

I Play Yu-Gi 511

Chapter 511: Just This?

Dont get complacent too early.

Although he was still talking hard, Bakura looked at his only two cards left, his eyes moved slightly.

There was indeed no card in the hand that could deal with the Dark Law. The card draw in this turn would determine everything.

Of course, for a player whose duelist Rank was as high as Yugi, as long as there was remaining LP, as long as there was a chance to draw cards, of course, there would be no shortage of opportunities to turn the table.

My turn, draw!

Bakura drew the card, his eyes lit up.

Great, this card creates more opportunities!

Spell Card Card of Sanctity! Both players draw cards until their hands are full of six cards.

As expected of the great evil god, he accurately drew the most promising card that would bring about a comeback.

But when Yuei Vu drew the card, he didnt forget to remind: Then at this moment, the second effect of Masked HERO Dark Law is also triggered!

Bakuras eyelids twitched.

Nani? This thing has another effect!?

Once per turn, if the opponent adds a card(s) from their Deck to their hand, except during the Draw Phase or the Damage Step: I can banish 1 random card from the opponents hand.

Yuei Vu raised his finger and pointed to one of the cards in Bakuras hand.

The one I want to banishis that one!

Dark Law flicked his fingertips lightly, and a stream of jet-black light flew out, hitting the card in Bakuras hand precisely. The card flew out in the air, swallowed by a cloud of black mist in mid-air, and disappeared.

Bakura pursed his lips and snorted uncomfortably.

The card that was just removed was the Spell Card Tribute to The Doomed. By discarding a card in your hand, you could destroy a monster on the field.

Just happened to be a card that could help him break through the situation at hand.

Bakura looked at Dark Law even more painfully.

Its all disgusting effects

But he looked down at the remaining cards in his hand and sneered again.

If he used a low-end earning card like Pot of Greed here, he might die suddenly on the spot due to the despair caused by Dark Law.

But fortunately, he used the Card of Sanctity, which could fill up resources to the maximum limit. Even if a key card was excluded, he still had a chance!

Activate Equip Spell Sacrifice of Grave Goods! I equip it to the Gozuki. Bakura showed another card in his hand, The monster that is equipped with this card can be treated as 2 Tributes. (manga card)

He twitched the corner of his mouth and smiled sinisterly. The Millennium Ring seemed to be stirred by a dark wind blowing from nowhere, and the alchemy material reverberated with a crisp sound.

Mr. Duel King, let me show you my new trump card, the Undead King!

He raised his hands exaggeratedly, and the millennium wheel swayed in front of his chest with his large movements.

Take the Gozuki equipped with Sacrifice of Grave Goods as 2 Tributes, and let the soul be devoured!

Arrival, the ruler of the undead, Doomking Balerdroch!!!

Gozuki was engulfed by the black mist that filled the surroundings and was dragged into the dark depths. The purple-black energy is like a fountain, erupting from the underworld uncontrollably.

What was churning in the black air was a snake-like long tail, with a weird snake mouth at the end of the tail, spitting out a purple-black snake letter. But moving forward along that snakes tail, its upper body seems to be bearing a huge and eerie skeleton. Thick black arms stretched out, holding a spear that looked like a gold cast, inlaid with a sparkling red gemstone.

[Doomking Balerdroch, ATK 2800]

Its not over! Bakura continued to show two cards in his hand, Spell Card Double Attack! Discard a monster card, and choose a monster on my field whose Level is lower than the discarded monster!

During this turn, the selected monster can attack twice!

He revealed a card from his hand, then discarded it to the graveyard. A huge demon phantom disappeared behind him in an instant, as if it had turned into power and filled the body of the Undead King.

I will discard Level 9 Annihilator Archfiend, and Doomking Balerdroch can attack twice in this round! Bakura laughed, Are you ready, Lord Duel King?

The effect of Masked HERO Dark Law. Because he still exists on the field, your Annihilator Archfiend cannot be sent to the graveyard, and is directly removed from the game.

Yuei Vu reminded in a calm tone and at the same time put on an expression of Dont try to BISS me.

Bakura pursed his lips, and the Annihilator Archfiend that had just been sent to the GY immediately popped out from the duel disk.

Hmph, of course, I know about this kind of thing Battle! Kaira hummed unhappily, Doomking Balerdroch, the first shot! Tear off the Masked HERO who is an eyesore for me!

The red gem released a shining light, and the spear of Doomking Balerdroch struck out like a golden bolt of lightning! Masked HERO Dark Law raised his arms and tried to resist, but the arm armor was quickly smashed into pieces by the domineering golden light, the silver-white fangs were cracked, and the black armor was also pierced through the chest, and finally exploded.

Yuei Vu, LP 4000LP 3600

Its only 400 points of damage, and the corresponding actual damage was not very strong. Yuei Vu swayed slightly, his black windbreaker undulating a bit under the airwaves.

Its not over yet! Bakura yelled, Continue! Doomking Balerdroch, the second shot! Give the Duel King a direct attack that will never be forgotten!

The red light on the gemstone shone brighter, and the golden gun shot out of the air like a soaring dragon! It passed through Yuei Vus body, and with a loud explosion, the golden light curtain burst out.

Now it hurt more than before. Yuei Vu felt as if his chest hit a speeding truck head-on, he slid half a step back and crouched down, the windbreaker was pulled straight under the impact of the dark touch, like a cloak fluttering in the wind.

Yuei Vu, LP 3600 LP 800

The great evil god Zorc was really an expert in the Shadow Game. The substantial damage he caused was indeed effective enough, and the short-term oppression on the heart was simply breathless.

How is it? Bakura proudly put his hands on his hips, If you want to beg for mercy at this time, its not that I cant be lenient when Im in a good mood Hahahahaha!

Yuei Vu stood up calmly and patted the dust particles on his body.

Its only to this extent. It seems that the soul fragments left by the great evil god of the past are indeed less than one percent of what they were back then. Yuei Vu said calmly.

Bakura restrained his smile and narrowed his eyes: Bastard, what did you just say?

The screwball players immediately enthusiastically acted as translators for the great evil god.

What Yuei Vu-san said just now is Just this?!

He said Even my grandma is better at playing cards than you!

Nonsense! What Yuei Vu-san said just now is clearly, So weak? Havent you eaten dinner?!

Bakura faced the group of screwballs sideways, and steam almost appeared on his forehead.

These monkeys are they trying to make fun of me?

Chapter 512: Let's Be Unfriend!

Its so noisy!

Bakura couldnt stand this group of screwballs.

He has already decided to deal with Yuei Vu first, then none of the remaining screwballs could escape! He would make all of them the sacrifice for Altar for Tribute and their souls would become his rations!

But for now, I still have to focus on the duel.

Bakura glanced sideways at his Doomking Balerdroch exuding supreme majesty on the field, then glanced at Yuei Vu again, and couldn't help showing his classic villain-like sneer again.

He felt that Yuei Vu hadn't fully realized the seriousness of the problem at this time.

The moment Doomking Balerdroch appeared on the stage, the outcome had already been decided!

Set two cards, I end my turn!

My turn, draw. Yuei Vu drew a card, and then directly revealed the card retrieved from the previous round, Summon Elemental HERO Stratos in attack position!

After images pierced the sky, the hero in high-tech armor dragged two milky white airwaves behind him, and landed vertically with a superhero pose.

[Elemental HERO Stratos, ATK 1800]

The effect of Elemental HERO Stratos! Yuei Vu said, When this card is Normal or Special Summoned, add 1 HERO monster from my Deck to my hand.

Bakura's pupils shrank, and he burst out laughing.

That can't be done! He shouted in a voice that was almost hoarse, The effect of Doomking Balerdroch! Once per Chain, when a Zombie monster activates its effect, I can negate that effect!

After a pause, he chattered and sneered: When the Field Spell Zombie World exists on the field, all monsters on the field and in GY on both sides will become Zombie You don't forget it, do you?

Yuei Vu narrowed his eyes: It means that it can negate any monster's effect that's what you mean, right?

As expected of the Duel King, you understand quickly. Bakura raised his hand, So sorry, the activation of your hero's ability is prohibited!

The gloomy fog gathered in the arena, circling around, entangled Stratos' body like a poisonous snake, and bound him up. The sky hero snorted, unable to move his body.

He seemed to be struggling with all his strength, the turbines on the metal wings behind him were running at full speed, making a buzzing idling sound, and the armor all over his body was beating with electric current, but he couldn't break free after all.

Bakura smiled: Can you continue?

Yuei Vu glanced at Brother Sky who was silenced but ignored him.

The answer, of course, was Yes, I can!

Activate Spell Card Polymerization! Yuei Vu didn't care at all, Fuse the Elemental HERO Stratos on the field with the Elemental HERO Liquid Soldier in the hand!

The fusion condition is 1 Elemental HERO monster + 1 WIND monster!

Riding the wind, destroying everything with ever-changing tornadoes

Elemental HERO Great Tornado!

The heroes of wind and water turned into beams of light and flew into the vortex, and the energy of the elements exploded, mixed with the suffocating power of the storm! Immediately, winds and clouds surged in the undead field, and the purple-black mist was stirred into chaos. The hero of the tornado rides down on a hurricane with folded arms, his cloak flapping in the wind.

[Elemental HERO Great Tornado, ATK 2800]

First, the effect of Liquid Soldier. If this card is used as Fusion Material for a HERO monster, and sent to the GY or banished: I can draw 2 cards, then discard 1 card.

Yuei Vu drew two cards, picked out one and discarded it, and then continued to process the effect.

Next is the effect of the Great Tornado. Yuei Vu said, When this card is Fusion Summoned, the attack power and defense power of all monsters on the opponents field will be halved!

Therefore, the attack power of Doomking Balerdroch is halved!

The tornado hero suspended in mid-air made a gesture as if the conductor had waved his baton. The movement of the storm began to play, and the tornado of the call sign almost lifted the entire huge body of the Undead King from the ground.

It was like there was a fierce and violent beast hidden in the strong wind!

[Doomking Balerdroch, ATK 2800 ATK 1400]

But at this moment, one eye that the Undead King had kept tightly closed opened!

Red light shot out from the pitch-black storm, violently cutting through the wind curtain, as if leaving a long crack in the space that was emitting black smoke, cutting straight towards the hero of the tornado!

Another effect of Doomking Balerdroch! Bakura said, When a Zombie monster activates its effect, I can banish 1 monster from the field or GY!

He raised his hand and pointed straight at the Elemental HERO who was calling the wind and rain.

Disappear for me, Great Tornado!

Even if it developed to this day, interfering and interrupting the opponents actions during the opponents turn would always be one of the quintessential parts of the Yu-Gi-Oh! card game.

With the support of Zombie World, the Doomking Balerdroch, which could negate the monster effect once in the opponents turn, and also banish a monster once, was undoubtedly a super killer in this environment at this stage.

Its no wonder that Bakura put so much confidence in this monster.

However

Quick-Play Spell Mask Change! Yuei Vu also responded immediately, Send 1 HERO monster I control to the Graveyard, then Special Summon 1 Masked HERO monster from my Extra Deck with the same Attribute!

I sent Great Tornado to GY, transform!

Masked HERO Blast!

The storm subsided, and the figure of the Great Tornado disappeared. The tornado turned into a green whirlwind, swirling around the heros body, turning into a light but strong armor covering his body, and the red scarf fluttered in the wind.

[Masked HERO Blast, ATK 2200]

The effect of Masked HERO Blast! Yuei Vu said, If this card is Special Summoned: I can target 1 face-up monster the opponent controls; its ATK becomes half its current ATK! I will halve the attack power of the Doomking Balerdroch again!

The Undead King, who had only 1400 attack power left, would be 700 if being halved once more.

Damn it! Bakura snorted coldly, Open the set card: Trap Card Spellbinding Illusion! Select 1 monster the opponent controls. It loses 500 ATK, and its effect is negated! (comic card)

Then before being restrained, another effect of Masked HERO Blast is activated! Yuei Vu was not to be outdone, Once per turn, I can pay 500 LP, then target 1 Spell/Trap the opponent controls; return it to the hand!

Im going to return that set card to your hand!

Yuei Vu, LP 800 LP 300

The card he was pointing to was the trap Rebirth Tablet that Bakura failed to activate last turn!

If Yuei Yu attacked rashly here and knocked down the weakened Doomking Balerdroch with Blask, then Bakura would undoubtedly use the Rebirth Tablet to revive Doomking Balerdroch, and the attack power would also be reset to the initial 2800 point.

So this set card must be cleared first.

Seeing the Rebirth Tablet being bounced back to his hand, Bakura couldnt help curling his lips: Its another troublesome effectbut the effect of halving Doomking Balerdrochs attack power is invalidated! And his own attack power will also drop!

[Masked HERO Blast, ATK 2200 ATK 1700]

Comparable to the current Doomking Balerdroch, it was just 300 points higher.

Activate Spell Card: E-Emergency Call! Add 1 Elemental HERO monster from the deck to the hand. A card popped out from Yuei Vus deck, I added the Elemental HERO Bladedge to the hand.

Then there is the Spell Card Spider Web, which can select 1 card in the opponents Graveyard that was sent there the previous turn, and add it to my hand. (animation card)

The Spell Card emerged, and with a burst of golden light, the silver-white spider silk flew to the tomb area of Bakuras Duel Disk and flew back to Yuei Vu with a card precisely.

I chose the Spell Card Double Attack.

Bakura: !

Then the Spell Card Double Attack is activated! Yuei Vu said, Discard a monster card, and choose a monster on my field whose Level is lower than the discarded monster. During this turn, the selected monster can attack twice!

Bakura said unhappily: You actually use my card so casually

I discard Level 7 Elemental HERO Bladedge and choose the Level 6 Masked HERO Blast on the field. Yuei Vu said.

If passed, two blows would cause a huge damage of 2000 points in one breath. Bakura snorted: What a tricky guy

Battle! Yuei Vu said, Masked HERO Blast, attack the Doomking Balerdroch!

The figure flying up by the gust of wind rolled up a green whirlwind, and flew straight towards the Undead King in mid-air!

Continuous Trap Spirit Shield! Bakura flipped over the card and shouted loudly, When an opponents monster declares an attack, I can remove from play 1 Fiend-Type or Zombie-Type monster from my Graveyard to negate the attack! (animation card)

A card popped up in his grave area: I removed the Zombie Master from the game, and the attack is negated!

The phantom of the Zombie Master emerged, like a mass of ethereal matter, standing in front of Bakura. The green whirlwind impacted the mass, the two offset each other, and dissipated in mid-air.

Yuei Vu raised his eyebrows.

In this duel, all Bakuras monsters except the Zombie Master should have been removed from the game by Masked HERO Dark Law. There should be no more resources to be banished.

Then the battle continues! According to the effect of Double Attack, Masked HERO Blast can attack a second time!

The Masked HERO flew into the air on the gust of wind and came again with the wind, the green cyclone cut out like countless sharp blades!

Hurricane Slash!

But the corner of Bakuras mouth curled up: I remove the Souls of the Forgotten in GY from the game, negate the attack again!

Is it the other card besides Diabound Kernel among the two cards discarded through Graceful Charity at the beginning?

Blasts aggressive attack was blocked by a mass of ethereal matter again, and the Masked HERO could only return without success.

But in this way, Bakuras graveyard resource was emptied for real.

Because there are no Fiend or Zombie-Type monsters in my GY, the Spirit Shield will be automatically destroyed. Bakura taunted, But in this way, your attack will be over, Duel King.

Thats not necessarily true.

What!?

Yuei Vu lightly showed another card: Return 1 HERO Fusion Monster I control to the Extra Deck, then Special Summon from my Extra Deck, 1 Masked HERO monster with the same Level as that monsters original Level, but with a different name!

I return the level 6 Masked HERO Blast to the deck!

The embodiment of the law of darkness, return from the abyss

Appeared again! Masked HERO Dark Law!

Black mist lingers, and the silver light of claws and fangs in the chaos tears the darkness apart! It has armor like a wolf, and the black shell a shining with a metallic luster.

[Masked HERO Dark Law, ATK 2400]

Bakura looked like he had eaten shit: Its this guy again!?

His Doomking Balerdroch actually had another hidden ability. That was, during the Standby Phase, if there was a face-up card in a Field Zone and Doomking Balerdroch was in his GY, he could Special Summon it in Defense Position.

The King of the Undead was immortal! No matter how many times he died, he would revive again! under the premise that it existed in GY.

However, this black Masked HERO directly erased his GY

But in fact, Bakura didnt have to worry about this problem at all.

Because he had no next turn.

Masked HERO Dark Law, attack the Doomking Balerdroch! Yuei Vu waved his hand, At this moment, I activate the Quick-Play Spell Battle Fusion from the hand!

When an attack is declared involving a Fusion Monster I control and an opponents monster: That monster I control gains ATK equal to the ATK of the opponents monster, until the end of the Damage Step!

[Masked HERO Dark Law, ATK 2400 ATK 3800]

Bakuras expression changed suddenly: What!?

The black afterimage was pierced, and the silver light flashed, like fangs shining in the dark night! The Masked HEROs right leg drew a dark trajectory and slammed into the Undead Kings body. The powerful leg force smashed the thick skeleton into pieces, and the sharp blade fitted on the armor involuntarily cut his body apart.

Boom! ! !

The Undead King exploded on the spot!

Bakura, LP 2400 LP 0

Chapter 513: First Ora Then Talk

Masked HERO Dark Law, the final blow!

The attack of the dark hero shredded the body of Doomking Balerdroch, and the aftermath of the power remained undiminished, hitting Bakuras body head-on with a black cyclone.

The domineering waves made the millennium wheel hanging on Bakuras chest flutter violently, his clothes were straightened by the airflow, and his facial muscles were also squeezed under the impact of high pressure, showing an unnaturally distorted expression commonly known as face art.

But even in a Shadow Game of this level, even with a full 2400 points of HP damage, Bakura still tenaciously survived.

His footsteps were shaky, his knees were slightly bent and he almost fell to his knees, black smoke was coming out of his whole body, but the corner of his mouth still had that smug smile He even continued to speak.

Oh, this level of massage cant make me

Before he finished his pretentious words, Bakura immediately saw the streamlined jet-black armor swaying in front of him, and a steel kick with an arc drawn by howling wind and dark energy was hitting his chest.

Eh?

Bakura was stunned for a moment, and in the next second his face was hit by an inhuman force. Dark Laws tons of leg strength slammed into his face, and the strange force spread along his cheeks in the form of ripples, stirring his facial muscles into an even weirder state.

Bakura tilted his head at that moment, he even seemed to hear the sound of his own neck breaking. The strange force acting on his head dragged his whole body and flew backward. It looked like a human cannonball fired by Masked HERO, flew straight across the entire hall, and shot into the rearmost wall like a broken bamboo.

boom!

There was a deafening bang, and the dust stirred up everywhere. Bakura even knocked down a thick load-bearing column along the way, and the collapsed column broke into three or four pieces on the floor of the main hall, and dust and debris fell from the roof.

In the end, he blasted into the innermost wall in a straight line and was embedded in an exaggerated posture that looked a bit like a funny character, the kind that couldnt be pulled out.

The onlookers were all dumbfounded, and even the players were a little surprised

The duel is over, and the LP value of the opponent has returned to zero, so why do you still let the monsters go up and beat people directly?

Yuei Vusang, is this too cruel?

You dont play by the routine!

And yet its not even over!

With Yuei Vu thought, Dark Law kicked his feet, and the black figure burst out of the air like a hungry wolf that preyed on it, heading straight toward Bakura!

Unlike other spirits, Masked HERO was a spirit that Yuei Vu catalyzed through his own strength in duels again and again, and they were inseparable.

This was a bit like the relationship between the Yu-Gi-Oh! protagonist and their spirit partner you don't need to communicate with each other, you only need your thoughts to transmit information.

It's just that the elf of this Masked HERO seems to have just been born, and he seldom actively feeds back any information to Yuei Vu. Generally, he only accepts Yuei Vu's orders unilaterally and faithfully executes them.

If Yuei Vu encountered a life-threatening situation, if he had no time to summon other spirits, or if other spirits have not had time to jump out to help him immediately, he could release the spirit of the Masked HERO in any form with just one thought.

It felt a bit like the concept of Stand in the neighbor studio.

Bakura, you don't expect that my Stand is Kamen Rider, do you?!

Bakura was still embedded in the wall, maybe he hadn't seen his dizzy sight clearly, but Dark Law had already pounced on him again, and greeted Bakura's face alternately with a string of Ora Ora Ora punches.

For a while, dust filled the air, and sand and stones flew around in the hall, as if the whole building was shaking. The Masked HERO punched Bakura fiercely with both fists alternately, and each punch drove the latter's body a few inches into the wall. In the end, both figures were engulfed in smoke and dust, and even the outlines could not be seen clearly.. .

The audience behind couldn't help swallowing.

Especially those Doma minions, who were terrified of Yuei Vu at first, but now seeing such a brutal scene, they couldn't help but quietly moved a few steps away from Yuei Vu in small steps.

They all couldn't help thinking about if they were the ones who were hit in that wall pit, from which punch would they be blasted into a mosaic?

It's too scary, it's too scary, never provoke this violent Duel King again in this life

Yuei Vu put his hands in the pockets of the windbreaker, and watched Dark Law beating up the Bakura in the wall pit, but couldn't help frowning.

In fact, he was just trying to do it with a fluke mentality.

However, he guessed in his heart it might still be useless.

Who is Bakura?

The incarnation of the great evil god Zorc, the final boss of Yu-Gi-Oh DM. He lost countless times in the Shadow Game, betting on his own soul and losing his body respectively, and took a Superconducting Wave Thunder Cannon of Osiris in the top Shadow Game, and also ate a God Blaze Cannon of Ra in the same top-level Shadow Game and yet he's still alive and kicking until the finale, with no missing arms or legs.

This guy was like the legendary C who couldn't be killed in one hit. Ordinary Shadow Games couldn't punish this guy at all, not even the divine power of the Three Egyptian Gods.

Here, Yuei Vu took advantage of the fact that Bakura was defeated in a Shadow Game just now, and was in the worst condition before he had time to slow down, and asked the Dark Law to go up and seize the opportunity to punch as many times as possible.

Although it was reasonable to say that such a BOSS couldn't die from this, what if in a one-in-a-million chance he could?

Or even if he survived, he might be seriously injured and had to go back to recuperate for several months, so that he would not have time to go to Egypt to mess up with Yugi, which seemed pretty good.

In any case, it would never hurt to beat him up first.

Bakura now had a sentence No, there were many things he wants to say, but he wouldn't be able to speak for a while

Of course, it was definitely impossible for the great evil god Zorc to just be beaten up for seven and a half pages.

Enough!!!

A heavy and forceful bang exploded in the midair of the hall. That's not the voice of Bakura, but it's more low-pitched as if it's coming from somewhere in the void.

A sudden burst of power erupted from the position where Bakura was, and the golden light pierced in all directions that was the flash of the Millennium Ring!

Masked HERO Dark Law let out a muffled snort, was thrown out instantly, and rolled down the steps of the hall in a state of embarrassment.

That golden light came from the Millennium Ring on Bakura's chest. He stood up slowly, twisted his crooked neck back with a crack, straightened his misplaced arm, and staggered forward.

An ordinary person would be beaten to death long ago, but Bakura just seemed to be okay, and the injuries on his body were recovering rapidly at a speed visible to the naked eye.

The Millennium Ring hanging on his chest has actually absorbed into his flesh at this moment as if it has become a part of his body. The clothes on his chest were ripped open, exposing his skin with bulging veins, and the Millennium Ring and the veins visible to the naked eye were integrated into one.

The great evil god is really a monster. Yuei Vu said, You just lost in the Shadow Game, yet still be able to burst out such a level of power in an instant.

I admit that I underestimated you. Bakura snorted, Yuei Vu seems that you are more than meet the eye.

He tried his best to pretend to be calm and wanted to stand up straight, but he stopped, coughed violently, and blood overflowed from his mouth.

He wiped the blood from the corner of his mouth and clicked his tongue: Tch, the human body is really troublesome. Is this the limit Hmph, that's all.

He raised his head and looked at Yuei Vu again.

Originally, I wanted to deal with you now but I changed my mind. It would be too boring to kill you now, hehe, you won the right to enter the upcoming good show.

Yuei Vu: ?

He said that the upcoming good show, could it be

Just as he was thinking, he saw Bakura wave his arm, and a small golden object was thrown over from the air.

Yuei Vu remained vigilant and did not pick it up in person, but let Masked HERO Dark Law reach out to catch it.

Dark Law handed it over to him for a look, and he saw that lying in the center of Dark Laws black glove was a pure gold metal eyeball.

That was the Millennium Eye, one of the seven Millennium Items!

Chapter 514: A Strange Impression

Millennium Eye?

Yuei Vu looked at the Millennium Eye that Bakura threw to him, and couldnt help feeling a little dazed.

As he remembered, in the anime, before the Pharaohs Memories arc started, Bakura seemed to throw the Millennium Eye at President Kaiba like this.

The Millennium Eye in the animation was equivalent to Bakuras invitation to participate in the Ultimate Shadow Game. President Haima took this artifact to the Tablet of Lost Memories stored in Egypt, and through that slate entered the Ultimate Shadow Game between Yugi and Bakura.

From another perspective, this thing may be equivalent to a specially invited admission ticket.

Ah, you know that thing used to belong to Pegasus, dont you? Bakura shrugged, Thats right, I was the one who snatched it from Pegasus on the island of the Duelist Kingdom.

But it doesnt matter now, I dont need it anymore, so just accept it.

Soon the nameless Pharaoh will go to Egypt to retrieve his own memory, which is also very important to me. If you are interested, you can also join in. Playing games requires a lot of people to be fun.

As he spoke, he let out a strange laugh, his voice chilling.

Im becoming more and more curious about your origin, but since you have this level of strength and the power to control the Three Egyptian Gods

Bakura didnt go on when he said this.

But obviously, he mistakenly believed that Yuei Vu had contact with someone in ancient Egypt. Although he hasnt figured it out yet, he thought he should be able to figure it out in the Pharaohs memory world.

At the same time, the corresponding content also popped up in the quest panel in front of Yuei Vu.

[Hidden mission is triggered: Yami Bakuras Invitation!]

[Description: The dark personality residing in the body of Ryo Bakura has issued a special invitation to you for joining the Ultimate Shadow Game! After the nameless Pharaoh opened the Tablet of Lost Memories, you can enter the pharaohs memory world with the Millennium Eye through the slate!]

It was not a mandatory quest, and there are buttons for the two options Accept and Reject below the panel.

This was really unexpected.

In fact, Yuei Vu had a plan to participate in this arc in the first place.

Although not everyone could participate in the main plot of this arce, there were players who succeeded.

In the World Link Online of the previous life, there was no idol NPC like Yuei Vu, so there were many more players around Yugi than now.

Although Yugi generally only maintains an attitude towards these screwballs (whom he thought to be fanatical fans), there are always a few lucky players who have the opportunity to lick their favorability a little higher, with a slightly higher sense of presence in front of Yugi.

According to the main plot, before Yugi started to go to Egypt, players with a high enough favorability would have a certain probability to join the Egypt tour group as Yugis friends and accompany Yugi to play the final level of the main plot.

In the animation, after Yugi showed three God cards in front of the slate, flew into the slate alone, and entered the memory world. After some exploration in the soul room of the Millennium Puzzle, his little friends found the door to the memory world by relying on their fetters and then joined in.

In the beginning, if the players wanted to participate in this story, the only way was to join Yugis friends, and follow them to enter the memory world through the maze in the soul room.

When Yuei Vu played World Link Online back then, after the entire DM plot was completely over, the process and trigger conditions of these contents were completely posted on the forum.

Therefore, Yuei Vu has been ready to participate in this part of the plot for a long time ago. According to the original plan, he also planned to enter the Pharaohs memory world through the soul room.

But now it seemed to save him from this trouble.

Now that he has the invitation letter in his hand, he could log in directly as long as the memory world was opened.

Thats it for today. Bakura wiped the blood from the corner of his mouth, and took two steps back, Ill leave this thing in your hand first, and its your freedom to go to Egypt or not.

But personally, I am really looking forward to seeing you in that world, hehehe

A strange dark aura emanated from the Millennium Ring, enveloping Bakura. As the black mist dissipated, the others also disappeared in place.

Yuei Vu glanced at the Millennium Eye in his hand and fell into short thoughts.

He definitely had to go to Egypt. But now that such a variable has appeared, his plan needed to be adjusted accordingly.

He also didnt forget to try to sense the dark power contained in the Millennium Eye. However, it was a pity that he couldnt sense anything extraordinary from it.

It felt like a well-made antique thing that was useless except for decoration.

Although Yuei Vu was helpless about this, he also felt that it was expected.

All Millennium Items were extremely picky in choosing masters. They generally only recognized the reincarnation of the owner 3,000 years ago, and even occasionally recognize a third party like Pegasus, but the situation was extremely rare, just like winning the lottery.

Just like the Three Egyptian Gods, the more awesome something was, the more arrogant it was. Its as if they thought that if anyone could use them, it would appear that their value was lowered.

But anyway, Yuei Vu put it away first.

At this time, the group of players behind has already started chattering, and someone has already posted first-hand news on the forum. At the moment, the forum is also full of heated discussions.

Yuei Vu-san is going to Egypt!

Everyone could smell the main plotline!

The final battle of Yu-Gi-Oh! DM, the prelude to the finale of World Link Online version 1.0!

It was no surprise to everyone that Yuei Vu, the world protagonist, could participate in this main line. Now players were more concerned about what kind of posture they needed to use to join

Of course, Yuei Vu didnt forget the other Doma minions left in the hall.

He turned around expressionlessly, his eyes sweeping over each of the minions calmly.

His eyes swept over a group of minions, all of them couldnt help trembling suddenly, and quickly lowered their heads, not daring to breathe.

Klang.

A Duel Disk fell to the floor.

There was someone took the lead, so all the minions quickly followed, took off the Duel Disks in their hands one by one, and threw them on the ground in front of them. The scene was quite spectacular for a while Yuei Vu couldnt help looking at the sky melancholy.

It seems I left a strange impression on people.

I dont know if this is a good thing or a bad thing

Chapter 515: I Want One Too!

What did you say? President Kaiba on the other side of the video call was very impatient.

I said Im going to bring Yugi and his friends to Egypt together. Yuei Vu coughed and said, Well, if you are free, President, why dont you consider coming with us?

Thats right, although not long ago Yuei Vu had already obtained a special plane from the Kaiba Corp to travel to Egypt under the banner of an official business trip it was no different from the card game he played with the president before. relation. But now he not only wanted this plane, he even wanted the president himself

Everyone knew that this time they went to Egypt to fight Dio, sorry, to fight the great evil god Zorc. Naturally, the more people, the better.

However, very few people were qualified to enter the final stage of the Pharaohs Memories arc. Except for Yugi Muto and his little friends who could rely on the spiritual power called the bond of friendship to enter, only a reincarnated priest like Kaiba may have a chance to enter.

Whats more, Kaiba still has the super spirit Blue-Eyes White Dragon who could challenge the three Egyptian Gods in ancient Egypt. If he could trick the president to join, the chance to win definitely be a lot more stable.

Of course, Yuei Vu just mentioned it casually, but he didnt really have much hope.

If you want to ask why

Boring! The president didnt think about it, Go play this boring supernatural game yourself! Im not interested in this kind of thing!

The expected answer.

But Yuei Vu still didnt give up: I will go with Yugi, President. Maybe we can communicate and discuss this time, and have a friendly match or something?

Besides, dont you have no interest in your wife no, the bond between you and Blue-Eyes White Dragon?

Yuei Vu tried his best to be persuasive.

The president was only interested in so few things in this world. Playing cards, people who were better than him in playing cards, and White Bride.

(Mokuba:)

Now that all these factors were gathered together during this trip to Egypt, could the president not be tempted?

Sure enough, after hearing these words, President Kaiba seemed to be shaken for a moment, and his eyes flickered for a moment.

However, just when Yuei Vu thought that he was about to win the important support of Kaiba Humph!

The president instantly changed back to his usual face, and said coldly: Go wherever you like, I dont have time to play these boring games with you!

After finishing speaking, without waiting for Yuei Vu to speak again, he cut off the signal directly, and the screen went back to pitch black.

It felt like he was afraid that if Yuei Vu said a few more words, he would really be persuaded to go to Egypt with them

Yuei Vu:

Tch, what a tsundere guy. Its a pity that I cant pull him down.

Yuei Vu turned off the communication on the Duel Diskyes, it was the Duel Disk.

The Duel Disk provided by Uncle Pa from the future naturally had communication functions. Kaibas newly developed Duel Disk also has this function. Although it is still in the testing stage, phone call and video chat was not a problem.

Yuei Vu turned his head, and saw Little Judai, who was supposed to be doing homework at the table, opened his curious eyes again: Wow! Yuei Vu-senseis Duel Disk is so powerful that he can talk to people! I want one too!

Yuei Vu smiled, stepped forward, and touched the little jellyfish head.

Yes, yes, as expected of my apprentice.

From the beginning of this game, it has always been me who thinks about other peoples Duel Disks. Dare to think about my Duel Disk, you are still the first, little jellyfish Chika came over with a tray and put down a cup of coffee in front of him.

She remained silent. Although her expression was as barren as ever, Yuei Vu could probably see that she was a little emotional.

Maybe it was because Yuei Vu made a special call to ask Kaiba to go with him, but he didnt even plan to take her there

But Yuei Vu also explained to her, saying that this trip to Egypt was the same as last time. It was not a tour, but a BOSS battle. And this time the opponents level was higher than last time, to be honest, Yuei Vu didnt dare to say how much winning chance he had.

If it wasnt for the fact that Yami Yugi was the pioneer, he would actually be a bit hesitate to play the final dungeon

I want to go too. The little jellyfish pouted and muttered.

Yuei Vu was amused.

You?

If another five or six years pass, even if you dont want to go, I must find a way to trick you to join.

But now? forget it.

I dont want to be a babysitter while clearing the dungeon

Before leaving, Yuei Vu once again briefly explained to the vampire who had completely turned into a maid.

After all, he traveled a lot these days and spent less time at home. There was only such a vampire maid in the house every day, so he still had to explain it verbally, lest she stay for a long time and do strange things.

Tilla, who was called by the master, rushed to Yuei Vu in a hurry, still wearing the maid outfit that was so tight that it could barely cover the chest, and today she even tied a double ponytail that was unique to anime and full of discord.

Yuei Vus face darkened immediately when he saw her unsuitable pure-style dress.

What are you doing in your own room every day when you have nothing to do? What the hell shape is this?

Yuei Vu ignored her double ponytail style and calmly explained that he had to go out for a while, and he couldn't say how long it would be, so let her stay here and watch carefully, don't tear down the house

Tilla nodded like a chicken pecking at rice, with a pair of ponytails dangling back and forth.

Yuei Vu had a dark face especially after seeing her drinking and boxing with a group of strong men, and then seeing her pretending to be cute, it made him feel weirder than weird

Master Yuei Vu, look do you want to consider taking me with you? Tilla blinked frantically, Look, those important people have to bring a secretary with them when they go out, right? Even if it may be useless, but bring me can give you a lot of face!

Master Yuei Vu, you are so handsome and strong, and your status is also extraordinary, with a jade tree facing the wind and an extraordinary weapon

Stop, stop! Yuei Vu hurriedly made a stop gesture before he got goosebumps.

Oh.

Tilla shut up as if her mouth was blocked.

But soon she continued to hint: Even if you don't need a secretary, do you think you should consider bringing a bed warmer? After all, it's so far away

Yuei Vu's face darkened.

Oh, this girl finally exposed her evil side.

What kind of secretary, what kind of assistant, it's all a pretense of nonsense!

I think you're just thinking about my precious!

Yuei Vu was expressionless, raised his hand and pointed backward, then stretched out five fingers.

Without him saying a word, Tilla immediately understood and nodded obediently: Oh, fifty laps, right? I'll go right away, Master Yuei Vu

So the vampire, who was full of energy and wanted to make trouble, ran out again to vent her excess energy.

Yuei Vu hummed in his heart.

Heh, this vampire still doesn't give up and is greedy for my body.

Think about it carefully, is this realistic?

It's like a toad jumping off a cliff trying to pretend to be Batman!

After simply packing and counting their luggage, and talking to Yugi on the phone, he was finally ready to leave.

World Link Online version 1.0's final station, Egypt!

Chapter 516: Return To Egypt

When Yuei Vu, Yugi, and others arrived at the airport, the people in black suits from the Kaiba Corp had already been waiting there for a long time.

All the formalities have been arranged properly. After everyone arrived, they only needed to follow these black suits and board the plane directly. Thats all.

Yuei Vu was not surprised to see that the person in charge today was the almighty Uncle Isono. This made Yuei Vu couldnt help but want to complain that Kaiba Corp was really lacking manpower. Being a referee, running a business, and fighting in group fights, it seemed that no matter what Kaiba did, Uncle Isono was always at the forefront

Before getting on the plane, Yuei Vu jokingly said to Kaibas loyal subordinate, Why is it you again? President Kaiba makes you run around like this all day long, did he give you a raise?

Isono stood at attention: This is my duty as a subordinate!

Dont be so serious. Yuei Vu waved his hand, Im not Kaiba, nor your superior. Take it easy.

Isono saluted standardly: Yes, sir!

Yuei Vu:

All right, as long as you are happy

The plane took off with a low roar, carrying a group of people toward Egypt.

Its just that flying to Egypt to fight the BOSS, taking off with this kind of mission always made Yuei Vu feel a little uneasy as if the plane would fall from the sky or something

As expected of the special plane of Kaiba Corp, its pretty good! Honda began to admire.

There are so many delicious foods! Jonouchis eyes lit up.

The God of Gamblers was still whispering bad things about Kaiba before getting on the plane, but now he seemed to have completely fallen under the bombardment of sugar-coated shells, and while stuffing food into his mouth, he muttered something like That Kaiba is not bad.

Thank you very much for this time, Yuei Vu. Yugi Muto said politely, Thank you for taking us with you.

In the animation, they bought tickets and flew to Egypt on a regular flight according to the normal tourist process, but they didnt have the treatment of going through the VIP channel and bringing a special plane to pick them up.

Yuei Vu smiled: Its okay, anyway, I was going there to do business, just drop in. Friends should help each other.

Yeah! Yugi Muto showed a simple and honest smile and nodded vigorously.

Actually, Yuei Vu didnt think he needed to speak up. If Yugi asked Kaiba to borrow a plane to go to Egypt, Kaiba would probably do it.

Its just that, unlike Yuei Vu, Yugi didnt have any special connection with their Kaiba company, and it might not be as easy as Yuei Vu to borrow it.

But in Yuei Vus view, this was not a problem, it was just a test of how thick your skin was.

And he happened to be more confident in that regard

A moment later, the plane landed at the airport on the Egyptian side.

The Ishtar siblings, who just said goodbye to Yuei Vu, came to the airport again to greet them.

Mr. Yugi. The siblings stepped forward and bowed their lower bodies as a salute, Dear Pharaoh.

Although Yami Yugi was now hidden in the Millennium Puzzle in a spirit state, they still saluted according to the etiquette.

But this time its not like the last time Yuei Vu drove, and there were professional receptionists lining up to welcome him.

Logically speaking, Yami Yugi was still the Egyptian pharaoh, wasn't he? Its a pity that in comparison, the current Egyptian government was obviously more interested in Yuei Vu, who has a name in the Kaiba Corp and has the right to speak.

What? Pharaoh?

Who do you think understands this?

After all, his kingdom has long since died

Of course, Yami Yugi didn't mind this at all. He wandered around for three thousand years and even forgot his own name. Now he was not interested in power or wealth at all. He just wanted to find his past and know who he was.

But in this regard, he also inevitably has some worries and fears.

He was afraid that the past self and the present self were two completely different people, and that he could not accept, or his friends especially AIBO could not accept the past self.

What if his past self three thousand years ago was a tyrant who disregarded human life?

Or what terrible mistake did he make three thousand years ago?

Or what if after going through a lot of things to recover his real name, only to find that his name was notorious and has long been left in the history books for thousands of years

But the night before, the careful AIBO noticed the uneasiness of this partner.

It doesn't matter. In the soul room of the two of them, Yugi Muto said with a smile at that time, No matter what your past is, you are you now. You are another me, a companion of all of us! No matter what happened in the past Nothing will change now!

AIBO Yami Yugi was very moved.

Yes, no matter what happened in the past, it has passed after all.

Awakening in modern times after three thousand years was not only a curse, but also a gift, giving him the opportunity to participate in this completely different period of life.

Now he was more than just a pharaoh of ancient Egypt. Now he had a new partner, a new bond, and a new memory of spending time with them and fighting together so far.

Even if he put aside his past, he was not nothing now.

Thanks to Yugi Muto's enlightenment, Yami Yugi also figured it out after that, no longer confused, no longer afraid to face his past.

Sure enough, AIBO is the best

It was Ishizu who greeted first.

Yuei Vu shook hands with her, smiled, and expressed his gratitude to her for granting the foundation of alchemy last time. After all, relying on this skill, Yuei Vu has made a little money this time around.

Ishizu was very polite and only said that she was very happy to be able to help Yuei Vu. At the same time, she also said that if there is anything that can be of use to her, she can just say it, as long as it is within her ability, she will try her best to satisfy it.

After exchanging pleasantries for a while, Yuei Vu noticed her brother Marik behind her.

No way, its not that I ignored Mr. Ma on purpose.

It was just that he was not as big as his sister.

Big things were naturally more eye-catching.

If Marik was still a bit cautious when he greeted Yuei Vu like he was when he was facing his superiors, now he seemed much more natural when facing Yuei Vu.

Obviously, after the final duel between Yuei Vu and Ishizu last time, Mr. Ma has successfully stepped out of the shadow of the past.

Mr. Yuei Vu. He stepped forward with a smile, and there was actually a little joy in his eyes.

His attitude was completely different from the last time we met, as if he could see Yuei Vu again, and he even felt a little looking forward to it.

Another difference that Yuei Vu noticed was that this time Marik actually wore a Duel Disk and a deck.

Is this guy really going to revive the glory of the king, and has returned to the world of dueling?

Noticing Yuei Vus gaze, this time Mr. Ma didnt feel cold and nervous, but smiled calmly and raised the Duel Disk in his hand.

Yeah, Ive decided to continue the duel. He smiled and said, Thanks to Mr. Yuei Vu, I can regain my strength.

Lets fight together next time, Mr. Yuei Vu, my sister and I hope you can witness my growth too!

If I still lose, then you can take this Duel Disk!

Yuei Vu: ???

Yuei Vu was surprised.

This child is stimulated by what?

Then he was even more surprised to find that the way Mr. Ma looked at him today seemed quite different.

Something is wrong with you!

Chapter 517: World of Memories

The stone slab engraved with The Millenium War and the container that sealed the memory of the Pharaoh stood quietly in front of the group at this very moment.

Marik and Isis said that they, as members of the tomb guards, led the way here and their mission was completed. According to the rules, they were not allowed to be present at the next ceremony where the pharaoh retrieved his memory, so they led the crowd to the secret room where the stone slab was sealed and then went out to wait.

So only Yugi, Yuei Vu, Jounouchi, Honda, Anzu were left in this secret room and a few screwballs who followed Yuei Vu.

According to the plot of World Link Online in the previous life, Yugis group bought tickets to fly to Egypt by themselves, and the only players who could go with them are those who have a high enough favorability to trigger this opportunity.

But now, they all flew here with the plane borrowed by Yuei Vu, so which lucky screwball can get on the car was naturally up to Yuei Vus decision.

So those who came with him were naturally still the few people handpicked by his side.

Speaking of Yugis group, their learning was really interesting. It seemed that they went to school whenever they wanted.

President Kaiba was rich, so its fine if he hasnt been to school except in the first episode. Throughout the whole anime, Yugi and his friends didnt seem to have stayed at school for a few days.

In the Duelist Kingdom arc, they went to the island of Pegasus to play cards. After that, Yugi participated in the Duel City Competition to play cards. During that period, Yugi also played cards in the virtual world for a few days. Then he went to the United States to fight Doma, and it was a long time to skip class and be absent from work, and then immediately ran to participate in the KC Cup card game after the end

In short, it gave people the feeling that their school may be managed in a sheep-herding style. If everyone was in the mood, they occasionally came to listen to the lectures.

No, so many of them asked for leave at the same time to travel to Egypt, and the teacher didnt seem to care about it at all

At this point, Yami Yugi was taking over the body. He looked up at the slate in front of him that sealed his memory, took a deep breath, and calmed down his complicated emotions, then he took out three God cards from behind and showed it to the slate.

In an instant, the ancient stone slab that had been sealed for thousands of years responded immediately.

The portraits engraved on the top of the stone slab corresponding to the positions of the three phantom gods suddenly lit up. Lights of red, gold, and blue flew out from the slate and shot into the three cards displayed in the game.

A majestic energy swept across the hall immediately, and the golden light spread rapidly, shooting out from the entire stone slab, blinding everyone in the hall for a moment.

The power released by the card of the Three Egyptian Gods as a medium, like an invisible hand pulling the soul of Yami Yugi floated out of the body. He flew out of the body, feeling as if his body was weightless, following the surging golden light and drifting with the waves, he flew into the eye-shaped engraving in the center of the stone slab in one breath.

In just a moment, the light dissipated and the slate dimmed again, as if nothing had happened.

All eyes turned to Yugi.

How about it?

Yugi Muto lowered his head, holding the Millennium Puzzle in his hands, feeling lost.

He is no longer here.

The boys didn't speak for a while.

Although Yugi Muto has always acted strong in front of his other self, it was only because he was afraid that his own confusion and his intention to remain would shake the other self's determination to move forward.

This didn't mean that he really didn't have feelings of reluctance.

From the moment when the Millennium Puzzle was assembled, they have always been of one mind, and the souls of the two of them will always live in the Millennium Puzzle.

Never before had he felt so alone.

Yami Yugi was afraid of the future, and so was he.

He was afraid that after his other self regained his memory, he would really become a different person, and would never recognize them as friends again.

He was even more afraid that after his other self left like this, he would never return and live in their memory forever.

Yugi and his friends didn't speak for a while, it seemed that no one dared to break the heavy atmosphere.

Until Miss Yuehua, who was following behind and watching the screen while watching, whispered: Uhthat, Yuei Vu-san?

Only then did everyone come back to their senses in surprise.

Just at the moment when the stone slab was opened and the golden light pierced everyone's eyes Yuei Vu seemed to have disappeared too!

Yuei Vu was suffering violent bumps, it felt like sour water is about to be churned out of the stomach.

Entering the World of Memories, Yuei Vu felt as if he was roughly picked up and thrown into the rushing waterfall. He felt dizzy, his whole body was like a light leaf in the water, completely uncontrollable

He knew neither how long it took nor how far he turned before he finally felt the solid contact between his body and the solid ground after a long absence.

MD, it can be regarded as arrived.

He felt that he had to give a suggestion to the ancient Egyptian designer who designed this whole set of memory sandbox the login experience of your game is too bad.

Now he felt like a rag that has been thrown into a washing machine and stirred for three days and three nights, almost forgetting who he was.

Fortunately, his stamina was high enough now, as well as his toughness. Otherwise, it might not be possible for an ordinary person to endure such a toss.

The bright golden sun made Yuei Vu blind for a short while. During the entire shuttle, his ears were filled with loud rumbling noises. It felt like a cement mixer was stuffed into the ears and rumbled endlessly. At this moment, he couldn't even hear the sound clearly.

He only vaguely felt that someone was exclaiming, and someone was pointing at him.

It took Yuei Vu a while to get his hearing and vision back online. When he looked up, he found himself surrounded.

Beside him was a group of men and women with dark skin and retro clothes, all of them were surrounding Yuei Vu at this time, pointing at him, while fear and panic were still on their faces.

The hearing has not fully recovered, and there were a large number of people and noisy voices, but Yuei Vu still barely distinguishes words such as heretical and monster from the messy voice.

Monster? Me?

Yuei Vu couldn't help but laugh.

However, he touched his face immediately, and after a second thought

It seems that it is not incomprehensible.

After all, ordinary humans may not be so handsome.

Speaking of which, according to the animation, Kisara, the wife of President Kaiba and the host of Blue-Eyes White Dragon in ancient Egypt, was also called a monster because she was too different from other people, and she was bullied and beaten severely since she was a child.

It's weird, to say the least. The girl is just a little whiter, her eyes are a little bluer, and her hair is silver, why is she regarded as heretics?

Look at your Pharaoh, he has had a colorful starfish head since he was a child, and no one has ever felt that there was something wrong

Chapter 518: Ultimate Dark R.P.G, Start!

The trip made Yuei Vu feel a little dizzy. The sense of balance has not been restored for the time being, he couldn't stand firmly, his brain was groggy, and there was also a slight sense of nausea, which was a bit like the reaction to seasickness.

He wouldn't be able to stand up for a while, but the passers-by next to him didn't intend to give him time to breathe.

Yuei Vu probably already guessed it. This bunch of ignorant people called a girl who looked a little paler as a heretic. There was no chance a guy who was dressed in a windbreaker and wore a strange machine in his hands would be recognized differently.

At first, a group of people were just pointing and talking, and then it seemed that he was so weak that he couldn't even stand upright, a dark and strong man boldly stepped forward, raised his fist cursing, and was about to attack Yuei Vu.

A group of people next to him were still boisterously booing, and it sounded like they were cheering up the person who was about to do it. Seeing someone taking the lead, some other guys who were only talking at first couldn't help but want to come forward and act as a demon-slaying hero.

These people were very realistic. After cursing for a long time, no one dared to step forward to fight. They had to be convinced that the other party seemed to be a weakling and had no ability to fight back before they came up to be a hero.

It's a pity that Yuei Vu was not a soft girl like Kisara who could only be beaten and never fight back.

A few sparks burst out in the air, and quickly spread into scorching flames. The scorching impact turned into ripples visible to the naked eye, and before the booing crowd could see clearly, the man let out a miserable howl like a roasting pig and flew backward, rolling on the ground several rounds, hit the corner of a house and lay on the ground like a dead pig, without any movement.

The booing and shouting stopped abruptly, and the other men who were getting more courageous and eager to give Yuei Vu two fists also froze immediately, and each of them stopped in embarrassment while keeping their steps.

The invisible flame burned the dust particles in the air, making a crackling sound, accompanied by a burnt smell of things being burned.

The flames licked the bright red armor, and the flickering firelight was reflected in the blue eyepiece of the helmet. The hero is wrapped in exoskeleton armor and a mask, with a red belt tied around his waist, and in the middle was a burning fire character.

Masked HERO Goka.

There was a moment of silence.

Monster, it's a monster!

It really is heresy! That is an evil monster!

Run! Someone has to go to the palace to inform the priest!!!

The onlookers, who were so arrogant one by one heretics just now, and who looked like they wanted to punish and eliminate evil, ran away at once, scattering like birds and beasts, fearing that they would become the rations of monsters if they were too slow for half a second.

Yuei Vu couldn't help being speechless.

So righteous fire hero, which one of your eyes can see that it is a monster?

This group of people was really interesting. The Pharaohs and priests in the palace also control the dueling monster spirits, and they were like gods in the eyes of the people.

However, if someone outside the palace could control the monster spirit, then they insisted that the other party was a heretic and must be eliminated immediately.

But this double standard was not unreasonable. Because in ancient Egypt, many spirits were conceived from the hearts of human beings, and even ordinary people may have spirits in their hearts.

Its just that without the secret method of priests, ordinary people couldnt control the spirits in their hearts. Only the priests and pharaohs in the royal palace had the ability to draw out the spirits in others, seal them in stone slabs, and call the spirits for their own use at any time.

There are also folks who can control the power of spirits. For example, the maiden with blue eyes Kisara could freely summon the spirit of Blue-Eyes White Dragon in the later stage of the story.

But there were only a few people like her who were kind-hearted and could freely control spirits. What was more common was that some peoples inner darkness ran amok, and evil spirits did harm to others. At this time, priests and pharaohs would arrive to suppress it.

It was precisely because the priests and pharaohs hold such unreasonable abilities that they are revered by the people as gods, and even the worldview in the hearts of the people was based on this belief.

Yuei Vu finally recovered from the state of dizzy time travel and stood up. He patted the ashes on his body and stood up, glanced at the guy next to him lying like a dead pig, and raised his eyebrows involuntarily.

This guy wouldnt be directly killed, right?

Masked HERO Goka communicated with him, and immediately understood what the master meant. His thought message came back quickly, which probably meant There was no need to worry, I acted accordingly, he just passed out.

Yuei Vu nodded.

Although it was really frustrating to be surrounded and scolded by a group of foolish people when you landed in a strange place, Yuei Vu didnt take it too seriously.

After all, this was just the memory world of the Pharaoh. These lifelike people actually died three thousand years ago. The space he was in now is a super-large virtual map built with the power of Shadow Game. This place was essentially just an RPG game, and the people around him are just NPCs that have been preset three thousand years ago.

He wasnt free enough to waste his precious time competing with a bunch of NPCs.

In his previous life, he only saw the process of other players exploring in the Pharaohs Memories arc on the forum, and he didnt get the opportunity to personally participate in this quest. So Yuei Vu first checked his own status.

Unlike Yami Yugi directly logged into the game in a mode similar to Isekais main characters and directly play the role of Pharaoh, Yuei Vu was an out-and-out outsider in this memory world, and there was no corresponding role three thousand years ago. So he directly retained the original image and came here.

The Duel Disk is still there, still seized from Uncle Paah no, it is a future duel disk gifted by Uncle Pa after he changed his mind.

Yuei Vu went on to check the deck and found that all the cards he had obtained and the system card library were also there.

Its just that the situation was similar to when he entered Noahs computer world mentally. The large group of spirits in his deck, such as Dark Magician Girl and Silent Magician, all didnt respond and seemed to be left behind in the real world.

Only the Masked HERO, who has a special relationship with him, followed in.

In addition, he could also vaguely feel that the three Egyptian God spirits that boarded the deck were still there, but the sense of presence was not strong.

Yuei Vu guessed that it might be because the memory world was originally the home field of the Yami Yugi and the three Egyptian Gods, and the spirits of the three Egyptian Gods were now following their true master.

It might not be impossible for Yuei Vu to summon God, but its not surprising that the three arrogant guys didnt respond.

If Yuei Vu and Yugi called for the Egyptian God in this memory world at the same time, the three of them would definitely give priority to helping the Pharaoh, rather than Yuei Vu, a third party of unknown origin who suddenly intervened.

After counting the equipment on his body, Yuei Vu stood up and looked around, only to find that the street in front of his eyes was empty. It seemed that all the residents got the news of the monster and were scared away by him

But what to do in this memory world, Yuei Vu had planned ahead of time before he came in.

Since it was an RPG game, the most urgent task was to explore the map, level up, and upgrade equipment.

After all, he was not the Pharaoh, who in this game could still inherit the account of his previous life, logged in as a max-level character, and got three Egyptian Gods and the throne of Pharaoh as soon as he went online

On the other hand, Bakuras side was miserable. When Yami Yugi logged in, he was a max-level character with divine weapons, while Bakura started as a thief who was so poor that he only has a pair of big pants left on his body. When he landed, he happened to be wearing shackles and was on the way to be escorted to the prison

Thanks to the predecessors who helped him find the way, now that Yuei Vu came in, his eyes would not be darkened.

First of all, he was going to find the ultra-rare equipment that could only be obtained in the memory world.

Of course, in terms of Yu-gi-oh, it referred to the legendary USR-level ultra-rare card.

Chapter 519: The Land of Trials

Do you want to go to help him?

Just a few minutes after Yami Yugi entered the stone slab and embarked on the journey of retrieving his own memory, a phantom appeared out of nowhere in the airtight hall.

Everyone turned around following the sound and found that a dark-skinned Egyptian suddenly appeared out of nowhere in the supposedly empty hall, wearing a white ring robe, with large golden earrings on his ears, and blue pupils suddenly appeared. It seemed very empty, but it made people feel unfathomable upon careful observation.

Jonouchi and Honda yelled Ghost, and the two brothers hugged each other like monkeys climbing a tree.

Shadi! Yugi Muto recognized the other partys identity at a glance.

Both Shadi and the Ishtar family were the tomb guards of the Pharaoh in modern times, but the difference was that he was already dead. Five years ago, the Millennium Ring was unsealed, and the great evil god Zorc killed him when his soul woke up.

Shadi, who appeared in front of everyone now, was actually a soul that reluctantly continued to cling to the land of living for his responsibility and mission to the Pharaoh.

The players who were watching the CG paddling immediately got excited.

Come, come, their chance to join the plot is finally coming!

Do you want to go to help him? Shadi asked this question again.

Yes! Yugi Muto nodded vigorously.

The only way to get to him is to find the pharaohs real soul room in the Millennium Puzzle.

Shadi spoke slowly, and took out a shining golden instrument from the wide robe that resembled the ankh in Monster Reborn.

The Millennium Key, one of seven Millennium Items, was an artifact that could connect to the inner world of others.

Using this Millennium Key, I can lead you into the Pharaohs Maze of Heart, but whether you can find the real room in the labyrinth depends on you.

But you need to be careful, once you stumble into that maze, you will probably fall into the abyss of eternal doom, and you will never come back. Even so, would you like to go?

There was hardly any hesitation in Yugis voice: I do!

Is it needless to say? We are partners, of course, we must go together! Jonouchi also responded.

The tool people who were only thinking about joining the plot quickly nodded like chickens pecking at rice: Yes, yes!

Good.

Shadi said lightly and raised the Millennium Key in his hand.

The golden ankh exuded dazzling brilliance. A gentle and invisible force seemed to have grabbed their souls and pulled them lightly out of their bodies. The Millennium Puzzle on Yugis chest also emitted light in response, as if opening the door for them.

The speed of time in the memory world was different from that of the outside world. You could spend many days in this virtual world, and the outside world may only pass one minute.

On the first day of coming here, Yuei Vu received a side quest of eradicating monsters in a small town, and received a lot of money from the local magistrate.

Although the NPCs here also resented Yuei Vu as a heretic, they were still more afraid of the dormant monsters in this area. It was said that many people have become the rations of that monster these days. Although people have been sent to the royal palace to ask for help, it would take some time for the journey and related procedures. During this period, people may die every day.

Yuei Vu accepted the commission without much thought, and went to challenge the monster described by the locals as vicious and terrifying near midnight, but found that

It turned out to be just an old tree that had grown into a spirit.

There was also such a card in the Yu-Gi-Oh card, called Ancient Tree of Enlightenment, a Normie with 600 ATK and 1500 DEF

So without any surprise, Masked HERO Goka smashed through it with a fist, and it was burnt to ashes from the trunk to the root.

This entrustment allowed Yuei Vu to earn a lot of money, at least he didnt have to worry about travel expenses for a short time. In addition, he specifically asked the officials for a map of the whole area, so that he could identify the direction and travel.

This made Yuei Vu feel like a demon hunter who ran around picking up garbage. You were usually not seen, and you were only remembered when people needed you to kill monsters.

He wandered around the map, picking up missions in a village from time to time to earn extra money. If he encountered any troubles, just light up the Duel Disk and ask

Would you like a tense and exciting game of cards?

It felt quite similar, even the model of you can solve all problems by playing cards is exactly the same. This once made Yuei Vu feel that he might not have logged into the card game version of the Witcher series of games.

After getting the map, the problem of having no sense of direction was solved first. Yuei Vu judged his location according to the label of the town where he was and found that his login location was probably at the boundary of the entire diorama, which seemed to be a little far from the palace where the Pharaoh was.

But for the time being, he was not in a hurry to go to the palace, but set foot in the exact opposite direction, continuing to march towards the border.

On the way, he was commissioned to fight monsters and occasionally picked up garbage. Yuei Vu even enjoyed this super-real card-playing RPG for a while.

He felt more and more that the priests of ancient Egypt were really awesome. They actually developed such an interesting immersive RPG game 3,000 years ago, and even far more realistic than the video game 3,000 years later

After two days, he finally arrived at the destination he was aiming at.

This was located at the map boundary of the entire memory sandbox, and there was no way to move on. After all, no matter how realistic it is, the game map had boundaries. This memory sandbox covered most of the area of Egypt three thousand years ago in the Pharaohs memory, but there was only a blank space in the farther place.

At this moment, the place Yuei Vu came to was not strictly speaking the area under the jurisdiction of the Pharaoh, but one of the hidden branch areas in the RPG game map.

Its called The Land of Trials.

It was said that three thousand years ago, Pharaoh himself passed the test of light and darkness here and was recognized, and obtained the high-level power called Chaos.

Of course, that was three thousand years ago.

However, this world was built based on the Pharaohs memory, even The Land of Trials in his memory has also reappeared on the map.

Young man, are you an outsider?

The person speaking was dressed as a mage, but his whole body was tightly wrapped and only a pair of eyes were exposed. The voice seemed to be that of an old man. There were five-pointed star magic circles drawn on the hood wrapped around his head and the clothes on his chest.

This was the Ancient Sorcerer. In the future duel monster game, it was also a monster card with an attack power of 1000.

He was the gatekeeper of The Land of Trials.

Yeah. Yuei Vu nodded and admitted.

Thats how it is. It is true that occasionally outsiders come to this trial site, wanting to get treasures from here. The ancient magister nodded clearly, and said, The trial site allows any warrior with strength to enter and challenge. But the weak are not welcome.

If you want to pass from here, you must first prove your own strength.

Yuei Vu nodded: How to prove it?

The Ancient Sorcerer was serious, showing off the golden armband he wore on his forearm, a few grids popped out under the armband, it looked like like a rich gold version of the Duel Disk.

Pass through the sacred battle ceremony! The Ancient Sorcerer said loudly, If you can beat me in the ceremony, you will have the qualification to enter!

Yuei Vu:

So still playing cards?

Chapter 520: My Turn, Draw A Slab!

The animation of Yu-Gi-Oh DM has many changes and differences from the original manga, and although the game World Link Online was closer to the animation, there were actually quite a few differences.

For example, in the original work, the fighting method of ancient Egypt 3,000 years ago was simply that everyone summoned monster spirits for Pokemon battles, but in this version of Link World, you still had to play cards.

And even though there may be differences in the details of the dueling rules, they are basically the same as the modern rules.

In fact, to say that big companies like Industrial Illusions and Kaiba Corp invented the rules of the duel monster game, its better to say that the rules of the game were part of the laws of the world that existed in themselves, simply were re-discovered in modern times.

From the card-playing method in which no sacrifices were required in the Duelist Kingdom at the beginning, and everyone could shoot monsters at will, to the system of Tribute Summoning later, and then the Spell Speed, effect processing and settlement became more and more standardized. Version updates were modern duelists further exploration of existing rules.

Otherwise, this would not explain why all the gods who destroyed the world, the masters who created the world, and even the bosses in parallel time and space who could rewrite reality and reverse time and space, all followed the same rules to duel with the protagonists.

In the past life, a player who entered this memory world found this trial site. But he did not disclose the specific process of the trial, so Yuei Vu had no way of knowing.

Its just that although that player gained a lot, he didnt pass the final trial.

But at least that player could pass the gatekeepers test at the beginning, thus Yuei Vu was confident that he has no problem.

At this moment, the duel between the two sides-called a sacred ceremony by the other party-has officially begun.

Yuei Vu, LP 4000

Ancient Sorcerer, LP 4000

It was worth mentioning that the 4000 LP value of both sides could only be seen by Yuei Vu, who follows the modern duel rules.

Although the ancient duelists couldnt see their LP, they could feel some kind of power called Ba in their bodies. When they were injured in the ceremony, the Ba in their bodies would also decrease accordingly. When all the Ba was exhausted and they were unable to fight anymore, it was equivalent to the defeat of this side.

In terms of modern rules, that was, the LP value became zero.

According to the rules of the challenge, the ceremony can start with me first. Watch me, the traveler from a foreign land.

It looked like the Ancient Sorcerer got the first turn. A golden light flashed on the ancient golden duel plate on his arm, and a beam of golden light flew into the air, and flew straight into the sky, and then and then five huge slabs of stone fell from the sky!

With the heavy roar of the earth-shaking, the five stone slabs landed firmly in front of the Ancient Sorcerer, kicking up a cloud of yellow dust.

Yuei Vu:

Although I have been mentally prepared, do you really want to play cards with me with such a bunch of cumbersome big guys?

The Ancient Sorcerer raised his hand again, another stone slab appeared in the sky, and with a loud bang, it fell from the sky and hit him in front of him.

my turn, draw a slab?

The magician glanced at his handah no, it should be said to be a hand, and then a smile appeared in his eyes under the hood.

It seems that your luck is not very good, the outsider. He said lightly, This guy seems to want to fight you too. Then let me show you, the strongest warrior guarding this place!

He stretched out his palm, and a huge stone slab flipped in front of him. The abstract lines engraved on the stone slab glowed with gold, outlining some kind of huge outline. At the same time, one of the five monster areas on the duel plate on the magicians arm was also lit up, with the lines of some kind of monster faintly branded on it.

Calling your name, descend here

Beast King Barbaros!

The burly beast warrior got out of the stone slab! He has blond hair like a lion, with a flamboyant shape, holding a blue shield and a red gun, and has a half-human, half-animal shape.

Yuei Vu once saw it in the duel with Tenma Yako. This monster was based on the eighth-ranked demon god among the seventy-two pillar demon gods of King Solomon, whose original name was Barbatos.

But obviously, the Yu-Gi-Oh worldview was a magical revision, and the name was also slightly different.

Moreover, the beast king that appeared in this world is much more majestic than the three-dimensional image summoned by Tenma Yako back then. The king was surrounded by lightning, his eyes were blood red, and he screamed at Yuei Vu like a demonstrator, as if he couldnt hold back and wanted to swallow him as a ration.

High-level monsters originally needed low-level souls as offerings to come, but Barbatos can come without offering sacrifices. The Ancient Sorcerer explained, But as a price, part of his power will be sealed.

[Beast King Barbaros, ATK 3000 ATK 1900]

Yuei Vu knew this effect. Although the Beastmaster Barbatos was a level 8 monster, it could be Normal Summoned without Tributing, but its original ATK would become 1900.

The Ancient Sorcerer then chuckled.

However, I have mastered the spell to lift this seal.

After speaking, he closed his eyes, made a strange gesture, and chanted a series of spells in a low voice but very fast.

Then he pointed five fingers together: I use the secret spell to summon this weaponAxe of Fools!
Use the power of this battle ax to unravel the shackles of the beast kings power!

Axe of Fools (Equip Spell): The equipped monster gains 1000 ATK, but its effects are negated.

If Barbatos monster effect was negated, his ATK would return to its original 3000. Coupled with the increase of the Axe of Fools, it could soar to 4000 points in one breath!

The beast king put the shield behind his back, reached out, and pulled out the battle ax that was inserted into the ground. He raised the ax high, raised his head, and roared at the top of his voice, the sound wave was like a strong wind, forming an overwhelming suppression!

[Beast King Barbaros, ATK 3000 ATK 4000]

Although he couldnt see the monsters attack power value intuitively as Yuei Vu, the Ancient Sorcerer could also judge based on his experience as an old duelist, the battle power of the beast king was now close to that of the legendary God of Destruction!

Yuei Vu looked up at Barbaros who was running like a berserker, his bangs were raised, and his clothes fluttered violently, without any expression on his face.

He was thinking that every time the ancients used magic traps, they had to make gestures and recite a series of spells. It felt too troublesome, like performing ninjutsu with hand seals

His reaction seemed to be judged by the other party as being frightened. The Ancient Sorcerer was still a little complacent. He waved his hand, and the two stone slabs fell down with a bangit seemed that he had blocked two cards in the back row.

How is it, is it different from what you thought? The Ancient Sorcerer said, The Land of Trials is not a childs play, only the best fighters can be qualified to enter.

Its still too late to go back now, if you continue, I cant guarantee that you wont get hurt.

Yuei Vu didnt take it seriously, and raised the Duel Disk: Its my turn, draw a card.

Ancient Sorcerer: ?

He was stunned for a while, and then asked in confusion, where is your slab?

Yuei Vu:
