

I Play Yu-Gi 471

Chapter 471: Refining Spiritual Weapon

So in the next few days in Egypt, Yuei Vu would come to Ishtars house as a guest almost every day.

Every time he came here, he went straight to Sister Ishizus room and stayed in it for a whole day. (referring to workshop)

Alchemy was a new subject for Yuei Vu. He has never been exposed to this subject before. Although he did not need to learn the basic principles, he still needed to gradually understand some basic concepts and operations. Therefore, it must take a little time to learn.

theoretically so.

But in fact, Yuei Vu had already learned it from the first day he came here.

No way, his talent was extraordinary.

And even just learned, he could infer other things from one instance. Although he could only carve a few shapes on the pendant under the guidance of Ishizu, as long as he continued to practice, it should not be difficult to refine other spirit weapons of the same level.

Good news for screwball players!

In the future, when Yuei Vu had free time, he could make various gadgets and hang them in private stores. At that time, he would do more research, maybe he could make some hand-made figures, and so on, and he would not worry about selling them.

For example, the figure of the hero series, the doll of Dark Magician Girl, the limited edition Kuriboh, and the unique and supreme collection version of Dark Magician Girl

Especially for the Dark Magician Girl. He already owned the model, and this model could be posed in whatever pose the Master asked. He just needed to pinch it according to the appearance of the real deity and its done.

Of course, the premise was that he practiced a lot to improve his proficiency in this skill.

And since he wanted to practice, he would definitely need a lot of special materials and props for alchemy. Most of these things were metaphysical things, at least at the current stage, it was still difficult to buy in the market.

But fortunately, Yuei Vu has quite a few of these things at hand now.

You can use materials and props with confidence, dont worry about it. Ishizu was very generous, We Tomb Keepers have accumulated thousands of years. But with the change of times, a large number of alchemy raw materials are basically useless now gone.

Back then in ancient Egypt three thousand years ago, alchemy was still a profound knowledge that was valued to a considerable extent, but it has been forgotten since then. Therefore, so many alchemy materials accumulated by the Tomb Keepers clan have been just eating ashes in the warehouse for many years, and have not been touched at all.

So taking this opportunity, Yuei Vu practiced with the raw materials in Ishtars warehouse. First, Ishizu taught him to make the pendant.

These days, he practiced over and over again, refining one spiritual weapon after another.

In the beginning, his works were relatively rough, of average quality, and the color was much worse than the samples Ishizu made for him. But as practice makes perfect, the skill proficiency has steadily increased, and the quality of the finished products he refined has also become higher and higher.

Soon he would be able to play freely on the original basis of the pendant. For example, carving the pendant into a yin and yang fish, carving a dogs head, etc

What? What do you mean by carving a dogs head on the spirit weapon?

You dont understand this.

Look at the Sixth Hokage Hatake Kakashi in Konoha Village next door. Originally, his chakra reserves were average, or in gaming terms, the blue bar was shorter than others. But every time the enemy was approaching and the situation was imminent, he would use Earth Release: Earth-Style Wall, and he would never forget to spend more chakra to carve a dogs head on the wall

Isnt it because the dogs head can save lives?!

Shouldnt the amulet be carved with a dogs head?

Ishizu was also very happy to see Yuei Vu showing such great interest in alchemy, enjoying it every day, refining spirit weapons one by one.

Since the first battle in Battle City, she has always felt more guilty towards Yuei Vu strictly speaking, during that time, Marik even caused more trouble to Yuei Vu than to his (self-claim) enemy Yugi.

Not to mention that after that, Yuei Vu defeated Yami Marik and rescued her brother from the bondage of darkness.

She was also relieved to see that Yuei Vu was so interested in alchemy.

Marik naturally has no objection to teaching Yuei Vu alchemy, but after a long time, he also found it a bit strange

Isnt it just making a pendant? How did you study for so long?

What did my sister and him do when they are alone in the room every day?

Maybe this Duel King really doesnt have much talent in alchemy.

Marik thought so.

Think about it too. After all, he is so strong and handsome, if he is a genius in alchemy, it would be too much.

People have to be flawed, right?

A few days later, according to the pre-set schedule, Yuei Vus trip to Egypt was almost ready to end.

But if nothing unexpected happened, it should only be temporary.

Visually, it wont be long before Yami Yugi made up his mind and returned to Egypt to retrieve the lost memory of the Pharaoh. At that time, Yuei Vu would come back again.

In the past few days, Yuei Vu has indeed received a lot of care from the Ishtar siblings. And as a result of his alchemy crash training in just a few days, he already has dozens of gaudy spiritual weapon pendants in his hand.

He decided to engrave his name on the first batch of goods after he went back, which would count as his autograph. Moreover, this batch of goods was made by him himself, and there are only a few dozen pieces in the limited edition, so he doesn't worry about not being able to sell them at a good price.

A magic artifact autographed by a virtual idol, it's not too much to cost a billion points, right?

Before leaving, he also made a special trip to bid farewell to the Ishtar siblings.

Ishizu shook hands with him, expressing that the Ishtar family would always be his friends, if there was any need in the future, he could come to her.

The younger brother, Marik, was a bit colder. Even when his sister was talking to Yuei Vu, he was looking away.

But Marik, who was cold on the surface, was actually not at peace in his heart.

Because at this moment, when the man who made him feel uncomfortable just by his mere existence and almost left a psychological shadow on him was finally leaving, Marik found that he was not as relieved as he thought.

He was surprised to find that deep down in his heart there was still a little reluctance.

This made Mr. Ma start to doubt life.

What the hell is wrong with me!?

Just before parting, Ishizu took another look at her younger brother who seemed to be distracted but had a strange expression, thought for a while, and seemed to have decided on something.

Ishizu was undoubtedly a good sister who loved her younger brother and had a delicate mind. Ever since the battle in Duel City, she had already noticed that although her younger brother was finally able to get rid of the darkness and eliminate the dark personality in his heart, he also developed some other trauma knots.

And at this moment, perhaps it was the best time to untie his knot.

Wait a minute, Mr. Yuei Vu.

She called Yuei Vu who had bid farewell and was about to leave.

Yuei Vu froze for a moment, then turned around: Is there anything else I can help you with?

Ishizu closed her beautiful eyes lightly for a moment, and when she opened them again, her eyes were full of determination.

Maybe you feel a little sudden, but if you can, can you fight me again?

Yuei Vu was indeed taken by surprise.

Huh?

Why do you even want to fuck me? (still refers to playing cards)

Chapter 472: Ishizu's Request

You want to duel with me? Yuei Vu confirmed again.

Not even Marik apparently knew about it: Sister?

Yes. Ishizu nodded affirmatively.

She glanced at Marik, then looked back at Yuei Vu again.

For three thousand years, protecting the secrets of the Pharaohs' memory is the supreme mission of our family. She said slowly, Although this lofty mission has not been completed yet, the fact is This long watch is finally coming to an end.

Marik was silent on the side but also lost in thought.

Now the pharaohs' soul that has wandered for three thousand years has finally awakened in a suitable host, and the three Egyptian Gods have also been revived in modern times, and all the puzzles that piece together the pharaohs' lost memory have been assembled.

The mission of the Tomb Keeper clan, which has transcended three thousand years of time and space, was finally coming to an end. They are about to be freed from the bondage of this fate.

But after that?

Their lives existed for this mission, and they have been like this for generations. And now that this ultimate goal was about to be accomplished, what would they do with the rest of their lives?

I am a member of the Tomb Keeper family, but I am also a duelist. Ishizu said, A duelist can always find the answer through a duel.

While speaking, she still glanced at Marik intentionally or unintentionally.

It seemed that it was not only herself, but she also hoped that Marik could learn something through this duel.

I see.

Yuei Vu let out a long breath.

It wasn't the first time he was suddenly pulled to play cards. The Ishtar siblings helped him a lot on this trip to Egypt, so a game of cards was not a big deal.

So soon, the two stood apart in the backyard of Ishtar's house.

Although Yuei Vu's current Duel Disk can automatically shuffle the cards, before the start of the game, he exchanged and shuffled the deck with Ishizu according to the habits of modern duels.

After shuffling each other's deck and inserting the deck back into the Duel Disk, Yuei Vu thought of something and smiled half-jokingly: This time, do you want to use the Millennium Necklace to predict the future?

Unexpectedly, Ishizu paused and immediately made a standard ninety-degree bow: That duel I am very sorry if I left you with a bad experience

Bowing so standard and apologizing so sincerely made Yuei Vu feel a little embarrassed: It's okay, I just said it casually, don't take it to heart then its time to go.

Ishizu opened the Duel Disk and nodded.

Duel! x2

Yuei Vu, LP 4000

Ishizu, LP 4000

Its me who goes first, draw. Ishizu was the first mover.

Yuei Vu thought about it.

He remembered that the deck used by Ishizu should be mainly Fairy-Type. In the original work, her trump card was the trap card Exchange of the Spirit, but she didnt use this card in the last duel, and Yuei Vu thought it was unlikely that she would use it this time.

Maybe its still an angel-themed deck?

Like Counter Fairy?

I set a monster on the field. Ishizu said, drawing another card from her hand, Set an S/T card, I end my turn.

This arrangement still made it impossible to tell what deck she was using.

My turn. Yuei Vu said, Summon the Breaker the Magical Warrior.

A handsome wizard warrior in the style of a mage appeared on the stage, holding a sharp silver sword in his right hand and a red shield in his left hand.

[Breaker the Magical Warrior, ATK 1600]

When Breaker the Magical Warrior is summoned, place 1 Spell Counter on him, and he gains 300 ATK for each Spell Counter he has. Yuei Vu said, By removing 1 Spell Counter from this card, I can destroy 1 Spell/Trap on the field.

I remove the counter of Breaker the Magical Warrior and destroy the set card in your back row.

[Breaker the Magical Warrior, ATK 1600 ATK 1900 ATK 1600]

The indicator light on the magic warriors shield was lit at the moment of summoning but then went out again. The magic warrior swung his sword and swept out, the crescent-shaped sword energy volleyed in the air, cutting the set card in Ishizus back row in half.

That set card immediately revealed its true form.

Continuous Trap Necrovalley Temple. Ishizu said calmly, When this card is destroyed by an opponents effect and sent to your GY, I can Set 1 Necrovalley Spell/Trap from my Deck, except Necrovalley Temple.

She pulled out the deck and drew a card from it.

I put the Field Spell Necrovalley in my Field Zone.

Seeing that the card was placed in the face-down state to the field area on Ishizus Duel Disk, Yuei Vu couldnt help but twitch the corner of his mouth.

Are you actually playing the Gravekeeper deck?

This also seems to be quite reasonable.

After all, the Tomb Keepers shouldnt they be playing the Gravekeeper deck?!

But this deck was a bit of a headache.

The Gravekeeper archetype itself was not strong, but the core of its deck, the Field Spell called Necrovalley, had powerful interference effects that could make countless meta players many years later fall into a sticky situation.

Necrovalley (Field Spell Card): All Gravekeepers monsters gain 500 ATK/DEF. Cards in the GY cannot be banished. Negate any card effect that would move a card in the GY to a different place.

Literally the valley of eternal sleep as long as this field existed, the monsters entering the graveyard were basically equivalent to eternal sleep. For those decks that relied heavily on graveyard resources, this card was simply a devastating blow.

Then enter the Battle Phase. Yuei Vu said, Breaker the Magical Warrior, attack the face-down monster.

The magic warrior rushed out with a lunge, the blade was covered with dark red magic power, drawing a clear and sharp trajectory in the air!

The face-down card was turned over under the sword energy, and what appeared was a big bald man with thick eyebrows and big eyes, with a figure like Zhu Bajie!

[Gravekeepers Guard, DEF 1900]

With the crisp sound of metal and iron clanging, the sharp sword of the magician warrior was firmly resisted, and the force of the countershock made him stagger and take two steps back.

Yuei Vu, LP 4000 LP 3700

Gravekeepers Guards FLIP effect is activated. Ishizu said, Target 1 monster the opponent controls; return that target to the hand.

I return the Breaker the Magical Warrior to your hand.

The bald grave keeper chanted a series of incantations, and the magic warriors whole body was immediately bound by golden enchantments. The swordsman couldnt help but raise his head, hummed dully, and immediately turned into a beam of golden light and shot it back into Yuei Vus hand.

It should be said that it was worthy of the Gravekeeper deck, which was somewhat related to the underworld

Set a card, I end my turn. Yuei Vu said.

Chapter 473: The Most Nether Field

The Gravekeeper deck

It was also the first time for Marik to see his sister use this deck, so he couldnt help being a little surprised.

He has dueled with his sister so many times since he was a child. Although he has almost never won, at least he knew his sister well before that.

At this time, it was the first time he felt this way he knew nothing about his sisters duel.

My turn, draw.

Turning back to Ishizu's turn, the first thing she has to do was, of course, turn over the card that was set in the field zone in the previous round.

Activate Field Spell Necrovalley!

The site changed, the rocks rolled down, the peaks rose from the ground, and the site changed. In an instant, it came to a silent valley, with only a ray of sunlight shining from the edges of the valleys on both sides.

Necrovalley is a taboo place for the tomb guards. In this field, all the dead are supreme. Ishizu said, From now on, all the card effects that would move a card in the GY to a different place are negated. And both of us cannot banish any card from any GY.

Yuei Vu narrowed his eyes.

This was still a bit hard to deal with. This card was worthy to be the most nether field, specializing in crushing the mentality of all kinds of meta decks

Next, I will summon Gravekeepers Spiritualist in attack position.

The one who appeared was a female grave keeper in a black navel-baring costume, with a good figure, revealing a slender waist and a flat belly, and wearing a cross-sectional black mask on her face.

Gravekeepers Spiritualist, ATK 1500

Gravekeepers Spiritualist's effect is activated. Ishizu said, If Necrovalley is on the field, I can Fusion Summon 1 Spellcaster Fusion Monster from my Extra Deck, using this card and other monsters from my hand or field as Fusion Material.

Ishizu picked up the two monster cards placed on the Duel Disk with her slender fingers: I fuse Gravekeepers Guard and Gravekeepers Spiritualist!

The souls of two loyal grave keepers combine to call out the guardian of this valley of eternal sleep
Fusion Summon! Gravekeepers Supernaturalist!

The spiritualist chanted a spell, and the magic power released a huge vortex. The two souls merged in the vortex, and a dazzling white light burst out and fell to the ground. The Gravekeeper in a black robe landed on the solid ground in the valley, with a simple but dazzling golden staff in his hand. His aura was integrated with the solemn and solemn valley as if it was a natural whole.

Gravekeepers Supernaturalist, ATK 2000

Gravekeepers Supernaturalist Marik looked at the black-robed grave guard on his sister's field, This is my sister's new trump card

The effect of Gravekeepers Supernaturalist is activated. Ishizu said, His attack power will increase by the value of the combined original Levels of the materials used for its Fusion Summon x 100 points.

The level of both Gravekeepers Guard and Gravekeepers Spiritualist is 4, so his attack power increases by 800 points.

The black-robed tomb keeper erected his staff in front of him and chanted a mantra in a deep voice. His whole body was enveloped in a faint golden light that seemed to burn, and his power also soared rapidly.

Gravekeepers Supernaturalist, ATK 2000 ATK 2800

Then there is the effect of the Field Spell Necrovalley. Ishizu continued, The grave guards will become stronger in the domain they guard.

When Necrovalley is on the field, the ATK of all Gravekeeper monsters increases by 500.

Gravekeepers Supernaturalist, ATK 2800 ATK 3300

Seeing that the power of the grave keeper soared to a level greater than that of a Blue-Eyes White Dragon in an instant, Yuei Vu couldn't help but nod: Not bad.

Thank you. Ishizu smiled, Then in the Main Phase, I will activate the third effect of Gravekeepers Supernaturalist. After this effect is activated, during the End Phase of this turn, add 1 Gravekeepers monster or 1 Necrovalley card from my Deck to my hand.

The esper's staff was held horizontally in his hand, and he whispered a series of complicated spells. The golden spell energy was released like sound waves, activating his potential abilities.

Then I'm going to go. Ishizu raised the slender arms under the robe, Battle! Gravekeepers Supernaturalist, attack Mr. Yuei Vu directly!

The esper closed his eyes and muttered a spell. The golden wave on the staff burned like a flame, and as the staff swung down, a beam of golden flame seemed to cut through the sleeping air in the valley, and hit Yuei Vu in the face.

Open the set card, Yuei Vu flipped the set card in front of him, Counter Trap Negate Attack! When an opponent's monster declares an attack: Target the attacking monster; negate the attack, then end the Battle Phase!

The spiral whirlwind blocked the golden flames, temporarily forcing back the attack of the esper.

Ishizu wasn't surprised at all but felt that it was impossible to touch the other party so easily.

Then I will set a card on the field. She set another card, and then pulled out the deck, At the end of the turn, according to the effect of the Gravekeepers Supernaturalist, I add Gravekeepers Commandant to my hand.

Picked out a card, shuffled the deck, and inserted it back into the Duel Disk, then she nodded politely: My turn is over.

Yuei Vu paused for a while as if he was thinking.

My turn, draw. He revealed the same card from the previous round again, Once again, I normal summon Breaker the Magical Warrior!

The sword light was drawn out, and with a burst of overflowing magic power, the magic warrior in red armor who had hurriedly exited the field last round flew back to the field again.

Breaker the Magical Warrior, ATK 1600

Breaker the Magical Warrior has the effect of destroying a Spell/Trap on the field. Marik in the audience raised his chin, Do you want to destroy sisters field magic first? Or is it the trap card

But Yuei Vu didnt seem to have the chance to struggle with options. Ishizu immediately raised her arm: Open the set card: Trap Card Compulsory Evacuation Device! Return a monster on the field to the owners hand.

She raised her finger and pointed to the magic warrior who was still standing still on the Yuei Vus field: I want to return the Breaker the Magical Warrior to your hand!

The magic warriors expression changed suddenly.

Nani? Going back again?

Why always me

But this time he seemed to have dodged a bullet. Yuei Vu quickly showed another card: Quick-Play Spell Magical Dimension! When I control a Spellcaster monster: Target 1 monster you control; Tribute that target, then Special Summon 1 Spellcaster monster from my hand!

The card was inserted into the Duel Disk, and Yuei Vu waved his hand.

Sacrifice the Breaker the Magical Warrior! Unleash the black magic power here and call the top magician

Dark Magician!

Chapter 474: Gravekeeper's Supernaturalist

The magic power surged, and the magic robe fluttered. The magician in the dark red robe flew out of the circle, and the staff left a green arc everywhere in the air.

[Dark Magician, ATK 2500]

Dark Magician. Ishizu looked at the tall and straight figure, and said calmly, The incarnation of the most trusted and powerful servant of the Pharaoh

Of course, she also knew the card of the Dark Magician in the world was not unique, and there was not only one spirit, but the servant of the pharaoh, the reincarnation of the priest in three thousand years, was the Dark Magician in the hand of Yugi Muto.

Although it was also a rare card, the Dark Magician in Yuei Vus hand didnt host any spirit.

Magical Dimension has follow-up effects. Ishizu said lightly, After Special Summoning 1 Spellcaster monster through this card, I can also choose a monster on the field to destroy.

Ishizu: Right now, I only have the Gravekeepers Supernaturalist on the field

You know quite clearly. Yuei Vu nodded, Then according to the effect of the Magical Dimension, destroy the Gravekeepers Supernaturalist.

The golden coffin fell from the sky, inexplicably sealing the tomb guard inside. The heavy solid gold coffin boards were buckled with a dull roar, and the golden iron chains around the coffin rattled.

But the next moment, there was a loud noise as clear as an explosion from inside the coffin. A huge energy erupted from within, and the golden coffin was torn apart. The tomb guard stood in the center of the explosion, with a faint golden glow surrounding his body.

He seemed to break free from the shackles of dimensional magic with his own strength.

The Gravekeepers Supernaturalist is the most loyal guardian of the Land of Rest, he can draw power from this forbidden land. Ishizu said calmly, While Necrovalley is on the field, this card, and any card in my Field Zone, cannot be destroyed by card effects.

Yuei Vu was not surprised by this. He also knew this effect, but the effect of the Magical Dimension was not in vain. Anyway, there was no other monster on the field that he could destroy.

Sister is stronger than before. Marik in the audience said to himself.

Then he suddenly realized one thing.

Ishizu has already taken a new step after the end of Battle City and has continued to advance invisibly. But he himself was always hesitant

No, to be honest, he has regressed compared to the past.

Whether in duel or in life.

Gravekeepers Supernaturalist with an attack power of 3300 cannot be defeated by a Dark Magician, Ishizu said.

Ah, I know. Yuei Vu nodded, Battle! Dark Magician, attack Gravekeepers Supernaturalist!

The light in Ishizus beautiful eyes flickered.

Even with lower attack power, you still want to attack Do you really have other plans?

She stretched out her hand: Gravekeepers Supernaturalist, counter the Dark Magician!

The magician in the dark red robe flew into the air, stepping on two spiral magic circles in the air to stabilize his figure. He raised his arms high, and the mana flowed in his hands, like dark red water flowing to the tip of the emerald staff, forming a storm of magic power.

The grave keeper was also not to be outdone. As the spell was spoken, the golden spell visible to the naked eye wrapped around his robust body like a chain. The aura seemed to form an inviolable domain, which he vowed to defend to the death!

The battle was inevitable, and the two majestic magical powers collide violently! Also, as a top magician, in the direct magic contest, the overflowing magic space scoured the surrounding rock walls and stones, blasting broken stones and dust.

But just from the scale and momentum of the magic power of both sides, it could be easily seen that the Dark Magician was not the opponent of the grave keeper.

But at the moment when the two mages competed, Yuei Vu quickly drew another card from his hand.

Quick-Play Spell Forbidden Scripture!

A Spell Card emerged, it was a high-level magic that contained the power of superior magic, and its power was enough to instantly dominate the audience!

Forbidden Scripture can only be activated when two monsters are in battle. Yuei Vu said, Negate all other card effects on the field until the end of the Damage Step.

Moreover, the damage calculation for this battle uses each monsters original ATK and DEF!

Ishizus dark eyes narrowed slightly.

The majestic magic power erupted with boundless coercion, sweeping the audience regardless of enemy or friend and indiscriminately. The powerful grave keeper was instantly suppressed by this magic power, and even the majestic Necrovalley was briefly depressed under this turbulent magic storm, and its original power was sealed.

Any special ability can be temporarily sealed, which was the powerful dominance of the spell described in the Forbidden Scripture. Looking at the audience, only Yuei Vus Dark Magician has not been suppressed and affected by such a powerful spell at all.

But its not because he has the knack of resisting this kind of magic as a senior magician, but because the Dark Magician was originally a Normal Monster without any special effects, so he was naturally immune to this kind of magic

[Gravekeepers Supernaturalist, ATK 3300 ATK 2000]

Its going to be miserable for the grave keeper. At the same time, he lost his own effects and the blessing of the field, and his attack power plummeted.

The stalemate magic power contest between the two sides was reversed immediately, and the black magic wave was so powerful that it pierced through the body of the grave keeper and knocked him back from the field. It seemed that he would sleep forever in this valley after all.

Ishizu, LP 4000 LP 3500

The battle is over, so the effect of Forbidden Scripture ends, and the effects of all cards on the field are restored.

While Yuei Vu was speaking, the magic power of the scriptures dissipated, the solemn and depressing atmosphere returned to the field, and the place of eternal sleep regained its binding force.

I end my turn.

Marik next to him looked at Yuei Vu and swallowed subconsciously.

As expected of Mr. Yuei Vu, he did not relax his coping strategy, it was just as I remembered No, it might be even stronger than before

Mr. Ma, who was distracted, didnt find anything wrong with his thinking at all.

My turn, draw.

The new trump card was broken, yet Ishizu still behaved calmly, as if this was all expected.

Activate the Spell Card from the hand Gravekeepers Stele.

The huge white stone slab crashed to the ground from the sky outside the valley, like a meteorite, blowing up dust waves and gravel when it landed. The white stone slab was engraved with all kinds of ancient symbols and marks, some of which were so old that even the Ishtar siblings who were descendants of the tomb guards could not recognize them.

Gravekeepers Stele allows me to add 2 Gravekeepers monsters in the GY to my hand. Ishizu said, And this effect cannot be negated by the effect of Necrovalley.

Yuei Vu watched the two cards pop up in her tomb area, but did not speak.

It did make sense. Although the blockade effect of Necrovalley on the cemetery is the same for both players, the Gravekeepers themselves were the guardian of this field, so they would naturally have some privileges in this area.

For example, it was absolutely forbidden for people to dig graves and rob graves here, but it was not impossible for them to make an exception occasionally

I chose Gravekeepers Spiritualist and Gravekeepers Supernaturalist to add to my hand. Ishizu showed these two cards, But because Gravekeepers Supernaturalist is a fusion monster, so instead of adding it to the hand, it returns to Extra Deck.

Watching Ishizu take back the Gravekeepers Spiritualist card to her hand, Yuei Vu already knew what was going to happen next.

Summon the Gravekeepers Spiritualist. Sure enough, Ishizu immediately photographed the lady guarding the grave again.

The slender-waisted, long-legged spiritualist girl, who was still wearing a navel-baring outfit, returned to the arena again. Half of her face was covered by a mask and she couldn't see her expression, but she seemed to be reciting a spell in a low voice.

[Gravekeepers Spiritualist, ATK 1500]

Spiritualists effect If Necrovalley is on the field, I can Fusion Summon 1 Spellcaster Fusion Monster from my Extra Deck, using this card and other monsters from my hand or field as Fusion Material.

Ishizu revealed the monster card in her hand that was retrieved by the effect of the Supernaturalist last round.

I fuse Gravekeepers Commandant in my hand and Gravekeepers Spiritualist on the field! Combining the loyal soul of the grave guard, I summoned the guardian of the Valley of Eternal Sleep!

Show up again! Gravekeepers Supernaturalist!

After the spiritualist finished chanting the spell, she flew up with the commandant who appeared beside her. The two turned into incandescent beams, bound together by the power of the magic spell. The magic power exploded, the golden incantation emerged, and the black-robed and white-haired grave keeper who just left the stage last round came again!

Chapter 475: Necrovalley

Gravekeepers Supernaturalist was summoned again!

The powerful black-robed grave guard returned to this field again. He had a firm face, and his eyes were like a calm lake with no ripple. The solid and straight body stood in this silent valley, like a tall and straight pine and bamboo.

[Gravekeepers Supernaturalist, ATK 2000]

The Gravekeepers Commandant and Gravekeepers Spiritualist used as fusion materials are both level 4, so the attack power of Supernaturalist is still increased by 800. Ishizu said, Then with the effect of Necrovalley, his attack power will increase by 500!

[Gravekeepers Supernaturalist, ATK 2000 ATK 2800 ATK 3300]

The effect of Gravekeepers Supernaturalist is activated again.

The grave keeper in a black robe closed his eyes, and with a devout expression, he put his staff across in front of him and whispered the incantation.

This effect can only be activated during the Main Phase. She said, During the End Phase of this turn, add 1 Gravekeepers monster or 1 Necrovalley card from my Deck to my hand.

Then its my turn to counterattack. Gravekeepers Supernaturalist, attack the Dark Magician!

The esper chanted the spell and slowly raised the golden staff. The silent valley seemed to wake up, invisible particles gathered from the surrounding air, like a sea of clouds churning in the sky, and the power of high-concentration spells condensed on the grave keepers staff, turning into a golden torrent gallop out.

The Dark Magician also immediately released his magic power, this time casting some kind of defensive spell. But without the corresponding magic support, his magic power alone was powerless to resist the grave keeper in front of him who is blessed with the power of the Land of Rest.

In just one round, his spell was defeated, and his staff was bounced away under the shock of the spell, and his figure also dissipated.

Yuei Vu, LP 3700 LP 2900

Set two cards, I end my turn. Ishizu pulled out the deck, At the end stage, the effect of Gravekeepers Supernaturalist is resolved, and I add Gravekeepers Spear Soldier to the hand.

Then my turn Activate Spell Card Spell Books from the Pot. Both players draw three cards from the deck.

Yuei Vu drew the cards and glanced at Ishizus field.

The Necrovalley was really a daunting field. If you couldnt use the effects involving the graveyard, many tactics and counterattack strategies could not be deployed.

And when the Gravekeepers Supernaturalist existed on the field, neither the grave keeper himself nor the Necrovalley would be destroyed by card effects. The two were in a mutual protection relationship, which provided insurance for the Field Spell.

The Valley of Eternal Sleep would provide strength to the Gravekeeper, and the Gravekeeper would use his body to defend this forbidden area.

But it was only cannot be destroyed by card effects.

Quick-Play Spell Cosmic Cyclone! The Spell Card appeared in front of Yuei Vu, Pay 1000 LP, then target 1 Spell/Trap on the field; banish it!

What I want to banish is the Field Spell Necrovalley!

Nice! Marik praised secretly from the bottom of his heart, The core of my sisters deck is the Necrovalley, without this favorable battlefield, many tactics will be hindered, and the Gravekeepers Supernaturalists resistance will also disappear, and his attack power will also drop!

Yuei Vu, LP 2900 LP 1900

The golden whirlwind rolled up from the sky and quickly covered the entire site, affecting the entire sleeping valley. The entire valley flickered like a phantom, and the rocks from the two sides of the mountain walls to the surrounding rocks began to become transparent and illusory until they disappeared completely.

In this way, the seal of the cemetery will disappear. Yuei Vu smiled, and the attack power of the Gravekeepers Supernaturalist will drop.

[Gravekeepers Supernaturalist, ATK 3300 ATK 2800]

But Ishizus complexion didnt fluctuate: Open the set card: Continuous Trap Necrovalley Temple.

After a heavy shock, a golden palace rose from the ground. The quaint sculptures stood in front of the palace like silent guardians, and the ten golden braziers ignited flames one by one, and the flickering light cast a majestic and mysterious curtain on the entire temple.

The effect of Necrovalley Temple Once per turn, during the Main Phase, if I control no card in my Field Zone, I can activate 1 Necrovalley directly from my hand or GY.

She showed a hand card.

According to its effect, I activate it again from the hand Field Spell Necrovalley!!!

Just a few seconds after leaving the stage, this daunting field came back. The silent and majestic valley once again occupied the entire site. The difference from before was that this time there was a sacred golden palace in the middle of the valley.

According to the effect of the Necrovalley, the attack power of the Gravekeepers Supernaturalist has risen again.

[Gravekeepers Supernaturalist, ATK 2800 ATK 3300]

Ishizu paused, pointing to the sacred palace in the valley: And another effect of Necrovalley Temple. When the temple and the Necrovalley exist at the same time, the attack power and defense power of all monsters on the opponents field will decrease by 500.

The effect of Field Spell increases the ATK and DEF of the grave keeper by 500, while the temple will reduce the ATK and DEF of the opponents monsters by 500 all of a sudden, there is a difference of 1000 points. Marik said to himself, and the graveyards are sealed, so the opponent can only fight back with the resources on their hand The situation is a bit dangerous Mr. Yuei Vu.

Its really a troublesome place that never dies. Yuei Vu shrugged, Then I will summon the Berry Magician Girl.

The little magic girl with a pacifier came to the field with a hey sound, and the butterfly-like wings behind her were flapping hard.

[Berry Magician Girl, ATK 400]

Because of the effect of Necrovalley Temple, Berry Magician Girls attack power will also decrease.

[Berry Magician Girl, ATK 400 ATK 0]

Originally only had a pitiful 400 points of attack power, after being dropped, the magical girl was directly deprived of all combat power. She flapped her little wings listlessly and fell to the ground.

But the effect can still be used. Yuei Vu said, If this card is Normal Summoned: I can add 1 Magician Girl monster from my Deck to my hand. I add the Dark Magician Girl to the hand.

The card of the Dark Magician Girl popped out of the deck automatically as if impatiently, and after being held by Yuei Vu, the girls elf also floated out to Yuei Vus side very quickly, cheering him up with fists clenched.

Set a card, I end my turn.

Then its my turn, draw!

Ishizu looked at the young girl with a pacifier in her mouth. She looked listless, but Ishizu didnt despise her at all.

Only leaving a monster with 0 attack power on the field Does it mean that you are very confident in the defensive ability of this monster?

But she still had to attack anyway.

The effect of Gravekeepers Supernaturalist is activated. She said, During the End Phase of this turn, add 1 Gravekeepers monster or 1 Necrovalley card from my Deck to my hand.

Then I summon Gravekeepers Spear Soldier.

The Gravekeeper warrior wielding long spears came to the field with a fierce look on his face, and he danced vigorously with a long spear.

[Gravekeepers Spear Soldier, ATK 1500]

Also according to the effect of Necrovalley, Spear Soldiers attack power is increased!

[Gravekeepers Spear Soldier, ATK 1500 ATK 2000]

Battle! Ishizu ordered directly, Gravekeepers Spear Soldier, attack Berry Magician Girl!

The warrior wielding a long spear rushed out aggressively, without any sympathy at all. The long spear was like a piercing shooting star, aiming straight at the helpless young girl and stabbing her.

The effect of the Berry Magician Girl. Yuei Vu said, When this card is selected as an attack target, I can change this cards battle position, and Special Summon 1 Magician Girl monster from my Deck, except Berry Magician Girl.

I special summon Lemon Magician Girl!

From the red magic circle, a bunch of red light shoots out, transforming into a lovely and energetic image of a young girl, with a pair of angel-like pink wings stuck behind her back.

[Berry Magician Girl, ATK 0 DEF 0]

[Lemon Magician Girl, ATK 800 ATK 300] (decreased by the effect of the temple)

The Battle Replay occurred, but my attack target remains the same. Ishizu said, Gravekeepers Spear Soldier, continue to attack the Berry Magician Girl.

The effect of Spear Soldier When he attacks a monster in defense position, he will inflict piercing damage!

Mariks breath stagnates: Oops. Gravekeepers Spear Soldier has an attack power of 2000, and the Berry Magician Girls defense power is only 0. If the attack passes, it will directly deal 2000 points of battle damage!

Yuei Vu, LP 1900

Marik didnt notice at all that he became nervous for no reason.

Mr. Yuei Vu is going to lose!

Chapter 476: Something Is Wrong With Me

The grave keeper raised his spear, and the spear came out like a dragon, and locked on the weak and defenseless magical girl!

This shot would directly establish the victory!

Of course, Yuei Vu would not let that happen: Open the set card: Trap Card Damage Diet. In this turn, all the damage I take will be halved!

The berry girl whose defense power was reduced to 0 basically had no resistance and left the field under the merciless shooting of the Spear Soldier. The strike passed through her body, unabated, and blasted straight toward Yuei Vu, passing through the trap protection layer.

Yuei Vu, LP 1900 LP 900

Huh~ so dangerous. Marik heaved a sigh of relief, Thats right, if he was defeated so easily, he wouldnt be the Duel King

Only then did Mr. Ma come back to his senses, and he suddenly realized what was wrong.

It is not right!

Where am I from? Why should I panic for him?

Shouldnt I want my sister to win?

Mariks expression became a little dazed.

Definitely, something is wrong with me

But even after Yuei Vu received this blow, Ishizus attack was not over.

Then the attack continues. She slowly raised her hand, Gravekeepers Supernaturalist, attack Lemon Magician Girl!

The esper recited the attack spell again, and the staff in his hand lit up with a golden glow. The energy of the spell was like an arrow piercing the clouds, passing through this sunless valley, and punishing those who trespassed the forbidden area.

Yuei Vu raised his hand: Lemon Magician Girls effect is activated! Once per turn, if this card is targeted for an attack: I can Special Summon 1 Spellcaster-Type monster from my hand, then change the attack target to it!

In that case, if the level of the summoned Spellcaster-Type monster is higher than Lemon Magician Girls, the effect of that monster is negated. (animation effect)

Yuei Vu quickly revealed the card that was retrieved last round: According to the effect of Lemon Magician Girl, special summon Dark Magician Girl!

The gorgeous magic circle and the surging magic power transformed into a warm-toned background. The pretty blond girl turned around and got out of the magic circle, her chest trembled a few times, and she winked her big emerald eyes playfully at her master, her hair was like a golden waterfall shining in the sun.

[Dark Magician Girl, ATK 2000]

The follow-up effect of Lemon Magician Girl. Yuei Vu said, The attacking monsters ATK becomes half its current ATK!

The Lemon Magician Girl yelled Heya, her pink wings flapped vigorously, and the small staff released a transparent red magic circle. The incantation of the esper bombarded the magic circle violently but was only waved lightly by the girl, and the attack was immediately pushed away by clever force and went straight to the Dark Magician Girl, but its power was not as strong as before.

[Gravekeepers Supernaturalist, ATK 3300 ATK 1650]

Its not good, Marik thought to himself, My sisters monsters attack power will be overtaken by the Dark Magician Girl!

At this time, the magic girl puffed up her small mouth, holding back all her energy, and concentrated all her strength on the staff. Visible magic fluctuations appeared on her flat ball-shaped staff, and she was about to blast back the tomb keepers spell with one blow.

However, according to the effect of Necrovalley Temple. Ishizu reminded, The attack power of the Dark Magician Girl must also drop by 500.

[Dark Magician Girl, ATK 2000 ATK 1500]

Oops, the Dark Magician Girls attack power has been overtaken Mr. Ma continued to pay attention to the situation.

Then at this moment, I discard the Kiwi Magician Girl from my hand to activate her effect! Yuei Vu quickly sent a card in his hand to the graveyard, Until the end of this turn, Magician Girl monsters I currently control gain 300 ATK and DEF for each Magician Girl monster with different names on the field and in the Graveyards!

Now I have Berry Magician Girl, Lemon Magician Girl, Kiwi Magician Girl, and Dark Magician Girl on the field and in my Graveyard. There are four types in total!

Therefore, the attack power of the two magical girls will increase by 1200 until the end of the turn!

[Dark Magician Girl, ATK 1500 ATK 2700]

[Lemon Magician Girl, ATK 300 ATK 1500]

Marik: Ah! Its going to be bad on my sisters side

After a series of offensive and defensive exchanges, at the end of the fierce confrontation, it seemed that the magical girls side finally had a slight advantage. The attack power of the Dark Magician Girl quickly soared to a new high, and the girls surging magic power immediately and firmly suppressed the Gravekeeper warriors!

Dark Burning Attack!

The girl waved her hand and blasted out a pitch-black spell light bullet, and the storm of magic power swept through with countless jumping dark red currents, pushing back the golden spell energy in one breath. The exploding mana tore through the defense line of the esper like a crushing force, and when the blow pierced through his body, he let out a muffled grunt and exploded on the spot.

Ishizu, LP 3500 LP 2450

In the end, Mr. Yuei Vu was slightly better Marik thought to himself.

This Marik was particularly troubled right now.

Seeing that his sister was going to be deflated, he also panicked; seeing that the situation on Yuei Vus side was getting worse, he was also inexplicably nervous.

In short, the whole process was full of fear and surprise

The icy wind blowing through the mountain peaks swept away the smoke in the arena. Ishizu swayed, stood firm, and gently raised her hand: Open the set card: Trap Card Rite of Spirit!

The trap card was flipped over, and the images of three grave keepers were soon projected on the field. They formed a circle, eyes closed, with devout expressions, surrounding a complicated white magic circle on the ground, each of them chanting the same spell in a low voice.

Rite of Spirits effect I can special summon 1 Gravekeeper monster in my graveyard. Ishizu said, And, this cards activation and effect are unaffected by Necrovalley!

The card she had just sent to the GY immediately bounced back from the duel disk GY area.

Resurrect to the field, Gravekeepers Supernaturalist!

The three grave keepers who were chanting mantras raised their arms at the same time. A beam of light burst out from the magic circle, and the grave keeper in black robes closed his eyes tightly, holding a staff in his hand, and returned to the field briskly.

[Gravekeepers Supernaturalist, ATK 2000]

Because its not summoned through fusion this time, Gravekeepers Supernaturalist cant increase his ATK according to his own effect. Ishizu said, But his attack power will still increase by 500 according to the effect of Necrovalley.

[Gravekeepers Supernaturalist, ATK 2500]

Continue to fight! Gravekeepers Supernaturalist, attack the Lemon Magician Girl again!

[Lemon Magician Girl, ATK 1500]

When the incantation was uttered and the grave keeper swings his staff, it was like an absolute command to expel all outsiders from the forbidden area!

The effect of Lemon Magician Girl could only be used once per turn, and this time, so she was no longer possible to rely on her ability to resist attacks. She barely resisted it with a defensive spell for half a second, then let out a coquettish ah, exited the stage under the erosion of the spell, and fell asleep in the sealed GY.

Because the effect of Damage Diet. A phantom of the trap card appeared in front of Yuei Vu, and at the same time opened a layer of buffer film, The battle damage is halved.

Yuei Vu, LP 900 LP 400

Set two cards, I end my turn. Ishizu said, At the End Phase, according to the effect of Gravekeepers Supernaturalist, I add Gravekeepers Cannonholder from the deck to the hand.

And also at this stage, the boosting effect of the Kiwi Magician Girl ends, and the Dark Magician Girls attack power will drop.

[Dark Magician Girl, ATK 2700 ATK 1500]

The girl curled her lips, a little unhappy.

Its over in a short while, and she hasnt had a good time yet

Chapter 477: Collapsed Temple

My turn, draw!

Yuei Vu caught a glimpse of the drawn card, and the corners of his mouth rose slightly.

Its here.

There was no need for such a thing as Draw of Fate now, as the cards he draws were also inevitable.

You dont understand the duel of the truly strong.

I set two cards on the field. Yuei Vu waved his hand, and there were two more cards in front of him, Next, activate the Spell Card Card of Demise! I can draw cards until I have 5 cards in my hand.

However, as a risk, during my 5th Standby Phase after activation, I must send all cards in my hand to the Graveyard.

Of course, generally speaking, the effect text after risk could be ignored directly

Seeing that Yuei Vu filled up five cards in his hand, Marik swallowed his saliva off the court.

Mr. Yuei Vu How are you going to fight back?

And the answer would be revealed soon.

Yuei Vu drew out a card in his hand, and the moment he showed that card, the surface of the card seemed to release a sacred blue light!

Spell Card The Eye of Timaeus!

Ishizus small mouth with sharp lines opened slightly, showing surprise.

Marik was equally surprised: This is the legendary dragon!

These two have nothing to do with the main plot of the DM since the Battle City arc, and they missed a lot of things, so naturally they didn't know that Yuei Vu had this card in his hand.

Although they have never seen it with their own eyes, they have heard of the name of the Legendary Dragon through some classics preserved by the Tomb Keeper clan.

Unexpectedly, one of them was actually in Yuei Vu's hands!

Marik looked at Yuei Vu with more complicated eyes.

How much stronger is he now than when he was fighting me?

Target the Dark Magician Girl on the field with The Eye of Timaeus. Yuei Vu said, Send the Dark Magician Girl to the GY, and special summon a Fusion monster that uses her as a fusion material!

The disciple of the great magician dons the armor of a knight and conjures infinite possibilities with the combined power of legendary dragons and black magic!

Fusion Summon! Appearing in a brand new form

Dark Magician Girl the Dragon Knight!

This was not the first time she has changed her vest, even the not-so-smart Dark Magician Girl was already familiar with it.

The phantom of the giant dragon appeared, flapped its transparent wings and flew up, circling in midair, forming a huge vortex in midair. The magic girl turned into a beam of purple light and flew into it, combined with the power of the legendary dragon, bursting out like a volcanic eruption!

The giant dragon that gained its entity from the phantom state crashed to the ground, blowing up a spray-like dust curtain. The girl who put on the knight armor was riding on the back of the dragon, holding a long silver sword with a dazzling metallic luster.

[Dark Magician Girl the Dragon Knight, ATK 2600]

This was the first time she had seen the knightly posture of a magic girl, and Ishizu was a little bit shocked by her domineering aura. But she quickly came to her senses: But according to the effect of Necrovalley Temple, her attack power will also decrease.

[Dark Magician Girl the Dragon Knight, ATK 2600 ATK 2100]

Indeed, the weakened Dark Magician Girl the Dragon Knight was no match for the mighty Gravekeeper. And her once invincible effect discarding a card to destroy a face-up card on the field was not easy to use now.

The Necrovalley and the Gravekeepers Supernaturalist had a mutual protection relationship. As long as the two existed at the same time, they could not be destroyed by card effects.

This time, even if she transformed into the dragon knight, Dark Magician Girl would not be able to solve this situation.

But Yuei Vu didn't take it seriously: Then I will open a Set card on the field: Spell Card Foolish Burial. It can send a monster from the deck to the graveyard.

Ishizu said: But as long as the Necrovalley exists, any effects that target cards in the GY will be invalid, and cards in the GY cannot be removed from the game. Even sending monsters to the GY is pointless.

That might be. Yuei Vu smiled, and had already drawn the card he chose from the deck, But the card I want to send to the GY is Makyura the Destructor.

The moment Yuei Vu showed this card, Mariks eyelids twitched as he watched the battle.

He was very familiar with this card.

Because once upon a time, this Makyura the Destructor was the property of the Ishtar family

Makyura the Destroyers effect During the turn this card is sent to the Graveyard, I can activate Trap Cards from my hand.

Yuei Vu sent this card to the GY, and at the same time, the hideous phantom of the executioner appeared behind him.

He smiled slightly: Its neither an effect of moving cards in the graveyard to another place nor an effect of removing cards in the graveyard from the game, so it wont be invalidated by Necrovalley.

Ishizu nodded: Indeed. The Land of Rest does not allow anyone to disturb the sleep of the dead, but it cannot completely block the effects of the monsters sleeping in the GY.

In the Yu-Gi-Oh GX animation, Yuki Judai also discovered this blind spot of Necrovalley, using the effect of Elemental HERO Necroshade in the GY to summon the monsters in his hand at no cost.

For a student whose theoretical knowledge was in a mess and who have never passed the exam, it was a miracle that Judai could so keenly grasp the blind spots of the opponents card effects in actual combat

Awesome! Marik admired sincerely, As expected of Mr. Yuei Vu, he found the blind spot of the Land of Rest!

In addition to admiring, Mr. Ma even temporarily ignored the fact that Yuei Vus Makyura the Destructor was snatched from him

So I activate a Trap Card from my hand Gravelstorm! Yuei Vu waved his hand, Target 1 Spell/Trap on each field; return them to the hand!

I choose this set card on my own field and Ishizu, your Necrovalley!

The trap card emerged, and yellow sand rolled up in the field! A storm covered the sky and the sun rose up, covering the entire silent valley, gravel fell rustlingly, and the earth trembled as if it was about to collapse.

In the gust of flying sand and rocks, the sacred resting place finally turned into a phantom and dissipated again. The towering cliffs, the ray of sunshine outside the valley, and the suffocating atmosphere all turned into floating clouds under the storm of yellow sand.

Because of the presence of the Gravekeepers Supernaturalist, the Necrovalley cannot be destroyed by the effectbut it can be returned to the hand! What a beautiful move! Marik continued to give Yuei Vu a thumbs up.

Excellent response. Ishizu smiled, But you must have not forgotten my Necrovalley Temple, right?

Yuei Vu was noncommittal.

The effect of Necrovalley Temple is activated. Ishizu raised her hand, Once per turn, during the Main Phase, if I control no card in my Field Zone, I can activate 1 Necrovalley directly from my hand or GY!

The ten braziers on the golden temple were lit at the same time, exuberant as if pure golden flames were violently jubilant! The firelight reflected the blurred image on the wall, and the temple released a majestic divine power!

Ah, I know. Yuei Vu chuckled, But your temple doesn't have the resistance of cannot be destroyed by card effects. So at this moment, I activate Quick-Play Spell Mystical Space Typhoon! Destroy Necrovalley Temple!

The pitch-black whirlwind carried lightning and thunder, like carrying a wild beast with its teeth and claws! It roared, showing its fangs and claws with lightning, and with the irresistible power of nature, it split the sacred golden temple from it!

The majestic building collapsed, the thick stone pillars broke under the ravages of the storm, the golden ceiling was pierced by lightning, and the stones rolled down.

Then I activate the follow-up effect of Necrovalley Temple. Ishizu said, When this card is destroyed by an opponent's effect and sent to my GY, I can Set 1 Necrovalley Spell/Trap from my Deck, except Necrovalley Temple.

She opened the deck and found the third Necrovalley in the deck.

I put the Field Spell Necrovalley in my Field Zone!

Although another Necrovalley was retrieved, it would take her next turn to flip it face-up and use the effect.

But to be honest Ishizu wasn't sure if she had another turn.

Chapter 478: Still Having A Reversal Move

Now both Necrovalley and Necrovalley Valley disappeared. Yuei Vu said, The attack power of Dark Magician Girl the Dragon Knight and your Gravekeeper monsters will be restored to their original state!

[Dark Magician Girl the Dragon Knight, ATK 2100 ATK 2600]

[Gravekeepers Supernaturalist, ATK 2500 ATK 2000]

[Gravekeepers Spear Soldier, ATK 2000 ATK 1500]

The Dark Magician Girl held her head high, waved the divine sword, and looked proud and arrogant.

Ha! My attack power is the highest in the field!

even higher than my teacher!

Then comes the effect of Dark Magician Girl the Dragon Knight. Yuei Vu waved his hand, Once per turn, I can send 1 card from my hand to the GY, then target 1 face-up card on the field; destroy that target!

Yuei Vu discarded a card from his hand to the graveyard.

What I want to destroy is the Gravekeepers Supernaturalist!

Without the blessing of the Necrovalley, this powerful grave keeper was also unable to do what he wanted, and both his combat effectiveness and his spell ability dropped sharply.

The Dark Magician Girl swiped her long sword in the air, the power of that sword was as if the space was split. The domineering sword energy shot out through the air, and with a pleasant sword sound, hit the esper head-on.

For a moment, the grave keeper felt that his whole body was enveloped by sword energy as if the sword filled the whole world, and he was irresistible and impossible to dodge!

But at this moment, Ishizu raised her hand again: Counter Trap Divine Wrath! When a monster effect is activated: Discard 1 card; negate the activation and destroy that monster!

The unparalleled sword energy of the Dark Magician Girl suddenly seemed to hit an invisible barrier, and suddenly exploded in the air!

The sky changed color in an instant, and black clouds as thick as lead blocks enveloped the sky, with lightning and thunder churning in them.

Light broke through the clouds, like a sharp sword that cuts through everything! It had a clear goal, and it turned into a thunderbolt and landed on the dragon and the girl according to a gods will!

It was a punishment that symbolized the will of heaven to the mortal world, and even a monster as powerful as the legendary dragon could not be compared with it. The huge dragon dissipated in clouds and smoke under the bombardment of thunder and lightning. The Dark Magician Girl resisted with all her strength, but in the end, she couldnt defend herself against the blow. She only looked at her master apologetically for the last time, and then she couldnt help but leave the scene.

Another reversal. Marik looked at his sister, Sure enough, the current sister is stronger than I ever knew But this way, Mr. Yuei Vu will be in trouble again.

The ace monster was counter-killed, and Yuei Vus field became empty again. In the next round, as long as Ishizus Necrovalley was flipped, the situation would return to its original state.

Marik glanced at Yuei Vu.

Mr. Yuei Vu is still so calm!

After the whole duel, no matter what happens or how the situation changes, he always maintains a calm demeanor, calmly creating new opportunities to counterattack

Could it be that this is the real strong man?

Ishizu also asked: Mr. Yuei Vu, do you have a way to counterattack?

Who knows? Maybe.

Yuei Vu smiled and drew another card from his hand.

Continuous Spell Card of Safe Return!

Marik: !

Seeing this card appear on Yuei Vu's field, the corner of his mouth couldn't help twitching again.

Because of this card he was also familiar with it

Whenever a monster is revived from the graveyard, I draw three cards from the deck. Yuei Vu said.

Ishizu nodded: There is no Necrovalley on the field for the time being, and the seal on the cemetery has indeed been lifted.

Activate Spell Card Monster Reborn!

Yuei Vu showed this card, and at the same time, a huge and eye-catching resurrection mark appeared behind him.

The ankh of life in ancient Egypt symbolized the spell of rebirth, and it was also one of the superior spell mysteries handed down in the form of cards from ancient times.

Do you want to resurrect Dark Magician Girl the Dragon Knight? Ishizu asked.

Yuei Vu shook his head: Dark Magician Girl the Dragon Knight cannot be Special Summoned by means other than fusion, so even if I want to resurrect her, I can't do it.

So the monster I'm going to resurrect here is

The tomb area of his Duel Disk flashed with golden light, and a card popped out.

Dark Magician Girl!

The revival symbol disappeared, and a dark vortex opened up on the ground. The magical girl flew out, and appeared on the stage with a dangdang sound.

[Dark Magician Girl, ATK 2000]

Dark Magician Girl gains 300 ATK for every Dark Magician in the GY.

[Dark Magician Girl, ATK 2000 ATK 2300]

Appearing in this last and final endgame, the girl held the staff tightly in both hands, so nervous that her little hands were sweating.

The master actually values me so much!

Am I really the master's trump card?

I'm so nervous, I feel like I'm clumsy, and I'm not so good at spells, what if I disappoint my master

Card of Safe Returns effect, I draw three cards from the deck.

After drawing the cards, Yuei Vu smiled slightly, as if he had a plan in mind.

Ishizu noticed the change in his eyes.

Even if so many attacks have been resolved, is there still a new move immediately?

He is indeed a terrifying man

But she looked at the last set card at her feet, and she wasn't particularly nervous.

She still had the last resort, the last layer of insurance.

Just as the Dark Magician Girl was holding her breath and cheering herself up, she heard Yuei Vu say: I will take the Dark Magician Girl on my field as a sacrifice.

Dark Magician Girl: Huh?

So Im not an ace?

(Great Shogun Shien: I am familiar with this scene!)

Tribute 1 Spellcaster-Type monster I control, Yuei Vu showed a card in his hand, Special summon Silent Magician!

The Dark Magician Girl pursed her lips, disappeared as a faint blue light, and transformed into a white and transparent magic circle of light.

The girl was not happy.

After going back, I must ask Master to buy a super big and delicious popsicle to comfort myself!

The white magic circle rotated slowly, and the ring on the outermost circle was clearly engraved with complex spells and incantations. A dazzling white light shone above the magic circle, and a slender and graceful figure flew out of it.

The robe was as white as snowflakes, and the white long legs were looming from under the robes. The silent mage with ruby-like eyes and silver-white hair landed lightly on the field.

She just stood there calmly, holding the magic staff inlaid with blue gemstones in her hand, and her tall and straight figure was curvaceous.

Her eyes were as cold as a bay of spring water, and her fair and clear face seemed to be covered with a layer of frost, but she silently exuded an aura like ice and snow, as if the magic power leaked inadvertently was enough to suppress the whole audience.

[Silent Magician, ATK 1000]

Silent Magicians attack power will increase by 500 with every card in my hand. Yuei Vu said, I have three cards in my hand now, so her attack power will increase by 1500.

[Silent Magician, ATK 1000 ATK 2500]

Silent Magician. Ishizu looked at the mage, and said clearly, I heard that she is also one of the top existences among magicians, and I didnt expect to see her in this duel ..

Battle! Yuei Vu finally announced that he has entered the Battle Phase, Silent Magician, attack Gravekeepers Spear Soldier!

At the same time, he quickly played another hand.

Quick-Play Spell Silent Burning! This card can only be activated during the Battle Phase when my hand has more cards than the opponents! Each player draws until they have 6 cards in their hand!

Ishizu was slightly startled: Draw six cards Does that mean her attack power will continue to rise?

Thats right. Yuei Vu drew four cards from the deck, At this moment, the Silent Magicians attack power has increased again!

[Silent Magician, ATK 2500 ATK 4000]

The air seemed to condense, and the indifferent mage raised his snow-white staff, and the endless white light turned into a gust of wandering wind, all of which converged towards the bright blue diamond!

4000 ATK meant the magic power maximized to the limit! The skirt of the Silent Magicians robe fluctuated violently under the white cyclone, exposing those well-proportioned and straight legs, with smooth lines and lustrous luster.

The majestic momentum seemed to be overwhelming as if everything in front of it would be annihilated by the white light. Even if the two grave keepers joined forces on the field, they would definitely be unable to bear a single hit!

But Ishizu had a last resort!

Open the set card! She raised her voice. Up until now, she was always calm and steady, but now her tone was even slightly excited because of this hearty battle, Trap Card Malevolent Catastrophe!

Yuei Vus eyelids twitched slightly.

He was also no stranger to this card.

Because this was the card used by Marik in the Battle City arc of the animation.

Of course, that meant Yuei Vu also had this card in his library now.

It can only be activated when the opponents monster declares an attack. Ishizu said, Destroy all monsters on the field! (animation effect)

The violent table-turning trap was really worthy of its name, and it had the destructive power to wipe out everything on the field in an instant.

A majestic purple vortex was released from the trap card, which was the mighty power from a certain evil god! The first to bear the brunt was Ishizus own monsters her Supernaturalist and Spear Soldier. The two of them festered the moment they fell into the purple light, and quickly disappeared from the field.

The purple light was like a rolling river, and it seemed that even the full blow of the silent mage couldnt match it. Silent Magician bit her bloodless lips tightly, motivated with all her magic power, resisted for a while with difficulty, but in the end, it still broke through her line of defense.

The white magic circle was pierced like a thin film, and the power of the evil god rolled in like an endless ocean, submerging the figure of the Silent Mage

The monsters were all wiped out.

The purple vortex swept across the field, and it was temporarily difficult to see the situation on the field before it dissipated. Marik held his breath at this moment and remained silent for a long while.

So is the elder sister winning?

Reversal after reversal, it seems that the elder sister is better?

At this point, the elder sister actually has a backhand to counterattack.

At this moment, Marik was completely impressed by his sister who has been with him day and night.

But in this way, Yuei Vu should have no way to reverse it. After all, all his set cards have been used. It seemed that in the next turn, his sister would reactivate Necrovalley and build the lineup again

No, for Yuei Vu who only had 400 LP left, if Ishizu summoned a monster, it would be over.

This time it should be the end?

But when the purple light disappeared and the smoke dissipated, Marik's pupils shrank slightly, and he was shocked to find that

There are still monsters on Yuei Vu's field?

The pure white magic robe, the face that was as cold as eternal ice, and the ruby eyes

Isn't that the Silent Magician?

No, no, it should not be the same monster.

Although they look alike, they don't feel the same.

For example, the size of the chest of the robe, and the curve at the back

[Silent Magician LV8, ATK 3500]

The effect of Silent Magician. Yuei Vu said calmly, When she is destroyed, Special Summon 1 Silent Magician monster from my hand or Deck, except herself, ignoring its Summoning conditions.

So what I Special Summon was her final form after fully controlling her magic power and releasing the seal, the Silent Magician LV8!

Ishizu briefly showed a look of surprise but soon calmed down, only smiled slightly, and closed her eyes.

There was nothing in her front and back rows, and she really had no means this time.

But she also had nothing to say.

After all, I am convinced.

The battle continues. Yuei Vu waved his hand, Silent Magician LV8, attack directly! Silent Burning!

An attack with the same name, but with a completely different momentum. The mage in the white robe slowly raised her staff, and the holy white light from the heavens swirled around the staff, condensing and never dispersing. Although it was no longer as gorgeous and magnificent as the previous blow, it was more solid and steady.

Ishizu closed her eyes and calmly took the killing blow from the Silent Mage.

just like when they first played against each other.

Ishizu, LP 2450 LP 0

Chapter 479: Farewell

In this duel, Mr. Ma experienced a series of ups and downs in his heart.

When Yuei Vu Dark Magician Girl the Dragon Knight was sanctioned by heaven and wiped out in ashes, he naively thought that the ending had already been finalized, and it was his sister who won the game.

And when Yuei Vu activated the Silent Burning, the Silent Magicians attack power soared to 4000, his heart went up his throat, thinking that the blow of the Silent Magicians ultimate magic power would directly lay the groundwork for Yuei Vu's victory.

Immediately afterwards, Ishizu suddenly pulled out the card Malevolent Catastrophe in desperation, staged a one-card extreme comeback by flipping the table, he thought it was his sister who won.

Until the very end, when he saw the appearance of Silent Magician LV8, he couldn't even speak from the bottom of his heart.

At this moment, when Yuei Vu issued the final offensive, the silent mage flew out with the order, and her beautiful and graceful figure radiated divine light in midair, Marik realized something.

He finally discovered what Ishizu wanted him to notice through this duel, and it was also the obstacle that had been restricting him since the Battle City, preventing him from stepping forward.

That was, since Battle City, he has been afraid of the duel, afraid of this game that he once used as a tool for revenge.

But that wouldn't work. If he kept running away, not only would he not be able to face himself as a duelist, but he would also be unable to move on with his life.

And through this duel, his sister made him realize that there was nothing wrong with the duel itself. In other words, as a duelist, many things could only be answered through a duel.

In short, you can't move forward if you don't play cards.

Thanks to Yuei Vu and Ishizu, who fought with all their strength, Marik was finally able to face himself again.

and he even got a little windfall with this duel.

In the Battle City, Marik suffered setbacks time and time again at the hands of Yuei Vu all the men he sent went back without success, all the arrangements were disrupted, and all the effective subordinates were disgraced, returning with neither Duel Disk nor deck. When he became aggressive killing and came to fight Yuei Vu, the ending would be the same.

After receiving these continuous blows, he found that deep down in his heart, he had always been convinced by Yuei Vu.

After all, he was sitting on the world's strongest organization back then, and there were countless copycats and rare cards.

However, Yuei Vu was alone, with no background and no cheats (as far as Marik knew), so he defeated his plan repeatedly, and finally even his huge Ghouls became someone else's property in the end.

To be honest, he admired Yuei Vu from the bottom of his heart.

Brother Yuei Vu is so clever, I am not as good as him!

So even though so many Duel Disks were taken and so many decks were snatched, when he was about to say goodbye to Yuei Vu today, he still felt reluctant to part with him.

Are you okay? After the duel, Yuei Vu stepped forward, Did I go too far?

Ishizu stood up, crossed her hands, and bowed politely.

No. Thank you very much, Mr. Yuei Vu, for taking your precious time

Dont say that, this is indeed a good duel. Yuei Vu waved his hand, Its really surprising. After the Battle City, you have become a lot stronger.

Ishizu smiled slightly: Because people always have to improve. But then again, it should be said that Mr. Yuei Vu has become stronger. I think you havent even used your full strength yet?

Yuei Vu was noncommittal.

In the past, he thought: How could it be possible to go easy on playing cards?

It wasnt like someone who was fighting with others and only used 70% of their strength. Didnt players just play whatever they have in their hands?

Until now, with more and more spirits, his Rank getting higher and higher levels, and even the deck construction was getting closer and closer to NPC, he discovered

It seems that I really can!

Gradually turned into the divine draw protagonist. JPG.

This time, Yuei Vu was really ready to leave.

Before leaving, Ishizu said goodbye to him again. Marik put his hands in his trouser pockets, looked away as if distracted, and said nothing.

Before Yuei Vu left, he took another look at him, only smiled, but didnt say anything.

The young man is really not polite, he cant even say goodbye.

However, even Yuei Vu couldnt imagine that Marik, pretending to be distracted, had already solemnly shouted in his heart

Farewell, Mr. Yuei Vu!

I will recover, and I will return to the world of dueling, leaving my name once again in this card-based world.

Its just that from now on, on the road of Mariks comeback, the back of a certain Duel Disk hunter would always be lingering in his heart.

Not long after, Yuei Vu took the special plane of the Shanghai branch of Kaiba Corp and flew back.

The group of tool people was also there, and this group of players was even more excited than when they came.

After all, their gains were not small.

(Anubis: I have a sentence to say)

The news of Yuei Vu's departure from the forum has also spread. Players in this area were also generally mourning especially those players who have taken a fancy to certain items in Yuei Vu's store and were working hard to save money to buy them.

It's a pity that he left before they could pile it up.

However, in comparison, players from other regions in the forum reacted more intensely.

Anyway, you are already happy, and you have no right to be not satisfied!

Damn it! When will Yuei Vu-san come to visit us?

We can't hold back the wallet anymore!

Players from all over the place screamed anxiously.

To this, Yuei Vu just smiled.

The leeks these days are really impatient, and they want to be cut off even before they are ripe.

The difference between this return journey and the arrival was that there were two more newcomers on the plane.

Naturally, those two were Heart Gone With The Wind and One Hammer Deal, No Counter-Offer that Yuei Vu picked up from the Egyptian area during this trip.

But it seems that it will take a while for them to get acquainted with the players here. At this moment, Heart Gone With The Wind was looking at Native Noragami and Yuei Cannot Escape Fae who started to play wild ball boxing again, and was amazed that the current players are so unrestrained.

Never mind.

Coke Sprite, who had gradually developed an antibody to this scene, sat next to the newcomer and patted him on the shoulder.

You will get used to it.

On the way to Egypt, Coke Sprite felt extremely weird and unacceptable to this kind of performance, but after getting along for a while, she seemed to be used to it and didn't find it strange.

Coke Sprite was surprised to find that she even seemed to have developed to the point where she didn't feel strange at all when he saw a big man dangling in only a pair of Hulk-style pants.

She felt that before she knew it, she might already be broken.

Chapter 480: Protest Is Ineffective!

As Yuei Vu expected, the bunch of pendants he made with Ishizu were really selling well among screwball players these days.

Not to mention that this was still a spiritual weapon with a little bit of supernatural power, even if it was just an ordinary pendant, Yuei Vu reckoned that if a popular idol-type NPC like himself signed it, the screwballs would still buy with sky-high prices.

Hey, dont say it, it seems like a really good idea.

Yuei Vu decided to try the upcoming Christmas promotion

And at the moment, he was continuing to train his last disciple Judai in the card shop.

What? Do you ask why is he the last disciple?

Of course, its because the door is welded, no one can get out of the car!

The head of the little jellyfish was all about being happy, but the teaching still has to be done thoughtfully. Yuei Vu said that he was not a devil, and he also hoped from the bottom of his heart to train this little jellyfish well.

Since he needed to be trained, it was definitely not suitable to trick him with traps every day. Little jellyfish head was originally the kind of player who was good at thinking with his small intestines. He always relied on his divine draw to do whatever he wanted, and he never liked to use his brain in duels.

If you expect him to comprehend it by himself, God knows how much he will have to be tricked to get it right.

So Yuei Vu took advantage of his free time today and patiently explained some basic knowledge of deck building to Judai. After all, for duelists, the deck was the basic of the basics, and the first thing to learn was naturally how to build a deck.

Yuei Vu pointed it out unceremoniously when he came up, saying Judai, there is a big problem with your deck construction!

For example, the Spell Card Burst Return, could only be activated if there was an Elemental HERO Burstinatrix on the field, and it returned all Elemental HERO on the field except her to the owners hand.

This thing was not returning other monsters on the field to the hand, but returning other Elemental HERO to the hand. At first glance, wasnt this suicide?

However, Judai blinked his eyes innocently: But this cards artwork is very handsome!

Yuei Vu rolled his eyes.

Handsome? Whats the use of being handsome? Can it be eaten?

But he looked in the mirror, thought about it, and felt

It can.

Ahem, but thats not the point!

Yuei Vu took over the deck of the Judai, casually opened the top card, and happened to find that it was the Equip Spell Card Spark Blaster.

Only Elemental HERO Sparkman could equip it, and it could change the battle position of monsters on the field up to three times.

Yuei Vu explained to Judai that this thing was not completely useless, but it was limited to only Elemental HERO Sparkman, which seemed very tasteless.

Because if he couldn't draw Sparkman, this thing was a waste card in your hand, occupying the position of a hand card for nothing

Before Yuei Vu finished speaking, he saw the little jellyfish draw a card from the top of the deck, turned it over, and handed it to the teacher: Sensei, look, Elemental HERO Sparkman!

Yuei Vu:

He hadn't finished the second half of the sentence, but Judai forcibly interrupted him, blocked his mouth, and made him speechless.

All right, you have a Kaiba-brand 502, so pretend I didn't say that.

Little Judai looked bewildered as if he was puzzled by the concept the teacher said.

Ah? Can't get it? Why can't I get it?

If you can't even draw the cards you want to use, why do you duel?

It was also true that the method of teaching the protagonist could not be bound by common sense. Some things that were useless for other players and have harsh usage conditions may be killer moves in the hands of the protagonist.

Fortunately, Yuei Vu has more or less touched the threshold of the divine draw now, and this aspect was no longer as mysterious as it was when he first came to this world.

And now he has stuffed some unknown meaning things in his own deck.

Otherwise, let him, a player who was used to playing real-life cards in the past, teach a protagonist to play cards, it might not be possible.

But even with the divine draw, there were still too many unknown meaning things in Little Judai's deck. Even if you were not afraid of getting brick hands and could draw them at the right time, their strength and effect were mediocre, and there was no investment value at all.

However, Little Judai liked to put them in his deck.

The reason was very simple.

Because the card is handsome!

Facing Little Judai's bright eyes and innocent expression, Yuei Vu twitched the corner of his mouth and then said directly without mercy

Throw!

Throw away all these useless things!

ah?

Little Judai's smile disappeared immediately. He fidgeted with his deck of cards with his little hands, and the little jellyfish lowered its head as if his father ordered him to throw away his favorite toy.

For a moment, Yuei Vu couldn't help but have the illusion that he was a villain

No, its all for his own good too!

Little Judai was reluctant to part with every card that was removed: Mr. Yuei Vu, can this card also be used?

No need.

What about this one?

No need.

And what about this?

In a short time, the thickness of the deck of the Judai has been visibly reduced.

But sensei, doesnt a deck need at least forty cards? Judai asked innocently, What should I do if I lack so many cards?

Yuei Vu thought for a while and first took out a few cards such as Pot of Greed, Spell Books from the Pot, and Card of Sanctity.

In short, stuff these things first.

Judai was a little confused: Do we need so many?

Yuei Vu patiently explained: Think about it, the main focus of the HERO deck is fusion. If you want to summon any Fusion monster for example, the Flame Wingman, how many cards do you need?

Huh? Uh three?

How many cards did you have in your hand in the first turn?

Sixsix cards Little Judai suddenly realized, Ah! So thats the case! Thats why I need to replenish the cards in my hand

Yuei Vu nodded slightly and rubbed his little head.

Yes, good children can be taught.

Although it may be difficult to explain the concept of card advantage to Judai, it was a good start anyway.

In addition, generally speaking, real-life card players liked to limit their decks to forty cards, because it was easier to draw key cards to play the expected tactics. But this problem naturally did not exist if you could perform divine draws.

So Yuei Vus education to the Judai was that the thicker the deck, the better, and all the cards that should be added must be added!

Each additional card increased the chances that your deck would be able to handle the unexpected!

As a last resort, when encountering a situation where all the cards in the deck could not solve, then consider printing cards

Judai was confused again: So what should I put in the deck next?

So Yuei Vu took out all kinds of red cards this time.

As the saying goes In case of indecision, first set traps.

Anyway, aren't you afraid of getting brick hands? Come, come, come, let's add Solemn Judgement, Trap Hole, and so on

Of course, these were just suggestions.

After all, such things as decks must be formed by duelists themselves to be their own. In the end, the choice of cards and the configuration of the deck must be decided by Judai himself.

At this moment, Chika, who was wearing a maids attire and wrapped in an apron, poked her head out of the kitchen: The meal is ready.

Okay. Yuei Vu rubbed Judai's little jellyfish head again he recently found that the more he rubbed the little head, the more enjoyable he was, Let's go and eat.

Okay! Judai nodded vigorously.

At the same time, his spirit partner Yubel was floating by the side with his arms folded, glaring at Yuei Vu.

Not long ago, Yuei Vu touched Judai's head once, and Yubel expressed dissatisfaction.

I want to protest!

I can't remember that I ever allowed you to touch his head!

I haven't even touched it!

Now every time Yuei Vu did this, she would pop up and stare at Yuei Vu with cold eyes of different colors to express her silent protest.

Of course, her protest was clearly ineffective.

After all, she couldn't beat Yuei Vu in a duel
