

I Play Yu-Gi 381

Chapter 381: Plant Princess

Sakura, who called out the trump card of her deck, had a rosy face and was quite excited.

But what was rare was that she seemed to remain calm and did not attack rashly.

The effect of World Carrotweight Champion in the GY is activated! Sakura continued, If this card is in my Graveyard, I can send 1 Plant-Type monster from my hand or face-up from my field to the Graveyard, except World Carrotweight Champion; Special Summon this card!

Yuei Vu understood: Did you discard that card along with the Rose Lover last turn?

As the girl discarded a card from her hand, a card from the grave area popped up.

A monster with green vegetable leaves on its forehead and a carrot-like head, hands, and feet appeared. The art style was quite cartoonish and comedic.

[World Carrotweight Champion, ATK 1900]

Then at this moment, the effect of Card of Safe Return is activated. Yuei Vu said, I will draw three more cards.

Battle! First, I use Queen Angel of Roses to attack Elemental HERO Gaia! Sakura gave the order.

The Rose Queen flew out without the slightest hesitation and aimed her sword straight at the Gaias forehead. It seemed that she wanted to avenge the fact that she was stuck in the ground just now and was beaten up by the hero without a gentlemans demeanor.

Open the set card: Trap Card Half Unbreak. Yuei Vu opened the trap, Target 1 monster on the field; this turn, that monster cannot be destroyed by battle, and the battle damage it causes to me will be halved.

The blue light was released from the trap card, forming a transparent shield to envelop the body of Gaia.

Sakura smiled, a little smug on her face.

She felt that she was one step ahead of the Duel King!

Tytannial, Princess of Camellias effect is activated! She waved her hand to the flower fairy beside her, When a card or effect is activated that targets a card on the field, I can Tribute 1 face-up Plant monster to negate the activation and destroy it!

I tribute the World Carrotweight Champion and negate Mr. Yuei Vus trap card!

The two green vines rolled up the World Carrotweight Champion on the field, and the latter quickly turned into golden powder and dissipated under the wrapping of the vines. Countless flower petals flew over, densely covering the shield protecting Gaia, disintegrating that layer of defense in the blink of an eye.

The Rose Queens sword slashed fiercely at the armor of the Earth Hero, causing cracks with one strike. The heros armor cracked, and the huge body staggered back two steps, turning into a phantom and dissipating.

Her Majesty the Queen withdrew her sword, flicked her skirt, and turned her head away as if she was satisfied with her revenge.

Yuei Vu, LP 3700 LP 3500

Next is Tytannial, Princess of Camellias. Sakura continued, Attack Mr. Yuei Vu directly!

Tytannial made a move. The huge petals opened, and the flying green leaves and bright flowers obeyed her command, turning into a piercing gun and shooting out through the air!

Yuei Vu, LP 3500 LP 700

Yuei Vu closed his eyes and calmly took Tytannials direct attack. The impact of the three-dimensional image lifted his bangs and caused his clothes to undulate slightly.

The girl among the players began to want to eat the eye candy again.

There are people in the world who are so beautiful when they are beaten

Even Sakura Izayoi, who was his opponent, was a little distracted for a while

Oh no, Im still dueling now! Focus!

The girl shook her head, pulling herself back to reality.

Set a card, I end my turn.

Her ace monsters Tytannial, Princess of Camellias and Queen Angel of Roses were both present and the opponents LP was only 700 left!

Sakura clenched her hands into fists.

She instinctively felt that this duel

was a little unstable

My turn. Yuei Vu drew the card, his eyes moved slightly.

To actually draw this card at such a time

well, at least I should give him a chance to play.

I summon Elemental HERO Sparkman.

The blue electric current burst out of thin air, and the lightning warrior came to the field with a cool pose!

[Elemental HERO Sparkman, ATK 1600]

Quick-Play Spell Mask Change!

When this Spell Card emerged, the emotions of the audience were immediately pushed to the top.

Mask Change!

According to legend, only the Duel King Yuei Vu had the key card that allowed the hero to wear a mask and gain the ability to transform!

Sure enough! Sakura said in her heart.

Like countless children of the same age, Sakura has watched every duel that Yuei Vu has made public countless times. She knew that if the opponent was allowed to transform, a Masked HERO who could instantly turn the tide of battle would appear!

He must be stopped!

The effect of Tytannial, Princess of Camellias is activated! Sakura said, Using Queen Angel of Roses as a sacrifice, I negate the activation of Mask Change!

The vines wrapped the Rose Queens body, and the latter quickly turned into golden spots of light and disappeared, being absorbed into Titanias body like nutrients.

The magic effect has just been activated, and the gorgeous transformation light effect has just appeared in front of Sparkman. The hero was opening his arms, waiting for the transformation. He never expected that a torrent of flowers was coming domineeringly at this time, breaking through the special effects of the transformation, and the aftermath of the shock even nearly knocked him to the ground.

Dont you dare to believe that a monster can interrupt the transformation of Kamen Rider?!

What about being invincible during transformation time?

Very good! Sakura said in her heart, In this way, Mr. Yuei Vu will not be able to transform However, before she even had time to give herself a thumbs up, Yuei Vu immediately played the next card: Spell Card Mask Charge! Add 1 HERO monster and 1 Change Quick-Play Spell Card in my Graveyard to my hand.

Eh!?

Sakura watched the two cards spit out from Yuei Vus GY area and was dumbfounded for a while.

In that case are all I did just now for nothing?

No, there is still a chance.

Sakura bit her soft lips, squinting at the set card at her feet.

If it is this card

But Yuei Vu quickly shattered her last hope.

Activate Field Spell Fusion Gate!

The space trembled, like a dark vortex leading to another dimension opened in mid-air, in which extremely huge fluctuations of magic power were brewing, radiating out in the form of lightning from time to time.

I fuse Elemental HERO Sparkman on the field with the Elemental HERO Blazeman that was just recovered in the hand.

The fusion condition is 1 Elemental HERO monster + 1 LIGHT monster.

Fusion Call! Dispel the darkness with endless flashes

Elemental HERO The Shining!

The heroes of electricity and fire both flew into the vortex of the fusion gate, releasing endless brilliance and bursting down. The all-white hero embraced his arms, and the golden pendant behind him slowly descended like the sun.

[Elemental HERO The Shining, ATK 2600]

The Shining will gain 300 ATK for each of my banished Elemental HERO monsters. Yuei Vu said, Because Sparkman and Blazeman are banished by the effect of Fusion Gate, The Shining's attack power increased by 600.

[Elemental HERO The Shining, ATK 2600 ATK 3200]

His attack power has surpassed that of Tytannial, Princess of Camellias!

Battle! Elemental HERO The Shining, attack Tytannial, Princess of Camellias!

The flashing hero flew high into the air, and the pendant behind him bloomed like a golden sun, as if spewing out the golden brilliance backward, pushing the hero to dive straight down!

At this point, both sides already understood what the ending would be.

However, after hesitating for a moment, Sakura still waved her hand: O open the set card: Trap Card Trap Hole of Spikes! When an opponents monster that was Normal or Special Summoned this turn declares an attack: Destroy that attacking monster, and inflict damage to the opponent equal to half the original ATK of that monster!

The Shining's original attack power was 2600, half of its ATK would be 1300, while Yuei Vu's remaining LP was only 700.

If this blow passed, she would win!

Of course, both of them knew that wasn't going to happen.

Quick-Play Spell Mask Change. Yuei Vu played this card again, Send 1 HERO monster I control to the Graveyard, then Special Summon 1 Masked HERO monster from my Extra Deck with the same Attribute.

I sent the Elemental HERO The Shining to the GY.

Transform! Masked HERO Koga!

The trap hole appeared on the path of the flash man's sprint, but the special effect of this instant transformation had already appeared. The golden light turned into armor, quickly dressed the hero, and embodied it into armor, covering his whole body tightly, transforming into a Masked HERO with golden armor and shining flashes.

This time, the law of being invincible during transformation time finally applied, and the Trap Hole of Spikes lost its target, and it was directly judged invalid.

[Masked HERO Koga, ATK 2500]

The first effect of Masked HERO Koga This card gains 500 ATK for each monster the opponent controls!

[Masked HERO Koga, ATK 2500 ATK 3000]

Then comes the second effect! Once per turn, I can banish 1 HERO monster from my Graveyard, then target 1 face-up monster on the field; that target loses ATK equal to the ATK of the monster banished to activate this effect, until the end of this turn!

Yuei Vu showed a card that had been ejected from the GY area.

I remove Elemental HERO Flame Wingman from the game! Tytannial, Princess of Camellias attack power has been reduced by Flame Wingmans attack power, which is 2100 points!

[Tytannial, Princess of Camellias, ATK 2800 ATK 700]

Kogas figure flickered, with a golden afterimage trailing behind him, and a few flashes came to the plant princess in an instant. Although she tried her best to resist, with her current attack power, she could not rival the enemy at all.

The blade of light tore apart her body and the flowers beneath it like fangs, and boundless golden brilliance erupted from the crack, crushing her body, and at the same time putting an end to the duel.

The loli blocked her body with her small hand wearing a Duel Disk, her rose-colored hair danced wildly in the wind, her body was finally overturned by the impact, and her little butt slammed onto the ground.

[Sakura Izayoi, LP 1800 LP 0]

Chapter 382: In Short, Very Unhappy

Are you okay? Yuei Vu stepped forward and extended his hand to the loli who was lying on the ground.

Sakura was a little embarrassed, stretched out her little hand, and was led by him to stand up.

The onlookers began to beat their chests and stamp their feet.

Damn, Im so envious!

Thats right! If only I were that loli!

? Im talking about envying Yuei Vu-san. Theres something wrong with you

It was a good duel. Yuei Vu said.

This was not just a pitiful praise after playing cards, he really thought so.

This girl was very small, with a delicate body and a soft body that seemed to fall down when pushed, but in fact, she has played quite well.

At this moment, Yuei Vu was already secretly planning to cultivate and develop this seedling in his heart. After the Duel Academy plan was launched, he could arrange for this loli to enroll.

Although President Kaiba unquestionably rejected his idea of teaching at the academy last time, this did not affect Yuei Vus determination especially after being bullied by the future Yuki Judai that night.

No one can stop me from cultivating and raising the future flowers of the dueling world!

Not even President Kaiba!

Clap, clap, clap

There was applause from behind.

Yuei Vu turned his head and found a burly man walking out of the crowd. He has blond hair, a spiky hairstyle, and a tall, muscular, dark build. He folded his arms, had earrings on his ears, and looked very powerful in his baggy blue trench coat and dark gray vest.

Rafael? Yuei Vu was surprised.

Isn't this the leader of the Three Swordsmen of Doma back then?

After the Waking the Dragons ended, the fate of Three Swordsmen has not been explained in the follow-up content of the anime. Yuei Vu really didn't expect to see Rafael at the KC Grand Prix.

And what happened next was something he didn't expect.

A very exciting duel, worthy of being the contemporary Duel King who is as famous as the nameless Pharaoh.

As Rafael spoke, he paused and gestured for the Duel Disk in his hand.

So, are you ready to duel with me now?

Yuei Vu: ?

What's the situation?

Why should I fight you?

Wait, doesn't that mean

Yuei Vu suddenly thought of something and turned to look at Luo Li beside him.

Izayoi Sakura realized that she had been exposed, and quickly lowered her head: Yes I'm sorry!

The girl tugged at the hem of her skirt with some anxiety.

Actually, I didn't compete at all, I just happened to be standing here. Because Mr. Yuei Vu asked me if I was your opponent, I just

Yuei Vu:

And I just played for a long time as if for nothing?

For a long time, I fight the wrong person

MD, I blame President Kaiba, who always likes to play some weird new tricks, and insists on doing some gimmicks like you don't know who the opponent is until you get to the battle location

When Rafael, who was supposed to be his opponent in this battle, rushed here and saw Yuei Vu playing cards with Sakura, he obviously quickly understood what was going on.

However, he just silently joined the ranks of the people who eat popcorn, without saying anything.

It was impolite for a true duelist to interrupt a game.

As the saying goes, A true gentleman watches chess without talking, and the same was true for duelists. So Rafael didnt say a word and waited patiently for the two of them to finish playing their cards

However, seeing the little girl tugging at the hem of her skirt uneasily, no one blamed her

Not only that, but the onlookers didnt know who was taking the lead, but they began to applaud her one after another.

Sakura looked up in surprise.

A very exciting duel! The little girl is amazing!

In the future, you will definitely be an outstanding duelist like the Duel King!

This was the encouragement given by the NPC passers-by.

Players were going to be a lot more straightforward.

Sakura is awesome!

Cute is justice!

Anyway, everyone came to watch the card game, and as long as the card game was good enough, no one cared who the opponent was.

Yuei Vu, who played an extra match, didnt feel that it was a loss, but felt that it was a windfall to find such a good seedling.

Now he has reserved this loli in advance in his heart.

As soon as she reaches her age, I will find a way to trick her into learning how to play cards!

Of course, the first thing to do now was to keep playing.

The onlookers became more energetic again, and even the players became more energetic.

After all, Yuei Vus opponent this time was Rafael!

Although Rafael has never participated in any competition before, his reputation has always been quite high. There have always been rumors among the people that Rafael just didnt want to make fame, otherwise, he should gain the title of the Duel King.

This was definitely just a rumor, but it was not unreasonable.

After all, even if there were special factors involved, Rafael still managed to defeat Yugi Muto in a duel.

His prowess as a duelist was absolutely beyond doubt.

When the two exchanged and shuffled the cards, Yuei Vu asked casually: As I remember, you never seem to bother to participate in this kind of competition. Have you decided to change your mind?

Rafael nodded: In the past, I was deceived by Dartz, and I have been chasing illusory and wrong ideals for the first half of my life. Thanks to you, and the nameless Pharaoh, I realized my mistake and finally got rid of it. But at the same time, I lost my way forward.

So that's how it is. Yuei Vu understood, It means that you plan to find the answer through the competition?

That's right. Rafael nodded, This is the way to live as a duelist. Only by continuing to fight can we find a new direction.

While the two were shuffling the cards and communicating, the spirits of both sides also floated out in the form of transparent ghosts.

The one who appeared behind Rafael was naturally Guardian Eatos, that angelic guardian lady with holy wings.

Behind Yuei Vu was Dark Magician Girl with a small face full of hostility, holding a small staff.

The eyes of the two spirit girls intertwined in mid-air as if invisible sparks had been sparked.

Speaking of it, there was a bit of a festive relationship between them.

The Dark Magician Girl girl has once snatched the card Obelisk the Tormentor from Eatos Although it may have relied a bit on the help of her teammates.

(Osiris the Sky Dragon: I was obviously the main force at that time)

Although their masters reconciled, it didn't mean that the spirit also did.

Yugi and Anzu, who were hanging out at the moment, also came here. Seeing that the two sides in the war were acquaintances, they couldn't help but stopped and watched with interest.

Yuei Vu's opponent is Rafael?

Yugi Muto was also surprised: The one who once defeated another me!

Yami Yugi displeased: The second time I obviously won

But then he also remembered that AIBO was not there during the second round of his battle with Rafael, so he might not have seen his handsome figure in the revenge battle.

He was, in short, very unhappy.

Chapter 383: VS Rafael

Duel! x2

Rafael, LP4000

Yuei Vu, LP4000

Looks like I'm the one who goes first. Rafael looked down at the Duel Disk, and said calmly, First, I activate the Continuous Spell Guarded Treasure.

Discard five cards in hand to draw two cards from the deck.

Rafael threw all five cards in his hand to the graveyard in one breath, drew two cards, and explained at the same time: In addition, as long as this card exists on the field, I can draw 2 cards in my Draw Phase.

Appeared, Rafael's must-have starter in every game.

To be honest, Yuei Vu has always felt a little weird about this.

Rafael was a duelist who resolutely does not send monsters to the GY, and he was so stubborn on this point that he is almost like a deep obsessive-compulsive disorder.

So here came the question: did this mean that Rafael not only got this Guarded Treasure in each of his starting hands but also had no monster card among five other cards left in his hand?

In case a monster card was drawn, because of the obsessive-compulsive disorder of resolutely not sending monsters to the GY, wouldnt this Continuous Spell Card be stuck in the hand and never be used?

Or was it that Rafael also mastered the skill 502 like Kaiba, and the six cards in the starting hand were always fixed and there would be no monster cards?

No one knew

Adding the newly drawn cards to his hand, he immediately played one of them: Spell Card Pot of Greed, draw two more cards. Then I summon Backup Gardna in defense position! (animation card)

The monster card appeared horizontally, and a big blue-skinned man with long fiery red hair appeared on the field in a half-squat, his arms crossed in front of him.

[Backup Gardna, DEF 2200]

Set two cards, I end my turn.

Backup Gardna, the key monster for Rafaels defense. Yami Yugi said from the audience, Although it is level 4, it has a defense power of 2200, which is higher than the attack power of some high-level monsters.

After the Doma incident, Rafael, who was finally liberated from his destiny, must be stronger than before. Yugi Muto said.

Ah. Yami Yugi nodded, A duelist like him must have broken through himself and reached a higher level now.

After a pause, he added: But if we fight again next time, I will definitely not lose.

My turn, draw!

Yuei Vu cautiously looked at Rafael and his set cards.

Although according to common sense Being whitewashed makes you weaker by one-third, considering Rafaels proud record, Yuei Vu still dared not be careless.

Not to mention after being whitewashed, the Three Swordsmen of Doma got rid of the curse of anyone who has used The Seal of Orichalcos would lose

First, I activate the Spell Card Graceful Charity! Yuei Vu played the card, and the Spell Card picture appeared in front of him, Draw 3 cards, then discard 2 cards.

Then I summon Elemental HERO Prisma!

The crystal-clear, diamond-like hero obeyed the call, and his arms stretched out to reveal crystal-clear starlight.

[Elemental HERO Prisma, ATK 1700]

Prisma's effect: Once per turn, I can reveal 1 Fusion Monster from my Extra Deck, then send 1 of the Fusion Materials whose name is specifically listed on that card from my Deck to the Graveyard; this card's name becomes the sent monster until the End Phase.

I showed Elemental HERO Flame Wingman, and sent the fusion material Elemental HERO Burstinatrix from the deck to the graveyard.

Reflect Change!

Yuei Vu showed the fusion card, pulled out the deck to find the Burstinatrix, and sent it to the GY. The Prisma's ability was activated, and the reflection of the Flame Hero was reflected on his body.

An effect that copies name Rafael understood clearly, Do you want to use Prisma as a substitute fusion material for Fusion Summoning?

No. Yuei Vu played the next card, Activate Spell Card The Warrior Returning Alive. Take 1 Warrior monster in my GY; add it to my hand.

I took the Elemental HERO Burstinatrix back into my hand.

Then I activate Spell Card Polymerization! I fuse Elemental HERO Avian and Elemental HERO Burstinatrix!

The fusion condition is 1 Elemental HERO monster + 1 FIRE monster!

Fusion Summon

Elemental HERO Nova Master!

The heroes of wind and fire emerged, and they both flew into the air, merged into the vortex of magic power, turned into a green gust of wind and a beam of light wrapped in flames fell vertically, and the hero in red-gold armor and controlling the flames appeared.

[Elemental HERO Nova Master, ATK 2600]

Rafael understood: So that's it. In this way, Prisma remains on the field, and there is an extra monster that can attack.

Battle! Yuei Vu declared directly to enter the battle stage, Elemental HERO Nova Master, attack the Backup Gardna!

The Nova Master was bathed in flames, and with a low growl, he flew high and struck out with his palm from the air. The flames in the energy state pierced the air like a spiral spear.

Sure enough, Yuei Vu is worthy of being Duel King! Yugi Muto nodded in approval, He can easily break through a monster with 2200 defense points.

That's right. Yami Yugi folded his arms, But Rafael is not a duelist whose line of defense can easily be broken through.

Sure enough, Rafael shouted immediately: Open the set card: Trap Card Guardian Formation! Negate the attack and move the attacked monster to an unoccupied Monster Card Zone! (animation card)

A transparent ripple appeared in front of the dark guardian monster, and Nova Master's domineering flame impact violently washed away on the ripple, failing to cause any damage.

Immediately afterward, the Backup Gardna made a horizontal jump and jumped to the monster zone next door.

Rafael continued: Also, when using this trap cards effect to negate the opponents attack, I can activate 1 Spell Card from my hand or deck!

He pulled out the deck and picked out the chosen card from it.

I activate Equip Spell Card Gravity Axe Grarl from the deck!

Rafael inserted the card into the Duel Disk, and suddenly a heavy ax spun down in mid-air, and it hit the ground with a heavy bang.

I equip Gravity Axe Grarl to Backup Gardna, and the attack power of the equipped monster will increase by 500.

[Backup Gardna, ATK 500 ATK 1000]

Of course, Backup Gardna was a defensive monster, so increasing his attack power didnt mean much to him.

Have you been guarded then my Battle Phase is over. Yuei Vu showed another card in his hand, In Main Phase 2, activate Spell Card Surprise Attack from Beyond!

Conduct a second Battle Phase, and a monster that was Normal Summoned, Special Summoned, or Flip Summoned may attack again as if it were a new turn! (animation card)

A second Battle Phase!? Rafael couldnt help being surprised.

Yuei Vu said, Elemental HERO Nova Master, attack the Backup Gardna again!

The Nova Masters body was full of flames, and ball-shaped flame energy was rubbed out again between his palms, ready to blast out at any time.

That wont work. Rafael frowned, Open the set card: Counter Trap Guardian Force! It can only be activated when there are no Guardian monsters in my Graveyard. Negate the activation of an opponents Spell Card and destroy it! (animation card)

He pointed a finger at the Spell Card that hadnt disappeared on Yuei Vus field.

I negate the Spell Card Surprise Attack from Beyond!

The Spell Card was instantly dissipated into countless golden powders.

This guy looks like he really doesnt intend to let monsters into the graveyard.

Yuei Vu narrowed his eyes slightly.

Guardian Force, a powerful counter trap that negated any Spell Card with no cost, as long as there were no Guardian monsters in the graveyard. In fact, Rafael could also negate the effect of Polymerization before, but he didnt do that.

Is it to deliberately let me summon monsters to attack, trigger the trap card Guardian Formation, and retrieve Equip Spell Cards from the deck?

Then my turn is over.

Chapter 384: Shining Shoot!

My turn, draw! Rafael said, The effect of the Continuous Spell Guarded Treasure! During my Draw Phase, I can draw two cards from the deck.

After he drew the card, he only glanced at it, and then immediately continued: I will set a card on the field first, and then special summon Guardian Grarl!

The Gravity Axe Grarl on the field emitted invisible fluctuations as if guiding something to come.

A guardian warrior in yellow vests descended from the sky following the guidance of that sound wave. He was huge in size, and his appearance was like a mutated lizard man. There was a metal iron chain dragging in the middle of the yellow mandarin jacket.

[Guardian Grarl, ATK 2500]

The passer-by NPC suddenly roared.

Summon a high-level monster without Tribute!?

Rafael quickly explained: Guardian Grarl is a monster that comes from the call of Gravity Axe Grarl. When this card is the only card in my hand and there is Gravity Axe Grarl on the field, it can be Special Summoned directly from the hand.

With a big wave of his hand, he pointed at the black guardian warrior beside him: Then there is the effect of Backup Gardna! I can select an equipped Equip Card on the field and equip it to another appropriate target on the field.

I transferred Gravity Axe Grarl from Backup Gardna to Guardian Grarl!

The Gravity Ax seemed to let out a melodious cheer, and flew up into the air with a whirl, before falling into the hands of Grarl. Guardian Grarl roared, and his strength instantly increased.

[Guardian Grarl, ATK 2500 ATK 3000]

Then open the set card! Rafael continued to operate, turning over the card that he had set just now, Spell Card Card of Sanctity! Each player draws until they have 6 cards in their hand!

Worthy of being the worlds top duelist, he drew a Card of Sanctity at this moment.

In this way, it was tantamount to offsetting the high cost of discarding five cards from the Guarded Treasure, and after that, Rafael could draw two cards every turn. His card advantage would be skyrocketing.

Battle! Rafael yelled, First, lets solve the troublesome hero who can replace any fusion material. Guardian Grarl, attack Elemental HERO Prisma!

With a growl, Grarl rushed forward, dragging the axe. The moment the giant ax was swung, it was as if majestic oppression erupted, and the invisible pressure came down like a mountain so that the prism hero had no room to retreat.

When the ax fell, the heros diamond-like body was cut open and shattered all over the ground like glass.

Yuei Vu, LP 4000 LP 2700

Then I activate the Equip Spell Guardian Shield, and equip it to the Backup Gardna. (Animation card)

Rafael raised his hand to play the card, and a solid shield suddenly appeared in the hand of the long-haired dark-haired guardian warrior.

The equipped monsters DEF increases by 300! And when a Guardian monster I control would be destroyed, the Guardian Shield can be destroyed instead.

[Backup Gardna, DEF 2200 DEF 2500]

Set a card. My turn is over.

At the end of the turn, everyone started talking about it.

So strong! As expected of a man who is said to have the potential to be a Duel King! Someone commented.

Yeah, both offense and defense are impeccable, and his defensive line is like an iron wall!

Although Yuei Vu didnt fully agree with these words, he could really feel Rafaels strength.

His obsession with never send monsters to the GY was directly reflected in the duel, which was the solid defense line he set up to protect his own monsters.

But no matter how perfect the defense was, there would always be flaws and loopholes. He couldnt really keep his monsters from leaving the field forever.

My turn, draw!

Yuei Vu played a deadly card in his starting hand this round.

Spell Card Giant Trunade! Return all Spell and Trap Cards on the field to the hand!

The howling wind rolled up, as if forming a hideous face in mid-air. The boundless wind pressure suppressed almost the entire land, the sand and stone rolled around, and the dust flew everywhere. Any trap would be exposed under this overbearing air pressure.

Guarded Treasure, Gravity Axe Grarl, Guardian Shield, and the set card from the previous turn, all four cards instantly turned into golden lights and flew back to Rafaels hand.

In an instant, the big mans back row was empty.

[Backup Gardna, DEF 2500 DEF 2200]

[Guardian Grarl, ATK 3000 ATK 2500]

In this way, all of Rafaels monsters lost their reinforcements, and he also lost all means of defense.

Quick-Play Spell De-Fusion! Yuei Vu waved his hand and took out the next card, Target 1 Fusion Monster on the field; return that target to the Extra Deck, then, if all the Fusion Materials that were used for its Fusion Summon are in my GY, I can Special Summon all of them!

I release the fusion of Elemental HERO Nova Master and Special Summon Elemental HERO Avian and Elemental HERO Burstinatrix!

What!?! Rafael was surprised, Release the fusion of your own monster?

While he was surprised, the Nova Master had already turned into flames and separated, one left and one right changed back to Avian and Burstinatrix respectively.

Subsequently, activate the Spell Card Double Fusion! Yuei Vu was out of breath, and the new Spell Card continued to emerge, Pay 500 LP, and I can use the effect of this card to perform two Fusion Summons this turn. (animation card)

This card was used by Judai in Yu-Gi-Oh! GX. With a small cost of 500 LP, this card could substitute for two Polymerizations, which was equal to a +1 card advantage

Of course, Judai generally didnt care about card advantage.

Yuei Vu, LP 2700 LP 2200

The first fusion! I fuse Elemental HERO Avian and Elemental HERO Burstinatrix who have been unfused on the field!

Fusion Summon! Elemental HERO Flame Wingman!

The Spell Card released a double vortex, green and red lights were involved in the vortex, and soon a dazzling flame erupted, and a hero who controlled the power of wind and fire was born from it.

[Elemental HERO Flame Wingman, ATK 2100]

The second fusion! Yuei Vu showed a card in his hand, I fuse Elemental HERO Flame Wingman and Elemental HERO Sparkman in my hand!

The hero of justice appeared in the divine light, piercing the darkness and bringing light

Fusion Summon! Elemental HERO Shining Flare Wingman!

The hero surrounded by electricity appeared and flew into the second vortex released by the Spell Card along with the Flame Wingman beside him. The two merged into the vortex, bursting out with endless sacred brilliance.

A hero in the armor of white metal, with a high-tech texture, rushed high into the air from the brilliance of the fusion explosion, spread the holy silver wings, and hovered in the air under the influence of invisible forces.

[Elemental HERO Shining Flare Wingman, ATK 2500]

The heros appearance caused another wave of cheer in an instant, and the handsome high-tech flying armor quickly caught the attention of a large number of male audiences.

And the players became more lively one by one, and some people kept roaring and so on Elemental HERO Shining Flare Wingmans effect! Yuei Vu waved his hand, This card gains 300 ATK for each Elemental HERO card in my GY!

Now there are five Elemental HEROes in my GY in total, so the attack power has increased by 1500 points!

Prisma, Avian, Burstinatrix, Flame Wingman, and Sparkman, the images of the five heroes emerged one after another, turning into beams of light, filling the armor of the Shining Flare Wingman like ammunition of energy.

[Elemental HERO Shining Flare Wingman, ATK 2500 ATK 4000]

Passers-by were even more shocked.

Attack power 4000!?

The same attack power as Obelisk the Tormentor!

Is this the power of Duel King? Isn't that too strong!?

Not only that. Yuei Vu smiled, The Shining Flare Wingman will inflict damage equal to the attack power of the monster destroyed by it in battle.

Rafael woke up and was stunned for a moment: If Grarl is destroyed, I will receive 1500 battle damage, and Grarl's attack power is exactly 2500

That's right, a total of 4000 points of damage.

Rafael, LP 4000

The passers-by became even more agitated, and they frantically crowded toward the camera that was shooting the duel scene.

In the future, they could brag to others, saying that they were at the scene at this moment!

Duel King was ready to OTK!

Now that all the potential defensive methods have been blown back to his hands by the Giant Trunade, Rafael was defenseless.

Battle! Yuei Vu pointed to the guardian with the ax, The Shining Flare Wingman, attack Guardian Grarl! Shining Shoot!!!

Chapter 385: Celestial Sword

Shining Shoot!!!

Like a silver bullet tearing through the night, the hero wrapped in high-tech armor swooped down at high speed, and the spread wings behind him dragged two long fluorescent trails!

If this blow is completed, it would be the checkmate!

Rafael gritted his teeth but still did not give up: Activate the Spell Card from the GY Rescuer from the Grave! (animation card)

Passers-by were surprised again: Activate a Spell Card from the graveyard!?

This card can only be used when an opponent's monster declares an attack while this card is in my Graveyard! Rafael said, I can remove from play 5 cards from my Graveyard to negate the attack and end the Battle Phase!

The image of the Spell Card appeared behind him, along with four other cards; it seemed that all of them were discarded and sent to the graveyard in the first turn.

The five cards dissipated under the golden light one after another as if an invisible shield was protecting Rafael. The Shining Flare Wingman slammed into it with an indomitable momentum, and with a boom explosion, the strong light and smoke exploded. However, when the light faded away, the invisible barrier still stood firm.

Oh? There are even gravetraps?

Do you dare to believe you will meet a gravetrap of the DM era? And it was the kind that forced the end of the Battle Phase.

Yuei Vu could feel the depth of Rafaels obsession with Never send monsters to the GY

The Battle Phase ended forcibly, and the display on the Duel Disk automatically switched to the Main Phase 2. Yuei Vu thought for a while, and drew three cards from his hand: Set three cards, I end my turn.

Rafael can even defend against such a sure-kill blow. He is really no slouch. Yami Yugi nodded slightly with his arms folded beside him.

Well, Yuei Vu-san didnt relax his countermeasures either. He must have his own considerations!

Watching Yuei Vus three set cards in the back row, Yugi Muto had an expression of I understand best.

At this time, more and more passers-by came to watch, and the attention of this duel instantly surpassed that of the duels in all other areas in the park.

Both of them are so strong! Its almost a final match.

In a battle of this level, anyone who is not paying attention will be bombarded and killed, right?

Rafael didnt care about the audiences comments at all, and just continued to focus: My turn, draw! The first is the Spell Card Pot of Greed, which allows me to draw two more cards.

Then I activate Gravity Axe Grarl again, and equipped it to Guardian Grarl.

Gravity fluctuations covered the entire field, and the ax that was blown back to the hand last time fell from the sky again. The lizardman Grarl grabbed the axe, raised his head, and roared towards the sky.

[Guardian Grarl, ATK 2500 ATK 3000]

Rafael took out a card in his hand, paused slightly, and cast a serious look at Yuei Vu.

Yuei Vu, you are one of the strongest opponents I have ever met, there is no doubt about it. He said slowly, Freed from the shackles of fate that bound me, now I have completed my transformation. What I need is a hearty duel to prove myself and find a new direction for my own future.

And you are the best match for it. So let me pour out everything I have now, and once again call on my most loyal partner to fight side by side!

He inserted that card into the Duel Disk: Activate Equip Spell Celestial Sword Eatos, and equip it to the Backup Gardna!

A holy light shot down from the sky, carrying a shining sword that descended from the sky and plunged into the floor.

Then when there is Celestial Sword Eatos on my field, and there are no monsters in the graveyard Rafael raised a card high and raised his voice, Once again, come to the field and fight with me! Guardian Eatos!!!

The spirit descended from the sky and descended on the field with a goddess-like holy light. She wore a falcon-like headdress on her head, and she spread huge wings behind her, and countless white feathers scattered in the sky like snow.

The moment the wings spread out, it seemed that she dominated the field with overwhelming force in an instant!

[Guardian Eatos, ATK 2500]

Appeared, Yami Yugi said, Rafaels ace monster!

Yugi Muto: Hmm! This is the powerful monster that defeated another me!

Yami Yugi:

Rafael continued: Then by the effect of Backup Gardna, I transfer the Celestial Sword Eatos from it to Guardian Eatos.

With the effect of Celestial Sword Eatos, Guardian Eatos attack power increases by 300. (animation effect)

The sword stuck on the floor suddenly popped out as if on a spring, and flew back to Eatoss hand in a whirl. Eatos swept across with the hilt of the sword lightly, and the blade rolled up an invisible whirlwind in the air.

[Guardian Eatos, ATK 2500 ATK 2800]

Then the effect of Guardian Eatos will be activated! Rafael swiped his arm and shouted, By destroying a Celestial Sword Eatos on my field, Guardian Eatos can remove from play all monster cards whose ATK is not 0 from the opponents Graveyard, then have this card gain ATK equal to the combined ATK of the monsters removed until the end of the turn!

The goddess held the long sword horizontally, her white and slender hands lightly slid across the sword, and the blade of the sword seemed to be covered with a layer of faint white light.

She held up the long sword in her hand, pointing the blade straight to the sky, releasing boundless suction like a magnet. Yuei Vu suddenly felt that the Duel Disk seemed to be under constant control, one card after another was absorbed from the GY area, and the souls of the heroes turned into golden beams of light and flew towards the holy sword held high by Eatos.

Among the souls that merged into the blade one after another, one could still see the Necro Gardna who has never appeared in this duel

Necro Gardna, huh? Did you discard it in the second turn? Rafael smiled, This card can only negate my attack once in the GY, and it is a pretty safe line of defense. As expected of the Duel King, your defense is really thoughtful.

But its a pity that my Eatos ability has to go one step further!

Eatos, absorb the power of all the monsters in the graveyard!

[Guardian Eatos, ATK 2500 ATK 10700]

The passers-by immediately exploded.

More than 10,000 attack power!

What does this mean?

It means that even if two legendary Blue-Eyes Ultimate Dragons combine their forces, they can only be killed in seconds!

And not only that!

Because all the Elemental HEROes in your GY have been removed from the game, the attack power of the Shining Flare Wingman has dropped! Rafael shouted.

[Elemental HERO Shining Flare Wingman, ATK 4000 ATK 2500]

Quick-Play Spell Tornado! Rafael continued, This card can only be activated when there are 3 or more cards in the opponents Spell & Trap Card Zone. Destroy 1 card in the opponents Spell & Trap Card Zone.

Choose one of the three? Yugi Muto said, If you can choose the key defensive card

Yami Yugi crossed his arms and nodded slightly: But if its a true duelist like Rafael, he will definitely be able to select the key card!

Yuei Vu couldnt help being speechless after hearing this.

It has nothing to do with being a true duelist, isnt it just a matter of luck

However, Rafael did not disappoint the game: The one I want to destroy with the effect of Tornado is that card!

He pointed to the set card on Yuei Vus left.

The white tornado received the order, and immediately rushed out like a hungry wolf. The storm couldnt help but grab the set card, rolled the card high into the air, turned it over, and tore it into pieces.

At this moment, everyone clearly saw that the shredded card was a Mirror Force.

Thats amazing! Yugi Muto was surprised, He actually chose the key trap all at once

But Rafaels operation was not over yet: I activate Guardian Shield again to equip to the Backup Gardna! The equipped monsters defense power increases by 300, and when a Guardian monster I control would be destroyed, the Guardian Shield can be destroyed instead. (animation card)

Yuei Vu narrowed his eyes: Its really watertight

With you as the opponent, it is natural to show the best state. Rafael smiled, and then said solemnly, Battle! Guardian Eatos, attack the Elemental HERO Shining Flare Wingman!

Eatos raised her sword.

That was the Celestial Sword that has absorbed the power of countless souls and was capable of cutting everything. It was reflected in the value of this card game, which was a crushing-level attack power of more than 10,000.

With a single strike, as if the sky and the earth opened up, the space itself suppressed the body of the shining hero from all directions, making him unable to move.

Even if the gods were here, it would be extremely difficult to withstand the power of this sword.

This blow was enough to determine the outcome!

However, at this moment, Yuei Vu waved his arm and shouted: Open the set card: Trap Card Mirror Force!

What!?! x10086

Seeing that the set card was opened, and the blue radiance of the sacred shield covered Yuei Vu's field, everyone was shocked.

Could it be that the Duel King set two copies of Mirror Force!?

Nonot right.

Rafael found at a glance that the location where the Mirror Force was opened was exactly in the area to the left of Yuei Vu.

This was the Mirror Force that should have been blown off by him!

But obviously, this card was not destroyed by his Tornado. Instead, it seemed that the set card in the middle of Yuyus field disappeared instead.

Yuei Vu popped out the card in the GY area and turned it over: Trap Card Fake Trap. When the opponent activates a Spell, Trap, or Effect Monsters effect that would destroy a Trap Card I control, this card can be destroyed instead.

Rafael was stunned: Using that card to be destroyed in place of the Mirror Force!?

Chapter 386: Flawless

Using the Fake Trap to confuse opponents was impossible in Yuei Vu's previous life when he did not have stereoscopic projection technology in real card games.

The effect of Fake Trap was that when the trap card on the field was destroyed, it could be destroyed instead, but the trap that would originally be destroyed on that occasion must be opened for confirmation.

If two players were sitting at the table playing cards in a serious manner, it was certainly impossible that the destroyed trap is replaced happened and the opponent did not notice.

But in World Link Online, all effect processing was done by the Duel Disks system, including open and confirm the trap that was to be destroyed, and the stereoscopic image system would show that this Fake Trap would change to match the appearance of the Mirror Force that was supposed to be destroyed.

In fact, compared to playing cards in reality, this was closer to the meaning of the name Fake Trap.

There were actually many similar differences in the anime. After all, both sides dueled through stereo images, and all effect processing was handed over to the Duel Disks system, which was quite different from playing cards in reality.

Sometimes the duelist even lost his mind, moved a little slower, or was disturbed by the projection effect of the stereoscopic image, and may miss the timing of a certain card activation, which could even directly lead to the defeat of a duel.

It was also because of this that duelists in this world need to have the courage to make decisions in a short moment, and the ability to think quickly. The difficulty factor of duels was actually higher.

But no matter what, now the Mirror Force has been successfully activated!

This card can be activated only when the opponent declares an attack. Destroy all attack position monsters on the opponents field!

Eatos sword provoked a violent counterattack! The trap containing supreme power released its divine power, and the boundless blue glow seemed to erupt from the deepest part of the abyss!

The Guardian Grarl next to her was instantly crushed to powder by the power of the trap. Although Eatos hadnt fallen down yet, she could not hold on any longer.

Rafael gritted his teeth: Then the effect of Guardian Shield is activated! When a Guardian monster I control would be destroyed, the Guardian Shield can be destroyed instead.

I let Guardians Shield be destroyed in place of Guardian Eatos!

The shield immediately flew out of the Backup Gardnas hand and moved automatically to block in front of Eatos. All the backlash from the Mirror Force fell on the shield, and the shield replaced the goddess and was blown to pieces.

The battle continues! Rafael said, Guardian Eatos, continue to attack Elemental HERO Shining Flare Wingman!

Then open the set card: Trap Card Intrigue Shield! Yuei Vu shouted, Target 1 face-up monster I control; equip this card to that target.

Once per turn, while the equipped monster is in Attack Position, it cannot be destroyed by battle. I take no battle damage from attacks involving it!

I equip the Intrigue Shield to Shining Flare Wingman!

Countless golden light spots condensed into a shield and blocked the shining hero. The coercion of the holy sword fell on the shield, and it firmly withstood the blow of the female holy sword.

The majestic impact spread from the shield, causing dust to fly in space, and the gorgeous impact effects made it almost blinding.

Even this has been prevented? Rafael was a little surprised.

In this round, he eliminated the Necro Gardna in Yuei Vus GY, blew off the Mirror Force once (although it was prevented by Fake Trap), and stepped on the Mirror Force again.

Yet the killing blow that was launched after that was still resolved by Yuei Vu without any risk.

Its flawless.

Rafael was silent for a moment, and then drew another card from his hand: In Main Phase 2, I activate the Spell Card Monster Reborn to revive the Guardian Grarl who was just destroyed and went to the GY.

Sure enough, it should be said that he was worthy of being a tough guy who carried out his belief to the end. At this point, he still insisted on emptying the GY of monsters.

The lizard man Grarl, who was blown down by Mirror Force, quickly returned to the field, but he was out of breath, and it seemed that he was struggling to go back and forth between the underworld and the world of the living.

[Guardian Grarl, ATK 2500]

The real-life version of Guardian Grarl required Gravity Axe Grarl on the field before it could be summoned, but this restriction obviously did not exist in the animation.

Otherwise, in the final battle between Rafael and Yugi, he would not be able to use the Spell card Soul Charge to Special Summon all the guardians in the graveyard back to the field.

Set a card, I end my turn. Rafael said, At this moment, the effect of Guardian Eatos ends, and the attack power returns to its original state.

[Guardian Eatos, ATK 10700 ATK 2500]

Its Yuei Vus turn again: My turn, draw!

All the heroes in the GY were removed from the game, so Shining Flare Wingman lost the support of his companions, and the powerful effect was useless.

Both Eatos and Grarl currently on the field had 2500 ATK, which was the same as that of Shining Flare Wingman.

But Yuei Vus advantage was that the Shining Flare Wingman was equipped with an Intrigue Shield, which could protect him from being destroyed by battle once per turn.

Moreover, Shining Flare Wingman could also inflict damage equal to the attack power of the destroying monster on the opponent. That is to say, no matter whether Eatos or Grarl was defeated, it could cause huge damage of 2500 points.

Battle! Yuei Vu directly declared to fight.

The first thing to defeat was naturally Eatos, who had a relatively more troublesome effect and was also Rafael's ace monster.

Shining Flare Wingman, attack Guardian Eatos!

The flashing hero spread his high-tech wings and launched a dive from mid-air! The metal armor drew a brilliant trajectory in mid-air, as if an invisible engine spewed out from behind, like a cannonball shooting straight at Eatos on the opposite side!

It's not that easy! Quick-Play Spell Self Tribute! Rafael yelled, This card can be activated only if 1 or more of my monsters would be destroyed. Pay 1000 Life Points, and monsters I control cannot be destroyed this turn! (animation card)

Rafael, LP 4000 LP 3000

The Shining Flare Wingman's charge hit a wall again, but this defense was not without cost. While the power of the magic card protected the monster, it also brought a huge burden to the duelist, deducting 1000 LP as a fee.

Sure enough, it's a very Rafael-style approach. Yami Yugi nodded, To protect the monsters at the expense of himself, this is the duelist path he chose.

It could be seen that the Pharaoh was quite optimistic about Rafael.

After all, it was the man who once beat him.

If he bragged about the other party, he would have more face (especially in front of AIBO)

Then set another card, and I end my turn. Yuei Vu said.

Chapter 387: Willingly Accept Defeat

My turn, draw! Rafael said, Spell Card Graceful Charity: Draw 3 cards, then discard 2 cards.

After changing the cards in his hand, Rafael glanced at Shining Flare Wingman on Yuei Vus field and the indestructible Intrigue Shield protecting him, and couldnt help frowning slightly.

As long as there was that layer of shield, not only he could not cause combat damage, but attacking recklessly could cause a backlash. This layer of defense still made him feel quite tricky.

But he has prepared countermeasures!

Activate Equip Spell Axe of Despair! Rafael played an equipment card again, Equip to Guardian Grarl! The equipped monster gains 1000 ATK!

Although the Gravity Axe Grarl was destroyed and went to the graveyard, Rafaels deck mainly focuses on Equip Spell Cards, and naturally, there was no shortage of other substitutes.

Guardian Grarl picked up this devil-like heavy ax in one hand and weighed it in his hand as if he felt that although it was not the usual handy one, it was still passable.

[Guardian Grarl, ATK 2500 ATK 3500]

The attack power exceeds that of Shining Flare Wingman. Yuei Vu said lightly, But you should not have forgotten that the Intrigue Shield can protect the equipped monster from being destroyed in battle once, right?

Of course, so my target from the beginning is not him, but his controller you! Rafael snorted, and played the second card, Activate Equip Spell: Shooting Star Bow Ceal! Equip it to Guardian Grarl!

The equipped monsters attack power is reduced by 1000, but it can directly attack the opposing player in exchange!

Another bow appeared in the hands of this strong lizardman warrior. Its side effects and the positive benefits brought by the devils ax canceled each other out, but gave this powerful guardian the ability to jump over monsters and attack directly!

[Guardian Grarl, ATK 3500 ATK 2500]

Yuei Vu, LP 2200

Amazing! Yugi Muto couldnt help but praise, It ignored the defensive effect of the Intrigue Shield and directly caused damage to the player!

Yeah. Yami Yugi also said, After the first battle between us, Rafael has also grown up. Even without the dark power of The Seal of Orichalcos, he is now stronger than that time, and will definitely be stronger in the future!

Lets go, Guardian Grarl! Rafael ordered, Attack Yuei Vu directly!

The lizardman guardian pulled the bowstring, and the moment he let go, it was like releasing a burning meteor, drawing a perfect arc from high in the sky, and falling straight towards the top of Yuei Vu's head!

At this moment, Yuei Vu's trap has also been activated: Open the set card: Trap Card Half Unbreak! Target 1 monster on the field; this turn, that monster cannot be destroyed by battle, also any battle damage I take from attacks involving that monster is halved!

Rafael frowned: But what I want to attack you is a direct attack, even if you use this trap

That's not necessarily true. Yuei Vu shook his fingers and smiled, The monster I want to target with Half Unbreak is Guardian Grarl!

What!?

Not only Rafael but also the surrounding audience was shocked.

Protect the opponent's monsters with your own traps!?

It was still the most professional player about traps, Yugi Muto, that was the first to react: That's right! Half Unbreak not only prevents monsters from being destroyed in battle, but also halves the battle damage caused by attacks involving that monster. The first effect benefits the monster, but the second effect doesn't necessarily benefit the controller of that monster. So if Yuei Vu uses it on the opponent's monster

Guardian Grarl's battle damage to Yuei Vu will also be halved. Yami Yugi folded his arms and nodded in approval, This move is really beautiful!

The spherical protective cover released by the halving and unbreakable quickly enveloped Guardian Grarl. While this protective cover provided Grarl with invincible resistance for a turn, it also weakened his offensive ability, so that when the arrow that went out fell in front of Yuei Vu, its power was not as good as before.

Boom!

The arrow exploded before Yuei Vu, turning into a gorgeous flame and smoke screen.

Yuei Vu, LP 2200 LP 950

There is still such a method it is indeed quite beautiful.

Rafael nodded with an expression that showed his admiration.

Set three cards, I end my turn.

So strong Both of them are so strong. Yugi Muto said, The strength of these two people is completely different from that of ordinary duelists.

And one thing was really admirable, that was, until now, there was really not a single monster in Rafael's GY.

but that may be the end of it soon.

Its my turn, draw! Yuei Vu said, Activate Spell Card Card of Demise! I can draw cards until I have 5 cards in my hand. During my 5th Standby Phase after activation, send all cards in my hand to the Graveyard.

Watching Yuei Vu replenish five cards in one go, Rafaels expression froze and he held his breath.

Are you coming?

Summon Elemental HERO Stratos!

The sound of the turbine running sounded, and a violent gust of wind blew up in the field! The hero in a high-tech suit fell slowly with his arms around his arms, his feet dangling in the air, and his sight behind the blue eyepieces seemed to be as sharp as a knife.

As soon as this high-tech hero appeared on the stage, he immediately aroused cheers from the players.

A group of screwballs cheered like a festival, shouting something like If there are three skies, be a hero, etc., the emotions were very excited for a while.

The effect of Stratos. Yuei Vu said, When this card is Normal or Special Summoned, I can destroy Spells/Traps on the field, up to the number of HERO monsters I control, except this card.

Rafaels eyes flashed, and he glanced at the three set cards at his feet.

Do you want to tear through my back row defense first? Its not that easy! Rafael shouted, Open the set card: Continuous Trap Crystal Seal!

This card can seal a monster on the opponents field in a crystal. That monster cannot attack, be Tributed, change its battle position, activate its effects, or be selected as an attack target!

I choose Elemental HERO Stratos! (animation card)

The crystal barrier rose from the ground, instantly surrounding Stratos from all sides. The hurricane rolled up by the turbine behind the Sky Hero and suddenly hit a wall as if it couldnt penetrate the shackles of this crystal.

Rafael chuckled: In this way, the effect of Elemental HERO Stratos cannot be activated.

Thats not necessarily true. Yuei Vu chuckled, and quickly drew another card from his hand, Quick-Play Spell Mask Change! Send 1 HERO monster I control to the Graveyard, then Special Summon 1 Masked HERO monster from my Extra Deck with the same Attribute.

I sent Elemental HERO Stratos to the GY!

Slice evil with sharp winds

Masked HERO Blast, transform!

A green whirlwind rolled up, and instantly exploded centered on Stratos. The impact of the transformation special effect instantly broke through the shackles of the crystal barrier, turning into a green exoskeleton armor covering the heros body, and the red scarf fluttered in the wind.

[Masked HERO Blast, ATK 2200]

Because Stratos escaped the effect of Crystal Seal through transformation, his effect is still effective. Yuei Vu said.

Rafael frowned: Then according to the effect of Stratos, you can destroy one of my S/T cards

Even so, he wasn't nervous.

The other two set cards of his, one was the Negate Attack which could invalidate the attack and force the end of the battle phase, and the other was the Continuous Trap Card Gravity Bind which could forbid all level 4 or higher monsters from attacking.

No matter which one the opponent destroyed, the remaining one was enough to help him survive this turn

No. Yuei Vu smiled and shook his fingers, The effect of Elemental HERO Stratos is that I can destroy Spells/Traps on the field, up to the number of HERO monsters I control, except this card.

Look, how many heroes are there besides Stratos on my field now?

Rafael: Now the monsters on your field are Elemental HERO Shining Flare Wingman and Masked HERO Blast

Rafael suddenly stopped when he said this, his face changed suddenly.

Could it be that

That's right. Yuei Vu said, Stratos's effect is activated when he is successfully summoned, so at the moment he is Normal Summoned, his effect has already been triggered, even if he himself goes to the GY, it will not affect the activation.

But when Stratos's effect resolved, he had already transformed into Masked HERO Blast. So now there are a total of two heroes other than Stratos on the field.

Therefore, I can choose up to two S/T cards on the field to destroy.

Rafael, you did not expect this, did you? This is the power of the sky hero!

Yuei Vu pointed to Rafael's back row.

So those two set cards are all destroyed!

Stratos, who should have entered the GY, emerged as a phantom, and the huge metal hang glider turbine roared behind him! The white whirlwind roared and blasted out, involuntarily tearing Rafael's two remaining set cards into pieces.

Then there is the effect of the Masked HERO Blast! Yuei Vu continued, If this card is Special Summoned: I can target 1 face-up monster the opponent controls; its ATK becomes half its current ATK! I target Guardian Eatos!

A green whirlwind rolled up, roaring and engulfing the guardian's figure. The goddess faltered and her power was weakened.

[Guardian Eatos, ATK 2500 ATK 1250]

You actually broke through all my defenses Rafael closed his eyes and smiled softly, It's stunning.

In fact, Yuei Vu still had another effect of Masked HERO Blast that he didn't use. He could bounce a magic trap on the field back to the owner's hand by paying 500 LP.

Of course, Rafael also had no more pit on his back row.

Battle! Yuei Vu said, Elemental HERO Shining Flare Wingman, attack Guardian Eatos!

Like a fluorescent meteor piercing the sky, the metal body of the Shining Flare Wingman burst out, and the engine behind him spewed out an invisible tail flame.

Eatos, who was weakened by the storm, was no match for this hero at all. In just a split second, her body was pierced, her wings were torn, and she disappeared in mid-air as fly ash.

Rafael closed his eyes calmly, accepting the impact of the stereo image.

Rafael, LP 3000 LP 1750

Then there is the effect of Shining Flare Wingman. Yuei Vu said, If this card destroys a monster by battle and sends it to the GY: Inflict damage to the opponent equal to that monsters original ATK.

While speaking, Shining Flare Wingman folded his arms and gently landed in front of Rafael, the engine under his feet caused transparent ripples on the ground.

Eatoss original attack power is 2500. Rafael said calmly, I lost.

When your skills are not as good as others, the last thing you can do is willingly accept defeat.

Rafael, LP 1750 LP 0

Chapter 388: Gradually Become Like His Idol

Report! Immediately after the duel, Uncle Isono appeared in the presidents office again, Mr. Yuei Vu has successfully won the match again!

Not long ago, Kaiba had a fight with the so-called Yuei Vus apprentice and lost, so the president was already in a bad mood at the moment. Now he looked even more impatient: Didnt I say that you dont need to use such boring things? Did I?

While speaking, the president turned off the duel broadcast on his screen again.

There was no way, it was torturous enough for the president to hold back his card addiction and not play cards himself. If you didnt even let him watch the battle, it would be too cruel

However, the president was quite satisfied with this match.

To be honest, the president was really worried for a while, whether Yuei Vu would accidentally lose to Rafael.

After all, the first blood of the number one man he admitted, Muto Yugi, was handed over to this big brother.

In case Yuei Vu also gave it, the presidents mentality may explode on the spot

Fortunately, his Yuei Vu finally lived up to expectations and successfully defeated this powerful enemy.

Only in this way, it was more worth defeating him!

Especially after playing a round with Yuei Vus apprentice, President Kaiba has secretly decided that when the KC Grand Prix ended smoothly and the company got back on track, he would immediately start preparing for a comeback!

Before that, I have to catch him and ask him what is going on with his apprentice.

Kaiba looked at Yuei Vu who had just finished playing cards and was talking with Rafael on the surveillance screen, and couldn't help squinting his eyes.

Wait for me, Yuei Vu Yu !

Of course, you don't even want to run too, Yu gi!

Brother, there is news from Tenma Yako. Mokuba said, He and President Pegasus are coming to Kaiba Land.

According to the plan, President Pegasus will make an appearance at the KC Grand Prix final.

As the leader of the Industrial Illusions and the father of modern Duel Monsters, it would be beneficial for both companies to make him appear in such a large-scale international event.

Yako? The president disdainfully said, It's that kid who came here, hmph.

As mentioned before, Kaiba has always had a bad impression of Industrial Illusions because of the conflict with Pegasus in the Duelist Kingdom arc.

Although he didn't know why, what he disliked the most in the Industrial Illusions was that Tenma Yako.

At this moment, Tenma Yako was sitting with Pegasus on the helicopter flying to Kaiba Land.

Along the way, Tenma Yako talked with his adoptive father and mentor about his views on the future development direction of Duel Monsters, and put forward some of his own experiences these days.

He especially mentioned his optimism for the HERO series. Handsome heroes could not only attract more duelists to buy, but also set a correct example for the new generation of young people.

In addition, we may have encountered some technical difficulties in this regard. He said, We tried to develop a fusion hero with the ice element as a source of power, but it has not been very smooth.

However, what is certain is that if the development is successful, a hero stronger than all the existing Elemental HEROes should be born, a hero who can act as the face of this series and has symbolic significance!

Pegasus nodded slightly while listening: These are Yuei Vu Boys suggestions?

Yes. Yako looked a little proud and a little fascinated, These are all suggested by Yuei Vu-sensei!

Pegasus noticed the change in his way of addressing.

Already Yuei Vu-sensei

In Pegasus' impression, Tenma Yako has always been somewhat arrogant, and rarely really agreed with anyone.

In the past, Yako would only have such a tone and attitude when he mentioned his most admired adoptive father, Pegasus, but now he seemed to be doing the same with Yuei Vu even the degree of admiration has a tendency to surpass Pegasus.

This made the president of the Industrial Illusions feel a little delicate

Tenma Yako: Gradually Become Like His Idol.JPG

Yako continued to happily report what he had learned from his idol these days.

For example, in addition to the sales of ordinary card boxes, they could also launch an annual Diamond Pack card box for a limited time and limited purchases. The card box was full of the most useful and powerful cards in the card box released this year, but the price would be much higher than ordinary card boxes

Another example was that they could also start to establish a duelists strength grading system around the world.

Although Kaiba initially sorted the strength levels of some duelists from one to eight stars, it has not been promoted worldwide, and the classification was not detailed enough. In addition, there may be private unjust grades brought by the president himself. (A horse bone player with only two stars expressed his displeasure)

Yako said that they could consider launching a complete system to divide duelists into ranks. According to the level of strength and the comprehensive performance of various competitions, duelists could be divided into bronze, silver, gold, platinum, diamond, masters, etc

While listening, Pegasus nodded from time to time, and at the same time secretly wondered what Yako had learned from being with his idol these days

For some reason, Pegasus felt a little uneasy along the way.

Now that the Millennium Eye has been lost, Pegasus has lost most of his dark power. Although he still had some extraordinary power, it was still completely incomparable with the heyday.

Whats going on? Pegasus frowned tightly, I always feel an ominous premonition in my heart, as if something big is about to happen

In fact, with Pegasus identity and status, as well as his past influence in the inner world, there were many people who have always wanted to step on his head to reach a new height.

There are always people who want to harm me!

But even so, Pegasus felt as if he had never felt more uneasy than now.

Maybe its an illusion. He comforted himself.

The end of the duel between Yuei Vu and Rafael was equivalent to direct promotion.

The next thing waiting for him was to defeat the final challenger in the finals and maintain his title of Duel King.

Muto Yugi, who was considered an acquaintance of Yuei Vu and Rafael, naturally came up to greet and exchange a few pleasantries at the end of the duel.

Especially with Rafael. Previously, Yugi and Lafeiru admired each other when they were still in the hostile camp. Now that the hostile relationship between the two has been lifted, they naturally cherish each other and become partners in friendly competition.

The two of them made a verbal agreement, and when they have the opportunity, they would try their best to duel again without leaving any regrets.

While the few people were communicating, someone from also took pictures of this scene behind.

The two Duel Kings appeared in the same frame!

Chika watched quietly from behind the whole time. When she saw Muto Yugi appearing, she couldn't help standing on her tiptoes curiously, trying to see the appearance of this Duel King who was as famous as Yuei Vu.

That resolute face, tall and straight waist, and an aura that was not angry and arrogant, just the unique temperament of a king revealed just by standing there really handsome.

Of course, my Yuei Vu is still better!

When Yuei Vu came back, he saw that [Favourability +1, +1, +1] had started to pop up above Chikas little head again, and he couldn't help but wonder.

What am I doing this time?

Chapter 389: Being A Teacher For A Day

Yes, even at this moment, Chikas favorability was still raised from time to time.

As for how much her favorability has risen now

Yuei Vu didn't know either.

Because just from the panel, Chikas favorability gauge has already been filled up.

Even if [Favourability +1, +1, +1] continued to pop up on her head occasionally, the bar showed no sign of changing.

In short, it may be that the upper limit of favorability has been overflowed, and there was no sign of stopping

At this time, the player forum was also discussing the duel just now.

Although the KC Grand Prix was a large-scale competition, it was actually a chapter of the main storyline in essence, not an official competition.

In fact, the game company also held regular competitions. However, those games were player-only and had no NPC. That kind of game was only broadcast live in the official live broadcast room.

As for the KC Grand Prix, it could only be regarded as the main storyline with players participating in it. The only way for players to pay attention to this competition was through the live broadcast of streamers.

For example, Miss Yuehua, who was famous for her flat plain.

Similar to the previous Battle City event, in this KC Grand Prix, Miss Yuehuas live broadcast room once again ushered in the peak of popularity. A large number of spectators came in and out continuously, making the tool person follow Yuei Vu in a state of excitement that would break down at any time.

In fact, Yuei Vu didn't really care about how much strength this tool person had.

Miss Yuehuas talent for playing cards was actually not high. The understanding was normal, the psychological warfare was a mess, and the thoughts were almost all written on the face. The construction of the deck was just copying the card list on the forum

But for Yuei Vu, she was a useful tool person, the kind that could activate automatically.

It didnt really matter whether she could play cards or not. Take her to place in the back row as a living camera, and its over.

And Yuei Vu was quite optimistic about her. She didnt say what shouldnt be said, didnt ask what shouldnt be asked, and she would move when it was time for her to move.

And she was very serious about the game plot, not the kind of player who skipped all cutscenes. She was completely involved in the game as a different world.

In this regard, she was better than someone who only thought about having a bright tongue and trying to bootlick like crazy

It wasnt until the Industrial Illusions helicopter landed with the roar and transparent hurricane that Yuei Vu knew that Pegasus was actually invited to the competition.

After all, the competition was entirely in charge of Kaiba. Yuei Vu, a fringe paddler, did not participate in except for banning Siegfried and his little brother, so he didnt know anything about the event process.

Before the plane landed, Pegasus waved from a distance in plastic English: Long time no see, Yuei Vu Boy~

President Pegasus stood outside the helicopter with the hatch opened in a Kaiba-style POSE, with long bangs flying under the hurricane rolled up by the propeller, and his face was full of enthusiasm.

With that friendly tone and enthusiastic attitude, those who didnt know may think they were a family.

When the plane landed, President Pegasus jumped off first.

Yuei Vu-sensei.

Although Tenma Yakos voice was not as loud or as charming as Pegasus, the excitement in his tone could be clearly heard.

Yuei Vu was helpless: I said, dont call me sensei, Im not your teacher

Yes, Yuei Vu-sensei.

Yuei Vu:

Yako felt that there was no problem in calling it that.

The so-called teacher was also preaching and teaching karma to solve doubts.

Yuei Vu not only untied his knots, pointed out the exit of the maze for him, and told him the direction of progress, but also taught him many valuable qualities these days.

As the saying goes being a teacher for a day, being a father for life.

He felt that it would not be an exaggeration to say that Yuei Vu-sensei was his second father!

(Pegasus:)

Of course, although Yuei Vu himself didnt seem very happy with this title, it didnt matter.

After getting along for so many days, Yako felt that he had found the correct way to communicate with Yuei Vu-sensei.

By the way, Yuei Vu-sensei, Tenma Yako took out a card, The Elemental HERO Stratos you asked me to copy last time, after the continuous efforts of our technical team, we finally successfully copied the first finished product.

If you are satisfied with it, please accept it first.

Yuei Vus eyes lit up.

The second Stratos!

Because it was too difficult to open Stratos from the system card pool, so after getting the first card, Yuei Vu directly took this card and tried to let Industrial Illusions use their technology to copy it.

The Industrial Illusions was almost equivalent to the K consortium of this world. In black technologies such as stereoscopic projection and Duel Disk, Kaiba Corp may be more professional, but when it came to card making, the Industrial Illusions was the absolute authority.

But even the Industrial Illusions couldnt copy any card. For example, Blue Eyes White Dragon, Dark Magician, Dark Magician Girl, and many other special cards, even with their skills, it was difficult to create more.

Before, Yuei Vu took Stratos to the Industrial Illusions for a test and found that the difficulty of duplicating this hero seemed not much lower than those of the legendary cards. Several consecutive attempts ended in failure.

Originally, he had already given up on this idea, but Yako continued to let the technical team develop and test in private, and he actually created the second Stratos for him.

And it had a foil image and a gold name!

It was conceivable that Yako should have invested a lot of resources and costs in order to reproduce this Stratos.

Looking at the three-dimensional line of Elemental HERO Stratos written in gold, as well as the pleated and shining card surface, Yuei Vu couldnt help but feel good.

He even felt that it would be better to just accept this apprentice and let Yako call him sensei a few more times.

There was no way, the apprentice was too sensible and had given too much.

Pegasus watched from the side, and wanted to ask Why havent I heard of this?, but after thinking about it, he still didnt open his mouth, and still kept a kind smile.

Yako found that as he expected, Yuei Vu-sensei immediately felt better after accepting this card.

He was also happy about it.

As expected of Yuei Vu-sensei, he is such a simple and pure person, completely different from those hypocritical upper-class people I usually come into contact with!

Certainly, only a pure person like this can reach such a height like him!

While Yuei Vu was being polite to them, he was also paying attention secretly in his heart.

He had been thinking before that, according to the plot of the movie, Paradox should be aiming at President Pegasus. It's just that for unknown reasons, this guy seems to have suddenly changed his mind and wanted to come to the KC Grand Prix to make trouble.

And now that President Pegasus was present in person, he couldn't help but become vigilant quickly.

Could it be that Paradox had already known that Pegasus was coming, so he decided to attack the KC Grand Prix?

Maybe the opponents target is still President Pegasus?

Chapter 390: A Step Too Late

After getting rid of the small obstacle named Siegfried, the two Duel Kings from the future, Yuki Judai and Fudo Yusei, were chatting while strolling in the Kaiba Land.

Of course, because they were wearing strange costumes, no players realized that the two great gods were mixing in.

During the period, there were even players who found that they had no ID above their heads and came to duel them. At that time, Judai's card addiction was really unbearable, and his hands were itchy for a while, so he had some friendly matches with a few players.

However, out of the consideration of trying not to modify the timeline, Judai did not use his real deck but used a set of random decks.

The result was naturally a fiasco for passer-by players.

After all, Yuki Judai at this stage has already reached the state of perfection in the field of divine draw. Although the deck he used was a pile of Normies, even if he wanted to draw cards that were not in the deck, it was not impossible in principle.

KC Grand Prix is really nostalgic, Judai said.

Do you have an impression of the KC Grand Prix? Yusei asked following his words.

Probably. Judai smiled under the hood but didn't continue.

The two of them changed the subject and began to talk about the times they came from, what they had experienced, and the friends around them.

Yusei actually experienced a huge disaster when he was a child. At that time, the world's first-generation perpetual motion machine, which his father was in charge of developing, ran out of control, causing the tragedy of Zero Reverse. The entire city was torn apart by the energy of the perpetual motion machine, which took countless lives and caused an irreparable tragedy.

Before Dr.Fudo died, he put Yusei, who was a child, into the escape pod, and launched it at the moment the perpetual motion machine exploded. Therefore, Yusei, who was originally born in the Top district of the city and was supposed to be an upper-class person, ended up growing up in the notorious Satellite district, the home of slums.

The lone survivor of a ruined city, the orphan of a great scientist, the last hope to escape the disaster area in a rescue capsule, and finally grow into the legendary savior who brings hope, this was Fudo Yusei.

By the way, after being launched into the satellite area, Yusei was adopted by a kind woman who specially adopted orphans, which was equivalent to the adoptive mother who raised Yusei.

Her name was Martha

(Man of Steel and The Dark Knight all liked it)

But even so, Yusei still felt lucky.

He mentioned the precious partners around him, and mentioned the experience of confronting the villain group called Dark Signers. In the beginning, he and his little friends each defeated a small boss in one of the groups, and in the end, when they faced the guarding boss, the three of them worked together to win the victory by relying on the power of fetters to create a miracle

Brother Crabhead said that he thought that bonds were the source of the duelists strongest strength. Even after traveling through time and space now, going back in time to fight against enemies.

If it werent for the support of those irreplaceable partners, he would never have been able to get to where he is today.

In this regard, Yuki Judai expressed his deep opinion and fell into the memories of his student days.

Judai remembered that he was surrounded by many friends all year round

For example, Asuka, who was taken as a hostage and rescued by Judai; for example, Manjome, who either lost early or was brainwashed and blackened, waiting for Judai to come to rescue; Misawa Daichi who almost never won a game of cards, and in later arcs simply went offline and disappeared

Judai happily described the experience of getting acquainted with his friends, and he still felt a little nostalgic, and he didnt know how the friends got along after graduation

While listening, Yusei thought to himself: Judai-senpais life sounded really hard

While chatting, Yuseis expression changed slightly, and he suddenly raised his arm.

Whats wrong? Judai asked.

Yusei rolled up his sleeves, only to see that the birthmark of the dragon head on his forearm had glowed red by itself, and the light flickered on and off as if silently conveying something to them.

That person? Judai said, Did that guy travel through time and space again?

Of course, he was talking about Paradox.

After all, they were all staying in this era because of Paradox. Yusei also mentioned before that as long as Paradox activated the time travel device again, the Planetary Particles released by his D-Wheel would be sensed by Yusei.

But Yusei shook his head: No, he didn't activate the space-time device I can feel that it's Stardust calling me.

Judai was stunned: Is that what you said before, your ace monster Stardust Dragon?

Um.

Yusei's expression sank, and he took out a card from behind.

It was a card with a white background, with a card picture and a frame of effect text, but the entire card surface became blank, with neither pictures nor text.

This card was his ace monster Stardust Dragon or it used to be.

Paradox traveled back to the era of Yu-Gi-Oh! 5DS and forcibly took away the spirit that resided in the Stardust Dragon in this card. Losing the spirit, the card in Yusei's hand became a blank.

Taking back his most important monster was also one of Yusei's goals in this era.

Over there! Yusei said, I can feel that guy is about to move!

Okay! Judai paused before taking action, remembering something.

Ah, by the way, Yuei Vu-sensei must be notified

If something happens, you must report it to the teacher.JPG

The two protagonists quickly moved into action.

The Mark of the Dragon in Yusei's hand was really useful. As long as the spirit of Stardust Dragon was still in the hands of Paradox, Yusei was equivalent to a human body radar, which could locate the opponent's position at any time.

It's as if the Stardust Dragon was constantly sending out a distress signal to its master.

The two protagonists followed the direction of the sensed signal to the top floor of a certain building in Kaiba Land.

Although it was an uninhabited area where tourists were forbidden to enter, it obviously cannot stop these two. They quickly chased to the rooftop on the top floor, Yusei took the lead in kicking open the door of the stairwell, and the two rushed out one after another.

Sure enough, Mark of the Dragon's guidance was not wrong.

The guy they were looking for a future man with blond hair, a white mask, and an exaggeratedly large D-Wheel parked behind him, was indeed standing on this rooftop right now.

But the two of them were still a step too late.

No, or it should be said that someone moved faster than them.

They saw a duelist standing opposite to Paradox, with a school uniform like a cape, an inverted pyramid-shaped pendant on his chest, and an ancestor-level seafood hairstyle on his head. ..

the Duel King of this era, Yugi Muto!

Just before the two broke in, the duel had already begun.
