

I Play Yu-Gi 501

Chapter 501: Boss, Please Accept It

Millennium Ring!

Amir immediately looked at the boy in front of him.

The Millennium Items were a legend among duelists in the inner world. Anyone who was recognized by one of them and could control its power can instantly obtain the ultimate dark power and become the overlord of the inner world.

Back then, Pegasus, the father of dueling monsters, relied on the divine power of the Millennium Eye to suppress any organizations and duelists who were dissatisfied with him, and ascended to the dominant position in one fell swoop.

Marik Ishtar, who came out to make trouble afterward, also had the blessing of the Millennium Rod in his hand, which gave him a tyrannical power that could crush most Shadow Duelists. At that time, relying on his personal strength, he forcibly brought Ghouls, a group that had not been established for a long time, into a top organization.

There were even many people who say that the invincible strength of Duel King Yugi Muto was also related to the Millennium Puzzle that hung on his chest all year round. Many powerful players, including Pegasus, were defeated by Yugi Muto. No one would think that he was just an ordinary young man who happened to be good at playing cards.

Of course, the premise was that the holder must be able to control the power of the artifact.

Although the Millennium Items were powerful, they were also very picky. They would not easily recognize a person as the owner, and until they are passed on to the right owner, they may look like ordinary antique pendants without any use.

Amir's mind quickly became active.

Although the boy in front of him had the Millennium Ring, Amir had no impression of him. In other words, the other party has never participated in any public meetings, nor has he done anything earth-shattering in the inner world, and is just an unknown little person.

In other words, there was a high probability that this young man just happened to be lucky enough to hold the Millennium Ring, and he was unable to exert his true power!

To be reasonable, this white-haired boy in fact, he was the host of the great evil god Zorc, Bakura was still one of the top eight contestants who had participated in the Battle City Competition.

It's just because the rich and self-willed President Kaiba arranged for the quarter-finals to be played in the sky, and there was no audience and no broadcast. It was not until they arrived at the duel tower on Alcatraz that the TV broadcast was arranged.

It's a pity that Bakura didn't make it to the semi-finals, so he was gorgeously forgotten by the audience.

Ever since, Amir came to the conclusion that this guy must be weak.

He even felt:

If I snatch this Millennium Ring, wouldn't I become powerful too?

The revival of Doma is no longer a dream!

At that time, with the help of the power of this artifact, it is only a matter of time before the god of Orichalcos is resurrected!

Obviously, the ignorant Amir didn't know that there lived in this Millennium Ring was a big guy named Zorc, a great evil god who was even more ruthless than the god of Orichalcos.

If he really took this thing to summon his god, even if their god was still alive, he might scream and run away.

You may still scold while running: Fuck, these damned Doma followers are trying to trick me again!

You summon me with this thing, do you really want to feed me to the great evil god Zorc as rations?

It's a pity that Amir didn't realize that he was drifting away on the road to death. He asked, Who are you?

Me? Let me think about it, my name is Bakura, at least for the time being.

Amir put back on the Duel Disk that he had just removed out of the desire for survival, It seems that you haven't realized your situation well, let me help you get to know it .

He narrowed his eyes and said in a low voice.

Come on, bet our souls on the duel, the loser will be swallowed by eternal darkness! When Amir spoke, his eyes were fixed on the Millennium Ring on Bakura's chest without blinking.

He unabashedly conveyed a meaning

That's right, I'm just greedy for your Millennium Ring.

Swallowed by eternal darkness? Bakura raised his head and laughed.

A look of I won't be sleepy if you say this.

Very well, then come on. He licked his tongue and raised the Duel Disk in his hand, But don't regret it.

Regret? Hehe, it looks like you really are a brat. Amir sneered, Then let me tell you specifically who your opponent is going to face.

He activated the duel disk, which quickly unfolded, and the five monster zones were clearly outlined by golden lines.

Amir turned half sideways, with a sullen face, showing a desperate expression.

In the past, people called me Demon God of Judgment.

A few moments later.

Ughhhhhh!!!

Amir, the former Demon God of Judgment (as he called himself) and now the leader of Doma, flew out in a very handsome arc with a scream like a pig slaughtered.

Amir, LP 0

lost.

The loss was straightforward, without any suspense.

Hahahahaha!!

Bakura raised his head and laughed wildly, the millennium wheel hanging on his chest suddenly burst into dazzling golden light! The majestic and terrifying pitch-black power erupted around him, like an endless flood from ancient times!

Amir froze, as did everyone present.

They have never seen such amazing dark energy with their own eyes!

Its almost as if as if this young man is the embodiment of darkness himself!

The pitch-black waves swept across the hall, shattering the floor, the pillars of the hall seemed to be crumbling, and the ceiling seemed about to fall at any moment.

Amir found that he didnt dare to look at the young man directly, and he couldnt even open his eyes under such pressure, so he could only lift his arms powerlessly to protect his face, screaming in his heart

My life is over!

but no.

Suddenly, the howling wind seemed to stop suddenly, and the majestic pressure also disappeared suddenly.

Amir raised his head in astonishment and saw Bakura standing in front of him with a strange smile on his face.

He froze for a moment, and asked hesitantly, You didnt kill me?

Kill you? Why should I kill you? Bakura snorted softly, You are still useful now. I have some plans, very important plans, for which I will need your assistance.

Amirs face changed several times, he thought for a moment and finally obeyed.

As the saying goes As long as you still have a forest, you dont have to worry about lacking firewood. Their revival of Doma was a long-term plan, and there was no rush for this moment, the point was to survive first.

To put it bluntly, discard honor to live.

Seeing that everyone around was silent and seemed to have no objection, Bakura chuckled lightly: Okay, very good. Then you will have a new mission soon.

First I need something from you

Before he could finish his sentence, Amir removed the Duel Disk he was wearing together with the deck, and quickly handed it to Bakura: Boss, please accept it.

Bakura: ???

Where does this strange habit come from?

Why do I need your Duel Disk?

Chapter 502: Be A Hostage Again?

Kaiba Corp, headquarters.

It was raining pattered outside the window, the rain was like a layer of transparent curtain, hanging on the window and flowing down.

Kaima Mokuba walked alone in the empty stairway. He was wearing an elegant tailor-made suit, with a dozen documents under his arm. Although he was only the size of a primary school student, his childish face showed a maturity that did not belong to this age. He looked like a little grown-up.

Mokuba was not in a good mood now.

Because his elder brother went out to discuss company affairs with the army officer named Fujino.

Mokuba has already begun to feel that there was something wrong with that Fujino, and he comes to Kaiba Corp too frequently these days.

Last week, he said that there was a small loophole in their cooperation contract and wanted to discuss it with the president. A few days ago, he said that they had made some research progress in the development of the new card and wanted to ask the president to take a look. Now he said that the military suspected to have discovered a loophole in Kaiba's new generation of Duel Disks and wanted to ask the president to find out

Mokuba instinctively began to feel that something was wrong with this guy.

It looked like this Fujino was imitating his elder brother!

Mokuba was already suspicious when Fujino made such a big concession when he cooperated with Kaiba Corp, and now his suspicion has only become heavier.

He felt that this Fujino must be thinking about something owned by their Kaiba Corp.

It's just that he hasn't figured out what it is yet.

But when he mentioned it to Kaiba, the latter didn't seem to take it seriously at all, thinking that Mokuba was thinking too much.

Mokuba was a little distressed.

How aboutask Brother Yuei Vu?

Besides Kaiba, the person Mokuba trusted the most now was Yuei Vu. He liked to confide in Yuei Vu about big and small things, and even told him about some adolescent troubles.

In addition, although my brother didnt listen to what I said, if it was Brother Yuei Vu, my brother should take it to heart

Mokuba thought so.

After thinking wildly for a long time, he suddenly came back to his senses and noticed an important problem.

This corridordoesnt it seem a little too long?

Why have I walked for so long and still haven't come to an end?

Only then did Mokuba notice that the surrounding environment seemed a little too gloomy. A black mist billowed indistinctly from the ground, gradually covering the long corridor. The fluorescent lamps on the ceiling tried their best to emit incandescent light, but they couldn't penetrate the thick fog at all.

Mokuba began to feel uneasy.

It was not the first time he has experienced a metaphysical incident such as a Shadow Game. Back then in the Duelist Kingdom, he was captured by Pegasus, and his soul was sealed into a card by the power of the Millennium Eye.

Because he has experienced it once, he is more sensitive than ordinary people.

His instinct was telling him that he has been involved in the center of the Shadow Game again!

The black mist actually condensed into a human shape in front of him. The man in the black robe stood in the shadows, and when he raised his head, the eyes under the hood were filled with scarlet light.

That was Amir, one of the most senior cadres of the Doma organization now.

But now he was different from before.

Now he has come into contact with a brand-new evil god, obtained a brand-new dark power, and realized his own transformation!

At this moment, Amir has learned that the thing that lived in the Millennium Ring was an evil god who was as powerful as the god of Orichalcos, maybe even stronger.

But now, he has accepted the gift of that evil god and surpassed himself!

Dartz and Orichalcos have been completely forgotten by him.

Now he has completely transformed into a loyal minion of the new master!

Mokuba took two steps back subconsciously: You who are you?

Me? Amir sneered, I am the representative of Lord Great Evil God. My Lord said he wants to see you, so you may have to come with me.

Although he didn't know what this Lord Great Evil God was, Mokuba immediately figured it out.

They came to take me hostage again!

After all, our Mokuba was a professional hostage, and we have rich experience in this area. The moment he noticed that the atmosphere was not right, he felt a thud in his heart, realizing that it was broken, and he was going to be a hostage again.

But he certainly couldn't be caught like this.

Mokuba didn't waste time talking, turned his head, and ran away, throwing away the dozens of documents he was carrying.

At the same time, he quickly took out his mobile phone and urgently dialed his brother's number.

Elder brother! Your younger brother is in danger! Come back soon!

Unfortunately, the call couldn't get through.

This was the case with certain Shadow Games. Once turned on, nothing could come in or out, not even lights and signals.

Therefore, it was impossible to even see the situation in the Shadow Game from the outside.

Hahahaha! Amir laughed loudly, Its useless, this is already a dark realm, no matter how hard you run, you won't be able to escape from this space!

He opened Domas special Duel Disk and raised a card.

Just let you have a special experience, the new power that the lord bestowed on me!

A beast-like roar came from the endless corridor, and a huge black phantom filled the corridor! Most of its body was hidden in the black mist, with only a vague outline, but its body was like obsidian, surrounded by light blue electric snakes.

The pitch-black monster involuntarily landed in front of Mokuba, causing him to sit down on the ground in fright.

I cant run away.

Mokuba couldn't help but hug his head and closed his eyes.

Hahahaha! Amir said triumphantly, Get him for me!

However, at this critical moment, the surrounding black mist was torn apart. A beam of golden light was like shining fangs, aggressively biting a gap in the darkness, and a large amount of dazzling light gushed in from the gap.

That beam of light turned into a brilliant sword, cutting through the darkness domineeringly, cutting the huge black shadow behind Mokuba in two with one blow!

The giant shadow raised its head and let out a scream, its body burst open and disappeared in an instant.

Who!? Amir was startled.

Once the Shadow Game started, nothing could go in or out Of course, nothing was absolute.

Brute-forcing wasn't out of the question if there was someone whose level of prowess far exceeded the abilities of the games initiator.

Just like now.

The shining light condensed into a solid body, turning into tight-fitting blue armor, jewel-like blue eyes, and fang-like sharp blades on the wrists.

Masked HERO Koga!

Seeing the hero's back clearly, Mokuba was overjoyed: Brother Yuei Vu!

Yuei Vu immediately appeared beside him.

Doma? He glanced at the Duel Disk in Amir's hand, and frowned, You guys are really arrogant enough to show your face here.

Chapter 503: Colosseum

Brother Yuei Vu!

Mokuba couldn't help being overjoyed, his body almost instinctively hid behind Yuei Vu immediately, glaring at the villain who attacked him, the expression on his little face seemed to say:

Brother! Its him who is bullying me just now!

Ha! Now my brother Yuei Vu is here, you are finished!

Mokuba: Hold your thighs tight.JPG.

But he was also curious at the same time: Brother Yuei Vu, haven't you been out for fun these two days going on a business trip?

The moment he said the words, he suddenly remembered that Yuei Vu was still on a business trip in name, so he changed his wording at the last second.

Because of some special reasons, the trip was canceled and I came back first. Yuei Vu's expression remained unchanged.

Ah! Brother Yuei Vu, did you come here on a special trip because you sensed that some bad guys were planning to do something wrong?

Mokuba's eyes lit up, his face full of admiration.

He thought it made perfect sense. After all, in his mind, Brother Yuei Vu was a master of calculations. No matter what enemy he faces, he is always many steps ahead of the opponent, and no one can escape his calculation range!

So, Brother Yuei Vu came to the company to save me?

Yuei Vu coughed and said, Uhuh, sort of.

This was a lie. He just happened to come to Kaiba Corp today to order some new cards.

Because he heard that Kaiba Corp was going to release a new card box in the past two days, so he came here to try something new before the official release

Yes, as card printing technology was becoming more and more popular now, card printing was no longer exclusive of Industrial Illusions. Now Kaiba Corp was also gradually launching its own independently developed card box.

But no matter what, Mokuba seems to be convinced that Yuei Vu expected the enemy to attack and came here to help. Not only Mokuba, but even Amir on the opposite side believed it.

Hiss~ As expected of the Duel King Yuei Vu, his calculation is like a god!

He even calculated in advance that we will raid Kaiba Corp tonight!

If it were him who was not long ago, when he met Yuei Vu, Amir might have been thinking about abandoning the Duel Disk to save his life.

But now it's different!

Now with the dark power bestowed by Lord Great Evil God, he never felt confident like now!

Yuei Vu you come just right. Amir sneered, My lord said that you will also be part of the plan. Although this is not an order from him, if I deal with you first here, he must be very happy too.

Lord? Yuei Vu raised his eyebrows, Oh, it seems that this is not a small fish.

This sentence caught his attention a little bit.

Does he mean that Doma has a new leader?

He signaled Mokuba to back off, took a step forward and opened the Duel Disk.

Okay, I accept. Yuei Vu said lightly, But if I win, not only will your soul disappear, but I also need to know who you are talking about.

Amir grinned, seemingly unconcerned.

Duel! x2

Yuei Vu, LP 4000

Amir, LP 4000

Ill go first, draw.

After Amir drew the cards, he showed a mysterious and ambiguous smile, and then drew three cards in one breath.

Set three cards, I end my turn!

Seeing the three extra cards in the back row, Mokuba couldnt help being surprised: End the turn after set three cards are blocked Doesnt this person summon monsters?

Amir hummed and smiled, but did not speak.

Now that he has obtained the power bestowed by the evil god, he has long been completely different from his original self!

My turn. Yuei Vu drew a card without saying a word.

This time, what he used was another new series that was just pieced together from the system card pool.

Let this Doma believer open his eyes here first.

The Field Spell Colosseum Cage of the Gladiator Beasts is activated!

The black mist was dispersed in all directions, and the corridor disappeared in an instant. The terrain under their feet changed rapidly, and huge rock blocks rose from the ground, forming load-bearing columns and supports, and an ancient ring-shaped arena rose from the ground.

1 Counter will be placed on this card each time a monster is Special Summoned from either players Deck.

Yuei Vu explained briefly, and then drew another card: Spell Card Graceful Charity: Draw 3 cards, then discard 2 cards.

He skillfully drew cards, quickly picked out two cards and discarded them to the graveyard, and then immediately took a card.

Summon Gladiator Beast Laquari in attack position!

The tiger wearing light armor and surrounded by flames came to the arena, leaving flame scratches where their sharp claws passed.

[Gladiator Beast Laquari, ATK 1800]

Amir didnt say a word, but he had secretly noticed it in his heart.

Gladiator Beast? Not HERO?

But it didnt make him feel too strange. After all, rumors said that Duel King Yuei Vu had a lot of decks, each of which can exert a strong combat power in his hands.

And not everyone was qualified for him to come up with the hero deck that was the symbol of the Duel King.

You think I dont deserve to face your full power Is that the case? Amir narrowed his eyes and sneered from the bottom of his heart.

Yuei Vu continued: Spell Card Gladiator Beasts Comeback! Special Summon 1 Gladiator Beast monster from my hand or GY, with a different Type from the monsters I control.

The Gladiator Beast Laquari on my field is Beast-Warrior, so I Special Summon the Gladiator Beast Augustus, who is Winged Beast, in the GY!

Come, the emperor from the ancient Roman Empire, Gladiator Beast Augustus!

With the same name as the first head of state of the Roman Empire, the Level 8 bird-beast-shaped gladiator descended from the sky! It has wide, pitch-black wings with sharp claws on them. It is dressed in pitch-black metal armor, holds a divine sword, and is inlaid with red gemstones in many parts of the armor. The lonesome eyes contain the arrogance unique to ancient Roman kings.

[Gladiator Beast Augustus, ATK 2600]

The total attack power has exceeded 4,000! Mokuba secretly thought in his heart, and at the same time looked at the three set cards in Amirs back row with some concern.

It shouldnt be so easy to attack, right?

Battle!

No matter what pitfalls the other party has, it is never a solution not to step on it.

Gladiator Beast Augustus, attack directly!

The black wings flapped, and the body of Augustus rose into the air with a gust of hurricane! The sword inlaid with rubies was raised high, leaving a clear black arc in the air when it cut, and the momentum of that sword was like commanding thousands of troops!

Of course, Amirs set card in the back row was not a decoration: Open the set card: Trap Card Waboku!

The trap was opened, and the three blue-robed nuns landed lightly on Amirs field. They lightly clutched the talisman that symbolized peace and whispered a prayer calling for a truce, and the transparent protective cover immediately resisted the kings sword of incomparable will.

In this turn, my monsters will not be destroyed by the battle, and the battle damage I receive is also 0. Amir chuckled, What a pity.

Augustus returned in vain, but Yuei Vu didnt seem to hear it: Continue to fight. Gladiator Beast Laquari, attack directly!

Mokuba wondered: Its obvious that there is no point in attacking, so why do you want to attack?

At this time, Laquari had already swooped up, and the sharp claws dragged a few clear fire marks and grabbed it out.

Amir disdains: Because of the effect of Waboku, I take no battle damage!

Once again blocked by the nuns barrier, Laquari also retreated weakly.

At the end of the battle, the effects of Gladiator Beast Laquari and Gladiator Beast Augustus are activated! Yuei Vu raised his hand, At the end of the Battle Phase, if this card attacked or was attacked, I can shuffle it into the Deck; Special Summon 1 Gladiator Beast monster from my Deck, except this one!

I return Laquari and Augustus to the deck, and I can special summon the other two Gladiator Beasts!

Oh? Is that the idea? Amir hooked his mouth and raised his voice suddenly, But thats not allowed! Open the set card: Counter Trap Recall!

Yuei Vus eyelids twitched.

When the opponent activates a monster effect, they draw 1 card, Amir narrowed his eyes, also negate the activation, and destroy that monster!

What I want to disable is the effect of Gladiator Beast Augustus!

Augustus raised his head, brandishing the pitch-black sword in pain, and blue electric currents sputtered from his body. Immediately afterward, there was a burst of pop, the ancient king had just appeared on the stage, and at this moment, he exploded and turned into ashes, leaving only a few black feathers floating with the wind.

Then there is still the effect of Gladiator Beast Laquari. Yuei Vu said, Return Laquari to the deck, and Special Summon 1 Gladiator Beast monster from your Deck, except Gladiator Beast Laquari.

Bring it on! Gladiator Beast Secutor!

What appeared on the stage was a Gladiator Beast in blue armor, carrying two eye-catching cannons on its shoulders.

[Gladiator Beast Secutor, DEF 300]

Then according to the effect of Recall, I draw a card from the deck. Yuei Vu drew a card, then raised his hand, Then there is the effect of the Field Spell Colosseum Cage of the Gladiator Beasts!

Because Gladiator Beast Secutor was Special Summoned from the deck, added one counter to the Colosseum.

All Gladiator Beast monsters gain 100 ATK and DEF for of these counters on this card.

[Gladiator Beast Secutor, DEF 300 DEF 400]

Heh heh heh Its useless, its useless at all! Amir laughed loudly, At this moment! The card that the lord gave me, my new power, will be unsealed at this time!

He held up a card in his hand, and at that moment, Yuei Vu seemed to be able to see the darkness visible to the naked eye erupting from that card!

This card can only be Special Summoned when I negate the activation of an opponents Spell/Trap Card(s), or opponents monster effect(s), with a Counter Trap Card! He shouted in the dark wind, Down from the underworld, lets pass judgment on this filthy world!

VanDalgyon the Dark Dragon Lord! ! !

Chapter 504: You Do it On Purpose?

A dark red body seems to be stepping from the underworld, and every step is like a hammer falling heavily. It clenched its fists tightly, and its silver-white claws, like steel knives, rubbed against each other, sparks and light blue lightning flashed out.

[VanDalgyon the Dark Dragon Lord, ATK 2800]

Yuei Vu finally found the source of the powerful dark power in the opponents body, which came from the monster in front of him.

Someone injected quite powerful dark energy into this VanDalgyon the Dark Dragon Lord and instilled it into the body of this monster.

And Amir, who was given this card, gained the force sealed in it, was temporarily overwhelmed, and gained the dark power he should not have At the same time, his duelist Rank has risen.

Its better to say that Yuei Vu was indirectly fighting the one behind the scenes who gave this man his power. The person who appeared in front of him now was nothing more than a puppet.

Interesting. Yuei Vu said lightly.

Being able to give others such powerful dark power at will, then the power of the person behind the scenes must not be underestimated.

In fact, at this stage, people with this level of power in this world should be rare in the first place.

Set two cards, I end my turn.

My turn, draw! Amir snorted coldly, Feel it with your body, Duel King! The power bestowed by my great lord!

Battle! VanDalgyon the Dark Dragon Lord, attack the Gladiator Beast Secutor!

VanDalgyons body was full of lightning, and the body was covered with dark red lines, like magma that melted the ground!

It opened its sharp claws, and the sharp claws seemed to guide the thunder, and the electric light gathered together, forming a long spear that went forward bravely, and flew toward Secutor through the air!

Yuei Vu raised his hand: Open the set card! Trap Card Intrigue Shield!

The card flipped over, and a shield with a simple badge and gold trim emerged, and fell into Secutors hands, protecting his body tightly behind the shield.

After activation, this card will be used as an equipment card and equipped to Gladiator Beast Secutor! Yuei Vu said,

Once per turn, the equipped monster cannot be destroyed by battle, and I take no battle damage from attacks involving it!

Huh? Cannot be destroyed by the battle, and when the Battle Phase is over, can it trigger the troublesome effect of the Gladiator Beast? Amir sneered.

Yuei Vu was noncommittal.

Indeed, after the battle, Gladiator Beast Secutor would return to the deck at the end of this Gladiator Beast Secutor, and summon two other Gladiator Beast monsters from the deck at one go, increasing resources to launch a counterattack.

But that's not allowed! Amir laughed, Open the set card! Counter Trap Malfunction! Pay 500 Life Points, negate the activation of a Trap Card and return it to its original position!

Amir, LP 4000 LP 3500

Mokuba was surprised: Ah? Why is this!?

So the activation of the Intrigue Shield is negated. Set it back for me! Amir shouted.

The shield disappeared immediately and changed back into the face-down again.

Without the protection of the shield, Secutor suddenly had to face the mighty VanDalgyon helplessly alone again, his small body was shrouded in endless electric light.

But it's not over yet!

At this moment!

Amir drew another card from his hand, and in an instant, the thick darkness on that card exploded, sweeping like a dark wave again!

Because I used the counter trap to negate the activation of your trap card, which triggered the effect of another VanDalgyon the Dark Dragon Lord in my hand! This card can only be Special Summoned when I negate the activation of an opponent's Spell/Trap Card(s), or opponent's monster effect(s), with a Counter Trap Card!

Appear, the second VanDalgyon the Dark Dragon Lord! ! !

As if a pitch-black torrent broke through the ground, a huge figure towered like a mountain! The second VanDalgyon stood proudly, opened its arms, stretched its sharp claws and roared upward, even the thunder in the sky seemed to be moved by this broken roar!

[VanDalgyon the Dark Dragon Lord, ATK 2800]

Mokuba was surprised: There is a second one!?

And! Amir sneered, If my Counter Trap negates the activation of a card, VanDalgyon the Dark Dragon Lord can still get the corresponding follow-up effect!

When a Trap Card was negated, I can choose 1 card the opponent controls and destroy it!

With a big wave of his hand, he pointed at Yuei Vu's field.

Destroy the Gladiator Beast Secutor!

The second VanDalgyon burst into a roar, and its huge claws grabbed it from the air. The black airflow formed a jet-black impact with the power of that claw, going straight towards Secutor!

The poor low-level Gladiator Beast had no ability to resist in front of such a fatty. At the moment of contact, Secutor was shattered under the impact of the darkness and disappeared from the field.

The moment the Gladiator Beast Secutor was destroyed, a Battle Replay occurred! Amir shouted, The first VanDalgyon the Dark Dragon Lord lost its attack target, and I can choose another attack target.

The fight continues! To the Duel Kinga direct attack!!!

The first VanDalgyon roared loudly, blasting out through the air with a more dazzling blue electric light. The blue lightning dispelled the darkness and illuminated the entire duel field, which contained undisguised malice and murderous aura!

Head-on hit!

With a violent impact, lightning seemed to radiate from one point to all directions. The strong explosion caused a large screen of flames and smoke, which swallowed Yuei Vu whole.

Mokuba yelled with concern: Brother Yuei Vu!

Yuei Vu, LP 4000LP 1200

Yuei Vu swayed slightly, and stood up straight, but remained expressionless and did not speak.

Hey, there is another VanDalgyon the Dark Dragon Lord God on my field that has not attacked yet. Amir couldnt hide the smug look in his eyes, This way, its over!

Yuei Vus front row was empty. Among his two set cards, one was the Intrigue Shield that has just been forcibly re-Set, and although the other was unknown, but the attack just now has not triggered it, which means that it must not be a defense trap.

In other words, he had no way to block this attack.

Accept your fate! Amirs eyes were full of madness, and his facial muscles twisted uncontrollably, The second VanDalgyon the Dark Dragon Lord, attack directly!

It worked!

I defeated the king who ruled the apex of the duel world!

The thunder condensed, like a bombardment penetrating the world! There was lightning and thunder in midair, and the dazzling light was pulled over like thunder all over the sky, and they all blasted towards Yuei Vus face!

Hmph. The corners of Yuei Vus mouth raised slightly in disdain, Feeling that you already win with just this what a pure and naive duelist.

What!?! Amirs expression changed.

No monsters, no set card Is there a way to make a comeback in this situation!?

The effect of Gladiator Beast Noxious in the hand is activated, Yuei Vu said lightly, When an opponents monster declares a direct attack: I can Special Summon this card from my hand!

With a burst of golden light, a leopard-shaped gladiator came to the field wearing blue armor. He half squatted in front of Yuei Vu, crossing his claws wrapped in blue protective gear in front of him.

Gladiator Beast Noxious, DEF 1000 DEF 1100(Due to the effect of the Field Spell)

And in this case, the target of the opponents attack will be forcibly changed to Gladiator Beast Noxious, and the damage calculation will continue.

Tch, did you manage to survive this turn? Amir curled his lips a little unhappily, Then VanDalgyon, tear that monster apart!

The rolling thunder fell, and directly blasted on the leopard-shaped gladiator! The Gladiator Beast hummed softly after being shocked by the electric shock, faint black smoke came out of his fur and blue armor, but he still stood tenaciously after shaking his figure a few times, and was not knocked down just yet.

What? Amir was surprised, Whythe attack power of VanDalgyon is higher!

When Gladiator Beast Noxious is Special Summoned from the hand according to his own effect, Yuei Vu explained lightly, Only at that time, he will not be destroyed by the battle.

Eh? Mokuba suddenly realized something, Then if you summon it when the first VanDalgyon attack, you dont need to take any damage

Amir bit his lips so hard that his lips almost bled.

So you let my attack go through on purpose Is that what you mean?

Chapter 505: Reflect Change!

You did you let my attack pass on purpose? Amir looked gloomy.

He thought that he had already won the battle, and thought that he had pushed the Duel King to a corner.

It turned out that everything was completely under the control of the other party!?

Because if the Gladiator Beast Noxious in the hand was summoned to resist when the first VanDalgyon attacked, then the attack of the second VanDalgyon would definitely crush Noxious.

In this way, the effect of Gladiator Beast Noxious could not be triggered at the end of the battle.

Exactly. Yuei Vu chuckled, At the end of the Battle Phase, the effect of Gladiator Beast Noxious is activated. Return Noxious to the deck, and special summon 1 Gladiator Beast monster other than him from the deck.

bring it on! Gladiator Beast Darius!

Noxious turned into a beam of golden light and flew back to the deck, and then a beam of golden light flew out of the deck, transforming into a horse-headed beast with strong muscles.

[Gladiator Beast Darius, ATK 1700]

Amir was still stubborn: Hmph, even if this kind of monster is summoned

Open the set card: Trap Card Double Tag Team! Yuei Vu snapped his fingers, This card can be activated only when I successfully Special Summon a Gladiator Beast monster. Special Summon 1 Level 4 or lower Gladiator Beast monster from my hand or Deck!

The deck was automatically retrieved, and a card was ejected from the deck.

Yuei Vu showed the card: I special summon Gladiator Beast Bestiari from the deck!

A green whirlwind rolled up in the field. A bird-shaped gladiator in green armor with a pair of metal wings behind it took its place and flew down onto the field.

[Gladiator Beast Bestiari, ATK 1600]

Amir tried hard to suppress the bad premonition in his heart: Even if you continue to call for this kind of miscellaneous fish, no matter how many there are

The effect of the Field Spell Colosseum Cage of the Gladiator Beasts! Yuei Vu pointed to the huge circular arena, Place 1 Counter on this card each time a monster is Special Summoned from either players Deck.

Because I specially summoned two monsters, Bestiari and Darius, from the deck, so two more counters were added!

And

All Gladiator Beast monsters gain 100 ATK and DEF for each of these counters on this card. Now there are a total of three counters, so the attack power of the Gladiator Beast has increased by 300!

[Gladiator Beast Bestiari, ATK 1600 ATK 1900]

[Gladiator Beast Darius, ATK 1700 ATK 2100]

Amir: With such an increase in attack power, they cant defeat my Dark Dragon Lord after all
The effect of Gladiator Beast Darius! Yuei Vu waved his hand.

Amirs forehead began to break out in cold sweat.

There is no end!?

This is my fucking turn! Mine!

I only summoned one monster this turn! Could you please show some respect to my turn?

When this card is Special Summoned by the effect of a Gladiator Beast monster: I can target 1 Gladiator Beast monster in my Graveyard; Special Summon that target, but its effect is negated!

A golden light flashed in the area of Yuei Vus tomb, and a card popped up.

Come on! Gladiator Beast Secutor!

The whirlwind rolled up, and Secutor, dressed in armor and carrying two water-blue heavy cannons, returned to the field, panting heavily.

[Gladiator Beast Secutor, ATK 400 ATK 700]

Yuei Vu seemed to have finally finished speaking. He stretched out his hand and made a please gesture, which meant that I have nothing to do for the time being, please continue.

Amir snorted: Set a card, I end my turn.

Then its my turn, draw!

Yuei Vu glanced at the cards he had drawn and waved his hand directly after adding the cards to his hand.

I return Gladiator Beast Bestiari and Gladiator Beast Secutor from the field to the deck!

Bestiari and Secutor both flew up, turning into two spiral whirlwinds! The gusts of wind met in the air, and the bodies of the soldiers intertwined with each other. In the storm, the name of the ancient king of the Roman Empire was called out!

The fusion condition is Gladiator Beast Bestiari + 1 Gladiator Beast monster!

Contact Fusion! Gladiator Beast Gyzarus!!!

The metal wings cut through the whirlwind, and dark green birds flew out of the eye of the wind! He twirled and flew into the air, stretched out his body covered in dark green heavy armor, and the blood-red gems shone with dangerous brilliance.

[Gladiator Beast Gyzarus, ATK 2400]

Gyzarus effect! Yuei Vu raised his hand, When this card is Special Summoned: I can target up to 2 cards on the field; destroy those targets!

Mokuba was overjoyed: If the two cards are destroyed, you can defeat both VanDalgyons in one go!

That cant be done! Amir raised his palm, Activate Counter Trap Card Solemn Judgment!

Yuei Vus eyelids twitched slightly.

Sure!

Do you even have the Nope! old man?

By paying half of my Lp, negate the summoning of a monster or the activation of a Spell/Trap Card, and destroy that card! Amir shouted, I will negate the summoning of Gladiator Beast Gyzarus!

Amir, LP 3500 LP 1750

A majestic old man in white robes appeared on the field, squinting his eyes and hugging a big snow-white beard. He slowly raised his hand, the palm stretched out gently, and the power of the palm poured out in an instant as if forming an absolute taboo domain.

A bolt of lightning descended from the sky, as if it contained the will of God, and slammed on Gyzarus body. The emperor groaned miserably, but even he was powerless to resist the will of God, and could only turn into a wisp of black smoke and leave the field powerlessly.

Amir laughed again.

Hahahaha! It looks like this is your trump card to turn the tables. He sneered, But it seems that I am stronger now. I have accepted the power of my Lord, and now my duel is perfect!

In the next round, VanDalgyons attack will draw the final curtain for this duel! Regret in the endless darkness, and then always remember who defeated you, Duel King!

Did you misunderstand something? Yuei Vu asked.

Um?

Since when were you under the illusion that you will have another turn?

!?

Amir's heart thumped again.

No, this guy's trump card should have been definitely resolved just now.

Solemn Judgment negated the summoning of monsters, which was equivalent to directly canceling this step of the opponent's operation. According to the rules, Gyzarus has never been played at all, and the effect of destroying two cards could not be triggered.

Does he have another trump card?

Yuei Vu quickly gave the answer: Spell Card Monster Reborn!

Seeing the huge symbol appear, Amir couldn't help but feel relieved and smiled.

Are you confused? He sneered, Even if you want to revive Gyzarus with Monster Reborn, it's impossible! Gladiator Beast Gyzarus can only be special summoned by other ways after being properly Fusion Summoned first.

But your fusion summoning was negated by the Solemn Judgment, and you can't resurrect it even with the Monster Reborn.

Who said I'm going to resurrect Gyzarus?

While speaking, a card popped up in Yuei Vu's tomb area.

The one I want to resurrect from the GY with Monster Reborn is Elemental HERO Prisma!

Amir: !!??

Elemental HEROes!?

It must be the card discarded to the graveyard through Graceful Charity in the first turn. But why are there Elemental HEROes?

The diamond-like Elemental HERO flew out of the cemetery, and the prisms all over his body reflected colorful flashes.

If there were screwball players here, they wouldn't be surprising.

Because the Gladiator Beast deck must be built with Prisma, isn't it common sense?

The effect of Elemental HERO Prisma! Yuei Vu said, Once per turn: I can reveal 1 Fusion Monster from my Extra Deck, then send 1 of the Fusion Materials whose name is specifically listed on that card from my Deck to the Graveyard!

Afterward, this card's name becomes the sent monsters until the End Phase!

Yuei Vu showed a fusion monster card.

The fusion monster I showed is Gladiator Beast Gaidiaz!

Yuei Vu pointed at Prisma.

Prismas effect! Reflect Change!

Send Gladiator Beast Spartacus from the deck to the graveyard. Until the end of the turn, Elemental HERO Prisma can be used as Gladiator Beast Spartacus!

Sending the card to the cemetery, Prisma reflected a bright brilliance all over his body, and the reflection of the Gladiator Beast was clearly reflected in Prismas body.

Next, I will return the Prisma who was treated as Gladiator Beast Spartacus and the Gladiator Beast Darius on the field to the deck! Contact Fusion!

Show up here-

Gladiator Beast Gaiodiaz! ! !

Prisma and Darius merged into the vortex on the ground, and the undercurrent surged, followed by a burst of movement like landslides and ground cracks. A huge black body emerged from the vortex, holding a heavy and ostentatious giant ax in its rough and thick hands. The sharp and huge ax fell to the ground, blasting a deep crack, and the dust that was stirred up was like a layer of transparent curtain.

[Gladiator Beast Gaiodiaz, ATK 2600]

A new Gladiator Beast Amir gritted his teeth, But, his strength is not enough

The effect of the Field Spell Colosseum Cage of the Gladiator Beasts! Yuei Vu raised his hand, There are currently three Counters, so the ATK and DEF of all Gladiator Beast monsters have increased by 300!

[Gladiator Beast Gaiodiaz, ATK 2600 ATK 2900]

Amir pursed his lips, Barely surpassed VanDalgyon

Battle! Yuei Vu said, Gladiator Beast Gaiodiaz, attack VanDalgyon!

The king waved the battle ax in his hand!

The heavy ax broke through the air, leaving a golden arc with an indomitable momentum!

The VanDalgyon resisted with all its strength, its sharp claws released an electric current, and a chaotic torrent spewed out of its mouth.

But the rules of a duel were absolute, even if there was only a difference of 100 points in value.

The electric current was pushed away by an axe, and the torrent was also split. The VanDalgyons skin, which was stronger than steel, could not protect it.

With a dull scream, the body of Dark Dragon Lord burst open, and the aftermath of the impact made Amir take two steps back.

Amir, LP 1750 LP 1650

He took two steps back, wiped his mouth, narrowed his eyes, and hummed: Tch, dont be too complacent. Its just a mere 100 damage

Gladiator Beast Gaiodiazs effect. Yuei Vu said lightly, When this card destroys a monster by battle and sends it to the Graveyard, inflict damage to your opponent equal to the DEF of the destroyed monster.

Amirs expression changed slightly.

The DEF of the VanDalgyon is 2500

Disappear.

Gladiator Beast Gaiodiaz slowly landed in front of him.

Amirs pupils shrank.

No, wait a minute, wait

The battle ax slashed down with a gorgeous golden arc.

Ah ah ah ah ah!!!

Amir, LP 1650 LP 0

Chapter 506: A New Mission

The black mist dissipated, and the space seemed to be spinning for a while. The scene quickly switched from the quaint Roman Colosseum back to the high-level corridor of Kaiba Corp.

Mokuba was carefully hiding behind Yuei Vu, while the Doma believer who came to make trouble had already turned into ashes and disappeared.

Yuei Vus face was quite serious.

Just before the other party dissipated, he had already given him quite important information.

This was the convenience of the Shadow Game. Any instructions from the victor to the loser were absolute, so Yuei Vu didnt need to consider the possibility that the other party would lie.

The current Doma was actually nothing to be afraid of. After the Waking the Dragons arc, this huge organization has already collapsed, and the remaining power was just lingering. Sooner or later, they would be encircled and wiped out by various organizations.

The real problem lay in the new leader Doma ushered in.

Bakura, the host of the Great Evil God Zorc, the final BOSS of Yu-Gi-Oh DM.

Yuei Vu couldnt help becoming curious.

The Doma believer who died just nowor it should be said to be a former Doma believer nowmentioned that Bakura had a plan, and said that the plan needed something in the Doma organization as a bargaining chip.

What plans can the great evil god Zorc have?

Yuei Vu clearly knows that his ultimate goal was nothing more than to collect seven Millennium Items to revive his true self in modern times.

According to the plot of the original work, Bakura should be busy preparing for the Pharaohs Memories arc now.

If nothing happened, according to the original arrangement of the Tomb Keepers, the nameless Pharaoh would come into the virtual world built from his memory 3000 years ago in the form of a soul, and re-experience what happened in ancient Egypt 3000 years ago to retrieve his memory.

Yes, its like a fully immersive virtual reality game built by a wise ancient Egyptian with the power of the Shadow Game, except that this game was a single-player game specially for the Pharaoh.

However, Bakura forcibly followed in, forcibly turning this single-player game into a multiplayer game. Therefore, Yami Yugi played the role of the righteous Pharaoh, while Bakura assumed the identity of the Thief King. The two sides began a completely immersive online game three thousand years ago, the ultimate RPG showdown of demons and gods

It was worth mentioning that the RPG the two of them were playing was also an Ultimate Shadow Game whose reach and potency were unimaginable.

If Bakura won this game, then his true self, the great evil god Zorc Necrophades, would also be resurrected in reality, and the whole world would be torn to pieces by the darkness.

Maybe Bakura wants to get something from Doma, to increase his bargaining chip in this RPG?

However, knowing that Bakura has a relationship with Doma, this incident was immediately upgraded from a trivial matter worthy of attention to an important main plot in Yuei Vu mind.

No matter what Bakura was planning, Yuei Vu was not going to just sit and wait now.

He wanted to take the initiative.

Nightcrawler World, Headquarters.

Today, when the guard at the gate led him in with a smile on his face, it was rare for Yuei Vu not to see the brothers who were drinking, punching, and wrestling. He didnt know if it was because this group of friends who can never run out of energy finally had a tired day, or because they finally used up all the reasons to celebrate

However, he did see a small group of people mainly players, it seemed surrounding Fae to watch him show off his ultra-rare tattoos.

Then he saw a Q-version Dark Magician Girl with a big head and small body tattooed on his left hand, and a Silent Magician hanging on his right arm

Some people are admiring loudly that Brother Fae was mighty, while others were booing, saying Brother Fae, didnt you say that the Dark Magician Girl is your only true love? Why is there a Silent Magician?

Fae rolled his eyes and said, I dont believe that in the 2TB hard drive of your computer, there are all movies by the same actress

It seemed that this was the truth.

After all, men may indeed be fickle and often contradict themselves.

For example, sometimes when they saw a good-looking young lady in a serious drama, they would often light a cigarette and shake their heads, sighing that it was a pity that such a good-looking lady was not a porn actress.

However, when they really saw a good-looking young lady in a little movie that was not so serious, they twitched for a while, then lit a cigarette again, and continued to shake their heads, saying that it was a pity that such a good-looking lady was a porn actress just weird.

Yuei Vu caught a glimpse, and couldn't help but start to wonder.

Did I give this guy a little higher Favorability recently? Was that why he was so bold?

Maybe I should pay attention next time.

Going a little deeper, he found that a large group of people were gathered together layer by layer, surrounding the newcomers who just came to the association without haggling.

When Yuei Vu took a closer look, he realized that was actually an auction.

The ones for sale were still the batch of spiritual weapons that Yuei Vu made by hand before.

So expensive? Some players are exclaiming, Are you robbing?

While talking, someone reached out and wanted to touch the spiritual weapon in the shape of Apple Magician Girl, but was stopped by the auctioneer.

9494! Cheaper! Your price is almost twice as expensive as Yuei Vu-sans price!

This is out-of-stock goods, anyone who understands its value can understand its price. The auctioneer, One Hammer Deal No Counter-Offer, said, There is Yuei Vu-sans signature on it! This price is already fair enough!

Ah, Yuei Vu-san is here! Someone shouted.

One Hammer Deal No Counter-Offer laughed: This is the oldest trick in the book, don't think that you can bluff me

But as he spoke, he realized something was wrong.

Because everyone present seemed to have shut up all of a sudden, and their expressions were a little strange.

Especially looking at his playful expression, it feels like like looking at a dead person.

Turning his head mechanically, One Hammer Deal No Counter-Offer immediately saw Yuei Vu who appeared behind him at some point.

Yuei Vu maintained a polite and warm smile.

Good boy, making money is on my head?

You sure have the balls!

[Favorability -20]

hiss~

One Hammer Deal No Counter-Offer froze immediately.

This is a terrible loss!

A group of people watched the profiteers suffer, and they couldn't help gloating.

This expression is it because the favorability is deducted to a negative value?

Ha! Serve it right!

Although he still feels that this punishment was a bit weak, Yuei Vu had no time to pay attention to One Hammer Deal No Counter-Offer for the time being. Yuei Vu came here because he had business to do.

Call everyone, there is an urgent task.

As Yuei Vu spoke, he edited a quest and posted it.

[Hidden mission is triggered: Camp Battle!]

[Description: Follow Yuei Vu to eliminate Doma's remnants!]

All the players on the scene received this message at the same time, and they couldn't help jumping up on the spot.

Here we have a new mission!

Chapter 507: Help Each Other

In the ancient and fortified hall, the flickering firelight casts distorted images on the walls.

The sharp and shrill screams echoed in the hall, and dripping blood flowed down the steps. The air was filled with the strong smell of blood and the powerless despair of the dying life.

A series of souls mixed in the darkness were forcibly stripped from their bodies, including men, women, children, and old people.

Those souls were devoured by a huge demon phantom and finally fell into the body of the white-haired boy who was sending the phantom.

After the ceremony, the phantom of the demon disappeared. The bodies that had lost their souls were like puppets that had lost their strings, falling powerlessly to the ground.

Minions on both sides soon came up to deal with these empty shells. The white-haired boy absorbed the nourishment, turned around and didn't look at the empty shells anymore, and just licked his lips with insatiable desire.

Hey, although that old guy named Dartz is useless, he did leave behind a lot of good things. He chuckled softly, The darkness bred in human hearts really tastes good.

With the accumulation of 10,000 years, Dartz has left quite a lot of precious wealth. Even after the collapse of Doma, these things were not discovered by outsiders, but now they were fallen into Bakuras hands.

Now many people have gradually begun to realize the extraordinariness of the card game Duel Monsters. They have discovered that Duel Monsters contained power beyond human comprehension and could subvert many common senses and cognitions. But only a few understood its true meaning.

Duel Monsters was more than just a game. Its origins are very ancient, even older than the ancient Egyptians discovered and used this power as a ritual of battle.

If we must continue to trace back, this kind of existence even involved the origin of the world. The magic that was now sealed in cards and used in card games was actually the epitome of the corresponding world laws.

For example, after all, the common Monster Reborn was a forbidden magic that could bring death back to life. Although it was just a card in modern games, the spell corresponding to this card was really a forbidden spell that could reverse life and death.

During the ten thousand years, Dartz has more or less mastered some of the secret arts and obtained the abilities such as controlling the weather, teleportation, and physical possession that he showed before.

When he summoned the storm and tsunami that devoured the ship that Rafaels family was on, what he used was the spell corresponding to the powerful magic card Heavy Storm in the duel today.

The more powerful the card, the more difficult it was to master the magic corresponding to it. Some magics were no longer comprehensible to ordinary humans. Even Dartz, who received the oracle of Orichalcos and has a long history of 10,000 years, actually has very limited learning.

After Dartzs death, no one could understand the precious incantation records and ancient books he left behind.

until Bakura shows up.

Being the incarnation of the great evil god Zorc, he was no ordinary person. Although only a little fragment of Zorcs soul was sealed in the Millennium Ring, and his all-powerful ability was sealed along with the memory of Pharaoh three thousand years ago, it was still no problem to learn some simple spells according to the books.

The technique that Bakura used to devour the soul just now was one of the magics he just learned from the records left by Dartz. In the contemporary duel monster card, it was the Trap Card Altar for Tribute, which had the effect of sacrificing a monster and restoring life force equal to its original attack power value.

If someone could grasp all the power contained in all duel cards and use them for himself, then the laws of the entire world were already under his control, and both reality and time and space could be distorted at will by his ideas. This person has grasped absolute power enough to control the world in his hands, and he was almost the same as a true god.

Of course, it was needless to say how difficult it was to achieve that step.

Dartz studied for ten thousand years, but in the end, he couldnt get a glimpse of any superior spells. But even so, with his level, it was more than enough to pretend to be a saint in front of others.

My lord! Amir has been defeated! Someone came in to report.

Hmph. Bakura heard it in his ears, but he didnt respond at all, as if he wasnt surprised at all.

I expect nothing more from that trash. His tone of voice seemed to be referring to a piece of garbage that was discarded casually. That idiot must have leaked all my information, right?

The minion next to him couldn't help being stunned: Ah? Isn't that

Just as I calculated. Bakura twitched his lips and sneered, Yuei Vu, huh? If that guy gets the information, he should immediately take the initiative to launch an attack, right?

Hey, that way hell fall right into my trap!

What he prepared for Yuei Vu was a relatively simple but very practical trap called Trap Hole. In the game, it was a powerful trap that could instantly destroy a monster with an attack power of 1000 or more.

If Yuei Vu raided Domas headquarters according to the information he obtained from Amir, he would find that there was nothing there, only a deadly trap waiting for him.

As long as he was taken by surprise, even the Duel King could be killed in one fell swoop!

Hmph, the so-called Duel King is just a mere mortal. Bakura snorted coldly.

Unlike other BOSSes until now, he did have the capital to ridicule.

Because he was the darkness itself, the great evil god who mastered the ultimate power in the world!

It's just that he was temporarily in a weakened state, and his strength has to be discounted by a hundred million.

But that didn't stop him from despising other people!

Bakura was indeed ready to make trouble, but before that, he had to rule out unstable factors.

Take Yuei Vu out of the picture, for example.

For him, Yuei Vu and Kaiba were a little different. Seto Kaiba was the reincarnation of a priest, and Bakura knew everything about his past life. Kaiba was obviously not interested in any supernatural things and didn't care much about the memory of the game's previous life.

The original Bakura didn't feel that Kaiba was a threat, and he even took the initiative to give Kaiba the Millennium Eye and invited him to join him in the century duel between himself and the Pharaoh.

But until now, Bakura still hasn't figured out what kind of background Yuei Vu had. Since Yuei Vu could control the Three Egyptian Gods, he felt that Yuei Vu must have a strong background, but he couldn't find any information about Yuei Vu in his memory or literature records.

It felt as if the Duel King had just popped out of nowhere.

There was a saying that Nothing is scarier than the unknown. As the Great Evil God Zorc, Bakura was not afraid of the Pharaoh or priests, but now that the decisive battle was imminent and there was such a guy of unknown origin, he always felt uneasy.

He must be eliminated first! Along with his association, the Nightcrawler World!

Although Bakura didn't think that other people except Yuei Vu would be a threat, it was better to take this opportunity to settle it in one go.

Thinking of this, Bakura couldn't help showing a cruel smile.

That Yuei Vu didn't realize it at all, he had completely fallen into his own trap.

Bakura laughed loudly, raised his right hand, and clenched his five fingers into a fist.

Yuei Vu! No matter where you came from, after today, you will be buried in darkness forever!

Boom! ! !

With a heavy explosion, the huge door panel of the hall was blown to the ground by a huge force from the outside.

Bakura's laughter stopped abruptly. He maintained the rigid movement of raising his right fist, looked down, and saw Yuei Vu standing at the door, with the majestic Masked HERO Blast in front of him.

Yuei Vu just stood at the door, his windbreaker tumbling with the airflow caused by the gust of wind: Did I hear someone calling my name just now?

Chapter 508: Bakura

Bakura: !?

How did he find this place? Why wasn't he lured into my trap?

Although the vanguard he sent, Amir, told Yuei Vu about the location of the current headquarters of Doma truthfully, Bakura had already withdrawn from that address and set up a trap there for Yuei Vu to step in.

In other words, he had already predicted that Yuei Vu would follow Amir to find out, so he deliberately released false information as bait.

So this guy has no reason to come to this place!

Could it be that he also predicted my prediction?

At this moment, seeing the rumored Duel King appearing at the gate with such a domineering Masked HERO in front of him, many of Doma's minions in the hall were also frightened.

Duel King Yuei Vu!

It was said that he was the one who defeated Dartz-sama, whom they regarded as the supreme being!

If compared with fantasy novels, their Doma may be the world's number one super sect, and Dartz was the Supreme Elder with ten thousand years of cultivation. And Yuei Vu was the protagonist who beat their elders twice, and those minions who worshiped the elders as gods naturally didn't even dare to breathe when they saw him.

At this time Yuei Vu stepped forward, and all the minions backed away to the sides in fear of avoiding it, and even lowered their heads not daring to meet his gaze.

Some people even made up their minds in their hearts that if the Duel King looked at them, they would quickly take off the Duel Disk and hand it over to beg for mercy.

In the huge hall, Doma duelists in black robes retreated spontaneously to make way. Every time Yuei Vu took a step forward, the road in front of him diverged another inch, just like the Red Sea divided in two in front of Moses.

The players who followed outside the door took screenshots one after another.

This is the face of the Duel King!

Repel the enemy without even doing it himself!

In fact, even Yuei Vu didn't expect things to go so smoothly. Originally, he brought such a team of players here because he thought that the rest of Doma would resist like cornered rats. In the end, he didn't expect that the two sides didn't need to fight at all, and this group of people was directly persuaded

Although the one summoned at this time was Masked HERO Blast, at this moment, the Dark Magician Girl was also floating beside him in a translucent state.

In the past, the master usually summoned her at such a time

Gradually falling out of favor. JPG.

But after all, Yuei Vu's signature was Masked HERO. Just like Yuki Judai who had a large number of spirits, but always used Neos to beat people, Masked HERO was Yuei Vu's status symbol.

As the Duel King of the HERO series, if the spirit around him all year round was Dark Magician Girl, the style of painting may be a bit inconsistent

Seeing the group of newly recruited subordinates admit their fear one after another, Bakura couldn't help curling his lips.

Damn, a bunch of useless wood.

He stands up, palm outstretched.

Go away!

The Millennium Ring lit up with a golden light, and the dark power burst out with golden ripples, instantly blasting away the miscellaneous fish that stood in front of him.

He jumped down from the steps himself and came to Yuei Vu.

Hmph. Bakura's mouth curled up, It's good luck that you found this place, Mr. Duel King.

Although our Nightcrawler World usually doesn't appear to be serious, it will be a headache to underestimate our intelligence network. Yuei Vu said helplessly, Trying to deceive me with such a simple trick, it seems that I am really I was underestimated right, the Great Evil God Zorc?

He paused for a moment, his eyes flickering slightly.

Bakura's smile disappeared in an instant, and a fleeting shock flashed in his eyes, and then he narrowed his eyes.

How much do you know?!

Enough. Yuei Vu smiled.

Bakura stared straight at him, his expression fluctuated for a moment, then the corner of his mouth twitched, and he smiled again.

This was the first time his true identity has been discovered since he woke up in modern times. The nameless pharaoh, the reincarnated priest, and the Tomb Keeper passed down from generation to generation, none of them could see through the true identity of the evil soul residing in the body of Ryo Bakura.

But the Duel King in front of him actually knew!

This made Bakura pay more attention to Yuei Vu.

He was almost 100% sure now, this person definitely has an important background!

Hum, interesting. Bakura opened the Duel Disk in his hand, Although it is different from the plan, let me finish you here ahead of time.

Bring it on! Mr. Duel King, Ill personally test your depth!

Really a line from big bads script.

Yuei Vu muttered inwardly, but he didnt refuse the proposal.

After all, thats what hes here for.

Duel! x2

Yuei Vu, LP4000

Bakura, LP4000

The players in the back were already very excited when they saw Bakura with their own eyes, but now they saw Yuei Vu and the other party directly fighting, and all of them couldnt help but widen their eyes in anticipation.

BOSS battle!

Yuei Vu-san directly confronts the ultimate BOSS of Yu-Gi-Oh! DM!

Yuei Vu didnt dare to be careless.

Although in the anime, Bakuras record may be a little bit better than that of Marik, who was recognized as the easiest BOSS, as the final BOSS of the whole animation, his strength must not be weak.

The current Bakura only has a soul fragment of the great evil god Zorc, but even if his strength was limited, Yuei Vu estimated that his Duelist Rank should at least be at least 9.

Another reason for Yuei Vu to be wary was that he couldnt make deployments against Bakuras deck.

Unlike Dartz whose whole deck revolved around one card, every time Bakura appeared on the scene in the animation, the tactics, decks, and ace monsters used were all different, which made people feel like he just casually picked up forty cards to make a deck, and there was no routine to follow.

It was this kind of boss who changed decks like Casanova changed girlfriends that made Yuei Vu feel the most difficult to face.

Im going to go first, draw! Bakura said, First of all, Spell Card Graceful Charity! Draw 3 cards, then discard 2 cards.

An angel with a halo above his head appeared and brought permission to draw cards. Bakura drew three cards, and then quickly picked out two to discard.

Graceful Charity was one of the most common staple cards from Yu-Gi-Oh! DM until Yu-Gi-Oh GX. Almost everyone had this card.

If Yuei Vu remembered correctly, although the decks of Bakura were constantly changing, most of them were mainly Fiend and Zombie. The style was more and more strange. In the era when the utilization rate of graveyards was very low, his deck was the one relatively dependent on the grave resources.

Then the two cards he discarded into the graveyard through Graceful Charity here may be worth paying attention to.

Next is this card, Bakura smiled, Keep your eyes open for me, its a forbidden area that turns all living beings into undead

Field Spell Zombie World!

Yuei Vu: !?

Chapter 509: Diabound

This was a world full of despair and darkness. The whole world seemed to be purple-black, filled with a cold and oppressive atmosphere. Huge ancient trees twisted into strange shapes, and undead creatures rose and fell one after another under the sky and black mist.

Countless souls condensed with resentment reverberated in this confined space, and the chilly wind carried a chilling scream.

Field Spell Zombie World!

Yuei Vu was a little surprised when he saw this card.

Zombie World: All monsters on the field and in the GYs become Zombie monsters. Neither player can Tribute Summon monsters, except Zombie monsters.

This card has always had a place in the real card environment. The All monsters on the field and in the GYs become Zombie monsters effect was disgusting to some decks that relied on Type.

For example, lets say your deck was built around dragons, and the core of the deck was Red-Eyes Darkness Metal Dragon, a Dragon-Type monster with extremely powerful effects. It could be directly special summoned from the hand by removing a Dragon-type monster on the field from the game, and it could Special Summon any Dragon monster from the hand or GY.

However, when Zombie World was in play, all Dragon-Type monster monsters on the field became Zombie, and the Red-Eyes Darkness Metal Dragon was stuck in his hand and could not get out for a lifetime.

And even if you could somehow summon Red-Eyes Darkness Metal Dragon, its effect of resurrecting 1 Dragon monster from the graveyard once per turn could not be used. Because all Dragon-Type monster monsters in the GY have become Zombie

Its just a simple example, but it could be seen how disgusting this Zombie World was.

Hey, now this place is dominated by immortal souls. Bakura licked his lower lip as if this gloomy venue put him in a good mood, Then next is this guy!

Summon Zombie Master in attack position!

The little white-haired man seemed to have crawled out of the graveyard in this area. His face was pale as death, his lips were dry, behind him was a black cloak like a rag, and his white hair was unkempt. But the mouth that was dry as if it was about to split was wearing a clowns smile.

[Zombie Master, ATK 1800]

Yuei Vu raised his eyebrows.

This thing was even more disgusting, and it was a perfect match with Zombie World.

Because of the Zombie World, all the monsters in the graveyards of both sides have become Zombie. And this thing could revive any Level 4 or lower Zombie monster in either GY. In other words, he not only had the ability to revive monsters from the GY every turn but also be able to randomly NTR monsters in the opponents GY.

The effect of Zombie Master! Bakura discarded a card from his hand to the GY, Once per turn, I can send 1 monster from my hand to the GY, then Special Summon 1 Level 4 or lower Zombie monster in either GY!

I discarded the Gozuki in my hand to the GY, and then resurrected the Gozuki!

Indeed, the effect of Zombie Master was to discard a monster in the hand to resurrect a Zombie monster in the GY, and it did not say that the monster that was just discarded could not be resurrected.

In other words, Bakura could also special summon any four-star or lower monster in his hand through this effect, which was extremely versatile.

No, at this moment, a black and tan ox-head demon has popped out. Thick blue rosary beads hung around its neck, a nose ring was worn on its nose, and a sledgehammer with an exaggerated handle was in its hand.

[Gozuki, ATK 1700]

The effect of Gozuki! Bakura continued to operate, Once per turn, I can send 1 Zombie monster from the Deck to the GY!

He pulled out the deck and picked out a card.

I send Mezuki to the GY! He sent the card to the GY, and then waved his hand again,

The effect of Mezuki! Banish this card from my GY, then target 1 Zombie monster in my GY; Special Summon that target!

The horse-headed ghost who had just entered the GY and hadn't stayed there for a second was immediately ejected, followed by another card that was discarded through the Graceful Charity at the beginning of the turn.

Bakura twitched his mouth and laughed: Although this guy is a Fiend monster, he has also become Zombie under the effect of the Zombie World, so he can be specially summoned here.

Come meet this guy! Diabound Kernel!

What came to Bakura's field was a white demon with angel-like wings and a ferocious white snake entrenched in its lower body. It had a snake's head on its tail, and the snake letters spit out from its bloody mouth.

[Diabound Kernel, ATK 1800]

Yuei Vu narrowed his eyes.

At first glance, it was just a demon monster with an attack power of 1800, but this thing should not be underestimated.

After all, in the animation, Bakura started with a Diabound, and later killed the three Egyptian Gods!

Well, it may be a bit exaggerated to say so, but it is also true that with such a Diabound, Bakura has fought back and forth with the three Egyptian Gods in the game.

Although they played a spirit duel rather than a serious duel, at least it was enough to show that this snake-tailed demon had such a powerful potential.

Set a card, I end my turn!

Bakura sneered.

Come on, go ahead and attack!

The moment you call over, you will step into Diabound's endless traps!

Yuei Vu looked at the white snake-tailed demon on Bakura's field and thought for a moment.

The special effects of Diabound were not fully explained in the animation, but he could roughly guess it through the performance.

First of all, Diabound could be equipped to a monster or unequipped and then returned to its face-up original position. The equipped monster lost ATK equal to Diabound's ATK.

In addition, according to Bakura's description, Diabound's real hidden ultimate ability was the power to copy the special ability of the opponent's monster.

Then he actually copied the special ability of the Blue-Eyes White Dragon in the duel with President Kaiba

What? You asked what special ability did a Normal monster have?

Of course, it was Its strength is unmeasurable, and destroys everything that faces it! (Description on the Blue-Eyes White Dragon card)

Later, when fighting Yugi, he really used Diabound to release a Burst Stream of Destruction, tied with Obelisk which was summoned by Yugi

The most fearful thing about dealing with this kind of monster was that you didn't know the opponent's effect, and it was easy to capsize in the gutter. Now that Yuei Vu had the information, naturally, there was nothing to be afraid of.

He also had countermeasures here!

My turn, draw! Yuei Vu showed a card in his hand, Activate the Spell Card E Emergency Call! Add 1 Elemental HERO monster from the deck to the hand.

His Duel Disk performed a search, and the card popped out automatically.

I added the Elemental HERO Shadow Mist to my hand! Yuei Vu directly took a copy of this card, Then I normal summon the Element Hero Shadow Mist!

The black mist filled the air, and the heroine who was in jet-black tights, appeared on the stage in a heroic manner and let out a crisp and charming roar.

[Elemental HERO Shadow Mist, ATK 1000]

Quick-Play Spell Mask Change! A Spell Card appeared in front of Yuei Vu, Send the hero monster to the GY and transform into a masked hero with the same attributes!

I sent Elemental HERO Shadow Mist to the GY, transform!

The Oni who walks in the dark, defeats monsters and defends justice

Masked HERO Anki!

Chapter 510: Feed Grave If You Can!

Shadow Mist disappeared surrounded by the black mist, as if a burst of purple-black fire was ignited on her body. A powerful arm swung through the air, breaking through the flames, revealing the dark exoskeleton armor born beneath it.

It was a warrior shaped like an oni in mythology, wearing a red belt and equipped with sharp red claws on his hands and feet.

[Masked HERO Anki, ATK 2800]

Bakura smiled: I've been waiting for a long time, the Masked HERO of Duel King.

The effect of Elemental HERO Shadow Mist! Yuei Vu said, If this card is sent to the GY: I can add 1 HERO monster from my Deck to my hand.

The card I added to my hand was Elemental HERO Stratos.

Brother Sky automatically popped up in the deck. Yuei Vu pulled it out, and the deck was then automatically shuffled.

Battle! Yuei Vu waved his hand, Masked HERO Anki, attack Zombie Master!

Anki kicked his feet, jumped into the air, and made a round kick, with purple-black flames burning under his feet, and swooped straight at the zombie master with a flying kick!

boom!

The white-haired Zombie Master raised his head and groaned miserably, and was blasted through the body by the heros flying kick. The Masked HERO rolled back briskly and landed steadily back on the field in front of Yuei Vu.

Bakura, LP 4000 LP 3000

Bakura raised his arm to protect his face, and said loudly, Oh, it still hurts.

The effect of Masked HERO Anki! Yuei Vu continued, Once per turn, when this card destroys an opponents monster by battle and sends it to the GY: I can add 1 Change Quick-Play Spell Card from my Deck to my hand!

I added the second Mask Change from the deck to my hand.

The second copy of Mask Change was retrieved, and he played it out without thinking.

Quick-Play Spell Mask Change! Send 1 HERO monster I control to the Graveyard, then Special Summon 1 Masked HERO monster from my Extra Deck with the same Attribute! Yuei Vu pointed to the hero who had just finished the battle in front of him, I sent the Masked HERO Anki to the graveyard, transform again!

A knight born from the abyss, the embodiment of the law of darkness! Coming here

Masked HERO Dark Law! ! !

The dark whirlwind wrapped Ankis body and soon dressed him in a new armor with sharp edges and corners. The streamlined exoskeleton design, the armor has sharp serrated teeth, and the shape of the helmet was like a hungry wolf with its mouth open and its fangs showing, mysterious and full of power.

[Masked HERO Dark Law, ATK 2400]

The battle continues. Yuei Vu ordered again, Masked HERO Dark Law, attack! The target is Diabound Kernel!

Bakuras eyes lit up.

Sure enough, he fell for my trap!

The dark Masked HERO came through the air, took off in the air, saw teeth on the pitch-black leg armor, and drew a black arc to sweep across!

Diabound Kernel received the blow of Masked HEROs legs head-on. There was a muffled boom in his chest and a miserable groan. He raised his head and flew out into the air, exploding into a ball of dazzling fireball in mid-air.

Bakura, LP 3000 LP 2400

The LP value was greatly reduced, but Bakura smiled instead of angry as if his trick had succeeded.

Hahahaha! Youve fallen to my trick at this moment! He raised his hand, Open the set card: Trap Card Rebirth Tablet! This card can only be activated when a monster I control is destroyed by battle. Special Summon that monster from my Graveyard! (Animation card)

The card flipped over, and an ancient khaki-yellow stone slab fell from the sky and crashed to the ground. The ankh of resurrection was engraved on it.

The stone slab cracked with a loud bang, and the snake-tailed demon Diabound, who had just been destroyed, twisted its disgusting tail, hissed a snake letter from the snakes mouth, and returned to the field again.

Then there is Diabounds hidden ultimate ability! Bakura sneered, Diabound can obtain the special effects of all the monsters he has fought against in this duel!

So the ability of that hero of yours belongs to me from now on! Ha ha ha ha!

Bakura raised his head and laughed.

Hmm But even though he said that the ability of Dark Law was now his, it was clear that Bakura didnt know what the ability of The Unfriend Hero was, otherwise, he would not be able to laugh

Sure enough. Yuei Vu showed a faint smile, But

Bakuras laughter stopped abruptly.

Because he found that Diabound, who had just been resurrected on the field, gradually turned into a phantom again, and disappeared little by little.

Nani!? Bakura was startled, Why? Where did my Diabound go?

Immediately afterward, he found that the Rebirth Tablet that he had just activated had also been set back to the field at some point, and he failed to activate it successfully.

He raised his head abruptly and looked at Masked HERO Dark Law on Yuei Vus field. For a moment, he couldnt help but feel that this dark hero seemed to release some kind of inexplicable and powerful aura, as if his own aura formed a certain domain, and the laws in the entire domain were rewritten by him.

Is it because of this monster? He frowned.

Thats right. Yuei Vu smiled, When the Masked HERO Dark Law exists on the field, any card sent to the opponents GY is banished instead.

The moment your Diabound Kernel is destroyed, it is directly erased from the game and does not exist in the graveyard. The Rebirth Tablet could not find the object of Susheng from the graveyard, so naturally the activation failed.

After a pause, Yuei Vu chuckled lightly: It seems that your dueling disc model is too old and the reaction is too slow, otherwise the Rebirth Tablet would not be able to activate successfully according to the normal process.

Speaking of which, do you want to consider buying a new Duel Disk developed by Kaiba Corp? A lot of bugs have been fixed, the performance is even better, and there will never be such a low-level processing error in the situation just now

Bakura glared at him fiercely.

Is this bastard actually trying to sell his product to me during a Shadow Game?

As early as the moment Dark Law appeared on the stage, a group of screwballs behind him had already exploded. Even after they frantically took screenshots and posted the heroic figure of this dark hero to the forum, the forum also exploded.

The Unfriend Hero!

Its over, its over, Zorcs mentality is about to explode!

What evil did this BOSS do to be hammered by Dark Law? He doesnt look so bad

I understand! It must be because Bakura was hammered by the Dark Laws here and had a psychological shadow on playing cards, so he stopped playing cards and changed the game into RPG in the Pharaoh Memories arc!

Fuck, the cause and effect of this plot can be connected

Bakura glared at the group of noisy screwballs viciously.

Its so loud!

Can you let us play cards in peace?

He glared at that Masked HERO Dark Law angrily, and snorted.

Isnt he just a troublesome Masked HERO? Watch me! In my next turn

Bakuras movements froze, and only then did he suddenly realize the problem.

The core of his Undead deck was completely centered around the graveyard resources. Whether the Zombie World that turns the monsters in GY of both sides into Zombie, or monsters such as Zombie Master, Gozuki, and Mezuki that can make the Zombie monsters in the graveyard jump repeatedly, all were for the purpose of maximizing the resources of the graveyard.

But now his graveyard was gone! ! !

At this moment, the great evil god Zorc finally realized the seriousness of losing the graveyard.

He raised his eyes again to look at the Masked HERO Dark Law in front of him, and felt that this unremarkable hero with mediocre attack power actually looked so hideous and terrifying!

Just one stand of such a Masked HERO on the field directly abolished most of his deck!

Seeing Bakuras facial expression twitching, as if he had eaten feces, Yuei Vu couldnt help but feel very happy.

Ha ha ha ha!

Speaking of the period of Yu-Gi-Oh DM, most decks had a very low utilization rate of resources in the graveyard. Except for the Monster Reborn, most monsters who entered the graveyard would never come back. It was unlike meta decks in later generations that were very dependent on graveyard resources.

However, Yuei Vu happened to be in the DM era, and used his Dark Law to block a BOSS who likes to use the graveyard!

Although Bakura changed his decks back and forth and had too many tactics, he loved those strange creatures of the undead, and there was no set of decks that had nothing to do with the graveyard.

Do you like to revive?

Do you like to feed the grave?

Do you like to recycle from your graveyard?

Can you resurrect your undead now?

Why dont you talk anymore?
