

I Play Yu-Gi 361

Chapter 361: Kaiba Land

The two-day qualifiers are over, and the KC Grand Prix is finally about to officially kick-off.

As one of the contestants, Yuei Vu also had to go to Kaiba Land to compete.

The opening of Kaiba Land has been a major event in the headlines and hot searches these days. Not only the dueling world, which was closely related to Kaiba Corp but also more bigwigs from different fields were paying attention to the trends here.

While the Duel Monster game was becoming more and more popular around the world, Kaiba Corp also received more and more attention. Many people were very concerned about whether Kaiba could take advantage of the holding of the KC Grand Prix and the opening of Kaiba Land to recover from the current low state and return to or even surpass its peak state.

Even if he didnt participate in such a grand event, Yuei Vu, who was the Duel King, still needed to show his face and cheer for President Kaiba.

But the day before the departure this time, Chika took the initiative to mention it when he was in the store.

Are you going to Kaiba Land to attend the opening ceremony tomorrow? Chika asked suddenly.

Yuei Vu, who was scrolling through the forums to catch up on online articles, froze for a moment, then nodded: Yeah, whats the matter?

Chika turned her head, hesitated for a moment, and whispered, Yuei Vu, can I go with you?

Yuei Vu was still hesitating, but before he could speak, Chika continued to say softly: Just do what you want to do, and ignore me. I will be obedient

Yuei Vu:

Now that she has said that, it really didnt seem appropriate to kick her away.

And he felt that Chika should indeed be more obedient, and she didnt seem to be causing him any trouble.

Kaiba Land itself was also an amusement facility, so it shouldnt be a big problem to bring her along, right?

With the generosity of President Kaiba, he probably wouldnt mind such small details.

All right. Yuei Vu nodded, Then lets go together.

Chikas eyes lit up for a moment as if she had a bright look in an instant.

The store manager was holding a book in the back, looking over from afar, he couldnt help nodding slightly and showing an approving smile.

Kaiba Land was actually somewhat similar to Disneyland, which was popular all over the world in his previous life.

In the GX era, Kaiba Land has also become a world-renowned iconic entertainment facility, with branches in major regions around the world, which was a symbol of the Kaiba Corps advancement to a higher level.

At this moment, Yuei Vu led Chika to the opening scene of this international amusement park.

Walking into the Kaiba Land and describing it intuitively, that felt like entering a fantasy world from the reality constructed of reinforced concrete.

Even before they approached the gate, the whole area was filled with a strong cheerful atmosphere. The businesses on both sides of the street, the billboards on the buildings, and the shapes of classic dueling monsters

It could be seen that Kaiba has really invested a lot in the construction of this park that carries his dream for the first half of his life.

The two got off at the entrance of Kaiba Land. They checked their tickets at the ticket gate in the shape of the Blue-Eyes White Dragon, passed through the gate shaped like the mouth of the Blue-Eyes White Dragon, and came to the square with the sculpture of the Blue-Eyes White Dragon, and in front of them was the spherical Blue-Eyes White Dragon-themed venue

The design of the whole park revolved around an absolute theme the Blue-Eyes White Dragon.

Looking at the buildings as far as the eye could see, Yuei Vu could only feel that the buildings in this paradise, one by one, one by one, standing, lying

All of them are President Kaiba silently showing off his wife.

This was not the same as Disneyland.

Although there were many Mickey Mouse in Disneyland, it was not exclusive to Mickey Mouse. It was different from the Blue-Eyes White Dragon which was there are only three in the world.

As the only owner of the Blue-Eyes White Dragon, Kaibas design and planning really had some suspicions of showing off

Yuei Vu even felt that the big Kaiba Land plaque hanging outside the amusement park may have been the last stubbornness left by the presidents childhood dream. Otherwise, no matter how you look at it, this place should be renamed White Dragon Land.

Blue-Eyes White Dragon: Aww~~ (The dragon roars to show its pride)

Yuei Vu thought that ordinary people may find it hard to imagine how obsessed Kaiba was with the fact that the Blue-Eyes White Dragon is my own dragon

Anyway, it was still early before the opening, so Yuei Vu led Chika around the park casually and took a look at the infrastructure here.

The hardware facilities of Kaiba Land were quite in place, and there was almost nothing to be picky about in the overall construction. At least after walking around for a long time, Yuei Vu always felt quite comfortable.

As for Chika

She probably didn't pay attention to what she saw along the way.

She was staring at the back of Yuei Vu's head almost all the way and then exclaimed in her heart

How can someone even have such a good-looking back of the head?

It was just too weird.

Speaking of this, a date?

Thinking of this, she couldn't help feeling even more dizzy.

Plop! Plop! Plop!

It was the sound of a racing heart.

When Yuei Vu stopped, she almost bumped into his back.

At this moment, Yuei Vu stopped at the edge of a square and unexpectedly saw several sculptures of Masked Heroes.

They were the three heroes he used the most before, Masked HERO Koga, Masked HERO Anki, and Masked HERO Dian.

Unexpectedly, President Kaiba actually reserved a piece of land for his Masked HERO in this pure white dragon theme park.

Not only that, Yuei Vu continued to look forward and found that this area seemed to be all about heroes.

The front also included the Elemental HERO monsters he used before. Like Flame Wingman, Great Tornado, Gaia, The Shining, etc., they all had their own sculptures and surroundings.

Even the cannon fodder hero Sparkman had posters and dolls!

To be honest, Yuei Vu didn't expect this. What made the president feel that this monster was also one of his trump cards?

The big screen next to it was replaying the highlights of the heroes and Yuei Vu who was controlling them. Judging from the background of the screen, it seemed to come from different periods, all of which were handsome shots of Yuei Vu directing powerful heroes to complete the final blow.

Sure enough, no matter how many times I watch it, I still think so, the hero is the most handsome~

Yuei Vu turned around following the sound and suddenly found that there was a guy in a full-body unicorn suit standing beside him

Okay, this was Yuki Judai.

Then the silent rabbit following him was Yusei Fudo.

Although there were only so many players who have been able to advance to the KC Grand Prix, there were still quite a few players who have obtained the qualifications to play.

There must be no reason not to wear the suits that the players have worked so hard to produce before. So on the opening day of the Kaiba Land, there were a bunch of strangely dressed strange species in the park.

So the two bigshots wore funny suits and mixed among the screwball.

No one really noticed what was wrong.

Perfectly Mixed In. JPG.

Chapter 362: The Smile Gradually Faded

At noon, a grand banquet with sponsors, guests, and contestants was held in the venue in the center of Kaiba Land.

The players headed by Snow Wave soon became convinced that this should be a large-scale event with the theme of eating. President Kaiba generously prepared a sumptuous buffet for all guests, including everything from abalone to lobster.

Of course, players do not need to eat, but this does not prevent them from having a simulated sense of taste in the game. For them, the act of eating is a process of pure enjoyment, but the system also has restrictions on the amount of food intake, which prevents them from eating the owner out of business.

Similar to the animation chapters in my impression, Yuei Vu found a few contestants with unknown meanings here.

For example, the detective contestant with a pipe in his mouth and a deerstalker hat, according to the introduction, seemed to be a detective duelist who relies on rigorous logical thinking and reasoning ability to grasp the situation and ruthlessly kill opponents.

Yuei Vu didn't know how strong this person was, but it made him couldn't help thinking that if the elementary school student from the next-door studio came here, he must be a good card player, and he might even be able to compete for the throne of Duel King.

Then he also saw a guy called himself Lone Dealer of the South West, wearing a wide-brimmed hat, with a cigar in his mouth, dressed in western cowboy attire, with a gold belt pinned around his waist. Sharp-eyed players recognized it at a glance, and couldn't help exclaiming McCree, is that you!?

Then there was a duelist who is said to be a famous surgeon. Sure enough, this guy was actually wearing a surgical gown, a mask, and gloves when he appeared on the stage, and he was followed by two nurses for no apparent reason as if he was in the middle of surgery.

In short, the motto of this competition was everyone can play cards, where duelists came from any kind of career.

Ha! Look at that duelist over there, just like Sherlock Holmes! The one who spoke was Fae who followed in as a competitor's friends and relatives group.

And the one over there, it looks like he ran out of the operating room. I just want to ask if the patient on the hospital bed is okay? This time it was Snow Wave who complained.

These NPCs are really funny. They're just playing cards. What are you doing with such weird clothes? The one who spoke was Native Noragami, who was eliminated but still mixed in with Snow Wave to join in the fun.

Some people have strange hobbies like this

Hearing the two guys muttering in the back, Yuei Vu couldn't help giving them a blank look especially at the weird animal headgear on their bodies.

In this room, you are the least qualified to say that others are strange, okay

Wow! Could it be Mr. Yuei Vu!?

Hearing a girl's exclamation, Yuei Vu turned around following the sound, and suddenly saw two big and round balls coming towards him.

Yuei Vu swears to God, things happened so fast at that time, he really wanted to hide, but he had no chance.

There was no room for reaction at all, the other party rushed forward with a slap, and when he came back to his senses, he was already overwhelmed by two big and soft marshmallows

This was Vivian Wong, who was dressed in a yellow cheongsam, bun head, and long black double ponytails. She looked quite beautiful and had a good figure.

She was the original character of the KC Grand Prix arc, but the dress and image were just like a replica of Chun Li

Then there was another particularly notable feature of this girl she was a nympho.

The first time she saw Yugi in the animation, she directly hit him with two big weapons on her chest, making the innocent Yugi Muto stunned

Of course, the one who had this honor and received this treatment this time became Yuei Vu.

While Yuei Vu was dumbfounded, Chika, who followed obediently like a little tail, was also dumbfounded.

Then when she came back to her senses, she was immediately angry.

Whats the matter with this woman?

Why does she hit people with the ball directly?

Vivian grabbed Yuei Vu's hand very enthusiastically, expressing how she had admired him for a long time, and said that she never thought that the real one was more handsome than the man on TV. She had a nympho face all over her face, and her eyes were about to burst into peach blossoms.

However, Yuei Vu didn't take these seriously at all.

After all, this was her setting. She had the same reaction when she saw Yugi, and it was the same reaction when she saw Kaiba.

Get serious with this girl and you lose

He could ignore it directly, but others didn't think so.

Not only Chika-chan, but even the Dark Magician Girl floated out in a transparent form, looking angrily at this woman who didn't follow the routine.

How dare this person sneak attack my Master!

Good so envious!

The girl floated to the side and secretly glanced at the master, and couldn't help thinking about eating peaches again.

With the size of her heart, the peaches she thought of were naturally bigger than ordinary people.

Vivian exchanged a few words, then turned her head and seemed to see President Kaiba, her eyes lit up, she immediately forgot about Yuei Vu, and then went up to meet him.

But considering that the other party was the president of Kaiba lets just wish for her luck.

Yuei Vu?

Yuei Vu turned his head and saw Yugi Muto, Katsuya Jonouchi, and those little friends who were always by their side at a glance.

Yuei Vu was a little surprised: Are you here too?

According to the animation plot, as the Duel King, Yugi accepted Kaiba's invitation to attend the competition to help him maintain his appearance.

But now because Kaiba already has Yuei Vu, so he didn't specifically ask Yugi to come over to help.

Well, because this park is Kaiba's dream. Yuei Vu nodded, We also want to come and witness.

Jonouchi gritted his teeth: Damn it, that guy Kaiba! The KC Grand Prix didn't invite me, who is the runner-up of the Duel Kingdom and the top 8 of the Battle City! Are you looking down on me?

Hmph, every horse bone should have self-awareness.

Seto Kaiba's voice sounded at the right time.

What did you say!?! Jonouchi exploded.

Today's President Kaiba took off his unchanging windbreaker for a rare occasion, and changed into a white suit, which made him look slender and straight

It made people forget that the president was actually a classmate of Yugi.

Kaiba folded his arms and looked at Yugi: Does that guy have to leave?

Yugi knew that Kaiba referred to his other self who lived in the Millennium Puzzle and was regarded by Kaiba as his old enemy, Yami Yugi.

He was silent for a moment, then nodded.

Neither Yugi nor Yami Yugi has taken the initiative to bring up this topic these days.

It may be because of the brief separation in the Waking the Dragons arc, which made them cherish the only remaining time with each other even more.

Kaiba waved his hand: That's impossible! Get ready for me, Yugi! There is still a destined final battle between us that has yet to be completed. Before deciding our future decisive battle, I will not allow you to run away!

Yuei Vu felt a little funny in his heart.

If he remembered correctly, President Kaiba said in Battle City that it was their last battle?

Yuei Vu looked at Yugi gloatingly.

Ha, Pharaoh, you must never have imagined that even if you run to the underworld, you will not be able to hide from the lingering president

That's when the president turned his head abruptly.

And you, Yuei Vu! the president said coldly, You have prepared for me too. When the KC Cup ends and the construction of Kaiba Land is completed, there is still a battle between you and me!

Yuei Vu: The smile gradually faded. JPG

Chapter 363: The First Match

According to Kaiba's arrangement, the KC Grand Prix competition would be held in the entire Kaiba Land, and all corners of the entire park would be the duel arenas.

Contestants would be randomly drawn by the Blue Eyes White Dragon bingo machine, and then randomly assigned to the battlefield designated in advance by the park.

The purpose of the president's doing this seemed to be to increase the flow of people in the various facilities in Kaiba Land, to drive popularity, and to ensure that tourists could watch exciting duels in all areas of the park.

The first stage was the promotion match to determine the top eight. However, because Yuei Vu was directly escorted by the president, he could wander leisurely in the Kaiba Land throughout the first stage.

It wasn't until the end of the promotion match and entering the quarter-finals that the organizers sent him the location of the first match in the KC Grand Prix.

The contestants didn't know who their opponent was until they arrived at their respective assigned areas.

For example, like now until Yuei Vu came to the battle area under the roller coaster track, he didn't know his opponent was actually a player!?

It was a girl with a Coke Sprite ID on her head, and she looked quite cute.

Coke Sprite's eyes straightened when she saw him.

In the first match, Yuei Vu-san was randomly selected to be my opponent!

My luck is unrivaled.

She had the foresight that with this duel, she would become popular!

The duel in the KC Grand Prix has attracted a lot of attention. As the Duel King, Yuei Vu's first battle here would naturally receive even more attention.

Almost half of the audience who cared about playing cards gathered here, including players, NPCs, and even Yuei Vu's professional recording and broadcasting tool, Miss Yuehua.

Besides, Coke Sprite was not just an ordinary player.

There were a total of seven or eight players who entered the qualifiers of the KC Grand Prix, and now there were currently only two players who have made it to the top eight. One was Snow Wave who was promoted by bootlicking abruptly and was shortlisted in a thrilling way, and the other was Coke Sprite.

Although there must be an element of luck, her strength was definitely not bad.

In fact, Coke Sprite is a well-known player from a certain guild.

Although World Link Online has quickly attracted many new players with its game technology and current popularity, female players were still in the minority.

Coke Sprite happens to be the only girl in the guild. Coupled with the fact that she was a beautiful girl, her battle has a certain degree of attention.

Sister Coke Sprite took a deep breath and pulled herself together.

Duel! x2

Yuei Vu, LP 4000

Coke Sprite, LP 4000

Although she was one of the only two players who made it to the top eight, Yuei Vu only seems to have an impression of this girl, thinking that he may have seen her before, but unable to remember her deck.

There was no way, there were too many players who have traded with him, and it was really impossible to remember every one of them.

It's me who goes first, draw!

Coke Sprite took a deep breath and decided that no matter whether she won or lost, at least she must show her own demeanor in this match.

I set a monster and a S/T card, then I end my turn!

One set card in the front row and one in the back row, at least in terms of the current environment, it could be regarded as a fairly satisfactory starting hand.

Then it's my turn. Yuei Vu said, Draw! What I want to summon is Chocolate Magician Girl, in attack position!

The pure-looking Magician Girl floated off the stage, flapping her devilish little wings, and a head of smooth dark green long hair hung down from the magic hat.

[Chocolate Magician Girl, ATK 1600]

If the last fight with Siegfried was a temporary fight on the street and the attention was limited, then the exposure rate of this KC Grand Prix match was definitely high enough.

The debut of the Chocolate Magician Girl immediately detonated the audience!

Damn it, its so cute!

So when will the new card box be released? I already miss my wives

The effect of Chocolate Magician Girl Once per turn: I can discard 1 Spellcaster-Type monster, Yuei Vu sent a card in the hand to the graveyard, draw a card from the deck.

After drawing the card, he waved his arm: Battle! Chocolate Magician Girl, attack the set monster!

The chocolate girl flapped her wings and flew up, raised the small magic wand in her hand, and a jet-black impact wave came out from the air, flipping the cover card like a wave, revealing the monster hiding below.

It was a male angel in white, with wide and full golden wings, a halo above his head, and two huge wings crossed in front of his body like a shield.

[Shining Angel, DEF 800]

The black waves pierced through that layer of wings like a piercing spear, and his body also pierced through it. The angel snorted, and the phantom that turned into light dissipated from the field.

Yuei Vu raised his eyebrows.

Its actually the Shining Angel a last will monster?

The effect of the Shining Angel! Coke Sprite waved her hand, When this card is destroyed by battle and sent to the Graveyard, I can Special Summon 1 LIGHT monster with 1500 or less ATK from my Deck, in face-up Attack Position!

She opened the deck and picked out the card she wanted.

I will special summon the second Shining Angel!

A golden light flew out of her deck, and the image of the second angel was projected onto the field. The male angel flapped his wings and descended slowly, and the golden feathers fluttered in the air like snowflakes.

[Shining Angel, ATK 1400]

Set a card, I end my turn. Yuei Vu said.

Magician Girl was a deck that focuses more on defense than offense and could not actively launch a violent offensive.

But although these girls seemed to be weak in stature and low in attack power, they were very good at receiving moves and counterattacks.

While Yuei Vu declared the End Phase, he continued to observe the other party.

Shining Angel was a recruiter that could pull out any LIGHT attribute monster with an attack power below 1500 from the deck, and the ability was relatively versatile. Yuei Vu couldnt deduce the opponents deck and tactics based on this monster alone.

Its my turn, draw!

Seeing the card in hand, Coke Sprite couldnt help but her eyes lit up.

Coming!

From my hand, activate the Field Spell Card The Sanctuary in the Sky!

There was a loud rumbling sound, and the ground trembled violently. The white palace rose from the ground, with long steps extending out, and marble columns lined up neatly in front of the door.

The whole palace was surrounded by looming white clouds, exuding a solemn and inviolable atmosphere.

As long as The Sanctuary in the Sky is on the field, the battle damage caused to the controller of a Fairy monster from a battle involving that monster becomes 0.

After a pause, she drew out the next card in her hand.

Next is this card, a Spell Card appeared in front of Coke Sprite again, Continuous Spell Card The Fountain in the Sky!

White clouds and mist rose, and the terrain between the sky sanctuary venues changed rapidly. A fountain emerged in the center of the ground, and milky white sculptures surrounded the pool on both sides, and the water in the pool was transparent and clear.

Yuei Vu looked at the sanctuary and the fountain, and his mind quickly became active.

This deck is

Chapter 364: The Sanctuary in the Sky

Battle! The girl waved her hand and directly declared to enter the Battle Phase, Shining Angel, attack Chocolate Magician Girl!

At this time, some NPC viewers were surprised: Use a monster with a lower attack power to commit suicide?

Does this girl know how to duel?

It seems that I have never seen such a player in previous competitions. Is the level not good enough?

Amidst the doubts of the NPCs, the shining angel flapped his golden plump wings and charged fearlessly at the magic girl on Yuei Vus field!

Although it looked like a suicide attack, Yuei Vu, who already guessed the other partys purpose, would naturally not let her do so: The effect of the Chocolate Magician Girl is activated!

Once per turn, if this card is targeted for an attack: I can target 1 Spellcaster-Type monster in my Graveyard, except Chocolate Magician Girl; Special Summon it, then change the attack target to it, and the attacking monsters ATK becomes half its current ATK!

The chocolate magic girl was ready to fight, and with a wave of her staff, the angel who was about to charge moved aside.

The GY area of Yuei Vus Duel Disk flashed with golden light, and the cards discarded by the effect of the chocolate girl in the last round and sent to the GY popped out and returned to his hand.

Come on! The great disciple of the Dark Magician, the strongest magic girl who harnesses the power of black magic Dark Magician Girl, revive!

A black magic circle reappeared on the ground, the magic circle slowly rotated, and a beautiful figure flew out of it energetically, and landed in mid-air with a light somersault, right on the trajectory of the brilliant angels charge superior.

[Dark Magician Girl, DEF 1700]

[Shining Angel, ATK 1400 ATK 700]

Coke Sprite was secretly surprised to find out that the Dark Magician Girl who was resurrected from the GY was actually on defense.

Defense Position Yuei Vu-san saw through my tactics?

If the target of the attack is in Defense Position, the Shining Angel could not commit suicide, and naturally, the effect could not be triggered.

But fortunately, this starting hand happened to be rather good, and she had the means to deal with it!

Quick-Play Spell Enemy Controller!

Coke Sprite quickly played the cards. The huge gamepad was immediately projected in front of her, and the commands were quickly entered with the ups and downs of the keys.

As a professional player backed by a guild, Coke Sprite certainly has some powerful rare cards in her hand. This Enemy Controller was one of the relatively cheap staple cards that players have the opportunity to buy in the early stage.

When this card is activated, I can choose one of the two effects to activate: Change the battle position of a monster on the field, or sacrifice a monster on the field to gain control of the opponents monster for one turn.

What I want to choose to activate here is the first effect!

Forcibly change the Dark Magician Girl on your field into the attack position!

The Enemy Controller that Coke Sprite used here was the real-life version. Obviously, she would not know how to enter up up down down ABAB like the president, but this did not affect the activation of the effect.

Affected by the effect of the controller, the Dark Magician Girls body immediately moved against her will. With some reluctance, she released her defensive posture and stood up, facing the suicide attack of the shining angel head-on.

[Dark Magician Girl, DEF 1700 ATK 2000]

The battle continues! Shining Angel, attack the Dark Magician Girl. Coke Sprite said.

Yuei Vu frowned and said: Then the Dark Magician Girl, hit back. Black Magic Burst!

Upon receiving the masters instruction, the Dark Magician Girl waved her little hand, and a magic shell easily blasted the charging angel into pieces.

First, the effect of The Sanctuary in the Sky. Coke Sprite said, The battle damage caused by Fairy monsters to players becomes 0.

Then there is the effect of the Continuous Spell Card The Fountain in the Sky.

When a LIGHT monster is destroyed by battle and sent to the Graveyard, by banishing that monster from the graveyard, I gain Life Points equal to its ATK.

Although the attack power of the Shining Angel was reduced to 700 when it was destroyed, it was still calculated according to the original attack power of 1400 because he had already entered the graveyard when the attack power value was determined.

Coke Sprite, LP 4000 LP 5400

Then there is the effect of Shining Angel. She pulled out the deck, I Special summon the third Shining Angel!

A golden beam flew out from the deck, and the third angel descended on the field.

[Shining Angel, ATK 1400]

Then the third angel, attack the Dark Magician Girl!

Another suicide attack, of course, this angel was no match for the magician girl and was blasted to pieces casually.

I will recover 1400 LP again.

Coke Sprite, LP 5400 LP 6800

Then there is the effect of Shining Angel, which Special Summon 1 LIGHT monster with 1500 or less ATK from my Deck, in face-up Attack Position.

All three Shining Angels in the deck have been consumed, and this time she pulled a brand new recruiter from the deck.

I Special Summon Nova Summoner!

Nova Summoner, ATK 1400

Then Nova Summoner, attack the Dark Magician Girl again!

The newly-appeared monster fearlessly fired a beam of light at the magical girl. The Dark Magician Girl flicked the attack with a flick of her wand, and a magic shell from her backhand blew the monster into pieces again.

The spirit girl who kept repeating this movement was almost numb now.

Her little head couldnt understand the meaning of the other partys continuous letting low-star monsters come up to commit suicide.

Are you trying to exhaust me?

By the effect of The Sanctuary in the Sky, I take no combat damage! By the effect of The Fountain in the Sky, I banish Nova Summoner to gain 1400 LP.

Coke Sprite, LP 6800 LP 8200

At this time, the passers-by had already started to realize, and some players also started to get excited. However, she ignored these and continued to focus on the duel.

The effect of Nova Summoner When this card is destroyed by battle and sent to the GY, I can Special Summon 1 LIGHT Fairy monster with 1500 or less ATK from my Deck. I will continue to special summon Nova Summoner!

Then attack the Dark Magician Girl!

That's right, it's exactly the same effect as Shining Angel. The second Nova Summoner card appeared, and then quickly shattered under the bombardment of black magic.

Coke Sprite, LP 8200 LP 9600

The effect of Nova Summoner, special summon the third Nova Summoner. Attack the Dark Magician Girl!

Coke Sprite, LP 9600 LP 11000

But with that, it's finally over.

So far, the three Nova Summoner and three Shining Angel cards in Coke Sprites deck have all been consumed, and her HP has also been boosted to a terrifying value of 11,000 points.

But in this way, her preparations were complete.

Once again, and for the last time, the effect of Nova Summoner is activated, and I Special Summon 1 LIGHT Fairy monster with 1500 or less ATK from my Deck.

Coke Sprite opened the deck again and finally called out the monster she needed.

Special Summon

The Agent of Force Mars!

Seemingly a newborn boiling flame spewed out from the ground, rolling away on the ground like lava. The red-hot hammer cut through the flames and came out, followed by an angel with a red body.

With wings like a fallen angel and a heavy black hammer, the angel was surrounded by flames and black air, and the moment he appeared on the stage, it seems like the air in the arena was stagnant.

[The Agent of Force Mars, ATK 0]

Yuei Vu frowned.

Sure enough this is Blood Angel OTK.

It was indeed one of the most reliable decks that players could build in the current conditions.

Coke Sprites tone became a little excited: The effect of The Agent of Force Mars! While I control The Sanctuary in the Sky and my LP is higher than the opponents, this card gains ATK/DEF equal to the difference!

Coke Sprite, LP 11000

Yuei Vu, LP 4000

Now the difference in our HP is 7000 points, so the attack power of The Agent of Force Mars has increased by 7000 points!

[The Agent of Force Mars, ATK 0 ATK 7000]

The NPCs who were still mocking and expressing doubts before were instantly dumbfounded and each of them even doubted their own eyes.

Am I seeing things right?

Attack power

seven thousand!?

Chapter 365: The Passive of The Protagonist

7000 ATK!?

Watching Coke Sprites series of operations directly pull out a monster with an attack power of up to 7000, all the NPCs who hadnt seen much in the world were blown up.

After all, based on their limited knowledge of duels and the games they have watched, it seemed that even those legendary duelists couldnt pull out a monster with an attack power of 7000 in just one turn.

Not only that, but her LP was as high as 11000!

Passers-by have never seen such a terrifying attack power in a duel, nor have they seen such a high LP.

Coke Sprite refreshed their understanding of the game in this duel.

Battle! Coke Sprite waved her hand, The Agent of Force Mars, attack the Chocolate Magician Girl!

The angel waved the warhammer, flapped its black wings, and flew forward. When the hammer fell, it was like a will to suppress. The chocolate girl who was enveloped by that force was powerless to resist and was crushed into golden powder in just a moment.

The heavy hammer slammed down with an invisible force and exploded with a loud boom that soared into the sky. The air wave spread in all directions wrapped in billowing smoke, and instantly engulfed Yuei Vus half of the field.

Coke Sprites eyes widened, full of anticipation.

Did I win!?

If the battle was established, this blow would cause 5400 points of combat damage, more than enough to complete an OTK.

Did she beat Yuei Vu-san?

The crowd also began to wonder.

The Duel King wouldnt really be OTKed, would he?

Yuei Vu, LP 1300

Its really dangerous.

When the smoke dissipated, Yuei Vu still stood there calmly, smiling.

At that moment just now, I activated the Trap Card Damage Diet, which halved all the damage I take this turn. He paused, and said, But it was indeed a pretty good blow, it was only a little short.

well, thats the expected result.

If it was so easy to win, then Yuei Vu would have no reason to be called the protagonist of the world.

Although she expected this, Coke Sprite still felt a little regretful.

Its just that close!

I end my turn. She said helplessly, paused, and added, But because of Yuei Vu-sans drop in LP, Mars attack power has further increased.

[The Agent of Force Mars, ATK 7000 ATK 9700]

The audience continued to uproar.

The attack power is close to 10,000!?

It turns out that there is such a terrifying attack power in this game?

Its my turn, draw! Yuei Vu said, Activate the Spell Card Graceful Charity, draw 3 cards, then discard 2 cards.

After he drew the cards, he thought about it, picked out two cards, and threw them into the GY.

Then I changed the Dark Magician Girl from the attack position to the defense position. He said, Set three cards, I end my turn.

The magic girl squatted down, resumed her defensive posture, and used her small staff as a chest seal to block her body. At the same time, there were three more set cards behind her.

[Dark Magician Girl, ATK 2000 DEF 1700]

Who is this girl? She is so strong, why have I never heard of her before? a passerby asked.

Even the Duel King seems to be helpless for the time being

The passers-by watching the excitement only saw Yuei Vu helpless, but the first reaction of the players was

Hiss~ Three pits in the back row!

Does Yuei Vu-san no longer want to play the hero and want to change to a nether villain?

Especially the Coke Sprite on the opposite side, looking at the three face-down cards, the pressure she felt was the greatest.

At this time, just step on a pit that shouldn't be stepped on, and I'm done for My turn, draw!

Looking at the card she just drew, Coke Sprite's eyes lit up, as if she felt a little more confident facing the three pits in the back row.

Battle! She waved her hand, The Agent of Force Mars, attack the Dark Magician Girl!

At the same time, with a wave of her small hand, she opened the set card beside her.

At this moment, I activate the Trap Card Meteorain! During this turn, when my monster attacks the opponent's Defense Position monster, it can inflict piercing damage!

With penetrating damage close to 10000, it was enough to kill any wall with one blow!

But of course, Yuei Vu's three set cards could not be a bluff: Open the set card: Trap Card - Dimension Wall! It can be activated only when an opponent's monster declares an attack. The opponent takes the Battle Damage I would have taken from this battle instead!

The audience was in an uproar.

The attack power of The Agent of Force Mars was 9700, and the defense power of the Dark Magician Girl was 1700, so the battle would cause a full 8000 points of battle damage!

After taking these 8000 points of damage, Coke Sprite's HP would drop sharply to only 3,000 points in an instant, so that the portion of her HP that exceeded Yuei Vu would be only 1,700.

In other words, Mars' attack power would drop from 9700 to 1700 in an instant, and he would be reduced from an unrivaled beatstick to cannon fodder.

Just one card reversed the situation! The onlookers sighed, You deserve to be the Duel King!

Yet it has not reversed.

At this time, the cards drawn by Coke Sprite this round immediately played a role. She revealed a card: I activate the effect of the Herald of Purple Light in the hand!

Send this card and 1 other Fairy monster from my hand to the GY; negate the activation of a Trap Card and destroy it!

Two cards from her hand were sent to the graveyard, and a spherical creature with wings and purple light appeared on her field. The sacred purple light enveloped the dimension wall activated by Yuei Vu like a sentence from a god, and the power of the trap card was restrained, and it quickly dissipated into countless light spots in the light.

The battle continued, the Agent of Force flapped his wings, and the boundless power turned into energy visible to the naked eye and gathered into the dark and heavy hammer in his hand. The hammer was raised high, brewing a surging momentum, as if he was holding an invisible mountain in his hands, ready to smash down at any moment.

Yuei Vu continued to wave his hands: Then open the set card: Trap Card Mirror Force!

What!?! Even the players were shocked this time.

Yuei Vu-san, why are you also bowing your head to Hanoi's holy power?

It can't be, you are also a knight of Hanoi!?

The trap released a blue transparent shield, like a semi-arc barrier in front of Yuei Vu, blocking the direction of the heavy hammer attack.

Coke Sprite gritted her teeth: Then I activate Quick-Play Spell My Body as a Shield! When the opponent activates a Spell/Trap Card or monster effect that would destroy a monster(s) on the field: Pay 1500 LP, negate the activation, and destroy that card!

Coke Sprite, LP 11000 LP 9500

[The Agent of Force Mars, ATK 9700 ATK 8200]

With Coke Sprites 10000+ life points, she could still afford such a small price. Even if The Agent of Force Mars attack power was reduced, this blow was still enough to OTK!

The sacred protective shield was broken, and the heavy hammer directly smashed down without hindrance. The Dark Magician Girl in front of more than 8,000 attack powers couldn't resist at all, so scared that she crouched with her head in her arms

Open the set card! Yuei Vu flipped over the last cover card, Trap Card Intrigue Shield! Target 1 face-up monster I control; equip this card to that target. Once per turn, while the equipped monster is in Attack Position, it cannot be destroyed by battle. I take no battle damage from attacks involving it!

I equip it to the Dark Magician Girl!

A shield appeared in front of the Dark Magician Girl. The girl let out an ah, and quickly grabbed the shield as if seeing a life-saving straw. The pitch-black warhammer slammed on the shield, causing the girl to stagger back a few steps, trembling all over, accompanied by a violent turbulent wave, and sat down on the ground.

But the blow was still blocked.

I end my turn. Coke Sprite was a little frustrated.

Can I win this duel?

Is it possible that all the protagonists have the passive of until the cards are used up, they must not die?

Chapter 366: So Handsome!

There was 9500 LP left, and The Agent of Force Mars still had more than 8000 attack power. It seemed that the scene had a great advantage, and many of the onlookers felt that the chance of victory was still in the hands of Coke Sprite.

However, Coke Sprite herself knew in her heart that the opportunity had quietly slipped away from her right from the moment the offensive was resolved just now.

My turn, draw! Yuei Vu directly activated the drawn card, Activate Spell Card Spell Books from the Pot! Both players draw three cards from the deck.

After drawing three cards, he added those cards to his hand and then took one of them.

Spell Card Sages Stone! When I have a Dark Magician Girl on the field, special summon 1 Dark Magician from my deck!

A black magic circle emerged, and a red-robed figure flew straight out of the magic circle. The magic robe flew, and his figure lightly circled and landed on the field.

[Dark Magician, ATK 2500]

Next is this card

Yuei Vu raised a card in his hand, and his voice suddenly raised.

Activate Spell Card The Eye of Timaeus!

Dazzling light was released from the face of that card, and the sacred blue light swept the audience with invisible mighty power!

The roaring dragon flew out of the Spell Card, circling in mid-air with an illusory figure. It flapped its wings, and its flying body gradually transformed into a golden swirl.

The coercion of the dragon descended on the audience, giving people the illusion of being caught in the heart and breathing in disorder.

At this moment, everyones eyes were attracted by the dragon, and they were amazed from the bottom of their hearts.

The NPCs were just amazed by the oppressive power and noble posture of this dragon, but the players who recognized this card will be even more astonished.

The Eye of Timaeus! A player exclaimed, When did this card come to Yuei Vu-san?

Shouldnt the legendary dragon return to the spirit world after the end of the Doma arc?

Surprised, why does Yuei Vu-san have everything in his hands?

Yuei Vu continued: The effect of The Eye of Timaeus Target 1 Dark Magician monster on my field; Fusion Summon 1 Fusion Monster from my Extra Deck that mentions that monster on the field as material, using it as the Fusion Material!

I choose Dark Magician Girl!

The disciple of the great magician will don the armor of the knight and call forth infinite possibilities with the combined power of the legendary dragon and black magic!

Fusion Summon! Appear in a brand new form

Dark Magician Girl the Dragon Knight!

The magic girl turned into a beam of golden light and submerged into the vortex in mid-air, and turned into a beam of light that flew straight back to the ground. The body of the noble legendary dragon appeared from the soaring beam of light, and a radiant sword cut through the light curtain, revealing a knight-like steel armored magic girl holding a divine sword.

The dragon landed, and its flapping wings rolled up a transparent storm. The girls long sword swung lightly, cutting the storm in half like an invisible blade!

[Dark Magician Girl the Dragon Knight, ATK 2600]

Then the Spell Card Dark Magic Twin Burst is activated! Yuei Vu played another card, Target 1 Dark Magician I control; it gains ATK equal to the combined ATK of all Dark Magician Girl currently on the field and in the GYs, until the end of this turn!

So the attack power of the Dark Magician increases by the attack power of the Dark Magician Girl in my GY, which is 2000 points!

[Dark Magician, ATK 2500 ATK 4500]

Then activate Equip Spell Excalibur! Yuei Vu played another card, Equip it to Dark Magician Girl the Dragon Knight! Double the equipped monsters original ATK, but when I draw a card, destroy this card! (anime card)

The legendary sword in the stone flew out, circled twice in mid-air, and landed in the hands of the Dark Magician Girl.

The girl was wearing the new clothes given by the master, holding the divine sword bestowed by the master in both hands, with her head held high, she feels that she has reached the pinnacle of her life!

[Dark Magician Girl the Dragon Knight, ATK 2600 ATK 5200]

The onlookers exclaimed again and again.

A Dark Magician with an attack power of 4500, a Dark Magician Girl with an attack power of 5200!

But in terms of attack power, The Agent of Force Mars is still higher

But at this moment, Yuei Vu interrupted them: Dark Magician Girl the Dragon Knights effect is activated! Once per turn, I can send 1 card from my hand to the GY, then target 1 face-up card on the field; destroy that target!

He sent a card from his hand to the graveyard.

What I want to destroy is the Field Spell The Sanctuary in the Sky!

The Dark Magician girl raised the sword in her hand and slashed out through the air. Invisible ripples spread out in the air, and sword energy mixed with black magic waves shot out through the air.

The turbulent sword energy impacted this sacred venue. The snow-white marble columns were cut off under the sweep of the sword light, and the palace without support rumbled and collapsed. The falling rocks were like raindrops, falling densely, the clouds and mist dissipated, and the entire huge palace collapsed.

[The Agent of Force Mars, ATK 8200 ATK 0]

When The Sanctuary in the Sky no longer exists on the field, Mars attack power will return to its original state. Coke Sprite said helplessly.

Battle! Yuei Vu said, Dark Magician, attack the The Agent of Force Mars!

The Dark Magician flew up, followed by the phantom of his apprentice Dark Magician Girl. Two staffs, one large and one small, were stacked together, and the magic power intertwined with each other, blasting through the air like a roaring storm.

The interlaced flow of dark light pierced through the body of the Agent of Force, and exploded violently in front of Coke Sprite. The angel let out a miserable snort and was instantly torn to pieces. His warhammer was thrown far away, his wings were torn, and his black feathers fluttered like elves in the hurricane.

Coke Sprite, LP 9500 LP 5000

Dark Magician Girl the Dragon Knight, Yuei Vu raised his hand, Attack the player directly! Black Dragon Burst!

The girl raised the sword in her hand. The knights sword and the legendary sword in the stone were intertwined with each other, brewing a surging power of black magic, locking the position of the Coke Sprite from afar.

Timaeus opened his mouth, and the divine power of the legendary dragon turned into a vortex, like an arrow on a bowstring ready to blast out at any time.

The sword slashed. The impact of the pitch-black spiral and the light beam spewed by Timaeus merged into one place, and blasted toward the Coke Sprite.

Boom! ! !

Coke Sprite, LP 5000 LP 0

The girl was thrown on her back by the blast and sat down on the ground.

Although the player could turn off the pain simulation completely, they still had to endure the impact of the stereoscopic image.

The force of a direct attack with more than 5000 points of damage was still very strong. If the pain simulation wasnt turned off, she might be broken by this blow.

The Dark Magician Girl slowly returned to the field along with Timaeus. The girl was riding on the dragons back, and she turned her head to look at her master, with a proud expression of Praise me, pat my head.

As a duelist, Yuei Vu stood there calmly, with a mighty dragon and a noble knight girl behind him. A well-timed breeze gently brushed the hem of his clothes, reflecting his different spirits.

Coke Sprite looked at this picture from the perspective of the opposite position, and a few words suddenly appeared in her heart

So so handsome!

Chapter 367: Do A Little Favor

After the duel was over, Yuei Vu stepped across the field, walked up to Coke Sprite, bent down and stretched out his hand.

Are you okay?

The back of his head half-blocked the sunlight from the sky as he bent down. The warm golden light clearly outlined the contours of his face, as well as the hair that was blown by the breeze.

It looked like an illustration.

Coke Sprite sat there for a while, then hesitantly stretched out her hand.

The details of this game, including the sense of touch, were really amazing. When she held Yuei Vu's hand, she felt the warm and powerful touch. For a moment, she almost couldn't tell whether it was a game or reality.

She stood up dumbly like a robot and stood there blankly.

After all, it was just a friendly game. As the king of dueling, Yuei Vu now had to consider not only his image among toolman players, but also his image among other duelists.

Not only he must win, but he must also win in a calm and elegant demeanor.

Yuei Vu sighed in his heart.

Alas, idol-type NPCs are indeed very tiring, and they must always pay attention to their own image.

But what is the girl blushing?

Isn't it just a game of cards? How do you make it the same as we have had in-depth exchanges?

Those who didn't know may think Yuei Vu was bullying other girls.

He lost. Coke Sprite said with her head down.

She looked like an ostrich that was going to hide its head.

Yuei Vu was a little puzzled.

Don't you just lose a game? Shouldn't it be a very normal thing for players? Why do you still make a face like being broken?

Or do you feel ashamed?

It shouldn't be either. screwball players usually dress so strangely and roll up trees, and I have never seen anyone feel ashamed

After the duel was over, Yuei Vu advanced. Now all he needed to do is wait for the players from other regions to finish playing. The organizer would continue to assign him an opponent to advance to the next match, designate a place for the match, and then he would go to the designated area to continue the match.

Chika followed Yuei Vu silently, although she didn't speak, her heart was not at peace at all.

This was the first time she had the opportunity to see Yuei Vu active in a regular competition.

Unexpectedly, in the duel, he looked even more handsome than usual!

The girl has never been so eager to duel with Yuei Vu and enjoy that pleasure with him.

It's a pity that although Yuei Vu has been teaching her dueling from time to time, she has also studied very hard, and the notebook was full of notes, but the speed of progress was still limited.

She knew that her current self was not good at all, and she couldn't satisfy Yuei Vu at all.

But it didn't matter, the girl had the determination to work hard!

Isn't there a saying that says so?

As long as you try very hard, you can achieve anything!

At this moment, in the control room of the contest organizer.

Sitting behind the desk, President Kaiba called the broadcast screen and watched Yuei Vu match.

He crossed his arms and snorted coldly in his heart.

Sure enough, I knew you would be the first to win, Yuei Vu !

Just when the duel had just ended, Uncle Isono walked in quickly from the door, pushed the sunglasses on the bridge of his nose, stood at attention, and reported to the president: President! Mr. Yuei Vu won the first game!

Seto Kaiba straightened his face quickly, and gave him a blank look: Boring! Is it necessary to report this kind of thing to me?

While the president was speaking, he quickly turned off the broadcast screen on his computer screen and switched back to the work interface.

Uncle Isono stood at attention: Yes!

After finishing speaking, the man turned his head and walked away, as if he was not at all disturbed by the president's words.

It could be seen that this has become a habit.

After all, Uncle Isino has been in the Kaiba Corp for so long, he knew what to say and what to listen to.

For example, if he really listened to the president's scold and stopped coming to report, then it would be really stupid. When Yuei Vu won the second game later, he should report the news, otherwise, the president may be even angrier.

Not long after, someone came to report in a hurry: President! There are reports that the projection device of the simulated volcano facility at the Volcano Park is out of control, and three-dimensional images of volcanic eruptions began to appear!

What?

The president, who was peeking at his subordinates' games to relieve his card addiction, sat up straight.

President! The operating system of the Ferris wheel has been hijacked, and the ongoing duel on it has been disturbed!

Kaiba frowned.

Could it be that Siegfried?

He had strengthened his defenses and upgraded his firewall, but was he still breached by that guy?

However, unlike in the original plot, the current president has long been wary of this situation. So he pulled out the keyboard, made a crackling operation, and immediately responded.

As we all know, there were only a few security personnel headed by Isono in the entire Kaiba Corp. And the technical department was even worse, only President Kaiba himself

In the animation, whenever Kaiba Corp encountered any system out of control or hacker intrusion, the president would always go into battle himself and type codes to solve the crisis. The only job of the technical department staff was to cheer for the boss

In fact, even if Kaiba left it alone, nothing would happen.

After all, there was an artificial intelligence named Kaiba Noah in the system of Kaiba Corp. With Noah's ability, he could easily hack into most systems in this era. Block Siegfried's intrusion was a piece of cake.

However, President Kaiba did not seek Noah's help.

because he's a tsundere.

The backup system that had already been prepared was activated immediately, quickly covering all areas invaded by the virus. The erupting volcano stopped immediately, the troublesome Ferris wheel stopped, and all areas returned to normal, so fast that even some tourists had no time to realize that something went wrong.

In just a few seconds, the system of the entire Kaiba Land was completely restored to its original state.

President! Volcano Park is back to normal!

The skyscrapers system has also returned to normal!

The employees couldn't help being amazed one by one.

The president is really a god!

In such a few seconds, a major crisis that might become a disaster for the company was resolved with a single gesture!

At the same time, the program of reverse tracking and positioning has also started, and Kaiba was also trying to locate the opponent's position.

Compared with intruding from the outside, the other party was more likely to attack from the inside. President Kaiba thought that no one in the world could invade the system of Kaiba Land from the outside.

The greater possibility was that Siegfried or someone under him took advantage of the opening of Kaiba Land to sneak in.

Although he paid special attention to it, Kaiba Land was still an amusement park. It had a huge flow of people and tourists on the opening day. Strict precautions have been taken, but it was still a bit difficult to completely block the opponent.

At this moment, President Kaiba was preparing to concentrate on dealing with the little mouse that had sneaked in, but he didn't expect the phone to ring.

He took a look and saw that it was Yuei Vu who was calling. After thinking about it, he still answered it.

Say something quickly. Im busy here. He said coldly.

Ahem, is there something wrong with the system? Yuei Vu said, If there is any problem, I may be able to find someone to help

There is nothing wrong with Kaiba Land. Our system is the safest in the world, so you dont need to worry about it. Kaibas tone was unquestionable, Just concentrate on the game!

After finishing speaking, he hung up without waiting for Yuei Vu to reply.

Listening to the busy tone on the phone, Yuei Vu couldnt help but feel helpless.

This reaction was expected.

But to be reasonable, he already knew the level of Kaiba Corps programmers. In the animation, the system of Kaiba Corp was just like a bus, all kinds of people could come in and out at will, but the president still thought that it was the safest in the world

That was nothing new.

After all, the black one-eyed bald director from the Marvel family next door always liked to swear and emphasize that his helicARRIER was the safest place in the world, but that thing almost fell three times a week

In fact, if Kaiba could think that Siegfried might still make small moves, Yuei Vu could also think of it too.

However, considering that the programmers of Kaiba Corp were a bunch of lazy dogs who could do nothing to help the president, Yuei Vu decided to secretly do a little favor for the president by hiring a little foreign aid.

Chapter 368: Rising Crab Fist!

Kaiba Land, a forbidden area.

Siegfried really came into Kaiba Land himself. At this moment, he was walking swaggeringly in the forbidden area, and even boldly stopped when he passed a certain surveillance camera, and arrogantly flipping the bird to the camera.

A naked provocation.

But Seto Kaiba couldnt see it, because Siegfried had replaced the monitoring screen of this camera with yesterdays video. In addition, this was a forbidden area, and almost no one passed by on weekdays. Even Kaiba could hardly find any problems with the surveillance screen.

The correction of the system in the park is quite fast. That kid Kaibas level has indeed improved a little over the years.

As Siegfried spoke, he paused, smiled angrily, and took out the rose from somewhere and sniffed it.

But it didnt matter, he still had follow-up plans.

After all, he was a super genius who hacked into the system of Kaiba Corp when he attended the banquet as a child. In terms of computer technology, he was confident that Seto Kaiba would never beat him.

But compared to the original plan, his target now was not just Seto Kaiba.

What he was eyeing now was the Duel King named Yuei Vu!

Thinking of that guy, Siegfried couldn't help but feel a pain in the ass.

If not for the Duel King who suddenly came out to make trouble, he wouldn't need to sneak in like this now, restraining his hands and feet at every step like a thief.

According to his original plan (also unfolded in the animation), he should have swaggered into the Kaiba Land from the main entrance, competing as a duelist and at the same time secretly making trouble.

Revenge is a dish best served cold!

Thinking of this, Siegfried showed a cruel smile.

What about the Duel King?

I, Siegfried, have a thousand ways to keep you from interrupting my work!

However, just as he was thinking this way, a steady voice suddenly sounded in this empty voice.

Is that you? The guy who caused chaos and tried to disrupt the conference!?

Siegfried paused, turned his head, and saw with some doubts a rabbit and a unicorn?

Speaking of which, Siegfried recalled that he saw a lot of guys dressed like this in Kaiba Land.

Is this some kind of strange activity in Kaiba Land? Or is it the surrounding area?

Of course, the ones who appeared in front of Siegfried at this time were Judai and Yusei who were arranged by Yuei Vu.

The temporary foreign aid that Yuei Vu found for the president referred to Fudo Yusei.

Yusei was a representative technical nerd player among the Yu-gi-oh protagonists. He picked up scraps from the trash, manually manufactured a small Momentum, and used it as a power system to personally assemble a D-Wheel

That's right, it's the one he rode back through time and space to modern times.

For this kind of big shot who came from the future decades later, who could build his own D-wheel from scraps, an out-of-date genius like Siegfried was simply a rookie, tracking his location was very easy.

Siegfried frowned.

Of course, it was impossible for him to know that Yusei was a person from the future, but he roughly guessed that this might be Kaiba's subordinate, or at least someone related to him.

But Siegfried didn't want to spend that effort to figure it out now.

He felt that the two in front of him were cannon fodder at first glance. His target was Yuei Vu and Kaiba, there's no need to waste time with this kind of minor character.

So he gestured: Get rid of them.

The black suits following behind were already ready to go, and immediately swarmed up after receiving the boss's order, and surrounded the two of them.

Judai was about to step forward he didn't even need to call on his Elemental Hero Ultraman to deal with such a small character.

However, before he could make a move, he saw the future junior Yusei stepping forward,

He met those big men in suits head-on, made a wrong step, and clenched his fist

Rising Crab Fist!

Brother Crabhead (Yusei)'s unique version of Shoryuken (Rising Dragon Fist), which players refer to as Rising Crab Fist.

A man in the black suit who was facing him was punched in the chin. He only groaned, his head was thrown back, and there was a buzz in his head, and his whole body fell straight down like a hill, and there was no movement.

Yusei kept moving, rushing into the crowd, the afterimages of fists flying left and right, and the sound bang bang bang sounded one after another. Several well-trained bodyguards in black suits were beaten up one by one with bruised noses and swollen faces

Even Judai was shocked, and looked at Yusei with admiration: Yusei, you can fight so well?

The last bodyguard fell down, Yusei retracted his fists and retreated, and nodded modestly: I'm a little bit good at this.

Siegfried was also dumbfounded.

This rabbit guy is so good at fighting!?

Who the hell is this guy? The Royal Physical Duel Master of the Kaiba Corp?

Seeing that the rabbit and unicorn had dealt with the bodyguard and were about to strike at him, Siegfried glanced at the messy, seemingly broken men, and felt a chill all over his body, so he gritted his teeth and decided to take out his trump card.

Wait you wait! He made a stop gesture and raised the Duel Disk in his hand.

The two seafood heads stopped at the same time and looked at each other.

This is asking to play cards with us?

Siegfried snorted: Are you lackeys of the Kaiba Corp? Huh, let us speak in the way your president is best at!

My Duel Disk has released a virus lurking in the server of the Kaiba Corp. Seto Kaiba won't be able to find it for a while, but the virus has already begun to spread.

If I activate that virus, all dueling monster data will be deleted!

In fact, he wasn't sure either.

After all, this server was too big, and the success rate was really unknown. Originally, he wanted to wait until it was ready, at least 90% sure, before starting it, but never thought that he would be exposed so soon.

But it didn't matter, he still had the last trump card duel!

Now, the virus program has been bound to this Duel Disk. Siegfried said with a sneer, The only way to unlock it is to defeat me in the duel.

If you understand it, quickly let Seto Kaiba come to see me, and we will compete in the KC Cup with dignity. If he wins, the virus will naturally remove itself

Under the hoods, the two seafood heads looked at each other for a moment.

Do you want to come? Judai rarely decided to give the junior a chance.

No, you go, Mr. Judai. Yusei was also very polite. He felt that there was no reason to steal the show of his predecessor.

It's okay, you come. Judai was very angry.

The main reason was that he was also very curious and wanted to see what the future duel would look like.

Okay, then I'd rather be respectful than obedient.

Chapter 369: Star Adjuster

Looking at the reactions of these two guys, Siegfried couldn't help but be a little surprised: Are you going to duel with me?

No, I'm here to fight you. Yusei stepped forward and corrected him.

Siegfried couldn't help feeling a little annoyed, feeling slighted.

Are all the people in the Kaiba Corp so arrogant? Do any stinky fish and rotten shrimp think they are good at dueling?

That's okay, then let them know this cruel fact the gap in strength between us is immeasurable!

Siegfried was very arrogant and coquettish, and he put on a pose that he thinks was very elegant: Then you two go up together!

Yusei shook his head: No, I alone am enough.

Seeing his attitude, Siegfried couldn't help being even angrier: Okay! Then I will let you, a low-class person, realize how stupid you are!

At this moment, Siegfried, the fallen nobleman, was obviously not aware of the seriousness of the problem

Duel! x2

Yusei, LP 4000

Siegfried, LP 4000

I'll go first, draw! It was Yusei's turn to go first, I'll summon the Shield Wing in defense position!

What appeared on the stage was a strange bird with a blue body, and its spread white wings intertwined together like a huge shield defending in front of it.

[Shield Wing, DEF 900]

Although its DEF was only 900, it was a powerful defensive monster with the ability to not be destroyed by battles twice in a turn, which was very in line with the overall style of the Yusei deck.

Set two cards, I end my turn! Yusei said.

Then its my turn, draw! Siegfried couldnt help showing a confident smile when he saw the card in his hand.

Perfect Hand. JPG.

As cruel as it may be, Im sorry, but I dont have time to waste with you little people, he said, so let me do this quickly.

Activate Spell Card Ride of the Valkyries! Special Summon any number of Valkyrie monsters with different names from my hand!

Come forth, my Valkyries! I Special Summon Valkyrie Zweite and Valkyrie Vierte!

There was the sound of hooves in the sky, and two white horses galloped forward, each carrying a graceful, mighty, and brave Valkyrie warrior, and came to Siegfrieds field.

[Valkyrie Zweite, ATK 1600]

[Valkyrie Vierte, ATK 1400]

The effect of Valkyrie Zweite! If this card is Summoned: I can target 1 monster the opponent controls; destroy it! Siegfried ordered, Destroy Shield Wing!

The Valkyrie warrior volleyed with a sword, and the swords light cut through the air and struck out. Although the shield-winged bird had a strong resistance to combat damage, it still couldnt resist the powerful sword energy, and was split in half on the spot and turned into powder.

Ill let you see the huge gap between you and a truly powerful duelist. Siegfried waved his hand, Battle! Valkyrie Zweite, Valkyrie Vierte, attack directly!

The two Valkyrie warriors urged their steeds, and both of them flew out, swiping their swords and slashing at the rabbit headdress on Yuseis head!

But of course, Yusei had countermeasures. He waved his arm: Open the set card! Trap Card -Jump Guard! This card can be activated during the turn a monster was removed from the field by a card effect. I take no Battle Damage this turn! (animation card)

A transparent shield emerged like flowing water, protecting Yusei in the middle. Both swords slashed at it, splashing water, but the shield remained motionless.

Siegfried frowned: Oh? So you do have some tricks. But I still have this card: Quick-Play Spell Mischief of the Time Goddess!

Skuld, the goddess of time with blue twin tails, came to the field, blinked her eyes mischievously, and with a wave of her wand, the time dial in the void immediately moved forward in a circle.

The protective shield protecting Yusei suddenly disintegrated and disappeared.

This card allows me to skip directly to the start of the Battle Phase of my next turn, Siegfried sneered, So now its time for a new battle phase, and my two Valkyries can attack again.

Hey, he seems unexpectedly capable, Judai said aside.

Huh, my duel is beyond your imagination. Fight again! Siegfried shouted, Valkyrie Zweite, direct attack! Your Jump Guard can only make the battle damage become 0 in the turn it is activated, but now the time has been accelerated to the next turn, and the defensive effect of the trap card will also expire!

Yusei narrowed his eyes, and waved again: Then the set card! Trap Card Scrap-Iron Scarecrow! When an opponents monster declares an attack: Target the attacking monster; negate the attack!

The trap flipped over, and a scarecrow with an iron head was released from it, blocking in front of Yusei like a meat shield. The Valkyrie slashed at the scarecrow with a sword, only to send sparks flying.

After activation, this card will not be sent to the graveyard, but can be set on the field again.

After Yusei finished speaking, Siegfried saw that the scarecrow was retracted into the trap card, and returned to the field again.

Can it be re-Set on the field after use? Siegfried was surprised.

Doesnt that mean that it will be able to block an attack every turn? What kind of ghost trap is this?

But he quickly adjusted: Hmph, its just a futile struggle. But my attack is not over yet. Valkyrie Vierte, attack directly!

The last Valkyrie warrior rushed forward, this time Yusei finally had no means of defense and used his body to forcibly eat the sword from the Valkyrie warrior.

Yusei, LP 4000 LP 2600

Hmph, the shit-lucky guy, did you manage to make it through? Siegfried snorted, Then I end my turn.

At the end of the turn, all the monsters that are Special Summoned by the effect of Ride of the Valkyries will return to my deck but because the end of that turn has been skipped by Mischief of the Time Goddess, so instead of going back to the deck, my Valkyries will stay on the field.

So thats how it is. Can the side effects be avoided so beautifully? Judai dragged his chin and nodded, This person is quite powerful.

On the surface, Siegfried still pretended to be calm and indifferent, but in fact, he had already started to feel a little uneasy in his heart.

What happened? Arent these two guys from the Kaiba Corp?

In fact, his starting hand was already considered Heavenly Hand for him. He got Ride of the Valkyries and Mischief of the Time Goddess at the beginning, so thought he could OTK the opponent casually.

As a result, so many attacks were actually blocked?

Could it be that this ridiculously dressed duelist in front of me is actually a little bit stronger! ?

But even so, Siegfried didn't mind.

After all, he was a man who was determined to defeat Seto Kaiba head-on, and he was confident that there were not many duelists in this world that he should be afraid of.

My turn! Yusei drew the card, and then directly inserted it into the Duel Disk, Activate Spell Card Tuning! Add 1 Synchron Tuner from my Deck to my hand, then send the top card of my Deck to the GY.

Yusei's Duel Disk quickly executed the automatic retrieval program, and popped the card he wanted out of the deck. He took the card away, and then the deck began to automatically shuffle.

Siegfried raised an eyebrow.

Just now he was paying attention to the Duel Disk in Yusei's hand, as it seemed that the model was different from any version he had seen.

Now he even discovered that this thing can intelligently retrieve and automatically shuffle cards!

As a businessman, Siegfried suddenly began to feel fear.

Is this a new model that Kaiba Corp has not yet released?

That fellow Kaiba, has he secretly completed such an advanced and intelligent Duel Disk?

If this is the case, is there really a possibility that my Schroeder Corp can compete with Kaiba Corp?

Ignoring Siegfried who was distracted, Yusei continued to operate: I added the Junk Synchron from the deck to my hand, and then sent a card from the top of the deck to the graveyard.

Then I normal summon Tuner monster Junk Synchron!

The short warrior with big eyes and goggles came to Yusei's arena, stretched his hands and feet, and burst out countless star-pointed blue lights all over his body.

At this moment, Judai's spirit partner Yubel appeared from behind him.

Isn't it a surprise to be able to see the legendary Star Adjuster in this era.

Judai nodded: Is it what the future duelists called Tuner monster?

This is a natural occupation among spirits. Yubel said, Tuner has the ability to adjust the star level of the monster, and can call out a powerful existence by resonating with other monsters

However, we should be able to witness this ability with our own eyes soon.

Chapter 370: Referee, I Want To Report!

The Star Adjuster, also known as the Tuner monster by future duelists, was a special existence among dueling monsters.

They had abilities that other monsters did not have. They could adjust the level of monsters and integrate the power of multiple weak monsters to summon powerful power

Well, to put it very grandly, it was actually simple math within twelve.

Using Tuner monsters plus non-Tuner monsters, you could special summon Synchro monsters with as many Levels as the sum of the levels of these monsters.

This was the Synchro Summon that would become the meta of Duel Monsters in the future.

For example, a Level 1 Tuner monster plus a Level 7 non-Tuner monster could Synchro Summon a Level 8 Synchro monster.

A Level 2 Tuner monster plus a Level 4 non-Tuner monster could Synchro Summon a Level 6 Synchro monster, and so on.

This was exactly what Yusei intended to do now.

Normally, the Synchro Summon could only be carried out with the help of the perpetual motion machine Momentum, and required the Planetary Particles provided by the Momentum as a medium.

It stood to reason that in the current DM era, there was no way to perform Synchro Summon.

But it didnt matter. As the protagonist, who hasnt clicked the cheat yet?

As a Signer, Yusei had his own Planetary Particles, even if he traveled back to the Jurassic, he can still play synchronism. This was the power of the main characters.

Junk Synchrons effect is activated! Yusei continued, When this card is Normal Summoned: I can target 1 Level 2 or lower monster in my GY; Special Summon that target in Defense Position, but negate its effects!

Come back, Shield Wing!

Junk Synchron palmed to the side, a blue halo stretched out on the ground, and the strange bird that had just been bent in the last round came back to the field with its wings staggered in front of him.

[Shield Wing, Defense Power 900]

Im tuning the Level 2 Shield Wing into the Level 3 Junk Synchron!

Junk Synchron pulled the drawstring on his back, and his body suddenly became transparent, leaving only three twinkling stars in the end.

Three stars revolved around the shield-winged strange bird until the strange bird also transformed into two bright stars.

Three stars and two stars were arranged together to form a neat and straight five-star string. A beam of white light is like a waterfall, following the direction of the five stars, and falling vertically to the ground as if carrying something.

$3+2=5$

Yusei raised his right hand high.

Gathering stars will call upon a new force! Become the path that lights the way! Synchro Summon Level 5, Junk Warrior! ! !

Blue armor, red round goggles, and flying white streamers appeared in the intense white light. The dreamlike starlight is like raindrops falling from the air, and the warrior in armor flies handsomely into the air, electric current splashes all over his body, and his figure spins and then split his legs in a most standard way.

[Junk Warrior, ATK 2300]

Countless astral particles in the air cheered happily as if presenting a gorgeous salute to this coherent warrior who appeared for the first time in this era.

Siegfried on the opposite side was in a daze.

Synchro Summon?

What the hell is that?

And why is your monster card white? Are you sure that card is not fouled?

Where is the referee? I want to report! This man cheats!

However, the system did not respond at all, obviously approving this operation.

Siegfried now realized that he may indeed have messed with someone he shouldn't have messed with.

If he still didn't realize that the opponent was irregular by now, his IQ may be negligible.

Battle! Yusei waved his hand, Junk Warrior, attack Valkyrie Zweite! Scrap Fist!

The blue warrior jetted out tail flames from behind and sprinted to the Valkyrie in a whirl. The heavy fist of steel blasted out surrounded by the flame-like golden energy, and the Valkyrie warrior was smashed into pieces with one punch.

Siegfried, LP 4000 LP 3300

Set two cards, I end my turn. Yusei said.

Damn Siegfried gritted his teeth, Although I don't know what kind of tricks you are playing But it's useless! My turn, draw!

When he saw the card in his hand, the corner of his mouth curled up, and he couldn't help but sneer again.

Although I don't know what's going on with your monster But no matter what kind of monster it is, as long as I restrain it, it will be rendered useless!

He quickly played a card.

I activate Spell Card Nibelungs Treasure! Siegfried chuckled, Activate 1 Nibelungs Ring from my Deck on the opponent's side of the field, equipping it to a monster they control. Then, draw 5 cards. (animation card)

A beam of golden light turned into a ring and flew out of his deck, involuntarily slipping into the hand of the Junk Warrior. The Junk Warrior snorted in a low voice, the armor on his body jumped out of electricity in many places, and then he half-kneeled on the ground as if limp.

Draw five cards!?! Judai was surprised, Is it such a cheating effect?

Siegfried smiled indifferently and added five cards into his hand.

First of all, lets solve that troublesome trap I activate Mystical Space Typhoon to destroy that set card in your back row.

The whirlwind rolled up, tearing the designated card into pieces high in the air. Of course, it was the Scrap-Iron Scarecrow that Yusei had re-Set in the previous turn.

Battle! Siegfried said, Valkyrie Vierte, attack Junk Warrior!

The Valkyrie warrior rode her horses and swung her blades in a suicidal dash. The Junk Warrior also showed no mercy and smashed the long sword into pieces with a punch in the face. The girl let out a cry of ah, and exited under the force of his fist.

Siegfried, LP 3300 LP 2400

He didnt mind the loss of his own LP: At this moment, the effect of Valkyrie Vierte was activated. When she was destroyed by the battle and sent to the graveyard, I can Special Summon 1 Valkyrie monster from the deck.

The one I want to special summon isValkyrie Sigrun!

The high-ranking Valkyrie in purple armor appeared heroically, holding a long spear and flying her cloak.

[Valkyrie Sigrun, ATK 2200]

Sigruns effect! If this card is Normal or Special Summoned, I can Special Summon 1 Level 8 or lower Valkyrie monster from my hand or GY!

Siegfried waved his hand, and another card hit the Duel Disk.

Come on! Valkyrie Erda!

The Valkyrie who appeared this time was in red armor, holding a shield and a long sword, with extraordinary bearing, and was said to be the goddess of wisdom.

[Valkyrie Erda, ATK 2000]

If Valkyrie Erda is Special Summoned by the effect of a Valkyrie card, as long as it exists on the field, the attack power of all opponents monsters will drop by 1000 points!

Valkyrie Erda swung her sword, and a powerful oppressive force immediately acted on the Junk Warrior. The soldier half-kneeled on the ground with difficulty, his body joints cracked and sparked, and he looked as if he would be overwhelmed and broken at any time.

[Junk Warrior, ATK 2300 ATK 1300]

Yusei's eyes flickered a little, but his expression remained unchanged.

Forcing yourself to stay calm? It doesn't matter. Siegfried was full of confidence, My invincible Valkyries, swing the sword of victory for me! Valkyrie Erda, attack Junk Warrior!

The Valkyrie flew out, and the long sword pulled out of its sheath with a gorgeous silver light, straightly cut towards the Junk Warrior who was half kneeling on the ground. Although the warrior tried his best to stand up, the restraints on his body seemed to be too heavy, his fists were so heavy that he could hardly lift them up, and he was powerless to resist the power of this sword.

Yusei waved his hand again: Open the set card: Continuous Trap Card Scrubbed Raid! During the Battle Phase, I can send 1 card on my field to the Graveyard to end the Battle Phase.

I send the Scrubbed Raid itself to the GY to force the end of the Battle Phase! (animation effect)

The flipped trap sacrificed itself with a burst of golden light, turning into a barrier in front of Yusei. The Valkyrie's sword once again splashed countless flames on the solid barrier and was then violently rebounded, causing her chest to rise and fall continuously.

Tch, have you managed to get through again?

Siegfried was a little out of breath.

How is it so hard to get rid of this guy? Is he so capable of stalling?

I want to see how long you can last with such a meek tactic. He snorted disdainfully, Set a card, I end my turn!
