Chapter 591: Strongest Magician

The Dark Magician came again, and the magic circle in midair was activated simultaneously. The handwriting engraved on the spell circle glowed brightly, the spell circle rotated rapidly, and the wandering magic power swelled up, like flying knives and guns.

To a certain extent, it could see through and even affect the trajectory of the future, interfere with space with powerful magic power, and obliterate any existence to nothingness with time and space magic. This was the "Dark Magical Circle", the highest level of magic in black magic!

The majestic magic power was like a flood that had burst a bank, and the dust and gravel in the space were engulfed in it, rushing towards Doomking Balerdroch.

The undead king roared like a demonstration, and the brilliance of the ruby made his bones stand out, but it was just impotent rage.

Doomking Balerdroch was the absolute king of the Zombie race, possessing the powerful power to nullify the special abilities of any Zombie monsters other than himself.

And when the Field Spell "Zombie World" existed, all monsters on both sides' fields and in the graveyard would become Zombie.

In other words, under such a combination, Doomking Balerdroch has the supreme power to nullify the special abilities of any monsters.

However, it was helpless when facing this high-level black magic power.

The reason was simple Because this is the power from the Continuous Spell "Dark Magical Circle", not the monster effect of the Dark Magician himself. Although it had the powerful ability to negate the effects of any monsters, the premise was that they must have effects.

However, Dark Magician was a Normal Monster and had no effect.

All magic he used came from the spells and traps exclusive to Dark Magician, which did not belong to the category of monster effects. Therefore, Doomking Balerdroch could do nothing against it.

The surging power of black magic enveloped the entire field, the space distorted and the dimensions changed. Doomking Balerdroch was hit hard by the torrent of black magic, his figure turned into a phantom, twisted in the center of the field, and let out an unwilling roar before disappearing from the field.

The High Priest of Darkness seemed to hear the sound of his teeth grinding, and the sound was particularly harsh under the mask.

The magic array stopped rotating, and the surging magic storm stopped briefly. The Dark Magician crossed his arms and slowly returned to the Pharaoh. His expression remained calm, but he still maintained the inviolable invisible aura.

The High Priest of Darkness has not yet given up: "Then activate the instant spell Burial from a Different Dimension! Let the exiled Necroworld Banshee', Mezuki', and Doomking Balerdroch' fall back to sleep again in my graveyard!"

Burial from a Different Dimension (Quick-Play Spell): Target up to 3 banished monsters; return them to the Graveyard.

Doomking Balerdroch had the ability to resurrect itself from the graveyard at every turn. Coupled with its own powerful special ability, it should be able to block the opponent's actions.

Of course, at this time, the High Priest of Darkness no longer dared to be careless about the master-servant combination of Pharaoh and Mahad. He would not be naive enough to think that this would be enough to stop their attack.

The High Priest of Darkness glanced at another stone slab in his hand through the Millennium Eye, and his eyes became cold.

This slab was the real core of his plan to reverse the situation!

"Set two slabs and my operation is over."

Come, Pharaoh!

The moment you launch an attack, it will be your death!

The High Priest of Darkness secretly thought in his heart.

Yugi's eyes briefly paused on the high priest's back row, then he said calmly: "My turn, draw."

"At this moment, the power of the undead king has also awakened!" The High Priest of Darkness shouted, "Awaken from your slumber, Doomking Balerdroch!"

Doomking Balerdroch: During the Standby Phase, if a face-up card is in a Field Zone and this card is in your GY: You can Special Summon this card in Defense Position.

The pitch-black death aura dyed the world black, and the undead king covered in white bone armor returned to the field with the roar of the cracking of the earth. The pressure of death made it difficult to breathe.

[Doomking Balerdroch, DEF 2000]

Some of the surrounding priests couldn't help but comment: "How evil and powerful this monster is! Is it actually immortal?"

The effect of the "Card of Safe Return" was activated, and the High Priest of Darkness could get three new stone slabs again.

"This is the dark power I got from hell!" The High Priest of Darkness shouted loudly, "You who have lost the protection of the gods can't win no matter what!"

But neither Yami Yugi nor Mahad paid any attention to it. With a light wave of the Dark Magician's staff, the aura of death was blocked by the black magic domain, and it couldn't invade in the slightest.

Glancing at the cards drawn, Yugi raised his head and said to the Dark Magician, "Mahad, I want to borrow your body."

"It doesn't matter." The Dark Magician nodded, "For Pharaoh's words, no matter how many times, I am willing to sacrifice my body."

Yami Yugi nodded, and then quickly revealed a card: "Quick-Play Spell Magical Dimension! If I control a Spellcaster monster: Target 1 monster I control; Tribute that target, then Special Summon 1 Spellcaster monster from my hand."

"In the domain of the Zombie World', any servant will become Zombie!" The High Priest of Darkness shouted.

"The effect of Eternal Soul!" Yugi pointed to the monument standing behind him, "As long as this card exists, the Dark Magician' on my field is unaffected by the opponent's card effects.

So Dark Magician is a Spellcaster monster! "

"Tch." The High Priest of Darkness grunted.

"I take the Dark Magician' as a sacrifice, and hereby call

Magician of Dark Illusion! "

The figure of the Dark Magician turned into a phantom and dissipated, and a brand new black-robed mage flew out from the unscrewed magic circle. They had almost identical robes, only the brilliance of the staff was slightly dimmed. And the face under the magic black robe was pitch black, only revealing the sharp eyes.

[Magician of Dark Illusion, ATK 2100]

"This is Mahad's Ka?" The High Priest of Darkness's eyes changed slightly, and he felt puzzled, "But why did you sacrifice Mahad and call for a relatively inferior spirit?"

"The follow-up effect of Magical Dimension!" Yami Yugi said, "After its effect is activated, I can choose another monster on the field to destroy. Let's leave the field again, Doomking Balerdroch!"

The High Priest of Darkness's eyelids twitched again.

Direct spell destruction?

This trick once again involved the blind spot of the Undead King's ability. Although the "Magical Dimension" used here was also a black magic spell, it was not a monster ability but a Spell effect, which could not be negated by the power of the Doomking Balerdroch.

Boom!

The dull explosion echoed in the realm of immortality, and Doomking Balerdroch exited the scene again with an unwilling roar.

"Cut, then open the set trap: Continuous Trap Call of the Haunted!" The High Priest of Darkness waved his hand, "Resurrect the undead king in the cemetery!"

A dark beam of light shot up into the sky, and the king of the dead returned to the field with the roar of the king!

[Doomking Balerdroch, ATK 2800]

At the same time, because of the effect of the "Card of Safe Return", the High Priest of Darkness continued to obtain new stone slabs.

"See? Just relying on a mere magician, he is not my opponent at all"

"Quick-Play Spell Soul Servant!" With a big wave of Yami Yugi's hand, another card appeared, "Choose a card that is Dark Magician' or mentions Dark Magician' or Dark Magician Girl', except Soul Servant', from my hand, Deck, or GY, and place it on top of the Deck.

I chose the Spell Card Dark Magic Attack' from the deck and placed it at the top of the deck. "

Yami Yugi selected a card and inserted it at the top of the deck.

The High Priest of Darkness felt bad in his heart, but he was still stubborn: "Even so, that spell will need the next round to be used"

"Another effect of Soul Servant'! Banish this Spell Card from the graveyard, and I can draw cards from the deck according to the number of Dark Magician' and Dark Magician Girl' with different names that exist on my field or in the graveyard.

Because there is a Dark Magician' in my graveyard, I draw a card from the deck! "

Yami Yugi drew a card from the deck, and that card was undoubtedly the Spell Card "Dark Magic Attack" that he had just placed at the top of the deck.

"At the same moment, the effect of Magician of Dark Illusion' is activated!" Yami Yugi continues, "If I activate a Spell/Trap Card or effect while this card is face-up on my field, I can target 1 Dark Magician' in my GY; Special Summon it. This effect can only be used once while this card is face-up on the field!

Resurrect again, Dark Magician! "

"Mahad again!?" The High Priest of Darkness's voice was distorted with anger, "But this time it's not so easy! The special ability of Doomking Balerdroch! Except for itself, when other undead abilities are activated, it can revoke that ability!"

Doomking Balerdroch: Once per turn, when a Zombie monster, except "Doomking Balerdroch", activates its effect, negate that effect.

"As long as Magician of Dark Illusion' exists on the field, his name is treated as Dark Magician'." Yami Yugi overwhelmed the voice of the great priest, "Therefore, according to the effect of Eternal Soul', Magician of Dark Illusion is also unaffected by the opponent's card effects!"

High Priest of Darkness: "!?"

There is such a thing?

But he quickly came back to his senses, quickly showed his hand speed performed a hand seal, and shouted: "Then I will also use a trap High Speed Aria!"

High Speed Aria (Trap Card): Send 1 Normal Spell Card from your hand to the Graveyard; this card's effect becomes that Normal Spell Card's effect when that card is activated. You cannot activate Spell Cards during your next turn. (anime card)

The High Priest of Darkness clicked a slab from his hand, and the slab was turned over, and its real form was

"Soul Release"!

Soul Release (Spell Card): Target up to 5 cards in any GY(s); banish them.

"Crush it for me!" The High Priest of Darkness clenched his hands into fists, "Be gone, Mahad's dead soul!"

Undoubtedly, he wanted to get rid of the "Dark Magician" in Yami Yugi's graveyard before the effect of the Magician of Dark Illusion was resolved.

But he still missed one point, a crucial point.

Yugi closed his eyes briefly and then opened them quickly, his eyes were clear and without any confusion.

"Then before the Soul Release' takes effect, activate the effect of the Continuous Trap Eternal Soul'." Yami Yugi said lightly, "Once per turn, I can special summon 1 Dark Magician' from my hand or graveyard."

Only then did the angry high priest suddenly wake up, and the coolness spread all over his limbs in an instant.

Oops!

The huge monument was lit up, and light blue fluorescent lines quickly spread all over the monument, once again outlining the portrait of the magician. A low humming sounded from inside the stele, which sounded a bit like the humming of a modern industrial engine.

The dark magic power erupted, the storm raged, and a slender figure flew out.

Dark Magician arose again!

[Dark Magician, ATK 2500]

"At this moment, the effect of Dark Magical Circle'." Yami Yugi said coldly, "Once per turn, when Dark Magician' is Normal or Special Summoned to my field, a card on the opponent's field will be banished.

Disappear, Doomking Balerdroch! "

The Dark Magician waved his wand, and the magical power inspired seemed to resonate with the space. The majestic magic power stirred the air, rapidly expanding the field of black magic.

Poor Doomking Balerdroch was captured by time and space magic again before he could stand still. The space where it was located began to distort and the dimension broke. The undead king roared into the sky, his figure was sucked into it and disappeared.

The High Priest of Darkness was stunned for a few breaths, looking at the Dark Magician standing in front of him, as invincible as the God of War, even the luster of the Millennium Eye began to dim.

No, it's not over yet.

He forced himself to calm down.

He still has a last hope of reversal.

Dimension Wall (Trap Card): Activate only when an opponent's monster declares an attack. Instead of you, your opponent takes the Battle Damage you would have taken from this battle.

The current Dark Magician is like an invincible god of war, immune to any spells, traps, or special abilities, but his master is not.

The moment Pharaoh attacks, the spell damage will be reflected back to the Pharaoh himself

"Activate the Spell Card Dark Magic Attack' from my hand." Yugi said calmly, "This card can only be activated when there is a Dark Magician' on my field.

Destroy all Spells and Traps on the opponent's field! "

Before the High Priest of Darkness could respond, he saw the Dark Magician's staff sweeping gently, and the torrent of magic power blasted out with jet-black lightning. The realm of black magic enveloped his side, and the crackling current was like thousands of short arrows, blasting the stone slab he was covering into riddled with holes.

The magic field continued to expand, sweeping the entire sealed space! The immortal souls were screaming, and countless ghosts were struck by black magic lightning. The realm of the undead faded away, and the powerful "Zombie World" was reduced to ashes and disappeared under the power of just one spell.

The High Priest of Darkness stood there blankly, looking at the empty field in front of him, speechless for a long time.

He knew it was all over.

His desires, his ambitions, and everything he worked hard for.

After casting the spell, the Dark Magician stood in front of the Pharaoh, holding his staff horizontally in front of his chest. Although it was only a slender figure, it was like an insurmountable moat.

"Is this the power of the supreme and strongest magician? Mahad?" He murmured.

"The last blow." Yugi raised his hand, "Dark Magician, attack directly."

The Dark Magician raised his staff.

The fluctuations of magic power spread, and the light bullets of the spell surrounded by the black electric current blasted out, and exploded in the chest and abdomen of the High Priest of Darkness head-on, causing the priest to fly out on his back, the mask cracked and the cloak ruptured, and the whole person flew into the field like a piece of rag outside.

Chapter 592: White Dragon

The High Priest of Darkness slammed into the ground, and the white mask was shattered into pieces. Blood spewed out of his mouth like an arrow, leaving a black and red mist on the floor.

He sat up with difficulty, his vision blurred. Dripping blood gurgled down from the top of his head, mixed with black impurities. Black veins and black blood were all over his face, making his original appearance difficult to recognize.

"Perhaps my father has really made mistakes." Yugi stepped forward and said in a calm voice, "But no matter what the sin is, I will bear it and move on."

After a short pause, he turned his head to look at the Dark Magician who was still floating beside him, and added: "Together with an irreplaceable companion."

The Dark Magician bowed slightly: "It's a great honor, Pharaoh."

The High Priest of Darkness was already at the end of his life, the blood in his whole body was almost being dyed black, and he might stop breathing at any time. Now hearing what the master and servant said, he was so angry that he couldn't open his mouth.

"Youyouuhhhhhh!!!"

He screamed in anger, and black blood spread all over his body. His skin and flesh melted and disappeared, and even his priest's robe dissipated with the "hissing" white smoke.

In just a moment, the High Priest of Darkness melted from head to toe into white smoke and dissipated, leaving only a golden eye that rolled to the ground.

The Dark Magician once again bowed to the Pharaoh, and without saying a word, he turned into a black shadow and disappeared.

Facing this disappearing shadow, Yugi couldn't help but feel filled with emotion.

Although this was just a fictional world built by the power of Shadow Game, some things really happened.

For Yugi who has traveled to the future three thousand years later and experienced countless battles, he clearly knows that Mahad has definitely kept his promise and has been guarding him for the entire three thousand years.

"Thank you, Mahad." He secretly said in his heart, "I will not let your efforts so far be wasted. No matter what Bakura is planning, I will defeat him and win this Shadow Game."

During their duel, the battle on the other side had already come to an end.

Seto, who was controlled by the High Priest of Darkness, had no mind of his own. He was just like a puppet being manipulated, and his combat effectiveness was not even half of his usual strength.

Besieged by many priests and a group of players, Seto's spirits were quickly defeated. At this time, he had also fainted on the side and temporarily lost consciousness.

Kisara stepped forward immediately and carefully lifted Seto up to check on his condition.

After finally defeating the BOSS, the screwball players took the time to gather around. Everyone was so excited when they saw Kisara as if she was their own wife.

It's a pity that she was worried about Priest Seto right now, so she didn't have time to care about them

"Who is this girl?"

Priest Karim was walking forward, but Yugi stopped him with his hand: "She is not a bad person, it doesn't matter."

The memory of Yami Yugi continued to awaken. At this time, he also remembered Kisara's identity and the indissoluble bond between Kaiba and the White Dragon.

Sure enough, there was an inexplicable connection between Kaiba and the Blue-Eyes White Dragon three thousand years ago.

Unfortunately, Yugi was also convinced that if he mentioned this to the current Kaiba, he would definitely roll his eyes and wave his hand.

"You wanted to talk to me about these supernatural things again, but I told you I wasn't interested!"

Then maybe the president would even take out a Duel Disk on the spot.

"Compared to this, I have developed a new tactic! Come on, Yu Gi , let's fight to the death!"

Thinking of this, Yugi couldn't help but twitch his lips and reveal a smile.

After experiencing so much in the world of memory and gradually understanding his past, he became more and more attached to his second life in modern times.

Even the president's voice that made people's heads ache when he heard it, "Yu Gi , come to duel soon!" actually made him miss it a little now.

After all, the time he could stay in this world was running out.

""

Priest Seto's eyelids suddenly opened.

Kisara was stunned for a moment, and then a happy smile appeared on her face: "Lord Seto"

Unexpectedly, Seto's arm was like a pitch-black rope, and he suddenly grabbed her white neck.

"LLord Seto" Kisara closed her eyes in pain, feeling that her breathing was cut off by the power.

The chirping screwball players suddenly screamed.

"What the hell are you doing, President?"

"President, are you planning to kill your wife to prove your way?"

Yugi was also shocked: "Seto! You"

Seto stood up slowly, holding the girl who was as light as weightless with one hand and lifted the Millennium Rod with the other hand.

This time his eyes were no longer empty, but instead, there was deep and boundless darkness!

"No, you're not Seto." Yugi suddenly realized, "Akhenaden!"

"Yes."

"Seto" or actually Akhenaden said coldly, "You destroyed my body, Pharaoh, but it doesn't matter. I have implanted a fragment of my consciousness in Seto's mind.

It doesn't matter if I die myself. Seto will extract the Ka in this girl's heart, and after obtaining that power, he will still become the king of the world! "

The priests at the back instantly became tense again, and no one dared to express their anger. Only the screwballs were still noisy.

"President, please put my waifu down first"

"Brother Fae, you have eaten magic mushrooms again. Sister Yuehua, please give him a golden shower"

"I think Brother Fae might be happy instead"

"Although humans are free to have whatever fetish they like, I still think you should go see a doctor"

Seeing that at this moment, this group of idiots were still arguing about something that had no meaning and no one bothered to listen to him, the High Priest of Darkness couldn't help but get angry.

These monkeys are they trying to make fun of me?

"Enough!"

The power of the High Priest of Darkness exploded with the help of Seto's body, and the illusion of the Doomking Balerdroch emerged in mid-air. The overbearing power blew players and priests away.

Only the moment Yugi raised his arm, the Dark Magician quickly flashed out of his Duel Disk, and released a defensive circle with his five fingers, blocking the attack of the Undead King for his master.

Kisara was almost suffocated by Seto's grab. Although her little mind didn't quite understand what happened specifically, she could still roughly feel it with her extraordinary talent.

Lord Seto is in darkness.

Once, when she was in prison and her future was shrouded in dark clouds, it was Seto who brought her light and freedom.

Now, it's my turn to become Lord Seto's strength.

Kisara bit her thin lips and closed her eyes tightly. The seal deep in her body was released, and surging power burst out from her delicate body!

The sacred white light enveloped his whole body, and when it was released into the air, it gradually solidified. The white dragon flew in the air, its broad wings spread to both sides, its head raised high, and its perfect lines were vividly displayed.

Blue-Eyes White Dragon!

"White Bride!"

Damn, you're still as beautiful as the day I lost you!

The players were frantically taking screenshots, and the priests were equally dumbfounded.

This girl actually has such a god-level Ka hidden inside her body!?

"Seto" also raised his head, looking crazy: "Perfect, so perfect! As long as I have this power"

But before he finished speaking, the silver-white dragon turned into countless white light spots and disappeared out of thin air.

It came in a hurry and left in a hurry, like a flash of light.

No, she didn't disappear.

The white light was like a bunch of sharp swords, cutting through layers of darkness, and stabbing straight into the depths of Seto's pupils that were dyed black.

She actually rushed directly into Seto's mental world!

"What!?"

The last fragment of Akhenaden's consciousness was entrenched in his son's heart, when facing the white dragon that suddenly crossed his face at this time, he was only shocked to the point of shattering his three views.

The power of this Ka can even affect the mental world!?

The sacred white dragon roared in the void, and boundless light was released centered on that noble body, instantly tearing the darkness entrenched in Seto's heart to pieces!

This was something she had long made up her mind to do.

Because he was the only person in this world who had given her light.

So she had to do everything in return to give him a splendid world.

The last scream of the High Priest of Darkness was also swallowed, and the remaining consciousness was also disintegrated and shattered under the brilliance of the white dragon.

The darkness in Seto's eyes disappeared.

He lost consciousness again, leaned over, and fell to the side

then he happened to fall into Kisara's arm.

The girl's arms were fair and pink, slender and soft, and looked like they had little strength, but they were able to bear his weight steadily.

Although somewhat different from Mahad, the girl also made a similar promise to herself.

From now on, forever and ever, she would be by this person's side.

Chapter 593: Millennium AI Bot

The Valley of the Kings, where the hidden tombs of the Pharaohs were located.

Yuei Vu only touched the stone slab lightly, and the light condensed into the shape of a card in his hand. It's just that there was no text on the card, no card picture, it's just a blank slate.

Yuei Vu was a little dumbfounded.

Can this fucking system work? Giving me a blank card, are you looking down on me?

Do you think I am the starfish head? Its just a blank card anyway, so "let there be effect"?!

The people walking next to him were also extremely curious. Mana couldn't help but come forward because she was too short, she simply hung her whole body on Yuei Vu's arm, poked her little head, and asked, "What is this?"

Yuei Vu didn't answer.

Because what he was thinking at this time was

I really want to know too!

A low hum came from the palace, which sounded like metal parts rubbing together, as some mechanism was operating.

The shining golden wall suddenly slid open to both sides and the steps in front split to the left and right. The stone slab that had been placed in the middle of the room suddenly sank, shrinking and disappearing under the floor.

A golden relief appeared on the innermost wall. The relief on that wall had sharp edges and corners, flashing with golden light.

What was carved on that wall was the Three Egyptian Gods in the abstract style of ancient Egypt!

Yuei Vu quickly thought of the ancient stone slab in the Egyptian Museum.

It was when Yugi showed the cards of the Three Egyptian Gods to the stone tablet that he unlocked the memory world sealed in the tablet and started this Ultimate Shadow Game.

The three Egyptian God Cards are equivalent to the keys to unlocking the seal.

So maybe a similar logic holds true here?

Yuei Vu also had three Egyptian God Cards, but they contained less power than the three original cards in Yugi's hands. I wonder if there will be any difference.

With the mentality of giving it a try, Yuei Vu took out three god cards and showed them to the golden relief in front of him.

Unexpectedly, he really got it right.

The three Egyptian God cards shot red, blue, and gold beams of light respectively, and flew into the relief corresponding to the positions of the three Egyptian Gods. Each line of the three Egyptian God reliefs was clearly outlined by the light, and the divine power that had been dusted for countless years burst out from the wall on which the reliefs depended.

Then the wall actually cracked!

The manic energy blows like a storm, making people unable to open their eyes. Yuei Vu raised his arms in front of him and took two steps back. The hem of the windbreaker behind him was flying in the wind.

"Ah, what's going on?" Mana lowered her head and covered her head.

"It seems like something is coming out!" Jonouchi shouted.

At the same time, Yuei Vu also noticed that the quest "Finding Pharaoh's True Name" in his quest panel was also updated.

Although the completion progress was still 0/1, a new description text has appeared below the line of task content, and the supplementary content has been updated.

[Description: Three thousand years ago, the great evil god Zorc Necrophades came to this world, and in a short period of time broke through the siege of the six great priests, killed the Exodia who guarded the capital, and finally defeated the Pharaoh's three Egyptian Gods.

Three thousand years ago, the Pharaoh failed to find a way to defeat Zorc, so he could only seal the great evil god back to the underworld. But as a price, the pharaoh's true name was completely erased from the world, and his soul was also trapped in the Millennium Puzzle, wandering in this world forever.

Three thousand years later, Zorc made a comeback. This time, can the world survive?]

[Mission Objective: Pass the Trial of the Pharaoh' and find The True Name'.]

Looking at this string of mission descriptions, Yuei Vu was stunned for a while.

As we all know, the protagonist's hacks can never be closed.

Even if a villain occasionally breaks out and manages to block the protagonist's cheat, the protagonist will definitely patch and upgrade the cheat before the decisive battle.

As long as my cheat is updated fast enough, the GM can't catch up with me.

The Great Evil God Zorc tried in vain to remove the item "Pharaoh's True Name" from this RPG game. Obviously, his outrageous behavior caused a chain reaction.

The conditions for obtaining the "Pharaoh's True Name" have now been changed. They only needed to pass the "Trial of the Pharaoh" in this mausoleum to obtain the true name.

Yuei Vu even bolder guessed that the reason why this level was called "Trial of the Pharaoh" was probably because Yami Yugi, who played the role of the Pharaoh, must come here in person.

Because the card of the Three Egyptian Gods itself was a symbol of the Pharaoh's authority, since it required showing the Three Egyptian Gods to unlock it, this level should be prepared for him.

It's just that the designer of this level may not have expected that there would be such a variable as Yuei Vu, who actually had another set of Three Egyptian Gods in hand.

Anyway, the level was unlocked. The one who was about to undergo this trial now was Yuei Vu.

A door opened and a dark silhouette of a figure appeared from behind it. He walked out with slow but steady steps, his blue cloak rising and falling in the light like a battle flag.

He stood still in front of Yuei Vu, and slowly raised his head, and when his majestic and domineering gaze fell, people instinctively felt the pressure doubled. The golden pendant swayed gently on his chest, and the golden eye in the center seemed to be able to penetrate people's hearts.

Yugi Muto was dumbfounded: "Another me?"

"Prince! Eh no, Lord Pharaoh?" Mana also covered her mouth.

Yuei Vu was also shocked for a moment.

Is this Yami Yugi?

Shouldn't he be in the capital?

But the other party didn't react at all to everyone's performance. He only had a blank face, as if he didn't recognize anyone present. No, to be more accurate, it should be said that there was no emotion at all.

Like a robot.

"That's right!" Yugi Muto's mind was spinning the fastest, "This is another me from three thousand years ago No, or to be more precise, it's his projection!"

"What do you mean?" Honda showed that his IQ couldn't keep up with the change of events.

"Do you still remember what the tombkeeper named Shadi told us when we came in?" Yugi Muto said, "Another me's biggest enemy?"

Jonouchi thought hard and said, "So, he seems to have mentioned it. What is the evil god Suo Suo Sol?"

"It's Zorc." Anzu said, "Your memory is really about the same as a goldfish, Jonouchi."

"What did you say!?" Jonouchi was furious.

"Yes, he said that three thousand years ago, the other me failed to find a way to defeat Zorc. Then this trial here must be for this purpose." Yugi Muto looked at the familiar but unfamiliar image on the stage, clenching his fists, "The meaning of this trial must be Only by surpassing your past self will you have the possibility of defeating Zorc'."

"That's right!" Jonouchi was stunned.

In other words, the Yami Yugi that appeared in front of everyone at this time was actually equivalent to an AI Bot. It was a projection that completely replicated everything about the Pharaoh three thousand years ago.

Millennium AI Bot.

After thinking this through, Yuei Vu couldn't help raising his eyebrows.

It looks like a miscalculation from me.

Sure enough, I should have thought of a way to trick the president into coming over. He is very good at beating AI Bots

Chapter 594: Trial of the Pharaoh

"So, as long as we defeat this projection of the Pharaoh from three thousand years ago we can get the real name of another Yugi?" Jonouchi asked.

"I don't know." Yugi Muto shook his head, "Maybe."

Yuei Vu checked the mission content again and frowned, feeling that it was not that simple.

Because the quest reward column was still "unknown", it was reasonable to expect that they would not acquire the final item so easily.

But now there was no choice but to accept this trial. After all, a certain unscrupulous great evil god has already wiped out the "Pharaoh's True Name", and there seems to be no other way to get this final item other than following this line.

Yugi Muto was a little hesitant and seemed to want to do it.

After all, up until now, he had only been watching from the back of his other self. Whenever he needed to fight, Yami Yugi would always fight in his place.

But the time of separation was coming soon.

He clearly understood that he could no longer rely on his other self. He must take charge of his own business as soon as possible, stand up as soon as possible, and bear the title of "Duel King" on his own shoulders.

Because if I didn't another me wouldn't be able to leave peacefully.

Seemingly knowing what he was thinking, Yuei Vu patted his shoulder and chuckled.

"It's okay, just leave it to me this time." Yuei Vu said, "The battle that belongs to you is still behind."

Yugi Muto was startled for a moment, bit his lower lip, and nodded vigorously.

"Yes." He said firmly, "I believe in you, Yuei Vu, all the time. So please."

Yuei Vu stepped forward and came to face the ancient king. Golden light splashed out from the open door, making the Pharaoh's image appear a bit distorted.

This projection looked exactly the same as Yami Yugi, but perhaps it was more appropriate to call him "The Nameless Pharaoh" now after all, it was a copy of the Pharaoh from three thousand years ago, without any experience of encountering Yugi.

Yuei Vu opened the Duel Disk, the system activated the duel mode, and the deck was automatically shuffled.

The other party was the king from three thousand years ago even though he didn't know how much strength this projection could replicate, he still couldn't be careless in the slightest.

The Nameless Pharaoh also unfolded the golden ancient Duel Disk on the back of his hand, and five golden lights turned into stone slabs out of thin air and appeared in front of him.

Yuei Vu held his breath and concentrated, gathering all his energy.

In this battle, we absolutely must go all out!

[Yuei Vu, LP 4000]

The Nameless Pharaoh, LP 4000

"Looks like I'm the one to go first."

The indicator light on Yuei Vu's Duel Disk lighted up. He confirmed it, looked up to the opposite side, and after the Pharaoh nodded slightly to show that he had no objection, he immediately started his turn.

"My turn, draw." Yuei Vu directly showed two cards in his hand, "Activate Spell Card Destiny Draw'. Discard 1 Destiny HERO' card; draw 2 cards."

I discarded Destiny HERO Malicious' to the graveyard and drew two cards. "

He exchanged the Destiny HERO for two new cards in his hand. Yuei Vu added them to his hand and immediately took out another one from his hand.

"Summon the Elemental HERO Blazeman' in defense position."

[Elemental HERO Blazeman, DEF 1800]

"The effect of Blazeman." A card in the lower middle part of Yuei Vu's thick deck automatically popped up, and he pulled it out, "If this card is Normal or Special Summoned: I can add 1 'Polymerization' from my Deck to my hand. "

After briefly showing "Polymerization", he added it to his hand and then drew another card and inserted it into the Duel Disk.

"Spell Card Over Destiny! Target 1 Destiny HERO' monster in my GY; Special Summon 1 Destiny HERO' monster from my Deck whose Level is less than or equal to half of that target's Level, but destroy it during the End Phase of this turn.

I chose the Level 6 Destiny HERO Malicious in the graveyard.

Appear! Level 1, Destiny HERO Disk Commander! "

The cutting tracks criss-crossed, and the hero who was equipped with discs all over his body came to the field with a shout, and the discs all over his body rotated at high speed, making slight noises when they rubbed against the air.

[Destiny HERO Disk Commander, DEF 300]

"Then activate the Spell Card 'Polymerization' from your hand!" Yuei Vu held up the card retrieved by Blazeman, "Fusion Summon 1 Fusion Monster from my Extra Deck, using monsters from my hand or field as Fusion Material!

I fuse Elemental HERO Blazeman' on the field and Elemental HERO Liquid Soldier' in my hand!

The fusion condition is 1 Elemental HERO' monster + 1 WATER monster!

Fusion Summon! Born from the extremely cold abyss, freezing everything with the absolute power of ice and snow

Elemental HERO Absolute Zero! "

The ice and snowstorm rolled up, and the snowflakes flew along the vortex of the airflow with the ice crystals. The extremely cold storm was like a drum washing machine running at full speed.

The hero stepped out slowly, the snow-white cloak fluttered among the snowflakes, and transparent ice crystals expanded where the white combat boots landed, and the entire platform seemed to be frozen by him.

[Elemental HERO Absolute Zero, ATK 2500]

"The effect of Elemental HERO Liquid Soldier' If this card is used as Fusion Material for a HERO' monster, and sent to the GY or banished: I can draw 2 cards, then discard 1 card."

Yuei Vu drew two cards, added them to his hand, and without much thought, he picked one and sent it to the graveyard. Immediately afterward, the tomb area of the Duel Disk flashed with light, and the card that just entered popped out by itself.

"The one I just sent to GY is the Elemental HERO Shadow Mist'." Yuei Vu said, "When Shadow Mist is sent to the GY: I can add 1 HERO' monster from my Deck to my hand.

I added another Elemental HERO Liquid Soldier' from the deck to my hand. "

Liquid Soldier was drawn from the deck and displayed briefly, and the deck was automatically shuffled again.

Yuei Vu quickly scanned the remaining cards in his hand, confirmed the situation on the field, and then drew two more cards.

"Set two cards, I end my turn."

As a starter, he thought this lineup was not bad and should be enough to resist.

Now the key was to see how the Pharaoh 3,000 years ago would attack.

"This big brother is amazing" Mana whispered.

"Of course, Yuei Vu is the Duel King in our world!" Jouchi started bragging.

"Duel King?" Mana blinked, "Like a Pharaoh?"

"Uhalthough it's a bit different, but you can understand like that."

"It's amazing!" Mana exclaimed, "No wonder it's the prince's friend! Oh no, it's the Pharaoh"

Yuei Vu finished the operation here, and the ancient king on the opposite side also started to act at this time.

"My turn." He gently raised his hand, and a stone slab fell down.

It's still the familiar Yami Yugi's voice, but it sounds colder and more inhumane, like a ruthless card-playing machine.

His cold pupils turned, his gaze fell on a stone slab for a moment, and then he slowly raised his hand.

"Discard a slab." He said lightly, "Call the magician spirit The Tricky'."

A magician with a question mark on his head and chest came to his field, with a magic cloak hanging behind him.

The Tricky: This card can be specially summoned by discarding a card from your hand.

[The Tricky, ATK 2000]

"Exile the Giant Soldier of Stone' that was just abandoned in the cemetery." He said coldly, "Come on, The Rock Spirit'."

The Rock Spirit: Must first be Special Summoned (from your hand) by banishing 1 EARTH monster from your GY.

[The Rock Spirit, ATK 1700]

"I use the spell Fiend's Sanctuary'."

The Pharaoh's gestures changed slightly as if giving instructions silently, and the stone slab in front of him slowly turned over after receiving the order.

The little man made of silver-gray metal emerged from the stone slab and slowly fell to the ground in front of him, lying in front of the Pharaoh.

[Metal Fiend Token, DEF 0]

Fiend's Sanctuary (Spell Card): Special Summon 1 "Metal Fiend Token" (Fiend/DARK/Level 1/ATK 0/DEF 0). It cannot attack. Your opponent takes any battle damage you would have taken from battles involving it. During each of your Standby Phases, pay 1000 LP or destroy this Token.

"Three monsters in one moment!" Yugi Muto said in surprise.

"Masaka (It cannot be)!?" Jonouchi couldn't help but exclaim.

Three monsters, and the chance to normal summon hasn't been consumed

Cant be wrong!

In the hands of this Pharaoh, there is the power of Egyptian Gods!

"Are you actually planning to summon God to the field in the first round!?" Yugi Muto said hurriedly, "Yuei Vu, be careful!"

"I know." Yuei Vu's face darkened.

The Three Egyptian Gods were the most powerful servants of the Pharaoh. There were indeed written records that the Pharaoh three thousand years ago summoned the Three Egyptian Gods to fight fiercely with the Great Evil God Zorc, but they failed. Therefore, the Pharaoh finally had to pay the price of losing his name and identity and used his soul to seal the evil god.

He had already expected that the other party would summon Egyptian Gods, but he didn't expect it to be so fast.

Was this the power of the "Millennium Divine Draw"?

But it wouldn't be that simple!

"Open the set card!" Yuei Vu snapped his fingers, and the card in front of him flipped over, "Quick-Play Spell Mask Change! Send 1 HERO' monster I control to the Graveyard, then Special Summon 1 Masked HERO' monster from my Extra Deck with the same Attribute!

I sent the WATER-attributed Elemental HERO Absolute Zero' to the GY, transform!

The extremely cold hero reappears wearing a mask

Masked HERO Vapor! "

The cold air broke out and frost swept across the entire place. The special effects of water and ice transformed into clear armor, covering the body of the Absolute Zero, and transforming him into a completely new posture in just an instant!

[Masked HERO Vapor, DEF 2000]

"At this moment, the effect of Absolute Zero! When this card leaves the field, all monsters on the opponent's field will be destroyed!"

Yuei Vu waved his hand.

Chapter 595: The Nameless Pharaoh

The steel blue and white armor covered the ice crystal hero's body, reflecting a crystal blue flash. The raging cold air wandered around, and ice crystals climbed up the golden stone walls and froze the load-bearing columns.

Absolute Zero!

In the frozen domain, the silver-gray metal demon, the titan of the earth, and the tricky magician were all frozen in an instant, turning into three frozen statues, which were covered with cracks in an instant, and shattered with the sound of crackling everywhere.

"Beautiful!" Yugi Muto praised, "At the moment of summoning, he cleverly used the ability of Absolute Zero' to destroy all the monsters in an instant so that the other one would not be able to collect sacrifices to summon the god!"

Although it was a bit unaccustomed to cheer for the opponent when his other self was dueling with others, Yugi Muto still hoped that Yugi Muto would win from the bottom of his heart. Because this may be their only chance to get the "Pharaoh's True Name" and help Yami Yugi regain his lost identity.

"This is all for the other me." He thought in his heart.

"But Pharaoh Yugi is really good." Jonouchi wiped off his sweat, "Being able to summon a god in the first turn, even if he is just a projection, he doesn't feel weak at all!"

If it wasn't Yugi Muto but someone else, he would have been killed instantly, right? "

The three monsters summoned in one breath were all destroyed in the blink of an eye, but the ancient Pharaoh didn't even move his eyelids.

He calmly raised his hand and hit another stone slab.

"The spell Monster Recovery'." He said calmly, "All slabs will be returned, and new slabs will come as replacements."

Monster Recovery (Spell Card): Return all monsters on your side of the field and cards in your hand to your Deck. Shuffle your Deck, then draw 5 cards. (animation effect)

Yugi Muto was helpless: "Erase the resource gap in an instant It's really a heaven-defying magic with the power of a pharaoh."

Five brand new stone slabs flashed in front of the Pharaoh. He clicked on one of them without looking.

"Show up, Watapon."

A cute little ball of cotton jumped out of the slab and landed on the floor where the ice hadn't dissipated. It is also one of the most commonly used cards of Yami Yugi.

Watapon: If this card is added from your Deck to your hand by a card effect: You can Special Summon this card.

[Watapon, DEF 300]

"Use the spell Multiply' to make the Watapon split into five!"

Another slab was flipped, and it was also a Spell Card commonly used by Yami Yugi!

Multiply (Spell Card): Tribute a monster with 500 or less ATK, and split that monster into any number of Tokens. (anime effect)

Of course, the pharaoh chose the Watapon on the field as the target. The cute fluffy ball split at an alarming speed, one became two, two became four, and after a while of being dazzled, it instantly transformed into five Watapon Tokens, filling the field.

"Offer three Watapon Tokens' as sacrifices! In the name of the Pharaoh, calling the solemn real name of the god, and coming to the earth the God of Destruction, Obelisk! "

The Pharaoh's face was expressionless, and the turbulent blue energy swept like a storm, causing the Millennium Puzzle on his chest to fly up and down, shining golden light.

The name of the god was like thunder moving the nine heavens, the blue electric current shattered the ice everywhere, and the flying ice slag melted in mid-air, reflecting the colorful brilliance.

The blue giant crashed to the ground, like a peerless Mount Tai lying behind the Pharaoh. The suspended ice slag was melted into water and evaporated the moment it touched the blue airwave. The icy realm of Absolute Zero collapsed with the coming of the gods, and the air was "sizzling" with high-temperature air, and the refraction of light seemed to be distorted in space.

[Obelisk the Tormentor, ATK 4000]

"Are you kidding me!?" Jonouchi was dumbfounded, "Is it still possible to summon the god?"

"No, it's more than that!" Yugi Muto anxiously raised the volume, "The effect of Obelisk is"

"The other two Watapon Tokens' are sacrificed to the gods."

The Pharaoh's unwavering voice sounded.

"Give all the opponent's servants and their masters, the sanction of the Holy Hand!"

The God of Destruction reached out with two big hands, one on the left and one on the right, grasping the "Watapon Tokens". The two Tokens were immediately transformed into pure energy, like a torrential river flowing straight into the god's head.

The aura of the God of Destruction has been raised to the extreme. His scarlet eyes were flashing with red light, and the blue light of the raised divine fist was shining, and the destructive power contained in it was enough to sweep everything!

"Obelisk's effect is that by sacrificing two monsters, it can destroy all the opponent's monsters and inflict 4000 points of damage to the player!" Yugi Muto struggled to raise his head despite the hurricane, "One move is enough to decide the outcome!"

"Yuei Vu!" Anzu cried out worriedly.

It's good to have a pretty young lady worry about you, but Yuei Vu knew that she was not really worried about him, but that she was worried about her sweetheart Yugi.

Because if Yuei Vu died here, his chance of getting the "Pharaoh's True Name" would be gone

But Yuei Vu didn't even have the intention to call that now.

With God's pressure and super-speed attack and defense, he faced a life-or-death situation in the first round.

The pace of this duel was so fast that there was no time to breathe!

Obelisk waved his fist, and the divine fist pierced the air, bringing a raging frenzy, as well as arcs and storms that tore everything apart!

Soul Energy MAX!

"Open the set card!" At the critical moment, Yuei Vu opened the remaining set card, "Trap Card Damage Translation! Halve all effect damage I take this turn!"

The divine light that destroyed everything swept across Yuei Vu's field and everything in the God of Destruction's domain would be burned into corpses!

Yuei Vu, LP 4000 LP 2000

The turbulent current swept past, and the Disk Commander was reduced to ashes the moment he touched the divine light. But the masked hero endured it with tenacity. Black smoke was rising from the blue and white armor. The hero under the mask was out of breath, but he still stayed on the field tenaciously.

"Masked HERO Vapor will not be destroyed by any card effect." Yuei Vu explained.

Everyone around him breathed a sigh of relief.

"It's dangerous, as expected of Yuei Vu." Honda patted his chest, "Jonouchi, if you were in his place just now, it must be over, right?"

Jonouchi just swallowed his saliva but did not refute the good brother's words.

Because he felt from the bottom of his heart that if he faced the nameless Pharaoh just now, he might have been defeated in seconds.

No, this is a bit too strong, right?

The pharaoh at this time is like a god of war!

Obelisk returned to the master's field, but his domineering eyes were still staring at the enemy. The nameless pharaoh swiped his arm lightly, his cloak fluttering behind him, and said coldly: "This round is over."

"Another effect of the Damage Translation'." Yuei Vu said, "At the end of the turn when this card is activated, Special Summon 1 Ghost Token' in Defense Position for each time I took effect damage this turn."

The phantom of the trap card appeared again, and a transparent ghost floated to the field in front of Yuei Vu and landed gently.

[Ghost Token, DEF 0]

Yuei Vu took a long breath.

Even if it's just a projection, this pharaoh was very strong, very strong.

But Yuei Vu's counterattack was just about to start.

Chapter 596: Attack and Receive

"My turn, draw!"

It was Yuei Vu's turn again. He glanced at the cards in his hand, quickly deduced and combined the possibilities of several cards in his mind, and finalized a counterattack plan.

"First, I use the Spell Card Pot of Greed, and draw two more cards from the deck."

The greedy green pot appeared, and a "DRAW" card drawing permission prompt appeared on the display of the Duel Disk. Yuei Vu drew two cards, added them to his hand, and continued the operation.

Then remove the Destiny HERO Malicious from the graveyard from the game.

A card popped up in the tomb area of Yuei Vu's Duel Disk, and he picked it up. At the same time, another card in the deck popped up automatically.

"When Destiny HERO Malicious' is in my graveyard. I can banish it from my GY; Special Summon 1 Destiny HERO Malicious' from my Deck.

Come on, Malicious! "

The undercurrent rolled, and the Destiny HERO emerged from the mire-like darkness, letting out a low roar, spreading his wings, and swinging his long tail up and down.

[Destiny HERO Malicious, DEF 800]

Yuei Vu paused, then solemnly and slowly pulled out a card in his hand.

The opponent in this duel was not someone he could win while holding back. In other words, if he was even a little careless, he may be killed instantly by the power of the Egyptian God.

This time, he must go all out.

"I sacrifice the three monsters on the field, Masked HERO Vapor', Ghost Token', and Destiny HERO Malicious!"

The white whirlwind surrounded the three monsters in turn, and thunder and lightning flashed from the high dome of the golden hall as if something was about to move.

The pupils of Jonouchi shrank: "Could it be that Yuei Vu also wants to!?"

"Ah!?" Yugi Muto was equally surprised.

God cards shouldn't they be in the hand of another me?

"Piercing through the underworld and reality, descending from the chaos of sky thunder, and appearing here

Osiris the Sky Dragon, descends! ! ! "

Thunder crashed down, and the earth exploded. Black smoke billowed in all directions, and bricks, stones, and tiles were smashed into pieces in mid-air.

The red dragon descended from the sky, and the corners of the upper and lower mouths breathed out bursts of white mist. The winding and coiled body seemed to be covered with red armor of steel. The dragon roared at the blue giant in front of him at the top of his lungs, facing the majesty of the God of Destruction without fear.

"Hey!?"

The only real local, Mana, was so frightened that she sat on the ground with a "slap" on her little butt.

Why is this handsome man able to control the god?

Doesn't that mean he is as powerful as the prince!?

Jonouchi quickly came back to his senses: "Yes yes! If Yuei Vu also has the God Card in his hand, he can fight equal to the opposite side's Egyptian God"

"No." Yugi Muto shook his head and said solemnly, "The Egyptian God he summoned is the Osiris the Sky Dragon', whose attack power is based on the number of cards in his hand. But the number of cards in his current hand is

[Osiris the Sky Dragon, ATK 4000]

"The attack power is equal to Obelisk." Honda said, "Are they going to die together?"

But Yuei Vu had no such plan: "Activate the effect of the second Destiny HERO Malicious' in the graveyard! Remove it from the game, and special summon the third Destiny HERO Malicious' from the deck!

[Destiny HERO Malicious, DEF 800]

Then he drew another card from his hand: "Quick-Play Spell Reflect Energy! Tribute a monster on my field and select another monster on the field. The selected monster can directly attack the player during this turn!" (animation card)

Thank you again for your generosity, President.

Yes, this card was brought by Yuei Vu from Kaiba Corp's storage. This card was originally used by Kaiba when he fought against Dartz. At that time, he tried to use this "Reflect Energy" to allow the "Dragon Master Knight" on the field to bypass the iron wall on Dartz's field and conduct a direct attack. Unfortunately, he failed.

"Amazing!" Jonouchi showed his face art, "Even if Obelisk cannot be defeated, there is still a way to go around the monster and attack directly!"

[Osiris the Sky Dragon, ATK 4000 ATK 3000]

Malicious turned into a burst of white light and flew towards the back of the Pharaoh, forming a crystal-clear shining disk, as bright as a clear mirror.

"Osiris, attack!" Yuei Vu waved, "Super Conductive Wave Thunder Cannon!"

The sky dragon opened its huge mouth. Thousands of thunders converged towards its open mouth, rushed and shot from the dragon's mouth, as if the sword energy that had been sealed for a hundred years left the scabbard.

The beam of light seemed to be flying towards the Obelisk in a mighty manner, but it was just a feint. It passed by him and hit the energy-reflecting disk behind the Pharaoh.

The Super Conductive Wave Thunder Cannon rushed back along an acute angle on the disc along with the roar, as if carrying thousands of troops galloping towards the Pharaoh from behind!

The pharaoh didn't turn his head back, and stood there calmly, as if the unparalleled offensive was not aimed at himself.

He stretched out his hand, and calmly hit a stone slab in front of him.

In the next second, what abruptly blocked the assault trajectory of the superconducting wave was Kuriboh!

The ear-piercing explosions were amplified countless times in the golden palace, and all the thunder in the field gathered into a tornado of electricity, but it was like being kicked up an iron plate and being bounced around.

The invincible Kuriboh blocked the blow of God again!

Kuriboh: Kuri Kuri!

The corner of Yuei Vu's mouth twitched.

Kuriboh, is it really standard equipment of the Pharaoh even since three thousand years ago

Speaking of which, it reminded him of the plot in the original manga. It was the time when Priest Seto first came to the palace. At that time, Seto was arrogant and felt that he was invincible.

However, not long after, he was defeated by Yami Yugi at that time. The key to the decisive victory at that time was also the Kuriboh.

It can be seen that there was a reason why the president hated Kuriboh so much. Nowadays, people often say "lifelong enemy", but in this case, it may not be accurate to say that Kuriboh was the president's lifelong enemy because the president has been tricked by this guy since his previous life

The attack failed, but Yuei Vu was not too surprised, and only drew two more cards from his hand.

He also has countermeasures.

"Set two cards, I end my turn."

[Osiris the Sky Dragon, ATK 3000 ATK 1000]

"Ahhh, the attack power of Osiris has dropped further!" Honda became nervous, "Isn't this even further behind the opponent?"

Yugi Muto shook his head: "No. Osiris is already lower than Obelisk in terms of attack power. So instead of saving cards in hand to increase Osiris' attack power, it is better to take a gamble and use the resources in hand to organize a counterattack."

"That's what you say, but traps don't work against gods." Jonouchi said anxiously, "Ordinary methods don't work against gods at all."

"But I believe in Yuei Vu." Yugi said seriously, "He must have an idea."

While speaking, it has come to the turn of the pharaoh again.

"My turn. Use the spell Pot of Greed'."

The Pharaoh turned over the stone slab, and a large green pot with a yellow-toothed grin appeared in front of him.

"Add two slabs."

After obtaining two new stone slabs, he only glanced at them briefly and then continued to click on one of them.

"The spell Graceful Charity', obtain three new slabs, and choose two to discard as a price."

Here comes the classic two-hit combo of banned cards from three thousand years ago.

It's just that Yuei Vu's mentality has been completely different after traveling to this world for a long time. When he saw the banned cards now, he just felt calm. In comparison, the anime version of "Monster Recovery" used by the Pharaoh in the last round was much better than these two.

"Fight! Obelisk, defeat Osiris."

The giant god soldier raised his huge fist, and the surrounding airflow was affected and swept by hurricanes. Blue halos lingered on the giant's fist, and the moment it was blasted was like an artillery strike.

This blow would directly cause 3000 points of battle damage, and Yuei Vu only had 2000 LP left.

The decisive blow!

"Open the set card!" Of course, Yuei Vu has prepared, "Trap Card Nutrient Z! During damage calculation, when I'm about to take 2000 or more battle damage: Gain 4000 LP first!"

Yuei Vu, LP 2000 LP 6000

With a heavy bombardment, the giant's heavy fist exploded on the sky dragon. The dragon's body trembled violently, and dazzling lightning leaped out of it, penetrating the air like static electricity.

[Yuei Vu, LP 6000 LP 3000]

The aftermath of the clash of divine powers erupted, and the blue fist wave spread to the audience, leaving everyone unable to breathe or lift their heads.

"Can he barely make it through?" Honda gritted his teeth.

"Wait a minute," Yugi Muto noticed something, "Yuei Vu just activated another card!"

Sure enough, everyone followed his gaze and saw that another trap on Yuei Vu's field had also flipped over at some point!

After Obelisk's divine fist blasted out, the power of the fist did not dissipate, but condensed together like iron filings attracted by a magnet, and gathered above Yuei Vu.

"Trap Card Bye Bye Damage." Yuei Vu squatted on the ground, trying his best to suppress the discomfort caused by the blood churning through his body, gritted his teeth, "During damage calculation, if a monster I control is attacked: That monster cannot be destroyed by that battle.

Moreover, if that battle causes any battle damage to me, inflicts double that amount of damage to the opponent! "

"The damage caused by Obelisk's punch just now is 3000 points!" Jonouchi was pleasantly surprised, "If it rebounds twice, it will cause 6000 points of damage!"

"It's a checkmate!" This time, it's Honda who began to make face art, "With a god as the opponent, he reversed the situation with one blow! Yuei Vu is really super strong!"

"Yeah!" Yugi Muto also nodded happily, "I told you, Yuei Vu is very strong!"

"The effect of Bye Bye Damage," Yuei Vu maintained a half-squatting posture, and waved his arm, "Eat 6000 points of reflected damage!"

Chapter 597: Millennium Divine Draw

"Eat 6000 points of reflected damage!"

With a wave of Yuei Vu's hand, the blue shock wave absorbed by the trap was released, blasting straight at the Pharaoh with a violent sound of breaking through the air!

With 6000 points of damage, it's an OTK!

The reflected blue light stirred the space, illuminating the hard face of the Pharaoh. He just stood there, his cloak fluttering in the storm, the golden pendant on his chest swaying constantly, and the friction and collision of the chains made a crisp jingle.

He raised his hand and hit another slab in front of him.

A white and furry spherical little ball flapped its angelic wings and jumped out, releasing a hemispherical light blue barrier in front of him. The power of the reflected Divine Fist unreservedly poured over the barrier, like a torrent of water rushing past the transparent shield.

Hanewata!

Hanewata: You can discard this card; you take no effect damage this turn.

"Damn it! It was blocked again." Jonouchi felt sorry for Yuei Vu, "The opponent's defense line is impeccable!"

The pharaoh let another stone slab lie in front of him and immediately ended this round of action.

Yuei Vu's strategy was nullified again. He wasn't too surprised. If it could be done so easily, then the pharaoh on the opposite side would not be much better than President Kaiba's normal AI Bot.

But in this way, he also had to think about how to go next.

"My turn, draw!"

Pulling out a card from the deck, he glanced out of the corner of his eye, and couldn't help but move his gaze.

This was really a good card, which was exactly what he needed most now.

"Continuous Spell Card of Safe Return!" A Spell Card appeared in front of Yuei Vu, "As long as this card exists on the field, whenever a monster is resurrected from the graveyard to the field, I will draw three cards from the deck. "

He then revealed the hero card he had retrieved in the first round.

"Summon the Elemental HERO Liquid Soldier' in defense position!"

[Elemental HERO Liquid Soldier, DEF 1300]

"The effect of Liquid Soldier." Yuei Vu said, "When this card is Normal Summoned: I can target 1 Level 4 or lower HERO' monster in my GY, except Elemental HERO Liquid Soldier'; Special Summon it. Come on, Destiny Hero Discman!"

Liquid Soldier waved his hand to the side, the water flow surrounded and cut out a blue ring, and the hero with disks all over his body jumped out.

[Destiny HERO Disk Commander, DEF 300]

"The effect of Disk Commander When this card is Special Summoned from the graveyard, I draw two cards from the deck. Then there was the effect of the Card of Safe Return', and I drew three more cards!"

After adding five cards to his hand in one go, Sky Dragon raised his head and let out a heavy roar. Golden thunder and lightning crackled around it, and red energy enveloped the dragon's body like fire, and its power increased accordingly.

[Osiris the Sky Dragon, ATK 0 ATK 5000]

"Oh, Osiris's attack power has surpassed that of Obelisk!" Jonouchi was excited.

"Come on, Yuei Vu!" Honda also started to cheer him up.

"Battle!" Yuei Vu shouted, "Osiris, attack Obelisk! Super Conductive Wave Thunder Cannon!"

This order obviously made Sky Dragon very happy. Before the master could finish his words, its mouth had already opened. Thunder from the sky was brewing in that huge mouth, and the bright light surged like a storm. Golden cannon light spurted out, causing sand and gravel to fly everywhere where the light shone brightly.

Obelisk raised his fists to resist, but his fist power only lasted for a moment before being defeated by the superelectric wave. The giant was bounced back awkwardly, and his back was pushed against the golden wall behind.

Everyone felt that the entire palace beneath their feet was shaking like an earthquake, and a crack appeared on the golden wall.

Obelisk the Tormentor has fallen!

[The Nameless Pharaoh, LP 4000 LP 3000]

But Yuei Vu's attack was not over yet!

He took out another card from his hand: "Quick-Play Spell Mischief of the Time Goddess! Skip to the start of the Battle Phase of my next turn! "

[Osiris the Sky Dragon, ATK 5000 ATK 4000]

Anzu tried hard to keep up with the rhythm: "Jump directly to the start of the Battle Phase of the next turn, which means"

"Osiris has gained the right to attack again!" Yugi said.

Jonouchi snapped his fingers: "Yuei Vu wins!"

The Goddess of Time, with twin ponytails and slender, smooth hair as blue as the sea, descended lightly, blinked her eyes mischievously, and waved the small magic wand of time in her hand.

The red corundum-like staff bloomed with light, and the brilliance enveloped the entire place. An invisible wheel of time emerged over the entire venue, the hands of the clock were spinning, and time in the venue was accelerating like a flash flood.

Gaining the power to attack again, Osiris opened his big mouth, gathering boundless divine power, and the golden light was as bright as the golden sun!

"Go, Osiris! Super Conductive Wave Thunder Cannon, second shot!" Yuei Vu gave the order.

Thunder exploded, and the beam penetrated the space! There was no obstacle in front of him. The Pharaoh raised his head and faced the impact of the endless golden light without blinking. He only raised his hand indifferently again.

On the floor before him, a dark vortex leading to the underworld opened. A small and cute black figure jumped out of it, intercepting the trajectory of the superconducting wave.

Kuriboh, another invincible Kuriboh!

But this time, its Clear Kuriboh!

Clear Kuriboh: When an opponent's monster declares a direct attack: You can banish this card from your Graveyard; draw 1 card, if it is a monster, you can Special Summon it, then change the attack target to it.

Yuei Vu narrowed his eyes: "Is it one of the two cards discarded by Graceful Charity?"

However, the defensive effect of the Clear Kuriboh was unstable, because the card drawn from the top of the deck at this time was completely random. As long as no monster cards were drawn and Osiris' attack passed, Yuei Vu still won.

But as we all know, everything about a true duelist is inevitable.

Especially in such a dangerous situation, the drawn card was absolutely destined.

The nameless pharaoh slowly raised his arms, palms facing the sky, the cloak and the Millennium Puzzle were violently swinging under the storm of divine power.

Shining golden light emerged in midair, gradually transforming into the shape of a stone slab. But it was an obviously different stone slab. Before it was opened, the stone slab released a dazzling golden light, like the rising sun about to rise on the other side of the horizon.

"Could it be!?" Yugi Muto was the first to react.

The pharaoh seemed to be chanting a mantra, and he recited the ancient priest's words lightly. The incantation was typed in like a code, and a more dazzling golden light bloomed, even melting the stone slab itself.

The supreme being was liberated from the seal, and the flames adorned the huge body. The high temperature distorted the space, and the flames turned into armor and covered the surface of the metal body.

Bathed in the inextinguishable flame, the divine bird spread its flaming wings!

The Winged Dragon of Ra, descends!

The corner of Yuei Vu's mouth twitched, with an expression of "I'm so stupid".

Using the effect of Clear Kuriboh to summon Ra, can you believe it!?

Chapter 598: All Are Trash

The Winged Dragon of Ra, descends!

The scorching wind swept through the confined space, and the scalding air waves shattered the floor tiles. The body shining like gold in mid-air was coated with flaming armor, and even the air was burned red.

"At this critical moment, do you actually hit The Winged Dragon of Ra!?" Jonouchi raised his arm and shouted in front of him.

The priest girl Mana was sitting on the ground. She had never seen such momentum before and was stunned: "The prince is so powerful, he is so powerful"

"No, when Special Summoned, the attack power of Ra is 0!" Honda said, "According to the effect of the Clear Kuriboh', the Sky Dragon's attack target will be forced to be transferred to The Winged Dragon of Ra. Yuei Vu still wins!"

"No." Yugi's expression was solemn, "When Special Summoned, Ra has the powerful ability to attack quickly!"

The Pharaoh closed his eyes, crossed his arms in front of him, and began to recite the incantation in a low voice.

The flames burned blazingly, and the vast divine power in the golden bird's body exploded, entering the strongest state of "God Phoenix".

The Winged Dragon in the state of God Phoenix was unaffected by any card effects, was not destroyed by battle, and the controller took no battle damage from it.

In addition, when the Winged Dragon entered the God Phoenix state, the controller could pay 1000 LP to destroy all monsters on the opponent's field.

And this was exactly the effect the nameless Pharaoh intended to activate at this time.

[The Nameless Pharaoh, LP 3000 LP 2000]

The heat wave erupted like a volcano, and lava swept across the earth. The fiery current quickly engulfed the entire site on Yuei Vu's side, and all the iron slag accumulated on the ground was melted into a stream of heat, swarming in.

The Sky Dragon roared unwillingly, but unfortunately, it ranked lower than the Winged Dragon among the three Egyptian Gods. The flames of the phoenix rushed through without hindrance, burning it to ashes.

Fortunately, Sky Dragon still played a role.

Just like the situation in the duel between Yugi and Marik in the anime, when there was the "Sky Dragon of Osiris" on the field, all the field-clearing effects of God Phoenix could be borne by the sky dragon, without affecting other monsters on the field.

So at least there were still monsters that could act as walls on Yuei Vu's field, which was barely good news.

At the end of this turn, the powerful Winged Dragon would return to the graveyard to sleep, but this did not mean that it could be taken lightly.

From the duels of six-year-olds in the past, everyone knew that the Winged Dragon sleeping in the graveyard was the most terrifying. Different from the other two Egyptian Gods, the Winged Dragon revived from the graveyard would turn into an invincible "God Phoenix", with terrifying instant kill ability.

Still have to try to get rid of this trouble here first.

"The Battle Phase is over and we enter the Main Phase 2." Yuei Vu drew another card from his hand, "Equip Spell Premature Burial! Pay 800 LP, then target 1 monster in your Graveyard; Special Summon that target in Attack Position and equip it with this card.

What I want to resurrect is Elemental HERO Shadow Mist! "

Yuei Vu, LP 3000 LP 2200

The equipment card appeared in the back row, and the corresponding monster zone opened up a black vortex. The girl in tight black attire flew out and was bound to the equipment card.

[Elemental HERO Shadow Mist, ATK 1000]

"The effect of Shadow Mist If this card is Special Summoned: I can add 1 Change' Quick-Play Spell Card from my Deck to my hand." A card popped up in Yuei Vu's deck, "I added the Quick-Play Spell Mask Change' to the hand.

Then I activate Mask Change!

Send 1 HERO' monster I control to the Graveyard, then Special Summon 1 Masked HERO' monster from my Extra Deck with the same Attribute.

I sent Elemental HERO Shadow Mist' to the graveyard, transform!

A knight born from the abyss, the incarnation of the law of darkness! Coming here

Masked HERO Dark Law! ! ! "

The black airflow exploded under the domain suppressed by the sun god, and the black armor with wild lines covered the Shadow Mist's body. The dark Masked HERO appeared in a half-squatting position, he slowly stood up straight, his five-fingered sharp claws spread out, and the introverted dark aura slowly diffused.

[Masked HERO Dark Law, ATK 2400]

"Oh, Yuei Vu's new Masked HERO has appeared!" After Jounouchi cheered, he also felt strange, "But the Battle Phase of this turn has ended, and there is no way to launch further attacks.

Moreover, there is The Winged Dragon of Ra in the state of "God Phoenix" on the field, and there is no way to inflict damage on the opposing player. Why did Yuei Vu want to? "

Yuei Vu drew two more cards from his hand: "Set two cards, I end my turn."

After a pause, he suddenly pointed at the phoenix churning in flames in mid-air.

"At this moment, The Winged Dragon of Ra will return to the graveyard due to its own effect." Yuei Vu explained in a deep voice, "As long as Dark Law is on the field, any card sent to the opponent's GY is banished instead."

"Eh?" Honda, a layman, was surprised, "Can it still be like this? I thought God is unaffected by monster effects"

"No." Yugi Muto shook his head, "It is true that gods do not accept monster effects, but that is only when they exist on the field. Gods that leave the field are just ordinary cards."

God is not invincible. The seemingly unsolvable effects and near-perfect resistance actually have blind spots that can be conquered.

In this regard, no one, perhaps even including the Pharaoh Yami Yugi himself, dared to say that he knew better than Yugi Muto.

Although it was said that Yugi Muto and Yami Yugi have always been a partnership that supported each other and fought side by side, in fact, as a duelist, he has rehearsed countless times in his heart "What should I do if I face the other me with three Egyptian Gods?"

Regardless of the apparent harmlessness of Yugi Muto, in fact, he may have simulated and rehearsed the scene of defeating the three Egyptian Gods a thousand times in his mind, and he was well aware of the weaknesses of these three gods.

Sure enough, it was just as Yugi Muto said. At the end of the round, the sun ushered in the time to go out. The immortal flames on the sacred body of the Winged Dragon gradually extinguished, and the phoenix turned into a beam of fire and prepared to fly back to the tomb area, but it crashed into the invisible realm of the dark hero.

Even though it was the highest Egyptian God, its aura faded after its playing time. It was helpless against the invincible "Masked HERO Dark Law" and could only obediently be exiled from this realm.

"That black Masked HERO actually has the power to defeat the God Phoenix!" Jonouchi exclaimed.

Yugi nodded: "Masked HERO Dark Law's ability is perfect against the phoenix that repeatedly resurrects from the graveyard. It seems that Yuei Vu has also studied ways to defeat the Egyptian God in private."

Sure enough, Yuei Vu-san and I are the same kind of people.

Yuei Vu didn't know what he was thinking.

But if he knew about it, Yuei Vu would definitely deny it

What? I am a passerby, how can I be compared with you, the big boss?

I'm not, I didn't, big boss, please stop talking

Another point must be clarified.

That is, my Dark Law did not aim at the phoenix.

In front of the Unfriend Hero, all decks that relied on the graveyard were trash.

Chapter 599: Summoning Clock

"My turn."

His trump card The Winged Dragon of Ra was directly kicked out of the game by Masked HERO Dark Law, but the ancient pharaoh still didn't seem to be surprised.

He only continued to raise his hand, and a new slab fell in front of him. He only glanced at it and immediately chose to activate it.

"Spell Card of Sanctity'." The slab turned over in front of him, and a beam of light rushed into the air, turning into six new slabs and falling in front of him.

Yuei Vu also drew six cards in his hand and waved his hand at the same time: "The subsequent effect of Masked HERO Dark Law'. Once per turn, if the opponent adds a card(s) from their Deck to their hand, except during the Draw Phase or the Damage Step: I can banish 1 random card from the opponent's hand!"

The five fingers of the Dark Law spread out and suddenly grabbed it from the air. Five jet-black scratches flew through the air, shooting straight toward a stone slab in the hand of the Pharaoh!

"Can he still banish the opponent's cards?" Jonouchi said, "This hero is so strong!"

But the pharaoh did not let this trick succeed. He stretched out his palm, and the stone slab in front of him quickly opened, and majestic power burst out from the stone slab instantly.

The dark hero who was about to attack was stunned when a small wine glass suddenly appeared in front of him. He hesitated for a while, but in the end, he couldn't resist the temptation of the wine. He picked up the cup and drank it all in one gulp although Yuei Vu didn't know how he delivered the wine through the black and hard armor into the mouth.

But in any case, Dark Law drank the fake wine, and the cup crashed to the ground. He staggered and lost his balance, and the dark realm suddenly collapsed.

Forbidden Chalice (Quick-Play Spell): Target 1 face-up monster on the field; until the end of this turn, that target gains 400 ATK, but its effects are negated.

[Masked HERO Dark Law, ATK 2400 ATK 2800]

"Use the spell again Pot of Avarice." The Nameless Pharaoh said, "The five stone slabs that sealed the monsters are returned from the cemetery, and then two new stone slabs will be obtained."

Pot of Avarice (Spell Card): Shuffle the five monsters in the graveyard back to the deck, and then draw two cards.

Five stone slabs that were about to be taken back quickly appeared in the sky above the Pharaoh's field. They were The Tricky, Watapon, Hanewata, Obelisk the Tormentor, and a "Dark Magician Girl" that was discarded by the effect of "Graceful Charity".

(Dark Magician Girl: The daily life of being discarded by Master.JPG)

The shadows of the five stone slabs dissipated and turned into a golden light that flew into the Pharaoh's shining golden gladiator plate. Then two more golden lights flew into the air, turning into stone slabs and falling down one on the left and the other on the right.

"Spell Pot of Greed'."

Pot of Greed after Pot of Avarice, it's truly the money-earning ability of a king.

"Summon Witch of the Black Forest'."

The Pharaoh spoke concisely, and the long-haired witch in black robes towered over him.

[Witch of the Black Forest, ATK 1100]

"Instant spell Magical Dimension, activated with the soul of the Witch of the Black Forest as a sacrifice!"

Magical Dimension: If you control a Spellcaster monster: Target 1 monster you control; Tribute that target, then Special Summon 1 Spellcaster monster from your hand, then you can destroy 1 monster on the field.

"The immortal legend in the magic world, the strongest servant of the Pharaoh." The Nameless Pharaoh raised his arm, "Dark Magician, summon!"

The magic circle of sacrifice opened on the ground, and black flames jumped along the edge of the magic circle. The robed witch flew into the magic circle, and the Dark Magician flew out of the surging magic whirlpool. His black boots fell to the ground, and his face was as hard as steel.

[Dark Magician, ATK 2500]

In addition, the subsequent effect of "Magical Dimension" could also destroy monsters on the opponent's field. A coffin made of alloy suddenly rose up from behind Liquid Soldier and covered him in the coffin without any explanation. The iron chains shrank, quickly binding the coffin tightly, and with a loud bang, the coffin and its occupants were blown to pieces.

"The ability of the Witch of the Black Forest' is activated." Pharaoh continued, "When she enters the cemetery from the field, she calls for new stone slabs to come."

Witch of the Black Forest: If this card is sent from the field to the GY: Add 1 monster with 1500 or less DEF from your Deck to your hand.

"Return to my hands again." Pharaoh said, "The monster I choose is, Watapon'."

"Watapon", which had just been shuffled back into the deck by "Pot of Greed" this turn, soon fell again along with the slab. Needless to say, this monster's ability was triggered again.

Watapon: If this card is added from your Deck to your hand by a card effect: You can Special Summon this card.

[Watapon, DEF 300]

It should be said that he was worthy of being a Pharaoh. He reorganized his lineup in an instant and quickly spread out the field.

Looking at the remaining slab in the hands of the starfish-headed Pharaoh, Yuei Vu couldn't help but have an ominous premonition.

The Winged Dragon of Ra has been removed from the game by Dark Law, but Obelisk has been shuffled back into the deck, and now could be drawn again. Not to mention that the Sky Dragon, which was also sleeping in the opponent's deck and had not yet appeared, may have been drawn to his hand.

Just now, Yugi mistakenly thought that "Masked HERO Dark Law" was a card specially printed by Yu Yu to target the Winged Dragon. Although this was not the case, since he had guessed in advance that the opponent might play the Three Egyptian Gods, of course, he would prepare countermeasures.

Although the animation effects of the Three Egyptian Gods were strong, their common feature was that they consumed a lot of card advantage. They must be summoned with three sacrifices, which also meant that the precious Normal Summon chance must be occupied.

Special Summon three sacrifices, and then use three sacrifices to Normal Summon the Egyptian God. From this general situation, it seemed that the Egyptian God's arrival required at least four summoning opportunities.

This was one of the breakthroughs Yuei Vu found.

"Open the set card!" Yuei Vu raised his hand, "Continuous Trap Summon Limit! As long as this trap exists on the field, neither player can Summon more than two times per turn!"

"Beautiful!" Yugi couldn't help but exclaim.

"Oh, Yuei Vu is really powerful! If there are only two summoning opportunities, the possibility of calling God is fundamentally blocked!" Jonouchi also said.

"Yeah." Yugi said, "I knew that Yuei Vu was not an ordinary duelist. He indeed had a strategy against the Egyptian God!"

At the same time, Yugi also kept a careful eye on it and silently made a note of this "Summon Limit" in his heart.

Because this was a method that he had not yet thought of in the thousands of simulations he had done so far to defeat the three Egyptian Gods.

At this time, seeing Yuei Vu used the effect of the Dark Law to eliminate the corpse bird that repeatedly jumped out of the grave, and used the Summon Limit to forcibly reduce the number of summons to prevent the arrival of the Egyptian God, Yugi Muto felt that his ideas had been greatly expanded.

It turns out that the Three Egyptian Gods can still be countered like this!

But would the nameless pharaoh be stopped like that?

The answer is, of course not.

"Instant spell Turn Jump."

The slab was opened, and the sealed magic power was released. A huge time wheel emerged in mid-air, the hands spinning like crazy.

Turn Jump (Quick-Play Spell): Each player passes their turn without playing for 3 of their turns. (Also, they cannot draw during the Draw Phase.) Resume play from the Battle Phase 6 turns after activation. (manga card)

As expected of the DM era, when OP cards were everywhere and banned cards were as common as dogs, it turned out such an unscientific thing could be picked it up casually. If you jumped to three turns later, the limitations of Summon Limit would naturally be reset, and the Pharaoh would gain two summons permissions again.

"There are two monsters on the opponent's field now," Jonouchi clenched his fists, "If he has two summoning opportunities, he can summon another Egyptian God."

But the facts once again proved that the king's duel was beyond the imagination of mortals.

Just when "Turn Jump" was activated and the effect had not yet taken effect, the Pharaoh waved his hand again.

The trap stone slab that had been covered last time immediately flipped over and stood in front of Yui Vu.

That trap was Summoning Clock!

Summoning Clock (Continuous Trap): Activate only when a Spell or Trap Card is activated on your opponent's side of the field. During each of your Standby Phases, increase this card's Turn Counters by 1. You can Tribute this card and 1 monster to Normal Summon a number of monsters from your hand equal to the number of Turn Counters. No Tributes are required for the monsters Summoned with this effect. (animation card)

It was the card used by Yami Yugi in the final battle of "Yu-Gi-Oh! DM".

Yes, the key to this trap was that the monster summoned by its effect was treated as being Normal Summoned.

In other words, including Egyptian Gods!

"Spell Turn Jump' makes time pass to the future three rounds later." Pharaoh said coldly, "Then the Summoning Clock' is activated. Because time and space have accelerated to three rounds later, I can call up to two new servants.

He raised his arms high, and the two stone slabs in front of him flew up. The stone slab flipped over, and two beams of light, one red and one blue, penetrated the sky!

"Advent!" The Pharaoh's voice suddenly rose, "Osiris the Sky Dragon! Obelisk the Tormentor! Summon at the same time!!!"

Chapter 600: Can You Still Print Another Card of Sanctity?

Dark clouds rolled up in the interior of the temple, and thunderstorms fell from the sky. The golden lightning cracked the floor and exploded the golden floor tiles. The steel-like red dragon flew down on the lightning and raised its head with an earth-shaking roar.

Osiris the Sky Dragon!

At the same time, a beam of light rose from the ground, as if a blue fountain broke through the floor tiles and broke through the ground, rushing high into the sky. The indomitable blue giant emerged from the ground like a mountain rising from the ground, sand, stone, and dust rolling down from his body, the spectacular scene was like a landslide.

Obelisk the Tormentor!

[Osiris the Sky Dragon, ATK 1000]

[Obelisk the Tormentor, ATK 4000]

The onlookers in the audience were dumbfounded.

"Are you kidding me?" Jonouchi said in shock, "Restricted to only two summoning opportunities by the Summon Limit', yet still be able to summon two gods in one turn!?"

Although they expected that Yami Yugi from three thousand years ago might be very powerful wasn't this too outrageous?

Everyone looked at the figure again an expressionless and resolute face, with a shining golden eye appearing on his forehead. The arrival of the Egyptian God stirred up a hurricane, his cloak undulated like ocean waves, and the Millennium Puzzle shone with brilliant light.

Just like an invincible god of war.

The Pharaoh gave the order to attack, which was like a clarion call to charge.

"Obelisk the Tormentor, attack Masked Hero Dark Law'."

[Masked HERO Dark Law, ATK 2800]

Although Dark Law was powerful, his ability was more focused on interfering with the opponent rather than fighting head-on. Even though his attack power was increased by 400 points by the "Forbidden Chalice", he was still far from being a match for the God of Destruction.

Obelisk raised his fist, and the waves of shattering by the divine fist came in a mighty way. The heavy punch shattered the armor on the hero's chest. His armor cracked and black metal debris flew everywhere.

[Yuei Vu, LP 2200 LP 1000]

"Osiris, attack!" The Pharaoh continued, "Super Conductive Wave Thunder Cannon!"

The sky dragon opened its mouth, targeting the remaining hero on Yuei Vu's field, the Disk Commander. The strong light of the superconducting wave surged and gathered in the dragon's mouth, ready to come out at any time.

The sky dragon's attack power was only 1000, but it was more than enough to destroy the Disk Commander acting as a wall. Then there was a Dark Magician on the Pharaoh's field who had not attacked, and Yuei Vu only had 1000 LP left. The magician's blow would directly seal his defeat.

In just a blink of an eye, he has reached the critical moment of life and death again!

"Yuei Vu!" Yugi Muto called out worriedly.

Yuei Vu's eyes narrowed like a cat's eyes when exposed to bright light.

While Pharaoh's "Turn Jump" just paved the way for his "Summoning Clock", it also triggered the conditions for the activation of the trap on his side!

"Open the set card!" Yuei Vu waved his hand, "Continuous Trap Ground Erosion!" (Animation Card)

Pharaoh said coldly: "Traps won't work on God."

"No, this trap will." Yuei Vu shouted, "Send this trap card to the graveyard to select 1 of the opponent's Monster Card Zones. The monster in the selected Monster Card Zone has its special effects sealed away!"

The ground softened like soft soil washed away by heavy rain all night long. The sky dragon's huge body suddenly sank in. It shook its head at the giant god soldier and screamed as if it was shouting Brother, save me!

But Obelisk he just stood on the side as if it had nothing to do with him as if he didn't see it.

[Osiris the Sky Dragon, ATK 1000 ATK 0]

"Huh? Aren't trap cards useless against gods?" Honda, a layman, expressed doubts again.

So the trap master Yugi Muto patiently explained to his friends: "The target of the Ground Erosion' is the Monster Card Zone on the field, not the god, and the effect of any monster in that zone will be negated.

This card is equivalent to using the card's effect to change the rules in the Monster Card Zone. It is not the trap card itself that negates the Egyptian God effect, but the new rules that apply to the Monster Card Zone, so it is effective on gods. "

Ground Erosion was originally a trap card used by Yugi Muto to deal with the three Egyptian Gods in the final battle of the DM animation.

Originally, Yuei Vu planned to save this trap to seal Obelisk's ability whether the opponent used "Hyper God Energy" to make Obelisk's attack power become infinite, or "Soul Energy MAX" to directly destroy all monsters and give 4000 points of damage, it could be resisted with this trap.

But unexpectedly, the Pharaoh did not choose to use the ability of Obelisk but directly chose to attack. So in order to save his life, he could only use this trap against the sky dragon.

In the ending chapter of the animation, many people think that the use of this "Ground Erosion" to negate the god's effect was a BISS, but in fact, it was not, because the description of the effect of this card in the animation actually makes sense.

The Egyptian God was only immune to "card effects", not to the effects of rules.

However, when he saw Yuei Vu reveal this trap, Yugi Muto felt secretly stirred up in his heart.

Because this trap happened to be the card that he had imagined could be used to deal with the Egyptian God!

As expected, the strongest duelists have something in common regarding card selection and tactical understanding.

Now Yugi Muto believed more and more in his heart that Yuei Vu, like himself, had a mature strategy against the Three Egyptian Gods, and there was even a faint sense of resonance in his heart when he met a duelist of the same type and style.

However, he didn't know that it was none other than him who taught Yuei Vu how to use "Ground Erosion" to seal the power of the Egyptian God

The poor Sky Dragon's effect was sealed, and it was even defeated against the Disk Commander whose DEF was only 300. The Disk Commander threw back two Frisbees with his backhand, and hit the sky dragon's head twice, causing a terrifying amount of damage up to 300 points.

Disk Commander: The Peak of Life. JPG.

The Nameless Pharaoh, LP 2000 LP 1700

"Then the attack of the Dark Magician." He was not angry at all. "Attack Disk Commander again! Black Magic Attack!"

The magician's staff danced, and the torrent of black magic destroyed the Disk Commander from the front. The poor Destiny HERO briefly reached the peak of his life and then exited in a hurry as usual.

But in this way, Yuei Vu managed to withstand Pharaoh's fierce offensive this round. To be honest, the audience in the audience felt sweating for Yuei Vu.

Once again, Jonouchi couldn't help but feel that if he were himself, it would be absolutely difficult for him to withstand the opponent's successive fierce attacks-just kidding.

The Egyptian God is jumping out for free, who can stand this?

He couldn't even help but feel that Yuei Vu, who could stand on this duel field and still fight back with ease, was an out-and-out monster too!

Yuei Vu let out a sigh of relief.

Blocking such a series of fierce attacks in succession put a lot of pressure on him, not to mention the desperate pressure of facing two Egyptian Gods at the same time.

His eyes fell on the last remaining stone slab in front of the Pharaoh.

But in this way, on the Pharaoh's hand if it could be called a hand, there was only the last one left. This meant that the other party's available resources were almost exhausted.

Of course, Yuei Vu said that he has seen more than one case like that, and an experienced card player like himself would definitely not make some weird flags, such as "Can you still print another Card of Sanctity to refill resources?" or something like that

Can you still print another Card of Sanctity to refill resources?

The Pharaoh: If you dont want me to print it, I wont print it. Who cares?

"The spell Monster Recovery'." The Pharaoh calmly showed the last slab.

Yuei Vu: ""

Fuck me!

Needless to say, all the card effects that forced the monster to leave the field were invalid against the gods, so the Egyptian Gods on the Pharaoh's field didn't need to be shuffled back, only "Dark Magician" would return to the deck.

Forget about the Giant God Soldier, what surprised Yuei Vu was that the sky dragon whose effect was nullified was not shuffled back into the deck. It seems that even if the special effect is nullified, its resistance as a god is still there.

Yuei Vu thought for a while and probably figured out the reason.

In the original animation, there were card shots of the three Egyptian Gods. The monster effects above did not clearly state that "the Egyptian Gods are not affected by trap effects, and magic cards are effective for one turn."

According to the original work, the Egyptian God's resistance to card effects belongs to the innate power, which was equivalent to a law rather than a monster effect and could not be negated in any case.

To explain it with the real card rules that players were more familiar with, it means that Gods effect resistance belongs to extra-rule text and could not be negated with cards that negated monster effects.

But even so, the attack power of the Sky Dragon left on the field was only 0, and the ability to call "Summon Thunder Bullet" was also sealed, which made it seem useless and become a shortcoming.

"Place two stone slabs on the field." The Pharaoh said, "This round is over."
