

I Play Yu-Gi 461

Chapter 461: Miser

One Hammer Deal, No Counter-Offer was an unknown and penniless player during the DM period of version 1.0. It was during the GX period that he officially entered the public eye and attracted everyones attention.

It seemed that he encountered some opportunities in the 2.0 version, opened some plot quests, and obtained a deck that was ahead of the environment at that time, and since then he has soared into the sky and become a Tier 1 player.

In addition to having a unique deck and strong duelist force, the deepest impression he left on the players was that miser.

Thats right, he was a complete miser.

To what extent?

Like now for example

Ding!

There was a clear and loud system notification sound, and his eyes widened as a line of words You have gained the attention of NPC Yuei Vu jumped out of the interface in front of him.

At the same time, the line Favorability +5 popped up on Yuei Vus forehead.

One Hammers mind quickly became active and the tongue also became active.

He saw in the forum that there seems to be such a thing, an opportunity that very few lucky players have a chance to trigger the prompt of getting attention when they first meet Yuei Vu.

He heard that the probability was very low, as low as just like the probability of falling in love at first sight with your first blind date.

Obviously, One Hammer hit this probability.

He took a look at his mediocre Luck attribute, and then at his Charm value which was less than 60, and couldnt help but fall into doubt.

Could it be because Yuei Vu-san happens to like my type?

Thinking of this, he quickly puffed up his chest and straightened his clothes. If conditions permit, he even wanted to get a small mirror and a small comb to tidy up his hair.

Yuei Vu thought for a while and casually edited a quest for him that no one else had.

Its been a morning, and Im a little thirsty. Yuei Vu said to himself.

At the same time, the quest of buying Yuei Vu a drink jumped out immediately on One Hammers panel.

This was a quest edited by Yuei Vu casually. It had no special meaning, just to find a reason to add some favorability to this player, so as to facilitate subsequent development.

In addition, he sat here selling cards all morning, and he was really thirsty

One Hammer Deal, No Counter-Offers eyes lit up.

Its really here! Hidden quests triggered!

So he turned around and trotted to buy water under the envious and jealous eyes of the players around him.

He ran to the street, looked around, and his eyes first fell on a coffee shop. But just as he was about to go in, when he thought about it

The quest just says a drink, it seems that there is no specific request, right?

So maybe bottled drinks would work too?

After all, the things in the coffee shop so expensive!

Although things like currency could not buy the most important thing (referred to the card) for players, they could still buy other things in the game.

Moreover, although the cards bought in the card store were game props for players and could not be used in actual duels, they were still valuable for collection.

In reality, many people were willing to spend hundreds, thousands, or even tens of thousands of dollars to collect a very rare card. Of course, it was not just for playing cards with others, but also for the value of collection.

Some players didnt play cards with others at all, but sometimes opened packs or bought some expensive real cards, just for collection.

So although the currency in the game was not as important as crystal, it was still useful.

Holding the mentality of saving what can be saved, he turned and ran to a small shop without haggling. Glancing at the drinks in the store, he then thought

Maybe there is no need for drinks, but drinking water?

Anyway, I have to buy drinking water, so I dont need a big bottle, a small bottle is enough to complete the quest

One Hammer struggled for a long time between the big bottle of drinking water and the small bottle of drinking water, and his eyebrows frowned so heavily that it made the shop owner think that he was going through some kind of tormenting decision in his heart.

In the end, he gritted his teeth, his heart sank, and he slammed his big hand on the counter, almost scaring the boss.

Boss, heres a bottle of drinking water a big one!

Under the blank gaze of the shop owner, he gritted his teeth and paid. When he came back with such a large bottle of drinking water, he felt that his favorability with Yuei Vu would definitely increase this time.

After all, he invested in a whole bottle of drinking water!

Still in a big bottle!

What? Do you say this is too mean?

How can you say that?

You are not in charge of the family and dont know how expensive the firewood is!

So when he ran back to Yuei Vu and handed over such a large bottle of drinking water, he raised his head extremely proudly.

Yuei Vu:

Although I was mentally prepared, you brought me a bottle of drinking water. To be honest, I really didnt expect it well, its in a big bottle anyway.

It can be considered a waste of money.

After thinking about it, Yuei Vu still didnt care and clicked the mission completed button for him.

You look good.

Yuei Vu started fooling around, and at the same time took out an Upstart Goblin.

Its been spread all over the forum. If Yuei Vu liked the player, he would sell an Upstart Goblin card at a special discounted price, and there was no need for favorability for this purchase.

Although this card itself was also useful, this was not the point.

The point was, triggering this event meant that you were also the person whom Yuei Vu liked!

When One Hammer encountered this opportunity, he was very excited and felt that he would be close to Yuei Vus golden thighs and reach the pinnacle of life!

However, just before he took out the money, he said without even thinking about it: Can you give me another discount and remove one zero?

Yuei Vu:

What the hell Do you really think Im a vegetable seller in the vegetable market bargaining with you here?

Even the players queuing up next to them were shocked.

This guywhy is he so brave!

This is definitely going to make favorability drop, right?

Even One Hammer himself regretted it right after saying it and wished he could give himself two slaps.

MD, my dealing habit has become muscle memory, and the words are spoken directly without passing the brain

This is definitely going to make favorability drop, right?

Unexpectedly, Yuei Vu didnt seem to mind, and nodded slightly: Okay, then lets get another 20% off.

All the players were startled, and they all looked at Yuei Vu with more admiration.

Yuei Vu-san is really kind and approachable, completely different from those coquettish NPCs in other games who lose their favorability for no reason at all!

There is also this One Hammer Deal, No Counter-Offer

This guy must have a lot of background!

Maybe he has some relations with Yuei Vu-san?

After giving him a little sweetness, Yuei Vu sent him away temporarily.

This guy would achieve a lot in the future, and more importantly, Yuei Vu felt that he could still get important plot quests from him.

In his previous life, One Hammer Deal, No Counter-Offer was well-known and had a unique deck, but he never posted on the forum to show off. He never told anyone how he triggered the hidden mission and how he obtained that deck.

Yuei Vu felt that keeping this tool man by his side first, if this guy still triggered that quest like in his previous life, he would not worry about not being able to catch it.

What? What if he refuses to explain?

There is no mouth that cannot be pried open by me!

Two days later, the number of players who came to Yuei Vu to report and yelled and waited for the harvest has not decreased, but more and more.

It seemed that some players from nearby areas tried their best to come here through their own channels these days, and came all the way to give him crystals.

Even the popularity of news about him in the forum has abnormally not decreased in the past two days but actually continues to increase.

Yuei Vu looked through the forum when he was free at night, and found that it seemed to be related to the new tool person Coke Sprite, and the guild Knights of Hanoi behind her.

Chapter 462: Don't You Have A Mobile Phone?

The unexpected popularity mainly came from the chairman of the Knights of Hanoi guild, a renowned rich among World Link Online players, Just A Sandbag.

Just when Coke Sprite revealed the news that Yuei Vu was planning to go to Egypt, an idea imprinted in DNA instinctively appeared in the chairmans mind.

Its time to show off!

Hurry up and post to the forum!

Besides, as a rich player, when he wanted to show off, he had to distinguish himself from ordinary players.

So the most simple and rude way was to throw money!

Not only did he have to post first-hand news, but he also emphasized that a girl in his guild was with Yuei Vu, and he also had to attract peoples attention through money offensives and take the opportunity to build momentum for his guild.

Although this kind of thing was rare, it was not uncommon. For example, if a rich opened a hidden plot in the game, or got some ultra-rare cards, sometimes he would clamor for giving out red envelopes to celebrate.

Some bigwigs really didnt care about such a small amount of money. Sending red envelopes to spread money could also increase the popularity of posts and make ones name famous, which was not a loss for real big shots.

With the leadership of a sandbag, many wealthy players in the Egyptian area also appeared in the thread, saying that if Yuei Vu-san took a fancy to it, they would send a huge red envelope of 100,000 to 200,000 RMB (about 14000 28000 USD). It was very lively for a while.

This wave could be regarded as an indirect promotion for Yuei Vu.

The chairman of the Knight of Hanoi seems to be a pretty good person. Through Coke Sprite, Yuei Vu indirectly got to know the president a little bit.

Generally speaking, he was still a relatively straightforward local rich player who really liked this game, and the impression was not bad.

Yuei Vu could be considered to have received his care this time.

In short, Yuei Vu could be regarded as writing down this favor first. If there was an opportunity in the future, he would take care of their Knights of Hanoi a little bit.

Even though Yuei Vu was already quite popular among players, in fact, he still had a lot of room for improvement, and there was still a potential market waiting for him to develop.

Not to mention the players who havent yet joined the game due to various reasons, even among the players who have entered the pit, it couldnt be said that everyone has been fanned by him.

Although Yuei Vu and Muto Yugi didnt have much contact with each other on weekdays, the true son of this version of the game, the original protagonist of the world, actually had a lot of fans around him.

Some players disdain making a choice, saying that they both love Yuei Vu and Yugi.

There were also some female players.

In their words, You otaku can enthusiastically call eight or ten 2D girls your wife at a time, why cant this lady have more husbands?

There were even some occasions when players from the Yuei Vu faction and Yugi faction started a war of words on the forum. Sometimes there was a disagreement, and it may even be played in the game, an online card appointment, and a direct competition through the way of playing cards.

Hmph, since Yugi-san and Yuei Vu-san are tied, its up to us to decide for them!

When Yuei Vu saw these posts, he could only shake his head helplessly.

Cant even card players escape the invasion of fandom culture?

And what makes Yuei Vu even more emotional is

The idol is actually me.JPG.

However, Yuei Vus reputation was not wide enough, or not high enough to become a name that everyone knew.

On the second day after he came to Egypt, after harvesting todays leeks and eating dinner, Yuei Vu decided to go out for a walk at night and take a look at the night scene to change his mood.

Never expected that he would find another good seedling after wandering around so casually.

This persons ID is quite normal, called Heart Gone With The Wind.

The reason why he noticed this player was naturally because Yuei Vu had some impression of him.

If he remembered correctly, Heart Gone With The Wind became famous among players, even earlier than One Hammer Deal, No Counter-Offer whom he encountered before.

Like One Hammer Deal, No Counter-Offer, this person has never revealed the origin of his deck to anyone, so until now, Yuei Vu didnt know where the other partys deck came from.

The world was so big, it was naturally impossible for Yuei Vu to hit all the opportunities and tasks. There would always be hidden quests that other players will encounter.

Those players who got lucky and got powerful decks were just like the players who got some peerless martial arts cheats in the same type of martial arts online games.

And this Heart Gone With The Wind was especially powerful.

Because from World Link Online 1.0 to 2.0, his strength was the strongest among all players!

So Yuei Vu would not let it go easily no matter what.

Yuei Vu thought for a while, pretended to meet by chance, and walked up to Heart Gone With The Wind head-on.

Hello, may I ask? Yuei Vu was very polite, with a gentle and polite smile, Do you know how to get to the World Trade Center Third Hotel?

There was also the place where he rested.

Actually, Yuei Vu certainly knew the way to go. He just approached casually and talked to this player.

When an NPC initiated a dialogue with the player, subtitles would appear on the players interface. And the name of the NPC at the beginning of the subtitle would be marked prominently.

See clearly!

Its me, Duel King Yuei Vu, who came to talk to you in person!

If it were any ordinary little leek, they must be exclaimed at this time, wishing to immediately show the three-inch tongue and bootlick him wildly.

However

I dont know. Heart Gone With The Wind answered crisply.

Yuei Vu: ?

What? Shouldnt you check the map on the spot and find the way for me at this time?

Looking at the guys calm reaction, Yuei Vu suddenly had an idea that he thought was impossible.

Does this guy not recognize me?

Ha? Are there any players who dont recognize me playing someone these days?

Dont you have a mobile phone?

Yuei Vu coughed and decided to change the routine. He pretended to see the Duel Disk in Heart Gone With The Winds hand suddenly: Huh? You are also a duelist?

Heart Gone With The Wind was about to leave, but he seemed a little unhappy to be stopped suddenly by Yuei Vu.

With an expression of Why are you delaying me to catch up with the big sale in the supermarket.

Yuei Vu felt that a well character might have appeared on his head at this time.

This time we will not engage in any peaceful recruitment. Just hit this guy with a hammer or simply kill him with a Shadow Game, let him resurrect and run away, so that visual inspection can attract this guys attention

It happened that other players passed by at this time.

A girl players eyes lit up, and she yelled as if she ran into an idol on the street: Yuei Vu-san! Its Yuei Vu-san!

When it fell, it immediately attracted other players passing by not far away.

Yuei Vu-san? Where?

Real or fake?

Damn, it seems to be true! I have no regret!!

Seeing the crowd of players gathered, Heart Gone With The Wind, who gradually became the focus, still looked dazed.

What? Yuei Vu-san?

Who is that referring to?

Chapter 463: A Hidden Big Shot

In fact, although there were not many players like Heart Gone With The Wind, it was not a rare exception.

Anyway, he just wanted to play games casually. He didnt visit forums much, didnt join any guilds, and didnt copy other peoples deck lists. After logging in to the game for the first time, he relied on his own to figure out everything.

So he naturally didnt recognize such an idol NPC as Yuei Vu

However, no matter how slow he was, he was able to react with the enthusiasm of so many players around him.

The NPC in front of me seems to have a lot of background!

Perhaps an important character in the original work?

That's right, this guy not only didn't browse the forums, but he hasn't even seen the original animation of Yu-Gi-Oh.

He played this game firstly because the game itself was finely crafted and the experience is realistic, and secondly because he was interested in playing cards.

Heart Gone With The Wind belonged to the kind of rare players who have never been in contact with manga or anime and was simply attracted by the gameplay.

Seeing the reactions of other players, he realized that he might have encountered some important person on the road!

His eyes fell back on Yuei Vu, his eyes flickered, and he thought for a while.

Well, since we are playing a card game here, it is only natural that we should

That's right, I'm a duelist. He finally answered Yuei Vu's question and raised the Duel Disk, Shall we have a tense and exciting game?

Yuei Vu:

After a little thought, he nodded: Okay. I accept the challenge as a duelist.

The players passing by were even more upset now.

Yuei Vu-san actually accepted it!

You know, even in Domino, he never accepted challenges from any players.

This was the same as those important plot characters such as Yugi Muto and Seto Kaiba players who want to play cards with these important characters must obtain corresponding opportunities through missions.

For example, qualifying in competitions such as Battle City and KC Grand Prix.

No one thought there was anything wrong with this. After all, if anyone could challenge an important NPC, there would be so many players queuing up, it would be exhausting.

However, this time, a passerby player named Heart Gone With The Wind, actually got such a once-in-a-lifetime opportunity?

Maybe this is also a hidden mission triggered with a small probability?

Among the players who stopped to watch, many felt it was a pity.

Because no one has ever heard of the ID Heart Heart Gone With The Wind, in everyone's opinion, it should probably be an unknown passerby player.

Not only has he not been seen in major events and various activities, but his name has also never been seen in the players ladder competition list, so there must be nothing special about it.

In fact, Yuei Vu also thought so.

Although Heart Gone With The Wind had been to the top echelon of the entire game in the previous life, at least for now, Yuei Vu has never seen his name on the forum or the ladder list.

After a short while, the two sides had already stood apart on the side of the street.

The news was screenshotted and posted on the forum, which caused a huge sensation. More and more players heard the news and rushed to the scene to watch.

Duel! x2

Yuei Vu, LP 4000

Heart Gone With The Wind, LP 4000

Its me who goes first, draw.

The red light indicating the first turn belonged to Heart Gone With The Wind.

Yuei Vu looked at the opponent with a smile.

The reputation was not obvious, and no one knew this ID at all, which meant that Heart Gone With The Wind has a high probability of not getting his famous deck in the later period. So what he was using now could only be one of a few general-purpose decks among players, which should be easy to deal with

But then, Heart Gone With The Wind drew a card from his hand: I summon Gladiator Beast Dimacari in attack position!

Yuei Vu: !

Onlookers: !!??

He said summoning what! ?

When the armored, dark-skinned bull-headed gladiator appeared on the field, the players couldnt help themselves.

Gladiator Beast Dimacari, ATK 1600

Gladiator Beast deck came from the Colosseum tradition of the ancient Roman Empire. Most of the low-level monsters in this deck were all kinds of animal gladiators, symbolizing the efforts to act as gladiators and the ranks of army soldiers.

The powerful monsters at the upper level of this deck were all famous imperial rulers, such as the famous Caesar, and the notorious tyrant Nero in the history of Rome and even Europe.

This deck was also a meta deck that was all the rage at the beginning, and it had very high popularity among players.

Because at its most prosperous and glorious moment, it once won supreme glory in this game.

In 2008, in Berlin, Germany, the Gladiator Beast deck successfully won the title of World Champion!

The eyes of the players looking at Heart Gone With The Wind suddenly changed, from the previous eyes that seemed to be looking at an unrelated passerby, to worshipping the great god.

Its just that they were also wondering, why have they never heard of a master who played Gladiator Beast among the players before.

Obviously, from the theme of the deck, it could be seen that this deck was closely related to ancient Rome, and it has been handed down a long time ago. Heart Gone With The Wind obviously completed the relevant quests and unlocked this deck of kings from the ancient Roman Empire.

Yuei Vu and the players were equally astonished. Since this guy already had such a strong deck in his hands and has the strength to disdain the entire version among players, how could he remain unknown so far?

Could it be that this guy not only didnt go to the forum, but also didnt compete, doesnt participate in activities, didnt communicate with others, and has been playing World Link Online as a single-player game by himself?

Yuei Vu thought about it carefully, and found that it seems that there was really only this possibility
This made Yuei Vu go serious.

Although he didnt know how complete the opponents deck was, it was a former champion deck after all, so he couldnt deal with it casually with a relaxed attitude like before.

Set two cards, I end my turn.

My turn, draw!

Although he decided to be a little more serious, Yuei Vu did not come up with the main deck this time but used the old deck that he had put aside for a long time.

Summon the Skilled Dark Magician in attack position!

The black mage dressed in a robe appeared in front of Yuei Vu holding a staff horizontally in his hand, with three eye-catching transparent magic lights on his body.

Skilled Dark Magician, ATK 1900

The effect of a Skilled Dark Magician Each time a Spell Card is activated, place 1 Spell Counter on this card. Yuei Vu quickly drew out a card, I activate the Spell Card Card Destruction. Both players discard as many cards as possible from their hands, then each player draws the same number of cards they discarded.

At this instant, the Skilled Dark Magician puts a Spell Counter on himself.

Both parties discarded their cards and drew cards. At the same time, the indicator light in the center of the magicians chest was lit up.

Continue to activate another Spell Card Dark Magic Veil! Yuei Vu said, I pay 1000 life points and revive the Dark Magician who was discarded to the graveyard through the Card Destruction!

Come on, Dark Magician!

Yuei Vu, LP 4000 LP 3000

A pitch-black vortex opened, and a green staff swirled and shot out from the vortex. Surrounded by the surging magic power, the slender figure flew out, the staff circled in mid-air, and flew back to the mage's hand. The Dark Magician landed lightly, and his robe fluttered in the jet-black torrent.

Dark Magician, ATK 2500

At this instant, the Spell Counters of the Skilled Dark Magician have increased to two!

The Skilled Dark Magician was silent, but the second indicator light on his chest was also lit.

Next is the Spell Card Bond Between Teacher and Student! Another card appeared in front of Yuei Vu, When there is a Dark Magician on the field, special summon 1 Dark Magician Girl from the deck!

Appear, Dark Magician Girl!

A beam of light flew out of Yuei Vu's deck, and the deck was automatically shuffled immediately. The beam of light turned into a beautiful figure on the ground, and the girl's blond hair fluttered, falling delicately in front of the owner, causing the onlookers to shout AWSL one after another.

Dark Magician Girl, ATK 2000

The follow-up effect of Bond Between Teacher and Student. Another card popped up automatically in Yuei Vu's deck, I can set Dark Burning Magic directly from the Deck!

As soon as the voice fell, there was another set card at the feet in front of him.

At this moment, the Skilled Dark Magician has three Spell Counters! Yuei Vu waved his arm, Tribute the Skilled Dark Magician with three Spell Counters, special summon another Dark Magician from the deck!

Appear, second Dark Magician!

The black-robed mage chanted the spell silently, and the three indicator lights in front of him lit up at the same time. A magic circle emerged under his feet, his body gradually became illusory, and the blue light that turned into stars disappeared. Surging magic power erupted from the magic circle, and the mage in the red robe rushed out in a whirl!

Dark Magician, ATK 2500

The players started to get restless.

In the opening round, two Dark Magicians and one Dark Magician Girl were summoned, with a total output of 7000 points!

Moreover, the Spell Card Dark Burning Magic that Yuei Vu just retrieved from the deck just now had the effect that when there were Dark Magician and Dark Magician Girl on the field, destroy all cards on your opponent's field.

Ultimate black magic with master-student cooperation could instantly clear everything in front of you!

Yuei Vu-san was planning to OTK!

Chapter 464: I Really Want It!

The scene that Yuei Vu set up in the first round was enough to OTK most players and NPCs at this stage!

The Spell Card Dark Burning Magic, which was set by the effect of Bond Between Teacher and Student, is activated! Yuei Vu raised his hand and flipped the card in front of him, If I control monsters whose original names are Dark Magician and Dark Magician Girl, destroy all cards on the opponents field!

The flipped Spell Card quickly released magic power to fill the body of the black magicians. The staffs of the Dark Magician and Dark Magician Girl on the field intertwined, and majestic energy was brewing, tumbling between the two staffs.

But at this moment, Heart Gone With The Wind raised his arms, and one of the cards in front of him was flipped open.

Counter Trap Disarm! Heart Gone With The Wind opened a trap in front of him, Return 1 Gladiator Beast card from my hand to the Deck, negate the activation and effect of a Spell Card, and destroy it!

He shows a card from his hand.

I shuffled the Gladiator Beast Darius in my hand back to the deck, and the activation of Dark Burning Magic is negated!

A gladiator beast in the shape of a horse head appeared in the form of a phantom and raised its hand to shoot out a milky white light gun. The curtain wall of magic was broken, and the light gun stabbed straight at the place where the master and apprentice were located with unstoppable momentum.

The master and apprentice of black magic had to temporarily give up the big move that was brewing, and each put their staff across their chests and released a magic circle to resist. But in this way, the strongest spell they were brewing was interrupted.

Seeing the killing blow failed, Yuei Vu raised his eyebrows and waved his hands: Then enter Battle Phase. Dark Magician Girl, attack Gladiator Beast Dimacari!

The girl who received the masters order held her head high, yelled Heya, waved her staff and sent a magic shock and flew towards Dimacari head-on.

Heart Gone With The Wind continued to flip over the set card: Trap Card Defensive Tactics! It can only be activated when there is a Gladiator Beast on the field. For the rest of this turn, monsters I control cannot be destroyed by battle, and any Battle Damage I take is reduced to 0!

The girls black magic power suddenly hit a wall and seemed to be blown away by an invisible force.

Do you even prevent the battle? Yuei Vu shrugged, Then my Battle Phase is over.

At this moment, the effect of Gladiator Beast Dimacari is activated! Heart Gone With The Wind said, At the end of the Battle Phase, if this card attacked or was attacked: I can shuffle it into the Deck; Special Summon 1 Gladiator Beast monster from my Deck, except Gladiator Beast Dimacari!

The swarthy bull-headed gladiator beast on the field turned into a beam of light and flew back to the deck of Heart Gone With The Wind, and soon he found the next card he wanted.

I Special Summon Gladiator Beast Murmillo!

As the name suggested, a blue fish gladiator appeared on the stage, carrying two super-large-caliber gun barrels behind it.

The effect of Murmillo! Heart followed the wind and said, When this card is Special Summoned by the effect of a Gladiator Beast monster: Target 1 face-up monster; destroy that target!

I destroyed a Black Magician!

The fish bucket quickly calibrated its direction, and the two heavy cannons behind it blasted out a cannon-like impact of water! The azure water column instantly penetrated the body of one of the black magicians, and the latter quickly turned into a phantom and dissipated.

Yuei Vu drew a card: Then Set a card, I end my turn.

The players have already had heated discussions at the moment.

This passer-by player who they thought was lucky enough to be favored by Yuei Vu, now in their eyes, has become a top master.

Yuei Vu-san must have seen that the other party is different, so he accepted his challenge!

My turn, draw!

Heart Gone With The Wind could now tell that this NPC was indeed different from the other NPCs he has encountered so far.

He obtained the Gladiator Beast deck by completing a series of quests by chance recently.

He didnt go online to search for any card list construction. The entire deck was built by him after testing and according to his own preferences. However, since he started to use this deck, he has never lost a duel with an NPC in the game.

However, although Heart Gone With The Wind did not recognize Yuei Vu, he had already seen through this only one round of confrontation that this NPC must be extraordinary!

He also became interested.

Whats the point of abusing weaklings all day long?

Who doesnt want to fight against the strong?

Whats more, even leaving aside the card skills, this NPC

Also a billion points more handsome than everyone else.

Definitely not an ordinary person!

My turn! Heart Gone With The Wind immediately launched a counterattack, Spell Card Night Beam! Target 1 Set Spell/Trap the opponent controls; destroy that target. The opponent cannot activate the targeted card in response to this cards activation!

He pointed to the card in the backcourt of Yuei Vu.

I destroy that card!

Night Beam was not very useful compared to other typhoons that cleaned up the back row, mainly because it was a Normal Spell with Spell Speed 1, and it could only destroy Set cards.

However, its advantage was that the card selected as the target could not be activated, thus sometimes players would choose to invest it.

Of course, the main reason Heart Gone With The Wind went into this card instead of the more generic MST was that he only got this one

But as far as the situation of this duel was concerned, it has little impact. The golden light blow released by the Spell Card blasted Yvei Vus set card into pieces. Turning it over, it was a Trap Hole.

If it wasn't for the coincidence that Heart Gone With The Wind got Night Beam here and ruled it out, stepping on this trap might directly cause his loss.

After dismantling the back row, Heart Gone With The Wind cheered up and entered the rhythm of counterattack: Summon Gladiator Beast Bestiari in attack position!

A bird gladiator in green metal armor appeared on his field, with huge metal wings spread out behind him.

Gladiator Beast Bestiari, ATK 1500

I return Gladiator Beast Bestiari and Gladiator Beast Murmillo on the field to the deck to perform fusion! Heart Gone With The Wind shouted, The fusion condition is Gladiator Beast Bestiari + 1 Gladiator Beast monster!

Contact Fusion

Gladiator Beast Gyzarus! !!

The two Gladiator Beasts merged in mid-air, and a figure covered in black armor emerged from the storm.

Solid black armor, blood-red gemstones, green metal wings with a touch of technology, and dangerous red lights flashing in the pupils of the ancient king. The moment he descended from the sky, it looked like he was ruling the world!

The players frantically took screenshots.

Caesar!

The iconic king of the Gladiator Beast deck!

Gladiator Beast Gyzarus, ATK 2400

At the same time, this was also the main trump card of Heart Gone With The Wind at the current period.

Currently, he only had one copy in his hand.

The effect of Gladiator Beast Gyzarus! Heart Gone With The Wind continued, When this card is Special Summoned: I can target up to 2 cards on the field; destroy those targets! I destroy remaining Dark Magician and Dark Magician Girl!

Gyzarus soared into the sky, his figure spun, his spread wings flapped in the air, and countless red spikes shot out like raindrops!

Without the support of corresponding cards, neither Dark Magician nor Dark Magician Girl had the ability to deal with this kind of power. The magician master and apprentice tried their best to release the magic circle to resist, but they were soon broken through by the air strike bombed by the ancient king, both of them exploded and hurriedly left the field.

In just one turn, the three magicians summoned by Yuei Vu, plus the back row were all blown up.

Battle! Heart Gone With The Wind continued, I use Gladiator Beast Gyzarus to attack directly!

Gyzarus let out a sharp sound, dragging a swirling green airflow behind him, like a dive bomber heading straight for Yuei Vu!

Boom! ! !

Violent blasting, the impact swept across the ground, and the smoke screen was stirred into chaos.

Yuei Vu, LP 3000 LP 600

Yuei Vu raised an arm to protect his face and took the blow. He swayed, raised his head, and looked at Gyzarus who was spreading his wings and retreating to the masters field, but the corners of his mouth raised slightly.

Gladiator Beast Deck

I really want it!

Chapter 465: Sword Fight

The effect of Gladiator Beast Gyzarus! Heart Gone With The Wind said, At the end of the Battle Phase, if this card battled, I can return it to the Extra Deck; Special Summon 2 Gladiator Beast monsters from my Deck, except Gladiator Beast Bestiari!

Come back, Gyzarus!

The king of ancient Rome appeared briefly and then disappeared from the field in a faint golden glow. Heart Gone With The Wind pulled out the deck and quickly found the other two Gladiator Beasts to call.

Come on! What I want to summon is Gladiator Beast Vespasius and Gladiator Beast Andal!

Gladiator Beast Vespasius, a Level 7 high-level gladiator. He had a shape like a sea dragon, with a long tail, his body was covered with hard blue scales, and he held a gold inlaid epee. The edge of the sword swung everywhere, leaving behind a blue spray.

Gladiator Beast Andal was a burly black bear with a strong and strong body, but one eye was blind.

Gladiator Beast Vespasius, ATK 2300

Gladiator Beast Andal, ATK 1900

Gladiator Beast Vespaus effect is activated. Heart Follows the Wind, When this monster is Special Summoned by the effect of a Gladiator Beast monster, all monsters I control gain 500 ATK.

Gladiator Beast Vespaus, ATK 2300 ATK 2800

Gladiator Beast Andal, ATK 1900 ATK 2400

Set a card, I end my turn.

The players discussed enthusiastically

Wow, Gladiator Beast is so strong!

Is Yuei Vu-san about to be overturned?

600 LP, two cards in hand next round Seems really dangerous!

Its not a big deal for the people who ate popcorn to watch the excitement. They hoped that Yuei Vu couldnt beat this one, so that after the video of this duel became popular, they could hold their heads high and go around boasting on the spot.

However, Yuei Vu didnt mind the mentality of these sand sculptures.

What? Do you say I only have two cards?

Heh, I think you guys dont know anything about a Rank 8 Boss.

Let you see now, what is called a duel by a true duelist is inevitable!

My turn, draw! Yuei Vu showed the cards he had drawn in his hand, Spell Card Card of Sanctity. Players on both sides draw cards from their decks until their hands are full of six cards!

Players:

As expected of you, you are a big boss.

The duel between the bosses is really not limited by the cognition of us mortals

The ammunition was full, and the duel entered Yuei Vus rhythm again: The effect of the Magicians Souls in the hand is activated! By sending 1 Level 6 or higher Spellcaster monster from my Deck and this card from my hand to the GY, Special Summon 1 Dark Magician or 1 Dark Magician Girl from my GY!

The card deck mounted on the duel plate soon automatically popped up the cards he wanted. Yuei Vu pulled out the card and turned it over.

I sent the Dark Eradicator Warlock from the deck to the GY to activate the effect of Magicians Souls! Discard the Magicians Souls, and the Dark Magician Girl in the GY will be resurrected!

Yuei Vu sent the Magicians Souls and the Dark Eradicator Warlock to the GY together, and the GY quickly returned him a card.

The magic circle opened, and the beautiful girl who had just left the stage last round got out of the transparent magic circle, leaving a crystal-like trail where the small staff waved.

Dark Magician Girl, ATK 2000

The attack power of the Dark Magician Girl will increase by 300 for each Dark Magician in the GYs. Yuei Vu said, There are two Dark Magicians in my GY, so the attack power will increase by 600.

As the so-called Sacrifice your master to the heaven and the heaven will give you boundless magic power, the magic power of the girl who sacrificed two masters expanded and strengthened rapidly, and her attack power quickly soared beyond her own master.

Dark Magician Girl, ATK 2000 ATK 2600

Heart Gone With The Wind understood.

That's why he chose to resurrect the Dark Magician Girl instead of the Dark Magician

Even so, her attack power is still not comparable to Gladiator Beast Vespasianus.

Are you going to start with Andal first?

However, Yuei Vu did not attack at this point, but slowly drew another card from his hand.

A card that seems to be quite different from all other cards.

Spell Card The Eye of Timaeus!

Like a roar from beyond the void, the sound of the dragons roar resounded through the heavens and the earth! The dragon with a blue body descended to the earth in the form of a transparent phantom, spread its wings covering the sky and the sun, and looked down majestically with one eye.

By the effect of the Eye of Timaeus, I can use the Dark Magician Girl as a Fusion Material to summon the corresponding fusion monster.

The disciple of the great magician will put on the armor of the knight and call forth infinite possibilities with the combination of the legendary dragon and the power of black magic!

Fusion Summon! Appearing in a brand new form

Dark Magician Girl the Dragon Knight!

The Dark Magician Girl flew into the air and accepted the divine power provided by the blue dragon. She merged and changed in the light, and cut the light curtain with a sharp blade. A female knight in silver armor rides on the back of a giant dragon, with a shining brilliance residing on the raised blade.

Dark Magician Girl the Dragon Knight, ATK 2600

Seeing the Dark Magician Girl put on knight armor, her aura instantly transformed from a mascot to an ace-level monster, a bunch of players were singing and dancing, and they seemed happier than she herself.

But Yuei Vu has not finished yet: The next step is to equip the Equip Spell Excalibur to the Dark Magician Girl the Dragon Knight! At the cost of skipping my own Draw Phase, the original attack power of the equipped monster is doubled! (animation card)

The dazzling sword flew out, and with a shining golden light, it precisely landed in the hands of the Dark Magician Girl. The girl riding on the dragons back holds a sword in each hand, in a two-sword style posture, and the two swords sweep along opposite trajectories, rippling transparent ripples in the air.

Dark Magician Girl the Dragon Knight, ATK 2600 ATK 5200

Battle! Yuei Vu pointed to Hai Long's Gladiator, Dark Magician Girl the Dragon Knight, attack Gladiator Beast Andal!

The moment the giant dragon flapped its wings, a violent gust of wind blew up! The dust surged up as if a curtain of yellow sand had been suspended, but then it was torn to pieces by the invisible sword energy.

The Dark Magician Girl raised her double swords and a blue storm condensed in the mouth of the dragon! The momentum of the sword and the coercion of the dragon echoed each other, and the devastating momentum suppressed the two Gladiator Beasts almost immobile.

Attack power 5200? Heart Gone With The Wind came back to his senses, gritted his teeth, Open the set card: Continuous Trap Shadow Spell! Choose a monster on the field, it loses 700 ATK, also it cannot attack or change its battle position!

I choose Dark Magician Girl the Dragon Knight!

The Continuous Trap was turned over as if the chains from the depths of the darkness were shooting straight toward the girl on the dragons back!

At this moment, the effect of Dark Magician Girl the Dragon Knight is activated! Yuei Vu discarded a card from his hand to the graveyard, Once per turn, I can send 1 card from my hand to the GY, then target 1 face-up card on the field; destroy that target.

I will destroy the Shadow Spell!

The sword in the girl's hand slashed down in the air! The sword light seemed to tear open the space, dragging the spiral dust, with a will that seemed to penetrate everything, cut the dark chains surrounding it in all directions into several pieces, and the broken chains were scattered in all directions.

Nothing could stop her attack, the double swords slashed by the Dark Magician Girl blasted out two spiral beams of light!

Black Dragon Burst!

The sword energy and the impact of the legendary dragon's breath merged into one, submerged the black bear's body, and evaporated the poor gladiator beast, including its armor and body, into ashes.

Heart Gone With The Wind, LP 4000 LP 1200

Chapter 466: Checkmate!

Heart Gone With The Wind, LP 1200

The body of the character controlled by this player was blown back again and again under the impact of the Black Dragon Burst, and almost failed to stand still.

Although Yuei Vu didn't go all the way here, and didn't even play the main deck, at this time he still learned the potential power of Gladiator Beast as the champion of the past.

Yuei Vu, who was directly facing Gladiator Beasts on the field, could clearly feel the strength of this deck it was different from the feeling when facing the local NPC powerhouses in the past. Before fighting against those big guys, most of the pressure came from the duelist himself, but now he clearly felt that all the pressure came from the deck in the opponents hand.

In his previous life, he actually had a chance to fight against Heart Gone With The Wind who was holding the Gladiator Beast deck. At that time, with the change of the environment, the Gladiator Beast didnt even have the strong suppressing power it had when it first appeared, but Yuei Vu was still beaten so hard at that time.

But this guy treated Yuei Vu pretty well at the time. Although his strength was at the top among the players, Heart Gone With The Wind did not have the proud attitude of some other top players. At least when dealing with Yuei Vu, he was quite kind.

He was unlike some people in this game who played cards with hostility. If they were lucky enough to win a duel, you would be scolded as a vegetable dog. The very same people, when stepping on your traps, would start to greet your whole family with curses

And because of special reasons, they also briefly teamed up to do missions. At that time, Yuei Vu was roughly equivalent to the small pendant on the thick thigh of the great god, and he had received a lot of care from Heart Gone With The Wind.

So in general, although Heart Gone With The Wind didnt recognize Yuei Vu, a national idol, which made him feel a little embarrassed, because he had a good impression of him, Yuei Vu didnt deliberately mess with his mentality.

My Battle Phase is over. Yuei Vu said, Enter Main Phase 2. Activate the Continuous Spell Mirage of Nightmare. During the opponents Standby Phase, this card allows me to draw cards until I have 4 cards in my hand. During my Standby Phase, I must randomly discard to the Graveyard the same number of cards I drew with this cards effect.

Then he continued to take a card from the grave area of the Duel Disk.

Just now, the effect of Soul Servant, which was discarded as the price of Dark Magician Girl the Dragon Knight, is activated. Yuei Vu said, Banish this card from the GY; draw cards equal to the number of Palladium monsters, Dark Magician, and/or Dark Magician Girl, with different names, on the field and in the GYs.

Now there are both Dark Magician and Dark Magician Girl in my graveyard, so I draw two cards.

Yuei Vu drew two cards, then took one out and inserted it into the Duel Disk.

Set a card, I end my turn.

Heart Gone With The Wind took a deep breath, and temporarily put aside the identity of the NPC on the opposite side, as well as the shouting and booing players.

He felt that playing cards has never been as fun as it was now since he entered the game!

He didnt have any good cards in his hand before, and the patterns of the deck were limited.

After that, he got the Gladiator Beast deck, and playing cards with ordinary passers-by NPCs was basically a massacre. Since then, his daily quests have been like mowing grass, just running the map step by step.

It felt like playing a martial arts RPG online game. The character equipment and martial arts have all graduated to the full level, and there was no challenge.

But of course, this was only in the area he was in. The ones he had fought were only minor characters, and he hadn't encountered many NPCs who could really fight.

Not to mention that he hasn't played against any other players either.

My turn, draw!

At this moment, according to the effect of Mirage of Nightmare. Yuei Vu said, I draw until I have 4 cards in my hand.

Yuei Vu's remaining LP was only 600. Looking at the cards in his hand, Heart Gone With The Wind thought he had a chance this round!

Summon the Gladiator Beast Bestiari!

The whirlwind rolled up, and the bird-gladiator beast in green armor spread its wings again, soared half a circle, then flew back to the arena, and landed in front of its master.

Gladiator Beast Bestiari, ATK 1500

Yuei Vu frowned slightly.

Now there was a Gladiator Beast Bestiari on the field, and there was also a Gladiator Beast Vespausius. By returning these two Gladiator Beasts to the deck, Heart Gone With The Wind could summon the Gladiator Beast Gyzarus, and use its powerful effect to blow up two cards on Yuei Vu's side of the field.

He must prevent Gyzarus's appearance!

The effect of Dark Magician Girl the Dragon Knight is activated! Yuei Vu discarded another card in his hand to the graveyard, Once per turn, I can send 1 card from my hand to the GY, then target 1 face-up card on the field; destroy that target! This effect can also be activated during the opponent's turn!

The card I want to destroy is Gladiator Beast Bestiari!

Gladiator Beast Bestiari was the key to the fusion of Gyzarus, so it was naturally the primary target of Yuei Vu.

The Dark Magician Girl raised her long sword, a silver arc flashed, and the crescent-shaped sword light cut out in the air. Before the poor bird-shaped sword fighting beast had time to stand still, its body was split open by the sword light and exploded with a bang.

Heart Gone With The Wind raised his arms to block the smoke screen simulated by the stereo image.

Sure enough, just as he thought, the other party would definitely try to prevent Gyzarus's appearance.

But he still had a chance: Activate Spell Card Gladiators Return! Target 3 Gladiator Beast cards in my Graveyard; shuffle all 3 targets into the Deck, then draw 1 card.

Three cards popped up immediately in his GY area.

I return Gladiator Beast Bestiari, Gladiator Beast Andal, and Gladiator Beast Sagittarii to the deck, and then draw a card!

Yuei Vu confirmed the three cards he returned to the deck with a glance.

Gladiator Beast Sagittarii was it discarded by the Card Destruction before?

After shuffling the cards, Heart Gone With The Wind put the deck back into the Duel Disk and then drew cards.

Then there is the Spell Card Gladiator Beasts Respite! Heart Gone With The Wind played the next card, Shuffle 2 Gladiator Beast cards from my hand into the Deck, then draw 3 cards.

He took out two more cards, put them back in the deck, shuffled, and then drew the cards again.

After continuously changing the cards in his hand and speeding up the draw, this time, his eyes lit up, as if he had finally drawn the most critical card.

Spell Card Gladiator Proving Ground. Heart Gone With The Wind played the Spell Card, Add 1 Level 4 or lower Gladiator Beast monster from the deck to the hand.

I added Gladiator Beast Bestiari to my hand.

He searched the deck, found the Gladiator Beast Bestiari that had just been shuffled back into the deck before, and added it to his hand again.

Yuei Vu watched him shuffle the cards without speaking.

Even if the Gladiator Beast Bestiari was recovered into the hand, Heart Follow the Wind has consumed his chance to Normal Summon this turn. It stood to reason that there should be no way to summon Gladiator Beast Gyzarus Battle!

Unexpectedly, Heart Gone With The Wind directly entered the Battle Phase. However, he did not immediately order to attack, but drew out a card.

Quick-Play Spell Gladiator Beast United! A card appeared in front of Heart Gone With The Wind, This card can only be activated during the Battle Phase. Shuffle into the Deck, from my hand, field, or GY, the Fusion Materials that are listed on a Gladiator Beast Fusion Monster, then Special Summon that Fusion Monster from my Extra Deck, ignoring its Summoning conditions!

He revealed the Gladiator Beast Bestiari that he had just retrieved from his hand.

I return the Gladiator Beast Bestiari in my hand and the Gladiator Beast Vespasius on the field to the deck!

The fusion condition is Gladiator Beast Bestiari + 1 Gladiator Beast monster! Contact Fusion Gladiator Beast Gyzarus! !!

The storm was sliced by blade-like green wings, and the ancient Roman king with scarlet pupils and green armor came again!

Gladiator Beast Gyzarus, ATK 2400

Gladiator Beast Gyzarus effect! Heart Gone With The Wind said, When this card is Special Summoned: I can target up to 2 cards on the field; destroy those targets! What I want to destroy are Dragon Knight Dark Magician Girl and that set card!

After the effect was processed, Yuei Vu's field would be cleaned up again. With only 600 LP left, he couldn't take Gyzarus's follow-up blow no matter what!

Heart Gone With The Wind's pupils contracted, and at the same time, he subconsciously held his breath.

Checkmate!

Chapter 467: Black Spiral Strike!

Checkmate!

Heart Gone With The Wind held his breath. In the countless duels since he came into contact with this game, he has never looked forward to victory as he was today.

Different opponents have different weights of victory.

But just as Gyzarus spread his wings and countless red spikes scattered like a rain of flowers, Yuei Vu also raised his arms.

Quick-Play Spell Emergency Provisions. The cover card in front of him flipped open, Send any number of other Spell/Trap Cards I control to the Graveyard; gain 1000 LP for each card sent to the Graveyard this way.

He draws two cards from the Duel Disk.

I sent the Equip Spell Excalibur and the Continuous Spell Mirage of Nightmare to the GY, and restore 2000 LP.

The two cards dissipated from the field with a faint golden glow, turning into warm and soft light surrounding Yuei Vu's body. One of the two swords in the hands of the Dark Magician Girl disappeared at the same time, and her boosted power was also weakened.

Yuei Vu, LP 600 LP 2600

Dark Magician Girl the Dragon Knight, ATK 5200 ATK 2600

Then according to Gyzarus's effect, destroy the Dark Magician Girl the Dragon Knight!

Although he was a little disappointed that he lost the opportunity to defeat the opponent, the things Heart Gone With The Wind wanted to do remained the same. The spikes shot by the Gladiator Beast Gyzarus all focused in the same direction, the huge body of the legendary dragon was pierced, and countless cracks were burned out of the scales.

The girl on the dragon's back tried her best to resist with her sword, but finally, she couldn't completely defend herself against such a dense attack and disappeared from the field in a cloud of smoke under the sweeping rain of flowers.

Battle! Heart Gone With The Wind waved his hand, Gladiator Beast Gyzarus, direct attack!

Gyzarus soared into the sky. He spread his wings and flew away from the ground, his scarlet pupils shone with a strange dark light. The metal wings sprayed out a trajectory like an airplane engine, pushing its body into a piercing afterimage, and exploded at Yuei Vu's face with a loud noise soaring into the sky!

Yuei Vu, LP 2600 LP 200

Yuei Vu crossed his arms to protect his face. After the virtual shock was over, he looked up at Heart Gone With The Wind, and couldn't help but chuckle.

Not bad.

You too. Heart Gone With The Wind said seriously.

Yuei Vu even began to feel a little bit, as if he had some sense of déjà vu from playing cards with this guy in his previous life.

He quite enjoyed the duel.

I'm going to end this turn like this. Heart Gone With The Wind said, However, at the end of the Battle Phase, the effect of Gyzarus was also activated.

At the end of the Battle Phase, if this card battled, I can return it to the Extra Deck; Special Summon 2 Gladiator Beast monsters from my Deck, except Gladiator Beast Bestiari.

While speaking, Gyzarus, who had his arms around him on the field, dissipated into countless golden light spots and returned to the deck.

Then according to Gyzarus's effect, I Special Summon Gladiator Beast Hoplomus in Defense Position! He opened the deck and picked out two cards, The other is Gladiator Beast Vespasianus!

The sea dragon-style gladiator beast that had just left the field this round returned to the field again, holding a golden long sword across the field.

The newly-appeared beast, Hoplomus, was a rhinoceros-like gladiator. He wore what could almost be said to be bulky golden armor, and when his footsteps landed it sounded like a warhammer knocking down, his figure was as majestic as a tall and straight mountain.

Gladiator Beast Vespasius, ATK 2300

Gladiator Beast Hoplomus, DEF 2100

The effect of Vespasius As long as this monster is Special Summoned by the effect of a Gladiator Beast monster, the ATK of all my monsters will increase by 500.

Gladiator Beast Vespasius, ATK 2300 ATK 2800

Then comes the effect of Hoplomus. He continued, If this card was Special Summoned by the effect of a Gladiator Beast monster, its original DEF becomes 2400.

Gladiator Beast Hoplomus, DEF 2100 DEF 2400

A monster with an attack power of 2800 and a monster with a defense power of 2400. It was indeed a relatively stable lineup.

If he survived this turn Heart Gone With The Wind could fuse Gladiator Beast Gyzarus again in the next turn and get another chance to defeat the opponent with Gyzaruss powerful ability!

Of course, the premise was that there was a next turn.

My turn, draw. Yuei Vu drew a card from his hand, Summon the Berry Magician Girl!

The magic circle was unscrewed, and there was a burst of warm-toned spell effects. A magic girl with a pacifier in her mouth and a lollipop-like staff appeared on Yuei Vus field.

Berry Magician Girl, ATK 400

The effect of Berry Magician Girl If this card is Normal Summoned: I can add 1 Magician Girl monster from my Deck to my hand. Yuei Vu drew a card from the deck, I add the Chocolate Magician Girl to the hand.

The next is Quick-Play Spell Illusion Magic. Yuei Vu played the second card, Tribute 1 Spellcaster monster; add up to 2 copies of Dark Magician from my Deck and/or GY to my hand.

The magic girl with a pacifier in her mouth blinked her big watery eyes, and her figure quickly disappeared under the light effect of the spell.

Two Dark Magician cards both popped out from the Duel Disks GY area and were taken back by Yuei Vu.

Spell Card Ancient Rules. An ancient yellowed picture scroll appeared in front of Yuei Vu, This card allows me to Special Summon 1 Level 5 or higher Normal Monster from my hand.

Come back to the field again, Dark Magician!

The blood-colored magic power erupted, and the mages law enforcement staff flew out, with his arms embracing the green staff and hanging in mid-air, his robe fluttering gently.

Dark Magician, ATK 2500

Its a Dark Magician again Heart Gone With The Winds heart moved slightly, and his eyes turned to the three cards left in Yuei Vus hand.

Two of the three cards were equivalent to being exposed. One of them was the Dark Magician who was retrieved through Illusion Magic, and the other was the Chocolate Magician Girl who was retrieved through the effect of Berry Magician Girl.

Yuei Vus Normal Summon opportunity has already been used up, and these two cards were temporarily useless.

That was to say, there was only one card that may come in handy.

Can you still OTK me with just one card?

The answer to that card would soon be revealed.

Spell Card Magical Stone Excavation. The last card appeared in front of Yuei Vu, Discard two cards, and return a Spell Card in my GY to my hand.

Heart Gone With The Winds eyelids jumped.

Taking back a Spell Card in the graveyard

All the cards in Yuei Vu's hand were sent to the tomb, and the key card that determined the outcome was quickly exchanged from the GY area!

Activate Spell Card The Eye of Timaeus!

The players next to him started chattering again, shouting some incomprehensible words like scoring twice.

As if the dragon chant came from the distant void, the huge blue dragon shadow reappeared like an illusion, with a majestic flash in its one eye!

The effect of the Eye of Timaeus Target 1 Dark Magician monster on my field; Fusion Summon 1 Fusion Monster from my Extra Deck that mentions that monster on the field as material, using it as the Fusion Material.

I target the Dark Magician!

Using the power of the legendary dragon as a medium, the Dark Magician will become an invincible knight

Arrival! Dark Cavalry!

The Dark Magician and the phantom of the dragon merged with each other, and the howling of the horse came from the surging magic storm! The pitch-black steed galloped through the magic circle surrounded by layers, and on the horseback was a knight in black magic armor. He held a red spiral spear, and the dark magic power overflowed from under him.

That's right, it was the ace monster that was printed on the scene when Yugi played against Yuei Vu in the finals of Battle City.

It wasn't until the end of the Doma arc that he finally drew the Dark Magicians exclusive trump card from the card pool!

Dark Cavalry, ATK 2800

The effect of Dark Cavalry. Yuei Vu said, This card gains 100 ATK for each Spell/Trap on the field and in the GYs.

All the cards from the duel between the two sides have emerged from the graveyard. Among them were every Spell and Trap cards they used in this game, as well as the cards that were discarded to the graveyard by both sides in the first turn.

There were twenty-five Spell and Trap cards in total!

Therefore, the attack power of the Dark Cavalry has increased by 2500!

Dark Cavalry, ATK 2800 ATK 5300

A group of players next to him started to stand on the spot, and even Heart Gone With The Wind who was in the field closed his pupils slightly, looking up at the magic knight with a domineering aura straddling a horse.

A handsomeness that cracked the sky!

As a player, the focus was different from that of an NPC. If it was a local NPC here, they might be amazed at the super high attack power higher than the legendary Five-Headed Dragon. What players paid more attention to is that this monster was very handsome and stylish Yuei Vu continued, When the Dark Cavalry attacks a Defense Position monster, it can inflict piercing battle damage!

Of course, judging from the current situation, no matter which monster was attacked, the ending would be the same.

Battle! Yuei Vu said, Dark Cavalry, attack the Gladiator Beast Hoplomus! Black Spiral Strike!

The horse galloped in the air! It stepped on a magic circle of black magic, and the sound of horseshoes echoed clearly in midair! The cavalry sprinted with a stern momentum, and the spiral spears attached to the power of contempt and penetrating everything!

The heavy armor of the rhinoceros was pierced, and the spear air of the black magic pierced out. Hoplomuss body exploded, and the aftermath of the black magic continued unabated as if sweeping away thousands of troops!

Heart Gone With The Wind, LP 1200 LP 0

Chapter 468: Can I Exchange This Card With You?

When he saw passing players jumping excitedly when they saw Yuei Vu, Heart Gone With The Wind was just doubting the identity of this NPC, but now he was completely sure.

This one must be a very important NPC, maybe even the protagonist of a Yu-Gi-Oh!

Although he has seen anime, he only knew that the protagonist of the first Yu-Gi-Oh DM was Yugi Muto. As for the next one, he seemed to have a little impression of what the protagonist was called. Maybe Yujo Jotaro or something like that.

He has never heard of later protagonists with colorful hairstyles and increasingly unique painting styles. He only heard people say that the common feature was that the names of the protagonists of each generation have the Yu- prefix. At this time, the name Yuei Vu was formally noticed in the line of sight.

The protagonist of Yu-Gi-Oh is actually by my side. JPG!

The way he looked at Yuei Vu suddenly changed.

It became a bit like a bit like the expression of looking up to high-end players that Yuei Vu had when teamed up with him in the previous life.

Its just that time has changed, and now Yuei Vu has become the one who was looked up to.

You played well. Yuei Vu smiled, put away the duel plate, and stepped forward, Your deck is very interesting, I have never seen such a powerful deck.

Its called Gladiator Beast? Can you show me?

While speaking, Yuei Vu edited a quest and sent it out.

On Heart Gone With The Winds interface, a quest immediately jumped out. The title of the quest was A trade request from the protagonist of the world, the champion of the worlds first Battle City competition, the champion of the worlds most advanced duel event KC Grand Prix, the first generation of Duel King, Yuei Vu.

Heart Gone With The Wind was shocked when he saw the long list of titles in the panel, and his eyes on Yuei Vu became even more surprised.

This NPC has such a big background!?

If such a long title is placed on the head like an ID, the ID box might not be long enough, right?

At this time, Heart Gone With The Wind took a closer look and found that this NPC was a bit handsome!

No, its extremely handsome!

When he met this NPC before, he was busy on my way, and later he was too busy playing cards and didnt notice it.

Sure enough, this NPCs background is not small!

However, this naive and pure player still doesnt know that the title of the quest was actually all manually edited by the NPC in front of him, and he could write whatever he wanted

If Yuei Vu was willing, he could change the title string to Captain Duelman, a special member of the Avengers in Domino City.

So Yuei Vu thought that he should be considered a more down-to-earth and low-key NPC.

At least the string of titles he wrote, if strictly investigated, were all true.

Well, maybe only the protagonist of the world was excluded. Yuei Vu did feel a little bit guilty about it

Heart Gone With The Wind only briefly glanced at the quests content and saw the long number of the EXP and crystal reward for completing the quest, and was shocked again.

Ah this is that too many zeroes?

This was not on the same level as the rewards given by any missions that Heart Gone With The Wind has done since he came into contact with this game!

He made a rough estimate. According to his current leveling-up efficiency, he needed at least more than half a month to earn such a reward.

He didnt know that Yuei Vu had spent all the experience quota he could give out today on this quest in one go.

Based on Yuei Vus current level and status, the amount of EXP he could distribute to players every day was of course not the same as when the server was first opened.

Gladiator Beast in the previous life was an exclusive deck of Heart Gone With The Wind. In Yuei Vus previous life, no one else had this deck.

So although Yuei Vu didnt know how the hidden plot was triggered and how difficult to acquire it, the value of this unique deck was definitely hard to measure.

Although Yuei Vu only needed any Gladiator Beast card and did not need to take away the entire deck, but Yuei Vu thought that if he wanted the other party to share it with him, he must at least come up with sincerity.

Yuei Vu didnt think that the amount of EXP and crystal in just one day could be regarded as an equivalent exchange.

After all, as long as a player was willing to spend time, they would be able to acquire enough EXP and crystal sooner or later. And the deck in Heart Gone With The Winds hands was equivalent to martial arts cheats, which couldnt be obtained with money or patience.

The decks in World Link Online were the same as the unique skills in martial arts games. As long as you have learned The Great Shift of The Universe or The Eighteen Palms of Subduing Dragons, even if you were facing a high-end player with a few ranks of game operation awareness above you, it was naturally impossible for him to use basic martial arts to defeat you.

Sure enough, Heart Gone With The Wind seemed a little hesitant when he saw this trading quest:
This

But it didnt matter. Yuei Vu had many out-of-print cards which players couldnt get in their entire lives.

How about this? Yuei Vu smiled and took out a Pot of Greed from his store, The Gladiator Beast Andal you used before seems to be a bear?

To be honest, I am quite interested in the design of that card. Can I exchange this card with you?

Gladiator Beast Andal was a Normal Monster with an attack power of 1900, and it was also the only Normie in the Gladiator Beast series.

Compared to a Thousands-of-Years Banned Card such as Pot of Greed, this deal should be generous enough, right?

Even the onlookers were shocked.

Pot of Greed! An artifact that has been worshiped by generations of card players for so many years!

Although it seemed that this card has been in Yuei Vus store since the Closed Beta, its function has always been equivalent to a carrot tied in front of a donkey, which is specially used to stimulate screwball players.

The high price was not the biggest problem. No matter how high the price was, it couldnt stop players enthusiasm. People could always think of a solution.

The biggest obstacle standing between the players and the invincible Pot of Greed was Yuei Vus favorability

It was said that the higher Yuei Vus favorability was, the more difficult to raise it, and it seemed that the favorability would even drop after a long time.

In addition, many people thought that it seemed to be more difficult for male players to gain favorability than girls.

Therefore, there were even some people posting their own ideas in the forum, asking if there was any big guy who was willing to sacrifice his body and integrity to turn Yuei Vu into a gay for the benefit of male players

The player who made this idea went offline the next day and never went online again.

Although the Pot of Greed still had supreme status among the players, in Yuei Vu's eyes, in fact that's not precious.

After all, he had Card of Sanctity which let you draw 6 cards, Card of Demise which let you draw 5 cards, Monster Recovery which let you draw 5 cards, and a bunch of other messy animation cards.

In contrast, the Pot of Greed that only let you draw 2 cards seemed like nothing much? (Author: You heard that? Does that sound like something a human can say?)

That was to say, considering that cards such as Card of Sanctity and Spell Books from the Pot had the risk of sending resources to the opposite party, the Pot of Greed still had a bit of an advantage

But unexpectedly, Heart Gone With The Wind seemed to be hesitating when he saw the chip: Ah, this

Yuei Vu frowned.

Is this too little?

But it doesn't matter, I still have a lot of good things at the bottom of the box

Just when Yuei Vu was about to take out a big baby to fool around, Heart Gone With The Wind opened his mouth and continued: Is this too much ???

Yuei Vu:

It suddenly feels like a loss of 100 million

Chapter 469: What Am I Afraid Of?

Yuei Vu finally found out that the player in front of him didn't seem to know the value of the deck in his hand

But Yuei Vu still didn't intend to take advantage of others. After the transaction was completed, all the mission rewards were paid to Heart Gone With The Wind as promised, and the Pot of Greed was finally given to the other party.

After all, this was the only out-of-print deck, and Yuei Vu felt that it was a good deal for this trade.

Besides, in fact, the Pot of Greed was only used to whet the players' appetite, and it's not worth much in his hands. This kind of general-purpose card was everywhere in DM, he had too many on hand now

After the onlookers posted screenshots to the forum, this little episode tonight has already attracted widespread attention in the forum.

Every time Yuei Vu played cards publicly, the video received a lot of attention, not to mention that this time the opponent was still a representative of their players, using the famous Gladiator Beast!

In the end, seeing Yuei Vu and Heart Gone With The Wind exchanging cards and taking away a Gladiator Beast card, many people in the forum couldn't help but start brainstorming.

Could this be a signal that Yuei Vu's store is about to put Gladiator Beast on the shelves?

Of course, they thought too much.

He really didn't plan to sell this deck for a while.

There were too many decks that can be sold, and the development of the game environment must be done step by step. For the time being, decks like Gladiator Beast wouldn't appear in his store.

If the champion deck was put up now, wouldn't the pile of Tier-2, and Tier-3 decks in his card library be sold out?

There were so many decks queuing up to be put on sale, why would an OP deck like Gladiator Beast, which destroyed the balance, join in the fun?

Obediently line up and wait for the version number for me!

The Six Samurai that Yuei Vu launched a while ago were still selling well, and the sales are pretty good. Among the few players around him, Yuei Cannot Escape Fae was the most active player. He spent a lot of money and worked hard day and night. Most of the components seemed to be basically assembled.

Wait until the old card boxes were almost sold out before releasing new ones, and everyone queued up to come one by one.

Anyway, leeks couldn't run away, and he was not in a hurry to harvest them for a while. This matter had to be considered as a sustainable development issue, and there was no rush to take it

Before leaving at night, Yuei Vu patted Heart Gone With The Wind on the shoulder, saying that Domino was known as the Duel City, and there were more opportunities and challenges there, and young boy, if you were interested, you could go to Domino with me

When the players nearby heard it, they picked up a wave of lemons together, pouring out a large slice of sour.

Damn, I'm so envious!

Why did so many players struggle every day, upgrade and collect cards to do quests, and want to find a chance to go to an overcrowded city like Domino?

Isn't it just to get close to Yuei Vu-san?!

As a result, this great god was directly appointed by Yuei Vu-san!

Good guy, if this is over and you work harder, maybe you can sneak into Team Yuei Vu directly?

However, Heart Gone With The Wind behaved very calmly and even nodded a little foolishly, and chose to accept the invitation casually.

His mentality was also quite simple.

Isn't it just changing a map? It seems nothing unusual in the game

A player next to him immediately seized the opportunity and ran up to Yuei Vu imitatively.

That, Yuei Vu-san? He chuckled.

People say that a smile should show eight teeth, but this guy was much better, with a grin like a clown in Gotham City, plus a Charm value of only 40, by visual inspection, the level of wretched was beyond the horizon.

While smiling, he gestured to the Duel Disk in his hand, as if he was saying: How about we have a match?

Yuei Vu gave him a blank look.

[Yuei Vu: Favorability -10]

The player was dumbfounded.

ha?

Why can that person just go up, but I cant?

If it doesnt work, forget it, how can you reduce your favorability if you dont agree with each other? Is it because Im ugly?

After accepting the latest seedling, Yuei Vu didnt delay any longer, ignoring the enthusiastic screwball players next to him, and left directly.

Yuei Vu was also used to being surrounded by a large number of small leeks all year round. Its okay to greet them when you needed them, and its okay to leave them aside when you didnt need them.

Occasionally, when they were needed, the screwballs would have fun all day long, and even take a screenshot and post it on the forum to show off

The joy of screwball was as simple as that.

On the fourth day after arriving in Egypt, the Ishdar siblings specially invited Yuei Vu to visit them.

It was the first time Yuei Vu visited the residence of the Tomb Keeper clan. He originally thought it would be a dark underground cave like in the anime, but only after he got there did he realize that he was overthinking it.

In fact, as far as local standards were concerned, the Ishtar siblings lived in a pretty luxurious place.

Yuei Vu walked into the hall of the house with the siblings, raised his head and looked around, and couldnt help but praise: Your conditions are good, you have the taste of a rich family.

But its right to think about it. Isis was already doing well in the government, and Marik was once the worlds number-one pirate card dealer. Although the prodigal son has turned back to the right way after the whitewashing, he must still have a lot of savings.

Thinking of this, he couldnt help looking at Marik who was leading the way ahead and took another look at him.

Although this guy was said to have changed his ways, God knows how many good things were still left behind. Back then, Ghouls robbed so many rare cards all over the world, and the number of Duel Disks was measured by the ton. It wasnt strange if Marik secretly kept a few warehouses

Marik was walking in front, suddenly felt cold for no reason, and felt the fear of being remembered, but he couldnt explain why he didnt dare to turn around

Until he reached the living room, Mr. Ma didnt even dare to take a breath.

After leading Yuei Vu to sit down, Isis found that her younger brothers condition seemed to be not very good, with a sense of restraint like standing or sitting, so she randomly found a reason similar to forgetting to turn off the faucet to dismiss him.

Seeing this, Yuei Vu couldnt help feeling that Marik had a good sister.

Not only she was gentle and beautiful, but she was also very caring.

Marik, who exited the room, instinctively breathed a sigh of relief.

However, after he came out, he thought about it for a while before he felt its not right! What am I doing?

Im not the boss of pirated cards now, and I dont have a whole warehouse of rare cards anymore, so what am I afraid of?

Besides, we seem to have reconciled, dont we?

So Mr. Ma went out for a walk and decidedhe came back.

Because after thinking about it carefully, he felt that now he had no cards or Duel Disks to give to Yuei Vu.

On the contrary, leaving my sister alone to get along with him is inexplicably a little uneasy

Yuei Vu sat on the soft sofa, only to feel that the sofa was so soft that it seemed to have a suction force, which made him sink into it deeply, with a feeling of comfort that he couldnt extricate himself from.

At first glance, it was top-notch.

Sorry, I dont have anything to entertain you.

As Isis said, she held a cup of coffee with her nimble and slender fingers, and gently placed it in front of Yuei Vu.

Yuei Vu picked it up in a decent manner, took a sip, and nodded slightly: Your coffee is good.

At the same time, he secretly said in his heart: Its really hard to drink!

No way, he wasnt particularly fond of coffee. Moreover, the coffee here tasted particularly strong to him, and he was not used to it at all.

Isis also sat down opposite him with a cup of coffee. Marik stood aside with his hands alternated, feeling like an irrelevant follower in a leadership meeting

Isis went straight to the point: Mr. Yuei Vu, I have a questionhave you ever heard of alchemy?

Chapter 470: Another Way To Make Money!

Alchemy?

Yuei Vu was stunned for a moment, he didnt expect Isis to mention this suddenly.

However, he still nodded his head lightly, indicating that he had heard of it.

He knew that alchemy played an important role in Yu-Gi-Oh. The legendary seven Millennium Items that run through the whole drama of DM were forged by the alchemy of ancient Egypt.

In addition, looking at the entire Yu-Gi-Oh series, the plot character most associated with Alchemy should be the Alchemy course teacher of the Duel Academy in Yu-Gi-Oh GX, Mr. Daitokuji.

That's right, in the GX plot, alchemy has become a compulsory course in the academy, and all students have to learn it

It could also be seen from this that under the background of Yu-Gi-Oh worldview, even alchemy, a mysterious thing, was closely connected with card-playing.

And Mr. Daitokuji in GX had a lot of background. This teacher was originally a powerful alchemist and was ordered by someone to find the legendary artifact Philosophers Stone that can make the impossible possible.

But during the long journey, he exhausted his life and suffered from an incurable disease. So before his life came to an end, he pinned his hope on the alchemy taboos mystery of human transmutation.

And unlike a certain brothers duo, he really succeeded

Mr. Daitokuji successfully used alchemy to create a brand new body to house his soul. While doing so successfully extended his lifespan, he soon discovered that it was only a stopgap measure as his new body continued to crumble.

So before his demise, he chose his favorite and most promising student in the Duel Academy, Yuki Judai, to be his successor and entrusted his wish to Judai, telling the boy that he was a natural top alchemist. This teacher believed that if it was Judai, he would definitely be able to control the power of the Philosophys Stone.

After that, he handed over the legendary artifact Philosophys Stone that he found after searching for many years to Judai.

Well, by the way, the Philosophers Stone in this world was also a card, the kind used for playing cards.

This is Yu-Gi-Oh. JPG.

To be honest, we, the tomb guards, have a lot of research on alchemy. Isis said, If you dont feel disgusted this is a small gesture, I hope you can accept it .

As she spoke, she took out a small pendant from somewhere in the white robe, and gently placed it on the coffee table in front of the sofa.

It was a crystal green pendant, which was strung up with a slender rope, folded and glowing in a golden light projected from the window onto the coffee table.

Yuei Vu picked up the pendant and seemed to be aware of the supernatural aura contained in it.

This is

Its just an ordinary spiritual weapon. Isis smiled lightly, I made it with my own hands through alchemy, and if a person wears it, it will be somewhat helpful if they encounter Shadow Games.

Of course, in terms of your strength, that bit of help may be negligible. But take it as a talisman, after all we have caused you so much trouble

Yuei Vu roughly understood.

He remembered that in Yu-Gi-Oh! GX, Yuki Judai had strayed into the forbidden area of a certain grave keeper clan (it had nothing to do with the Ishtar family), and was forced to undergo a duel. After he won the duel and passed the trial, the leader of the grave keeper clan gave half of the pendant as a gift to Judai.

At that time, the leader told Judai that this was a special item for Shadow Games. If Judai has to play Shadow Games someday in the future, this item would definitely help him.

That prop may be similar in nature to what Isis gave him now, and it was a spiritual weapon that contains extraordinary power.

However, the Millennium Items, although they were also Shadow Game props, they were not in the category of spiritual weapons. That kind of thing was a divine artifact, which was of a higher grade, and other small props cant be compared with it at all.

It could be seen that Isis may indeed feel very sorry for the trouble she caused to Yuei Vu, and she really wanted to do something for him as compensation as much as she could.

On the contrary, Yuei Vu felt a little embarrassed.

Marik watched quietly, thinking

Big sister didnt even make amulets for me!

Of course, he himself also knew alchemy.

Yuei Vu was very grateful for Isiss gift, but to be honest, the power of this spiritual weapon was really not strong, and it had little practical significance other than being beautiful.

So Yuei Vu thought for a while, and then asked: Then this spiritual weapon can it be shaped into other shapes?

Isis froze for a moment, then nodded slightly.

If you are not satisfied, you can ask for it, and I will try my best to satisfy it. She said, You can shape it into any shape you want.

Yuei Vus mind quickly became active.

With my current strength, this spiritual weapon may not be very usefulbut it has other wonderful uses!

Yuei Vu looked at Isis: Then can I ask Is this alchemy difficult to learn?

Isis was a little surprised as if she didnt expect him to ask such a question.

But she still replied: Alchemy is a piece of ancient knowledge. Similar to science in modern society, this is a knowledge that everyone can master as long as they study hard.

If you want to delve deeper, it is naturally very difficult. Just as there is no end to the path of science, since ancient times no one dared to say that he had thoroughly explored the mysteries of alchemy

Indeed, after all, alchemy in Yu-Gi-Oh! GX has become a compulsory course for all students, so it must not be difficult to get started. But if you want to study in-depth and become an advanced alchemist like Daitokuji, it may not be possible for ordinary people.

Oh, Yuki Judai may be an exception.

According to Daitokuji, he felt that Judai didnt need to study or practice at all, and he was born to be a master of alchemy.

Who knew if this has anything to do with the ten generations love of exchange five for one

However, if you just want to learn how to make this spiritual weapon, you neither need to learn the basics nor need to understand the principles of alchemy. You just need to remember the required materials and production steps.

Isis changed the subject, paused, and asked, Mr. Yuei Vuare you interested in alchemy?

Well, Im quite interested. Yuei Vu fiddled with the exquisite pendant in his hand, Ive heard of the magic of alchemy for a long time, but I never had the chance to touch it myself.

I see. Isis nodded, Its great if youre interested. If you want to learn how to make this spiritual weapon, I can teach you.

In fact, this is a simple prop, and it is very easy to make

Ah, thank you very much.

This was a windfall.

I didnt expect to come here and turn around, and I can actually get new skills for nothing!

Although it may be useless for him to learn how to refine such a simple spiritual weapon,

It could be sold to screwball players!

Hearing that this pendant can be squeezed into various shapes, Yuei Vu immediately thought of screwball players.

Screwball players like to spend their hard-earned money to buy something of unknown meaning

Another way to make money!

But its really an accident. Isis smiled, Because you are closer to Seto, I thought you, like him, would be more willing to believe in modern science than alchemy.

Yuei Vu pondered for a while and said: This is a rumor. President Kaiba and I are only card friends at best, and we are not that close
