

I Play Yu-Gi 441

Chapter 441: Burning Deck

Seto Kaiba won!

As I said, after all, its only a duelist of this level. Kaiba hugged his arms and pulled them up again, Although according to ordinary standards, it may not be bad.

But against one of the strongest duelists on Earth its not enough!

In the middle of the presidents arrogant speech, it seemed that his eyes intentionally or unintentionally caught sight of Yuei Vu who was rubbing Mokubas head watching the battle. Maybe he thought about it a little bit, and finally added one of before the strongest duelists on Earth

The defeated Egawa still didnt have much reaction. He quickly got up, came to the officer, and bowed slightly: Sorry.

Fujino frowned, didnt speak, only waved his hand to signal him to back off.

Although disappointing, it was not a very surprising result. After all, the opponent was Seto Kaiba, the pillar of the dueling world so far, and it was normal that his soldier could not beat him.

Another soldier beside him, Ueno, who was silent the whole time like a wooden man, also stepped forward at this time.

You won the first game, and we were convinced to lose. Fujino said, But according to the agreement, we still have one more match.

However, I suggest that your company should also make substitutions. The body of an ordinary person may not be able to bear two consecutive battles at this level

It doesnt matter! Kaiba dismissed, No matter how many opponents of this level come, the result will be the same!

Thats what he said, but the card game just now should have consumed a lot of energy for him.

The enhanced sense of touch that exceeded the safe value was not something that anyone can bear for a long time. If it werent for the presidents physical strength, which was different from ordinary people, and his amazing stamina, he might not even be able to withstand a single blow.

But even with his ability, it must be a heavy burden on the body.

Its just a friendly competition, President Kaiba, and we dont want anyone to be injured in the process. Fujino said, Originally, we came here for the opportunity to fight against various strong players, but its not that we have certain You have to compete.

If possible, we also hope to have the opportunity to experience the strength of the Duel King of your company, Mr. Yuei Vu.

The first reaction of Yuei Vu, who was suddenly mentioned at the side, was to emphasize that he was actually just a consultant, not strictly a member of Kaiba Corp at least not completely countedshould be

But he still stood up: Leave the next game to me, President Kaiba.

Kaiba squinted his eyes and looked at him for a while, with that expression and eyes, for a moment Yuei Vu even thought he would say, Do you want to grab my chance to play cards?

But in fact, Kaiba didnt say anything.

He just snorted heavily, flung off his windbreaker, turned around, and backed away.

Thats up to you. He said coldly, But if you embarrass the company, you can pack up and leave after today.

Yuei Vu knew that this was probably not a joke.

In case of losing, the favorability accumulated so far with President Kaiba can be lost in one go

If it was Yugi here, the president might have simply refused.

However, the president may have changed his mind, considering that although Yuei Vu is the king of duels, his subordinates are not considered outsiders, so he agreed.

So Yuei Vu switched to the field and stood in front of the second duelist from the military.

Duel! x2

Yuei Vu, LP 4000

Ueno, LP 4000

Although the opponent was the famous Duel King, Officer Fujino still maintained a smile as if he was quite confident in his subordinates.

In fact, he was indeed very optimistic about Ueno.

Because this duelist named Ueno was the strongest and best duelist they have trained in Department D!

Even Egawa, who was very strong with the Umi deck, had more losses than wins in front of him.

And after Yuei Vu watched the duel just now, he didnt underestimate the two soldiers from the military at this time.

From the duel between Egawa and Kaiba, it was not difficult to see that these duelists specially trained by the military may really have some tricks. Its just that they didnt participate in regular competitions, hasnt shown their faces in the duel world, and have never made a public move, so their reputation was not prominent.

Not to mention, they still have cards independently developed by the military.

Yuei Vu looked vigilantly at the uniformed, expressionless soldier in front of him.

What kind of tactics will this guy use to attack?

Is it still a water-based deck? Or something else?

Ill go first, draw.

Ueno took the initiative and soon revealed the answer to Yuei Vu.

Activate Continuous Spell Volcanic Wall. A card appeared in front of Ueno, and said lightly, Once per turn, I can send the top 3 cards of my Deck to the Graveyard to inflict 500 damage to the opponent for each Pyro-Type monster sent to the Graveyard this way. (Animation card)

Yuei Vu eyelids twitched.

Is it actually a Volcanic deck?

Its a little bit troublesome now

Ueno turned over three cards and showed them: Among the three cards I sent to GY, there is 1 Pyro-Type monster, Volcanic Scattershot. According to the effect of Volcanic Wall, it will deal 500 points of damage!

Flames roiled on the Continuous Spell card, and a burning light bullet shot out, hitting Yuei Vu head-on, and exploding with a bang.

Yuei Vu, LP 4000 LP 3500

Yuei Vu, who was facing the impact of the flames, raised his arms to protect his face, his body swayed involuntarily, feeling a scorching impact throughout his body.

It really was an extraordinary virtual touch, and the real sense of impact seemed to be enough to compare with some low-level Shadow Games.

Then there is the effect of the Volcanic Scattershot. Ueno continued, When this card is sent to the graveyard, it will inflict 500 points of damage to the opponent!

The phantom of Volcanic Scattershot emerged, and the entire image was blazing, blasting straight like a cannonball. Yuei Vu raised his arm, and the shell happened to explode at the dueling disk on his arm, turning into a billowing fireball and black smoke.

Yuei Vu, LP 3500 LP 3000

Its just that I cant declare an attack the turn I use the effect of Volcano Wall, Ueno said lightly.

Thats what you said, but you shouldnt be able to attack in the first turn anyway. Yuei Vu was helpless.

Mokuba tugged at his brothers clothes: Brother! This deck can cause a lot of damage without attacking!

Kaiba frowned and didnt speak.

But Ueno still didnt stop: Summon the Volcanic Slicer in attack position!

A green dragon-shaped creature appeared on the field, its body seemed to be covered with a layer of natural armor, as strong as a rock.

[Volcanic Slicer, ATK 1800]

The effect of the Volcanic Slicer! Ueno said, Once per turn, by giving up the chance to attack this turn as the price, it can deal 500 points of damage to the opponent!

The Volcanic Slicer opened its mouth wide, and a ball of high-heat fireball spewed out! The dazzling flame dragged out a clear trajectory and blasted Yuei Vu head-on, the tumbling flames seemed to distort the air.

Yuei Vu, LP 3000 LP 2500

Mokuba said in surprise: 1500 damage just in the first turn!

Set three cards, I end my turn, Ueno said lightly.

Chapter 442: Effect Damage

Yuei Vu, LP 2500

The opponent came up with 1500 damage, which was still very painful for an environment in which the total LP was only 4000.

The Volcanic deck was also a well-known deck back then, and it was relatively well-known both in reality and in animation. This deck appeared in Yu-Gi-Oh GX, and the user was Austin O'Brien, a reliable teammate of the protagonist group in the entire GX series.

As the owner of the Volcanic deck, O'Brien was given enough screen time in the animation. When first fought against Yuki Judai, if it wasn't for his mission, he might have won the first battle against Yuki Judai.

Later, Judai was swallowed by the darkness in his heart and transformed into the invincible Supreme King. In the end, O'Brien stood up and tried his best to die with Supreme King, liberating Judai from the darkness in his heart.

Although O'Brien didn't play many matches, and the Volcanic deck has very few opportunities to appear in the animation, the only record was enough to be proud of.

Yuei Vu just didn't know how much strength this duelist from Department D could display.

It's my turn, draw! Yuei Vu still played by his own rhythm, Summon Elemental HERO Solid Soldier!

A monster card emerged, and a hero in steel armor flew out of it, clenched his fists forcefully, and his body burst out with diamond-like flashes.

[Elemental HERO Solid Soldier, ATK 1300]

The effect of Solid Soldier! Yuei Vu waved his hand, When this card is Normal Summoned: I can Special Summon 1 Level 4 or lower HERO monster from my hand. Come on! Elemental HERO Stratos!

A white whirlwind, a hero in a high-tech suit fell from the sky, the metal turbine was running at full speed, and there was an invisible gust of wind under his feet.

[Elemental HERO Stratos, ATK 1800]

The effect of Stratos! Yuei Vu continued, When this card is Normal or Special Summoned. I choose Elemental HERO Liquid Soldier.

The Duel Disk performed an automatic retrieval thanks again to the future man for his generosity. When he finished speaking, Liquid Soldier's card had already popped into his hand.

Then activate Spell Card Fusion Substitute! Yuei Vu played this brand new fusion card that was shipped not long ago, I fuse Elemental HERO Stratos and Elemental HERO Solid State on the field!

The fusion condition is 1 Elemental HERO monster + 1 EARTH monster.

Fusion Summon! Elemental HERO Gaia!

Stratos turned into a green whirlwind, the Solid Soldier turned into a cloud of muddy flow, and the replaced and fused card opened up a fused vortex on the ground, and the two figures intertwined and submerged into it, erupting into a chaotic storm.

The dark steel image landed heavily, the ground cracked open, and the huge metal element hero stood upright.

[Elemental HERO Gaia, ATK 2200]

Sure enough, as in the information, you will use the Fusion HERO to launch a strong attack as soon as you come up. Fujino on the side said lightly.

The effect of Gaia! Yuei Vu stretched out his hand and pointed forward, When this card is Fusion Summoned, the attack power of a monster on the opponents field will be halved until the end of the turn, and the same amount will be added to Gaias attack power!

Gaia Shock!

Part of the eyes of Gaias helmet flashed, and his fists slammed down, cracking the floor like a hammer. The crack spread to the foot of the Volcanic Slicer at a speed visible to the naked eye. The volcanic monster let out a mournful cry, and half of its body sank.

[Volcanic Slicer, ATK 1800 ATK 900]

[Elemental HERO Gaia, ATK 2200 ATK 3100]

At this moment, the effect of Elemental HERO Solid Soldier in the GY! Yuei Vu waved his hand, . If this card is sent from the Monster Zone to the GY by a Spell effect: I can target 1 HERO monster in my GY, except Elemental HERO Solid Soldier; Special Summon it in Defense Position!

A card popped out from the GY area of the Duel Disk and was taken back into Yuei Vus hand.

Come back! Elemental HERO Stratos!

A hurricane, accompanied by the hum of the engine, Stratos crouched and landed on the ground this time, arms folded in front of him.

[Elemental HERO Stratos, DEF 300]

The second effect of Stratos! Yuei Vu held a big hand, When this card is Normal or Special Summoned, destroy Spells/Traps on the field, up to the number of HERO monsters I control, except this card.

What exists on my field now is the Elemental HERO Gaia. So, I choose to destroy the set card in your back row!

Yuei Vu pointed to the set card on the right side of Ueno. Stratos got up immediately, and the turbine spun, releasing a white whirlwind to bombard the card.

The face-down card was blown away, and it turned out to be a Continuous Trap.

Volcanic Armor: As long as this card is face-up on the field, when a Pyro-Type monster you control is destroyed and sent to the Graveyard, inflict 500 damage to your opponent. (animation card)

Its another LP-burning card, but fortunately, this pit was pulled out in advance. Facing a Burn deck, life points were more precious than in normal games. Especially in an environment where your LP was 4000 instead of 8000.

Worthy of being the Duel King, as expected, he doesnt leave any room for anyone, Fujino said.

Hmph, the less you see, the more strange things you encounter. This level is a matter of course. Having said that, the corners of Kaibas mouth also raised slightly, as if he was quite satisfied with Yuei Vus performance.

Fujino smiled and didnt answer.

Battle! Yuei Vu waved his hand, Elemental HERO Gaia, attack the Volcanic Slicer!

The red eyes on the helmet of Gaia flashed, his huge body rose from the ground, and he flew towards the Volcanic monster with his huge black fists.

Open the set card! Ueno waved his hand, Trap Card Destruction Ring! Destroy 1 monster on my field, and inflict 1000 damage to both players Life Points!

He pointed to the Volcanic Slicer on the field.

I will destroy the Volcanic Slicer!

The small finger wheel was put on the Volcanic Slicer, and it exploded with a bang, and burning fragments shot out from the billowing black smoke, flying towards both sides on the field.

Ueno, LP 4000 LP 3000

Yuei Vu, LP 2500 LP 1500

Ah! Mokuba was surprised, I dont hesitate to cut my own life to give effect damage? But in this wayhe has to face the direct attack of Gaia!

[Elemental HERO Gaia, ATK 3100]

If this blow passed, the duel would be over immediately.

However, although he felt that the opponent must still have a backup, of course, Yuei Vu would not give up the opportunity to attack at this time.

The Battle Replay occurred! Gaia, directly attack the player!

Gaia dashed forward in one phase, rushing straight in front of Ueno with a loud bang and a massive movement, and punched him down without saying a word!

As expected, the opponent was prepared for this: Open the set card! Continuous Trap Firewall!
When the opponent declares a direct attack: I can banish 1 Pyro monster in my GY; negate the attack.

A card in his graveyard popped out.

I remove the Volcanic Slicer from the game, the attack is negated!

The phantom of the Volcanic Slicer flashed past, turning into a wall of flames to block the front. Gaias heavy fist slammed into the scorching wall, turning his steel fist into a red color like a soldering iron, but it failed to penetrate after all.

Yuei Vu was not surprised either.

Sure enough, its not that easy to get the victory

Set a card, I end my turn. Yuei Vu said, At the End Phase, the effect of Gaia ends, and the attack power returns to its original state.

[Elemental HERO Gaia, ATK 3100 ATK 2200]

Chapter 443: Volcanic

Brother, all of Yuei Vus attacks were blocked by that person! Mokuba looked at his brother.

Kaiba folded his arms and snorted softly, Its just luck.

Even though he said so, at this time Kaiba had indeed taken a new look at the two people from Department D. The strength of the deck and the duelists personal qualities seemed to be impeccable.

These two people were indeed strong in the true sense.

Of course, even so, he didnt think Yuei Vu would lose in this kind of place!

My turn, draw. Ueno said, At this moment, the side effect of Firewall is activated. I have to pay 500 LP in each Standby Phase to maintain its existence.

The perpetual defense did not come without cost. A looming flame enveloped Uenos body, and another 500 points were deducted from his health. The enhanced touch undoubtedly brought him a burning pain, but he endured it with his eyes closed, without even moving his eyebrows.

Ueno, LP 3000 LP 2500

Next, I activate the effect of Volcanic Wall again! Ueno said, Send the top 3 cards of my Deck to the Graveyard to inflict 500 damage to the opponent for each Pyro-Type monster sent to the Graveyard this way!

Ueno pulled out three cards in one breath, glanced at them, and turned them over immediately.

Among the three cards I sent to GY, there are a Volcanic Blaster and a Volcanic Rocket. He said, The total damage is 1,000 points!

Flames erupted on the Spell Card, and the phantoms of two Volcanic monsters appeared, one in front and the other in the back turned into two shells and blasted towards Yuei Vu.

If Yuei Vu, who only had 1500 HP left, ate this shot, his HP would be reduced to only 500 in an instant. One more hit and he would lose directly!

However, Yuei Vu had a countermeasure: Open the set card: Trap Card Energy-Absorbing Monolith! When an opponents card effect that would inflict damage to me, that damage is negated and I gain Life Points equal to the amount I would have taken!

Basically, it was an effect damage version of Draining Shield.

A black stone slab stood up and lay in front of Yuei Vu. The flames roared and bombarded the stone slab, violently impacted away, and burst out from the other side into rainbow-colored brilliance, shining on Yuei Vus body and absorbing it as nutrients.

Yuei Vu, LP 1500 LP 2500

Beautiful! Mokuba shouted from the side, Not only did he avoid the damage, but he also regained his LP!

LP was still very valuable against effect damage decks. Yuei Vus recovery here was also quite uncomfortable for the opponent.

Even Ueno frowned slightly. But he didnt say much, just continued: Spell Card Card of Sanctity. Each player draws until they have 6 cards in their hand.

Yuei Vu didnt say a word and followed him to draw cards.

Activate Continuous Spell Blaze Accelerator!

Flames swept across the ground, and a pillar of fire erupted, and what emerged from it was a cannon with a full sense of technology, fixed on the ground with a black metal tripod.

Then I send the Blaze Accelerator to the GY! Ueno continued, Activate Continuous Spell Tri-Blaze Accelerator!

Another ball of flames swept across, and the black cannon disappeared from the field, replaced by a silver-white three-barreled heavy cannon domineeringly, and the barrels shone brightly under the lights on the ceiling.

Yuei Vu frowned.

Here comes another troublesome thing

The effect of the Tri-Blaze Accelerator is activated! Ueno said, Send 1 Pyro monster from my hand to the GY, destroy a monster on the opponents field, and deal 500 points of damage to the opponent!

I sent Volcanic Shell to the GY and reloaded the ammunition! The target is the Elemental HERO Gaia, launch!

A tiny monster with a burning body emerged, and consciously got into the cannons magazine. Flames erupted from the barrel of the Blaze Accelerator, firing three salvos, roaring through the air, and hitting the Elemental HERO Gaia head-on.

The scorching high temperature melted the armor, piercing the huge body through it. The hero let out a miserable snort, his body was torn apart, engulfed by the erupting fireball, and blown to pieces.

Yuei Vu, LP 2500 LP 2000

The effect of Volcanic Shell is activated! Ueno continued, When this card is in the GY, once per turn, I can pay 500 LP; add 1 Volcanic Shell from my Deck to my hand!

Ueno, LP 2500 LP 2000

A mass of flames enveloped his body again and burned him violently. At the same time, he pulled out the deck and found the second Volcanic Shell.

The effect of the Tri-Blaze Accelerator was not limited to once per turn, so he would naturally continue to fire as long as he has ammunition in his hand.

Tri-Blaze Accelerators effect! Ueno said, I send the second Volcanic Shell in the hand to the graveyard, and reloaded the ammunition! The target is Elemental HERO Stratos, launch!

The second shell left a dazzling burning trail in the air, blasting straight forward with an indomitable momentum.

Despite having a powerful effect, Stratos was not a hero who was good at combat after all, and with only 300 DEF, defense was not his strong point for him.

With just one shot, Stratos exploded and disappeared as an afterimage in the flames.

Yuei Vu, LP 2000 LP 1500

Fortunately, he used the Energy-Absorbing Monolith to recover LP before. In this round, Ueno blasted him with 2000 points of effect damage. If he hadnt recovered his LP, he would be belching right now.

Having said that, the impact of the image with the enhancing sense of touch did hurt a bit. Continuously bombarded by the effects of fire attributes, Yuei Vu felt his whole body was burning right now, and there was a lingering burning sensation on his skin.

But in this way, Uenos attack in this round seemed to be temporarily over.

When the smoke dissipated, Ueno couldnt help but frown slightly when he saw Yuei Vu who was still standing opposite him. After thinking about something, he continued to take out two cards.

Set two cards, I end my turn.

Volcanic Wall, Firewall, Tri-Blaze Accelerator, plus two set cards have completely filled Uenos back row.

In contrast, his front field was empty without even a single monster.

In the turn that the effect of the Volcanic Wall was activated, the player could not declare an attack. The turn that the Tri-Blaze Accelerator effect was applied also has the side effect of being unable to attack.

So he didnt even summon monsters at all and concentrated all his resources on burning LP by using effect damage.

Yuei Vus LP value returned to 1500 again. In normal times, its even a bit far from blood lock. But facing the Volcanic deck, it was not so abundant.

Yuei Vu had no doubts that it only took one more turn at most, and the opponent would be able to wipe out his remaining 1500 LP.

This meant that he had to figure out a way to win in this turn.

My turn draw!

Chapter 444: A Duelist Whose Death Flags Show No Sign of Ending

Officer Fujino, with his hands behind his back, was very satisfied with the current situation.

Although it seemed that the gap in LP was only 500, the LP value of 1500 was already like a candle in the wind in front of the Volcanic deck that mainly focuses on burning LP, and it could go away at any time!

Just hold on until the next turn!

The poor soldier who was dueling in the arena obviously didn't know that his boss had planted death flags all over his body.

As the old adage goes: some people are walking, but they are already dead.

The moment the death flag was in place, this guy had already gone far.

The first person to notice this should be President Kaiba, who was watching the battle from the sidelines.

He glanced at Fujino with arrogant eyes, his appearance was as badass as ever, and he was a little complacent, and then his eyes quickly returned to Yuei Vu.

Alright, Yuei Vu, let them see it!

What is the duel of the Duel King!

I activate the effect of Fusion Substitute in the graveyard! Yuei Vu said, Banish this card from my GY, and return the Fusion Monster Elemental HERO Gaia in the graveyard to the deck, and then draw a card!

Two cards popped up from the grave area. Yuei Vu put away two cards, drew a card from the deck, and added it to his hand.

The next thing was the real game.

Summon Elemental HERO Liquid Soldier!

Water streams emerged, splashes splashed, and the hero in bright blue tights came to the field with a hey and posed a handsome pose.

[Elemental HERO Liquid Soldier, ATK 1400]

Liquid Soldier the card that was added to the hand by the effect of Stratos last round. Fujino muttered to himself, Did the Duel King already calculate the arrangement for the next turn at that time?

Kaiba seemed to have heard it, squinted at him, and pretended to be careless but snorted heavily.

Calculate to the next turn?

He calculated the victory of this duel from the very beginning!

The effect of Liquid Soldier! Yuei Vu said, When this card is Normal Summoned: I can target 1 Level 4 or lower HERO monster in my GY, except Elemental HERO Liquid Soldier; Special Summon it. Let's resurrect, Elemental HERO Stratos!

The blue water spray seemed to burst out from the cracks in the ground, and the white gusts rolled up. Brother Sky, dressed in a high-tech uniform, returned to the field again, hovering in mid-air under the thrust of the turbine with a clear cry.

[Elemental HERO Stratos, ATK 1800]

Fujino groaned: Tch, its this guy again

Even if its the first time he has seen Brother Sky, now hes starting to find this hero a bit annoying
Now Uenos front row was empty, and the only things that could protect him were the Continuous Trap Firewall and two set cards. Then there was no doubt about what effect Brother Sky would activate here.

The effect of Stratos is activated! Yuei Vu said, Destroy Spells/Traps on the field, up to the number of HERO monsters I control, except this card!

Realizing that he might not be able to keep his set cards, Ueno immediately chose to activate them: Open the set card! Trap Card Volcanic Force!

Theres another one, Trap Card Just Desserts!

The two set cards were flipped open, one on the left and one on the right, standing in front of Ueno.

The effect of Volcanic Force! Ueno said, Send 1 face-up Tri-Blaze Accelerator on my side of the field to the Graveyard, Special Summon 1 Volcanic Doomfire from my hand, Deck, or Graveyard, ignoring the Summoning conditions!

Then comes the effect of Just Desserts! Ueno continued, Inflict 500 damage to the opponent for each monster they control.

Now you have two monsters, Elemental HERO Liquid Soldier and Elemental HERO Stratos on your field, so the damage is 1000 points!

Fujino, who was watching the battle, shrank his pupils, his heart was ecstatic, and he felt as if his heartbeat had missed a beat.

We won!

Volcanic Doomfire was the ace monster of the Volcano Deck, its attack power was as high as 3000. And its effect was that the opponent must forcibly attack this monster during the battle phase. Also, when the Volcanic Doomfire destroyed an opponents monsters by battle, all monsters on the opponents field would be destroyed, and the opponent was dealt 500 points of damage for each one destroyed.

If the damage from Just Desserts was passed, and the Duel Kings LP was only 500 left!

Then according to the effect of the Volcanic Doomfire, the opponent was forced to attack, and Yuei Vus remaining LP would be directly cleared.

Little did he know, the moment he thought this way, he planted a bigger death flag on the heads of his subordinates who were struggling to play cards

But before that effect is resolved, I want to chain this card to it.

As Yuei Vu spoke, he drew a card from his hand.

Quick-Play Spell Mask Change!

Uenos eyelids twitched.

Appeared!

The symbol of the Duel King, the key card of Masked HERO!

The effect of Mask Change Send 1 HERO monster I control to the Graveyard, then Special Summon 1 Masked HERO monster from my Extra Deck with the same Attribute.

Yuei Vu pointed to Stratos on the field.

I sent Stratos to the GY!

The lonely hero puts on the mask of vengeance, and turns into a cutting wind to tear the evil!

Transform! Masked HERO Blast!

The green whirlwind wrapped Stratos, and with the special effects of transformation, he was dressed in green armor. The red scarf fluttered in the wind, and the hero rode the whirlwind, spinning lightly and landing on the ground.

[Masked HERO Blast, ATK 2200]

At this moment, Stratos effect is processed, there are Liquid Soldier and Blast on my field. A total of two heroes. Yuei Vu said, So, I choose two magic trap cards to destroy.

I destroy the Continuous Spell Volcanic Wall and the Continuous Trap Firewall!

Stratos, who had already left the field, appeared as a phantom. The turbo hummed behind him, and the hurricane rolled up, tearing the two cards into pieces in an instant, and at the same time completely broke the position of Uenos back row.

At the end of the last turn, Uenos back row was packed full of five cards. So far, there was no one left. There was only Volcanic Doomfire left as the last line of defense.

Just Desserts resolved! Ueno still hadn't given up, Give 1000 points of damage!

Yuei Vu, LP 1500 LP 500

It's a violent impact, puncture-like touch. Yuei Vu staggered back two steps, feeling a burning tingling sensation spreading along his internal organs.

Then Volcanic Force resolved! Ueno continued, I Special Summon Volcanic Doomfire from the Deck!

The erupting flames wrapped the silver-white three-barreled cannon, melted it, and swallowed it underground. The lava erupted, and the burning red and sharp claws tore apart the fire curtain, and the huge body of the demon emerged from it.

It raised its head and hissed and roared, and the invisible sound waves spread out, shaking the soaring pillar of fire to explode in all directions.

[Volcanic Doomfire, ATK 3000]

The Volcanic Doomfire's attack power is as high as 3000! Officer Fujino continued to plant death flags for his subordinates, This attack power cannot be defeated easily!

And according to the effect of the Volcanic Doomfire, the opponent must attack this monster with any Attack Position monsters they control! And when this card destroys a monster and sends it to the Graveyard, destroy all monsters the opponent controls and inflict 500 damage to the opponent for each monster destroyed by this effect!

As long as the battle is established, it is still our victory!

Unfortunately he would be disappointed.

The effect of Masked HERO Blast! Yuei Vu said, When this card is successfully Special Summoned, the attack power of an opponents monster will be halved!

Halve the Volcanic Doomfires attack power!

The green gust rushed forward, enveloping the demons body, greatly restricting its activities and reducing its combat ability.

[Volcanic Doomfire, ATK 3000 ATK 1500]

Oops Fujino realized that he might tempt fate too much.

But he still didnt give up: No. Even if this battle is established, it will only cause 700 points of damage, which is not enough to cause a defeat. The Duel King only has 500 LP left, as long as it reaches the next turn Activate Equip Spell Favorite Hero! Yuei Vu kept operating, Equip to Masked HERO Blast! Then at the start of the Battle Phase, the effect of Favorite Hero is activated! I can activate 1 Field Spell directly from my hand or Deck.

Bring it on! Field Spell Skyscrapers!

The moon hanging high in the sky, the skyscrapers soaring into the sky. The Gale Hero in green armor stands on top of a skyscraper, with his back to the bright moon, and his bright red scarf flutters under the moonlight.

If there is a card in my Field Zone, the equipped monster gains ATK equal to its original DEF! Yuei Vu said, so the attack power of Blast is

[Masked HERO Blast, ATK 2200 ATK 4000]

Officer Fujino was now completely sure that this duel has been turned over by himself: Attack power four thousand!?

Its so handsome! Mokuba happily waved his little fist, Go! Masked HERO! Finish him!!!

President Kaiba was also laughing at first, but seeing Mokubas excited look, he suddenly couldnt help thinking that there was a time when Mokuba was only so excited when he was watching himself duel.

So after thinking about it, the presidents smile gradually disappeared, and he let out a heavy hum again.

Masked HERO Blast! Yuei Vu issued the final command, Attack Volcanic Doomfire!

Hurricane Slash!

Sprinting like a gust of wind, the hero turned into an invisible afterimage, cutting the demon's body with the green whirlwind. The volcanic demon screamed sharply, its solid body was cut open by the blast, and its body was pierced through it, like a flame erupting from hell, swallowing it whole and crushing it into pieces.

Ueno, LP 2000 LP 0

Chapter 445: Fanboy of President Kaiba

Hurricane Slash!

The strong wind cut through the body of the volcano demon, and the power of the eruption pierced through, taking away all the remaining LP in Ueno in one breath.

Ueno raised his arms to protect his body, barely resisting, but finally he couldn't stand still and half-kneeled on the ground.

The flame dissipated, and the huge body of the demon gradually disappeared from the field as a phantom. Billowing black smoke rose into the air, and the green Masked HERO's back was revealed from the flying sparks and thick black smoke. The red scarf fluttered in the wind like a flag standing on the battlefield.

For a moment in a trance, Yuei Vu seemed to see that before the body disappeared, Masked HERO Blast seemed

Give him a thumbs up gesture?

With the flying scarf, the Masked HERO turned his back to his master, standing in the flames and black smoke without looking back and raising his hand to make such a gesture. It seemed quite artistic.

It's just

Is there such a program in the stereoscopic video system?

Yuei Vu glanced at the Duel Disk in his hand, felt a little dazed.

After all, the Duel Disk he was using now was obtained from Uncle Pa, and no one could say for sure about future technology.

Who knew? Maybe in the future, the program algorithm of the three-dimensional image of technology would be more advanced, and the projected monster would be more humane?

And maybe

Yuei Vu couldn't help but think again about the spirit exclusive to the Duel King mentioned by Paradox.

He took out the card of Masked HERO Blast, and couldn't help but look at it a few more times.

If you say it's a spirit card, it doesn't look like it.

Having collected so many spirit cards, Yuei Vu now feels that he is quite professional in spirit identification. However, at least from his perspective now, he couldn't see any spirit residing in this card at all.

The same went for the Masked HERO Vapor summoned during the last duel with Yubel. Although the duel gave him the illusion that there was something spirit-like, but when he picked up the card and looked at it carefully, he couldn't see the clue.

Master?

Seeing the master staring at a card in a daze, the Dark Magician Girl floated out.

Yuei Vu thought about it, and felt that it was more professional to ask the spirit themselves for such questions.

Look, is there any spirit in this card? Yuei Vu asked.

Hmm The Dark Magician Girl pressed her slender lips with her slender fingers, stared at the card with wide eyes for a while, then shook her head.

No, she said.

Yuei Vu thought for a while, then turned his head: Silent Magician?

The silver-haired loli also appeared, studied it carefully for a while, and then shook her head, saying no.

Kuri Kuri! The chestnut ball jumped up and down.

Yuei Vu though it was saying no too.

The Dark Magician Girl pursed her lips.

I have already said that there is no spirit, why does Master still ask the Silent Sister?

Although in terms of chest, the girl really thinks that Silent Sister may be more reliable than herself

Everyone said no, it should be unmistakable.

Yuei Vu took another look at this Masked HERO Blast, and didn't get entangled anymore, and took back the deck for the time being.

Maybe it's really just a new algorithm added by Duel Disks future technology

The two rounds of duel ended, and the result was undoubtedly that Kaiba Company won the match with an absolute advantage of 2:0.

Ueno and Egawa didn't have much to say, and they seemed to be convinced when they lost. After Ueno got up, he bowed slightly to Yuei Vu to show his respect.

As for this Fujino

Actually, Yuei Vu also had an impression.

Although Fujino and Department D were not characters in the original animation, when he played World Link Online in the previous life, Yuei Vu remembered that they seemed to have a role in it.

Different from Egawa and Ueno, although this Fujino was in charge of Department D, in fact he was not a member of the military.

He was originally a high-level Shadow Duelist in the underground world, and his organization had a lot of contacts with the military in the past. When the military established Department D, he was invited to join as an expert in Shadow Game.

To be more precise, he should be regarded as a specially invited metaphysics consultant.

In the World Link Online of the previous life, with more and more large-scale supernatural phenomena in the follow-up plot, Department D also appeared in various incidents, and the military duelists of Department D including Fujino also became acquainted with players.

Some characters who appeared in Yu-Gi-Oh GX later seemed to have some connection with this department.

Among them, Fujino left a deep impression on the players.

The main reason was that this guy has his own characteristics, that was like to show off.

Wherever he went, he liked to habitually pretend to be aggressive. He looked down at people with superior eyes, and always looked confident.

However, it was very obvious that his character design unfortunately collided with President Kaiba.

So in the eyes of many players, everyone thinks that this stuff was very harmonious

A person who was not as handsome as Kaiba, not as tall as Kaiba, not as rich as Kaiba, and couldn't play cards well

And there was no invincible White Bride behind him!

If he was not a clown, who was?

However, with the development of the plot, there were more and more opportunities to deal with Department D, and the players only discovered later

This guy was actually a hidden Kaiba fanboy!

Actually, this Fujino has become the president fanboy since long ago. His words and deeds were fashion-forward, unintentionally imitating idols.

Unknowingly, I have already become the shape of the president.JPG

It's a pity, his imitation was just that bad.

Kaiba was arrogant, liked to show off, and stood in public to make some unreasonable remarks. That was called aggressive, which was the domineering performance of the superiors who held power.

However, if someone else did the same thing, it was called chuunibyou

Although Fujino may have concealed it well at this stage, this person has already been seen through by Yuei Vu.

At this time, Fujino put his hands behind his back, with a calm expression on the surface: We lost this time, President. However, seeing the true power of Seto Kaiba, who is known as the Domino White Dragon, and Yusei Kaido, who is known as the Duel King, it really isn't just for nothing.

Kaiba snorted and said coldly: Don't be depressed. As a duelist, your strength is already strong enough. But you are still 20,000 years too early to beat me or Yusei Kaido !

Facing his provocation, Fujino was not annoyed at all, he only maintained a high profile, with a peaceful smile on his face: That's not sure.

We will become stronger, President Kaiba. The next time they fight, it may not be as smooth as today.

Kaiba snorted coldly: I will accompany you at any time.

Actually, Kaiba has already affirmed the ones who fought today and felt that they are indeed worthy opponents.

He wished that these people would come to him to play cards every day!

As for Fujino, don't look at him as if he could afford to let go, but in fact, what he was thinking in his heart was

.Seto Kaiba just recognized me!

Woohoo!

As for the loss to Kaiba, he didn't really care about it.

After all, that's Seto Kaiba!

Isn't it normal to lose to the president?

He looked at the president, then glanced at Yusei Kaido beside the president, and narrowed his eyes slightly.

Although he was calm on the surface, he already has a new small goal in his heart.

In his lifetime, he wanted to hear the president call him Fuji no .

Chapter 446: Tattoo Your Sister-in-law

After the game of cards, the next step was about the specific matters of the company's cooperation with the military.

However, Yusei Kaido felt that he had reason to doubt that for both parties, playing cards is the main purpose, and the conversation is actually incidental

Although the Kaiba Corp has always had close ties with the military in the past, that was already in Gosaburo's days. Since Seto Kaiba took over the power and changed into the gaming industry, the group has never dealt with the military so far.

Now this was the first time.

However, Kaiba's victory still helped the negotiation to some extent, making it easier to obtain greater benefits and win more resources during the negotiation process.

Although the reasoning was the same, what Kaiba didn't expect was that the other party's concession was a little too much.

This Fujino seemed to be very flamboyant on the surface, but when he talked, his expression and tone were quite a bit like a big shot. Originally, Kaiba even thought that negotiating terms with this kind of person would be very difficult, but it turned out to be unexpectedly smooth.

It felt like you were selling vegetables in a vegetable market, and a yakuza with lots of tattoos and a cigarette in his mouth came over, and asked how much the price was. You said 21 $ a pound, and the other party threw his away and became furious. But in the next moment, he slammed the table and said: I want all of it, and I will be anxious with you if you charge less.

The president couldn't help but wonder for a while, maybe this guy was Kaiba Corp's undercover agent who broke into the military?

Anyway, this was too much benefit.

Although Yuei Vu had already slipped away during the formal negotiation later, even if he knew the content of the negotiation, he would not be surprised.

After all, he may be the only one who knows that under Fujino's pretentious appearance, there actually lived a true fanboy of the president.

This meeting could be regarded as laying a good foundation for future cooperation between the military and Kaiba Corp.

Yuei Vu clearly knew that this was just the beginning. With more and more supernatural phenomena and weird villains emerging in the future, there would be more opportunities for cooperation between the two sides from now on.

Nightcrawler World, the headquarters.

This was the first time Coke Sprite has come to the headquarters of this association.

Although the Nightcrawler World has been expanded many times in a row, and its scale has grown larger and larger, the number of memberships was still limited after all.

Especially after the battle with Doma, more and more people wanted to join. Not only players, but even the local NPCs in the inner world have come.

So not everyone had the opportunity to join the gang.

Coke Sprite was not able to join this famous organization until today.

Even in the entire player guild Knights of Hanoi she came from, she was the first lucky one to get this opportunity.

All this is thanks to Yuei Vu-san!

It may be that she has made Yuei Vu-san feel comfortable these days. When she offered to join the association, Yuei Vu agreed without saying a word.

Okay. He agreed immediately, but shrugged, As long as you won't regret it.

Coke Sprite was so happy at the time and thanked him again and again.

Regret? How could I regret it?!

Why would some players not want to join the association where Yuei Vu-san works?

Although its not like she hasnt seen some strange rumors about this association on the forum, Coke Sprite didnt take it to heart.

From some clips she had glimpsed inadvertently, she deduced that this association seemed to mean that there were more men, drinking more frequently, and punching when drinking.

How outrageous can it be?

Among their Knights of Hanoi, dont men account for the majority?

In fact, Im the only cute girl in the whole guild. Dont I still get along well with other male players?

She felt that she already has a wealth of experience.

This kind of confidence lasted until the girl held her head high and proudly pushed open the door of the headquarters, and felt the heat wave like purgatory, shouts, howls, the sound of something being smashed, and the oncoming smell of alcohol and hormones

At that second, almost out of survival instinct, her arm closed the door on its own.

At this moment, Coke Sprite realized how naive and how wrong she was before.

She turned nonchalantly and wanted to walk away, while preparing to re-examine her idea of wanting to join this association but it was too late.

Those who have opened the gates of hell will never return.

Several burly brothers with indescribable postures in big underpants rushed out, with red eyes like hungry tigers pouncing on their food.

I just saw someone new!

Shes still a cute girl!

Fuck you! I saw her first!!!

So half a minute later, Coke Sprite was still forced to come to the headquarters among a group of muscular men singing and dancing.

Looking at this group of men with strange shapes and performance art Coke Sprite couldnt help thinking about life.

What game am I playing?

What guild did I join?

When she saw two players actually dueling, she was moved to tears at least there was someone playing cards here!

Its just that

please at least wear your pants, okay?

The person in charge of receiving her was a player. Brother Noragami may have lost too much in field boxing right now, and only a pair of underpants was left on his whole body but even so, he still refused to take off the funny unicorn headgear on his head.

Native Noragami looked Coke Sprite up and down, and said a line that almost scared her to call the police: According to the association's practice, newcomers who have just joined the association have to do a striptease first.

Coke Sprite's delicate body shook, and she instinctively took two steps back with her chest in her arms.

But since it's a girl, let's forget it. Native Noragami shook his head.

Coke Sprite just breathed a sigh of relief, thinking that the people in this association at least have a gentlemanly demeanor. But then she heard Native Noragami muttering: To be honest, watching a girl do a striptease is really boring.

Coke Sprite's expression froze instantly.

Something is wrong, whether it is an NPC or a player here, there is definitely something wrong.

Come with me. Native Noragami turned his head, I'll take you to meet Brother Fae.

Coke Sprite cheered up.

She had already inquired about it before. Brother Fae was the well-known Yuei Cannot Escape Fae, and he was one of the few players who surrounded Yuei Vu-san all year round.

Although he seemed to have the lowest favorability in the group of players around Yuei Vu-san, he seemed to be the best one in the Nightcrawler World. At this moment, he was already a cadre. After a while, if Yuei Vu-san was not interested, it was not impossible for him to be the president of Nightcrawler World!

A legend among players!

However, Coke Sprite has only heard of the name of this big shot and has never seen him in person.

Going to meet this important person at this time, Coke Sprite was somewhat nervous. She felt like a young man who had just graduated and came to a well-known large company in the country, planning to apply directly to the leader.

Brother Noragami raised his hand and slapped the door.

Brother Fae! he shouted, There is a newcomer! It's a girl!

Oh?

Coke Sprite saw a strong body. The man was lying bare-chested on a metal recliner. He had a round face and a short-cut head. The white light reflected from the black-rimmed glasses on the bridge of his nose blocked his vision, making him appear mysterious.

Coke Sprite walked in a little cautiously: Brother Fae.

Fae slightly nodded, without many expressions. This reminded Coke Sprite of the kind of big brother who carried traffic signs up and beat people when they disagreed with him.

Ako doesn't seem to be the kind of person who is easy to get along with.

She noticed that Fae was getting a tattoo: Brother Faedo you want to have a tattoo?

Players could also get tattoos. In fact, many players in the Nightcrawler World have done it. They thought it would be more imposing to throw off their clothes when playing field boxing, revealing the tattoos underneath.

Fae, still unsmiling, nodded slightly: Well, Im going to tattoo your sister-in-law.

Coke Sprite: Huh? Sister-in-lawwhats her name?

Fae let out a long breath.

Dark Magician Girl.

Coke Sprite:

Just as the atmosphere in the air was getting awkward, Brother Noragami who had just left for a short time rushed in again.

Fae had some dissatisfaction: Whats the matter? Why did you run like being chased by a wolf?

Yu Yuei Vu-san came to inform us to prepare and say there is a quest!

Fae quickly sat up straight.

Nani? Yuei Vu-san finally remembered us?

What quest?

He didnt say anything specific, he just said that we should prepare for a long trip in advance. Noragami couldnt hide the excitement in his voice, He said he would take us to Egypt!

Chapter 447: Ancient Tomb

Egypt, underground.

Boom

The thick rock blocks were pierced, and the solid walls were pierced under the unremitting excavation of the archaeological team and collapsed with a burst of fine roars.

Bunches of light were irradiated through the cracks into the realm that had been occupied by darkness for three thousand years. What came out of the darkness was a stench that had fermented for three thousand years, and a gust of wind blew out as if there was some kind of resentment in it.

The captain of the archaeological team took the lead and led the team members into the broken cave.

Through the crack, the bottom suddenly opened up.

While it has long been known what lies beneath the rock blocks, no one expected to see such a well-preserved chamber here.

The archaeologists were all amazed at how completely the secret room was sealed, making it feel like a palace. The surrounding walls are engraved with patterns and complex ancient characters, filled with characters that all archaeologists could not decipher.

Bunches of searchlights were thrown into the dark space, and countless dust particles flew irregularly in the light beams.

When the dark and hard face appeared in the area illuminated by the light, and the majestic, dark, and cold pupils like a king, some archaeologists couldn't help but exclaim.

It wasn't until more lights were cast that they could see that it was a coffin.

A coffin in the shape of a jackal, which looks like a sculpture. Because the craftsmanship was so sophisticated, including the expression and eyes of the wolf's head, it was so lifelike that it gave people the illusion that it was alive.

The coffin was leaning against the earth-brown wall, and it looked like a jackal with its arms folded, restrained by its body. Thick golden chains extended from the surrounding walls and floors, firmly binding the coffin.

It seemed that the person who buried this coffin in this secret room was not even at ease with the dead in the coffin, and he had to add such thick chains to seal it to be at ease.

The archaeological team leader stepped forward, turned on the lamp, and carefully looked at the golden chains that bound the coffin. When the chains were pulled by him, they rubbed against each other and rubbed against the shell of the coffin, making a cracking sound.

He couldn't help but be amazed at the strength of the material used for this chain; it seemed that even after thousands of years of erosion, there wasn't even one trace of rust on this chain. It even looked like new, except it was covered in a lot of dust.

This reminded the captain of alchemy in ancient Egyptian legends.

Because he was in this generation of archaeology, he naturally heard some related rumors.

According to legend, people in ancient Egypt discovered the forbidden secret method, which could produce alchemy materials that would never be corroded.

It was said that the ultimate tool born from that secret method is called the Millennium Items, which has the terrifying power to allow the holder to rewrite the law of the world.

Of course, that's just a legend.

But the archaeology team leader has never seen such a weird tomb. Judging from the size of the secret room, the craftsmanship, and the quality of the materials, he felt that the owner of the tomb should have been a high-ranking official during his lifetime.

But such a weird coffin in the shape of a jackal, and this burial posture standing on the wall and tied up with five flowers, really touched his blind spot of knowledge.

Then something even weirder happened.

Just as they walked into the tomb and approached the coffin, a golden door on the side of the coffin unexpectedly opened automatically.

It was as if the owner of the tomb was welcoming their arrival.

The next moment, all of them saw the diamond-like pyramid-shaped pendant placed upright in the middle of the secret room behind the door.

In the middle of the pendant was placed what looked like a red eye. The scarlet light lit up from those eyes and was clearly reflected in the pupils of everyone in the archaeological team. It was like a magnet that firmly attracted everyones sight, and they couldnt move away for a long time.

Two hours later.

The off-road vehicle passed through the long wilderness and drove over under the scorching sun under the 40-degree high temperature that was enough to roast a person.

The vehicle stopped outside the camp that the archaeological team had already set up. The door of the back seat was opened, and protruding from the door was a pair of tanned but slender and well-proportioned long legs.

Isis Ishtar got out of the off-road vehicle and shook violently when she got off. She was still wearing the white robe, and the golden corset tightly bound her slender waist.

From the distance from the bulge of the chest to the waist, it could be seen that the legs under the robe were really long.

Her younger brother, Marik Ishtar, came out of the passenger seat. Although he looked dark, he was actually completely cleansed.

As soon as the siblings got out of the car, someone from the camp immediately greeted them with smiles on their faces.

As the leading figure in the dueling world, Isiss social status would naturally not be low if she played cards so well.

In fact, in addition to being the descendant of the Tomb Keeper clan, Isis also served as the director of the Egyptian Archaeological Bureau, and she even had considerable influence on the modern Egyptian government.

Playing cards well, having a gentle and considerate personality, having a plump body and a big heart, she would naturally be popular wherever she went.

The two siblings were soon greeted by the archaeological team and arrived at the top of the tomb, and soon saw the strange coffin and the pyramid-shaped crystal.

Sister. Marik squatted down beside the coffin, There are words engraved on it ancient priests words.

Isis also leaned forward: What did they write?

The King of Light and the King of Darknessthe battle of fate. Marik wiped off the dust covering the complicated characters, and frowned, The end of the battlethe King of Darkness will be buried by the King of Light. When the light is filled, the King of Destruction will awaken.

He raised his head: It seems to be something like a prophecy, sister.

Isis frowned slightly: The King of Darkness and the King of Light

Sister, could it be

Indeed. According to the history guarded by our clan, the pharaoh who controlled the ultimate power of darkness did have the title of King of Darkness.

That is to say, the King of Darkness refers to Yugi Muto No, is it the nameless Pharaoh? Marik said, The King of Light refers to Seto Kaiba, the person who controls the white dragon who possesses the power of extreme light. Isis nodded, I can only think of this possibility.

Then the King of Destruction mentioned here

I don't know. Isis shook her head, But if that's the case, then the prophecy will end with the death of the Pharaoh and the destruction of Seto Kaiba. The King of Destruction Anyway, it feels a little bad.

The higher-ups said that these are going to be exhibited in Domino City. Marik frowned, Maybe we should find a way to stop it?

Isis thought about it for a while: Let's take it easy for now. Just before I came, someone from Domino City contacted me and said that he would come and have a look. We may have to prepare to receive it.

Oh? Marik thought for a while, Is it Seto Kaiba?

Isis shook her head: It's the Duel King Yuei Vu.

Marik's eyelids twitched, and his expression suddenly became strange.

It seemed to recall some unbearable past.

Chapter 448: Bring Everything Back

At this moment, at an altitude of 2,000 meters, inside the special plane of Kaiba Corp.

Brother Noragami, this time is the real victory!

Come on, Brother Fae! One last round! Bet on the last dignity of a man!

When talking, Native Noragami and Fae happened to have the last pair of underpants left. Whoever lost this round of field boxing would have to take off the last pants, which could be described as the last dignity in the literal sense

Coke Sprite, who has just joined the group, still found this strange custom unbelievable. She turned her back not to look at the two burly men, her snow-white face flushed red.

She glanced curiously at the others in the cabin. Yuei Vu was crossing his legs and playing with a special terminal made by Kaiba Corp the function was a bit like a tablet computer. Snow Wave was sitting beside him upright like a wooden man, waiting to be dispatched at any time.

Even Miss Yuehua, who was the most famous steel plate of World Link Online, looked calmly as if she didn't think there was anything wrong with two naked men dangling in front of them in an anxious duel.

Coke Sprite couldn't help leaning forward, and asked Miss Yuehua, who was also a rare girl in the association: That don't you think it's strange?

Ah? What did you say? Miss Yuehua raised her head in a daze, caught a glimpse of Fae roughly pulling Noragami's only remaining underpants, and she couldn't help being stunned.

Oh, you said that. She lowered her head, It's okay, it won't be strange if you see it a lot. Don't worry, you will get used to it sooner or later.

Coke Sprite is struck by lightning.

Will I get used to?

She once again imagined the scene of a group of freaks singing and dancing in the headquarters of the association, and suddenly felt that the future was dark

At this time, Yuei Vu, who rushed to Egypt with a few tool people, was looking for news and intelligence related to the cultural relics unearthed in Egypt on the special terminal made by Kaiba Corp.

Although the news about the cultural relics unearthed in Egypt has not been reported yet, this kind of news has always been transmitted very quickly in the inner world intelligence network.

And because there was a saying that duel monster games originated in ancient Egypt, news about archaeological excavations and tomb robbery in Egypt has attracted even more attention in the underground world.

For example, the tomb excavated this time obviously has all kinds of weird atmospheres. The official news hasnt been announced yet, but the incident has already caused an uproar in the other world, and the Nightcrawler World soon got information.

It was said that the coffin excavated underground was in the shape of a jackal, and was tightly bound underground by chains that would never rust. Based on the association of the characters in myths and legends, it is easy to guess what connection the owner of the coffin may have with the legendary God Anubis.

However, while others were still speculating about the identity of the owner of the coffin, Yuei Vu was able to determine the origin of this guy based on the information he had at hand.

Anubis, the King of Destruction, did not explain his origin in the animation, only said that his mission was to turn the pharaohthat is, the current Yami Yugiinto nothingness.

According to the animation, Anubis would secretly hand over the key card that could defeat the three Egyptian Gods to Kaiba, and then secretly influence the spirit to control Kaiba, using Kaiba to defeat Yugi. After that, Anubis would appear from the shadows and wipe out the now-useless Kaiba.

The poor president may never have dreamed that he would become a tool man one day

The development of World Link Online was slightly different from that in animation. In the animation, when Yugi Muto put together the Millenium Puzzle, Anubis, the king of destruction, happened to be discovered by the archaeological team, and he had already awakened at that time.

However, from the perspective of World Link Onlines timeline, it seemed that Anubis was just unearthed a few hours ago, and the coffin was still lying in the tomb and has not been dug out.

So Yuei Vu made a decisive decision, immediately put down all other things at hand, counted a few handy tools and rushed to Egypt to solve this potential trouble as soon as possible.

Of course, he took the plane of Kaiba Corp, and the reason was also business trip. From travel expenses to accommodation to eating and drinking, Kaiba reimbursed everything during the itinerary.

And this time, Yuei Vu felt that there was nothing wrong with taking Kaibas plane and eating Kaibas food.

After all, strictly speaking, he was still working for Kaiba this trip.

If you let it go, according to the animation plot, the first thing Anubis would focus on when he came to Domino was Kaiba. This guy has grasped Kaibas incomparable desire for games (referring to playing cards), and whispered around Kaiba like a ghost all day long, quietly affecting his spirit and manipulating his thoughts, and finally induced Kaiba to follow him. The goal was to let Kaiba and Yugi die together.

Yuei Vu felt that he must take the initiative to attack this time, and directly kill this huge threat in the cradle ah, no, in the grave. It was already a show of generosity for him not to ask the president for extra remuneration.

In contrast, what was the reimbursement of travel expenses, air tickets and meals?

Anyway, Kaiba had a lot of money and didnt care about such a small amount of money.

Seeing Yuei Vu waving his hand at the beginning, several tool people counted them and said that they would go to Egypt together. They were all excited like chicken blood, thinking that the main plotline of Pharaohs Memories was about to start.

But not long after boarding the plane, when they discovered that this was the plotline of the Pyramid of Light movie, instead of being disappointed, they became even more excited.

Then they started discussing whether there would be many good things in the tomb of the King of Destruction Anubis

After all, he was known as the King of Destruction and possessed a powerful force that can rival the Pharaoh. This man must have been a big figure during his lifetime.

Since he was a big man, expensive funerary objects in his tomb must also be indispensable.

Gold! There must be a lot of gold! Fae said.

I heard that there are treasure basins in the tombs of some rich people, and there are all kinds of rare treasures in them, which are extremely valuable. Miss Yuehua said.

Native Noragami thought for a while: Are there beautiful women being buried along with him?

Fae: Then who knows? Maybe there are beautiful men out there?

But no matter what, its already turned into a mummy

Coke Sprite:

She has already confirmed that there is definitely something wrong with this Brother Jie

This is Yu-Gi-Oh! Miss Yuehua began to diverge her thoughts, Since this is the world of Yu-Gi-Oh, maybe there is a deck he used in his lifetime?

Maybe there are rare cards from 3,000 years ago! Snow Wave began to rub his palms excitedly, There may be Duel Disks from 3,000 years ago! I remember that all the Duel Disks in ancient Egypt seemed to be made of alchemy equipment! Yuei Vu-san must be interested !

Yuei Vu:

No, three thousand years ago, there were no cards, right? Coke Sprite commented, Three thousand years ago everyone used stone slabs, right?

It makes sense. Fae held his chin, That would be troublesome. The stone slab is too heavy. If there are forty slates in a deck, its too heavy to carry home..

Is there anything else that is easy to bring?

I think that pyramid crystal is pretty good! It seems to be an artifact, why dont you go along with it?

That coffin might be an artifact too! Brother Jie, you are stronger, why dont you carry it back?

Actually the mummy seems to be quite valuable. The quality of Anubis mummy should be better? How about we carry the corpse back together

Yuei Vu looked at this group of excited players who looked like they were going to pan for gold, and couldnt help being speechless for a moment.

Anubis was in danger!

Chapter 449: Do You Think I Came All The Way To Rob You?

When the special plane of Kaiba Corp landed, the reception team at the airport had already been arranged in place.

Because Yuei Vu came here under the banner of an official business trip, in principle he should be regarded as a distinguished guest of Kaiba Corp. Therefore, although Yuei Vu only contacted the Ishtar siblings, the only ones whom he was familiar with in Egypt, even the Egyptian government sent a special reception team.

Since the KC Grand Prix was successfully held, the reputation of Kaiba Corp could be said to be in full swing. The name of Seto Kaiba has been heard all over the world. Now even if they didnt plan to do anything, organizations around the world would still find ways to cooperate with them to gain popularity.

Although the dream of Kaiba, the Kaiba Land project has just entered the initial stage, its development speed was really breathtaking.

Now its not that Kaiba needed to take the initiative to contact cities in other countries for construction, but that all cities in various countries have to send money and gifts to beg President Kaiba to give them a chance to build the next Kaiba Land.

No way, everyone was rushing to get it, but the slots were limited.

So now everyone could only wait in line to see who gave the most money to Kaiba Corp

As Egypt was known as the birthplace of modern dueling monsters, the government here would certainly not miss this opportunity.

Hearing that Duel King Yuei Vu was coming to Egypt today because of official business, and it seemed that someone has heard from somewhere that Yuei Vu was one of the people who speak the most in front of Kaiba, so this reception has aroused considerable concern in Egypt.

The special plane landed, and the cabin door opened. Seeing the grand battle in front of him, Yuei Vu felt a little dazed for a while.

Someone who didnt know may think that they were welcoming some important political figure from a big country

Even when Yuei Vu got off the plane, after shaking hands with several big shots and capitalists, he saw a woman with a voluptuous figure, a long gown that perfectly outlined her bulging figure. She gave him a sneak peek

Even using beauty trap, is this the rhythm of welcoming me?

They really used all means

Yuei Vu was not interested in this person, but the little follower behind him was. Fae was the first one to go up and hold the hand of this beautiful young lady, and said with a smile: Whats your name? They all call me Brother Fae

After figuring out the purpose of this group of peoples grand welcome here, Yuei Vu suddenly became upset again.

If you want to build a Kaiba Land, then you should go to Kaiba!

Why do you all think that Kaiba will listen to me?

Yuei Vu already had serious business to do during this trip to Egypt, so naturally, he didnt have time to eat, drink and have fun with these unrelated people. So he neatly turned down all kinds of invitations including meals and foot baths, and went directly to the Ishtar siblings.

Yuei Vu bluntly said that he and Isis were friends, and he only hoped to be accompanied by her on this trip to Egypt. The implication was that everyone else should go home and do what they want.

Everyone at the scene glanced at Isis, and all of them immediately showed expressions of understanding. They didnt ask any more questions or entangle them. They just politely said that Yuei Vu could ask for anything they needed, and then left for the time being.

Since Yuei Vu said he was a friend, and asked her to accompany her by name, the others naturally thought they understood something, so they wisely didnt bother

Sorry, they upset you. After everyone else left, Isis said to Yuei Vu, Long time no see, Mr. Yuei Vu.

After the Battle City, we havent had the chance to meet again. We also need to thank you in person.

Isis said and bowed to him standardly.

The angle of bending over was enough to show her sincerity, but its a pity that the robe on her body was too tight, and he couldnt see anything from the neck down

Isiss thank was indeed not false at all. After all, in her opinion, her younger brother Mariks selfish act of revenge involved Yuei Vu, who should have been an irrelevant person, and forced him to play several Shadow Games, endangering his life more than once.

And in the end, it was Yuei Vu who defeated the evil personality Yami Marik, and was able to liberate her brother from the darkness.

From this perspective, Yuei Vu should be regarded as their benefactor.

But Yuei Vu waved his hand generously, saying that there was no need to worry about it.

Yuei Vu also sincerely said this.

After all, in his opinion, Marik didnt bother him too much at the beginning and even looked a little cute now in retrospect.

Thinking back to his first pot of gold after rebirth, Pandoras newbie gift package, strictly speaking, was given by Marik.

Not to mention that Marik worked tirelessly afterward, sending people up one after another to give him experience, Duel Disks, and decks.

After his subordinates finished delivering them, he went to battle to continue delivering them himself, round after round, and even delivered the two Egyptian God Cards he kept at the bottom of the box with free shipping.

So in fact, Yuei Vu didnt hold any grudges against Marik at all. On the contrary, whenever she mentioned this little brother, he felt that this was a kind man

Marik himself followed behind his sister. Its just that after he saw Yuei Vu, he kept looking a little weird, biting his lip, and didnt speak for a long while.

It seemed a bit stiff.

Yuei Vu took the initiative to greet him: Long time no see.

Marik smiled a bit reluctantly: Mr. Yuei Vu, long time no see.

Dont be so nervous, the past is in the past.

Yuei Vu patted his shoulderMarik almost instinctively wanted to escape at that moment.

Besides, you dont owe me anything. Yuei Vu smiled, After all, I got a lot of cards from you back then, so it should be considered as compensation.

Oh, by the way, your rare card is really useful

Marik was shocked, and he didnt know if he understood something wrong. He immediately put on a bitter face: ThatMr. Yuei Vu, I really dont have any cards now

Yuei Vu: ?

Whats the matter, kid, I didnt ask you for a card, did I?

Silly boy, of course, I know you dont have a card.

Because your cardsall are in my house!

This was not an exaggeration. After Marik was whitewashed, the huge Ghouls became a mess. Afterward, the entire organization was basically taken over by Yuei Vu, and the rare cards in the entire warehouse that Ghouls searched for were naturally fallen into his pocket from now on Dont worry. Yuei Vu said helplessly, I know you havent, so I dont want to get stuck now. I just

Before he finished speaking, Marik hurriedly added: I have already retired from the dueling world and no longer duel. So I dont have a Duel Disk either!

Yuei Vu:

What the hell are you saying do you think I came all the way to rob you?

Chapter 450: It's Unbearable!

The origin of Anubis, the king of destruction, was unknown. All he knows was that the purpose of his existence was to turn the Pharaoh into nothingness.

In other words, he was the natural enemy of Yugi.

At this moment, his grave has just been dug up, and his body was still sealed in the jackal coffin. On the surface, it seemed so, but in fact, he has been able to move freely to a certain extent.

From the moment the rock formations were broken open by the archaeological team and the tomb was rediscovered, Anubis consciousness had already awakened.

In the original plot of the Pyramid of Light, Anubis did not have to have a physical body to act. In fact, in the animation, as early as when his physical body was still a mummy, he had already started to make trouble.

For example, while Pegasus was sleeping soundly at night, he raided his bedroom at night, secretly deposited the card Pyramid of Light containing evil power in his place, and then slipped away without anyone noticing.

For example, constantly giving Kaiba Seto spiritual hints, intensifying Kaibas desire to defeat Yugi, prompting Kaiba to go to Pegasus to take the Pyramid of Light and use that evil power to defeat Yugi.

Arranging Kaiba to play cards with Yugi was not difficult anyway, even if it went with the natural flow, the president would go to Yugi to play cards after a while if he couldnt restrain his addiction to cards.

But the difficulty lay in putting the Pyramid of Light into Kaibas deck and making him think that he is doing things on his own will.

This was a bit difficult.

Although Anubis was still in the tomb at this moment, staying in his own body that was, the body of the mummy in the coffin, he has already started to conceive tactics in his mind, thinking about how to kill those two ancient kings when he went out.

Of course, he had to get out of here first.

Although Anubis could move in a soul-like form without a body, just like in the animation, he could not be too far away from his own body.

Now he woke up, and although he sensed the existence of the pharaoh, the other party was too far away from him. He must first find a way to move to the Pharaohs side.

More than an hour ago, the soul of Anubis left the tomb for a short time, found some powerful people in the relevant departments, secretly influenced their spirits, and forced them to make a moving the newly unearthed coffin to Domino Museum Exhibition decision.

When the coffin was moved to Domino, which was close enough to Yugi and Kaiba, Anubis could officially start to execute his plan of destruction!

He waited patiently in this dark tomb, and waited until the mummy almost withered.

He couldn't help feeling a little dissatisfied.

Is the efficiency of human beings in this era so low?

Didn't everyone decide to transfer me to the place where the Pharaoh is? Why have you procrastinated for so long and haven't moved?

Obviously, Anubis, the king of destruction from three thousand years ago, didn't quite understand how the so-called bureaucracy worked. He didn't know how many procedures to go through after a decision was approved. It wouldn't take a day or two if he wanted to go

But what was even more unfortunate for him was that he may not be able to wait until the day of departure.

Some voices came from the darkness. The sound of rustling footsteps, and the sound of someone talking.

Anubis was refreshed.

Is it finally coming?

He felt that the person who was going to transfer him to the Pharaoh's side finally came.

But as soon as these people came in, he realized that something was wrong.

These people were chattering, their faces were full of excitement, and they didn't feel any nervousness when they came to the graves of others. They looked like elementary school students on an outing.

One of them had some kind of animal headgear on his head. This also made Anubis feel a little confused could this be the strange dressing custom of human beings three thousand years later?

However, he still chose to hide for the time being, observing the situation calmly.

This place is really big! A man with strange ornaments on his eyes sighed Anubis had never seen such a thing as glasses.

Anubis guessed that the man at the head should be the leader of this group because the people behind seemed to be waiting for him to give orders.

And this leader gave Anubis a different feeling from others. He could feel the powerful power hidden in this man's body, a certain temperament that was completely different from ordinary people, and he must be a powerful king of this era.

In Anubis's imagination, such a king should at least be an overlord with his own city and slaves, even if he didn't have a large country and countless rare treasures like the former Pharaoh.

What does such a person come to my grave?

Anubis was a little suspicious.

Could it be he noticed my existence and came to crusade against me?

Anubis decided to observe again.

However, he soon discovered that this might be one of the worst decisions he ever made.

The people in the back suddenly separated in all directions, like hounds searching for prey.

They began to search around in the tomb, and everywhere they passed was accompanied by a series of ping, ping, ping, and the sound of various things being thrown on the stone floor.

He saw the round-faced man running over, Yuei Vu-san, do you think this is useful?

He was holding a pure gold wine cup in his hand visually, it might also be related to ancient alchemy. After three thousand years, it was still shining brightly.

Then the leader waved his hand: Yes, I'll take it.

Okay!

After a while, the person with the strange animal head also came: Yuei Vu-san! What do you think of this?

What he held in his hand was a heavy sword. The scabbard was covered with layers of chains, and the casting process was extremely exquisite. Even though it was not out of the sheath, it also exuded an extraordinary aura, which was not ordinary at first glance.

The leader nodded again: You can take it.

The one who ran up was a bouncing, delicate-looking girl but the flat chest made people think she was a man when looking at the outline from a distance.

Yuei Vu-san! Look at this! There really is a Duel Disk! The girl was full of surprise, holding a shiny golden object in her hand.

Although the design was very different from the modern Duel Disk, it should be unmistakable from the shape that it was indeed an ancient Duel Disk.

The leader continued to nod his head slightly: Take it.

At this moment, Anubis was hiding under the coffin board, and a series of ?! characters popped out from the mummy's forehead.

What will happen to human beings three thousand years later!?

Shouldn't this person be a proud and glorious king?

What is the situation when he comes up and directly moves things in my grave?

Although doing so would undoubtedly disrupt all his subsequent plans, Anubis felt that he couldn't bear it anymore.

If he continues to endure, these psychopaths would empty his grave!

Sitting in the front row and watching a group of psychopaths dig their own graves was simply unbearable for any person!

Boom!

There was a muffled sound, accompanied by the sound of the chain being torn apart by a strange force. The jackal coffin standing on the wall, the coffin board was blasted away by the strange force erupting from the inside
