

I Play Yu-Gi 411

Chapter 411: Your Future Path Is Going To Be Narrow

Judai, LP 0

The little jellyfish stood in a daze on the arena, still a little dazed.

I already lost?

Although he already knew that he might not be able to beat the Duel King, but

Yuei Vu-san, this is too fast!?

Little Judai couldnt understand what just happened.

He couldnt summon a decent monster during the whole process. The only one he successfully called was the Flame Wingman, who went to the opposite side at the speed of light before he could stand still Little Judai felt he had never encountered such a weird match since he learned to duel.

A duel doesnt seem like it should be like this, does it?

Shouldnt a duel be a time when both sides try their best to summon powerful and handsome monsters to collide fiercely?

However, this duel gave him the feeling that his side hadnt started yet, and Yuei Vu-sans side had already ended

Just quite suddenly.

Some screwball players couldnt help but feel sorry for Little Judai after watching it, feeling that he had suffered pain that he shouldnt have at his age.

This child wont just be abolished like this, will he?

For example, I have a psychological shadow since then, and I no longer dare to play cards and so on

However, Little Judai lowered his head and was silent for a moment, then he raised his head quickly, and his eyes once again burst into radiance.

Good so powerful! He clenched his small fists, Yuei Vu-san is really strong, super strong! With Yuei Vu-san as my opponent, I cant even summon monsters, and I have never encountered such a strong opponent

Judai who have been slapped so hard by Yuei Vu, not only do not have the slightest frustration, nor the anger of players beating their chests and keyboards after being violently beaten by an anti-meta deck. On the contrary, he seemed to admire Yuei Vu even more.

Yuei Vu-san is ten times stronger than I imagined!

No, a hundred times!

I cant even summon monsters if I fight against him. When can I be powerful like that?

Sure enough, the duel is the best!

Little Judai, who should have had a very poor game experience, happily reached out and pointed at Yuei Vu: Although I lost, it was really an interesting duel! Yuei Vu-san!

Yuei Vu nodded with a smile, stepped forward, and touched the head of the little jellyfish: Well, let's fight together again when we have a chance.

Judai looked flattered and surprised, and nodded his head vigorously: Yeah!

Sure enough, he was indeed Judai the optimist, and being tricked this once couldn't affect his enthusiasm for playing cards at all.

Looking at Judai's little eyes that are gradually becoming instrumental, Yuei Vu smiled while stroking his head.

It doesn't matter, it doesn't matter, we will have a long time in Japan, and I will have opportunities to slowly train him in the future

The winner is decided! Mr. Isono announced through the live broadcast, The champion of the KC Grand Prix is Yuei Vu!!!

Fireworks were fired around the stage, and applause and shouts came and went. Some people started to pull up banners and promotional slogans and shouted Yuei Vu's name loudly.

Yuei Vu seriously doubted that the president may have arranged entrustment long ago. Anyway, the president must have never considered the possibility that Yuei Vu would not win the championship before holding the competition.

If you thought about it this way, it seemed that the generous bonus for the champion in the KC Grand Prix was tacitly prepared for Yuei Vu from the very beginning.

At this time Kaiba was standing on the high platform, not surprised to see Yuei Vu won the final championship, snorted and said nothing.

After all, it is the hateful Yuei Vu, and of course, he will win the final victory.

But in comparison, what attracted Kaiba's attention more was the jellyfish-headed boy who was Yuei Vu's opponent in the final.

As soon as the kid who used the Elemental HEROes entered the stage, Kaiba's instinct as a duelist somehow felt that this child gave him a sense of familiarity.

It's like I've seen a similar opponent somewhere before, but I can't remember it

Until the end, when Little Judai posed his signature pose and said to Yuei Vu with a bright and innocent face, That was a fun Duel, Kaiba's eyelids jumped, and he suddenly remembered the Yuei Vu's student who was wearing a unicorn headgear.

The president couldn't help but frown.

Between them is there any connection?

So far, the KC Grand Prix has come to a perfect conclusion.

This competition was undoubtedly a success for Kaiba Corp and it was much more successful than the president expected.

Although the intrusion of Paradox was a danger that could have caused mass casualties, the audience in Kaiba Land who had brushed shoulders with death did not realize the danger from beginning to end.

In the end, they all thought it was an exhibition match temporarily arranged by the organizer.

As an exhibition game, the gold content of this game was undoubtedly off the charts. From the first round of the opponents, fatty monsters with 4000-5000 ATK jumped around casually, which completely refreshed the modern duelists understanding of this card game, and the highlight was a fight between gods.

In the end, Malefic Paradox Dragon, Malefic Truth Dragon, Majestic Star Dragon, and Rainbow Neos came forward to fight against each other, every monster left the audience with a wonderful experience. A deep impression that touched the soul.

Especially Majestic Star Dragon and Rainbow Neos, the existence of them made many people even have a sense of shock that could only be compared with Egyptian gods!

In addition, before the duel, the blockbuster-level battle of M78 Civil Servant Routine staged by Neos and Malefic Rainbow Dragon also made the audience hooked.

These have also made those partners and customers who have lost confidence in Kaiba Corp realize that in the new era of duel monsters, Kaiba Corp would still be the unshakable leader in the world!

Maybe even stronger than before!

Thanks to these, after the KC Grand Prix ended, Kaiba Corps stock skyrocketed like a rocket, going straight to a new record high. The companys influence has also been rising all the way as if it has become the overlord of the new era.

Strictly speaking, all of this was actually thanks to the future man who came back with black technology to make trouble.

Its a pity that the Paradox was no longer in this era, otherwise, Yuei Vu felt that he should speak to him on behalf of President Kaiba

Thank you for the donation!

and the Duel Disk and the deck.

Of course, now that the KC Grand Prix was over, Yuei Vu still has to find a way to explain this part of the problem to the president.

For example, who were the two powerful duelists beside him, who was Paradox, what was their purpose, and why there was a Blue-Eyes White Dragon in Paradoxs hand ..

With so many questions, the more Yuei Vu thought about it, the more headache he felt, so he simply told the president the truth.

Fortunately, although the president didnt believe in metaphysics, he thought the concept of future technology was acceptable.

After listening to Yuei Vus explanation, he sat behind his desk with his hands crossed on his chin: So you are saying that the blond man comes from the future, and his purpose is to destroy the future derived from the Duel Monster.

And the two people beside you are also from the future, but their purpose is to stop him?

Yes, that's it. Yuei Vu was relieved that the president quickly understood the point.

So that student of yours also came back from the future?

Yuei Vu raised his eyebrows, vaguely aware that the atmosphere might not be right.

Uh, it's right.

President Kaiba narrowed his eyes: Yuki Judai is he that child?

Yuei Vu: !!??

President Kaiba, are you a high school detective?

How did you guess the identity of the guy wearing the unicorn headgear after meeting him only once?

Looks like I guessed right.

Kaiba seemed satisfied with Yuei Vu's reaction. He leaned back in his chair, crossed his fingers, and snorted inexplicably.

Yuki Judai, huh he is indeed an interesting kid

Yuei Vu couldn't help looking at the sky.

Judai, don't blame your teacher for not covering you.

I can visually predict your future path as a duelist is going to be narrow!

Chapter 412: The Guild

On a new day, before dawn, Snow Wave was woken up by the alarm he had set the day before and forced himself to wake up from the warm bed.

After simply washing up and randomly stuffing some snacks into his mouth for breakfast, Snow Wave immediately climbed into the game cabin that had been activated the first time he woke up

World Link Online, start!

The game connection was established, the familiar startup interface appeared, and a burst of white light quickly carried his consciousness to another world that mainly played cards.

A new beautiful day began again.

Determined to arrive at the Dream Card store as early as possible to check in every day, and always be the first player to arrive at the card store. This was a small goal Snow Wave has set for himself, and it was also what he considers to be within the responsibilities of head of Yuei Vu Fanclub.

Although he went so early every day, there was nothing wrong with him.

Yuei Vu usually did not have any urgent matters that must be handled by someone in the morning. At best, he was asked to help sweep the floor and do chores, and sometimes he was asked to help wash the dishes after breakfast.

However, Snow Wave knew that to be a qualified tool person, one should have the awareness to be prepared at all times.

When Yuei Vu didnt need him, he pretended that he didnt exist, its better not to even breathe (players could really do it).

When he was needed, he must immediately put on the sharpest eyes and the sharpest sword, act vigorously, and never sloppily. As long as the quest was accepted, it would be completed as quickly as possible without delay.

Regarding these, Snow Wave felt that he had already summed up a set of experiences.

Even if he stopped playing someday, he felt that he can record these experiences and write them into a book.

He has already thought of the title of the book, it must be The Confession of a Bootlicker, or Eighteen Postures to Make NPCs Comfortable.

However, now that the KC Grand Prix competition was over, Snow Wave felt that his status may be threatened and challenged.

Because today when he logged in early in the morning, he found that some players came earlier than him!

and even robbed him of his job, mopping the floor in the store with a mop!

That should have been his prerogative!

Snow Wave was shocked. Taking a closer look, she couldnt help but breathe a sigh of relief

Oh, its okay, its a girl

No, I cant relax my vigilance! Even a girl is not fine too! (Still not aware that there was something wrong with his thoughts)

The one in the store was the player girl who was able to fight Yuei Vu in the KC Grand Prix, Coke Sprite.

As previously mentioned, Coke Sprite was a player from a large guild called Knights of Hanoi.

And the president of her guild, whose ID was Just A Sandbag, was also a well-known Premium player.

It was said that in reality, Just A Sandbag was the second generation of a rich family with lots of spare money and no place to spend. After World Link Online opened, he was attracted by the games cross-generational technology and super realistic experience in all aspects. Since then, he has entered the pit and started to learn how to play cards. From then on, he became addicted to playing cards, and it got out of control.

This guild was established on a whim. It was said that if this game became E-sport, he even intended to spend money to build a team.

The only girl in the guild made it to the top eight of the KC Grand Prix, which was a big deal in the guild. Seeing that Coke Sprite was randomized in the quarter-finals to face Yuei Vu, a golden thigh recognized by the players as the most snarky, the guild master rushed to tell everyone.

This is a big opportunity!

Especially after Coke Sprite came back, she said that she had increased her favorability with Yuei Vu by as much as 10 points in this game, and everyone in the guild gasped.

More importantly, after the duel, Yuei Vu took the initiative to pull her up and greeted her friendly.

This matter has attracted the attention of all the senior officials in the guild, including the president himself.

As a result, Coke Sprite became the hope of the whole village for no reason and came to act as a small pendant on Yuei Vu's thigh with the expectation of the whole guild.

The night before she left, Just A Sandbag even grabbed her hand and said something to her earnestly. To put it simply, let her be smart and try to see if she can get some hidden missions from Yuei Vu-san, or get a long-term discount channel in the store or something.

It would be even better if she could overtake Snow Waves position as the number one bootlicker.

Just A Sandbag especially emphasized that money was not a problem, she had an entire guild as a solid backing behind. Yuei Vu must be taken down in this wave!

And this president, he's a particularly proud guy.

After sending Coke Sprite, the first thing he did was to open the player forum.

This is my chance to show off!

If you don't show off in games, what's the difference with salted fish?

It was precisely because of seeing the post on the forum that Yuei Vu was moved by Coke Sprite who voluntarily came to report.

After all, he liked players who didn't think twice about spending money and loved to show off.

This kind of leek was not only comfortable to cut but also convenient to create momentum.

Although Snow Wave was also a good tool person, he belonged to the type with a strict mouth. He never talked nonsense, and he never went to the forum to post news related to Yuei Vu.

Although men with strict mouths were likable, sometimes it depended on the situation.

For example, sometimes, Yuei Vu may have the need to advertise, then he may need to use the propaganda power of their Knights of Hanoi guild.

For different situations, various types of tool people were needed.

However, Chika didn't seem very happy about the fact that there was another hard-working tool girl who could be used at will in the store early in the morning.

It's another weirdo who goes after my Yuei Vu!

This time it's a cute girl!

And it's different from Miss Yuehua who often followed Yuei Vu around. Compared with Miss Yuehua, Chika felt more girls' unique pressure from this new girl.

Because if Miss Yuehua was mopping the floor here, Chika might feel a little proud compared to her.

After all, Miss Yuehua was just a flat plain, no matter what she did.

But the size of Coke Sprite made Chika faintly feel threatened!

Of course, Yuei Vu didnt see her careful thinking, because Yuei Vu didnt notice at all.

After all, compared to some silly golden-haired spirit who floated next to him every day

Coke Sprite was nothing special.

It stood to reason that when playing online games, most people would be happy to have a cute girl beside them, and they might even want to get out of being FA.

But a real card player like Snow Wave would not.

Since entering the door early this morning, Snow Waves gaze toward Coke Sprite has been full of hostility

Dont even try to take away my Yuei Vu-san!

He has already made up his mind, he must perform better than usual today, and keep his position as the head of Yuei Vu Fanclub at all costs.

Even if necessary, he would not hesitate to sell his integrity! (although it may be long gone)

Unfortunately, he was bound to be disappointed today.

Because today

Yuei Vu was not there at all.

Chapter 413: This Dress Is A Bit Small

Cheers!!!

When Yuei Vu went back to the headquarters of Nightcrawler World, as soon as he entered the door, he immediately smelled the breath of freedom and anxiety everywhere in the air, as well as those muscular brothers who could hardly see the edge

The toasts were mixed, and the shouts shook the sky. There were also some big muscular guys who look like stacked arhats, some on top and some on the bottom, the scene was extremely eye-catching

Of course, Yuei Vu has long been used to this and has even been able to ignore them as if nothing had happened.

Yuei Vu!

The first person who noticed him entering the door was Mr. Kuroda who was the first to fight Yuei Vu when he joined the club.

Mr. Kurodas status in the organization has also risen rapidly since then, and he seemed to be about to become a new generation of cadres.

Especially after the all-out war with Doma, the Nightcrawler World became more and more popular, attracting duelists from all over the world to join.

Every newcomer who joined the organization, of course, would first inquire about the legendary duel king Yuei Vu relevant information. After all, everyone in the world now knew that Yuei Vu came from Nightcrawler World, and many duelists come here just for the name.

And almost all the newcomers who inquired about the news will be told by their seniors that when the Duel King joined the club, the senior Kuroda who was dancing on the stage wearing only a mans dignity was the first to fight against the future Duel King.

At this time, the newcomers would be in awe, and even Kuroda-senpais naked and shameless things were temporarily filtered out.

In fact, this was the same as the so-called legendary duelist in the GX animation. In the Yu-Gi-Oh GX animation, we could see that the two passers-by Meikyu brothers (1) who were defeated by Muto Yugi in the early days of the DM animation have become legendary duelists.

After the Meikyu Brothers played cards with Yugi in the Duelist Kingdom arc, they began to publicize that they were men who had fought against Duel King Muto Yuyu. The two of them naturally became legendary duelists.

It felt a bit like a certain ninja next door who threw a shuriken eight hundred miles away, and then boasted for hundreds of years that he fought against the First Hokage.

No, before Mr. Kuroda greeted Yuei Vu excitedly and jumped off the stage, he seemed to be doing a strip dance again.

Its interesting to say when he did it for the first time, it was obviously the punishment of the Shadow Game. However, as the saying goes, From zero to one is hard, from one to countless is easy, after a long time, Mr. Kuroda seemed to be addicted to it. Every time Yuei Vu came over, he often saw him dancing.

Now Mr. Kuroda didnt even feel ashamed anymore but was proud of it instead.

Now he liked to emphasize when he met newcomers, saying that stripping was his punishment for losing to Yuei Vu. According to Mr. Kurodas description, the battle at the time was really dark and terrifying, and the Duel King at that time played all his cards. In the end, he was convinced that he lost, and did the strip dance willingly.

So not only did the newcomers not feel his dancing disgusted, but they all shouted: Kuroda-san is awesome!

Yuei Vu glanced at the lively scene in the house, and couldnt help but ask, Today is celebrating again?

He was no longer surprised by this. The celebratory banquets of Nightcrawler World were almost as frequent as the promotions of the Steam game platform, and they could always find a reason to celebrate.

Mr. Kuroda touched the back of his head and smiled: Yes. Because you won the KC Grand Prix, we decided to have a good meal to celebrate.

Oh, by the way, the one named Yuei Cannot Escape Fae is going to be promoted. Hey, let me tell you, Brother Fae is really good in every way.

Oh? Yuei Vu asked strangely, The president is going to give him a promotion?

Yeah, hes promoted really fast. If he keeps on working hard, its not impossible for him to be the next president. Mr. Kuroda said with a simple and honest smile, Of course, the premise is that you dont want this position.

Hey, if you are interested, President Gai can give you the position right now.

Forget it. Yuei Vu waved his hand.

After all, he was very busy and didnt have time to deal with so many trivial matters in the club. Especially now that the Nightcrawler World was getting bigger and bigger, more and more energy would be consumed to manage it well.

He looked around: Im here today to find Tilla. Where is she?

Oh, that vampire girl? Over there, shes drinking. Kuroda pointed to a corner on one side.

Yuei Vu walked in that direction, and sure enough, he found Tilla, who was only wearing close-fitting clothing, in the middle of a group of muscular men.

When Yuei Vu appeared, two muscular men were bending over and grabbing each others shoulders to form a human arch bridge, while Tilla was standing on their backs, her left hand flung off the last piece of upper body clothes except for her bra, while the other hand was holding a wine bottle that was about to bottom out

Yuei Vu-san!

Somebody took the lead in shouting, and Tillas smile froze quickly. She jumped off the backs of the two strong men at the speed of light and ran to Yuei Vu to stand at attention, with her head down and her face full of obedience.

I moved to a new residence, but the place is too big, and I need someone to take care of it on weekdays. Yuei Vu said.

Tillas eyes lit up.

Master Yuei Vu finally remembered me!

This is the address. Yuei Vu gave the address of his current residence, Lets go there before evening.

Yes, Master!

Here it comes, here it comes, after waiting for so long, my chance to serve Master has finally come!

Even before the time indicated by Yuei Vu, she rushed to Yuei Vus manor in a hurry.

Yuei Vu needed someone to take care of such a large manor on a daily basis. He had long thought of throwing Tilla here to act as a maid.

Since she wanted to be a maid, work attire must be indispensable.

It just so happened that there was no shortage of such things in the Dream Card shop. Maybe its because of the owners special hobbies, there were so many suits for servants and maids in the warehouse behind the shop.

Yuei Vu took one back casually.

However, he may have overlooked a little problem.

Thats this maid outfit was made according to the shape and size of Chika-chan.

So there were some predictable troubles.

Tilla took this maid outfit to the toilet for a long time, and when she finally came out, the whole uniform was tight (especially the chest), and she looked like she was about to explode at any time.

Her face was full of innocence: Master Yuei Vu, this dress is a bit small.

Yuei Vu:

He thought about it and decided it was better not to let Chika see this maid for the time being.

Otherwise, she may faint again.

Chapter 414: Can You Duel With Me?

Radiant Mirror Force! ! !

With the golden light shining and the gorgeous special effects that seemed to blind a dogs eyes, a brand new trap that had never been touched before was spat out by the system card pool and popped up in front of Yuei Vu.

The logo given by the system was still an SR!

However, when Yuei Vu looked at the newly released card, he couldnt help being speechless for a while.

Radiant Mirror Force (Trap Card): When an opponents monster declares an attack while they control 3 or more Attack Position monsters: Destroy all Attack Position monsters your opponent controls.

Thats right, it had the same effect as the big brother Mirror Force of the Mirror Force series, except that the restriction was more than doubled.

It was obviously impossible for Yuei Vu, who has the Mirror Power in his hand, to use this card.

But since its released, it couldnt be wasted, so its better to hang it in the store at a cheaper price.

After all, the price of Mirror Force in the store was not low, not all players could afford it. For cost-effective considerations, this card might be wanted by ordinary players right?

Many people may not know it. In the early days of Yu-Gi-Oh DM, the famous Mirror Force in Yugi Mutos hands has evolved into a series after many years of development.

The Mirror Force series was all kinds of Mirror Forces that evolved from the original. Its characteristic was that each card was triggered when the opponent declared an attack.

Because of the Mirror Force, Yuei Vu's card pool naturally has unlocked this series. At these times, he has indeed opened a lot of messy Mirror Forces from the card pool. Although most of them were useless, a few of them were worth investing in.

It's almost dinner time, and the card shop just closed. Most of the noisy screwball players have already left, and Yuei Vu was sitting on the chair behind the counter, swiping the card list for a while.

Coke Sprite, who had no tasks for the time being, stayed quietly aside, peeking at Yuei Vu's card list lying on the counter in a daze (actually browsing the forum).

She couldn't help but think of the scene when Yuei Vu stretched out his hand to pull her up after the KC Grand Prix duel.

How can there be such a beautiful NPC in the world?!

Well, it would be fine if I were that counter.

As the so-called soft seat becomes the hard seat, the hard seat becomes the socket.

Sorry, is anyone there?

Pushing open the door of the Dream Card store, the one who poked his head in from the door was the highly recognizable starfish head, who could be recognized from the crowd across the street at a glance.

Excuse me.

Anzu came in after him.

Chika poked her head out from behind the shelves in the store, and her sight landed on Yugi at first glance.

That hairstyle is he Muto Yugi, another Duel King who is as famous as my Yuei Vu?

Although she was not familiar with him, Chika also had an impression. After all, she has met him more than once.

Hello, Yugi-san. Yuei Vu stood up from behind the counter, Why did you remember to come here today?

It's nothing, I just happened to pass by with Anzu, and I thought Yuei Vu was here, so I wanted to take a look.

Anzu looked around the store: There are no people today, it feels like it was so lively every day before

Because it closed early, Yuei Vu said.

Ah, then will we bother

It's okay. Yuei Vu waved his hand, It happens to be mealtime soon, why don't we just stay and eat together?

Eh? Is it okay? Yugi was a little embarrassed, This doesn't feel good

Chika has already started to tie an apron: I'm going to cook.

Let me help you, Yuei Vu also got up, If there are too many people, it may be more laborious than usual.

Yugi scratched his head embarrassingly: I always think its troublesome

Chikas craftsmanship was needless to say. In particular, she has been practicing diligently recently, actively developing new dishes, and her cooking skills have improved rapidly.

Although Yuei Vu has basically been eating Chikas plain rice since he came to this world, his cooking skills were actually not bad.

The two helpers, Snow Wave and Coke Sprite, were willing to help, but their cooking skills were not very good, and because of the region, they were not very familiar with the kitchen utensils and dishes here, so they couldnt help.

The two tool men watched eagerly from behind, watching Yuei Vu and Chikas division of labor and cooperation, washing and cutting vegetables, and handing kitchen utensils to each other, a word popped out of their heads immediately

Old husband and wife.

Chika-chan is really the heroine!

Coke Sprite has secretly taken screenshots to post on the forum.

Shut up, those weird guys who write BL fanfics about Yuei Vu-san in the forum!

Yuei Vu scooped up a spoonful of miso soup, took a sip, and tasted it: It feels a little bland

Ah, is that so? Chika took the spoon from him, took a spoonful, and tasted it, Hm, you are right. Lets add a little bit

Having said that, Chika froze suddenly, staring at the spoon in her hand, and suddenly thought of something.

Yuei Vu just took a sip with this spoon, and then she drank another spoonful herself. Wasnt this indirectindirect

Chikas movements froze, her little face flushed instantly, and steam started to rise from her head.

Chika?

Yuei Vu looked at her reaction and couldnt help but be puzzled.

Whats the situation?

Usually, its just an increase in favorability, why did she just crash today?

It feels like the problem is getting worse

Yuei Vu is really good. Anzu looked in the direction of the kitchen, He is handsome, he is good at duels, and he is very polite to others

(Mr. Marik showed a disagreement)

Yes. Yugi Muto nodded in agreement, He is indeed a rare good person.

By the way, Yugi, if we have time later, lets learn how to cook together!

Okay! Yugi smiled, Call the other me too. It will be very interesting if everyone learns together!

While speaking, he asked the Yami Yugi in the Millenium Puzzle with his mind: Another me, what do you think?

um, okay.

Although he is not interested in cooking, Yami Yugi would not pour cold water on AIBOs excitement.

Thanks for waiting!

After a while, a large table of delicious dishes came to the table.

It just so happened that the shop manager was away today, so there were only four of them at the dinner table.

However, if the shop manager came back and heard that they have prepared such a luxurious feast, he would surely have to beat his chest.

Its rare to have such a delicious meal, but I havent eaten it yet!

This wave is equal to losing 100 million!

The two guests took a few bites and immediately gave high praise for the level of the dishes on the table.

Anzu expressed that she found it incredible Yuei Vu gave her the feeling that everything was fine.

Even the cooking was so delicious!

However, Yuei Vu was very humble about this and said with a smile that it was all thanks to Chika, and he was just helping her.

Chika still had no expression on her face as usual, but she lowered her head involuntarily, and her little face was also slightly flushed.

I was praised by the person I like.

I feel very happy.

A meal was finished in a harmonious and warm atmosphere.

The two tool men couldnt help with cooking, but they were good at cleaning and washing the dishes. Snow Wave and Coke Sprite almost rushed forward to contract all the follow-up work, wishing they could even lick the entire kitchen.

After eating, Yugi stopped talking for a while, as if he wanted to say something, but he couldnt say it for a long time.

But in the end, he seemed to have finally made up his mind.

That Yuei Vu-san.

Huh?

Yugi raised his head, seriousness written in his big eyes.

Although its a bit sudden, if possible can you duel with me? Right here, right now.

Yuei Vu: !?

Chapter 415: Yugi's Deck

Hearing Yugi's request, Yuei Vu was a little confused for a moment.

To be honest, Yuei Vu has gradually gotten used to this kind of being played cards suddenly. After all, since he became the Duel King, anyone who could play cards would be interested in him.

However, why do you Yugi join them?

You are a Duel King too, aren't you?

And the key issue was that if he played cards with others, he could gain experience and reputation. Therefore, Yuei Vu actually didn't mind playing a few more games.

It's just that if the opponent was Yugi, to be honest, he didn't have much confidence.

At that time, he was able to force a DRAW once thanks to the almighty Ring of Destruction. As the old saying said, In case of indecision, play Ring of Destruction.

But there was another saying that said The same move will not work twice against a Saint. (1). It's the same with the Duel King.

Even if the same method was used, it may not necessarily be effective.

Yugi smiled and said, But this time, it's a little different. This time it's not another me fighting you, but myself.

Yuei Vu gasped.

You come by yourself then the problem is even bigger!

Well, let's have a bargain how about you switch with the Pharaoh?

Thinking about Yugi Muto at the end of Yu-Gi-Oh DM who could even defeat the three Egyptian gods, Yuei Vu felt that he would be more willing to face the Pharaoh's divine draw and BISS.

Yugi, you want to have a duel? Anzu also expressed surprise.

Even Yami Yugi, who shared the same body, was surprised: AIBO, are you going to duel with Yuei Vu-kun?

Yeah. Yugi Muto smiled honestly, It's okay, it's just for fun, a pure entertainment duel. And I don't plan to use our usual deck.

As he said, he took out a deck from somewhere behind him.

Recently, a batch of new cards came into Grandpa's store, and I saw some interested ones, so I took them and made a deck first, thinking that I would take this opportunity to try it out.

I see. Yami Yugi, who was in a spiritual state, nodded his head to express his understanding.

That sounded like a play for fun, it didn't matter if you win or lose.

Although for them, the duel has become a lot heavier since some time ago, and they always have to bear various things in the duel, in essence, this was still a card game.

To play a game was to have fun. Its okay to play a few entertainment duels occasionally regardless of winning or losing.

But why didnt AIBO tell me before Yami Yugi pouted.

Whether his AIBO formed a new deck or prepared to duel with Yuei Vu, he didnt know it at all beforehand.

A new deck of cards

For some reason, Yuei Vu couldnt help feeling a bad premonition when he heard Yugi Muto say this in a harmless tone.

He even felt vaguely and strangely that there seemed to be a big bright red character popping out on his forehead.

Danger!

The duel was finally fought in the store.

They temporarily cleared a space in the basement as a duel arena.

After all, both sides were Duel Kings, and a duel in public will inevitably attract too much attention. Regardless of the outcome, it would definitely be covered by the media afterward, and it may have a huge impact on the dueling world.

Its just a private game of cards between friends, and the parties involved didnt care about the outcome. They didnt want this duel to be complicated by others.

Duel! x2

Yugi, LP 4000

Yuei Vu, LP 4000

Anzu watched from the side, feeling curious in her heart.

In her impression, even she didnt seem to have seen the real Yugi play cards with anyone. After all, whenever a duel was needed, Yami Yugi always played on his behalf.

In fact, she was also curious about what the duel with the real Yugi would be like.

Ill go first, draw! It was Yugi that took the initiative.

I set a monster on the field!

He slapped a card face down on the Duel Disk, and a card appeared horizontally in front of him.

Then set two more cards. Yugi said, My turn is over.

Yuei Vu watched the opponent start with three face-down cards, and he couldnt help but feel the pressure suddenly increase

My turn, draw.

Yuei Vu added the drawn card to his hand and then drew another card on the left.

Im going to summon her first Chocolate Magician Girl!

The magic circle opened, and the cute little magic girl flew out flapping her wings like a devil, smiling slyly and mischievously, the staff waved with star-like fluorescence and landed lightly in front of Yuei Vu.

[Chocolate Magician Girl, ATK 1600]

Magician Girl? Yugi asked.

Because it is a rare chance to have a duel with you, so compared to the hero deck, I still think this kind of relaxed deck is more suitable for the atmosphere.

Oh, thats right. Yugi nodded and smiled to express his understanding.

The effect of the Chocolate Magician Girl. Yuei Vu sent a card from his hand to the graveyard, Once per turn: I can discard 1 Spellcaster-Type monster; draw 1 card.

After drawing the card, Yuei Vu hesitated for a moment and glanced at the two set cards in the back row of Yugi.

There was no response the moment a monster was summoned so maybe it was a trap triggered by the attack declaration?

Battle! Yuei Vu said, Chocolate Magician Girl, attack the set monster!

The chocolate girl yelled Hey, and the magic circle under her feet worked, releasing black magic power that converged on the tip of her staff, and blasted out as a ball of magic power.

The monster on Yugis field flipped under the magic power of agitation. A cute little guy with a snow-white soft body appeared on the field. His seemingly fragile body was surprisingly tough, and he firmly withstood the attack of the Chocolate Magician Girl.

[Marshmallon, DEF 500]

Marshmallons special ability! Yugi said, It will not be destroyed by battle. Moreover, when Marshmallon was attacked, and was face-down at the start of the Damage Step: The attacking player takes 1000 damage!

As soon as the little cotton candy body stopped, the small body full of elastic attributes immediately bounced the magic girls attack back to Yuei Vus face, and exploded with a boom.

Yuei Vu, LP 4000 LP 3000

Yuei Vu raised his arm and took the damage reflected by the effect.

Well, it turns out that the pit is not on the two set cards in the back row, the monster itself is the pit

Then set a card, and I end my turn.

My turn, draw! Yugi said, Activate the Spell Card Spell Books from the Pot. Each player draws 3 cards.

Then summon the Green Gadget in attack position!

A small gear man appeared on the field, the parts on the body rubbed against each other, the gears turned and meshed with each other.

[Green Gadget, ATK 1300]

When Green Gadget is Normal or Special Summoned, add 1 Red Gadget from the deck to the hand.

Yuei Vu looked at the small gear that appeared in front of him.

Gadget series I have a bad feeling.

Then activate the effect of Machina Fortress in the hand! I can discard Machine monster(s) whose total Levels equal 8 or more, then Special Summon this card from my hand or my graveyard!

Yugi revealed two cards from the hand.

I discard level 4 Red Gadget and level 7 Machina Fortress itself! Show up

Machina Fortress!

Chapter 416: Spell Striker OTK!

Appear, Machina Fortress!

The steel was assembled in the air, the metal parts rubbed against each other, and a huge metal creation was assembled. It was loaded with black tracks, long anti-aircraft gun barrels, and anthropomorphic mechanical arms.

Machina Fortress, ATK 2500

Machina Fortress? Yuei Vu narrowed his eyes, A troublesome thing has come out.

Machina Fortress was also a fairly famous card in the real card environment, with excellent performance and great combat capability.

First of all, it could be resurrected from the GY only by discarding Machine monsters whose total Levels equal 8 or more, which meant that it has the ability to come back at any time.

And when it was destroyed by battle, it also had a powerful effect that could destroy a card on the opponents field. When it became the target of the opponents monster effect, its controller could check the opponents hand and discard 1 card from it.

In the original real card environment, this was a common staple card for any deck that used Machine monsters.

But when the Chocolate Magician Girl is attacked, it can revive 1 Spellcaster-Type monster in the GY, and force the attacking monster to change the attack target to it with attack power halved Yugi thought secretly.

Magician Girls Attack Power Halved effect was activated without selecting the target, so Machina Fortress's effect of confirming and discarding the opponents hand could not be triggered.

In addition, when Yuei Vu activated the effect of the Chocolate Magician Girl in the last turn, he discarded a Spellcaster-Type monster from his hand, and it was still unclear what that monster was. If that was another Magician Girl with defensive ability, then the damage may be even greater if Yugi attacked rashly.

But Yugi also had other countermeasures.

I banish the Spell Card Spell Books from the Pot in the GY, and special summon Spell Striker from the hand!

A small warrior wearing a horned hat and a red cloak behind him appeared on the field, with small yellow gloves in his hand, holding a the holy sword of physics?

That thing did look like a crowbar

Spell Striker, ATK 600

The first effect of the Spell Striker is that he can be directly special summoned from the hand by removing 1 Spell Card in my graveyard. Yugi said, Then his second effect is that he can directly attack the opponent player!

So that's how it is. Yuei Vu understood clearly, Do you intend to bypass the Chocolate Magician Girls defense in this way?

And not only that.

Yugi's operation was still going on, and he immediately showed a card from his hand.

Activate Equip Spell Card United We Stand, and equip it to Spell Striker! A green Spell Card appeared in front of Yugi, For each monster on my field, the attack power of the equipped monster will increase by 800!

I now have Marshmallon, Green Gadget, Machina Fortress, and Spell Striker on my field, a total of four. So the attack power increased by 3200!

Spell Striker, ATK 600 ATK 3800

The corner of Yuei Vu's mouth twitched.

Hey, a monster with an attack power of 3800 and be able to jump over monsters and attack directly is it a foul?

Nice move, AIBO! Yami Yugi also said, If the attack passes, it will be an OTK!

Yuei Vu, LP 3000

Go, Spell Striker! Yugi said, Attack Yuei Vu directly!

The effect of the Spell Card concentrated the power of all the monsters in the field on the little magic warrior. The Spell Striker let out a ha and flew into the air with a small jump. The weapon in his hand, which was suspected to be a holy sword of physics, smashed toward Yuei Vu's forehead, with a white light that reminded him of death

Open the set card: Trap Card Half Unbreak! Yuei Vu waved his hand and flipped over the set card, Target 1 monster on the field; this turn, that monster cannot be destroyed by battle, also any battle damage I take from attacks involving that monster is halved.

The target I choose is Spell Striker!

A transparent shield was released from the trap card, protecting the Spell Striker in the middle like a bubble. While the magic warrior gained resistance, his destructive ability was also weakened. When he hit Yuei Vu, his power was not as good as before.

Yuei Vu, LP 3000 LP 1100

Nice, clever use of traps to reduce the damage. Yugi nodded approvingly.

Well, after all, the opponent is Yuei Vu. Yami Yugi also said, Its not an opponent who will be defeated so easily.

Then I end the Battle Phase.

Although Machina Fortress and Green Gadget were still not attacking, Yugi felt that their strength was not enough to break through the magical girls line of defense, so he gave up and didnt continue to fight.

Set a card, I end my turn.

Yuei Vu looked at the new card at Yugis feet and felt that things were getting worse.

In this way, plus the two set cards that did not respond at all in the previous turn, there are a total of three pits in the back row of Yugi.

Honestly speaking, facing these three pits, Yuei Vu still felt quite pressured

However, Yuei Vu somehow felt that this duel was different from what he imagined.

Because it was reasonable to say that Yugi Muto was the strongest duelist in the DM world, and even Yami Yugi, who was almost invincible, lost to him in the end.

Even if it was a duel with the mentality of having fun, Yuei Vu originally felt that he should feel much more pressure than this.

But how to say it?

Although the Spell Striker OTK just now was very powerful, it did not match the level of strength he should have.

As if the current Yugi Muto was lacking something as a duelist.

Its your turn, Yuei Vu. Yugi smiled gently, Go ahead and attack with all your might.

Yuei Vu came back to his senses and stopped thinking about it.

Of course, no matter what, you must focus on the duel first.

At least he had to win the duel before he was qualified to comment on others.

Thats what he said, but the formation on Yugis field was pretty impregnable.

Marshmallon, a powerful stall monster that cannot be destroyed by battles. Machina Fortress, which could take a card to hell with it when it was destroyed, and could also resurrect by itself.

The Spell Striker with an attack power of up to 3800 was also a problem. If there was no way to deal with it in this turn, it could continue to attack directly in the next turn. As long as he was touched even once, Yuei Vu would be finished.

Not to mention there are three pits that make Yuei Vu feel the most threatening

In any case, I still have to draw cards first and then conceive tactics.

My turn, draw! Yuei Vu said, Spell Card Graceful Charity. Draw 3 cards, then discard 2 cards.

Drawing the cards, Yuei Vu glanced at the cards in his hand, and his eyes moved.

The Winning Formula is complete!

Chapter 417: Arms Regeneration

Seeing the cards drawn, a complete set of ideas quickly formed in Yuei Vu's mind.

The layout has been completed, and now it's time to prepare for the counterattack!

I summon Berry Magician Girl in attack position!

A crystal-clear and transparent magic circle emerged, and a magic girl with a pacifier flapped her wings and flew out of it, twirling lightly like a little butterfly.

[Berry Magician Girl, ATK 400]

The effect of the Berry Magician Girl! Yuei Vu said, If this card is Normal Summoned: I can add 1 Magician Girl monster from my Deck to my hand!

That can't be done!

With a wave of Yugi's arm, a set card in front of him was immediately opened.

Open the set card: Trap Card Spellbinding Illusion! Yugi said, Decrease the attack power of Berry Magician Girl by 500, and her effect will be negated!

But the moment you selected Berry Magician Girl as the target, another effect of her was also triggered! Yuei Vu said, When this card becomes the target of the opponent's card effect, I can change this card's battle position, and Special Summon 1 Magician Girl monster from my Deck.

Bring it on! Special summon from the deck Dark Magician Girl!

Another magic circle unscrewed in front of the berry girl. The girl's blond hair fluttered, her bumpy figure was tightly wrapped by a cool spell outfit, her legs were slender and white, and she flew out of the brand-new magic circle onto the field lightly.

[Dark Magician Girl, ATK 2000]

However, after the second effect of the Berry Magician Girl is resolved, the effect of Fantasy's Curse is processed next. Yugi said, The effect of adding 1 Magician Girl monster from the deck to the hand is negated.

I know. Yuei Vu then showed a card in his hand, Then I will activate a Spell Card from the hand next Dark Burning Attack!

Ah! Yugi said, The strongest magic mastered by the Dark Magician Girl!

The Dark Magician Girl was also one of Muto Yugi's signature monsters, so he naturally knew her abilities very well.

That's right. The pattern of the Spell Card appeared in front of Yuei Vu, When there is a Dark Magician Girl on my field, all face-up monsters on the opponent's field will be destroyed!

A large amount of magic power was released from the projected Spell Card, which flowed into the staff in the hands of the Dark Magician Girl like a torrential river.

The Dark Magician Girls staff swung down, and dark waves surged out, engulfing all the monsters in the entire arena like a flood that destroyed the world.

Marshmallon which could not be destroyed by battle, the powerful mechanical weapon Machina Fortress, and a Spell Striker whose attack power has been strengthened to the level of Obelisk

All these monsters on Yugi's field were wiped out by the full-power blow of the Dark Magician Girl.

And Machina Fortress must be destroyed by battle to destroy a card on the opponent's field, but now it was destroyed by a card effect, so this powerful last will effect could not be triggered.

Oops. From the onlookers' seats, Anzu was a little worried about her companion, Now Yugi's field is empty

But it was not so easy to break through Yugi's defense line. He raised his arm to block the impact in front of him, then waved his hand and flipped over another set card: Continuous Trap Mirage Ruler!

During the opponent's turn, it can be activated when all monsters I control were destroyed by the opponent's cards. I can send this face-up card to the Graveyard to return all of my monsters that were destroyed this turn to the field, after that I lose 1000 LP! (animation card)

He pointed to the ground in front of him.

Come back, my monsters!

Four pitch-black vortexes opened at the same time, and the four monsters, Marshmallon, Green Gadget, Machina Fortress, and Spell Striker, all returned to the field in one breath.

It was as if the scene where all the monsters were wiped out just now was a mirage.

No, Yugi also took advantage of this opportunity to change Green Gadget from the attack position to the defense position. In this way, Yuei Vu couldn't cause a lot of damage to Yugi through the Green Gadget with low attack power.

[Yugi, LP 4000 LP 3000]

However, when the equipped monster is destroyed, my Equip Spell Card United We Stand is also destroyed. Yugi said, So the attack power of the Spell Striker returns to its original state.

[Spell Striker, ATK 600]

It's just that the Spell Striker has a third effect. I take no battle damage from attacks involving this card. Yugi smiled, So if you want to take this opportunity to choose him as a breakthrough, it might not be possible.

Yuei Vu nodded, expressing his understanding.

Of course, he knew about this effect, but he didn't expect Yugi to explain it before the Battle Phase.

Generally speaking, neither dueling party in this world could check the effects of each other's cards, nor was there any obligation to tell each other all the effects at once.

In fact, Yugi could have waited for Yuei Vu to declare an attack, wasting an attack opportunity, and then told him the third effect of the Spell Striker.

Then I'm going to activate a Spell Card from my hand Arms Regeneration! (Manga card)

Arms Regeneration!?! Yugi was startled.

He also had this card in fact, this card was first used in the manga by Yugi himself.

Arms Regeneration allows me to choose 1 Equip Spell in either GY; either Set it to my field or equip it to an appropriate monster I control.

Yuei Vu raised his hand and pointed at the chocolate girl beside him: According to this effect, I will equip the United We Stand in your graveyard to the Chocolate Magician Girl!

The magic was activated, and the image of a card flew out of Yugi's GY area and was projected onto Yuei Vu's field.

The power of the three magical girls superimposed, turning into magic power visible to the naked eye and pouring into the chocolate girl.

The effect of the United We Stand For each monster on my field, the attack power of the equipped target increases by 800. Yuei Vu said, I have Chocolate Magician Girl, Berry Magician Girl, and Dark Magician Girl on the field, so Chocolate Magician Girl gains 2400 ATK!

[Chocolate Magician Girl, ATK 1600 ATK 4000]

The attack power is 4000 Yugi said, Then open the set card: Quick-Play Spell Forbidden Lance! Target a monster on the field, and reduce its attack power by 800 points, but in exchange, until the end of this turn, that target is unaffected by the effects of Spells/Traps other than this card!

He pointed to the magical girl on Yuei Vu's field.

Im going to choose the Chocolate Magician Girl!

In the Duel Monster card game, unaffected by card effects was generally quite a strong resistance, but sometimes it could become a double-edged sword.

For example, now the chocolate girl who was protected by the Forbidden Lance and has gained absolute resistance, but at the same time couldnt accept the enhancement brought about by the Equip Spell United We Stand.

[Chocolate Magician Girl, ATK 4000 ATK 800]

It was indeed a beautiful treatment to flexibly use the superimposed resistance of the Forbidden Lance to prevent the boost effect of United We Stand.

But at this moment, Yugi suddenly thought of a problem

Why did Yuei Vu use Arms Regeneration to take away the United We Stand from my graveyard, and equip it on the Chocolate Magician Girl instead of the Dark Magician Girl who had higher attack power?

Could it be that he had already figured out that there was a Forbidden Lance or other similar cards in my back row?

Or does he have any special intentions?

Chapter 418: Star Blast

Activate Trap Card from the hand Collected Power! A red trap card appeared in front of Yuei Vu.

Yugi was surprised: Launch a Trap Card from your hand!?

At the beginning of this turn, among the two cards I discarded through Graceful Charity, there is this card.

As Yuei Vu said, a card in the GY area has popped out. A hideous phantom appeared behind him, it was the image of a monster with one eye and sharp claws like steel knives.

Makyura the Destructor!

It was also a gift from Mr. Marik, the BOSS of Battle City arc and Chairman of Ghouls International Express Company.

During the turn this card is sent to the Graveyard, the owner of this card can activate Trap Cards from his/her hand. (Old version effect)

Yuei Vu said: Collected Powers effect! Target 1 face-up monster on the field; equip it with all Equip Cards on the field.

Yuei Vu pointed to the lovely girl with smooth blond hair in front of her.

So I transferred the Equip Spell United We Stand to Dark Magician Girl! According to the effect of United We Stand, the attack power of Dark Magician Girl has increased by 2400!

The power of unity flew out of Chocolate Magician Girl. Then the powers of the three magic girls were all superimposed on Dark Magician Girl, and powerful magic power poured into the girls body continuously.

Dark Magician Girl, ATK 2000 ATK 4400

Dark Magician Girl held her head high, with a small oblate staff across her chest, with a proud expression on her face.

Now the girl felt that she could even beat Obelisk the Tormentor!

Attack power 4400 Yugi was surprised, Did you actually plan to transfer the United We Stand to Dark Magician Girl from the beginning?

His three set cards have all been consumed, but even so, his defense line on the field was not so easy to break through.

Marshmallon and Green Gadget were both in the defense position, even if they are attacked, that would not cause damage. Spell Strikernitself had the effect of making the controller take no battle damage from attacks involving it.

The only attack target that Yuei Vu could use to cause damage to him was Machina Fortress. But Machina Fortress had an attack power of 2500, even if it was attacked, that battle only caused 1900 damage. Yugi had a very sufficient LP of 3000 points, which could completely withstand this attack.

Moreover, if Machina Fortress was destroyed by battle, Yugi could in turn use its effect to destroy a card on the field. In the next turn, as long as there were Machine monsters whose total Levels equal 8 or more in his hand, Machina Fortress could be revived.

In this way, it was really hard to choose the attack target.

Unexpectedly, Yuei Vu did not declare to enter the Battle Phase but continued to show a card.

Activate the Spell Card from the hand Star Blast! The card appeared in front of Yuei Vu, Pay any number of Life Points in multiples of 500; reduce the Level of 1 monster I control or that is in my hand by 1 for each 500 Life Points I paid, until the End Phase!

He pointed to Dark Magician Girl in front of him.

I will pay 1000 LP to lower the level of Dark Magician Girl by two!

Yuei Vu, LP 1100 LP 100

Dark Magician Girl let out an ah, and the two stars on her card disappeared with the explosion effect of boom. She was downgraded from a six-star high-level monster to a level four monster.

Dark Magician Girl blinked her big eyes, her face full of doubts.

Lowered my level what is Master doing?

Yugi was also surprised: You dont hesitate to pay LP so that you only have 100 left to drop the level of Dark Magician Girl?

In his opinion, shouldnt Star Blast be used to lower the level of the monsters in the hand and reduce the number of sacrifices required for summoning?

Whats the point of lowering the level of monsters on the field?

But he quickly understood just after the next card appeared in front of Yuei Vu.

Continuous Spell Infected Mail! Yuei Vu said, Once per turn, I can target 1 Level 4 or lower monster I control. Only in this turn, the targeted monster can attack the opponent directly!

Huh!? Yugi was shocked.

Dark Magician Girl looked at this card, stunned for a while, then looked at her level, and it took her a long time to realize it.

Level 4 monster

Ah!

Master is talking about me!

Thats it! Yugi suddenly understood, Thats why you equipped the United We Stand to Chocolate Magician Girl

Because the Chocolate Magical Girl was Level 4 herself. If the chocolate girl hadnt eaten a Forbidden Lance, Yuei Vu could directly launch the Infected Mail and let the chocolate girl with 4000 ATK attack directly.

I use the effect of Infected Mail! Yuei Vu pointed to Dark Magician Girl, The target is Dark Magician Girl!

Dark Magician Girl, ATK 4400

Attack power 4400 and it can directly attack the opposing player! Yugi was surprised, Its amazing!

As expected of Yuei Vu. Yami Yugi, who was watching the battle in the front row in a ghost state, also nodded, He actually came up with such a killer combo.

That's what he said, but Yami Yugi silently glanced at the Kuriboh in AIBO's hand, and wasn't worried about him

Dark Magician Girl held her breath, clenched her small staff tightly, and puffed out her swollen chest.

Attack power 4400, and can attack directly!

I can take the head this time!

However, at the moment when the girl held her breath and concentrated her attention, she couldn't wait to step forward to make a move, but suddenly found that the huge power in her body seemed to have disappeared.

The United We Stand card disappeared from the field, and all the three-dimensional images of the Berry Magician Girl and Chocolate Magician Girl beside him disappeared.

When she came back to her senses, the girl found that she had also become the ghost state of a spirit and disappeared from the duel field.

Yuei Vu did not order her to launch the final blow, but turned off the Duel Disk to terminate the duel.

Dark Magician Girl blinked her beautiful big eyes, with question marks written all over her head.

Eh!?

Obviously, as long as you let me attack, you will win. Why didn't Master stop fighting?

The onlookers also had question marks above their heads.

In their view, it seemed that Yuei Vu's victory in this duel was basically a certainty.

The three pits in the back row of Yugi were all stepped on, and the monsters on the field have no ability to resist this direct attack. A direct attack with an attack power of more than 4000 was a sure-win blow, right?

Yugi was also puzzled: Yuei Vu, why?

Because I think it's almost enough. Yuei Vu shrugged, How should I put it, I always feel that Mr. Yugi, you didn't show your full strength.

No, I'm playing very seriously. Yugi said seriously, After all, this is the only way to respect you, Yuei Vu, as a duelist.

It's not that you don't respect me, Yuei Vu smiled and changed his words a little bit, It feels a little different from what you said. And your deck has not yet been completed, right?

Yugi was taken aback for a moment and smiled a little embarrassedly.

You see it?

I can see it a little bit.

Well, this is the first time I want to try to build a deck alone without relying on the power of another me. Yugi said, But because I saw a lot of cards and wanted to put them in, some cards that I thought might be useful were not available. Add it in In short, its a relatively casual deck at the moment, but I did my best to form it

All right.

Yuei Vu probably understood.

Yugi is using me as a sandbag, trying to test a new deck

Also. Yuei Vu said, Just now I equipped the United We Stand to Chocolate Magician Girl, and you used the Forbidden Lance on the Chocolate Magician Girl so that the chocolate girl become unable to accept the effect of United We Stand

It is indeed a beautiful operation. But dont you think the timing was a little rushed?

Yugi recalled the duel just now, and nodded: Indeed. If I hadnt activated the Forbidden Lance at that time, you would have activated the Infected Mail next, and chose to let the level 4 Chocolate Magician Girl gain the ability to attack directly during this turn Thats right. Yuei Vu nodded, If you use the Forbidden Lance again at this moment, then according to the effect of Forbidden Lance, Chocolate Magician Girl can accept neither the boost of United We Stand nor the effect of Infected Mail.

Next, I will not be able to make a Dark Magician Girl with 4400 attack power and be able to direct attack.

Ah, that may indeed be because I didnt think carefully enough. Yugi was stunned, smiled, and touched his head, Thank you, Yuei Vu. It seems that I still have a lot to improve

Did Yugi really fail to think of this step?

Actually, Yuei Vu didnt think so. He was more inclined to think that Yugi may not think so seriously.

This was why he felt that it didnt make much sense to continue playing this game. Because from the beginning of this duel, Yugi Muto had no intention of winning.

Or to put it more accurately, it should be said no particular desire to win.

This made Yuei Vu feel that dueling with the current Yugi Muto lack of confrontation between duelists.

In fact, although Yugi Muto has not surpassed the Pharaoh for the time being, it was close to the critical period of complete transformation.

Although he was still confused, he already thought that he could no longer rely on Yami Yugis power.

After all, they would be separated soon.

Perhaps the boy felt that if he couldnt handle himself until the moment of separation, and if he was a coward who always hid behind his other self for safety when he was in trouble, then the other party would be very worried when it was time to part?

In that case, no matter what, there was no way for his other self to rest in peace.

In fact, even if he has not yet completed his transformation and was still in a state of confusion, his strength was not weak at all, and his talent in duels was quite amazing.

However, he lacked one crucial thing compared to most duelists.

That was the desire for victory.

In fact, this has something to do with the character of the game itself. He has a docile personality, and he didn't like to compete with others since he was a child. Although he was very talented in various games, the most important thing for him was to have fun. He has never developed a strong competitive spirit in any game.

Because of the lack of desire for victory, he has always held an indifferent attitude towards the outcome of the duel, so throughout the whole play of DM, everyone thought that Yugi Muto was just the Pharaoh's host.

It was precisely because of this that when the boy suddenly had a reason to have to win and had no choice but to pick up the Duel Disk and fight in person, everyone including the great evil god Zorc and even the little friends around him were surprised found out

It turns out that he has always been so strong!

The two of them put the outcome of this duel on hold for the time being and did not get entangled. Maybe when Yugi Muto was really in charge and shouldered the title of Duel King in person, they would continue.

After bidding farewell to the two, and watching Yugi and Anzu leave under the night, Yusei Fudo had a premonition that that day might not be too far away.

Soon, Yugi Muto would usher in a transformation, becoming the pinnacle of the dueling world and truly worthy of the title of Duel King.

There was a saying that said, A man will become stronger for his important people.

Exactly the same for Yugi Muto.

He who originally had no passion for victory, no interest in the game of supremacy and power, would soon find a reason to have to win.

That was the bond between him and Yami Yugi.

After all, when Yami Yugi left this world and took away all traces of him left in this world, the last legacy he could leave to Yugi Muto was the title of Duel King that they won together.

Because he wanted to defend the name Duel King that Yami Yugi left to him, he had to win, and he would always have to win.

Only at that time, the juvenile Yugi Muto would truly grow into what he should be and become the invincible Duel King.

Chapter 419: The Most Important Thing Is Persistence

Huh~huh

Tilla's fair face was flushed red, and she was panting for breath as if she had fought with someone for 300 rounds just now. Her large breasts were tightly wrapped in the slightly smaller maid outfit, rising and falling with her breathing.

The white face was covered with beads of sweat, drop by drop like crystal clear morning dew. She smiled obsequiously, and asked softly, Master, look at what I did; it's alright?

Yuei Vu's expression remained unchanged: Aren't you a vampire? Can a little cleaning chore make you breathe like this?

Tilla blushed and looked embarrassed: Isn't it because I work harder for Master Yuei Vu?

Yuei Vu squinted at her.

Heh, woman, you are so calculating, you actually want to affect the speed of my card draw.

Do you think I cannot see through your little trick?

Fortunately, our Yuei Vu was the Duel King. Just like the sword masters in martial art novels all had a solid sword heart and could concentrate on the way of swordsmanship without distraction, Yuei Vu said that his card heart was also stable, and tricks of this level would not work against him at all.

It has not been a day or two since Yuei Vu has a high charisma value, and he has long been used to the fact that someone was greedy for his body.

Master Yuei Vu, I'm done with hygiene.

Tilla tugged at the hem of the snow-white skirt, her white thighs were tightly closed, and her face was full of the image of a well-behaved and sensible little maid.

Yuei Vu said that if he hadn't seen her have wild parties with a group of muscular guys every time he went to the association, he would have been really fooled by this pure appearance.

Yuei Vu waved her off casually: Go squeeze me a glass of juice first.

Okay, Mr. Yuei Vu.

Tilla walked away with her skirt in her hands.

President Kaiba gave the manor a complete set of facilities and supplies, including a juicer. After a while, Tilla came back with a glass of freshly squeezed watermelon juice.

Yuei Vu took a sip from the cup while browsing the forum. While drinking, Tilla suddenly asked cautiously from the side: Master Yuei Vu, do you need me to warm the bath water for you first?

Ha?

Yuei Vu looked at her, and found that the vampire had an innocent face again, with an expression of pity for me.

No need. Yuei Vu waved his hand, You can just go back to your room if you have nothing to do. You can arrange your own time when you have no tasks, and you don't need to run back and forth next to me.

But this is my job. Tilla blinked, I lost to you in the Shadow Game.

According to the rules of the game, my body has already belonged to you. It is my duty to serve attentively

To be honest, she didnt pay much attention to Yuei Vu when they first met.

At that time, in her opinion, Yuei Vu was just a young duelist who was not bad at dueling. The most profound impression left on her was not his superb skills, but his handsome appearance.

Even though she has lived for a long time and seen countless people, she has almost never seen such a good-looking person!

When she was defeated by Yuei Vu and lost the bet, she was actually very unwilling.

The rule she set before the Shadow Game was that she wanted the opponents body. The result of the duel was that she lost. Although she had to obey Yuei Vu according to the rules, Yuei Vu himself didnt seem to take this bet seriously at all.

Actually, if Tilla didnt take the initiative to bring this up, after that duel, Yuei Vu didnt mind letting her go, the bet would be the same as nothing.

But she didnt.

She just wanted to take the initiative to come up and give her body for free.

Since Yuei Vu became the Battle City Champion, won the title of Duel King, and gained supreme status in the world, Tilla was no longer as unwilling as when she was just defeated.

She even felt a little lucky?

Losing to the Duel King, thats no shame!

It might even be better to say that she felt that this was one of the greatest opportunities she had ever encountered in her life!

Can ordinary people get this kind of opportunity to stay beside the Duel King confidently?

And he is such a good-looking Duel King!

If this wave is successful in vain, then I will earn a lot of blood!

What if one day in the future, my sincerity can touch his heart, and Master Yuei Vu allows me to sleep with him?

well, it might be a long way.

At least from Yuei Vus attitude, it was unlikely that this goal would come true in the short term.

But she would not give up trying to achieve this goal.

People always had to pursue some ideals.

Vampires were no different too.

Tilla looked at Yuei Vu drinking the juice, hesitated for a while, and spoke.

ThatMaster Yuei Vu. After taking a shower, do you need to be served in bed?

Yuei Vu choked on the spot.

God damn

Yuei Vu gave her a blank look and found that Tillas eyes were wide open innocently, as if what she just said was not what she said.

Yuei Vus face darkened: You are so energetic that theres nowhere to release it, arent you? Want to exercise again, dont you?

Tillas delicate body shook, and she suddenly became frightened.

At that moment, the vampire recalled the fear of being dominated by running circles

Then If Master Yuei Vu doesnt need me, Ill go back to the room first Tilla said, smiling, and exited the room.

This matter, of course, could not be called counseling.

This was called a tactical retreat!

Vampires were not reckless creatures. Waiting for opportunities and looking for flaws, was the correct posture!

The most important thing is persistence.

Watching Tilla finally return to the room obediently, Yuei Vu rubbed his temples, feeling a little headache.

Having an eye-catching maid who took care of your every need, was pretty good overall.

Its just that this maid was a little too proactive, and she always thought of giving her body for free all day long.

Without my higher ranking, knowledge, and strong concentration, I might have fallen for her honey trap.

President Kaiba was busy with various company affairs these days and seemed so busy that he didnt even have time to drink water, but he hasnt asked Yuei Vu for anything for the time being.

Even if a person didnt have any internal channels, they could see the current situation of Kaiba Corp just from newspapers.

For example, the biggest move recently was that the Kaiba Corp acquired most of the departments of the Schroeder Corp, which mainly focus on duel monsters.

After this month, the Schroeder Corp basically ceased to exist. They could hang a KC sign on the top floor of the companys headquarters building to announce the change of ownership.

Siegfried also exited the stage tragically. After the final struggle, this declining nobleman finally failed to stand up in front of the behemoth Kaiba Corp. Instead, he was pushed into a more irreversible situation and withdrew from the stage of history.

At the same time, there was news that Kaiba Corp was developing a new generation of Duel Disks.

Internal sources revealed that the new Duel Disk being developed by Kaiba Corp was of great significance across the ages. It would completely eliminate the previous models and bring duelists a new experience that they have never imagined.

Of course, no one knew the progress of this project better than Yuei Vu.

Because after the battle with Paradox, Yuei Vu handed over the collected Duel Disk to President Kaiba, asking him to design a new Duel Disk according to the structure of the future Duel Disk.

Soon, a new generation of Duel Disks should be released. Yuei Vu has no doubt that by then, Kaiba Corp will definitely surprise everyone again.

Before that, Kaiba had one more thing to do these days.

Earlier today, through the personnel information database of the Kaiba Corp, he found the home address of the runner-up of the KC Grand Prix, Yuki Judai.

Chapter 420: The Man Who Would Be Duel King

On Friday night, at Judais home.

Okay, so the next thing is about this weeks duel consultation.

The TV in the living room was currently playing a special program of dueling monsters. In the picture, it happened that a beautiful woman was interviewing Yuei Vu with a microphone.

Ah! Its Brother Yuei Vu!

Little Judai, who was running around the sofa with two Elemental HERO dolls in his hands, quickly dropped the toys and rushed to the TV, his eyes gleaming.

At this time, the beautiful reporter was asking: Many people are concerned about the situation of the new generation of Duel Disks that Kaiba Corp is preparing. Some people think that President Seto Kaiba wants to encourage everyone to buy new models of Duel Disks and eliminate the old version. Some effects processing may no longer support the old Duel Disks.

Could you please tell me if these are true?

First of all, Im just an honorary consultant of Kaiba Corp, and I cant say clearly about this.

Yuei Vu felt helpless because everyone always liked to ask him questions about Kaiba Corp. However, he still said: However, in my personal opinion, the old model should not be affected in the short term. But for any game, version update and system upgrade is an inevitable trend, and everyone must be prepared.

OK, I think we get it.

The reporter smiled strangely and blinked at Yuei Vu as if hinting at something.

One more question. Some people say that you have an unusual relationship with President Seto Kaiba the kind that goes beyond ordinary friendship. Do you have anything to say about that?

Yuei Vu:

After pondering for a moment, he raised his head and showed a gentle and friendly smile.

Then I can only say to that person He chuckled softly, The ones who like to talk nonsense are unlikely to have a long life.

Ahem, hahaha, Mr. Yuei Vu, you are so humorous

At this moment, Judais mother also appeared, still wearing the apron from the kitchen. She glanced at the TV screen: Hey, its the Duel King Yuei Vu! He fought with our Judai in the previous competition!

Really! Judais dad who has never had a chance to show his face throughout the anime series also appeared.

Young and powerful Duel King, capable and handsome, Ive already become a fan of him. Judais mother showed the expression of a fan girl.

Judais father (releasing resentment vaguely): Ah? Then who is better, him or me?

Judais mother smiled like a spring breeze: Does it need to be said? Compared with the father who cant even win a duel with his son, and said that he is ready to prepare for the whole process of video recording and the camera runs out of power at the critical moment, Yuei Vu must be better!

Judais father (withstanding 10,000 points of critical damage):

Ding Dong! The doorbell rang.

Coming!

Judais mother came to the door quickly, and opened the door with a smile: Hello, who are you looking for?

When seeing the appearance of the person outside the door, the expression of Judais mother seemed to freeze for an instant.

Yuei Vu smiled and raised his hand: Hello, I am

Clunk!

Yuei Vu looked at the door closed by the speed of light in front of him, and couldnt help but pause in embarrassment.

Ah, this

Is my Charisma 95 useless?

This reaction is like seeing a bedbug in the toilet

After a while, the door reopened.

Judais mother tried her best to apologize, she was so shocked to say Im sorry, I didnt expect the Duel King from Kaiba Corp to come to our house or something.

Yuei Vu said with a smile Its okay and understandable, and at the same time emphasized euphemistically, saying that he was not from Kaiba Corp

After entering the door, Judai was the happiest.

Brother Yuei Vu has come to my house!

Little Judai couldnt help but wanted to run to the neighbors house to show off with his brother who usually played cards with him, saying that Brother Yuei Vu was at my house!

Yuei Vu came here this time for two reasons. First, she was curious to meet the parents of the Judai who didnt get the chance to appear in the anime until the end. Second, he wanted to play the role of a grandmaster who told the parent Your child's bones are exquisite, why not come and learn how to play cards with me

Although Yuei Vu has also taken a fancy to other tool people who were going to be trained, none of them was as valuable as Judai.

Especially after seeing Yuki Judai from the future, Yuei Vu has already made up his mind. No one could stop his determination to accept Little Judai as his personal disciple

After all, he was the protagonist of the next version of Link World, and he was destined to achieve extraordinary things. In the case of Judai, it may be some kind of innate card player physique in Xianxia novels, which belongs to the kind of genius that made all sects want to get their hands on.

Originally, Yuei Vu was thinking that it might take a lot of talking to fool Little Judai's parents into letting the boy follow him.

After all, although the dueling monster world was developing very fast, it was far from reaching the height of later generations.

Some people were still questioning, if the Duel Academy planned by Kaiba Corp was really established, would all the students be waste who could only play cards and make no contribution to society?

Some people also began to realize that Duel Monsters may not just be a game, there may be huge dangers lurking in this process.

Playing cards? It was really possible to kill someone.

Whether it was out of consideration for the child's future choice of path or concern for his son's safety, Judai's parents may refuse to let him take this path.

In order to convince them, Yuei Vu prepared a draft before coming. From the bright future that playing cards could bring to the great contribution that playing cards could make to society and all mankind. In short, he was going to trick the two parents into agreeing that following him was the best way for Judai.

However, in the end, he found that these preparations were superfluous.

Because since he said, Your child's bones are exquisite, he is a one-of-a-kind card player prodigy, these two have not listened to him.

Judai's mother: As expected of our son!

Judai's father: It should be thanks to you, honey! He must have inherited your excellent genes!

Judai's mother: Darling, you are also very good! He is the crystallization of our love!

The husband and wife crossed their fingers together, their eyes met and their hearts were connected.

Honey!

Darling!

A passerby with the Yu- prefix who suddenly got fed with dog food:

Although he has never seen Judai's parents in the animation, Yuei Vu seemed to be able to understand what kind of family could nurture such an optimist

Yuei Vu coughed: Of course, we still have to ask Judai for his own opinion on such matters.

Oh, Judai will definitely agree. Judai's mother smiled, After coming back from the KC Grand Prix, Judai even calls Brother Yuei Vu's name in his dreams at night.

Little Judai nodded vigorously: I am willing!

Yuei Vu bent down: Have you really thought about it? Follow me to learn dueling, but it will be very strict~

Strict in every sense.

Little Judai didn't hesitate at all: Yes! I've decided! After all, I am the man who would be Duel King!

Oh? Yuei Vu smiled and rubbed his little jellyfish head, Then you have to work hard.
