon deck!

As soon as the president comes up, he plays with his full power!

Yako didnt speak but also clenched his fist.

This was the battle between his most beloved mentor and adopted father, and his most respected idol.

I must not miss any moment of this duel!

Although this was a friendly game, Pegasus was indeed very curious about Yuei Vu's duel style, so he did not intend to go soft.

Then I summon Toon Alligator in defense position.

A lovely alligator with a big head like a cartoon character and a hand holding an ax appeared in front of Pegasus.

[Toon Alligator, DEF 1600]

Set a card, I will end my turn here ~, Come on, Yuei Vu Boy ~! Dont be merciful, you can attack me as you like!

My turn, draw! Yuei Vu took the card and immediately showed a card from his hand.

Activate Continous Spell Six Samurai United!

The NPCs were calm. For them, Yuei Vu took out another deck they had never heard of, and it was a bit strange, but nothing more.

However, the players exploded instantly.

OMG! Six Samurai!

How many decks does Yuei Vu-san have?

Are you a KONAMI card seller?
