

I Play Yu-Gi 521

Chapter 521: A Hermit Guru

The gatekeeper of the Land of Trials was a little confused at this time.

He had already noticed that Yuei Vu was wearing a strange-shaped armband (that was the Duel Disk), and he tentatively interpreted it as a ritual prop developed in other places.

Duel monsters were not invented in ancient Egypt. Dartz's father had opened the door to the world of dueling monsters 10,000 years ago, and the era of Yami Yugi was only 3,000 years ago. There was a full 7,000 years gap.

It's just that the control of monster spirits in other places was not as good as that of the royal family in ancient Egypt. But it is not surprising that some talented fighters who could control spirits were born in other regions.

In the eyes of this gatekeeper, Yuei Vu was exactly such a person.

It's just that this warrior doesn't even use a slab?

So what is he going to fight with?

Yuei Vu ignored his question: Spell Card Graceful Charity: Draw 3 cards, then discard 2 cards.

Watching the other party stuff the little paper into the props in his hand, then three holy angels with a halo above their heads descended from the sky, and at the same time brought the permission to draw cards.

The Ancient Sorcerer couldn't help being even more surprised.

Nani!? Does he cast spells without hand seals or chanting? And it immediately takes effect too?

The shock in his heart at this time was just like like Kisame, the only honest person in the studio next door who performed hand seal, seeing someone release ninjutsu and clap his hands to get whatever they wanted. It's a collapse of the worldview.

Yuei Vu's image was instantly elevated in the eyes of the magician.

You know, Duel in this era was not just a game like it would be in the future. Becoming a duelist required paying a huge cost and price.

Not only did you need to cultivate your own Ba so that you could withstand the summons of powerful monsters in the ceremony, but you also needed to accumulate a lot of reading and study all kinds of spell knowledge assiduously.

Because in order to cast a certain spell, you not only needed the stone slab with the spell engraved on it, you also needed to be proficient in the seal, you need to memorize the spell fluently, and you needed persistent practice to learn to release the spell sealed in the slab.

The more powerful spells and traps were, the harder to master. This was why Anubis couldn't help exclaiming that Yuei Vu could control such a powerful trap when he saw that Yuei Vu used Mirror Force with only a wave of his hand.

Summon Elemental HERO Solid Soldier.

The ground broke open, and a hero in steel armor from the distant future descended on this ancient ritual site.

[Elemental HERO Solid Soldier, ATK 1300]

The effect of Solid Soldier. Yuei Vu said, When this card is Normal Summoned: I can Special Summon 1 Level 4 or lower HERO monster from my hand. Come on, Stratos!

The whirlwind rolled up the yellow sand, and a hero with a sense of technology and wearing a floating turbine descended from the sky and landed on the field with arms folded.

[Elemental HERO Stratos, ATK 1800]

The effect of Stratos. Yuei Vu said, When this card is Normal or Special Summoned, destroy Spells/Traps on the field, up to the number of HERO monsters I control, except this card.

But at this moment, I want to activate the Quick-Play Spell Mask Change! Send 1 HERO monster I control to the Graveyard, then Special Summon 1 Masked HERO monster from my Extra Deck with the same Attribute.

I sent the WIND-attribute Stratos to the GY, transform!

The lone hero puts on the mask of vengeance and tears the evil with the cutting wind!

Masked HERO Blast!

After a series of operations, the two heroes quickly appeared on the stage. Before Stratos could stand still, he was surrounded by brand-new armor under the special effects of magic and transformed into a Masked HERO with green armor and a red scarf.

[Masked HERO Blast, ATK 2200]

Stratos's effect resolved! At this moment I have two HERO monsters, Masked HERO Blast and Elemental HERO Solid Soldier on the field, so I choose two Spells/Trap cards to destroy!

At this time, the Ancient Sorcerer was dazzled and dizzy.

Wait, what servant are you calling?

Wait, where did that servant of yours go?

What did you say you were going to launch? No, where did this green warrior come from before?

He was now like a card player who had been out-meta for several seasons, and was in a daze when he saw the opponent swarm the field for three minutes in a round.

Nani? Can you still play cards like this?

When he came back to his senses, the two covered slabs in his backcourt had been blown into the air by the storm rolled up by Stratos, and smashed heavily on the ground into powder.

The effect of Blast. Yuei Vu continued, If this card is Special Summoned: I can target 1 face-up monster the opponent controls; its ATK becomes half its current ATK!

[Beast King Barbaros, ATK 4000 ATK 2000]

The beast king roared unwillingly, but after a burst of impotent rage, his power was still suppressed by the power of the future hero. Although the data could not be seen, the Ancient Sorcerers could also perceive that the current beast king was no longer the opponent of the opponents green warrior!

However, Yuei Vus operation was not over yet: Activate Spell Card Polymerization. I fuse the Elemental HERO Solid Soldier on the field and Elemental HERO Liquid Soldier in the hand!

Born from the extremely cold abyss, dominate everything with the absolute power of ice and snow!

Freeze it! Elemental HERO Absolute Zero!

The two beams of light merged into the fusion vortex, and what erupted from it was a world of ice and snow! The severe cold froze the ground, and the slender hero in a snow-white uniform slowly fell down, with his arms folded and his white cloak fluttering gently.

[Elemental HERO Absolute Zero, ATK 2500]

The strong pressure brought by the low temperature made the gatekeeper feel as if he could not breathe for a while, and even every breath he exhaled from his mouth and nose seemed to be frozen instantly, which made him feel a little afraid to look directly at this ice hero.

The effect of Liquid Soldier If this card is used as Fusion Material for a HERO monster, and sent to the GY or banished: I can draw 2 cards, then discard 1 card.

Then there is the effect of Solid Soldier If this card is sent from the Monster Zone to the GY by a Spell effect: I can target 1 HERO monster in my GY, except Elemental HERO Solid Soldier; Special Summon it in Defense Position.

A card popped up from the tomb area of Yuei Vus Duel Disk.

The one I want to resurrect is the Elemental HERO Blazeman who was just discarded!

A little spark burst out in the extremely cold world, and the flame hero in tights leaped out.

[Elemental HERO Blazeman, DEF 1800]

The effect of Blazeman If this card is Normal or Special Summoned: I can add 1 Polymerization from my Deck to my hand.

The card in Yuei Vus deck popped up, he pulled out that card and showed it.

I added the second Polymerization card to my hand, and then activated it again! Yuei Vu waved his hand, I fuse Elemental HERO Blazeman on the field, plus Elemental HERO Absolute Zero!

Reincarnate from the cold abyss and come again!

Elemental HERO Absolute Zero, the second one!

The power of ice and fire crisscrossed in the air, turning into a frozen waterfall and crashing down to the ground. The Ice Hero descended with arms folded, water splashing around him, but every drop was frozen into ice crystals in mid-air.

[Elemental HERO Absolute Zero, ATK 2500]

The effect of Absolute Zero! Yuei Vu said, When he leaves the field, all monsters on the opponents field will be destroyed!

The white hero spread his arms, releasing boundless cold air! His cloak fluctuated like a wave, and the frozen domain under his feet was spreading rapidly. It was an absolutely still space that seems to freeze even the movement of molecules!

Even the mighty beast king could not resist the law of low temperature. He roared unwillingly, but his body still climbed up the thick ice layer inch by inch. The huge ax that he raised above his head was cracked by the cold, and fell on himself, blasting his true self into pieces, turning into ice slag all over the place.

The Ancient Sorcerer said mechanically: The king of beasts, Barbaros, was suddenly

With so many operations in one round, so many monsters were summoned, and the spells in the back row, and the god-level beast kings in the front row were all cleaned up

Dont say Ive seen this kind of thing, its unheard of!

At this time, Yuei Vu, in front of him, was simply the kind of hermit guru master who was beyond the comprehension of mortals and has stepped into the realm of gods!

Yes, it must be so!

Why can he call minions without a slab? Why is he free to cast any spell without hand seals and chanting? Why does his battle seem to surpass all the shackles of common sense?

This is simply not something that ordinary people can do, right?

Battle! Yuei Vu said calmly, Elemental HERO Absolute Zero, attack directly.

The Ancient Sorcerer came back to his senses, and his eyes regained their brilliance.

Its not over yet.

Although the front row and the back row were all wiped out, he still had a way!

A black vortex opened up on the ground in front of him, and a trap with special power recorded was launched directly from the cemetery.

Trap Card Cross Counter Trap! (animation card)

The turn this card was sent to the Graveyard, the player could activate a Trap Card from their hand once.

In the hand of the Ancient Sorcerer, a stone slab with trap spells was flipped rapidly with his high-speed chanting.

Activate Dimensional Wall! said the Ancient Sorcerer, The damage caused by a battle will be borne by the opponent!

In this way, not only could he survive this round, but he could also deal Yuei Vu 2500 points of high damage!

As long as I can hold on to the next round

But Yuei Vu smiled slightly.

I pay half of the life value as the price.

Yuei Vu, LP 4000 LP 2000

Activate a from the hand Red Reboot! A bright red trap card appeared in front of Yuei Vu, When the opponent activates a Trap Card: Negate the activation, and Set that card face-down again, then the opponent can Set 1 other Trap directly from their Deck.

But after this card is activated, until the end of the turn, the opponent cannot activate traps in any form!

Ancient Sorcerer: !?

seamlessly.

All moves were blocked, and he couldnt even find the slightest possibility to counterattack. He lost completely.

The double impact of Absolute Zero and Blastt, the gorgeous light effect overwhelmed him, and at the same time directly emptied his Ba.

[Ancient Sorcerer, LP 4000 LP 0]

Chapter 522: The First Trial

The Ancient Sorcerer was in a daze and didnt recover for a while.

Red Reboot, known as pull the level, was a divine weapon for OTK. However, this kind of card, which was full of future technology at first sight, was definitely impossible for ancient people to see.

No, the bunch of fancy superheroes that Yuei Vu played before were also products with future characteristics.

Although the duels in ancient times were not like the three-dimensional images played in modern times, and substantial damage would be caused during the duel, it didnt have to be fatal.

Just as everyone could have a friendly match instead of a death match, so could a duel. As long as you didnt deliberately start a Shadow Game at the deadly level, the defeated party would feel depleted of energy and feel that the body has been hollowed out, but thats all.

The gatekeeper was stunned for a while, and finally came back to his senses, and looked at Yuei Vu with admiration.

He has already realized that this was a real strong man!

Yuei Vu stepped forward: No problem?

No problem, of course, no problem. The Ancient Sorcerer smiled and stepped aside, revealing the door behind him.

With a low roar, the two huge door panels opened slowly in front of Yuei Vu, giving way to an open and spacious avenue.

follow me.

He led the way, and Yuei Vu followed him. The two heavy doors closed slowly behind them.

You are truly strong, so you are naturally qualified to enter. He said, With your strength, it may not be a problem to pass the first level no, even the second level of trials.

I bet you will reach a new height that was never seen before.

While speaking, they had already arrived at the interior of the trial ground.

This place was actually a rather empty space, with only one extremely simple and rudimentary small house. The circular open-air field was empty, with a few clouds drifting leisurely in the blue sky, and there was a black hole-like vortex in the empty field, in which light and dark intertwined, and from time to time there were electric snakes churning, like a deep sea. Unfathomable chaos.

There were also some other people around. Some of them looked like the gatekeepers companions, who were also guarding the Land of Trials.

They still looked like normal humans but that might be just for now.

At least, Yuei Vu discovered that the gatekeepers image corresponded to the dueling monster spirit Ancient Sorcerer. It may be that he was reincarnated as a spirit in his next life, or maybe something happened in the future that made him directly change from a human to a spirit.

Besides that, there were also some other people who came to the place of trial to challenge. There were people from the palace, and occasionally commoners.

Although it was much more difficult for commoners to practice spells and learn to summon monster spirits than royal families, it was not completely hopeless. Like Seto among the current Seven Prieststhat was, the previous life of President Kaiba- he was the representative of the commoner-born priests.

It was said that he was born in poverty back then, and he developed his skills through hard self-study. After passing the examinations, he was recognized by the Millennium Rod and became one of the seven supreme priests in this country today.

That's the entrance to the trial. The Ancient Sorcerer said, Do you need to prepare first, or now you have to line up.

It was a young man who spoke. It was not difficult to see from his luxurious decoration style which was quite different from that of ordinary people, this should be someone from the royal palace.

Priest Nadin. The Ancient Sorcerer nodded slightly, but he was polite, Do you want to challenge again today?

That's natural. The young man still seemed a little arrogant, I'm only a little away from success. I will definitely breakthrough before the return journey.

Good luck to you then.

This young man was a trainee priest in the palace, the kind who has not yet become a full-time priest. But even so, his status in this country was already quite high, and he was a high-level person who would be respected by thousands of people when he walked on the streets.

Before entering, the young man called Nadin took another look at Yuei Vu. He didn't know whether he was surprised by his handsomeness or because he was dressed in a different style from others.

But he still didn't say much, just walked towards the vortex, and at the same time clenched his fists and made up his mind.

As long as I can succeed this time, I will confess my love to that trainee priestess named Mana when I return to the palace!

although she may not even remember who he was.

He stepped into the portal without looking back.

Yuei Vu caught a glimpse of a large stone slab standing next to it in the open space and walked up to it curiously, and found that it was densely engraved with words.

Its a pity he couldnt read these ancient hieroglyphs. As shown in the animation, the NPCs in the memory world seemed to have their own translators when they spoke, and Yugis friends could communicate with them without barriers, but the written records are all pictographs.

But looking at the pattern in this record, he probably guessed it.

This was the record of the speed of the dungeons clearing

The trainee priest Nadin is also a more talented fighter among the modern younger generation. In time, he might be able to surpass me. The gatekeeper introduced beside Yuei Vu.

Yuei Vu was taken aback: Is he not as strong as you?

Isnt it necessary to defeat the gatekeeper to enter the trial ground?

The Ancient Sorcerer showed a wry smile: No, all warriors who need to prove their strength to me in the holy battle ceremony can enter.

But its rare for someone like you to beat me in the ceremony and its only within two rounds.

Yuei Vu:

The gatekeeper coughed to ease the embarrassment: However, he is the most talented person who has come to challenge in recent years. With his ability, the first level should be able to oh, the results are in.

A line of small, slender characters appeared on the slate again.

Yuei Vu couldnt understand, but the gatekeeper nodded slightly after seeing it: Its really good. He passed the first trial within seven rounds, breaking through the best results in history!

Within seven rounds should it mean seven turns?

Yuei Vu couldnt help but wonder what kind of trial it was.

Yuei Vu asked: Didnt the Pharaoh and the priests come here to challenge?

The power of duelists in this era was limited by many factors. The average level of strength may be even lower than that of the DM period three thousand years later, but the pharaohs and priests should still be relatively strong, right?

Yes, but their results of clearing the first trial will not be recorded on the slate. The gatekeeper said, Priest Seto came here once before becoming an official priest, but he never passed the first trial within seven rounds.

For the status of official priest and above, only by passing every level of the trial can a record be left.

Yuei Vu roughly understood.

Just like the sect trials in novels, it always had restrictions for participants, such as the age lower than a certain number or the realm below a certain level.

Has anyone passed all the levels?

The whole trial? No. The Ancient Sorcerer shook his head.

No one? Not even Pharaoh?

This generation of Pharaohs just ascended the throne a few days ago, so he hasn't tried it yet. But so far, no one has completed the entire trial.

Currently, the best performer in the entire trial was Priest Seto. He has been here before becoming an official priest, and he is still the holder of the best result.

The gatekeeper paused and smiled: Don't underestimate the trial. Although I really admire your strength, it is not so easy to complete the entire trial.

Yuei Vu nodded, expressing his understanding.

That is to say, Yami Yugi has not been here yet, is President Kaiba the best record holder?

As expected.

Among the duel monster cards in the future world, Yugi held the world-famous Black Luster Soldier Envoy of the Beginning, which was called the strongest warrior in the world of duel monsters in GX, while Kaiba held the even more domineering Chaos Emperor Dragon Envoy of the End.

These two cards were collectively called Chaos Duo. In the DM period, they belonged to super killers with a completely different style from other monsters. For many years, they ruled the real card environment, making the Chaos deck dominant.

If as expected, Yugi and Kaiba's previous life may have obtained them through this Land of Trials.

He remembered that in his previous life, he saw a popular post posted on the forum. In the background setting of the World Link Online game version, it was the young pharaoh who had just ascended the throne and was the first to pass the trial three thousand years ago and get the final reward.

While speaking, the young trainee priest had already come out of the portal. It was different from when he went in. Now he was full of excitement as if he was standing still.

I did it! he exclaimed excitedly.

Passing the trial within seven rounds, this is a result that is only lower than President Kaiba in the slate records!

He came out with a sword with a golden hilt in his hand, which he had not had when he went in.

When you pass the trial, there is a certain chance to get a reward. Maybe it's a weapon, maybe it's a spell book, or maybe it's a spiritual weapon. The Ancient Sorcerer explained to Yuei Vu.

It was only after he said this that Yuei Vu recognized.

This sword isn't it the Equip Spell Legendary Sword in his initial deck?

Legendary Sword: Equip only to a Warrior monster. It gains 300 ATK/DEF..

In the beginning, he used this sword to enhance Sparkman, completed the beheading of the magician Pandora, and won the novice gift package.

Could this be the origin of this Equip Spell?

Apprentice priest Nadin now felt unprecedentedly prideful, and he seemed to be floating when he walked. Now he finally felt that he could muster up the courage to confess his love to the priestess he liked when he went back!

Congratulations. The Ancient Sorcerer smiled, and then looked at Yuei Vu, How about it, do you want to try it?

Well, let's try it.

Not to mention anything else, he still had some interest in breaking the highest record of President Kaiba even though this president may not be the one he recognized.

Yuei Vu nodded and stepped into the portal.

He was also really curious about what kind of test this trial was.

There was a not-so-severe weightlessness, and he felt as if his body was floating in mid-air for a while, and then his feet soon fell back to the ground.

Yuei Vu came back to his senses, looked around, and found himself on an empty platform. There was a gauze-like black mist all around, and there was nothing in the boundless darkness.

Immediately, an illusory figure appeared in front of him. Its appearance was very abstract, and it was so dark that the posture could not be seen clearly, only the part of the man's arm that seemed to be wearing a prop in the shape of a Duel Disk could be vaguely seen.

Are we still going to fight?

Then it may be just like Yuei Vu's previous guess, the so-called resolve the battle within seven rounds means winning within seven turns.

However, according to the perception of this game by real card players, if you wanted to pursue a quick battle, let alone seven turns, the game may be over within two turns.

Then maybe there was something special about the opponent in this trial?

While thinking about it, Yuei Vu opened the Duel Disk.

duel!

Yuei Vu, LP 4000

[Trial Opponent, LP 16000]

Yuei Vu:

Well, he figured it out.

As expected of a dungeon boss of an RPG game, the main feature was a long HP bar

Chapter 523: PVE

Within seven rounds!

Apprentice priest Nadin admired his own name that had just emerged on the slate, and his name was automatically engraved on the top of all the names who cleared the first trial, and he couldn't help but fall into narcissism.

This was not the first time he had emphasized it as if he was afraid that others would forget.

It's truly a one-of-a-kind achievement.

The gatekeeper nodded approvingly.

It was indeed worth bragging about. Except for the priest Seto, who was now one of the seven great priests, no one has passed the first floor at such a fast speed.

But it may be only temporary. The Ancient Sorcerer said mysteriously.

The trainee priest was taken aback for a moment, and then realized: Do you mean the outsider who just entered?

The gatekeeper nodded: He is one of the strongest fighters I have ever seen.

Nadin was taken aback: Better than a priest?

Perhaps.

Nadin frowned, feeling a little displeased.

Although there were also outsiders who can control the power of spirits, and sometimes there are strong people who travel to visit their country, so far, they have never seen a strong person whose strength surpasses their Egyptian priests.

In fact, the current ancient Egypt has basically represented the peak of duelists. In this era, the world may indeed not find many duelists stronger than their priests and pharaohs.

Nadin just wanted to open his mouth to refute, but the words suddenly swallowed back in his stomach.

Because out of the corner of his eye, he saw that on the stone slab recorded the names who cleared the first trial, his high-ranking name had already been trampled down at this moment!

He has just been on the top of the list, and his ass hasn't warmed the seat yet!

Nadin held his breath and glanced at the new name on the list.

Yuei Vu?

What a weird name.

Then he followed the name and looked back, wanting to see the opponent's clearance time, he couldn't help holding his breath for a moment.

He clearly saw that it was clearly written on the back that the opponent only needed two rounds to clear the first trial! ?

That's right, two rounds.

The opponent made the first move, and Yuei Vu was the second. In one turn, he made an output of more than 16,000 to complete the OTK, so it was two rounds.

In Yuei Vu's opinion, cleaning 16,000 LP in one turn was not something to brag about, but for ancient duelists whose summonable monsters were limited in power, and even the use of spells and traps was limited by their own level of attainment, this was simply a fantasy.

Just like now, this trainee priest was dumbfounded.

What is the origin of this outsider?

No, was he really human?

Although the Ancient Sorcerer had expected that Yuei Vu might break the record, he was still a little surprised when he saw the result of two rounds.

Perhaps in their conception, that trial opponent with 16,000 LP was already too thick, and they didn't even dare to think about killing it in one round.

But in fact, Yuei Vu thinks it's okay. After all, the opponent had nothing to offer except a little thicker HP. Their deck contained only Normies with low attack power, which was actually about the same level as the passerby duelists in the DM era.

It's just that if the HP was thicker, it's not too difficult to kill.

This warrior is really extraordinary. The Ancient Sorcerer also secretly said in his heart, It is easy to pass the first trial with a result that no one has ever done before or maybe no one will come after.

Even Priest Seto has not achieved such a result!

But it won't be so easy later on.

That being said, in fact, Yuei Vu quickly discovered that the trial opponents in the next few trials actually feel like AI Bot, the main difference was that they were rougher and harder to beat.

For example, the opponent in the second trial, the HP volume directly soared to 100,000

And the opponents on the second trial have begun to use some spell and trap cards, such as Hinotama which could directly damage the LP, or Michizure which could directly destroy the opponent's monster.

Because there was a full 100,000 LP, many challengers may not even have time to wipe off the opponent's LP before their own 4,000 LP which seemed to be called Ba in this world were completely consumed.

However

In just a short while, another line of small characters appeared on the stone slab.

That was Yuei Vu's name, and it was on the clearance list for the second trial.

The trainee priest Nadin began to doubt life and the world. Even the gatekeeper was a little dumbfounded at this moment, and couldn't help rubbing his eyes to make sure there was something wrong with the sacred stone slab.

Pass the second trial on the first try!?

Is this really possible?

This outsider wont go all the way to the end, right?

Fortunately, not long after the second level was cleared, Yuei Vu figure came out of the portal.

The Ancient Sorcerer let out a long sigh of relief.

This should be the failure of the challenge on the third trial, right?

It made him feel a little more real. Thats right, if Yuei Vu could go all the way to the end like a childs play, then his worldview may also collapse

The trainee priest still kept his mouth open, and stayed in place like a fool, without moving for a long time. The Ancient Sorcerer walked up to Yuei Vu and said with a smile: Its amazing, you can get through the first two trials in one go. But you may have also discovered that the next trial will only become more and more difficult.

But Yuei Vu didnt seem to hear.

He was concentrating on adjusting the deck.

The opponent on the third trial had an HP volume of 500,000. Although the explosive ability of his HERO deck was usually strong enough, it was almost equivalent to scraping in front of a full 500,000 LP. Even if the opponent stood still, he may have to fight for a year.

There was one rule for all RPG online games: to clear a dungeon, you must not use PVP equipment but should switch to PVE equipment.

To deal with this kind of boss with rough skin and thick flesh, but the strength of the deck was only average, it was natural to replace it with a more suitable deck.

After the adjustment, Yuei Vu didnt say a word, the new deck was inserted into the Duel Disk with a click, then he turned around and directly entered the trial ground again.

Each time you entered, you had to start from the first level. But luckily, this time he got the first turn.

Yuei Vu didnt waste any time, and came up directly with the Field Spell Temple of the Kings. As we all know, most of the cards related to the Egyptian royal family were nether cards, and this temple was nether among nethers.

As long as this Temple of the Kings was on the field, Yuei Vus trap card could be activated in the turn it was set, which was very wretched.

Next, he set four cards in one go, and then filled up six cards in his hand with a Card of Sanctity. Then he opened the set card Jar of Greed to draw a card, activated Pot of Greed to draw two cards, activated Card Destruction to replace all the cards in the hand

With a series of dazzling operations, the thickness of the deck decreased at a speed visible to the naked eye. After a while, half of Yuei Vus deck was thrown to the cemetery, and there was still a lot in his hand.

At last, he waved his hand

I activate Exchange of the Spirit!

Directly swap the deck and the graveyard of both sides!

So in this way, all the cards in the opponents deck Oh no, It should be said that all the slates were discarded and sent to the cemetery. The entire deck was empty in an instant, not a single slate was left.

Here, as long as Yuei Vu announces the end of the round, if there is no card to draw in the opponents round, he will naturally lose. But Yuei Vu said that he didnt want to wait, and directly launched the Quick-Play Spell Hand Destruction. Both players discarded two cards and then drew two more cards.

But at this moment, because the opponent had no more cards to draw, they lost due to deck out!

FTK!

At the same moment, the line behind Yuei Vus name on the slate outside changed again.

Record: one round!

Apprentice priest Nadin seemed to hear the sound of his jaw falling to the floor at this moment.

Chapter 524: Breakthrough The Trials Like Eating And Drinking Water!?

How can he pass the first level of trials within one round?

The Ancient Sorcerer who guarded the gate was also a little dumbfounded.

According to the rules of the ceremony, in the first round isnt it impossible for the two sides to fight? How?

Because they couldnt see Yuei Vus clearance process, they never dreamed of what they would have to do to kill such a thick-skinned opponent in the first round.

Although Yuei Vu has always had a Sudden Death deck, it has never been used as the main deck.

First of all, as the key card of the entire deck, he only had one copy of Exchange of the Spirit, one copy of Temple of the Kings and one copy of Makyura the Destructor.

Second, if he failed to grab the first turn, the OTK ability of this deck would be greatly affected. In case a key card like Exchange of the Spirit was negated by the opponent, his entire deck basically lost its combat power and he could surrender directly.

In the real card environment, even in its heyday, the Sudden Death deck did not actually reach a 100% success rate, not to mention the key components were so much missing. If Yuei Vu hadnt relied on his current Duelist Rank, this incomplete deck would not be playable at all.

Therefore, under the background of losing a Shadow Game meant losing life or freedom, Yuei Vu never thought about using it as the main deck.

But using it to duel with AI Bot was still no problem.

Anyway, the trial was not a Shadow Game of gambling life, so if you failed once, its not a big deal. You just needed to come back next time.

It didnt matter how much HP the opponent had, if they were unable to draw, you won.

So the people guarding outside saw such a strange scene.

Yuei Vu cleared the first trial in one round.

Yuei Vu cleared the second trial in two rounds.

Yuei Vu cleared the third trial, and it only took one round too.

All the NPCs in the entire trial area were attracted. Everyone opened their mouths like emojis when they saw the name of Yuei Vu on the slate being refreshed repeatedly, and their brains shut down in fright.

They couldn't see the process of Yuei Vu breaking through the level, and they couldn't imagine how it was possible to pass the third trial in one round, which seemed to them to be hell-difficult dungeons.

Indeed, if you really played honestly, it would be almost impossible to deplete 500,000 LP in one round, except by relying on an infinite loop.

Fortunately, Yuei Vu came out again after the fourth trial. Instead of looking excited about breaking through the four levels in one go, he seemed a little unhappy.

The opponent of the fourth trial had 1,000,000 LP but that's not the point.

The point was that Yuei Vu was randomly chosen as the second player this time. Then the Exchange of the Spirit launched by him was negated by a Trap Jammer of this boss

Died while standing. JPG

But it doesn't matter, such an accident was predictable. If it didn't work on the first try, it's fine to do it again.

So Yuei Vu paused for a while, turned his head, and plunged in again.

After exploring, he found that the so-called trial only had five levels in total. Not only the LP was increased, but also the strength of the opponents' deck construction and summoned monsters.

Probably from the level of passers-by on the street in DM, to the level of passers-by participating in the town competition.

In fact, apart from Sudden Death, Yuei Vu also had other gimmick decks that could do FTK. For example, the Electrum OTK he used once in the duel with Kaiba.

But the problem was that Electrum OTK could only deal 400 damage at a time, thus he had to repeat the process 5,000 times to deplete 2,000,000 LP. Even with his current Stamina, he worried about dying in the long process*

After repeated several times, with the golden light rising on the slate outside, the clearance record of the fifth trial appeared out of thin air in the originally empty place, and the lonely name in the line clearly appeared in the golden engraving: Yuei Vu.

Even the priest Seto, who has always maintained the throne, was trampled under him.

NND, it's finally over. This was Yuei Vu's heartfelt voice.

In his view, this was nothing more than a matter of time. The main reason it took so long may be because of his luck

He even felt like he wasted some unnecessary time.

But at the same time, he was also a little curious: How did Yugi and Kaiba pass through such a BOSS three thousand years ago?

Its impossible to be really patient and chop down the LP slowly with one knife at a time, right?

Then he suddenly thought that President Kaibas special liking for beating AI Bot might have something to do with the trial three thousand years ago?

Yuei Vu felt that his dungeon clearance was mediocre, but other NPCs didnt think so.

Their current thought was simply How did he do that?

The five-level trial that no one has ever passed And he does it in just one day?

This person breakthrough the trials like eating and drinking water!?

So scary!

I cant let this child live

Oh, excuse me, the wrong script.

A group of NPCs seemed to feel that this was an earth-shattering event, and each of them was more excited than Yuei Vu himself, who was still a little unhappy.

After breaking through these five levels of trials, apart from EXP and crystal rewards, he only got a few pieces of Legendary Sword that the trainee priest got just now.

He couldnt help but find the Ancient Sorcerer to ask: By the way, is there no reward for clearing this trial?

The gatekeepers attitude towards him was even more respectful at this time: Those who pass the trial will have their names forever left on the stone slab in the place of trial, and will be admired by all warriors in future generations!

Yuei Vu: Is there anything else?

The gatekeeper froze.

What else? Isnt this the highest honor?

No more. He said honestly.

Yuei Vu felt a little bit pained.

No, its different from what I expected! I remember that the post on the forum said that after clearing the level, it will unlock an ultra-rare series?!

He opened the quest panel again to check and found that the side quest Pass The Trials had been completed, but there was an extra line of notes below.

The remark was that this quest could be completed repeatedly, and each time you passed, you would have a chance to get various rewards.

Of course, these rewards may be priceless in the eyes of the native NPCs, but most of them were insignificant to Yuei Vu. But the point was the supplementary explanation later.

The following description said that after completing the trials, there was a certain probability that the legendary warrior would be called to appear.

There is a certain probability God knows whether the probability is 1% or 0.1%.

Yuei Vu: I am so broken, doesn't this mean that I have to count on luck?

Obviously, it's a matter of luck.

However, Yuei Vu said that he had handsomeness, money (President Kaiba had money, let's count that as he had money too), and dueling skills, but the only thing he didn't have was luck

But it still didn't matter.

He has prepared for this kind of situation in advance.

Although his luck was a bit bad, there were still a group of tool people under him!

As long as one of the tool people he brought hit this probability and got the final reward of the trial ground, Yuei Vu could ask them to transfer it for him.

Isn't it easy to convince these screwballs?

As long as Yuei Vu thinks, it's not a problem.

Long before entering this memory world, Yuei Vu compiled a series of quests for those little tool people. The first link was Trying to enter the memory world, and when the first link was completed, the follow-up quest was Go to the Land of Trials to find Yuei Vu.

That's right, the tool people haven't been online yet, and Yuei Vu has already arranged for them clearly.

When the night fell, a few screwballs came to find him and rushed into the trial ground happily one by one.

Yuei Vu-san! Here we come!!!

Chapter 525: Begin To Doubt The Life

Several tool people successfully followed Yugi Muto and his friends and came to this super-large RPG game world together.

Afterward, Yugi's group decided to go to find Yami Yugi, and after a round of discussions, the players decided to follow the instructions on the quest panel, so the two parties separated first.

However, the quests Yuei Vu gave them were actually quite different.

Miss Yuehua, Yuei Cannot Escape Fae, Native Noragami, and Snow Wave, the four of them, the task assigned to them was to come to the Land of Trials to work for Yuei Vu.

As for the duo of Heart Gone With The Wind and One Hammer Deal No Counter-Offer, the task assigned to them was to "Look for the true name of the Pharaoh".

After all, "Pharaoh's true name" was the final prop for this RPG game. And even if the players know the true name of Yami Yugi through the animation, directly telling him wouldn't work, because it didn't conform to the rules of this ultimate Shadow Game.

You had to collect this key item called "Pharaoh's True Name" from this memory world so that you could summon the Creator God of Light to defeat the Great Evil God Zorc as smoothly as in the original work.

Snow Wave and his screwballs picked up trash along the way, took commissions, worked part-time jobs, and occasionally fought monsters. After hard work, they finally managed to find Yuei Vu, whom they were longing for.

The players passed the trial at the door one after another, rushed into the trial place one by one, and rushed towards Yuei Vu like a husky having fun, leaving the gatekeeper at the door to continue thinking about life.

Why don't they use slabs?

And what happened to their fight?

When he confronted the psychopath with the animal headdress on his head, his mind was split in half until the end of the duel between the two sides, the gatekeeper didn't have a decent monster, and he was pitted for a while. He even had the idea of "I summoned the slab to smash you to death".

And the girl at the end when the gatekeeper was hit by a super fierce Kuriboh with an attack power of more than 4,000, his mind was almost completely torn apart.

What kind of fighters are these?

Can you still have a happy ceremony?

Yuei Vu didn't talk too much with them and explained the situation directly.

In short, they were required to keep climbing the tower to pass the level, so as to increase the chance of refreshing the "legendary warrior".

Yuei Vu even said very considerately that only during the challenge period of the trial ground, all the products in his store would be 50% off!

Several little screwballs were boiling.

OMG, 50% off!

Even with this limited event, how many of them will take off on this mission?

And you should know that there are spar rewards for challenging the Tower of Trials itself. In other words, the further we go during this period, the more good things we can buy from Yuei Vu-san!

And exchanging the corresponding good things with Yuei Vu-san can in turn help us climb the tower more efficiently.

Woohoo, take off!

Everyone looked at the portal in the middle of the square, thinking of the generous rewards waiting for them, they only felt that the hole was extremely attractive for a moment, and couldn't hold back the impulse in their hearts, so they wanted to rush.

"Let me go first." Coke Sprite volunteered.

Although she joined Yuei Vu's personal support group late, it did not hinder her confidence in herself.

After all, bootlicking Yuei Vu-san was a job that required not only time but also capability.

Coke Sprite felt that she was very capable.

After all, she was not alone.

Behind her was the support of the entire Knights of Hanoi!

But Coke Sprite came out not long after entering, with a somewhat closed expression.

The deck she played was Blood Angel. The core idea was to increase your LP to the point where it was tens of thousands of points higher than the opponent, and then convert the difference in blood volume between the two parties into attack power or directly into damage through monster effects.

But now came the problem.

When she entered the first floor, she found that the LP on the opposite side was 12,000 points higher than her own

WTF? How can I beat that thing?

Seeing that Coke Sprite seemed to be deflated after entering, the shocked little hearts of the NPCs calmed down a little, feeling that their broken worldview seemed to be pieced back a little bit.

Ha! The trial here is not a child's play, only a few can pass it!

The remaining optimism of the NPCs lasted until the next day.

On the second night, the worldview they had just worked so hard to put together was smashed to pieces by a new record.

Immediately after Yuei Vu, the second person who had completed all five levels of trials appeared, and that was Snow Wave, who proclaimed himself the head of his support group.

Snow Wave has always insisted on taking the hero route, and now besides Elemental HERO, he also collected a lot of Destiny HERO cards.

The reason why he was the first to clear the level among several players this time was because of a card who was usually regarded as useless by everyone, but have miraculous effects in this specific situation.

Destiny HERO Dogma, a Level 8 monster, must be Special Summoned from the hand by Tributing 3 monsters, including at least 1 "Destiny HERO" monster. His attack power was 400 points higher than the legendary Blue-Eyes White Dragonbut that was not the point.

The point was, he had a powerful effect that could halve the opponent's LP in each of the opponent's Standby Phases!

For example, when Snow Wave reached the fifth trial, after summoning Dogma, the opponent directly lose one million LP in the first round, 500,000 in the second round, 250,000 in the third round and so on.

Although it was a bit troublesome to summon Dogma, and the efficiency of this effect was not high, at least it was an effective method that could actually cut two million life points down to size.

Therefore, Snow Wave successfully became the first duelist whose name was engraved on the slate after Yuei Vu.

Immediately following him was Native Noragami.

This player mainly played a nether deck, and the entire deck was full of defensive methods that could make people begin to doubt their life. But the number of offensive methods was pitifully small, and it is too difficult for him to pass the picture.

But Native Noragami lacked anything but money.

If there was no suitable deck, just bought one!

He took advantage of the discount and bought some components from Yuei Vu to improvise the deck by himself.

Alright, now our brother Noragami stepped into the dungeon and started a duel!

Brother Noragami first used the Spell Card "Upstart Goblin", sent the opponent a thousand blood to pass a card, and then activated another "Upstart Goblin" and drew another card.

He directly increase the already-huge LP gap by 2000 points at the first turn, which was so cool.

Then he used the Spell Card "Into The Void", which let him draw a card but at the risk that all cards in his hand must be discarded at the end of the turn

Oh, and then he even used a Continuous Spell Card "Chain Energy". As long as this card existed, each player must pay 500 LP every time they used a card in their hand.

This kind of price was negligible for the opposite side, but it was indeed extremely high for brother Noragami who only has 4000 LP. After playing a few more cards, his LP fell to only 1000 points left!

Did Brother Noragami give up the trial and decide to blow himself up? Of course not! At the last moment, Brother Noragami actually took out the "Reversal Quiz"!

Reversal Quiz (Spell Card): Send all cards in your hand and on your side of the field to the Graveyard. Call the type of card (Spell, Trap, or Monster) on top of your Deck. If you call it right, exchange your current Life Points with your opponent's current ones.

Here Brother Noragami guessed that the type was "Spell Card" of course, it would be a Spell Card because all the forty cards in his deck were all Spell Cards!

So our Brother Noragami draws a card, and then raises his hand excitedly: "The effect of Reversal Quiz is activated! Our LP is exchanged!"

[Trial Opponent, LP 2002000 LP 500]

[Native Noragami, LP 500 LP 2002000]

"At this moment, the effect of the set card Fuma Shuriken' is activated! When this card is sent from the field to the Graveyard: Inflict 700 damage to the opponent!"

The cards that had already entered the cemetery flew out, turned into a shuriken, and whizzed out in the gust of wind, like the scythe of death slashed across the phantom of the Trial Opponent!

[Trial Opponent, LP 500 LP 0]

FTK!

The NPCs have gradually become numb.

They were shocked to realize one terrifying thing they actually less shocked that people kept getting past the Holy Trial.

In the past two days, the eyes of the NPCs looking at the screwballs have gradually become awed, as if they were looking at some powerful beings they could not understand.

Even these powerful beings liked to talk nonsense, walked and jumped like insane, and even the names that appeared on the stone slabs were getting weirder and more details, but all of those details were automatically filtered out by the NPCs.

They also saw that the backbone of the people who came after seemed to be Yuei Vu.

If these people encountered difficulties and bottlenecks during the trial process, they always seemed to go to Yuei Vu for guidance.

And the NPCs also saw with their own eyes that after receiving instructions (buying packages, actually) from Yuei Vu, everyone finally made a breakthrough without exception and finally completed the trial.

The NPCs immediately respected Yuei Vu even more, and each of them felt that they understood.

It turned out that this person was actually the master of several others!

This group of outsiders had a master-student relationship! It turned out that a certain hermit guru master brought his disciples here to practice!

After the players had at least one set of decks that had a chance to pass the trial, Yuei Vu's preparations here were almost complete.

As long as anyone of them has obtained the final reward of the trial, it counted as Yuei Vu has already obtained it.

Chapter 526: Legendary Warrior

According to the original plan, the young apprentice priest Nadin should have left long ago, but he was delayed for two more days after Yuei Vu.

When the name of the last screwball brought by Yuei Vu also appeared on the list on the trial stone slab, he finally couldn't help but decided to go forward and contact them.

"Sorry to bother you."

When he spoke, the screwballs were chirping to share their experience and exchange tactical ideas.

As soon as he made a sound, the players all shut up and turned their heads to look over.

What's the situation? Did we trigger a hidden mission?

Wouldn't it be another quest of helping NPCs find their long-lost brothers?

"My name is Nadin, and I'm a trainee priest in this country." The young priest was polite to the strong men (in his opinion) when he spoke, but he seemed quite confident in his noble status.

Players, you look at me, I look at you.

"Hidden mission? Find someone more handsome to contact the NPC!"

"Brother Fae, brother Fae, go! You are the most handsome!"

"I hate it~ Although I'm handsome, my charm value is not high enough" Fae intentionally said in a gay tone, and Native Noragami on the side was the first to express his nausea.

"Then let me go." Miss Yuehua said, "My charm is close to 80."

Everyone envied the streamer.

"I wonder how much Yuei Vu-san's charm is"

"If I'm as handsome as Yuei Vu-san, surely even NPCs couldn't help but want to lick me, right?"

"No, if you are as handsome as Yuei Vu-san, you will be able to save even 20 years of hard work, and gain a lot of rich auntie's contact information"

Miss Yuehua stepped forward: "Is there anything we can do to help?"

She was now considered a big streamer, and a lot of fans watched the live broadcast, so a good voice that was pleasant to the ear was also necessary.

Miss Yuehua has trained to make her voice thin and soft, which could arouse people's desire for protection to the greatest extent.

For example, this trainee priest was a little lost under her offensive.

"You are all great fighters who have passed the sacred test. I want to know how you did it, and I hope to get guidance." He said sincerely, "Of course, it won't be for nothing. Money, spiritual weapons, sealed powerful Ka or slabs of spells, any reward will do."

The players' minds became active.

As long as we teach him to pass the level, we can get rewards?!

They were not very interested in money. At least as far as it was concerned, the role of currency in this RPG game was not very important. But the slate he mentioned should be referring to the card?

"Really?" Miss Yuehua suddenly got excited, opened her eyes wide, stood on tiptoe, and unconsciously moved a little closer to this NPC.

In fact, she didn't intend to act cute, but because of her work, acting cute almost became a physiological instinct

The nerds who have watched the live broadcast for a long time were more or less immune to this kind of offense, but it was the first time for the little trainee priest to see such an allure girl, and he felt a little dizzy.

"Tell me about the slab, what kind of slab can you provide?" Miss Yuehua continued to ask.

There are a lot of stone slabs that seal powerful monsters and some very powerful weapons that's right! For example "

He chanted a series of spells, flipped his palms, and took out the "Legendary Sword" that was rewarded in the previous trial.

Miss Yuehua took the heavy sword with great interest and glanced at it, but she couldn't tell what it was based on her rookie experience, so she could only turn to others for help.

"Legendary Sword, a support card for Warrior, increase ATK by 300 a miscellaneous fish among Equip Spells."

"This thing is useless. I remember that this card is given in the Warrior initial deck."

""

"Just this thing?" Miss Yuehua's delicate little face showed an undisguised look of disappointment.

Seeing this expression, the trainee priest suddenly felt a strong sense of frustration that "she said I'm impotent", and hurriedly emphasized: "I still have some powerful monsters! For example, the big-bellied sea snake, and the deity from the magic lamp"

As he said, there were viewers in the live broadcast room who were using software to check.

"Did he mean Behegon' and Lord of the Lamp'? They are all low-level Normie"

Miss Yuehua was very disappointed: "Is that so? Let's forget it. I'm sorry that we may not be able to help you."

After she finished speaking, she directly ignored the NPC who had been classified as a "poor nerd", turned her head, and left.

The little trainee priest watched her graceful and soft back walk away, and couldn't help covering his chest, only to feel that he had received 9999 points of critical damage

Just at this moment, Snow Wave, who had cleared the dungeon several times, came out of the portal. As soon as his feet landed on the ground, he noticed the prompt that popped up in the interface in front of him at a glance.

"New mission: The Legendary Warrior' is coming! Defeat him in the sacred ceremony and pass the final trial!"

Snow Wave stopped abruptly, then subconsciously touched his face that seemed to be so glisteningly white.

Fuck, I succeeded?

The blue and clear sky suddenly dimmed, black clouds condensed, and thunder and lightning flashed in them.

The atmosphere of the entire trial ground changed instantly as if even the air had condensed into lead. All the NPCs at the scene showed expressions of fear and awe, looking at the black clouds in the sky one by one, as if expecting the arrival of some great existence.

Like a god-like momentum, the shining thunder pierced the sky! The blue beam of light was like a waterfall hanging from the sky. A solid body descended from the sky and landed heavily on the ground. The blue energy was pushed out in all directions like a wave.

Appearing from there was a warrior in blue armor. The metal armor was dotted with golden lines, and sharp eyes shot out invisible energy from under the helmet.

Everyone present immediately recognized his identity.

For the NPCs, this was the "legendary warrior" in the Land of Trials. It was rumored that he had the strength to rival the Egyptian gods, and was a god-level warrior who surpassed the shackles of common sense.

For the players, he was an ancient warrior who carried the feelings of a generation, one of the iconic ace monsters of Yami Yugi in the DM animation

Black Luster Soldier!

Excited players may only feel "super handsome" and "superimposing", But Yuei Vu could clearly feel the level of the opponent's strength at this moment.

In the Pharaoh's Memories arc, the Blue-Eyes White Dragon three thousand years ago has a strength comparable to the three phantom gods. The great priest Akhenaden even felt that the Blue-Eyes White Dragon had surpassed the pharaoh's three gods.

But now the "Black Luster Soldier" in front of him gave Yuei Vu a similar feeling.

An ultimate warrior that was comparable to Egyptian Gods!

But this domineering warrior didn't bring his sword and shield, but wearing a golden ancient Duel Disk?

He stood up straight, opened the ancient Duel Disk, and raised his head, his cold eyes seemed to be asking

Who will come first?

Chapter 527: Power of Chaos!

The real final trial was the duel with the legendary warrior "Black Luster Soldier".

If you won this duel, you would be acknowledged by the "Black Luster Soldier", receiving the card itself. And only in this virtual world of "Pharaoh's Memories", you could also gain control of the god-level spirit "Black Luster Soldier"!

It's a pity that everything in this memory world was illusory, and the characters and spirits in this dungeon were just NPCs no matter how lifelike they look. Therefore, the spirit of the "Black Luster Soldier" here was just a phantom that existed in the memory of the Pharaoh, and could not be brought into the real world outside.

But this did not prevent Yuei Vu from acquiring the "Chaos" series!

As long as he could pass this trial and get the "Black Luster Soldier" card, then the "Chaos" series in his system card pool would be unlocked!

Chaos deck was very famous among the early card players. It was not an exaggeration to say that every player has heard of the power of Chaos deck.

This deck was the oldest legend in the Yu-Gi-Oh environment. It has won the crown of the world champion more than once with different constructions, and has become the master of the Yu-Gi-Oh environment for a long time!

In addition to strength, this deck has also gained super popularity because of its linkage with anime. For example, the super-strong "Chaos Emperor Dragon Envoy of the End" from President Kaiba's deck has been imprisoned for ten years and was once thought by the card players to stay on the forbidden list until the end of the world.

There was also the ace "Black Luster Soldier" of Muto Yugi, and the "Black Luster Soldier Envoy of the Beginning" that appeared in "Yu-Gi-Oh GX". At that time, it was also a super monster that seriously disrupted the balance. It was once called "Duel Monster World's Strongest Warrior" unique to the original Duel King Muto Yugi.

At this moment, Yuei Vu had already stood in the center of the field and came in front of this legendary warrior.

Champion deck!

Other decks could be put aside for the time being, but this "Chaos" series, he must get it!

Yuei Vu opened the Duel Disk.

"A warrior from outside this time and space?"

The Black Luster Soldier was really different from other NPCs, and he figured out that Yuei Vu was an intruder in this world at a glance.

But he didn't take it seriously: "It's just right. It doesn't matter who you are, I haven't met an opponent worth fighting for a long time."

After all, a golden light flashed on the ancient Duel Disk on his arm, and five huge stone slabs fell to the ground with a dull roar and violent dust, as if they were blasted from the sky.

"Since you have passed the test, it is enough to prove your strength." He said lightly, "Don't let me down."

Black Luster Soldier, LP 4000

Yuei Vu, LP 4000

"I'll start first."

The Black Luster Soldier raised his arms, and a heavy golden stone slab fell from the sky, hitting the ground with a roar and a rush of yellow dust.

He looked around the surrounding environment, and then calmly said: "First of all, let me prepare the most suitable venue for this battle ceremony.

Arrival Gateway to Chaos! "

The flipped slab was obviously a Field Spell. The khaki-colored slate cracked, and powerful and majestic energy was released from between the shattered stones.

Like blue water waves swept across the audience quickly, the forces of light and darkness collided and intertwined in the field, gradually giving birth to the concept of "chaos", the power contained in it could not only open up the world, but also bring the end of all things!

When "Gateway to Chaos" is activated, the player could add 1 "Black Luster Soldier" Ritual Monster or 1 "Gaia The Fierce Knight" monster from the deck to the hand.

Another stone slab fell from the sky and turned it over to show Yuei Vu briefly. Although the portrait engraved on the stone slab was somewhat abstract, Yuei Vu still recognized that the one drawn was the "Black Luster Soldier".

"Next is the moment of the sacred ceremony!"

The Black Luster Soldier waved again, and another stone slab turned over in front of him.

"Ritual Spell Black Luster Ritual! Sacrifice monsters with a total level of eight or more from the hand and the field, and ritually summon the Black Luster Soldier' from the hand."

A black altar emerged, with braziers burning with flames on both sides and a delicate emblem in the center. Silver-white long swords stood crossed, and the dancing flames were clearly reflected on the blades.

Immediately, the two sacrificed monsters appeared. On the left was the Level 7 "Charging Gaia the Fierce Knight", and on the right was the Level 4 "Evening Twilight Knight".

"One soul guides light, one soul guides darkness, and the gate of chaos will be opened here!"

The Black Luster Soldier's armor-covered arm swung like a sword drawn to cut through everything.

"Calling myself here, to be present in the ritual of this battle

Black Luster Soldier, come! "

A chaotic cyclone erupted from the altar, and the golden light condensed into a human shape in midair. A swordsman in blue armor descends from mid-air, holding a blue shield and a sharp long sword, and when his boots step down, it is like a flag piercing the ground.

He only swiped the long sword in his hand lightly, and the sword energy seemed to cut off his breath. Although he stood with a restrained aura and did not show his sharpness, his blue body contained a domineering aura that even the kings of the dragon clan would not dare to underestimate.

[Black Luster Soldier, ATK 3000]

"First of all, when the Charging Gaia the Fierce Knight' is used as a sacrifice, I can call the slab of the Black Luster Soldier' into my hand.

Then when the Evening Twilight Knight' is used as a ritual sacrifice, the hidden abilities of the Black Luster Soldier' will be unsealed. "

The Black Luster Soldier raised his hand.

"Blade of Time and Space!"

The Black Luster Soldier swung his sword, and the silver-white sword cut a silver trajectory in the air! The sword energy seemed to transcend time and space, and it shot from the air, hitting one of Yuei Vu's five cards head-on, and that card dissipated from Yuei Vu's hand out of thin air.

Yuei Vu frowned slightly but did not speak.

Evening Twilight Knight: A "Black Luster Soldier" monster Ritual Summoned using this card gains these effects. You can only use this effect of "Evening Twilight Knight" once per turn.

Once per turn: You can target 1 monster your opponent controls; banish it.

Once per turn: You can banish 1 random card from your opponent's hand face-down, until your opponent's next End Phase.

Obviously, the opponent used the latter effect just now, forcibly reducing his hand resources.

No matter which of the above effects was an unreasonably strong offensive method.

And this was just the tip of the iceberg of the sealed power of the "Black Luster Soldier". The true power hidden by this legendary warrior was far more than that.

"The moment the two souls were sacrificed, the function of the Gateway to Chaos' was also activated." The Black Luster Soldier said indifferently, "Every time a soul enters the cemetery in this battle, the magic mark on Gateway to Chaos' will increase by one."

Gateway to Chaos: Each time a Monster Card(s) is sent from the hand or field to the GY, place 1 Spell Counter on this card for each of those cards.

"This is the end of my operation." The Black Luster Soldier said, "Come on, the warrior from outside this time and space, prove your strength to me."

Chapter 528: Treasure Cards From The Heavens

"My turn." Yuei Vu said, "The first is the Spell Card E-Emergency Call'. Add 1 Elemental HERO' monster from the deck to the hand.

I added Elemental HERO Solid Soldier' to my hand. "

A card popped up in the deck, and the deck was quickly and automatically shuffled after being taken away by Yuei Vu.

Among the many NPCs watching, except for the gatekeepers, it was the first time they saw the cards and Duel Disk from three thousand years later, and each of them couldn't help saying "Why don't you need to use slabs?" and the like.

The players presented as well as the ones in the forum and the live broadcast room were also very excited at this time.

Yuei Vu-san's Masked HERO vs. the ancient and glorious "Chaos" deck!

The Chaos deck was indeed a legend in the history of Yu-Gi-Oh. It has been nefted for several years in a row, and its key cards have been banned one after another, but it still firmly won several championships in a row.

No, because it was the Chaos deck used by "Black Luster Soldier", so he should still have many exclusive series cards that the "Chaos" deck that won the championship that year did not have.

Perhaps even stronger than the champion deck of the year!

In addition, Yuei Vu knew that it was not only that. The opponent in front of him was not only using a deck that represented the top level of the DM era, but his own Duelist Rank was also not low.

No wonder the player in the previous life failed to pass the final trial to acquire the "Chaos" deck. It was not possible for the player of version 1.0 to win against such an opponent.

Even Yuei Vu must be cautious about this duel.

"Summon Elemental HERO Solid Soldier!"

The ground cracked open, and the Elemental HERO wrapped in steel armor drilled out from the ground, and the wide wrists touched in the air, knocking out a trace of sparks.

[Elemental HERO Solid Soldier, ATK 1300]

"The effect of Solid Soldier When this card is Normal Summoned: I can Special Summon 1 Level 4 or lower HERO' monster from my hand. Come on, Elemental HERO Liquid Soldier!"

The liquid hero stepped onto the stage on the floating water, with his arms fluttering, the water swirled around him like a swimming snake.

[Elemental HERO Liquid Soldier, ATK 1400]

"Spell Card Double Fusion!" Yuei Vu showed the Spell Card in his hand, "Pay 500 LP, and I can use the effect of this card to perform fusion summoning at most twice in this turn." (Animation card)

Yuei Vu, LP 4000LP 3500

He pointed to the two heroes on the field.

"I fuse Elemental HERO Solid Soldier' and Elemental HERO Liquid Soldier'!

The fusion condition is 1 Elemental HERO' monster + 1 WATER monster! Fusion Summon!

Born from the abyss of extreme cold, with the power of absolute ice and snow to freeze everything
Elemental HERO Absolute Zero! "

In the extremely cold whirlwind, the white hero appeared in the fluttering wind and snow. The noble figure seemed to be surrounded by ice crystals all over the sky, and the invisible low temperature was released quickly, forming an absolutely low-temperature field to dominate the half field here, facing the aura released by the Black Luster Soldier tit for tat.

[Elemental HERO Absolute Zero, ATK 2500]

"The effect of Liquid Soldier! If this card is used as Fusion Material for a HERO' monster, and sent to the GY or banished: I can draw 2 cards, then discard 1 card."

Yuei Vu then continued to operate.

"The effect of Solid Soldier! If this card is sent from the Monster Zone to the GY by a Spell effect: I can target 1 HERO' monster in my GY, except Elemental HERO Solid Soldier'; Special Summon it in Defense Position! Come back, Liquid Soldier!"

The clear water bursted out in the low-temperature field, and the water-blue hero returned to the field, even the water-light effects around his body seemed to be frozen by the cold.

[Elemental HERO Liquid Soldier, DEF 1300]

"Then activate the effect of Double Fusion' again!" Yuei Vu said, "Fuse Elemental HERO Absolute Zero', add Elemental HERO Liquid Soldier'!

The fusion condition is 1 Elemental HERO' monster + 1 WATER monster!

Reborn from the cold abyss!

Elemental HERO Absolute Zero, the second one! "

With the second fusion effect of the Spell Card, the two streams of water converged into the fusion vortex, and with the cold storm, they once again condensed into the body of the plain hero. Absolute Zero descended from the icy world again, his white cloak fluttering, and his slender figure seemed to bring the frozen law itself.

[Elemental HERO Absolute Zero, ATK 2500]

"The effect of Absolute Zero! When leaving the field, all monsters on the opponent's field will be destroyed!" Yuei Vu pointed to the opponent's field, "Freeze the Black Luster Soldier!"

Absolute Zero! "

The stunt with the same name as the hero seems to be a static field where even time was frozen. Even the legendary fighters with the ability to open up space could not resist the extreme cold. The Black Luster Soldier avatar on the field barely controlled his stiff arms and swung his sword twice. Immediately, his body was frozen into ice sculptures and shattered into pieces on the spot. A place of scum.

The Black Luster Soldier himself, who was playing cards, saw his avatar split open, but his face did not fluctuate at all. He just said indifferently: "But every time a servant in our hand or on the field enters the graveyard, the magic mark on Gateway to Chaos' will increase."

However, there could only be a maximum of six Spell Counters in the "Gateway to Chaos". Up until now, the number of counters in the "Gateway to Chaos" has already reached the upper limit.

"Battle!" Yuei Vu said, "Elemental HERO Absolute Zero, attack directly!"

The white hero flew up, and his soaring figure seemed to be stepping on frozen air. He waved his arms, and the airflow was frozen by the volley, turning into ice cones and flying through the air, hitting the body of the Black Luster Soldier himself head-on.

[Black Luster Soldier, LP 4000 LP 1500]

The legendary warrior's boots slid half a step back slightly, and the impact of the blue armor and the ice pick made a pleasant crisp sound. However, he only swayed slightly before standing still, and a smile of approval rarely appeared on his cold and serious face.

"not bad."

"Set two cards, I end my turn." Yuei Vu said, "At the end of the turn, the card that was removed by Black Luster Soldier's effect returns to my hand."

"Then come to my round."

In front of the Black Luster Soldier, another stone slab came down heavily. He only glanced at it, and opened it without much hesitation.

"The spell I'm going to use here is Card Destruction'."

Card Destruction: Both players discard all cards in their hands, and then draw the same number of cards.

Yuei Vu didn't say a word, and replaced hand cards along with the opponent of course, as far as the opponent was concerned, it should be the replacement of the "hand".

And Yuei Vu also discovered that when this Black Luster Soldier used spells and traps, he didn't seem to need to chant lengthy spells like his previous opponents. It seemed that he only needed a gesture, and the effect could be activated directly by turning the stone slab.

It was speculated that this Black Luster Soldier may be a strong man who "claps his hands for whatever he wants". True strong men would disdain reciting spells and performing hand seals "I use a spell here Card of Sanctity!" Sure enough, the legendary warrior immediately refilled the hand.

Card of Sanctity: Both players draw cards from the deck until their hands are full of six cards.

It's just that Yuei Vu drew cards from the deck, while Black Luster Soldiers had several slabs falling from the sky one after another.

It was truly "Treasure Cards from the Heavens" (the OCG name of "Card of Sanctity")

Yuei Vu even boldly speculated that the name of this card might have come from this scene

Chapter 529: The Envoy of The Beginning

The cards in his hand were replenished, and the eyes of the Black Luster Soldier under his helmet seemed to flicker slightly.

"I didn't expect that the seal would be lifted again so soon that's okay. The warrior from outside this time and space, you really seem to be an opponent worthy of my seriousness."

The legendary warrior's demeanor changed instantly. His eyes were awe-inspiring, and his unique murderous aura seemed to be integrated with this chaotic field, calling out the pioneering power from ancient times from the azure vortex.

He raised his right hand, and the metal armor made a rustling sound. One of the stone slabs was flipped over, and a golden awn that was hard to look at was blooming in it.

"I banished the dark swordsman Evening Twilight Knight' and the knight of light Charging Gaia the Fierce Knight' sleeping in the cemetery!

The souls of light and darkness are sacrificed in the Gateway to Chaos, and the legendary strongest warrior descends

Black Luster Soldier Envoy of the Beginning! ! ! "

There was a movement like a landslide, followed by a vision of the beginning of heaven and earth! The two souls of light and darkness flew into the Gateway to Chaos, and shot out a golden beam of light from the chaos!

Black Luster Soldier Envoy of the Beginning: This card must first be Special Summoned (from your hand) by banishing 1 LIGHT and 1 DARK monster from your GY.

The light shot straight into the sky, penetrating into the black clouds of thunder and tumbling. In just a moment, hundreds of beams of light pierced the black clouds like arrows piercing the clouds, and the warriors in blue armor and holding holy swords were like envoys sent by the heavens, slowly descending under the golden light, surrounded by a chaotic cyclone.

[Black Luster Soldier Envoy of the Beginning, ATK 3000]

The players in the forum and the live broadcast room started to yell, and Miss Yuehua's live broadcast room was full of "OMG" comments rolling across the screen.

The Envoy of the Beginning!

Together with "Chaos Emperor Dragon Envoy of the End", they were called "Chaos Duo". Since September 2005, they have been banned because of their extremely simple summoning method and ridiculously strong combat power.

Even two years later, "Chaos Sorcerer", a castrated version of "Black Luster Soldier Envoy of the Beginning" in terms of attack power and effect, was also brutally banned.

This shows how domineering this card was in the Yu-Gi-Oh environment.

Even from the perspective of animation, the aura and power contained in this warrior could rival the Blue-Eyes White Dragon or even the Egyptian Gods!

"When his soul was exiled from the cemetery, the special ability of the Evening Twilight Knight' is activated." Black Luster Soldier said, "He can call a new slab into my hand."

Evening Twilight Knight: If this card is banished from your Graveyard, add 1 Ritual Monster from the Deck to the hand.

The new stone slab fell out of nowhere again and slammed heavily in front of the Black Luster Soldier.

The card he added to his hand was a further evolved form of himself, Black Luster Soldier Super Soldier!

Yuei Vu narrowed his eyes slightly.

That was a stronger form that the Black Luster Soldier have obtained in the long years of fighting and experience, even surpassing the Envoy of the Beginning.

"The special ability of Black Luster Soldier Envoy of the Beginning!" Black Luster Soldier waved his hand, "Every round, I has a chance to exile the soul of any servant existing on the opponent's field from this ceremony!

Disappear, warrior of ice and snow! "

The Black Luster Soldier on the field raised his sword and swung it out through the air. The space was violently distorted, and the sword marks tore a dimensional crack, and the indescribably strong gravitational force erupted from the crack, precisely grasping the Elemental HERO on Yuei Vu's side, dragging him into the endless chaos without any explanation.

But before that, Yuei Vu waved his hand: "Open the set card: Trap Card Interdimensional Matter Transporter!"

The set card flipped over, and a technological device that was incompatible with the ancient painting style seemed to fly across the other side of the dimension and landed on the field.

"This trap can target 1 face-up monster I control; banish that target until the End Phase! I removed the Absolute Zero' from the game!"

The technological device was activated and locked on the Ice and Snow Hero on Yuei Vu's field. A burst of erratic colored light enveloped the hero's whole body, and Absolute Zero was transported to the dimensional crack under the distortion of space, avoiding the unparalleled sword of the pioneer messenger.

"Then there is the effect of Absolute Zero!" Yuei Vu said, "When he leaves the field, all monsters on the opponent's field will be destroyed!"

The NPCs were all dumbfounded now.

From their POV, the outsider exiled his servant through his own trap, thereby avoiding the attack of the Envoy of the Beginning, and even linked with the ability of this "Absolute Zero", instantly freezing the entire field on the opposite side!

There was such a powerful combo in the world!

The aura of the Envoy of the Beginning was shattered, and the field of ice invaded. Even this invincible warrior couldn't resist this level of low-temperature erosion. He was frozen from head to toe by ice crystals and shattered into ice slag.

The NPCs watching were even more shocked.

In their eyes, the "Black Luster Soldier Envoy of the Beginning" is already a legendary warrior who needed to kneel down and worship, and in their minds, he had the same status as a god.

And such a powerful fighter was defeated in such an instant!?

But the Black Luster Soldier had no expression on his face, which still seemed to be what he had expected.

"Then I'm going to use the hidden ability of the Gateway to Chaos' now." He said, "There is a chance in each round to consume three magic marks in the Gateway to Chaos, and I can call a stone slab with the ritual spell engraved on it to me."

Gateway to Chaos: Once per turn: You can remove 3 Spell Counters from this card; add 1 Ritual Spell from your Deck to your hand.

"Come on!" The Black Luster Soldier raised his voice, and another heavy stone slab fell from the sky, "Super Soldier Ritual!"

Watching the other party add the Ritual Spell "Super Soldier Ritual" to his hand, Yuei Vu thought of the "Black Luster Soldier Super Soldier" the opponent retrieved at the beginning of this round and quickly realized what was going to happen next.

Are you coming?

Sure enough, the slab was immediately turned over.

"Ritual Spell Ritual of the Super Warrior!"

The Black Luster Soldier raised the volume. Maybe it's an illusion, but Yuei Vu felt that his voice sounded more vigorous, but it also seemed more vicissitudes.

Super Soldier Ritual: By Tributing monsters from your hand or field whose total Levels exactly equal 8, you can Ritual Summon any "Black Luster Soldier" Ritual Monster in your hand.

Here the Black Luster Soldiers showed the Level 1 "Super Soldier Soul", and the Level 7 "Swift Gaia the Fierce Knight", the total was exactly eight!

The two souls staggered and flew into the vortex of the chaotic field, and a purer and more massive chaotic cyclone erupted from it!

The sharp sword is engraved with red lines, and the gorgeous sword light splits the chaos. The chaotic swordsman wore shining and handsome armor, held a luster shield, and stepped down casually. The moment he landed, an invisible cyclone burst out, and his combat boots left a deep red footprint on the ground.

[Black Luster Soldier Super Soldier, ATK 3000]

"Enter the battle." The Black Luster Soldier said, "My avatar, the Black Luster Soldier Super Soldier, is attacking!"

Absolute Zero was temporarily excluded, thus Yuei Vu's field was currently empty, which was the best time to attack. Stepping on the super warrior's boots, his figure turned into a silver afterimage and flew towards him. The sword energy surged like a crack in the dimension, and the moment it fell, it was like a black cloud covering the sky and covering the earth

"Open the set card." Yuei Vu raised his hand, "Trap Card: Intruder Alarm Yellow Alert! When an opponent's monster declares an attack: Special Summon 1 monster from my hand but return it to the hand at the end of the Battle Phase."

He showed a card from his hand.

"I summon the Elemental HERO Blazeman to defend!"

A burst of flames erupted, and the flaming hero landed on the field in a half-squat, trying his best to block in front of him with the condensed flames as a shield.

[Elemental HERO Blazeman, DEF 1800]

"The effect of Blazeman If this card is Normal or Special Summoned: I can add 1 Polymerization' from my Deck to my hand." A card popped up from Yuei Vu's deck, "I will add the Fusion Substitute' to the hand."

"But the super warrior's attack will continue." The Black Luster Soldier said coldly.

A sword broke through the flame man's defense almost effortlessly, his defense line was torn in half along with the space, and the sword energy twisted the flame man into pieces.

"Black Luster Soldier Super Soldier's special ability." Black Luster Soldier continued, "When the opponent's servant is destroyed, the master himself will also suffer corresponding damage."

When "Black Luster Soldier Super Soldier" destroys an opponent's monster in battle, inflict damage equal to the original ATK of that monster to the opponent.

Yuei Vu, LP 3500 LP 2300

"Then the Super Warrior Soul' sleeping in my cemetery, is exiled from the ceremony, and the special ability is activated!" The Black Luster Soldier continued, "I can call a stone slab with the Beginning Knight' sealed on it into my hands."

Super Warrior Soul: Banish this card from your Graveyard; add 1 "Beginning Knight" or "Evening Twilight Knight" from your Deck to your hand.

Although the name was similar, this "Beginning Knight" was a four-star righteous knight, which is different from the "Black Luster Soldier Envoy of the Beginning" who just left the stage.

"Put another slab on the field." Another slab was placed on the field in front of him, "This round is over."

"At this moment, the effect of the Interdimensional Matter Transporter' ends." Yuei Vu shouted, "Elemental HERO Absolute Zero' returns to the field! Come back from a different space!"

The high-tech multi-dimensional transmission device was activated, and the erratic colored light called the tunnel of different time and space. There was a white snowstorm like an inverted funnel, and the ice hero came again!

[Elemental HERO Absolute Zero, ATK 2500]

Chapter 530: Instant Freezing

Looking at the Absolute Zero who came again, even the Black Luster Soldier who has experienced hundreds of battles and repelled all kinds of powerful enemies couldn't help but change his expression slightly.

Although it was only a short fight, he had already experienced the strength of this white hero.

Different from the obliterating ability of various forms of Black Luster Soldiers to open up the world and split the dimension, the power of this Elemental HERO lay in its terrifying ability to freeze everything in the field of absolutely low temperature.

What's even more frightening was that the summoner who controlled him seemed to have mastered this ability perfectly!

"My turn, draw!" Yuei Vu waved his hand, "Spell Card Reinforcement of the Army, add 1 Level 4 or lower Warrior monster from the deck to the hand. I will add Elemental HERO Stratos' to my hand.

Then I summon Elemental HERO Stratos' in attack position! "

The transparent white cyclone, the blue exoskeleton armored hero with white metal wings behind him, was propelled by the milky white cyclone, and fell from the sky amidst the shouts of "Brother Sky".

[Elemental HERO Stratos, ATK 1800]

"The effect of Stratos!" Yuei Vu said, "When this card is Normal or Special Summoned, destroy Spells/Traps on the field, up to the number of HERO' monsters I control, except this card!

Now I have "Absolute Zero" on the field beside Stratos, and the card I want to destroy is the Field Spell "Gateway to Chaos"! "

The number of Spell Counters on Gateway to Chaos has once again reached the upper limit of six. If left alone, the opponent could accurately retrieve a Ritual Spell from the deck in the next round.

Compared with the set card whose use was unknown, Yuei Vu still chose to clean up this Field Spell first.

The turbines on the metal wings behind Stratos rotated, and the two white whirlwinds converged to one place and flew straight into the center of the blue vortex of the chaotic field.

The power of chaos seemed to run amok, and the invisible force field collapsed under the impact of the turbulent airflow. The chaotic vortex gradually closed, and the light blue energy in the field was drained like water in a pool.

"Did you destroy my field first?" Black Luster Soldier said indifferently, "You still have the Fusion' spell from the last round"

"Exactly." Yuei Vu waved his hand and played the card retrieved in his hand last round, "Spell Card Fusion Substitute, using the monsters on the field as fusion materials for fusion summoning!

I fuse the Elemental HERO Stratos' on the field with Elemental HERO Absolute Zero'!

The fusion condition is 1 Elemental HERO' monster + 1 WATER monster! Reborn from the icy abyss

Elemental HERO Absolute Zero! "

Another two beams of light converged, calling out an explosion of ice and snow. The white hero was reborn in the endless frost, and once again brought the static field that dominated the audience!

The third Absolute Zero!

[Elemental HERO Absolute Zero, ATK 2500]

"The effect of Absolute Zero is activated!" Yuei Vu smiled, "But I don't need to explain it, do I?"

The Black Luster Soldier said calmly: "When leaving the field, all the opponent's servants were wiped out Is that the case?"

"That's right." Yuei Vu raised his hand, "Freeze the Super Warrior Black Luster Soldier!"

"That can't be done." The Black Luster Soldier said coldly, "At this moment, you have triggered the counterattack of the trap Ultimate Providence!"

Yuei Vu frowned.

Is it actually Ultimate Providence?

Ultimate Providence: When a Spell/Trap Card, or monster effect, is activated: Discard the same type of card (Monster, Spell, or Trap); negate the activation, and destroy that card.

With a wave of the Black Luster Soldier's arm, a stone slab in front of him dissipated into countless golden powders it was obvious that he had discarded a monster card in his hand.

The rapidly expanding frozen field stopped instantly as if hitting an invisible wall. The phantom of Absolute Zero in mid-air instantly dissipated under the mighty power of a god, and the ice and snow field that spread toward the Black Luster Soldier was also smashed to pieces by the invisible hand of God, and the ice slag all over the sky melted and dissipated.

"Your defense has stopped this move"

Yuei Vu lightly closed his eyes.

"Then what are you going to do with the second shot?"

The Black Luster Soldier's eyes flickered, slightly surprised.

"Quick-Play Spell De-Fusion!" Yuei Vu said, "Target 1 Fusion Monster on the field; return that target to the Extra Deck, then, if all the Fusion Materials that were used for its Fusion Summon are in my GY, I can Special Summon all of them!"

Black Luster Soldier: "!"

"The fusion material I just used is another Absolute Zero' and Stratos'. Because the Absolute Zero cannot be Special Summoned by means other than fusion, I cannot return the fusion material from the graveyard to the field."

After a pause, Yuei Vu raised his finger and pointed to the snow-white hero on the field.

"But I can still return the Absolute Zero' on the field to the deck. What will happen next, I don't have to talk about it, do I?"

Black Luster Soldier: ""

"Go back to the deck, Absolute Zero!" Yuei Vu raised his arm, "Then the effect of Absolute Zero is activated again!

Instant Freezing! "

The white hero leaves the field again, and the boundless cold wave strikes again! This time without the protection of divine power, the invincible super warrior was finally no match for the freezing temperature of all things, and the gorgeous armor was covered with ice crystals in an instant and shattered into slag.

Seeing that his super soldier avatar was also frozen and shattered, the Black Luster Soldier nodded slightly: "It is indeed a rare and powerful warrior who can control the destructive power of low temperature at willI can't compare it in this respect."

Everyone knew he was giving the Elemental HERO who had mastered the cold a nod. Black Luster Soldier was known as "the strongest warrior in the world of duel monsters", not just anyone was qualified to be praised by him like this.

"But my avatar will not be defeated so easily." The Black Luster Soldier said lightly.

As soon as the words fell, the ice sculpture of the super warrior on his field had completely shattered. But what rushed out of the fog of ice and low temperature was a dark knight with a steed!

Black Luster Soldier Super Soldier: When this card is destroyed by the opponent and sent to your Graveyard: You can Special Summon 1 "Gaia The Fierce Knight" monster from your hand, Deck, or Graveyard.

[Arise Gaia the Fierce Knight, ATK 2300]

The Black Luster Soldier's icy expression was rarely relaxed, and the corners of his mouth were slightly raised, showing a hint of a smile.

"In this way, you won't have any servants on the field to control." He said, "Your summoning opportunity this round has been used up. In the next round, you will be directly exposed to my attack."

"I know."

While Yuei Vu was speaking, two cards in the tomb area popped up at the same time.

"The effect of Fusion Substitute' in the graveyard I can banish this card from my GY; return 1 Fusion Monster in my GY to the Extra Deck, then draw 1 card!

I return the Elemental HERO Absolute Zero' from the GY to the deck and draw a card from the deck! "

Seeing another Absolute Zero return to the deck, the Black Luster Soldier's eyes moved slightly, and he had some bad premonitions.

In this way, plus the one that was returned to the deck through "De-Fusion" just now, there are two more "Absolute Zero" available in Yuei Vu's Extra Deck.

"Spell Card Miracle Fusion!" Yuei Vu played another card, "Fusion Summon 1 Elemental HERO' Fusion Monster from my Extra Deck, by banishing Fusion Materials from my field or GY!

I remove Elemental HERO Liquid Soldier' and Elemental HERO Solid Soldier' from the game, and performed a Fusion Summon! "

Even the players were not calm.

"Fuck it, again?"

"The flower blossoms three times No, four times!"

"Yuei Vu-san said today is the special show for Big Brother of Elemental HEROes!"

""

Even the Black Luster Soldier's expression became serious as if he was afraid of this opponent who was about to come again.

"The fusion condition is 1 Elemental HERO' monster + 1 WATER monster!" Yuei Vu raised his arms high, "Coming again from the extremely cold abyss!

Elemental HERO Absolute Zero! "

The white hero turned into a water arrow and shot down from the air. The moment it hit the ground, the ice crystals bloomed like crystal-clear lotus flowers!

[Elemental HERO Absolute Zero, ATK 2500]

"The effect of Elemental HERO Liquid Soldier! If this card is used as Fusion Material for a HERO' monster, and sent to the GY or banished: I can draw 2 cards, then discard 1 card."

Yuei Vu drew two cards, glanced at them, and then picked out a card from his hand and discarded it.

"Battle!" Yuei Vu waved his hand, "Use the Absolute Zero to attack the Arisen Gaia the Fierce Knight!"

The milky white cyclone held up the snow-white cloak, and the cloak fluttered in the air. Icicles formed by frozen water flew out of the air. The dark knight held the reins in one hand and waved the spiral spear in the other to try to resist, but it was completely useless. The moment he touched him, he was pierced by the icicles. The Ice Crystal Explosion exited.

[Black Luster Soldier, LP 1500 LP 1300]

"Set two cards, I end my turn."
