

I Play Yu-Gi 331

Chapter 331: Six Samurai VS Cyber Dragon

A huge steel body appeared in the field, and the overflowing current filled half of the field. The metal rubbed against each other, the parts occluded each other, and the silver-white steel dragon raised two heads, and when it roared, it spewed out dazzling golden lightning from its mouth.

[Cyber Twin Dragon, ATK 2800]

Battle! Cyber Twin Dragon, attack The Six Samurai-Yaichi!

The two-headed dragon opened both mouths at the same time, and lightning and surging flames brewed in the mouth. The flame from its right mouth was the first to spray out, and the projection simulated the special effect of high-temperature distorted air as if it wanted to ignite everything it passed along the way.

The warrior holding bows and arrows were completely powerless under the firepower of this modern high-tech. His armor was instantly burned and his body was reduced to ashes under the erosion of flames.

Yuei Vu, LP 3600 LP 2100

Its not over yet! Samejima said, With the special ability of Cyber Twin Dragon, it can attack twice in one turn! This time Ill use Cyber Twin Dragon to attack the Grandmaster of the Six Samurai!

The second mouth of Cyber Twin Dragon opened, dragging the flames of electricity and domineering sweeping, locked on the Grandmaster of the Six Samurai and his steed in a straight line.

Seeing that there was no way to avoid it, the Grandmaster leaped forward, stepped on the horseback, and jumped back lightly to avoid the attack. But the dark horse under him could not be spared and even disappeared under the flames of the twin dragons.

Yuei Vu, LP 2100 LP 1600

The effect of Legendary Ebon Steed When the equipped monster is destroyed, it can be destroyed instead. Yuei Vu said, However, the attack power of the Grandmaster who lost the mount will return to its original state.

[Grandmaster of the Six Samurai, ATK 2300 ATK 2100]

Samejima nodded slightly.

You can even defend against the double strike of the Cyber Twin Dragon, cant you?

He had no doubt that Yuei Vu would be able to immediately regroup and organize a counterattack in the next turn. So he slowly drew out a card in his hand and decided to play safe first.

Set a card, I end my turn!

My turn, draw! Yuei Vu said, Activate a Spell Card from the hand Shiens Smoke Signal! Add 1 Level 3 or lower Six Samurai monster from my Deck to my hand.

Yuei Vu opened the deck and picked out one card.

The card I added to my hand is Hand of the Six Samurai. After showing it, he slapped on the duel board, I summon Hand of the Six Samurai in attack position!

The characters appearing this time are different from the warriors in colorful armor before. This time, a woman appeared on the stage, wearing a white turban and dressed as a monk, but she was holding a dagger in her hand very discordantly, and her sinister eyes had a kind of meaning of forgiving you is Gods job, sending you to God is my job.

[Hand of the Six Samurai, ATK 1600]

Then there is this card, an invincible general who commands all warriors to fight in all directions. The commander of the Six Samurai

Great Shogun Shien!

The blood-red mist swept across, and a red hurricane rolled up in the field. A body in red armor emerged from the blood mist, and the scarlet eyes revealed a chilling light as if there was a steel knife hidden in it.

The combat boots stepped heavily on the ground, and the sharp knife was pulled out from the dark red sheath with a silver glow. It left a transparent arc in the air as if drawing an invisible and inviolable space in ones own field.

[Great Shogun Shien, ATK 2500]

Great ShogunShien? What a powerful monster. Samejima murmured, Its level 7, but it can be summoned directly

Great Shogun Shien can be Special Summoned directly from the hand when there are two or more Six Samurai on my field.

Then Hand of the Six Samurais effect is activated! When there is another Six Samurai on my field, I can Tribute 1 Six Samurai monster, then target 1 monster on the field; destroy that target!

Yuei Vu pointed at the murderous female monk.

Ill tribute Hand of the Six Samurai itself! Destroy the Cyber Twin Dragon!

Samejima was shocked: Can it sacrifice itself for its own effect!?

Before the words were finished, the woman who looked like a monk had disappeared from Yuei Vus field. When she came back to her senses, she was already walking silently. Unknowingly, she flashed behind the Cyber twin dragon.

Such a ghostly body and skillful skills made it impossible for people to imagine that this was a monk.

The sharp dagger pierced through the solid metal shell of Cyber Twin Dragon and tore apart its internal circuits. The huge steel two-headed dragon screamed sharply, and with a bang, it was blown into pieces together with the leader.

Ah!

All the teenagers watching couldnt help but show amazement.

The Cyber Twin Dragon was defeated in one fell swoop!

Battle! Yuei Vu shouted, Great Shogun Shien, attack directly!

The general majestically drew out his sword, and left a dark red and clear track in midair. It seemed to have great momentum, and it went straight to the enemys head!

The remaining Shien and Grandmaster on Yuei Vus field have a total attack power of 4600. If the attack passed, the battle would end within this turn!

Eliminate the Cyber Twin Dragon in an instant and make an OTKits really strong. Samejimas eyes froze, But I also initiated the challenge with the corresponding consciousness!

Open the set card Iron Resolve! Pay half of the HP, all Battle Damage done to me in this turn becomes 0, then end the Battle Phase! (animation card)

Samejima, LP 3600 LP 1800

As the life value was paid, the translucent shield protected Samejima in the middle like a bubble. General Shien slashed at the shield with a fierce attack, the dark red impact spread like a stream of water but failed to penetrate the defense.

Shien snorted, put the blade back into its sheath, and turned back to Yuei Vu.

You can withstand this attack then I set a card and end my turn.

Samejima let out a sigh of relief.

Anyway, he survived.

But even though it was his turn again, he just felt the pressure seemed to be even greater.

Although he had expected that facing the Duel King might not be easy, the actual duel seemed to be more stressful than he had imagined. And Yuei Vu always showed a relaxed and casual expression, as if he didnt even take it seriously.

There is nothing to be reconciled to, after all, he is the Duel King. According to rumors, he seems to be the one who defeated the evil god and saved the world not long ago, representing the true pinnacle of the dueling world.

But even so I wont back down!

At least, not before I show the brilliance of Cyber Art in front of my students!

My turn, draw!

Samejima drew a card, opened it, and his eyes were filled with enthusiasm again.

Coming!

This was the deck he put all his trust in, the answer to him at the critical moment!

Yuei Vus face straightened.

Is it coming?

The big brother of the Cyber series, Cyber End Dragon?

Activate the Spell Card Overload Fusion! Samejima shouted and played the Spell Card, Fusion Summon 1 DARK Machine Fusion Monster from my Extra Deck, by banishing Fusion Materials listed on it from my field or GY!

I removed Proto-Cyber Dragon, three Cyber Dragons, and Cyber Twin Dragon from the game! Using five Machine-type monsters to fuse

Fusion Summon! Chimeratech Overdragon! ! !

Chapter 332: What Are You Going To Summon?

Its body was even bigger than the two-headed dragon just now as if several heads had been fitted into the same fortress. The metal parts were assembled and combined, and many electronic monsters were pieced together to build this giant together. Several heads poked out from the fortress, and they roared mechanically at the warriors on the Yuei Vu field!

The moment he saw this dragon, Yuei Vu was a little dazed.

He originally thought that the next step would be the appearance of the big brother of the Cyber series, the Cyber End Dragon, but he didnt expect Samejima to skip this step and directly call the overload dragon out for him

(Hell Kaiser Ryo: What kind of serious person would summon the Cyber End Dragon? Did you call it?)

The ATK and DEF of Chimeratech Overdragon become equal to the number of Fusion Materials used for its Fusion Summon x 800! I used five materials, so the attack power is 4000!

[Chimeratech Overdragon, ATK 4000]

The group of students exclaimed: Its amazing! Is this the strength of Samejima-sensei?

Not only that, the Chimeratech Overdragon can attack the opponents monsters up to the number of fusion materials. That is to say, it can attack up to five times!

The little friends were even more astonished: The attack power is higher than that of the Blue-Eyes White Dragon, and it can attack five times!?

Is this too strong?

Yuei Vu looked at the multi-headed giant dragon with teeth and claws stretched out in front of him, which was like a steel mountain, and said to himself: It seems to be a bit troublesome

Battle! Take my full strength, Mr. Yuei Vu! Chimeratech Overdragon, attack the Grandmaster of the Six Samurai first!

Open the set card: Trap Card Shift! Yuei Vu flipped the cover card in front of him, When the opponent targets exactly 1 monster I control for an attack or with a Spell/Trap effect: Target another monster I control that would be an appropriate target; that attack/Spell/Trap now targets the new target!

I change the attack target of the Chimeratech Overdragon to Great Shogun Shien!

Its useless! Im going to activate this card at this moment

Quick-Play Spell Limiter Removal! Double the ATK of all face-up Machine-Type monsters on my field!

[Chimeratech Overdragon, ATK 4000 ATK 8000]

All the students exclaimed: Attack power 8000!

And it can attack five times in a turn!

Samejima-sensei is really going to win!!!

If this blow passed, Yuei Vu's remaining LP would be cleared to zero!

However

[Chimeratech Overdragon, ATK 8000 ATK 4000]

Samejima was surprised: What? Why does the attack power of the Chimeratech Overdragon

At the same time, an ERROR sound effect popped out from his Duel Disk. The Limiter Removal card originally inserted in it popped out and returned to the hand of bewildered Samejima.

Ah!?

Whats happening here? Is it a bug?

Immediately afterward, he discovered that the Limiter Removal card that appeared in front of him had been firmly bound by a mysterious and strange dark force at some point, and it disappeared from the field in a moment as an illusion.

And the source of that power was Great Shogun Shien!

When Great Shogun Shien is on my field, the opponent can only activate 1 Spell/Trap Card each turn. Yuei Vu said, You have already activated Overload Fusion this turn, so the activation of the Limiter Removal is not valid!

It actually has such a powerful effect?

Samejima was stunned for a moment but then straightened out his thoughts.

Since this is the case, as long as Great Shogun Shien is defeated first, this restriction will disappear!

Chimeratech Overdragon, keep attacking!

Eye-catching flames spewed out from the mouth of the Chimeratech Overdragon, and the fiery beams of the high-tech weapons swirled and blasted in front of the Grandmaster of the Six Samurai, but immediately changed toward Great Shogun Shien under the influence of the trap card effect. The general stepped forward to bear the attack.

However, before the general stood still, Grandmaster followed closely and blocked in front of the general again.

It really looks like two brothers were fighting to shield each other from the battlefield

Grandmaster: Shoot at me!

Shien: As a general, it is his duty to protect his subordinates!

Grandmaster: General, you can't do it!

In the end, after the continuous exchange, under the indiscriminate bombardment of the electronic dragon, the one that turned into ashes and disappeared was still the one-eyed old warrior

Yuei Vu, LP 1600 LP 100

Samejima was surprised: Why hasn't Shien been

If Great Shogun Shien would be destroyed, I can destroy a face-up Six Samurai monster I control instead. Yuei Vu explained, So just now the Grandmaster of the Six Samurai was destroyed as a substitute for Shien.

Samejima suddenly came to his senses: That's right! That's why you used Shift to force me to attack Shien first

But he quickly came back to his senses: Then Chimeratech Overdragon, attack Great Shogun Shien again!

In this way, Shien no longer had any warriors to protect him. The general blocked it with a horizontal knife in front of him. But soon, both the man and the armor were riddled with holes by the impact of the flames, and he left the stage miserably.

Samejima narrowed her eyes.

Did I win?

Yuei Vu, LP 100

It's really dangerous.

The smoke dissipated, and Yuei Vu still stood still. But a card that was just sent to the GY was revealed.

At that moment just now, I discarded Kuriboh from my hand. Yuei Vu said, The damage of a battle becomes 0.

The Kuriboh spirit took the opportunity to fly out and landed on Yuei Vu's shoulder, squinting his eyes and yelling Kuri Kuri a few times, as if saying Praise me, praise me.

The effect of Great Shogun Shien disappeared. You can activate your Spell Card now. Yuei Vu smiled slightly, But the additional attack effect of Chimeratech Overdragon can only perform on monsters. Now there is no monster on my field, you can't continue attacking, Samejima-sensei.

Indeed. Samejima nodded.

He glanced at the Limiter Removal left in his hand that could not be used. He could only choose to set it first: Set a card, I end my turn.

Limiter Removal was already the last card in Samejima's hand. It meant both parties know what that set card was.

In this way, Yuei Vu's field was clean, and his LP was only 100, which seemed to be absolutely unfavorable. However, he doesn't seem to panic at all.

Samejima felt that he had tried his best and exhausted all his offensive methods, but they were all easily defused by the opponent.

Although it seemed that he was only a little short, in fact, he had no chance from the very beginning.

Its my turn. It was Yuei Vus turn again, Draw!

Activate Spell Card Pot of Greed, draw two more cards.

Glancing at the cards drawn, Yuei Vu raised his eyebrows slightly.

He didnt expect to get this card here.

But its also just right, he hasnt had the chance to try this card since he got it, so he just took the opportunity to try it out today.

Cyber Art I have indeed seen the strength of this deck. Yuei Vu raised his head and said seriously, Then in response, let me also show due respect ..

Samejimas expression turned serious, and he raised his vigilance.

Coming soon! The counterattack of the Duel King!

First of all, activate the Spell Card Monster Reborn!

The symbol of life emerged on the field in front of Yuei Vu and opened a dark vortex on the ground.

A card popped up in the GY area of Yuei Vus Duel Disk, Of course, what I want to resurrect is Great Shogun Shien!

A burst of blood mist erupted, and the general in red armor returned to the field from the other side of the underworld. He drew his blade out of its sheath and swept across the air with an awe-inspiring and inviolable aura.

[Great Shogun Shien, ATK 2500]

The general folded his arms, his nostrils turned to the sky, and he looked proud.

Sure enough, in the end, I still have to do it!

Then he saw Yuei Vu draw out another card in his hand: Then I sacrificed Great Shogun Shien to Tribute Summon Dark Magician Girl!

Great Shogun Shien: ?

Chapter 333: A New Dress From Master

Even if he used to be the general commanding an army, now Shien was just a part-time duel monster, unable to do anything or say anything against his masters order, so he could only dissipate into golden light with a resentful face, and become a sacrifice for the appearance of a magical girl

The painting style in the field changed suddenly. The magic power burst out of thin air, transforming into a warm-toned background. The magic girl embraced her small oblate staff with both hands, spun lightly, and came to the field with gorgeous but useless magic special effects.

[Dark Magician Girl, ATK 2000]

Finally!

I felt like I had never been summoned by Master in my whole life

Of course, this is also logical.

Because I know that I am clumsy, and my strength is relatively average, so I often can't help Master much

But after sitting on the cold bench for a long time, it will still be a bit lonely.

But today, Master finally summoned me again after a long absence and he used a sacrifice of the same level as my teacher!

The Dark Magician Girl felt a little complacent and even wanted to go back and brag with her newest friend the Silent Magician spirit.

Sure enough, magical girls are not the same. Like my master, when he was extremely angry, he used the Great Shogun Shien as a sacrifice to summon me

(Great Shogun Shien: @%&!)

The girl clenched her staff tightly, straightened her hat, and cheered herself up.

I must behave well in front of Master today!

Yuei Vu did not call her out for a while.

Today, although he was playing Pure Six Samurai, it didn't prevent him from asking the magical girl to come out for a breather.

It's coming, Samejima-sensei! Yuei Vu raised the card in his hand, Activate Spell Card The Eye of Timaeus!

The Spell Card emerged, and the radiance it released instantly shone across the entire hall. Samejima and the surrounding students couldn't help being blinded for a moment, and they only felt a phantom of a dragon appearing in midair, which was sacred and contained unimaginable power.

Of course, it was impossible for ordinary people to hear the story of the Legendary Dragon, and Samejima has obviously never seen it here. But even so, he was still somewhat overwhelmed by the momentum unleashed by The Eye of Timaeus.

The Eye of Timaeus? He raised his arm to block his face, and opened his eyes reluctantly, What card is that?

After Dartz was defeated, the three legendary dragons all returned to the spirit world and never appeared again.

So it was of course impossible for Yuei Vu to use the genuine Legendary Dragon here. What he used here was just the real-life version he got from camp battle rewards. At best, it was equivalent to a fragment of the power of the legendary dragon.

The main difference from the original version was that the card text on this card was clearly written, you may not be able to use BISS to summon some original monsters that did not exist at all

But it was completely enough for Yuei Vu.

The phantom of the dragon roared in mid-air. It spread its wings and flew half a circle high in the air, and golden lights bloomed all over its body, transforming into a dazzling golden vortex.

The Dark Magician Girl looked at it for a while, and was a little confused. She turned her head to look at the master in a daze, and then suddenly woke up after receiving the signal from the masters eyes. She flew up quickly, turned into a purple light, and sank into the vortex in midair.

The Eye of Timaeus effect Target 1 Dark Magician monster on my field; Fusion Summon 1 Fusion Monster from my Extra Deck that mentions that monster on the field as material, using it as the Fusion Material!

I target Dark Magician Girl!

The disciple of the great magician will don the armor of the knight and call forth infinite possibilities with the combined power of the legendary dragon and black magic!

Fusion Summon! Appear in a brand new form

Dark Magician Girl the Dragon Knight!

Dazzling brilliance erupted from the vortex in midair. The beam of light blasted down from midair like a golden waterfall.

The sharp blade dragged the divine light and cut off the golden light. The dragon with the posture of Timaeus boldly appeared from the shining light.

The blond-haired magic girl has now put on an indestructible silver-white armor, wearing a metal magic hat, holding a shining divine sword in her hand, and a bright blue gem embedded in her boots that extend to her knees.

With a single swing, the cyclone that gathered the power of the legendary dragon and black magic burst out invisible was dissipated. It was like a cutting wind swept across the entire hall, and even the huge multi-headed mechanical dragon on the opposite side couldnt help but retreat half a step!

[Dark Magician Girl the Dragon Knight, ATK 2600]

The Dark Magician Girl riding on the dragons back was a little scared herself.

She just waved the new toy in her hand, didnt expect the momentum to be so amazing!

Well great!

I feel that I have never been as strong as the current me!

Think about it more carefully, it seems that this can be regarded as a new dress given to me by Master.

Suddenly I feel a little excited

Battle! Yuei Vu shouted, Dark Magician Girl the Dragon Knight, attack the Chimeratech Overdragon!

What!?! Samejima was surprised, But even after the strengthening, your magical girl cant match my Chimeratech Overdragons attack power

At this moment, the effect of Dark Magician Girl the Dragon Knight is activated! Yuei Vu stuffed a card into the cemetery, and shouted, Once per turn, I can send 1 card from my hand to the GY, then target 1 face-up card on the field; destroy that target!

I discard a card in my hand and destroy the Chimeratech Overdragon!

What!?! Samejima looked at the overloaded dragon on his field. Oops!

The Dark Magician Girl slashed the long sword in the air. The crescent-shaped light blade burst out with surging magic power and aggressively cut open the huge body of the overloaded dragon. Several heads of the latter screamed at the same time, and the internal system immediately collapsed under the power of the girls sword and exploded on the spot.

Samejima covered his bare forehead with both hands: Uh, my Chimeratech Overdragon

The battle continues! Dark Magician Girl the Dragon Knight, attack directly! Black Dragon Burst!

The girl took a deep breath and raised the sword in her hand high. The dragon under her also opened its mouth, and the black magic power fluctuations like a river were churning in its mouth.

The girls sharp sword slammed down like a charging horn and a milky white spiral beam was released from the blade.

Timaeus spit out a pitch-black vortex at the same time, the domineering breath and the girls sword light merged into one place, intertwined with each other, and blasted out through the air!

Boom! ! !

It exploded violently, and the power of black magic turned into a whirlwind soaring into the sky. The strong virtual impact caused the bald teacher to be overturned on his back, and even the teenagers watching couldnt help but close their eyes.

Samejima, LP 1800 LP 0

Chapter 334: The President's Disapproval

After the duel with Samejima, the two were basically friends now.

This teacher looked like a veteran duelist at first glance, and he was very familiar with the way of interpersonal communication between card players. When you meet for the first time, its good to play cards first. As long as you finished playing cards, you would be old acquaintances even if you just met each other.

Well, occasionally there may be some exceptions, such as President Kaiba.

If it was President Kaiba, he would probably wave his hand after the duel, muttered something like third-rate duelist, or four-rate deck that everyone couldnt understand, and then the arena immediately would be full of embarrassment

After the exchange between the two parties, Samejima also explained his wishes.

He heard that Kaiba Corp was planning to establish a duel academy, and expressed his hope that he could do his best to join in the construction of the academy.

Originally, Samejima was the teacher of the dojo before becoming the principal, and what he did was actually a job of teaching and educating people. He firmly believed that the future hope of the dueling world rested on young people. From now on, it was more important than ever to cultivate outstanding young duelists.

Yuei Vu also expressed his deep opinion of this.

Samejima said that if possible, she would also like to teach at a school. Yuei Vu nodded, expressing that if the academy was established, he would actually like to teach.

Samejima was overjoyed. He could foresee that if Yuei Vu, who was the Duel King, was willing to serve as a teacher of the duel academy, the advertising benefits were immeasurable!

But for Yuei Vu, this was a matter of course. After all, this was an excellent opportunity to get involved in the storyline of Yu-Gi-Oh! GX.

World Link Online was essentially a card game after all, similar to traditional Yu-Gi-Oh games. For players, the main content of the game was actually PVP, and the plot was secondary.

Yuei Vu remembered that in his previous life, there were only a few players who could usually participate in the large number of daily sidelines of GX. After all, the story background of GX was on an island, and it was destined that only a few people would have the opportunity to participate.

Only when some of the more critical main storylines started, most players had the opportunity to participate.

But with Yuei Vu's current status and position, let alone teaching, even if he wanted to be the principal, it must be easy.

After all, he was not only the Duel King now, but also has someone on his head!

Who ran the Duel Academy? Who paid for it?

Of course its President Kaiba Seto!

The Duel Academy is run by the president's company, isn't it similar to my own company?

However

You want to go to the Duel Academy?

Back in the company, when Yuei Vu casually mentioned this idea, the president frowned directly.

What are you going to do there?

Cultivate outstanding duelists in the future and open up a better future. I don't think there is any job more suitable for me than this. Yuei Vu was confident.

No. The president directly rejected it without thinking.

Yuei Vu: ?

For training new recruits, there are more suitable candidates than you. Kaiba directly refused in an undisputable tone, And you have more important work to do than that.

Yuei Vu suddenly felt a pain in the ass.

God, what is the more important work? What important work do I have for a person who spends his days playing?

President, you just want to tie me by your side, dont you? So that there is always someone available to play cards with you.

Think about it carefully, it seemed really possible.

After all, Yami Yugi would have to part with his little friends sooner or later anyway, and even if it dragged on, it wouldnt last long.

Yuei Vu could already vaguely foresee that when Yami Yugi was gone, Kaiba would definitely not let Yuei Vu out of his sight, otherwise the presidents had to live with his card addiction unsatisfied for the rest of his life

If he couldnt get Kaibas approval, then its a little troublesome to go to the Duel Academy.

But it was still early anyway. For the time being, the president was still concentrating on building the Kaiba Land, and the Duel Academy was just a plan on paper. Its not too late to think of a solution in the future.

Besides, even if it was a little troublesome, as long as it was a problem with President Kaiba Yuei Vu instinctively felt that it should not be difficult to solve.

So Yuei Vu didnt think about it for the time being.

The most urgent thing before him now is to move

In order to solve the problem of employees distance to work problem, the president directly bought a manor next to the company for him.

Yuei Vu, who has dug such a hole for himself, dare not say no to moving now. He had to be honest and ready to move

Can you believe that one day you will be forced to move into a mansion?

Yuei Vu has already foreseen that when this news reached the player forum, there would definitely be another wave of doujinshi about Kaiba X Yuei Vu.

Yuei Vu was very depressed, very depressed, but there was nothing he could do.

After all, screwball players are such a kind of creature. Their fantasy went wild all day long, and nothing could stop it.

Of course, Chika-chan was very upset when she heard that Yuei Vu was going to move out, but she had expected it a long time ago. After all, it was impossible for Yuei Vu to stay in the store forever, not to mention that he was now the worlds famous Duel King.

But Yuei Vu patted her head and said that it was okay, he would come back frequently. He also emphasized that he would come back to eat the meal made by her.

Wasnt this Yuei Vu fooling around? No. After all, there were a lot of cute little leeks that needed to be harvested in the card shop

After hearing this, Chika, who was obviously being taken advantage of, felt less depressed and felt a little flattered in her heart.

There was a sense of pride that he came back to eat my cooking

The store manager also changed his previous attitude, took Yuei Vu's hand before he went out, and told him with a melancholy expression that he must come to eat and drink more. Otherwise, this old man may have to be a vegetarian for the rest of his life.

Yuei Vu:

Although he lived in the store for a long time, after checking, he found that he really had nothing to move.

The house that the president bought was already fully equipped, there was nothing he needs to bring himself. Basically, he only needed to remember to bring his own deck and go in and live in it.

In the end, Yuei Vu only counted out some sundries, and after packing, there was only one hand-held suitcase and one package. When moving there, Snow Wave, who had taken on the daily tasks, dragged the suitcases and bags and followed behind.

After helping to move things, Snow Wave also enthusiastically expressed his willingness to clean for free, and Yuei Vu agreed after thinking about it. With such a large manor, it was quite difficult to clean up by himself.

Snow Wave has been busy for a long time, wishing to wipe all the corners of the whole manor like a mirror, the floor is as bright as if it has been licked

Finally, after the work was finally completed, he even took the initiative to ask Yuei Vu, expressing his willingness to stay here as Yuei Vu's servant. However, Yuei Vu felt that something might happen to the person who lived with this guy all day long, so he sent him away.

To be reasonable, such a large manor may indeed need someone to help, but what's the point of the servant?

Among the few players around him, only Miss Yuehua looks smarter, but she was a camera-type tool person, and she broadcasted live broadcasts all day long, so it was not appropriate to always take her to live broadcast his daily life

But at the moment he was thinking of a certain vampire who had become involved with the men of the Nightcrawler World.

She seemed to be quite suitable for this job

Chapter 335: Medical Miracle

After moving into a new home and working hard all day, Yuei Vu could finally take a breather now.

Although strictly speaking, all physical work was done by Snow Wave, standing by and directing all the time was also very tiring.

However, the manor assigned by the president was really big. Some private cinemas and dueling arenas in this house may still be useful, but there were still some rooms with unknown meanings.

And to be honest, living alone in such a big place was a bit scary and it's a good thing he's not alone.

Not long after Snow Wave left, the Dark Magician Girl flew out, with little stars in her eyes: Is this where Master will live in the future? So so big!

After all, I still couldnt say it.

In fact, Yuei Vu has already discovered that his Dark Magician Girl has a more lively and active personality.

It felt a bit like someone next door who didnt want to be named and didnt like to live in the Poke Ball.

Its just that when there are other people around, its not convenient for her to materialize and come out to breathe. Now he was the only person in such a big manor, so of course she could come out as she liked.

The magic girl flew up and down the room with a curious face, looking at the new environment.

The Silent Magician also appeared silently but in the spirit state, not materialized like her. The silent girl was now holding the Kuriboh in her arms quietly, her little hand is gently rubbing the Kuribohs fluffy head.

Kuriboh squinted his eyes in comfort, and let out a soft cry: Kuri~~

In fact, Yuei Vu was still a little curious, wondering how the two girls got along after returning.

But he could probably imagine it too. The Dark Magician Girl could speak all morning if her chatterbox was open, while the silent girl listened quietly, holding a Kuriboh in her hand, nodding her head from time to time to show that she was not distracted

A lively girl full of vitality, a small and quiet silver-haired loli (or busty), and a cute Kuriboh.

The setting sun poured in from the floor-to-ceiling windows, casting a golden sunset on the ground. The open hall was warmed by the sun, and this beautiful picture seemed to be frozen for eternity.

Yuei Vu looked at this picture comfortably, only to feel that the so-called winner in life may be just that.

Then a discordant voice appeared: Hmph, this new residence is still so-so, but it is still far worse than my old palace.

Yuei Vu narrowed his eyes, and as expected, he caught a glimpse of general Shien emerging from behind.

To be reasonable, Yuei Vu really didnt intend to target anyone, but looking at Shiens heavy armor, the samurai sword hanging on his waist, and the most important thing is that big brother, who are you doing?. Its simply not in harmony with this picture

Having such a guy stand behind could make people completely unable to relax, as he always gave people the illusion that he was about to draw their swords to fight

However, Shien didnt notice his masters displeasure at all: I remember that in my heyday, my palace was over 300 square miles, and the sun was isolated

Yuei Vu couldn't help but want to complain even more.

More than three hundred square miles? Why do you brag here? Trying to pick a fight?

Go back and stay. Yuei Vu pointed at the deck on the Duel Disk.

Shien: ?

Shien blankly glanced at the Dark Magician Girl who was flying up and down, and the Silent Magician beside him who was quietly rubbing a Kuriboh, a question mark appeared on his forehead.

Why? Why is it me again?

Everyone is spirit, why only I can't come out?

(Destiny HERO Plasma: First time? People have to be self-aware, and so do spirits. You see, I never go out to cause trouble)

Pressing Shien back, the painting style in the room suddenly became harmonious again.

It's a pity that he was not in the card shop right now, so today Yuei Vu had to make the dinner himself.

Yuei Vu bought some ingredients casually when he went out. He was going to eat something simple noodles.

The Dark Magician Girl watched him throw the noodles from the supermarket shelf into the shopping basket, and couldn't help wondering: Master, what is this?

Noodles, a delicious food. Yuei Vu smiled and said, I'll let you eat noodles tonight. (1)

Give it to me? The Dark Magician Girl quickly lifted her cap, her small face full of anticipation.

Master wants to let me eat noodles tonight!

Can ordinary spirits have this kind of treatment?

The girl floating in the air couldn't help but straighten her waist, and a certain part trembled.

Because he wanted to eat lightly, Yuei Vu only put some green onions and an egg.

It's simple though, but it still tasted good.

Yes, in fact, it's not that Yuei Vu couldn't cook, he's just lazy

After the noodles were picked up, they were served in a large bowl. Of course, he couldn't finish it by himself, so he also prepared a pair of chopsticks beside him.

The Dark Magician Girl took the pair of chopsticks, blinked her big eyes, and looked at the master for a long time, trying to imitate his using posture. But no matter how long she tried, she couldn't figure out how to use these two sticks. ..

This is even harder than the deepest and most complex dark magic in the world!

Yuei Vu couldn't help laughing when he saw her bewildered look, and didn't embarrass her anymore. He took the chopsticks in her hand, scooped up the noodles for her, and fed them directly to her mouth.

The Dark Magician Girl opened her small mouth and sucked the noodles in with a sush. She narrowed her eyes in comfort: Okaydelicious

Master is amazing, he can do everything, and the noodles are so delicious

The Silent Magician who was holding a Kuriboh next to him approached with a curious expression on her face.

Would you like to have a taste? Yuei Vu asked.

The Silent Magician hesitated for a moment, then nodded slightly.

But someone was very bad, he pretended not to see: Do you want to eat?

The silent girl hesitated and nodded again.

Yuei Vu continued to pretend not to see: Just tell me what you want to eat, there is still a lot left in the pot.

Yes, he did it on purpose.

After getting along for so many days, Yuei Vu really couldn't hold back his death-seeking soul.

Even one word was fine, he wanted to hear Miss Silent speak

The Silent Magician's fair little face was a little red, looked a little embarrassed, standing there at a loss, feeling somehow cute

Of course, it's fine if she really didn't want to talk, and Yuei Vu just teased her. After all, she was the silent magician, so it made sense that she couldn't speak.

Seeing that she didn't want to speak, Yuei Vu just smiled and prepared to get up and serve her a bowl of noodles as well.

However, he never expected that just as he got up, he heard a soft voice behind him: Yes yes.

Yuei Vu turned around in surprise: Huh?

The voice was so soft and thin that he once thought he had heard it wrong.

Then he saw the Silent Magician bow her head, blushing: I want

Yuei Vu: !

It's a medical miracle!

He was 90% sure that he had just heard the Silent Magician speak!

Chapter 336: The Man From The Future

It's a pity that Yuei Vu didn't hear Miss Silent say a second sentence that night.

She made an exception and opened her mouth once, and no matter how he tried to tease her, she seemed determined not to say a word.

Although it was a bit regrettable, Yuei Vu felt that he has made great progress, and this wave is not a loss.

And if you think about it carefully, although there was only one short word, the voice was so soft that it was able to melt the hardest heart

It sounded surprisingly good?

So it seemed that the silent magician wasn't really speechless, she might just be shy

It didn't matter, anyway, there would be plenty of opportunities in the future.

Yuei Vu was confident that under his own training, she would speak sooner or later.

After eating, Yuei Vu was in a good mood. After washing the dishes and tidying up, he led the spirits out for a walk.

However, just after they went out, there was suddenly a loud bang sound. A strong impact was like a heavy hammer blasting the ground on the side, and Yuei Vu was violently overturned to the side by the airwave.

Master!

The spirits in casual mode immediately entered a state of alert. The Dark Magician Girl jumped up from the ground and was the first to block Yuei Vu.

The Silent Magician also took out her staff, transformed from the loli form at the speed of light, unsealed the seal in a blink of an eye, and turned into a white-haired, long-legged magician girl.

Even the Kuriboh said Kuri Kuri a few times, and flew to the carpet with concern to check Masters situation and took the opportunity to rub his face twice.

Fortunately, Yuei Vu didn't suffer any injuries, he was just overturned, and he got up now.

The Dark Magician Girl glanced out of the corner of her eye and was determined.

Fortunately, Masters face is unharmed. After all, he is so handsome

Yuei Vu frowned as he looked at the surging dust in front of him.

To be fair, now that Doma has just died, his fame in the whole world was at its peak. Needless to say, his reputation among the Dark Duelists was almost on par with Yugi Muto.

And even among the upper class, after experiencing the Doma incident, his popularity was not low either.

At this situation, there are still people in this world who dare to trouble me?

But the other party didn't seem to really want to hurt him. This blow was actually closer to provocation than an attack?

As the smoke and dust cleared, Yuei Vu looked sideways in the direction of the attack, and immediately saw the faintly flickering light on the roof of the opposite building.

Is he there?

Without even thinking about it, he turned his head and said, Take me there.

Before the Dark Magician Girl could react, the silver-haired magician girl has already picked up Yuei Vu, stepping on the milky white and transparent magic circle, striding in the air, like flying in the sky, with snow-white long hair under the wide robe Legs looming

Only then did the Dark Magician Girl realize that she was half a beat behind, pouted her lips, and quickly flew to follow.

Kuriboh: Kuri Kuri! (Although I feel that I cant help much, I still go to join in the fun)

Yuei Vu quickly landed on the opposite roof and saw the culprit of the attack.

That was a blond man with a true duelists hairstyle. His bare arms were full of muscles. He was wearing a white mask, and he was straddling an exaggeratedly large motorcycleif it wasnt for the two big tires underneath it, that might not be qualified to be called a motorcycle.

Thats no ordinary motorcycle. Its a D-Wheel, not a product of this era.

Of course, Yuei Vu also recognized the identity of this person at a glance.

Although it only took forty minutes from his appearance to his end, this man has left behind an eternal legend. This was the bravest BOSS in the entire history of Yu-gi-oh: Paradox.

You didnt need to know the origin and background of this person. Unlike other BOSSes, he didnt need to slaughter a bunch of minor characters to show his strength and improve his presence as a BOSS.

There was only one line in this persons resume as a BOSS, but it was enough to beat all other villains in the history of Yu-Gi-Oh.

That was, in Yu-Gi-Oh! 3D Bonds Beyond Time, he challenged the three protagonists Yugi Muto, Yuki Judai, and Yusei Fudo at the same time.

If other people had this kind of death-seeking behavior, it could be said that the ignorant is fearless, but this guy was different.

Paradox was from an extremely distant future and knew the history of Duel Monster very well.

That was to say, he fully understood the various deeds of the three cheaters and even knew the background of how many cards these three have printed, but he still dared to challenge them.

It was as if Liu Bei had come to the front of the battle single-handedly, pointing at Lu Bus nose with his double-pronged sword: For someone like you, I can fight three at once! (1)

Just very handsome.

But Yuei Vu frowned, and couldnt help feeling curious.

In the animation, this guy traveled from the future back to the modern age. His goal seemed to be to obliterate President Pegasus and stop the development of Duel Monster game.

So what was he doing here?

Paradox did not speak, but silently pressed a button, It seemed to activate some kind of device.

In an instant, a pitch-black force field opened, centered on him.

Master! said the Dark Magician Girl, In this force field there is a reaction similar to a Shadow Game!

Yuei Vu nodded.

Paradox was the villain of the Yu-Gi-Oh! 5DS series, came from the very distant future. It could be seen from the animation that he has mastered the technology of forcibly capturing Duel Monster spirits and materializing them and could restore the effect of Shadow Game with future technology.

In the brief confrontation in the opening credits of the movie version, even Yuki Judai, who has reached max level, was temporarily suppressed in the competition of extraordinary power.

The other party's subsequent explanation was exactly as he expected.

He saw Paradox walking off the D-Wheel. A dull and low voice came out of the mask.

The first generation Duel King, Yuei Vu? The Duel King who makes a great significant contribution to the world of Duel Monsters and is known as a hero Seeing is believing.

The eyes under the mask looked at Yuei Vu more.

Yuei Vu boldly guessed this should have nothing to do with his handsome face with a Charisma value of 95

In fact, Yuei Vu also knew the details of the other party, but he didn't reveal that fact.

Who are you and what do you want to do?

Me? Paradox sneered mysteriously, and opened the Duel Disk, Duel with me, and you will know the answer. Of course, you have no way to refuse.

In this force field, no one can get out of it until the duel is over.

Yuei Vu raised his eyebrows.

well, that's to be expected.

After all, in this world, even for future people who could travel through time and space and had awesome technology that has crushed modern times for countless centuries, the solution to problems was nothing more than playing cards.

Even their so-called future technologies seemed to be more or less related to playing cards

Chapter 337: Malefic World

Although it seemed that this duel was inevitable, before that

Yuei Vu said that he wanted to adjust the deck.

So Paradox waited with folded arms, unaware of the seriousness of the problem.

He might even be feeling

Haha, you can adjust as you like, it's useless anyway.

For him, Yuei Vu was a person living in the distant past. He thought he knew Yuei Vu's deck and tactics like the back of his hand, while Yuei Vu knew nothing about him.

Even if you are the Duel King, you are the King of the past after all.

Can you still print a target card to OTK me?

After the adjustment, Yuei Vu inserted the completed deck into the Duel Disk.

Hmph, have you decided? Paradox sneered, But no matter what, the result wont make any difference.

Yuei Vu said that there was a blue-haired old man who said the same thing to him not long ago, but he was not from the future but from 10,000 years ago. Now the grass on his grave well he didnt even have a grave.

Duel! x2

Yuei Vu, LP 4000

Paradox, LP 4000

Its me who goes first, draw! Paradox drew the card and looked at Yuei Vu with a sneer under the mask.

As someone who has traveled back to the present from the distant future, Paradox has absolute confidence in this era.

If you wanted to ask why, it was because he was familiar with the history of Duel Monster, knew the routines, tactics, and deck constructions used by well-known duelists in the past, and had the advantage of foresight.

In the original work, he was arrogant enough to 1v3 against the Duel Kings of three eras at the same time, and it may also be because of such a reason.

Naturally, he was no stranger to Yuei Vu. He clearly knew that this Duel King used a HERO deck, and he was the only user of the Masked HERO series in the world. This series was good at transforming in battle, switching forms to avoid attacks, and dealing with complex situations.

In addition, as a man from the future, Paradox also has his own cards.

That was a powerful deck developed through future technology that far surpassed this era, a series called Malefic.

I first activate this card from my hand Field Spell Malefic World!

Yuei Vu looked straight.

Sure enough, this guy didnt shuffle the cards, and the key card was sticky at the starting hand.

As the Spell Card entered the Duel Disk, a tyrannical air wave erupted from Paradox with the Duel Disk as the center.

The ground was turned dark at a speed visible to the naked eye. The roof under the two of them, the surrounding buildings, and the streets below all disappeared, replaced by a sinful world that seemed to be dyed dark black.

The moment the Field Spell Card was activated, Yuei Vu immediately felt that the air seemed to become heavy, and the pressure on Paradoxs large body also increased sharply.

Regardless of card effects and other factors, the power contained in this card was very strong!

Malefic World is the stage where Malefic monsters fight. In this field, I can summon the most powerful monsters from any time and space.

Paradox chuckled confidently and drew a card from his hand.

The effect of Malefic Rainbow Dragon in the hand is activated! Send 1 Rainbow Dragon from the deck to the graveyard, and this card can be Special Summoned directly from the hand.

The high-end future Duel Disk in Paradox's hand obviously does not need to be retrieved manually. It smartly spit out the card he wanted from the deck. After Paradox took it away, the deck loaded in the duel plate quickly swiped and automatically shuffled the cards.

Paradox showed the card that popped up in the deck. It was the legendary beast from Yu-Gi-Oh! GX, the Ultimate Gem God Rainbow Dragon.

Send the Rainbow Dragon from the deck to the GY! Paradox slapped the card in his hand on the Duel Disk, Appear Malefic Rainbow Dragon!

A hurricane stirred up in the space of sin. A rainbow of color burst out from the ground. A dragon with a white body and an aura comparable to a god appeared out of the rainbow light writhing its body, and flew half a circle around the field of Malefic World, spreading its wings which were dyed black, hissed, and roared at Yuei Vu!

[Malefic Rainbow Dragon, ATK 4000]

The gust of wind roared as if responding to the call of the sinful rainbow dragon. The airflow was like countless vine whips repeatedly whipping in this confined space.

The Dark Magician Girl pressed the magic hat that was almost blown away with her little hand, and barely opened one eye: A monster with an attack power of 4,000!? At the first turn?

Hahahaha! Paradox laughed, Did I say it? The Malefic series is a series that includes the most powerful monsters from all over the world and in all eras. I can send the original monsters from the deck to the graveyard to call out the corresponding Malefic monster.

In this era, you simply do not have the ability to contend with this power!

He picked out three more cards in his hand.

Set three cards, I end my turn.

Paradox crossed his arms, and the huge ultimate gem god curled up and slowly landed in front of him. It was like an indestructible fortress.

Come on, try if you can break through the defense of the Malefic Rainbow Dragon, Duel King! Paradox was full of confidence.

My turn. Yuei Vu was unmoved as if he didn't see the fierce and mighty dragon, Draw!

Here, if Yuei Vu was really a local NPC in the animation, he might be bluffed by Paradox.

The strong point of the Malefic series was that you could summon a powerful monster with an attack power of up to 4000 without complicated operations and at almost zero cost. According to the animation effect, the monsters of the Malefic series can even reproduce the effects of the original monsters perfectly.

Uncle Pa took this deck and went back to the era of DM to show off. From this eras point of view, this may indeed be invincible.

However, for Yuei Vu who knows the opponents details, the flaw of this deck was actually very obvious.

That was the Field Spell Malefic World that looked full of style.

Malefic monsters must rely on this Malefic World to exist on the field. If it disappeared, all the Malefic monsters would explode on the spot.

From the perspective of extraordinary power, the card Malefic World was actually the key that Paradox used to restrain Duel Monster spirits.

He travelled through the ages, forcibly snatching the Duel Monster spirits from their masters. Of course, it was impossible for the spirits to obey his command.

The Malefic World was the card that existed to force these spirits into submission. This card could restrain the power of the elves, and let Paradox command them as he wanted.

But the weakness of this card was that it has no resistance, and any typhoon could blow it away. Without this field, the spirits captured by Paradox would immediately quit, and in the duel, all the monsters on his field would be wiped out instantly.

like now.

Yuei Vu drew a card in an ordinary way, and played a card in an ordinary way: I activate Mystical Space Typhoon to destroy Malefic World.

Paradox: !

Chapter 338: Who Is The Man From The Future?

I activate Mystical Space Typhoon!

A card appeared in front of Yuei Vu, and a dark whirlwind rolled up out of thin air, and the turbulent storm swept towards the deep and dark surrounding area.

Destroy the Field Spell Malefic World!

Paradox was a little surprised.

Whats going on? Do duelists these days get the upper hand by Typhoons? So irritable?

Of course, Paradox himself was aware that Malefic World was the weakness of his deck, so he has already arranged the counter method.

Counter Trap Dark Bribe! Paradox waved his hand, and the set card beside him had already been flipped over, Negate the activation of a Spell/Trap and destroy te, then the opponent can draw a card.

The unscrupulous whirlwind was immediately restrained by the effect of the trap. The storm seemed to be struggling for a while, but in the end, it still couldnt escape the fate of being disintegrated and dissipated.

So this Mystical Space Typhoon failed to solve the Malefic World.

But it didn't matter, after drawing a card due to the side effect of Dark Bribe, Yuei Vu still has six cards in his hand, which was equivalent to filling a pit with zero cards, and it was not a loss at all.

And he still had many means.

Activate a Spell Card from my hand: E-Emergency Call!

Yuei Vu played the Spell Card, and immediately a huge projection with the letter E appeared in front of him.

This card allows me to add any Elemental HERO from the deck to my hand. I choose Elemental HERO Avian.

Yuei Vu picked out Avian from the deck and then revealed it together with the other two cards in his hand.

Activate Spell Card Polymerization! I fuse Elemental HERO Avian and Elemental HERO Wildheart in the hand! Fusion Summon Elemental HERO Wild Wingman!

The winged hero turned into a green whirlwind, and the muscular wild hero turned into a golden light beam. The two met on the ground, and a whirlwind of wilderness visible to the naked eye erupted from the vortex formed by fusion magic.

Falcon-like sharp claws protruded from the storm, and the green whirlwind seemed to be cut. The hero with a solid body flapped his snow-white wings, and the feathers fluttered all over the sky when he appeared on the stage.

[Elemental HERO Wild Wingman, ATK 1900]

Among the many Elemental HEROes, as a three-for-one fusion monster, the Wild Wingman only has an attack power of 1900, which may indeed be far from being powerful.

But he was precisely the hero who can give the opponent a fatal blow in the current situation!

The effect of Elemental HERO Wild Wingman! Yuei Vu said, Discarding a card from my hand, destroy a Spell/Trap on the field! I discard a card and destroy the Field Spell Malefic World!

As one of Yuei Vu's cards was stuffed into the GY, the heroes on the field spread their wings at the same time. The flapping of the wings whipped up a colorless storm out of thin air, and the wings flying all over the sky seemed to have received an order to charge in an instant in the wind, and scattered them out in all directions with a swoosh.

Paradox was startled again.

Do you want to blow up my Field Spell so much?

I haven't even mentioned the effect yet, how did you know you should blow up my field?

But even so, he has a second line of defense.

Open the set card! Trap Card Skill Prisoner!

Paradox yelled, and the trap at his feet quickly flipped.

Target a card on my field. During this turn, all monster effects that target the selected card will be negated!

Paradox said, raising his hand and pointing to the sky.

The one I want to choose is Field Spell Malefic World! During this turn, all monster effects targeting Malefic World will be nullified!

The storm ceased in an instant, and countless feathers were instantly bounced off as if hitting an invisible barrier. The power released by the trap turned into black and invisible energy that restrained the Wild Wingman. The hero fell from mid-air involuntarily, half-kneeling on the ground, and gritted his teeth for support.

Yuei Vu had to admit that Paradox was indeed very cautious, and he actually added a double defense to his Malefic World.

Now Malefic World was protected by Skill Prisoner, even if there were still cards left in his hand, Yuei Vu couldn't continue to activate the effect of Wild Wingman to destroy the Field Spell.

What are you going to do with the third one?

Here, Yuei Vu drew another card from his hand. It meant that he would go directly to the Elemental HERO Crystal Man

Ah no, it's Stratos.

After spending countless crystals on him, the hero whose cost has broken through the sky finally ushered in his debut!

High-tech blue armor, transparent goggles, a huge metal hang glider on his back, the two turbos were fully powered and buzzing, the hero hovered in mid-air with his arms folded.

[Elemental HERO Stratos, ATK 1800]

When Elemental HERO Stratos Normal or Special Summoned, I can choose one of the two effects to activate. Yuei Vu said, I chose to activate the first effect: Destroy Spells/Traps on the field, up to the number of HERO monsters I control, except this card.

He raised his hand and pointed to this dark and deep world again.

What I want to destroy is the Field Spell-Malefic World!

Paradox gritted his teeth: As I said, according to the effect of Skill Prisoner, in this turn, the effects of any monsters targeting Malefic World are all invalid

That's not necessarily true. Yuei Vu smiled.

Even though you are a man from the future you don't understand the awesomeness of Crystal Man at all!

Paradox saw Stratos flying high with his arms folded quickly, and the two turbines on the hang glider accelerated to run. There was a roar as if about to be overloaded.

The white whirlwind whizzed through the air and blasted out domineeringly. The whole space was crumbling under the storm summoned by the hero. The walls around the dark world began to crack like glass.

In a blink of an eye, this awesome field was completely shattered under the storm rolled up by Stratos.

Lost the shackles of Field Spell, Rainbow Dragons spirit also broke free from control with a roar. The Malefic Rainbow Dragon on the Paradox field let out a soaring roar, followed by the colorful rainbow light bursting out of its body, it exploded from the inside and exploded into debris.

Tch, when there is no Malefic World present, all the Malefic monsters must be destroyed

Paradox gritted his teeth and looked at Yuei Vu with even more awe.

Why the Malefic World was destroyed by Stratos despite the protection of Skill Prisoner In fact, Paradox knew the reason.

Hes not a duelist from the DM era after all, hes from a future where dueling monsters have been developed and perfected long, long into the future. At that time, the text descriptions of the effects of many cards were already very standardized, and the rules on many details were also popularized, so he naturally understood.

The question about the non-target effect was also one of the most confusing places in Yu-Gi-Oh. However, after Consortium K standardized the effect text in recent years, it was easier to distinguish than in the past.

According to the current norms, only the effect on the card surface that clearly says you need to target a certain card to activate could be considered as a target effect.

And if the effect on the card says This effect can be activated when certain conditions are met, choose a card on the field to do something, then it was regarded as a non-target effect.

To make it easier to distinguish, only if there was an action of selecting an object before the word activate, it was considered to be target effect.

Take the sky hero Stratos as an example. The effect of Stratos was as written, Destroy Spells/Traps on the field, up to the number of HERO monsters you control, except this card, so this effect did not select the target, therefore would not be invalidated by Paradoxs Skill Prisoner.

And if Stratoss effect read, Target Spells/Traps on the field, up to the number of HERO monsters you control, except this card. Destroy those cards., then this effect would be target effect and would be invalidated by Skill Prisoner.

Paradox frowned, and couldnt help but look more cautiously at Yuei Vu.

He originally thought that the game of dueling monsters in this era had just started, and even the Duel King would have a limited understanding of the rules of the game due to the limitations of the era.

But the depth of understanding of this Duel King named Yuei Vu far exceeded his expectations.

No, not only that.

Obviously, Paradox should have appeared in front of Yuei Vu for the first time, showing his Malefic deck brought from the distant future for the first time, but the opponent targeted his Field Spell as soon as it came up. Its almost as if he knew the decks weakness a long time ago, prepared countless times in advance

At this time, Paradox could not help but fell into deep contemplation.

Who is the man from the future, me or him?

Chapter 339: Is This Guy Really That Duel King?

The invincible sky hero blew away the field of Paradox with just one blow. Paradox, who lost Malefic Rainbow Dragon and Malefic World, now became a general with no soldiers.

But he gritted his teeth and opened the last set card: Open the set card! Trap Card Malefic Tune! This card can only be activated when a Malefic monster is destroyed. Draw two cards from the deck! (anime effect)

Battle! Yuei Vu officially entered Battle Phase.

Now the Paradoxs field was completely empty, and he was as defenseless as a naked little girl, then Yuei Vu would not be polite: Elemental HERO Stratos, Elemental HERO Wild Wingman, attack directly!

The two heroes who control the wind both soared into the air, the artificial hang glider turbines rotated, and the wings of the Wild Wingman also flapped with all their strength. The double whirlwind was superimposed, and it crashed into the body of the blond man.

With Yuei Vus current level of duelist force, it was not difficult to start an ordinary Shadow Game. The monsters he summoned in this duel also directly materialized under the dark energy.

The double whirlwind bombardment with an output of up to 3700 points was still a bit painful. Even though Paradox was strong, he was blown over on his back under the attack of the two heroes in turn, and rolled several times in embarrassment when he landed.

Paradox, LP 4000 LP 300

Seeing the guy being blown to the ground, lying motionless on the ground for a long time as if he was about to die, Yuei Vu couldnt help but wonder for a while whether the guy was going to burp.

After waiting for a while, Yuei Vu couldnt help but think: Why dont I try to pull out the Duel Disk and see if there is any response and then Paradox woke up.

He forced his muscles that were about to strike to concentrate his strength, kicked his knees, and panted heavily.

His white mask split open, split in half along the crack, and fell off separately. What was exposed under the mask was a fairly upright, but already embarrassing face.

Seeing his shaky state, Yuei Vu even once felt that his physical strength might not be enough to finish the gamebut he still stood up.

As if the fighting spirit was squeezed from the depths of the soul, as if the strength was squeezed from every cell, what burned in this mans eyes was the determination to devote himself to a great goal without confusion.

Like a stubborn fighter.

I still cough cough I cant just fall down, I cant be in this kind of place. He muttered vaguely, I still have things to do, and there are things waiting for me my comrades even for the sake of countless comrades who have fallen on the road, I will never fall just like that!

Yuei Vu:

Wait a minute, big brother, you were the one who attacked me without saying a word, right?

In this scene, how come it looks like I am the villain?

It seemed to be true, Paradox's LP was already like the candle in the wind he got into blood lock first, while Yuei Vu still had full 4000 points and was unscathed.

To be honest, Yuei Vu still has a little bit of worry

Set a card, I end my turn.

My turn Draw!

Ignoring the screams from the still-smoking body, Paradox pulled out the next card forcefully.

I activated Spell Card Terraforming! He played the card he just drew, Add a Field Spell card from the deck to my hand.

The card I want to add to the hand, of course, is Malefic World!

His high-tech Duel Disk has automatically activated again, and the card he wanted was automatically ejected from the deck. Then the deck shuffled itself immediately.

Yuei Vu stared straight at that Duel Disk which was so smart, and the soul of the Duel Disk Hunter, which had long been extinguished in the past, could not help but show signs of resurgence.

Tsk tsk? This Duel Disk future technology?

Paradox glanced at him coldly and snorted: It is different from the defective models of your era.

Yuei Vu nodded approvingly: Indeed, every time I search the deck, I have to manually pull out the deck to find the cards, then I have to shuffle the cards myself when its done. Its really troublesome.

Not only that. There are some processing BUGs in your Duel Disk. In the processing of some special situations, it can cause the Duel Disk to crash. In the near future, these BUGs will be discovered one after another.

So thats it. Yuei Vu nodded, It seems that the technology of the Duel Disk still has a long way to go, and it is really convenient for the future Duel Disk.

Paradox disdained: Hmph, my Duel Disk is not ordinary, even in the future. This is

While talking, the BOSS suddenly realized that he had been taken astray.

Wait! Are we dueling now? This is not a friendship match, why are you suddenly talking about this?

At this time, Paradox suddenly remembered that there seemed to be such an item in the information of the first Duel King Yuei Vu.

According to a duelist of that era (who wanted to hide his full name, called himself M.I), the first Duel King Yuei Vu had a strange habit of collecting Duel Disks in his early years

Paradox:

Fuck!

We are betting the fate of the world on this duel, yet you are still thinking about my Duel Disk?

Then he followed Yuei Vu's gaze and soon found out that at this moment, his opponent seemed to be staring at the D-Wheel behind him

Paradox:

He was now suddenly beginning to doubt history a little bit.

The first Duel King with a series of gorgeous cards including but not limited to the legendary Three Egyptian Gods, who has saved the world more than once, made great contributions to human civilization and was at the top of the world of Duel Monsters

Is this guy really that Duel King?

No, no, now I have to concentrate on the duel.

After all, he was the hope of the whole village!

Field Spell Malefic World, activate again!

The Spell Card was placed on the Duel Disk, and the Malefic World once again enveloped the entire field, and there was a strange light rippling in the darkness.

Although I don't know how you know the weakness of the Malefic deck, I was just careless just now. Paradox sneered, From now on it won't be.

I activate the Continuous Spell Field Barrier!

The continuous magic was activated, and the milky white transparent hemisphere suddenly opened with Paradox as the center, quickly including Yuei Vu and himself, covered them like an eggshell.

Paradox smiled: As long as the Field Barrier is on the field, both players cannot destroy Field Spell Cards, nor can they activate new Field Spell Cards.

In this way, you will not be able to destroy the Malefic World.

Yuei Vu frowned.

The protection of Field Spell has been strengthened. But after all, that was the weakness of his deck, and it was foreseeable that the defense would be strengthened.

Then I activate the effect of the Malefic Cyber End Dragon in the hand. He revealed a card in his hand, By sending 1 Cyber End Dragon from the Extra Deck to the GY, this card can be directly Special Summoned from the hand.

Show up! Malefic Cyber End Dragon!

With a machinery roar, the infinite electric current burst out of thin air, violently impacting the venue and space. The gigantic metal dragon descended with a bang, raised three bright heads, and the sound waves of its roar seemed to break through the sky!

Chapter 340: The Last Field Spell Card

Malefic Cyber End Dragon!

The big brother of the Cyber series, the final enhanced form formed by the fusion of three Cyber Dragons, is equivalent to the incarnation of power in Yu-Gi-Oh! GX.

But at this moment, this mechanical king captured from an unknown time and space was also put on the shackles of the Malefic World, and could only be at the mercy of Paradox.

[Malefic Cyber End Dragon, aTK 4000]

Battle! Paradox raised his hand and waved his arm, Malefic Cyber End Dragon, attack! The first thing to eliminate is that troublesome Wild Wingman! Sin Eternal Evolution Burst!

The three mechanical heads opened their mouths at the same time, the dazzling blue light condensed, and the surging current danced around the dazzling light cluster as if countless elves were dancing.

The moment the three beams were released, a transparent shock wave erupted from the mouth of the cybernetic dragon. The hero of the wilderness was instantly blasted to pieces under the powerful scorching flames, and countless feathers were blown away in the hurricane.

Open the set card: Trap Card Damage Diet! Yuei Vu waved and flipped over the set card, Halve all damage I take this turn!

After the Sin Eternal Evolution Burst shattered the hero of the wilderness, it immediately bombarded Yuei Vu unabated and continued to bombard Yuei Vu after passing through the buffer zone released by the trap card. Yuei Vu swayed and slid half a step, almost failing to stand still.

Yuei Vu, LP 4000LP 2950

Hmph, you barely defend. But then you can no longer use that hero's troublesome ability. Paradox inserted a card in his hand into the duel disk, Set two cards, I end my turn.

Yuei Vu stood up and glanced at the huge mechanical dragon floating in the air: The Cyber End Dragon is it a spirit plundered from other eras?

Hey, it looks like you know a lot. Paradox crossed his arms, Exactly. The dueling monsters contain powerful powers that modern people can't even imagine. Many of you may think that will bring the power to hopefully open up the future, but it doesn't have to be.

I traveled through the ages to collect the most powerful monsters, in order to use that power to destroy the source of all evil in this world—the dueling monster itself.

Well, these contents were explained in the animation, so Yuei Vu was not surprised.

What he didnt expect was that

So what do you want me to do? Yuei Vu frowned, Youre after the spirit Im holding? Three Egyptian Gods?

If thats the case, he was committing suicide. Paradox should not be so naive as to think that a mere Malefic World could restrain the three Egyptian Gods, right?

These three old arrogant guys havent tamed themselves until now, you kid actually want to be tied up? Do you have the guts?

But it turned out that even Paradox, the number one professional death-seeking expert in the history of Yu-Gi-Oh, was not so brave. He shook his head and said, No, there is too little information about the power of Egyptian Gods in the future archives, I am not sure that I can control them.

Yuei Vu frowned.

Then what spirit did he want to snatch from me?

Shien? Plasma?

It cant be

Yuei Vu turned his head subconsciously and glanced at the big, white but silly Dark Magician Girl beside him

Although the Dark Magician Girl didnt quite understand what the other party was here for, she probably figured it out this blonde bastard was a spirit hunter.

The girl instantly felt a great sense of crisis. She glared at Paradox angrily with her small face puffed up.

No one can separate me from my master!

Yuei Vu shook his head to dismiss the idea.

Impossible, impossible, who would have the idea of this foolish girl

Thats right, so it seems that you havent realized it yet, Paradox said with a faint smile. A powerful elf that only belongs to the Duel King, born through fighting side by side with the Duel King

A spirit only belongs to me? Yuei Vu frowned, feeling even more at a loss.

Strictly speaking, all the spirits around Yuei Vu were picked up. And now, listening to Paradox, it seemed to mean that in his near future, a new spirit was about to be born?

If that were the case, it would have a different meaning from the picked ones.

Because that would be a spirit born under the watering of Yuei Vus force as a duelist. Compared with all the spirits around him now, it was the best match to his own power.

So what would that spirit be?

Seeing Yuei Vu frowning and thinking, Paradox seems to have finally regained a little bit of confidence in being a foresight as a man from the future Yuei Vu slapped him as soon as he came up, and now Uncle Pa was starting to doubt life.

He waved his hand and said confidently: These are not questions you should think about. Because that spirit will be captured by me! Alright, lets continue!

It looked like he didnt intend to continue talking.

In any case, the duel must continue.

My turn, draw. Yuei Vu directly showed the drawn card, Spell Card Pot of Freed, I will draw two more cards from the deck.

Glancing at the two cards that he just drew, Yuei Vu couldnt help but smile.

Coming.

Its not in vain that he made so many targeted adjustments before he started playing.

Seeing Yuei Vu cast a malicious look at the Malefic World again, Paradox suddenly felt chill for no reason. He had an extremely ominous premonition.

But he quickly suppressed his uneasiness: Hmph, its meaningless to continue targeting the Malefic World. As long as the Field Barrier exists, Malefic World cannot be destroyed, and new Field Spell Cards cannot be activated.

Ah, I know. But I still have this trick. Yuei Vu smiled and showed a card in his hand, Quick-Play Spell Cosmic Cyclone! Pay 1000 LP, then target 1 Spell/Trap on the field; banish it!

Yuei Vu, LP 2950 LP 1950

What!?! Paradox was taken aback again.

Im sorry, where did you get so many typhoons in your deck?

Who says the first generation Duel King Yuei Vus deck was constructed by Masked Heroes?

Are you playing Heroes of the Storm??

But no matter how painful Paradox was, the Spell Card has already been activated. The strange whirlwind rolled up out of thin air, as if it came from the other end of the deep space of the universe, tearing open the space of sin domineeringly, making the entire huge field appear illusory as if it would disappear at any time.

Field Barrier can protect the Field Spell Card from being destroyed, but it didnt say the Field Spell Card cant be banished. Yuei Vu waved his hand, So disappear again for me, Malefic World! There is also Malefic Cyber End Dragon!

When the Malefic World was not present, all the Malefic monsters would be destroyed, and Malefic Cyber End Dragon was no exception.

Paradox looked grim, and shouted: Its not that simple! Open the set card: Trap Card Metaverse! This card allows me to add 1 Field Spell Card from the deck to my hand, or directly activate it !

Paradoxs Duel Disk immediately performed an automatic search again, and a card was quickly ejected. Paradox pulled out the card and shouted: Activate it! The last field Spell Card

Malefic World!

Chapter 339: Is This Guy Really That Duel King?

The invincible sky hero blew away the field of Paradox with just one blow. Paradox, who lost Malefic Rainbow Dragon and Malefic World, now became a general with no soldiers.

But he gritted his teeth and opened the last set card: Open the set card! Trap Card Malefic Tune! This card can only be activated when a Malefic monster is destroyed. Draw two cards from the deck! (anime effect)

Battle! Yuei Vu officially entered Battle Phase.

Now the Paradox's field was completely empty, and he was as defenseless as a naked little girl, then Yuei Vu would not be polite: Elemental HERO Stratos, Elemental HERO Wild Wingman, attack directly!

The two heroes who control the wind both soared into the air, the artificial hang glider turbines rotated, and the wings of the Wild Wingman also flapped with all their strength. The double whirlwind was superimposed, and it crashed into the body of the blond man.

With Yuei Vu's current level of duelist force, it was not difficult to start an ordinary Shadow Game. The monsters he summoned in this duel also directly materialized under the dark energy.

The double whirlwind bombardment with an output of up to 3700 points was still a bit painful. Even though Paradox was strong, he was blown over on his back under the attack of the two heroes in turn, and rolled several times in embarrassment when he landed.

Paradox, LP 4000 LP 300

Seeing the guy being blown to the ground, lying motionless on the ground for a long time as if he was about to die, Yuei Vu couldn't help but wonder for a while whether the guy was going to burp.

After waiting for a while, Yuei Vu couldn't help but think: Why don't I try to pull out the Duel Disk and see if there is any response and then Paradox woke up.

He forced his muscles that were about to strike to concentrate his strength, kicked his knees, and panted heavily.

His white mask split open, split in half along the crack, and fell off separately. What was exposed under the mask was a fairly upright, but already embarrassing face.

Seeing his shaky state, Yuei Vu even once felt that his physical strength might not be enough to finish the game but he still stood up.

As if the fighting spirit was squeezed from the depths of the soul, as if the strength was squeezed from every cell, what burned in this man's eyes was the determination to devote himself to a great goal without confusion.

Like a stubborn fighter.

I still cough cough I can't just fall down, I can't be in this kind of place. He muttered vaguely, I still have things to do, and there are things waiting for me my comrades even for the sake of countless comrades who have fallen on the road, I will never fall just like that!

Yuei Vu:

Wait a minute, big brother, you were the one who attacked me without saying a word, right?

In this scene, how come it looks like I am the villain?

It seemed to be true, Paradox's LP was already like the candle in the wind he got into blood lock first, while Yuei Vu still had full 4000 points and was unscathed.

To be honest, Yuei Vu still has a little bit of worry

Set a card, I end my turn.

My turn Draw!

Ignoring the screams from the still-smoking body, Paradox pulled out the next card forcefully.

I activated Spell Card Terraforming! He played the card he just drew, Add a Field Spell card from the deck to my hand.

The card I want to add to the hand, of course, is Malefic World!

His high-tech Duel Disk has automatically activated again, and the card he wanted was automatically ejected from the deck. Then the deck shuffled itself immediately.

Yuei Vu stared straight at that Duel Disk which was so smart, and the soul of the Duel Disk Hunter, which had long been extinguished in the past, could not help but show signs of resurgence.

Tsk tsk? This Duel Disk future technology?

Paradox glanced at him coldly and snorted: It is different from the defective models of your era.

Yuei Vu nodded approvingly: Indeed, every time I search the deck, I have to manually pull out the deck to find the cards, then I have to shuffle the cards myself when it's done. It's really troublesome.

Not only that. There are some processing BUGs in your Duel Disk. In the processing of some special situations, it can cause the Duel Disk to crash. In the near future, these BUGs will be discovered one after another.

So that's it. Yuei Vu nodded, It seems that the technology of the Duel Disk still has a long way to go, and it is really convenient for the future Duel Disk.

Paradox disdained: Hmph, my Duel Disk is not ordinary, even in the future. This is

While talking, the BOSS suddenly realized that he had been taken astray.

Wait! Are we dueling now? This is not a friendship match, why are you suddenly talking about this?

At this time, Paradox suddenly remembered that there seemed to be such an item in the information of the first Duel King Yuei Vu.

According to a duelist of that era (who wanted to hide his full name, called himself M.I), the first Duel King Yuei Vu had a strange habit of collecting Duel Disks in his early years

Paradox:

Fuck!

We are betting the fate of the world on this duel, yet you are still thinking about my Duel Disk?

Then he followed Yuei Vu's gaze and soon found out that at this moment, his opponent seemed to be staring at the D-Wheel behind him

Paradox:

He was now suddenly beginning to doubt history a little bit.

The first Duel King with a series of gorgeous cards including but not limited to the legendary Three Egyptian Gods, who has saved the world more than once, made great contributions to human civilization and was at the top of the world of Duel Monsters

Is this guy really that Duel King?

No, no, now I have to concentrate on the duel.

After all, he was the hope of the whole village!

Field Spell Malefic World, activate again!

The Spell Card was placed on the Duel Disk, and the Malefic World once again enveloped the entire field, and there was a strange light rippling in the darkness.

Although I don't know how you know the weakness of the Malefic deck, I was just careless just now. Paradox sneered, From now on it won't be.

I activate the Continuous Spell Field Barrier!

The continuous magic was activated, and the milky white transparent hemisphere suddenly opened with Paradox as the center, quickly including Yuei Vu and himself, covered them like an eggshell.

Paradox smiled: As long as the Field Barrier is on the field, both players cannot destroy Field Spell Cards, nor can they activate new Field Spell Cards.

In this way, you will not be able to destroy the Malefic World.

Yuei Vu frowned.

The protection of Field Spell has been strengthened. But after all, that was the weakness of his deck, and it was foreseeable that the defense would be strengthened.

Then I activate the effect of the Malefic Cyber End Dragon in the hand. He revealed a card in his hand, By sending 1 Cyber End Dragon from the Extra Deck to the GY, this card can be directly Special Summoned from the hand.

Show up! Malefic Cyber End Dragon!

With a machinery roar, the infinite electric current burst out of thin air, violently impacting the venue and space. The gigantic metal dragon descended with a bang, raised three bright heads, and the sound waves of its roar seemed to break through the sky!

Chapter 340: The Last Field Spell Card

Malefic Cyber End Dragon!

The big brother of the Cyber series, the final enhanced form formed by the fusion of three Cyber Dragons, is equivalent to the incarnation of power in Yu-Gi-Oh! GX.

But at this moment, this mechanical king captured from an unknown time and space was also put on the shackles of the Malefic World, and could only be at the mercy of Paradox.
